

IN A MODEL DAIRY

MACMULLIN'S ESTABLISHMENT ON SYCAMORE IS SANITARY AND UP-TO-DATE

Application of method and organization to the dairy business has brought the MacMullin Sanitary Dairy on Sycamore avenue, West Glendale, to the very front of that branch of industry in Glendale. Mr. MacMullin, the manager, applies system to every part of this large establishment, with the result that the whole establishment works without friction and with the maximum of profit.

Out in the dry corral the contented cows are to be seen taking their ease. Their marked characteristic is peace and confidence. They have the air of animals that are well treated and are satisfied with their lot. The great dry yard is traversed with little ruts that carry off the rain water and leave the yard always dry. In another corral may be seen the cows that are about to become mothers also quietly ruminating and looking up with perfect confidence, even at strangers—a sure token that they are well treated.

Mr. MacMullin has also a series of wards where the animals are kept at different stages of their existence. Here is the nursery where the young calves are kept. Here is a small apartment where calves of two weeks are kept; another where calves of 3 weeks; another where calves of from 4 to 6 weeks are kept, by that time they are strong enough to take care of themselves and to secure their share of the milk. In yet another compartment are the calves which are learning to eat hay. This Mr. MacMullin calls the "kindergarten." From 10 to 12 calves are sent up every 90 days to the Antelope, where they are converted into beef cattle.

Everywhere cleanliness is the note of the dairy. The cement floors and stanchions of the stalls, the feeding troughs and all other parts of the indoors section if that may be called indoors which is open to the air, are as clean as a new pin—"cleaner," says Mr. MacMullin, "than many a kitchen." When the cows are turned out of their feeding barn the cement troughs, stanchions and floors are flushed with water and completely cleansed.

The large open barn where the alfalfa hay is stored is open to the air. There are no flies about these buildings. The cows are fed dry hay and also a mash in which molasses and beet pulp are ingredients.

The cows in this mild California climate live chiefly outdoors and are fed inside. The whole of the big corral is carefully scraped once a week and the dairy does a large business in the selling of fertilizer. Fifty-six cows constitute the herd. One bull is kept. This is a fine pedigree animal bred from the State Whittier Bull.

In the dairy proper where the milk is taken care of there is to be found every modern appliance for the care of milk in a sanitary manner. The cement floors here are scrupulously clean. The milk is reduced in temperature by a modern cooler. An electric motor runs the separator, the churn and the rotary bottle brush, which cleans both inside and outside of the bottle at once. The bottles are soaked in hot water and steam cleaned also. This plant is capable of cleaning 2000 bottles every hour. In like manner the large milk cans and pans are thoroughly cleansed and then set out under the sunlight to be still further purified.

Fourteen horses are kept for the 8 routes and the milk is delivered carefully and in good shape, not requiring pasteurizing. The establishment has been eight years in growing to its present condition. During that time improved methods have been constantly introduced until Mrs. MacMullin, the proprietor, has an establishment of which she may well be proud and of which Mr. MacMullin, the manager, is justly pleased.

The staff consists of 12 men, among whom is a bookkeeper, who has "no sinecure" as Mr. MacMullin says. Business is always rushing at the dairy and there are calls day and night. Each man has his own sleeping cabin and there is a general dining room, thoroughly ventilated and clean and sweet like every other part of the establishment. The kitchen also partakes of the general air of cleanliness.

At the foot of the ranch, toward the north, is a row of pig pens, where a number of pigs of various ages are kept. There are 10 broods here and they all thrive on the abundant supply on the abundant supply of sour milk that comes from the dairy. The dairy is always up to inspection mark and ranks in the highest grade.

"HOPE OF THE CHURCH"

THE REV. W. E. EDMONDS LECTURES ON SECOND COMING OF CHRIST

"The Blessed Hope of the Church" was the theme of Monday night's study by Rev. W. E. Edmonds at the Presbyterian church. "Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up unto heaven? This same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven," is the foundation of all the studies of this class.

This is the note of joy for the church. Calvary is the place of death, sad indeed would be our state if we always tarried there. The tomb is also a place of sadness, but it is to Mt. Olivet that we go to see Jesus; to lift up our eyes to see a risen Lord; to get the forward look that makes our joy.

All our lives are to be lived looking forward to his coming. Whatever gifts we may possess are to be used for the Lord until he comes. Many phases of truth we cannot understand until he comes. Faith awaits his coming for its perfection, while it battles through this age.

Creation groans in bondage awaiting his appearing; he alone can bring in a redeemed world. The only safety of the church is abiding in Jesus Christ until he shall come to give glorified bodies to both the dead and the living.

At no place in the Bible are we taught that death is the coming again of our blessed Lord and Master. His coming is to be real, corporeal, local and personal. "Wherefore comfort one another with these words." The key of all the ages is Jesus Christ, born king of the Jews, who came to the cross; from the cross ascended to the Father and then sent the Holy Spirit to be our Guide, our Comforter and our convincer. He came as cloven tongues of fire on the day of Pentecost, ushering the church period, which will not continue always, but must have an end as all ages have ended.

This church is the mystical body of Christ of which he is the head. The Gentiles, who were aliens, are brought in to be fellow heirs and partakers of his promises. Christ the head and his body the church are in perfect harmony, while awaiting his coming.

The church looks forward with joy to the time of his advent, when the righteous dead shall have their bodies called forth from the grave, the living shall be caught up with them to meet the Lord in the air, and so forever be with him. The church should be clothed in garments washed white in his blood, without spot or wrinkle, as she, his body, awaits his coming to take her to be forever with him.

LUTHERAN LADIES' SOCIETY

Mrs. Dysinger, wife of the pastor of the First Lutheran church of Los Angeles, who was at one time a great worker among the women of the eastern states, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Glendale First Lutheran Church Ladies' society, which will be held Wednesday at 2:30 p. m., at the home of the Rev. R. Warren Mottern, 340 Central avenue. Mrs. Dysinger will speak on "Work Among the Women of the Eastern States." All ladies of the church are urged to attend, as this will be a most interesting address.

LADIES' AID OF M. E. CHURCH

A special meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist Episcopal church will be held in the Social hall of the church Wednesday, at 2:30 p. m. Very important business relating to the proposed new church building will be brought before the meeting. A large attendance is requested.

ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Tomorrow, Wednesday, March 15, there will be Holy Communion at 9:30 a. m. The Woman's Guild meets with Mrs. Howland, 1152 Hobart Ave., Los Angeles, for an all-day session. Basket lunch. Mrs. J. S. Hayward will hold an "Afternoon Tea" at her home, 1528 W. First street, from 3 to 5 p. m. Ladies of the church and congregation are cordially invited. Silver offering for benefit of church.

On Friday the Woman's Auxiliary will meet at the residence of Mrs. Eley, 1210 Lomita avenue. On Friday at 3:30 there will be evening prayer and meditation in the church.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Wednesday; westerly winds.

TO RECRUIT ARMY TO WAR STRENGTH

ADMINISTRATION WILL ASK FOR AUTHORITY TO INCREASE REGULARS TO FULL NUMBER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 14.—In order to raise 8000 more soldiers for the Mexican expedition, the administration intends to ask congress for authority to recruit the regular army to its full war strength of 100,000. There is some opposition to this; but the request if sent to congress would be complied with by an overwhelming majority.

GEN. PERSHING ORGANIZES AMERICAN FORCE

TROOPS FOR PURSUIT OF VILLA ARE BEING ASSEMBLED—STRICT CENSORSHIP INSTITUTED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
COLUMBUS, N. M., March 14.—Gen. Pershing is in charge of the organization of the forces that are to enter Mexico in pursuit of Villa and his bandits. The first news that will filter out will be that the troops are well on their way. Gen. Funston and Gen. Pershing and all the U. S. authorities realize the danger of having their movements telegraphed back to Mexico by the Villa band. A strict censorship of all telegraphic dispatches has been instituted. Letters also will be censored.

FUNSTON IS GETTING READY THOROUGHLY

MOBILIZATION OF U. S. TROOPS GOES ON CONTINUOUSLY ON MEXICAN BORDER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 14.—Gen. Funston denied today that any American troops had crossed the frontier as yet. The general said that when everything was ready a start would be made; but that as the whole country through which the Americans would have to pass had been stripped of everything in the way of food and necessities by the armies that had fought over that district, it would be necessary to carry everything along for the subsistence of the army and also to make thorough preparation for the guarding of the lines of communication.

CARRANZISTAS ARE SURROUNDING VILLA

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT FORCES ARE GRADUALLY CLOSING IN ON BANDIT CHIEF AND HIS MEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
EL PASO, Texas, March 14.—Gen. Gutierrez announced today that the Carranzista forces were gradually surrounding Villa and his bandit forces in the Galena district. The pursuit is being pressed and it is hoped to capture the freebooter before the American forces enter Mexico. Villa, however, is in the country which he made his retreat in his early days and out of which it was found impossible to hunt him. The task is likely to prove quite difficult.

ITALIANS SINK AUSTRIAN WAR VESSELS

ELEVEN-HOUR NAVAL ENCOUNTER BETWEEN AUSTRIAN AND ITALIAN FLEETS RESULTS IN LOSS OF TWO BOATS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
ROME, Italy, March 14.—An eleven-hour naval battle off the port of Durazzo took place this morning. In the course of the encounter the Austrian vessels were badly damaged and the two gunboats, Lika and Triglov, were sunk.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS TO BE READY

HEAD OF MILITARY ORGANIZATION ISSUES ORDER FOR ENUMERATION OF THOSE AVAILABLE FOR WAR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 14.—Congressman Dyer, commander of the National Society of Spanish War veterans, today ordered all State commanders to send in the number of men who would be prepared to answer the call of the president were serious fighting to follow the present troubles.

MEXICAN DANGER HAS PASSED AWAY

GEN. CARRANZA SHOWS DESIRE TO CO-OPERATE WITH THE UNITED STATES IN PURSUIT OF VILLA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
MEXICO CITY, March 14.—All danger of a break between Mexico and the United States has passed away, according to all indications. The last possibility of resentment on the part of Carranza of the United States' determination to send an army into Mexico, has been dissipated by the fact that President Wilson has consented to the crossing of the American border by Mexican troops in pursuit of Villa. Reports that the United States is to have trouble with Carranza are keenly deprecated by President Wilson.

NEW P. E. O. CHAPTER

"L" CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY BY PROMOTING A NEW ORGANIZATION

Last Saturday in the beautiful, spacious new home of Mrs. A. W. Tower, 743 Adams street, occurred one of the happiest occasions possible for the P. E. O. sisterhood in this growing city. That date was the anniversary of the organization of Chapter L, P. E. O. in Glendale and the members very appropriately observed the day by serving as hostess for a most auspicious event—the organization of a second Chapter to be known as Chapter B. A. California.

Promoted by Mesdames Goss and Burket, Chapter L was organized eleven years ago on the 11th of March, when the population of Glendale was about 1100, and adhering to the restricting rules of the sisterhood has made a steady but conservative growth, until the membership is as large as can be entertained in the most commodious homes.

As Chapter L wished to invite others to become members and also to provide a P. E. O. home for four members recently moved to Glendale from other states the happy idea was conceived of forming a second P. E. O. circle, the occasion to be a birthday party for L, the "Mother" Chapter.

A committee from L composed of Mesdames Tower, Burket, Campbell, Hunchberger and Lee made all necessary arrangements, keeping the number within the restricted limit for a charter list and the following ten women were recommended to State Organizer Mrs. Garvin: Mesdames Freeman McG. Kelley, Mrs. C. B. Wilde, Mrs. Frank N. Arnold, Mrs. Harry H. Parker, Mrs. A. M. Parker, Mrs. E. H. Willisford, Mrs. Walter N. Stamps, Mrs. Claude Case, Mrs. A. L. Weaver, and Miss Leta McCoy. The four members coming by limit into the new Chapter were Mrs. Eva Cunningham from Oregon, Miss Maude Cunningham from Nebraska, Mrs. Wade Gray from Idaho and Mrs. F. W. Kille from Missouri.

The most efficient and popular state organizer, Mrs. Marion Garvin, was ably assisted in initiatory work by retiring officers of Chapter L, Mesdames Tower, Campbell, Pulliam, Roberts, Dickman, Pirtle, Hunchberger, Byram and Temple with Miss Dorothy Lee as pianist. Mrs. Hulda Miller, who organized L and is a Past State president, served as Recording Secretary for the day. State president Mrs. Martha Smith, vice-president Mrs. Laura Joyce and corresponding secretary Mrs. Lena Miller were guests of honor and extended greetings from State Chapter to new members composing the fiftieth chapter of the P. E. O. in California.

All guests present congratulated the infant organization upon having Chapter L as a parent, with a heart full of Faith in, and Love for each new member, ever ready to extend a helping hand, give words of counsel and to share in their joys and sorrows as only a mother can feel for a promising child.

The new chapter is most favored in being organized by Mrs. Garvin, who so carefully instructs in the duties of officers and the details of chapter work.

Mrs. Eva Cunningham was the unanimous choice for president and as first delegate to State convention in Pomona and Mrs. Willisford was choice of all for second delegate.

During an intermission in the work of organization, Chapter L served a dainty, delicious two-course luncheon to the ladies assembled for the three-fold occasion of launching a new Chapter, a birthday party for Chapter L and a "housewarming" for Mrs. Tower's new home, where spaciousness of rooms indicate the hospitality of the owners.

"Mother" L's eldest daughter is Chapter A. H., Tropico, represented by Mrs. E. M. Lynch, who with their younger sister Chapter B. A. will in future years "rise up and call her blessed."

Since the P. E. O. sisterhood is an order independent of all gentlemen's organizations we may interpret the meaning of these mystic letters to be "Petticoats Enter Only;" their manner of selecting members suggests it is a "Peculiarly Exclusive Order;" their perseverance in mutual helpfulness a "Press Ever Onward" circle. The B. I. L.'s (husbands) who are ever left guessing the import of the letters P. E. O. concede that if their wives who are members, "Pursue Every Opportunity" and "Press Ever Onward" until they "Practically Eliminate Opposition" that the P. E. O. society may become a "Perfectly Elegant Order" and the members, "Perfect,—Except Occasionally."

SOCIETY MENTIONS

SURPRISE PARTY—MRS. ROBERTS HOSTESS—MASK DANCE

One of those pleasant surprise parties which suddenly reveal to some unselfish and loving soul the esteem and love in which they are held by their friends, was tendered Mrs. W. Gorman, 426 S. Louise St., Monday evening, at her home. The party was in celebration of Mrs. Gorman's 50th birthday and was arranged by her neighbor, Mrs. Riley Lyons, 428 S. Louise.

Mrs. Gorman had gone out to attend the Presbyterian church class and on her return found her home in total darkness, which was rapidly dispelled when the door was opened. As Mrs. Gorman entered all the lights were thrown on and her emotion was inexpressible as she found the preparations that had been made for her reception.

The house was full of guests; large bouquets of carnations, daffodils, cornflowers, roses and lilacs adorned every room in great and tasteful profusion. All Mrs. Gorman's friends had contributed to this lovely floral display. Many valuable gifts of silver articles and a large number of useful presents were given Mrs. Gorman in remembrance of the occasion.

Covers were laid for 24 guests and a delicious repast of meats, cakes, fruit and other dainties was provided.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lovell, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Lyons and their family. All the children of the circle were there, including the grandchildren. Congratulations from far and near arrived all day. Mrs. Gorman was greatly pleased with this demonstration, which is the first of its kind ever tendered her. She received many expressions of good wishes and of the hope that she might live for many years to come. A pleasant evening was spent with music and singing.

MRS. ROBERTS TO BE HOSTESS

One of the delightful social events of the week will be the matinee party with which Mrs. Warren Roberts of 707 West Seventh street will entertain at the Orpheum, Wednesday afternoon. The ladies whom Mrs. Roberts will include as her guests will be Mrs. A. W. Tower, Mrs. Lawrence Ellis, Mrs. John D. Hunchberger, Mrs. A. L. Weaver, Mrs. Freeman Kelly, Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mrs. Ben F. Logan, Mrs. Henry F. Goodwin, Mrs. Albert D. Pearce, Mrs. Claude O. Pulliam, Mrs. R. M. Jackson, Mrs. Walter N. Stamps and Mrs. Charles H. Temple.

COSTUME MASK DANCE

Seventy-five couples enjoyed a good time and a pleasant series of dances at Butler's hall, Saturday night, under the auspices of Saturday night dance management. Many picturesque and many amusing costumes were seen on the floor. The first prize for men's costume was awarded to Leslie Patch, who was attired as a "rube." Gladys Mason won the first prize for female costume. She was dressed in a costume cleverly trimmed with newspaper clippings. Mr. Bert Anderson deserves credit for the excellent management of these dances. Next Saturday night prizes will be given to lucky dancers.

SHORTEN ROAD TO GLENDALE

Glendale citizens, representing the Glendale Boulevard association, were assured Monday, by the city council finance committee, that the next budget would carry a provision for the proposed bridge over the Los Angeles river at Ivanhoe, to connect with Brand boulevard. The committee which waited on the council's finance committee consisted of the members of the Chamber of Commerce committee appointed some time ago to investigate this matter and take such action as might be necessary. The committee consists of Leigh Bancroft, Charles H. Toll, Charles L. Chandler, Mattison B. Jones, Stephen C. Packer and S. P. Velich.

The finance committee would make no definite promise as to the amount of money that would be appropriated; but it was stated that any money left in the city's general fund at the close of the fiscal year would be available for the bridge. The bridge would greatly shorten the road between Glendale and Los Angeles.

The buy at home edition of the Evening News will be published the latter part of this week.

TROUBLE WITH MEXICO

It is not to be any easy task either to capture Villa or to enter Mexican territory in search of that bandit. The folly of those who think that this country should make no adequate preparations for defense or for such emergencies as the present is clearly seen in this affair with the southern republic. It is needless to rehearse the history of the past three years during which fully 1000 Americans are said to have been slaughtered in Mexico without any attempt on the part of the United States to protect them.

This policy of peace-at-any-price instead of preventing trouble has bred more trouble than this country has had within the past ten years and has so discredited the United States in the eyes of the Mexicans that Villa had no difficulty in getting together a band to make the raid on Columbus, N. M. This is a practical example of what may be expected from outside nations should the peace-at-any-price policy continue.

This Columbus story has been cabled to Europe and has added still further to the misconception of the American national character that has been engendered by the do-nothing policy which has prevailed in Washington for the past three years. The European papers are full of this latest insult and the fact that nothing has been done as yet to prevent such raids in the future and to punish the perpetrators of the present insult.

It is needless to say that the task of undoing all that has been done to create this feeling in Mexico and throughout the world is not any light task and is likely to cost more in bloodshed than any firmness taken with Mexico and with Europe in the beginning would have incurred. Readers of the Bible might do well to ponder the account in the Acts of how the naturalized captain of the Roman garrison in Jerusalem trembled and feared when Paul asked him, "Is it lawful to scourge a man who is a Roman?" To lay hands on a Roman citizen at that time meant death so much had Rome made its citizenship respected throughout the whole world. "With a great sum purchased I this freedom," said the discomfited naturalized captain. "Yes," said Paul, "but I was freeborn." Paul prided himself on his Roman citizenship, and Rome protected him.

That is how Britain and Germany at the present day protect their citizens all over the world. If a nation is so fallen into disrespect that none is so poor as to do her reverence it is time that the nation looked to her ways. There is undoubtedly a strong wave of real American feeling in the land that is certain to overwhelm the false sentiment that to avoid trouble permits the destruction of American life and property and worse than all continues that policy until the raider enters its very borders and murders its citizens, men, women and children within sight and hearing of its garrison.

There now faces the country a task doubly difficult to what faced it when the troops were withdrawn from Vera Cruz and the warships withdrawn also. That withdrawal was taken as a sign of fear by the Mexicans and it is quite safe, unfortunately, to say that much blood will be shed of both Americans and Mexicans before that impression is removed.

NEW SECRETARY OF WAR

Newton Diehl Baker, the new secretary of war got into office just in time to be in at the opening of the Villa fighting of which no one can predict the end. If he loves fighting as he is said to do, he is likely to get all the amusement he may desire out of the present situation. Baker is a little man, thin enough to make a poor mark for a bullet. He is a West Virginian, 46 years of age. He was mayor of Cleveland, Ohio for two terms and refused a third.

One of his Cleveland friends said of him the other day: "Baker has had a pyrotechnic career. He laved it to get his start; jawed it to make the people know him; sawed wood when he had a real job and thawed out when he became mayor of Cleveland." He has a great reputation as a speaker; not so much an orator as a user of susquipedalian words. A veritable torrent of verbiage froths from his lanky jaws when he begins to answer an opponent. His mouth is large; his face colorless and his sympathy warm. He is about 135 pounds weight. He has a clear, analytical mind, which works like lightning.

If given a chance this social reformer will endeavor to make a quick clean-up of Villa. He was a lawyer and became first assistant city solicitor, January, 1903. Elected solicitor three times he afterwards became mayor of the city and refused to take a third term preferring to study law.

Baker is a persevering individual. He fought for the people in the long traction war that resulted in three-cent fares for Cleveland. He also won a strenuous fight for complete home rule in large Ohio cities. He worked successfully for the reduction of the price of municipal light and obtained three-cent light for many consumers.

The new secretary is a student of literature and loves to handle all manner of 75-centimeter language whereby to overwhelm his more lightly equipped opponents. If he only knew Spanish as well as he knows a certain kind of English the world might behold the unique spectacle of Villa taking to the remote hills of the Yaqui country to escape the deluge of potent speech.

Baker may be trusted to handle the Mexican situation with promptitude and firmness if not handicapped by Wilson or others. He believes in fighting for peace if necessary.

WHAT A NEWCOMER SEES

EDITOR GLENDALE EVENING NEWS: As a newcomer, I find in talking with other newcomers, a few drawbacks which tend to discourage us from locating here permanently.

First, of course! The greatest is lack of protection from the wash of the mountains. Who wants to buy a home liable to be flooded each year?

Second—Our inability to purchase supplies in different lines, for use in the homes; many would prefer to buy at home—if the goods were to be had—but the merchants must advertise or how will we know what they have to sell.

Third—The confusion arising from such an extraordinary manner of numbering the streets. Why not start from Brand and Broadway as a center and number out as other towns do. It is surely most confusing to newcomers. I inclose a good clipping for your merchants.—From one of the newcomers who would like to become a permanent resident.

The political coward is a foul smell in the economic barn-yard.

MARGUERITE CLARK

Marguerite Clark in the "Prince and the Pauper," Friday, March 24, has been selected as the Benefit night for the Glendale Garden Society. The money obtained will be used as cash prizes to be awarded the juvenile exhibitors at the Free Flower Show. This is a particularly pleasing way of helping the Flower Show along, because the money is expended for one's own personal gratification, yet the Flower Show will benefit thereby. So everybody remember the date, March 24, and let us have crowded houses. To the child selling the most tickets, $1 in cash will be given. Seventy-five cents will be given to the child selling the next highest number of tickets. Tickets for sale can be obtained from Headquarters, 1111 W. Broadway; Mrs. J. H. Gervais, 1212 Chestnut street; Mrs. J. H. Seaman, 112 N. Central avenue, Tropicco; Miss Lucille Negley, 1641 Stocker street; Central Market, 328 S. Brand.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Rev. W. E. Edmonds of the First Presbyterian church, is meeting with great success in his Monday evening class. The subject of study is "The Second Coming." At each session the attendance increases. A cordial welcome awaits all who will come.

The People's Bible Class will meet in the auditorium of the church Thursday evening at 7:45. Two hundred were in attendance last week and others are enrolling. The subject of study is "The Epistle of Paul to the Romans." Dr. Pratt is a most practical and efficient teacher. The public is invited.

REHEARSING "BEN HUR"

Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan, whose success in dramatizing various literary productions is well known to the Glendale public, is busy at present superintending the dress rehearsals of "Ben Hur," a spectacular pantomime presentation of that wonderful story of the days of Christ. The dress rehearsals are being held every day this week at the Palace Grand theater. Those who have had the privilege of seeing the rehearsals realize that when all this difficult and careful work of preparation has been finished the public will be presented with a spectacle of great beauty and thrilling power. The presentation will take place Thursday and Friday, March 30 and 31.

Two hundred and fifty children will take part in this wonderful spectacle. In the ballet in the great scene in "The Grove of Daphne" 100 children between the ages of 5 and 12 will be seen in their entrancing symbolical dances. The children are receiving the utmost attention and are being trained individually. They now show the results of this efficient training. They move gracefully and act without self-consciousness. The rehearsals give evidence of the wonderful aptitude which Mrs. Sloan, the talented organizer and adapter of this charming story, has for training young people. The drama of "Ben Hur" is evolved in a series of striking pictures. In the scene at the gate of Joppa no fewer than 40 principals are presented. In this scene Miss Dorothy Bonnell appears as the Madonna. Miss Bonnell is the fortunate possessor of a wealth of beautiful hair and answers the description of the madonna given in the novel, where her hair is described as falling in a cloud of silken loveliness down to her feet.

In the scene of the Angel and the Shepherds, the incidental music from the Messiah is to be sung by a choir from one of the Glendale churches. These are only a few of the striking scenes in this great presentation, which should command one of the largest audiences ever seen in Glendale.

PROFITABLE CROP ROTATION

The most profitable crop rotation does not consist merely in changing the crops around from year to year, regardless of the relation of the crops to each other. The central aim in all crop-rotation systems should be to leave each field in a better state of cultivation, better physical condition, and reasonably free from pests at the end of each rotation cycle.

No hard and fast rotation system can be laid down for any community, but the most profitable system must be worked out for each farm and, indeed, for each field. There are certain general principles, however, that should be borne in mind in this connection in order to accomplish the most satisfactory results. For soil improvement there should be at least one leguminous crop in each rotation cycle. To this class of plants belong the clovers, alfalfa, peas, beans, etc. There should be also a sufficient quantity of live stock, especially milch cows, on each farm to utilize the roughage and to supply the desired quantity of stable manure, which, in addition to green crops plowed under, will furnish the necessary amount of humus to the soil. The conditions resulting from this treatment, if the soil is properly handled, will make the succeeding crops more vigorous and capable of offsetting, in some measure at least, the effects of any pests that may appear. Again, the successive crops in any rotation should be so selected and arranged that no two upon which the same pest may thrive will be grown in succession. The principles of disease control by means of crop rotation are based upon

Personals

Mrs. I. J. Phillips of West Fifth street is slowly recovering from a recent illness.

Miss Birdie Shropshire will entertain the X. V. I. club at her home, 445 Everett street, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Ella W. Richardson of 805 South Central avenue, who left for San Jose and Palo Alto the latter part of last week, has decided to continue her visit a week longer at least.

Dr. Jessie A. Russell of 343 N. Maryland will be the principal speaker at the Tropic Thursday club, Thursday afternoon. Dr. Russell will take as her subject, "Proposed Legislation of Interest to Women."

Dr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Webb, 1410 Lomita avenue, had as dinner guests Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Christiaan Timmer and their little daughter, Elsa; also Mrs. Dora L. Gibson, Mrs. R. G. Payne and Miss Frances Payne.

Mrs. Mary Larke of Green Lake, who has been spending the winter at Long Beach, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atkinson of Milford street. Mrs. Larke is so charmed with Glendale and vicinity that she will extend her visit for several weeks.

Mrs. Minnie M. Kinnaman, 240 So. Louise street, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. E. A. Bowers, and Master Walter E. Kinnaman, are planning to make an extended visit East, in the near future. The family will visit relatives and friends in their old home in Chicago and adjacent towns while away.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Appenfelder of West Seventh street, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Oberhue of Los Angeles, motored to Topanga Canyon Sunday, where the day was spent most delightfully. A delicious picnic lunch was enjoyed in the cool of the canyon and bathing was later enjoyed in the surf.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt, Mrs. Eldo Hunt and son Mason Hunt of Harvard, Illinois, who were the over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Peckham of North Central avenue, will entertain at El Moreva, Pasadena, Wednesday, when their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Peckham and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ellias of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Weston of Tropic.

BABY GIRL BORN

There was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Hunter, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Lawson, Mrs. Hunter's mother, 1427 W. Seventh street, Sunday, March 11, a baby girl. Mrs. Hunter was formerly Mae Lawson.

GLENDALE SHAKESPEARE CLUB

There will be no meeting of the Shakespeare club Wednesday. Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan, the president and teacher of the club, is indisposed and will not be able to preside and teach. Mrs. Sloan's numerous activities are somewhat exhausting and her friends hope that she will not overtask herself as she is so apt to do.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY

A very delightful party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McPherson, 1516 Pioneer Drive, by the young people of the B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church, Saturday evening, March 11. Progressive games, music, etc., furnished a very happy evening for the thirty or more who participated in this delightful occasion. A delicious luncheon was served and everyone reported a fine time.

FINE MILLINERY DISPLAY

This is the lenten season, the prelude to Easter, and while it is the proper thing for ladies to be modest and quiet in their headgear, as in everything else, during the days of fasting and self-denial, there is much preparation in the millinery stores for the coming joyful days when everybody will blossom forth in the floral and other beauties of Easter bonnets. Mrs. Anna L. Smith, whose millinery store, 1024 W. Broadway, is just now the Mecca of those who desire good taste, quiet effects and yet up-to-date styles, in their headgear, recently opened the season with a fine display of the new shapes for spring.

The opening of the new season finds Mrs. Smith as busy as she can be. Her strong point is the individualistic creation. She studies her clients and modifies and manipulates colors, ornaments and trimming to suit each case. Here you can find every style of hat from the trim military helmet to the broad brimmed picture hat; hats with solid rose crowns, and charming creations in straw, lace and ivy leaves. Expensive hats and hats at moderate prices; in fact, everything to suit every manner of customer.

A young man had a tender passion and took his girl a bunch of violets. They are beautiful," said the maiden. "And they are so fresh. I think there is some dew on them yet." The young man blushed. "Yes," said he, "there is; but I am going to pay it tomorrow."

TROPICO

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Farrar, who have resided on Moore avenue for several years, are leaving for Michigan, where they will take up their residence on their farm, which is located near Flint, Mich. Mrs. Farrar is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hallick, and a former active member of the Tropic Thursday club.

Through the C. H. Henry real estate agency, a twenty acre tract of land, located between Lankershim and Roscoe, has been sold for $14,000. Twelve acres is in alfalfa. The ranch is well improved with good house and well stocked. Over 130 hogs were also considered in the deal, emphasizing the fact that that territory, which heretofore was simply desert producing nothing but cactus and jack rabbits can produce abundant crops of alfalfa and large droves of fat hogs.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Tropic library board, held Monday evening, Charles H. Cushing, librarian, was authorized to purchase a number of new books. Strange what an interest is created in certain books when the books are reproduced on the films of moving pictures. At present there is a great demand for "Ramona." While many have read this popular book, written by Helen Hunt Jackson, yet a number of patrons of the library desire to refresh their memories of the interesting narrative and are again perusing the pages of "Ramona" with an increased interest.

There is also a great demand for "The Eyes of the World," the last novel from the pen of Harold Bell Wright, as that will be shown shortly. The small boy and some of the older ones as well, are reading with much interest, "Tom Sawyer," "Huckleberry Finn," "Up the Mississippi," and other books by Mark Twain.

The Tropic Thursday club will give a card party at the home of Mrs. Allen Ellsworth Boyce, 506 South Brand boulevard, Friday evening. Mrs. Boyce will be assisted by Mrs. Leigh Bancroft, Mrs. Harry E. Bowman, Mrs. George Henry, Mrs. Edwin Virden and Mrs. W. C. Anderson.

Clarence E. Shuey of Columbus avenue is spending a few weeks on the ranch of E. Kincaid in the Malibu district.

After a few days' visit to his family, Mr. Herman Melrose of Blanche avenue, returned to his mining properties located at Atolia. Mr. Melrose has but recently developed large and rich deposits of tungsten in his mine. Tungsten is at present commanding good prices. The most common use for tungsten is for high speed steels, and the demand increases or decreases with the steel market. It is also used to a slight extent for incandescent electric filaments, electric contact wire, and for dental work. When the orders for shrapnel shell and other war munitions came the demand for high speed steels rapidly increased. As with antimony (a silver-white, hard crystalline, metallic element, used in chemistry, medicine and the arts) the users of tungsten have been scouring the country for these ores, and trying to purchase tungsten mines, and the prospector and mine owners have fared well. Mr. Melrose's many friends are congratulating him that his mine will prove such a good producer of the much coveted tungsten.

Oh, You John!

John Gilpin is a citizen
Of wealth and great renown,
He has the fattest bank account
Of any man in town.
He takes the lead in everything
That's planned and carried through,
And everyone looks up to him
As everyone should do.

His store is always crowded
His goods are always new
He does a rushing business
While rivals fret and stew.
Hard times he never heard about,
He discounts every bill
And never fails to help another
Fellow up the hill.

Yet, John is just a common chap
And easy, too, to meet—
He's just like any other man
You'd pass upon the street—
Nor yet is John a wizard, nor
An angel from the skies—
He's just a merchant, with enough
Good sense to advertise.

And that's why he's a citizen
Of wealth and great renown—
And has the fattest bank account
Of any man in town,
And why he leads in everything
That's planned and carried through
Yet John has not done anything
That can't be done by you.

Man went to sleep in a San Francisco doorway and was robbed of $90. Utter stranger. No regular resident of that city would ever go to sleep as long as he had $90.

An unkind word is a pebble pitched down the steep decline of eternity—it rolls on, forever, starting a muss!

The upright Christian is society's best friend—but the psalm-singing hypocrite is one of humanity's traitors.

GLENDALE FOOTHILLS

Casa Verdugo is busier these days than it has been for some time. Sunday saw a large arrival of visitors, who remained for dinner and wandered about among the beautiful grounds and admired the scenery of this beautiful foothills resort. Mrs. Sowle presided over the culinary department with that genius for which she is famous and the guests were delighted with their day's outing and entertainment.

Among those who brought a large party to the restaurant was the Hon. Joseph Scott, of Los Angeles, who entertained a party of ten from the city.

The arbor at Casa Verdugo is being put into excellent shape for business and will be ready for the large numbers of visitors who are expected next Sunday. This outside part of the restaurant has always been popular and attractive.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hunt, of 1201 Viola street, were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hulme, Leighton avenue, Los Angeles. Miss Lois Hunt and Miss Mary Hunt accompanied their parents.

"MIXED-FRUIT" HATS IN FASHION

"Can she make a cherry pie, Billy boy, Billy boy?"
"Now really that's a question very silly.
All the cherries green and red
She is wearing on her head
In a cap-a-pie effect," says little Billy.

NEW YORK, March 4.—A cherry may play it three ways and still be well placed in a pie, a cocktail or on milady's bonnet. All three are ideal settings for a cherry, but naturally the third is the charm. Just as every cloud has a silver lining, so does every smart spring hat have its first fruits and the cherry is the favorite of the bunch. Dame Fashion is masquerading as Pomona. In consequence, every peach, topped with a few cherries, goes around looking like a mixed fruit salad. It's quite all right if the peach confines the cherries that go to her head to the ones on her hat. If she lets the cherries in a cocktail go to her head too she is apt to look more like a comote. See Webster's Unabridged:

"Comote.—A combination of stewed fruit." The shapes of the new hats cunning little high crowned effects without brims, or the fetching little Directoire bonnets, lend themselves very prettily to the cherry habit. Following the cherry, the favorite fruits for hats are green and purple grapes, peach, plums, strawberries, oranges, lemons and apples for daughters of Eve. Some of the big, flat garden hats have an array of fruit around their flat, platelike brims, their vivid colors glowing against a background of glossy green leaves, for all the world like Mike the Dago's push-cart display.

But why scratch the rest of the 57 varieties off the sartorial menu? Surely a Cassaba Chapeau, a Banana Bonnet or a Pineapple Picture Hat would be tasty little head-pieces for the fruitful fashions.
Just to what lengths can fruits go is best answered by the fact that not only do they grow on spring millinery, but on parasols, bag, umbrella handles, neck ruffs, belts, sash ends, jacket lapels, blouses, frocks, negligees and even lingerie are clusters of them grafted.

The new lawns, organdies and spring silks are printed in fruit designs and even the newest jewelry preserves the peach, the plum, the cherry and the grapes in gold and platinum, in enamel and precious stones.

Verily an up to date peach in a cherry hat and a pear of lemon kid gloves according to the current modes, could never be a gooseberry in any crowd. Rather is she the apple of every male eye, with all of them plum crazy about her.

EARLY MEMORIES

Those recollections, pure and sweet,
When first my heart felt love's embrace,
I oft within my throats can meet
My dear old sweetheart's face to face.

Those Cupid greetings which she gave,
I never, never shall forget;
Their repetition still I crave,
And trust that time may bring them yet.

Those courting days of long ago
When first in love we made a start,
We find with age will brighter grow
And bloom anew within the heart.

Beneath the moss of former times,
Those winsome creatures, still they live;
And like the bells that vibrate chimes,
A mental harmony they give.

As shining rainbows in the sky,
Which have their blending tints, divine,
They lift one's throats and feelings high
When old time memories 'round them twine.

Warning to The Public!

Your home dairymen sell the residents of Glendale, Tropic and North Glendale BETTER, FRESHER and CLEANER Milk and Cream than does any outside firm.

Local dairies are under rigid inspection and the public is invited to visit any of them at any time—where outside concerns secure their milk from many small producers scattered within a 150 miles of Los Angeles. While this milk may be bottled in a sanitary plant, it is not necessarily produced under sanitary conditions.

Fresh raw milk, is delivered by local dairies twice daily, within two hours of milking at 10c a quart, while a large creamery which is soliciting business on pasteurized milk at 8c a quart, delivers once a day—milk that is from 24 to 36 hours old. If this milk were not pasteurized, it would not be fit for human consumption when delivered at your home. Special raw milk, similar to the milk local dairies deliver to their patrons, costs 12c per quart when secured from city dairies.

Don't be misled by smooth-talking solicitors. Have your local milk tested in comparison with that of outside dairies by your physician. Abide by his findings.

By giving your local dairyman a square deal you will eliminate the danger of San Fernando Valley being controlled by the alleged Milk Trust which has forced the price of fresh, raw milk to 12c per quart in Los Angeles, Hollywood and Pasadena.

Protect the health of your family and keep the price of fresh, raw milk at no more than 10c per quart in Glendale, Tropic and Casa Verdugo, by patronizing any of the following dairymen, who deliver fresh milk every morning and evening:—

LITTLELANDS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCracken of Minot and Mr. Jesse Carr of McVille, North Dakota, old friends of the Langs, are the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lang.

Town Meeting

The town meeting had a very short session Tuesday evening. It was announced that the program for the next meeting would be provided by the people of Massachusetts. Mr. Ashby volunteered to be responsible for the same. At the following meeting the Michigan people will provide the program. Mr. Darlington will be chairman.

It was announced that a supper and entertainment would take place March 10 at the new store building in Sunland, the proceeds to be used for the benefit of the band. It was also announced that Mrs. Miles and Mrs. Osborne are taking a collection for trees to beautify the school grounds.

The following is the menu suggested by Mrs. Alice Miles at the Home Croft meeting last Friday night and which constituted one of her own home dinners not long since: Cream tomato soup, crackers or croutons, fricasseed rabbit, mashed potatoes, buttered carrots, radishes, young onions, bread, butter, coffee, blackberry cobbler.

Receipt for Fricasseed Rabbit—This is for two rabbits. Cut rabbits in pieces for frying. Put two table-spoonfuls of Crisco in kettle. When very hot add rabbit, which has been well dried in cloth; fry until well browned, then add about a quart of boiling water and cook very gently over a slow fire till tender, adding more water if necessary, using as little as possible. When tender lift rabbit and make gravy by adding a cupful of canned milk and as much water as needed to make the quantity you wish, thickened with flour and seasoned to taste.

The above menu was offered as one, the articles of which can nearly all be raised in Littlelands. Mrs. Hoffman has volunteered to suggest a menu for the next Home Croft meeting. A record of these menus will be kept and eventually a Littlelands cook book will be compiled from them.

Program of Woman's Club

The following program was provided by the Woman's club after the town meeting Tuesday evening: Overture, Orchestra. Recitation, "The Bridal Wine Cup"—Mrs. Leo Lang. Encore. Little Girls Quartette—Bernice Marston, Helen Heald, Constance Maygrove and Margaret Frost. Encore. Fancy Drill—School children. Solo, "My Rosary"—Mrs. B. Zachan; pianist, Miss Bertha Fehr. Original Reading, "Charge of Crow Bar Brigade" (imitation of Tennyson's "Charge of the Light Brigade")—Rev. W. H. Wieman. Recitation, original poem—Mrs. Harrington. Encore, another original selection. Solo, Vocal—Mr. George Osborne. Encore. Ocarina Solo—Mr. W. R. Maygrove; Mrs. Maygrove, pianist. Encore.

The president, Mrs. Miles, here announced that four little girls would render the next number and that they would "touch" every one in the audience, which they did to the tune of "14, 30."

Solo—Mrs. Zachan; Miss Bertha Fehr, pianist. Selection, Orchestra. Star Spangled Banner—School Girls.

The entertainment was a great success both as an entertainment and financially. Miss Alice Maisson, niece of C. H. Clark, was to have given an exhibition in classic dancing, but for some cause failed to reach Littlelands.

WIDOW'S MIGHT

A merchant who had been traveling some months was, on his return, informed of the death of a valued friend. A few days later he called upon the bereaved widow to offer expressions of sympathy. During the visit he remarked:

"I was a good friend of your late husband. Is there not something of his which I could have as a memento of him?"

She raised to his her velvety brown eyes, which a few moments before were moist with tears, and said softly: "How would I do?"
