FRANCO-GERMAN ESTRANGEMENT

MOROCCAN CRUX LEADS TO ACCUSATIONS

French Resentment at Inspired Communications Emanating From Berlin.

Berlin, Sept. 4.—The French policy in Morocco has been according to prominent interests in this city, designed principally to manoeuvre Germany out of any direct part in Moroccan affairs with the ultimate purpose, supported by Great Britain, of acquiring that paramount position which was the object of France previous to the Algeiras conference. The French are regarded to-day as being precisely what they were before Germany brought about this conference and they come therefore into conflict with the present determination of Germany.

Germany's attitude may be described as exactly what was held to be the situation previous to the Algeiras conference, namely the independence of Morocco, politically and commercially, with no superior position for France or any other power.

Germany desires to recognize the theory of the French foreign office, that France and Spain being the mandatories of the powers in Morocco, have the right to initiate suggestions. And it is not proposed to allow Mulai Hafid to be compelled to hand over large and indefinite French pecuniary claims, the effect of which payments at the outset of his reign would be to reduce him to the position of a French vassal.

Resentment in France.

Paris, Sept. 4.—French official circles resent deeply the intimation conveyed in the inspired communications from Berlin that the real purpose of France in delaying the recognition of Mulai Hafid is to permit the republic to make its relations with the sultan more amicable than those of the former sultan, the protection of special French interests. The Associated Press was today authorized to publish the following:

"You can categorically deny such intimations. We are conducting no private negotiations. What we are doing is in the general interest of all the powers. After Mulai Hafid is recognized we are confident that we will be able to take care of our interests."

The German attempt to make it appear that France sometimes ago sent a consular official like Dr. Vassel to Fez also is officially repudiated.

It is explained that the man France sent was a native of Algeiras, whose mission was simply to act as custodian of the valuable French archives there. He was in no sense a consul.

With reference to the German suggestion that France is trying to secure from Mulai Hafid an advance endorsement of the loans made by French interests to Abdul Aziz is explained by saying that the French creditors of Abdul Aziz hold his jewels as security and that the other loans were made by the Moroccan state bank in which Germany, like the other powers have a representative.

France is still awaiting Spain's final approval of the terms of the note before communicating it to the powers.

OMAHA'S MYSTERY MURDER.

Bulicide Theory Scouted Because Revolver Cannot Be Found.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 4.—Developments in the murder of Dr. Rustin were not made public by the police yesterday. The inquest has been set for Tuesday. The funeral will take place on the following Saturday.

It is now known that Dr. Rustin reached his home about midnight Tuesday and that the shooting occurred at 3 o'clock on Wednesday morning. What occurred at the Rustin home during the three hours' interval has not developed. No person has been permitted to interview Mrs. Rustin except Capt. J. J. Conroy and Dr. T. R. MacKay, rector of All Saints church, of which she is a member. Miss Leona Bonnell was seen with Rustin Tuesday, and is said to have walked to within two blocks of his home with him.

The city detectives have been unable to locate the revolver with which the shooting was done, and the bulicide theory is therefore scouted. Mrs. Bonnell, who is also known as Mrs. Rice, was closely questioned at the police chief's office yesterday. The police do not believe the Bonnell woman did the shooting.

MURDERER GETS REPRIEVE.

Case of Man Who Killed Clergyman to Come Before Court of Errors and Appeals.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 4.—Archibald Herron, who shot and killed the Rev. S. V. D. Prickett at Hedges on July 15th, will not be put to death in the electric chair next week as his sentence provides. Vice-Chancellor Walker, acting for Chancellor Putney, who is on his vacation, refuses to allow a writ of error calling Herron's case before the supreme court on the ground of insanity. The application was made by former Judge Cowen Hope, of New Brunswick. N. J., Herron's counsel. The refusal of the vice-chancellor, after counsel to carry the case to the court of errors and appeals, were it was argued at the November term. Pending a decision, Herron's sentence will not be put into effect.

PAID-UP PAYROLLS.

Foreman's Daughter Drew the Wages of Three Men.

RAILWAY COMMISSION SUSPENDS INSPECTOR

W. S. Blyth Gave Information to Newspapers Before Re- porting to Ottawa.

Winnipeg, Sept. 4.—The railway commission has suspended Joseph Clark, the accident inspector for the board of railway commissioners at Ottawa, and W. S. Blyth of Ottawa, has been appointed to take the position.

On account of a protest sent to the railway commission by Ald. McArthur of Winnipeg, the railway commission instructed Mr. Clark to make a thorough inspection of the C. P. R. rolling stock from Winnipeg to the coast, and to report to the board at Ottawa. Mr. Clark was at Vancouver when he was sent for by telegram to return at once. The reason for the suspension is that he turned over the results of his inspection to the western newspapers, and that they were published at Calgary and other places before they were received at Ottawa. Mr. Blyth, locomotive engineer from Ottawa, is now here.

UPHOLDS METHODS OF MARINE DEPARTMENT

Yet Another Witness Testifies Against Findings of Civil Service Commission.

Montreal, Sept. 4.—At the inquiry into the marine department yesterday, Secretary Robb, of the shipping federation, denied that the marine department had been extravagant in its aids to navigation on the St. Lawrence route, and said the Wilson acetylene buoys were costly, but were efficient.

Mr. Robb said the St. Lawrence was the finest waterway in the world. It is as well lighted as the Strand in London. Mr. Robb knew of no dishonesty in the department.

ROCKEFELLER'S ANCESTORS.

Progenitors of World's Wealthiest Man Were Merely French Barons.

Rockefeller is a member is of noble lineage. He reported that several members of the family at one time held the title of baron in Southern France.

RAINIER ELECTION.

G. T. P. ROUTE IS FINALLY CHOSEN

CUT-OFF WILL SAVE OVER A HUNDRED MILES

Change in Northern Cariboo
Course to Afford Better
Gradients.

(Special to the Times.)
Vancouver, Sept. 4.—The Grand Trunk Pacific railway has just adopted a cut-off in northern Cariboo that will effect a saving in mileage of between one hundred and one hundred and fifty miles. The main line as now finally located, will run across the country due west from Grand Rapids, on the south fork of the Fraser to Fort George on the main river. This was the announcement made by R. B. Kellier, chief engineer of the railway just before his departure for Montreal yesterday. The original surveys followed the south fork of the Fraser to its junction with the north fork, where the main stream takes a big bend to the north before swinging south to Fort George. Mr. Kellier has received reports that the new route, as suggested, will not only effect a great saving in distance, but will afford better gradients than by the route originally surveyed.

The cut-off traversed the Bear River district, where valuable coal seams were located last year by R. A. Laiselle and Joseph Wendt of Barkerville. The new survey will run within thirty miles of the coal basin.

Mr. Kellier added that the main line will run almost in an air line west from Fort George to Fort Fraser. The cut-off will obviate the necessity of following the valley of the south fork from Grand Rapids to the confluence of the two forks, and thence by a big bend to Fort George.

W. SLOAN, M. P., WILL GET A SOLID VOTE

Prince Rupert Unanimous for Him—Conservative Con- vention a Failure.

(Special to the Times.)
Prince Rupert, Sept. 4.—Last evening the Liberals held here last evening the candidature of W. Sloan, M. P., was unanimously endorsed. Sloan, in attendance pledged themselves by resolution to do all in their power to ensure his return as the representative of Comox-Atlin in the House of Commons.

According to the best information obtainable Mr. Sloan is assured of 99 per cent. of the vote of this section of the riding. He will be given practically the unanimous support in this place. The Conservative convention called for Monday at this place resulted in nothing. Scarcely any representatives presented themselves, the outside point being entirely unrepresented. As a result no action was taken in nominating a candidate.

INTERNATIONAL GAMES TO CELEBRATE JUBILEE

Thousands of Athletes Will Compete at Vatican This Month.

Rome, Sept. 4.—The officials who have charge of the international competition which is to be held at the Vatican in honor of the papal jubilee, have succeeded in overcoming the difficulty which they encountered recently in providing accommodations for all the athletes who have signified their intention of taking part. It has now been definitely settled that the games will be held on Sept. 23rd to 28th. Thousands of athletes from all over the world are expected to compete in the various events. The city of Dublin alone has asked that some be reserved for its persons. Included in this number are the teams representing the Catholic Young Men's Society and the Gaelic Athletic Club. Canada will be represented by a team from the National Gymnastic Society of Montreal.

New York, Sept. 4.—The sum of $10,000 is left to the actors' fund of America by Tony Pastor, the so-called father of vaudeville in this country, whose will was filed in the surrogate's office yesterday.

Abraham H. Hummel, the disbarred lawyer who is now in Europe, and his sister Bertha Hummel, are made executors. To both of them Mr. Pastor made important bequests. The volume of the estate is not disclosed but it is said to be large.

Gerald Du Maurier and Miss Hilda Travellin achieved the best work in their careers in the leading parts, Henry Vibart, as a canny father-in-law, Mrs. Beerbaum Tree, Lillah McCarthy and Sydney Valentine, the latter as a selfish member, pointedly impersonating Secretary Birrell, distinguished themselves.

JAPAN'S DOMINEERING WAY IN KOREA

Ignores Modus Vivendi With China—Fortifying Chen Lao Boundary.

Peik, Sept. 4.—Contrary to the modus vivendi pending the agreement upon the Chen Tao boundary dispute with China, Japan has recently done a number of things in this territory which have aroused the apprehension of the Korean population. She has occupied the residential buildings recently completed at Peiching, in the disputed district, and she has brought into this town a joint civil and military commander and one thousand gendarmes. Japan is proceeding with the reorganization of the existing system of government of the Korean population. China has protested to Peik and to the Japanese diplomatic representative here, but with no result whatever.

Japan is establishing also an agricultural farm at Lutaotai in Chen Tao. This is part of her effort to augment the Korean population of the territory.

Furthermore, two Japanese majors, generals and four staff officers are at present engaged in making a careful study of Chen Tao for strategic purposes, and the arrival of a battery of Japanese field guns near the border renewed the fears of China that Japan was preparing to precipitate an action. China has protested also against the project to bridge the Tunt river at the Gensan railroad terminus.

SON OF DUC D'ORLEANS VISITS SAN FRANCISCO

De Montpensier States His In- tention of Touring Through Canada.

San Francisco, Calif., Sept. 4.—Accompanied by a party of friends, including Count de Barrias and Countess De Barrias, Duke of Orleans, son of Louis Philippe d'Orleans, claimant to the French crown arrived from the Orient on the Pacific mail liner Mongolia yesterday and is registered at the St. Francis hotel as M. F. De Villiers in order to escape publicity.

Duke Ferdinand said that his party expected to stay in San Francisco several days and would visit various parts of the United States and Canada, sailing for Europe in October. He said that he expected to return to this country next year. The duke is 23 years old. He is a cousin of the King of Spain and related to the King of Portugal.

BARRIE PLAYS BOUNDS INTO POPULARITY

"What Every Woman Knows" Produced on London Stage.

London, Sept. 4.—The lifting of the curtain on a new Barrie play has the importance of a historic event for the English stage. "What Every Woman Knows," by J. M. Barrie's latest production, "What Every Woman Knows," was produced under Charles Frohman's management at the Duke of York theatre last night and it proved the equal of its predecessors. Perhaps it will be considered the best that he has done.

The audience received all of the acts of the play with unflinching interest and delight. Two acts are laid in Scotland and two depict English political society. The plot and incidents are fresh and strong, the conversation sparkles with wit and the expense of Scotch thriftiness, English political society, and human nature generally.

Gerald Du Maurier and Miss Hilda Travellin achieved the best work in their careers in the leading parts, Henry Vibart, as a canny father-in-law, Mrs. Beerbaum Tree, Lillah McCarthy and Sydney Valentine, the latter as a selfish member, pointedly impersonating Secretary Birrell, distinguished themselves.

SELLS HIS RESIDENCE.

Hull, Sept. 4.—R. L. Borden has sold his handsome residential property, "Pinehurst," to Robert Pickford.

CHINA STILL FEELING HER WAY

TIME NOT YET RIPE FOR A CONSTITUTION

Sir Robert Hart Places Little Faith in Edict Issued by Emperor.

London, Sept. 4.—Sir Robert Hart, director-general of Chinese customs, who is here on a year's leave of absence from his post, in an interview concerning the granting of a constitution to the Chinese people, did not appear sanguine of any immediate reform in the direction of the Chinese government. He said that edicts similar to the one recently issued at Peik promising a constitution within a stated period had been issued before. It is impossible to say, he added, when parliament would be summoned. It may be next year, and perhaps not for a decade.

He pointed out that China did not assimilate western ideas quickly, and it was to be feared that even if a parliament was constituted, the hundreds of millions of Chinese in the interior would remain passive.

He did not think that the imperial power would be assisted by the granting of a constitution, still he was of the opinion that China was feeling her way and preparing the foundations for progress, and when the new generation began to build, China's pagoda would tower higher among the nations.

INDEX OF RECOVERY.

Montreal, Sept. 4.—The bank clearings for the week ending September 3rd amounted to $11,722,385, as against $6,196,773 last year, and $7,873,525 in 1906.

"The reception given the American fleet in Australia is pleasing, not only to myself and the officers and men of the fleet but, as presenting the feeling of the Commonwealth towards the United States. The welcome which has come from the municipalities and the streets, has been generous and kindly beyond belief. This heartiness between the people of the two great English-speaking nations must tend to the preservation of the peace of the world."

Dr. C. H. Wells, in charge of the hospital, saved the man's life by making a hurried trip to St. Luke's in the auto of a stranger where he obtained a silver tube and by this means straitened out the windpipe and pumped air into the lungs of the dying man. Although the man had been injured internally, hope is held out for his recovery.

SUCCESSFUL TEST OF MAXIM NOISELESS GUN

Springfield, Mass., Sept. 4.—Hiram Percy Maxim's gun silencing device received its final test here yesterday at the hands of a board of officers attached to the United States army, the test being to determine whether the device would afford protection to skirmishers or sharpshooters advancing on an enemy.

The test is said to have been entirely successful. The testing board went to the butts and Mr. Maxim took the gun-firer in his auto to point in different directions from the butts. Shots were fired at varying distances and in the air, and the test was able to determine with any accuracy the distance of the shots, the discharge being inaudible even at the short distance of 250 yards, and the officers being compelled to judge the direction from the whirl of the bullets.

MISHAP TO U. S. ARMY AEROPLANE

Washington, Sept. 4.—Orville Wright made a flight in his aeroplanes at Fort Meyer, Va., yesterday evening, while making the second circle of the drill grounds. Mr. Wright pulled the lever which controls the planes in the wrong direction and he was compelled to land in order to avoid running into some wires. The machine encircled the grounds once and was halted on the second circle when the mishap occurred. The aeroplane was in the air for one minute and fifteen seconds. It was found that the forward part of the right runner had been broken off in two places. Mr. Wright was uninjured and told the crowd how the accident happened.

"I pulled the lever the wrong way," he said, "and the machine turned in the direction of those wires and that was all. I therefore had to bring it down to earth rather suddenly. The mistake was due to the change we have made in the position of the operator on the machine, with which I have not become thoroughly familiar. The damage could be repaired with a few minutes' work. The material here, if I had not made the mistake in turning it would probably have made several more circles around the grounds."

Mr. Wright expressed his entire satisfaction with the machine, which was built for the signal corps of the United States army.

PRISONER'S DASH FOR LIBERTY.

Edmonton, Alta., Sept. 4.—Some excitement was caused at the Alberta penitentiary about four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon when one of the prisoners, Sean McDonald, made a dash for liberty. One of the wardens, Warden McCaughey, and his assistants, the fugitive was captured almost immediately. He will be brought up for trial at the Supreme court house on the charge of attempting to escape from lawful custody.

McDonald was working on the roof of the main building of the penitentiary, and was out of sight of the guard he ran along to the front of the building to the barbed wire fence skirting the tracks, where he fell and was recaptured by Donald Shell. McDonald is serving a three years' sentence for "stealing" near Calgary and had only put in about three months of his time.

TRUNK MURDER THRILLS BOSTON

ACTRESS KILLED AND HER BODY DISMEMBERED

Husband, After Being Forced to Reveal Gruesome Crime, is Arrested.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 4.—The most horrible and brutal crime committed in Greater Boston since the death of Susan Geary, a chorus girl, four years ago, and one much resembling it, was disclosed last night, by the discovery of the torso of Mrs. Honora Jordan, an actress aged 23 years, of Somerville, in a trunk in a boarding house at 7 Hancock street on Beacon Hill, this city. Later the head and bones of the limbs were found in the furnace of the Jordan home at Somerville, and the scalp, hair and other gruesome remains were taken from the kitchen range of the house.

Chester Jordan, aged 29 years, an actor, of 509 Stearns street, Somerville, is held by the police charged with the murder, and last night, according to the charges, he made a full confession of the crime. According to Jordan, he accidentally killed his wife on Tuesday night in a quarrel at their home and becoming desperate, when he had bought a butcher's knife and hack saw and cut up the body and placed the torso in a trunk. He then planned to take the trunk to Harvard street, New York and throw the trunk overboard. The fact that the Harvard street house owing to an accident disarranged his plans, and he was obliged to hire a hackman to take the trunk to a Boston boarding house on Hancock street. To await a more favorable opportunity.

The discovery of the crime was due to the suspicions of the hackman, Jas. Collins, who had in mind the numerous robberies which have taken place in that section recently, and, suspicious from the weight that the trunk he was carrying about contained silverware, notified the police.

Sergeant Michael Crowley was detailed to go over to the Hancock street house and investigate. When he reached the house Jordan was not in. The officer was shown the back room, on the second floor, Jordan had engaged, and found the trunk. At this time it was not opened. About 5:30 Jordan returned, and, on being accosted in the hallway by the officer, at first denied his identity. Later he admitted that he was. Asked about his trunk, he denied that he had one. He was ordered to his room by the officer, however, and commanded to open the trunk. Jordan did not appear nervous or alarmed, but hesitated to open the trunk, and it was until after considerable argument on the part of the officer that he produced the key to the trunk and inserted it in the lock. Turning his head, Jordan threw up the cover of the trunk and then sank back on his knees, burying his face in his hands and sobbing. Sergeant Crowley staggered back aghast at the disclosure.

Jordan submitted without protest to the handcuffs and was led to Station 3 and locked up. He stated that he was married in September, 1904, to Mrs. Honora Eddy, whose maiden name was O'Reilly, who was made in Somerville. He did not know his wife's first husband or what had become of him. The couple went on the vaudeville stage, Jordan taking the part of a tramp and his wife that of a nurse. They were west about three years ago, then returned to Somerville. Mrs. Jordan, according to her husband, had taken to drinking of late, and claims was associating with other men, and he became jealous. It was in a jealous quarrel Tuesday night last that the trouble started which ended in the death of his wife. Jordan declares that his wife struck him first and that he then knocked her down and terrified to find that he had killed her.

Husband's Confession.

WRIGHT PULLS WRONG LEVER AND MACHINE DESCENDS TOO SUDDENLY.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Orville Wright made a flight in his aeroplanes at Fort Meyer, Va., yesterday evening, while making the second circle of the drill grounds. Kelly disclosed this matter to District Attorney Langdon in July last, telling him that Blake at first offered him $500 and subsequently increased the offer to $2,000.

CONSERVATIVES HELD CONTEST
PROSPECTIVE NOMINEES WERE PUT ON TRIAL
 Meeting Held Last Night in North Ward School-house.

At the North Ward school house last evening the local Conservatives held a meeting which was apparently intended as a sort of contest among the prospective candidates in this city preliminary to the coming nomination meeting. Three of those who are spoken of as probable candidates were present and delivered speeches. G. H. Barnard, J. S. Beckwith and W. Blakemore. In addition to these D. H. Macdowell, one of the old warhorses of the party, also addressed the gathering.

The nominating convention is to be held on Wednesday of next week but up to the present no decisive course can be agreed upon with respect to a candidate. There is considerable division and as a way out it has been suggested by some of the party that Mr. L. Borden be asked to run.

J. S. Beckwith, who was the candidate at the by-election after Hon. William Templeman was made minister of inland revenue, claims the right to prove his worth in the general election. He is being backed up by the moral reform section of the party who insist that it must be Mr. Beckwith or they will not remain in the party. On the other hand there is a section which does not conceal its feeling that Mr. Beckwith should not be the standard bearer. Mr. Barnard has a following who will support him, while Mr. Blakemore, who has ambitions, would be willing to accept if the offer came. The McBride wing of the party which is handled by Robert Green is credited with casting its influence with Mr. Barnard, which is lessening its influence with the section supporting Mr. Beckwith.

Last evening there was a try-out among the candidates in the presence of a fair sized audience at the school house.

Fred Davey, M. P. P. presided. After a short speech he introduced Mr. Barnard, who apologized for the absence of Hon. W. Bowser on the ground that he had another engagement.

G. H. Barnard in giving advice to the party said they should go into the fight feeling that they had not lost ground. Although they by no means had in many cases gone against the Conservatives the majorities in favor of the Liberals had in many cases been reduced.

The Conservatives being in power in this province and in other provinces was going to be a great benefit to the party in the coming fight. He deprecated the feeling expressed so often by friends of the Conservative party that Quebec could not be won. From what Mr. Borden had told him he felt that they could do better in Quebec. The much stress, he held, should not be laid on the results in Saskatchewan. He explained away the loss there by stating that the election had been brought on without warning. In Manitoba the Conservatives were in power and would help the party out in the coming contest. It was time for a change, he thought, as the present government had been so extravagant. All that was required to carry the election was for the party to make up its mind they were going to win and then go in and do it. The Conservative party had done a lot of preliminary work. The rank and file in the party must turn in and do its work.

J. S. Beckwith was introduced by the speaker as their old friend and was greeted with applause. The Liberal party, he said, had gone back on all its promises made before the election. There should be a change in the government from the standpoint of British Columbia. Within the last few years there had been some rather important matters brought up. Premier McBride had made a stand for better terms. He was scuffed at but he stood by it. The subject of better terms was still a live issue. What assistance had Premier McBride received from Hon. Mr. Templeman for better terms? When the G. T. P. bill was before the House it was to have been expected that the British Columbia members would have looked into it to see how it would benefit this province. But they did not. If he (Mr. Beckwith) had been in the House he would have made an effort to have the best results for British Columbia.

Mr. Beckwith dealt with the Asiatic question. He attacked the government in connection with the treaty with Japan. Mr. Lemieux had come on a begging mission to Japan. He came back with the announcement that he had succeeded. He somewhat doubted it. He probably got some kind of a verbal promise but Mr. Drury had then to be sent. "We are at the mercy of Japan," said Mr. Beckwith. The government was to be blamed in connection with that treaty. He blamed Mr. Templeman for not looking after the interests of the province in that respect. The immigration policy of the government, Mr. Beckwith said, was a wonderful one. The large foreigner had resulted in the victory in Saskatchewan. The foreign vote was herded like sheep. Every Liberal, he argued, in the province should be turned down and a bunch of Conservatives sent to Ottawa.

D. H. Macdowell, when called upon, said he would not speak at length. The duty at the present time was to get together and organize for the fight. All the great works for the benefit of this country had been originated with the Conservative party. He laid particular stress upon the work of the late Sir John A. Macdonald. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had done good work in providing for the building of a second trans-continental railway. The G. T. P. bill, but it was being carried out in a way which made it doubtful whether it should be entrusted with the completing of it. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had carried out only one pledge given before election. This was with respect to the adoption of the provincial lists for Dominion purposes. But this last session he had tried to break that pledge. Dealing with the Oriental question. Mr. Macdowell argued that the Canadian government had neglected to safeguard Canadian interests with respect to trouble over Japanese immigration. The colonial office had, through the governor-general, brought the subject to the attention of the Canadian government. It was suggested that the Canadian government should have inserted a clause in the treaty with Japan which would give this country control of the immigration from Japan. Although repeatedly brought to the attention of the Canadian government by London nothing was done to carry out the arrangements by which this control would be given. The responsibility rested with the Laurier government.

Mr. Blakemore was sorry the attorney-general had not been present as he would have given a fitting speech for the opening of a campaign. Referring to Sir John A. Macdonald, he said that with all respect to Mr. Borden they had no one in Canada to-day to compare with Sir John A. Macdonald. Mr. Borden was improving every session and he was well able to lead the party to power and hold to power. In the coming campaign the provinces of British Columbia had special accounts to settle with the Laurier government and these would be kept to the front. Better terms was still a live issue. The immigration policy was another question and Sir Wilfrid had stated that he was not in sympathy with the views of this province on that subject. Mr. Templeman would have to face the question here. Financiers had advised the curtailment of expenses on the part of individuals to meet the present financial depression. What was right for the Liberal government had not shown this economy.

The Liberal government had adopted the fiscal policy of the Conservative party in part but they had not known how to handle it. The result was that it did not work out properly.

In concluding, Mr. Blakemore said we have tried to get candidates of high character. The duty of the local party would be to select such a candidate.

With a vote of thanks to the chairman and cheers for Mr. Borden the meeting closed.

C. J. Peck, of the State Bank at Idaho Falls, who is visiting Victoria with his wife, made some interesting remarks to a Times reporter at the King Edward hotel to-day, upon the new system of dry farming which is being undertaken in the mountainous country in Idaho.

"All the land in the valleys," said Mr. Peck, "has required to be irrigated and the expense of farming there and the cost of land, have driven many people to the foothills of the mountains where, under an agreement with the government, land may be obtained at a very small cost. At first it was Remarkable prices were obtained at Christie's, in London, recently, when Turner's "Mortlake Terrace" sold for $66,150, a record price for any of his paintings. Two other Turners, "The Storm" and "The Morning After the Storm," brought $39,875 and $40,424 respectively. On the same day Constable's "Salisbury Cathedral" realized $49,500.

America possesses few Turners, the bulk of the painter's works having been willed to the London National Gallery. Nearly all sales at which Turners have been auctioned have occurred in England. "The Slave Ship," now in Boston museum, was sold in the John Taylor Johnson collection, in New York, for $10,900 in 1876. At the Munro sale in 1878 several Turners were sold at an average price of $29,000. At the Wells and Essex sales in 1890 and in 1891 two Turners, "Sheerness" and "Walton Bridges," sold for $35,500 apiece. At the Park sale in 1897 the price had risen to $26,750 and $39,375, and at the Acland-Hood sale in 1903 "The Beach at Hastings" brought $31,500.

In the United States high prices have obtained for many years perhaps higher or than in Europe. There are two famous pictures in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, Meissonier's "Friedland—1807," and "The Horse Fair," by Rosa Bonheur. At the A. T. Stewart sale in 1887 the first of these was sold for $66,000. At the same sale "The Horse Fair" was sold for $33,000.

These two fine paintings now hang in the Metropolitan museum, presented, the first by Judge Henry Hilton, and the second by Cornelius Vanderbilt.

Among other pictures that have brought high prices at Trovson's "Le Retour a la Ferme," sold for $43,000 in 1907; Manville's "The Return of the Flock," sold for $42,250 in 1906 at the Joseph Jefferson sale; Fortuny's "The Choice of the Model," purchased for $42,000 by Senator Clark in 1898; and Jules Breton's "Communists," which brought $43,000 in 1894.

The Belgians set more pictures annually than do the Irish.

"PRELIMINARY CENTER"

As there is no definite information upon the subject, it must be presumed that the political meeting held in North Ward last night was convened in the interests of some Conservative as yet unknown. But it is known that Canada from Halifax to Victoria has been scoured in the effort to induce a candidate to enter the lists against the Minister of Inland Revenue, Mr. R. L. Borden, the leader of the Conservative party.

We are quite sure the old warhorse, Mr. Macdonald, may be considered one of the running horses and recollections are all of the greatest Tory warhorses of all, the late Sir John A. Macdonald. The glory of the once great party was buried in the grave at Kingston with its departed champion, something this ancient politician and worker does not seem to realize. The pace in these modern days is therefore too swift for this relic of the past.

TAXATION HAS BEEN REDUCED.

Of the speeches delivered last night by rival candidates for the Conservative nomination little need be said. They were just such deliverances as might have been expected from such speakers on the eve of a political campaign. Nearly every elector in Victoria, and indeed in all Canada, received a copy of them some time ago—mailed free from the House of Commons. We have a sample of the campaign document before us now. It is compiled principally from the speeches of that master of political fiction, G. E. Foster. The allegation that the Liberal government, while pledged to a reduction of taxation, has actually just about doubled taxation, may be taken as an example of the falsehoods the people of Canada are asked to receive as truth. It does not follow that because the receipts at the treasury of the Dominion have increased enormously that the rate of taxation has been increased in a corresponding ratio.

government. Mr. Barnard and Mr. Beckwith both know that when they make insinuations in the contrary they are convicting themselves. While they may close their eyes to the known reductions in the general schedules and to the numerous cases in which imports have been removed from the dutiable and placed upon the free list, they cannot ignore the British preference which in itself reduces the duties upon a vast quantity of imported goods by one-third. Furthermore, if it be true that the government has increased duties, making them higher than the old National Policy schedules, how comes it that Conservative newspapers and Conservative politicians of the East are bemoaning the fate of several manufacturing industries which are said to have been practically ruined as a consequence of the reduction of duties? How is it that, while the Tory in the West dare plead for increases in the tariff, that their contemporaries in Eastern manufacturing sections are pleading for support upon the ground that if elected they will guarantee so-called languishing industries "adequate protection"?

As to the cry of government extravagance, the allegation is well met by the Brantford Expositor. "Should the government at Ottawa be passive or should it go ahead?" asks the Expositor. "If the people want to return to the days of 1896 and an expenditure of $40,000,000 a year, then two-thirds of the post offices should be closed, thousands of customs houses should be abandoned, public works should cease, no further transportation facilities should be provided, aids to navigation should be removed, lighthouses left in darkness, harbors and channels should be filled up and no more crops should be raised in the West, because they could not be taken to market. This would be a return to the Conservative days of small things, small receipts, small expenditures and complete stagnation in every branch of national life."

JOHN D. AND THEODORE REX.

John D. Rockefeller has had an expert searching the four corners of Europe for the roots of his family tree. The Oil King is rich enough to afford to carry a pedigree. It has been traced away back to medieval times. The Rockefeller are of French extraction, the authority says. The next thing will be to provide them with heraldic devices. It will not be necessary to go to France for these necessary appanages of a royal house. They can be found right in the United States. An appanage, it may not be necessary to explain, is a dependent territory. The whole of the United States, and much territory in other countries, is dependent territory of the Rockefeller. The family has placed all rivals in the oil business under its feet. It collects tribute, through the instrumentality of a benevolent tariff, from ninety millions of people at home and a sufficiently large number abroad. Under the circumstances the wonder is that the Rockefeller did not long ago think of tracing their distinguished lineage back to the country from whence it came. In case any ill-informed persons should cherish the delusion that that twenty-nine million dollar fine is likely to prove embarrassing to the standing of the house of Rockefeller, it may be opportune to point out that the fine has not been paid. It has been declared to be illegally imposed. President Roosevelt has given instructions that a new trial shall be held and the case pressed to a definite conclusion. And yet John D. is not quaking in the slightest degree in the shadow of the Big Stick. He has declared his intention of upholding his crown and dignity and constitutional rights even in the face of the uncrowned monarch of the United States. He maintains that if the fine is collected it will cost the state twenty-eight millions of dollars to do it. This clash of royal houses must be a very interesting one to the democratic subjects of the two most powerful monarchs of modern times. They are offering upon the ultimate triumph of the Oil King. The people who are principally concerned do not seem to think they have any personal interest in the mat-

MR. SHERLOCK HOLMES CAME TO TOWN

If Dr. Conan Doyle's "mystery-buster," Mr. Sherlock Holmes, were to come to town, and were to turn his momentary attention to business, he could uncover many interesting things for us.

He could take a walk down Government street and point out to us a shop with a new owner a store with half a dozen new clerks; a piece of property that has recently changed hands, some stores that are others that are less so; some people who have but recently bought second-hand automobiles; other people who are hurrying about in quest of this or that.

All these things and many more an observer with the talent of deduction of a Sherlock Holmes could point out to you as influenced and brought about by advertising. He could cite to you a hundred instances about town of the advertising enterprise of Victorians.

Those people who like to observe things for themselves might find it very entertaining in their spare time to try to pick out for themselves the evidence of business activity, of business changes and incidents, which have recently been brought about through newspaper advertising.

If, for one could remove the influence of newspaper advertising from this town or from any town, a period of business stagnation would set in which would make the recent so-called "financial flurry" seem too small to even remember.

And his habit of writing in haste brings him into disrepute in other countries than Canada. That effusion in the Yorkshire Post undoubtedly is for severe condemnation.

Sir Robert Hart, whose long experience in China makes his opinions of some considerable value, says the new constitution promised Mongolians is not likely to be brought into life for about ten years. Asiatic constitutions are "kittle" instruments for potentates and statesmen to handle. They generally appear to go off at the wrong end.

The result of the severe tests the Ross rifle has undergone this year is the best possible answer to the critics who contended the weapon is of no value.

What Other People Think

Water rights. To the Editor: The papers lately have had wonderful accounts of steam and electric engines for pumping water. What is it all about? A farmer who keeps quite a lot of cows on the banks of Elk lake tells me they are intended for pumping water out of the lake to supply the city, and it is reported that the city intends to buy out all the "plateau" to prevent anything offensive getting into the lake.

Well, the promoters of this scheme are chiefly, I understand, Mr. William Wilson and Mr. Paterson, who some time ago stood for Mayor of the city, but was defeated. For those who think that it would be wise to get water from a safer source this is formidable opposition.

Of Mr. Wilson's energy, I have a good story. He and his late wife lived most happily together. So much so that Mrs. Wilson, in the greatest good humor, used to say if her husband said cabbages ought to be planted with their leaves down and their roots in the air it had to be done. This reminds me of a celebrated couple, Mrs. Carlyle and her husband. No woman was prouder of her husband and no husband admired his wife more than he, so much so that they found it a sort of relaxation to talk of each other's peculiarities. Mr. Wilson is, I believe, a Londoner, but he may have blood of the same race flowing in his veins as the celebrated Carlyles had. I have often sided with Mr. Wilson when he opposed him, and anyone can see what a tower of strength it is to have Mr. Wilson on your side. But not on cabbages!

Then as to Mr. Paterson, I spoke to several people as to his being on the opposition side, every one of them spoke in complimentary terms of him, although they regretted that he was on this side. Mr. Lubbe was one who spoke so. When he was a candidate for the mayoralty I voted for him, although I knew Mr. Paterson did not in this matter please me. In the same way as I suggested Mr. Todd to be one of, say, three to consider the question of water supply for the city. I know that either of them, if supplied with facts, would do what they considered safe and prudent. Within the last few days I spoke to two ex-aldermen and each of them expressed themselves quite certain that because the Esquimalt Company could not supply fifteen million gallons per day to the Car Company, they were therefore unable to supply any to the city. One of them expressed himself so delighted with Mr. Barnard's scheme when he was Mayor. We have been fighting for the water for three years, and I suppose some of our present aldermen may understand the situation as well or as badly as these two did. Some gentlemen here think we ought to secure the whole of the Goldstream Company's property, why, I prefer could see. When the question of ownership was before the courts this was never raised. The reason is perhaps answered by a decision in the English courts. Liverpool secured some water rights on a watershed which appeared to naturally belong to three small towns. The court gave Liverpool a right to the water they wanted, but imposed a condition that Liverpool should hold six million gallons for these small towns on the route. This was burdensome to Liverpool and they appealed to be relieved; Liverpool's request was granted on the ground that these small towns had already gone elsewhere for water, and by doing so had annihilated their claim on Liverpool. Is not this very like our case here, and does it not look common-sense that I understand Victoria sent a surveyor to Goldstream to report. He reported against Goldstream, and Victoria afterwards selected Elk lake as preferable. An alderman once made a speech advising the city not to take a small quantity of water in case it should injure their statutory right to five million gallons. But the right has gone long ago.

I know, and say without the least reserve, that the Mayor will withdraw his evil thoughts about the Goldstream Company (if he ever had them) when he finds the city has had no legal claim since the selected Elk lake for our water supply. No mention of this claim was made in London when the case was on. One Judge remarked in a sort of aside "you want to steal other people's water."

Mr. Lubbe is the cleverest and most experienced water expert in the city. He says if they take Goldstream water our reservoir is sufficient. The Smith reservoir has only 300 feet pressure when it is full, I think. The Goldstream reservoir, besides being very much larger, has over 600 feet pressure, which can be regulated to suit. It might save a large sum of money to stop operations both on Smith's Hill and on the salt water system till after the election. Victoria can only think of one subject at a time. I am perhaps repeating some things, but for a large community you cannot repeat too often. So many don't stop to think. All your intelligent readers know that the Goldstream Company could now, to-day, supply the city with ten million gallons a day, which are now flowing into the sea as waste water, after having been used by the Car Company, which requires fifteen million gallons daily. The city requires in all about a fourth part of this. I have been told that the expense for steam to take the place of five million gallons a day will cost about one hundred dollars each day.

J. R. ANDERSON RESIGNS, R. M. PALMER SUCCEEDS

Change Announced in Deputy Ministership of Agriculture.

James R. Anderson, for many years deputy minister of agriculture, and previous to his elevation to that position for a long time in the government service, has retired and has been succeeded by R. M. Palmer, who will combine with his new duties those of commissioner of horticulture, the office he at present holds. Mr. Anderson has been in ill health as a result of which he has been forced to resign, and the government has regretfully accepted the resignation, taking effect Sept. 1st.

AN APPEAL TAKEN IN RENDELL CASE Validity of City By-law Will Be Tested in Superior Court.

In chambers this morning before Chief Justice Dunsmuir an application was made by Richard Logan, a builder of F. B. Rendell, to quash the conviction obtained against Rendell's poolroom some weeks ago for having violated the by-law requiring the closing of poolrooms on Sunday. The conviction was obtained before Police Magistrate Bay, the officer having been alleged to have taken place the first Sunday after the new by-law came into effect.

The present application to quash the conviction is really a test of the power of the council to pass the present by-law.

In the end His Lordship, however, granted an order nisi allowing of argument being heard later. The date set for the argument was Thursday next. The grounds on which the application is made are that the by-law is ultra vires of the city council, and that the charge was not proved, and a number of other technical objections. H. Dal-las Helmecken, K. C., and W. J. Taylor, K. C., appeared on the other side in the case.

BOARD OF TRADE COUNCIL MEETING

Questions Which Were Considered at Sitting Held To-day.

Several important matters were discussed at a long session of the council of the Victoria Board of Trade this morning.

Two letters were received from the city council stating that the laying of a sidewalk on Store street could be commenced at once, but that no extensive improvements could be made to the roadway until the pipes for the high pressure salt-water fire protection system had been put down. No time will be lost when the pipes arrive in rushing this work to completion.

A communication was noted from the secretary of the Fernie fire relief committee acknowledging the sum of $3,000, a part of the funds collected by the board of trade for the relief of the sufferers. The secretary wished to thank the citizens of Victoria for the way they had responded to the call for assistance, as, besides the liberal sum subscribed through the board of trade, considerable other moneys and goods had been received from this city.

The question of the double daily mail service was also thoroughly discussed. It was finally decided to refer the matter to a committee who should approach Hon. William Templeman as soon as possible in regard to it.

Albert T. Goward, local manager of the R. C. Electric Company, attended the meeting in order to reply to the adverse criticism made by the council of the board of trade regarding certain tramway matters, and a long discussion ensued upon the bringing up of this business. As a result some improvements have been promised. Equipped up and thoroughly discussed. It was finally decided to refer the matter to a committee who should approach Hon. William Templeman as soon as possible in regard to it.

After Mr. Goward had retired the council appointed C. F. Todd, George Carter and John Arbuthnot a committee to continue the work looking to an improvement in the tramway service.

Shirley, should be tendered a banquet on the occasion of his visit to Victoria, and notice to this effect will be wired to him by the president of the board of trade when the exact date of his intended visit to the city will also, if possible, be ascertained.

A special committee was appointed to take up with the C. P. R. coast service the question of getting better transportation facilities for the forwarding of freight from Victoria to Fraser river points.

The attention of the council was called to a defamatory letter which appeared in the Times, and Messrs. Mara, Shallock, Post, and Lugrin were appointed a committee to draft a reply pointing out the manifest inaccuracies in the statements made by the anonymous writer. This letter will be forwarded to the editor of the paper.

Stuart Leiser, president of the Victoria Board of Trade, occupied the chair at the meeting, and the others present were L. A. Genge, J. T. Shallock, G. Carter, John Arbuthnot, S. J. Pitts, J. A. Mara, C. H. Lugrin, C. F. Todd and J. L. Beckwith.

WIRELESS STATION IN THE DRIARD HOTEL

Harry Hemming Has Completed Arrangements For an Office.

Within a week the Driad hotel will be equipped with a wireless telegraph station for the transaction of public business as well as the private business of the hotel.

The arrangements for the installation of a station in the Driad were closed yesterday between Harry Hemming, proprietor of the hotel, and C. C. Galbraith, general manager, and R. H. Armstrong, in charge of construction for the United Wireless Company. The cost to Mr. Hemming will be a very considerable one, but he says it will be worth it in the convenience it will be to guests and intending guests.

The station will have connection with Seattle, Port Townsend, Westport, Vancouver, Bellingham, Friday Harbor, Tacoma and other stations along the British Columbia and American coast, including a chain to the north. It will also interchange messages with all steamers equipped with wireless, which now include the Chippawa and the Iroquois, of the International Steamship Company, and the steamers Buckman, Watson, Yukatan, Victoria, Northwestern, Pennsylvania and others plying in these and adjacent waters.

The company is also in negotiations with the C. P. R., not only to equip all its coastwise vessels with wireless, but also the Empresses, and expects that they will result in the coast being undertaken in the near future.

The office in the Driad will be located in the little room between the View and the main entrance, formerly used as a telegraph office. George T. Thompson, who has been in charge of the Pacific wireless station in this city, has been appointed operator at the Driad, and expects to be in a position to send and receive messages within a week. Work on the installation will commence within a week. The mast for the wires will be located on the tower of the hotel.

LABOR UNIONS WILL CELEBRATE MONDAY Programme at Athletic Field Includes Field Sports and Lacrosse Match.

What is expected to be one of the greatest holiday celebrations ever held in this city under labor auspices is booked by Victoria trades unions to take place on Monday.

The Royal Athletic grounds have been leased for the entire afternoon and a great programme of field sports with a senior league lacrosse match as the central feature, will be run off.

On account of the length of the programme the first event will be commenced at 1 o'clock, and the lacrosse match between the old rivals Vancouver and Victoria will commence promptly at 3 o'clock.

What to many will be considered the great feature of the day, the drawing for tombola prizes, will be held at 4 o'clock. The list of these prizes was printed in the Times a few days ago, and readers will remember that it was a large one.

There'll be music, of course, and two of the best organizations in British Columbia will furnish it, and with the city band in full strength and the brass players of St. Andrew's Society, there will be enough diversity to keep everybody satisfied till sunset.

The field sports themselves will include many events that are bound to interest, and proud mothers should not forget the baby-judging competition when a valuable prize will be offered for the best looking baby in British Columbia.

There will be fat men's races and lean men's races, and the tip is here given to put your money on the latter.

There will also be strong men to juggle with the weights and hammers in strenuous endeavors to break Flanagan's records. Whether they do it or not the contests will be well worth seeing.

At 8 p. m. a meeting will be held in the city hall and many things will be said of interest to the toiler. It will be open to the public and anybody will be cordially welcomed.

SEATTLE HORSE SHOW IN FULL SWING

Many High Class Equines Are on Exhibit—Thorough-breds a Feature.

(Special to the Times.)
Seattle, Wash., Sept. 3.—The third annual exhibition of the Seattle Horse Show Association began to-day and will continue over until Saturday. The show this year is the biggest ever held on the Pacific coast and there are close to three hundred horses entered in the two hundred classes. The blooded equines are of higher class this year than those shown at previous exhibitions. Seattle, Portland, Spokane, Victoria and Vancouver are represented on the tankard by classy animals. Never before has there been so many out-of-town exhibitors.
Main interest centres around the twenty-eight pure-bred horses entered by Harry W. Treat, president of the Horse Show Association, which he purchased from W. K. Vanderbilt for an immense sum of money. Heading his classy string of thoroughbreds is Lord Rosebery, whose record is well known to all horse fanciers by his winning the grand championship for the best big harness horse at the New York horse show for several years in succession. His team-mate, Thunderbolt, is a horse of high class, and Treat is expecting to win many blue ribbons with his entries. But Treat will not have a walk-away in any of the events, despite the fact that his horses made enviable records in the Eastern exhibitions. His horses will have to compete against such classy animals as Citizen and Civilian, entered by Mrs. Lewis of Portland; Colonial Bell and Allen Bell, entered by Andrew Laidlaw, of Spokane. All these horses have class and have won blue ribbons at horse shows held in Seattle, Vancouver, B. C., and Portland. Colonial Bell and Allen Bell were purchased by Laidlaw from John Constidine. In the show last year this pair captured the blue ribbon in nearly every event in which they were entered, and in them Laidlaw will have a bread-winning pair.
J. S. Baker, of Tacoma, must be considered a formidable contestant for blue ribbons this year. He has entered Lord Nelson and Lady Arva, which he purchased from John Constidine, winners at the last Seattle horse show. His daughter, Miss Bernice Baker, who has been a prominent figure in Northwestern horse shows, will participate in this year's exhibition. F. W. Rounsefell, of Vancouver, B. C., has entered his noted jumper, Starlight, in five different classes in addition to the steeplechase, which will be one of the features of the show this week.

Strongest competition to be offered by the visiting exhibitors will be the brougham and victoria classes, in which Portland and Spokane horses will appear. Laidlaw is counting on bringing home the blue ribbons with his sensational pair, Colonial Bell and Allen Bell, while J. S. Baker, of Tacoma, will show Lord Nelson and Lady Arva, and with Mrs. Lewis, of Portland, with her crack pair, Citizen and Civilian, and Sanford Hirsch, also of Portland, with his entry Starlight and Starlight, making a strong bid for honors. The competition will be the keenest ever put up at any previous exhibition.
One of the features of the exhibition will be the horses exhibited by young women. Miss Bernice Baker, of Tacoma, probably is the best known lady exhibitor in the Northwest. There are also to be exhibited high-bred equines by Miss Alma Stewart, Miss Dorothy Arnsom, Miss Helen Wadsworth Farrell.

FOOTBALL ENTRIES CLOSE TO-MORROW

Names of Teams in Second Division Should Be Hurried in to Secretary.

Entries will close to-morrow for the second division of the local soccer league, and the names of clubs that propose entering teams for this series should be placed at once in the hands of W. E. Berkeley, the secretary, to secure their being put in the schedule for the season. As it was found impossible to enter a senior team, the Y. M. C. A. will enter eleven in the second division.

HANDICAP RACES ARE VERY POPULAR

Many Y. M. C. A. Boys Enter Swimming Contest at Gorge—More To-night.

From the enthusiasm displayed by the boys last night it is evident that the action of the Y. M. C. A. club in instituting handicap races at the Gorge made a step in the right direction. The purpose of a swimming club is not to develop one or two individuals at the expense of the others, but to try to get every member to make good. In a handicap race everybody has a fair chance of winning, and consequently each member does his best and cannot help but steadily improve, whereas in a straight race the weaker swimmers often get discouraged, and in the long run lose interest in the sport.
There were a large number of competitors in the races last night, and it was found necessary to swim off three heats. The first was won by W. Lang, whose competitors were T. Hillier, G. Hodgset, V. Beckwith, R. Hall, F. Harling and Frank Crompton. In the second heat C. Jumper, J. Warner, A. Dobson, S. Cropper, A. J. Bracco, E. Crompton and L. Godfrey started; A. R. Dobson finished first, A. Knight, J. Beckwith, O. Dinsdale, T. Dabell, J. Pettifrew, J. Stokes and P. Carre took part in the third heat, which was won by A. Knight. The finals will be held to-night, when the winners of the three heats will compete.
A meeting was held after the races last night, at which it was decided to hold a match among the members in which the breast stroke would have to be used. This will afford a chance to those who find it difficult to master the half submarine crawl. Secretary Bracco, F. R. Pomfret and T. Dalsell have offered medals for this race, which will take place to-night after the finals in the handicap.

BASEBALL HAL CHASE LEAVES NEW YORK

Stockton, Cal., Sept. 3.—The report that Hal Chase of the New York American team, is on his way from New York and will play with the Stockton State League team the balance of the season on first base is confirmed by Manager Cy Moring, of that club, in which he declares that he would start from New York on September 1st. According to the letter dissatisfaction with the New York management, coupled with a flattering offer from Moring, are responsible for the jump.

committee has been formed with the Hon. Harry L. W. Lawson as president, and including Lord Deaborough, the Mayor of London, the mayor of Henley-on-Thames, and Sir W. P. Treloar.

PHEASANT AND QUAIL. SEASON ANNOUNCED

This week's issue of the British Columbia Gazette contains the announcement regarding the open season for cock pheasant and quail shooting, for which local sportsmen have been looking for some time. In the districts around Victoria, Esquimalt, Cowichan, Saanich and the Islands, these birds may be shot this year between October 1st and Jan. 1st, 1909, both dates inclusive. The Gazette notices say:
"That the disabilities as to the shooting of cock pheasants be removed with respect to the Saanich, Esquimalt, Cowichan and Islands electoral districts, from the first day of October, 1908, to the first day of January, 1909, both days inclusive."
"With respect to the Nanaimo and Newcastle electoral districts, from the 15th day of October, 1908, to the 31st day of December, 1908, both days inclusive."

ATHLETICS. ANOTHER MARATHON RACE.

Another Marathon race, organized by the London Evening News, will be held on the second Saturday in October. The arrangements will follow as closely as possible on those of the Marathon race held last month. The route will be the same, the starting point being Windsor, and arrangements have been made with Mrs. Kivirly for the use of the Stadium at the finish. The first prize will be $500, and other prizes will be awarded to the second, third, etc. The object of the race is to bring out the latent talent which it is certain this country possesses in the way of long-distance runners.

THE REGIMENT PLANS SPORTS

PLAN FOR FALL AND WINTER WORK

Will Have Football, Basketball and Indoor Baseball Teams This Winter.

The annual meeting of the sports club of the Fifth Regiment, C. G. A., was held at the drill hall on Wednesday evening last. After the reports of the various committees had been read and adopted the election of officers took place as follows: President, Lieut. Stern (re-elected); secretary-treasurer, Corporal Loat (re-elected); executive committee, Corporals Richardson and Williams; gunners, Dinsdale, Kroeger, Beaven and Savage.
The suggestion that a football team be organized to enter the City League met with unanimous approval, and a practice game will be held at Beacon Hill at 3:30 to-morrow afternoon at which a good turnout is requested as the men will be picked for the first match of the season against Cedar Hill on Labor Day.
Some discussion arose about the selection of a trainer for the team, the matter being finally settled by Gunner Alde kindly offering to officiate in that capacity, and he promises to lose no time in getting the boys into good physical condition.
A programme of winter sports was broadly formulated. It was decided to take up basketball as well as indoor baseball and matches may be arranged with other teams. The proposal to form a school of arms was greeted with enthusiasm, and it was decided to engage competent instructors in fencing, bayonet, drill and gymnastics.
The meeting expressed itself as very pleased to learn that provision had been made for a series of boxing tournaments to be held during the winter months. It is felt that there are men in the regiment who are good exponents of the many art, and that boxing should be encouraged.
A number of minor matters were discussed after which the meeting adjourned.
QUICK SMOKING COMPETITIONS.
Started in one or two small places a few years ago, "Smokers' Clubs" have proved most popular institutions, and are now to be found in nearly every village in Germany. The members meet in the local taverns once a week, and drink much beer and smoke many pipes of tobacco.
The most interesting feature of these clubs, however, is the annual festival, to which members of neighboring clubs are invited to take part in a smokers' competition, held under precise and elaborate rules and conditions. The contestants are divided into two parties of ten each, and are seated on a platform at the end of the room. The president then weighs out with great exactitude five grammes, about one-sixth of an ounce, of tobacco for each man, who rams it into a new pipe.

At a given signal matches are struck, pipes lit, and all begin smoking furiously, so that they are soon hidden in clouds of smoke. Meanwhile the judge counts aloud the seconds and minutes as they fly, and before three minutes have passed most of the pipes have been smoked out. Each man's time is duly entered on a sheet as he hands over his pipe, and the tobacco ashes in it are carefully examined to see that the pipe has really been smoked out. The prizes consist for the most part of beer steins and smokers' articles, such as pipes and tobacco jars and cases. Music plays a prominent part in the entertainments, which are becoming increasingly numerous and popular.

Y. M. C. A.'S "MANHOOD FACTORY"

The Y. M. C. A. has started a campaign in Perth, Western Australia, and is using decidedly modern methods of advertising itself. Showcards are being exhibited, bearing such inscriptions as: "Don't worry! Watch us grow!" "$50,000 in ten days. Why not?" "Gymnasium at thirty saves doctor's bill." "At fifty," "Young manhood-making or old manhood-making—which?" "Has a manhood factory in Perth a personal and business relation to you?"

PRESERVING FLOUR.

Such interest has been shown of late by the Army and Navy authorities in a new method of preserving flour by means of compression. With hydraulic pressure apparatus the flour is squeezed into the form of bricks, and experiments are reported to have shown that the pressure destroys all forms of larval life, thus preserving the flour from the ravages of insects, while it is equally secure from mould. Three hundred pounds of compressed flour occupy the same space as 100 pounds of flour in the ordinary state.
Statistics go to prove that school teachers are, on an average, long-lived.

VICTORIA ELEVEN TO PLAY PACIFIC CLUB

Two Teams Will Play To-morrow at Jubilee Hospital.

Instead of playing a selected eleven from the local baseball club, the Victoria cricket team will meet the Pacific club to-morrow afternoon at the Jubilee hospital grounds, the game commencing promptly at 2 o'clock. The match is sure to be an interesting one as both teams will have some of the best cricketers on the Island.

AN EXTINCT WORLD.

Before Dr. Charcot sailed from Havre aboard the Porpoise last week to explore the Antarctic regions, he explained the chief object of his expedition. The first is to test the theory that the South Pole is the centre of a vast continent. Should the Antarctic prove to be a sixth continent, it may be possible by comparative methods to trace the history of territorial changes which took place when the region of which Lyons is the centre was covered with Alpine glaciers.
That the Antarctic holds marvellous secrets concerning the origin of life is a theory cherished by investigators. "The heart beats faster," says Dr. Charcot, writing on the subject, "at the thought that we may discover the remains of an extinct world, and thus bring back new ideas of the history of life and the earth's organism."
The expedition is expected (says the Paris correspondent of the London Daily Express) to last two years, and large stores of food have been laid in, of which the following are a few items—12 tons preserved meat, 22,000 bottles of wine, 5 tons of desiccated vegetables, 6 tons of flour, 1 ton of dried fruit, and 11 tons of chocolate and jam.
—As the new steam shovel ordered for the E. & N. railway has now arrived from the Mainland, the work of filling in the trestle work at Mill stream, near Nanaimo, will be rushed along as fast as possible.

THE TRUTH ABOUT UNEMPLOYMENT

We hear a great deal about the problem of unemployment, but it is questionable whether many of us adequately realize the range and extent of this industrial and social cancer. Unless we recognize the great and growing disparity between the percentage of unskilled labor unemployed and the percentage of skilled labor similarly situated, and unless we consider emigration statistics as well as unemployment returns, not forgetting figures relating to pauperism, we can form no true conception of the deplorable conditions of the British labor market.

of the skilled and organized, and a much higher percentage of the unskilled and unorganized, among those workers remaining at home, have lacked employment. Our willing workers are still emigrating at the rate of a quarter of a million a year, and still chronic unemployment, distress and pauperism curse large and increasing numbers of those remaining. In the last few years, in proportion to population, for every man who has emigrated from Germany, ten more have left the United Kingdom. While we have been shedding our people at the rate of 5,000 a week, the United States have been absorbing immigrants at the rate of 20,000 a week. Notwithstanding the huge exodus of workmen from this country, our labor market has been glutted, while in other countries there has frequently been an absolute dearth of labor. Emigration statistics alone prove beyond dispute or cavil that in no country possessing a willing and skillful population is unemployment so widespread or chronic as in Great Britain.

WELLINGTON TO TAKE COAL TO SKAGWAY

Lorne Towing Collier to Victoria for Overhauling After Long Lay-up.

After lying idle at Comox for several months the Wellington Collier, Company's steamer Wellington left the coaling port to-day in tow of the tug Lorne for Victoria, and will, upon arrival, be overhauled preparatory to making a trip to Skagway.

The Wellington was laid up on account of the overstocking of the San Francisco market with Australian coal, following the settlement of the big colliery strike in New South Wales. Since that time the Wellington Collier Company has not had any steamer in service carrying coal to the Bay City.

Upon arrival the Wellington will be hauled out, and after a thorough overhauling will sail about Sept. 11th for Skagway from Comox with 2,400 tons of coal.

PRINCESS ENA TAKES LUMBER AND SUPPLIES

C. P. R. Freighter Left for Nootka and Whaling Stations Yesterday.

Loaded with 25,000 feet of lumber and 10 tons of general freight for the Nootka whaling stations, and 613 empty barrels, 200 tons of coal and a quantity of supplies for the whaling stations, the C. P. R. freighter Princess Ena sailed for the West Coast last night. She was reported passing Pacheña wireless station at 8 a. m. to-day.

The Ena will load whale-oil, bone and fertilizer at the two whaling stations and will return to port about the middle of next week.

WRECK OFF PT. ARENA REMAINS A MYSTERY

Big Load of Lumber and Pieces of Wreckage Coming Ashore.

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—The steam schooner Samoa, which arrived here today, passed Point Arena yesterday evening, but saw no vessel in distress. The lumber schooner Copo, arriving last night, reported a vessel near Point Arena and this is supposed to have been the Samoa.

According to the records of the marine exchange here to-day there are only three vessels which might have been wrecked at Point Arena last night. The Willapa, from Griks Harbor, loaded with lumber from San Pedro, due to-day, has not been reported. The other two are the Vanguard and the North Fork, both from San Francisco, and both due at Eureka to-day. The North Fork carried explosives. The fact that the wrecked ship must have carried lumber, apparently eliminates the northbound ships and leaves only the Willapa, which, it is thought, must have passed that point before last night.

A dispatch from Point Arena says Captain Varney, superintendent of the life-saving service on this coast, has returned from the station near here and reports that the lumber drift amounts to about 100,000 feet. The life savers found a ladder twenty-four feet long and fifty feet of a nine-inch hawser. Captain Varney gives it as his opinion that the lumber constituted the deck-load of a vessel from which it was washed by heavy seas.

FAMOUS DR. KOCH REACHED CITY TO-DAY

He is Returning From Japan by the Empress of India.

After completing a tour in the Orient with Mrs. Koch, the eminent bacteriologist, Prof. Dr. Robert Koch, is returning to Europe via Canada, reaching here to-day on the Empress of India. While in Japan Dr. Koch gave a number of lectures and received invitations to visit the Philippines and other places, which he was unable to accept.

The distinguished German professor, who availed that he was forced to leave Chicago during his recent visit through the persistence of newspapermen, refused to grant an interview when approached on board the Empress of India to-day. "I do not give interviews," he said, "I don't like it, and then again I am very busy." Having said this Dr. Koch shrugged his shoulders and resumed his pastime of watching the Chinese passengers leaving the ship.

EMPRESS OF INDIA ARRIVES

WHITE LINER BROUGHT NOTABLE PASSENGERS

Has Cargo of Silk Valued at Over One Million Dollars.

A day ahead of schedule time the R. M. S. Empress of India, Capt. Beecham, R. N. R., came to port shortly before noon to-day, bringing over 600 passengers and in her cargo, valued at $1,000,000, including a shipment of 1,500 bales of silk valued at approximately $1,045,000.

Prominent among the 46 saloon passengers who came over on the white liner were Dr. Koch, the eminent bacteriologist, who, accompanied by Mrs. Koch, has been touring Japan; H. E. McDonald, wife of the British Ambassador to Japan, who is en route to London; Lady T. A. C. Sykes, wife of Sir Tatum Sykes, who has been touring in the Orient; and Hon. K. Hara, who is ex-minister of the Japanese home office, and is on his way to Europe via Vancouver, Seattle and the United States.

A deputation of prominent Japanese residents made up of Messrs. Wanibe, Ishii and Nagano, of this city, and T. Imai, chancellor of the Japanese consulate at Vancouver, met Mr. Hara, who is accompanied by K. Hijima, formerly vice-consul at Vancouver, and S. Yoshimura. Mr. Hara is on a private tour and will remain only a few days in Vancouver, going thence to Seattle and San Francisco. After spending a month on this continent Mr. Hara will visit London and other European capitals, returning to Japan by way of the trans-Siberian railway.

Hon. K. Hara was minister of Home Affairs, an office equal to that of Minister of the Interior in this country; the last Japanese cabinet. He was born in 1854 and filled several important posts in the government offices up to the time of his appointment to the post of minister to Korea which he assumed in 1896, resigning the following year. In 1897 he became chief editor of the weekly "Mantetsu" and returned to political life in 1899, being made minister of communications. He sat as a member of parliament from 1902 to 1905 and then joined the Saionji ministry.

Among the other saloon passengers was Mrs. Warn, wife of a former chief steward of the R. M. S. Empress of India, who is returning from Shanghai to visit relatives in Vancouver. The full list of saloon passengers is as follows: S. Aral, E. F. Bateman, A. V. Bling, Miss Bradley, M. B. Buxton, C. Colquhoun, Capt. T. W. Craig, W. Drosemeir, Mrs. W. Drosemeir, H. R. One Sailor Killed in Fracas on Dismasted Chilean Barque.

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—News of a mutiny, accompanied by a tragedy on the Chilean barque Eaton Hall during a stormy voyage in which the vessel was dismasted, was brought to-day by the steamship Mariposa, arriving from Tahiti.

The Eaton Hall was bound from Newcastle, Australia, to Valparaiso, on August 12th, when the ship was about sixty miles from Theresa reef, a terrible storm sprang up, tearing the masts out and littering the decks with refuse.

BIG SHIP AUSTRALIA SNATCHED FROM SANDS

Steamship Curacao Saved Four-master From Being Wrecked.

Drifting swiftly toward the surf-beaten sands of Mazatlan roadstead, where more than one vessel has been battered to pieces by the spuming seas, the British ship Australia was saved from destruction on the night of August 22nd by the prompt assistance of the Pacific Coast S. S. Company's steamship Curacao.

The ship, a four-master, was heading for an anchorage in Mazatlan roadstead, which permits of vessels of ordinary draught getting some small shelter from southerly and northerly winds between the islands which guard either end. Coming along before a stiff evening breeze and compelled, through the absence of tug, at the Mexican port, to sail right up to an anchorage, the Australia suddenly found herself becalmed between the rocks on either side of the roadstead.

The master of the vessel, realizing his danger, immediately fired blue-light to attract the attention of neighboring shipping, and the Curacao came to her aid. From the steamship a boat put off with a hawser, and reached the Australia with difficulty. Before the Curacao could get way on the wind-jammer the latter had touched twice, but finally she was literally snatched from the boulder studded sands and towed under the lee of the southern headland where a safe anchorage was found.

MARINE NOTES

Three additions were made to the overdue list yesterday as follows: American ship Astral, 100 days, out from Hilo for Delaware breakwater, 100 per cent.; French ship Almerind, 103 days out from Shields for Valparaiso, 10 per cent.; German ship Mabel Rickmers, 116 days out from Yokohama for Bangkok, 65 per cent.

The new schedule of the Canadian-Australian line, just issued, gives the first sailing of the fine new 5,000 ton liner Makura to this port from Sydney as November 23rd. She is due about December 14th or 15th and will sail for Sydney again on January 1st.

A CURE FOR WORRY

A Message to Men With Families.

"Between us," the Doctor said, "I suppose we must have as good opportunities of studying mankind."

"And womankind," interjected the Solicitor, drily.

"And womankind," the Doctor assented; "as good opportunities as any two professions going."

"I suppose you have," the Philosopher agreed thoughtfully. "Now, tell me, what in your experience are the chief causes of the troubles which distress mankind—and womankind?"

"The Doctor's reply was prompt. "Evil is wrought by want of thought, more than by want of heart," he quoted.

"Myself," said the Solicitor; "I'm inclined to agree. I've been dealing with a case to-day which bears out your point. Client of mine died the other day, man about forty left a wife and three children, and nothing to support them—literally nothing. His bank balance was a few pounds, and his life-insurance was nothing else."

"I'll bet," cried the Doctor. "No, only about a week. Healthy man, always seemed quite fit and strong. Had various veins, neglected them, clot of blood in the heart—I believe that was the medical explanation. The Doctor nodded.

"The man was a criminal," said the Philosopher, hotly. "It is a crime in a married man not to insure his life. Why wasn't he insured?"

"The old story. Never thought about it when he was young. Married at thirty; talked about it then. Always said he must take out policies some day, but never did. The idea that he might die suddenly never occurred to him. I used to urge him to think about the future, but he was the kind of healthy animal who thinks he is going to live for ever."

"Kind of selfish idiot!" muttered the Philosopher.

thirty pounds a year to them? he said, pitiously. He'd been meaning to take out more ever since he began to do well in business, but he'd put it off and put it off, thinking it was the sort of thing a man could do any time. Now he felt it was too late." "Was it too late?" inquired the Philosopher.

"Not a bit of it. I talked to him like a father. There's nothing for you to die of, I told him. If you go and peg out, you'll be doing me an exceedingly bad turn. People will say I'm the doctor that kills his patients even when there's nothing the matter with them. If you're really anxious about your wife and children," I said, "your best plan is to get well quickly and make their future secure by insuring yourself properly. At present you're going the right way to kill yourself and leave them with nothing to live upon."

"Did it answer?" "Admirably. I had shaken him up. I had put new life into him. From that day he began to improve, and three weeks afterwards he was back at business. He insured himself very heavily at once, at pretty heavy premiums, so he told me, and the ungrateful brute has never had anything the matter with him since. I dined with him last week, and he looked revictually well."

"Ever had the same kind of trouble with patients since?" the Solicitor asked.

"No, I don't recall any case so definite as that. But I can generally tell by signs not difficult to read whether a man is ill at ease about those he may have to leave behind him. I've come across several cases where men have been afraid of death on their own account. When they know their dear ones are well provided for they are, as a rule, quite calm at the prospect of not getting better. It's the men who haven't made provision who are miserable and lose heart and implore me to find some way of saving their lives. Then, of course, when their minds are troubled and their nerves on edge, they are far more difficult to cure."

"D'you recollect that case of the young bank manager who got three years for hanking with the bank's money last year?" the Solicitor said. "The man was no thief in the ordinary sense. He was in the same plight as the doctor's patient. Had a wife and son, boy of twelve, just going to a public school. Hadn't insured when he was young and could get cheap rates. Couldn't afford to pay forty-five-year-old rates for a big sum—ten thousand pounds—has wasted that money and is now to write to make 10,000 by speculating. But people who have much at stake never make good gamblers. He soon got into difficulties. Then he began to borrow from the bank. He really meant it to be borrowing, but he went on losing, and in course of time his 'loans' couldn't be concealed any longer. Now he's in Portland, simply want of thought. Better-hearted man never breathed."

"Ha!" said the Philosopher, "a very interesting talk. And the moral is obvious. I shall at once insure my life in case I ever get married."

For the Philosopher, you see, was like all genuine philosophers—a very young man.—H. A. Milton, in the London Mail.

LUNATIC'S MOCK BURIAL

A remarkable story of a mock burial in the churchyard at Mucklestone, Staffordshire, is told by the rector, the Rev. Edmund Hinchcliffe.

In an interview Mr. Hinchcliffe said that the discovery was made in 1853, when the churchyard was being levelled to a lower depth. A workman accidentally opened one of the coffins with his pick. Instead of a body only sawdust and stones were found inside the coffin. The discovery coincided with a local story of the mock funeral of a lunatic, who, it was alleged, was confined in an attic at a farmstead near Mucklestone.

It was a fact, said the rector, that a lunatic named George Smith was kept in the farmhouse in question. When the facts leaked out, inquiries were made and the afflicted person was removed to the asylum.

"Only recently," continued the rector, "have been persons whose grand parents spoke to them of having seen Smith taken to Stafford asylum, and others also speak of their grandparents having seen his mock funeral in Mucklestone churchyard. The matter is, however, complicated by old inhabitants who have told me that George Smith was actually buried yards away from the grave in which stones and sawdust were found."

Remarkable Statement Showing the Hoarded Wealth of India Lying Fallow

Sir Ernest Cable, a former member of the Viceroy of India's Council and an ex-president of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, writing to the London Times, maintains that there is an enormous amount of wealth—estimated, he says, by persons of the highest authority at $1,500,000,000—lying fallow in India. The failure of the British government to enlist the financial confidence of the people of India Sir Ernest considers one of the weakest parts of the British administration. "It is common knowledge," he says, "that for years past India has been adorning gold and silver. The late Henry Dunning Macleod, in his book on the Indian currency, that persons of the highest authority estimated the hoards at $1,500,000,000, and one financial organ says that the hoarding averages seven millions sterling yearly. If there is anything at all in these figures—and they are generally accepted—they are clearly an enormous amount of wealth lying fallow in India. "Surely it is worth while making an attempt to utilize some at least of these dormant resources for the benefit both of the people and the country at large. The task may be a hard one, the difficulties may be well-nigh insuperable, but success would be fruitful of advantages both to India and the Empire. For years there has been much talk about the need for inducing the shy Indian capitalist to bring out his fufees. But no practical measures have ever been taken, although in the meantime our railways are being starved for want of capital, and industrial enterprise is being hampered. "If," adds Sir Ernest Cable, "the people of India could be persuaded to put the bulk of their surplus wealth into the railways, into irrigation works, and into the development of the industrial and commercial resources of the continent, there would gradually ensue a welding together of the material interests of the European and the Indian. Such a bond of union, between the rulers and the ruled, would surely go far to promote those feelings of cooperation and loyalty which are essential if the Indian Empire is to continue to advance."

BACK FROM YELLOWSTONE

T. W. Paterson has returned from a visit to the Yellowstone park, where he spent three weeks' time. He drove through the section where the hold-up occurred only the day following that incident. Mr. Paterson was delighted with the trip and describes the park in glowing terms. There are 100 routes of drives in it that are watered every day and kept in the best of condition. Not the least interesting feature of the park is the degree to which the animals have been tamed, although given their liberty. The deer are not disturbed by passersby and the bear will eat out of the hand. The park, Mr. Paterson says, affords a delightful place for a visit.

The town of Kipling has just blossomed out in Canada, where there is only one town of Shakespeare. The nearest to United States comes to having a Shakespeare. Notwithstanding all the Browning clubs, there isn't a Browning on the American map.

A FIRE CAUSED BY SEA WAVES

In spite of apparent impossibility, such a thing actually happened some few weeks ago on the western coast of Ireland. The rocks along this coast, which the huge Atlantic rollers have for centuries been slowly breaking down and piercing with great caverns, contain in their depths masses of iron pyrites and alum. At one part of the coast the water penetrated to these, and a rapid oxidation took place, which produced a heat fierce enough to set the whole cliff on fire. For weeks the rocks burnt like a regular volcano, and great clouds of smoke and vapor rose high in the air. MYSTERY OF OAKLAND MURDER CASE DEEPENS

Husband of Victim Commits Suicide—Implicates Another Man.

Oakland, Cal., Sept. 4.—Daniel J. Donohue, husband of Mrs. Alice Donohue, who was murdered and buried in Emeryville, a suburb of Oakland, and whose body was found last Sunday, shot and killed himself in his home some time yesterday. His body was found by Deputy Coroner Sergeant and Deputy Public Administrator Flood, who had gone to search for him.

Donohue was to have been forced to give proof yesterday afternoon of his marriage to the murdered woman. He had already made application for the $8,000 cash in bank and the life insurance of $700 left by Mrs. Donohue. He was under subpoena to appear as a witness at the inquest which met yesterday afternoon. Coroner Tisdale waited half an hour and then ordered his deputy to go after Donohue. The deputy public administrator also went along.

The officers called at the Donohue home in Emeryville and knocked repeatedly on the door. Receiving no answer they forced an entrance and found Donohue's dead body. His hand still grasped the revolver with which he had ended his life.

Donohue had killed himself before dressing. His body had on only a night shirt. On a table was found this note:

"I am innocent of this crime. If you find Joseph Berry you got the man that had or done the deed."

The note was not signed. Joseph Berry is the man with whom Mrs. Donohue is reported to have lived before she took up with Donohue. The police are now bending every effort to locate him. A card found in the Donohue house gives his address at one time as 766 Mission street, San Francisco. The suicide of Donohue caused the continuance of the inquest until next Tuesday. It leaves the murder farther than ever from a solution.

That Donohue was not married to the dead woman is the belief of the authorities. The note left by him, however, is not fully believed, for both Captain of Detectives Petersen and Sheriff Barnett feel that Donohue was concerned in the murder, and that he shot himself when he knew that he must explain under oath his relations with Mrs. Donohue, and his haste in making application for her money and life insurance.

Donohue was last seen about 8 o'clock yesterday morning. He was then in his home, but was undressed. He did not know until after that hour that the police suspected him of knowing more than he had told. That he shot himself as soon as he became aware that he was under the eyes of the police seems certain.

Neighbors of the Donohues state that as long as a month ago Donohue contemplated suicide. He stated then that he was worried over his wife's disappearance and thought he would end his life. Mrs. Donohue was last seen alive on the evening of June 11th. On that evening she dined with her supposed husband. The chemist's report shows that the woman was killed within two hours after dinner.

The note left by Donohue will change the attitude of the police toward Gustav Ahlstedt, alias Arkell, who has been held on suspicion. It did not mention Arkell.

however, his wife's neck was slashed from ear to ear.

On this portion of his confession the police placed the least credence and their efforts in to-day's investigations is centered in a search for another stronger motive, while the medical examiner is carefully examining the body for marks of the blow which caused her death. The evidence of the gashing of the neck was plain and it may be that this caused the woman's death but Jordan's denial of any knowledge of this act made the matter one for close attention.

His story of asphyxia following the blow which knocked Mrs. Jordan down the stairs, is also a point upon which the police have laid particular stress in their instructions to the medical examiner during the latter's examination of Jordan himself, as it is supposed that he might be a victim of drugs. This latter idea he denies.

Attorney Scharton, who has been procured for the defence of Jordan by his brother-in-law, Jesse L. Livermore, the cotton market operator, states that he already had evidence of Jordan's mental derangement several weeks before the murder and in this case the murderer's insanity must account for some of the lapses in his confession, although as a whole it was in anticipation of a plea of "not guilty" when Jordan was arraigned before Judge Butler in the Somerville police court to-day, that the police had arranged to ask for a continuance of the case while a plea of "guilty" would mean his committal to the East Cambridge jail to await a hearing by the grand jury.

GLASGOW CHILDREN CRYING FOR BREAD

Unemployed Attempt to Break Into City Council Chamber.

Glasgow, Sept. 4.—A number of unemployed of Glasgow yesterday made an unsuccessful attempt to get a hearing before the municipal council. Four hundred men attempted to break down the doors of the room where the council was in session. Police reserves were called out and restored order.

The fact of the members of the council, who agreed to receive a deputation of the unemployed and the prudence of the police in not attempting to make arrests, resulted in the quiet dispersal of the malcontents of the town. A strongly worded manifesto, which has been posted in the streets in the poorer quarters, however, declares that 60,000 adults and 100,000 children are crying for bread in the city of plenty, and threatens a recurrence of the bread riots unless the authorities adopt palliative measures.

James Ramsay, of the well known confectionery firm of Ramsay Bros., of Vancouver, is in the city. He intends spending a little time on Vancouver Island, making a tour with the local representative, W. P. Bassett.

Some of the unemployed "begging" every year, but of these not more than sixty are violent enough to do any serious damage.
