Director of the Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:--

Sometime ago we sent you a box containing about 12 or 15 samples to be assayed for gold, and requested you to let us know what the expense of assaying would be. We received your letter advising cost of the assays, the amount of which has slipped our mind; up to the present time we have not received the reports on the assays.

Will you kindly let us know when we may expect them? Also if you desire us to remit before giving us the reports? An early communication will oblige,

Yours very truly,

H. B. Parsons Assst. Secy.
