nature of its provisions, we have conclude to give a sketch of them. We are unable to give President: anhiert to confirmation by the Sonate. The salary is four thousand dollars a year. The Sourceary of the Treasury may assign to him the necessary clerks; and be is granted full franking privileges. By the second section the President is nutborized to divide the States and collection districts, which shall not exceed in ntimber the representatives in Congress to which the State or Territory may be collided except in California, where they may equal the num-ber of Representatives and Senators. From and for each such district he may appoint an asses-aor and a collector, subject to confirmation by the Senate. Each assessed is to subdivide his district into assessment districts subject to con and to appoint from and for each of them un is to take an oath of allegiance and office, under a penalty of one hundred dollars, half to go to mer, with costs. The collector is to give a bond for such amount as the Com sioner shall fix, and to be approved by the Solicitor of the Treasury, with not less than five surelies for the faithful performance of his dutles., He is authorized to appoint deputies, cartain casas, those subject to imposts under the tailed account of their rate, amount, and character. At those periods the assistant assessors are returns and ascertain cause of omission to the officer, the party liable consenting to his ist and signing it. Making false or fraudulent returns is made subject to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars and costs, recoverable and true assessment lists are to be made by the asses sors or desistante, who are authorized to ter premises for the purpose. From these ore is to be no appeal. In case of absence of the notification. In cases of omission to com-

Cut.-A man named O'Brien was taken to the Charity Hospital on Friday, with two cuts under his left sys. They are not serious. He says he does not know who cut him; but a man named Clemon has been arrosted on the charge of having dous it. Whisky, in all probability, had its full share in the transaction.

Notice Again.—All troubles between land-lords and tenants must be referred to the Pro-vost Marshal. They positively will not be listened to in the Provost Court. This has been repeatedly announced, and ought to be general-ly known now. People will spare themselves and the Provost Court some annoyance, if they will attend to it.

Pero.—From Peru there is nothing to communicate, with the exception of an attempted revolution at Arquipa, on the 14th instant, and a rather severe earthquake at Callan and Lima on the 28th. As to the former, the plan hid was to attack the house of Gen. San Homan and, assessinate him, which scheme was, however, frustrated about a couple of hours previous to the hour appointed tor, its execution; one of the conspirators having given notice, which enabled such mouns to be instantly adopted as lad to the breaking up of the plot. Of course the conspirators were the friends of Echebique, who was to have been preclaimed by the assessins, so soon as they had done for San Roman. The guards sustained themselves till troops sent to their aid from the capital arrived and gut to flight the disordered mass of heurgents. As all this was in the immediate neighborhood of Caracas, the city was in great alares. The rebels committed great atructities; woonded and dying men were murdered with bayonets and awords; bodies have been found horriting mutilated—intentions hung upon the trees, eyes tornous and heads of the militial to Caracas had been called to arms, and volunteers came forward in profusion. The jort of Lagusyra has been closed, and no vessel whatever is allowed to depart.

Recaulty the rebel steamer Fox, from Havana, was captured by our croisers, and two bage of mail matter were found on board of her. Among their contents was a voluntianous correspondence between parties in Europe and Moos. Joseph Deynoody, the Belgian Consul in New Orleans, implicating the latter in running cotton through the Blockade. Gen. Butter sent for M. Deynoods, and acquainted him with his having the letters. M Deynood protested his innoceance of the obarge, but the correspondence was strongly against him, and Gen. Butter determined to refer the matter to the State Department, which he has done in the following letter:

Dear Sir: The enclosed letters which I send you were captured on the steamer Fox. They were directed to Mons. Joseph Deynood, the Belgian Counni here, and I have reason to believe that he has been engaged in running cotton through the blockade.
