II. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE:

A group of about thirty-two soldiers separated from the main body of Japanese troops after a battle with the Americans in April 1945 and hid in the forest near Jagna, Bohol, P.I. These Japanese frequently stole food from neighboring settlements.

On 21 April 1945, a Japanese shot at two Filipino men who had tried to flee. One was seriously wounded and the other killed (R 34). On the same day, Japanese retreating from an encounter with guerrillas bayoneted and beat a family whose house they looted. One of the children died of his wounds (R 27).

On 17 May 1945, Japanese captured five Filipino civilians, tied them and took them away. About a week later, their mutilated bodies were found in the forest toward which they were taken by the Japanese (R 21, 24).

In September 1945, two Japanese looted a home in Jagna and shot an eight-year-old girl (R 31).

In October 1945, Japanese raided a home in Jagna wounded the owner and carried away two Filipino women. The older woman succeeded in escaping from the Japanese camp the same evening, but the other was kept there until shortly before their surrender in February 1946 (R 13, 14, 15, 16). She declares that during this period she was raped by nineteen different Japanese all of whom she has identified from among those in custody, according to the investigator's report.
