PREFATORY NOTE

This list is the result of cooperation between the Division of Bibliography and the State and legislative reference librarians throughout the country. A preliminary list was prepared in typewritten form and sent to each State library or legislative reference library where such existed. Results in the form of additional titles or suggestions were received from the following States:

California
Kansas
Kentucky
Maine
Massachusetts
Michigan
Oregon
Pennsylvania
Ohio
Rhode Island
Texas
Virginia
Wisconsin

Especially noteworthy were the contributions from Oregon, Ohio, and Wisconsin.

In the final revision the material was separated by countries, and in the case of the United States a further separation was made into general, favorable, and opposed. A general view of the classification is afforded by the table of contents.

 In this article the author defines his position on the public questions of the day including the initiative, referendum and recall. On the former he says: "In short, I believe that the initiative and referendum should be used, not as substitutes for representative government, but as methods of making such government really representative. Action by the initiative or referendum ought not to be the normal way of legislation; but the power to take it should be provided in the Constitution, . . ."
 On the recall in general he says: "I believe it should be generally provided, but with such restrictions as will make it available only when there is a widespread and genuine public feeling among a majority of the voters." On the recall of judges we quote the following: "But either the recall will have to be adopted or else it will have to be made much easier than it now is to get rid, not merely of a bad judge, but of a judge who, however virtuous, has grown so out of touch with social needs and facts that he is unfit longer to render good service on the bench. . . . But when a judge decides a Constitutional question, when he decides what the people as a whole can or cannot do, the people should have the right to recall that decision if they think it wrong."
