INTERESTING LETTER

Written to the Editor of a Daily Paper by Katherine Du Barry.

A certain seelety butterfly from one of onrease cities who wanted to become a great actress all at one jump went to New York recently, taking with her several frunks full of clothes and other accessories necessary for unaking the desired lupression on managers and agents and to clothe her properly for the great roles site aspired to play. In a short time she returned to her native city, much chagrined, and gave an interview to a paper in answer to which Miss Katherine De Barry of Eugenle Blair'a Zaza coupany sent the following letter: Your worthy paper publishes an article headed, in large black type, "How a Society Beanty Besieged Broadway's Agencles, and Why She Came Back." Also a picture of the "beauty" is given much space.

Feeling sure you do not want to give your numerous readers the wrong impression of stage women, I would like to correct the impression the society girl's interview may give to many of your readers not familiar with stage folks, whose ophilon and respect we all care about.

In the first place, the young lady could have seen any of our haid-working, earnest actresses who had occasion to walk on Broadway (and they never do unless they are compelled to) dressed in the same manner that any refined, intelligent business woman dresses, and with as much taste, too. But she evidently was not stracted by the actresses. The poor, silly girls she described, with I onla XIII, heels and frills and things of that sort, were, no doubt, poor chorns girls who, from a long, enforced vacation and enupty purse, had to dress as best they could—perhaps in stage clothes—and were only doing what she was trylng to do—look their lest in their own poor way. They were not gradnates from Oho Wesleyan University or Burton School of Uratory or society girls from retined homes, or they would have known better than to dress that way on a public highway. They did not carry five trunks (or hearly weak and they have a context in their own poo Lesides our work. Many of us are domestic, womanly women, who love bome life, but never have it.

To keep other society girls from seeking favors from Broadway agencies, let me tell you that the $50 a week in a sham. Chorus girls silarles range from $15 to $25 a week; and one lina to be an actress, and a good one, too, before they can commsnd $50 a week. And one of the tell your pay all your living expenses and furnish your own atage wardrobe. One must begin at "A B C," and after a struggle of hard work and long walts and much competition and you reach "L M N O P" yon are lucky to get $50 a week nowadays. One of the reasons for this is because "Misa Bris-a-Bras Longfeilow, a society queen, with a rich husband or papa, decides to go on the stage. She is fully prepared, with ten trunks of beautiful gowns, dlamonds and a long list of followers," and "we can get her for $20 a week."

If your popular paper would give the same space and prominence to the work of any of the many hard-working local women who are now on the stage and who play this city weekly, they would he helping them to $50 a week by hringing them into prominence-grauting, of course, that their work deserved it.

EVA MUDGE.

The Columbia Theatre, Chreinnail, O. had a turn last week that is a novelty—one may say a remarkably clever novelty. Peerless, handsome Eva Mudge presented her act, A. Milltary Maid. In a manner that deserves more than passing notice. The Columbia's bill last week was an extraordinarily good and well balancedone. Manager Anderson, always on the alert to give his patrons the very best in vanueville, certainly dished up a special treat in Miss Mudge. Imagine a beautiful young girl, graceful as a gazelle, changing from a soldier to a Red Cross nurse; from a society girl to a Confederate general; from a Society girl to a Confederate general; from a Confederate general; from a Confederate general; from a Confederate general to a sonbrette, and as impossible as it may seem, the time, in changing any of these characters, did not take more than line seemed. Many bets were made linst week that Miss Midde had a double, but a considerate general so a confederate general to a sonbrette, and as impossible curick changes is co, co' in the fact that Miss Midde to the whole line who always help her in her act. Eva has been most fortunate in the selection of her parents. R. C. Mudge, her father, is one of New York City's best known capitalists. All rich men have some hobby, and Mr. Mudge'a hobby has been to make his dangher a great artiat, and he has succeeded beyond his fondest hopes, Last, but not least, Eva Mudge has a fine voice, and the way she renders. George Ade's The County Chairman has made a marked success in the past five weeks? rus at the Studebaker in Chicago. It is extremely popular, for the people of George Ade's play are just such folk as one encounters in the villages of the Middle West, and they are made to live in real life instead of to do unusual und unnatural things. In a ward, it is whole-somely American, and adds another laured to the excellent work of the sone of Indiana in the fields of drama, music and literature.

Charles Froihann presented William II. Crane in an adaptation of The Spenders at Wieting Opera House, Syraense, N. Y., Sept. 29, both play and actor scoring one of the most solid successes in Mr. Crane's career. The play is bound to please Crane's army of admirera. In it he has a part that fits him like a glove, that of a sturdy, bonest old westerner. The play is thoroughly American, is clean and, as it is capitally played, its future accems destined to be prosperous.

German-English actor. One of his plays is The Wife, written by Shreidan Knowles. The strong-est scene in the play occurs near the finale of the fourth act, where the villatin of the play forws the hero to sign a confession of his supposed partit. Both are locked in the room. To hero is unarmed, the villatin is supposed to wear a small poulard which the hero borrows from him to crase a mistake he made in the writing of the document. When in possession of the weapon he turns upon the villatin and compels the villatin to sign it himself. Now at this particular performance, when Eduard-Waldmann, as the hero, turned upon the other man with the ponlard, supposing him to be beself—of—all weapons, he noticed dangling by his side a huge aword, and it was incomprehensible to the auddence how the little hero (Mr. Waldmann) could intimidate with a small ponlard a large, muscular fellow with a heavy broadsword, and a strong dramatic situation was turned into a howling farce.

There comes to as a very amusing tale of how a performance was rulned because a gun didn't explode when the trigger was pulled. In the play in which this occurred the villatin is supposed to be shot to death by the woman he has wranged and deserted and the hero and heroine are then supposed to get into each other's arms at 'the greatest possible speed. The show was going well upon its way until this climax was reached. The wronged lady stepped back and drew her trusty gun. She pulled the trigger and there was a declave samp, but no explosion. This caught the attention of the suddence at once. She snapped again and again there was a ceriste snap, but no explosion. This caught the attention of the suddence at once she snaps days and and an interest and there was a declave snap went up lato the air. At the State Confederate reunion in the auditorium of Missonri University, at Columbia, Mo., Sept., 25, a motion to have "Dixle" rewritten and worded in more dignified hanguage almost caused a riot. The resolution said that the wording of the song was childish and not becoming the dignity of the music to which the wording of the song was childish and not becoming the dignity of the music to which the wording of the song was childish and not becoming the dignity of the music to which the words are set. The motion was greeted with a yell of disapproval, and a hundred Confederate veterans were on their feet in a moment. The women in the audience joined in the aproar and lourished Confederate banners and colors above their heads. When a motion was put only one main of the two thousand present voted "aze." The band struck ny "Dixle," and the veterans leajed to their feet and gave the "rebel yell," the university students joining in.

Aside from the mere making of money, competition is the keenest pleasure in conuccition atth business or professional life. Nowhere probably is this element of rivalry so keen as it is in all branches of the amusement husiness. The writer had an opportunity recently of getting a little insight into the intricacles of the placing of musical merchandise before the public, it is assonishing to learn what au infinite amount of patience and time the music publishers will expend upon getting one song interpolated into the accree of a successful comedy, or in securing the interest of some vauderlife singer in a compessition in which they see mouey; llundreds of dollars are often spent in the publing of a song before it begins to show signs of life, while another compessition will bound into public favor in a single night. Usually the slower hits are than more lasting.

Gilbert Ray Huwes, asking for an injunction restraining Mr. Conried from giving the proposed performances of Parsifal, in the Metropolitan typera House this winter. The complaint stutes that Parsifal is a sacred music drama, written and composed by Richard Wagner, and introducing Biblical characters and incidents, Incinding the baptism of Christ, the Last Supper, Mary Magdaiene and others; that the sacred music drama, Presifal, was the crowning work of the composer, and it was the express wish that because of its religious and spiritual nature, it should not be included in the same cutegory as his other operas and nuslcul compositions, or be subject to pecunibry transactions, but should be kept separate and sport, and performed nowhere outside of Bayrenth, Rayarla.

Miss Paula Edwards, in Winsome Winnie, made her initial stellar debut at the Academy of Music in Baltimore, Md., Sept. 28. The house was filled with a large and distinctly representatic audience which accorded the star a most entiushastic reception. Messera Sam S. Shubert and Nixon and Zimmerman deserve much credit and praise for the excellent and elaborate manner in which the new production was meanted. The costumes are exquisite and Invorable comment. The scenic and light effects are well hundled and add much attractiveness and brilliance to the show. The play is called a nusleal connedy, but its merits may easily reward it a place among the light comic operas, for the musical connedy, for it is entirely free from the ordinary musical interpolations. The music is tuneful, sparkling and catchy, and every mamber-was encored several thues. The gallerles caught the airs and the melodles were heard along the strects. The dialogue, too, is bright and witty, and it is teeming with many jibos and American, wittleisms which were heartly appreciated by the audience. The lyrics are extremely bright and interesting, and many of the musical numbers were repeatedly encored. A male clorus is quite a feature in the show, and it was warmly applauded. That great preparations were made for this production is easily noted by the vim and dash displayed by the company, and the performance was remarkably smooth. The chorus is well trained and the voices are splended. The girls are pretty and dance with much agility. As Winsome Winnle, Miss Edwards has a part that is well suited to her chorusing personality. She is natural and graceful and her voice is excellent. Her support is adequate and praiseworthy. George K, Forteacue, whose Yen How in San Toy is familiar, and Joseph C. Miron, were the chief fun makers, and their concedy work was thoroughly appreciated. Mabel Hall, whose success in the title role of San Toy is familiar, was well received. W. P. Carlton and Helen Redmond, both of Floradora fame, are great favorites. Miss Johynn Howland was also remembered. E. Lovett Fraser, William E. Phillip, Frank G. Hill, Dalsy Green, Mildred Kearney and Kathryn Nelson were also given due attention. The story deals with the adventures of an Anuerican sonbrette who is stranded in a Meditersnean coast town. She meets an American helress who hus arrived at the same senport town to meet her English guardian. The helres is desirous of being married for love and not because of her wealth, and induces Winsome Winnie, in the person of the little souhrette, to change places with her. Out of this exchange come many amusing complications, including the abduction of the supposed helress by handits. Among the audience were Messrs. George B. McClellan and Frank Carroon, the London managers: Mr. H. D. Smythe, the

Mrs. Ferguson was a dear, good old soul, and kept a general run of things that were going on, especially in her nelghborhood. Her tongue was one, of those self-winding affairs that never run down; that is, never ceased to perform its feuritine duty, as it was the nest-cest known approach to verbal, perpetual motion. One morning she remsrked over the back fence to Mrs. Gunter: "How dreadful these lowa papers do get things mixed up! This morning the bes Moines "Register" goos on to tell that Cleveland is going to run for a third term. For up part I don't see why he wants to run at all, stout as he is, but that is neither here nor there. As I was going to say, the lowa papers do get things twisted. A good amount of fun is made of Chicago, the city where the whad blows and they huru soft coal. But it is a marvelous uetropolis. This season will see this attraction in every large city from occan to ocean, the Coast tour beginning in April, 1904.

BURLESQUE.

The immense popularity of Weber & Fields, those kings of burlesque, was once more strikingly evidenced at the opening of their season bis week. Every inch of space in Music Hall was Jammed, and hundreds of people were turned away. A fortune must have been spen on the floral gifts to the company from admirers. The lobby, purterre and offices were almply overflowing with a variety of bonquets, from a shower spray of illus to an humense billiard table made of smilax and roses. The music throughout was good, and W. T. Francis has every reason to be pleased with his work and the way it wan carried out by the company. Two dashing and brilliant songs. The U. S. A. saug hy John Kelly, and Looney Park, were both received by the audiences with tranultuous applause. A good song in the piece was aung hy the effervescent Peter Daily. It was a bit of musical nonsense—bly Goo-tion Queen—and the audience almply went wild over its queer little refrain. Another big hit of Whoop-De-Doo was assuredly the appearance of Lillian Russell in man's attire, and her singing of On the Boulevard. There were dozens of other good songs in the show and the book, by Edgar Smith, gave Weber & Fields in opportunity for some of their very best fun making, especially in the sintue seene.

TOREIGN.

A meeting of the shureholders of the Lycenm Theatre Company, at London, Eng., Sept. 20, approved the plan presented for the reconstruction of the company and the conversion of the classic plnyhouse into n music hall. Indignant shareholders pretested that their losses were due to bad management, and criticised Sir Henry Irving, whose name induced them to subscribe their money for not being present to give the meeting the benefit of his ndvice, and capecinity to criticism. Bram Stoker, who was associated with Sir Henry in the management of the theater, read n letter from the netor, discountenancing turning the theatre into n music hall, gravely doubting the financial success of such a step, and offering to John in meeting the expenditure necessary to hold over the property until a purchaser could be found. Mr. Stoker udded that Sir Henry had no more to do with the promotion of the company than the other shareholders. He had taken $132,600 cssh for the sale of his interests and lad repaid the Directors $129,000 during the past three years, under the contract by which the company was entitled to a quarter of his profits made outside the theater for five years.

La Tesca and Il Trovatore at the Academy of Music.-Every Theater Open .-

Business Rushing.

The season is yet young, and there has been some walls of distress, whilets may, perhaps, indicate that the financial returns of the winter are likely to be in some proportion to the unusual poverty of its material, from an artistic point of view. But as the fall ndvances, and the weather geta cooler, most of the people who have been away during the summer are returning, and there 'a a general increase in the regular attenuance at Brooklyn'a eighteen amusement houses, which are now all open, and doing business. All of the older houses have been renovated, and many changes and improvements are noticed, which add greatly to the comfort of patrons. Academy of Music (Rafael Navarro, Mgr.) The second week of the season of English grand opera, by the famous Castle Square Opera Co., has been of unusual interest. One of the most important productions of the season was shown on Monday night, 23, when Puccini'n music drama on Victorien Sardou's celebrated play La Tosca was produced. The scenery, costunes and wonderful orchestral effects inverbeen and wonderful orchestral effects inverbeen and at the Saturday matinee an elaborate production of Verdi's mist propilir of all Italian operas, Il Trovatoré, was given. La Tosca was repeated on Friday night, The list two weeks of the English grand opera senson is to be devoted largely to Wagner, both Lohengrin and Tann hauser to be given under the musical direction of Mr. Schenek, who has held the batton over most of the great German singers in thicountry in recent years, and who spent cight years abroad in studying the works of Wagner.

Montauk (Frank Hoyt, Mgr.) Mrs. Carter is presenting David Belasco's play, Du Barry, for the current week. It is claimed that this identically the name performance that Mrs. Carter gave at the Belasco Theater, Manhattan, for 322 times. Mrs. Carter'n supporting orwanization includes a number of palayers of more than ordinary worth and repute, and thescenic portion is worthy of special mention. Mr. Belasco's play is divided into

A new big bill will be presented week of Oct. 5, 1503.

Grand Opera House (Lew Parker, Mgr.) David Belasco's exceedingly popular and interesting play of love and war, The Heart of Maryland, was the attraction at this house this week. The Resurrection at the Empire.-Business is Immense.

The Resurrection at the Empire.—
Business is Immense.

The past week was the biggest of the present season. All houses were crowded, having sold out at every performance. The productions pleased immensely and everybody was contented. Much of the success is partly due to the Odd Fellows' Convention. The city was crowded with thousands of strangers, and they were all given a reception that they will not soon forget. The evenings were too cool for outdoor pleasure, consequently the theaters held out the only alternative in the amusement line. The Odd Fellows' parade was one of the first pageants ever seen in this city. San Francisco was selected for the next meeting place, and New Orleans will endeavor to capture the Convention for 1965.

Ford's Opera Heuse (Mr. Chas. E. Ford, Mgr.) The niero mention of Lew Dockstader's name and presence in any production or house is sufficient to draw a crowded house under any conditions. He is perhaps the most popular comelian that ever visited this city. It is impossible to number his many admirers. His humor is thoroughly enjoyed and much appreciated. His appearance is hailed with delight, and the S. R. O. sign will be put into active service. Many new novetties and stars are introduced, besides the tuneful melodles and witty files which please immensely.

Chase's Theater iMr. J. Altert Young, Mgr.) This house has a magnificent interior, which is tespiendent in beauty. The lobby alone is worthy of praise. Handsome lounging rooms for both sexes have been fitted op. The new carpets, draperies and the general appearance of the antitorium is a delight to the eye. Ingomar, with Percy Haswell and Eugene Oxmondo in the leading roles, was the attraction for the second week. The play is mounted with excellent costumes and scenery. Others in the cast are be Witt Jennings, Alice Butler, Regan Hughston, Agnes Everett and Alfred Hudson, Jr.

Empire Theater iMr. George W. Owens, Mgr.) Resurrection, Tolstol's famous drama, was the offerns for this week. Miss Burding appears as Muslova, and g appears as Muslova, and gives a creditable performance. The scenic investiture is appropriate. The company renders excellent support.

Holliday Street Theater (Kernan, Rife & Houcks, Mgrs.) Mits Seima Herman in The Charity Nurse, was the production that drew large audiences, Sept. 28. Supported by an excellent company, Mits Herman appeared to great advantage. Teeming with exciting incidents, and thrilling scenes, the play pleased immensely.

The Bijou (Mr. John A. Toole, Mgr.) Across the Rockies was presented. Sept. 28. The company is of the usual standard; and as usual the performances were well attended. Monumental Theater (Mr. James L. Kernan, Mgr.) Harry Bryant's Burlesquers entertained large audiences during the week of Sept. 28. The usual connelies, with an excellent ollo is present, which is pleasing immensely. With the presence of this company big business can easily be expected. Gideon Theater (Mr. James Madison, Mgr.) Several changes have been made, and many of the old favorites are retained. James & Davis and James W. Ryder are among the newcomers. A travesty on Romeo and Juliet ferms the opening comedy, and the performance closes with a comedy by Harry Montague, entitled A Midnight Spree.

Mr. George Faweett deserves much credit

NOTES.

Mr. George Fawcett deserves much credit for the excellent manner in which he staged the production of Othelio. The costumes which he wore were exquisite.

Babes in Toyland was the leading attraction last week, and it enjeyed a very successful week. William Norris. Amy liteard, George W. Denham, Mabel Barrison, Frank Hayes. Charles Barry, Bessle Wynn deserve much credit for their good work. Neilie Daly, as Jill, is especially praiseworthy, and her comedy work is excellent. Her part is somewhat similar to that of Fifi in The Chinese Honeymon. Fretty Bessle Wynn has an exquisite soprano voice, and she made quite a hit with her nusleal number—Toyland. The scenic embellishment is noteworthy, and the light of effects are awe inspiring. The marching and dancing of the toy soldiers is wonderfuily realistic.

Mmc. Norlica and the Duss Symphony Orchestra will appear at the Music Hall, Oct. 5. The performance will be for the benefit of the Odd Fellows' Hone, at Ellicatt City. The program for the concert of Mmc. Patti has been announced.

The program for the concert of Mme. Patti has been announced.

The members of the company presenting The Girl from Dixle are all Southerners, and three-fourths are from Maryland.

The body of Mrs. Nellie Roach Hicks, mother of Virginia Hanned, the actress, was disinterred from Oelia Cemetery, near Catonsville, Sept. 25, where it had been buried since 1875, and reinterred in Loudon Park Cemetery, by the side of her husband, James J. SAN FRANCISCO.

Florence Roperts in Gloconda - Prince of Filsen a Great Success.

Flerence Roberts in Gloconda.—Prince of Filsen a Great Success.

The Prince of Pilsen, at the Columbia Theater, is meeting with the success predicted for it. There are so much catchy music and good acting, and the scenery and costumes are so excellent that the ensemble calls for the highest commendation. Jess Dandy, in the role of the Zinzinnati brewer, and Miss Frizy Friganza as the widow, keep up the vivacity of the work, and Arthur Donaldson as the Prince has also won great favor. The Prince of Pilsen will continue for another week at the Columbia.

The grand opera season, at the Tivoli, is in the midst of its brilliancy just now, and lovers of the classic in music are having a feast. Mile. Marchesini its almost as great a favorite with San Franciscans as was Collamarini. Her Carmen was somewhat disappointing on account of a bronchial affection which selzed the great diva since being exposed to our focs. It is hoped that the delightful singer will be fully recovered in a few days. For week of Sept. 2s the Barber of Seville and Carmen will alternate.

Crowds focked last week to see and hear all the clever folks in the comedy-opera. The Chaperones, which terminated a splendld week's run at the California, Saturday, Sept. 26. Manager Thall has every reason to be pleased with the reception given the musical work, which is brimful of fun and handsomely presented from a scenic and costume standpoint. For week of September 2s, Hoyt's famous political satire A Texas Steer, will be the offering.

During week just closed Florence Roberts gave two evenings and one matinee to D' Ammilzio's Gloconda, and those who were fortunate enough to see her certainly were the recipients of a rare treat. The balance of the week was given to The Adventures of Lady Urzella. For week of Sept. 2s Florence Roberts will be seea in Zaza, which will be the offering.

Boon Flischer's Theater will see something entirely new. For week of Sept. 2s Florence Roberts which have had the usual phenomenal business, and commencing Monday, Oct. 5, the Cunningham, the well known harytone, and new features in the motion pictures will be the new additions.

John Le Claire, the comedy juggler; Anderson & Wailace travestists, in their scene from Oilver Twist; Henry Clivo, the clever Austrian magician, and other high-class speciality performers are pleasing large audiences at the Chutes each afternoon and evening.

The Poilard Lilliputians Opera Company closed their engagement at the Grand Saturday, Sept. 28, the last three nights being given to Pinafore. Sunday, Sept. 28, James Neale, supported by Edythe Chapman, will begin an engagement with a specially selected company. The first offering will be A Gentleman of France.

The Central Theater has made a tenstrike during the past week, with Dien Boneleault's sensational drama, After Dark. Crowded houses have been the rule, and every specialty was repeatedly encored. Sept. 28, Mr. L. R. Stockwell begins his special engagement in A Temperance Town.

The Everyman Company gave a splendid Elizabethan production of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night, last Monday and Tuesday evenings, at Lyrle Hall. This class of plays are quite nevel, and are greatly appreciated by the more artistic patrons of the theater.

Avenue Theater (C. A. Shaw, Mgr.) Commencing with to-day's matinee, the Avenue will present for the first time here the successful melodrana, The Stain of Guilt. It is by Waiter Mathews, a Louisville actor, and he has been quite successful in making his situations. The company is under the personal directoin of John Bavilin and William Garen. The company is made up of the best character actors on the stage, including Oscar Dane, Rachel Acton, George D Melville and Rube Waddell, and others. Next, Sept. 27-Oct. 3, The Beauty Doctor.

Macaulcy's Theater (John T. Macaulcy, Mgr.) Fils house has as a fine attraction for all week. William A. Brady's 'Way Down East, which is popular in every city. The various scenes give opportunity for lavish and elaborate scenic investment, and these have been taken advantage of to the limit of stage craft by Mr. Brady and Mr. Joseph Grismer, who staged the piay. The snow storm is probably the most realistic of its kind everseen on the stage. Next week, Sept. 28, De Wolf Hopper.

craft by Mr. Brady and Mr. Joseph Grismer, who staged the play. The snow storm is probably the most realistic of its kind ever seen on the stage. Next week, Sept. 28, De Wolf Hopper.

Masonic Theater (Max Weber, Mgr.) The management of the Masonic has booked that excellent attraction, Hoity Toity, for a week at this house. The show is up to the standard, and the management has stood them up and turned them away. Hoity Toity is a Weber & Fields production, and can be counted on for a high class entertainment at any house. Gorgeous costumes, graceful dancing and charming volces make Hoity Toity the feast of melody, mirth and beauty. Next week, Sept. 28, Eben Holden.

Hopkins' Theater (Col. J. D. Hopkins, Mgr.) There is an interesting group of entertain ers who furnish the fun at Hopkins' this week; as the head-liners Col. Hopkins will introduce Hal Davis and Incz Macaulcy in a sketch entitied Unexpected, which takes well; Libbey & Grayer, in up-to-date songs, catches them: Willie and Charile Schenk, the German balancers, have some new tricks and perform them well; Marka Belva in popular songs; Crawford & Manning do real songs and dances, and Ranza & Arno put up a fine acrobatic turn, Alf Holt the tramp mimic, has a new bunch of material, which he passes out, and is certainly takes well. The blograph, in new views, closes the show. Week Sept. 27, at Hopkins' Papinta, myrlad dancer; Katherine Bloodgood; Rice & Cady; Drawnee; George W. Pay; Howard Sisters; Lea & Chapman, and the blograph in new up-to-date pictures.

NOTES.

At the Mason Opera House, last week, The Dairy Farm Company played to continually increasing business. The engagement was too short for the possible patronage, and that error will be rectified by a return engagement early in 1964, when the plece probably will be seen on the same stage for a week.

James Neill and his charming company closes a profitable nine weeks' engagement at the Purbank Theater. It is claimed that the box receipts have been larger than for any preceding Burbank ru. D. W. FERGUSON.

At last the season of 1903 is at an end, and among the many amusement managers there are not five cut of the forty-five who can say that they have not less big meney, due to the rainy season and the Sunday closing, which put everyone in the hole. The present outlook for the season of 1904 is very discouraging. With the big St. Louis Fair, which will certainly affect all seasoner resorts, as the public wants amusement and liberality, and they will go where they can get them. Your correspondent here has done his best to arrange matters so that the amusement managers would come out on the right side of the ledger, but his efforts have been cast aside, and the only remedy I advise is for the many amusement purveyors to give the place a wide berth for the season of 1904.

On Young's Pier, the last week, appeared: The Palace of the King, Kyrle Bellew, net; Hamburg Band Concerts, to only fair business; Steel Pier, Royal Italian Band, to medlum business; Denzel's Gailoping Horses, tig business; Tilyon's Steeple Chase Pier, Manager Giles Clements has worked hard and has put the pier in excellent shape, and by his hard work the Pier has been a tremendous success; Bijou Theater, Huntley Moore Co., with a change of hill weekly, to nice business; Guvernsten arDoyles is clered, as well as the Alligator Farm and the County Fair; Roving Frank's Gypsy Canp is doing fairly well. The hik storm of the past week put a great many out of business, and put the finishing touches on one of the worst seasons the resort has ever experienced. FRANK B. HUBIN.

Every year about this time there is a inner volume of talk to the effect that the street fair business is a dead issue. These crookers have it embaimed and buried. All the same, it is a pretty lively corpse.

All the street fair business needs is the right nen at the head of it. There have been some very good men crushed in it. These victims, who have been practically robbed of tielr non-y and their ideas, have, of course, been held under cover.

and their ideas, have, of course, need need of cover. It is a paying business for the carmival company that puts it on and for the organization or isople under whose anaptees it is held, unless healty managed or rain and whol and storm interferes. That this is so is shown by the golden results of the past. The hospitois that have

MINTGOMEITY, ALA.—Montgomery Thenter (Hrscher Bros, Mgrs.) The only attraction for week was The Devil's Auction, is. This play, as usual, drew a good house, and all were pleased and very liberal with applicate. The special feature was the juggling of the been benefited, the Eiks' homea that have been reared heavenward, and the clisrity funds that have been created by and through street fairs are mountments, so to write, as to the paying positives of the business.

I still claim it is a coming business, it will not, it cannot die. There is no man so great but what there is another a little greater. If all those in the street fair business today would quit or die, the business would not quit—would not cease to exist. Others would take their places and the business would go on just the same.

had cease to exist. Others would go on just the same.

When a few years ago it was given auch a boost, when the forward march was the talk of the world, the Elks were the backbone of the standard. But managers of carnival companies with little foresight let the unclean creep in and rittle foresight let the unclean creep in and rittle foresight let the unclean creep in and it like principle was killed. They didn't protect and frame the business for the future: they instead bogged the money. The business was featly lost sight of in the mad rush for the coin. Immoral shows and rank ideas that got the money quick were run in galare. This and this afone drove the Elks, the ideal street fair people, from the field. The business was given an awful set-back. It is just now recovering. The reaction is setting in. There is a survival of the fittest." The street fair manager who hasn't a keen fore-sight, whose ideas are not in keeping with the demand of the public, will be compelled to make way for blan who is shreast of the times and willing to look shead and not backward.

There is bound to be a pleasing equity between contracting agents for atreet ratra and the people they deal with. The sand-hag system must be obliterated. Street fairs must be built on common sense and honeaty, not on graft. The principles of brace fare, second dealing, skifts, reflectors and markers must be left out of the street fair husiness. Let them where they belong—on the green cloth of the boys who make a living by their wits. Each business for itself.

The day of hot air is passed. The street fair who make a living by their wits. Each business for liself.

The day of hot air is passed. The street fair business at present is polluced with it. It has to go the route of the "knock-ont" though. There is talk of a aradicate—a syndicate of carnival companies. This looks like a great scheme, and I believe it to be the scheme that will put the business on the plane where it belongs. Then committees will know what they are getting. It will be strictly business—bonest and legitimate.

The syndicate, I am informed, is to have at its head a man whose husiness integrity is well known; who, as showman and business man has been a colossal success. Think for a moment: Imagine what the street fair business would berow bad it been equipped and managed the past several years by such showmen as James A. Itsilev. W. W. Cole, Sells Brothers and the Rieglings.

Those who think the street fair business is on the wane I think are honestly mistaken. Some who have anch thoughts are judging the business by themselves. The street fair business is very much silve.

Notes from Rippel's Show: We are in our 20th week of success and the business still remains at the top-noteh: the cold frosty weather doesn't seen to keep the people away. Saturday, Sept. 26, was the hanner day and we had more people in our tent than any day this senson. Prof. Frank Kuffuer joined Sept. 5 and is making good with woesleu head figures and Funch and Judy. We will not close until cold weather drives us in. The show goes out bigger and letter next senson than ever. We paid an afternoon visit to the Barnum & Balley Show at Audersou. It was good and they had a big crowd. The parade was fine.

Jackson, Mo., on Sept. 30. After doing a somersault on the horse's back he lost his helance and fell, hreaking a bone in his forcarm. Dr. E. Hachr, the show's doctor, was immediately on the scene, and dressed his arm. The ballet with the John Robinson show is under the direction of John F. Raymond, and works like clock work. Manrice Prosser had his face brilly burned by scalding water at Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 21. Luckliy no scars will he left on his face.

Notes from C. H. Knight's Circus: The show opened May 6 at Dunkirk, D., with 32 people and 26 head of stock. Everywhere it received the highest praise. The ring performances comprised ten acts. Mr. Dan Rice, with his six time Shetiani ponies and three well trained plays, clawars, contextionists, acrobats, barrel jumpers, wire walkers, trapeze and ladder acts. The stage work, which consisted of singing and dancing, was given by the famous Gilden Sisters. The season closed Sept. 26 at McGuffy, D. The show will open early in the spring under the mme of Knight and Smith's Mammoth Twenty-Five Cent Circus.

Mr. Peter Bahr received a letter from his old friend George Shrader, who is now touring Europe with the Buffalo Bill Show, in which he claims that the show is prospering over the pond and everybody is satisfied. We lost one valuable man in Mr. Ed Shaw. He left us in Chedmatt to go to New York and reamne his position at the Stor Theatre. It has been rumored about that Mr. Wm. Dupont, the line of the hig road shows.

Iting fall monkeys, one of the most valuable and expensive of the smaller animals, are caught in an interesting way. A eccounit is split in two, and a bamma with a plece of wood running through it, placed lengthwise through the mnt, the two balves of which are drawn together by wires. Then a hole is ent just large enough for the monkey's paw to enter. The monkey sples the tempting nut from his tree. He bops down, looks it over, sees the hole and smells the bamma inside. He is fond of bananas. Putting his paw, and he will not let go of that, so he is captured pawing wildly at the tree trunk,—Minsie Hall.

A member of the Gollmar Show writes as follows from Indian Territory: This burg—Wantette—is the smallest town that Gollmar Brothers have ever played. The town has a population of about four hundred. The business honese consist of four general stores, ten saloons, about the same number of lunch counters and restaurants and one hotel. Its a typical frontier town; the buildings are very crude and the mattress have ever played. The town has a population of about four hundred. Notes from Reno's Circus:—The Reno Circus arrived at winter quarters in Kankakee, Sept.
27, euding a successful tour of Wisconsin aud Minnesota. As far as Reno is concerned, this season ends the wagon show business. Next year the circus will be equipped with railroad cars aufficient to carry the circus. Fatty Ilumeatead returned from the Bushee Circus from a tour of the Dakotas. Fatty was with this circus this summer to learn the ropes of the railroad husiness from the circus point of view. The Bushee Circus has seven cars and does all its traveling by rail. Fatty's home-coming has brought the Reno Circus abundant knowledge in this line and they are now equipped for this departure. In the apring the horses will be disposed of along with other paraphernalia not needed in a railroad circus. Heno will tour the opera houses this winter with his magic entertainments.

The editor of the Commercial News, published at Lanville, Ill., and whe was formerly connected with several of the leading circus entertriese, minited the following accession.

to make themselves and ble to the entire cnormons and lences. After the accession of James A. Italicy to the control, the explanations and embellishments of the exhibits were left largely to the printed program. Prior to this it required a man with leather lungs and megaphone voice to announce the grand after concert or lecture on the fresks. Such a person was one Bill Henshaw, who fairly lifted the circus top every time he enunciated. Like many an other employe of the big show, the large man with the large voice was ambitious to attract the personal attention of Phiness, and an opportunity offered at the showman's home, Itridgeport. In eincidating and dwelling on the peculiarities of the fresk made Barnum-famons as the What is It? Henshaw was loud and long, and among other things, he said: "creature ambertance" or the other members of the strange orator of the occasion dropped around into the reserved seats and planted himself alongside or the old showman, fishing for a compliment, furstead of which he received a crilielsm, liarnum commenting in his peculiar piping voice: "Mr. Henshaw, I noticed that in your remarks on the What is It? you said that it was impossible to learn him anything, incorrect, Mr. Henshaw, Vou should say 'teach,' instead. When we teach we instruct; when we learn we acquire knowledge." The discomfitted stentorian announcer quietly withdrew, and Rolling Thunder, as he was familiarly known, confidently related, in a far-reaching wbisper, his calling down to George It. Runnell, the manager of the privileges. Henshaw was deeply hurt, as his accentuated declaration betrayed: "Thut's the last time I make an announcement when the old man is in the show!"

P. T. Barnum has put on record his superstitions dread of the number thirteen, and he had quite as great a horror of Friday. To have occupied room thirteen in a hotel of a Friday would in his unind have brought as sudden and severe disaster as the eruption of a voicano or an earth cracking and city demolishing estitionary in the month of the hi

STATE FAIR $70,000 AHEAD.

According to the report of Secretary Randall, made at the meeting of the board of Minneapolis attact fair managers recently, the receipts of the 1963 fair are $210,000 and the expenditures $140,000, leaving a net balance of $70,000. The paid admissions for 1963 were 113,000, against 100,000 for last year. New buildings and improvements were considered, and while nothing definite was decided upon, at least $19,000 will be set aside for this purpose. In the matter of concessions there was a alight failing off this year. The total amount received from this source was $15,-435,33. Last year the figures were alightly larger.

The Hillots State Fair at Springfield proved to be a great event from the point of attendance and the character of the attractions. The holice had to drive people off the tops of cars going to the fair grounds.

According to a statement issued by the State Commissioner of Agriculture the cotton crop of this season for Georgia is 1,076,000 bales, against 1,470,000 last year. This estimate is hased on the September reports compiled by the department.

The Cakdoma County (Vt.) Fair ended with a tragedy in the automobile race, when a machine ran off the track and killed Herbert Lampher and seriously injured Dr. Allen. The machine was going at the rate of forty-five miles an hour.

W. B. Jackson, secretary of the Paniding (O.) Fair, reports an increase of 49 per cent. In attendance over 1902; 28 per cent. over 1901, and 72 per cent. over 1900. The association are liberal poster advertisers, which undubitably accounts for the phenomenal increase in attendance.

The Corytelyon Club, of Flathush, N. Y., have needly been sued for $10,000 damages by Bernard McMahon. While James McMahon, his seven-year-old son was attending the Corytelyon Club Fair recently held in Flathush, he was bitten by a monkey that was used for exhibition purposes. It is claimed he is in a serious condition and his father asks for $10,000 damages. Where will the next Kentucky State Fair be held? After the disastrous effort to make the fair pay at Owensboro; Lexington and Covington are selections well worth the attention of the board of directors. At Lexington it is argued that only in the blue grass region can the fair be made a financial success owing to the natural surroundings for the exhibition of stock, etc.

HEALTHFUL CO-OPERATION.

The following correspondence recently passed between Frank M, White and Mr. Peter Solis: Fort Worth Tox., Sept. 16, '03.

Hou. Peter Solis. Beatries, Neb.
Most Honorable Sir:—We, the management of the Fort Worth 'Fall Festival.' want to ask that you co-operate with us in putting on a parade at 4:30 or 5 P. M., Thursday, (tet. S. The circumstances are these: Un Wednesday, Oct. 7, we put on a Flower Parade, consisting of the best people of our city in gaily decorated carriages. This parade is to be repeated at 4:30 or 5 c clock on Thursday, Oct. S.

We thought it a good idea and the right thing to invite the Forepaugh-Solis Shows to place the 'Grand Entree,' or such of your mounted people as would add to the beauty of the event. In line with the carriages as outriders, or in the best way to show affiliation. The King and the Queen will both be in the parade in their respective floats. We are not a lift envisors of the Forepaugh-Solis Shows. Knowing you have a limit of capacity, and as we have already 45,000 in the city, we hope you will het it be known for a and an ear. The idea is an innovation in street fair and circus eircles, but will demonstrate a kindly feeling and show to the world that the Forepaugh-Solis Shows are welcome in Fort Worth, the best city in ail Texas. A prompt reply will be appreciated.

Yours for a success, Frank M. White.

Dear Sir:—Moline, ill., with a population of 25,000, is a heehive of industry. The Rock Island System is erecting shops that will cover 900 acres five miles east of Moline, which will give employment to 6,000 men. These shops will be the center of all the works of this system, which has more mileage than any otheraliway in existence. A new city is forning at that point which will be a part of Moline. One year ago where stood a hare sand hill is today a flat level plain with hundreds of skiller mechanics creeting buildings that are mostly made of steel. One measures $50×400 feet; six more will be put up which are to be larger than this one. What's this got to do with bill-posting? I'll show you: A good hillposter keeps a little shead of his town's advancement, and today where a row of stakes shows the future street will be found the tongue and grooved boards of the good hillposter, "Rube" Taylor, awaiting the coming of its future inhabitants, i went over this plant, where three years ago i checked up only 5% locations, which today shows up with 91; the usual three-sheet and daubs not counted.

Mr. Editor, your readers who are not well acquainted with the geographical location of Moline would do well to look up a map. Medine, Rock Island and Davenpor, have a population of 100,000 in a territory of five miles, and an advertiser in dealing with the biliposters of the tri-vicles should consider it in its Importance.

HORE SUES ASSOCIATION.

HOKE SUES ASSOCIATION.

Sam W. Hoke, the well-known advertising and peater agent of New York City. on Sept. 22 filed a complaint in the United States Circuit Court against the Associated Billiposters and Distributors of the United States and Canada. In which he claims $60,000 damages from them on the ground tiast the association is an illegal trust and combination, operating in violation of the Federal anti-Trust Law, and that he has been damaged by its actions in that amount.

The Associated Bilinosters are being aned through A. B. Beall, of Slony City, Iowa, their treasurer, who is also made an individual defendant.

Mr. Hoke charges that the Associated Bill posters and Distributors of the United States and Canada constitute a voluntary association that has been operating in restraint of Interstate and foreign trade and commerce, in the form of advertising, conducted by mean of the posting, of advertising bills on fences and other places throughout the country, it having been engaged in arbitrarily fixing minimum rates to be charged for hillposting throughout the Vinited States, without reference to a reasonable value or competition; that it forbids its solicitors and members from making contracts at lower rates, and forbida their accepting commissions other than those arbitrarily fixed by the association, as also all rebating and reimbursing of commissions.

DO YOU USE BLANK!

DO YOU USE BLANK!

This question applies to every billposter who owns or operates a hillposting plant. The Association members in particular should be asked to answer the question for record and the grade of service he renders, hased on whether he does not be asked to answer the question for record and the grade of service he renders, hased on whether he does not hill posting plants was a published. In which good and had service was truthfully circumstant of hillposting plants was published. In which good and had service was truthfully circumstant of hillposting than ever before. Blanking was shown in the report to he one of the easertial parts of first-class service, and a visit to-day to the plants in Cleveland, Brookiva, New York, Chicago and other prominent cities, as well as some of the amaller towns, will show that taste has been developed in a marked degree—tiat biliboards show every stand of paper earefully blanked bottom, between stands and on the ends, no ragged edges of oil paper atleking out below or at the sides to rnin the appearance of all good paper on the board. The ehanged condition makes it a pleasure to visit hillipostra plants, and billiposters who have adopted like blanking system have no fears of complaint from an inspector. But islas ittered as a contraction members at that; who ancer at the idea of blanking, and say, "I have no apace to waste," and "I will blank if I get paid for it," and other almilar excuses, which explain to the advertiser that Mr. "Mosshack" ha hack unumber, and that a new man with medern idean to take his place is about the only hope for reform in that town.

Any visitor to Chicago who la lutereated in modern methods of biliposting cau feast his eyes on miles of hillboard display that the most exacting critic could not find fault with. The American Posting Service, with their iron hill-boards as an incentive to a hiliposter to do good work, bave so perfected the aystem of hilanking that every biliboard is an ucat in appearance as a nicely framed picture; every poster is a separate and distinct display, being

W. J. STAFFORD.

The likeness of Mr. W. J. Stafford, the first hilliposter in Sauta Barbara, Califordia, appears above. Mr. Stafford is now 69 years of age and still silings paste. In his time eight opposition piants have spring up and he has seen seven of their owners depart to the issure from whence no traveler returns. He hilled his first circus—the Montgomery Queen—in 1870. There were 1,200 sheets, all half and whole. He bas sold his plant to the California Bill Posting Company, with headquarters at los Angeles, but retains the position of manager of the Sauta Barbara plant for life. Mr. Stafford is about to erect 1,500 feet more of lwards. For Ringling Brothers' Circus Intely he put up 1,500 sheets. Mr. Stafford is a member of the Bill Posters' Protective Association and was the first chief of the fire department established in 1870, the made and sold the first soda water la Santa Barbara and also opened up the first oyster saloon, which enterprises he carried along in addition to hilliposting. Mr. Stafford's health is good and he looks forward to a goodly number of years to come.

separated from the next one by four to six inches of blank paper, and the bottom hlanked the entire length of the board with a strip of uniform whith. The effect needs only to be seen to convluce any billiposter that hillboards to be complete ueed blank around every poster. The blanking system, if adopted by every billiposter in the husiness, would help to atop legal fight against hillboards, because the uset appearance of all boards would lessen the objections against them. It would increase the volume of billiposting, because advertisers who have found objections to postera because hill-boards looked ragged, would use posters if all boards looked neat. Try blanking. It pays.

COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS.

COMMERCIAL ADVERTIBES.

That it is expensive to advertise on the bittle boards is true, but it is equally true that the returns more than justify the outlay.

The Chicago, Miwankee & St. Paul R. R. have just received from the National Printing Company a consignment of very handsome 8-sheet posters advertising their new train service to Kansas City. These posters go on billboards in the southwest. Lord & Thomas are placing he work.

Every commercial advertiser ought to read "The Billboard." He ought, furthermore, to encourage the young clerks in his employ to read it in order to increase the probability of their becoming valuable and intelligent aids, the will be justified in subscribing for it and having it sent to their homes where they can because it at leisure and with the enjoyment that a conductive of such gratifying results. "Newapaperdom," unbilished in New York City, says: The art of advertising has reached a great height in America, but people in this country have not yet started advertising on the currency, as they do in some orther lands. Hown in the West Indies commercial frims have rubber atamps made for the express purpose of stamplug their names and the invitation, "Buy from ns!" on the hacks of the local bank notes that happen to come into their possession. People naturally logard a hank note with friendly interest, and so these advertisements stand a better diance of being read than any others. In some of the South American countries, especially Venezuela, the traders have little advertisements printed in round pieces of paper of varions sizes. These are neatly pasted on one side of the half dollar and dollar alliver pieces. The governments of these countries don't interfere. They let the traders have the benefit of this excellent advertishy schem without charging them a ceut.

Her Own Way Has Successful Opening at the Garrick. Checkers New York Opening.

The chlot theatricul events of the past week were the appearance of Mashie Elliott in Clyde Fitch's newest play, Her Own Way, at the Garrick, and the spectacular production of Checkers at the American. In respect to the latter, Henry M. Blosson's novel offered many opportunities for the dramatist, Such as the betting ring at the race track, and these have been wrought into a series of scenes that go with a whirf. The company is headed by Thomas's W. Bess, and contains some two hundred proper all of whom appear in striking ensemble in the third act.

Maxime Elliott, who has been seen in many parts m'the companies of her husbaud, N. C. Goodwin, now for the first time is presented as a size. The new play which Mr. Fitch wrote in Sicily show whiter was designed especially for her Arghar Byrou is Miss Elliott's leading man.

supporting company Hobart Bosworth, who will play Elfert Lovborg. W. B. Mack, Henry J. Carvill, Carlotta Nellson, Mary Maddern and Bielle Bolm.

The Jersey Lily closed its New York season at the Victoria on Saturday last, and will mow take to the road to find audiences.

Amongst the many who make good in Checkers is Katherine Mulkins, who appears as Pert Barlow. Checkers is undoubtedly a successful play with fine prospects before it. Crowds of all sorts and conditions of men who fill the heatre nightly are unanimous in their approval and good opinion.

Charles Hawtrey has pleased New Yorkes with a comedy which is quite different from the Ganthony fantastic play. A Message from Mars. The galiery of comical characters exhibited at Mrs. Tidmark's dinner party in The Man from Blankley's is laughter provoking, and Hawtry's Lord Strathpeffer displays hin at his usual ease and with his usual natural style in a series of smazing perplexities and complications. Fanny Brough, Henry Kembell and other members of the well-drilled llawtry company make individual hits.

On Monday night of this week, at the Savoy, W. H. Crane appeared in the first presentation of a drama of Harry Leon Wilson's, drawn from the successful novel. The Spenders. This play gives the first new character in whith Mr. Crane has appeared in several years. The scenes of the play are laid in the West and in New York City.

Fay Templeton and The Runaways will run away from 'the Casho in two weeks' time. Peggy from Paris is still the attraction at Wallack's.

The Three Little Malds continue to crowd baly's.

At the Heraid Square John Drew will begin bits fourth week in Captain Dieppe.

Blanche Bates and The Barling of the Gods are now nearing their 300th performance at the Rebisco Theatre, where this artistic drama of Old Japan is playing to audiences that text the capacity of the house.

The lumenuse success of Charles Warner in Drink continues at the Academy of Music. It would be hard to gather a better bill of vanideville stars than the one which Manager Williams employs to amuse the patrons of the Circle Theatre. This week it is headed by Marte Dressler, probably the less drawing eard on a New York vandeville stage, and the added attraction, Patly and Hilton, a comedy due who created much fun and were features of Edward E. Rice's Show tirl company. In addition, are engaged Lew Saily, the ministret comedium; Ernest Hogan said Molfe Wilkes, late stars of the Smart Set, in new act; Hal Stephens, the well known impersonator; Collins and Hart, in a very funny act, Two Strong Men; Hale and Frances, in a real novelty juggling speedalty; Laura Bennett, The Girl from the Farm and Satsuma.

PHILADELPHIA.

Theatres Doing Good Business Daily. Prince of Pilsen Pleasing.

The weather is delightfully cool, and the result is that the theatrea are crowded every evening, while the mattnee crowds are also large, it has been a good season so far, and the onthook for a continuance of the same is good. There are a lot of croskers who are predicting a "panie" in the near future, and it does look as if things were not so easy as they have been for the people whose all is invested in stocks, but the working people seem to have money, and they are spending it royally for anusements. In the meantime the managers of the Philadelphia houses are making hay white the sun shines, and hope to have enough laid away to tide them over the hard times when they do come.

Chestnut Street Theatre,—The first Philadelphila engagement of The Prince of Pilsen opened 28, and our people liked it very much. It has drawn big houses all week, and will be continued for some time, Walmit Street Theatre,—Orrin Johuson and a good company have had two excellent weeks in Hearts Courageous. The Bostonians will produce two operas week of 5.
Garrick Theatre,—Kyrle Beliew, in Raffles, the Anateur Cacksman, has done well, and the play and star are big bilts. For week of Oct. 5.
The Walard of Oz.
The Park Theatre,—Lavid Harum had a prosperons two weeks' stay and The Fatal Wedding will be the attraction, 5.
Anditorium.—This house la doing well. Nellie McHenry, in M'liss, was the attraction week of 28, and though that play first saw the light of day-in this city 28 years ago, it has drawn wonderfully well. For Oct. 5 The Humber of the star in Similows of a Great City, and she has done a big weeks' business at this capacious house. Week Oct. 5. Hydre's Cumedians, Girard Avenue Theatre.—The great Lafayette, at the head of a big company, has drawn big crowds this week and will be succeeded, 5, by No Wedding Belis for Her.
National Theatre.—The Smart Set has been doing a hig husiness this week, and will be succeeded, Oct. 5, hy Wedded and Parted.
Keith's Hijon Theatre.—Business Is picking up slowly but surely at this house, aithough it is not as good as it used to be under the old reign of vauderille. A cut in prives was made that week, the best scars now being sold at thirty-five cents. Vaudeville will continue to be prosented at this house.
Bleventh Street Opera House.—Dumont's Minstress still couthue to atlrate big house, still couthue to be linder the Odr. 5.
Lart's Kensington Theatre.—Business la picking the rund of the city theatres and is the attraction at this house. The Power and the Glory is the bill for this week, and for

of the opening of the attraction by biliposting done by the Biliposting Sign Compony and the working up of the press in the true Hostock style has aroused interest in the new enterprise, and the chances are that the opening will be a big one. Exhibitions will be given daily in this place until spring. Although Philadelphia is the owner of a big Zeo, the chances are that there will be lots of patronage by the people who want to see educated minusls.

It is expected that the one big novelty of the season will be the new melodramatic spectacle. The Way of the Transgresser, which opens next week. William F. Stephena will have his educated Landseer does with this company, and they will play parts.

There has been u little friction in Philadelphia resulting from the starting of an opposition biliposting plant by the manager of one of the local theatres, but no blood has been spilled, and as the opposition is about over, there is no hard feeling.

Chinese Honeymoon Scoring Immensely.
Good Vaudeville at Chase's Empire. The Village Postmaster at the Lyceum.
Opera Hosse.—That always welcome mode at comedy, A chinese Honeymoon, full of mirth, pretty scenery, pretty girls, good comedians and tuneful and catchy music, is heidling forth at the Opera House this week, playing to good business and bringing voefferous applause.
Chase's Empire.—Milton and Dolly Nobies in their sketch, A Grass Wildow, are the headliners here, and are such in every sense of the word. Edith Holens, the lady with the large and light range of voice, is easily likewise a headliner, while next in the comes Will Stome and Yolandi Wildoe in a next little sketch entitled The Plumber. For the acrobatic turn this week, the Montrose Troope hold the boards, while Offic Young and Bro. give an interesting exhibition of hoop roffling; then there are the Nichols Sisters, black exponents of comedy, and the entertaining dancer, Eddle Mack, with various initations, and the show winds up with the vitagraph pictures. The biffi la interesting.
Lyceum.—The old favorite rural and homelike play. The Village Postmaster, teldis the boards for this weeks' stand at the Lyceum.
The show is always relished by theatregoers, and the company is a good one.
Sire Theatre.—The Bine Ribbon Girls burlesque attraction, with J. Bernard Dyliyn and Ned Wayburn's Jockey Club.
Cleveland Theatre.—A Desperate Chance is here for one week, and is well received. It is full of exciting scenes, destined to produce pienty of turills, while the scenery is elaborate.
Though more theatres are being put un, it doesn't seem probable nor possible that Cleveland can, as yet, support quite so many houses.
Cleveland is a good show town, just as far as the few theatres which are now up are concerned, and in a pinch may support just one more at popular prices.

A most pleasing bill is on at the Columbia this week, and chief among the acts are Ross and Fenton, who present a sketch that is evceedingly artistic, although grewsome. It is capitally done, and both principals doserve praise for their conception, as well as for their cleverness. It is colled offer Twist.
Others on the bill are St. Onge Brothers, Black Britons, Manning's Entertainers, Ely and Harvey, Francelli and Lewis, Barry Thompson, Jossie Harnes, Hai Godfrey and Co., Ian and Bolly Mson, Harrison Brothers and the kinsdrome. Ruchness good.

Standard Theatre- (Leo Reichenbach, Mgr.)
The Kentucky Bedies opened to the largest andience of the year here Sanday and gave a most pleasing performance. The usual two barlessions open and close the show, and both proved to greatly amise the studience. The show is handsome in restumes and has a good chorus. The strongest part of the performance is the offe, which includes acts by Abeen and Hamilten, Funnitreseu, Van Auken and Vannerson, Halley and Meban, thurke Brothers and the Rellance Quariette. Good attraction and good business. Cherry Rossoms next.

NOTES,

The carnival at Lemp'a Park which opened Sunday is being well attended and the outlook is favorable for a profibble two weeks. Manager Walsapp has gathered together some excellent concessions and free acts, and all are proving interesting as well as pleasing. Next week being Fair week here, large attendances are looked for. Good attractions and gossiusiness.

Pain's Home is to wind up its stay in St. Louis this week with a fireworks carnival on Fribay night. Business is good titls week and weather is right.

Next week will be Fair week in St. Louis, and from the anount of entres received by the Fair management it will be one of the best we have had. Velied Prophet's parade next Tuesday and an all week festival.

NOTES,

Paper is up in Chelmatt announcing the premiere presulted of Mrs. Wiggs of the Usibage Patch at the McCauley Theatre, Louisellie, Ky. Miss Virginia Barned gave a dinner to Miss Louise Drew, daughter of John Drew, at the Gibson House, Sunday, Det. 4. Miss Brew is playing with the Empire players in Lady Rose's Daughter at the Grand.

It certainly was a thoughtful act of the schools to permit the children to see the Barnoun and Balley parade. In older times the only way a schoolboy saw a circus parade was on take either vidently siek early in the morn and to recover health and strength about ten ofchock, or take the law in his own bands and hide his books under a lumber pile.

A reporter banded Mrs. Carrle Nation a telegram at the Union Depost Sunday morning at nouncing the death of her divorced husband, Captain Bavid Nation, at medicine Louige, Kan. The locaring of the Pike Theatre case has begun before Judge Bosea of the Superior Court. The Union Trust Company for the bondholders desires to forcelose the mortgage on the estate and have the bonds declared legal.

CROP REPORT.

CROP REPORT.

The weather bureau's weekly aunimary of crop conditions is as follows:

The temperature conditions for the week ending September 28 were generally favorable, although cool inglish were detrimental in the South Atlantie, Eastern and Central Gulf States, while light to heavy frosts, for the most part causing no serious injury, occurred in the northerly districts eastward of the Missouri Valley. A marked feature of the week was the absence of rain, or the occurrence of only very slight showers, over much the greater part of the cosinity east of the Rocky Mountains, there being ordy a few areas of comparatively limited extent in the Upper Mississippl Valley, lake regions and the coast districts of the Middle Atlantic States and Southern New England, in which the rainfall exceeded the average. Brought continues in the Ohio Valley and with increased severity in Tennessee and the Courtal and Gulf States. No unfavorable conditions are rejected from the Pacific Coast, although rain in Southern California may possibly have caused slight injury. Southern Arizona and Southwestern New Mexico received nusually leavy rains for that region, more than two inches being reported from several stations.

The principal corn states have experienced weather conditions accentionally favorable for inches heing reported from several stations.

The principal corn states have experienced weather conditions exceptionally favorable for maturing late corn, and, while frosts have been quite general over the central and eastern portions of the corn belt, no material damage is indicated. It is build less than 20 per cent, of the crop I lows is miniatured, and while the proportion yet exposed to injury in South Dakot, Minnesota and Wisconain is greater, the immature will noke good freed. Farther south could be a seven that it is not a seven that it is a seven that it is a seven that it is seven to the seven that it is seven that it is seven to the seven that it is seven to the seven the seven that it is seven to the seven that it is seven to the seven the seven the seven that it is seven to the seven the seven the seven the seven the seven that it is seven to the seven that it is seven t is now completed on the North Pacific Coast and thrashing has advanced.

With generally seasonable temperature and practically no rain over nearly the entire corn belt, cotton has opened rapidly and picking has been neitvely carried on, a large part of the crop inving been gathered. Cool nights and the very general prevalence of drought in the central and western districts have been detrimental, and rust and shedding continue to be extensively rejected, although rust is somewhat less prevalent in Georgia. On the whole the crop has suffered deterioration, especially in the central and western portions of the belt. Little or no crop is promised. In Texas the plant has almost entirely ceased fruiting, and in some central counties is dying. In North Carolina the conditions have favored the maturity of late cotton and in South Carolina premature opening has been checked. (The weather map of September 29 shows that good showers fell over a large part of the drought region of Texas and Dklahoma during the past 24 hours.)

Some tobacca remains to be cut in Kentucky and Tennessee, where the late planted has suffered uneable from drought, but as a whole the crop is indicate a light apple crop, but meeting the part of the part of the crop is practically housed.

In the states of the central valleys the re-ports indicate a light apple crop, but more favorable reports are received from the Middle Atlantic States. Much fruit was blown from the trees by the recent high winds in New England.

Engined.

The reports respecting potatoes continue very unfavorable.

Plowing for full seeding has made favorable progress in the Atlantic Coast districts and in the states of the Upper Mississippl and Missouri Valleys, but in the Ohlo Valley, Southern States and the Western portions of Kanas and Nebraska the sell has been too dry for this work.

Produced by JOSEPH MENCHEN, 1237-1239 BROADWAY, NEW YORK CITY, N. Y.

I am instairing, and will put on exhibition at the Mechanics and Merchants' Exposition, Boston, Mass., commencing Oct. 5, a reproduction of the Johnstown Flood. This will be my third production of this effect. The first was for Switt & McNutt, at Concy Island, N. Y., of which Mr. A. H. Bradweil is manager, and for which I furnished the electrical effects, the second was recently but on at Revere Beach, Mass., where I installed the complete equipment. Beginning Nov. 17, this production will be ready for Vaudeville, and Managers of Vaudeville contemplating using the JOHNSTOWN PLOOD EFFECT, are advised TO GET THE ORIGINAL. There is no questioning the superiority of all our effects, or the results produced.

To every party you write enclose them an envelope with your permanent address in care of The Billboard and it will assure you a more prompt reply.

Your mail will be forwarded at the earliest possible moment. This is a good thing for you for the reason, people whom you write, sometimes neglect answering at once, and if you are making a one night stand, ten chances to one your mail will never reach you. If you want an immediate answer, and if they have your route they will DAYS from date my next stand will be find you. The surest way is to have a special envelope in care of The Billboard.
