THE CONGRESS AT BRUSSELS.

A congress of the friends of peace was held at Brussels on the 20th and 21st ult. The first sitting of the congress was held at the Salle de la Societe de la Grande Harmonie.

THE CONGRESS AT BRUSSELS.

M. Roger, the Minister of the Interior of Holland, read a list of the Belgian and continental delegates, which included a large number of distinguished men, from various countries of Europe.

THE CONGRESS AT BRUSSELS.

M. Scoble read a list of the English and American delegates, and announced that the following persons attended, had expressed their cordial concurrence in the object of the congress.

THE CONGRESS AT BRUSSELS.

M. Scoble proposed, "That before proceeding to business, the assembly should, for a few moments, in silence, implore the blessing of Heaven on the principles of permanent and universal peace.

THE CONGRESS AT BRUSSELS.

The President then delivered his inaugural address, in which he gave a rapid historical sketch of the rise, progress, and operations of various societies, formed in England, America, and France.

THE CONGRESS AT BRUSSELS.

The next proposition was as follows:—"The utility and necessity of the adoption by all Governments of a system of treaties, which should be binding on all differences arising between them which might lead to an appeal arms, should be submitted to arbitration, and arranged by friendly mediation.

THE CONGRESS AT BRUSSELS.

Another proposition was:—"That it is desirable to establish, as specially possible, a congress of national representatives chosen by each nation, to meet in order to draw up a code regulating international relations, and that the establishment of a League of Nations, which should be sanctioned with the consent of all nations, would be the sure means of arriving at universal peace.

THE CONGRESS AT BRUSSELS.

The resolution was put, and with the exception of M. Ramon de la Sagra, a Spanish delegate, was voted in favor.

THE CONGRESS AT BRUSSELS.

Another proposition was:—"That all the attention of Government to the advantages of a measure for the improvement of the condition of the poor, and the offices, both of which measures would have the effect of assuring pacific relations between people."

THE CONGRESS AT BRUSSELS.
