WISCONSIN COACHING STAFF

HEAD BASKETBALL COACH — HAROLD E. "BUD" FOSTER
Birthdate — May 30, 1906

THREE Western Conference championships, one National Collegiate Athletic Association title, and three runners-up in Big Ten play during the past 16 seasons of varsity coaching are the highlights in the career of Harold E. "Bud" Foster, University of Wisconsin head basketball coach.

Born in Newton, Kansas, May 30, 1906, Bud had the distinction of being the heaviest baby ever born in that state; he tipped the scales at 133/4 pounds.

Because Newton did not offer any high school facilities, Bud prepped at Mason City, Iowa, high school, then went to Chicago. He entered Wisconsin in 1926, studying economics and playing basketball. He was all-conference center in the seasons of 1929 and 1930; also earned All-American honors in 1930.

Graduating in June, 1930, Foster played professional basketball with Chicago and Oshkosh (All Stars) teams, selling seeds for an Oshkosh firm during the off-seasons. In 1933, he was named freshman coach at Wisconsin and stepped into the varsity coaching spot when Dr. Walter E. Meanwell resigned in 1934.

Foster's initial team tied for the conference crown in 1935, then spent the next five years in the conference second division. But, in 1941, he welded together a fine group of players which, after a poor start, won their last 15 games to snare both Big Ten and NCAA championships. His last championship team was in 1946-47 and these cagers also finished third in the Eastern NCAA regional meet of 1947.

ASSISTANT BASKETBALL COACH — FRED "FRITZ" WEGNER Birthdate — November 24, 1912

Like Foster, Fred "Fritz" Wegner, assistant coach, is a graduate of Wisconsin and also played on the Oshkosh All-Star pro cage teams. Fred, who is regarded as one of the keenest scouts in collegiate basketball and an ideal assistant coach, played guard on the Wisconsin varsity teams of 1934-35-36; also was first baseman on the baseball teams of those same years. He starred in basketball, baseball, and track at Oshkosh high school.

Fred came to Wisconsin as an assistant coach in basketball one year after his graduation, later on adding the baseball duties in 1939 as an assistant to Art Mansfeld

During the past five summers, Fred has been in charge of the boys' baseball association in Madison, with approximately 1,000 youngsters competing in the various age groups.

ASSISTANT BASKETBALL COACH — WALTER LAUTENBACH Birthdate — November 17, 1922

A SSISTING with the freshmen and junior varsity this season is Walter Lautenbach, whose brilliant guard play was one of the factors in bringing Wisconsin the 1947 Big Ten title. Lautenbach won three letters in basketball and three more in baseball as a pitcher. His college career was interrupted by military service but he returned in the fall of 1946 to complete his education at Wisconsin. Following his graduation, he played two seasons with the Oshkosh All-Stars pro team.
