PREFATORY

This volume, third in the series, brings down the publication of the Journals of the Legislative Assembly of Upper Canada to the month of April, 1818. The MS. for the succeeding volume is now in the printer's hands, and may be expected this year: and, next year, it is hoped the series will be completed.

There will still remain to be published a volume of the Journals of the Legislative Council of Upper Canada, the first having been issued in 1910. The Journals of the Legislative Assembly and those of the Legislative Council are complementary of each other; both are necessary to implement the record, and either would be incomplete without the other.

As in preceding volumes, a literal reproduction of the original record is here given. No editorial liberties have been taken with the MS. but the text will be found fairly free from typographical errors. It will be noticed that the Journals for the years 1814 and 1815 are not included, the reason being that for these years the records are amissing.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY. UPPER CANADA.

YORK. Monday. 3rd February, 1812.

At the Fourth Session of the Fifth Provincial Parliament of Upper Canada, begun and holden in the Town of York on Monday, the third day of February, in the fifty second year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twelve.

His Excellency Francis Gore, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor, and His Honor the President, having by their several Proclamations as annexed prorogued the meeting of the Provincial Parliament until this day.

The House being met: A Message from His Honor the President by Mr. George Lawe, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod,
Mr. Speaker,—

I am directed by His Honor the President to command the immediate attendance of this Honorable House in the Legislative Council Chamber.

The House went up accordingly; and being returned:

Prayers were read. Mr. Speaker then reported that the House attended His Honor the President in the Legislative Council Chamber, where His Honor had been pleased to open the present Session by a most gracious Speech, which he then read as follows:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:—

I should derive the utmost satisfaction the first time of my addressing you, were it permitted me to direct your attention solely to such objects as tended to promote the peace and prosperity of this Province.

The glorious contest in which the British Empire is engaged, and the vast sacrifice which Great Britain nobly offers to secure the independence of other nations, might be expected to stifle every feeling of envy and jealousy, and at the same time to excite the interest, and command the administration of a free people. But, regardless of such generous impressions, the American Government evinces a disposition calculated to divide and impede her efforts.

England is not only interdicted the harbours of the United States while they afford a shelter to the cruisers of her inveterate enemy, but she is likewise required to resign those maritime rights which she has so long exercised and enjoyed. Insulting threats are offered, and hostile preparations actually commenced, and though not without hope that cool reflection and the dictates of justice may yet avert the calamities of war, I cannot, under every view of the relative situation of the Province, be too urgent in recommending to your early attention the adoption of such measures as will best secure the internal peace of the Country, and defeat every hostile aggression.

Principally composed of the sons of a loyal and brave band of veterans, the Militia, I am confident, stand in need of nothing but the necessary legislative provisions to direct their ardor in the acquirement of military instruction, to form a most efficient force.

The growing prosperity of these Provinces, it is manifest, begins to awaken a spirit of envy and ambition. The acknowledged importance of this Colony to the Parent State will secure the continuance of the powerful protection———. Her fostering care has been the first cause, under Providence, of the uninterrupted happiness you have so long enjoyed. Your industry has been liberally rewarded, and you have in consequence risen to opulence.

These interesting truths are not uttered to animate your patriotism, but to dispel any apprehension that you may have imbibed of the possibility of England forsaking you; for you must be sensible that if once bereft of her support, if once deprived of the advantages which her commerce and the supply of her most essential wants give you, this Colony, from its geographical position, must inevitably sink into comparative poverty and insignificance.

But Heaven will look favorably on the manly exertions which the loyal and virtuous inhabitants of this happy land are prepared to make to avert such a dire calamity.

Our Gracious Prince, who so gloriously upholds the dignity of the Empire, already appreciates your merit, and it will be your first care to establish by the force of your actions, the just claim of the country to the protection of His Royal Highness.

I cannot deny myself the satisfaction of announcing to you from this place the munificent intention of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who has been graciously pleased to signify that a grant of One Hundred Pounds per annum will be proposed in the annual estimate for every future Missionary of the Gospel sent from England, who may have faithfully discharged for the term of ten years the duties of his station in this Province.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I have no doubt but that, with me, you are convinced of the necessity of a regular system of Military Instruction to the Militia of this Province. On this salutary precaution, in the event of a war, our future safety will greatly depend, and I doubt not but that you will cheerfully lend your aid to enable me to defray the expense of carrying into effect a measure so conducive to our security and defence.

I have ordered the Public Accounts to be laid before you, and have no doubt but that you will consider them with that attention which the nature of the subject may require.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:—

I have without reserve communicated to you what has occurred to me on the existing circumstances of this Province. We wish and hope for peace, but it is nevertheless our duty to be prepared for war.

The task imposed on you on the present occasion is arduous; this task, however, I hope and trust, laying aside every consideration but that of the public good, you will perform with that spirit of firmness, discretion and promptitude which a regard for yourselves, your families, your country and your King, calls for at your hands.

As for myself it shall be my utmost endeavour to co-operate with you in promoting such measures as may best contribute to the security and to the prosperity of this Province.

The Clerk informed the Speaker and the House that, finding himself unable from the bad state of his health, to execute the duties of his Office as Clerk of this House during the present session, he had provided a person to act therein as Clerk Assistant, and begged the sanction and permission of this Honorable House for his being introduced.

Mr. Rogers then moved, seconded by Mr. Secord, that the Clerk of this House, being unable to attend his duty at present, be authorized to appoint a proper person to act for him during the present Session. Ordered accordingly.

Mr. Rogers gave notice, that he will, on to-morrow, move that the House do then resolve itself into a Committee, to take into their consideration His Honor the President's Speech to both Houses of Provincial Legislature.

Mr. Mallory, seconded by Mr. McGregor, moved for leave to bring in a Bill, on Thursday next, for the further encouragement of the growth and cultivation of hemp in this Province. Leave was accordingly granted.

On motion of Mr. Rogers, seconded by Mr. Secord, the House adjourned.

Tuesday, 4th February, 1812.

Prayers were read.

The Serjeant at Arms acquainted the Speaker and the House that, owing to his indisposition, he has appointed Mr. Stephen Jarvis to be his Deputy.

His Commission as Deputy Serjeant at Arms was then read, which is as follows:—

Know all men by these presents, that I, William Stanton, Serjeant at Arms of the Commons House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, duly appointed under the Great Seal of the Province, have, by virtue of my commission as such, nominated, constituted and appointed, and by these presents do nominate, constitute and appoint Stephen Jarvis, of the town of York, Esquire, to be my Deputy as Serjeant at Arms aforesaid during pleasure.

Given under my hand and Seal, at York in Upper Canada, this first day of February, in the Year of Our Lord 1812.

(Signed) WM. STANTON, Serjt. at Arms.

The Speaker then desired the Deputy Serjeant at Arms to attend in his duty.

Mr. Rogers, seconded by Mr. Gough, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee, to take into their consideration His Honor the President's Speech to both Houses of the Legislature, at the opening of this Session of the Provincial Parliament. The House accordingly resolved itself into a Committee. Mr. Speaker left the Chair. Mr. Dorland was called to the chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair, and Mr. Dorland reported that the Committee had come to several resolutions, which he was directed to report to the House whenever it should be pleased to receive the same.

Ordered, that the Report be now received. The Report was accordingly received, and is as follows: Resolved, that it is the opinion of the Committee that an Address be presented to His Honor, the President, to return the thanks of this House for His gracious Speech to both Houses of the Legislature at the opening of this Session of the Provincial Parliament, congratulating him upon his succeeding to the administration of the Government of this Province, and expressing our confidence in the wisdom of his Measures.

Resolved, that it is the opinion of the Committee, that in the present state of alarming preparation and insulting threat, made by the Government of the United States, this House will use every exertion in its power to enable His Honor to put this Province in a state to defend themselves against every hostile aggression.

That it is the opinion of this Committee that a Select Committee be appointed to draft an Address to His Honor's Speech.

Mr. Willcocks moved, seconded by Mr. Mallory, that Messrs. Gough, Elliott and Rogers be appointed as a Select Committee to draft an Address to His Honor, the President, in answer to His Speech to both Houses of the Legislature, agreeably to the resolutions of the Committee of the Whole House upon that subject. Ordered accordingly.

Mr. Rogers, seconded by Mr. Elliott, moved for leave to bring in a Bill, on Thursday next, for repealing an Act, passed in the forty-fourth year of His Majesty's Reign, for appropriating money for Public Buildings for the use of this Province. Leave was accordingly granted.

On motion of Mr. Dorland, seconded by Mr. Elliott, the House adjourned.

Wednesday, 5th February, 1812.

Prayers were read.

Mr. Gough, from the Select Committee appointed to draft an Address in answer to His Honor, the President's Speech to both Houses at the opening of the present Session, reported that the Committee had drawn up an Address accordingly, which he was directed to submit to the House whenever it should be pleased to receive the same. Ordered, that the Report be now received. Mr. Gough read the Report in his place, and then delivered the same in at the Table, when it was again read by the Clerk throughout. Mr. Rogers, seconded by Captain Elliott, moved that the House do resolve itself into a Committee to take into their consideration the draft of the Address to His Honor, the President, in answer to his Speech at the opening of this Session of the Legislature.

The House went into Committee accordingly. Mr. Speaker left the Chair. Mr. Stinson was called to the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair, and Mr. Stinson reported that the Committee had adopted the Address without any amendment, which report was received.

Read as engrossed, the Address to His Honor, the President, which then passed, and was signed by the Speaker, and is as follows:

To His Honor, Isaac Brock, Esquire, President administering the Government of the Province of Upper Canada, and Major General commanding His Majesty's Forces therein, &c., &c., &c.

May it please Your Honor,

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the Province of Upper Canada, in Parliament assembled, beg leave to return you our sincere thanks for your most gracious Speech to both Houses of the Legislature at the opening of the present Session: also permit us, Sir, to congratulate you upon your appointment to the high station you fill, which we consider as a proof of the confidence and high estimation of His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, in Your Honor's talents and experience at this portentous crisis.

We feel a deep sense of the satisfaction Your Honor would derive from having no other object to direct our attention to upon the first time of addressing us but such as tended solely to promote the peace and prosperity of this Province.

With Your Honor, we should have expected that the glorious contest in which the British Empire is engaged, and the vast sacrifice Great Britain is making to secure the independence of other nations, would have stifled every feeling of envy and jealousy, and would, at the same time, have excited the interest and called forth the plaudits and admiration of a free people: but we view with astonishment that the Government of the United States, insensible to those impressions which beget a generous sympathy, evinces a disposition to impede and divide her efforts, and by an infatuated partiality England is not only interdicted the harbours of the United States, while they afford shelter and supplies to the cruisers of her inveterate enemy, but she is likewise required to resign those maritime rights she has so long exercised and enjoyed, and which the whole naval power of Europe has not been able to affect.

We unite with Your Honor in the hope, notwithstanding the insulting threats and hostile preparations of that Government, that cool reflection and the dictates of justice and sound policy may yet avert the calamities of war.

In conformity to the recommendation of Your Honor, we shall pay early attention to the adoption of such measures as shall appear to us best calculated to secure the internal peace of the country, and defeat every hostile aggression.

We feel highly gratified at the confidence you express to have in the ardor and efficiency of the Militia of this Province, and it shall become our immediate duty, in our Legislative capacity, to devise the means for their acquiring needful military instruction, and trust they will, if occasion should require, prove the loyalty and bravery of their fathers have not degenerated.

While we express our regret that the growing prosperity of this Colony, and its increasing importance to Our Parent State, should excite a spirit of envy and ambition, we rejoice in the happy and peaceable enjoyment of the fruits of our industry; and gratefully acknowledge the fostering care and powerful protection of the Mother Country as the primary causes.

The assurance Your Honor is pleased to give us of England not forsaking us demands our warmest acknowledgement, yet permit us to assure Your Honor though conscious of our dependence on her support and protection, and the mutual commercial advantages arising to both, we never could imbibe an apprehension of her abandoning us, and hope we require no incitements to animate our patriotism, but, relying on the justice of our cause, we fervently implore Heaven to look favorably on such exertions as we may be enabled to make to avert so dire a calamity from the inhabitants of this happy land.

Our most zealous endeavors shall be used to establish and ensure by the course of our actions a continuance of the protection of our gracious Prince, who so gloriously upholds the dignity of the empire, and we are truly grateful to His Royal Highness for the flattering appreciation of us which Your Honor has been so good as to communicate.

We have to return you our unfeigned thanks for the satisfaction you feel in announcing to us the munificent intention of His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, who has been graciously pleased to signify that a grant of One Hundred Pounds per annum will be proposed in the annual estimate for every future Minister of the Gospel sent from England who may have faithfully discharged for the term of ten years the duties of his station in this Province, which demands our unbounded gratitude, being a flattering proof that this remote part of the empire participates the vigilance and solicitude of His Royal Highness for the general good, amidst the many weighty and important concerns which must, at this crisis, occupy His Royal Highness' attention.

We are perfectly convinced of the necessity of a regular system of military instruction to the Militia of this Province, and sensible how far, in the event of a war, our safety depends on so salutary a precaution; we shall cheerfully lend our aid towards defraying the expenses of carrying the measure into effect.

When we receive the Public Accounts we shall investigate them, as usual, with the attention they require.

We thank Your Honor for the frank, unreserved manner in which you have communicated your sentiments on the existing circumstances of this Province, and concur with Your Honor in the wish and hope for peace; but, nevertheless, we conceive it to be our duty to be prepared for war, which often has been the means of averting it.

The task imposed on us at this crisis, we are aware, is arduous, but, divesting our minds of every other consideration but that of the public good, and animated by a sense of duty, this task we shall endeavor to perform with that firmness, discretion and promptitude which a regard to our King, our Country, our families and ourselves calls for at our hands.

We have the most perfect reliance in Your Honor's utmost endeavors to cooperate with us in promoting such measures as may best contribute to the security and to the Prosperity of this Province.

To the Honorable Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada in their Legislative Capacity assembled.

That by an Act, passed in the forty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign, the sum of One Hundred Pounds was granted to establish a Public School, to be opened in the Township of Hamilton:

That Your Petitioners find the said appropriation to be entirely useless to the inhabitants of this District in general.

Wherefore Your Petitioners pray that the said Acts of the forty-seventh and forty-eighth years of His Majesty's reign may be repealed, and that such other provision may be made to encourage Common Schools throughout this District as to you in your wisdom may seem meet.

And, as in duty bound, they will ever pray.

(Signed) Richard Lovekin, Asa Burnham, Leonard Soper, Alexr. Fletcher, and forty-eight others.

Hamilton, 12th August, 1811.

The Petition of the Inhabitants of the Midland District was then read as follows:

To the Honorable Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Subscribers, Inhabitants of the Midland District, humbly Sheweth:

That Your Petitioners, without presuming to dictate to Your Honorable Body, feel themselves bound in duty to state that the Act passed in the forty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to establish Public Schools in each and every District of this Province," which, by the repeal of its limitation, was rendered perpetual by the Act passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the forty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to establish Public Schools in each and every District of this Province,'" is found by experience not to answer the end for which it was designed.

Its object, it is presumed, was to promote the education of our youth in general, but a little acquaintance with the facts must convince every unbiassed mind that it has contributed little or nothing to the promotion of so laudable a design. By reason of the place of instruction being established at one end of the District, and the sum demanded for tuition in addition to the annual compensation received from the public, most of the people are unable to avail themselves of the advantages contemplated by the Institution. A few wealthy inhabitants, and those of the Town of Kingston reap exclusively the benefit of it in this District. The institution, instead of aiding the middling and poorer class of His Majesty's subjects, casts money into the lap of the rich, who are sufficiently able, without public assistance, to support a school in every respect equal to the one established by law. Your Petitioners forbear adducing any more facts to verify their representations. They cannot be persuaded that you will continue in force an Act proved by a fair experiment to be so partial in its operation, and so little calculated to effect the contemplated objects. Wherefore they pray that so much of the last mentioned Act as repealed the limitation of the Act first above mentioned may be repealed, and such provisions made in the premises as may be conducive to public utility.

Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Midland District, Jany. 6th. 1812.

(Signed) Jacob Hess, Daniel Wright, Stephen Hess, John Trumponr, and sixty others.

Mr. Gough, seconded by Mr. Mallory, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee to take into consideration the said Bill. The House accordingly resolved itself into a Committee. Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Howard was called to the chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair, and Mr. Howard reported that the Committee had made a progress, and had directed him to ask for leave to sit again on to-morrow. Leave was accordingly granted.

Read, a letter from Alexander McDonell, Esq., a Member representing the County of Glengarry, to His Honor the Speaker, and is in the following words:

York, 8th Sept.. 1811.

Sir,—I feel it is a duty incumbent upon me to state to you, for the information of the Commons House of Assembly, that William Warren Baldwin, Esq., has grossly and flagrantly violated the privileges of that Honorable Body, by issuing, as Deputy Clerk of the Crown, indorsing, and putting into the hands of the Sheriff of the Home District, as Attorney at Law, a Writ, for the purpose of arresting my person, about the fifteenth day of July now past. The Deputy Sheriff (Mr. Hamilton) told Mr. Baldwin, when the latter put the Writ in his hands, that as a Member of the House of Assembly I was privileged from arrest. This Mr. Baldwin denied, and insisted on his complying implicitly with the tenor of the Writ. Mr. Hamilton declined, and referred the circumstance to the decision of the Sheriff, who, being more versant in the duties of his Office than Mr. Baldwin appears to have been in his, declined executing the writ.

This violation of privilege is more unpardonable in Mr. Baldwin than it could possibly be in any other Attorney: for, as Master in Chancery, he is the organ of communication from the Legislative Council to the House of Assembly, and at this late period he has the assurance to deny to the latter branch of the Legislature a privilege which they have already contended for, and which has invariably been admitted. Immaterial to the House that the Writ has not been executed by the Sheriff, Mr. Baldwin put the finishing hand to that part of the transaction which has a reference to his Office as Attorney, and the infraction of privilege is as deeply wounded by his endorsing the Writ as if my person had been taken into custody. To the decision of the House I submit the case, not doubting but that every individual Member will coincide with me in opinion that Mr. Baldwin in his threefold capacity of Deputy Clerk of the Crown, Attorney, and Master in Chancery has violated the privileges of the House of Assembly.

It is painful to me to have again to solicit the indulgence of the House from attendance during the ensuing session, but business of some consequence to me requires my presence in England.

I have the honor to be, Sir, with great respect, Your Most Humble Servant,

The Honorable the Speaker.

ALEXR. McDONELL.

The Bill then passed, and was signed by the Speaker. Read, the Petition of the Inhabitants of the Townships of Nelson and Trafalgar, which is as follows, to wit:

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Undersigned Freeholders and Inhabitant Household-ers, residing in the Townships of Nelson, Trafalgar, Toronto, and the vicinity of the Head of the Lake, Most Respectfully Sheweth:

That Your Petitioners, as well as the Public in general, suffer much inconvenience for the want of a bridge across the Sixteen Mile Creek, in the Township of Trafalgar, near the mouth of the Creek; for the want of which the travelling on the Lake Shore is impeded below the Twelve Mile Creek, which was bridged last summer by a very few of your Petitioners, before the road was established by law. The great expense that would attend the building of the said bridge precludes the possibility of Your Petitioners building at their own expense—the number of inhabitants from the beach to the River Credit on the Lake Shore being only twenty-six—

Your Petitioners have hereunto annexed a statement of the length of the bridge, etc., and therefore most humbly pray that Your Honorable Body will take the premises into your consideration, and grant them such a sum of money as in the wisdom of Your House will be adequate to the expense.

And Your Petitioners as in duty bound will ever pray.

Mr. Speaker, I am commanded by the Honorable the Legislative Council to acquaint this House that they have passed an Act sent up from this House, intituled "An Act to continue for a limited time an Act passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled 'An Act to continue an Act, passed in the forty-fifth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled 'An Act to afford relief to those persons who may be entitled to claim lands in this Province as Heirs or Devises of the Nominees of the Crown, in cases where no patent hath issued for such lands,' and further to extend the benefits of the said Act," to which they have made several amendments, and request the concurrence of this House thereto in passing the same.

That he did not execute the said Writ, because he conceived Mr. McDonell to be privileged from arrest. That Mr. Baldwin urged him to make the said arrest, insisting that this House was not entitled to privilege, as being a House of Assembly only, and not a House of Parliament. The Writ of Capias ad respondendum was then produced by Mr. Hamilton, which was read at the Table, and returned to him.

To the Honorable the Members of the Commons House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Inhabitants of the County of Lincoln, the County of Haldimand and the West Riding of the County of York, Humbly Showeth,

That for reasons given in sundry former Petitions presented to Your Honorable House in several past Sessions, signed by the Inhabitants of the said Counties and the said Riding, stating the necessity of forming a new District from a part of each of the said Counties and Riding.

And whereas a diversity of opinions and interests caused us to fix on several sites whereon to erect the Buildings necessary to hold Courts of Justice in the said proposed district, and Your Honorable Body not having thought proper to fix the limits for such new districts, nor adopt any of the sites proposed in any of our said Petitions to erect a Court House as aforesaid, has induced Your Petitioners to reflect on the great importance of an object so materially interesting to the interest, the feelings and convenience of a very considerable body of His Majesty's Subjects.

That after mature deliberation Your Petitioners have formed a union of sentiments, and humbly state to Your Honorable House that it is their fixed opinion that the Village of Ancaster, adjoining and near the Union Mills, is by far the most central, healthful and eligible situation to erect buildings for the purposes aforesaid.

That the annexed instrument will show that Your Petitioners are ready and willing to make a liberal appropriation in lands for that purpose, as eligibly and healthfully situated as any site in this province, plentifully supplied with salubrious water and every material for building.

That being aware that several Members of Your Honorable House being acquainted with the local situation and superior advantages of that said village has induced Your Petitioners humbly to presume that Your Honorable House will view it in the same light that they do,

They therefore most humbly pray that Your Honorable House will be pleased to enact that the site to erect a Court House shall be fixed at the Village of Ancaster accordingly.

And they, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c. Ancaster, Feb'y 3rd, 1812.

(Signed) Conrad Filman. John Smith. Sen'r, John Book, William Rymal, and about two hundred others.

Prayers were read.

The Serjeant at Arms informed the Speaker that John Small, Esquire, attended at the Bar of this House, in obedience to the order of yesterday. Mr. Small was ordered to the Bar, and, being examined by the House, declared that the oath on which the capias against Alexander McDonell, Esquire, a Member of this House, was issued, was taken by Mrs. Jordan and administered by himself: that he had no intention to infringe upon any of the privileges of this House, and that if he had done so inadvertently he prayed that this House would pardon him. Mr. Gough, seconded by Mr. Rogers, moved that John Small, Esquire, Clerk of the Crown, has been guilty of a breach of the privileges of this House, by issuing from his office a capias against the person of Alexander McDonell, Esquire, a Member of this House: but Mr. Small, having made an apology to the satisfaction of this House, he dismissed. The House accordingly resolved the same. Mr. Speaker informed Mr. Small of the said resolution, and that in consequence of his apology he was permitted to retire.

Mr. Gough again moved, seconded by Mr. Rogers, that a message be sent to the Legislative Council, with the resolution of this House of the day before yesterday, respecting the conduct of William Warren Baldwin, Esquire, whom this House knows to be an officer attending their Honorable House as a Master in Chancery; assuring them of the reliance of this House that their Honorable House will proceed towards the delinquent as to their wisdom may seem meet, and to justice may appertain, which was ordered accordingly.

Read, the Petition of the Inhabitants of the County of Kent in the words following, to wit:

To His Excellency Major General Brock, President, and the Honorable the Legislative Council and Commons of the Province of Upper Canada, in Parliament assembled.

Your Petitioners humbly shew that the Legislature of the Province of Upper Canada passed an Act, bearing date the ninth day of March, 1804, offering Forty Pounds per ton for merchantable hemp, raised in the Province, if sold to the Commissioners appointed to receive hemp: and if sold to others a bounty of Ten Pounds per ton. This encouraged Your Petitioners to enter largely into the cultivation of hemp. But the bounty expiring on the last day of September in the same year, very few of your Petitioners received any benefit from the offered bounty, owing to the debentures not arriving at York before the last day of September. This gave a sudden check to the business of hemp. But the Legislature taking it into consideration passed an Act, bearing date the second day of March, 1805, offering Fifty Pounds per ton for merchantable hemp raised in the Province. This again encouraged Your Petitioners to make a second attempt towards raising hemp; but when they offered the hemp to the Commissioners for sale they declined receiving it, alleging that no money had been put in their hands to pay for hemp. This again gave a second check to the growth of hemp for nearly three years; but the Legislature, still having in view the encouraging of the cultivation of hemp, passed an Act, bearing date the sixteenth day of March, 1808, offering Sixty Two Pounds Ten Shillings per ton for merchantable hemp raised in the Province. This again gave Your Petitioners great encouragement to enter largely into the cultivation of hemp, and this last year they raised and sold upwards of sixteen tons, and this year will have at least double that quantity; and having preserved a greater quantity of seed, and prepared more ground, will sow double the quantity this year they did last year. But there seems to be a stop put to the sale of hemp at present, as the Commissioner says he has expended all the money he had in his hands for the purpose of hemp; and Capt. William Mills, (Who heretofore has purchased hemp) declines buying and more.

Therefore Your Petitioners humbly pray that Your Excellency and the Legislature of the Province will be pleased to continue the present price given by the Province for hemp for a further term of years, and grant such other bounties, and make such other regulations as in your wisdom shall seem meet.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(Signed) Mills Goodman, Matthew Dolson, John Smith, Thomas Hitchcock, and forty others.

That Your Petitioners have opened the road through the Indian Reserve in said Township, and have procured timber for the purpose of building a bridge across the Etobicoke River, which they intend to complete next summer.

Wherefore Your Petitioners pray that Your Honors may be pleased to grant as much of the Public money as you in your wisdom may think proper to be laid out on the aforesaid swamps, to make the same convenient and passable for the public.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

To the Honorable the Commons of the Province of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Inhabitants of the Township of Nelson, and others on Dundas Street, Humbly Sheweth:

That whereas the twelve mile Creek, where it crosses the Dundas Street, renders it, in some part of the year, quite impassable:

That Your Petitioners have used their little efforts to erect a bridge across the said creek, and find their endeavours quite inadequate.

Wherefore Your Petitioners pray that Your Honours may be pleased to grant as much of the Public Money, for the purpose of building a bridge across the said creek, as you in your wisdom may think proper.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Nelson, 8th February, 1818.

To the Honorable the Legislative Council and Commons House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the subscribers, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Townships of Elizabethtown, Augusta and Yonge, Humbly Sheweth:

That in the opinion of Your Petitioners the present method of voting at elections within this Province is productive of many and very great abuses, one of the most prominent of which is the opportunity which it affords to rich and powerful individuals of exerting an undue influence over the minds of the Electors, and causing their choice too frequently to fall upon men but little qualified for so important a trust.

Your Petitioners, being exceedingly desirous that in the Election for Representatives a clear expression of the Public will may be obtained, do urgently entreat Your Honorable Body, to pass an Act, directing that in all Elections hereafter to be held for Members of Parliament within this Province, the vote shall be taken by ballot, instead of viva voce, unless on a fair experiment that method should be found less calculated to promote the interests and secure the privileges of the good people of this Province.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(Signed) William Wilkie, William Robertson, William Graves, and sixty-four others.

Ordered that the said Report be now received. The Report was accordingly received. Mr. Rogers, seconded by Capt. Elliott, moved that the amendments made by this House to the District Court Bill be engrossed, and that the said Bill as amended be read a third time to-morrow, which was ordered accordingly.

Mr. Howard, seconded by Mr. Secord, moved for leave to bring in a Bill on to-morrow, to appropriate a certain sum of money out of the unappropriated funds in this Province, for the purpose of training, exercising and arming the Militia of this Province, and other purposes. Leave was given him accordingly.

On motion of Mr. Willcocks, seconded by Mr. McNabb, the House adjourned.

Thursday, 20th February, 1812.

Prayers were read.

Read by permission of the House, a letter from Robert Nichol. Esq., accompanying the accounts of the Commissioners of Roads, delivered in yesterday at the Bar of this House, which letter is as follows:—

Woodhouse, London District,

Sir:—

April 25th, 1811.

I have the Honor to transmit to you enclosed an Account of the application of the sum of three hundred pounds, granted by Parliament in the year 1810, and paid into my hands in the Autumn of that year, for the purpose of amending and repairing certain Public Highways in this District, with such vouchers as I have been able to obtain.

As the conduct of the Commissioners generally has been very severely censured by the House of Assembly, and as my name is most particularly noticed in one of the resolutions of that House, I have felt it to be my duty to detail to you for the information of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, the particular circumstances under which any part of the money was expended, and why the whole could not be laid out within the time limited by the Act.

When my name first appeared as a Commissioner in the Gazette I considered it merely as a consequence of my having undertaken to act in conjunction with Col. Talbot as Commissioner for ascertaining and certifying the performance of the settlement duties on Talbot Road, and did not suppose that I was expected to take an active part in the duties imposed by the appointment, from there being two Commissioners actually resident on the road, whose local knowledge and experience rendered them in every respect much more eligible persons to superintend the necessary repairs. From my remote situation, being thirty miles distant from the nearest part of the road, and nearly one hundred and fifty miles from its western extremity; and from my not having been specially called upon by His Excellency in conformity to the fourth section of the Act. These are the reasons which prevented my early application for the money, and which made me resist the repeated solicitations of the other Commissioners to interfere in the business at all.

At the Assizes, however, I met Mr. Springer and Mr. Yeigh, and learnt from them that they had taken no steps to receive and spend the money. As the season was then far advanced, and as it was evident that unless immediate measures were adopted the necessary repairs to the road could not have been performed that season. I recommended to them to enter on the business at once, stating at the same time that it would be out of my power to give them any assistance, as my own business required all my attention. They, upon this, consented, on condition that I should go to York to receive the money to which I agreed. I most particularly recommended that the work should be done by contract, after duly advertising for the lowest proposals; but in this I was over-ruled by the other Commissioners, who said that they had been advised by Mr. Baby, Col. Elliott and Mr. McGregor to hire labourers by the day, and to place them under the superintendence of responsible overseers.

In the beginning of October I went to York, and on the eleventh, I think, received the money from the Receiver General. As soon after as my private affairs would admit of it I left home with the money, in the hope that the work had been completed, intending, in that event, to pay the laborers and take the proper vouchers (I being responsible) myself. On arriving in Oxford, however, where I was taken very ill, I found that a part only of the labor had been performed, though there were then several laborers at work, in consequence of which and from being unable to proceed I paid into Mr. Yeigh's hands agreeably to the voucher "A" the sum appropriated for the road in his neighbourhood; also one hundred and fifty pounds and threepence, to be transmitted to Mr. Springer on account of the appropriation for the road between Cartwright and the Moravian grant. I at the same time left with Mr. Yeigh a form in which to make out his vouchers, and a letter addressed to Mr. Springer, strongly cautioning him on the just and economical expenditure of the Public money—on the necessity of every shilling expended being properly vouched for, agreeably to a form transmitted, and of its being made out in strict conformity to the provisions of the Act. I also desired him to use his utmost endeavours to get the whole sum voted expended, either by contract or otherwise, within the time limited by the Act; and to send to me for the balance, should he succeed in getting laborers to perform the work. Before leaving Mr. Yeigh a contract was made with a man named Canae for repairing the road between Canfield's and Haskins', and I subsequently paid the full amount of the appropriation, agreeably to Mr. Yeigh's order, and the voucher No. 2, which accompanied the account.

About the middle of November I received by Mr. Welch, a Commissioner, a message from Mr. Springer, to say that he had not been able to expend all the money I had sent him within the time limited by the Act; but that a part of the road through the wilderness was impassable, being choked up with a great quantity of fallen timber, and that there was one very bad place, which would require to be bridged. It immediately occurred to me that a liberal construction of the Act would justify the necessary expenditure to open and make the road passable, and I accordingly, on my own responsibility, authorized an expenditure of so much money as might be necessary to build the bridge, and cut out the timber in question; determined if it was not covered by the vote of the House to pay for it myself.

After this I went to York for the express purpose of depositing the balance unexpended in the hands of the Receiver General, who told me he was not authorized to receive it. He, however, recommended my retaining the money, and expending it after the first day of May next, in conformity to the Act.

It was my intention to have transmitted to your Office the accounts in time to have had them audited and laid before the House of Assembly at its last session, but I did not receive them from either Mr. Springer or Mr. Yeigh till the latter end of January, and then the vouchers were so informal, and in many instances so incorrect, that I could not consistently bring them forward in that state. Opportunities of communication between this place and Delaware are not very frequent; and as there was no provision in the Act for the payment of a contingent account, I did not think fit to send an express at my own expense, or to undertake a journey of an hundred miles in person for the purpose of remedying the irregularities. Independent of these considerations the Act did not point out the time or mode of accounting for the money, nor had it been all expended.

In settling with Mr. Springer I did most particularly object to the charge made by him for his personal services; not that I thought it wrong in principle (for it is, in my opinion, absurd to expect an individual to give his time to the public gratuitously) but that it was not provided for in the Act. But he had made use of the money, and I admitted it to remain on the account, on his promising to refund the amount should it not be allowed at the audit.

The balance stated to be in my hands I am ready to pay to such of the Commissioners as His Excellency may order to receive it.

Throughout the whole of this business I have endeavoured to discharge the duties of a Commissioner in such a manner as to prove that His Excellency's confidence has not been misplaced. Experience has, however, convinced me, that no integrity of heart nor rectitude of conduct are a defence against malevolence and detraction; and that actions the most upright, and disinterested, may be misrepresented when individual characters are to be sacrificed and party purposes are to be gained. I have the satisfaction, however, to reflect that I have acted right, that there is no foundation for the insinuation against me in the resolution alluded to, and that I have not been benefited either directly or indirectly by one shilling of the Public money.

I have the honor to remain,

Very Respectfully, Sir,

Your most obedient humble servant.

Wm. Halton. Esq., Secy., &c., &c.
Gov. House.

Read, agreeably to the order of the day, the Petition of the Inhabitants of the Midland District, in the following words, to wit:

To the Honorable Legislative Council and the House of Assembly.

The Petition of the Inhabitants of the Midland District:

Your Petitioners, without presuming to dictate to Your Honorable Body, humbly beg leave to show that the Act passed on the 10th March, 1807, in the forty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to establish Public Schools in each and every District of this Province," is found by experience not to answer the end for which it was designed; its object is presumed to be to promote literature. A small acquaintance with the facts must convince every unbiassed mind that the cited Act has contributed very little or nothing to the promotion of so laudable a design. By reason of the place of instruction being established at one end of the district, and the exorbitant sum demanded for tuition (notwithstanding the liberal sum annually received from the public) very few of the inhabitants have the pecuniary means to avail themselves of the benefits and advantages contemplated by the institution. A few lucrative inhabitants, residing remote from the place of instruction, and the inhabitants of Kingston, reap exclusively the benefit of the established seminary in this district, and instead of aiding the middling class of His Majesty's subjects it is casting money into the lap of the rich, who are sufficiently able to support schools such as are intended by the institution without pecuniary assistance from the public. Your Petitioners forbear adding any more facts to establish the truth of their assertions, which they believe are already in your possession. They cannot be persuaded that you will continue in force an Act so partial in its operation, and so little calculated to promote the education of youth in general.

They therefore pray that the above-mentioned Act may be repealed, and that Your Honorable Body will make such provisions on the premises as will be most conducive to public utility, and of distributing reciprocal benefits.

Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

Midland District, Jan. 1st, 1812.

(Signed) James Young, Gilbert Harris, Robert Young, Sr., Robert Young, Jr., and forty-one others.

Read, the Petition of the inhabitants of the Townships of Thurlow, Sidney, Rawdon, Ameliasburgh, Sophiasburgh, Huntingdon, Hungerford, Murray, Seymour, and the Mohawk Tract, in the Midland District.

To the Honorable Legislative Council and House of Assembly.

The Petition of the Undersigned most Humbly Sheweth :

That we, the subscribers, beg leave to state to Your Honorable House that we labour under great inconveniences and many disadvantages in consequence of the extensiveness of the Midland District, it being upwards of 100 miles in length and operates as a grievous hardship upon the aforesaid townships, who have to travel so great a distance to attend Courts of Justice, &c., at Kingston.

We, the subscribers, therefore humbly pray Your Honorable House will be pleased to take our case into consideration, and afford us relief by causing the aforesaid townships to be a District by themselves. And should this, our petition, be favorably received and answered, we, the subscribing Petitioners, promise to furnish a sum of five hundred pounds currency in material towards building a good and sufficient Gaol and Court House.

And we, Your Humble Petitioners, will every pray.

Midland District, 18th Jany., 1812.

(Signed) John McIntosh, William H. Walbridge, Rulief Purdy, and fifty-seven others.

The Serjeant at Arms requested the permission of this House to appoint Mr. Thomas Hamilton as his Deputy to attend this House for a few days, his Deputy, Mr. Jarvis, being absent in the service of this House. Mr. Speaker, by permission of the House, then ordered Mr. Hamilton to attend in such capacity.

Agreeably to the order of the day the House resolved itself into a Committee on the Bill to prevent damages to sleighs and other carriages travelling on the road. Mr. Speaker left the Chair. Mr. Willcocks was called to the chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Willcocks reported that the Committee had gone through the consideration of the said Bill, to which they had made several amendments, which he was directed to report to the House whenever it should be pleased to receive the same. Ordered, that the said Report be now received. The said Report was accordingly received.

Mr. Howard, one of the messengers named to carry up to the Honorable Legislative Council the message of this House that they had concurred in the amendments made by the Honorable the Legislative Council in and to the Bill for the relief of the Heirs and Devisees of the Nominees of the Crown, as modified by them; and also that this House had passed the Bill, sent down from the Honorable the Legislative Council, intituled "An Act for the relief of Suitors in the several District Courts of this Province," with several amendments, to which amendments their concurrence was requested, reported that they had carried up the said message.

Mr. Howard, who was also one of the messengers named to carry up to the Honorable Legislative Council the Bill intituled "An Act to prevent Desertion from His Majesty's Regular Forces by granting a Bounty for apprehending Deserters in this Province," reported that they had carried up the said Bill, and requested their concurrence in passing the same.

On motion of Mr. Howard, seconded by Mr. Gough, Ordered, that the Bill for preventing Damages to Sleighs and other Carriages travelling on the roads be engrossed, and read a third time to-morrow.

The House then, agreeably to the Order of the Day, resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole to take into consideration the School Bill. Mr. Speaker left the Chair. Mr. McNabb was called to the chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. McNabb reported that the Committee had made a progress, and had directed him to ask for leave to sit again on Monday next. Leave was accordingly granted.

Read, the Petition of the Inhabitants of the County of Glengarry, which is as follows:

To the Honorable the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of Upper Canada, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the undersigned, Freeholders of the Counties of Glengarry, Stormont and Russell, Humbly Showeth,

That whereas the Inhabitants of the said Counties labour under great inconvenience and impositions as respects the accommodation of mills in said Counties, owing to difficulties arising from the flatness of the country in general in said Counties, and the low banks on the sides of the different rivers or creeks whereon mills are erected and ought to be erected; there not being a mill seat on any of the waters of said Counties now inhabited (except on the River St. Lawrence in front) that will admit of raising a head of water without overflowing more or less of the adjoining lands, to the persons who have erected mills in said Counties, and those who wish to erect, and are much wanting, but are prevented in consequence of their adjoining neighbors exacting an exorbitant yearly rent for said overflowed lands; and a number of those who have mills already erected will be obliged to stop and pull them down, in consequence of the imposition of being obliged to pay a sum yearly more than the value of the said lands in fee simple.

Wherefore Your Petitioners humbly pray Your Honors will be pleased to bring forward a Bill before the House of Assembly at Your next Sitting, praying to enact a law that will remedy the existing evil, to regulate mill seats and prevent the impositions imposed as aforesaid, which will prevent the inhabitants of such counties, or the greater part of them, from becoming destitute of the accommodation of mills in said counties; if consistent with the happy Government under which we live.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c.

(Signed) Alex'r McMillan, J. P.; Alex'r McDonell, J. P.; John McIntyre, J. P.; John Bethune, and one hundred and forty others.

Mr. Rogers, seconded by Mr. Sovereign, moved for leave to bring up the petition of the Inhabitants of Talbot Road. Leave was accordingly granted, and the Petition ordered to lie on the Table. On motion of Mr. Howard, seconded by Mr. Rogers, the House adjourned.

Read for the first time, the Bill for replacing certain moneys advanced by the Lieutenant Governor last Session of the Legislature. Mr. Rogers, seconded by Mr. Lewis, moved that the said Bill be read a second time to-morrow, which was ordered accordingly.

Read, agreeably to the order of the day, the Petition of the Settlers on Talbot Road, which is as follows:

To the Honorable the Commons of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Inhabitants of Talbot Road, respectfully Showeth:

That Your Petitioners are settled on the said road, which is to be extended through the London and Western Districts to Amherstburgh, and the lands abutting thereon to be granted to actual settlers, the said road must ere long be a road of great consequence and importance to facilitate travelling to the westward, as it is considerably nearer to Amherstburgh than the way travelled at present by the River Thames, and the land through which it passed is of an excellent quality for cultivation.

The undersigned are entirely settled on lands granted to them by His Majesty, on which settlement duties, contiguous to and upon the said road are required, which far exceed those heretofore imposed upon any road in the Province, which, with the Statute Labour of the inhabitants, will in a short time make the said road passable, excepting the bridging of the large creek and making causeways.

Your Petitioners therefore pray that Your Honorable House may take their case into consideration, and grant them such aid as in your wisdom may seem consistent; and they cherish the fond hope that from the knowledge Your Honorable House possesses of the local situation of this part of the Province it will see the propriety and expediency of granting their request.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Talbot Road, Jan'y, 1812.

(Signed) William Myers, Sam'l Guernsey, Sam'l Aylford, Sam'l Harris, John Axford, and seventy-seven others.

And also the Petition of the Inhabitants of the Western District, as follows:

To His Excellency, Major-General Brock, President, and the Honorable Legislative Council and Commons of the Province of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled.

Your Petitioners humbly showeth that the Legislature of the Province of Upper Canada passed an Act, bearing date the 9th day of March, 1804, offering forty pounds per ton for merchantable Hemp raised in the Province, if sold to the Commissioners appointed to receive hemp; and if sold to others a bounty of ten pounds per ton. This encouraged your petitioners to enter largely into the cultivation of hemp, but the bounty expiring on the last day of September in the same year, very few of your petitioners received any benefit from the offered bounty owing to the debentures not arriving at York before the last day of September. This gave a sudden check to the raising of hemp, but the Legislature, taking it into consideration, passed an Act, bearing date the 2nd day of March, 1805, offering fifty pounds per ton for merchantable hemp raised in the Province. This again encouraged Your Petitioners to make a second attempt towards raising hemp, but when they offered the hemp to the Commissioners for sale, they declined receiving it, alleging that no money had been put in their hands to pay for hemp. This again gave a second check to the growth of hemp for nearly three years, but the Legislature, still having in view the encouraging the cultivation of hemp, passed an Act, bearing date the 16th day of March, 1808, offering Sixty-two Pounds Ten Shillings per ton for merchantable hemp raised in the Province. This again gave your petitioners great encouragement to enter largely into the cultivation of hemp, and this last year they raised and sold upwards of sixteen tons, and this year will have at least double that quantity; and having preserved a greater quantity of seed and prepared more ground, will sow double the quantity this year they did last year. But there seems to be a stop put to the sale of hemp at present, as the Commissioner says he has expended all the money he had in his hands for the purchase of hemp, and Captain William Mills (who heretofore has purchased hemp) declines buying any more.

Therefore Your Petitioners humbly pray that Your Excellency and the Legislature of this Province will be pleased to continue the present price given by the Province for hemp for a further term of years, and grant such other bounties and make such other regulations as in your wisdom shall seem meet.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

Harwich, 10th January, 1812.

To the Honorable the Legislative of the Province of Upper Canada, at York, in Parliament assembled.

The petition of the subscribers, Inhabitants of the Counties of Prescott and Russell, in the Eastern District of the said Province, Humbly Represents:

That Your Petitioners reside on the borders of the Grand or Ottawa River, and in the Townships adjacent thereto, in the said Counties of Prescott and Russell.

That from Emigration from other places, and a close attention of its inhabitants to agricultural and commercial pursuits, the said County of Prescott has become populous and wealthy, and they confidently believe the said County would, were its judicial polity under better regulations, be inferior to none in the said district. But Your Petitioners respectfully beg leave to lay before Your Honorable body the hardships and inconveniences they from the present situation of the said District, are obliged to bear and sustain. The Courts of Justice being holden at Cornwall in the said District, Your petitioners and other inhabitants of the said counties are obliged, for the purpose of giving their attendance at Court, to travel from forty to seventy miles in a road so bad that your petitioners believe it is equalled by none in this Province, which occasions to your petitioners fatal delays and enormous expenses in the collection of debts, and insurmountable difficulties in bringing to condign punishment the evil disposed and disorderly in society.

Your Petitioners beg leave further to represent that their contiguity to the City of Montreal, the fertility of the soil they cultivate, the enterprise and industry of the inhabitants, and the growing population of the said counties have given rise to a rapid extension of agriculture and commerce, from whence naturally grows numerous disputes and litigations amongst the inhabitants.

That by reason of the great distance to the seat of Justice the difficulty (and in many instances impossibility) of obtaining process, and the delay of justice occasioned thereby (which, in the opinion of your petitioners is equivalent to a denial of it) render the tenure by which your petitioners hold their personal property unsafe and insecure, the collection of debts often times impracticable and always uncertain and precarious; whilst the criminally delinquent contumaciously violate the laws without the fear of punishment.

Your petitioners having long resided in this Province and all of them being and many of them having ever been subjects of His Majesty, know and believe the laws of this Province, if properly administered, are in every respect equal to the most perfect security of the subject's personal property. Impressed with this belief, and to remedy the evils they at present sustain, and which have, in part, been above recited, your petitioners respectfully suggest to Your Honorable Body the expediency of having proper officers appointed in the said Counties of Prescott and Russell, sufficient to organize a District Court and Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be holden in and for the said counties of Prescott and Russell.

Your petitioners therefore pray that a law or ordinance of this Province be passed for the purpose of having District Courts and Courts of Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden in and for the said counties of Prescott and Russell, on such days and times as Your Honorable Body shall deem most fit and expedient.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray, etc.

(Signed) George Hamilton, Wm. Hamilton, Alex'r. Grant, Pat. Grant, J. Fortune, and one hundred and six others.

The petition of the inhabitants of the County of Durham was then read as follows:

To their Honors the Members of the Commons House of Parliament of Upper Canada, in session assembled.

We, the inhabitants of the Western part of the Township of Hope and the Townships of Clark and Darlington, beg leave to state to Your Honors that the front road through the above townships stands much in need of repairs, to which the Statute labour is quite inadequate; and as the travelling goes principally on the front road the public are subjected to great inconveniences, we pray your Honors to take the above into consideration, and order such sum of money for the repair of the above mentioned road as Your Honors in your wisdom may think proper.

17th January, 1812.

(Signed) Benj. Marsh, Jacob Haskell, Leonard Soper, and forty-four others.

And also the petition of the Magistrates and principal inhabitants of the county of Grenville, and is as follows:

To the Hon. Isaac Brock, Esq., President administering the Government, and to the Hon. Legislative Council for the Province of Upper Canada, etc., etc., in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Magistrates and principal inhabitants of the County of Grenville, Humbly Represents:

That whereas your petitioners, as in duty bound, feel themselves impressed from loyal and dutiful motives, and considering the peace and quietness of their District as most essential to their happiness, and as sundry dissensions and quarrels have arisen among the inhabitants of the said District, of so public and interesting a nature that they will not admit of a reconciliation without the interference of the Legislature. We do therefore represent to Your Honors that to effect this to general satisfaction it will be necessary either to form a new District in the manner required and prayed for in the three last sessions, or at least to obtain permission to have the Courts holden alternately at Johnstown and Elizabethtown, there being a good and sufficient Gaol and Court House already erected in Johnstown, which must inevitably fall to ruin if not occupied in some manner. It would be needless to lay before Your Honors a full detail of the reason which [led] us to desire a separation, as they were explicitly set forth on former occasions; therefore we humbly pray the Hon. Legislature will be pleased to grant the inestimable favour herein expressed for the welfare of the District.

And Your Memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(Signed) David Beach, Sr., John Snider, David Beach, Jr., Thomas McCay, Asa Clothier and seventy-nine others.

Mr. Mallory, seconded by Mr. Howard, moved for leave to bring up the petition of Daniel Spilman. Leave was accordingly granted, and the said petition ordered to lie on the Table.

Mr. Mallory, seconded by Mr. Howard, again moved for leave to bring up the Petition of Nicholas McDougall, and other papers annexed to the petition. Accordingly leave was given.

And also the Bill intituled "An Act for applying a certain sum of money therein mentioned to make good certain moneys issued and advanced by His Majesty through the Lieutenant Governor in pursuance of an address of the House of Assembly,"

And also the Bill intituled "An Act for granting to His Majesty a sum of money for the use of the Militia of this Province," reported that they had carried up the said Bills to the Hon. Legislative Council, and did request their concurrence in passing the several Bills.

Mr. J. Willson, one of the messengers named to carry up to the Hon. Legislative Council the Bill intituled "An Act to amend an Act passed in the fiftieth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled 'An Act to provide for laying out, amending and keeping in repair the public highways and roads in this Province,' and to repeal the laws now in force for that purpose," reported that they had carried up the said Bill, and did request their concurrence thereto.

In consequence of the return made by Stephen Jarvis, Deputy Serjt. at Arms, in consequence of the Speaker's Warrant to the Serjt. at Arms, for bringing to the Bar of this House the body of Robert Nichol, of the Township of Woodhouse, Esquire, for a contempt of the privileges of the House. The said Robert Nichol was ordered to be brought to the Bar, and having appeared the Speaker read to him the resolution of this House of the twentieth instant respecting him. Mr. Sovereign, a Member of the House, was then called upon to give evidence of words used by Mr. Nichol in his presence, disrespectful to the House of Assembly. Mr. Sovereign having closed his evidence, Mr. Willcocks was then called upon in his place to give evidence of certain disrespectful words used by Mr. Nichol respecting the House of Assembly, and having closed his testimony, Mr. Speaker asked Mr. Nichol what he had to say in extenuation of the offence with which he stood charged. Mr. Nichol was then heard in his defence, and having finished was ordered to withdraw from the Bar. Mr. Rogers then moved, seconded by Mr. Howard, that Mr. Nichol has been guilty of a breach of privilege, in addition to his former offence, in denying that this House have the privilege of committing an offender who by them has been found guilty of a breach of privilege. On the question being put a division thereupon took place, and the names being called for were taken down as follows:

The petition of the inhabitants of the Township of Kingston was then read as follows:

To the Hon. the Legislative Council and Commons House of Assembly of Upper Canada, in Parliament assembled.

The petition of the subscribers, Freeholders and inhabitants of the township of Kingston, Humbly Sheweth:

That in the opinion of Your Petitioners the present method of voting at Elections within this Province is productive of many and very great abuses, one of the most prominent of which is the opportunity which it affords to rich and powerful individuals of exerting an undue influence over the minds of the Electors, and of causing their choice too frequently to fall upon men but little qualified for so important a trust.

Your petitioners being exceedingly desirous that in the election of Representatives a free expression of the public will may be obtained, do earnestly entreat Your Honorable Body to pass an Act directing that in all Elections hereafter to be held for Members of Parliament within this Province the votes shall be taken by ballot instead of viva voce, unless on a fair experiment that method shall be found less calculated to promote the interests and secure the privileges of the good people of this Province.

And Your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

To the Hon. Members of the House of Parliament holden at York in the Province of Upper Canada, &c., &c., &c.

The Petition of Levi Hodkis, Abel Stevens, Jabez Eaton and others of the Townships of Leeds in the District of Johnstown and Province aforesaid, Humbly Sheweth:

That Your petitioners are settlers on the road leading from Lansdown Iron Works to Kingston and were laid under the following restrictions by Government, viz: to clear five acres of land and build a dwelling house before we could obtain our deeds of our lands in the township of Leeds, and the same restrictions through Pittsburgh, until the road intersects the King's road in front of Leeds and Pittsburgh, and as the lands are granted on the road through the township of Pittsburgh, and no settlements made on the back road, renders it very inconvenient for the few settlers in the township of Leeds who have to keep the road passable with great expense.

We therefore pray the Hon. House will take our case into consideration and grant such relief as in their wisdom shall seem meet.

And your humble petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(Signed) Levi Hodkis, Jabez Eaton, and four others.

Read, the petition of the inhabitants of District of Johnstown, as follows:—

To the Hon. Isaac Brock, Esq., President administering the Government of the Province of Upper Canada. To the Hon. Legislative Council and House of Assembly for the Province of Upper Canada.

The Memorial of the subscribers, inhabitants of the District of Johnstown, Humbly Represents:—

Your Memorialists beg leave to address this Honorable House again respecting the public disadvantage of holding Courts of Justice for the District alternately at Elizabethtown and Johnstown.

Your memorialists can offer no other objections against such a measure more important than those already stated in former memorials, and confidently trust that the well known disposition of Your Honorable House to promote the public welfare, will be a sufficient protection against the attempts of interested individuals.

Mr. Gough, one of the Select Committee appointed to examine the accounts of the Commissioners of Roads in this Province, reported the proceedings of the Committee thereon; which report he read in his place, and then delivered in at the Table, where it was again read by the Clerk, and is as follows, viz:

Your Committee, to whom were referred the accounts of the Commissioners appointed under the several Acts of the Parliament of the Province for amending and repairing the Public Highways and Roads, laying out and opening new roads, and building Bridges in the several districts thereof, beg leave to report that they have examined the accounts of the Commissioners of the different districts as far as they have been received, in the following order, to wit.

EASTERN DISTRICT.

The accounts and vouchers appear correct, by which there appears, including the balance from last year, to remain unexpended in the Commissioners' hands the sum of .....£163 3 1½

The Committee observe the sum of £100 paid Alex'r Grant per receipt to be laid out upon a road leading from Alex'r Grant's along the front of East and West Hawkesbury in the County of Prescott, there being no account of this money being laid out, and Mr. Grant not being a Commissioner, your Committee humbly conceive the Commissioners responsible for that sum until it shall appear by proper vouchers to be expended as the law directs. .... 100 0 0

To be accounted for by the Commissioners .....£263 3 1½

For the reasons assigned by the Commissioners for so large a sum remaining unexpended Your Committee beg leave to refer to their Report to wit, the Commissioners regret that any of the money should remain unexpended, but the limits to which they were confined by the Act rendered it impossible to lay out any more, as the distance between Sutherland's Creek and the Province line, which is a mile west of Point Au Bodet, is very short, and requires little or nothing to be done to it; the Commissioners find from inquiring of several intelligent men that the road extending from the Province line to the Indian Land between Charlottenburg and Cornwall may be rendered very passable for carriages for £500 or £336. 16. 10½ more than is now in their hands. The greater part of this road is low, and requires to be causewayed.

DISTRICT OF JOHNSTOWN.

The Committee have examined the account and vouchers of Stephen Burritt, Esquire, one of the Commissioners, on which there appears a balance remaining in his hands unexpended of ..... £32 8 5

The Committee have also examined the account and vouchers of Tho's Fraser, Esquire, another Commissioner, by which there appears in his hands.... £188 12 7½

To which add the following sums in his account paid by him to persons unauthorized to expend road money, from whom there are no vouchers that any part thereof has been expended, part of which appears by the acct. to be in January of this year beyond the time limited by law for laying out the same, viz:

|--|-------|----|----|-----------|
| To Truman Hickock .....                              | 104   | 3  | 5½ |           |
| To Lewis Grant, 20 Jan. ....                         | 12    | 10 | 0  |           |
| To Gideon Adams, 20 Jan. ....                        | 12    | 10 | 0  |           |
| To Curtis Adams, 20 Jan. ....                        | 25    | 0  | 0  |           |
|  | £154  | 3  | 5½ |           |
| To be accounted for by Mr. Fraser .....              | <hr/> |    |    | £342 16 1 |
| Total to be accounted for by the Commissioners ..... | <hr/> |    |    | £375 4 6  |

The Committee also perceive in the account of Stephen Burritt, Esquire, the charge of £2 12s. 6d. for expenses as a Commissioner, and in the account of Thomas Fraser, Esquire, the same £3 3s. 9d., there being no allowance by law to the Commissioners, the Committee humbly submit to the House the Property of such charges.

MIDLAND DISTRICT.

The Committee have to express their satisfaction at the clear and exact statement of the accounts of the Commissioners of this District, accompanied by vouchers verified upon oath, and the different sums appear to be expended on the different parts thereof as directed by law, excepting the sum of £75 paid towards the bridge in the Second Concession of Kingston, instead of £70, the sum appropriated for that purpose, which, by a note to their account, they allege was owing to inadvertence. After accounting for the balance in their hands last year there appears to be due to the Commissioners £3. 3s. 7d.

The Commissioners having made a report of their proceedings respecting the bridge above mentioned, Your Committee beg leave to submit the same to the House (to wit). It will be observed by the agreement with Mr. Elijah Spofford that the undersigned Commissioners stand pledged for the payment of £100 more than the sum appropriated by the Legislature for the bridge over the Cataraqui River in the Second Concession of the Township of Kingston. In causing the bridge to be inspected, it was found to be altogether incapable of being repaired, and proposals for erecting a new one were in consequence advertised for in the Kingston Gazette. Several were offered, one of which was as high as £225, another £212, and none so low as Mr. Spofford's, which was besides recommended to our acceptance by the consideration that he would be satisfied with the immediate payment of the sum actually appropriated, and wait for the remainder till the matter could be again laid before the Legislature. As the work was of indispensable necessity and the best bargain has been made for the public that was practicable, the Commissioners rely on the liberality of the Legislature for the enabling them to fulfil their engagements in this behalf. A copy of their contract with Mr. Spofford, and his bond for the performance of it, together with the proposals for this undertaking from three other persons are transmitted herewith.

It will be found necessary in the course of the ensuing season to erect a new bridge over Sucker Creek, in the Mohawk Lands, the present one being in a state that it is dangerous to pass it; and one of the stone abutments over Salmon River, in the same Tract, will require repairs, it having been injured by the timber floated down that river last Spring. It would be desirable also that the road through these Indian Lands should be further widened, as well as about two miles of the road adjoining the eastern boundary of the Township of Pittsburgh. These are the points that principally require attention on the main road leading to the Capital through this District. It is true that it is still rough in many places, as new roads must be expected to be, but it will be safe and dry.

DISTRICT OF NEWCASTLE.

The Committee have no account from Robert Baldwin, Esq., formerly a Commissioner for this District, although there appears a report of Your Committee last year to be accounted for by him. . . . . £55 1 6

The Committee have examined the account of Zacheus Burnham, Esq., one of the Commissioners, for the sum of £400, appropriated for the year 1811, which is accompanied with vouchers, and appears correct, by which there is in hand. . . . . 7 14 9

The Committee have also examined the accounts of Elias Jones, Esq., another of the Commissioners of this District, with vouchers accounting for the expenditure of the balance in his hands by the report of last year, also of £200, part of the appropriation of 1811, by which there appears a balance in his hands of . . . £8 16 3¾
To which add an error as stated in the report of last year 17 6

From which deduct error in amount of money recd. from Alexr. Fletcher, Esq., last year, £123 8s. 4½d., instead of £123. 3s. 4½d. . . . . 5 0

To be accounted for by Mr. Jones . . . . . 9 8 9¾

The Committee have also a confused account from Alexr. Fletcher, Esq., another of the Commissioners for the District, unaccompanied by any voucher, for £3 8s. 6d., due per him by the report of last year, also vouchers without an account for the expenditure of £58 10s., part of £60 received by him of the appropriation of 1811, remaining in his hands . . . . . 1 10 0

To be accounted for by the Committee . . . . . £73 15 0¾

HOME DISTRICT.

The Committee have examined the accounts and vouchers of Mr. Thomas Hamilton, one of the Commissioners for the years 1809 and 1810, accounting for the sum of £468 15s. 0d., as appears by the report of last year.

They have also examined the account of William Graham, Esq., one of the Commissioners, accompanied by vouchers. by which there appears a balance due by him of . . . . . £1 4 4½

They have also examined the account of Thomas B. Gough, Esq., with vouchers for the expenditure of 1811, by which there is a balance in his hands of . . . 92 1 3

For which there is sufficient work done if it had been completed in time to be inspected and measured before the snow fell.

|  |         | £93 5 7½  |
| From which deduct:                             |         |           |

| To be accounted for by the Commissioners ..... |         | £92 13 8½ |

The Committee beg leave to submit the report of William Graham, Esq., respecting the bridge over the River Ouse, (to wit) William Graham considers it a duty he owes to the Public to state to the Members of the Honorable House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada the dangerous state that the bridge over the River Ouse or New is in; it is settled up stream eighteen inches, and the joints of the woodwork next the Ouse Hill are giving way so much that nothing holds those joints only a slight iron stirrup, and the logways at each end are giving way so much that both of them ought to be made new next summer; the whole of the work has been made very slight; it will require about two hundred dollars to repair said bridge and put it in a good state of repair again, and to have it insured for five or six years, as all bridges ought to be when they are erected.

As it was impossible for any man to make an exact estimate of the Ouse Hill, Mr. Thomas Hubbard contracted for it a little too low, at 170 dollars, in the way and manner that it is finished; for it required more logs to fill up a large hollow, and more digging than him or me could see in the state it was in when we undertook it, and I could not pay him more than his contract according to law. He hath certainly done great justice to his work, and I hope the Honorable Members of the said Province may consider him so as to make him whole.

DISTRICT OF NIAGARA.

The Committee have examined the account of Joseph Edwards, Esq., one of the Commissioners, by which there appears a balance of the appropriation of the year 1809 unexpended.

Niagara, 17th Jan., 1812.

Sir,—

In accounting for the above balance permit me to observe that a continuance of work for the amount has been contracted for, some part of the money advanced, and about £20 of the work actually done; but the men through their tardiness being caught by the frost when, as they say, within two days of finishing, I could not examine the same. Of course they remain in part unpaid, and the whole uncharged. An exception may again be made to the purchase of spades under the impression that the law requires persons performing Statute Duty to come prepared with those articles. The British Statute does the same, but implements are also furnished; and I am fully convinced that the purchase of wheelbarrows and planks in addition to the above would be of public use on that road to assist the Statute Labour when the public money is expended.

It may be thought I have unnecessarily protracted the appropriation of the money, but I am confident the delay has been of good to the Public, since it has enabled me to see the utility of a continued ditch on one side only of the road; the water always finding its level has pointed out the places where to bridge across a channel dug to let the water pass, and has had the most happy effect on this road.

As to the £45 appropriated to the cross-road in Grantham, it is untouched in my desk. Soon after it was known that the money was voted, I was applied to by one, Joel Austin, and who, I dare say, would have done his work faithfully. Not having been then appointed I could only promise to hear his proposals; when that took place he, however, it seems, went and boasted of having got the contract, and I soon found a violent party (Methodists) each individual of which had anticipated a share of the money was formed against him. After being appointed on the 5th of June, I twice examined the place, which I found little more than a pathway, a long, narrow causeway, seemingly not wider than ten feet, with a ditch close on each side, made diagonally across the lands of a few farmers for their convenience of going to mill; in no place 30 ft wide, and when speaking to some of them about moving their fences was answered that they would expect the spaces between the concessions in lieu. Some time after, in company with Mr. Crooks and Peter Ball, Esq., I again examined the road, and found the same indifference among the few we could see; one would remove his fence if the other did. This is not yet done to my knowledge, and until it is, in my opinion, any money laid out would be thrown away.

I have the honor to be, sir, your most humble servant,

JOSH. EDWARDS, Comm'r. &c.

Hon. John McGill, Insp'r, &c., &c., York.

They have also examined the account of Richard Hatt, Esq., another of the Commissioners, on which there is a balance of . . . . . 187 3 10

To which add an error in last report supposed to be money paid to Wm. Crooks to expend upon the road, but they have no receipt from Mr. Crooks for that sum nor any account of its being expended. The Committee, therefore, hold Mr. Hatt responsible for it until accounted for, say . . . . .

To be accounted for by Mr. Hatt . . . . .

237 3 10

Mr. Hatt states two contracts made by him which cannot be completed till next Session, but that progress has been made therein.

They have also examined the acct. of Thos. Clark, Esq., another of the Commissioners, on which there is a balance stated by him in his hands of . . . . .

To which add paid W. Crooks, Esq., who not being a Com'r, and not having furnished any voucher of the expenditure, the Committee consider Mr. Clark responsible till accounted for with vouchers . . . . .

120 0 0

There also remains a sum by last year's report paid Thos. Clark and Thos. Dickson unaccounted for, as appears by Joseph Edwards' letter to the Inspr. Genl. 17th Jany, 1811 . . . . .

To be accounted for by Mr. Clark . . . . .

150 0 0

There also appears by Mr. Edwards' letter, above mentioned, on last year's report, exclusive of the sums specified in this and unaccounted for paid to W. Crooks . . . . .

30 0 0

They have also examined the account and vouchers of Saml. Street, Esq., another of the Commissioners, on which, including the balance in his hands last year, and the sum of £12 5s. 3d. received from the District funds leaves a balance due him . . . . .

11 10½

Total to be accounted for by the Commissioners . .

£543 7 8½

Charged in this account for his time £5 12s. 0d., which the Committee submit to the consideration of the House.

LONDON DISTRICT.

The Committee have examined the accounts and vouchers of Robert Nichol, Esq., for the appropriation of the year 1810, which are minute in the detail and properly attested. The balance of his account, £74 15s. 8d., he has paid to Sylvester Tiffany, Esq., one of the Commissioners for the year 1811, as appears by Mr. Tiffany's receipt for the same.

The Committee have also examined the accounts and vouchers of the Commissioners for the year 1811, accounting for the expenditure of the appropriation of that year, also of the balance above mentioned of £74 15s. 8d.

The Committee observe in the account of Daniel Springer, Esq., one of the Commissioners in the year 1810, a charge of overseeing the road 10 days at 8s. 9d. . . . . £4 7 6

Also 12 do. at 8s. 9d. going to Mr. Yeigh's to receive the money and pay the men . . . . . 5 5 0

The Committee submit these charges to the consideration of the House.

WESTERN DISTRICT.

The Committee have examined the accounts and vouchers of John McGregor, Esq., one of the Commissioners, for the expenditure of the appropriation of the year 1811, together with the sum of £211 9s. 3d., remaining in his hands per last report, now leaving a balance unexpended of . . . . . £8 17 0

Mr. McGregor states a contract being made for a bridge not entirely completed, which will cost £7 10s. 0d.

Recapitulation of the sums unaccounted for in the different Districts:

|                           | £1353 | 17 | 6¼  |

The Committee have to express their satisfaction at the general improved regularity and correctness of the accounts and vouchers laid before them this year, and also the gratification they feel from such information as they have received that the money expended has been in general laid out beneficially for the public.

28th February, 1812.

By order of the Committee.

(Signed) THO'S B. GOUGH.

The House then, agreeably to the Order of the Day, resolved itself into a Committee to take into consideration the Road Bill. Mr. Speaker left the Chair. Mr. Dorland was called to the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Dorland reported that the Committee had made a progress, and had directed him to ask for leave to sit again on Monday next. Leave was accordingly granted.

On motion of Mr. Gough, seconded by Captain Elliott, the House adjourned.

Saturday, 29th February, 1812.

Prayers were read.

Agreeably to the Order of the Day, was read for the third time, as engrossed, the Bill for authorizing the Lieutenant Governor or person administering the Government to license Attornies.

Mr. Willcocks, seconded by Mr. Rogers, moved that the Speaker be directed to command the immediate attendance of the Sheriff of the Home District at the Bar of this House, which was ordered accordingly.

Mr. Willcocks again moved, seconded by Mr. Rogers, that the Fifth Rule of this House be dispensed with so far as to enable him to make a motion this day that the quorum of this House be increased. The same was ordered accordingly.

On motion of Mr. Willcocks, seconded by Mr. Rogers, ordered that the Quorum of this House be increased from eleven to thirteen, including the Speaker.

The House then adjourned for half an hour, and being met:

The Serjeant at Arms informed Mr. Speaker that, agreeable to his order, he had waited upon John Beikie, Sheriff of the Home District, and delivered the orders of this House, and that in obedience thereto the Sheriff of the Home District is in waiting in one of the apartments of this House to know its pleasure. Mr. Speaker, by order of the House, ordered the Serjeant at Arms to acquaint the Sheriff of the Home District that his immediate attendance at the Bar of this House was required. In obedience thereto the Sheriff of the Home District, having appeared at the Bar, Mr. Speaker, by order of the House, asked the Sheriff whether he had not in his custody the body of Robert Nichol, and whether the said Robert Nichol remained still a prisoner by virtue of the order of this House. Mr. Sheriff Beikie then informed the House that he had received into the Gaol of the Home District the Body of Robert Nichol, by virtue of the warrant of the Speaker of the House of Assembly; that the said Robert Nichol had since been brought up by writ of habeas corpus before the Hon. Thos. Scott, His Majesty's Chief Justice of this Province, and was by him liberated out of his custody. The Speaker then, by order of the House, asked him if he had the writ of habeas corpus by him, to which he replied he had, and was ordered to produce it, which he did, and the same was delivered in at the Table. Mr. Willcocks then moved, seconded by Mr. Rogers, that the said writ of habeas corpus be now read. The said writ of habeas corpus was then read, and is as follows:

Upper Canada.

(Signed) JOHN SMALL, Clerk of the Crown.

Which said Writ of Habeas Corpus is indorsed as follows, viz.:

At the Chief Justices Chambers, York, 28th February, 1812.

The Petitioner having been brought up under the Statute of the 31st of Charles 2nd is hereby discharged.

(Signed) THOS. SCOTT, C. J.

The Sheriff then withdrew by permission of the House.

Mr. Willcocks, seconded by Mr. Rogers, moved that the Hon. Thos. Scott, Chief Justice of this Province, has been guilty of a violent breach of the privileges of this House, by discharging from the Gaol of this District the body of Robert Nichol, who was committed to prison for having committed a breach of the privileges of this House.

A written message from the Hon. Legislative Council, by Mr. Baldwin, Master in Chancery, which is as follows:—
Mr. Speaker,

The Legislative Council transmit for the information of the Assembly a copy of their proceedings on the resolutions of the Commons House of Assembly of the 29th day of February last.

Legislative Council Chamber, (Signed) THO'S SCOTT, Speaker.

March 2nd, 1812.

Which proceedings were then read, and are as follows:—

Legislative Council Chamber,
March 2nd, 1812.

The resolutions of the Commons House of Assembly of the 29th February, 1812, brought up this day to this House by Message, being read, it is considered that this House disclaim any right to interfere with the proceedings of the Chief Justice in the exercise of his Judicial functions; but the Hon. the Chief Justice, as Speaker of this House, having thought proper to enter into an explanation of his conduct in the matter, stated in the aforesaid resolution, it is ordered that the explanation so given shall be entered upon the journals of this House, and a copy thereof sent to the Commons House of Assembly.

The Chief Justice is bound by his office to grant habeas corpus and to discharge the prisoner if the commitment appears on the return to be illegal.

To enable the Judges to decide on the legality of a commitment it was the law of the land that every warrant of commitment should contain upon the face of it the cause.

The High Court of the King in Council, having neglected in some orders of commitment to insert the special cause, and the Judges scrupling to relieve by habeas corpus at common law, on account of the high dignity of the court in which the King himself sat in person, a Statute was passed in the sixteenth Charles I, whereby it is enacted that the Judges shall grant habeas corpus on all commitments by His Majesty in Council, and if upon the return it does not appear to be for just and legal cause they shall under heavy penalties bail or discharge. Since Statute it has become part of the law and usage of Parliament that all warrants of commitment by the House of Commons do specify the cause and recite the particular privilege (breach of) whereof the party has by the House been adjudged guilty, and also the specific order of the House for his imprisonment.

Without such adjudication and order by the House the Speaker has no authority, and his authority must be shown in order to render his warrant valid.

It appears by warrants of the Speaker of the House of Commons in England at two different periods within an interval of forty years that the usage of the House of Commons is conformable to the exigence of the Statute with respect to the High Court of the King in Council.

These warrants show distinctly the particular privilege violated, the judgment of the House upon the charge, the time when that adjudication was made, the order of the House for the specific punishment, and the date of that order, whereupon, and not otherwise, the Speaker can require the detention of the offender in custody of any Gaoler.

This reasonable proceeding shows a charge, a trial, and an adjudication, a sentence and award of execution, from all which the Court or Judge can decide if it is legal or not. From a copy of the return on the writ of habeas corpus sent out by Mr. Nichol it does not appear of what nature was the breach of privilege charged, how, when, or where he had been adjudged guilty, or that his imprisonment was ordered by the House.

The warrant under which Mr. Nichol was detained appeared in all respects as the personal act of Mr. Street, under his seal, supposing authority vested in him personally by the House of Assembly.

Such an authority cannot be delegated. Whatever power the House of Assembly have to decide upon their own privileges, it must be exercised by the House itself as a House, and not by their Speaker in his own person; and as the Chief Justice had only the return of the habeas corpus before him, wherein the said warrant was inserted, and the warrant being materially defective, he is bound to discharge the prisoner. No question, therefore, respecting privilege could arise.

(Attest.)

(Signed) JOHN POWELL, Clk. Legislative Co.

Agreeably to leave given, the House again resolved itself into Committee, to go into the further consideration of the Road Bill. Mr. Speaker left the Chair. Mr. Dorland again took the chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair, and Mr. Dorland reported that the Committee had gone through the consideration of the said Bill, to which they had made no amendments, which he was directed to report to the House whenever it should be pleased to receive the same. Ordered that the report be now received. On motion of Mr. Howard, seconded by Mr. Mears, ordered that the said Bill be engrossed, and read a third time on to-morrow.

Mr. Mears was called to the chair of the Committee. Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. The Chairman of the Committee made no report.

Read, the petition of Daniel Spilman, which is as follows:—

To the Hon. the Commons of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled.

The humble petition of D. Spilman, Sheweth:—

That he having undertaken to build a bridge across the Grand River for a much less sum than he found it possible to accomplish the work for he has thereby lost two years of the most valuable part of his life, and involved himself in debts which it may take a much longer time, with painful efforts, to pay.

He therefore humbly begs leave to lay before Your Honorable House the facts following.

That he had spared no pains in having the work executed in a masterly manner, in doing which he has expended no less a sum than three thousand three hundred and twenty dollars, not including any charge of his own time.

That in the expenditure he has observed the most parsimonious economy.

That his contract, being only three thousand dollars, consequently three hundred and twenty dollars are sunk, together with his time.

That in the above time other expenditures would unavoidably take place for the common necessaries of life, which, though not directly, are indirectly connected with the above, as he was prevented providing for them by any other means.

That between five and six hundred dollars of subscription money remains to be collected.

That some of the subscribers have left the country, which makes a probability of some deficiency.

That though he has experienced difficulties in the prosecution of his work nothing could make him shrink from his duty.

These, with other concomitant circumstances, which the wisdom of Your Honorable House will better conceive than he can describe, with the humblest submission he lays before you.

If the wisdom of Your Hon. House should think it fit to remunerate him.

As in duty bound he will ever pray.

(Signed) DANIEL SPILMAN.

Mr. Mallory moved, seconded by Mr. John Willson, that the petition of Daniel Spilman be referred to the Committee on the Contingent Accounts. Which passed in the negative.

The petition of Nicholas MacDougall was then read, and is as follows:—

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of Nicholas MacDougall, Most humbly sheweth:—

That Your Petitioner, in the month of July last, contracted with Richard Hall, Esquire, Commissioner of Roads for the District of Niagara, to build a bridge across the outlet of Burlington Bay, for the sum of four hundred dollars, being the sum voted by Your Honorable House at their last Session; which sum was insufficient to defray the expense of building the said bridge, as will appear by the documents hereunto annexed.

Your petitioner therefore most humbly prays that Your Honorable House will grant him such relief in the premises as to your wisdom shall seem meet.

And Your petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

22nd Feb'y 1812.

(Signed) NICHOLAS MACDOUGALL.

Mr. Mallory, seconded by Mr. J. Willson, moved for leave to bring up the petition of the inhabitants of the Counties of Oxford and Middlesex. Leave was refused him.

The House then resolved that the draft of the said address be now received. Mr. Rogers then read the address in his place, and delivered the same in at the table, where it was again read by the Clerk once throughout.

Which was ordered accordingly.

Willson, that so much of the Rule of this House as requires one day's previous notice before a motion can be made, be now dispensed with, so far as relates to the second reading of the Sheriffs' Sale Bill, and that the said Bill be read a second time this day. Carried in the negative by a majority of six.

Mr. Gough, one of the messengers named to carry up to the Hon. Legislative Council the Bill intituled "An Act to repeal an Act passed in the Parliament of England in the 27th year of the Reign of His Majesty, King Henry the Eighth, for the enrolment of bargains and sales as far as the same relates to or may affect this Province, and to make further provision for the enregistering of deeds and conveyances of lands in this Province," reported that they had carried up the said Act, to which they requested their concurrence in passing the same.

A message from the Hon. Legislative Council, by Mr. Baldwin, Master in Chancery:—

Mr. Speaker:—

I am commanded by the Honorable the Legislative Council to inform this House that they have passed an Act, sent up from this House, intituled "An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain sum of money out of the funds applicable to the uses of this Province, to defray the expenses of amending and repairing the public highways and roads, and building of bridges in the several Districts thereof" without any amendment. And then he withdrew.

The House then took up the question of its privilege.

On motion of Mr. Gough, seconded by Mr. Willcocks, resolved, that the Hon. the Legislative Council by their message of the second of March disclaimed any right to interfere with the conduct of the Hon. Thomas Scott, Esquire, Chief Justice of this Province, guilty of a breach of the privilege of this House, which they allege as not to be done as a Member of their House, but in his character as a Judge, notwithstanding they did interfere during this present Session and punish an officer of their House upon a complaint of this. It therefore becomes the duty of this House to vindicate its rights and privileges in the manner which shall appear to it best calculated to preserve them.

Mr. Gough moved, seconded by Mr. Willcocks, that this House do present an humble Petition to His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, representing the breach of its privileges by the unconstitutional interference of the Hon. Thomas Scott, Esquire, Chief Justice of this Province, by liberating Robert Nichol, a prisoner committed to the Gaol of the Home District by virtue of a warrant from Samuel Street, Esquire, its Speaker, for a breach of the privileges of this House; and humbly to beseech His Royal Highness to adopt such measures to prevent a recurrence of the like as to His wisdom may seem meet.

Mr. Speaker having put the question, a division thereupon took place, and the names being called for they were taken down, and are as follows:—

| Yeas.         | Nays.          |
|---------------|----------------|

| CASEY         | McLEAN         |
| WILLCOCKS     | McGREGOR       |
| J. WILLSON    | MARCLE         |
| MALLORY       | ELLIOTT        |
| HOWARD        | C. WILLSON     |
| SECORD        |                |
| DORLAND       |                |

Carried in the affirmative by a majority of two.

Mr. Rogers moved, seconded by Mr. Howard, that Messrs. Gough and Willcocks be a Committee to draft an Address to His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, respecting the Chief Justice. The House divided on the question, and the names being called for, they were taken down, and are as follows:—

| Yeas.         | Nays.          |
|---------------|----------------|
| MESSRS. MARSH | MESSRS. FRASER |
| SOVEREIGN     | MEARS          |

| DORLAND       |                |
| SECORD        |                |

The same was carried in the affirmative by a majority of two.

Mr. Willcocks, from the Committee appointed to draft an Address to His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, respecting the privileges of this House, reported that the Committee had drafted an Address accordingly, which they were ready to submit to the House whenever it should be pleased to receive the same. To His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please Your Royal Highness:—

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, entertaining the most exalted sentiments of the superior excellence of the British Constitution and Laws, and of the invaluable privileges they impart, humbly beg leave to address Your Royal Highness and represent their sincere conviction of the necessity of preserving pure and untouched those rights, privileges and immunities, which the people of England, and we as their descendants, have so long possessed and enjoyed. We lament that on any occasion we should be called upon to lay before our Sovereign complaints of an unpleasant nature, but an imperious sense of duty urges us to state to Your Royal Highness that an alarming, dangerous, and unjustifiable violation of the privileges of the Commons of this Province has lately been made by the Honorable Thomas Scott, His Majesty's Chief Justice, inasmuch as he liberated from prison Mr. Robert Nichol, who had been committed by them for a high contempt and breach of their privileges. Such an interference on the part of the judicial authority we cannot too much deprecate, impressed as we are with the important results resulting from it, to the representative body of the people of this Colony. We therefore humbly pray that Your Royal Highness will be graciously pleased to pursue such measures as in your wisdom may be deemed the most proper and efficient to afford us prompt redress.

Which was carried in the affirmative by a majority of six. The Speaker then signed the said address, which is as follows:—

To His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please Your Royal Highness:—

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, beg leave humbly to approach Your Royal Highness to congratulate you upon the accession to the high station which you have been called to fill; and while we sincerely lament the present indisposition of Our Most Gracious Sovereign, who has reigned in the hearts of his loyal subjects for more than half a century, yet we feel thankful to Providence who has, in Your Royal Highness's person, provided a Prince who so ably supports the dignity of the Crown, and privileges of His Majesty's loyal subjects in every part of the British Dominions.

We beg humbly to assure Your Royal Highness that we view with pride the noble struggle which His Majesty's Government is making to secure the independence of nations, and to prevent anarchy and despotism from overturning those governments which have long been established, and found from experience best calculated to secure the liberty of their subjects, and the general prosperity of the world.

Sincerely attached to His Majesty's person and Government, and principally composed of those persons who adhered to the unity of the British Empire during the late war in America, and who served until the reduction in one thousand seven hundred and eighty three we cannot forbear to express our gratitude for the benefits we have received since our settlement in this Province; but knowing the services, and feeling for the distress of our fellow subjects who have served with us during the late war in America, and who have from unfortunate circumstances been unable to come into this Province before the twenty-third day of July, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and are by an order of the Executive Council of this Province of that date precluded from receiving any grant of the waste lands of the Crown without the payment of Fees which they are unable to do. We beg leave humbly to represent that there are a considerable number of U. E. Loyalists and Military Claimants in this Province who cannot at present receive the like bounty that their fellow subjects have received; although by their services we humbly conceive them to be equally entitled thereto. Those persons faithfully served His Majesty's Government while their exertions were wanted and we are confident are still ready to come forward, should the exigency of the State require their services, but must feel much hurt to find themselves at present in no better situation than those individuals who served against His Majesty's Government during the late war. We beg leave further to state to Your Royal Highness our conviction that it was your Royal father's intention, as expressed to Lord Dorchester, that each and every U. E. Loyalist, and their descendents of the first generation, should receive two hundred acres of land free of expense: and that every Military Claimant should receive lands from the Crown according to the rank he might have sustained, without any limitation as to the time within which application should be made for the same. By the Order in Council before mentioned no U. E. Loyalist or Military Claimant coming into the Colony, or being in it and not applying previous to the date thereof, can obtain any land without paying for the same. We humbly conceive the policy of His Majesty's Government, separate from the considerations of equity, requires that no barrier should be erected whereby a line of distinction should be drawn in the distribution of the Royal bounty; and we humbly hope it may appear manifest to Your Royal Highness when it is considered, that it would not only be a complete fulfilment of His Majesty's most gracious promises,—the rescinding the Order in Council referred to—but would induce many valuable people, whose loyalty and attachment have been proved, to withdraw from the United States, and thus add to the strength and population of this fertile and growing Province.

We therefore, viewing this subject with the most lively interest, humbly beseech Your Royal Highness in your wisdom may be pleased to direct that any individual, being a U. E. Loyalist, or descendant of one, or Military Claimant, coming within the bona fide meaning of your Royal father's instructions and bountiful designs, who may have made application since the date of the aforementioned Order of Council, or may hereafter make such application, for lands, shall receive the same quantity as other their fellow subjects possessing similar claims, and without any charge or expense for the same whatever.

And we beg leave to assure Your Honor that we have the highest opinion of the integrity and good intentions of the Hon. The Chief Justice, and sincerely lament that he has been, as we apprehend, so badly advised as to interfere with the privileges of the Commons; but that a sense of our duty, and a desire to preserve the Constitution unimpaired, has compelled us to adopt the present method of obtaining redress.

A message from the Hon. Legislative Council by Mr. Baldwin, Master in Chancery :

Mr. Speaker,---

I am commanded by the Hon. Legislative Council to inform this House that they have passed an Act sent up from this House, intituled "An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain sum of money further to encourage the growth and cultivation of hemp in this Province, and for other purposes" without any amendment. And then he withdrew.

On motion of Mr. Rogers, seconded by Mr. Willcocks, ordered that Messrs. McLean and Fraser be a Committee to draft an address to His Honor the President in conformity to the several resolutions on the Contingent Accounts of both Houses of Parliament.

On motion of Mr. Rogers, seconded by Mr. Howard, resolved, that it is the opinion of this House that the books mentioned in a list presented to this House are necessary to be purchased for the use of the Provincial Legislature, and that the prices annexed to them appear as moderate as can be expected. Mr. Rogers moved, seconded by Mr. Howard, that it is the opinion of this House that in case His Honor, the President, should approve of the Bill passed this Session, intituled "An Act to purchase the British Statutes and other books," that immediately after the prorogation the Speaker do transmit to His Honor, the President, the humble request of this House that he would be pleased to issue his warrant in favor of the Serjeant at Arms, to purchase the books mentioned in a list laid before the Assembly, and that the House of Assembly are particularly anxious that the said books should be purchased, as they have been under the necessity of borrowing some of them from the person authorized to sell them, and have had the use of them during the present Session, and that the Clerk of the House be directed to receive the said books if purchased, which was ordered accordingly.

Mr. McLean, from the Select Committee appointed to draft an Address to His Honor, the President, respecting the Contingent Accounts, reported that they had drafted an address accordingly, which he was ready to submit to the House whenever it should be pleased to receive the same. The House then resolved that the draft of the said address be now received. Mr. McLean then read the draft of the said address in his place, and afterwards delivered the same in at the Table, where it was again read by the Clerk. On motion of Mr. McLean, seconded by Mr. McNabb, the said Address was read for the second time.

Mr. Rogers, seconded by Mr. Secord, moved that the Clerk of this House be directed to return to the Sheriff of the Home District the writ of habeas corpus in the case of Robert Nichol after keeping an attested copy, which was ordered accordingly.

On motion of Mr. McLean, seconded by Mr. Secord, the House resolved itself into a Committee to take into consideration the Address to His Honor, the President, respecting the Contingent Accounts of both Houses of Parliament. Mr. Speaker left the Chair. Mr. C. Willson was called to the chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair, and Mr. C. Willson reported that the Committee had gone through the consideration of the said address, without any amendment, which he was directed to report to the House whenever it should be pleased to receive the same. Ordered, that the Report be now received. Mr. Rogers moved, seconded by Mr. Howard, that the said Address be engrossed, and read a third time this day, which was ordered accordingly.

On motion of Mr. Gough, seconded by Mr. Willson, resolved, that this House should indemnify its Speaker or any other of its officers for any expenses they may incur in defending any suit or suits which may be brought against any of them for anything done in obedience to the orders of this House.

Read as engrossed, the Address respecting the Contingent Accounts, which then passed and was signed by the Speaker and is as follows, viz.:

To His Honor, Isaac Brock, Esquire, President administering the Government of the Province of Upper Canada, and Major General commanding His Majesty's Forces therein.

May it please Your Honor,—

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled, do most humbly pray that it may please Your Honor to issue your warrants directed to the Receiver General, requiring him to pay to John Powell, Esquire, Clerk of the Legislative Council, the sum of Twenty pounds, to enable him to procure a supply of Stationery for the ensuing Session.

To George Lawe, Usher of the Black Rod, the sum of Seventy-one pounds nine shillings and one penny, to enable him to pay the Contingent Accounts of the Hon. the Legislative Council for the present Session, and to repair the offices of the same.

To Donald McLean, Esquire, Clerk of the House of Assembly, the sum of One hundred and thirty pounds, sixteen shillings and threepence, for disbursements in his office, and paying Copying Clerks during the present Session and during the recess.

To Mr. John B. Robinson, who has done the duty of Clerk to the House of Assembly during the present Session of the Legislature, Fifty pounds.

To William Stanton, Esquire, Serjeant at Arms, the sum of One hundred and fifty-one, two shillings and tenpence, to enable him to pay sundry contingent accounts of the House of Assembly.

To William Jarvis, Esquire, as Keeper of the Rolls, the sum of Fifty pounds; all of which sums of money the Commons will make good to Your Honor at the next Session of Parliament.

Commons House of Assembly,

(Signed) SAM'L STREET, Speaker.

5th March, 1812.

Mr. Rogers moved, seconded by Mr. Stinson, that Messrs. Willcocks and Marsh do present to His Honor, the President, the Address of this House respecting the Contingent Accounts of both Houses of Parliament, at such time as His Honor will be pleased to receive it, which was ordered accordingly.

Mr. McLean gave notice that he will move on to-morrow that this House do resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole to take into consideration a breach of their privilege relative to an indecent assertion in the York Gazette, and found upon the Table of the Commons House of Assembly this day.

Mr. McLean then moved, seconded by Mr. Marcle, that the Speaker do order the attendance of John Cameron and Edward McBride at the Bar of this Honorable House to-morrow at nine o'clock.

On the question being put, a division thereupon took place, and the names being called for, they were taken down, and are as follows:

| Yeas.           | Nays.          |

|                 | ROGERS.        |
|                 | STINSON.       |

Carried in the negative by a majority of two.

Mr. Rogers moved, seconded by Mr. Stinson, that the House do adjourn until to-morrow at twelve o'clock. Mr. McNabb, seconded by Mr. C. Willson, moved in amendment that the words "twelve o'clock" be expunged, and that "nine o'clock" be inserted in lieu thereof, which was carried in the negative. Then the main question was put and carried in the affirmative.

The House accordingly adjourned until twelve o'clock to-morrow.

Prayers were read.

Mr. Howard, one of the messengers named to present to His Honor, the President, the several addresses of this House, reported that in obedience to the commands of the House they had waited upon His Honor, the President, and did present the several addresses of this House, to which His Honor was pleased to make the following answer:

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I have received your several addresses, and shall not fail to transmit to His Majesty's principal Secretary of State those intended to be laid before His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent.

I shall give directions for the payment being made to the different officers of the two Houses of the Legislature, agreeably to the wishes of your address.

Gentlemen,—

I beg you will accept my acknowledgements for the flattering sentiments of personal respect contained in your address.

Mr. Speaker:

I am commanded by His Honor, the President, to acquaint this Honorable House that it is His Honor's pleasure that the members thereof do forthwith attend upon him in the Legislative Council Chamber.

Accordingly Mr. Speaker with the House went up to attend His Honor, where he was pleased to give in His Majesty's name the Royal assent to the following Bills, viz.:

"An Act to extend the provisions of an Act, passed in the Forty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain, amend and reduce to one Act of Parliament the several laws now in being for the Raising and Training the Militia of this Province.'"

"An Act to amend an Act, passed in the Forty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to continue an Act, passed in the Forty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to afford relief to those persons who may be entitled to claim lands in this Province, as Heirs or Devisees of the Nominees of the Crown, in cases where no patent hath issued for such lands," and further to extend the benefits of the said Act,' and to continue part of the same."

"An Act further to continue an Act, passed in the Thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to provide for the appointment of Returning Officers of the several Counties within this Province.'"

"An Act to amend an Act, passed in the Fiftieth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to provide for the laying out, amending and keeping in repair the Public Highways and Roads in this Province, and to repeal the laws now in force for that purpose.'"

"An Act to prevent damages to travellers on the highways in this Province." Mr. Speaker then said:

May it please Your Honor to approve of the six Bills which the Assembly, with the concurrence of the Legislative Council, have passed in aid of His Majesty.

"An Act to prevent desertion from His Majesty's Regular Forces by granting a Bounty for apprehending deserters in this Province."

"An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain sum of money for the use of the Militia in this Province."

"An Act to extend the provisions of an Act, passed in the Forty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain sum of money for the purposes therein mentioned.'"

"An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain sum of money further to Encourage the Growth and Cultivation of Hemp in this Province, and for other purposes."

"An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain sum of money out of the funds applicable to the uses of this Province, to defray the expenses of amending and repairing the Public Highways and Roads and building Bridges in the several Districts thereof."

"An Act for applying a certain sum of money therein mentioned to make good certain moneys issued and advanced by His Majesty through the Lieutenant Governor in pursuance of an Address to the House of Assembly."

To which six Bills His Honor, the President, was pleased to give the Royal assent in His Majesty's name.

And then His Honor was pleased to make the following Speech to both Houses :

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly,—

I embrace the earliest moment to prorogue this session of the Legislature, that the Country may derive at this critical juncture the full benefit of your personal influence and example.

The exigency of the times can alone authorize me to give my assent to the amended Militia Bill, for under circumstances of less urgency its very limited duration would oblige me to reject it.

Your liberality in affording me the means to enable me to carry its otherwise salutary provisions into effect demands my warmest acknowledgements. Whilst the true interests of the Country are consulted, every possible regard will be paid to the comfort and convenience of the individuals whom the Militia Law may call into action.

The other Bills which you have passed this Session, I trust, will effectually promote the beneficial purposes for which they are intended.

I place full reliance in the exertions of your best endeavors to cherish and maintain that spirit of loyalty and attachment to the true principles of the Constitution, which happily at this time pervades every class of the community.

Any attempt to disseminate dissatisfaction among us will be repelled with indignation, and you will not fail in your respective stations to point out and bring to justice all such persons as by their conduct may endanger the public tranquillity.

Having communicated everything that occurs to me on this occasion, Gentlemen, I now dismiss you, with a confident hope that you will not cease individually to give full efficacy and support to those laws which can alone preserve the peace and promote the prosperity of this Province.

After which the Honorable the Speaker of the Legislative Council said :

It is His Honor, the President's will and pleasure that this Provincial Parliament be prorogued until Friday, the tenth day of April next, to be then here held, and the Provincial Parliament is accordingly prorogued until Friday, the Tenth day of April next.

[I hereby certify that what is written on the foregoing pages is a true transcript of the Journal of the Assembly of Upper Canada, being the Fourth Session of the Fifth Provincial Parliament, assembled in the Town of York on Monday, the third day of February last, agreeably to the Proclamation of His Honor, Isaac Brock, Esquire, President Administering the Government of the Province of Upper Canada, and Major-General commanding His Majesty's Forces within the same, and prorogued by His Honor on Friday, the Sixth day of March last.

THIRD SESSION, SIXTH PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT.

Tuesday, 15th February, 1814.

The House met. Prayers were read.

A message by Mr. Stephen Jarvis, Acting Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod:—

Mr. Speaker,

It is His Honor the President's pleasure that this Honorable House do immediately meet him in the Hon. the Legislative Council Chamber. And then he withdrew.

The House went up accordingly; and being returned; Mr. Speaker reported that the House had attended His Honor the President, who was pleased to open the Session with a gracious speech to both Houses, and that he had obtained a copy thereof for the information of this House, which, with the leave of this House he would read. And Mr. Speaker did read the speech accordingly which is as follows:—

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:—

Called to the civil administration which the policy of His Majesty's Government has united to the Military command of this Province, it is with great satisfaction that I meet you here in the free and uncontrolled exercise of the Legislative powers entrusted to us by our Parliamentary Charter.

That we are enabled so to meet at this crisis commands every sentiment of our most devout gratitude to the Divine Providence, which seems to have manifested an especial protection to the righteous cause of our defence against an enemy unprovoked and implacable, who, at the moment they were exulting in the assurances of their Commander that the conquest of the Canadas was achieved, were arrested in their progress to invade our Sister Province, and their collective force discomfited by a handful of British Troops, who, emulous of the glorious career of their comrades in the Peninsula, drove them in dismay to seek refuge on their own shores.

With no less gallantry in another quarter a small band of British soldiers attacked and carried by storm the Fortress of Niagara, the strongest and most formidable position they held on our frontier.

In advancing to this enterprise the troops beheld with indignation the smoking ruins of the town of Niagara, which an atrocious policy had devoted to the flames. Resentful of the misery brought upon the innocent, but too credulous inhabitants, who had remained to the last moment under a promise of protection to their persons and property; the army inflicted a severe retaliation, in the entire destruction of the whole frontier, from Lake Erie to Lake Ontario, after defeating a very superior force of the enemy.

Thus the valor of our soldiers and citizens has proved what can be effected in a good cause by men who have nothing in view but their own honor and their country's safety.

I lament it is not in my power to congratulate you upon any favorable change in the health of our beloved Sovereign. His Government continues to be administered by His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, under whose auspicious direction the glory of Great Britain has attained to its zenith, as well in the field as in the cabinet.

His Majesty's arms, united with those of Spain and Portugal, under the Command of Field Marshal the Marquis of Wellington, have rescued the Peninsula from its invaders; whilst the northern powers of Europe, combined by the wise measures of His Majesty's Councils against the common foe, have overwhelmed and destroyed his immense armies, and compelled him to retire into the bosom of France.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:—

I have directed the Public Accounts to be laid before you. The moneys placed at the disposal of my predecessors for the defence of the Province, have, I doubt not, been judiciously disbursed, however a small proportion they may bear to the requisite expenditures, you have the merit of giving all you had, and I fear the present state of the Colony does not justify an expectation that your means will increase.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:—

You must be well aware of the importance of a well organized Militia for the defence of this Province. It is a subject that will require your most serious consideration. The measure which has been adopted of incorporating battalions of militia for permanent service during the war has not, on trial, been found to answer.

You will doubtless find it expedient to authorize the embodying of detachments from the different regiments in no greater a proportion than one-third of the corps for any period not exceeding twelve months, as the only method by which they can be furnished with clothing and appointments similar to troops of the Line, without which the Militia cannot be relied upon as an efficient Force.

During the last campaign the Military Service has been greatly impeded by the neglected state of the Public Roads. It is an essential object that one great road through the Province should be in a condition to facilitate the transport of Military stores.

In your deliberations on this head, justice to those who have gallantly hazarded their lives in defence of the Province will suggest the propriety of others who profit by such services, but who from religious scruples abstain from war, being called upon by legislative authority more liberally to afford their pecuniary assistance for the defence of that property which, by the valor of their fellow subjects, they so peaceably and with so many additional advantages enjoy.

It has been more a subject of regret than surprise to have found two members of the Legislative Body in the ranks of the enemy. This disgrace could not have been had their malignant influence in the last session failed to reject the call of the Executive Government for a suitable modification of the habeas corpus Act.

I rely upon the good sense of the two Houses to strengthen the hands of Government, so as to obviate all apprehension of the recurrence of a similar reproach.

A due regard to the interest of the loyal subject requires that means should be adopted to punish such traitors as adhere to the enemy by the confiscation of their estates. It may often happen, as in the instance of the two Representatives of the people, that they may withdraw from the process necessary for legal conviction, to obviate this an Act of Attainder by the Legislature may subvene to the usual process of outlawry.

In submitting such a measure to your consideration it is my duty to apprise you of the gracious desire of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that all such forfeitures shall be applied to the relief of sufferers by the war within the Province.

The authority to restrain the distillation from grain expires with the session; I fear that the necessity to prolong it still exists. In reviving or continuing the Statute it may be expedient to except His Majesty's Military Service from its several provisions.

With confidence I commit to your consideration and care the other matters which may be requisite for the welfare of this Province in the present emergency.

Your attention will, of course, be called to such expiring Acts as require to be renewed.

In the actual situation of the Province it would be superfluous to remind you that as little time should be spent in the session as is consistent with mature deliberation on the several topics to which your attention may be called.

Mr. Sherwood moved, seconded by Mr. Adams, that Messrs. Ridout, Nichol, Beikie and Crysler (amended by adding Mr. Sherwood) be a Committee to draft an Address in answer to His Honor the President's Speech to both Houses of Parliament. Ordered accordingly.

Mr. Nichol gives notice that he will, on Thursday next, move that this House do resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole on the state of this Province. Mr. Sherwood gives notice that he will, on Saturday next, move for a call of the Members of the House.

On motion of Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Sherwood, the House adjourned till twelve o'clock to-morrow.

Wednesday, 16th February, 1814.

Prayers were read. The Minutes of yesterday were read by the Clerk.

Mr. Speaker informed the House that Grant Powell, Esquire, was appointed by the Commission which he held in his hand to be Clerk to this Honorable House in the room of Donald McLean, Esquire, deceased.

Mr. Speaker read a letter from William Stanton, Esquire, Serjeant at Arms, requesting leave to appoint Mr. Thomas Hamilton his deputy, which was approved of.

Mr. Sherwood, from the Committee appointed to draw up an Address of Thanks to His Honor, the President, for his speech to both Houses on the opening of the Session, reported that the Committee had prepared an Address accordingly, which he was ready to submit to the House whenever it should be ready to receive the same. Ordered, that the Report be now read.

Mr. Nichol in his place then read the report.

Mr. Rogers then moved, seconded by Mr. Beikie, that this House do now resolve itself into a Committee to take into their consideration the draft of the Address in answer to His Honor's Speech at the opening of this Session of Parliament. Resolved accordingly. Mr. Speaker left the Chair. Mr. Mears was called to the chair of the Committee.

The address of thanks was read a third time, and is as follows:—

To His Honor Gordon Drummond, Esquire, President administering the Government of Upper Canada, and Lieutenant General commanding His Majesty's Forces within the same, etc., etc.

May it please Your Honor:—

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, beg leave to offer Your Honor our humble thanks for your most gracious speech from the Throne.

In recognizing the wisdom of the policy which at a crisis so momentous has united to the Military Command the Civil administration of the Government in this Province, we rejoice that so important a trust has devolved on an officer to whose judicious and energetic measures we are, under Providence, indebted for some of the most splendid successes which shed so much lustre on the termination of the last campaign.

We participate in the satisfaction you express at meeting us in the free and uncontrolled exercise of the legislative powers entrusted to us by our Parliamentary Charter, and unite with you in devout and grateful acknowledgments to Divine Providence for its signal protection of us against an unprovoked and implacable enemy, who, at the moment they were exulting at the assurances of their commander that the conquest of the Canadas was achieved, were arrested in their progress to invade our Sister Province, and their collective force discomfited by a small division of His Majesty's Forces, who, emulous of the glorious career of their comrades in the Peninsula drove them in dismay to seek refuge on their own shores.

The gallantry and intrepidity with which a small band of British Soldiers in another quarter attacked and carried by storm the Fortress of Niagara, the strongest and most formidable position the enemy held on our frontier, have excited our admiration and gratitude; and afford a convincing proof that, under the direction of able commanders, the courage and determination of the British Soldiers are invincible.

In deploring, as we most feelingly do, the misery and ruin brought upon the innocent, but too credulous inhabitants of the Town of Niagara (who had remained to the last moment under a promise of protection to their persons and property) by the atrocious policy of the enemy, we acknowledge the justice of the severe and prompt retaliation inflicted upon them by our victorious troops; and, while we lament the necessity which so imperiously dictated a measure so repugnant to the feelings and character of British Soldiers, we hope it will have the effect of checking a system so productive of individual distress, so contrary to the established usages of war among civilized nations, be a warning to the inhabitants of this Province how they confide in the delusive promises of an enemy so profligate and unprincipled, and unite them more firmly in defence of the just cause in which we are engaged.

We participate with Your Honor in feelings of unfeigned sorrow for the continuance of the severe indisposition under which our most gracious and beloved Sovereign has so long laboured; and we acknowledge with grateful thanks to Divine Providence the ability and energy which, both in the cabinet and field, have distinguished the administration of his Government by His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent.

The splendid successes which have been achieved by His Majesty's Arms, united to those of Spain and Portugal, under the able command of Field Marshal, the Marquis of Wellington, and which have rescued the Peninsula from its invader, are subjects of exultation and triumph; and the unparalleled victories of the Northern Powers, combined by the wise measures of His Majesty's counsels against the common foe, have compelled him to retire into the bosom of France. On events which will, we hope, lead to an honorable and lasting peace, we offer to Your Honor our most cordial congratulations.

When the Public Accounts are laid before us, we shall endeavor to examine them with that attention that the nature of the subject may require.

With Your Honor we are aware of the importance of a well organized Militia for the defence of this Province, and shall give to that subject our most serious consideration. We individually have witnessed the brave, zealous, and meritorious exertions of a very large proportion of His Majesty's subjects, and the privations and sufferings they have undergone in defence of this Province; and shall most cheerfully co-operate in any measures for ameliorating their condition, and for embodying under more efficient regulations such a proportion of the Militia population as the actual situation of the country will admit.

We shall take the situation of the Public Roads into our serious consideration, as well as the propriety of calling for pecuniary assistance from those who, from Religious scruples, abstain from war, and who, by the valor of their fellow subjects, enjoy their properties with so many additional advantages.

The disgraceful and traitorous-conduct of the two members of this House in joining the ranks of the enemy are subjects of real concern. Their infamous example has, we believe, been very partially followed, and while disappointment of their hopes must lead to the misery and ruin of themselves and their misguided followers, their fate will be a warning to His Majesty's subjects in this Province, and convince them that loyalty to their Sovereign and attachment to His Government are the surest foundations for their public welfare and individual happiness; we shall not, however, fail to give the subject every attention.

We shall pay every regard in our power to the interests of His Majesty's loyal subjects in this Province, and shall endeavour to frame such regulations as, in our opinion, may best answer for the confiscation of the property of such traitors as may have joined the enemy, and who may not be within the reach of legal conviction.

In the gracious desire of His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, that all forfeitures of this nature should be applied to the relief of sufferers by the war in this Province, we have an additional proof of the benevolence of His Royal Highness, and of his solicitude for the welfare and happiness of His Majesty's subjects in Upper Canada.

The restrictions on the distillation from grain shall receive our serious and prompt consideration.

Such other matters as may appear to require our deliberations shall receive every consideration, and we shall, fully sensible of the importance of despatch, use every diligence to bring the business of the present session to a speedy termination.

That during the last recess of Parliament he . . . . . attended at the House for the purpose of lighting fires in the Clerk's office, and was by him ordered to sleep there, which he constantly did.

That when the enemy attacked and landed at York on the twenty-seventh day of April, 1813, your Petitioner went to the field, as in duty bound.

That at his return he found the enemy in possession of the House of Assembly whence they took Your Petitioner's chest, in which was the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars in army bills, and wearing apparel, books and other small property. They likewise took a pair of blankets belonging to your Petitioner, the amount of which property, exclusive of the bills, was at a very moderate valuation twenty-nine dollars, which makes Your Petitioner's loss in the whole amount to the sum of one hundred and seventy-nine dollars; a very great loss for a poor man.

That there are several persons now in the Town of York who can verify what Your Petitioner as above stated, particularly Mr. George Kuck, and Mr. John Hunter, the Messenger to Your Honorable House.

That in consequence of the decease of the said Donald McLean, Esquire, her husband has not been able to obtain the usual allowance for his said services.

That Your Petitioner's husband, being on duty in the Commissariat Department at St. Davids, and unable to attend to apply to Your Honorable House himself, Your Petitioner presumes to apply in his behalf, and therefore humbly prays that Your Honorable House would be pleased to order that payment be issued for the services of her said husband as aforesaid; being the sum of thirteen pounds ten shillings, Provincial currency, and Your Petitioner will ever pray.

It was carried by a majority of seven, and the address was signed by the Speaker, and is as follows:—

To His Honor Gordon Drummond, Esq., President administering the Government of Upper Canada, and Lieut. General commanding His Majesty's forces therein, &c., &c., &c. .

May it please Your Honor:—

We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, humbly beg leave to represent to Your Honor the wretched situation of a number of our fellow subjects now languishing in captivity as prisoners of war in the United States of America, and who are without any prospect of being soon released.

Many of those were taken very early in the last campaign while actually in arms and engaged with the enemy; many were wounded and carried off, and all have contributed by their personal exertions to the defence of this portion of His Majesty's Dominions.

We had hoped when the success of His Majesty's Arms in Upper Canada had placed a considerable number of the enemy's Militia at the disposal of His Majesty's Government, that in negotiating for their exchange some attention would have been paid to the claims of His Majesty's faithful subjects of Upper Canada, who had contributed so largely to the success of the first campaign, and had suffered such heavy loss in arresting the progress of the enemy during the second.

We had hoped that our claims to the consideration of the Commander of the Forces in His Majesty's North American Dominions were at least equal to those of our fellow subjects in Lower Canada; and in proportion to our hopes so has been our disappointment.

In early making this representation to Your Honor we perform a duty which is imperiously required of us, and we are convinced that it will afford you a most cordial satisfaction to be instrumental in procuring us redress.

To the Hon. the Commons of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of Richard Patterson of the Western District, Esq., Most Respectfully Sheweth:—

That Your Petitioner, on the faith of an Act of the Parliament of this Province for encouraging the culture of hemp, did deliver to the Hon. James Baby, Esq., who was appointed a Commissioner for the Western District, a quantity of hemp, equal in value to the sum of one hundred and seventy two pounds three shillings and sevenpence farthing, and that a further quantity to the value of forty-seven pounds nine shillings and one penny was delivered by a certain George Jacob, Esq., for both of which sums Your Petitioner has the said Commissioner's draft on William Allan, Esq., his Agent at York.

That in consequence of the power of Attorney of the said Commissioner having been lost the warrant could not be discharged, and therefore the money could not be paid.

Wherefore Your Petitioner hopes that as the Hemp Fund has now been appropriated to other purposes Your Honorable House will examine into the premises, and afford such relief as in your wisdom you may think meet.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved that it is resolved that a humble address be presented to His Honor the President, praying him to pay to Richard Patterson, Esq., the sum of one hundred and sixty-nine pounds, twelve shillings and eightpence farthing, being due to him for hemp furnished to James Baby, Esquire, the Commissioner of the Western District under the authority of the laws of the Province, which was carried and resolved accordingly.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Rogers, moved that Messrs. Burwell and Swayze, be a Committee to prepare an address to His Honor the President, praying him to pay a sum of money to Richard Patterson, Esquire, which was carried.

Mr. Nichol, Chairman of the Select Committee on Public Accounts, informed the House that the Committee had gone through the consideration of the Public Accounts, on which they had drawn up a report, which he was directed to submit to the House whenever it should be pleased to receive the same.

Ordered that the report be now received, and it was read accordingly, and is as follows:—

Report of the Select Committee on the Public Accounts, York, 14th March, 1814.

The Committee upon examining the Receiver General's Account of receipts and payments to 31st Decr., 1813, (No. 19) it appears that he had in his hands at that time..... £3550 17 6¾

The Committee observe a charge made for money paid to the enemy in April last; it appears that the money was properly secured and that it was given up to secure the Town of York. The Committee think that the said sum ought not to be lost to the Province, and is yet justly at the disposal of the Provincial Parliament. The amount is ..... 2144 11 4

Upon examining the different accounts of sums outstanding they find that the whole sum is..... 1603 4 5¾

(B)

It appears from the accounts of dutiable articles that have passed Coteau du Lac, that there is due to this Province this Province's proportion of duties up to the 31st December, 1813

|  |             |

There are several small sums due to different persons for salaries, bounties to incorporated Militia, &c., but we are of opinion that the Revenue to be immediately collected will be adequate to the payment of all such sums.

The Committee are surprised to observe that the sums (A) stated to be outstanding have remained so long in the hands of the Inspectors and Collectors of Customs, and we think that in all cases where money has been collected from the subject it ought, as soon as possible, to be paid into the hands of the Receiver General. We fear that sums of money have already been lost to the Public from such neglect, and we are of opinion that measures should immediately be taken to call into the Receiver General's hands all balances remaining in the hands of the different Inspectors or Collectors of Customs.

We are surprised to find that we can get no Account (B) from any of the Public Officers of the duties laid in Lower Canada for some years past. We have only been able to calculate those duties from information derived from Almanacks.

From every information we can collect there is a very great neglect on the part of the person at Coteau du Lac in taking proper accounts of the goods passing that place upwards, and that in consequence of such neglect this Province suffers to a very large amount.

We are informed that duties have been laid in Lower Canada upon dry goods imported into the Province of Lower Canada, but no account has been laid before us of any such goods that have passed Coteau du Lac upwards.

No information has been furnished us to shew what the expense of collection of duties in Lower Canada is, we therefore cannot pretend to be correct in the amount of the sum said to be due from Lower Canada.

By Order of the Committee.

(Signed) ROBERT NICHOL, Chairman.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Ridout, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee of the whole to take into consideration the Report of the Select Committee on the Public Accounts, which was agreed to, and the House resolved itself into Committee accordingly. Mr. Ridout in the Chair.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Ridout reported that the Committee of the House on the Report of the Select Committee on the Public Accounts reported that it was the opinion of the Committee that an humble address be presented to His Honor the President, respecting the Public Accounts, and the Committee beg leave to report the draft of an address agreeable to the opinion of the Committee. Ordered that the report be now received, and the address was read a first time accordingly. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Rogers, moved that the fifth rule of the House be dispensed with, in so far as it relates to an address to His Honor the President on the Public Accounts, and that it be now read a second time, which was agreed to, and the address was read a second time.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Rogers, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee, to take into consideration the address to His Honor the President, which was agreed to, and the House went into Committee accordingly. Mr. Wilson in the Chair.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Wilson reported the address without amendment. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Rogers, moved that the address to His Honor the President be engrossed, and read a third time this day, which was agreed to, and the address read a third time. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Rogers, moved that the address to His Honor the President do now pass and that it be signed by the Speaker. which was carried and the address was signed by the Speaker accordingly, and is as follows—

To His Honor Gordon Drummond, Esquire, President administering the Government of the Province of Upper Canada, and Lieutenant General Commanding His Majesty's Forces in the same, &c., &c., &c.

May it please Your Honor:—

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, beg leave to submit the following observations to Your Honor on the Public Accounts laid before us during the present session, by your order.

It appears to us, May it please Your Honor, that balances unusually large remain in the hands of the different Public Accountants, some of which several years, to the very great detriment of the public service, and we therefore beg leave to submit to Your Honor the propriety of ordering the whole to be paid in forthwith.

In examining the general account of the Receiver General we observe he has taken credit for the sum of £2144. 11s. 4d., paid to the Enemy to prevent the Town of York from being burnt. It appears to us, may it please Your Honor, that as proper measures had been taken for its security previous to the capitulation, and as no stipulation was made as to its being delivered up, that a private contribution should not become a public charge against the Revenues of this Province. But admitting, may it please Your Honor, that it was a correct charge, we apprehend a part at least of the amount must have been a Crown Revenue, and that the whole should not be sustained by us.

In adverting to the amount stated by the Receiver General we observe that no credit is given for interest on Army Bills paid into his hands. This, May it please

Your Honor, we think might be done, and for this reason, that he has a liberal allowance for the care of the public money, and ought not to derive any other advantage than is authorized by law.

On examining the Account of imports into this Province from Lower Canada, in which duties are laid, we are sorry to be obliged to say that we have had no correct official documents sent to us, stating what those duties are, we are therefore obliged to make our estimates and calculations altogether on vague report.

We have heard that new duties were last year imposed and collected on every article of Merchandize, but no return whatever is made to us of any articles on which an ad valorem duty is imposed.

We have further to observe that very large quantities of merchandize have for these two years been brought into the Province without any account of them having been taken at the Coteau du Lac; thus, by the negligence of the Inspector, over whom we have no control, and by the imperfect nature of the arrangements with Lower Canada, a very large Revenue is annually lost to this Province, and which goes to swell the amount of the resources of our Sister Province. We therefore pray Your Honor to have a communication with the Government of Lower Canada on these subjects, that our interests may not suffer in future years.

We observe, may it please Your Honor, that very great delay takes place in paying over the money due from Lower Canada to this Province. Why it should be the case we are at a loss to conceive, but we know that very great inconvenience is occasioned thereby.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Pattinson, moved that it be resolved that the sum of one hundred pounds be granted to the Reverend Richard Pollard, for services rendered to this Province, and that an address be presented to His Honor the President, praying him to issue his warrant for the same, which was carried and ordered accordingly.

Mr. Burwell, first named from the Committee appointed to prepare an address to His Honor the President for his warrant in favour of Richard Patterson, Esquire, informed the House that they had prepared the draft of an address, which he was directed to report whenever the House should be prepared to receive the same. Ordered that the report be now received and the address read a first time.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. Rogers, moved that the fifth rule of the House be dispensed with, so far as it relates to the reading of the address to His Honor the President, praying him to issue his warrant in favour of Richard Patterson, Esquire, and that it be now read a second time, which was agreed to, and the address was read a second time accordingly.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. Rogers, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee, to take into consideration the address to His Honor the President, respecting Richard Patterson, Esq., which was agreed to, and the House resolved itself into Committee accordingly. Mr. Dickson in the Chair.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Dickson reported the address without amendment. Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. Rogers, moved that the said address be engrossed and read a third time this day, which was ordered, and the address was read a third time, passed, and was signed by the Speaker, and is as follows:—

To His Honor, Gordon Drummond, Esquire, President administering the Government of the Province of Upper Canada, and Lieutenant General commanding His Majesty's forces within the same, etc., etc.

May it please Your Honor,

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, humbly beg leave to pray that Your Honor will be pleased to issue your Warrant to His Majesty's Receiver General of this Province, in favor of Richard Patterson, Esquire, for the sum of One hundred and sixty-nine pounds, twelve shillings and eight pence farthing, being due to him for Hemp furnished to the Hon. James Baby, Esquire, the Commissioner of the Western District, under the authority of the laws of this Province, which sum His Majesty's faithful Commons will make good to Your Honor at the next Session of the Parliament.

Mr. Rogers, seconded by Mr. Dickson, moved that Messrs. Nichol and Pattinson be a Committee to draft an Address to His Honor, the President, requesting him to pay to the Rev. Richard Pollard, the sum voted by this House, which was carried.

Mr. Pollard the sum voted by this House, reported that they had prepared a draft of an address accordingly, which he was instructed to submit to the House whenever it would be pleased to receive the same. Ordered, that the Report be now received, and the Address was read accordingly. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Pattinson, moved that the Fifth Rule of this House, in so far as it relates to an Address to His Honor, the President, respecting the Rev. Mr. Pollard, be dispensed with; and that it be now read a second time, which was agreed to, and the Address was read a second time. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Pattinson, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee to take into consideration the Address to His Honor, the President, which was carried, and the House resolved itself into a Committee accordingly, Mr. Swayze in the Chair.

To His Honor, Gordon Drummond, Esquire, President administering the Government of the Province of Upper Canada, and Lieutenant General commanding His Majesty's Forces within the same, etc., etc.

May it please Your Honor:—

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the Province of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, humbly beg leave to pray that Your Honor will be pleased to issue Your warrant to His Majesty's Receiver General directing him to pay to the Rev. Richard Pollard the sum of One hundred pounds, for services rendered to this Province; which sum this House will make good at the next Session of the Provincial Legislature.

Mr. Nichol, first named in the Committee to draft an humble Address to His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, reported that they had prepared a draft of an address accordingly, which he was instructed to submit to the House whenever it should be pleased to receive the same. Ordered that the report be now received, and the draft of the address was read accordingly.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Pattinson, moved that the Fifth Rule of the House, in so far as it relates to the Address to His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent be dispensed with, and that it be read a second time this day, which was agreed to, and the Address was read a second time. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Pattinson, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole on the Address to His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, which was carried, and the House went into Committee accordingly, Mr. Swayze in the Chair.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Swayze reported that the Committee had gone through the consideration of the Address, to which they had made some amendments, which he was directed to report whenever the House would receive it. Ordered that the report be now received. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Pattinson, moved that Messrs. Ridout and Burwell be a Committee to wait on the President, to know when he will be pleased to receive the different Addresses of this House, which was carried.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Pattinson, moved that the Address to the Prince Regent be engrossed, and read a third time this day, which carried, and the Address was read a third time, and signed by the Speaker, and is as follows:—

To His Royal Highness, George, Prince of Wales, Prince Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, etc.
May it please Your Royal Highness:—

We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects the Commons of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, most humbly beg Your Royal Highness to receive the homage of our sincere and affectionate attachment to His Majesty's sacred person and Government and of our reverence for the inestimable Constitution and laws under which we have the happiness to live.

The continuance of the lamented indisposition of Our beloved Sovereign is to us a source of undissembled sorrow and regret, and we pray Your Royal Highness to believe that we participate in the concern which must be felt by all His Majesty's faithful subjects in the continuance of a calamity so deeply affecting the domestic felicity of His Royal family. While, however, our feelings are so strongly excited by this visitation of Providence, we are cheered and in some degree consoled by the glorious and splendid successes which have crowned the efforts of His Majesty's Arms, and those of his allies, during the last campaign; successes unparalleled in the annals of history and leading to consequences so favorable to the future tranquility and happiness of the world; on events so important, and which are in a great measure to be ascribed to the wisdom of counsels and to the energy of the measures of Your Royal Highness. We humbly pray Your Royal Highness to receive our most cordial congratulations.

In paying as we do the willing tribute of applause to the matchless intrepidity and bravery of His Majesty's regular Forces in every part of the globe, we hope we shall not offend by submitting to Your Royal notice the more humble, though, we believe, not less zealous, services of His faithful subjects, the Militia of Upper Canada: services, may it please Your Royal Highness, hitherto, we have reason to think, very imperfectly known to you, and which have been rendered under circumstances of the most severe privation and distress.

When it is considered, may it please Your Royal Highness, that the whole male population of Upper Canada able to bear arms does not exceed ten thousand men, and it is scattered over a frontier of at least eight hundred miles in extent, when it is considered that nearly one-half of these were embodied for the whole of the first, and a very considerable proportion for the greatest part of the last campaign, and that they composed the principal part of the force which successively captured the forces of Michelemackinac and the army of General Hull: which carried by assault the batteries at Ogdensburgh, which fought and gained the battles of Queenston, River Raisin and Fort Meigs, and which repulsed the enemy under General Smith near Fort Erie; when it is known that in the disastrous affair near Fort George, on the Twenty-seventh of May last, they were warmly engaged with the enemy, and actually suffered as severely as His Majesty's regular Forces, when it is known that the greatest part of the transportation and provisioning of the Forces in Upper Canada fell upon them, and that in such parts as have been visited by the enemy, their properties have been plundered and destroyed, and themselves as prisoners carried away, when it is known that the whole efforts of the enemy during the two last campaigns have been directed towards the adjudication of Upper Canada and that is yet unsubdued, we think, may it please Your Royal Highness, it will be admitted that the Militia of this Province have faithfully performed their duty; that their services have very largely contributed to the security of this portion of His Majesty's dominions, and that it was the duty of the representative of Our Sovereign to have laid before Your Royal Highness a faithful account of our services and our sufferings.

It cannot have been represented to Your Royal Highness. Nevertheless, such is the fact that many of our Militiamen have fallen by the sword of the enemy; many have been disabled, and a large proportion of them have died from diseases contracted while in the field, and, from being destitute of every comfort, our population has decreased. Our properties have been destroyed, and hundreds are reduced to beggary and want without even the consolation of knowing that their exertions, their fidelity and their sufferings have been represented to their Government and to their Country, for the maintenance of whose rights they have made such sacrifices and such exertions, and to whose favorable notice they look forward as their greatest reward.

In thus humbly representing to Your Royal Highness the situation of our constituents, we have performed a duty imperiously required of us.

We have detailed to Your Royal Highness facts important to be known, and which we are assured secure to us a continuance of the powerful support of the Mother Country, to enable us successfully to repel the efforts of the enemy for our subjugation; and to bring the war in which we are engaged to a brilliant and successful close.

Agreeably to the Order of the Day, the House went into Committee on the Contingent Accounts, Mr. Young in the Chair.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Young reported that the Committee had gone through the examination of the Contingent Accounts, and had prepared a report on the subject, which he was instructed to submit to the House whenever it should please to receive it. Your Parliamentary duties being now completed, and as I duly appreciate the importance of your personal attendance in superintending your domestic and agricultural pursuits, it is expedient to close the present Session.

In recapitulating the advantages that I am well assured will result from the establishment of many useful Acts you have been employed in framing, that of suspending the Habeas Corpus Act, must eminently conduce to the welfare and prosperity of the Province.

Amongst the benefits that will result to the Community from the Acts that have been passed this Session, your having granted a large sum of money towards the improvement of the Public Roads will prove to be one of primary importance.

The measure, placing at my disposal so considerable a proportion of the Public funds for the purposes of providing for the defence and security of the Colony, as it proves your earnest determination to promote the public service, so it will be my duty to appropriate it to the best interests of the country.

I trust that the other bills that have engaged your attention will, on their promulgation, equally promote the public good.

I rely with confidence on your affording, in your own persons, an example of energy and activity to your fellow subjects in seconding the measures of Government, as by so doing you will more firmly secure to yourselves and them the blessings which we derive from our happy institutions.

After which the Honorable Speaker of the Legislative Council said:—Gentlemen of the Legislative Council, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:—

It is His Honor the President's will and pleasure that the Provincial Parliament be prorogued until Friday, the twenty-second day of April next, to be then and there held; and this Provincial Parliament is accordingly prorogued until Friday, the twenty-second day of April next.

YORK, Tuesday, 6th February, 1816

The House met. Mr. Speaker took the Chair.

Mr. George Lawe, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod came down with the commands of His Excellency for the immediate attendance of the Speaker and the House at the Legislative Council Chamber. Mr. Speaker and the Members present then went up to the Legislative Council Chamber, and returned.

Prayers were then read.

Mr. Speaker then reported that His Excellency had been pleased to open the Session with a most gracious Speech, of which, to prevent mistakes, he had obtained a copy.

It being ordered by the House, Mr. Speaker then read the Speech as follows:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:—

After so long an absence, during which the prosperity of this Province was uppermost in my thoughts, I now embrace the wished-for opportunity of uniting with you in my endeavours to promote that salutary object.

It would have been a great satisfaction to me to have been able to communicate any more favorable account of the state of Our Reverend Sovereign than that his bodily health continues unimpaired.

I congratulate you and every loyal subject on the ultimate and complete success of the great struggle in Europe, in which every member of the British Empire is peculiarly interested, as being chiefly attributed to the auspices of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent and the national arms under the first Warrior of modern times.

The gallant defence of this Colony by its own Militia, supported during the early period of the war by a very small portion of His Majesty's Regular Force, has acquired for it a high distinction for loyalty and bravery. The obstinate contention with succeeding armies of invaders, and their ultimate discomfiture, has not failed to attract the notice of the world, and given to this Province an importance in public opinion which it becomes us to maintain.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly,

I have ordered the Provincial accounts to be laid before you, not doubting but that you will examine them with your usual attention.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:—

The return of peace, and with it, we are to hope, the habits of industry which promise wealth and happiness to this Colony, claims from you such Legislative provision as may best secure the protection and enjoyment of these blessings.

The Militia code has undergone many changes, but still requires your serious attention to give the best possible effect to that force, should it again be called into action. Experience shows that most disposable, and therefore the best form into which it can be moulded, so as to serve with a regular force, is that of independent companies, upon the principles on which the flank companies were formed in the year 1812.

The District Schools instituted by law, and admirably fitted as a step between elementary schools and a seminary for the higher branches of education, will not without further aid produce sufficient advantages to the youth of this Province.

The dissemination of letters is of the first importance to every class; and to aid in so desirable an object I wish to call your attention to some provision for an establishment of schools in each Township, which shall afford the first principles to the children of the inhabitants, and prepare such of them as may require further instruction to receive it in the District Schools. From them it seems desirable that there should be a resort to a Provincial Seminary for the youth who may be destined for the professions, or other distinguished walks in life, where they might attain the higher branches of education. The Royal bounty has already been bestowed towards that end in the destination of large tracts of land; and no attention shall be wanting on my part to second and carry into effect the result of your deliberations on this important subject.

The revenue arising from the duties received at Quebec, the increase and regulation of which have been yielded to the Legislature of Lower Canada, require your serious attention, not only that we may reap the full benefit of our consumption, but that there may be no further interference with the National provisions for the regulation of trade.

The growth, prosperity and happiness of this Province, I am confident, will receive your best attention, and I assure you of my full support and co-operation.

Then Mr. Young, seconded by Mr. Nellis, moved that the Speech of His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor be referred to a Committee of four members, and that Messrs. Nichol, Ridout, Burwell and Beikie be a Committee to prepare an address in answer to the same, and report it to the House to-morrow, which was carried in the affirmative.

The House then adjourned until eleven o'clock to-morrow.

Wednesday, 7th February, 1816.

The House met. Prayers were read. The minutes of yesterday were read.

Mr. Nichol, of the Committee to prepare an address in answer to His Excellency's Speech at the opening of the Session, reported that they had prepared a draft of an address, which they were ready to submit to the decision of the House. Ordered that the report be now received. Mr. Nichol then read the draft in his place. Mr. Willson then, seconded by Mr. Beikie, moved that the address of this House to His Excellency, in answer to his most gracious Speech at the opening of the present Session, be read a second time this day, which was carried in the affirmative, and the draft read the second time. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Willson, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee, to take into consideration the address in answer to His Excellency's Speech, which was carried, and the House went into Committee accordingly, Mr. Nellis in the Chair.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Nellis reported that the Committee had agreed to the draft of the address as it had been read to the House, and the Report was ordered to be received. Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. McMartin, moved that the address in answer to His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor's Speech be engrossed, and read a third time this day, which was agreed to and ordered accordingly.

Mr. Nichol gave notice that he will, on Friday next, move for leave to bring in a Bill to amend the different laws now in force respecting pensions to the widows and children of Militia men killed in the service, and for granting pensions to persons disabled in the service.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved that he have leave to bring up the petition of the Magistrates and Inhabitants of the Town of Kingston, which was agreed to, and the petition laid on the Table.

Mr. Nichol gave notice that he will, on Monday next, move that the House do resolve itself into a Committee of the whole, to inquire into the causes of the non-payment of the contingent expenses of last session, agreeably to an address of this House.

Mr. Dickson, seconded by Mr. Nellis, moved for leave to bring up the petition of sundry inhabitants in the District of Niagara, which was granted and the petition was laid on the Table.

Mr. Willson gave notice that he will move, on Thursday the 15th inst. for leave to bring in a Bill to regulate Common Schools throughout this Province.

Mr. Dickson gave notice that he will, on Monday next, move for leave to bring in a Bill to alter the method of performing Statute Labour on the highways.

The House then adjourned till half past three o'clock.

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Agreeably to order, the address to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor was read a third time.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Swayze, moved that the address to His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor do now pass, and that Messrs. Durand, Burwell and Young be a Committee to wait upon His Excellency, to inform him that this House has agreed on an address in answer to his speech, and to know when he will be pleased to receive the House with the same, which was agreed to, and the address was signed by the Speaker, and is as follows:—

To His Excellency Francis Gore, Esquire, Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c., &c., &c.

May it please Your Excellency,

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, beg leave to offer to Your Excellency our most humble and hearty thanks for your most gracious speech at the opening of the present Session.

Convinced as we are of the deep interest which Your Excellency has always felt for the welfare of this Province, and your anxiety for its prosperity, feeling as we do that under your former mild and upright administration of the Government the country flourished, and its inhabitants were happy; and anticipating from a recollection of the past the brightest prospects for the future, we hail your return to resume the functions of your high station among us with peculiar satisfaction, and at the same time request Your Excellency to receive on the occasion our most cordial congratulations.

The continuance of the lamented indisposition of our Revered Sovereign is truly affecting to every loyal breast; but it is some consolation to know that his bodily health continues unimpaired.

The complete success of the grand struggle in Europe, and the splendid achievements of the national Arms, directed by the greatest warrior of modern times, may be justly attributed to the auspices of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, whose able, vigorous and energetic measures have elevated our Mother Country to the highest rank among the nations of Europe, and excited the admiration and gratitude of every loyal subject; and we feel grateful to Divine Providence for selecting him to be the means of dispensing so much happiness to the world.

We observe with grateful hearts the notice which Your Excellency has been pleased to take of the exertions of the Militia of this Province at the commencement of the late war with the United States. To know that they discharged their duty faithfully to their country is to us a source of proud satisfaction. The notice of the world, and the importance in public opinion which this Province has thereby acquired, will, we doubt not, stimulate their future exertions. This high character it shall be our study to maintain.

When the Public accounts are laid before us we shall not fail to pay that attention to their examination which the importance of the subject requires.

With the return of peace we anticipate by the exertions and industry of the people the future wealth and prosperity of this Colony, and shall endeavour to frame such Legislative provisions as may best secure and promote these blessings.

The Militia Code shall receive our utmost attention, and we shall not only endeavour to make such improvements therein as will render it an efficient force for the defence of the country in future; but shall also provide that comfort and accommodation for the Militia when again called into actual service the want of which was so severely felt during the late contest.

With Your Excellency we are convinced that the dissemination of letters is of the highest importance to every class of the community; and while we acknowledge with humble gratitude the munificent donation of His Majesty to this great object, we beg leave to assure Your Excellency of our earnest wish to contribute by every means in our power to that general diffusion of education so much to be desired.

The existing regulations respecting revenue with our Sister Province have during former sessions occupied our attention. We have had occasion to remark upon their insufficiency, and we shall not fail to attend to Your Excellency's recommendation on that subject.

The growth, prosperity, and happiness of this Province will receive our most serious and undivided attention, and we are cheered and encouraged in this task by Your Excellency's assurance of full co-operation and support.

ALLAN MCLEAN, Speaker.

The House then adjourned until eleven o'clock to-morrow.

Thursday, 8th February, 1816.

The House met. Prayers were read. The Minutes of yesterday were read.

I thank you for the assurances contained in this address of your constant loyalty and ready devotion to the great interests of your constituents.

The satisfaction you express at my past administration is an ample reward for all my anxiety in your hour of danger, which I could not share. It binds me more strongly to pursue a conduct so highly approved.

FRANCIS GORE, Lieutenant Governor.

The Lieutenant-Governor acquaints the House of Assembly that the commands of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent were received by the person administering this government in his absence to recommend to the Legislature of the Province to impose on all articles of the manufacture of the United States (pot and pearl ashes not being considered as such), imported by land or inland navigation, the same duties as are imposed in the United States on the like articles when imported from Great Britain or Ireland into the Ports of the United States by sea, or from Canada by any conveyance whatever.

In making this communication the Lieutenant-Governor is unable to afford any data for the proceeding of the House of Assembly on this recommendation, having no official means to ascertain the relative duties imposed by the United States, or if any imports of British or Irish manufactures are admitted by those States from this Province.

Agreeably to the order of the day the petition of sundry inhabitants of Kingston was read as follows:—

To the Honorable House of Representatives of the Province of Upper Canada, in Parliament assembled.

We, the Magistrates and Inhabitants of the Town of Kingston, taking into consideration its population and commercial extent, resolve it to be essential to its present and future prosperity that there should be a well regulated Police established by law. We have found the existing laws insufficient to effect the repairing and improving its streets, keeping them clean, paving the foot-paths and preventing irregularities frequently committed by persons on horseback and in carriages. Much evil has arisen from the want of authority to form Fire Companies, who shall be obliged to attend and work engines at stated periods, to compel inhabitants to keep a certain number of fire buckets, and repair with them whenever it may be necessary, to oblige individuals to keep ladders to each house, to prevent the danger arising from stove-pipes passing through roofs of buildings, to fix the size of bread, to prevent cattle from running at large in the streets, and many other useful regulations not enumerated.

Your Petitioners therefore beg that Your Honorable House will take into your serious consideration their petition, and pass a law establishing a Police to correct the above mentioned abuses.

And Your Petitioners will ever pray.

Kingston, January 31st, 1816.

(Signed) THOMAS MARKLAND, and Others.

The Petition of the undersigned. Inhabitants, Freeholders and Residents in the County of Lincoln, District of Niagara, most respectfully sheweth:—

That Your Petitioners reflecting on the disastrous event of the late war, which deprived the District in which they reside of the Court House and Gaol, and on the necessity which urges the erection of another as speedily as circumstances will permit. beg leave to represent to the Hon. the Legislature their conviction of the policy and propriety of removing the site of the same from the Town of Niagara. Your Petitioners forbear to state minutely the many reasons which might be adduced to strengthen and support such their conviction, since they are persuaded they will naturally occur to the wisdom of Your Honorable Body.

Your Petitioners further beg leave to state that the general convenience of the District would be much promoted by having the future Court House and Gaol built in a more central situation, and that for such purposes none could be designated which would be more eligible than the Township of Thorold, at or near the place called the Beaver dams. All which is submitted to the wisdom of the Legislature.

(Signed) WM. PETERS and others.

That Your Petitioners labour under numerous inconveniences, owing to their situation being so remote from those parts of the Districts of York and Niagara where the Court of Law are held, and other public business of the County transacted, occasioning to Your Petitioners serious loss of time, heavy expenses, and, in the instance of barring of Dower, much difficulty to their families.

From these considerations, Your Petitioners are induced earnestly to beg leave to call the attention of Your Honorable House, and to pray that in your wisdom an Act may be passed, separating the Townships inhabited by Your Petitioners, from the Districts of York and Niagara, and forming them into a new District.

Your Petitioners have only further to assure Your Honorable House, with the greatest reverence and respect, that, as in duty bound, they will ever pray.

amounting to One hundred and thirty pounds, nine shillings and sixpence, currency, as will appear by the accompanying documents in triplicate, the repayment of which amount has been hitherto withheld on the ground of some informalities in the form of the vouchers, though no doubt could exist as to the legality of part of the demands, for which sum the said John Cumming respectfully solicits such compensation as this Honorable House in its wisdom may see fit to direct.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Members of the House of Assembly of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

That Your Petitioner has served in His Majesty's Provincial Navy on the Lakes during the late war with the United States, in the capacity of Lieutenant, from the 25th of April, 1812, to the time of Sir James Yeo's taking the command, then as master and pilot during the remainder of the war.

That in an attack on the enemy's fort at Oswego, on the 6th of May, 1814, he lost his arm at the shoulder joint.

That he is now discharged from the service without the benefit of half-pay, in consequence of his appointment being only temporary.

That he is a native of Kingston, Upper Canada, and is now settled there.

Your Petitioner therefore humbly prays that his case may be taken into consideration, and the benefit of the Act granting a pension of Twenty pounds per annum to Officers of the Militia for the loss of a limb while on duty be extended to him.

That this boat will also be fitted up in the best manner for the accommodation of passengers, and will possess all those advantages to be derived from a comfortable, secure, and speedy voyage, without dependence upon the winds. The expenditure necessary to complete the steamboat will be nearly twelve thousand pounds, and in case of any interference from foreign vessels of the same or any other description might be ruinous to many who hold shares.

Your Petitioners therefore pray that all foreign vessels navigating by steam or otherwise may be prohibited by law from carrying in any manner from one port within the waters of Lake Ontario to another Port within the same waters in this Province.

And as Your Petitioners will, after the boat is completed, be still at very great expense and as they have run much risk in venturing their capital for the public good and the improvement of the water navigation, they also pray for a short term of years they may be favored with an exclusive privilege to navigate by steam the waters from Prescott to Queenston within this Province.

That owing to a swamp, situated on the direct road between them (which renders it impossible for any of your Memorialists to attend the session) they are in a manner precluded from the full benefit of the laws of the country, as well relating to the recovery of small debts as for collecting and properly applying the taxes; which for these reasons have remained uncollected for many years.

Your Memorialists therefore pray that they may be relieved by the appointment of a Court of Sessions, to be held at such point as may be considered most convenient by the Magistrates within the Counties of your Memorialists.

That debts not exceeding the amount of ten pounds may be sued and recovered in this Court, subject, however, to an appeal to the Courts of Cornwall, should such a provision be deemed advisable.

And that such regulations shall be adopted for the trial of petty offences and other matters of that sort as to prevent the necessity of recurring to Cornwall on every trifling occasion.

That Your Memorialists should also have the power in the Court of Sessions to make such regulations with regard to the roads and other local arrangements as there now are, by the existing laws, obliged to recur to Cornwall, and which are on that account at present wholly neglected.

Your Committee, nominated to report upon the state of education in this Province, beg leave to submit the following as their opinion, in maturing which they have endeavored not to lose sight of the great importance of the subject of their deliberation.

Firstly:—That the education of youth is a subject worthy of the most serious attention of the Legislature.

Secondly:—That the necessity of sending young men out of the Province to finish their education, which hath heretofore existed, hath been found extremely inconvenient.

Thirdly:—That sound Policy dictates that our youth should be educated within the Province or in England, if we wish them to imbibe predilections friendly to our different establishments and attached to our Parent State.

Fourthly:—That but few of the inhabitants of this Province can support the expense of sending their children to be educated in Great Britain, and parental anxiety would reluctantly trust them at such an immense distance from its care, observation and control.

Fifthly:—That there is at present no Seminary at which they can obtain a liberal and finished education.

Sixthly:—That in order to diffuse liberal knowledge generally throughout the Community, it appears expedient that an University should hereafter be established, where the Arts and Sciences may be taught to the youth of all denominations, in aid of which establishment may be embraced the funds which are anticipated from His Majesty's munificent donation of lands for its support.

Seventhly:—That nothing has yet been done to promote education among the poorer inhabitants.

Eighthly:—That it is expedient to extend the benefits of a Common education throughout the whole Province.

Ninthly:—That the People have shown among themselves a laudable zeal in this particular, which ought to be fostered and encouraged.

Tenthly:—That with respect to the present District School institutions Your Committee feel it their incumbent duty to state as their opinion the advantages which were expected to be derived from this source having fallen short of the object.

Lastly:—Your Committee, for these considerations, request that they may be permitted to submit to Your Honorable House a Bill which they have framed for the Establishment of Common Schools throughout this Province.

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of several Inhabitants of the Village of Williamstown, in the Township of Charlotteburg, County of Glengarry, and in the Eastern District of this Province, Humbly Sheweth:

That Your Petitioners, the Inhabitants of Williamstown and its vicinity, in the County of Glengarry, have at the expense of three hundred pounds Provincial currency erected a frame Schoolhouse, of forty feet in length by thirty feet in breadth and sixteen feet in height of walls, and opened the same for the education of youth on the second day of January, 1815.

That the expense of erecting this Schoolhouse was done by our own means, for the sole purpose of encouraging education in a new country, and more especially for the benefit of such poor children whose parents or friends have not the means of defraying the expenses attending the same.

The number of children now in school is about sixty, but in order to pay the School master and raise a small fund to keep the schoolhouse in repair, the rate of education for each scholar is so high as to prevent several poor children obtaining the hoped for advantage of education. Could the price be lowered, the number of scholars would be much increased.

We therefore humbly pray that a certain sum be granted, payable yearly or half-yearly, to a Committee appointed by the proprietors annually, and their successors in office, as an encouragement for an able teacher and support of the said school.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

The Committee of conference having met to discuss the expediency of providing for the appointment of a Provincial Agent are unanimously of opinion that an appointment would be most desirable. They are further of opinion that under existing circumstances the appointment can only be made by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or person administering the Government, on the joint address of the Legislature. They are further of opinion that the tenure of the Officer should be during good behaviour and that the Agent, so as to be independent of the Executive, should have a liberal provision made for him, and that he should be only removed on the joint address of the Provincial Parliament.

To the Honorable the Commons of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

We, the Undersigned Commissioners for Repairing the Roads and Building and Repairing Bridges, appointed under and by virtue of an Act of the Legislature of the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign, and acting for the division for the Town of Sandwich, to the Delaware Town, beg leave to state to the Honorable House the manner in which the money appropriated for carrying into effect the provisions of that Act has been employed.

The Fifteen hundred pounds appropriated for that part of the road in the Wilderness from the Moravian Town to the Delaware Town has been expended, in repairing and building bridges between the said towns, and repairing the road to within nine miles of the Delaware Town, which was all that could be done for the money voted for that part of the road.

The Commissioners beg leave to represent to the Honorable House that it would require as much more money as what has already been employed to render that road convenient to travellers.

The Commissioners beg leave further to state that a contract has been entered into for building bridges over the two forks of the River Thames, and a bridge over the River Ruscom, and two small bridges between these two rivers, for the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds, currency. The materials for building these bridges are prepared, and the contractor waits only for a favorable change in the season to complete his contract. It will require the remaining two hundred and fifty pounds to make a causeway to the bridges on the forks of the River Thames, and for mending the roads and repairing the bridges between the river and the Town of Sandwich; which could not have been contracted for sooner owing to the unsettled state of the country and the advanced season of the year before the Commissioners had the means of carrying the provisions of the said Act of the Legislature into effect.

Sandwich, 31st January, 1816.

(Signed) WILLIAM HANDS,
GEORGE JACOB,
WM. McCRAE, Commissioners.

To the Honorable the Commons of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of Peter Bowman, of Ancaster, a Captain of the Fifth Lincoln Militia, Respectfully Showeth,

That Your Petitioner's barn was destroyed by fire on the night of the 13th January, 1815.

That five horses, harness, farming utensils, large quantities of grain, hay, &c., were consumed therein, and that the loss sustained by Your Petitioner on this occasion amounted at the most moderate computation to the sum of Five hundred and twenty-five pounds, provincial currency.

Your Petitioner has the strongest reason to believe that this atrocious act was perpetrated by incendiaries, who resorted to this direful mode of vengeance in consequence of Your Petitioner's zealous discharge of his duty as a Militia Officer during the late contest with the United States; and as the circumstances of Your Petitioner are much reduced thereby, he humbly hopes Your Honorable House will afford him some relief from a calamity to which all loyal persons are more particularly subject.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(Signed) PETER BOWMAN.

To the Hon. the Commons House of Assembly of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled.

The petition of the undersigned, Inhabitants of the Third Concession of the Township of Lancaster, in the Eastern District, humbly Sheweth :

That in the year 1785 the lines were run by Mr. McNiff between the second and third concessions of Lancaster, and the undersigned took possession of their lands in the third concession, agreeable to his lines.

That in the year 1787 the lines were again run by Mr. MacDonell, but he having commenced further back on the Division line of the Provinces ran without paying any attention to the line previously run by Mr. McNiff directly through the township, nearly fifty acres further back than the original line, upon which the undersigned had settled, and upon which they are still resident ; thereby giving the inhabitants of the second concession nearly all the improvements of those in the third, and making the side lines also disagree; so that the proprietor of lot No. 24 will encroach or take in nearly two and a half acres along the side of No. 25 in the third concession; all of which will more fully appear reference being had to the accompanying map or plan.

That on application to the Executive Government, it was ordered in the year 1808 that so far as was practicable the survey of Mr. McNiff should be adopted, and such descriptions as have been made by the Surveyor General, agreeable to Mr. McDonell's survey, for which deeds had not been perfected; should be recalled, and others issued according to Mr. McNiff's survey, and that the deeds which had erroneously issued from a mistake in the survey should be recalled, and that new ones might be issued, free from expense, wherein the true boundaries might be ascertained according to Mr. McNiff's survey.

Notwithstanding these orders, and the evident wishes and intention of the Government, the persons who have received their patents according to Mr. McDonell's survey still retain them, with a view of getting possession of the improvements of the third concession, and by their obstinacy have kept the undersigned inhabitants of that concession in a constant state of fear and anxiety; and prevented them from making many improvements, which would have been made had no difficulty taken place with respect to the lines.

The undersigned do therefore humbly make known their situation, and beg the interference of the Hon. House of Assembly in order to secure to them the quiet possession of their farms, according to the wishes of the Government, by making such laws or regulations as they may consider necessary to remove the evil complained of.

And your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c.

(Signed) JEREMIAH SNIDER, and others.

To the Honorable the Commons of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Minister and Churchwardens of the Protestant Episcopal Congregation in the Township of Augusta, in the District of Johnstown and Province aforesaid, humbly Sheweth:

That Your Petitioners, in the name and on behalf of said congregation, beg leave to represent to Your Honors that at a meeting of said congregation on the thirteenth day of January, 1816, it was unanimously resolved to build a stone church in the said Township of Augusta, the old one having been condemned as not worthy to be finished.

That the said congregation have already subscribed the sum of three hundred pounds towards the building of the said church, but this sum not being deemed sufficient for completing the same, Your Petitioners pray that Your Honors will be pleased to grant to the said congregation from the Provincial Funds such sum of money in aid of their design as Your Honors shall think proper.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

The Lieutenant Governor acquaints the House of Assembly that one of the Judges of the Court of King's Bench has petitioned for a remuneration of his services, under certain Acts of the Provincial Legislature for securing titles to lands.

The duty imposed by the Provincial Legislature being no part of his judicial functions, it seems just and reasonable that it should receive a separate compensation, and, as it was for the benefit of Landholders in this Province exclusively, that a compensation should be provided from the Provincial Funds.

In submitting to the House of Assembly the Petition and the documents which accompany it, the Lieutenant Governor relies upon them to make an adequate remuneration as prayed for.

Government House, March, 1816.

F. G.

To His Excellency Francis Gore, Esq., Lieutenant Governor, &c., &c.
May it Please Your Excellency,—

By certain Acts of the Provincial Legislature, passed in the years 1797, 1799 and 1802, to secure titles to lands in this Province, a duty was imposed upon the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, altogether foreign to the functions for which they receive their remuneration from the Crown.

To the respectful remonstrance of Your Petitioner assurance was given that due compensation would be made for the performance of the duties imposed, that Your Memorialist in carrying into effect the said Acts did hear and report upon two thousand and eighty-three claims, minutes of which he preserved, which still continue to be useful to the parties. No compensation has been received for this service.

That the circumstances of the late war so affected your Petitioner's means of subsistence that he is constrained to submit to Your Excellency's consideration his humble claim to an adequate remuneration for that laborious and useful service.

York, 1st March, 1816.

(Signed) WILLIAM DUMMER POWELL.

I certify that Mr. Justice Powell has reported to the Executive Government under the several Statutes of the Province of Upper Canada passed 1797, 1799 and 1802, two thousand and eighty-three claims in sixteen reports, in the years 1798, 1799, 1800, 1801, 1802, 1803, and 1804, and that the said reports remain of record in the Office of the Executive Council.

Mr. Thompson, seconded by Mr. Dickson, moved that a Petition of Sundry Merchants of the Town of Kingston be now read, which was carried, and the Petition read as follows:—

To the Honorable the Legislative Council and Commons House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the undersigned, Merchants, Traders, Carriers, Mariners, and other Inhabitants of the said Province, Humbly Showeth,

That it is with the deepest regret that Your Petitioners see the internal, agricultural, and carrying trade of this country daily diminishing, and the country drained of its specie by the great influx of articles for sale from the United States, and by its citizens engrossing the principal part of the carrying trade in its waters and across the lakes, in consequence of which Your Petitioners cannot help observing with the greatest concern that Lake Ontario becomes a nursery for American seamen, and that the marine interest of the country cannot increase while such carrying trade is principally carried on in foreign vessels.

That it is a general rule in all countries that agricultural commerce, internal trade, and carrying goods, wares and merchandise from port to port on their own shores is confined as much as possible to subjects of their own.

That good policy also requires that a check should be put to the introduction of so great a number of aliens into this country, particularly American Citizens, who are inimical to this Government (sic) in times of the most profound peace.

That many articles are daily brought into this Province from the United States duty free, which if taken into our Sister Province of Lower Canada would be either deemed contraband or pay a considerable duty, from which also arises another abuse; that is, such contraband articles passing from the United States into this country and from thence into Lower Canada, the revenue of that Province is defrauded.

That several subjects of His Majesty have purchased vessels from citizens of the United States for the carrying trade, and will be ruined unless provision is made for them.

We therefore pray that you would be pleased to take these representations into your most serious consideration, and be pleased to enact such laws as will tend wholly or in part to remove the grievances we labour under, among which we pray that it may be enacted that no goods, wares or merchandise be transported from any port or place within the Province of Upper Canada to any other port or place within the same except in British boats, vessels, rafts or other craft.

That all goods, wares and merchandise passing to and from any port or place within the Province of Upper Canada in any foreign boat, vessel, raft or other craft be liable to pay duties in like manner as if the same had been brought from the United States.

That all goods, wares and merchandise of whatever description, brought from the United States, be the same the growth and manufacture of the United States or of any other country, such goods, wares and merchandise, not being contraband, be dutiable in like manner as British Goods are dutiable in the United States.

That all boats, vessels, rafts or other craft coming from the United States into this Province pay a tonnage duty for the use of this Province equal to the tonnage duty imposed upon British vessels entering their ports, exclusive of the Lighthouse tonnage duty.

That more effectual means be taken to compel the masters of any boats, vessels, rafts or other craft coming into this Province from the United States to enter such boats, vessel, raft or other craft, at the Custom House where such boat, vessel, raft or other craft may arrive in Upper Canada.

That no Hawkers, Pedlars or Petty Chapmen, not subjects of His Majesty, be permitted to travel through the Province.

That all vessels above ten tons burden which have been bona fide purchased from citizens of the United States by subjects of His Majesty before the passing of this Act, be deemed British bottoms, provided such vessels have been regularly registered at some Custom House within this Province within———days after such purchase.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

January, 1816.

(Signed) THOMAS MARKLAND, and others.

Mr. Nichol, first named of the Committee Select of Finance begged leave to submit their report to the House.

Ordered, that the Report be received, and it was as follows:—

To the Honorable the Commons of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament Assembled.

Your Committee, to whom was referred the examination of the Provincial Public Accounts, beg leave most respectfully to report that they have given to the subject that profound attention which its importance requires.

They have found that the Revenue from ascertained sources applicable to the service of the current year, will amount to upwards of £54,000, and have every reason to believe that the growing produce of duties imposed during the present session will very considerably augment the Provincial Funds. The Schedule "A" exhibits a statement of the Revenue for the year 1815, on which the above calculations are made.

The unascertained Revenue is derived from various sources. First, Duties on articles imported from the United States; Second, Duties on Licenses to Hawkers and Pedlars; third, Fines and Forfeitures; fourth, arrears of duties imposed in Lower Canada on articles passing the Coteau du Lac, between the 15th February, 1813, and 25th April, 1814. The Schedule "B" gives a statement of these to the 31st December, 1813, which is accompanied by a statement on estimate of the loss sustained by this Province from the neglect to transmit to the Inspector at Coteau du Lac the laws passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's Reign, imposing additional duties; in consequence of which no account was tendered for upwards of fourteen months, of port wine imported into this Province, which, during that period was liable to an additional duty of one shilling per gallon, nor was any account taken of merchandise subject to Ad valorem Duty for nearly seven months.

Your Committee have further to observe that for the whole period from the 1st of October, 1813, to the present time, no account has been rendered to the Inspector at Coteau du Lac of any articles purchased in Lower Canada by the different Public Departments for the use or consumption of His Majesty's service in Upper Canada.

Your Committee are aware that very considerable purchases were made, and do conceive that the Province of Upper Canada is justly entitled to the duties thereupon; they therefore respectfully recommend that an application be made to His Majesty's Government of Great Britain, to obtain the full proportion which may appear to be due to this Province; also that they would interfere in behalf of this Province for the time to come, and that in the meantime His Excellency be requested to adopt such measures, either by the appointment of Commissioners or otherwise as may appear to him best calculated to obtain from the Lower Province more immediate redress.

Your Committee are surprised to find that the different Addresses of the House of Assembly to the late President Drummond, respecting a charge made by the representatives of the late Pridiaux Selby, Esquire, Receiver General of this Province, against the revenues thereof, amounting to £2,144. 11s. 4d., as being delivered up to the enemy: which charge was not authorized by law,—have produced no effect. Your Committee have ascertained that part of the above sum was a Crown Revenue, and are of opinion that even if the House of Assembly were disposed to exonerate the representatives of the late Receiver General from the payment of it, they can only acquit that part which belonged to the Provincial Chest. They beg leave to recommend an Address to His Excellency, Lieutenant Governor Gore, on the subject.

Notwithstanding the early and repeated notice which former Committees on your Public Accounts took of the backwardness of the different Public Accountants to pay in their balances, the evil has increased, as will be perceived on a comparison of the outstanding balances in the years 1814, and 1815. In the year 1814, they amounted to £1,966 16s. 10½d., and in the year 1815, amounted to the enormous sum of £4,422 1s. 1½d.

When to this amount is added the whole of the duties on Shop, Tavern and Still Licenses for the current year, issued on and since the 5th January, 1816, it will produce a total of nearly £10,000.

The evil to be apprehended from suffering the accumulation of these balances, exclusive of the loss of the use of the money to the Province, is that it may be a temptation to individual Inspectors to apply the money to their private purposes, by which it might not be in their power to pay it in if suddenly called for. Your Committee therefore respectfully recommend an Address to His Excellency, the Lieutenant Governor, that he will, upon all occasions where delinquency may appear, direct the Attorney General to prosecute the delinquent or sureties without delay.

Your Committee also observe that no returns have been received by the Inspector General from Richard Warffe, Esquire, Collector of Customs for the Eastern District, of any licenses to Hawkers and Pedlars, or for Duties on Imports from the United States. They have ascertained that large sums have been paid to him on both these heads, and would recommend that an Address be presented to His Excellency, the Lieutenant Governor, requesting him to direct inquiry to be made into the case, and to remove him from office should his guilt be ascertained.

Your Committee, in concluding their Report, respectfully beg leave to state that from the renewed intercourse with the United States and the increased peace establishments of the Army and Navy in this Province, together with the introduction of new settlers from Great Britain, and the natural increase which must take place in the population thereof, there is every reason to believe that no very material deterioration in the revenue is likely to take place; it is therefore presumed that it will be perfectly adequate to meet all demands that are likely to be made on it.

Commons House of Assembly,
March 26th, 1816.

ROBERT NICHOL,
Chairman.

Mr. Burwell, first of the Committee to present with a Committee of the Legislative Council an Address to His Excellency, the Lieutenant Governor, praying him to purchase and present a sword to Lieutenant Colonel Battersby, reported that the Committee had waited and presented the same to His Excellency, who was pleased to make thereto a reply, a copy of which he presented to the Speaker, who read it as follows:

Gentlemen:—

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Willson reported the following resolutions, which he recommended to the adoption of the House. Ordered, that the Report be received, and the resolutions adopted.

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that a joint Address be presented to His Excellency, the Lieutenant Governor, requesting him to represent to His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, the obstacles we have experienced in attempting to regulate the duties, and drawbacks on imports into this Province from Lower Canada, and other His Majesty's Colonies, and pray that His Royal Highness will be pleased to direct a Bill to be prepared to be laid before the Imperial Parliament for the regulation of the commerce to be carried on between this Province and Lower Canada and other His Majesty's possessions, to establish the duties to be received and the drawbacks to be paid on principles according with the commercial policy of the United Kingdom and the just interests of this Province; and to request His Excellency to take such measures by the appointment of Commissioners or by having communication with the Government of Lower Canada, or otherwise to procure us more immediate redress.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the Address to His Excellency, the Lieutenant Governor, on the subject of the Report of the Committee on Finance was read the third time, passed, and signed by the Speaker, as follows:—

To His Excellency Francis Goré, Esq., Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c.. &c.

May it Please Your Excellency:—

We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, most humbly beg leave to submit to Your Excellency the following observations and remarks on the Public Accounts, which, by your direction were transmitted to us during the present Session.

We observe, May it please Your Excellency, that notwithstanding the justice of our claim for duties levied in the Province of Lower Canada under two several Acts of the Parliament of that Province, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's Reign, and the repeated Addresses of the Commons House of Assembly to the late President, Sir Gordon Drummond, this Province has been deprived of its portion of duties on articles specifically ascertained to have passed Coteau du Lac between the 15th February and the 31st December, 1813, to a very large amount, and on articles which from the remissness of the Government of Power in Canada in not transmitting instructions to the Inspector at Coteau du Lac, with copies of the said Acts, have not been ascertained; there is every reason to believe that this Province has been deprived of a much larger sum.

We beg leave to call Your Excellency's attention to the circumstances that no Official document has been transmitted to us, showing the amount of duties accrued and due to this Province for the last and present years from Lower Canada, nor have we been able to ascertain with precision their amount, and for this reason, that new laws were enacted last year in Lower Canada affecting our Province which have not been transmitted to us. Your Excellency must be aware that we ought to have the power of ascertaining from Official Documents correctly the amount of our claims on our Sister Province, and we hope Your Excellency will have such communication with the Government of Lower Canada as may procure these documents to be laid before us, and that those for future years may be regularly transmitted.

The Commons House of Assembly have, for two years past, endeavored, though without success, to procure the payment of the sum of Two Thousand One Hundred and Fifty-four Pounds Eleven Shillings and Fourpence, which it is contended was improperly charged against the Revenue of this Province by the Representatives of the late Receiver General. We have ascertained, may it please Your Excellency, that a considerable part of the above sum was Crown Revenue, and therefore it could not with propriety be charged against the Province. The Commons House of Assembly, being desirous of having the business finally settled, humbly request that Your Excellency will take such steps as to you will seem meet to have the said sum of Two Thousand One Hundred and Forty-four Pounds, Eleven Shillings and Fourpence returned into the Public Chest.

It is with concern, may it please Your Excellency, we have observed that in defiance of the laws now in force, and the repeated addresses of the Commons to the late President Drummond, requesting him to take the proper steps to check a growing evil of serious magnitude, viz., the large balances retained by the several Inspectors and Collectors in this Province, in whose hands it has increased to an alarming extent.

We have at our present Session made further Legislative provision for checking it, and we look with well founded confidence to Your Excellency's vigorous enforcement of the laws in this respect.

We have had occasion in the prosecution of our investigations to observe in some Districts of the Province the Returns for the Collectors and Inspectors have been very irregular, and that in others, particularly in the Eastern District, for several years past, none have been by the Collectors made.

We have had satisfactory proof before us that large sums have been paid to the Collector of the said Eastern District, Richard Warffe, Esq., for duties on goods imported, and on Licenses to Hawkers, Pedlars and Petty Chapmen, of which no account has been rendered. We therefore pray Your Excellency to adopt such measures as may to you seem proper to recover the amount of duties so collected, and to put a stop to the evil for the time to come.

We, during the last Session, by Address, requested the late President Drummond to have a communication with the Government of Lower Canada, on the subject of our claims on that Province, and also respecting the imperfect nature of our Provisional Agreement, which has expired in both Provinces. We have not heard of any results from that application and much fear that nothing has been done.

We are persuaded that Your Excellency will at once perceive the dilemma in which this Province is placed, and unless His Majesty's Parliament interferes to enforce the payment of our just dues we shall be left not only without Revenue for our ordinary purposes, but deprived by the Act of Our Sister Province of monies raised from the Inhabitants of this Province, and which can only constitutionally be applied to its use.

We have further to observe that by the arrangements for the payment of duties from Lower Canada this Province is deprived of the use of its own money for a long period, and that the greatest inconvenience is occasioned thereby. We are of opinion, may it please Your Excellency, that the money should be paid over at least every six months, by which means alone our appropriations can be effectually complied with; we therefore hope the subject will receive from Your Excellency due consideration.

To enable Your Excellency fully to understand the nature of our complaint we beg leave to submit for Your Excellency's perusal certain documents, which will throw every light upon the subject.

Mr. Burwell, first named of the Committee to carry up to the Hon. the Legislative Council the Bill intituled "An Act to amend an Act passed in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled 'An Act to establish Public Schools in each and every District within this Province' and to extend the provisions thereof, and for other purposes therein mentioned," and request their concurrence thereto, reported that they had done so.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. Nichol, moved that Messrs. Nichol and Mears be a Committee to wait upon His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, to inform him that this House have passed an Address respecting the Provincial Revenue, to know when he will be pleased to receive it, and to present the same, which was ordered.

Mr. Nellis, seconded by Mr. Beikie, moved that a conference be requested with the Hon. the Legislative Council, to take into consideration the propriety of jointly addressing His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor on the subject of the Commercial Intercourse between this Province and Lower Canada, and that Messrs. Burwell and Crysler be a Committee to request the same, which was agreed to.

The order of the day for the second reading of the Registry Bill, sent down from the Hon. the Legislative Council, was then called. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Mears, moved that the Registry Bill be read a second time this day three months, which was carried.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved that an address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, praying that he will defer the prorogation of the present Parliament until this House have had an opportunity of going into certain matters deeply affecting the interests of this Province, which was agreed to.

Nichol, Dickson and Beikie be a Committee to draft an Address to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, praying him to defer the prorogation of the parliament to a more distant day than that fixed for the purpose, which was agreed to. Ordered that the Report be received, and the Address was read a first time. Gentlemen,—

The very flattering testimony I have received by the unanimous resolution of the House of Assembly as Speaker during the present Parliament is to me a source of infinite satisfaction.

Deeply impressed with gratitude for the high mark of distinction, yet conscious of the manifold errors I must have involuntarily fallen into in the discharge of the important duty, made it impossible for me to have supported the dignity incident to the Office unless I had received from you that cordial, upright and honorable support I uniformly on all occasions met with, particularly in cases of difficulty under pressure of the times. To this manly support I attribute the result so pleasing to you and so gratifying to myself.

Permit me, Gentlemen, in offering my unfeigned thanks for this and many other marks of your attention, to express to you that no length of time can efface from my memory the warm effusion of respect addressed to my personal feelings in your resolution of the twenty-ninth of March last.

Mr. Nicholls, of the Committee to wait on His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor with a Committee of the Hon. the Legislative Council, and present the Joint Address of the two Houses respecting the Commercial Intercourse between this Province and Lower Canada, reported that they had done so, and that His Excellency had been pleased to make a reply thereto, a copy of which he presented to the Speaker.

Ordered that the Report be received, and the answer was read as follows:

Gentlemen,—

I shall lose no time in transmitting to His Majesty's Government the purport of this Address, together with such of the documents as may serve to elucidate the subject.

Government House, 30th March, 1816.

Mr. Speaker read the following letter from the Hon. Thomas Scott, Esq., Chief Justice, in reply to the communication of the vote of this House of the 29th instant.

York, 1st April, 1816.

Sir,—

I am this moment honored with your letter of this day, accompanying certain resolutions of the Hon. Commons House of Assembly of Upper Canada.

The testimony which that House expressed in those resolutions has been pleased to bestow on my public as well as private conduct calls from me the most sincere and grateful acknowledgments; the generous manner in which that testimony has been signified heightens the obligation.

I now retire from the Honorable Office which I resign grateful, and supported by the approbation of the Commons of Upper Canada.

I beg leave to offer you my thanks for the polite and cordial manner in which you have been pleased to communicate those resolutions.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your most obedient servant,

THOS. SCOTT.

To Allan McLean, Esq., Speaker of the House,
House of Assembly, U.C.

The Black Rod then came down with the commands of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor for the immediate attendance of the House at the Bar of the Legislative Council Chamber.

Mr. Speaker with the Members present then went to the Legislative Council Chamber, when His Excellency gave his assent in His Majesty's name to the following Bills:

The Speaker then presented a Bill intituled "An Act for granting to His Majesty a sum of money towards defraying the expenses of the Civil Administration of the Government of this Province," to His Excellency, with an Address, to which the Secretary replied:

His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor thanks His Majesty's faithful subjects, accepts their benevolence, and assents to the Bill in His Majesty's name.

His Excellency was pleased to make the following Speech:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

The Public Business of the Province having been brought to a close by your long and tedious application, I now come to release you from your present attendance, and, at the same time, to thank you for the zealous discharge of your Legislative functions in providing so many valuable laws, which must be attended with the most salutary effects to this Province.

That, particularly, which provides for the dissemination of letters in this Infant Colony, must secure to you the gratitude and veneration of the rising and future generations.

The wisdom of your determination to leave the regulation of Commercial Duties and Drawbacks to His Majesty's Executive Government of this Province until the Imperial Parliament decides upon them, cannot be called in question. Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I thank you for the liberal provision you have made for the attainment of very interesting objects, for the remuneration of very valuable services, and especially for the annual supply in aid of the Civil List, which, I trust, will be so disposed of as to justify your liberality and confidence.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

Your return to your several districts at this season must be of great public advantage, by affording your presence at the approaching Sessions of the Peace.

I need not recommend to you so to employ the influence of your example as to confirm the spirit of loyalty and love of country amongst your neighbours and constituents, and satisfy them that His Majesty's Paternal Government has no object but their safety, honor, and happiness.

The Honorable the Speaker of the Legislative Council then said:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

It is His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor's pleasure that this Provincial Parliament be prorogued until Thursday, the ninth day of May next, and this Provincial Parliament is prorogued until Thursday, the ninth of May next.

Tuesday, 4th February, 1817.

At twelve o'clock Messrs. William Jarvis, John Small and Grant Powell, Commissioners to administer the oaths prescribed by law to the Members of the House of Assembly, attended in the House, and administered the oaths to the following Knights, Burgesses, viz:—

Alex'r. McMartin and Jno. Cameron, Esquires, Glengarry; Jno. McDonell, Esquire, Prescott; Philip VanKoughnet, Esquire, Stormont and Russell; Jonas Jones, Esquire, Grenville; Peter Howard, Esquire, Leeds; Allan McLean, Esquire, Frontenac; James Cotter, Esquire, Prince Edward (except Ameliasburgh); Willet Casey and Isaac Fraser, Esquires, Lennox and Addington; James McNabb, Esquire, Hastings and Township of Ameliasburgh; Zaccheus Burnham, Esquire, Northumberland and Durham; Peter Robinson, Esquire, East Riding of the County of York; Robert Nellis, Esquire, First Riding County of Lincoln; David Secord, Esquire, Third Riding County of Lincoln; Isaac Swayze, Esquire, Fourth Riding County of Lincoln; Mahlon Burwell, Esquire, Oxford and Middlesex; Robert Nichol, Esquire, Norfolk; William McCormick and Geo. B. Hall, Esquires, Essex.

At two o'clock the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, Mr. Lee, brought down the commands of His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, for the immediate attendance of the Members at the Bar of the Legislative Council Chamber.

Accordingly the House went up immediately to the Legislative Council Chamber, where the Speaker of the Legislative Council communicated to them His Excellency's commands that they should return and choose a Speaker, and forthwith present him at the Bar of the Legislative Council for His Excellency's allowance and approval.

The House then returned to their Chamber, when Mr. Nichol proposed to the House as their Speaker Allan McLean, Esquire, Knight representing the County of Frontenac, seconded by Mr. Robinson, which was unanimously concurred in, and those gentlemen led Mr. Speaker elect to the Chair.

Mr. Nichol then, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved that the Speaker do demand from the Lieutenant-Governor the rights and privileges of this House as amply as they are enjoyed by the House of Commons in Great Britain, which was unanimously carried in the affirmative.

Mr. Speaker elect, with the House, then repaired to the Legislative Council Chamber, when Mr. Speaker elect presented himself to His Excellency, the Lieutenant-Governor, as the choice of the House, which His Excellency was pleased to approve and allow.

Mr. Speaker then prayed of His Excellency the privileges for the House as usual, and the assurance of His Excellency that they should be granted was made known to him by the Speaker of the Legislative Council. On their return from the Legislative Council, prayers were read.

The Speaker informed the House that the Lieutenant-Governor had been pleased to approve their choice of Speaker, and had addressed the two Houses in a Speech, a copy of which he had procured, and, with the consent of the House, would read the same. Ordered, that it be read, and it was read as follows:—

I cannot congratulate you on any favorable change in the health of our revered Sovereign.

Under the Regency of the Heir Apparent the United Kingdom has attained the summit of national prosperity; its last act has been to compel the abolition of Christian Slavery in the piratical states of Barbary, to whose tyranny the chief nations of Europe had submitted for ages.

The return of universal peace after the usual interruption of arts and commerce in a protracted state of warfare has been hailed as the harbinger of plenty and happiness. This does not appear to be the immediate effect of peace at this crisis; symptoms of distress have been manifest in many parts of the United Kingdom; such a result was to be apprehended from the unexampled prosperity of the nation during more than twenty years of war.

While opposed to all Europe, or supporting all Europe against the gigantic efforts of one nation towards universal monarchy, the United Kingdom became the manufacturer, the banker, and merchant of the whole world, transmitting through every channel a flood of wealth, which, in rapid circulation, returned increasing to the source; it is not surprising that a sudden stagnation of this flood of prosperity, when peace restored to each nation a portion of this monopoly, should have occasioned temporary disorder.

Let us hope the remedies applied by the undivided attention of the Imperial Parliament will soon restore every part of the Empire to the full enjoyment of the blessings of uninterrupted peace. In the meantime it is incumbent upon us, her fostered children, to mark our grateful sense of past support and protection by every alleviation of her burthen which may be in our power.

I trust confidently that no exertion will be wanting to fulfill a duty so sacred.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:—

I shall direct the proper Officer to lay before the usual accounts of receipt and expenditure of the Provincial Revenue.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:—

I derived much satisfaction from observing in my progress through the Province that the liberal appropriation made by the last session for the improvement of the roads has been in general judiciously applied.

The water communication of the River St. Lawrence, below Prescott, is also deserving of your serious consideration.

Your Address to His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, on the subject of Revenues and intercourse with Lower Canada has been transmitted, but no session of the Imperial Parliament having interposed, I could not be made acquainted with the result. I shall therefore use the means in my power to correct the evil complained of by the mediation of commissioners, should the Legislature of Lower Canada revive the provisions to that effect.

There seems to be doubt of the sufficiency of the late crops to supply the wants of the Province; should the export of grain be continued, it may therefore be expedient to re-enact the Statute heretofore made on the existence of similar doubts.

The British Statute subjecting lands to be assets for satisfaction of debt has in its operation produced questions of such importance as to appear worthy of Legislative interference.

I must call your attention to such laws as have expired and are about to expire, and to consider the propriety of their revival or continuance.

There may be many other subjects requiring Legislative provision. I can assure you of my cordial co-operation to carry into effect any laws which you may devise tending to the improvement of the health, happiness and morals of the people, and the general prosperity of the Province.

Mr. Acting Secretary McMahon brought from His Excellency a Message as follows:—

Francis Gore, Lieutenant-Governor:

The Lieutenant-Governor calls the attention of the House of Assembly to an Act passed in the last Session of the Provincial Parliament, whereby certain Townships were subtracted from the Counties to constitute the Counties of Wentworth and Halton, forming the new District of Gore, without any provision for the representation of the new Counties in the present Parliament.

The Lieutenant-Governor recommends that the first act of the present Parliament may provide for the due representation of the Counties of Wentworth and Halton, as he does not consider himself at liberty to sanction any other Act until there is a full representation of the Commons.

F. G.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. VanKoughnet, moved that Messrs. Nichol, Jones, Hall and Robinson be a Committee to draft an Address in answer to His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor's Speech to both Houses of Parliament, which was agreed to.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Robinson, moved that this House do now resolve itself into a Committee, to take the Message of His Excellency, the Lieutenant-Governor, into consideration; and that the Fifth Rule of the House be dispensed with for that purpose, which was agreed to, and the House went into Committee. Mr. Swayze in the Chair.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Swayze reported that the Committee had agreed to the draft of an Address to His Excellency, and directed him to report the same whenever the House pleased to receive it. Ordered that the Report be now received. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved that the Address to His Excellency, the Lieutenant-Governor, be engrossed, and read a third time to-morrow, which was agreed to, and ordered.

Mr. Robinson, first named of the Committee to wait on His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor with the Address of this House on the occasion of His Excellency's message of Tuesday last, reported that he had presented the same.

The District of Gore Representation Bill was then read a third time. Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. Robinson, then moved that a clause which he read should be added to the Bill as a Rider, and be the second clause of the Bill, which was agreed to.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. VanKoughnet, moved that the Bill do now pass, and that it be intituled "An Act to provide for the representation of the Commons of the Counties of Wentworth and Halton in Parliament, which was agreed to, and the Bill was signed by the Speaker.

Mr. Robinson, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved that Messrs. Nellis and Burnham be a Committee to inform the Hon. the Legislative Council that the Commons House of Assembly have passed a Bill intituled "An Act to provide for the representation of the Counties of Wentworth and Halton in Parliament," and to request their concurrence thereto, which was agreed to.

The House then adjourned.

The House met. Prayers were read. The minutes of yesterday were read.

Agreeably to the Order of the Day, the Address to His Excellency, the Lieutenant-Governor, thanking him for his Speech at the opening of the Session, was read the third time, passed, and signed by the Speaker, as follows:—

To His Excellency, Francis Gore, Esquire; Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c., &c., &c.

May it please Your Excellency,

We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled, beg leave to offer to Your Excellency our humble thanks for your most gracious Speech at the opening of the present Session.

The continuance of the indisposition of our revered Sovereign is truly affecting to every loyal heart.

While, however, we feel and deplore this national calamity, we derive some consolation from the energy and ability with which the administration of public affairs is conducted by His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, whose measures have been crowned with the most complete success and have exalted the reputation and character of our Mother Country to the first rank among the nations of the world.

The employment of the national arms in the cause of suffering humanity, so fully evinced in the late operations against the piratical states of Barbary, and compelling them to abolish Christian slavery, to which the chief nations of Europe had so long submitted is a noble monument of the benevolence and disinterestedness which are the leading characteristics of His Royal Highness' administration.

The severe pressure at this moment felt by our fellow subjects in Great Britain is deeply to be lamented. His consequence was, however, to have been anticipated from the sudden transition from a state of war to that of peace; it is hoped, however, that it will be but temporary, and that the remedies applied by the undivided attention of the Imperial Parliament will soon restore every part of the Empire to the full enjoyment of the blessings of uninterrupted peace.

When the Public Accounts are laid before us, we shall pay every attention to their investigation.

We have seen with much satisfaction that the liberal grants for the improvement of the Public Highways throughout this Province have been judiciously applied, which is a convincing proof of the attention which Your Excellency has paid to the selection of proper persons to superintend their disbursements.

We are convinced of the importance and of the necessity of improving the water communication of the St. Lawrence, and shall give that subject our serious consideration.

We are thankful to Your Excellency for having transmitted our Address to His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, on the subject of Revenue and intercourse with Lower Canada, and have a well-founded confidence that during the present Session of the Imperial Parliament those subjects will be considered, and means adopted to afford us relief. We at the same time are grateful for the intention expressed by Your Excellency to endeavor to correct the evil complained of by the mediation of Commissioners, should the Legislature of Lower Canada revive the provisions to that effect.

We shall take into consideration the expediency of prohibiting the exportation of grain from this Province.

The British Statute subjecting lands to be assets for the satisfaction of debt, as well as the propriety of the continuance or revivals of such laws as have expired or are about to expire shall also receive our consideration.

Other subjects requiring Legislative provision, and such laws as may tend to the improvement and general prosperity of the Province shall be strictly attended to, encouraged by the assurance of Your Excellency's cordial co-operation.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. McNabb, moved that Messrs. Burwell, Jones and VanKoughnet be a Committee to wait upon His Excellency, the Lieutenant-Governor, and inform him that this House had agreed to an Address in answer to His most gracious Speech, and to request to know when His Excellency will be pleased to receive the House with the same, which was agreed to.

Mr. McNabb, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved that he have leave to bring up the petition of Thomas Dorland, Alley Dorland, Aunt VanDyke and Cynthia VanDyke, of the County of Lennox, in the Midland District, which was granted, and the Petition laid on the Table.

Mr. McNabb gave notice that he will, on to-morrow, move for leave to bring in a Bill to alter and amend an Act to revive and continue an Act passed in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to continue and amend an Act, passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled 'An Act to afford relief to those persons who may be entitled to claim lands in this Province as Heirs or Devisees of the Nominees of the Crown in cases where no Patents hath issued for such lands,' and further to extend the benefits of the said Act." and to continue part of the same.

Mr. Burwell, first named of the Committee to wait on His Excellency, the Lieutenant-Governor, to know when he would be pleased to receive this House with the Address of thanks, reported that His Excellency was pleased to say he would receive the same whenever the House thought proper.

Mr. Nellis, first named of the Committee to carry up to the Hon. the Legislative Council the Bill intituled "An Act to provide for the representation of the Commons of the Counties of Wentworth and Halton in Parliament" and request their concurrence thereto, reported that they had done so.

The House then waited on His Excellency at the Government House; and being returned:—

Mr. Speaker reported that he had delivered to His Excellency the Address of this House, thanking him for His Speech at the opening of the Session, and that His Excellency had been pleased to reply to the same in the following words:

Gentlemen:—

To the Honorable the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses of the Province of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Humble Petition of Adam Dixon, of Cornwall, in the said Province, Merchant, respectfully sheweth that the greatest difficulties are experienced in the navigation of those parts of the River St. Lawrence called Moulinette and Mille Roche in the Township of Cornwall, in the said Province of Upper Canada, in consequence of the immense rapidity of the current, and the shallowness of the water.

That those difficulties are severely felt by those who are in the habit of trading with the Lower Province, and are sometimes productive of dangerous consequences.

That to remove them would be to confer a benefit on the Public at large, by facilitating the intercourse between the two Provinces, particularly at a time when in a neighboring country every effort is made at internal improvements for the purpose of diverting into new channels that trade which we have hitherto enjoyed.

That the navigation of the River St. Lawrence at the above mentioned places might be rendered safe and easy by the means of locks, to be established at certain distances.

That Your Petitioner is desirous of embarking in the undertaking if he is so fortunate as to meet the sanction and support of the Legislature, which sanction and support he flatters himself this Honorable House will extend to him in proportion to the capital which it would be necessary to employ, and to the task and responsibility he must necessarily incur.

Therefore Your Petitioner humbly prays that by an Act of the Provincial Parliament, to be in that behalf made and passed, Your Petitioner be allowed, authorized and empowered to make such number of locks on that branch of the River St. Lawrence at the said place, called Moulinette and Mille Roche, in the whole extent of the rapids of the said places as may be necessary to facilitate the navigation of the said branch of the said River, with the exclusive privilege to him, the said Petitioner, to take such tolls and rates for the passing of the boats for and during such term of years, and under such other conditions and regulations, as to this Honorable House in its wisdom may seem fit and proper.

And, as in duty bound, Your Petitioner will ever pray.

Cornwall, 31st January, 1817.

ADAM DIXSON.

We, the undersigned, Merchants of Upper Canada, having taken communication of a petition about to be presented by Adam Dixson of Cornwall, in the Province of Upper Canada, to the Hon. the House of Assembly of the said Province of Upper Canada, humbly beg leave to state, that from our experience in the trade of Lower Canada great delays are produced and great losses are incurred in consequence of the rapids at Moulinette and Mille Roche.

We also beg leave to express our conviction that the project which the above gentleman has in view, of facilitating the navigation, would be, when executed, of incalculable advantage to the two Provinces, and that the said Gentleman possesses all the qualifications necessary for the purpose.
Province of Lower Canada, Dist. of Montreal.

HENRY DENNING and eleven others.

We, the undersigned, Merchants and Citizens of Montreal aforesaid, having taken communication of a petition about to be presented by Adam Dixson of Cornwall, in the Province of Upper Canada, to the Hon. the House of Assembly of the said Province of Upper Canada, humbly beg leave to state that from our experience in the trade of the Upper Province great delays are produced and great losses are incurred in consequence of the rapids at Moulinette and Mille Roche,

To the Honorable the Legislative Council and the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament Assembled.

The Memorial of the Magistrates and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of York, humbly represents that the increasing population and importance of the seat of the Provincial Government requires more energetic and efficient Police Regulations than the Magistrates consider themselves authorized by the laws now in force to enact.

They therefore solicit that Your Honorable Body will take the matter into your consideration, and pass such an Act as your wisdom may deem proper for the purposes of establishing a vigilant and lawful Police in the said Town.

And Your Petitioners will ever pray.

DUNCAN CAMERON, J.P., and forty-two others.

Your Petitioners therefore pray that Your Honorable Body will be pleased to pass a law to take off said Fee Tail, so that said lands may descend to the said Allie Dorland and Cynthia Van Dyke, and to their Heirs in Fee Simple; or act in the premises as you in your wisdom shall deem proper.

Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Mr. McMartin, seconded by Mr. Howard, moved for leave to bring up the Petition of Alexander Hover, of Cornwall, Merchant, which was granted, and the Petition laid on the Table.

Mr. McMartin, seconded by Mr. Howard, moved that the Sixth Rule of this House be dispensed with, so far as respects Petitions lying on the Table two days before read, and that the Petitions of Alexander Hover and David Sheek be now read, which was granted, and the Petitions read as follows:—

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of Alexander Hover, of the Township of Cornwall, in the Eastern District, Merchant, humbly sheweth that Your Petitioner, in the month of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, at the particular request of the Commissariat Department and Merchants of Montreal in Lower Canada, undertook to improve the navigation of the Moulinette in the River St. Lawrence, which was rendered dangerous to boats passing and repassing by the building of certain mills thereon.

The accidents that occurred in this rapid within the last few years to boats of different descriptions, and the severe losses experienced by many of the merchants of Montreal in the transportation of their stores to Upper Canada, rendered some exertion to prevent a continuance of these disasters absolutely necessary.

Your Petitioner, at the first suggestion of the House of Gerrard, Yeoyard, Gillespie & Company, volunteered his services; he afterwards received the patronage of Government and of all the merchants embarked in the trade with Upper Canada.

The Moulinette Rapid, before the erection of the mills, etc., by Mr. Dickson, was provided with a channel perfectly competent to admit a free passage to boats of any size commonly made use of by the Canadians.

These mills have been built immediately in the bed of the Batteaux Channel, and to raise a head of water sufficient to put them in motion, a dam has been extended across the river within about forty-five feet of the island opposite.

By this means the whole body of the St. Lawrence which flows between the north shore and the island, runs through a space of about forty-five feet in breadth, and through this channel crafts of all dimensions were formerly compelled to pass.

The current occasioned in this place by the obstruction of the water flows with such rapidity that a loaded boat cannot be brought up by the crew.

It was therefore necessary to discharge the load and carry it by hand above this place.

Immediately below the passage is situated a large rock, over which the water pours with such impetuosity that in the event of the boat breaking away from the teams employed in hauling them up they inevitably drift upon this rock and are stove.

The improvement which Your Petitioner has made in this rapid is the building of a lock at the distance of about one hundred and thirty feet from the north shore. Through this lock boats of all dimensions have during the last year passed with perfect safety, and instead of being delayed for one, two or three days (which formerly was frequently the case), the difficulty in surmounting this rapid is now effected in the space of eight minutes.

The annexed certificates from the most respectable merchants of Montreal will be sufficient to prove of how much importance the lock which Your Petitioner has erected has been to the public.

Your Petitioner is informed that Adam Dixson, the proprietor of the above mentioned mills, has applied to this Honorable House for the right to possess the said Moulinette Rapid for the purpose of extending the improvement now made.

But Your Petitioner, having been the first to step forward and tender his services, and having expended between two and three hundred pounds in rendering the rapid so much more navigable than it was heretofore, humbly prays of this Honorable House permission to retain possession of the lock now upon the said rapid, and to make such other improvements as to Your Petitioner may seem necessary, until such time as the Government shall find it expedient to take the improvement of the navigation of the St. Lawrence under their immediate inspection.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

22nd February, 1817.

ALEXANDER HOVER.

To the Honorable the Representatives of the People of Upper Canada in General Assembly.

David Sheek, of Cornwall, in the Eastern District, humbly represents that the rapid waters at Mille Roche and Moulinette in the River St. Lawrence are a great hindrance to the navigation of that river in the only passage from Lower to Upper Canada.

That Your Representer had, during the late war, concerted with the Engineer and Quarter-Master General the erection of a lock which should remove all obstructions in either of those passages, and render the communication safe and expeditious; but the Peace intervening the project was not effected.

That in its progress surveys and plans have been made at considerable expense, and Your Memorialist is desirous to complete the locks and canal according to such survey and plan herewith annexed, upon reasonable aid from the Legislature, either by an exclusive right to moderate toll on all boats using the same and prohibition of other locks within the space defined, or by an advance towards the expense of the said locks in the place of toll from all boats in His Majesty's service.

That by erecting the locks agreeably to this plan, the distance will be shortened upwards of five hundred yards, the whole of which is rapid water, and by removing a few large rocks in the channel at Mille Roche the navigation will be rendered so much easier that three or four men will ascend and descend with a boat with greater ease and safety, and in one-fourth part of the time, than eight or ten men can do in its present state. Which is humbly submitted.

York, February, 1817.

DAVID SHEEK.

Mr. Robinson, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved for leave to bring in a Bill on Wednesday next for granting to His Majesty a duty on goods sold at auction, which was granted, and ordered.

Mr. Fraser, seconded by Mr. Cotter, moved for leave to bring in a Petition of Sundry Inhabitants of the Counties of Lennox and Addington, which was granted, and the Petition laid on the Table.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved for leave to bring in a Bill on tomorrow to establish Courts of Common Pleas in this Province, which was granted, and ordered.

Mr. Hall, seconded by Mr. McCormick, moved for leave to bring up the Petition of the Inhabitants of the Towns of Amherstburgh and Sandwich, in the Western District, which was granted, and the Petition laid on the Table.

Mr. Hall, seconded by Mr. McCormick, moved that the sixth Rule of this House be dispensed with so far as relates to a Petition lying on the Table two days, and that the Petition of the Inhabitants of the Towns of Amherstburg and Sandwich be now read.

Which was agreed to, and the Petition read as follows:—

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly, in Provincial Parliament Assembled,

The Petition of the Subscribers Humbly Sheweth:—That the Towns of Amherstburg and Sandwich are from the growing prosperity of the District much increased in the number of inhabitants, and as the houses are mostly built of wooden materials they are very subject to fire; and no provisions being by law now in force affording adequate power to the Magistrate to make regulations and improve the same, and it would be highly beneficial to both the Towns of Amherstburg and Sandwich that the Magistrates should by law have power to form Rules and Regulations for the same.

We, Your Petitioners, therefore humbly hope that Your Honorable House will be pleased to take the same into your consideration.

William Elliott, George B. Hall, Joshua Cornwall, William McCormick.

Mr. McDonell, seconded by Mr. McMartin, moved that the Petition of Alexr. McDonell, of Lot No. 12, in the sixth Concession of the Township of Cornwall, be now read, which was granted, and the petition is as follows:—

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Memorial of Alexander McDonell, of Lot No. 12, in the Sixth Concession of Cornwall, in the Eastern District of the said Province, humbly sheweth, that during the American Rebellion Your Memorialist joined the Royal Standard, and continued to serve His Majesty till he was captured by the Rebels, after which he was obliged to suffer incredible hardships and privations, being long closely confined in prison.

That after effecting his escape from prison he again joined the just cause of His Majesty, and at the conclusion of the War came to Canada, where he obtained His Majesty's gracious bounty in a grant of land, on which Your Memorialist has since continued to live.

That by his own exertions and industry, and the assistance of his son, Your Memorialist supported a numerous family with some degree of comfort till the commencement of the late war with the United States, when his son, impelled by the general sentiment of loyalty and devotion to his King and Country, volunteered his services in their defence.

That Your Memorialist's son, the late John McDonell, recruited his complement of men, and was appointed as an Ensign in the late Battalion of Incorporated Militia, in which he served, as Your Memorialist is led to believe, with some credit to himself, and some benefit to his Country.

That in the action at Lundy's Lane, on the 25th July, 1814,—an action glorious to His Majesty's Arms—Your Memorialist's son received, in the discharge of his duty, five severe wounds, which, unfortunately for himself, and more particularly so for his family, proved to be mortal.

That after an existence in agony for a few weeks after the action he died of his wounds at York, on the 15th August, 1814.

That Your Memorialist, by the untimely death of his said son in the service of his country, has been reduced to very great and unavoidable trouble and distress, and deprived of the usual source of subsistence and support for a numerous and helpless family, which now reduces him to the unpleasant necessity of soliciting the kind assistance of that country in defence of which the support of his old age has found an untimely grave.

Your Memorialist, therefore, fully confident of the protection which a generous country always extends to its servants and sufferers in its cause, humbly prays that the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly in its Legislative capacity assembled, will be graciously pleased to grant him such relief as his circumstances may seem to require, either by Pension or by such other means as may appear most proper.

And, as in duty bound, Your Memorialist will ever Pray.

Alexander McDonell.

To the Honorable Commons House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of Henry John Boulton, Esq., humbly sheweth, that in pursuance of a Writ directed to the Returning Officer of the County of Halton, for the election of one Member to serve in Parliament for that County, public notice was regularly given, and the day, hour and place for such election were thereby fixed, to commence at Hopkins's Tavern, in the Township of Nelson, in the said County, on Monday, the eighteenth day of February, 1817, at ten o'clock in the forenoon.

That the Election accordingly commenced at the day, hour and place which has been so fixed, when Moses Gamble and Your Petitioner were the only candidates in the presence of the Electors then and there assembled.

That a Poll was demanded by the said Moses Gamble, and granted accordingly by the Returning Officer.

That it being very notorious that this said Moses Gamble had come into this Province from the United States of America, a country not under His Majesty's Government, and that he had not been a bona fide subject of the King for and during the term of fourteen years next preceding the passing of an Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to repeal and amend part of an Act passed in the thirty-fifth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled 'An Act to ascertain the eligibility of persons to be returned to the House of Assembly,'" and the same being repeatedly stated to the Returning Officer of the said County, and to all the Freeholders then and there present, and it being pointed out to the said Returning Officer that he could not legally receive the said Moses Gamble as a candidate, or return him to Parliament, he declared that he would receive and return him should he have the majority of votes at the close of the Poll.

That several persons were admitted to vote at the said Election who had not freehold estates, and were otherwise disqualified; and that others were admitted to vote who refused to take the Oath prescribed by an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain in the thirty-first year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province.'"

That the Returning Officer, notwithstanding the ineligibility of the said Moses Gamble, and notwithstanding Your Petitioner had the majority of legal votes, hath returned the said Moses Gamble as duly elected to represent the said County of Halton in Parliament, to the prejudice of Your Petitioner, and in violation of the Rights and Privileges of a large proportion of Freeholders of the said County.

Your Petitioner does therefore complain against the said Election and the return thereof made by the said Returning Officer, and humbly prays Your Honorable House to take his complaint into consideration, and permit him to be heard, either in person or by counsel against the said Election and return of Election, and render to him that justice which in your wisdom shall seem due to his complaint, by declaring the said Moses Gamble unduly elected and returned, and by ordering Your Petitioner to be returned in his stead.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

HENRY J. BOULTON.

Mr. McNabb gave notice that, on to-morrow, he will move for leave to bring in a Bill to alter and revive an Act passed in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the accommodation of the Provincial Legislature at its next Session."

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that the grounds stated in the Petition of Henry John Boulton, Esquire, against the return of Moses Gamble to serve in Parliament for the County of Halton, if true, are sufficient to make the election void; and that a day and hour shall be appointed by the House for taking the same into consideration, and that notice thereof be forthwith given by the Speaker to the Petitioner and Mr. Gamble, accompanied with an order to them to attend the House at the time appointed, either in person or by their Counsel or Agents.

To the Independent Electors of the County of Wentworth:—

Fellow subjects:—

As the time is now fast approaching when a Member will have to be chosen for the County of Wentworth, in our New District of Gore, formerly that part of the District of Niagara which I had the honor to represent in our last Provincial Parliament, I take this public method of again offering myself as a candidate for the same important station, actuated by the desire of complying with the wishes of my old respectable friends, the yeomanry of the Country, whose rights and welfare have ever been dear to me, and which I have heretofore advocated with a warmth and zeal that may well entitle me to a continuance of their approbation. If, indeed, I could not back this assertion by proofs plain and palpable, or if my former stewardship, like the fruitless fig-tree or the unfaithful servant in the parable, had been wasted in indolence, or what is worse, corruption; had I accepted of the sacred trust of employing your talent and returned it to you again without interest, I should expect that you would say to me, as the Lord did to the servant, "Thou wicked and slothful servant, thy talent shall be taken from thee and given to him that hath ten." But if, my worthy friends, I shall prove to you, as I now purpose to do, that I have employed your talent to interest I shall hope that, like the good and faithful servant, I shall have my reward. It will be remembered by you all that the time I became your representative was a boisterous time, the Habeas Corpus Act was suspended, Martial Law was conditionally proclaimed, the troubles of war were upon our country, we were without a Civil Governor, and Military men, changing every few months, were at the head of the Administration. You all know well the situation of those times and how the Military domineered over the community, and you also know what little satisfaction you could have obtained when applying to the Magistracy for the protection of the law; the Habeas Corpus Act being suspended seems to close the lips of most people; and the instances were rare of any man who would presume to dispute the mandates of commanding officers. Your political vessel, freighted with your laws and liberties, was blown about to and fro at the will of the military storm, and your seamen and pilots (the Magistrates) had abandoned her to the merciless tempest. It was then, my friends, when the troubled seas ran high, that I offered my little barque to you to tow her into port: 'twas then I launched my pinnace from the shore to use my humble efforts for you, when no larger barge would show its head; and how I succeeded I shall proceed to give an account. It must be still lively in your recollection that General Vincent threatened to burn the houses over the heads of those militia men who did not obey his calls, nor can it escape your memory the horrible manifests of even a Colonel commanding a regiment, who, setting aside all regard for the laws, declared that the habitation of those men who did not turn out when ordered by him should be given to the Western warriors, the Indians, and themselves and families sent destitute across the river. Still more recent was the conduct of Colonel James, of the thirty-seventh Regiment, stationed at Burlington, the last of the war, who placed military guards on all the various roads, with orders to stop all sleighs having provisions on board, and in consequence the farmers' grists, and the travellers' bags of oats were equally precipitated into the military depots, though perhaps a large hungry family were waiting the good man's return from mill, to be fed. This was the period that I entered upon my duty as a Legislator, and, mindful of the solemn pledge I had made to my constituents, instantly proceeded to call for an inquiry into the state of the Province, for the purpose of searching into the various abuses that had been committed upon the inhabitants. In my speech I boldly attributed the evils to the unconstitutional measure of declaring Martial Law, I adverted to the conduct of those persons who were employed in the Commissariat and other departments who availed themselves of this declaration to tread down the people, and demanded to know the President's authority for this illegal assumption on his part, and called upon the House to pass a high vote of censure upon the man who would dare to violate the laws of the land. I enumerated the various acts of aggression, such as stopping and pressing of travellers and teams and others in all places, and at all hours of the night, freeing the inhabitants from their homes, and in a manner turning their families out of doors, &c., &c. I remarked upon the shameful state of the York Gaol, and of the people who lay there in military custody without Magistrates' commitment, and at length closed my address to the House by moving resolutions which I shall ever rejoice to think were carried by the virtue of the feelings of the members, against the utmost efforts of the advocate of Martial Law, to the great chagrin of the then president, Sir Gordon Drummond. The resolutions were as follows, or nearly verbatim:

1st Resolution. Whereas Martial Law was declared by Major General De Rottenburgh, commanding His Majesty's Forces in this Province, dated at the District Headquarters, the twenty-second day of November, 1813, at Kingston, declaring Martial Law to be in force throughout the Johnstown and Eastern Districts, so far as related to the procuring of provisions and forage; and whereas proclamation of Martial Law appears by information before the House to have been issued by His Honor, Lieutenant General Gordon Drummond, on or about the 12th April last,

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that an Address be presented to His Honor, the President, praying him to lay before this House such papers, relative to the proclamation of Martial Law in the years 1813 and 1814 and the causes thereof, as may be in his possession.

2nd Resolution. Resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that an Address be presented to His Honor, the President, praying him to inform the House if it has been by his orders that military guards have been stationed at the different roads in the vicinity of Burlington Heights, to search and detain sleighs travelling the roads having provisions on board.

3rd Resolution. Resolved, that it is the opinion of this House that an Address be presented to His Honor, the President, praying that he will be pleased to lay before this House copies of all circular letters issued by his orders in the year 1814, addressed to the Magistrates of the respective Districts in this Province, requiring them to assemble in order to adopt and report such a scale of prices for every article of provisions as may appear to them to be equitable.

4th Resolution. Resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that an Address be presented to His Honor, the President, stating the extraordinary procrastination that has occurred in the payment of prize money to the Militia of this Province for the capture of the Fortress of Detroit and Military Stores in August, 1812, and representing the bad effects of such great delay upon the minds of the gallant young men who hazarded their lives in this important service; and also praying His Honor to make such enquiry into the cause thereof as to him shall seem meet.

The Fifth Resolution related to getting an Account of Militia Fines.

The Sixth Resolution went to enquire into people's claims for losses.

I was nominated by another motion of the House to be one of the Committee to wait upon the President with the Address, to which he made the following reply:—

Gentlemen:—

I have not in my possession, and therefore cannot lay before the House of Assembly, any papers relative to the Proclamation of Martial Law in this Province by my predecessors in the administration of the Government; neither have I as President of this Province any papers relative to the proclamation of Martial Law in the year 1814. All measures of that nature were adopted by me as commanding His Majesty's Forces, and resulted from the exercise of my discretion under a conviction of public necessity in the defence of this Province.

That as little hardship as possible might be produced by those measures to which it was necessary to have recourse, circular letters were by my direction written to the Magistrates of each District, copies of which I shall direct to be laid before you. The object of the application contained in them was to procure the most correct information of the proper value of the articles required, and in adopting the prices suggested by the Reports of those gentlemen ample justice has in every case been done to the individual.

Gentlemen:—To that part of your Address which begs that the House of Assembly may be informed whether it was with my knowledge that military guards have been stationed at the different roads in the vicinity of Burlington Heights, to search and detain sleighs travelling the roads and having provisions in them, willing to satisfy any inquiries you may deem it your duty to make on that subject, I shall direct to be laid before you a copy of a letter written by my order in reference to that matter, by which you will perceive that any exercise of the measure alluded to was not sanctioned by my approbation. I regret that any extraordinary delay should have occurred in the payment of the Prize Money to the gallant young men of the Militia of this Province, who, in conjunction with His Majesty's Forces hazarded their lives on the important occasion of the capturing of the Fort of Detroit and Military Stores in the month of August, 1812. I am, however, particularly happy at having it in my power to inform the House of Assembly that I have just received the copy of a General Order, issued by His Excellency the Commander of the Forces, on the 25th of last month, directing a distribution to be made to those entitled to share therein, the proceeds of the Prize property captured from the enemy at Detroit and in its neighborhood in August, 1812. But very few Returns of Militia Fines have been made in pursuance of the provisions of the law. Measures shall be taken to have them more regularly furnished, and they then shall be laid before Your Honorable House.

With respect to the Boards appointed by His Honor Sir Roger Hale Sheaffe, to investigate claims for Militia and other services, those of the Midland and Home Districts did make reports of their proceedings to His Honor Sir Roger Hale Sheaffe, which Reports were, I am informed, lost at the capture of York by the enemy in 1813, and no Reports of any of those Boards are now in my possession.

March 11th, 1813.

The Renewal of the suspension of the Habeas Corpus Act was amongst the first things at heart with the President at this time. Than this a more baneful Act to the vital liberties of the subject could not have been proposed. I rose from my seat to state my objections to this fatal bill, the very name of which is odious. The suspension of an Act which stands first as the bulwark of freedom. The whole house at this time seemed agitated by prospects before them according to their various feelings. The tide of temptation at this crisis ran high, the terrors of the Bill were on one hand, good contracts were every day and every way on foot on the other; and of course the man who opposed the President's will was for ever shut out. This consideration I found to work strong upon men's minds. Faithful, however, to my charge, I stood almost alone in opposition to it. I remember what I said upon the occasion, addressing myself to the Speaker:—"Among other objections which I have to this Bill, Sir, is the danger of trusting too great a power as to the liberty of the subject in the hands of any one man or set of men, who are at the control of one man, and he a military man. I have seen during a short space of time Generals, proud, distant and haughty, who disdained Civilians, men whose heads would not do credit to the situation of the humblest citizen. With such I would not trust such power, and how do we know how soon we may have such? My Constituents sent me here to protect their rights, and not to destroy and fritter them away, and cut the goodly roots off the tree. This Bill, Sir, palsies the effect of the laws, and will have an undue influence on the freedom of elections. People will be afraid to give free votes for fear of the dark hand of the assassin: for this Bill goes to conceal the name of your accuser. If, Sir, the accuser has only suspicion of guilt, is that ground for imprisonment and death in dungeons? And if, Sir, the accuser has evidence of treason, why be afraid to bring the criminal to justice in the face of day? This shows the badness of the Bill; the object is not known to all. It is, Sir, to compel the people to bear the kicks and cuffs of those who are used to overbearing tyranny."

I asked if any of the Members had visited the Gaols. I told them I had, and related the disgraceful things I had seen. I told them I had been stopped at the Gaol door by a military guard, who had orders not to admit any person in colored clothes, thus shutting the prisoner from any communication with his friends. I argued the subject further at great length, and am convinced it had the best effect. My next attempt was to put a stop to the disgraceful manner of impressing carriages and teams; and brought in a Bill for the purpose of correcting it, which Bill met with the concurrence of the House, and, had the war continued, would have been a lasting proof how sincerely I was the people's friend. By this Bill no person was to be taken from their homes more than two days' journey, and always to be paid in advance: no soldier was to impress teams, but every man was to have been taken in his turn, and a Press Master to be appointed from among the inhabitants in each Township, who was to keep an account of the teams, with a variety of useful regulations as to billeting troops, &c. &c.

This was the Session of Parliament for trying the stuff of the Members; it was a time the like we may never see again in our days, and fairly tried the mettle of the men chosen by the public. No plough would work well in those rocky days unless well steeled, and I soon found those that were laid only with iron. The Member for the West Riding of York, John Willson, at this juncture told me that times were too dangerous for a man to open his mouth, and went away a few days after the sitting commenced, and never returned to his duty during that important Session, leaving the Road Money for his District to go where it liked, and the welfare of the country to take its fate: and yet this corrupt man had the barefacedness to accuse me with being away only two days during the last Session.

About the middle of this Session news of Peace arrived, and of course rendered unnecessary those precautionary laws for the security of public happiness, which, had war continued, would have been found so useful, and which I had been laboring so much to accomplish. I have, however, too high an opinion of the gratitude of my constituents to suppose they can forget my efforts; because from subsequent fortuitous events they have not been needed. Another object near to my heart was to prevent the Militia from being harrassed in time of peace more than was expedient for the safety of the country; and on this score I took a very active part; as also to oppose a favorite object with some of following up the infliction of Militia Fines. I pledged myself to the House if the measure was vigorously pursued that it should fall upon great men's sons as well as a common militia man. I brought in a Bill the same sitting for taking off the duty upon Stills, and likewise another Bill for reducing Tavern Licenses, both of which I failed to carry.

The return of Lieutenant Governor Gore to the administration of this Province happened some time before the commencement of the last Session, and it was opened under his auspices. The benevolent disposition this gentleman had ever shown towards the people of Canada, and the lively interest which, from our own personal knowledge he has uniformly taken in their welfare, led me to anticipate the most pleasing results, and I availed myself of the occasion to press forward an object which I know was most interesting to my constituents, viz., the formation of a new district. I considered that the measure would contribute largely to their ease and convenience, would add much to their respectability, and to the increase of the value of their individual property, would encourage the enterprising spirit of commercial men, facilitate settlements, and, what is still more desirable, open a fair field for the rise and advancement of the genius of the country. I found His Excellency desirous of doing everything in his power to meet the wishes of the people on this score, and to his kind interposition and influence in a great degree may be attributed the eventual success I experienced; for in every other quarter the difficulty upon difficulty, obstacle upon obstacle arose, so much so that it had well nigh thwarted me. The Bill for establishing the new District as it finally passed, by an oversight of both branches of the Legislature, and even the King's Counsel, who examines every Act before it obtains the Royal Assent, omitted a providing clause for the nomination of Members to represent the two counties in Parliament; and for this omission I believe my enemies have very assiduously given me all the blame, although it is well known that though the Bill in question related to the part of the country I represented. Yet as Legislators we legislate for the Province at large, and an error should be corrected by one as well as by another. The fact, however, is, that I did not forget to provide the Members in the Bill I brought in, and which passed the Lower House; but the mistake arose from the Bill being amended in the Upper House, where the name of the district was altered from Camden to Gore, and the name of the Counties from the old names to Wentworth and Halton. The new Counties required a new clause for electing Members, and here the oversight arose. The loss I trust will be little or none, for I have reason to think His Excellency will do all in his power to enable you to have a voice in the House during the present Session.

The Common School Bill, which passed into a Law last year, was one in which I, likewise, took a very active part. I was one of the Committee that introduced it through the various stages, though I believe the merit has been once claimed by John Wilson, and since transferred entirely out of the House of Assembly, and is now to rest on the Atlantean shoulders of Dr. Strachan of York. You are, however, not to mind what the versatile chamelions of corruption please to say. The truth lays as I have stated, and the Journals of the House will prove it. To these I challenge reference.

A Bill also passed vesting a power in Magistrates at the Court of Requests, to try suits for ascertained debts as far as twenty dollars. The time given to the defendant after judgment was forty days to pay in. This was altered in the Upper House to twenty days, and when the Bill came back to us amended I opposed the amendment, and moved that we should have a Committee of Conference with the Hon. the Legislative Council, to try and get the time enlarged to forty days. This motion of mine was put and carried, and I was named as one of the conferees, and we succeeded in getting the time prolonged to forty days. It is an object of great consequence to a poor man who may be sued to have twenty days more or twenty days less to pay his debt in; the one might save him, and the other be the cause of his ruin.

I opposed the duty on salt. I again brought in a Bill to rate Tavern Licenses according to the situation of the stand, and again failed. I also brought in another to take off the additional duty upon Stills, without success.

I likewise opposed the old District School Bill, brought in unprecedentedly twice in the last Session, first with one thousand pounds a year additional for supporting a few students in Divinity, and lastly with five hundred pounds a year for the same purpose, leaving it in such a way that the Teachers were to have their salaries whether they had one scholar or not; and, behold, we find that immaculate, reformed, refined gentleman, loyal Squire, Inspector John Willson!! of Saltfleet, the man to second this notorious Bill. But I crave his mercy; he was not the refined gentleman, squire Inspector John, until after he had done this and several other things as preparatory proofs of toolship, to the honor of the majority of the House this Bill was rejected with contempt.

To go fully into a detail of my Parliamentary conduct would be too lengthy for the nature of this Address; but I think the sample I have given in the preceding statement may fairly enable the candidate to estimate me.

The House was certainly prodigal of its very large funds last year, and a variety of means were invented to get rid of them. If they all did not meet my concurrence they were beyond the power of my..... When your rights and liberties were in danger I never hid my head; and, as to the votes of money last year, had I opposed them I should only have been a scapegoat in the House. The mysteries of Courts, and the various intrigues employed to gain favorite points are numerous. It would be novel and useless to develop them to all. It is enough for you to keep a good watch dog to guard your flocks from the hungry wolves. This I know, that the line of duty to you which I have uniformly pursued, has obliged me to drop off exchanges of civility with many who I can in no other way have offended than in differing with them on the score of politics. I have been settled in this province upwards of fourteen years without, I trust, anyone to impeach my character with spot or blemish. My abilities are not of the most inferior class; you have seen me in various public points of view, at the head of a flank company of brave gallant militiamen, whose services at the commencement of the war called forth public thanks in General Orders after the battle of Queens-town, and whom I hope I never disgraced. I was out on duty the very last time the enemy showed themselves under McArthur. You have seen me as President of Courts Martial, where I always tempered justice with lenity. You have seen me as Commissioner of Roads. If in any of these situations I have evinced anything unfriendly to the yeomanry of the country you will know it. But no. Fellow Subjects, 'twas impossible. Whilst I esteem you so much I never could be false to you. I shall conclude with the assurance that I am still the object of your choice.

My unremitted endeavours shall be used for your interest and welfare. I shall stand firm in support of your rights and liberties, and in doing so I conceive I give the best proof of my inviolable attachment to our glorious Constitution. The happiness of the people is the strength of the State, and their happiness consists in the absence of taxation, simplicity of manners, and proper respectation for religion, morality, and the laws of their country. Once more, then, My Friends, I invite you to favour me with the Honour of your suffrages; and by a long, strong, bold pull at one time convince the tools of corruption that the path to the people's patronage is honest, independent conduct.

I am Your Very Faithful Servant,

JAMES DURAND.

Flamboro' West, 6th Feby., 1817.

Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. McNabb, moved that the Printer of the Spectator be ordered to attend this House, with the manuscript of a certain publication inserted in the Spectator of the fourteenth February last, with the name of James Durand signed thereto.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved that Mr. Durand's motion be not now put, which was carried.

Mr. Nichol's motion, as amended by Mr. Jones, was then put, and on the question the House divided, and the yeas and nays being called for were as follows:

|                 |                 |

And it was carried in the negative by a majority of five. Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved that his name be expunged from the Journals of the House on the last division of the House, which was carried in the negative. The House then again went into Committee of Privilege. Mr. Hall in the Chair. Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Hall reported that the Committee had agreed to a resolution, which he was directed to submit to the House for its adoption. On the question for receiving the Report, the House divided, and the yeas and nays being taken were as follows:

The question was carried in the affirmative by a majority of six, and the resolution, as follows, adopted by the House:

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that the Publication in the Spectator of the fourteenth instant, purporting to be the Address of James Durand, Esquire, to the Independent Electors of the County of Wentworth, is a false, scandalous and malicious libel; and that by scandalously reflecting on the conduct of the Lieutenant Governor and the late Parliament of this Province, as well as individual members thereof, it is a high breach of the privileges of this House. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. McMartin, moved that Richard Cockrell, the reputed printer of the said publication, be ordered to attend at the Bar of this House, which was ordered. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Robinson, then moved that agreeable to the order of the House the Speaker do order Richard Cockrell, printer of the Spectator, to attend forthwith at the Bar of this House, which was ordered.

The House then adjourned till Monday.

The House met. Prayers were read. The minutes of Saturday were read.

Mr. Secretary Jarvis brought down to the Bar of the House the Public Provincial Accounts, which, on his retiring, were read.

Mr. VanKoughnet, seconded by Mr. Cameron, moved that Messrs. Nichol, Jones, Robinson, Burwell, and Hall be a Committee to investigate the Public Provincial Accounts, and to report thereon.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the House went into Committee on the York Police Bill.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair to receive a message from His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, brought down by Mr. Cameron, Secretary, as follows. Francis Gore, Lieutenant Governor.

The Lieutenant Governor has received a representation from sundry Inhabitants of the County of Glengarry, in the Eastern District, respecting the failure of last year's crops in that District, and consequent distress of the inhabitants, of so much moment that he loses no time to communicate the same to the other branches of the Legislature, that they may concur in such measures as may be deemed expedient to obviate the fatal consequences apprehended by the sufferers, who have signed that representation.

3rd March, 1817.

F. G.

To His Excellency Francis Gore, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, etc., etc., etc.

The Memorial of the Inhabitants of the County of Glengarry in the Eastern District of the Province of Upper Canada, most humbly sheweth, that Your Excellency's well known kindness and attention to the wants of the unfortunate within your government emboldens your Memorialists to intrude upon your notice.

That it is with the most painful feelings your Memorialists find themselves under the sad necessity of imploring the assistance of Government to relieve them from their present distress and the horrible prospect of approaching starvation.

That no less than five hundred and fifty families within this County are sufferers, from the total failure of the crops, the greater part of whom have not at this moment provisions sufficient for the support of their families for one week.

That the scarcity occasioned by the scantiness of the crops in this County in the year 1816 caused your Memorialists to pay out what little money they had for provisions for their families last Summer.

That your Memorialists were in hopes that the last harvest would have afforded them abundance of every species of grain and vegetables for their families, besides a considerable surplus for market; but in this, as in many other occurrences in life, they were doomed to meet with fatal disappointment: the early frosts which have unfortunately destroyed the crops in many other parts of the Province have entirely ruined the crops of every kind in the back parts of this County.

That Your Memorialists will consider it a mark of kind regard and particular favor should Your Excellency be enabled to afford them that assistance which their wants so loudly call for, and will be happy to give any security to Government that they will return the amount of any assistance that may be afforded to them when it may be the will of the Almighty to grant more propitious seasons.

Your Memorialists, therefore, most humbly and earnestly pray that Your Excellency will be graciously pleased to afford them such aid as may be in Your Excellency's power, and, as in duty bound, Your Memorialists will ever pray.

(Signed) Alex'r. McDonell, and nineteen others.

Glengarry, Upper Canada, 15th February, 1817.

We, the undersigned, do certify that the purport of the foregoing Memorial is correct, and that the distress in the County occasioned by the failure of the crops is nothing short of what is therein stated.

Glengarry, 15th February, 1817.

A true copy, D. Cameron, Sec'y.

Mr. Nicholl, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved that the Message of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, and the petition of sundry inhabitants of Glengarry accompanying the same, be referred to the consideration of a Select Committee, and that Messrs. McDonell, McMartin, Cameron, VanKoughnet, and Jones be a Committee to consider of the same, and to report to the House, and that they be empowered to send for persons and papers. Mr. McNabb, in amendment, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved that the whole be expunged after the word "consideration" and that the following words be inserted: "of a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow," which was carried, and the question as amended was then put and carried. The House then went into Committee on the York Police Bill. Mr. Fraser in the Chair.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Fraser reported progress, and obtained leave to sit again to-morrow. The House then proceeded to the order of the day for the consideration of the Petition of Henry John Boulton, for trying the election of Mr. Gamble for the County of Halton. Mr. Boulton, as his own Counsel, at his request, was, by order of the House, indulged with a place within the Bar.

Mr. Baldwin, Master in Chancery, brought down from the Hon. the Legislative Council the Bill sent up from this House intituled "An Act to make good certain moneys issued and advanced by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, in pursuance of several Addresses during the last Session," which they had passed without amendment.

Also a Bill, passed in that House, intituled "An Act to provide for the Registering Deeds, Conveyances, Wills, and other incumbrances which may affect any Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, the same being made and executed in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies, and to enable Married Women residing there to convey their Real Estate which may be in this Province, and to repeal part of, and to amend an Act passed in the forty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to enable Married Women having Real Estate to alien and convey the same,' which they recommended to the adoption of the House.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved that evidence having been produced to this House that Moses Gamble, Esq., sitting Member for the County of Halton, did come into this Province from the United States of America, which was not a country under His Majesty's Government, and that the said Moses Gamble during the fourteen years next preceding the passing of an Act of Parliament of this Province, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to repeal and amend part of an Act passed in the thirty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to ascertain the eligibility of persons to be returned to the House of Assembly," was not a bona fide subject of His Majesty: the said Moses Gamble is not eligible to serve in the Provincial Parliament of this Province, and ought not to have been returned for the said County of Halton.

On the question the House divided, and the yeas and nays being called for were taken as follows:

|                   |                 |
|-------------------|-----------------|
| Yeas.             | Nays.           |

| CAMERON.          | HOWARD.         |
| HALL.             | McNABB.         |
| SECORD.           | McMARTIN.       |

| NELLIS.           |                 |

And it was carried in the affirmative by a majority of two.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved that he have leave to bring up the Petition of sundry Freeholders of the County of Wentworth, which was granted, and the Petition laid on the table.

Mr. Nichol gave notice that on Monday next he will move for leave to bring in a Bill for the Relief of Moses Gamble, Esq.

Mr. Fraser, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved for leave to bring up the Petition of Merchants and others of the Town of Kingston, which was granted and the Petition Tabled.

The House then adjourned.

Tuesday, 4th March, 1817.

The House met. Prayers were read. The Minutes of yesterday were read.

The Bill intituled "An Act for the Registering of Deeds, Conveyances, Wills and other Incumbrances which may affect any Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, the same being executed in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies, and to enable Married Women residing there to convey their Real Estate which may be in this Province; and to repeal and amend part of an Act passed in the 43rd year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled 'An Act to enable Married Women having Real Estate to alien and convey the same,'" sent down from the Honorable the Legislative Council was read the first time.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the message sent yesterday from His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Van Koughnet in the Chair.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Van Koughnet reported that the Committee had agreed to a resolution, which they recommended to the adoption of the House; and asked leave to sit again to-morrow. Ordered, that the Resolution be adopted, as follows:—

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that an humble address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, thanking him for the gracious communication, and assuring him that this House will give the subject the most serious consideration, and leave was granted to sit again to-morrow. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Hall, moved that Messrs. Jones, Robinson and Van Koughnet be a Committee to draft an Address to His Excellency agreeable to the Resolution of the House, and to report the same to the House, which was ordered. Mr. Jones, first named of the Committee to draft an Address to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor on the subject of his message of yesterday, reported the Committee had prepared an Address, as directed, and were then ready to report it. Ordered, that the Report be received, and the draft of the Address was read. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. McNabb, moved that the Address as reported be adopted, which was carried in the affirmative. Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved that the fifth Rule of this House, in so far as it relates to the Address on His Excellency's message, be dispensed with, and that it be engrossed and read a third time this day, which was ordered.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee of Privilege, which was agreed to, and the House went into Committee. Mr. Hall in the Chair.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair. Mr. Hall reported that the Committee had agreed to a Resolution which he was directed to submit to the House.

The question for receiving the Report was carried, and the Resolution adopted unanimously as follows:—

Resolved, that James Durand, Esq., a Member of this House is the author of an Address published in the St. Catharines Spectator of the fourteenth of February last, which was voted by the House to be a false, scandalous and malicious libel.

The names of the Members present were then taken down by order of the House:—

Messrs. Nellis, McCormick, Cornwall, Clench, Jones, 5, Robinson, Van Koughnet, Cameron, McDonell, Cotter, 10, Burwell, Casey, McMartin, McNabb, Howard, 15, Secord, Swayze, Burnham, Fraser, Hall, 20, and Nichol 21.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Burwell, then moved that James Durand, Esq., a Member of this House, having been proved to be the author of a false, malicious and scandalous libel, reflecting seriously on the conduct of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, the former House of Assembly, and of individuals who are now Members of this House, be committed to the Common Gaol of the Home District during the present Session.

In amendment to which Mr. McNabb, seconded by Mr. Howard, moved that after the words "this House" in Mr. Nichol's motion be all expunged, and that James Durand be forthwith called to the Bar of this House to make an apology, and that the said apology when made, the Speaker of the House do order the Clerk of the House to have published in the Upper Canada Gazette, the St. Catharines paper and Montreal Herald, on which the House divided, and the yeas and nays were as follows:—

and it was carried in the negative by a majority of three. The original question was then put, and the House divided thereupon, the yeas and nays being as follows:—

and the question was carried in the affirmative by a majority of four.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved that the Speaker be authorized to direct the Serjeant at Arms to provide for the comfort and accommodation of James Durand, Esq., while confined in the Common Gaol of the Home District by order of this House.

Agreeably to the Order of the day, the Engrossed Address to His Excellency on the subject of his message, was read a third time, passed, and was signed by the Speaker, as follows:—

To His Excellency Francis Gore, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c., &c., &c.

May it please Your Excellency:—

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled most humbly thank Your Excellency for your gracious message on the subject of the distresses of our Fellow Subjects in the County of Glengarry, and beg leave to assure Your Excellency that we will lose no time in taking the same into our most serious consideration.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Van Koughnet, moved that Messrs. Jones and Robinson be a Committee to wait upon His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, to know when he will be pleased to receive the Address of this House in answer to his message, and to deliver the same, which was ordered.

Wednesday, 5th March, 1817.

The House met. Prayers were read. The Minutes of yesterday were read.

Lieut. Col. Cameron brought down from His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor a message as follows:

Francis Gore, Lieutenant Governor.

The Lieutenant Governor is under the necessity of reminding the House of Assembly that since the first organization of this Government the charges of its administration have far exceeded the annual Parliamentary grant for that purpose.

That His Majesty's Government has hitherto provided for that excess from a tender regard for the wants and inability of a young colony.

But the growing wealth and prosperity of the Province indicates the propriety of relieving the Parent State from this burden, and of calling upon the inhabitants to defray in future the current charge of the administration, not otherwise provided by the Imperial Parliament. And His Majesty's Government has accordingly withheld the usual means of meeting it.

As the demand varied from circumstances I have directed the proper Officer to lay before the House of Assembly the average amount of this supply from the year 1793, in the full confidence that the Legislature will feel the justice, as well as the necessity, of providing for this exigence before it makes any other appropriation of the Provincial Revenue.

5th March, 1817.

Which was carried and the Petition read, as follows:—

To the Honorable House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Memorial of the Merchants and others of the Town of Kingston, Respectfully sheweth that Your Memorialists, having taken into consideration the great utility and advantage of Banks to a Commercial people, which has been evinced by the number which have been established in England and in the United States of America since the Revolutionary War, and feeling the benefit which the latter derive from the ready aid afforded them by their banks to carry on their establishments and improvements in their Western Territory, which, although of a much more recent date is in a more flourishing state than any part of this Province, are of opinion that if found so beneficial in those countries they cannot fail of tending to the prosperity of this Province. The want of such an establishment was severely felt before the late war, and there is hardly any doubt but that the same inconvenience will very shortly occur; whereas a well regulated Bank would obviate all these difficulties by keeping up a circulating paper to meet every public demand.

Your memorialists therefore pray that Your Honorable House will be pleased to pass an Act for their incorporation, and authorizing them to establish a Bank, to be called the Bank of Upper Canada, having a capital of One Hundred Thousand Pounds, divided into eight thousand Shares of Fifty Dollars each share.

And Your Memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

To the Honorable the Commons of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Freeholders of the County of Wentworth, District of Gore, most humbly sheweth that at the late Election for the said County, James Durand was by the Returning Officer returned as duly elected to represent the same in the Provincial Parliament.

That the name of the said James Durand does not appear on the Assessment Rolls for any part of the District of Gore, of which the County of Wentworth forms a part, and, as Your Petitioners believe, is not on any Assessment Roll within this Province; and that in consequence the said James Durand is not eligible to be returned, chosen or elected as their Representative.

Wherefore Your Petitioners humbly hope that Your Honorable House will inquire into the premises, and ascertain how far the said James Durand is qualified according to the provisions of the Statute in such case made and provided; and afford such relief as to Your Honorable House may seem meet.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will every pray.

Agreeably to the order of this Honorable House the Committee to whom was referred the examination of what improvements have been made in the River St. Lawrence the preceding year, report that they have given that subject due consideration. They find that Alexander Hover has erected a lock at the Moulinette which, with other improvements, has cost him three hundred pounds: that during the last summer he had received five shillings for each boat passing.

It appears to Your Committee that Alexander Hover, from being the only person who had made any improvements in the Navigation of the St. Lawrence, is entitled to the consideration of Your Honorable House.

P. ROBINSON,

The Petition of the Inhabitants of the Counties of Stormont and Glengarry, humbly sheweth:—

That by several Mill-Dams built across the River Aux Raisin running through said counties the fish are prevented going up the said River, to the great detriment of the said Inhabitants.

That gates can be made in the said Dams at a trifling expense to the proprietors and without any obstruction to the Mills, through which fish may at any time pass, to the great advantage of the said Inhabitants.

That Your Petitioners do therefore pray that a law may be passed to compel the owners of the said dams to build the said gates for the purpose aforesaid.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Which was agreed to, and the Petition read as follows:—

To the Honorable the House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

May it please Your Honorable House,

We, the Merchants of the Town of Kingston, beg leave to call the attention of Your Honorable House to the present state of the water communication from Cornwall to the upper end of the Rapids called Galleus, which is filled with many and very great obstructions to the passage of boats, which increases the risk and causes much delay in the transport of goods, besides enhancing the price of freight. In addition to all those natural obstacles, many private individuals have erected mills in the river, by which the boatmen are obliged to drag the boats round the dams at the risk of being upset, and frequently to cross to the opposite side of the stream against a strong current. When we consider the quantity of merchandise and stores annually brought up the River through those Rapids, the navigation appears of that importance as to deserve the most serious attention of the Legislature.

We, the undersigned, therefore pray, that Your Honorable House will take the matter into consideration, and make such Legislative provision for improving the said navigation, and also for removing buildings erected by individuals, as to Your Honorable House may seem necessary.

And Your Memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

To the Honorable, the Commons House of Assembly in Provincial Parliament Assembled.

The Petition of the Inhabitants of the County of Kent, in the Western District, humbly sheweth:

That Your Petitioners, considering the great and serious disadvantages under which the majority of them have laboured for many years past, owing to their being obliged to attend their public duties in the Town of Sandwich from the remote parts of this extensive and populous District, beg leave to represent to Your Honorable House that a division of said District and an Act passed to erect a Gaol and Court House in the Town of Chatham would be highly advantageous and beneficial to the inhabitants at large.

Your Petitioners therefore pray that Your Honorable House will take the business into consideration and grant a division of the District with an authority for the erection of a Gaol and Court House in the Town of Chatham.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(Signed) WILLIAM SHAW and others.

To the Honorable, the Commons House of Assembly, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Inhabitants of the County of Essex, in the Western District, humbly sheweth:

That Your Petitioners, considering the great and serious disadvantages under which the majority of them have laboured for many years past, owing to their being obliged to attend to their public duties in the Town of Sandwich from the remote parts of this extensive and populous District, beg leave to represent to Your Honorable House that a division of said District and the removal of the Gaol and Court House from Sandwich to Amherstburgh would be highly advantageous and beneficial to its inhabitants at large.

That Your Petitioners beg leave to set forth, in support of their request, that in the event of success in these, their reasonable demands, Amherstburgh would then be placed in the very centre of this County, besides which, it is the only place where materials for building, such as timber, stone and lime, can be procured on reasonable terms.

That Your Petitioners further beg leave to remark that Sandwich is at all times surrounded with pestilential marshes and swamps, which renders it a sickly and unwholesome spot, besides the consideration of such a defenceless Town being in the neighborhood, nay, even within gunshot, of an American Garrison, which, in the event of a renewal of hostilities with our neighbors, would make that place accessible to aggression, as was exemplified during the last war: and expose the public buildings and District Records to certain destruction.

That in making the contrast between the two places, Your Petitioners must here observe that Amherstburgh is one of the healthiest places in Upper Canada; and being a fortified one, besides being so much more distant from an American fortification, the public Buildings and District Records, in the event of invasion, would be more secure, as being under the immediate protection of His Majesty's Garrison.

That Your Petitioners, in order to add more weight to the motive above stated, beg Your Honorable House to take a glance at the extensive settlement now progressing in the County of Kent, and extending to within eighteen miles of Port Talbot.

That should Your Honorable House not think it proper to make a division of the District this season, the propriety and necessity of the measure will undoubtedly appear at no distant period.

Your Petitioners, notwithstanding, beg leave to urge strongly the subject of the removal of the Public Buildings at this particular time, as a sum of money has been voted last year by Your Honorable House for the erection of a Gaol and Court House, which money has not yet been laid out.

Your Petitioners therefore pray that Your Honorable House will take the business into serious consideration, and grant a division of the District with an authority for the erection of a Gaol and Court House at Amherstburgh.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Upper Canada, Western District, County of Essex,
1st February, 1817.

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled.

The Memorial of William Hands, Esq., Collector of the Customs at the Port of Sandwich, respectfully sheweth:

That having been notified from the Office of the Inspector General of Public Provincial Accounts that Your Memorialist was charged with the whole amount of duties collected by him at the Port of Sandwich on the importation of Merchandize from the United States of America, for the periods from the first of January to the thirty-first of March, and from the First of April to the thirtieth day of June, 1816, amounting to the sum of £63. 0s. 3½d. without allowing Your Memorialist the usual percentage (amounting to £31. 10s. 1¾) for his trouble of collection on the grounds that the accounts or returns were not transmitted to the Inspector General's Office within a stated period. Your Memorialist having at all times made up and sworn to his accounts immediately after the expiration of each quarterly period; and on reference to the accounts above alluded to will be seen that these accounts were also made up and sworn to immediately after the 31st of March and 30th day of June, 1816, but were not dispatched until some time afterwards, from a wish to save postage by availing himself of a private conveyance.

That as the delay of transmitting these accounts was from a wish, not to burden the Revenue with postage of packets, and not from any neglect on the part of Your Memorialist, Your Memorialist prays that the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly will afford him such relief as in their wisdom may seem meet.

And Your Memorialist, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Upper Canada, York, 6th March, 1817.

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled.

That at the commencement of the late war with the United States of America, your Petitioner's husband, the said late Henry Bostwick, followed the profession of the law for the support of his family.

That he was appointed by the late Major-General Brock to superintend several important and confidential services, and was constantly employed, so that he had to quit his profession entirely.

After the death of the late Major-General Brock, he was employed, and when the regular troops were withdrawn from the London District, and a band of traitors and United States Troops were collecting at Dunham's, between the mouth of the Grand River and the Settlements at Long Point under the auspices of Mallory Biggars and Crosby, by a great exertion of his influence amongst the alarmed inhabitants he induced them to volunteer (at the risk of their everything when the troops were withdrawn) to go with him to dislodge the banditti collected at Dunham's, which they did under his command, and received the thanks of Major-General De Rottenburgh in general orders.

And that when the enemy came to Dover they burnt the buildings of Your Petitioner's late husband, consisting of a dwelling house, barn, and office; and that shortly after the conclusion of the peace, before Your Petitioner's husband could resume his profession, he was removed by death; leaving Your Petitioner with five small children.

Wherefore Your Petitioner humbly prays that Your Honorable House will consider her case, and do in the premises as in your wisdom shall seem fit.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

The Memorial of the Merchants and other respectable inhabitants of the Home District humbly sheweth:

That Your Memorialists, seeing the many advantages enjoyed by other countries, from the establishment of Banks, by means of which the facility of mercantile transactions and the interest of the public in general is greatly promoted, as is evident from the rapidity with which all improvements in the internal economy of countries are carried into effect where such depositories have been in operation.

That Your Memorialists, in common with the inhabitants of the Province, experienced great inconvenience previous to the issuing of the Army Bills; from the want of a circulating medium; and like disadvantages will soon again become oppressive unless some such accommodation is established upon a secure and permanent foundation.

That a Bank incorporated by Charter with a capital of one hundred thousand pounds to be held in shares of twelve pounds, ten shillings each, Provincial Currency, would be of the most beneficial importance to the improvement of the Province, as well as its agricultural and commercial progress, You Memorialists have every reason to believe and ground to hope.

Wherefore, Your Memorialists pray that Your Honorable House will be pleased to take this very necessary and important Public Measure into your serious consideration, and pass an Act to incorporate a body within this Province under the style and title of "The Upper Canada Banking Company," with a capital of one hundred thousand pounds, to be holden in shares of twelve pounds, ten shillings, Provincial Currency, each, under such regulations as Your Honorable House may deem wise and prudent.

And, as in duty bound, Your Memorialists will ever pray.

The Petition of the undersigned. Inhabitants of the Townships of Thurlow, Sidney, Rawdon, and Ameliasburgh, humbly sheweth:

That Your Petitioners view with regret the serious inconvenience which the inhabitants of the aforesaid Townships have to suffer, by reason of the present extent of the Midland District, and the consequent trouble and expense which every person resident in this part of the District has to incur when required to attend the Sittings of the Courts, which are now all held at the Eastern part of the said District.

Your Petitioners therefore beg leave to call your attention to the propriety and utility of having a new district formed, comprising the Townships of Sophiasburgh, Ameliasburgh, Sidney, Rawdon, Thurlow, Huntingdon, Mohawk Tract, and Hungerford in the Midland District, and the Townships of Murray, Percy and Seymour in the District of Newcastle, which District so formed shall have for its metropolis the Village of Belleville. Your Petitioners further beg leave to suggest as an important evidence of the propriety of the proposed measure that the aforementioned Townships in the Midland District are rapidly advancing in population, and will within a few years compose the most populous part of the said District.

Your Petitioners humbly trust that Your Honorable House will take into consideration the propriety of their present request, and grant the required redress; and Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly of Upper Canada, in Parliament assembled.

May it please Your Honors:—

Your Petitioner begs leave to state to Your Honorable House the great necessity there was in having a new bridge across Bowen's Creek, in Richmond, on the public road from Kingston to York; and as the Statute Labour of that part of the Township was not sufficient, and also much wanted in repairing the other bridges, &c., on that road, your Petitioner has erected one, the length of which is two hundred and thirty-two feet, at the expense of £45 10s., not including his own trouble, which he freely bestows to the public.

Your Petitioner did make application to the Commissioners appointed to rectify the Public roads through this part of the District, but unfortunately too late; the public money, ten pounds, could only be obtained.

Thirty-five pounds ten being due, Your Petitioner humbly prays that the Honorable House will please take the same into consideration and be pleased to order that he may be reimbursed.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Richmond, 13th February, 1817.

(Signed) ANDREW KIMMERLY.

Mr. McNabb, seconded by Mr. McDonell, moved that the Petition of the Inhabitants of Sidney and Rawdon be now read, which was granted, and the Petition read:—

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada.

This Memorial respectfully showeth,

That we, the inhabitants of the Township of Sidney, subscribers hereto, beg leave to represent to Your Honorable House the great inconvenience and loss that we in common with all the settlers on the River Trent sustain in consequence of the practices of some unprincipled characters, who, taking advantage of the existing laws regulating the catching of salmon in the District of Newcastle, the lines of which District crossing the River Trent at some distance above its mouth, leaves them at full liberty to pursue their depredations by making weirs and dams across the river under the pretence of catching eels and whitefish, and do almost totally obstruct the passage of the salmon up the same, and when the waters of the river are very low (as was the case last season) few or none escape: and thereby cut off a very material source of supply to the back settlers. Your Memorialists greatly fear that the salmon meeting with such difficulties in ascending the river, will abandon the same, and take some other course. They therefore pray that Your Honorable House will be pleased to take this subject into Your Consideration, and extend the provisions of the salmon laws in the Township of Sidney.

And Your Memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Sidney, 12th March, 1817.

(Signed) ALEX'R McDONELL, and others.

Mr. Nichol, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved that the Petition of Hannah Frey, of the Township of Niagara, be now read, which was granted, and the Petition read:—

To the Honorable the House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Memorial of Mrs. Hannah Frey, of the Township of Niagara, respectfully showeth:—

That the husband of Your Memorialist, Captain Bernard Frey, a half pay officer, who although about the age of sixty years, volunteered his services during the late war, and was killed by a cannon shot on the twenty-first day of November, 1812, in the Town of Niagara.

Your Memorialist, independent of the irreparable loss of a tender husband, has suffered many privations from the operation of the contending armies, wherefore Your Memorialist humbly prays that Your Honorable House will be pleased to take her situation into consideration, and grant her that relief which widows of Militia Officers who fell during the late war have experienced by becoming pensioners.

And Your Memorialist shall ever pray.
Niagara, 29th February, 1817.

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Magistrates of the District of Niagara, humbly sheweth:

That Your Petitioners, in behalf of themselves and the District of Niagara at large, have been put to great inconvenience from the want of a sufficient bridge at the mouth of the Chippawa River in said district; the former one having been destroyed during the late war, and although one was rebuilt last Winter by the Military Government, which is both inconvenient and inadequate to the public use from its situation and from its passing through a Military Post.

Your Petitioners beg leave to state that another bridge of the proper construction and at the proper place has last Autumn been in part built by the advances of a few individuals. Still, the Statute Labour with the aid of the District Treasury from its present poverty (having a Gaol and Court House to erect) are neither able to finish this bridge nor make good the advances thereon.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that Your Honorable House in the present Session will be pleased to grant such a sum of money for the above purpose as to you may seem meet, and Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

By order of the Court.

The Session of the Provincial Legislature having been protracted by an unusual interruption of business at its commencement, your longer absence from your respective avocations must be too great a sacrifice for the objects which may remain to occupy your attention.

I have therefore come to permit you to return to your homes, and close the Session.

It is the will and pleasure of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor that this Provincial Parliament be prorogued until Saturday, the 17th day of May next, to be then and here held; and this Provincial Parliament is accordingly prorogued till Saturday the Seventeenth day of May next.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY, UPPER CANADA.

THURSDAY, 5th February, 1818.

The House met.

At two o'clock the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, Mr. Lee, brought down the commands of His Honor, the Administrator, for the immediate attendance of the Speaker and the House at the Bar of the Legislative Council Chamber.

Mr. Speaker and the Members present then went up to the Legislative Council Chamber, and returned.

Prayers were read. Mr. Speaker then reported that His Honor had been pleased to open the Session with a Speech from the Throne, of which, to prevent mistakes, he had obtained a copy.

Ordered, that it be read, and it was read as follows:

Honorable Gentleman of the Legislative Council, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

The temporary administration of the Government having developed upon me, I have called you together in general Assembly at the usual season, to devise and enact laws for the peace, welfare and good government of the Province.

No change appears to have taken place since your last Session in the state of His Majesty's health.

The melancholy death of Her Royal Highness, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, in circumstances of peculiar interest, has disappointed the hope of the Nation and filled every heart with grief and sadness.

The blessings derived from the illustrious house which it was fondly hoped that amiable Princess was destined to continue, have not been limited to the British Isles, but extended to the remotest bounds of the Empire, and in an especial manner have been felt in this fostered Colony. The expression of its sorrow will be unfeigned and universal.

His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, has been graciously pleased to devote the proceeds of the estates vested in His Majesty under the provisions of the Statute to declare certain persons therein described Aliens, to compensate the loss of individuals by the invasion of the enemy.

To carry into effect the gracious intention of His Royal Highness, some further legislative provision may be required.

The Commissioners appointed to meet the Commissioners of Lower Canada, to form a Provisional Agreement, in relation to the Revenue arising from Imports from Lower Canada into this Province, have reported their proceedings, which will be submitted to your confirmation.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

The accounts of the expenditure of the last year will be laid before you by the proper officers, with an estimate of what may be required for the support of the Civil Government for the current year.

Honorable Gentlemen and Gentlemen:

His Majesty's Government, having countenanced a migration from the United Kingdom to the Provinces of Lower Canada and Upper Canada, it is expected that great benefit will result to this Colony from the accession of an industrious and loyal population, and I recommend it to your consideration how far it may be expedient to assist the emigrants by providing the means to defray the expense of the location and grant of land bestowed upon them by His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, in His Majesty's name.

The accommodation for His Majesty's Representative, for the public offices, and for the legislative and judicial authorities at this seat of Government was heretofore considered, and an annual sum, liberal in proportion to the revenue at that time, was voted to accumulate for the purpose of rendering that accommodation more suitable.

The pressure of the war induced the Legislature to divert that fund to the immediate defence of the Province. I submit to you the propriety of replacing the sum so accumulated, with an increase at the same rate to this time: and how far circumstances may justify the augmentation of the annual instalment and immediate measure for effecting the object.

You will of course advert to the laws expired or about to expire, and revive or continue such as may appear to be necessary to the welfare of the Province. In all which may tend to that object you may rely upon my hearty support.

Mr. McMartin, seconded by Mr. Nellis, moved that Messrs. Robinson, Cameron, Fraser, VanKoughnet, and McDonell be a Committee to draft an Address in answer to His Honor, the Administrator's, Speech to both Houses, which was ordered.

The House then adjourned.

Friday, 6th February, 1818.

The House met. Prayers were read. The minutes of yesterday were read.

The Clerk informed the Speaker that James Durand, Esquire, Member for Wentworth, and Richard Hatt, Esquire, Member for Halton, had been sworn in before the Commissioners appointed for that purpose, and those gentlemen, being introduced by Messrs. McMartin and Nellis, took their seats.

Mr. Robinson, first named of the Committee to draft an Address to His Honor the Administrator in answer to his Speech at the opening of the Session, reported a draft, which was ordered to be received and read a first time.

Mr. Robinson, seconded by Mr. McMartin, moved that the fifth Rule of the House be dispensed with, as far as relates to the answer to His Honor the Administrator's Speech, and that it be now read a second time, which was ordered, and the Address was read the second time.

Mr. Robinson, seconded by Mr. Van Koughnet, moved that this House do now resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole, to take into consideration the answer to His Honor the Administrator's Speech, which was ordered, and Mr. McMartin took the Chair of the Committee.

The House resumed. Mr. McMartin reported progress, and had leave to sit again to-morrow.

Ordered that the Report be received.

Mr. McDonell gave notice that he will on Monday next move for leave to bring in a Bill to assess the lands of absentees or persons residing out of this Province, and for rendering them liable to do Statute Labour on the highways.

Mr. Robinson gave notice that, on Tuesday next, he will move for the House to go into Committee, to take into consideration the Contingent Expenses of last Session.

Mr. Fraser gave notice that he will, on Monday next, move for leave to bring in a Bill to regulate the practice of Physic and Surgery in this Province.

The House then adjourned.

Saturday, 7th February, 1818.

Mr. Van Koughnet gave notice that he will, on Tuesday next, move for leave to bring in a Bill to regulate shop licenses.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the Address to His Honor the Administrator was read a third time, passed and signed by the Speaker as follows:

To His Honor Samuel Smith, Esq., Administrator of the Government of the Province of Upper Canada, etc., etc., etc.

May it please Your Honor:

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled, beg leave to offer to Your Honor our sincere congratulations upon your accession to the Government of this Province, and to return our humble thanks for your gracious Speech from the Throne.

It fills us with the deepest sorrow that, besides informing us of His Majesty's lamented indisposition, which we hear with undiminished concern, it has been the painful task of Your Honor to communicate an event so afflicting as the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, in circumstances peculiarly interesting. Having ever equally participated in this remote Colony with the most favored part of the British Empire in the blessings derived from the illustrious House, which we fondly hoped would in the descendants of that amiable Princess, have transmitted its virtue and its glory to the latest posterity, we seize this first opportunity of testifying in the name of that portion of His Majesty's Subjects whom we represent, their sincere sympathy with the deep distress, which, on this melancholy event, has overspread every part of his Dominions.

Your Honor's communication to us of the intention of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent to apply the proceeds of the estates vested in His Majesty under the provisions of the Statute to declare certain persons therein described aliens, to compensate the loss of individuals by the invasion of the enemy, affords us a strong and gratifying proof of the gracious consideration of His Royal Highness towards those of His Majesty's faithful subjects who suffered in the late contest: and we shall feel it a pleasing duty to concur in any legislative provision that may be necessary to give to such benevolent intentions their fullest effect.

The Report of the Commissioners appointed on the part of this Province to meet those of Lower Canada, for the purpose of forming a Provisional Agreement, relative to the Revenue, shall receive our best consideration. We shall carefully examine the Accounts of last year's expenditure, and give the estimate for the support of the Civil Government for the current year its due consideration.

We heartily concur with Your Honor in the expectation that great benefit will result to this Colony from the accession of an industrious and loyal population from the United Kingdom, and learn with pleasure the countenance given by His Majesty's Government to the migration of this description of persons, in whose behalf we feel a most lively interest, and shall take into our consideration what Your Honor has recommended upon this subject.

Knowing the great inconveniences that have been hitherto experienced, and are now felt more sensibly than ever, for the want of accommodation for His Majesty's Representative, for the Public Offices, and the Legislative and Judicial Authorities at the Seat of Government, we shall certainly take into consideration the expediency of replacing the sum which by the annual appropriation of former years had already accumulated to a considerable amount, when the pressure of the war induced the Legislature to divert it to purposes of more absolute necessity, and of making such further provision as our means may enable us for effecting this object.

We will attend to such laws as have expired or are about to expire, and cheerfully concur in reviving or continuing such as may appear to be necessary; and we beg to assure Your Honor of our entire confidence in Your Honor's desire to promote all measures that have for their object the prosperity of the Province.

Commons House of Assembly, 7th February, 1818.

ALLAN McLEAN, Speaker.

Mr. McMartin, seconded by Mr. Burnham, moved that Messrs. Durand, Casey and Hatt be a Committee to inform His Honor the Administrator that this House has agreed to an Address in answer to his most gracious Speech, and to request to know when His Honor will be pleased to receive the House with the same. To the Honorable the Commons of Upper Canada, in their Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of Robert Cartwright, one of the sons, and Devisee in Fee under the last will and testament of the Honorable Richard Cartwright, late of Kingston, in the Midland District of the Province of Upper Canada, deceased.

Respectfully Sheweth: That the said Richard Cartwright, some time previous to his decease, had verbally agreed to surrender to His Majesty, in consideration of the sum of Seven Hundred and Fifty Pounds, Lawful Money of Upper Canada, a certain Lot or parcel of land in the Town of Kingston aforesaid, known or described in the map or survey of the said Town as Lot Two Hundred and Sixty three in Barrack Street. That the sanction of the Right Honorable the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury had not been obtained to the said sale previous to the death of the said Richard Cartwright, but hath since been received.

That the said Richard Cartwright, a short time before his death, duly made and published his last will and testament in writing, bearing date the eighteenth day of May, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifteen, executed and attested in such manner as by law required for passing real estate, did amongst other things give and devise unto Your Petitioner, His Heirs and Assigns for ever, the said lot Number two Hundred and sixty three, on the North Side of Barrack Street, in the said Town of Kingston, containing two fifths of an acre, to hold to your Petitioner, His Heirs and assigns for ever.

That the Lot or parcel of land, being of material consequence to His Majesty's Government for Military purposes, His Excellency the Commander in Chief hath called upon the representatives of the said Richard Cartwright, deceased, to carry into effect the original agreement hereinbefore particularly mentioned.

That Your Petitioner, as Devisee in Fee of the said Lot, is sensible of the propriety of the said Lot being surrendered to His Majesty on the terms suggested, but being a Minor is incapable of carrying into effect the said contract without the consent of the Legislature.

Your Petitioner therefore respectfully prays that a Bill may pass Your Honorable House, authorizing Your Petitioner to surrender the said Lot to His Majesty on the consideration money being paid to the Hon. the Rev. John Strachan, D.D., and Alexander Thomas Dobbs, Captain in His Majesty's Royal Navy, Executors of the Last Will and Testament of the said Richard Cartwright, deceased, to be placed by them to the account of your Petitioner, and to be by them paid over to him on Your Petitioner attaining the age of twenty-one years.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray. Robert Cartwright, John Strachan, Alexr. Dobbs.

Mr. Fraser, seconded by Mr. Cameron, moved that the Petition of sundry Freeholders of the Midland District be now read. Which was granted, and the Petition read.

To the Honorable the Legislative Council and House of Assembly in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Freeholders of the Midland District,

Humbly Sheweth: That one of the main public roads leading from Kingston to York, where the same leads from No. 11 road in Fredericksburgh, additional to Adolphustown Court House, is very crooked, so that His Majesty's Subjects have to travel nearly four miles, when, if the said road should be altered agreeably to a route actually surveyed, the distance would not exceed two miles and a half, as will appear by a small map accompanying this, whereon the old road and the contemplated one are delineated.

Wherefore Your Petitioners pray that Your Honorable Body will be pleased to pass a law to alter said road, commencing where the said road intersects the No. 11 road in Fredericksburgh additional, and continue the same with a straight course, agreeably to the plan laid down in the before mentioned map, to Adolphustown Court House.

Your Petitioners as in duty bound, Will ever pray.
Midland District. (Signed) NENON HAMS, and sixty-two others.

Samuel Smith, Administrator.

The Administrator transmits to the House of Assembly a copy of the Provisional Agreement, entered into at Montreal on the 31st of May last, by the Commissioners of the Province of Upper and Lower Canada, relative to duties and drawbacks; also a copy of an Agreement between the said Commissioners relative to the amount of duties which accrued to Upper Canada from the 1st of January, 1816, to the 1st of January, 1817; together with a copy of a representation of the Commissioners of this Province to His Excellency the Governor-in-Chief, and of the reply thereto, relative to the claims of Upper Canada upon the Lower Province, for drawbacks previous to the 1st of January, 1816.

Government House, York,

S. S.

Provisional Articles of Agreement entered into at Montreal, the thirty-first day of May, in the year of Our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and seventeen by and between the following persons, Commissioners of Lower Canada, viz. Thomas McCord, Austin Cuivillier, Denis Benjamin Viger, and Samuel Sherwood, Esquires: and the following persons, Commissioners of Upper Canada, viz. The Honorable William Claus, The Honorable Thomas Clark, and the Honorable Allan McLean, relative to duties and drawbacks to be allowed to each Province respectively.

Article 1. That the Legislature of Upper Canada will not impose any duty whatever on goods, wares, or merchandise imported in Lower Canada, and passing into Upper Canada, during the continuance of this Agreement; but will allow and admit the Legislature of Lower Canada to impose and levy such duties on such goods, wares and merchandise as they may judge expedient, other than goods imported from Upper Canada.

Article 2. That during the continuance of this Agreement the Province of Upper Canada shall be entitled to receive annually one-fifth part of all the duties (exclusive of the expense of collection) which shall be raised, levied and collected in Lower Canada under and by virtue of an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to establish a fund toward further defraying the charges of the Administration of Justice and support of the Civil Government within the Province of Quebec in America," and also one-fifth part of all duties (exclusive of expense of collection) which the Legislature of Lower Canada have already imposed or may hereafter impose on goods, wares or merchandise imported, or to be imported, into Lower Canada during the continuance of this Agreement. Provided, nevertheless, that this Agreement shall not be construed to extend to duties laid upon goods sold at auction in Lower Canada as aforesaid.

Article 3. That the operation of this Agreement shall be considered to commence on the first day of January last, and shall be in force until the first day of July, which will be in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

Whereas by an Act of the Provincial Parliament of Lower Canada, passed on the eighth day of March last, intituled "An Act to authorize the advance of a certain sum of money for the causes therein mentioned to the Province of Upper Canada." it is among other things enacted that in addition to the sum of twenty thousand pounds appropriated for Upper Canada such further sum should be allowed as might be agreed upon by Commissioners; therefore we, the subscribing Commissioners for the two Provinces, have agreed that there is due to Upper Canada from the first of January, 1816, to the first of January, 1817, the sum of £1,585, Currency, in addition to the said sum of twenty thousand pounds, and that the same shall be without prejudice to any claims which Upper Canada may have for any arrearages due previous to the year 1816.

To His Excellency, Sir John Carfrae Sherbrook, Governor-in-Chief, &c., &c., &c.

May it please Your Excellency:—

We, the undersigned Commissioners from Upper Canada, beg leave to submit to Your Excellency for your consideration the following circumstances that have occurred in investigating the claims of Upper Canada with the Commissioners appointed for the Province of Lower Canada.

First, That by an Act, passed by the Parliament of Lower Canada in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's Reign, chapter the first, no account of duties accruing to the Province of Upper Canada under the said Statute have been credited for a period from the thirteenth of February, 1813, till the 31st of December following, whereby the sum of £5,177 15s. 4½d. became due to the Province of Upper Canada, and is still unpaid.

Under the said Statute of the fifty-third year of His Majesty's Reign, chapter I., no account whatever of port wine was taken at the Coteau du Lac from the 13th of February, 1813, till the 25th April, 1814. The quantity therefore cannot be ascertained exactly. The mode adopted to acquire the quantity is by taking the proportion of the year 1815, when port wine was distinguished from other wines correctly.

Third, The Statute of Lower Canada, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's Reign, chapter II., imposing an ad valorem duty of three per cent. on goods imported by non-residents of Lower Canada, took effect the first of October, 1813. No account of goods under this Statute has been taken at the Coteau du Lac during its continuance except the sum of £843 6s. 10d., in the year 1815.

Fourth, The said Statute of the fifty-third of the King, chap. XI., imposed a duty of 2½ per cent. ad valorem, and took effect the first October, 1813, without any account of goods being taken at the Coteau du Lac till the twenty-fifth April, 1814.

Fifth, All Military purchases made by the Commissariat in Lower Canada since the first October, 1813, under the foregoing Statute were subject to the ad valorem duty. No account of such goods passing into Upper Canada has been rendered to the Inspector at Coteau du Lac, although repeatedly required by the Inspector, as appears by the correspondence herewith.

The Commissioners from Lower Canada, considering that [they] had no power to enter into the foregoing claims of the Province of Upper Canada, the same is respectfully submitted to Your Excellency as per statement annexed.

From Your Excellency's most obedient and very humble servants.

Castle of St. Louis.

Quebec, 10th June, 1817.

Gentlemen: His Excellency, the Governor-in-Chief, commands me to acquaint you that he has not failed to give due attention to the statement and other documents which you transmitted to him relating to the claims of Upper Canada for duties to a large amount collected in Lower Canada in the years 1813 and 1814, on goods passing into Upper Canada, but for which no allowance has been made to that Province.

Of the justice of some of these claims His Excellency has been convinced on the first view of the subject, but they are of such an extensive and complicated nature that he is desirous of receiving further information on the subject, both from the Inspector General of Provincial Accounts and from the Inspector at Coteau du Lac; after which he would still consider it necessary to take the advice of the Executive Council on the matter, and perhaps to submit some of the claims which your statement embraces to the Legislature at their next Session.

Under these circumstances His Excellency is convinced you will see the impossibility of your receiving an immediate decision, but His Excellency directs me to assure you of his disposition to give a favorable consideration to the subject you have brought before him, and of his desire to bring it to as speedy an issue as may be consistent with a due regard to the interest of this Province and a proper and regular course of proceeding.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, Your most obedient servant,

ANDREW W. COCHRAN,
Secretary.

Mr. Speaker: The Hon. the Legislative Council have appointed a Committee of two members to confer with the Committee of the Commons House of Assembly, on the part of His Honor the Administrator's Speech at the opening of the present Session, which relates to the erection of Public Buildings in the Town of York, in the Legislative Council Chamber, this day, at the rising of this House.

Legislative Council Chamber,
18th February, 1818.

WM. D. POWELL,
Speaker.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. Cameron, moved that Messrs. Jones, Robinson, Hatt and Crysler be a Committee on the part of this House to confer with a Committee of the Hon. the Legislative Council on that part of His Honor the Administrator's Speech at the opening of the present Session, which relates to the erection of Public Buildings in the Town of York, which was ordered.

Mr. Speaker then read to the House a communication from the Commissioners appointed to provide for the accommodation of the Provincial Legislature.

The Commissioners named in an Act intituled "An Act to provide for the accommodation of the Provincial Legislature at its next Session," beg leave to report that having on the 13th October, 1817, contracted with the Attorney or Trustee of William Firth, Esq., for the purchase of the House now occupied by the Legislature, at the price of Eleven Hundred Pounds, currency, and the titles being laid before the Attorney General, it was discovered that in the re-lease executed by Richard Duncan, Esq., the original Grantee of one of the lots attached to the Premises, the name of James Ross, the purchaser, was inadvertently inserted in place of Richard Duncan the seller, who guarantees the title in himself, and covenants to maintain that of James Ross under him.

The Commissioners beg further to report that not aware at the time that the contract was made, nor for some time afterwards, of any error or defect in the title, did, in consequence of the lateness of the Season, direct some necessary temporary repairs to be made, amounting to Thirty Pounds, Four Shillings and Fourpence, currency, which sum has been paid by His Honor the Administrator's Warrants on the Receiver General. But the Commissioners have not paid the price or executed the instruments of conveyance desirous of the sanction of an order of the Honorable Assembly to that effect.

The Commissioners have also the honor to lay before the Honorable Assembly the copy of a letter from William Warren Baldwin, Esq., to the Honorable John McGill, Esq., dated the 11th instant, respecting the house and premises at present occupied by the Provincial Legislature.

JOHN MCGILL,
THOS. RIDOUT,
Commissioners.

The Hon. Speaker, Commons
House of Assembly.

YORK, 11th February, 1818.

Dear Sir: Having written to Mr. Duncan, both the Eastern District and to Schenectady, and not having received any answer from him, it will, I fear, be quite out of my power to remedy the error in his deeds, to which the Attorney General raises the objection. It is a mere clerical error, and though the objection may be technical, I really think it not one to raise any apprehension in the minds of the purchaser; however, be that as it may, it is not in my power to remedy it; all I can say is I am yet willing to sell the two acres with the buildings for the Eleven Hundred Pounds Provincial Currency, if you think proper to accept the title as I can give it; if not, I will sell you the front acre with the buildings upon it for One Thousand Pounds, in which the title is without error, as I believe, and leave the other acre in the rear out of the bargain altogether. The Purchase money, however, you will please to observe remains distinct from the rest. One year's rent will be due at the end of the present Session.

My offer will stand thus:

The Petition of the undersigned, Inhabitants of the Western Part of the Midland District and Eastern part of the Newcastle District.

Most Humbly Sheweth: That Your Petitioners beg leave to renew the application which was made at the last Session of the Provincial Parliament, for the organization of a New District, to be composed of the western part of the Midland District and Eastern part of the Newcastle District. Your Petitioners, in making the present application, beg leave to call your attention to the material inconvenience and expense which a numerous population are subject to by reason of the present extent of the Midland District, arising from the circumstance of having to perform a journey of from sixty to ninety miles when required to attend Court, a grievance which calls loudly for redress.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly solicit that you will be pleased to authorize the establishment of a new District, to be composed of the Townships of Sydney, Rawdon, Thurlow, Huntingdon, Mohawk Tract, Hungerford, Sophiasburgh, and Ameliasburg detached from the Western part of the Midland District, and the Townships of Murray, Percy, and Seymour, detached from the Eastern part of the Newcastle District; which District so formed shall have for its Metropolis the Town of Belleville.

Your Petitioners further beg leave to remark as an important evidence of the propriety of the proposed measure, that the population of most of the Townships herein described is at present very numerous, and is augmenting in such a ratio as to justify a belief that a District formed agreeable to the present suggestions will possess the means of defraying all expenses incident to such establishment.

Your Petitioners, submitting the premises to your consideration, humbly hope you will be pleased to grant the requisite redress.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(Signed) JOHN W. MYERS, and Two Hundred and Ten others.

January 16th, 1818.

I do certify that it is my wish, and, as far as I have heard, the general desire of the inhabitants of Murray, to have a new District formed, and that the Court House and Gaol should be erected at Belleville, in the Western part of the Midland District.

EDWD. HATFULL.

To the Hon. the Members of the Commons House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the undersigned, Inhabitants of the District of Newcastle, Humbly Sheweth: That Your Petitioners are informed that the Inhabitants of the Western part of the Midland District and the Eastern part of the Newcastle District intend petitioning this Hon. House at their next Session for a division of the aforesaid Districts, in order to form a new District; that it is intended, as your Petitioners are further informed, to take away from the said Newcastle District the Townships of Cramahe, Murray, Percy, and Seymour. At present the District of Newcastle consists of only eight inhabited townships, three of which are very thinly settled, to wit, Darlington, Clark and Percy. If the above mentioned petition should be carried into effect, it will take from the District of Newcastle more than one-third of its population, which at present is much too thinly inhabited, and the assessments insufficient to discharge the demands upon the Treasury of the District. The whole amount of the inhabitants, by the Town Clerk's Returns of 1817, being four thousand and sixty-three. The Townships of Cramahe, Murray and Percy (Seymour not being settled) have a population of fifteen hundred and forty-one. Your Petitioners further state that the Court House is within half a mile of the Centre of the District, therefore nearly as convenient for the Eastern as the Western part of the District.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that this Hon. House will take their case into their most serious consideration, and reject the prayer of the above mentioned petition, as being injurious to the welfare and prosperity of the District of Newcastle.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.
November 11th, 1817.

(Signed) JOHN BURN, and One Hundred and Eighty-five others.

To the Hon. the Commons House of Assembly and Legislative Council of the Province of Upper Canada, in Parliament assembled:

Your Petitioners respectfully Represent: That the Boatable waters of the Otter Creek emptying into Lake Erie have long been anticipated as one day proving a great source of accommodation and advantage to the subjects of a considerable District of this Province, as its banks are extensively clothed with excellent pine timber, which does not abound in the more western parts of this Province; and the interior Settlements appearing now to have arrived to that point of improvement as to call up the advantages to be derived from an open and uninterrupted navigation from the head waters thereof; and, further, that the public opinion of the utility of this object is strongly indicated by the attempts already on foot of private individuals to raise a sum of money by subscription to cut away obstructions of driftwood; and they hoping to obtain a partial yet immediate benefit by floating lumber, flour, etc., from the Township of Norwich, and part of the extensive settlement on Talbot Street, to the waters of the Lake. We therefore feel encouraged thus to apply to the fostering hand of our Legislative and Executive authorities to aid the laudable endeavors of those spirited individuals by appropriating about three or four hundred pounds to this important object, which sum is supposed by experienced persons, who have explored the obstructions, if judiciously expended, in addition to the said private subscriptions to be adequate to the completion of the work. From our advantageous situation at or near the mills of Reuben Haight, in Norwich, where the stream becomes of sufficient magnitude to ensure the complete success of this desirable object.

Which is submitted with respect and deference by the undersigned Petitioners.

(Signed) PETER LOSSING, and Sixty others.

Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved that the Petition of sundry inhabitants of the London, Gore and Niagara Districts be now read and referred to the Committee on Petitions, which was ordered, and the Petition read as follows:

To the Honorable the Legislative Council of the Province of Upper Canada, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the undersigned, Inhabitants of Niagara, Gore, and London Districts,

Respectfully Showeth: That notwithstanding the existing salutary legislative provisions to regulate the intercourse between His Majesty's subjects of the aforesaid Districts and the six Nations of Indians on the Grand River, there are many causes of complaint and uneasiness on account of the frequent introduction of ardent spirits among this people, and advantages taken of their intemperance, as well as on the part of the Indians, their frequent depredations on each other and on the property of His Majesty's subjects, but more especially the repeated instances of horrid murder committed among themselves, generally through the baneful effects of intoxication and by their long intercourse with white people, acquiring ideas and habits from the less moral part of the community, which has produced a laxity in their former modes of regulating and punishing offenders: so that in our view their present situation calls loudly for some further legislative interference, and so far to establish civil authority among them that while their interest and welfare are guarded by every possible check upon the demoralizing introduction of strong drink, and to protect them in their rights against imposition from those who deal with them on the one hand that, on the other, the operation of civil laws may be so adapted to their present situation, as to render the enormous crimes among them cognizable and duly punished according to the demerits of the offender.

Which your Petitioners respectfully submit with due deference to the consideration of Your Honorable Body, and, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(Signed) PETER LOSSING, and Thirty-two others.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. Hall, moved that the Petition of Thomas Bowlby, Esq., be now read, and referred to the Committee on Petitions, which was ordered, and the petition read as follows:

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of Thomas Bowlby, of Woodhouse, in the London District, Esquire, Humbly Showeth: That during the last year large quantities of the Plaster of Paris have been taken from the beds of the said plaster which lie along the shores and near the Grand River or Ouse to the mouth of that river on Lake Erie, and from thence exported to the ports of Cleveland, Erie, Cataraqui, and Buffalo in the United States of America.

Your Petitioner very respectfully begs leave to represent that laying a duty on the exportation of the said Plaster of Paris to the ports of the United States appears necessary to prevent too great quantities of it from being sent out of the Province, and that it is a very fair source from which to increase the Provincial Revenue.

Wherefore Your Petitioner prays that Your Honorable House may be pleased to enact such laws and regulations respecting the same as in Your wisdom may seem meet.

And Your Petitioner will ever pray.

(Signed) THOMAS BOWLBY.

To the Honorable the House of Representatives of the Province of Upper Canada, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of Billa Flint, of Elizabethtown, in the District of Johnstown, Merchant:

Most Humbly Showeth, That Your Honors' Petitioner has had twenty-one shop and tavern licenses, and has paid the duties and conformed to the regulations of the law relative thereto without any charge of misconduct.

That he has lately extended his buildings and augmented his supplies with a view of continuing his line of business, but at the late Special Session held in Brockville, Your Honors' Petitioner applied to be approved of an Innkeeper, in order for license, and tendered indisputable securities to conform to the laws in that respect, when he was refused, whereby he is left without the profit of his extensive accommodations, with seven hundred pounds' worth of stock on hand, a large quantity of hay, oats and other articles necessary for that purpose, without the liberty of disposing of them, as he has done heretofore, whereby he is very much injured, and knows no reasonable or sufficient cause why he should be refused, and many others approved of who have not the means of accommodation of travellers and the public equal to himself.

And he further begs leave to state to Your Honorable Body that it is lamentable truth that several who have emigrated to this Province from the United States since the War, have been and still are approved of, and licensed to keep public houses; and your honest Petitioner, who has done his duty as a subject so many years in support of the laws and in defence of the Provinces, is denied an equal privilege of contributing to His Majesty's Revenue under the approved plan of voluntary contribution, and is prevented from following his accustomed business for which he had made such ample provision.

Wherefore he most humbly prays of Your Honors to take into your wise consideration the Acts relative to Licenses for retailing Spirituous Liquors, and make such amendments as in your wisdom shall seem meet for the support of His Majesty's revenue, the accommodation of the Public, and the rights of individuals.

And, as in duty bound, he shall ever pray.

Elizabethtown, 26th January, 1818.

BILLA FLINT.

To the Honorable the Legislative Council and Commons House of Assembly of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Proprietors of the Steamboat Frontenac.

Humbly Showeth: That Your Petitioners have built a Steamboat at heavy expense, intended to ply from Kingston to the ports of York, Niagara, Queens-ton, and head of the Lake.

That the facilities afforded to the Commerce of the Province and comforts of the inhabitants are thereby manifestly augmented, but they find by an Act of the Legislature, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His Majesty, King George the Third, a duty of three pence per ton on the admeasurement of every vessel is exacted by His Majesty's Collectors at the ports of Kingston, York and Niagara.

That of vessels navigated by steam, as so great a proportion of their tonnage is necessarily occupied by the machinery and taken up as cabin for the accommodation of travellers, this duty, therefore, falls proportionately more heavy than on any other description of craft.

That should the duty be exacted, it would not only disappoint the views, as well as much injure the interest of your Petitioners, but would also tend to diminish advantages which might otherwise accrue to the Public from this improved mode of navigation, for it could hardly be expected that Your Petitioners would allow the vessel to touch twice during the same trip at any one port if attended with so much additional expense.

That Your Petitioners, relying with perfect confidence on your earnest desire to promote every enterprise tending to the improvement of this most growing colony, humbly submit to the wisdom of Your Honorable House the propriety of remitting the tonnage duty on the Steamboat Frontenac.

And, as in duty bound, Your Petitioners, will ever pray.

(Signed) THOS. MARKLAND, and twenty others.

To the Honorable the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada. The Memorial of the Subscribers, Humbly Sheweth: That the Village in front of the Township of Ernesttown, in the Midland District, is a very eligible site for a town; that a part of it has been laid out by Peter Davis, the proprietor thereof, and surveyed by John Ryder, Deputy Surveyor, into Town lots and Streets, that William Fairfield, late of said Ernesttown, Esq., deceased, in and by his last Will and testament authorized his Executors to lay out in Town Lots another and adjoining part of the said Village, of which he died seized; that other owners of land in said Village are disposed to have their lands laid out and surveyed into regular Town Lots and Streets, the confirmation of such survey will be a public accommodation: that the said Village has a good Harbour which is already established as a Port of Entry and Clearance, with commodious ship yard for the building of vessels, and a good safe shore for the construction of wharves for the loading and unloading of vessels. That from the situation of the said Village upon the Lake, and in relation to a populous and productive country around it, the produce of which will naturally be thence exported to market in exchange for goods, wares and merchandise there imported, it seems destined to be a place of very considerable commercial business. That it already contains an Episcopal Church, the Meeting place of a Presbyterian Congregation, although they have not yet a Church erected there, an Academy, a Post Office, a Social Library, Inns for the accommodation of Travellers, Stores and Shops and is increasing in buildings, population and business. That it will essentially promote the increase and prosperity of the Village to constitute it a Town, to provide for the confirmation of the surveys of it into Town Lots and Streets, and a Market place; and to grant it a Police similar to that of Kingstown and other Towns.

Wherefore the Memorialists respectfully pray that an Act may be passed, constituting that part of the Township of Ernesttown containing the said Village, to wit: Lots Number six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven and twelve including the broken fronts of said lots and the waters adjoining thereto, into a Town by the name of Ernestville; provided also that the aforesaid survey of the said Davey's land into Town Lots and Streets, and such survey of the land aforesaid of the late William Fairfield, Esq., as may hereafter be made by a sworn surveyor, laying the same out into Town Lots and Streets, with the consent of His Executors, and also any similar survey or surveys of lands in the said Township into Town lots and Streets, and a Market Place, and shall be made by a Sworn Surveyor, with the consent of the owner or owners thereof, may be reported to the Court of Sessions in and for the Midland District, at any Term or Terms thereof, and when accepted by said Court, and recorded by the Clerk of the Peace the same shall respectively be established and the Market place so established shall be for the use of a Public Market for ever; and the Town Streets so established shall be Public Highways to be opened for the performance of Statute Labour thereon as the said Court at any Term thereof shall order; and granting to the Magistrate of the Court of Sessions such authority to establish a Market, and make, ordain and carry into effect Police Rules, regulations and assessments for said town as they have by law with regard to the Town of Kingston.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Which was carried.

Mr. Fraser, seconded by Mr. Robinson, moved that the Petition of the Honorable the Reverend John Strachan be now read. Which was agreed to, and the Petition was read and referred.

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of John Strachan, D.D.

Humbly Sheweth: That Your Petitioner has been nearly twenty years engaged in the education of the youth of this Province, and with a degree of success which Your Honorable House can now sufficiently appreciate.

That he has been frequently applied to by the parents of the pupils, not only to advise them as to their future destination, but to assist in settling them in the world.

That next to the Professions of the law and commerce, the Church offers a growing provision for the young men of the province, but, from the nature and length of the preparation, almost entirely beyond their reach, as their parents are unable to support them so long unemployed, this difficulty operates in some instances so grievously that Your Petitioner was induced to educate several of his scholars for the Church at his own particular charge.

That Your Petitioner, convinced from experience that the Church might be supplied with respectable clergymen brought up and educated among us, and feeling his means inadequate to continue, much less to multiply the sacrifices he was then making, did, in May, 1812, represent to the Lord Bishop at Quebec the great hardships sustained by this Province from the want of clergymen, and the still greater hardship to the inhabitants of having this honorable profession in a manner shut up from their children, and given to strangers; requesting His Lordship to lay the case before the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign parts, and to state the propriety of making a yearly allowance to a limited number of young men from the age of eighteen to twenty-three, the period of Ordination, the money to be repaid if any of them changed their minds during their studies, offering at the same time to conduct their education and give them the use of his library without putting them to any expense.

That the Lord Bishop of Quebec entered warmly into the views of Your Petitioner, and in 1815 procured from the Society a grant of two hundred pounds per annum for four students in Divinity, accompanied with an expectation that as their funds were not large, and depended greatly upon annual donations, that the Legislature of Upper Canada would in a short time relieve them from this burden, by extending the provision and supplying the same from the Provincial Revenue, the more especially as the Society contributes one hundred pounds Sterling per annum towards the support of every clergyman that settles in the Province.

That in England Young men destined for the Church receive aid in the prosecution of their studies from the foundations of their different Colleges, but in this country there are no such resources, and while in other professions a young man commences at twenty-one, in this he must be twenty-three.

That a small appropriation, sufficient for a number of young men equal to the number of districts, in addition to those who at present enjoy the bounty of the Society, would fill the Province in a few years with a respectable Clergy, natives of the country, and particularly qualified, from their knowledge of the manners and customs of the people, to be extensively useful.

That Your Petitioner will most willingly pay the same attention to the studies of such young men as he does to those assisted by the Society; being sufficiently rewarded by the consciousness of doing good to the Province in thus promoting their views.

Wherefore Your Petitioner entreats Your Honorable House to fulfil during the present session the reasonable expectation of the venerable society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign parts, by extending your patronage to such young men as may be desirous of studying Divinity, in such a way and on such terms and conditions as in your wisdom it may seem meet.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

York, 25th February, 1818.

JOHN STRACHAN.

To the Honorable the House of Assembly of Upper Canada, &c.

The Petition and representation of the Magistrates for the Western District, in General Quarter Sessions assembled.

Most respectfully sheweth: That a sum of two thousand pounds was voted by Your Honorable House for the purpose of building a Gaol and Court House in this District. That the said money was drawn for and received by William Hands, Esquire, Treasurer of the said District, and which sum, or the greater part thereof, has been laid out by the said Treasurer without the authority, and in direct contradiction to the different orders in Session herewith transmitted for the information of Your Honorable House, and which were regularly communicated to him.

As the said Treasurer does not consider himself responsible to the Magistrates for the said sum, we trust and hope that Your Honorable House will take such steps as you in your wisdom may think proper to compel the Treasurer to refund the said money, so that it may be applied under the authority of the Magistrates, for the purpose of building a Gaol and Court House in Sandwich or any other place your Honorable House may designate.

The Magistrates have only further to state that the two Members for Essex were both present when the different orders of Sessions were made, and are fully competent to give Your Honorable House every information and explanation of the motives and views of the Magistrates on this occasion.

Which is respectfully submitted.

Mr. Hall, of the Committee to acquaint the Hon. the Legislative Council that this House have adopted the amendments made by them in and to a Bill sent up from this House intituled "An Act to repeal an Act passed in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled an Act to ascertain the eligibility of persons to be returned to the House of Assembly; and also to repeal an Act passed in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled an Act to repeal and amend part of an Act passed in the thirty-fifth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled an Act to ascertain the eligibility of persons to be returned to the House of Assembly, and to make further and more effectual provision for securing the freedom and constitution of the Parliament of this Province." reported that they had done so.

Mr. Van Koughnet, of the Committee to wait with a Committee of the Legislative Council on His Honor the Administrator, and present the Joint Address of both Houses on the subject of revising and reprinting the Statutes, reported that they had done so, and that His Honor was pleased to reply thereto as follows:

Gentlemen: Equally impressed with the Legislative Council and House of Assembly with the importance and necessity of a revision of the Provincial Statutes, I shall order immediate measures to be taken for carrying into effect the object of this Address.

March, 1818.

Mr. Hatt, seconded by Mr. Hall, moved that the Petition of the Freeholders and others of the Counties of Kent and Essex, in the Western District, be now read. Which was granted, and the Petition read as follows:

To the Hon. the Commons House of Assembly in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Inhabitants of the Western District,
Humbly Sheweth: That Your Petitioners, considering the great and serious disadvantages under which the majority of them have labored these many years past, in being obliged to attend to their public duties at Sandwich from the remote parts of this populous and extensive District, beg leave to represent to Your Honorable House that a division of the said District and the removal of the Gaol and Court House from Sandwich to Amherstburgh would be highly advantageous and beneficial to the Inhabitants at large.

That Your Petitioners beg leave to set forth in the event of success in these their reasonable demands that Amherstburgh would then be placed in the very centre of the County of Essex, besides which it is the only place where materials for building can be procured at a reasonable rate.

That Your Petitioners further beg leave to remark that Sandwich is at all times surrounded with pestilential swamps and marshes, which renders it a very sickly and unwholesome place; besides the consideration of such a defenceless village, being in the neighbourhood, nay, even within gunshot of an American fortification, which, in the event of another rupture with our neighbours would make that place accessible to aggressions, as was exemplified during the last war, and subject the Public Buildings and records to certain and inevitable destruction.

That in making the contrast between the two places Your Petitioners beg leave to observe that Amherstburgh is one of the most healthy places in Upper Canada, and being fortified, and so much more distant from any American Garrison the Public Buildings and District Records would be much more secure, particularly on account of being placed immediately under the protection of His Majesty's Garrison.

That Your Petitioners, in order to add more weight to the motives above set forth, beg that Your Hon. House will take a glance at the extensive settlement now rapidly progressing in the County of Kent, extending to within eighteen miles of Port Talbot.

That should Your Honorable House not deem it expedient to cause a division of the District this season, the propriety and necessity of the measure will undoubtedly appear in the course of a very short time. Your Petitioners, notwithstanding, beg leave to urge in very strong terms the removal of the Public Buildings at this time, as a sum of money has been voted by Your Honorable House for the erection of a Gaol and Court House which has not yet been laid out.

Your Petitioners therefore pray that Your Honorable House will take the business into serious consideration, and grant a division of the District, with an authority for the erection of a Gaol and Court House at Amherstburgh.

Your Petitioners further pray, and beg leave to add, that should Your Honorable House deem it expedient to cause a division of the District, with an authority for the erection of a Gaol and Court House at Amherstburgh, that the same authority may be given for the erection of a Gaol and Court House at Chatham, in the County of Kent.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(Signed) WILLIAM McCORMICK, J.P., and 542 others.

Western District, Upper Canada,

December, 1818.

To the Honorable the Commons of Upper Canada in Parliament assembled. The Memorial of the Inhabitants of the Town of Sandwich, and other parts of the Western District.

Most Respectfully Sheweth: That the Government, at great expense, purchased a large tract of land from the Indians in the Township of Sandwich, in the County of Essex and Western District aforesaid, for the purpose of laying out a Town, and had the same laid out and surveyed as such, which Town was called Sandwich.

That a large number of Lots have been granted by Government to Individuals in the said Town of Sandwich, and considerable improvement made therein.

That by an Act of the Legislature of Upper Canada passed in the forty-first year of His Majesty's Reign, Cap. VI. it is enacted that the Courts of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the Western District shall be holden in the Town of Sandwich, and that in consequence of the said law the Courts of Justice have been invariably held in Sandwich.

That during the late War with the United States the Court House and Gaol were destroyed by the Enemy, and that by an Act of the Legislature of Upper Canada aforesaid, passed in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's Reign, Cap. VIII. it is enacted that the Court House and Gaol in the Western District aforesaid shall be rebuilt, and the sum of two thousand pounds is thereby appropriated for that purpose.

That at a Court of Quarter Sessions held at Sandwich aforesaid on the fifth day of January, 1815, it was ordered by the Magistrates then assembled that the permanent Gaol be built of brick, and a Court House above, on No. 8, in the second range of Sandwich. Richard Patterson, Esq., is requested to apply for the deed. The Gaol to be sixty by forty feet. The Managers, J. B. Baby, George Jacobs and William Hands, Esquires.

That in consequence of such order the said Managers contracted for materials and workmen for the erecting the said Buildings in the said Town of Sandwich, and they have expended nearly one-half the money so appropriated by the Legislature in paying for the said materials.

That on the presumption that the Western District aforesaid would be divided, and that Courts of Justice would be holden on the River Thames in the County of Kent, a Memorial was addressed and presented to Your Honorable House at the last Session, praying that the Courts of Justice should be holden at, and the Gaol and Court House removed to Amherstburgh or Malden, but Your Memorialists beg leave to represent to Your Honorable House that lands have not been appropriated by Government for a Town in the Township of Malden, and that there is no land in that Township fit for the laying out of a Town, except the Huron reserve, the remainder being private property and military ground.

That the Town of Amherstburgh is erected wholly on Military Ground, on a certificate from the Commanding Officer for the time being, certifying that a Lot of ground granted to the bearer thereof by order of the Commander in Chief. That no estate in fee simple is created by such certificates of grants, nor are the necessary words "heirs and assigns" expressed therein.

That Your Memorialists humbly conceive that the Township of Sandwich in any and every point of view independently of all other considerations, is a more eligible and central situation for the erection of a Court House and Gaol than Amherstburgh or Malden, and they humbly submit to the wisdom of Your Honorable House whether in the event of a War a town would not be more exposed to destruction by being contiguous to a Garrison than if removed to a considerable distance therefrom.

Your Memorialists therefore humbly pray that Your Honorable House will not pass an Act for the removal of the Gaol and Court House from Sandwich, and for building the same at Amherstburgh or Malden.

And Your Memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(Signed) ANGUS MACKINTOSH, and 308 others.

Mr. Hall, seconded by Mr. Hatt, moved that the House do now go into Committee of the whole on the subject matter of the several Petitions of the Magistrates, Freeholders and others of the Western District. Which was carried, and Mr. Howard took the Chair of the Committee.

The House resumed.

Mr. Burwell, of the Committee to carry up to His Honor the Administrator the Address of this House on the subject of Supply, reported that they had done so, and that His Honor was pleased to reply thereto as follows:

Gentlemen:—The communication from His Majesty's Government relating to the withholding the means of defraying the charges of the administration of this Government, embraces matter which I do not feel myself at liberty to communicate without the commands of His Majesty's Government; but I shall lose no time in transmitting this Address to the Secretary of State, for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure thereon.
6th March, 1818.

Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved that the House do, on to-morrow, go into Committee on His Honor the Administrator's Answer to the Address of this House on the subject of the message of Lieut. Gov. Gore, relative to supply, during the last Session of Parliament. Which was ordered.

Mr. Clench, seconded by Mr. Nellis, moved that the Petitions of Mrs. Jane Jones, Mrs. Ann Hostler, Mrs. Margaret Darby, Mrs. Margaret Rousseau, widows of the late John B. Rousseau of the Six Nations Indian Department, deceased; of the late Capt. John Jones, late of the 1st Regiment Lincoln Militia, who died from disease while a prisoner of war in the United States; and of Hermann Hostler and of George Darby, who died from disease contracted while on service as militiamen; and also the Petition of Joshua Pell, Esq., and the Petitions of several inhabitants of the District of Niagara, be now read and referred to the Committee on petitions, to be reported on by Bill or otherwise. Which was agreed to and the Petitions read as follows:

To the Honorable the House of Assembly in the Legislature assembled.

The Petition of Jane Jones of Niagara, Widow.

Humbly Sheweth: That the late husband of Your Petitioner, John Jones, was a Captain in the 1st Regiment of Lincoln Militia, was taken with many others by the Americans in the year 1813, and sent a prisoner into the United States, and died at Burlington in the State of Vermont whilst a prisoner. Your Petitioner has made frequent applications to the Militia Board in this District to be placed on the Pension List of the Province, but, for reasons to her unknown, she has not been able to succeed, although individually every member of that Board but one have given her every encouragement, but at their meetings they do nothing further. Your Petitioner, therefore, by the recommendation of some of the Officers of the Board, makes this appeal to Your Honorable House, whose generosity has been extended liberally to the deservyng in distress in so many instances that Your Petitioner feels confident that her case will meet with the attention it merits, and upon investigation, trusts she will appear deservyng. Could Your Petitioner have ascertained the reasons of the Board for rejecting her Petition or Claim, the reason should have, with this Petition, been laid before Your Honorable House: but knowing that You have power to make such inquiries as you may deem necessary, and as several of Your Honorable House know every circumstance perfectly well, Your Petitioner will therefore conclude with praying that her situation may meet with that fair investigation that she thinks herself deserving of, not doubting but that she will be put upon the same footing with others who have been so unfortunate as to lose their husbands during the late war.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

JANE JONES.

To the Honorable the Commons of Upper Canada and the Honorable the Legislative Council, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of Margaret Rousseau, of the Township of Ancaster, Widow, Humbly Sheweth: That Your Petitioner is the Widow of the late Jean Baptiste Rousseau, deceased, who was a Captain in the Indian Department, and on Service with the Indians during the late War until the month of November, 1812, and on the 16th of the said month was taken ill when on duty, having been actively employed the whole of that season on a deputation to the Indians at Lake Huron, &c., &c., &c. His strict observance to the service intrusted to his command as is well known to some of Your Honorable Members, brought on disease, which ended a life long devoted to the welfare of His Majesty's Government.

Your Petitioner would also beg leave to state that she made application to the Board appointed for the District of Gore in hopes of having her name inserted on the Pension List, but not being able to obtain the same, for reasons perhaps good, is therefore induced to make this appeal to Your Honors, relying on the justice of her application, feels confident that her case will meet with the liberality of investigation that will put her on that grade with others similarly situated, and who are now on the Pension List.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

To the Honorable the Legislature and Members of the House of Assembly of Upper Canada in Council at York, 5th February, 1818.

The Petition of Joshua Pell, of the Township of Stamford, in the District of Niagara and Province of Upper Canada.

Humbly Sheweth: That considering the great benefit that naturally arises to a new country by having good roads and bridges erected over the streams to shorten the distance for back settlers to carry their produce to the best market, induces Your Petitioner to lay before Your Honors the necessity of a bridge across the River Welland, a short distance above Weishuhn's Point, nearly where the old one stood, for the benefit of the inhabitants on the South Side of the River Welland, Lyons Creek, Sugar Loaf, and many other parts of the Country. The great usefulness of such a bridge, and the inability of a few individuals to erect it, occasions Your Petitioner to come forward and pray that Your Honors would grant him the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Pounds, out of the general funds for that purpose, which, in addition to what he may be enabled to raise by subscription, he is well assured will complete the same.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

JOSHUA PELL.

To the Honorable the House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, in Legislature assembled.

The Petition of Ann Hostler and Margaret Darby, of Grantham, in the District of Niagara.

Widows,

Humbly Sheweth: That Your Petitioners are the Widows of the late Hermann Hosteler and the late George Darby, both of whom, whilst living, were inhabitants resident in the Township of Grantham, in the District of Niagara, Province of Upper Canada, and who were ordered out as Militiamen in the year 1812, and who, whilst on service, contracted sickness and died soon after they returned to their homes, Herman Hosteler on the 10th of December, and George Darby on the 7th of December, 1812, said Herman Hosteler having been a private in the 1st Regiment Lincoln Militia, and George Darby having once been a Lieutenant but had resigned and was on service as a Private Militiaman at the time he contracted the sickness of which he died. Certificates from the Hon. Col. Claus, who commanded the Regiment to which Your Petitioners' late husbands belonged accompany this.

Your Petitioners, having made application to the Militia Board and received no satisfactory answer to their claims, therefore humbly pray that their situation may be taken into consideration, and that Your Honorable House may be pleased to direct that they may be dealt with as the widows of others similarly situated, and who are placed on the Pension List; Your Petitioners humbly praying that a fair investigation may take place, being confident in such a case that Your Honorable House will then grant their prayer.

And Your Petitioners will ever pray.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. Hall, moved that the Petition of the Magistrates of the District of Niagara be now read. Which was granted, and the Petition read as follows:

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Magistrates of the District of Niagara,

Humbly Sheweth: That Your Petitioners, in behalf of themselves and the District of Niagara at large, have been put to great inconvenience from the want of a sufficient bridge at the mouth of the Chippewa River in said District, the former one having been destroyed during the late war; and although one was rebuilt last winter by the Military Government, which is both inconvenient and inadequate to the Public use, from its situation, and from its passing through a Military Post.

Your Petitioners beg leave also to state that another bridge, of the proper construction, and at the proper place, has, last autumn, been in part built by the advances of a few individuals; still the Statute Labour, with the aid of the District Treasury, from its present poverty (having a Gaol and Court House to erect) are neither able to finish this bridge, nor make good the advances thereon.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that Your Honorable House, in their present Session, will be pleased to grant such a sum of money for the above purposes as to you may seem meet.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

The Memorial of Rebecca Thompson, of Grantham, District of Niagara, Humbly Sheweth: That Your Memorialist is the lawful widow of the late Cornelius Thompson, who died the 7th August, 1814, and left Your Memorialist with two daughters.

That during the late American War, he (Cornelius Thompson) although excluded by age and infirmities from serving personally in the Militia, yet he came forward to aid and assist the country in the struggle against the enemy, and in consequence of his exertions, both in body and mind, together with the delicate state of his health, contracted a disease which caused his death at the period as above stated.

And also that his sons, being actuated by their spirit of loyalty to their country, and inheriting the true principles of their father, were actively employed throughout the several campaigns, one of whom was wounded and one died on the 4th of June, 1814, from a severe cold contracted while on service.

That Your Memorialist, living immediately within the reach of the contending armies suffered greatly both by the British as well as American troops, which were alternately quartered at her house. Under those circumstances Your Memorialist begs you will think her worthy of your consideration, and be pleased to grant to her such a pension from the Province as you may think fit.

Washburn, now a student at law with William Warren Baldwin, Esq., in York, had just finished his education, and was to have entered on his studies in the law with the late Attorney-General, John McDonell, Esq., in the same month the late war was declared.

That the breaking out of the War, as Your Honorable House must be aware, entirely put a stop to any proceeding of that kind.

That Your Petitioner's son immediately volunteered his services as a private Militiaman in the Militia Artillery, in which situation he continued doing duty until appointed to an ensigny in the 1st Regiment of Prince Edward Militia in the Midland District.

That from his appointment to an Ensigny Your Petitioner's son continued doing duty through the whole war in the Flank Companies in Kingston, in commanding Brigades in the Transport Service, Foraging for the Army, &c., and was thus prevented from his studies in the law.

That although the case of Your Petitioner's son does not come exactly within the Act passed in 1815 for the relief of Articled Clerks, as he was not actually bound to the said Attorney-General, yet every arrangement having been made except the signature of the articles, and that only prevented by the breaking out of the said war. Your Petitioner most respectfully represents the hardship of his case, and humbly requests Your Honorable House to pass an Act to relieve his son from two years of his apprenticeship, with the consent and concurrence of his master, and to admit Your Petitioner's son as a member of the Law Society after having completed three years in the study of law from the date of his indentures with the said William Warren Baldwin, Esq., and after having been duly examined by the Benchers of the said Society as to his qualifications.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Your Petitioner would further state that although said duty has been required and paid for several years, yet no benefit results from the above-mentioned impost; York Harbour being the only Port provided with a Lighthouse, and that Your Petitioner in endeavoring to make Port in the night time, particularly the Niagara River, has frequently hazarded life as well as property in the risk incurred.

Wherefore Your Petitioner humbly prays that Your Honorable House may be pleased to take the above-related circumstances into consideration, by amending the Provincial Statute so far as respects the said Lighthouse duty, or adopt such other measures therein, as in your discretion may be deemed expedient. And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly in Provincial Parliament assembled.

The Petition of John Small, of the Town of York, Esquire.

Humbly Sheweth: That about the commencement of the late war with the United States it was the intention of Your Petitioner to have placed his son, James Edward Small, as an apprentice to one of the Attorneys of the Honorable Court of King's Bench in this Province, as a student in the profession of Law; but Your Petitioner's said son being then of sufficient age to serve in the Militia and being actually called upon in that purpose, Your Petitioner was prevented from carrying his above intentions into effect, in consequence of the said War.

Your Petitioner begs leave further to state that his said son served during the greater part of the late War as a Midshipman in the Royal Navy on Lake Ontario.

That from the above circumstances your Petitioner's said son will not be on the same footing with certain other students of Law under nearly similar circumstances, unless the time he so served in the war is deducted from the period of his Articles.

Whereas Your Petitioner humbly prays that Your Honorable House would take the premises into consideration, and be pleased to pass a Bill allowing the time his said son, James Edward Small, served during the said War to be considered, with permission of his Master, a part of the time of His Indentures.

And Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Resolved, that the Commons House of Assembly having hitherto rejected all Conference on the subject of Money Bills, no course remains to the Legislative Council but implicitly to submit to its judgment and reason, or to reject wholly the offered Bill; unless the House of Commons will continue as it has heretofore in many cases done, even during the present Session, to reject the amendments of the Legislative Council without notice, and re-enact the matter, so as to receive the concurrence of the other branches of the Legislature.

Resolved, that this House does not consider the necessary amendments to a Money Bill as a breach of the Privileges of the Commons House of Assembly; nevertheless, as it is so considered by that House in the said Resolution, the Legislative Council will forbear all amendments to Bills for raising or levying money, and merely withhold its assent to the same.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved that the fifth Rule of this House be dispensed with, so far as relates to the Address to His Honor the Administrator, on the contingent expenses of the present Session of Parliament, and that the said Address be now read a second time. Which was carried, and the Address was read the second time.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. McMartin, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee of the whole, on the Address to His Honor the Administrator on the subject of the Contingent Expenses of the present Session. Which was carried, and Mr. Nellis took the Chair of the Committee.

The House resumed. Mr. Nellis reported the Address amended. Ordered that the Report be received.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved that the Address to His Honor the Administrator on the Contingent Expenses of both Houses be engrossed and read a third time on Monday. Which was ordered.

Mr. Van Koughnet, seconded by Mr. Crysler, moved that Messrs. Jones, Durand, Robinson and Burwell be a Select Committee, to take into consideration and report to this House upon the Resolution of the Honorable the Legislative Council in answer to the Resolutions of this House on the subject of Privilege. Which was ordered.

The House then adjourned till Monday.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the Address to His Honor the Administrator on the subject of the Contingent Expenses was read the third time, passed, and signed by the Speaker as follows:

To His Honor Samuel Smith, Esq., Administrator of the Government of the Province of Upper Canada, &c.

May it please Your Honor: We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, beg leave to request that Your Honor will be pleased to issue your Warrant to the Receiver General of this Province, in favour of John Powell, Esq., Clerk of the Hon. the Legislative Council, for the sum of Seventy three Pounds, Five Shillings, for certain contingent expenses thereof during the present Session, and to enable him to procure a supply of stationery for the ensuing Session.

Also in favour of Mr. William Less, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, for the sum of Eighty Pounds One Shilling and Sixpence, for certain contingent Expenses of the Honorable the Legislative Council.

Also in favour of Grant Powell, Esq., Clerk of the House of Assembly, for the sum of Four Hundred and Twenty-Six Pounds, Eight Shillings and Sixpence, to enable him to pay the Contingent Expenses to His Office for the present Session, and to procure a supply of Stationery.

Also in favour of Mr. Allan McNabb, Serjeant at Arms, for the sum of One Hundred and Thirteen Pounds, Twelve Shillings and Sevenpence, to enable him to discharge sundry Contingent Expenses of the House of Assembly for the present Session.

Which sums His Majesty's Faithful Commons will make good during the next Session of the Provincial Legislature.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. Hall, moved that Messrs Nellis and Swayze, be a Committee to wait on His Honor the Administrator with the Address of this House on the subject of the Contingent Expenses of both Houses during the present Session, to know when he will be pleased to receive it, and to present the same. Which was ordered.

Mr. Jones, of the Committee on the subject of Privilege, delivered a Report at the Clerk's Table.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the House went into Committee on the Resolutions of the Legislative Council, Mr. Casey in the Chair.

The House resumed. Mr. Casey reported that the Committee had adopted the Report of the Select Committee, and had come to a Resolution, which he was directed to submit to the House. Ordered that the Report be received, and the Resolution and Report were adopted nem. con. as follows:

Report of the Committee on the Resolutions of the Hon. the Legislative Council in answer to a Resolution of the Commons House of Assembly on the subject of Privilege.

To the Honorable the Commons of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

Your Committee, in obedience to Your Honorable House, having maturely considered the Resolutions referred to them, most respectfully submit to Your Honorable House the following Report.

That the said Resolutions are not satisfactory to Your Committee, and 1st, because the said Resolutions claim for the Honorable House, upon the principle that its concurrence is necessary to pass all Bills, the exercise of its judgment and discretion in making amendments to Bills imposing burthens upon the people of this Province, to which the Commons House of Assembly have never, as Your Committee find by numerous Parliamentary Proceedings, assented: for as all charges or burthens whatsoever upon the people of right begin with the Commons, so, they cannot be altered or changed by the Honorable the Legislative Council.

2nd, because the Honorable the Legislative Council show a disposition to trench upon the Privileges of Your Honorable House, by citing as precedents the conciliatory acts of the Commons in cases where they have rejected the amendments made by that Honorable House to money Bills, and re-enacted the subject matter so as to receive the concurrence of the other branches of the Legislature, wherever the same could, by strained construction, be admitted for the best interests of the Province.

3rd, because the Honorable the Legislative Council deny that their amendments, made to the Bill sent up from Your Honorable House intituled "An Act to make further provision for regulating the Trade between this Province and the United States of America," or any other money Bill, are a breach of the Privileges of Your Honorable House: which Your Committee can prove by numerous precedents to be a high breach of its privileges, it being the undoubted, sole and exclusive right of Your Honorable House to commence all Bills granting aids or supplies to His Majesty, and imposing any charge or burthen whatsoever upon the people, and to direct, limit, and appoint in such Bills the ends and purposes, considerations, limitations and qualifications thereof: such grants, limitations and dispositions or appropriations ought not to be interfered with by amendments in the Legislative Council, but that the said Legislative Council ought to pass all or reject all without diminution or alteration.

House of Assembly,

23rd March, 1818.

JONAS JONES, Chairman of the Committee.

Resolved, that the Commons have never questioned the principle either of constitutional right or necessity of the concurrence of the Legislative Council in passing Bills, but do insist that the exercise of its judgment and discretion on all Bills granting aids and supplies to His Majesty, or imposing burthens upon the people is by uniformly acknowledged precedent confined to assent without making any amendments, or to the rejecting totally such Bills; and that the admission of a contrary principle upon the part of the Commons would be surrendering a constitutional right always exercised by this House, and from time immemorial by the Commons of Great Britain, which this House will never consent to.

Resolved, that the foregoing resolution is equally applicable to meet the reasoning of the first part of the second resolution of the Legislative Council, and that in all cases when this House have rejected amendments of the Legislative Council without notice, and re-enacted the matter so as to receive the concurrence of the other branches of the Legislature, this House have done so from the most conciliatory disposition and regard for the interests of the Province, wherever the same could by strained construction be admitted: but in no instance where the amendments have been made to a Bill the direct object of which has been the raising, levying, or appropriating money.

Resolved, that the first part of the third resolution of the Legislative Council, avowing that they do not consider the necessary amendments to a money Bill as a breach of the Privilege of the Commons House of Assembly, cannot be considered by this House without weakening that right which, in the true spirit of our constitution, solely and exclusively appertain to this branch of the Legislature.

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this House that the collected consideration of the three resolutions of the Legislative Council require the following avowal.

That this House consider it as their constitutional right to commence all money Bills, either granting aids and supplies to His Majesty or imposing any charge or burthen whatsoever upon the people, and to direct, limit, and appoint in such Bills the ends and purposes, considerations, limitations, and qualifications thereof, and that such grants, limitations and dispositions ought not to be interfered with by amendments in the Legislative Council, because such has never been permitted by the Commons of this Province, nor is it the usage and practice of the British Parliament.

Present:—Messrs. McMartin, Cameron, McDonell, Van Koughnet, Jones, 5; Cotter, Casey, Burnham, Robinson, Nellis, 10; Clench, Secord Swayze, Burwell, McCormick, 15; Hall, Durand, Hatt, 18.

Mr. Van Koughnet, seconded by Mr. Robinson, moved, that Messrs. Jones and Durand be a Committee to carry up to the Honorable the Legislative Council the resolutions of this House on the subject of its privileges. Which was ordered.

Mr. Jones, of the Committee to carry up to the Honorable the Legislative Council the Resolutions of this House on the subject of Privilege, reported that they had done so.

The House then adjourned until eleven o'clock to-morrow.

Tuesday, 24th March, 1818.

The House met. Prayers were read. The minutes of yesterday were read.

Mr. Nellis, of the Committee to deliver to His Honor the Administrator the Address of this House on the subject of the Contingent Expenses, reported that they had done so, and that His Honor was pleased to reply thereto as follows:

Gentlemen: I shall give directions that the several Warrants shall be issued as requested in the Address for the payment of the Contingent Expenses of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly.

Government House,

Mar. 24th, 1818.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. McNabb, moved that Mr. McNabb, a member of this House, representing the County of Hastings and the Township of Ameliasburgh have leave of absence for the remainder of the Session. Which was granted.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the House went into Committee on the state of the Province. Mr. McCormick in the Chair. The House resumed. Mr. McCormick reported that the Committee had agreed to a resolution, which he was instructed to submit to the House. On the question for receiving the Report the House divided, and the yeas and nays were taken as follows:

Yeas: Messrs. Swayze, Crysler, Burnham, McMartin, Clench, Durand, Secord, Robinson, Van Koughnet, Cameron, Hatt, McDonell, Cotter, Jones, Casey, Nellis.

Nays: Messrs. McCormick, Hall.

It was carried in the affirmative by a majority of fourteen, and the Resolution was adopted as follows:

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this House that the present situation of this Province requires their most serious consideration.

That it is the opinion of this House that the communication made by Lieutenant Governor Gore during the last Session of Parliament to this House, of His Majesty's Government having withheld the usual means of supply for the excess of the expenditure incurred in support of the Civil Administration of this Province, over and above the Annual Grant of the United Kingdom for this service, and his recommendation that this exigency should be provided for before any other appropriation of the Provincial Revenue should be made, imperatively calls upon this House to examine into the means possessed by this Province to comply with His Majesty's Royal wishes; to consider how far it will affect its local indispensable wants, its operation upon the true interests of the country in its present infant state and the expediency of minute examination into the Physical Resources of this Province, hitherto not called into action: and lastly how far the present system of Civil Policy and arrangements of the Executive Departments in their various bearings, are calculated to unite in their consequences the growth, welfare, prosperity, and relative importance of this Colony with the true interest, honor and advantage of the British Empire.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. McDonell, moved that Messrs. Durand, Van Koughnet, Hatt and McMartin be a Select Committee to examine and report upon the detailed accounts of the expenditure of the money granted to His Majesty in the fifty-sixth year of His Reign, by an Act intituled "An Act granting to His Majesty a sum of money towards defraying the expenses of the Civil Administration of the Government of this Province." Also to examine and report upon the detailed accounts of the expenditure of the money granted to His Majesty last Session of this Parliament, by an Act intituled "An Act granting to His Majesty a sum of money for certain purposes therein mentioned." Which was ordered.

Mr. Boulton, Master in Chancery, brought down from the Hon. the Legislative Council a Resolution, which he delivered to the Speaker, and having withdrawn it was read as follows:

The Honorable the Legislative Council, on consideration of the Resolution of the House of Assembly, delivered yesterday at the Bar of this House.

Resolved, that the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada are co-ordinate branches of a Limited Legislature, constituted by the Statute enacted in the thirty-first year of His Majesty's reign.

That all powers, immunities and privileges of either branch are derived from that Statute, and extend to their respective advice and consent to His Majesty, to make laws not repugnant to that Act for the peace, welfare, and good Government of the Province.

That in adopting the order and course of proceeding to advise and consent to laws, this House does not assume the powers, authority and privileges of the Upper Houses of Parliament, grown out of the practice of ages, and unsuitable to the circumstances of this Colony.

That the House of Assembly, adopting as its type the Commons House of Parliament, and claiming all the powers, immunities and privileges thereof, is not justified by the words or spirit of the Constitution, more than the Legislative Council would be justified to assume for itself and its members the powers, immunities and privileges of the Upper House of Parliament.

That the origin of all supplies in either House or exclusively in the House of Assembly must be indifferent so long as either House retains the power of rejection, that the exercise of the right to amend an original Bill is equally indifferent except that without the exercise of that right, or the resort to amicable conference between the two Houses time is wasted and the public service delayed.

That the House of Assembly did by Resolutions, delivered at the Bar of this House, declare that it would not accede to any conference on the subject of a Money Bill.

That the amendments made to the Bill intituled "An Act to make further provision for regulating the Trade between this Province and the United States of America," by the Legislative Council, were to conform to a national regulation of trade imparted to both Houses by His Majesty's Government to reduce the burthen of the people of whom the individuals of this House are a part only distinguished by the duty imposed on them in their Legislative capacity to protect, defend, and support the interest of the whole.

That having no means of interchanging opinion with the House of Assembly, but by way of conference or amendments, the Legislative Council does not consider it reasonable that such amendments should be treated as a breach of privilege and that having declared by its resolutions transmitted to the House of Assembly that it would forbear amendments to Money Bills such resolution ought to afford reasonable satisfaction to that House (even if its privilege has been violated) and restore the course and harmony of proceeding in the public business.

That these Resolutions be communicated by the proper Officer of this House to the House of Assembly, and that the same, together with the Resolutions of the House of Assembly of the 19th and 23rd instants delivered at the Bar of this House, and the first Resolution of this House thereupon, be printed.

Legislative Council Chamber, 24th March, 1818.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. Robinson, moved that the House do, on to-morrow, resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole, to take into consideration the Resolutions of the Honorable the Legislative Council, communicated to this House this day. Which was ordered.

The House then adjourned.

Wednesday, 25th March, 1818.

The House met. Prayers were read. The minutes of yesterday were read.

Mr. Nellis, seconded by Mr. McCormick, moved that Messrs. Durand, Jones, Robinson, and Burwell, be a Select Committee, to take into consideration the Resolutions of the Legislative Council, communicated to this House yesterday, and report thereon. Which was ordered.

The House adjourned till three o'clock.

At three o'clock the House met, pursuant to adjournment.

The House adjourned till ten o'clock to-morrow.

Thursday, 26th March, 1818.

The House met. Prayers were read. The minutes of yesterday were read.

Mr. Durand, of the Committee appointed to consider the Resolutions of the Hon. the Legislative Council of the 24th March, read a Report in his place, and delivered the same to the Clerk at his table.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. Van Koughnet, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole, to take into consideration the Report of a Select Committee on the subject of the Resolutions of the Legislative Council, communicated to this House on the 24th instant. Which was carried, and Mr. Burnham took the Chair of the Committee.

The House resumed. Mr. Burnham reported that the Committee had adopted the Report, and agreed to some Resolutions, which he was directed to recommend for the adoption of the House. Ordered that the Report be received, and the Resolutions adopted as follows:

Report of the Committee on the Resolutions of the Hon. the Legislative Council of the 24th March in answer to the Resolutions of the Commons House of Assembly on the subject of Privilege.

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled.

Your Committee, in obedience to Your Honorable House, having maturely considered the Resolutions referred to them, most respectfully submit to Your Honorable House the following report:

That the Resolutions of the Legislative Council, dated 24th March, and delivered by their Officer to the Speaker of the Commons House of Assembly, excite in Your Committee emotions of the highest interest, and being in their essence pregnant with principles subversive of the exercise of the functions of the Representative Body of the People. Your Committee would feel criminally neglectful of their duty to Your Honorable House, and to their Country, were they not to express their indignant feelings on this most important occasion, and particularly as the Legislative Council, by ordering their Resolutions, together with those of Your House, to which they are purposely annexed, as an intended refutation to be printed, submit to the Public the justice and propriety of their proceeding.

That the Constitutional ground assumed by the Resolutions of Your House, of the 19th and 23rd instants, is justified by the act of the 31st year of His present Majesty, giving to each branch of the Legislature the constitutional privileges of the Mother Country, and reserving only a parental right to interfere in establishing prohibitions or imposing duties for the regulation of navigation and external commerce.

That the Resolutions of the Legislative Council, asserting that House and the House of Assembly are co-ordinate branches of a Limited Legislature, constituted by the said Statute of the 31st year of His present Majesty, inasmuch as the same declared the Parliament of this Province to be a Limited Legislature, cannot be supported by the words of the said Act further than the restrictions expressed in the provisions of the said Act, which merely go to external commerce or to interference with the Crown Lands or Clergy Lands and endowments, where the prerogative of the Crown is materially involved; for were this to be admitted the extent of its powers would be defined.

That the Legislative Council did not, by its Resolutions transmitted to this House, declare that it would forbear all amendments to Money Bills, but only to such Bills as relate to the raising and levying money; and Your Committee are convinced that Your House would have been satisfied had the Legislative Council declared its determination to forbear all amendments to Bills raising, levying, and appropriating moneys.

That the Resolutions of the Legislative Council, stating that the origin of the supplies in either House, or exclusively in the House of Assembly, must be indifferent so long as either House retains the power of rejection, and that the exercise of the right to amend an original Bill is equally indifferent, except that without this exercise or resort to amicable conference, time would be wasted, Your Committee are of opinion is a doctrine radically novel in British Legislation as far as relates to Bills of Supplies, and where it does not, the Commons House of Assembly have never denied the right or betrayed the least reluctance to acquiesce with amendments of the Legislative Council, or to accede to conferences.

That the Resolutions of the Legislative Council stating that their amendments to the Bill intituled "An Act to make further provision for regulating the trade between this Province and the United States" were to conform to a National Regulation of Trade, imparted to both Houses of His Majesty's Government to reduce the burthen of the people, are liable, in the opinion of Your Committee, to the same objection of relating to the raising of moneys and levying duties, nor are the national regulations alluded to which were dated in one thousand eight hundred and twelve, applicable to the present situation and circumstances of this country, and if complied with would inevitably impose burthens on the people rather than reduce them, because they extended to admit into our markets, free of duty, flour and other articles of provisions in competition with our own agriculturist, thereby deteriorating the value of his productions.

That the Resolution of the Legislative Council stating that it does not assume the power, authority, and privileges of the Upper House of Parliament, grown out of the practice of ages, and unsuitable to the circumstances of this Colony, is an assertion which, as far as it affects their own dignity, Your Committee are satisfied Your House knows too well its functions to presume to interfere with, and Your Committee would have been well pleased to have recognized reciprocal sentiments of deference for the rights of Your House in the course of proceedings on the part of the Legislative Council, and which reference to the practice of ages would confirm. It would not then have assailed its particular exclusive privilege as to all Money Bills, so fully insisted upon in the Resolutions of Your House of the 23rd.

That the assertion of the Legislative Council that the House of Assembly, in adopting as its type the Commons House of Parliament, and claiming all the powers, immunities and privileges thereof, is not justified by the words or spirit of its constitution more than the Legislative Council would be justified to assume for itself and its members the powers, immunities, and privileges of the Upper House, may safely be admitted and appreciated, as Your Committee do the gift to this Colony of the glorious unmutilated boon of the British Constitution in all its plenitude of power and privileges, avowed by the Lords and Commons in Parliament, and confirmed by the Speech from the Throne. of His Excellency John Graves Simcoe, at the opening of the first Parliament in this Province. Your Committee cannot yield to the impression that Your House will ever be induced by weak example to compromise its undoubted and invaluable rights.

Your Committee have only further respectfully to submit to Your Honorable House the gracious Speech of His Majesty's representative, John Graves Simcoe, Esquire, at the opening and prorogation of the first Parliament of this Province, and the propriety of having them entered on the Journals of Your House, that part of Your Journals having been destroyed by the enemy.

JAMES DURAND, Chairman.

Resolved, nem. con., that this House, in persisting in their right to reject all amendments made by the Legislative Council to Bills for raising and appropriating moneys, and to decline all conferences thereon, are assuming to themselves no new privilege; but are only adhering to the form of proceeding which has been maintained from the first establishment of the Provincial Legislature, and in which they have taken for their guide the representative form of constitution in the Mother Country, by which that of this country is modelled, and by which the Legislative Council have in all their proceedings equally governed themselves; whatever it may suit their present purpose to disclaim.

Resolved, nem. con., that, as this House desire to make no innovation, so they are determined to suffer none, but will persist in maintaining in all their deliberations those rules which they have found established, and which, being coeval with their constitution, they consider it would be as inconsistent with their duty as it is repugnant to their inclination to abandon.

Resolved, nem. con., that the gracious Speech of His Majesty's Representative, John Graves Simcoe, Esquire, at the opening and prorogation of the first Parliament of this Province, and the answers thereto, be entered on the Journals of this House; that part of the Journals having been destroyed by the enemy in the late war.

Present: Messrs. McMartin, Cameron, McDonell, Van Koughnet, Crysler, 5; Jones, Cotter, Casey, Burnham, Robinson, 10; Nellis, Clench, Secord, Swayze, Burwell, 15; McCormick, Hall, Durand, Hatt, 19.

Speech of His Excellency JOHN GRAVES SIMCOE, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, etc., upon opening the first session of the Legislature of the said Province.

Tuesday, 18th September, 1792.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I have summoned you together under the authority of an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, passed last year, which has established the British Constitution and all the forms which secure and maintain it in this distant Colony.

The wisdom and beneficence of Our Most Gracious Sovereign and the British Parliament have been eminently proved, not only in imparting to us the same form of Government, but also in securing the benefit by the many provisions that guard this memorable Act, so that the blessings of our invaluable constitution, thus protected and amplified, we may hope will be extended to the remotest posterity.

The great and momentous trusts and duties which have been committed to the representatives of this Province in a degree infinitely beyond whatever till this period have distinguished any other colony, have originated from the British nation upon a just consideration of the energy and hazard with which its inhabitants have so conspicuously supported and defended the British Constitution.

It is from the same patriotism, now called upon to exercise with due deliberation and foresight the various offices of civil administration, that your fellow subjects of the British Empire expect the foundation of that union of industry and wealth, of commerce and power, which may last through all succeeding ages.

The natural advantages of the Province of Upper Canada are inferior to none on this side of the Atlantic. There can be no separate interest throughout its whole extent; the British form of Government has prepared the way for its speedy colonization, and I trust that your fostering care will improve the situation, and that a numerous and agricultural people will speedily take possession of a soil and climate which, under the British laws and the munificence with which His Majesty has granted the lands of the Crown, offer such manifest and peculiar encouragement.

The Address of the Honorable the Legislative Council of the Province of Upper Canada, in answer to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor's Speech, upon opening the first session of the Legislature of the said Province.

Wednesday, 19th September, 1792.

To His Excellency John Graves Simcoe, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, etc., etc.

May it please Your Excellency to permit the Legislative Council to express their congratulations to Your Excellency upon your arrival in this Province and taking upon yourself the superintendance of affairs, and also to offer their dutiful acknowledgments to His Excellency for having appointed a character of such tried loyalty and known attachment to the British Constitution and all the forms which secure and maintain it, to represent his authority upon the first establishment of this Province.

We acknowledge with admiration and gratitude that the wisdom and beneficence of Our Most Gracious Sovereign and the British Parliament have been eminently proved, not only in imparting to us the same form of government, but also in securing the benefit by the many provisions that guard this memorable Act, so that the blessings of our invaluable Constitution, thus protected and amplified, we may hope will be extended to the remotest posterity.

We are gratified in being apprised that the great and momentous trust and duties which have been committed to the Representatives of this Province in a degree infinitely beyond whatever till this period have distinguished any other colony, have originated from the British Nation upon a just consideration of the energy and hazard with which its inhabitants have so conspicuously supported and defended the British Constitution.

We hope to exert the same spirit of patriotism in the various offices of the Civil Administration, and that our fellow subjects of the British Empire may not be disappointed in their expectations of that union of industry and wealth, of commerce and power, which may last through all succeeding generations.

We hope that the experience of future years will show that the natural advantages of the Province of Upper Canada are inferior to none on this side of the Atlantic, and that there can be no separate interest through its whole extent. The British form of Government having prepared the way for its speedy colonization, we persuade ourselves that our fostering care will improve the favorable situation, and that a numerous and agricultural people will speedily take possession of a soil and climate which, under the British laws and the munificence with which His Majesty has granted the land to the Crown, offer such manifest and peculiar advantages.

WILLIAM OSGOODE, Speaker.

To which His Excellency was pleased to make the following answer:

Honorable Gentlemen: The sentiments of duty to His Majesty and attachment to the British Constitution which you have expressed give me the most sincere satisfaction.

I beg leave to return my thanks for your congratulations on my arrival to take upon me the Government of the Province, and for the obliging manner in which you have expressed them.

The Address of the House of Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, in answer to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor's Speech, upon opening the first Session of the Legislature.

Wednesday, 19th September, 1792.

To His Excellency JOHN GRAVES SIMCOE, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada.

May it please Your Excellency: We, the Representatives of the Commons of the Province of Upper Canada, in General Assembly convened, most sensibly flattered by the strong testimony of His Majesty's paternal tenderness for this new Province, in the choice he had graciously been pleased to make of Your Excellency to preside over its infant progress, beg leave to congratulate Your Excellency, as we do ourselves, upon so distinguished a mark of the royal favor. We anticipate the personal satisfaction of all His Majesty's loyal subjects in this extended settlement in finding their political interests and military protection confided to the united characters of a British Senator and Soldier. And we beg leave to assure Your Excellency that our personal endeavors shall not be wanting to render the satisfaction mutual, if it may depend on steady and uniform support of every measure which shall tend to strengthen our union with the Parent Kingdom and add our mite to its splendor and glory.

JOHN McDONELL, Speaker.

To which His Excellency was pleased to make the following answer:

Gentlemen: I am much gratified by the expressions of loyalty to His Majesty's Government contained in your answer to my speech, and I am highly obliged for the confidence which you repose in my appointment to the Administration of the Government of Upper Canada.

Speech of His Excellency JOHN GRAVES SIMCOE, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c., upon proroguing the Legislative Council and Assembly, Wednesday, 15th October, 1792.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly: It is with very gr at satisfaction that I have considered the Acts which you have found expedient to frame, and to which, in consequence of the power delegated to me, I have this day given my assent that they shall become laws of the Province of Upper Canada.

As the division which His Majesty in His wisdom thought proper to make of the late Province of Quebec obviated all inconveniences and laid the foundation for the establishment of the English Laws in the Province, it is natural to presume that you will seize the first opportunity to impart that benefit to your fellow subjects, and, by the Act to establish Trials by Jury, and that which makes the English law the rule of decision in all matters in controversy relative to property and civil rights you have fully justified the public expectation. Your other Acts seemed calculated to promote the general welfare and convenience of the Province.

His Majesty in his benevolence having directed a seventh from such lands as shall be granted to be reserved to the Crown for the public benefit, it will become my duty to take those measures which shall appear to be necessary to fulfil His Majesty's gracious intentions, and I make no doubt but that, as citizens and Magistrates, you will give every assistance in your power to carry into full effect a system from which the public and posterity must derive such peculiar advantages.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen: I cannot dismiss you without earnestly desiring you to promote by precept and example among your respective counties the regular habits of piety and morality, the surest foundation of all private and public felicity: and at this juncture I particularly recommend you to explain that this Province is singularly blest, not with a mutilated constitution, but with a constitution that has stood the test of experience, and is the very image and transcript of that of Great Britain, by which she has so long established and secured to her subjects as much freedom and happiness as is possible to be enjoyed under the subordination necessary to civilized society.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. Burwell, moved that the Speaker direct one hundred copies of His Excellency John Graves Simeon's, Esquire, Speeches, and the answers thereto at the opening and prorogation of the first Parliament of this Province to be printed. Which was carried.

Mr. Baldwin, Master in Chancery, brought down from the Honorable the Legislative Council a resolution, which he delivered to the Speaker, and having withdrawn, it was read as follows:

The Legislative Council, being of opinion that resolutions reciprocally passed in either House cannot produce the desirable effect of restoring the due intercourse between the two branches of the Legislature, so long unhappily interrupted, and that the public business for which we are assembled cannot be brought to issue without an amicable conference between the two Houses.

Resolved that if assured that the House of Assembly will accede to a conference on the subject of a renewal of intercourse for the purpose of expediting the public business, the Legislative Council will, by a message, request such conference.

Legislative Council Chamber, 26th March, 1818.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. Swayze, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole, to take into consideration the communication of the Honorable the Legislative Council, made to the Speaker of this House this day. Which was carried, and Mr. Nellis took the Chair of the Committee.

The House resumed. Mr. Nellis reported a Resolution from the Committee. Ordered, that the Report be received, and it was resolved nem. con. Resolved, that the Commons House of Assembly, being ever desirous of harmonious intercourse between the two branches of the Legislature, they will appoint a Committee to meet a Committee on the part of the Legislative Council, to hear what they have to propose on the subject.

Mr. McMartin, seconded by Mr. Robinson, moved that Messrs. Hatt and Cameron be a Committee to carry up to the Honorable the Legislative Council the Resolution of this House on the subject of the Resolution of the Honorable the Legislative Council, communicated this day to this House. Which was carried.

The House then adjourned till ten o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. Durand, of the Committee on Detailed Public Accounts, read a report and delivered it at the Table.

Mr. Hatt, of the Committee to carry up to the Honorable the Legislative Council a Resolution of this House of yesterday, reported that they had done so.

Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. Crysler, moved that the House do now go into Committee on the Report of the Committee of Public Detailed Accounts. Which was carried, and Mr. Secord took the Chair of the Committee.

The House resumed. Mr. Secord reported progress, and obtained leave to sit again to-morrow.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the House went into Committee on the Supply Bill, Mr. Swayze in the Chair.

The House resumed to receive a message from the Honorable the Legislative Council.

Mr. Baldwin, Master in Chancery, brought down from the Honorable the Legislative Council a message which he delivered, and having withdrawn, the Speaker read the same as follows:

Mr. Speaker: The Honorable the Legislative Council request a conference with the Commons House of Assembly on the subject of a renewal of intercourse between the two Houses, for the purpose of expediting the public business.

The Legislative Council have appointed a Committee of two Members, who will be ready to meet a Committee of that House for that purpose in the Legislative Council Chamber at two o'clock this day.

WM. DUMMER POWELL, Speaker.

Legislative Council Chamber, 27th March, 1818.

Mr. McMartin, seconded by Mr. Hatt, moved that Messrs. Jones, Durand, Burwell, and Robinson be a Committee to meet the Committee of Conference appointed by the Honorable the Legislative Council to hear the reason set forth by said Committee on the subject of their resolution of yesterday, and report to this House the same. Which was ordered.

Mr. Jones, of the Committee to meet the Committee of the Honorable the Legislative Council, presented a paper, which was submitted, and read as follows:

The object of the required conference being to revive the intercourse between the two Houses for the purpose of expediting the public business, the Committee represents to the Committee of the House of Assembly that on the point of originating and amending Money Bills every concession has been made, but that of declaring an opinion which the Legislative Council does not entertain.

That the source of the division between the two Houses may be traced to the rejection of conference on Money Bills, which was never denied by the House of Commons in the most violent differences maintained with the Upper House of Parliament.

The Committee therefore propose to the Committee of the House of Assembly that the amended Bill which is the unfortunate subject of discussion be submitted to a conference thereon as if no amendment had been made and the Bill still remained in the possession of the Legislative Council, subject to its consideration.

Mr. Robinson, seconded by Mr. Jones, moved that the House do now go into Committee, to take into consideration the report of the Committee appointed to meet the Committee of the Honorable the Legislative Council. Which was carried, and Mr. McCormick took the Chair of the Committee.

The House resumed. Mr. McCormick reported a Resolution. Ordered, that the Report be received, and it was resolved, nem. con.

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this House that the Committee of Conference be instructed to acquaint the Committee of the Honorable the Legislative Council that as the proposition of the said Committee of the Honorable the Legislative Council does not in any manner go to retract the spirit of the resolutions sent down to this House on the twenty-fourth March, the House of Assembly sees no further matter whereon to concur: and that as the declared interruption of intercourse originated with the Honorable the Legislative Council, so it remains with that House to remove the grounds or take to themselves the consequences of any delay in the public business.

Mr. Jones, of the Committee to communicate to the Committee of the Honorable the Legislative Council certain instructions of this House, reported that they had done so.

The House went again into Committee on the Supply Bill, Mr. Swayze in the Chair.

The House resumed. Mr. Swayze reported a resolution. Ordered, that the Report be received, and it was resolved nem. con.

Resolved, that an humble Address be presented to His Honor Samuel Smith, Esquire, Administering the Government of this Province, requesting him to issue his warrants for the sum of eight thousand pounds sterling, not provided for by the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain, towards defraying the expenses of the Administration of Justice and the Civil Government of this Province.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. McMartin, moved that Messrs. Durand and Hall be a Committee to draft an Address to His Honor, the Administrator, pursuant to the Resolution of this House. Which was ordered.

Mr. Durand, of the Committee to draft an Address to His Honor the Administrator on the subject of Supply, reported a draft accordingly, which he was ready to submit to the House. Ordered, that the Report be received, and the Draft was read.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. Van Koughnet, moved that the Fifth Rule of this House, as far as it relates to the Address to His Honor the Administrator, on the subject of Supply, be dispensed with, and that the said Address be now read a second time. Which was carried, and the Address read the second time.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. Van Koughnet, moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole, to take into consideration the Address to His Honor the Administrator on the subject of Supply. Which was carried, and Mr. Swayze took the Chair of the Committee.

The House resumed. Mr. Swayze reported the Address as amended. Ordered, that the Report be received.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. Van Koughnet, moved that the Address to His Honor the Administrator, on the subject of Supply, be engrossed, and read a third time this day. Which was carried, and ordered, and the Address was read the third time, passed, and signed by the Speaker, as follows:

To His Honor Samuel Smith, Esquire, Administrator of the Province of Upper Canada, &c.:

May it Please Your Honor: We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons House of Assembly in Provincial Parliament assembled, humbly request that Your Honor will be pleased to issue your warrant or warrants in favor of the proper officer or officers for the sum of eight thousand pounds sterling, towards defraying the expenses of the Administration of Justice, and the Civil Government of this Province not otherwise provided for by the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain, which sum His Majesty's faithful Commons will make good during the next Session of the Provincial Legislature.

Commons House of Assembly, 27th March, 1818.

Mr. Jones, seconded by Mr. Secord, moved that Messrs. Van Koughnet and Hatt be a Committee to wait upon His Honor the Administrator, to know when he will be pleased to receive the Address of this House on the subject of Supply, and to present the same. Which was ordered.

The House then adjourned.

Saturday, 28th March, 1818.

The House met. Prayers were read. The minutes of yesterday were read.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the House went into Committee on the Report of the Detailed Accounts, Mr. McDonell in the Chair.

The House resumed. Mr. McDonell reported that the Committee had adopted the Report of the Select Committee, and that he was directed to submit the same to the House. Ordered, that the report be received, and it was adopted, as follows:

To the Honorable the Commons House of Assembly in Provincial Parliament assembled:

Your Committee, appointed to examine into and report upon the Detailed accounts of the Civil Government in the years one thousand eight hundred and sixteen and one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, respectfully beg leave to submit the same to Your Honorable House.

First, As respects the sum of two thousand five hundred pounds, voted for the above service in one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, it appears that the sum of two hundred and twenty-four pounds and elevenpence halfpenny was paid to the Honorable Chief Justice Scott, being ninety-two days' pension to him upon his retirement from the Bench, by His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent; and the sum of three hundred pounds to the Honorable William Dummer Powell as three-quarters of a year's salary as Speaker of the Honorable the Legislative Council, both of which items being new in the account of Civil Expenditure of this Province, your Committee are of opinion should have been first authorized by Act of its Parliament, as the admission of a contrary principle as a precedent would give the power to the person administering the Government to burthen the people with enormous expenses in a manner obnoxious to constitutional proceeding. The item of three hundred pounds to the Speaker of the Legislative Council is a striking instance in point with the remark of Your Committee, as in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen a Bill was introduced into the Commons House of Assembly to provide a salary equal in amount to that charged in Civil Expenditure Account and lost by a large majority, thereby the sense of the country declared and over-ruled by an exercise of authority over the public moneys wholly unconstitutional, and so subversive of Legislative power as to call for the most serious notice in Your Honorable House. The like items again appear in the account of expenditure of the sum of two thousand five hundred pounds in one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and the other charges in both years' account are, in the opinion of Your Committee, such as should be subject to be audited in the Commons House of Assembly, and suggests the propriety of revision of the Act granting the specific sum of two thousand five hundred pounds for the service declared in that Act, and which may be considered as wholly unnecessary, as Your Honorable House has of late adopted the precedent of voting upon estimate a sum sufficient to meet the excess of the expenditure of the Civil Administration of the Government (being the express service for which the first Act was in part intended to provide). By this Act being repealed the whole of the Civil expenditure could be annually submitted for the approval of Your Honorable House, and which Your Committee conceive according to the usage of the British Parliament it constitutionally should be.

Your Committee, on examining the various items that constitute the expenditure of the estimated sum of nine thousand two hundred and one pounds, two shillings and twopence halfpenny, so far as the same has been expended, discover very many items which they highly disapprove of, being of a denomination which your Committee conceive are not within the meaning of the service intended to be provided for. They are, however, audited and paid for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventeen. The attention of Your Honorable House should be drawn to prevent a recurrence of similar circumstances, by hereafter, in your Votes of Supplies on Estimates granting only an amount sufficient to defray all specifically declared items, leaving the Contingent Accounts of each department subject to be audited by a Select Committee of Your Honorable House before payment. And Your Committee further recommend to your consideration the propriety of appointing a permanent Committee for this duty, as such only can be adequate to do justice to so critical and intricate an inquiry. Two items in these accounts, the one for maintenance of Clergy, the other for Pensions to wounded Officers, are alike improper for the reasons already submitted by Your Committee and for others equally strong. The first, as respects the Clergy, because it interferes with what your Committee think the intent and meaning of the 42nd Clause, 31st George III., which prohibits the interference of the Parliament in aught that shall in any manner relate to the granting, imposing or recovering of dues, stipends or emoluments to be paid to and for the use of any Minister, Priest, Ecclesiastic or Teacher, according to any Religious mode of worship in respect of the said office or function, except by such Act or Acts as shall first be transmitted to England and laid before the British Parliament. The second, as respects wounded Officers, because by several Acts of this Province provision has been made for this description of person, and most properly it may be expected that the voice of Parliament should estimate and reward the services of individuals where that reward is drawn from the public funds; nor can Your Committee forbear remarking the alarming extent such a precedent may be carried to.

The items of Departments exclusively relating to the granting of Lands, Your Committee apprehend it is not the intention of Your House to provide for without taking under its control to meet the exigency the fees which result from the respective grants to individuals, and in as much as the whole appertains abstractly to the exercise of the Royal prerogative, with which the Legislative have no other interference than is provided for subject to the approval of the British Parliament, it may be doubtful how far it may be expedient at present to disburse such items upon the principle of their relating to the bounty of the Crown to individuals only, and not operating on the public at large.

Your Committee cannot close their report to Your Honorable House without communicating the reflections that have grown out of the inquiry they were selected to report upon. That as it has become the custom for this two years past for His Majesty's Representative in this Province to order to be laid before Your Honorable House, to be provided for out of the Public Funds, an estimate of the excess of expenditure of the administration of the Civil Government of this Colony. It will be absolutely necessary and indispensable that Your Honorable House should be furnished with a full detailed statement of the actual amount of annual grant appropriated by the Parent State towards this service, and of every other pecuniary aid arising out of the resources of the Province that passes through the hands of His Majesty's Receiver General here for the disposal of the Crown in this Province, or drawn from any other source with the view of being applied to this use, and this account your Committee are of opinion should be required and called for, involving a retrospective detail for the years one thousand eight hundred and sixteen and one thousand eight hundred and seventeen. If furnished, with these documents and likewise a detailed statement of the whole of the expenses of this Province, a full view of the subject would be laid before the country, and the grand question of the expediency, from motives of gratitude, duty and propriety, of relieving the Mother Country, come fully and fairly in view for discussion, and accompany the important and interesting inquiry into the state of this Province.

JAMES DURAND, Chairman.

Mr. Van Koughnet, of the Committee to wait on His Honor the Administrator and present the Address of this House on the subject of Supply, reported that they had done so, and that His Honor had been pleased to reply thereto as follows:

Gentlemen: The request contained in your Address, to appropriate the sum of eight thousand pounds towards defraying the expenses of the administration of Justice and the Civil Government, without the concurrence of the whole Legislature is without precedent, and I cannot take upon myself to make the advance until I shall have received the signification of His Majesty's pleasure thereon.

28th March, 1818.

The House then adjourned.

Monday, 30th March, 1818.

The House resumed. Mr. Swayze reported that the Committee had agreed to the draft of an Address, which he was directed to report to the House. Ordered that the Report be received, and the Address was then read.

Mr. Robinson, seconded by Mr. Van Koughnet, moved that the fifth Rule of the House be dispensed with as far as relates to the Address to His Honor the Administrator, and that it be read a second time this day, which was carried, and the Address read the second time.

Mr. Robinson, seconded by Mr. Hatt, moved that the House do now go into Committee, to take into consideration the Address to His Honor the Administrator, which was carried, and Mr. Burnham took the Chair of the Committee.

The House resumed. Mr. Burnham reported the Address. Ordered that the Report be received.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. Secord, moved that the Address to His Honor the Administrator be engrossed, and read a third time this day, which was ordered.

Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. Hatt, moved that the House do resolve itself into a Committee of the whole, to take into consideration the propriety of an Address to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, upon subjects of deep interest to this Province, which was carried, and Mr. Cameron took the Chair of the Committee.

The House resumed. Mr. Cameron reported that the Committee had agreed to the draft of an Address, which he was directed to submit to the House. Ordered that the Report be received, and the draft was read.

Mr. Hatt, seconded by Mr. Durand, moved that the fifth Rule of the House be dispensed with, so far as relates to the Address to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, and that it be read a second time this day, which was carried, and the Address read the second time.

Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. Hatt, moved that the House do now go into Committee of the whole, on the Address to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent on the subject of its privileges, which was carried, and Mr. Casey took the Chair of the Committee.

The House resumed. Mr. Casey reported the Address. Ordered that the Report be received.

Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. Hatt, moved that the Address to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent be engrossed, and read a third time this day, which was ordered.

The House then adjourned till two o'clock.

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

The Address to His Honor the Administrator was then read the third time, passed, and signed by the Speaker as follows:
To His Honor Samuel Smith, Esq., Administrator of the Government of the Province of Upper Canada, &c.

May it please Your Honor: We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons House of Assembly in Provincial Parliament assembled, humbly beg leave to represent to Your Honor that we so deeply regret the inconvenience that may result from the want of providing for the Civil Expenditure of the current year that we deem it a justice we owe to ourselves to assure Your Honor that our voting the money by Address did not in this instance proceed from an obstinate adherence to our privileges, but that we were so far actuated by a contrary feeling that notwithstanding the suspension of intercourse charged upon us by the Legislative Council, we had prepared a Bill, and were actually in Committee upon it when we received intimation of the adjournment of the Legislative Council until Monday morning. That conceiving this adjournment evinced a disposition on the part of the Legislative Council to consider the business of the Session at an end, and that a prorogation might hastily follow without this House having an opportunity of sending the Bill then under consideration for their concurrence, we did from our anxiety to prevent the public inconvenience that might follow, resort to the only means left, namely, voting the money by Address. Nevertheless this House cannot forbear remarking that when induced by these considerations to adopt this mode of proceedings, they never anticipated that the Executive Government, having applied to the Commons House of Assembly for the means of defraying the Civil Expenses of the Province, and received their assurance of compliance, would have declined advancing it upon their pledge; neither could they have been led to expect it from the established usage in similar cases of this and other Colonial Legislatures, as well as of the Mother Country.

And as Your Honor has been pleased to intimate an intention of referring to His Majesty's Government before the supply thus offered by the Commons House of Assembly could be accepted, we humbly beg leave to request leave of Your Honor that such reference may be accompanied with this explanation, which will show His Majesty's Government that no inconvenience that may result from the necessity of that reference can be imputed to His Majesty's faithful Commons.

Mr. Robinson, seconded by Mr. Van Koughnet, moved that Messrs. Hall and Swayze be a Committee to wait upon His Honor the Administrator, to know when he will be pleased to receive the Address of this House on the subject of supply, and to present the same, which was ordered.

The Address to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was then read the third time, passed and signed by the Speaker as follows:

To His Royal Highness, George, Prince of Wales, Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.:

May it please Your Royal Highness: We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons House of Assembly of Upper Canada, in Parliament assembled, humbly beg leave to address Your Royal Highness with feelings of the most unfeigned duty and respect, and to express in the name of the people of this Province their grateful sense of the blessings entailed upon them and their posterity by Your Royal House in giving to them in the plentitude of its power and privileges the very image and transcript of the glorious Constitution of Great Britain, which has withstood the shock of Empires, the test of ages, and stands toweringly elevated to the highest pitch of glory under the auspices of Your Illustrious Race.

Had not the people of this Colony the best of all proofs to offer to Your Royal Highness of the sincerity of their professions of personal attachment, had not the blood of their youth flowed freely on the very land given to their loyal and patriotic fathers; had they not at the hazard of life and property made good beyond dispute the solemn pledge of faith and loyalty to the Parent Country, they might have shrunk back assertion, doubtful because untried. The objection, however, does not exist, and they claim the high considerations, privileges and immunities of British Subjects. Having thus humbly laid open to Your Royal Highness the undisguised effusion of our hearts, we beseech Your Royal Highness' attention to the declaration of His Excellency John Graves Simeoe, in his Speech from the Throne at the opening of the first Session of the Legislature of this Province, at which important crisis, in language the most emphatical and enthusiastic, he promulgated the Constitution given to Canada by the wisdom and beneficence of the Parliament of Great Britain, which was as fully and exultingly recognized in the answer to his Speech by the Legislative Council through their enlightened

Speaker, the late Chief Justice Osgoode. The expression of public sentiment upon that occasion characterized the people on whom the gracious boon was bestowed, and we, the Representatives of that people, jealous of the treasure, and unwilling to yield up the slightest particle of the sacred trust, or to disgrace by pusillanimity the public spirit of the country, humbly submit to Your Royal Highness an Abstract of the Proceedings of the present Session of the Legislature of this Province, wherein his Majesty's Faithful Commons conceive their constitutional rights and privileges have been vitally assailed by the Resolutions of the Honorable the Legislative Council, delivered to the Speaker of the Commons House of Assembly, and evidently intended to limit and depreciate in Public estimation its functions, by the avowal of their consideration of its powers, as resolved by them, and to be printed, with a view, no doubt, of being blazoned to the world. The consequent interruption of harmonious intercourse indicated by the Legislative Council, could not otherwise but tend to put an end to public business, and to prevent the Commons House of Assembly from providing by Bill a supply to meet the excess of the Civil expenditure of the Administration of the Government of this Province, as required of them by a message during their present Session, communicated by His Majesty's Representative: nor could any other means be adopted on the part of the Commons to meet the exigency without recourse to a practice not unfrequent in their Parliamentary usage, of voting the amount by Address.

The answer received by His Majesty's Faithful Commons in reply from the Administrator of the Government, as recorded on their Journals, they do not hesitate to consider ill advised, as the service for which the vote was provided was that of the actual subject of the Message from the Crown, to which no possible doubt of approbation of the Legislature could have been contemplated. It, however, strongly marks in a national and constitutional point of view the evil that must ever result from the Legislative and Executive functions being materially vested in the same persons, as is unfortunately the case in this Province, where His Majesty's Executive Council is almost wholly composed of the Legislative body, and consisting only of the Deputy Superintendent of the Indian Department, the Receiver General, and Inspector General, the Chief Justice, the Speaker of the Legislative Council, and the Hon. and Rev. Chaplain to that House.

His Majesty's Faithful Commons of Upper Canada having thus performed the imperious duty which their peculiar circumstances called for, have only further to implore of Your Royal Highness to give their representation the mature reflection that is due to its importance, as His Majesty's Faithful Commons are sanguine in the hope that the voice of Your Royal Highness will approbate their Resolution, and firm determination to preserve inviolate their Civil and Constitutional Rights in their fullest amplification.

Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. Hatt, moved that it be resolved that an Address be presented to His Honor the Administrator, praying that he will be pleased to transmit to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent the Address of this House on the subject of its privileges, and that Messrs. Burwell and McMartin be a Committee to draft the same, which was carried and ordered.

Mr. Burwell, first named of the Committee to prepare an Address to His Honor the Administrator, praying him to transmit to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent the Address of this House, on the subject of its privileges, reported a draft of an Address, which was received and read.

Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. Hatt, moved that the fifth Rule of this House be dispensed with in so far as relates to the Address to His Honor the Administrator, and that it be now read a second time, which was carried, and the Address was read the second time.

Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. Hatt, moved that the House do now go into Committee on the Address to His Honor the Administrator, which was carried, and Mr. Swayze took the Chair of the Committee.

The House resumed. Mr. Swayze reported the Address. Ordered that the Report be received.

Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. Hatt, moved that the Address to His Honor the Administrator be engrossed, and read a third time this day, which was carried.

The engrossed Address was then read the third time, passed and signed by the Speaker as follows:

To His Honor Samuel Smith, Esq., Administrator of the Government of Upper Canada.

May it please Your Honor: We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, having resolved that an humble Address be presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, humbly beg leave to pray that Your Honor will be pleased to transmit the same to His Royal Highness.

Mr. Durand, seconded by Mr. Hatt, moved that Messrs. Burwell and McMartin be a Committee to wait upon His Honor the Administrator, to know when he will be pleased to receive the Address of this House on the subject of the Address of the Address to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, and to present the same, which was ordered.

Mr. Burwell, seconded by Mr. Hall, moved that it be resolved that the Speaker be directed to transmit to William Halton, Esq., Provincial Agent for Upper Canada, London, a copy of the Humble Address of this House to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, on the subject of its privileges, together with a copy of its proceedings with the Hon. the Legislative Council during the present Session, respecting the same, together with its Address to His Honor the Administrator on that subject, which was ordered.

The House then adjourned till eleven o'clock to-morrow.

Tuesday, 31st March, 1818.

The House met. Prayers were read. The minutes of yesterday were read. The House then adjourned till to-morrow at twelve o'clock.

Wednesday, 1st April, 1818.

The House met. Prayers were read.

Mr. Lee, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, delivered at the Bar of the House a message from His Honor the Administrator, in the following words:

Mr. Speaker: His Honor the Administrator commands the immediate attendance of this House at the Bar of the Legislative Council Chamber, and withdrew.

Mr. Speaker and the Members then present accordingly went up to the Legislative Council Chamber, when His Honor the Administrator was pleased to give his assent to the following Bills, viz.:

An Act to regulate the costs in certain cases in the Court of King's Bench.

An Act to repeal an Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to continue for a limited time the Provisional Agreement entered into between this Province and Lower Canada, at Montreal, on the fifth day of July, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Four, relative to duties, also for continuing for a limited time the several Acts of the Parliament of this Province relative thereto, and also to ratify and confirm the Provisional Articles of Agreement entered into by the respective Commissioners of this Province and Lower Canada, at Montreal, on the thirty-first day of May, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventeen, relative to duties, and for carrying the same into effect.

The following Bills were reserved for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure thereon, viz.:

An Act to repeal part of and amend the Laws now in force for establishing District Schools in the several Districts of this Province.

An Act to appropriate a sum of money to increase the Library of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, and for other purposes therein mentioned.

And His Honor was pleased to withhold His Majesty's consent to the Bill intituled "An Act to give effect and validity to Deeds executed by Married Women in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies, and to repeal part of and amend an Act passed in the forty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to enable Married Women having real estate to alien and convey the same.'"

His Honor was then pleased to close the Session with a Speech from the Chair as follows:

Honorable Gentlemen and Gentlemen: When I called you together in obedience to the law it was in full expectation that you would assiduously labour to bring up any arrear of Public Business.

The ready pledge offered by your cordial Addresses in answer to my suggestions from the Chair confirmed me in that hope.

I regret the more to have experienced disappointment, and finding no probability of any concert between the two Houses. I come reluctantly to close the Session, its business unfinished.

I do most earnestly entreat you to weigh well during the recess the important effects of such a disunion, and that you may meet resolved to conciliate and be useful.

After which the Hon. Speaker of the Legislative Council said: It is His Honor the Administrator's will and pleasure that this Provincial Parliament be prorogued till Friday, the First day of May next, to be then and here holden, and this Provincial Parliament is accordingly prorogued till Friday, the First day of May next.

I certify the foregoing to be a true copy of the Journal of the Proceedings of the House of Assembly of Upper Canada during the second Session of the Seventh Provincial Parliament.

TREASURY BOARD OVER-RULINGS.

Re TOWNSHIP OF TISDALE DEBENTURES.

Treasury Department.

Required cheque for $40,000.00 in favour of the Treasurer, Twp. of Tisdale, as per Order-in-Council of the 19th day of June, 1912.

C. H. SPROULE,
Assistant Treasurer.

Toronto, June 26, 1912.

Audit Office.

TORONTO, June 26th, 1912.

DEAR SIR,—Referring to your requisition, Treasury voucher 8273 for a cheque for $40,000.00 in favor of the Treasurer of Township of Tisdale for the purchase of five debentures of the said township under direction of an Order-in-Council dated the 19th day of June, 1912.

I have to call your attention to the fact that no By-law would appear to have been submitted to and approved by the Electors of the Township of Tisdale qualified to vote on money by-laws since the passing of the aforesaid Order-in-Council of the 19th inst. as required under Chap. 17, 2 George V., subsection 2 of section 40 to enable the Province to make the loan.

Yours truly,

C. H. SPROULE, ESQ.,
Assistant Treasurer.

JAMES CLANCY,

Treasury Department.

TORONTO, July 12th, 1912.

DEAR SIR,—Referring to your letter of June 26th replying to my requisition of the previous day for $40,000.00 in favor of the Treasurer of the Township of Tisdale, such sum being the purchase price of five debentures of the said Township under its By-law No. 21, I beg to say that 2 George V., Chapter 17, Section 40, Sub-section 1 gives the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council authority to purchase the said debentures and is complete in itself without any reference to Sub-section 2 of the said Section.

I beg to notify you that the matter will be referred to the Treasury Board under the provisions of The Audit Act, Section 13, Sub-section 1, Clause (c) as enacted by 9 Edward VII., Chapter 10, Section 3.

Yours truly,

JAMES CLANCY, ESQ.,
Auditor, Bldgs.

C. H. SPROULE,
Assistant Treasurer.

Audit Office.

TORONTO, July 15th, 1912.

DEAR SIR,—I have your letter of the 12th inst. in reference to the proposed loan of $40,000.00 to the Township of Tisdale.

In my letter to you of the 26th ult. (the only one I have written on the subject) I did not refuse to certify the issue of a cheque to the Treasurer of the Township of Tisdale. I merely called attention that there would not appear to have been any authoritative By-law passed by the Township to enable the Province to make the loan.

I take from your letter that you do not deem it necessary to pass any By-law in compliance with 2 George V., Sub-section 2 of Section 40, and that you intend to refer the matter to the Treasury Board.

I presume that it is intended that I should be permitted to state my objections, which I hope to be able to do within a day or two.

Yours truly,

C. H. SPROULE, ESQ.,
Assistant Treasurer.

TORONTO, July 16th, 1912.

Re Proposed Loan to Township of Tisdale.

DEAR SIR,—In further reference to your letter of the 12th inst. in which you make the following statement:

“ I beg to say that 2 George V., Chap. 17, Section 40, Sub-section 1 gives the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council authority to purchase the said debentures and is complete in itself without any reference to Sub-section 2 of the said Section.”

There would appear to be no room for doubt as to the scope and the meaning of the foregoing unequivocal statement, which narrows the whole question for consideration down to the one point, namely, that the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council is authorized under sub-section 1 to purchase the debentures of the Municipalities therein named, without regard to any other object or to any provision in respect to the security for repayment of the loan to the Province.

This being a special and solely an enabling Act it would seem difficult to conceive of anything being present to the mind of the Legislature other than the one specific object, namely, to enable the Province to make valid loans to certain Municipalities surrounded by the usual safeguards for the repayment of such loans.

Nor would the language of section 40. read in the most technical sense by separate parts or as a whole, appear to convey any other meaning or intention.

Sub-section 1 provides as follows:—

The Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council is authorized to purchase on behalf of Ontario out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund any or all of the Municipal debentures issued or to be issued under the following by-laws:—

The by-laws contemplated in “the words.” “the following by-laws” would each and all appear to be so unmistakably clear as to preclude the possibility of including among them a by-law or any by-law of the Township of Tisdale that may for any reason have been numbered 21, or that may for any reason have been passed at such time and under such conditions as best suited the convenience of the township Council.

I submit that the only By-law of the Township of Tisdale that is or could be contemplated or included within the meaning of the words, "the following by-laws," and the only by-law the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council is authorized to purchase the debentures issued thereunder, is a by-law, or the by-law, after the same has first been approved of by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, and after such approval has been submitted to and approved of by the Electors of the Township of Tisdale qualified to vote on money by-laws.

It would, therefore, seem both inapt and unprofitable to enter upon a discussion of the powers of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, or the powers of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to cure defects in any other by-law or by-laws.

I respectfully submit that the Township of Tisdale has not passed any By-law authorizing the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to purchase the debentures issued thereunder as required by 2 George V., Chap. 17, section 40, sub-sections 1 and 2.

And that until such By-law has been so passed the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council has no power or authority to purchase any debenture or debentures of the Township of Tisdale.

Yours truly,

C. H. SPROULE, Esq.,
Assistant Treasurer.

J. CLANCY,

MEMORANDUM made pursuant to The Audit Act, section 13, sub-section 1, clause (c) as enacted by 9 Edward VII., Chapter 10, section 3.

IN THE MATTER of an appeal to the Treasury Board upon the refusal of the Provincial Auditor to certify that a cheque for $40,000.00 may issue to the Treasurer of the Township of Tisdale in payment of five debentures of said Township issued under By-law No. 21.

i. The purpose for which the expenditure of $40,000.00 is required is: the purchase of five debentures issued pursuant to By-law No. 21 of the Township of Tisdale.

ii. The said expenditure is chargeable under 2 George V., Chapter 17, section 40 to Consolidated Revenue Fund.

iii. The objections taken by the Provincial Auditor to the issue of the cheque are contained in his letters to the Assistant Treasurer of June 26th and July 16th, 1912, and appear to be that By-law No. 21 of the Township of Tisdale under which the said debentures are issued has not been submitted to and approved by the Electors of the said Township qualified to vote on money By-laws since the passing of an Order-in-Council of the 19th inst., authorizing the purchase by the Provincial Treasurer pursuant to 2 George V., Chapter 17, Section 40, of the said debentures, and that no authority is given to purchase such debentures unless the procedure set out in sub-section 2 of said section 40 with respect to such By-law has been followed.

iv. The answers to such objections are contained in the letter dated July 12th of the Assistant Treasurer to the Provincial Auditor and consist of a statement that the legislation contained in 2 George V., Chapter 17, section 40, sub-section 1 gives the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council authority to purchase such debentures is complete in itself without reference to sub-section 2 in which a validating procedure is set out.

DATED at Toronto this 13th day of July, A.D., 1912.

A. J. MATHESON,

Provincial Treasurer.

Authorizing the Issue of Cheque for $40,000.00 in favor of the Treasurer of the Township of Tisdale.

The Provincial Auditor having refused to certify to the issue of a cheque for the sum of $40,000.00 in favor of the Treasurer of the Township of Tisdale, such sum being the price of five debentures, one for the sum of $1,600.00 and the other four for the sum of $11,019.60 each, of the said Township under its By-Law No. 21 and directed to be purchased by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council by Order-in-Council dated the 19th day of June, 1912, pursuant to the provisions of 2 George V., Chapter 17, section 40, on the grounds set forth by the said Auditor in his letter to the Assistant Treasurer dated June 26th, 1912, and his letter to the said Assistant Treasurer dated July 16th, 1912, the Provincial Treasurer has submitted the sufficiency of the Auditor's objection to the Treasury Board for determination as provided by The Audit Act, section 13, sub-section 1. clause (c) as enacted by 9 Edward VII., Chapter 10, section 3.

Upon consideration of the facts as set out in the Memorandum to the Treasury Board by the Provincial Treasurer and by the correspondence submitted therewith, and of the fact that by order and certificate dated the 4th day of June, A.D. 1912, made pursuant to the provisions of "The Ontario Municipal Securities Act, 1908." The Ontario Railway and Municipal Board declared that the said By-Law No. 21 was valid and binding, and that its validity was not open to question in any Court, on any ground whatever, and that the debentures issued under the authority of and in accordance with the said By-law were also approved, and that the same was certified by the said Board as provided by the said The Ontario Municipal Securities Act, 1908, this Board is of opinion that the Auditor's objection is untenable, there being direct legislative authority contained in 2 George V., Chapter 17, section 40, sub-section 1, clause (d) for the purchase by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council of the said debentures and for payment therefor out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund (and that such authority is not dependent upon the provisions of sub-section 2 of the said section 40, being complied with, such provisions being in the opinion of the Board for the purpose of greater caution and not to be construed as imperative procedure to be followed in the case of a By-law which is otherwise valid), and the Board directs that a cheque for the sum of $40,000.00 be issued to the Treasurer of the Township of Tisdale forthwith.

J. P. WHITNEY,

Chairman Treasury Board.

Dated the 17th day of July, A.D. 1912.

Re TOWNSHIP OF WHITNEY DEBENTURES.

Treasury Department.

October 10th, 1912.

REQUIRED cheque in favour of the Treasurer of the Township of Whitney, for the sum of $20,000.00, re purchase by the Government of 20 Municipal Debentures under By-law No. 13—see Order-in-Council 19th June, 1912.

C. H. SPROULE,
Assistant Treasurer.

Audit Office.

TORONTO, October 11th, 1912.

DEAR SIR,—Referring to Treasury voucher 12,598 and the accompanying requisition for the issue of a cheque for $20,000 in favor of the Treasurer of the Township of Whitney, being the sum required to purchase 20 debentures issued under the authority of By-law No. 13 of the said Township, under direction of an Order-in-Council of the 19th day of June, 1912.

And also the certificate of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board of the 18th day of September, 1912, purporting to validate the said By-law and the debentures issued thereunder pursuant to the provisions of the Municipal Securities Act, 1908.

I have to call attention to the fact that the statutory formalities, under the provisions of 2 George V., Chap. 17, sub-section 2 of section 40, of the Statute Law Amendment Act 1912, necessary to render the said By-law No. 13 legal, valid and binding, have not been complied with, namely, that the said By-law was not first approved by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council before being submitted to the Electors of the said Township of Whitney qualified to vote on money By-laws.

I therefore respectfully submit;—

(1) That the said By-law No. 13 is invalid and of no force or effect as authorizing or enabling the Province of Ontario to enforce repayment of any money advanced to the said Township of Whitney on the security of the debentures issued under the said By-law.

(2) That the said By-law was passed under the provisions of R.S.O. Chap. 225, being an Act respecting the establishment of Municipal Institutions in the Territorial Districts, and not under the provisions of the Consolidated Municipal Act 1903, which for the purposes of the Municipal Securities Act 1908, alone comes under the jurisdiction of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board.

(3) That the non-compliance of the said By-law with the provisions of 2 George V., Chap. 17, section 40, sub-section 2, is not an irregularity or defect in the proceedings prior to the final passing of the said By-law under the provisions of the Act under the authority of which the said By-law was assumed to be passed, but on the contrary exclusively a brazen disregard of the provisions of sub-section 2 of section 40, of the aforesaid Statute Law Amendment Act and no other.

(4) That the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board had no power to review or pass upon any irregularity or defect by reason of the non-compliance of the said By-law No. 13, with the provisions of sub-section 2 of section 40, of the aforesaid

Statute Law Amendment Act and in making the order and certificate, dated the 18th day of September, 1912, declaring By-law No. 13 of the said Township of Whitney and the debentures issued thereunder valid and binding, obviously exceeded its jurisdiction.

(5) That if it could be assumed, in the merest technical sense that the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council is authorized to purchase the debentures issued under the said By-law No. 13, of the Township of Whitney, that would not seem to afford any reason for expending $20,000 in the purchase of such debentures, if they are not absolutely legal, valid and binding.

DEAR SIR,—I beg to notify you that in pursuance of 9 Edward VII., Chapter 10, section 3, the matter of your objection to certify to cheque for $20,000 for the Township of Whitney, under By-law No. 13 of the said Township, will be referred to the Treasury Board for decision thereon.

Copy of a Minute of the Treasury Board dated the 16th day of October, A.D. 1912.

In the matter of an appeal to the Treasury Board upon the refusal of the Provincial Auditor to certify that a cheque for $20,000.00 may issue to the Treasurer of the Township of Whitney, in payment of Twenty (20) debentures of the said Township under By-law No. 13, for the amount of One thousand four hundred and seventy-one dollars and sixty-five cents ($1,471.65) each, being twenty equal annual instalments for a period of twenty years with interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, said $20,000.00 being the present value of the said debentures.

The said expenditure is chargeable under 2 George V., Chapter 17, section 40, to Consolidated Revenue Fund.

The objections taken by the Provincial Auditor to the issue of the cheque are contained in his letter to the Assistant Provincial Treasurer, dated 11th October, 1912, and appear to be that By-law No. 13, of the Township of Whitney, under which the said Debentures are issued has not been submitted to and approved by the Electors of the said Township qualified to vote on money By-laws since the passing of an Order-in-Council of the 19th June, 1912, authorizing the purchase by the Provincial Treasurer pursuant to 2 George V., Chapter 17, section 40, of the said debentures, and that no authority is given to purchase such debentures unless the procedure set out in sub-section 2 of said section 40, with respect to such By-law has been followed.

The Board is of opinion that the legislation contained in 2 George V., Chapter 17, section 40, sub-section 1, gives the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council authority to purchase such debentures without reference to sub-section 2 in which a validating procedure is set out, and that the Auditor is mistaken in his opinion that the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board has no power to review or pass upon any irregularity or defect by reason of the non-compliance with the provisions of sub-section 2 of section 40, of the aforesaid Statute Law Amendment Act in making the order and certificate.

Under the circumstances the Board directs that a cheque for the amount above mentioned be issued without further delay.

Certified,

J. LONSDALE CAPRÉOL,
Clerk Treasury Board.

Audit Office.

TORONTO, October 18th, 1912.

DEAR SIR,—I have to-day received a copy of the Minute of the Treasury Board dated the 16th of October, 1912, over-ruling the objection of this Office to the issue of a cheque to the Treasurer of the Township of Whitney for $20,000, being the purchase price of twenty (20) debentures issued under By-law no. 13 of the said township.

In the 3rd paragraph of the aforesaid minute, it is stated that in my letter of the 11th of October, 1912, one of the objections taken by me to the issue of the aforesaid cheque would appear to be that the aforesaid By-law of the Township of Whitney has not been submitted to and approved by the Electors of the said Township since the passing of an Order-in-Council of the 19th of June, 1912, authorizing the purchase of the said debentures. And another, that no authority is given to purchase such debentures unless the procedure set out in sub-section 2 of section 40, of the Statute Law Amendment Act, 1912, with respect to such By-law has been followed.

Apart altogether from the facts in this case, I beg leave to respectfully submit that in my letter to you of the 11th of October, 1912, I did not, as attributed to me, directly or indirectly by implication or otherwise, take the objection that the said By-law No. 13 had not been submitted to and approved by the Electors of the Township of Whitney since the passing of the said Order-in-Council of the 19th of June, 1912; nor did I take the objection (whether true or untrue) that no authority is given to purchase the said debentures unless the procedure set out in sub-section 2 of section 40, of the aforesaid Statute Law Amendment Act has been followed.

I should be obliged for a copy of the memorandum sent to the Treasury Board as required under section 13, sub-section 1, clause (c) of the Audit Act as amended by Chap 10, 9 Edward VII., at your earliest convenience.

Yours truly,

C. H. SPROULE, ESQ.,

MEMORANDUM made pursuant to the Audit Act, section 13, sub-section 1, clause (c) as enacted by 9 Edward VII., Chapter 10, section 3.

1. In the matter of an appeal to the Treasury Board upon the refusal of the Provincial Auditor to certify that a cheque for $20,000.00 may issue to the Treasurer of the Township of Whitney, in payment of twenty (20) debentures of the said Township under By-law No. 13, for the amount of One thousand four hundred and seventy-one dollars and sixty-five cents ($1,471.65) each, being twenty equal annual instalments for a period of twenty years with interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, said $20,000.00 being the present value of the said debentures.

2. The said expenditure is chargeable under 2 George V., Chapter 17, section 40, to Consolidated Revenue Fund.

3. The objections taken by the Provincial Auditor to the issue of the cheque are contained in his letter to the Assistant Provincial Treasurer, dated 11th October, 1912, and appear to be that By-law No. 13, of the Township of Whitney, under which the said debentures are issued has not been submitted to and approved by the Electors of the said Township qualified to vote on money By-laws since the passing of an Order-in-Council of the 19th June, 1912, authorizing the purchase by the Provincial Treasurer pursuant to 2 George V., Chapter 17, section 40, of the said debentures and that no authority is given to purchase such debentures unless the procedure set out in sub-section 2 of said section 40, with respect to such By-law has been followed.

4. The answer to such objection is that the Legislation contained in 2 George V., Chapter 17, section 40, sub-section 1, gives the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council authority to purchase such debentures without reference to sub-section 2, in which a validating procedure is set out.

5. That the Auditor is mistaken in his opinion that the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board has no power to review or pass upon any irregularity or defect by reason of the non-compliance with the provisions of sub-section 2, of section 40, of the aforesaid Statute Law Amendment Act in making the order and certificate.

FINDING OF THE HON. THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL (ACTING) UNDER SEC. 13
SUB-SEC. 1, CLAUSE (A) OF AUDIT ACT, Re PAYMENT TO ENUMERATORS.

Audit Office.

TORONTO, June 17th, 1912.

DEAR SIR,—Having regard to the claim made by A. J. Watson, Enumerator for the Electoral District of Port Arthur for $60.00 for alleged services during the fifteen days required under the Voters' List Act to elapse between the day of the posting of the Voters' lists in the office of the Enumerator and the expiration of the time within which complaint might be made in respect to such lists.

Under the provisions of section 67, Part 3, "An Enumerator for preparing and the Judge for revising the lists required by this part shall be entitled to receive the sum of $4.00 per day for the time during which he was engaged therein.

It would appear to be reasonably clear that the "Words" "for the time during which he was engaged therein" must be taken to mean the time the Enumerator was actually and necessarily engaged in the preparation of the lists, as well as the time the Judge was actually and necessarily engaged in the revising of the lists. No duty or service is provided for or required to be performed by the Enumerator under the Act in the preparation of the lists during the period covered by the aforesaid fifteen days, and I therefore respectfully submit that it would seem impossible to conclude the Enumerator was engaged in a service that could not and did not exist under the Act.

I beg leave to report under the provisions of sub-section 1, clause (a) of section 13 of the Audit Act, that the expenditure for the service claimed by the Enumerator in this case, is not authorized by law for the following reason, namely: That no service was performed by the Enumerator during the period of fifteen days, from the day on which he posted the lists in his office till the expiration of the time within which complaint might be made in respect to the said lists.

Yours truly,

HON. J. J. FOY, K.C.,
Attorney-General.

J. CLANCY,
Auditor.

Audit Office.

TORONTO, June 18th, 1912.

DEAR SIR,—Referring to the case of J. E. Gardiner, Enumerator for the Electoral District of Porcupine, in which he claims payment for services during the period of fifteen days between the day of the posting of the Voters' lists in his office and the expiration of the time within which complaint might be made in respect to such lists, as provided by sub-section 4 of section 7, sub-section 1 of section 14 Part 1, and sub-section 4 of section 65, Part 3 of the Voters' List Act, at the rate of $4.00 per day, $60.00, and in addition to this the sum of $37.50 for board covering the same period.

Section 67 Part 3 provides as follows: "An Enumerator for preparing and the Judge for revising the lists required by this part shall be entitled to receive the sum of $4.00 per day for the time during which he was engaged therein."

Are the words "for the time during which he was engaged therein" to be taken to mean that the Enumerator was engaged in the preparation of the lists from the time of his appointment to the completion of such lists, or to mean the time the Enumerator was actually and necessarily engaged in the preparation of the lists.

The same language being employed, it must necessarily follow that the same rule should apply in respect to the remuneration of the Enumerator and the Judge respectively. This alone would seem to be destructive of any contention in support of the Enumerator being continuously engaged in the preparation of the lists from the time of his appointment till the completion of such lists within the meaning of section 67.

Having regard to Mr. Gardiner's claim for board, sub-section 1 of section 17 provides that the voter making a complaint in respect of the list shall give to the Enumerator (see sub-section 4 of section 65) or leave for him at his residence or place of business, notice in writing of his complaint.

The legal presumption at least must be that for the purpose of preparing the lists, Mr. Gardiner had a fixed place of residence or business and therefore could not have incurred any expense in connection with the preparation of the lists during the aforesaid fifteen days when he had no duty as such to perform and was not engaged therein.

I beg leave to report under the provisions of sub-section 1, clause (a) of section 13 of the Audit Act:

(a) That the expenditure for the services claimed by Mr. Gardiner would not appear to be authorized by law.

(b) That no service was performed by him under the authority of the Voters' List Act during the period of fifteen days from the day on which he posted the lists in his office till the expiration of the time within which complaint might be made in respect to said lists.

Department of Attorney General.

TORONTO, June 22nd, 1912.

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge your letters of June 17th, addressed to the Attorney General and dealing with the claims made by A. J. Watson and J. E. Gardiner, two Enumerators in the unorganized Districts.

The Attorney General is at present away, but as I advised you by telephone some time ago, it is the intention of this Department to bring these cases as test ones before the Treasury Board, and, as I understand section 13 of The Audit Act as amended by 9 Edward VII. Chapter 10, Section 3, it is for the Department making the requisition to choose the manner in which the matter is to be disposed of.

I am saying this because from your telephone conversation with me some time ago, and the wording of your letters it appears that you are requesting the Attorney General's opinion under the said Section 13 (1) (a). Under these circumstances I suppose this Department may treat your letters as containing the objections taken by you to the issue of cheques to Messrs. Watson and Gardiner under Clause (c) of sub-section 1 of said Section 13.

Yours faithfully,

TORONTO, June 25th, 1912.

DEAR SIR,—I have your letter of the 22nd inst. respecting the claims of A. J. Watson and J. E. Gardiner, Enumerators for the Electoral Districts of Port Arthur and Porcupine, respectively.

The Auditor of Criminal Justice Accounts, an Officer of the Department of the Attorney General, acting as I am informed upon what he had always understood to be the law, refused in the outset to allow these and similar claims, and the Audit Office, entertaining the same view, saw no ground for interference in these or other similar cases.

I beg leave to be permitted to say that I have not from first to last refused, nor do I now refuse to certify the issue of cheques to Watson and Gardiner in this case. I am, however, strongly impressed with the view that an expenditure for payment of their claims would not appear to be authorized by law, and I have so reported, pursuant to the provisions of sub-section 1, clause (a) of section 13 of the Audit Act.

In this I may be wrong, and should the Honourable the Attorney General so decide, the cheques for the claims in question should as a matter of law, and will, so far as I am concerned, issue without delay.

Yours truly,

J. CLANCY,

Auditor.

GOLD.

PORCUPINE.

The occurrence of gold in Northern Ontario has been known for many years, but the few mines that did pay for a time, only strengthened by their early failure, the belief that gradually spread throughout the country, that gold mining in Ontario must necessarily prove unprofitable. This idea will account for much of the scepticism that greeted the news of gold finds in Porcupine in 1909. Fortunately for the district, the largest finds early passed into the hands of strong financial interests that insured their thorough testing and development. Lack of adequate transportation facilities retarded the opening up of the new camp in 1910, but good progress was beginning to be shown in 1911.

The Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway built a branch line 33 miles from the main line to serve the district. The construction of several mills was well under way when the disastrous fire of July 11th, 1911, swept through the country, not only causing the destruction of these mills, along with most of the mining plants on the ground, but also entailing a large loss of human life. Construction, however, was immediately recommenced with the result that Porcupine became a regular producer early in 1912. The estimated value of the gold output for the year is $1,800,000. The actual gold production from the district as given by the Ontario Bureau of Mines is as follows:

| Year.      | Ore treatedtons. | Gold Bullion.Ozs. | Value.         |
| 1910 ..... | 1,060                | 1,947                 | $35,539 00    |
| 1911 ..... | 707                  | 851                   | 17,187 00      |
| 1912 ..... | 88,466               | 50,633                | 1,032,313 00   |
| (9 months) | 90,233               | 53,431                | $1,085,039 00 |

The small productions shown for the years 1910 and 1911 came from the small experimental plants on the Hollinger, Dome and Vipond, but all three were destroyed by the forest fires of 1911.

The new mills that have since been erected and are responsible for the 1912 production are:

1. Dome.
2. Hollinger.
3. McIntyre.
4. Vipond.

while those now under construction are:

5. Dome Lake.
6. McEnaney (Crown Reserve Mining Co.)

and the new mill of the McIntyre.

The first company to declare a dividend was the Hollinger, which on the 2nd November paid 3 per cent., or a total of $90,000. In a statement to the shareholders, the President of the Company states:

“ Our profits at the present time are over $40,000 per week, and the management is confident of continuing this at an undiminished rate, hence the payment of regular dividends every four weeks present no difficulties, and will permit concurrently therewith substantial increases to be made to the reserve fund of the Company.”

The third dividend was paid on the 31st December, making a total dividend disbursement for the year of $270,000.00.

In November labor troubles arose which closed down some properties and interfered for a time with the efficient operation of most of the others, but by the end of the year conditions were again approaching a normal state.

Mining:

Winning the gold at Porcupine presents no very novel difficulties to overcome, so the modes of mining used are the standard methods adopted on somewhat similar conditions in different parts of the continent. Two different types are exemplified in the Dome and the Hollinger, the former using the “ Open-cut ” or “ Glory Hole ” method, and the latter, the regular underground method, with the “ Shrinkage stope ” system. In both systems the initial work is usually similar. After the timber is cleared off, the surface is striped or trenched to locate the veins. Vertical shafts are then sunk at suitable points, and levels are opened up, usually at 100 foot levels, though intermediate levels are sometimes run for local reasons. Reciprocating air piston drills are used, the favorite size being the 3¼-inch machine. Except when the stopes are wide, the small hammer drills have come into very general use for stoping.

In some shaft sinking recent practice favors the adoption of small plunger drills in preference to the heavier reciprocating piston drills. The advantages claimed for the plunger drill are:

1. Lighter and therefore more easily handled, hoisted or lowered.
2. Only three men are required to handle two machines, instead of four men for two of the piston machines.
3. Time taken to set up and tear down the larger machines is saved, and the actual drilling time is thus increased.
4. A greater footage of drilling is even claimed for the smaller machine in a given length of drilling time.
5. Fewer holes can sometimes be used to break a round, by drilling a few holes at a time, and then blasting. Advantage can thus be taken of any peculiarities in the breaking of the rock. If this method were tried with the heavier machines, too much time would be consumed in setting up and tearing down.
6. Small consumption of compressed air.

In the harder ground and particularly in the solid quartz the piston drill is still used for sinking on account of the large number of steel breakages (due doubtless to crystallization) and the consequent loss of holes.

Timbering employed is very simple. Square sets are used in the shafts. Stulls and lagging are placed in the stope above the drifts and the ore is broken down onto the timber by overhand stoping. Work is carried up on the broken ore, only sufficient being drawn off below through chutes to keep the broken rock far enough away from the back to allow work to proceed.

At the Dome Mine a different method of mining is adopted as described under the mine heading.

Milling:

Most of the ore on the surface was free-milling, but as the workings went down the gold was found to be more closely associated with the sulphides and simple amalgamation had to be augmented by cyanidation.

Primary grinding of the ore is performed by stamps in all cases, except in the Vipond mill, where rolls are employed to follow the crushers.

The Hollinger mill is a cyanide plant, while at the Dome preliminary amalgamation is employed before cyanidation. By the use of coarse screens the stamp duty is run up to 10 tons or over per 24 hours.

Power:

Two hydro-electric power plants belonging to the Northern Canada Power Company have been installed on the Mattagami River to supply power to the Porcupine gold district.

The first is situated at Sandy Falls, six miles north-west of the Hollinger Mine, or eight miles from Timmins Landing, down the Mattagami River. The installation consists of two pairs of 43-inch turbines, rated at 1,700 horse-power, with a 34-foot head, and two generators of 1,500 horse-power each, 25 cycle, 3 phase, 12,500 volt, 214 r.p.m. Foundations for a third unit of 1,500 electrical horse-power have been prepared, and this addition to the plant can be made whenever required.

The second plant at Wawaitan Falls, also on the Mattagami River, is situated eleven miles south-west of the Hollinger Mine, or about 20 miles by river. The plant consists of two turbines designed to produce 3,450 horse-power each, under a 110 ft. head. Each turbine operates a Westinghouse generator at 2,500 h.p. built to sustain an overload of 50 per cent.

The cost of power to the mines is $50.00 per horse power per annum, calculated on peak loads.

The year's operations in the district have been highly satisfactory. Development has in almost every case bettered the physical conditions of the properties that had anything like fair prospects to start with.

THE DOME MINES COMPANY LIMITED.

The property of this Company consists of 240 acres of mining lands situated in the south-eastern part of the township of Tisdale.

The ore consists of large masses of quartz and chist, frequently alternately banded and much mixed. The presence of quartz seems to be a necessary accompaniment of the gold values, though it is rather along the small contacts of the quartz and schist that the gold occurs, than in the quartz itself. The ore is, however, so mixed that very little sorting can be done, and the whole mass is sent to the mill if the average is of milling grade. Two 3-compartment vertical shafts have been sunk, No. 1 to 100 ft., and No. 2 to 250 ft. Sinking of No. 2 shaft is to be continued. A double tracked incline 568 ft. long connects the 45 ft. and the 100 ft. levels with the surface, and the mill. From the surface to the 15 ft. level the grade is 13.55 per cent., and from the 45 ft. level to the 100 ft. level, 18.19 per cent.

Methods of Drift and Shaft Drilling.

The 45 ft. level was divided into 100 ft. rectangular blocks of ore by drifts and crosscuts. A number of raises were then run to the surface with a chute at the foot of each. The ore which was broken down from above in benches was drawn off through these chutes, trammed by mules to the foot of the incline and hoisted into the mill. As the ore is mined and drawn off, inverted cone-shaped excavations are formed. Fourteen of these open pits are gradually running together, making one large open pit or "Glory Hole." No timbering is done except in shafts and chutes.

Piston drills are used underground for drifts, crosscuts and shafts; hammer drills for raises, and small pluggers and piston drills for stopes.

In drifting in the chist it requires 17 to 18 holes 6 ft. deep to bring the round. The bottom cut is generally used as shown in sketch No. 1. In some of the drifts where the ground is blocky the four hole diamond cut (sketch No. 2) is used to advantage. The average drilling per shift is from 8 to 9 holes.

In drilling in the quartz, the same number of holes is used, but six to seven 5-ft. holes is a shift's work. The average amount of powder used per round is 150 sticks, 50 of this being gelignite used in the cut and the remainder 40 per cent. dynamite for the square up. The machine used is the Rand 3¼ inches.

In the glory hole stoping six pluggers (Rand BC 26) are used to break ore for the mill. The average footage drilled per machine is approximately 56 ft. The powder consumption averages about 8 sticks per hole of C.L.X. Special, the holes having an average depth of 8ft.

Sketch No. 3 shows the method of placing the holes in a sinking round.

The total underground workings now amount to nearly 1¼ miles, without counting shafts and raises.

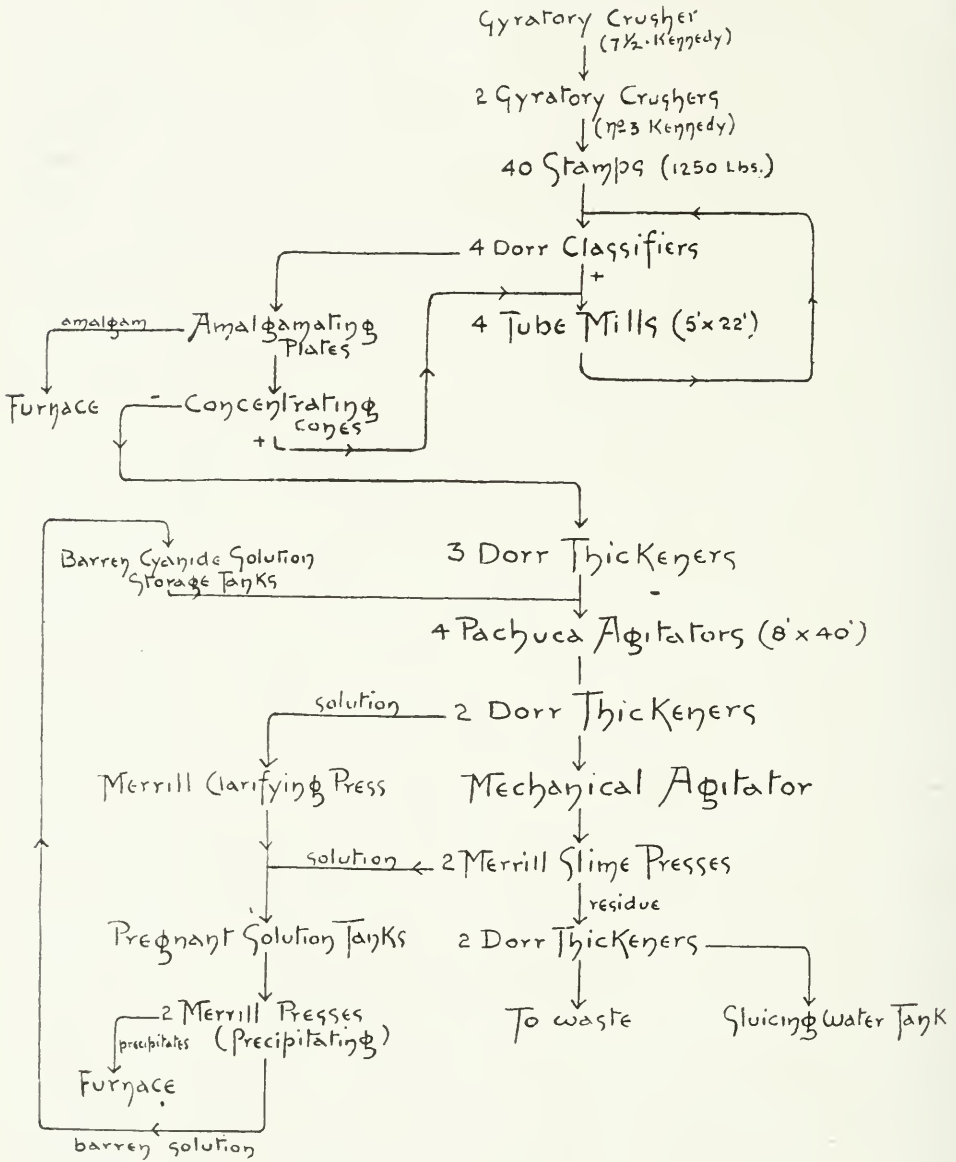

A 75 h.p. geared electric hoist serves the inclined shaft while a similar hoist of 250 h.p. capacity is installed at No. 2 shaft. At present, power is supplied by seven 150 h.p. Babcock & Wilcox boilers, fired with soft coal. Two 375 K.W. Allis-Chalmers generators run by 2 Robb-Corliss engines give the required electrical power for operating the mill, hoists, etc., and two 12-drill Ingersoll-Rand air compressors supply the mine with the necessary compressed air.

Instead of generating electrical power by coal, it will be bought from the Northern Canada Power Company as soon as the plant at Wawaitan Falls is operating.

The mill is a steel frame structure with concrete foundations and floors. The crusher plant is on the ground level and is housed in a separate building from the mill proper to which it is connected by an inclined belt conveyor way.

The flow sheet following shows in outline the method adopted in the mill for the extraction of the gold.

From the 23rd March, when the mill started, to the 1st November, the mill treated 65,000 tons. The average daily tonnage now treated is 333 tons. A new tube mill and presses are being installed which will run the capacity up to 425 tons daily, and further enlargements are under consideration.

HOLLINGER GOLD MINES.

This company owns four 40 acre lots in the south-west of the Township of Tisdale, in lots 10 and 11, Con. 11.

A large number of quartz veins have been located on the property, but 41 are definitely known to carry payable gold values. Only 8 of these have had any development work on them yet, as is shown in the following statement:

x Exposed by crosscuts.

The veins occur either in a porphyry schist or near the contact. So far development has been confined to veins in the porphyry. The strike of the schist is generally south-west to north-east, while the quartz veins cut across this strike at a small angle more to the north and south.

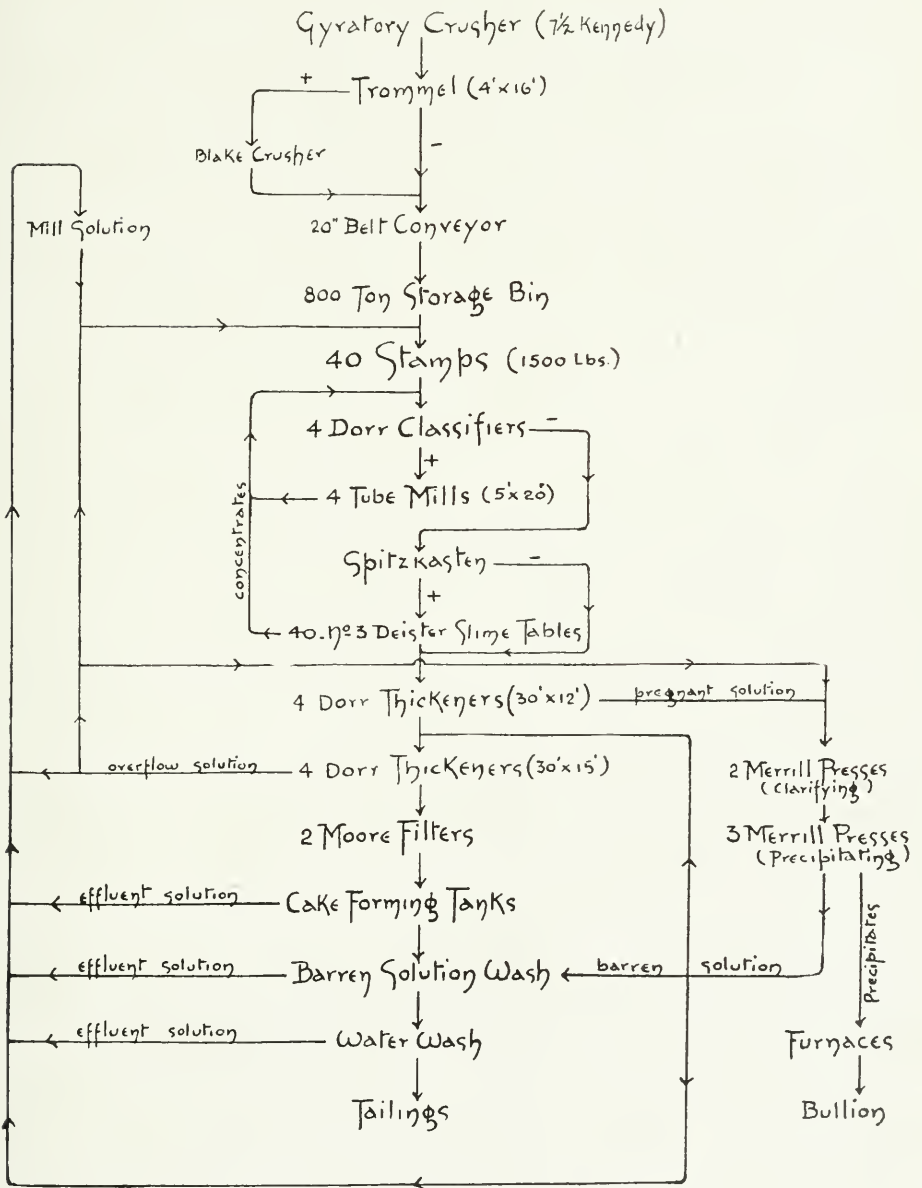

No. 1 vein, which has had most development, has a characteristic lenticular structure varying in width from 20 down to a few feet, the lenses frequently overlapping.

During 1910 a small steam two-stamp Tremain mill with a daily capacity of about 4 tons, ran preliminary tests on the ore, and demonstrated the richness of the ore being mined.

A modern mining and milling plant has now taken the place of the prospecting plant which was practically all lost in the fires of 1911.

The mine is being opened up by levels 100 ft. apart, the lowest at present being the 300 ft. The main 4-compartment shaft only goes to the 200 ft. level, but work will soon be resumed to connect it with lower levels. A winze connects the 200 ft. and 300 ft. levels. Underground workings, including drifts, crosscuts, shafts and winzes now aggregate over 1½ miles.

The following table will give an idea of the drilling averages in the different rocks at this mine. The drifts will average about 6 ft. x 7½ ft., and the machine used is a No. 43 Rand-3¼ inches:

x 3 hours lost and 15 sticks of dynamite used in reblasting cut.

† This time includes drilling, shooting and setting up.

In stoping when the ore is 20 ft. wide as is frequently the case in No. 1 vein, the ore is broken down in benches by long almost flat holes, piston drills being used.

32 holes, 7 ft. deep are employed to break a block of ore 20 ft. x 10 ft. x 7 ft., using from 6 to 7 sticks of powder per hole.

The average value of all ore removed from the mine to the 5th Oct., 1912, was $23.69 per ton, established by treating 26,221 tons in the original test mill and in the new mill. This amount was made up of waste rock inadvertently included from drifting and sinking, but showed an average value of $19.70 per ton, while the remaining 5,777 tons of ore from the stopes showed an average value on treatment of $37.89 per ton.

During 1912 the company milled a total of 45,195 tons, producing therefrom:

|              | Bullion.  | Value.       |
|--------------|-----------|--------------|
|              | ozs.      |              |
| Gold .....   | 43,689.52 | $903,062 46 |
| Silver ..... | 9,756.33  | 6,119 07     |
| Totals.....  | 53,445.85 | $906,181 53 |

The above values are for bullion produced, and not the total value of the ore treated. There is probably $60,000 in precipitates on hand and mill solutions, so that the total value of the ore milled was approximately $970,000.00.

The new mill is treating, on an average, 300 tons daily, with 30 stamps working, making 97 per cent. extraction from $30.00 ore. With the 40 stamps in operation the capacity will reach from 450 to 500 tons per day as the stamp capacity has been tested up to 12 tons per stamp per day. The cyanide plant has a maximum capacity of 600 tons per day.

Under normal working conditions the company makes a weekly profit of $40,000.00 and it is from this that it is paying its four-weekly dividend of 3 per cent., or $90,000.00.

DOME LAKE MINING AND MILLING COMPANY.

This company owns three patented claims in Lot 6, Con. 1 of Tisdale.

Four shafts have been sunk with a maximum depth of 180 ft., and about 1,500 ft. of drifting and crosscutting run.

The ore bodies encountered average between 4 and 5 feet, and are considered sufficiently high grade to warrant the erection of a small 10-stamp mill. This mill is now nearing completion, and is equipped with 1,050 lb. stamps, one 5 ft. x 18 ft. tube mill, and 4 concentrating tables. The capacity will be about 50 tons of ore per day. The values will be recovered by amalgamation and in concentrates at present, but the addition of a cyanide plant is probable later.

JUPITER MINES.

This property contains approximately 80 acres on the north of Pearl Lake in the Township of Tisdale.

Underground workings have attained a depth of 300 ft. and over 4,000 ft. of drifting and crosscutting completed.

Good ore has been developed on every level but on two of the upper levels some difficulty was experienced with faults. On the 300 ft. level the ground is more settled. A sufficient probable tonnage has been developed to warrant the erection of a mill, and this will likely be undertaken in the spring.

McENANEY MINE.

This mine is owned and operated by the Crown Reserve Mining Company of Cobalt.

The property consists of one 40-acre claim adjoining the Hollinger on the south.

A 2-compartment vertical shaft has been sunk 417 ft., with levels every 100 ft.

Good ore shoots have been located on each of the levels, with an average width between 3 and 4 feet, and an average value over $20.00.

A small mill is now nearing completion. It has 5 stamps installed and foundations ready for another 5. A tube mill will be used for regrinding, and all recovery will be by plate amalgamation. A cyanide plant is to be added later.

McINTYRE PORCUPINE MINES.

The company's holdings comprise 148 acres, being 52 acres between Pearl and Gillies Lakes, 28 acres of the bed of Gillies Lake, and 68 acres of the bed of Pearl Lake.

A 10-stamp mill started operations on March 1st, 1912, and by the end of the year it had treated 14,500 tons of free milling ore. The method of recovery is simple plate amalgamation. It was found that the percentage of sulphides increased in the ore so rapidly with depth that the extraction by plate amalgamation and concentration was not satisfactory. It was therefore decided to erect a mill using straight cyanidation and a 300 ton mill was started. The first unit of 150 tons is now nearing completion, and work will be immediately started on the second unit.

PEARL LAKE GOLD MINES.

This property consists of three claims and a fraction, with a total area of 122 acres, situated between Pearl Lake and Gillies Lake. Three prospecting shafts have been put down to a little more than 100 feet each, but the work is now confined to the main shaft which is now down 635 ft. This shaft has 3 compartments, and is vertical, and levels have been opened at 400 ft. and 600 ft. depths. On the 400 ft. level ore was encountered 226 ft. to the south of the shaft and the ore chute was opened up 75 ft. each way, giving an east and west ore chute of 150 ft. in length. In the east drift the ore is cut off by a fault. On the 600 ft. level a crosscut is being driven to cut the vein. A 30-stamp mill is to be installed in the spring.

PLENAURUM MINES.

This property is situated to the east of the Jupiter, to the northeast of Pearl Lake, in the township of Tisdale.

Two shafts are down 200 ft., at which level most development work has been done. The main crosscut runs north-west across under the east end of Pearl Lake, and cuts most of the veins at right angles. A winze from the 200 ft. level has reached a depth of 60 ft. all in good ore.

Exploratory work is proceeding on 9 ore-bearing veins on the 200 ft. level.

VIPOND PORCUPINE MINES.

The main shaft is 347 ft. deep, and levels have been opened up at 100 ft., 200 ft., and 300 ft. In sinking, plunger drills are used with a rose bit and hollow steel.

The mill has a daily capacity of 100 tons. It started operations on the 7th July, and had treated 6,000 tons by the end of October, when it was closed down for alterations.

The mill is equipped with jaw crusher, Sturtevant rolls, Hardinge ball and pebble mills, and Colbath classifiers. The ore is crushed to 200 mesh and amalgamated on plates. It was found, however, that this only gave an extraction of about 60 per cent., so that the mill has closed down temporarily till a cyanide plant can be added.

Swastika.

Work has been continued at the Swastika and Lucky Cross Mines, and these companies now consider that they have enough ore blocked out to warrant the erection of small mills. A 10-stamp mill for the Swastika and a 5-stamp mill for the Lucky Cross are now nearing completion.

Considerable interest is being shown in the district surrounding Kirkland Lake, to the north-east of Swastika. The principal property, known as the Tough-Oakes Claim, is now being opened up by Clement A. Foster. The property consists of five claims aggregating 185.6 acres. The claim on which the work is now being done is in the township of Teek, close to the Lebel line, 7 miles north-east of Swastika. Five veins have been located but it is the No. 2 vein that is now supplying the ore. Two shipments have been made from an open cut on this vein. The first shipment consisted of 52 bags weighing 3,785-lbs., and assaying 18.6 ounces gold per ton. The second shipment which went to the smelter in January, 1913, weighed 19.77 tons, and assayed 22,509 ounces gold per ton, or a total gold content of 445.16 ounces. This No. 2 vein has been opened up for a length of 450 ft., but the ore has been taken from an open cut 55 ft. long and 14 ft. deep. The veins though narrow appear to be very persistent, and sometimes values are also found in the walls. The wall rock is a conglomerate, but is not far from a mass of feldspar-porphry, which is probably the source of the gold, or at least the cause of the introduction of the gold. A 5-stamp mill has been ordered and is expected to be delivered at the mine in good time before the break-up. The mine is reached at present by a good sleigh road from Swastika Station.

The other most noteworthy properties in this district are the Oakes, the Hughes and the Costello. The country has been staked for miles around, and there are many prospectors in the district, and development has been quite encouraging.

Larder Lake.

One property, the "Goldfields Limited" re-started operations in the latter part of the year, on the completion of its 30 stamp mill. This is the only operating mill in the Larder Lake district. It derives its power from the company's own hydro-electric installation at Raven Falls, to the south-east of Larder Lake.

Good reports are coming in from the township of Gauthier, and one plant is going in over the winter road.

SILVER.

The silver industry still easily holds the premier position among the mining industries in that part of Northern Ontario served by the Ontario Government Railway.

The outstanding feature of the year 1912 has been the remarkable revival of interest in silver properties in the district, manifested in the reopening of a number of claims that had been worked for a while in the infancy of Cobalt, and later closed down on account of the indifferent success met.

The finding of a high grade vein on the 200 ft. level of the Seneca-Superior under Cart Lake doubtless had some influence on this revival. The sensational change also in the fortunes of the Cobalt Townsite Mining Company, one of the few Cobalt companies financed by English capital, from deep indebtedness to a highly remunerative dividend basis, and the bonanza silver find made on the lower levels of the sister English company, the Casey Cobalt Mine, also had a marked effect. Another discovery that is likely to have far reaching effects in the future is the location of good ore in both the Temiskaming and Beaver properties in the diabase below the Keewatin.

Cobalt will likely show a falling off of a million ounces in production for 1912, compared with 1911, but with the increased value of silver during the year, the total value will likely show an increase of about two million dollars, or 18,000,000. Under normal working conditions the present indications point to a decided increase in the output for 1913 over that of 1912. When the fact is considered that most of this production comes from Cobalt proper, or from an area of about six square miles in extent, in the township of Coleman, and "when it is considered that the geology of this area is similar to that of numerous other areas in several of which either cobalt, or cobalt and silver, have been found, it may reasonably be expected that in a region approximately 5,000 square miles in extent important discoveries will be made in localities that at present are unproductive."

Silver Vein discovered in 1912. Average assay 5,000 ounces Silver per ton, 4 inches wide; length of ore shoot, 250 feet. Casey Cobalt Mine, Casey Township, Ont.

Isolated productive mines have been found outside of Cobalt, such as the Casey, 19 miles north of Cobalt, the Wettlaufer, 20 miles south, and the Miller Lake-O'Brien of Gowganda, 50 miles north-west, but there must still remain in that 5,000 square miles many six-mile areas that are practically unprospected, and consequently cannot be said to be barren. The year's work also proves that intensive prospecting in the areas already fairly well known may be productive of excellent results.

In the actual operation of the silver mines, the ceaseless search for still more economical methods of mining and treatment goes on. Concentration takes a still more important place than formerly in the treatment of the low grade ores. The advance in the metallurgical treatment of the ore is seen in the increased shipments of refined silver bullion, with a corresponding decrease in the ore shipments to the smelters. The high grade mill of the Nipissing was in continuous operation during the year, and the Buffalo Mine came into line with a similar mill towards the end of the year.

Canada still occupies third place in the world's production of silver, with an output of 35,250,000 ounces, or over 15 per cent. of the total. Of this Cobalt produced about 30,500,000 ounces, or over 13 per cent.

The silver market throughout 1912 was strong, and advancing, with occasional slight reactions only. The average monthly prices in New York are shown below.

Silver Vein discovered in 1912. Assays 4,000 ounces Silver per ton, 200-foot level.
Spencer-Superior Mine, Cobalt, Ont.

London continues to be the chief silver market of the world, and the basing point of prices, and much of the silver bullion shipped from Cobalt now goes direct to London.

The rise of one cent in the yearly average price of silver means an additional income to the shipping mines of Cobalt of about $300,000.00. The 1912 average price with its 7.5 cents rise over 1911, raises the income of Cobalt by $2,250,000.00. If we assume that the cost of production in 1912 was the same as for the preceding year, this large increase in income becomes directly available for increased dividends. This will doubtless be reflected in the dividend declarations for the early part of 1913.

At the beginning of 1912 there were 12 dividend paying companies, and this number was augmented by the addition of the Cobalt Townsite Company, which declared quarterly dividends during the year aggregating £80,000, or 40 per cent. on the capital stock of the company. Then in December the Cobalt Lake Company joined the list with the declaration of a 2½ per cent. dividend, or $75,000, payable on the 2nd January, 1913.

The following companies have now repaid to their shareholders in dividends the amount of their capitalization, the Coniagas joining the number in 1912.

1. Buffalo.
2. Coniagas.
3. Crown Reserve.
4. Hudson Bay.
5. Kerr Lake.
6. McKinley-Darragh.
7. Nipissing.

Elk Lake.

The construction of a branch of the T. & N. O. Ry. into Elk Lake has had the effect of reviving considerable mining activity in this district. The most active property in this section of the country is the Beaver Auxiliary, formerly known as the Donaldson Claim, situated about two miles north of the town of Elk Lake. A development plant for this property was taken in as soon as the new line was opened.

All the silver finds in this area are in the diabase and when it is remembered that several of the surface showings in Elk Lake have been as good as those which occurred on the surfaces of the properties working in diabase in other districts that have become shippers, only the latter have had money expended on them for development, it would appear reasonable to conclude that some of the Elk Lake properties would become profitable shipping mines if capital is provided and sufficient development accomplished.

Gowganda.

The only regular shipper from Gowganda throughout the year has been the Miller Lake-O'Brien. A temporary setback was felt in the district with the closing down of the Millerett, but this property has since been acquired by the Miller Lake-O'Brien, which adjoins it, and these two properties will in future be worked together, the Millerett mill being used for concentration of the low grade ores.

The developments on the Mann claims have been of a most encouraging nature, and a bright future is looked for in this property. The Boyd-Gordon property which adjoins the Mann has been absorbed by the latter and the two properties are being developed together, the power being supplied by the Boyd-Gordon steam plant.

The building of the railway into Elk Lake is also having its effect on development in and around Gowganda, as the haul for ore and supplies is thus shortened about 23 miles.

South Lorrain.

The only shipping mine in this district during the year was the Wettlaufer. On this property 7 levels have been opened up with about  $1\frac{1}{4}$  miles of underground workings, and attaining a depth of 555 ft. All the workings so far have been in post-Huronian diabase.

The high grade ore is hand-picked, while the lower grade material is put through a small mill. The milling plant consists of a sorting table, 2 trommels, 3 jigs, and 2 concentrating tables. A No. 5 Huntington mill is used to regrind the jig tailings.

The ore is teamed  $3\frac{1}{2}$  miles to Silver Centre, on Lake Temiskaming, from whence it is shipped by boat to Temiskaming Station, at the foot of the lake, on the C. P. Railway, over which line it proceeds to the smelter.

In winter the ore is teamed to Haileybury and shipped out over the T. & N. O. Railway.

The following tables illustrate in statistical form the operations in the Cobalt district during 1912, along with comparisons with former years.

UNDERGROUND CONDITIONS.

Miners' phthisis has recently been classed by a South African Commission as an industrial disease, and subject to compensation as such. No class of mine labor is exempt from it, but machine drillers are most subject to this disease.

Recent attempts to overcome this dust difficulty are of general interest to all branches of the mining industry. During 1912 a clause was inserted in the Mining Act of Ontario, under which the mine inspector has power to insist on means being adopted to keep down the dust. The clause is section 164, subsection 60:

"Every dusty place where work is being carried on in a mine shall be adequately supplied at all times with clean water under pressure or other approved appliances for laying the dust caused by drilling or blasting operations."

Both piston and hammer drills are used in the mines of Northern Ontario, but the hammer drills are the greater offenders as dust makers and spreaders. A number of different makes of hammer drills are now operating in the mines at Cobalt and Porcupine, the principal ones being the Rand, Sullivan, and Waugh. For each of these machines a sprayer or dust allayer has been introduced, and already working conditions have been improved. Two types of these dust allayers are figured on p. 36. Although these innovations are introduced primarily for the benefit of the employee, and the employer only benefits indirectly by the increased efficiency of the labor employed, the principal difficulty in their adoption lies with the employee. This is another case of the common experience where companies find it extremely difficult to make their miners observe even the more simple necessary precautions. In all kinds of work men willingly court known and certain hazards rather than take a little trouble to guard against them. The objection to the sprayer seems to be that the drillers are put to the extra trouble of providing buckets of water at intervals.

The sprayers are all designed on the injector principle. Each drill company has a sprayer attachable to its own make of machine. They are light, weighing only 3 to 3½ lbs. A small amount of live air is drawn off from the air supply in the drill, and this, passing through the sprayer, draws up water through a short length of hose from a pail or other convenient source, and projects it in the form of a finely disseminated spray or mist against the collar of the hole. It is only the very finest dust which jeopardises the health of the miners, so only the minutest particles of dust need wetting down, the larger cuttings falling to the floor of their own weight. Water can be sucked up six or eight feet from a pail or bucket, no tank or pressure line being necessary. The amount of water used will run from one to two buckets per shift, and the air consumption of the device is small enough to be practically negligible.

Not only is the freedom from dust of great benefit to the miners themselves, but it is found that the grit does not penetrate the machine and wear it out as rapidly as formerly. It is also claimed that the dissemination of this spray into the air of the mine has a beneficial effect in assisting to clear the air of powder gas.

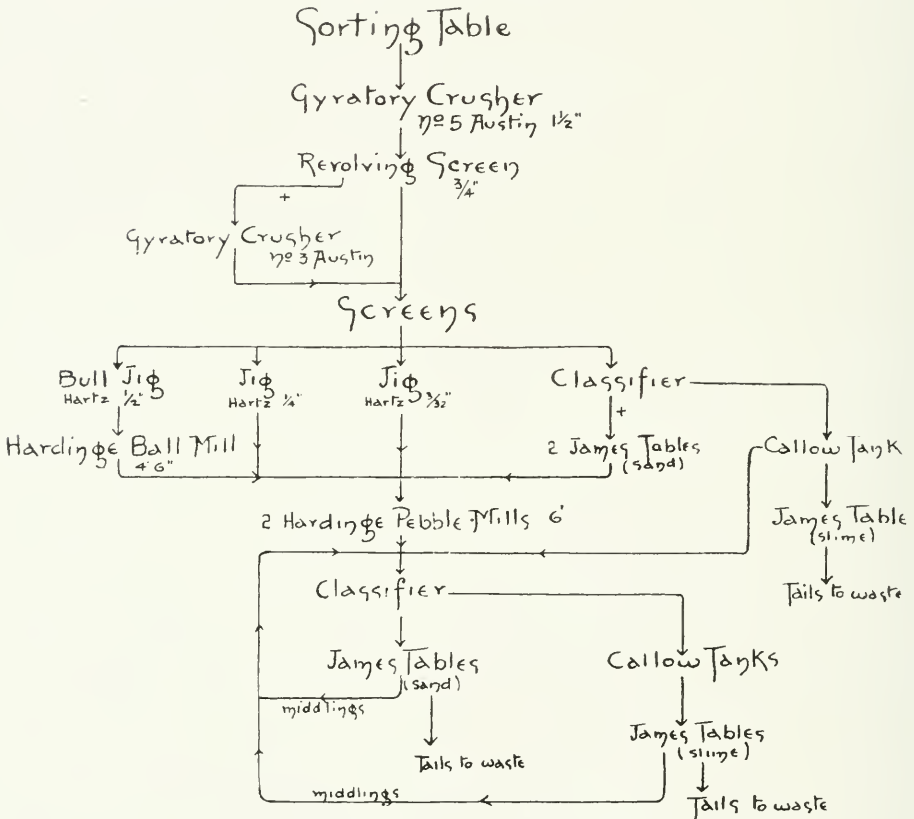

In very cold weather in cold parts of the mine it is difficult to use this dust-laying attachment without having it freeze up.

CONCENTRATION.

The reduction of low grade ores at Cobalt plays a more important part each year in the history of the district. Thus the year 1912 reached a new record, the mills having treated a total of 455,516 tons. With the enlargements either planned or already accomplished at the Northern Customs, Beaver, McKinley-Darragh, Cobalt Lake, and Casey Mills, 1913 bids fair to show further substantial increases.

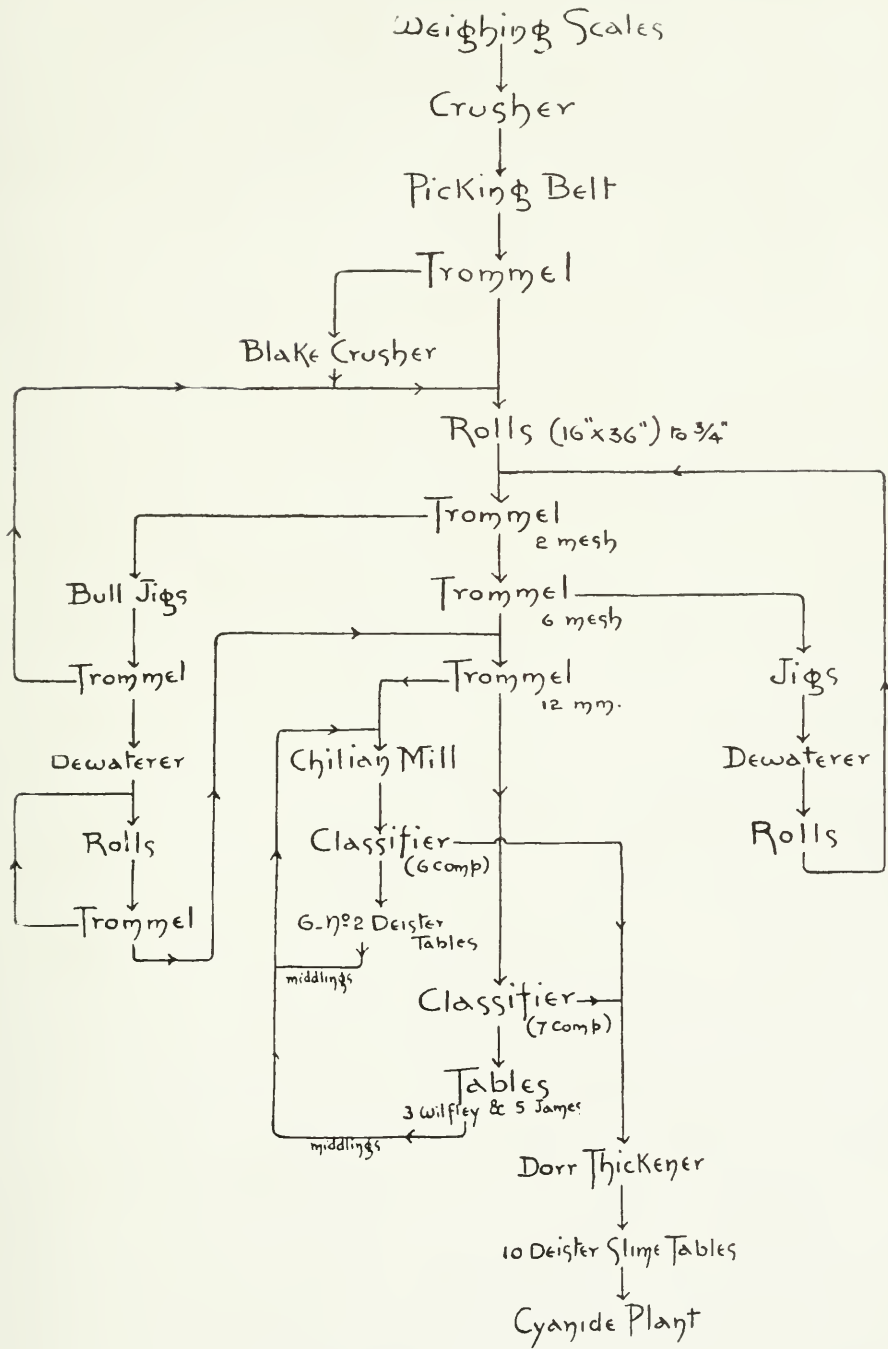

During 1912 the Penn-Canadian mill, formerly known as the Cobalt Central, was re-opened, and the new mills of the Beaver, Nipissing and Casey were put into commission.

The high grade mill of the Nipissing operated steadily during the year, and the Buffalo completed a similar mill and started operations towards the end of the year.

This mill, which was formerly known as the Nova Scotia mill, recommenced operations, and is now working steadily on ores from the Crown Reserve and Kerr Lake. The amalgamating pans formerly used are to be replaced by a tube-mill, the discharge from which will go to agitators for the fine ground concentrate product for separate cyanidation, and no residues will be shipped to the smelter.

Buffalo Mill.

The concentrates from this mill are now treated in the Company's High-Grade mill. Besides this the cyanide plant recovered 100,224 ounces silver from the slimes treated.

High-Grade Mill, Nipissing Mining Company, Cobalt, Ont.

O'Brien Mill.

This mill produced and shipped 313 tons of concentrates, which contained 229,271 ounces silver, and also recovered in their cyanide plant 229,360 fine ounces silver, valued at $141,765.00.

Nipissing Low Grade Mill.

This new mill did not start operations till late in the year, which will explain the small quantity treated. The 116 tons of concentrates made were sent to the High-Grade mill for treatment, and the amount of silver recovered by cyaniding the remainder was 57,875 ounces, valued at $35,882.00.

Although most of the following flow sheets have been published before, there have been quite a number of changes more or less important which made them seem worthy of repetition, bringing them up to date.

The only mill idle in the camp at the end of the year was the Silver Cliff, and this was re-opened early in 1913.

HIGH GRADE MILL—NIPISSING MINING COMPANY.

Owing to the great complexity of the high grade silver ores of the Cobalt District, and particularly on account of their high arsenic contents, they have always been considered undesirable ores by the ordinary custom smelter. A heavy smelting charge was consequently exacted by the smelters for their treatment.

Experiments were carried on by the Nipissing Mining Company for a considerable length of time in an endeavor, if possible, to find some method of treating the ore in the district so that the final product to be shipped out should be refined silver bullion. A simple and effective process was finally worked out by Charles Butters, assisted by G. H. Clevenger. The plant, which was designed and constructed by James Johnston, commenced operations February 1st, 1911, and has run successfully ever since.

After the ore has been crushed in a 9 x 15 inch Blake crusher, it is ground to pass 20 mesh in a No. 3 6 ft. ball mill, and then sampled.

Treatment.

"The main operation consists of amalgamating the silver in a 5 per cent. cyanide solution while the 20-mesh material is being ground in a tube mill. The mill used is a Krupp mill 3 ft. 11 in. in diameter and 19 ft. 8 in. long, fitted with silex liners and run at 37 r.p.m. The weight of ore per charge depends somewhat on the silver content, but with 2,500 oz. ore the ordinary tube mill charge is 6,500 lb. of ore, 8,500 lb. mercury, and 3,800 lb. of cyanide solution, and 6 tons pebbles.

"The materials are charged through a manhole on the top of the mill, and after the cover has been replaced the mill is revolved for 9½ hours, when 99 per cent. of the pulp will pass through a 200-mesh screen. This fine grinding is necessary to liberate the fine particles of silver and permit of complete amalgamation."

After grinding, the charge is delivered through a sheet-iron hopper into an all iron settler, 8 feet in diameter, fitted with wooden shoes. The tube mill is then given two washes with a ton of solution and 1,500 lbs. of mercury, the washes being added to the charge. The settler is then filled with solution and the charge is kept in agitation by the muller while the amalgam is drawn off into an iron clean-up pan, and from there into 24 canvas amalgam filters. Each filter is capable of holding 400 lbs. of amalgam. In order to keep the amalgam from sticking in the tube mill or caking under the muller of the settler, it must be kept exceedingly thin, and this is accomplished by adding mercury weighing fifteen times the weight of the silver in the ore. After draining in the sacks the amalgam still carries 78 per cent. mercury.

The tube mill acts as a large amalgamating barrel extracting by amalgamation 97 per cent. to 98 per cent. of the total silver in the ore, the cyanide in the charge keeping the mercury clean. An ore assaying 2,500 oz. per ton is reduced to 50 to 75 ozs. per ton when it leaves the settler.

Cyanidation plays a minor role, as the subsequent treatment of the pulp only deals with 6 or 7 tons of 50 oz. ore daily. The agitation tanks used are flat-bottomed fitted with mechanical agitating appliances. A charge for agitation consists of four tube mill charges or 13 tons of dry pulp with 5 lbs. lime per ton in a 0.75 per cent. cyanide solution. Agitation continues for 36 hours, and a high speed is necessary on account of the high specific gravity of the pulp. After settling the solution is decanted and the pulp run into a Butters filter of 10 leaves, where the remaining solution is recovered. After being washed with weak solution for 2½ hours, the cake is discharged. These residues, which on 9 months' run showed average contents of 9 per cent. cobalt and 4.5 per cent. nickel, are stored for a possible further treatment. The Nipissing Company has already made three shipments of this material.

Determination of mercury consumption indicated the presence of mercury in the ore itself. On further investigation it was found that the mercury contents varied in proportion to the amount of metallics in the ore. Twenty-one samples of metallics taken from various Nipissing veins and three other mines showed mercury in every case, varying from 8 to 95 lbs. mercury per ton of metallics, and averaging 35 lbs.

Separate zinc precipitating boxes are provided for the strong and weak cyanide solutions, the usual practice being followed except that the zinc shavings are coarser.

"The precipitate from both boxes goes to an 18-in. Johnson filter press with 12 frames; the press holds 500 lbs. of precipitates which assay 15,000 ozs. silver per ton. The product of the cyanide plant amounts to 8,000 ozs. silver per month.

"The solution going to the zinc box carries 14 oz. silver per ton, 0.028% mercury and 0.6% zinc. By passing through the box the mercury in solution is reduced to 0.015%, so it is necessary to retort the precipitate to recover the mercury. As no solution is thrown away, it has become very foul; after passing through the zinc box it runs to a storage tank in the bottom of which a precipitate collects. An analysis of this precipitate follows: Silver, 0.394%; mercury, 2.51%; Antimony, 3.30%; sulphur, 16.13%; arsenic, 32.64%; silica, 5.362%; zinc, 2.257%; iron, 5.04%; nickel, 9.06%; cobalt, 7.03%; lime, 9.24%; carbon dioxide, 7.259%; manganese, trace."

The amalgam collected in the sacks is conveyed to the refinery, which is a separate building, and retorted. There are six 14 x 60-in. oil-fired retorts mounted in batteries of two. The charged retorts are fired 9 hours and cooled six. The resulting sponge is 79% silver, the impurities being mainly arsenic, cobalt, nickel, antimony and bismuth.

*R. B. Watson, General Manager Nipissing mine, in the E. & M. J., Dec. 7, 1912.

Oil-Fired Reverberating Furnace for Refining Amalgam Sponge and Bullion. Nipissing High-Grade Mill, Cobalt, Ont.

The retorted sponge is melted and refined in a reverberatory furnace in charges containing 28,000 ozs. of refined silver. When a fineness of 999 is reached the furnace is tapped through the side, the charge filling 25 moulds.

A 20-in. round water-jacketed blast furnace was installed in which is worked up the skimming from the melting furnace, the flue dust and the zinc precipitates from the cyanide plant.

*“The only product marketed is fine silver. It is shipped direct to London and is sold at the daily quotation without refining charge. Shipments this year having amounted to 370,000 oz. per month. The bullion carries 0.0043% gold, equal to about $1 per 1,200-oz. bar. The total cost of the plant was $67,757, which includes sampler, mill and refinery.”

HIGH GRADE MILL—BUFFALO MINES, LTD.

During the summer the Buffalo Mines erected a mill for the treatment of their high grade ore and concentrates, and the mill commenced operations at the end of November. The method of treatment adopted is very similar to that already in operation at the Nipissing high grade mill.

The ore is hoisted up an incline from the low-grade mill, and discharged into bins near the top of the high-grade mill. The ore is first dried and then ground in a Krupp ball mill through a 30 mesh screen, the metallics from the same being separated during the grinding and sent separately to the tilting furnace. After weighing and sampling, the ore is charged into a 51½ ft. x 20 ft. tube-mill. The charge consists of 5 tons of ore, with an equal weight of mercury with a 40% moisture of a 5% cyanide solution. The tube mill is run until the entire charge will pass 200 mesh, or from 9 to 10 hours. The charge then passes to an 8 ft. all iron settler, from which the mercury is drawn off to a 4 ft. clean-up pan. The mercury containing the silver amalgam is strained in 18 canvas bags, the mercury passing through and returning to the mercury reservoir and the amalgam being taken to the refinery. The ore pulp from the settler, along with the overflow from the clean-up pan is passed into a secondary settler for further recovery of the floured mercury. The overflow from this last settler is run to an elevator and elevated to agitation tanks. These are of the Parral type, three in number, 10 ft. in diameter by 12 ft. high. After sufficient agitation the pulp is drawn off to a 30 ft. Burt revolving filter. The strong solution is filtered into a sump and pumped to a sand filter tank, whence it is drawn off by gravity to the strong solution zinc-box. The overflow from the zinc-box flows by gravity to the strong solution sump, and from there it is elevated by a 2 inch centrifugal pump to the top of the mill to a tank 9 ft. diam. by 9 ft. high. It is then used in the next tube-mill charge. Air is used to drive out the remainder of the strong solution in the Burt filter. A weak solution is then added, followed by a water wash and the cake dried by air. On lowering the pressure in the Burt filter the cake drops off and is wound out by means of an angle iron on the inside acting as a screw conveyor. The cake falls on a 14 inch conveyor belt and is conveyed to a 60 ft. square concrete bin outside the mill.

The pulp in the agitators, after sufficient agitation, is allowed to settle and the clear solution is drawn off by means of a floating siphon to a clarifying press, and thence to the storage tanks at the head of the zinc boxes. Coarse zinc shavings are used to precipitate the dissolved silver. The zinc box precipitates are drawn off into a box with a screen to prevent the escape of any short zinc, and are then pumped into an 18 inch square frame precipitating press, by a 5 in. x 5 in. Aldrich ball valve pump. The solution is returned to the barren solution sump. Air is admitted to the press at 100 pounds pressure, and the cake after washing and drying is carried to the retorts furnace where it is retorted for mercury recovery. It is then charged into the tilting furnace.

In the refinery the amalgam is charged in four retorts, 14 in. x 60 in., holding 1,000 pounds to a charge. The mercury fumes are condensed and returned to the boot of the mercury elevator. The retorted silver is charged into a refining furnace with a capacity of 30,000 ounces per charge. This furnace also received the silver from the tilting furnace.

The retort, tilting and refining furnaces are all connected with a three-compartment dust chamber, 15 ft. long. One of these compartments contains a coil for heating the air supplied to the refining furnace.

The fumes are carried through a 30 inch pipe containing three water sprays. This pipe is 100 ft. long, and drains to a box in which there is a baffle to prevent the escape of the fumes. This box also serves as a mercury trap. A Buffalo Forge Company suction draft fan with a 24 inch square outlet is placed at the end of the 30 inch pipe and this discharges directly into a 35 ft. stack, 34 inches in diameter.

A well equipped laboratory with a competent chemist in attendance is at hand for mercury, silver, cobalt, nickel and other determinations that are necessary.

By the 31st of December, 1912, this mill had treated 105 tons of concentrates, along with metallies, precipitates and re-smelted bullion, producing 205,302 ounces of fine silver bullion.

Sampling:

The Campbell and Deyell customs sampling works at Cobalt operated continuously during the year. For the 12 months ending 30th September, 1912, 5,604 tons of ore, containing 12,655,450 ounces of silver, were sampled in these works. During the same period about 100 tons of gold ore were sampled.

The ore is crushed in a Krupp ball mill fitted with 8-mesh screens. All metallies coarser than this mesh remain in the mill and are subsequently removed and melted down to bullion. The pulp can then be sampled with a reasonable degree of accuracy. The ground ore is divided into quarters, and each quarter sampled down separately by machines to 1/1,000 of its bulk. These samples are then ground to pass 100-mesh, and divided into the requisite number of packets.

Formerly the dust in these works, which contained a large percentage of arsenic, used to cause skin eruption, decay of the teeth and eating away of the cartilage of the noses of the employees, accompanied by a marked mental inertia. As soon as a man left the environment his health returned in a marked degree. Apparently no antidotes were procurable that were of any avail. Last June a system of suction fans was installed and connected with the different grinding and sampling machines, so that instead of these machines giving out dust, air was sucked into them and the fine dust was conducted to a filtering room where it was caught and the dust-free air returned to the mill. This installation has done away with all the dust difficulties formerly encountered.

Shipments are billed at the highest rates (Column D), and charges are collected at destination accordingly. On presentation of paid expense bill and signed assay certificate from the smelter showing the value of the ore to be less than the rating of Group D, charges are adjusted in accordance with the valuation to the above rates. The smelter returns to the mine or owner before deducting transportation charges are the values used in determining the freight rates.

Smelting:

The shipments of Cobalt ores during 1912 were mostly treated by the same smelters as received the production of the previous year. In Canada the bulk of the output went to the

1. Canadian Copper Company, Copper Cliff, Ont.
2. Canada Smelting and Refining Company, Orillia, Ont.
3. Coniagas Reduction Company, Thorold, Ont.
4. Deloro Mining and Reduction Company, Deloro, Ont.

A few consignments were also made to three new plants which commenced operations during the year, viz:

5. Buffalo and Ontario Smelting and Refining Co., Kingston, Ont.
6. Dominion Refineries, North Bay, Ont.
7. Metals Chemical Company, Welland, Ont.

Of the foreign shipments, all went to the United States with the exception of a few high grade shipments from the Crown Reserve mine to the Saxon Government. The American Smelting companies in this market were the

As most of the Canadian plants produce refined cobalt oxide, the disorganized state of the market for this material has made it impossible at times to profitably dispose of their output, and they therefore welcomed a betterment of the market towards the end of the year.

When the smelters started treating Cobalt ores, cobalt oxide was selling at $2.50 per pound, but the consumption was so limited that the production from the Cobalt district soon glutted the market. Now the retail price quoted in New York is about 90c. per pound, with an import duty of 25c. per pound. It is selling in England and Europe at from 2s. 3d. to 3 shillings per pound, or about 68c., and the price paid to the smelters is necessarily still lower.

The Canadian smelters now supply practically the entire world's market with cobalt oxide of excellent grade, and if new uses are found for cobalt they are ready to increase the output and supply the demand.

The Canadian Copper Company decided to close down its Cobalt plant and received its last shipment of cobalt ore towards the end of October. Since that time operations have been continued simply as a final clean up to recover the values tied up in ore on hand, residues, furnace bottoms, etc.

The small smelting plant at North Bay is bidding for ore rich in cobalt and low in silver.

The smelting schedules were practically unchanged from those in effect in 1911.

The ores shipped to the smelters will average about 1,000 ozs. silver per ton, between the limits of 75 ounces and 7,000 ounces. A few exceptional shipments are known to have assayed even above this latter figure, the highest shipment recorded being one of 20 tons from the Crown Reserve Mine, which assayed 8,903 ounces silver per ton.

CANADIAN COPPER COMPANY.

The Cobalt plant of the Canadian Copper Company is situated at Copper Cliff, about  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile south of the large copper-nickel smelting plant of the same company.

The works were designed to smelt and treat ores and concentrates from the Cobalt silver district, and have been in operation since December, 1905. This Cobalt plant is to be closed down permanently as soon as the values now on hand are recovered.

The following was the method adopted in this plant:—

Treatment:

The ore is first crushed, ground in a ball mill to 30 mesh, and one-tenth cut out by a Snyder sampler. Sampling is completed by coning and quartering. The first quartering divides the sample into two parts, which are worked down as two independent samples. The ore is charged with suitable fluxes in a 30 in. x 72 in. blast furnace, having a capacity of 25 to 30 tons per 24 hours. Limestone from Michigan is used as a basic flux, and low grade Cobalt ore when an acid flux is required.

Products of the blast furnaces are:

1. Silver.
2. Speiss.
3. Fumes containing flue dust, crude arsenic.
4. Slag.

1. The silver button represents an extraction of about 75% of the silver in the ore charged, and assays about 850 fine. The silver is charged into an oil-fired refining furnace, with a capacity of 30,000 ounces refined silver, which brings the grade up to 980 fine. It is shipped in bars to the Balbech Smelting and Refining Company of Newark, N.J., for refining, and sold in New York.

The slag from the refining furnace is a revert to the blast furnace.

2. Speiss: The following is an analysis made of a sample of speiss taken over a month's run:

Silver 900 ounces per ton. Arsenic 24%, Cobalt 27%, Nickel 9%, Copper 2%, Sulphur 6%, Iron 20%.

The speiss is ground to 30 mesh, mixed with 20% salt and roasted in eight mechanically worked Edwards reverberatory roasters, fitted with water-cooled rabblers. Each roaster has a capacity of 2,400 lbs. per 24 hours.

The product or chloridized speiss is taken to the wet house where it is treated in cylinders with water, which dissolves the soluble salts of cobalt, nickel and copper. Solution is decanted and the copper precipitated on iron. The cobalt and nickel are then precipitated as hydroxides by a solution of soda carbonate, converted to oxides in an oil-fired furnace, ground in a pebble mill, and barrelled for shipment. An approximate assay of this material is as follows:

Silver 15 ounces per ton. Arsenic .3%, Cobalt 40%, Nickel 3%.

Nickel runs lower than the usual proportion of nickel to cobalt for the reason that it is less easily converted to a soluble salt by the above treatment than cobalt.

The treatment of the speiss is continued with four covers of hyposulphite of soda solution, which eliminates all the silver except 20 to 30 ounces per ton. The silver is precipitated from solution as a sulphide by treatment with a saturated solution of sodium sulphide, filtered in a filter press, dried, mixed with 100% sodium nitrate and 10% sodium carbonate, heated to redness in an oil-fired roasting furnace, transferred to leaching tanks where it is leached with hot water. This leaves a spongy mass of metallic silver with a small quantity of cobalt and nickel that has not been changed to the soluble state. The spongy mass which contains from 60% to 65% silver is added to the bath in the silver refining furnace.

The residues from the first hyposulphite leaching are mixed with quartz and smelted in a blast furnace for the elimination of the iron. The resultant products are:

- (a) Slag.
- (b) Speiss.
- (c) Flue dust and crude arsenic.

(a) The slag, which contains 15 ounces silver per ton, 10% cobalt, and less than 1% nickel, is smelted with other high silver slags with pyrite from Capelton, Que.

(b) The speiss from this second smelting has the following approximate composition:

Silver 300 ounces per ton, Arsenic 25% to 30%, Cobalt 35%, Nickel 25%, with a little sulphur when arsenic is low, Iron 3.5%, Copper 2%.

This speiss is treated as the first speiss up to the time when the first residue leaves the cylinders in the wet house. It then contains about 20% arsenic, and after mixing with 20% sodium nitrate and 10% sodium carbonate, it is given an oxidizing roast in a hand-rabbed reverberatory furnace. This transforms the arsenic to sodium arsenate which is leached out with hot water and discarded. The residue after drying has the following approximate composition:

Silver 20 to 30 ounces per ton, Arsenic .3% to .7%, Cobalt 35% to 37%, Nickel 23% to 25%, Copper 3%, Iron 5%.

Payment is received for the silver in the above product, as well as for the cobalt and nickel oxides.

3. The arsenic from the blast furnace and roasting furnaces is collected in flues and recharged into an arsenic refining furnace. The residue is a clinker high in silver which is returned to the blast furnace. The final product is a refined white arsenic which contains 99.98% Arsenious Oxide ( $As_2O_3$ ) with about .3 ounces of silver per ton.

4. The slag from the blast furnace is rejected except when it is found to run over 10 ounces silver per ton, in which case it forms a revert to the smelter.

Power is supplied from the company's plant at High Falls, 14 miles from the smelter. The Cobalt plant requires from 200 to 300 horse-power. Eighty men are employed in this plant, working 12 hr. shifts.

The following statement shows the ore treated and the production of the Cobalt plant of the Canadian Copper Company since the commencement of operations.

CANADA REFINING AND SMELTING CO., LTD.

The plant of the Canada Refining and Smelting Company is located on property owned by the company, consisting of about 11 acres, situated in the southern part of the town of Orillia, Ont. and adjacent to the Grand Trunk, Canadian Pacific, and Canadian Northern Railways.

Construction was started on the 1st September, 1910, and smelting commenced on the 20th February, 1911.

The plant is designed for the treatment of silver ores from Cobalt, and has a capacity of about 13 tons daily. It produces refined silver, white arsenic, and the mixed oxides of cobalt and nickel.

Treatment.

The crushing and sampling of the ore is done at Cobalt by Campbell and Deyell, samplers and assayers, before shipment to the smelter. The ore is first smelted in an Allis-Chalmers 48 in. circular shaft furnace, which produces.

1. Silver.
2. Speiss (argentiferous).
3. Fumes containing arsenic, silver, etc.
4. Slag.

1. The silver button which represents a silver extraction of about 80 per cent. and assays about 900 fine, is refined in a cupel furnace up to 996 fine and shipped. There are two of these refining furnaces each with a capacity of 70,000 ounces to a charge. The slag from the refining furnace reverts to the blast furnace. Limestone and iron ore are used as fluxes when required, the limestone coming from Longford Quarry, 9 miles distant from the smelter, and the iron ore from Midland, Ont.

2. The speiss is ground, roasted, reground, and sent to the Cobalt house. Here it is treated chemically and most of the metals, except the silver ore, are dissolved. The impure silver-bearing mud is separated from the liquor in filter presses and recharged in the cupola furnace.

The iron, arsenic and copper are first precipitated from the liquor and finally the cobalt and nickel are precipitated together as carbonates. The mixed carbonates are heated in a hearth furnace and converted to oxides, which after grinding are barrelled and shipped. The oxides assay about 40 per cent cobalt and 25 per cent. nickel.

3. The arsenic fumes from the shaft and roasting furnaces are caught in the impure arsenic bag house, from which the arsenic is taken and treated in resubliming furnaces, where silver is retained in the residue and the arsenic drawn off and caught in the clean bag house, from which it is taken, ground and barrelled for commerce.

4. The slag from the blast furnace is discarded except when the silver contained makes it worth retreating, in which case it is recharged in the blast furnace.

About 300 horsepower is required by the plant. This is supplied by the town of Orillia at the rate of $18.40 for a 24 hour service per horsepower per year, from a hydro-electric installation 18 miles distant from the town.

The number of men employed at the works will average about 80.

Since the commencement of operations, to Dec. 31st, 1912, ore treated and production has been as follows:

CONIAGAS REDUCTION COMPANY, LTD.

The Coniagas Mines Limited, of Cobalt, Ont., owns the issued capital stock of the Coniagas Reduction Co., Ltd., except six shares issued to directors to qualify.

The head office of the company is at St. Catharines, Ont., but the smelter is situated at Thorold, six miles west of Niagara Falls. The company's property comprises 160 acres, of which the smelter occupies about four, with a frontage of 1,500 feet on the Welland Canal. It is also served by the Grand Trunk, and Niagara, St. Catharines and Toronto Railways.

Construction of the smelter started March, 1907, and actual smelting commenced May, 1908. Erected originally for the treatment of ores from the Coniagas Mine, Cobalt, Ont., its capacity is sufficient to allow of the smelting of a certain amount of other silver ore from the same district.

The products of the smelter are silver, white arsenic, and the oxides of cobalt and nickel, either combined or separated.

Treatment.

The ore is first crushed, then ground in a Krupp ball mill, and sampled by a Vezin automatic sampler, two independent samples being made. The fine ore is smelted with limestone, iron ore, and other substances. The separated silver is cast in anodes and refined electrolytically, while the nickel and cobalt are recovered as speiss, which is worked up for nickel and cobalt oxides. These are put on the market either combined or separately.

The combined oxides will assay 40 to 50 per cent. metallic cobalt, and 15 to 25 per cent. metallic nickel, depending on the grade of the ore treated. The oxide of cobalt will run from 60 to 76 per cent. metallic cobalt according to the call of the market, the only impurity being nickel which will run from .5 to 1.25 per cent.

The arsenic fume from the fume and dust flues and collectors is worked up for refined white arsenic, which will assay over 99 per cent. pure.

Power used at the plant is transmitted from Niagara Falls, and the plant requires from 200 to 300 horsepower. The smelter has a monthly capacity of 450 tons of raw ore.

The limestone flux is obtained from Port Colborne, 20 miles distant, and the iron ore from Michigan.

The capacity of the arsenic works is about 1,000 tons per year.

The actual output from the smelter since the commencement of operations has been as follows:

DELORO MINING AND REDUCTION CO.

The Deloro Mining and Reduction Co., is a close corporation, controlled by Mr. M. J. O'Brien, owner of the O'Brien Mine, Cobalt.

The smelter is located at Deloro, Hastings County, Ont.,  $1\frac{1}{4}$  miles by road from Marmora Station, on the Canadian Northern Ontario Railway. The construction of a railway spur is contemplated early in 1913.

The plant was originally built and operated as an arsenic producer by the Canadian Goldfields, but was entirely remodelled in 1907 by the present owners, to smelt ores from the Cobalt Camp, particularly those of the O'Brien Mine. During the year 1908 a separate and extensive plant was added for the manufacture of cobalt and nickel oxides, and this has been in successful operation since May, 1910.

Treatment.

The ore is first ground fine and sampled by Snyder sampler and hand quartering. It is then charged in a 42 in. Allis-Chalmers cupola furnace producing metallic silver, speiss, slag and argentiferous arsenic fumes. The fuel used is a good grade of coke, and when flux is required a local limestone is used with an occasional addition of a little scrap iron.

The silver button, which is about 850 fine, is charged in a refining furnace, which brings it up to 996 fine.

The speiss is crushed and roasted in mechanically worked roasters, part going to an intermediate treatment and the other part direct to the oxide plant. In the intermediate treatment silver (999 fine) is extracted with cyanide, the residue reverting to the cupola.

The speiss going to the oxide plant is treated so that the cobalt and nickel go into solution. The liquor and residues are separated in filter presses, the latter being returned to the cupola. The cobalt and nickel are precipitated either separately or together. The cobalt oxide (black oxide) after washing, contains 70 per cent. metallic cobalt and under 1 per cent. nickel, while the combined oxides run from 40 to 45 per cent. cobalt, and 10 to 15 per cent. nickel.

The crude arsenic from the cupola and roasting furnaces is caught in arsenic chambers and bag houses from which it is transferred to the arsenic refining furnaces. After refining it is ground ready for commerce as the oxide, white arsenic. The silver-bearing residue is returned to the cupola.

There is usually a considerable slag revert, not only for the purpose of removing any contained silver, but also to assist in the fluxing of the ore.

The smelter has a daily capacity of from 12 to 14 tons of raw cobalt ore. The capacity of the oxide plant is 20 tons per month, but the enlargements that are nearing completion increase this capacity by one-third.

Power is supplied to the smelter by the Seymore Power Co., from Campbellford, over a 22 mile transmission line, at $20.00 per horsepower. The operation of the plant requires from 300 to 400 horsepower. There are 120 men employed at the works.

PRODUCTION OF DELORO SMELTER, 1908, TO END OF DEC., 1912.

The smelting schedule of the Deloro M. & R. Co., in force on the 1st January, 1913, is as follows:

Schedule.

Pay for 98 per cent. of the silver contents of the ore determined by commercial assay, on the following terms and conditions:

Treatment charge—$25.00 per ton of ore.

Refining charge— $\frac{3}{4}$  of a cent per ounce of silver contents on ore assaying 3,000 ounces and over per ton. One cent per ounce of silver contents on ore assaying 2,000 to 3,000 ounces per ton.  $1\frac{1}{2}$  cents per ounce of silver contents on ore assaying less than 2,000 ounces per ton.

Terms of payment—Seventy-five per cent. of net proceeds at Handy and Harman's New York quotation, 30 days after completion of sampling; twenty-five per cent. of net proceeds at Handy and Harman's New York quotation, 90 days after completion of sampling.

Ore to be delivered in car-load lots f.o.b. Marmora Station, C. O. Railway, and to be at shipper's risk until sampling is undertaken.

COPPER.

Dane.

A test shipment of 20 tons of copper ore was made by the Dane Mining Company, of Dane, Ont., in September, to the United States Metals Refining Company, of Chrome, N.J. This lot assayed 14.56% copper, with a little gold and silver.

Copper prospecting has not yet proved remunerative in this part of Northern Ontario. Some rich pockets of chalcopyrite have been found, but they have heretofore proved small. Recent developments on the property of the Dane Mining Company are considered to be more satisfactory.

Cobalt.

An interesting occurrence of copper is reported by two properties in Cobalt, viz.:—the Drummond and the Temiskaming. Both of these properties have been paid for the copper contents in some of their silver ore concentrates, when shipped to the American Smelting and Refining Co., at Denver, Colorado.

The following is a statement of the copper produced at the Temiskaming Mill during 1912:

NICKEL.

The Alexo Mine, situated one-half mile from Kilburn, on the Porcupine Branch of the T. & N. O. Railway, is the only operating nickel property in the district.

The shipments from this property during the year were:

|           |               |
|-----------|---------------|
| May.....  | 247.85 tons   |

| Dec.....  | 30.00 "       |
|           | 1,346.35 tons |

The whole of this ore was consigned to the Mond Nickel Company, of Victoria Mines, Ont. Practically all this ore has been extracted by quarrying or open-cut work.

ICE CONDITIONS IN THE ESTUARY OF THE MOOSE RIVER.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

During the winter months comparatively little water remains open, on the different branches of the Moose River. The winter trail from Cochrane follows the Abitibi branch for nearly 160 out of the 180 miles from the Frederick House River to Moose Factory. At the Three Carrying Places, it leaves the river, and follows a chain of five small lakes, on the east side of the river, for five or six miles; and again, in order to miss the canyon and the cascades above, it leaves the river at the upper end of the "Little Lakes Route," and joins it again fourteen miles below at New Post. Below New Post the only departure from the river is at the Otters, where the total fall amounts to 50 feet and a two-mile portage is followed past the two cascades. The twenty mile stretches of river, intervening are entirely covered with ice throughout the winter; and it is only in very heavy rapids or for short distances below actual falls, that the river remains open even in the swifter portions. At the two rapids in the first six miles, below the Otters, the central portion of the river was open: but in the remaining hundred miles of river open water was seen at only two places in the month of March. These places were at the Blacksmith rapids and at the rapids at the mouth of the Abitibi Branch. No doubt other rapid portions of the river are open during the early part of the winter: for, in some of these, such as the heavier parts of the Long Rapids, ice and snow were piled to heights of 8 to 12 feet above the level of the river.

The ice sets fast in the Moose River on an average about the middle of November. The earliest date at which this occurred, in the forty-four years, in which records are available in the Moose Factory Journals, still remaining at the establishment, was on October 30th, 1808, and the latest date was on December 7th, 1850. The actual freeze-up usually occurs about a fortnight from the time that the ice first forms in the more sheltered bays; and quite frequently a high tide or a severe storm breaks up the ice after it has first coated the river over, and it may be a week before it again sets fast. In the year 1910 this period was prolonged over a full month. The river was full of ice from the 3rd to the 21st of November; and on the latter date was still running free in the channel in the South River, though the North River was frozen sufficiently to allow people to cross. With mild weather the river remained open on the 24th; it was not until the 1st of December that the ice set fast, and it was not considered safe for crossing until the 5th.

The river is still open at the Fishing Tent Rapid, at the head of tide water, some eight miles above Moose Factory, for nearly a month later than at that place; and it is not considered advisable to despatch the winter mail packet before December 20th, in ordinary years, and in some winters not before January.

From surveys* already made it was known that the upper fifteen miles of the estuary was divided into two channels, each varying from 2,000 feet to a mile in width, by a series of islands, having about the same width as either channel, also that considerable portions of these channels were quite shoal. From information regarding the rise of the water during the spring freshets, it was inferred that a considerable part of this rise and the consequent danger of flooding was due to damming of the river channels by the ice. It was deemed advisable to make sections of this portion of the estuary at intervals of from one mile to half a mile, in order to determine whether this damming of the river was aggravated by the channels being closed in whole or in part by frazil ice formed in the rapids above.

The method of making these sections was to chisel through the ice along lines at right angles to the channel at intervals of 200 feet, or where the ice was frozen to the bottom at other multiples of 100 feet. The following measurements were then taken and noted:—The thickness of the ice. The additional thickness of frazil or of anchor ice, and the sounding or depth of the water. A sounding rod made of three ten-foot lengths of gas pipe, was then shoved down into the bottom, and the depth through which it could be driven as well as the character of the material were noted. These records, which are shown in detail on the accompanying plan, were obtained from upwards of 700 holes in the fifteen complete sections of the river and several additional sections of the separate channels.

The results of the ice measurements showed that the ice formed in the wider portions of the river to a thickness varying from 2.8 to 3.5 feet or to a mean thickness of 3 feet, and in the narrower portions where the current quickened to a thickness of 2.5 to 2.6 feet. These thicknesses were maintained, in the lower part of the estuary at least, until the ice broke up at the Fishing Tent Rapid on the 3rd of May. These measurements are exclusive of certain points along the tidal crack where flooding has occurred and the thickness of the ice may be increased to 4 or 5 feet, and of a few where this together with the piling up of snow may make with the slush ice thus formed a thickness of even 6 feet. At the upper section was made at the foot of the first rapid on the river, the thickness varied from 3 to 4.5 feet. It had the lesser thickness at the sides where the current is quite strong; and the greater, in the centre between the two low shingle islands, where the depth of water is much greater, being from 6 to 10 feet. The additional thickness of ice at this point came to the surface in pieces resembling broken window glass. This sort of ice is formed on smooth gliding surfaces and is known as "plate ice." At some points on this section pebbles were encountered in the lower part of the ice; and over two miles below, sand was noticed in the lower foot or foot and a half of ice at a few points. This was the only evidence of the formation of anchor ice, i. e., ice which forms at the bottom in open water attached to stones or weeds, and subsequently rises and floats away to add to the thickness elsewhere. On the section a mile below the rapids some four-foot ice was cut by large holes, but it appeared dark, and uniform to the bottom.

Frazil ice, which forms as masses of spicules throughout the water in open rapids often in quantities to wholly or in part block the channel below, was not noticed in the estuary of the Moose: and, if formed, while the rapids remain open in the early part of winter, it has disappeared before spring: so that, neither this sort nor anchor ice have any material effect in causing the jams during the break-up. These jams are due to the fact that the break-up progresses from the upper part of the river before the ice has materially weakened in the estuary, bringing immense quantities of loose ice down against a sheet that is still practically three feet thick and firmly attached to numerous shoals.

Until the water level has risen sufficiently to allow the ice in the estuary to clear these shoals, there is little or no breaking up of this sheet. The loose ice forms a wall or natural dam, which advances down whichever channel offers the least resistance, or sometimes alternately down, one and then the other, past the islands which separate the two channels in the upper part of the estuary. rises to a height of about twelve feet in the centre of the channel, and where the channel is most constricted, sometimes to a height of twenty feet at the sides. Its advance causes a roar like that of a heavy rapid which may be heard for miles. As soon as the break-up has advanced to the wider portion of the estuary below the islands, the ice discharges quietly and usually in from one to two days is almost all out of the river.

THE BREAK-UP OF THIS YEAR.

The break-up of the ice in the estuary of the Moose River occupied one week in 1912. On May 3rd, the last big jam of ice at the Fishing Tent Rapid broke, and this let an immense volume both of water and of ice into the tidal compartment. The pressure of this mass rapidly broke up the ice for about two miles in both channels. Later in the same day, the ice jam which formed in the South channel could be seen from Moose Factory, somewhere in the vicinity of South Bluff Island. From the Revillon Post, the next evening, the ice could be seen jammed in the North channel above the point known locally as the Bill of Portland. At this time practically all of Bushy Island, above this point, was covered with sheets and piles of rafted ice. The advance of the ice in the channels was, however, for some days very slow: that in the South channel was only about a mile in four days, and then became scarcely perceptible: while in the North channel, it was checked for two days at the narrow portion, opposite the Bill of Portland. On the 7th, breaking and walling of the ice started in this narrow part, and was accompanied during the evening and part of the next day by a noise like that of a huge mill, or heavy distant rapid.

Mr. Draullette, the District Manager for Revillon Freres, made the following observations at this time:—Just after midnight of the 7th, the water rose 6 feet in a few minutes. This was a total rise at the Revillon Post of 12 feet, for the water had risen 3 feet on the 1st and 3 feet on the 3rd of May, with very little change of level in the intervening days. Between 1 a.m. and 4 a.m. when the wall could be seen a short distance above Maidman's Island, the water fell to 7 feet rise in all. At 11 a.m., the water rose 2 feet while the ice was in motion, as far down as the narrow channels between the group of three islands known as Maidman's Island. Between 11.15 a.m. and 3 p.m., there was no forward movement of the ice. Then for an hour the ice was in motion and completely filled the channel behind Maidman's island. From 4 p.m. to 5 p.m., there was no advance of the ice: but at the latter hour the wall commenced going ahead in the main channel. The total rise of the water up to this time was 16 feet. The ice remained unbroken opposite the Post as far out as the shoal which forms a continuation of Maidman's Island, and its only motion was towards the shore where pieces were piled high against the bank. By 7 p.m., the wall had advanced to the channel between the old site of Revillon Bros.' Post and Butler Island. At 9.30 p.m., the ice was moving down to Duck Island, and the large field in front of the Post was coming down in pieces. The water at this time stood at 18 feet rise. On the morning of the 9th, the total rise of the water was nearly 20 feet. The water stood at 7 feet from the top of the bank, and was the highest it had been in the nine years since the Post was established. By noontime, the channel was opening gradually in the middle of the river: and by 6 p.m., all of the ice was moving down. On Friday the 10th, the river was open down to the inner bar. The water was down about 2 feet and falling 1 foot every two hours.

In the South channel, the break-up progressed much more slowly, on account of the ice jam there being almost stationary. The rise of the water each day was only about half a foot, while at night it was little or none. Even on the 7th when large quantities of ice from above were being carried down underneath the ice in the channel, the rise was less than a foot. On the evening of the 8th, some ice was forced up in this way between Moose and Hays island (in local parlance "Hazy"); and the cannons at Moose Factory were fired as a signal of the break-up of the river. During the forenoon of the 9th of May when the channel north of Moose Island was filled with rafted ice and driftwood, the difference of level between the two channels must have been between 8 and 10 feet. At noontime this mass of ice and driftwood commenced discharging through the narrow channel behind Charles Island, and then around the head of Moose Island into the South channel with a velocity of from 4 to 6 miles an hour. Within two hours the ice had entirely covered the flat, known as Mansy—a probable corruption of Menzies' Island, for this was the memory of some people at Moose, an island behind which the hay boats discharge their loads—and filled all the open space around Flats Island and between it and Hays Island. Then the ice shoved up stream in the open water along Sawpit Island, until in another three hours every open space was packed with rafted ice and the same level obtained here, within a limited area, as on the opposite side of Moose Island. During the evening the ice on the north side of Moose Island broke to the middle channel in Moose flats and began pouring through it and breaking up the ice in the South channel towards the head of Middleboro Island. At the same time, the current reversed in the channel around the head of Moose Island. This reversal of the flow indicated the final release of the ice, for next morning the ice in the North river was all in motion down to Sandy Island. At the Moose warehouse the water fell 1.5 feet during the night, and on the north side of the island 2 feet. In the afternoon some Indians came down the North river in canoes. They reported the water already down 6 feet at the rapids. An all night's rain melted considerably the ice in the South channel, and during the 11th, it began to break up opposite Moose Factory. Some fields of ice stopped the flow, however, off the point at the warehouse. A party of surveyors from the Hydrographic Office arrived by canoe in the afternoon. This was their fifth day from Missinaibi on the Transcontinental Railway. During the night the ice had nearly all moved out of the South channel below Hays Island. In the afternoon of the 12th, the ice began to move down from above Hays Island, where it had been jammed since the 3rd of May. The water in the North Channel had already fallen 11 feet from its high point of the 9th.

An examination of the shores on the 14th of May showed to what an extent the water level had varied in different parts of the estuary. At the head of Sawpit Island, the water had fallen only 6 feet, while at some points in the upper part of the estuary it was down nearly 20 feet from the high water mark. One mile below South Bluff Island a perpendicular wall 14 feet in height formed of cakes of ice in every conceivable position, marked the position of what had been perhaps the most lasting ice jam on the river. Pieces of ice were piled on Bushy Island 20 feet above the present water level. On the opposite shore, ice piled high on the small island, somewhat down stream from this point, marked the end of that side of the last jam in this channel. South Bluff Island had all been flooded, except at the head where the elevation is about 20 feet. For a considerable distance at the point between South Bluff creek and French River, the ice still formed a wall from 14 to 16 feet in height along the shores. Also on the North shore, at Fishing Tent Rapid, the ice was piled to about the same height. At the head of Bushy Island, huge piles marked the place where the ice was first checked in its movement when the big jam at the rapids gave way. At Fishing Tent Island the ice lined the shores 20 feet above the water, marking the flood level. Below the Bill of Portland the high water mark did not appear to have been more than 12 feet above the present level, though in places ice had been shoved to a height of 20 feet.

Note:—Records of the break-up of the Moose River in other years as given in the Moose Factory Journals, still obtainable at the Post, will be given as an appendix. For access to these Journals and for any other courtesies, I am indebted to Mr. A. C. McNabb, Chief Factor, and the other officers of the Hudson's Bay Company.

THE FREEZE-UP OF THIS YEAR.

The following account of the freeze-up in 1912 has been taken from the journal of Mr. H. R. Scott, who remained at Moose Factory until the 1st of December, and then came up, by way of the French River and Niven's line with Mr. Dobie's survey party:

Ice began to form in the quiet bays of the upper part of the Estuary of the Moose River at the end of October. Mr. McCaul of the engineering staff of the North Railway who arrived at Moose Factory from Rupert's House on October 26th, and left to ascend the Missinaibi on the 29th, was forced to return from the Gypsum Beds on the 2nd of November, on account of the ice. In the first two mornings of November, ice formed along the banks in the estuary; and, on the third morning when the thermometer registered 20 degrees of frost, it formed in all the quiet bays and smaller channels. In the early morning immense quantities of ice drifted in with the tide and nearly filled both channels. Some of the pieces were 100 feet across, but most of them were smaller ones connected by the action of the wind and tide. The ebb tide carried out a large portion of this ice leaving the channel partially free. By the afternoon of the 4th all of the drift ice except what had caught on the shores had been carried out of the river by the tide and the current. With mild weather for several days there was no ice in the river until the morning of the 9th. It did not freeze all the way across the channels, but nearly filled them as it drifted up and down with the tide. A canoe crossed from Moose Factory to the Revillon Post in the afternoon, but had to pick its way through the ice when returning. Next day the ice was becoming fast to the shores and on the shoals. Some of the floating masses were 200 by 300 feet in extent, and 1 to 2 inches thick. On the 13th, the ice was fast along all the shores, though the main channels were still open in both rivers.

By the 20th the North River had frozen across at the head of Butler Island, and the channels had become much narrowed at other points. Simon Smallboy arrived from 30 miles up the French River on the 21st, having walked on the ice except at the rapids and crossed the South channel at the foot of South Bluff island. On the same day James Wynne came up the South channel from Part-ridge Creek in a canoe and started back in the evening. He reported main channel open but ice solid along the shores and canoeing difficult. Two days later men were able to walk across this channel by way of Hays Island. On Sunday, the 24th, parties crossed from the Revillon Post to Moose Island on the ice. The channel below was still open. The ice along the shores was two inches thick, farther out not more than one. The ice in both channels above the posts had a thickness of 2½ to 3 inches on the 26th, except at a few places as along the upper part of Hays Island where the water was still open. The North channel below Butler Island appeared to be gradually closing on November 29th. The South channel opposite Moose Factory was closed to the head of Pilgrim Island on the 1st of December, the ice varying from 2 to 5 inches in thickness.

Curve of Water Temperatures Moose River

Curve accompanying report of J.G. McMillan February 1913

The character of the ice which first covered the river differed somewhat according to the width and velocity in the different parts. The ice in the North channel was quite smooth to a point  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a mile above the head of the Bill of Portland; from there to the rapids it was rough all the way across. The rapids and shoals were piled up with cakes of broken ice 2 to 3 feet high. A channel 10 to 15 feet in width was open at the Fishing Tent Rapid on November 26th. This was closed next day, when a series of holes and trenches was made in the ice from the North shore below the rapids to the head of South Bluff Island.

A careful examination showed very little frazil. Only one trench showed, to any extent, indications of the formation of frazil.

Between November 28th and December 1st, there was an open channel 15 to 20 feet wide and  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a mile long, extending from French River towards South Bluff Island, at the foot of the rapid on that side. At the mouth of the French River the ice was from 3 to 6 inches thick with no appearance of frazil ice below.

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS.

The ice forms a sheet closing the estuary of the Moose River sometimes in November, the average time being about the middle of the month. The actual freeze-up takes place about a fortnight after the ice first forms in the river.

Ice forms during the winter to an average thickness of three feet in the estuary. This thickness is made up of at least two feet of clear ice, and about one foot of white ice formed at the surface.

Neither anchor ice nor frazil ice formed in sufficient quantity to materially contract the channel or interfere with the river's discharge during the past winter.

In the fifty years that we have any record of the break-up of the ice, it went out of the estuary in the month of April in ten of these years, and in the month of May in thirty-eight of the fifty years, while in two of them it held into the month of June. The earliest break-up occurred on April 20th, in 1886; and the latest the ice remained was till June 5th, in 1817. The average date when the ice has gone out of the estuary has been, in the fifty years, the 10th of May.

The North channel is less obstructed by islands than the South channel, and this generally leads to the breaking of the ice being more advanced on that side of the river. But though the ice is usually carried out of that channel, before the South channel is clear, the reverse sometimes happens, as in 1904, when the ice all went out of the latter while the North river above the Bill of Portland was still covered with ice.

Though it is the rule for the ice to be carried out of the estuary by the pressure of the water and ice from above, there have been years when it has moved out quietly without any rise of the water. In both 1905 and 1906, the water was never higher than a good spring tide. In 1851 the ice went out on the 9th of May, from four to six days in advance of the freshet. Again in 1853 it broke up on the 11th of May, before the Mattagami or Abitibi branches had opened, and stranded on the shoals for lack of water.

The ice jams are liable to cause flooding of the islands, but there is very little of the main shores that becomes submerged during the spring freshets. At these times the water rises behind the ice in the North channel until it flows over one or other of the islands. Moose Island has been flooded in the following years:—1810, 1815, 1826, 1857, 1859, 1895. The island has remained under water for as long as three days, as in 1810; but usually the water goes down the same day.

It would appear inadvisable to project any structure from the shores of the river at any point above Middleboro Island, on account of the liability of its being destroyed by the ice. Below this point the ice along the shore usually remains to melt out, and structures would be out of the course of the ice which is towards midstream.

RECONNAISSANCE OF THE SOUTH COAST OF JAMES BAY.

In accordance with instructions, our party of three, accompanied by a guide, left Moose Factory in a large canoe, on June 11th, 1912, and proceeded to North Bluff beacon. At 7 p.m. the wind changed suddenly from a warm south-west land breeze to a cold northerly wind, and continued boisterous with showers of rain during the night and next forenoon, detaining us in camp during that day. On the 13th, we carried the canoe and load a quarter of a mile from shore, and started at about half-tide. The pack ice lay close to the shore near Little Pisquamish; and north of Pisquamish it was grounded on numerous stony ridges or spits which run out from the shore in a northerly direction. Some of these ridges about three miles beyond Pisquamish are formed of rusty-weathering limestone which occurs along the shore. Our course lay about one mile off shore; and, at this distance, the depth of water varied from one foot on the spits to five feet in places midway between them. Camp was made at Pisquetshi or Black Point, and we remained there the following day, which was stormy. The canoe and load was carried out 150 yards at about half-tide on the 15th, and the journey resumed. Three-quarters of an hour brought us to Long Ridge, which is crossed by a portage of 100 feet at about its middle point. Our course lay west for two miles to the end spit of sand and gravel pointing to the north-east, then north for a mile and a half to pass the end of a similar spit of much greater length, then the same distance west to the mouth of Half Way Creek, and then two miles north to pass Half Way Point. North-west of this point we sailed within a mile of the shore as far as Cockispenny, and had a couple of feet more water after the first hour.

In character this coast is extremely low and flat, with the relief increasing slightly from the estuary of the Moose to Cockispenny and then again decreasing towards Albany. At low tide a mile of boulder-strewn flats is ordinarily laid bare in all the indentations of the coast. At high tide landings can be made from a canoe, with comfort, at the points; but at other times it is necessary to wade ashore and bring the canoe in with the tide. Cockispenny is the only point between the Moose and the Albany where landings can be made at any state of the tide: at this point the shore can be approached within 100 yards at low tide. North Bluff beacon is placed on one of several gravel ridges, running north-north-east, which is a few feet only above ordinary high tide. These ridges alternate with grassy and alder swales, and the timber line is said to be three miles distant. At Jarvis Bluff we walked across sand flats for three-quarters of a mile, at low tide, to reach a low ridge of gravel forming the beach, and were then only half-way to the timber. At Pisquamish landings can be effected only at high tide with safety on account of the boulders, but the timber is here close to the shore. Pisquetshi or Black Point is covered with spruce of fair size to within half a mile of the point, which is formed of a gravel ridge running north and bending north-west at the point in the direction of the shoreline. A spit of gravel and stones runs north-east from the point and then north. Landing here is not difficult between half and full tide. Long Ridge is formed of gravel, sand, and boulders, with the pebbles of limestone and of crystalline rocks in about equal proportions. It runs in a northerly direction with a width of little over 100 feet for the first mile, and then widens out to about 100 yards and becomes grass covered. The point between this and Half Way is similar in character to Long Ridge, but with the wider part which is used as a camping ground not so far out.

Half Way Point is formed by a gravel ridge, 100 to 300 feet in width, which runs north from the mouth of the Creek for half a mile, then north-north-west for three-quarters of a mile, and ends in a gravel spit running north-north-east for three-quarters of a mile. Three-eighths of a mile west of this spit another runs out in a northerly direction from the meadow which occupies the triangle lying between the ridge and the shore to the westward. At low tide this can be traced for about two miles, so that the shoals must extend out nearly four miles from the general coastline. Limestone, lying apparently horizontal, is uncovered at low tide a quarter of a mile beyond the end of the easterly spit. South-east of this outcrop the water appears shoal fully two-thirds of the way across the bay, and it is likely that the limestone continues under this part. The portion of the bay left bare at low tide varies from one-quarter of a mile at the end of Half Way Point to one and one-half miles at the shore. Half Way Creek discharges into the bay with a width of 50 yards. Canoes can ascend it for three miles at any time and for ten miles at time of freshet. The country is reported to be very wet back of the fringe of timber along the shore at its mouth, and the creek to vary in width in the first three miles from lake-like expansions to ten feet. The banks at the mouth are about eight feet high.

At Little Half Way Point a mile of mud flats is left bare at low tide. The inner half of this flat is covered only by spring tides and is mostly meadow. The rise at the timber line from the level of this meadow is six feet. From the creek which enters the bay on the west side of the point for half the way to Black Bear Point the shore is very wet, then it rises in a gravel beach to a height of eight feet. This beach continues with some minor breaks to Cockispenny. The shore at Black Bear Point has an elevation of ten feet.

Nomansland Point has a gravel ridge six feet high on the eastern side, and a wide meadow running out to the point of the ridge on its western side. The inner part of this ridge is 600 feet wide, and is covered with juniper, currant, and berry bushes; but the portion which runs in a northerly direction is mostly less than 100 feet in width. Exceptionally high tides cover the hay marsh behind the point, and bring driftwood right up against the ridge itself. Between Nomansland and Cockispenny the shore is quite flat.

Cockispenny, distant 56 miles from Moose Factory and 35 miles from Albany, is formed by a stony point with an elevation of 15 feet above high tide. A bay half a mile deep lies immediately south-east of this point; and a sweep of gravel beach extends north-west for somewhat over a mile, then turns abruptly to the south-west. Several gravel bars or spits run out, in a northerly direction, in the half-mile west of this hook, the most westerly one of which starts from an extensive meadow very little above sea-level. Across Cockispenny from the bay on the east side to this meadow, ridges of sand and gravel wooded with spruce up to 10 inches in diameter, alternate with swales, with grass, and alders. For two or three miles inland the country is reported of the same nature.

Soundings were taken in different directions from Cockispenny, as shown on the accompanying plan, to as great a distance from shore as was practicable with a canoe. The soundings are given in feet, reduced to low water at time of spring tide. North-east from Cockispenny, or at right angles to the shore line, the depth was 14 feet at 1 mile, and 19 feet at 2 miles, from shore. In a northerly direction, the depth was 8 feet at 1 mile, 12 feet at 2 miles, and 18 feet at 3 miles. In an east-north-east direction, the depth was 14 feet at 1 mile, 19 feet at 2 miles, 23 feet at 3 miles, and 25 feet at 4 miles. In a direction S. 55° E., the depth was 10 feet at 1 mile, 14 feet at 2 miles, 15 feet at 3 miles, and 16 feet at 4 miles.

There is no shelter on any part of this coast from northerly or easterly winds. The bays are all too shoal to allow of even a small vessel entering them far enough to be protected by the projecting bars or spits.

Any harbor constructed at any point on the coast will have to be dug out of the low-lying shore itself. Cockispenny with 14 feet at low water 1 mile off shore, and 20 feet at about  $2\frac{1}{4}$  miles, would appear to be much the best locality for such an undertaking. In the bay south-east of the point, when dredged out, shelter would be obtained from north winds; but a breakwater would have to be built to provide shelter from easterly winds. There is no indication of rock in place anywhere in the vicinity; the material to be handled would consist, so far as we can see, of sand and boulders.

NOTE.—The way was open for a vessel to pass between Moose and Albany from the 19th of June.

As compared with the cost of a harbor in the estuary of the Moose River, it would appear to be a question of balancing the cost of two miles of approaches, and the cost and revenue-producing power of a railway to that point, with the cost of dredging to and through the outer bar at the mouth of the Moose, the cost of the dredging necessary to improve the channel for the 10 or 12 miles to Sandy Island or East Bluff Point, and the cost and revenue-producing power of a railway along the Moose to either of these points, the cost of the harbour proper being much the same in either place. The railway route along the Moose River would have the advantage of passing through drier country, and of being about 30 miles shorter; while as an offset to this the route in and out of the bay, which passes close to Akiniski Island, would be 50 or 60 miles longer to Moose than to Cockispenny. With regard to proximity to fishing grounds the advantage, if any, would lie with Cockispenny.

The ranges of spring tides at Cockispenny, June 18th, 1912, were 5.6, 3.5, 5.2 and 7.5 feet. This gives a mean range of 5.5 feet. High water occurred at about 62 hours after the change of moon, and on the day of the change about 12 $\frac{1}{2}$  hours after.

In the return journey from Half Way Point to Moose Factory, which was made in one day, it was endeavored to keep a course from point to point. The soundings taken on these courses show a depth of water of 5 and 6 feet at 1 and 1 $\frac{1}{2}$  miles east of Pisquetshi bar, and about the same distance from shore. South of Pisquamish, they indicate little or no water at low tide.

THE NAVIGATION OF JAMES BAY.

HISTORICAL SUMMARY.

To the intrepid navigator, Henry Hudson, belongs the credit of leading the way. It will always remain a question in doubt just how far towards the southern extremity of Hudson's Bay the bold navigator passed his last winter of 1610-11. The journal of one of his mutinous crew states that they were frozen in on the 10th of November, in the southeast part of the bay, after sailing three months through a labyrinth of islands. On the 21st of June following, Hudson, his young son and six sick men were forced into a small boat into which John King the carpenter, went voluntarily and were set adrift.

In the succeeding years several expeditions were sent to follow up Hudson's discoveries and find a passage to the western ocean. These resulted in a fairly accurate knowledge of the west side of Hudson's Bay. In 1631 Captain James followed much the same course to the cape which he named after the Queen, Henrietta Maria. From this point he sailed southward along the west coast of the bay which bears his name; and, after many times nearly meeting shipwreck on shoals, finally ran his ship aground on Charlton Island where they passed the winter.

The inception of the Hudson's Bay Company was the first move towards a regular traffic in and out of this extensive sea. Singularly enough the beginning of this, the oldest of English trading companies, may be traced to the activities of two French fur traders. These men were Radisson and Chouart de Groseilliers, brothers-in-law and life partners in the fur trade, who, long familiar with the country beyond the lakes, had visited the shores of James Bay in 1659. They endeavoured to interest merchants in a scheme to establish trading posts in the bay, first in Quebec, then in New England, and finally in Paris, with indifferent success. The English ambassador finally became acquainted with their plans, and sent Radisson to London with letters of introduction to Prince Rupert and several adventurous spirits of the court and city. These men advanced sufficient capital to outfit a small vessel, under the command of Zachariah Gillam, a New England captain, who, accompanied by Radisson and Groseilliers, sailed in 1668 through Hudson's straits and bay to the mouth of Rupert River where they built a port and passed a successful winter in trade with the Indians. Upon the return of Gillam in the following year with the furs, Prince Rupert and his associates applied to King Charles II. for a charter which was granted on the 2nd May, 1670, to the Governor and Company of Merchant Adventurers trading into Hudson's Bay.

Within fifteen years after its formation the Hudson's Bay Company had established trading posts on the shores of James Bay at the mouths of the Albany, Moose, Rupert and Eastmain Rivers, and on the shores of Hudson's Bay at the mouths of the Nelson and Severn Rivers. The competition of the English on the bay having been keenly felt by the French in Canada, a detachment of soldiers was sent over land from Quebec under the command of Chevalier de Troyes in 1686 while the countries were at peace, and Rupert, Moose and Albany forts were taken almost without a struggle. This was the beginning of a long conflict between the French and English for ascendancy on the bay, which was ended only with the Treaty of Utrecht in 1713. The following table of events connected with the history of the Forts taken mainly from the History of the Hudson's Bay Company by Mr. Beckles Wilson gives an outline of this warfare:—

Hudson's Bay Company's Forts from 1668 to 1714.

1. Rupert, called by the French St. Jacques, founded by Gillam in 1668; taken by the French under Troyes and Iberville, July, 1686. Retaken by English, 1693. Taken by overland force from Canada in 1694. Retaken by the warships Bonaventure and Seaford in 1695. Returned to the French by stipulation of the Treaty of Ryswick, 1697. Returned to the English by the Treaty of Utrecht, 1713.

2. Moose, Fort Monsippi, St. Lewis taken by Troyes and Iberville, June 20th, 1686. Retaken by English in 1693, but in all probability not occupied as a trading post. A wooden fort was built in 1730. This was plundered by the French in 1756 who came by way of Michipicoton. Two brass cannons taken at this time were recovered at the fall of Michilimaekinae.

3. Albany, Chechouan, or St. Anne taken by Troyes and Iberville 1686. Retaken by English warships in 1693. Taken by overland force from Canada, 1694. Retaken by the warships Bonaventure and Seaford in 1695. The only post on the bay left to the Company by the Treaty of Ryswick.

4. New Severn or Nieu Savanne taken by Iberville with two ships in 1690 after his failure to capture Fort Nelson.

5. York, Nelson, or Fort Bourbon founded 1670. Taken by French 1682, acting for English 1684, and retaken by Iberville 12th Oct., 1694. Retaken by English 1696 and by French 1697. Finally taken by the English in 1714.

6. Churchhill founded 1688. Wooden fort 1718 to 1734.

7. Eastmain was opened first on account of a mica mine in the vicinity which was worked for a few years and then abandoned.

From these early times down to the present century the navigation of James Bay has been, with one exception, by the ships of the Hudson's Bay Company. This exception was in the four years beginning in 1803 when the northwest company built forts at Charton and at Moose. They came by the Beaver, a ship of 150 tons, and also overland by way of Lake St. John and Mistassini. Their fort at Moose, which was situated on the upper end of Hay's Island, was abandoned with the others on the east coast after the departure of their schooner in 1806.

In the year 1902, the French fur company of Revillon Freres established trading posts on James Bay, and from that time they have sent one or more vessels annually from Montreal to their depot on Strutton Islands. For the carrying of goods to and from the different posts which they have established at practically every point on the bay where the Hudson's Bay Company has a post, this company maintains at Moose one steamer, a schooner which is now a reserve vessel and the necessary boats of smaller size. In addition they have a plant in which boats of the latter class are built for all of their posts on James Bay. Their first cargo left Quebec Aug. 15th, 1903, in the Eldorado, an unprotected iron vessel of 1,600 tons. This was an unfortunate year for both companies; the Eldorado was wrecked on the 1st of September off Loon Islands, Fort George; and the other company's vessel homeward bound was lost on the Gasket shoal sixteen days later. From that year down to the present sealing vessels have been mainly used by both companies for this trade which is now carried on from Montreal, the vessels leaving that port in July.

RECORD OF NAVIGATION IN JAMES BAY.

The record of the Hudson's Bay Company's ships as given in "Appendix C" is a remarkable one when we consider that it was made in waters not having any of the usual aids to navigation. Of the voyages from London to Moose Factory exclusive of those made by auxiliary vessels and those being brought out for service on the bay itself, out of a total of one hundred and forty odd voyages 90 per cent. were made by ten ships, or an average of thirteen voyages for each ship. The record is held by the Lady Head which made 27 voyages and wintered once at Charlton Island. Of the twenty vessels in this century and a half six or seven were auxiliary vessels which made but one voyage each accompanying the regular ship; the Camden's record of two voyages would probably be added to were the record complete; the Emerald made a single voyage on account of the Eddystone wintering in the bay; the Princess Royal, the largest of all the ships, was lost on her first voyage; the Prince Rupert made five voyages; and the other nine ships made in all over one hundred and twenty voyages with the loss of only two of their number. The loss of so few as three ships in making one hundred and forty voyages was due chiefly to the long experience of the captains employed. One of these men made in all 21 voyages to James Bay, two others made twenty voyages each, another 17 voyages and still another 15 voyages. Only one of the five had the misfortune of losing a vessel.

These wrecks occurred one on Hudson's Bay, one in James Bay and the other in the mouth of the Moose River. The Prince Arthur ran aground on Mansfield Island on the night of the 13th of August, 1864, when coming into Hudson Bay in company with the schooner Marten and several whaling ships. This was the captain's first voyage to the bay, and it does not appear to have been marked by the prudence which characterized most other voyages. The vessel was a total wreck; only 116 pieces of cargo being transferred to the schooner.

The Princess Royal which was lost in 1885 was probably too large a ship for this service, as she is credited with a draft of 18 feet. She made the voyage to Moose successfully, though she had to wait from the 4th to the 16th of September to get in over the bar; and took her departure on the 2nd of October. Through a mistake of her pilot she was steered on to a shoal in going out over the outer bar, had to be lightened of most of her ballast to get her afloat, and became separated from the schooner in fog and snow before this could be replaced. A heavy northerly gale parted both her cables, which are said to have been much rusted, and she was forced to run for the river after the tide had passed the flood. She touched a shoal at the outer bar and losing her steerage way drifted on to the Sand Head bar where she became a total wreck October the 4th.

News of the wreck of the Lady Head in 1903 was brought to Moose Factory by Captain Ford who arrived with his boat on the 28th of September at 6.30 p.m. Mr. Freakley, the mate, arrived with his boat the next day at 7 p.m. Mr. Sargent, the second mate, arrived with the remainder of the ship's crew on October 1st. Captain Ford is a veteran in the company's service who had made a dozen previous voyages and who has since made seven successful voyages to James Bay. The following is a copy of his report:—

"I left Charlton Harbour on the 15th of September, and proceeded northwards, beating with north-east winds in foggy weather. On the 17th, the ship struck on the Gasket Shoal at 9.20 p.m. The lead had been kept going at intervals, the last sounding, before the ship struck, being taken at 8.35 p.m., which gave 14 fathoms. The ship was striking and grinding heavily. Every possible means was employed to get the ship off, between 30 and 40 tons of stone ballast being discharged. The attempts proved successful on the 21st. On the 22nd, the wind came from the north-west, blowing a gale. The ship dragged both anchors and 60 fathoms of chain back to the reef again. She was straining and grinding heavily, broke the pintails and gudgeons, and carried away the stern post. Planks and pieces of wood came to the surface, while the ship was on the reef. All hands were at the pumps, the ship making water at the rate of 2½ feet an hour. On the 24th, the crew wished to abandon the ship. I refused their request, as the shoal on which they wished to land was not habitable. During the day, it blew a gale from the north-east, with a terrific sea. The ship dragged over this reef, with both anchors down and 60 fathoms of chain. All hands were at the pumps, but the water gained on us; five feet of water in the hold. On the 25th, the water was up to the lower hold beams, and the cargo floating about. At 8.30 a.m., on the 25th, the ship was abandoned, having become a total wreck, the crew and passengers leaving the ship in three boats."

Departure of Canoes in October.

Since it has become the custom to charter sealing vessels for the trade into Hudson Bay two ships have been lost. These were the Stork and the Sorine. The "Stork" was ready for sea Sept. 26th, 1908, but did not leave Charlton until six days later on account of bad weather. She turned back after an attempt to leave the bay, and was wrecked on Lisbon rock, October the 10th. The Sorine left Charlton Sept. 15th, 1910, and meeting with ice in Hudson Bay, she returned to Charlton October 3rd. She wintered here, and was shoved ashore by the ice and became a total wreck.

In the last two years the Hudson's Bay Company's ships have gone to York Factory before coming to Charlton. In 1911 both ships reached Charlton in the first half of August. But this year their ship to Nascopie did not arrive until the 22nd of September. She left Montreal on or about the 6th of July and made calls at Wolstenholme, Chesterfield Inlet, Churchhill and York before coming to Charlton. The first ship to arrive in James Bay during the past season was the Beothic of the new Hudson Bay Steamship Line which left Quebec on July 7th, and arrived at Moose River August 19th after having gone to Nelson and discharged cargo. Her ports of call were Nelson in Hudson Bay and Moose and Strutton Sound in James Bay. She was delayed several days by the ice in entering Hudson Bay. The Revillon Company's steamship did not leave Montreal until the 17th of July and made a direct voyage, calling only at points in the straits and at Strutton Islands. The Hydrographic Survey Department also sent a schooner loaded with supplies to the east side of James Bay, which is expected to winter in that part; and the C. G. S. Stanley paid a visit to Port Nelson. The past season has been altogether the most active one in the history of navigation into Hudson Bay, and is indicative of the activity that will arise when railway location has given place to the finished lines.

CHARACTER OF VESSELS USED IN NAVIGATION OF JAMES BAY.

The vessels used at different times by the Hudson's Bay Company present a considerable variety and include shallops batteaux, sloops or yawls, schooners, sailing ships of various kinds used to bring cargo from London, and finally steam ships which have been introduced in the present century. The first four kinds have mostly been built at Moose Factory from spruce timber cut out in the neighborhood. The term shallop has ceased to be used for the smaller boats; it may include, according to Webster, boats of all sizes from light canoes up to large boats with masts and sails.

Batteaux or York boats have probably displaced the shallops though chiefly built for river navigation. These are open boats between 30 and 40 feet in length rigged with mast and square sail. They are the equal of any boat going before the wind, but are not capable of beating up against it. They are beamy and of good carrying capacity. For hay boats and for transporting large quantities of goods up river to the inland posts they are of ideal construction, for their draft is only from 2 to 3 feet according to how they are loaded.

The sloops which are now generally called barges are decked vessels with one or two masts, fore and aft rigged. Those used at the present time are modelled after the Lake Superior fishing craft. They are about 36 feet on the keel and 9 feet beam. Their capacity is about 6 tons and their draft loaded 3 feet.

The schooners formerly in use were from 40 to 70 tons. They drew from 5 to 7 feet when loaded. Some of these were built at Moose but with some oak for frames. Small steamboats have in the past decade displaced the schooners for distributing goods to the different posts on the bay. The one in use by the Hudson's Bay Company was built in Toronto with a steel frame and stout oak sheathing. She has since been re-inforced by an outside sheathing of greenheart on the bows. Her length is 86 feet, registered tonnage 45.64, and draft  $6\frac{1}{2}$  feet loaded. Her boilers were replaced this year by new ones of the best type, making her an efficient as well as a staunch vessel. The one belonging to Revillon Freres is a much older vessel, which was built in Europe. She is about the same length but has much greater capacity on account of her greater width and draft.

The ships formerly sent out annually from England had a draft usually of 15 to 16 feet and a registered tonnage of between 300 and 500 tons. Between 1750 and 1902 when Charlton Island was made the depot for the James Bay district these ships discharge their cargo at Moose, in all but ten years, about the time of the final struggle between the French and English when Albany was the port of call. These ships always waited at the outer anchorage for a north wind to bring a high tide to take them over the bar. With the first of these tides they sailed nine miles up the estuary and anchored opposite Ship Sands. At this upper anchorage the cargo was transferred to the schooner and smaller vessels and carried in them the remaining nine miles to Moose Factory. Archdeacon Renison who spent fifteen years at Moose is authority for the statement that in his time these ships came over the bar drawing 15 feet; and Mr. Mowat the Postmaster gives the draft of the Lady Head, the last ship to discharge at Moose, as  $16\frac{1}{2}$  feet, and her draft coming over the bar at 14 feet.

Some place the draft of these ships at higher figures; but these given are by reliable observers and probably represent the maximum draft that can safely pass over the bar with these tides.

A better type of sloop or barge than the old one, which had not sufficient headroom in the hold, is now being built at Moose. Early in 1912 the Hudson's Bay Company built for their post at Whale River, a small vessel, the Eskimo, on the former lines but of sufficient size to take into its hold through a special hatchway the engine and boiler for their new sawmill; and this machinery was transported in this vessel from Charlton to Moose Factory. Two vessels of a still larger size are under construction this winter at the Revillon post. These are being built with oak frames and  $1\frac{1}{2}$  inch spruce sheathing, the former thickness having been  $1\frac{1}{4}$  inch. They are 40 feet on the keel and 46 feet in length at the deck line. Their width is about 10 feet and the holds will be 7 feet in height. Their carrying capacity will be about 20 tons. The ribs are made of two thicknesses of  $1\frac{1}{4}$  inch oak strips 3 inches in width placed 15 inches apart. These strips are, in most of the ribs, of sufficient length to pass under the vessel from side to side, and are riveted together, giving a thickness of  $2\frac{1}{2}$  inches of oak with the fibre uncut and intact.

As with all the boats built at Moose the deck timbers will be strengthened by knees sawn from the natural crooks of spruce roots. It is claimed, by their Newfoundland boat builders that these ribs are equal in strength to 5 inch oak ribs when these are shaped to place instead of being bent and riveted; and that these boats will navigate any sea with the staunchest vessels made.

THE SEASON OF NAVIGATION.

From all available records, it would appear that the average date at which the ice leaves the southern shores of James Bay is between the middle and the 20th of June. This year was about an average one as to severity of the winter and the time of the break-up; and the way was open for a vessel to pass from Moose to Albany on or after the 19th of June. The year 1819 was the earliest of which we have any record. On May 19th the Governor and party left Moose for Albany in a batteau and a small canoe and must have got through within a reasonable time or this fact would appear in the journals. Canoes have come from Hannah Bay as early as the 28th of May, and in several years they have passed between Moose and Albany in the first days of June. In 1870 a boat came from Ruperts House to Moose Factory in the first three days in June, and this implies open water for at least one or two miles from the shore. In most years within one week after canoes are able to pass between these different points the bay is open for navigation by larger vessels.

The latest years of which we have any record were those of 1816 and 1817. In the latter year the first canoe arrived from Hannah Bay on July 4th. Both winters were exceptionally severe. In 1815 the ships Eddystone and Hadlow, which left the Moose River on September 23rd for London, turned back on account of ice in Hudson's Bay on October 10th, and arrived at Strutton Islands on October 20th. With the help of supplies sent from East Main the crews of 49 persons passed the winter at Struttons. The East Main Journal for 1816 records that, as June 30th is the last day that the crews at Struttons are victualled, several Indians are waiting to go there to fish. These got away on July 3rd in the new boat, taking a few geese and fish. Quantities of ice were still in sight. On July 8th the observation is made that the ice still continues close in shore. On the 12th Captains Turner and Davison arrived from the ships and brought news that the Gipsy schooner and the new boat were at Struttons.

The time at which navigation of the bay would become impracticable on account of ice is not so easily determined, because, though there is always a number of canoes or boats awaiting the first opportunity in the spring to reach the trading posts, it is only under circumstances of necessity that the navigation of the bay has been prosecuted to the latest possible date in the fall. Then, too, the strength and power of the vessel is an important factor in this connection. The earliest we know of the ice interfering with navigation was on or about the 20th of October, in 1859. The ice increased in extent from this date, but the Moose River was not entirely frozen over until November 14th. In several years vessels have had long and stormy passages in crossing the bay in the last week of October, and in very few years have boats left Moose to cross the bay in November. On account of the near approach of winter and the liability of meeting snow or other storms, it has always been the policy of the fur companies to have all voyages end before November. There is no doubt that, if conditions warranted it, the season of navigation could be extended so as to include in most years a considerable portion of November, giving an open season for five months.

HARBOURS.

The question of harbours is the all important one in any successful navigation of James Bay. Natural harbours do not exist, at least not on the main shore, where they would be of service. The river mouth at Fort George is probably the nearest approach to one available at any stage of the tide, but the situation is outside the line of traffic. The harbours at Charlton Island and Strutton Sound serve the requirements of the fur companies, but their situation precludes their being anything else than roadsteads or harbours of refuge for other traffic. Before the building of the Canadian Pacific Railway, when all of the territory tributary to James Bay carried on its trade through that outlet, Moose Factory was the natural distributing centre. The building of railway lines to the north, whose natural route is along one or other of the large rivers which have their confluence in the estuary of the Moose, must some day bring it again to this position.

The records of "150" years' traffic, when Moose Factory occupied this position show how important an increase of a few feet in the depth of water on the bar at the mouth of the Moose River would have been to ships making this port. For 53 of these years we have complete records of the ship's arrival both outside and inside of the bar. In only three years was the ship able to come in over the bar on the same day that she arrived outside: in 17 years she came in the next day after her arrival: in 9 years the second day after: in 6 years the third day after: in 8 years the fourth day after: and in 10 years it was necessary to wait from five to twelve days. For 21 years the records of the arrival of the Lady Head are complete. In different years this ship, drawing about 15 feet, had to wait twelve, eleven, eight, six, five, and three days before she could come over the outer bar, and in two years she had to wait nine days, in three years four days, in four years two days, in five years one day. The number of days elapsing between the delivery of the packet on board and the departure of the ship may be taken as the time lost in waiting for a sufficiently high tide to enable her to pass out over the bar. Out of a total of 58 years in which the record of the departure is complete, the ship was enabled to pass out the same day in 7 different years, on the next day in 9 years, on the second day in 18 years, on the third day in 8 years, on the fourth day in 7 years, and in from five to eight days after the packet was put aboard in the other 9 years. In 22 years the Lady Head was once delayed for eight days in getting out, twice delayed for six days, and twice for five days, three times for four days, five times for three days, five times for two days, and four times she went out the same day the packet was delivered. This represents a delay in getting out of the Moose River of 67 days in 22 years, or an average of 3 days per voyage. The delay occasioned the Lady Head when entering the Moose River in 21 years totals 70 days, or an average of 3 1-3 days per voyage.

These records also show that it is possible for a ship drawing 15 feet of water to make use of the mouth of the Moose as a port of call, but that on an average six or seven days would be lost in making both crossings of the bar.

Clay Banks in Estuary at Low Tide.

CHARACTER OF CHANNELS IN THE ESTUARY OF THE MOOSE RIVER.

DEPTH OF WATER.

The soundings taken in the seventeen or eighteen miles of the estuary below the trading posts must be considered simply as supplementing those taken by Mr. Ells last year.

The results of these soundings in the eleven miles of channel between the outer buoy and Sandy Island may be summarized as follows:—four miles with from 6 to 12 feet at low water of spring tides, two and one-half miles with from 14 to 20 feet of water three and one-half miles with from 18 to 25 feet of water, and one mile with from 16 feet of water off the end of Middleboro sands to 24 feet off the point of Sandy Island. The shoalest water occurs at the bar one mile inside of the outer buoy where with very low tides there is sometimes only six or seven feet. Between Ship Sands bar and the bar on the opposite side of the channel from the Shears beacon, the depth is increased to between 16 and 20 feet. Between this part and the wide part of Ship Sands it is again reduced to 14 feet. For nearly three miles opposite Ship Sands Island the depth varies between 20 and 25 feet. It was here off the middle of Ship Sands that the Hudson's Bay Company's ships anchored and discharged their cargo into smaller vessels in former years.

The depth of water varies greatly with the width of the channel. Wherever the flow is confined within comparatively narrow limits by bars or islands, the depth is ample for such vessels as have heretofore used the mouth of the river, but where it is not so confined, the channel will have to be deepened materially to secure a depth of three fathoms. The steamers now being used to carry goods to and from the depots on Strutton and Charlton Islands are not certain of coming in at low tide drawing 6 to 8 feet.

A profile of the North Channel, which might more probably be called the West Channel in the upper part of the estuary, would show no depth greater than 10 feet in the first two miles below the Fishing Tent rapid. This depth is increased to 17 feet where this channel narrows at the Bill of Portland, and to 19 or 20 feet in the section one mile below, where the width is reduced to 1,800 feet. As the channel widens out in the next mile to over 3,000 feet, the depth is reduced to 14 feet; and, at the head of Maidman's Island it is still further reduced to 11 feet. About 800 feet off the head of Charles Island there is again 14 to 16 feet of water, and at 400 feet from the island in the next half mile, this is increased to between 19 and 20 feet. Where the channel again widens opposite the Revillon Post, it is only at the mouth of the creek and for a few hundred feet from the shore of Charles Island that the depth remains greater than 10 feet. Where the current strikes the head of Butler Island there is 12 to 13 feet of water, and along the north shore there is 4 feet more. The depth in the Revillon ship channel varies between 14 and 18 feet until near the foot of Duck Island, when it is again only 12 to 13 feet. This depth is increased to 20 feet where the current strikes Grey Goose, or Little Duck Island; but below the island there is only 11 to 13 feet across what is known as the inner bar. Between this bar and the former anchorage off Ship Sands there is only one place between the latter and Middleboro Sands that will require deepening. These results show considerable variations in depth in longitudinal as well as in transverse section.

A similar profile of the South Channel following its deepest part would show, on the north side of South Bluff Island, depths of 13 feet at the head and 12 feet at the foot of the island. Half a mile below the island there is 10 feet of water at lowest tide; but one mile farther down stream where the channel is reduced in width by a point and island on the south side, the depth increases to 17 feet. Within a mile the depth is again reduced to 14 feet. On the Fishing Point section there was 14 feet of water in a narrow channel north of the middle of the stream, and 11 feet in one along the south shore. Between Hay's Island and Bull's Gutway and along the north side of the Island the depth is 10 feet, while at the lower end of the island it is 8 to 9 feet. The channels to the south of Hay's Island have each about one foot less water than the one to the north. Outside of Puppy Island the depth is from 9 to 12 feet, while that inside is one foot less. At Point o'Pool there is 12 feet at the wharf, but between this point and the boat channel in midstream lies a bar on which there are very few feet of water at low tide. Moreover this boat channel does not appear to be continuous with any one of the channels above Puppy Island, though it is fairly straight to Pilgrim Island with a depth between 8 and 10 feet. Off the lower part of Pilgrim Island there is 13 to 15 feet of water; and where the current strikes Middleboro Island the channel is deepened to from 17 to 19 feet. On the section at the foot of Middleboro Island there is a depth of between 12 and 14 feet near the south shore; but midway off the island the river bottom is very irregular and one can be sure of only 9 feet at low tide. The depth on the last mentioned section continues, with sometimes an increase to 16 or even to 18 feet, as far as the curve at the Horse Shoe bar. At this point the ship channel is quite narrow and the depth only from 6 to 7 feet, making it the worst to navigate in the mouth of the river.

The deep portions of the north and the south channel have widths of about 300 to 400 feet, the former being nearer the average width. These are channels within the wider stream in which the velocity of the current is sufficient at all times to prevent the deposition of much coarse sediment. They meander within the limits of the channels much as a river does across its flood-plain. Even where the channels are not divided into parts by islands, they often contain more than one deep portion. In some places both sides of the channel are deep, while the middle is filled with shoals. In these deeper portions of the channels the bottom is always quite soft. It is composed of soft or sticky mud with thin layers of sand or gravel at intervals of several feet. The irregular manner in which this coarser material occurs indicates considerable scour at times of freshet and subsequent filling when the velocity becomes more normal.

BARS AND SHOALS.

The bars and shoals in other parts of the channels are composed mainly of coarse sand and stones. It is the consensus of opinion about the Posts that these shoals become more prominent each succeeding year. No doubt deposition of sediment carried by the stream occurs to a greater extent in these shoal areas than where the current is faster; but there is evidently an irregular and spasmodic extension of these shoals in addition to the more regular growth from season to season. This is probably accounted for by the stones and other earthy material carried from the shores and from the rapids in the river, by the ice which drifts to and fro in the estuary for a considerable portion of the month of November, and also by similar material carried on cakes of ice during the breakup, much of which finds a natural lodgment on the shoals. A look at the banks of the river, strewn as they are with stones and dotted with piles of freshly dumped earth makes it apparent that great quantities of these materials are transported by the ice and find their way to places where ice-shoves take place. The wearing away of the shores of islands which lie exposed to the full force of the ice during the break-up provides material which is soon deposited once the island is passed. The upper ends of islands like South Bluff, Hay's, Middleboro and Butler show, by their shape and the steepness of their shores, the effect of this wear. The lower ends, even, of the two former islands present the appearance of having been subjected to this eroding action. Landslides which are quite frequent wherever the current strikes the shores with much force project immense quantities of earth into the channels. Trees growing a hundred feet from the water have been carried with the clay bank into the river by some of these slides. In short, the channels are developed to accommodate the spring discharge of the river, and their size is out of all proportion to that of other seasons of the year. Most of the shoals and bars in the outer portion of the estuary were surveyed last year. Another effort was made with only partial success to determine the character of the material of which these are composed. With the pointed iron rod which we had used for testing the bottom in the upper part of the estuary, we were able to penetrate these bars only to depths of from 2 to 6 feet. With the aid of a sand pump and piping no doubt tests could be made to as great a depth as desired for there is nothing to indicate the presence of rock anywhere near the surface. Our work on the bars indicates that all the outer portions are built up of hard sand, together with stones and fine silt or mud. The inner or upstream portions have considerable very fine mud alternating with the sand both laterally and vertically, i. e., the finer material is deposited in patches. Stones and boulders are not plentiful; at very few points are there sufficient available for even a small mound. At the Sand Head these materials are beaten so hard by the waves that the rod could not be driven down more than four feet; while at the Shears Beacon depths of 6 feet could be tested in this way.

Directly across the Ship Channel from the Shears Beacon, and at distance from it of  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a mile, is a bar over two miles in length which might be designated the middle or east bar. It has about the same width at low tide as the channel between this and Ship Sands bar, and has an extension in shoal water for a considerable distance towards the east and another upstream towards the south-west. Spring tides cover this bar entirely, but at neap tides about 100 yards in length remains above water.

The part of the estuary lying to the south and to the east of this middle bar has not been sounded. Opinions differ very materially regarding the channels in this part; but it seems altogether unlikely that any should be found as good as the one in use by the ships for so many years. On May 22nd, when the ice still remained along the shores, the water to the south of this bar was muddy and apparently shoal at a time when that in the ship channel was comparatively clear.

Outside of any possibility of a channel, information regarding this part is required to determine the size of the tidal compartment; and a further knowledge of the bars on this side is necessary in order to determine sites for jetties in any scheme to control the flow and deepen the ship channel by natural scour.

Ship Sands which is the largest of these bars forms the northwest side of the ship channel for a distance of seven miles. It is difficult to tell where the island ceases and the bar begins, for the slope seaward is very gradual from the highest part of the island, and every variation of the tide changes the outline of the lower part. In the first two miles from the head of Ship Sands bay marshes alternate with strips of willows, the latter in places covering one-quarter of the surface. The next two miles are covered with grass only; the outer three miles are submerged with every tide and support no vegetation. The width remains fairly constant at one and a quarter miles until this latter part is reached, when it is reduced to a half and then to a quarter of a mile in the bar proper. With exceptionally high tides the whole of the Ship Sands has been submerged. The highest part of Ship Sands is in the second mile from the head of the island. The general level of the land is here from 8 to 9 feet above the mean of low tides and a ridge of sand forming the south face of the island is from 10 to 12 feet above the same level. The grass line which marks the height of ordinary tides, is about 5 feet above the low tide level; both the upper and the lower end of the island are practically of this height.

The surface of Ship Sands Island consists mainly of clay formed from the very fine silt carried down by the river. This has been built up to a thickness varying from 4 to 10 feet; and, in general, when this is penetrated sand or gravel is reached. Sometimes thin layers of sand or gravel are found alternating with much thicker layers of clay. Evidently the island was built up first as a bar; and, when it became high enough to support vegetation, the velocity of the flowing tide was so far checked as to cause the deposition of the coarser sediment at the edges and the finer material over the interior of the bar.

Ship Sands with its continuation in the bar forms a natural jetty of no mean proportions which serves to give direction to the current. Its effect is seen in the increased depth of this part of the estuary; and its continuation would be necessary in any scheme to maintain a channel of adequate depth through the outer bar. A stone mound about 3,000 feet in length would make Ship Sands bar continuous with a bar, one mile in length, extending to a point opposite the Sand Head beacon. The distance it would have to be extended seaward would largely depend upon the scouring effect produced by the parts constructed; 8,000 feet would pass the shallowest part of the channel.

TERMINAL SITES.

The relative advantages, from the point of view of accessibility and suitability for townsites, of six different points were outlined in the plan prepared by Mr. Ells. One of those is the highest part of Ship Sands, another is the outer part of Sandy island, three others are on the north shore between the latter and the Revillon Post, and the sixth is on the south shore at East Bluff. The sites farthest up the river on the north shore possess the advantage of a few feet higher elevation; but all three are above the inner bar, and their selection would necessitate the improvement of several miles of the river channel above the other possible sites. Their greatest disadvantage would lie in the danger of damage by ice shoves, and the fact that the whole terminal would have to be constructed outside of the river channel. On the south side of the river the Horseshoe shoal would make it difficult to improve the channel as far up as East Bluff which is opposite the upper part of Middleboro Island. The bank is here 12 feet above the mean level of lowest tides, and the area with this elevation is extensive.

The surveys of Ship Sands and Sandy Island show that the latter possesses distinct advantages over the former as the site for a terminal. The highest portion of Ship Sands, excepting the narrow ridge of sand in the second mile on the south face of the island, is liable to be flooded with 3 feet of water at highest tides. In order to provide for drainage the whole area of the terminal site would have to be raised somewhat higher than the highest part of this sand ridge. A bridge 1,500 feet in length would have to be constructed to connect Ship Sands with Sandy Island.

Sandy Island is in reality an island only, at extremely high tides, when the water from Longlands gutway finds its way across to the river through a small creek. The surface is similar in character to the highest part of Ship Sands: the name is somewhat of a misnomer for, like the latter, it is sandy only in the higher parts along the river bank, the rest of the surface being covered with from 4 to 8 feet of clay. This higher portion extends for about a mile above the point of Sandy Island, and is wooded with spruce and poplar in its upper part for a width of from 300 to 500 feet. The wooded portion and a considerable area to the north of it has an elevation varying from 12 to 15 feet above mean low tide. This gives an elevation of from 3 to 6 feet above the highest tides of this season. By filling in some old tide channels, the high ground could be made continuous with that at the point which has an elevation a little above that of highest tides. At a distance of 500 feet from the point there is a depth of 24 feet at low tide. About a mile below this, where the depth is only 16 feet, the channel would have to be improved but the outlay would be more than compensated for by securing a site with a more sandy soil and an elevation above extreme tides. The abrupt turn in the shore line leaves the east face of Sandy Island farther removed from the direct course of the ice than any other part of the shore of the estuary: while, in addition, the river is here so wide as to give the ice free egress.

BUILDING MATERIALS.

Limestone for construction purposes is to be had on Maidman's creek about two miles in a direct line from its mouth. It outcrops along the shore for a distance of half a mile, and stands four feet above the water in places on the south bank. It is a well-bedded stone lying horizontally or dipping slightly to the south. What is probably the same bed of limestone was encountered in making the section of the river at the head of the Bill of Portland. At distances from the north shore of from 200 to 600 feet rock was encountered at depths of 5 and 6 feet, but it could not be said that this was in place. At distances from the shore of 800 to 1,400 feet, however, flat-lying limestone was struck in every hole at depths varying from 13 to 17 feet. In the other 800 feet of the channel no rock was reached at depths of from 21 to 24 feet. The limestone on Maidman's creek is the nearest outcrop to the mouth of the estuary: it is distant 11 miles from Sandy Island and 22 miles from the outer buoy.

Considerable piles of loose limestone on the shore near the mouth of Doctor's creek may indicate limestone in place near the surface of the ground. The place is not within reach of boats at present on account of the shallowness of the water in front. At no point in estuary is there sufficient loose rock to be of any service for purposes of construction.

TIDES AND CURRENTS.

Tidal records were kept for five months from May to October. A recording tide gauge was supplied by Dr. Dawson, Superintendent of the Tidal and Current Survey, Ottawa. Unfortunately after three months service at Moose Factory, the tide gauge was allowed to get flooded, and, in drying the clock, one of the jewels was broken. This could not be replaced in time to secure any more continuous records during the past season. However, as complete a record as the exigencies of our work would permit was kept from a tide board set up in whatever part of the estuary we were working. Some of these are partial records which though valuable in reducing the soundings are of little use in determining the range of the tide. Records of this kind were kept previous to the breakup and again in the fall of the year. The accompanying table gives the reductions of these observations. The ranges of spring tides at Cockispenny Point, June 18th, 1912, were 5.6, 3.5, 5.2 and 7.5 feet. This gives a mean range of 5.5 feet on the coast, as compared with one of 4.3 feet at Moose Factory which occurred about 27 hours later. High water occurred about 12½ hours after the change of the moon.

The times of ebb and flow are about equal on the coast, but at Moose Factory the tide flows for four hours and ebbs for eight. High water occurs at Moose Factory fully two hours later than at the outer bar, and one hour earlier than at the head of tide water.

The effect of the wind upon the height of the tides is very great, the difference due to it alone being often two to three feet. A strong north wind always brings a tide equal to a spring tide, and a south wind correspondingly low water. The highest equinoctial spring tide occurred on the 14th of September. The water rose 8.9 feet at Ship Sands and 7.8 feet at the Revillon Post. With the following neap tides the water rose only half a foot higher at Ship Sands than at the Post.

Current meter readings were taken at Ship Sands, Shears, Beacon and Sand Head to determine the rate of flow and ebb of the tide. Each set comprised readings, at intervals of one to two feet, from the surface to a depth of 16 feet which was as deep as the meter could be suspended with a 20 ft. cable. About two dozen sets of readings were taken at the different points. The maximum rate recorded for the ebbing tide was 3.6 feet per second, and that for the flowing tide 3.2 feet per second. With a north wind blowing 20 miles an hour, the maximum velocity both of ebb and flow was at a depth of 5 feet: but, while the surface velocity of the ebb tide was checked in a marked degree by the wind, the velocity of the flowing tide was practically constant for the whole 16 feet of depth. With the wind in other directions the velocity was usually greatest within a foot of the surface. These measurements show that a vessel entering or leaving the mouth of the Moose River will not meet a current greater than 2 knots an hour.

The mean velocities for the first 12 feet in depth as determined from these measurements are plotted in the accompanying diagram: and a curve has been drawn showing the current in feet per second with or against a vessel at any stage of the tide. The greatest current with or against a vessel drawing 12 feet would be 3.3 feet per second with the ebb tide, and 3.1 feet per second with the tide coming in; with a vessel drawing 16 feet the mean velocity of the current would be one to two-tenths of a foot less per second. It will be readily seen from the diagram that the time required for the tide to reverse the current in the river in one hour, and that in little more than another hour the incoming tide has attained its maximum velocity. The velocity then gradually lessens until near the time of high water when it rapidly slackens. After the turn of the tide the maximum velocity of the ebb is more gradually attained.

* The interval between the moon's crossing the meridian and the time of high water at full and change, i.e., on the days of new and full moon. This is, on these days, approximately the same interval after midday.

† If not an error, this is three hours after the normal time.

The average interval for the vicinity of Moose Factory is three hours ten min. The average for the vicinity of Ship Sands is 2 hours 25 min. The interval is about one hour on the coast near Cockispenny. Spring tides usually occur at Moose Factory two days after the new and full moon. This is expressed by the local saying, "The spring tides come with the 5 o'clock tides."

The tides first strike the south shore of James Bay at Cockispenny Point, and travel both west and south-east from there. High water occurs at Moose Factory just about an even two hours later than on the coast. Practically the same difference in time is obtained whether the times of high water at Moose Factory be compared with those at Cockispenny, or those at the mouth of the Moose River. This would indicate an average rate of progression for the head of the tide in the Moose River of nine miles an hour. The rate is not uniform, however; for equal distances above and below Ship Sands the times occupied are in the ratio of 7 to 3. This gives below Ship Sands a rate of 12 to 15 miles an hour, and above that point where the river is more obstructed by shoals, a rate between six and seven miles an hour. A comparison of the times of low tide show that on the average it is low water at Moose Factory  $4\frac{1}{4}$  hours later than at Cockispenny, 4 hours later than at the outer bar,  $2\frac{1}{2}$  hours later than at the Shears beacon, and 2 hrs. 6 min. later than at Ship Sands. This indicates that the foot of the tide advances up the river to the Shears at a rate of only 3 miles an hour, then to Ship Sands at ten miles an hour, and on to Moose Factory at 4 miles an hour. These results may not be of extreme accuracy, but they are instructive, as showing where the free propagation of the tidal wave is hindered. In a river channel in good order the rate for the foot of the tide should never be less than ten miles an hour.

As a result of the retardation of the tidal wave there is a decrease in range of the tides up the river. This amounts on an average to  $1\frac{1}{2}$  feet between Ship Sands and Moose Factory. The tides are the chief agency in maintaining the channel, and it is important that they be given free access to the river for this will admit an increased volume of tidal water, increase the range of the tides and the low water depth, which latter are the limiting factors in the navigation of the river.

1. Zero of scale is 19.02 feet below top of largest stone on the bank, 17.05 feet below that of another close by, 10.12 feet below top of smaller of two stones at the water's edge, 27.31 feet below a nail in platform under the flagstaff, and 27.02 feet below the east corner of square base of flagstaff and ground level.

2. Scale was set to agree with that of the Hydrographic Survey. Zero is 31.01 feet below top of plug on bank south of creek, and 31.74 feet below doorstep of second last house.

3. Scale was set 8 feet below the general level at Anchor Creek, zero is at 193.8 on the Sandy Island—Ship Sands' levels.

4. Zero is at 191.8 on the same levels and 17.66 feet below the highest point of Sandy Island. B.M. at intersection of lines A & B 209.44.

5. Zero of scale was set, by mistake, 1 foot lower than in 1912.

As the last table shows, the neap tides ebb out of the Moose river fully a foot lower than the springs. This feature is contrary to the general rule, but is characteristic of some rivers among which are the Severn, the Trent and the Hull in England.

In this case, the high low-water level of spring tides is chiefly due to the fact that these are usually north wind tides, and the greater quantity of water poured into the river has not time to get out before the next tide comes. A comparison of the dates in the two last tables will show that the springs may come one day after the new or full moon, or be delayed as much as five days. The age of the tide is not the sole determining factor here.

It is customary to consider low water as the mean low water of ordinary spring tides. In the estuary of the Moose there are some special difficulties in the way of selecting a low water datum. Before the break-up of the ice in the bay the tidal wave is not freely propagated; and for a time previous to this the freshet water produces such a gradient in the river that the current is not reversed, and only a swelling of the water takes the place of the tide. So that normal low water is not attained until late in June. The mean low water level of spring tides at Moose Factory in July and August, 1912, was 1.86 feet, and that of neap tides 1 foot. The mean low water level of the three following springs at Revillon Post was 3.27 feet, and the low of the neap tide of September 20th, 1.7 feet. Deducting 1.45 feet, the difference between the two gauges as determined by comparative readings, gives 1.82 and 0.25 feet as the approximate levels on the Moose Factory scale. The mean low water level of the spring tides so far this summer has been 4 feet, and that of the neap tides 2.75 feet. On the scale of 1912 these levels would be 3 feet and 1.75 feet, respectively. The higher tides of this year appear to have been due in large measure to the prevalence of northerly gales during the past season. Two feet on the scale of 1912 has been taken as mean low water at Moose Factory. During that summer it corresponded with the mean low water of spring tides, but during the present summer more nearly with that of neap tides. Mean low water at Ship Sands has been taken as zero of that scale which corresponds with 2 feet on the one at Sandy Island. On account of the non-continuous character of the readings, mean low water of spring and of neap tides in the lower part of the estuary cannot be more definitely given on this scale. The equinoctial spring tide of September 14, 1912, rose to a height of 10.28 feet on the gauge at Ship Sands.

The current meter readings, taken last year, to determine the velocities of ebb and flow of the tide were made from the boat generally when anchored near shore. Subsequent readings taken in mid-stream gave somewhat higher results. The maximum rates recorded for the ebb and flow were 4.6 and 4 feet per second, respectively.

The mean velocities to 12 feet in depth are shown in the diagram. The four means farthest within the curve were taken either in shoal water or near the shore. The results show that a vessel coming in might meet a current of 4.4 feet per second or 2.6 knots, and a vessel going out one of 4 feet per second which is equivalent to 2 1-3 knots or 3 statute miles per hour: so that, as far as the tidal current is concerned the conditions are ideal.

THE DISCHARGE OF THE MOOSE RIVER.

In order to obtain the total discharge of the Moose River it was necessary to measure that of the Moose River proper above the rapids which extend from the head of tide water to a point over a mile above the Kwataboahagan, that of the latter stream, that of the French River which joins the Moose at the head of tide water, and that of several creeks which flow into the tidal compartment. Careful measurements were made of these streams; and sufficient current meter readings taken, wherever the depth was greater than two feet, to obtain the average velocity from a diagram of these velocities plotted to scale. The velocity was measured every hundred feet across the Moose River where it has a width of 4,400 feet, and at lesser intervals on the smaller streams. This section of the Moose was made about seven miles above the head of tide water, at the mouth of a stream known as the Chemahaganashish. The section of the Kwataboahagan was made above the first island in the river, or about half a mile from its mouth, where the width was 350 feet at that level. The section of the French River was made at the mouth where the width is 700 feet. This river varies in width in its lower part from an eighth to a quarter of a mile, and like the Moose has many islands in the middle of its channel.

The results of our measurements, which were made at the end of August, are as follows:—

|-----------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Flow of Moose River proper  | 26,925 cubic feet per second. |
| Flow of French              | 2,254 cubic feet per second.  |
| Flow of Kwataboahagan       | 494 cubic feet per second.    |
|                             | —                             |
| Total discharge of Moose R. | 29,673 cubic feet per second. |

The aggregate discharge of the creeks flowing into the tidal compartment brings the total volume of fresh water entering the estuary at this time to 30,000 cubic feet per second. This may be considered practically the low water discharge of the Moose River.

The maximum discharge of the Moose River must be many times the above volume. At times of spring freshet the depth of the Moose is increased by 15 to 18 feet, that of the Kwataboahagan by about 13 feet and that of the French by perhaps 20 feet at the point of section. At such high levels the width of the Moose would be increased by 400 feet, and that of the other two rivers by more than half of their width at low water. The velocity of the current is the uncertain factor, for it may be reduced to almost nothing by ice jams when the water is at these extreme heights.

THE DISCHARGE OF MOOSE RIVER.

Two measurements of the flow of Moose River were made in 1913, one in May, and the other in June. The maximum velocity at this time was 4 miles an hour. This was in the Moose river when its level was 5 feet below that of high water, and 7.5 feet above that of last August. At this level the discharge was over 8 times greater than at low water. The French river was measured when the level was 4.6 feet above low water and 11.9 feet below the high water mark, and the flow found to be 7 times greater than at low water. The Kwataboahagan was measured when it was 3.5 feet above low water and 10 feet below the freshet level. The flow was found to be over 12 times greater than at low water.

The results of these measurements are as follows:—

| Total Flow of Moose River ..    | 239,900.4 | “ “ “ “           | “       |

The June measurements were made with the Moose river 1.5 feet, the French river 0.2 feet, and the Kwataboahagan 0.3 feet higher than the levels at the time of the August measurement.

The results are as follows:—

If these discharges and the corresponding heights above low water be used as co-ordinates we get a curve which will indicate the rate of discharge for any height of water. Such a curve for the Moose river is shown here. It indicates this year's maximum flow as at least 400,000 cubic feet per second. Similar curves could be shown for the Kwataboahagan and the French river. In these cases, however, the nearness of two of the measurements gives practically a straight line. The Kwataboahagan appeared to have been at a height of 11 feet above its low water level when the flow was greatest: this would indicate a maximum of about 19,000. The height of the French river at the same time could not be determined. We are safe in assuming a rise of 9 feet which would mean a discharge of 30,000 cubic feet per second. A rise as great as that in the Moose river would raise this to 40,000. This gives a maximum flood discharge for the Moose river below the junction of these streams, of at least 450,000 cubic feet per second.

The discharge curve at the time of freshet takes the form of a peak. From practically the low water discharge a week before the break-up, it climbs gradually for a few days, with the increasing head, and then mounts suddenly on the day the ice breaks out of the river. This maximum discharge is maintained only for a day, more or less, and then it falls off perhaps even more suddenly than is shown in the diagram. This peak may be shifted laterally by a later break-up. This one has the form produced by the Abitibi river waters following a few days behind the others.

In a year when the ice goes out quietly or before the freshet water, this peak would largely disappear from the curve. The low water discharge of the Moose river given here is for the summer season. We have no information regarding the volume of the winter discharge except for the Mattagami branch. During severe winter conditions the discharge of this stream at Sandy Falls has fallen below 1,000 cubic feet per second, or less than a third of its minimum summer discharge at this point. In this connection it might be mentioned that the Abitibi water forms half of the volume of the Moose river in August, but only about a third of the whole at high water.

ADDITIONAL SURVEYS.

The surveys of the present season were conducted mainly with the object of determining the character of the eastern side of the outer part of the estuary. This was with the view of finding out what would be necessary to connect the shoals on that side, so as to form them into a continuous bar similar to that extending out from Ship Sands on the western side. The work was commenced on the ice early in April. A line  $8\frac{1}{2}$  miles in length, from the East shoal to North Bluff beacon, was carefully measured to serve as a base for subsequent triangulation. Traverses of other shoal areas were made by following the tidal cracks. Stormy weather on the trip down and an early break-up of the ice cut short the time for sounding; so, this was mainly done from a barge after the opening of navigation. A series of triangles was laid out connecting Moose Factory with North Bluff beacon; and stations were established on the shores for locating the position of the boat when sounding. The transit work throughout was performed by Mr. C. F. Szamers, a very capable assistant.

The plotting of this work on the plan brings out the connection between the different bars in the mouth of the river. The whole forms a fan-shaped or delta deposit through which several channels make their way to deep water in the bay. The two main outlets pass to either side of the Sand Head: two minor ones branch off to either side in the second mile upstream: another passes out along the south side of the East shoal; while behind Ship Sands and again along the opposite shore there are wide openings only a few feet in depth kept open by the tides, and by the discharge of the ice during the break-up. The two channels last mentioned can be used by boats only at high water. The one south of the East shoal has a depth of about a fathom and is often used by boats going to Hannah Bay; but it is quite narrow, and a leading wind is necessary in passing through except at high water. The Ship channel passes on the west side of the Sand Head with a depth of 10 to 11 feet; but a curved extension of these sands reduces the depth a mile farther out to little more than a fathom at lowest tides. This is the depth as determined by Mr. Ells in 1911, but I am inclined to think there has been some deepening at this point since then. The outlet on the opposite side of the Sand Head has a depth at low water of 8 to 9 feet, but its course is curved, and more out of line with the general direction of the main channel.

These shoals appear to remain practically the same from year to year, in spite of the fact that in certain years they are loaded up with immense quantities of earth at the time of the break-up. This year the Ship Sands or Shears bar received a deposit composed of driftwood, grass, earth, and stones, over its whole extent. The largest pile on the Horseshoe shoal, which had a height when visited of 35 feet, appeared to be about one-tenth soil and nine-tenths ice. Yet, when this pile had melted down and the tides had worked over it for a short time, we could not locate its position by any deposit that was left. The finer silt had been carried away in suspension, and the coarse sand probably distributed over the shoal. This shows why the shoals and bars below the level of high water are composed almost entirely of sand, in this clay region. This sand extends only a very few feet below the level of low-water. At the Sand Head the depth is 6 feet, and on the shoal opposite 9 feet; at the Shears' beacon the sand reaches 3 feet below and 2 feet above low water. On the East shoal it forms a layer from 4 feet below up to a maximum of 5 feet above this level. Beneath these sands there is a thin layer of gravel and then stiff clay. On account of lack of time when on the ice, and the subsequent loss of some of our outfit which we could not replace, we were unable to penetrate this clay to any depth: but the fact, that it forms the bottom in the deepest as well as the shallowest parts of the channel, would lead one to infer that this is the material that has to be dealt with throughout in deepening the channel.

Mention has already been made of the depth in portions of the channel where it is confined to a width of less than a mile, considerable stretches having between three and four fathoms. The wider portions of the channel are unsatisfactory in depth. A comparison with other rivers in their natural state will give possibly a better conception of conditions here, than is to be gained from a list of soundings. The entrance to the South Pass of the Mississippi was over a bar with only 8 feet at low water, the shallowest in the Pass itself being 13 feet. That to the St. George's mouth of the Danube was over a bar with from  $5\frac{1}{2}$  to  $8\frac{1}{2}$  feet; Dublin harbour was reached over a bar with only  $6\frac{1}{2}$  feet at low water of spring tides: the Clyde was so unsatisfactory that barges drawing 3 to 4 feet could reach Glasgow only on the top of a spring tide: the Thames has been improved from so early a period that its natural condition is practically unknown.

The first real attempt to improve the Clyde was made in 1770, at the very time that ships were first sailing from London to James Bay, to prosecute the fur trade. The report of Golborne, the engineer who convinced the magistrates that the river could be improved by contracting the channel by rubble jetties, is very interesting in this connection. It says regarding the principle to be followed, "The River Clyde is at present in a state of nature, and for want of due attention has been allowed to expand too much, and has gained in breadth what is wanting in depth. I shall proceed on the principle of assisting Nature when she cannot do her own work, by removing the stones and hard gravel from the bottom of the river where it is shallow, and by contracting the channel where it is now too wide. By these means, easy and simple in themselves, without laying a restraint on Nature, I humbly conceive that the river Clyde may be deepened so as to have 4 feet or perhaps 5 feet up to the Broomielaw at low water."

A study of conditions at the mouth of the Moose River indicates, that the first line of procedure in securing a deep water channel should be to develop a natural training wall on the south-east of the ship channel, similar to that formed by Ship Sands bar on the north-west side, so as to direct the low-water current into one channel at the Sand Head. This would necessitate the closing of a gap of about half a mile in this bar itself below the Shears' beacon, the building of three sections to connect the shoals on the opposite side of the channel, and of training walls on both sides extending out from the Sand Head until the desired depth was attained. The first section connecting the south-east shore with the shoal opposite Ship Sands would be nearly a mile in length, across a very shallow channel with a depth of 6 feet at one point. The section to connect this shoal with the East shoal would be over two miles in length, across a channel of the same depth. The section between the East shoal and the Sand Head would be two miles in length and the greatest depth 9 feet. These walls should be built so as to close these gaps to the same height as the existing sands, which is nearly the half-tide level. Subsequently the channel could be brought to a more uniform width by building groynes out from these walls where it was necessary to still further increase the depth. Dredging operations could be made to materially assist the scouring induced by the concentration of the flow at the Sand Head, and the width assumed by the channel at this point could be taken as a guide for the ultimate form of the channel at other points.

The material most readily available for building these training walls is to be found in the willows and alders along the shores of the estuary. These would have to be cut during the winter, and hauled off the marshes to some point on the shore, where the piles could be secured with ropes until after the spring freshet. The material thus collected could be used to make either fascines or mattresses; and, when placed in position, weighted down with stone, clay, marsh-sods, or sand bags. Stone could not be obtained without a haul several miles greater, and it would be out of the question to secure it until a tramway or railway were built. Plenty of limestone could be secured by quarrying on Maidman's Creek about two miles from the mouth; and it is possible that a deposit might be found by excavating, on the south shore opposite Pilgrim Island. A limited quantity of stone could be obtained from the mud flats along the south-east shore, by gathering together the boulders at low water and placing them into boats which could be floated at high water. The amount that could be secured in this way would not go far in a wall, but would weigh down enough willow mattresses to make a considerable extent of training wall. Clay is the material most readily obtained for this purpose, and one that will serve equally as well as stone. When a sand-pump dredge is available, the sand may be used to sink the mattresses by pumping it into wickerwork boxes built upon them. With such materials a training wall can be built that will be almost as durable as one of stone, and that will more readily intercept the silt.

The willows could be most readily put into place by making them into mattresses at low tide, upon way logs placed on the bank where the slope was considerable, and towing them to position when the tide would float them off. Long spruce poles could be used to advantage in forming a frame-work to secure the willows. These could be obtained in considerable numbers at East Bluff and elsewhere along the shores. The mattresses are usually built from 2 to 3 feet thick in lengths of 100 feet or more. The width should vary with the depth to which they are to be placed, those of each succeeding layer being narrower than those of the last by at least the thickness of the mattress. The top layer should have a width of 12 to 15 feet.

The work of laying the mattresses should be commenced in the deepest parts of the gaps, and the wall built up a layer at a time so as to induce deposition of the sands to form a bank behind it. This should be continued until the wall attained the height of the existing sands which averages about 2 feet above low water. The height which is generally found most satisfactory is the half-tide level. By this means the last of the ebb and the first of the flood would be confined to the main channel by walls which would offer no impediment to the complete filling of the tidal compartment during the latter part of the flood. At points in the channel where these conditions are approximated at the present time and the channel confined to a width between 3,000 and 4,000 feet, the depth is between 20 and 25 feet, and by these means we may expect to get similar results at other points.

Training walls should be built of fascine-work, in such a situation, at a cost of $2.00 a cubic yard. Where one layer only would be required the cost would be about $7,000 a mile, where the depth increased from 0 to 6 feet the cost would amount to nearly $30,000 a mile, and where the depth averaged one fathom the cost would be $35,000. For an average depth of 9 feet the cost would reach $60,000, and for an average depth of 12 feet $88,000 per mile. These estimates are based on the assumption that a wall 6 feet high would have a base of 18 feet and width at the top of 12 feet, and that below this depth the base would increase in width by the same amount as the depth increased.

The training walls should be built beyond the Sand Head only as developments showed that they were required; and, being more of the nature of breakwaters, should be built, if possible, if stone upon a mattress base. The cost of these outer walls will mount up quite rapidly both on account of the distance the materials will have to be transported, and of the exposed situation. It would seem advisable to first experiment with one wall on the north-west side of the channel, in order to determine if this alone would maintain a sufficient depth. As conditions exist at present, the distance between the 10 and the 20-foot depths is one mile; and it is probable that a wall could not be built here for less than $150,000 a mile. The construction of training walls out to the Sand Head is not a matter of great expense, however; and, in our opinion, this alone would make a marked improvement in the channel over the bar.

The question of the improvement of the channel above Ship Sands has not been given much attention, because it would seem practicable to construct a terminal on Sandy Island. The part of the channel opposite the head of Ship Sands which has now a depth of 16 feet would probably have to be deepened by dredging, as the natural scour induced by training works could hardly be expected to cause much improvement at this point. It would seem advisable to construct a sill across the channel on the west side of Ship Sands to prevent any deepening of this waterway, which, though useless for purposes of navigation, is valuable as an inlet for tidal water. This could be built in a similar way to the training walls at a cost of about $2,000 as the width is only a quarter mile. If it were found advisable to go farther up the river for a site for a terminal, as for instance, to Butler Island where it has been suggested that a wing dam might be constructed at the head of the island in order to provide a harbour between it and the main shore which would be secure from the ice, considerable improvement could be effected by deflecting all of the water at the Fishing Tent Rapids into the North River. Undoubtedly it would be an advantage to have all of the fresh water discharge at one place into the head of the navigable channel; but, it is uncertain whether this could be done without closing every gap between the islands as well as constructing the necessary wing dams at the rapids.

As a beginning in the construction of a terminal at Sandy Island it would be necessary to dredge a channel 300 feet in width from the deep water off the point of the island, for a distance of 1,500 feet, to the swales or tide passes which form its lowest portion. This channel would have to be excavated to a depth of nearly 30 feet, as the land at the point is 8 to 9 feet above low water level though the land in the swales is 4 feet lower. This means the removal of half a million cubic yards of material which could be used to raise the level of the adjoining land, which requires anywhere from 6 to 12 feet to raise it above the flood level of this year. This quantity would form a deposit 12 feet thick, over an extent of 25 acres. This excavating would probably cost, at the rate of 10 cents per cubic yard, or for the whole $50,000. Some of the material could probably be moved at a cost of 3 or 4 cents a yard, but the more compact clay would require a cutter in the suction tube and cost more than ten cents a yard. This estimate does not include cost of plant, or outlay for retaining walls or piling to secure the sides of the channel. Each of these would probably amount to another $50,000; but with this expenditure, a secure harbour would be obtained large enough to accommodate any vessels that would require to winter in the bay. By building a retaining wall along the south shore of the island, from the point westward, another channel could be dredged at about half the expense, which would provide dockage facilities during the season of navigation. The material removed in this excavation could also be placed on the land behind the retaining wall. The inner bar which runs nearly parallel to the shore above the point serves to break to some extent the force of the ice when it shoves on this shore. Huge piles form on this shoal; but only at the head of the island do any form on the shore. Timber wharves supported on the piling or on the concrete of the retaining wall could be used here, and removed after each season. Whatever the material used to face the bank, whether concrete, rubble stone, or earth, it should have the natural slope of the bank to prevent injury from the ice.

The first boat to arrive in Moose River, in 1913, was a barge from Attawapiskat by way of Albany, which came in June 10th. The crew reported the west side of the bay nearly free of ice, but plenty of it about 4 miles off from the mouth of the Moose River. When this boat left on June 14th, the ice was still in sight outside. The steamer Inenew left for Charlton at noon on the 17th, but she returned the same evening, having found the ice about 7 miles off the mouth of the river extending from east to north by west. She finally took her departure on June 25th, though meantime smaller boats were making their way along the shore to Ruperts House, and from that date has been making regular trips across the bay. Revillon Bros. steamer went out on June 28th.

THE BREAK-UP OF 1913.

The break-up of this year is in direct contrast with that of last year when all the ice jams occurred in the upper part of the estuary and the ice was a week in breaking from Fishing Tent rapid to the lower islands. This year the ice was first seen breaking above Fishing Tent island about 5 p.m. on Friday, April 25th. Shortly after supper time, it was broken to Maidman's island, a mile above the Revillon Post, and by 9 p.m. it had passed that establishment.

The first jam occurred that night at Butler island. The South channel broke down during the night, and stopped at the lower part of Moose island at 4 a.m. Saturday morning. It started again at noon, and broke down to Pilgrim island where a bigger jam occurred. At this time the ice came around the head of Moose island carrying sticks for the making of oars, that had been left on the ice on the north side of the island. The water rose after 6 p.m., fell about 10 p.m., but rose rapidly again and was highest between 2 and 3 a.m. on Sunday. The water came within 3 feet of over-flowing the banks at Moose Factory, and at the Revillon Post up to within a very few feet of the top of the bank. There was very little ice left on any of the shores in the upper part of the estuary. In the North channel between Sandy island and the head of tide water, a distance of fourteen miles, there were fairly large heaps only in two places. These were at Moose flats, and on Bushy island a quarter mile above the Bill of Portland. About halfway between the latter point and Charles island there were several smaller heaps. In the South channel there was some lining the shore a mile below French River, and on Bushy island opposite South Bluff island at points where last year there were walls 14 to 20 feet in height. Again at Fishing Point there were some fair sized heaps, but not until opposite Poplar island was there any long line of ice on the shore. In the rapids above the head of tide water, the ice remained in any quantity on one of the islands only. Between these rapids and the mouth of the Abitibi the west shores were free of ice; the east shore was lined only at a few places above Burnt Point for distances never exceeding a quarter of a mile.

In the lower part of the estuary the ice piled up upon and completely covered all the shoals except those far out on the east side. Ten days after the break-up one of the piles on the Horseshoe shoal stood 35 feet above the water. For a few days after it was formed this one carried balanced on its top a large block of ice that must have raised it 10 feet higher. On the shore opposite there were heaps of ice that made for this country three quite fair sized hills. All of Ship Sands except the highest part was completely covered to depths ranging up to 10 feet. The highest part though flooded to a depth of about two feet carried only an occasional piece of ice near the shore. Immense quantities of ice went out to the north between Ship Sands and Sandy Island, and this shore down to the turn at White Top point was piled high with ice which formed a 10 or 12 feet wall at Hay Creek. To the north of White Top point, though the water flowed over the grass on the marsh to a depth of four feet, the ice was carried farther out, and none remained except on the knolls three miles south of the Beacon. At East Bluff point the water flowed away through the spruce timber with a depth of six feet just as it did across Sandy island. Below this point the ice was carried right across a mile of willows until it reached the spruce timber. One of the hunters coming from the coast paddled up inside of all of this to the old log camp at East Bluff, expecting to find a dry place to camp.

He found the camp afloat, but by putting his sled across the corner succeeded in making a support on which to build a fire. This camp is about a mile back in the woods; and he made his way out on Monday in his canoe, along the old trail which is almost grown over and quite difficult to follow.

The suddenness of this year's break-up was due to the exceptionally warm weather in the fourth week of April bringing down the water from up river. Mr. Szammers and four men who were remeasuring the base line went ashore at North Bluff beacon on Friday, April 25th, and were unable to get back on the ice to return to camp. That evening, and again the next morning the guns at Moose Factory were fired as a warning that the river was breaking above. In the morning while preparing to take part of our outfit to Sandy island we heard the report of the second shots, and as the water was then muddy at the Shears Beacon and the current much increased we took the instruments and the most important parts of the outfit on two sleds. At Sandy island we carried the loads into the timbered part and put up a staging of logs.

The river was already broken down to Moose flats in the forenoon of the 26th, and with the rise of the tide in the afternoon it broke over the shoal area along the flats and on to Middleboro shoal by 4 p.m. The North channel did not break past Sandy Island until 8 o'clock that evening. Soon after the ice jammed at the shoals about the head of Ship Sands, and the water which had up to that time risen gradually, soon over-flowed the highest part of Sandy Island. It remained at a height of  $2\frac{1}{4}$  feet over the ridge where we had built our staging all through the night, and shortly before 4 a.m. on the 27th began to rise rapidly, and by 5.30 a.m. the rise amounted to about 3 feet, when the water began to subside slowly. With this last rise of three feet the ice moved in across the lower part of Sandy Island between the timbered part and the sand ridge at the point sweeping down the willows and scattered poplars and shoved right up against the spruce trees in some places. With the previous night's rise the ice had moved across the low ground at the head of the island, and down Longlands gutway; and again in the morning this ice got in motion.

By 8 a.m. that morning the water had fallen 1.4 feet, and by 11 a.m. the bulk of the ice had passed and there were clear places in the channel. All through that day and the following night, the water fluctuated around a level a foot below the highest point of the morning, when it was 4 feet over the highest point of Sandy Island, from 6 to 7 feet over the general level of the upper part, 10 feet above the highest part at the point of the island, and as much as 15 feet deep in the swales or tide passes. During the morning of the 28th the water fell as rapidly as from 3 to 9 inches an hour, but more slowly through the day. By the following morning the water had fallen sufficiently to dry the ridge in front of the timber: this was a drop of 6 feet from the high level of Sunday morning.

They tell us here that in the memory of the oldest inhabitant there have been no such floods at the mouth of the river. But the evidence of former floods of a similar character is given by the landscape. The fringe of willows shows where trees cannot grow because they are shoved down and broken off before they reach maturity. The ice came up against a spruce tree about a hundred feet from our staging and marked it: but on the same tree there is an older and bigger scar that shows where a former flood carried the ice to the same place. A few feet in front of the staging several poplars 6 to 8 inches in diameter are all bent, in the first two feet from the ground, towards the ridge just behind them. These show where a cake of ice came against them when they were saplings and forced them to one side. By cutting some of these down and counting the yearly rings of growth the approximate date of one or two earlier floods in the same place could be determined.

The level of high water this year at Sandy Island was nearly 20 feet above the mean level of lowest tides at the same place. For practically a day, within one foot of this head was maintained at a point scarcely more than three miles from where one shore runs north and the other east. This shows the damming power of ice four feet thick when backed up by areas of shoals. Last year the break-up came when the ice in the upper part of the estuary was little decayed. This year this ice was very much honeycombed, but the ice in the lower part of the estuary had only just become exposed to the sun a day or two before the break-up, and was little weakened by it. As a result the ice jams occurred in the lower part of the estuary.

It appeared from what we could learn last year that Sandy Island was not subject to floods during the break-up. It seemed reasonable on account of the width of the river at that point, and the evidence seemed to point that way. The oldest guides and pilots here, when asked about Sandy Island being flooded, said that they never knew it to be flooded. One of them when asked if we get off on Ship Sands would we be all right, said that we would.

The idea of any back corner here where the ice melts out and the one of freedom from spring floods are both exploded. A harbour here or at any point in the estuary has to be dug out of the bank, or protected by a structure that will act as a bank and deflect the ice from the harbour. Still, Sandy Island has an immense advantage over any other point in the length of channel that would have to be deepened. There is some sand as well as the ever present blue clay and the material dredged out would materially raise the level about the docks. This could be augmented by the use of a suction dredge in the shoal part of the river adjoining the island.

The break-up and discharge of the ice from a northern river like the Moose presents a very impressive sight. The impression is not so much of the irresistible as of the unexpected. A sense of the former is produced when an immense field of ice is set in motion by the wind, for the working of neither the impelling nor the retarding force is apparent. But this tumbling, piling mass rising now only to sink as quickly, and then in a shoaler place to form an immense pile or ridge, keeps one continually guessing where the line of least resistance will next be found.

BY THOMAS VINCENT, GOVERNOR, AND JOS. BEIOLEY, CHIEF FACTOR, AND OTHERS.

- May 22—The ice appeared to be broken about Devil's creeks.
 “ 23—The ice gave way during the night and the water rose fast.
 “ 24—The ice was still in motion until 10 a.m., when it jammed and the water covered the whole of the cleared ground about the Factory.
 “ 25—The water fell, leaving the ice in the same position.
 “ 26—The water rose rapidly and the ice gave way in the South channel.
 “ 27—The ice remains driving in the South channel.
 “ 28—The ice gave way in the North channel, but great masses remained floating in the current and continued until June 2nd.

1817—

- May 23—The river appeared to be broken up about five miles above the Factory.
 “ 25—The river broke down below the Factory.
 “ 26—The river on this side of Hays island is clear of ice, but the south side remains quite fast.
 “ 27 to 29—The river remains fast.
 June 5—The river clear of ice. (Geo. Gladman and Richard Hardisty.) This was the latest spring of which we have any records.

The following extracts from the Journal of John Russell, Chief Factor at East Main, picture vividly the conditions on the east coast:—

- May 30—Extremely cold weather prevents any growth of the vegetation and all the gardens from being planted. Surely such a spring was never known before in this country, with the river still as strong as in winter at the end of May, and some snowdrifts 14 feet high. Many of the small summer birds have been found frozen to death; nor is there a goose to be seen near the place.
 June 4—The Fishing Creek ice broke to-day, and that in the river appears much decayed.
 “ 7—The ice appears crushed in several places and open along the north shore from Fishing Creek.
 “ 11—The river is clear of ice.

1818—

- May 13—The river as far as in sight appears entirely navigable; scarcely any ice is to be seen.

1819—

- Apr. 27—Quite a lot of water on the ice.
 “ 28—The ice appeared to be broken down to South Bluff creek.
 “ 30—The ice broke to the head of Hays island, and jammed there for five days.
 May 5—The North river broke up and the ice in front of the Factory moved a little.
 “ 6—Governor Vincent arrived in a canoe from Brunswick House.
 “ 7—The ice drifting in the river.
 “ 8—The river almost clear of drifting ice. (Joseph Gladman.)

BY ROBERT S. MILES, CHIEF FACTOR.

- Apr. 30—The water rising in the river.
 May 2—The river breaking down to about South Bluff island in the evening.
 “ 5—As the river above remained in the same state, J. Saunders was sent to examine the ice, and he reported the broken ice having still its wintery appearance and the water having found a passage along the south Bluff island.
 “ 7—The river breaking down a little above.
 “ 8—The river broke down to the head of Moose island. The open water is now perceptible and the level not high. Three guns were fired to warn the Indians in the marshes below.
 “ 9—The first Indians arrived from up river, and the ice cleared from in front of the Factory.
 “ 15—The water has been rising for two days past, is very muddy and carries much driftwood, by which we infer that the distant waters are only now coming down.

1852—

- May 5—The river breaking up at Fishing Point about 6 p.m.
 “ 6—The river breaking down below Hazy Point in the afternoon; water raised 3 feet.
 “ 7—The river breaking in front of the Factory, and the water a foot higher.
 “ 8—About noon the ice made a general move and came down with much force, forming high heaps on the Puppies and stopped again at Point Pull.
 (Point Pull, Point a'Pull, Point o'Pool, and Point Gull are different names for the point of Moose island where the warehouse and wharf are now placed. Fishing Point is the point of Bushy island in sight from Moose Factory.)
 “ 9 to 10—The river clear on the south shore, but still blocked along Moose island from Mancy to Point Pull.
 “ 11—The channel cleared to Point Pull, but left considerable ice on shore, which made difficult launching.

1853—

- May 11—The ice broke down to Polar island, but with so little water that the ice is piled on the shoals, making a very deep and narrow channel. The Missinaibi broke 13 days ago, but from thence only 4 days ago. The Mattagami and Abitibi branches are not yet open.
 “ 12—North river reported by Indians to be open to Ship Sands. Ice above the same.
 “ 14—Ice broke down to Point Pull. Water very low.
 “ 18—The river clear of ice.

- May 4—The water rose this afternoon 7 inches.
 “ 5—The water up 3 feet and the ground ice rising from the shoals.
 “ 6—The river broke to Fishing Tent island this morning, and about 7.30 a.m. came down to opposite the head of Hays island.
 “ 8—The water up 4½ feet and the ice forcing in various directions. At the head of the island the water coming through the willows from above has brought the ice down before our establishment.
 “ 9—The ice breaking down, but still all the river is blocked above Fishing point. As much ice is coming around the head of the island and the current running at least six knots, we conclude the North river is choked. The island is flooded at the back to the second bank. The water varies from 6 to 8½ feet.
 “ 10—The ice still streaming around the head of the island. Water at 8 to 10 feet rise, or near the door of the Mission; Rev. Mr. Holden at the Factory since yesterday.
 “ 11—First arrivals of Indians who report the water higher above than when this island was inundated in 1826. All the islands but this are flooded.

1. Anglican Church, Moose Factory. 2. Hudson Bay Store and Factor's House at Moose. 3. Moose Factory, from Mission Flagstaff.

The water here has fallen 2 feet and the ice is stationary above and below to the Point Gull. The North river has broken to Butler island.

- May 12—The North River broke down to the tail of the island and on the south shore sided.
- “ 13—The ice descending around the head of the island and on the south shore back of Hays island.
- “ 14—Hunters came up from the marsh. The North river broke down to the coast yesterday and this river this morning, but the beach is still covered with heavy ice.
- 1856—
- May 1—The water rising in the river.
- “ 2—The water rose 6 inches to-day and is now 9 inches above its usual level.
- “ 3—The water rose  $1\frac{1}{2}$  feet, but fell 9 inches in the evening.
- “ 5—The main body of ice seems to have come down to South Bluff island and the South channel appears to be broken down to Pilgrim island.
- “ 6—The North river is breaking. First arrivals of Indians, who came over the island from the Bill of Portland.
- “ 7—The river ice cleared out.
- 1857—
- May 18—The water rising a little in the river.
- “ 20—The water still rising.
- “ 21—The water gradually rising. About 9 p.m. the ground ice opposite the House began to rise, and after dark there was a general movement of the ice, the water rising  $4\frac{1}{2}$  feet. About midnight the ice stopped and the water fell  $1\frac{1}{2}$  feet.
- “ 22—At daylight the ice had broken midway down Hays island and extended over Mancy to the point of this island near the Mission House. Three guns fired as a warning. The North river has not given way, so the main ice is coming down this channel. It remained stationary throughout the day. At 9.30 p.m. the river ice came down with great velocity, and stopped opposite the Establishment in huge heaps, one of which was about 20 feet above the bank; after which the North river choked and sent the water through the top of this island.
- “ 23—The water continued rising until about 2.30 a.m., when our men's house and cook room, the carpenter and cooper shops, and our mess kitchen were flooded, some to the extent of 2 feet. The Mission house and all the family residences were inundated, and the floor of the church submerged. The whole island was submerged, excepting the old Factory site. The officer's houses and mess, which had been elevated to the level of the centre of the Factory yard, were dry also, although the foundations were 18 inches in the water. About 3 a.m. the water began to subside. This side of the river we are completely shut in with a great depth of massive ice, and the water which is at the top of the bank; but on the south side the ice is peaceably drifting in open water below Pilgrim island.
- “ 24—About 10.30 a.m. the ice on the north side of Hay's island came down and the water rose 9 inches over the bank. The North river is still unbroken.
- “ 25—The water is still up to the Factory gate.
- “ 26—A boat and ten men despatched to the log tent. They met the log makers ten miles above here and returned with them, as the unusual depth of water and the quantities of ice driven on the bank into the woods make rafting of the timber impracticable for some time.
- “ 27—The North river below Charles island is still solid as in the winter season.
- “ 28—The ice coming from the North river in immense quantities around the head of the island.
- “ 30—The water falling fast.
- 1858—

- 1859—
- May 7—Early this morning the ice was observed broken up above and to the middle of Hay's island, and according to custom three guns were fired. Gradually it forced its way down, and about 9 a.m. the river rose rapidly. A very rapid current about the head of the island carried large masses of ice from the North river, and soon covered Nancy island opposite the Mission and came down near the Factory. As there was no opening below the ice was piled up level with the top of the bank by 5 p.m. A little after 6 p.m. the water suddenly fell about 3 feet, and it is hoped that the North channel is open.

May 8—The watch rang the bell at 3 a.m. to intimate that the water was rising. It continued rising until 7 a.m., when it overflowed our fields from the direction of the North river, flooded our gardens, the officer's, the men's and the steward's houses. The sloop was afloat most of the day, but received no damage from floating masses of ice, some of which came near to the garden before the Factory. The woodwork of the new church, which had been placed on a stone foundation, floated away, but was brought back by all hands in a boat and properly secured. The water continued to ebb and flow at intervals during the day until about 5 p.m., when it fell considerably, and then became stationary.

May 9—The water and ice are in the same state as yesterday.

" 10—The water is falling slowly, but the ice has not yet moved. The North River is open; the water and ice move off in that direction; all of the ice has come down from above.

" 11—The ice moved off during the night; but near Point-a-Pull and Pilgrim island there is still a good deal of floating. The beach and banks are strewn with huge masses which will take some time to thaw.

" 12—A good deal of ice moved off during the night, and the water fell considerably.

May 4-5—The water rising rapidly in the river.

" 6—Last night the ice in the river broke up and was piled in large heaps above Hay's island. Part of it found its way down to the Factory, where it remained. The water rose a good deal during the day. At sunset the ice found its way to within a mile of the Factory.

" 7—The ice found a small opening on the south side of the river, and was moving downwards during the day. The water is higher on this side, and large masses of ice are piled on the bank.

" 9—Nearly all of the ice is out of the river this evening.

REPORT OF RECONNAISSANCE FOR EXTENSION OF T. & N. O.

---

In accordance with instructions, I have made an examination of the country between Cochrane and Moose Factory to secure information regarding a railway between these points.

Considerable information regarding this territory and applicable to the project under consideration is found in the reports by O. L. S. Niven (Crown Lands Department, 1898, Exploration of Northern Ontario, 1900); report by Dr. Parks (Bureau of Mines, 1898); reports by Dr. Wilson and Mr. E. B. Sullivan (T. & N.O., 1905); various reports of the Geological Survey; report by Mr. S. C. Ells (T. & N. O., 1911).

Mr. Ells' report gives particularly valuable information regarding the northern part of the territory and in general confirms the opinion expressed by previous explorers that a route at some distance inland from the rivers would be better than one close to the banks.

The Departmental maps show the principal features and are sufficiently accurate for all practical purposes.

An important feature which is noted in Dr. Wilson's report is that it is the Frederick House River rather than the Abitibi that occupies the principal valley above the junction of these two streams.

This Frederick House valley continued in the Abitibi valley below the junction, forms the principal drainage axis and is taken as dividing the territory, under consideration, into two parts, giving a choice of two routes, one East and one West of the Abitibi.

In each of these again there is a choice of several alternative lines. The critical points in the location of a railway through the country explored will be the selection of the river crossings. The unstable nature of the material generally found in the banks limits possible bridge sites to those places where solid rock is found. The valleys are generally of considerable depth and will require large structures to span them, while the country between them is for the most part a gently rolling plain of uniform elevation, offering no serious obstacles to the construction of a railway. The only rough stretch is through the part termed by Mr. Ells "The Transition Area," but even there the cost of construction will not be excessive.

Progress and Method of Work.

Work was started in May, when the country between Cochrane and the Frederick House River was explored on foot. In June, taking a canoe with a party of three men, an exploration was made along the Frederick House and Abitibi, as far as New Post, and up the Driftwood and Red Sucker Rivers.

Side trips were made inland from the rivers to examine the configuration of the ground, the material to be encountered in grading and the quality and amount of timber. Particular attention was directed to the examination of possible bridge sites. The country on only the west side of the Abitibi was examined on this trip. Exploration was continued well into the territory examined by Mr. Ells in 1911. It was found that rather expensive work would be required in crossing the Transition Area, if the line were kept close to the Abitibi.

In July a trip was made down the Mattagami and this part was explored from that river, and a more satisfactory route discovered. Examination of the east bank of the Mattagami was continued to its junction with the Abitibi. North of the junction with the Missinabie the possibility of crossing the river to the west bank was kept in view, and after a suitable bridge site was discovered the tributary streams from the west were explored until favorable crossings of these streams were found.

The examination for a crossing of the Moose was continued to tide water.

The French River was ascended for 80 miles on reconnaissance for the east line and for the purpose of examining a tract of jack pine that was reported, but which turned out to be of little value.

The return trip was made by the Abitibi. Both sides of that river were examined and the possibility of crossing it carefully considered.

I was unfortunately able to obtain only a limited supply of provisions at New Post on my return, so was forced to hurry over the last part of the trip and was unable to see the southern portion of the East route: that is, I did not examine the Little Abitibi, New Post Creek, Jawbone Creek, or the Abitibi Crossing on this route.

Some further exploration was done on the west bank of the Frederick House to find a crossing of Deception Creek. The trip was finished on the 28th of August.

East Route.

As is apparent on the map, the East route is the most direct. While I was unable to make a complete examination of this route, it is apparently possible, so far as present information goes, to follow very closely the Sudbury-Nipissing boundary. To reach a port on the south shore of the Moose, the line would be kept east of the west branch of the French River. The distance would be about 160 miles. This is the shortest possible route. Compared with any other there would be a great saving in bridges, the only one of importance being the Abitibi crossing near Jawbone Creek.

This line keeping so far to the east would be at a considerable distance from all the large water power sites. The last 60 miles would be through very wet muskeg, as the drained area along the lower part of the French River extends only 100 to 500 feet from the banks of the river. There would be a very limited supply of timber. The local supply is very scanty and the line is too far away from the larger rivers to permit their use in driving logs from the better timbered areas to the south.

There would be two summits, between Jawbone Creek and Little Abitibi and between Little Abitibi and French River. These would be higher than any points on the West route, but would not call for any steeper gradients.

If the Northern terminus is on the north shore of the Moose, it will be necessary to find a crossing for the East line. Fishing Tent Rapids has been suggested as a possible site. The river here is  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles wide. The bottom is limestone boulders. I did not see any solid rock. Until thorough soundings are taken no estimate can be made of the work involved in building a bridge at this point. The spring flood rises about 20 feet, and adds at least  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile to the length of structure required. Ice floes would probably be of considerable size, as there is a long stretch of open water above. Mr. Ellis speaks of this rapid as breaking up the floes. It would seem better to make a separate crossing of the Abitibi and cross the Moose at the same point as on the west line. This line would keep to the west of the French River, would be 170 miles long and would have three important bridges—two crossings of the Abitibi and one of the Moose.

The Abitibi can be crossed at several places north of Blacksmith Rapids. No point offers any particular advantages. The river is 1,000 to 1,500 feet wide, with clay and boulder bottom. No place was found with solid rock clean across. There are wide beaches at low water. These are of clay covered with boulders. The depth of this layer of boulders and of the clay under it is not known. Several places were noted where these boulder-covered beaches were heaved up by the pressure caused by the landslides on the banks, so it is not safe to assume that stable foundations exist unless solid rock is seen in place. This condition must be kept in mind in the selection of all bridge sites along these rivers, unless soundings can be made.

The banks of the Abitibi are about 20 feet high at the mouth, and get higher as one goes up the river. At Blacksmith Rapids they are 50 feet high, at Limestone 120 feet, and at Coral 150 feet.

At the head of Otter Rapids there is a good site for a bridge. Shores and bottom are solid rock. Banks 40 feet high, and 1,200 feet apart. River 200 feet wide.

If the line crossed so far south, it would have very little advantage in distance over the West route. From what I could learn the good agricultural land does not extend so far north on this route as on the other.

West Route.

This route is longer than that to the east of the Abitibi, but would come closer to the water powers on the Mattagami and the Abitibi, and also it is better situated for a possible deflection to some port on James Bay or Hudson's Bay other than Moose Factory.

The first problem in connection with this route is to get from Cochrane to the plateau between the Abitibi and Mattagami. Two plans were considered. The first contemplates the construction of a new line from Cochrane, involving expensive bridges across the Frederick House, Deception Creek, and Driftwood River.

The alternative is to run over the T.C.R. to a point west of the Driftwood River, then turn north and join the first line at the north boundary of the Township of Colquhoun. This would avoid all the heavy bridges, but would make the distance from Cochrane to Colquhoun 33 miles, of which only 11 miles would be new line, compared to 27 miles by the first route. The distance to Moose Factory by the first route will be 185 miles, and by the T. C. R. alternative 191 miles, of which 22 miles would be over the T. C. R. and 169 miles would be new line.

The entire route may be conveniently divided into four sections: From Cochrane to the north boundary of Colquhoun, 27 or 33 miles according to the route followed; from Colquhoun to the northern limit of good agricultural land, 43 miles; through the Transition Area, 15 miles; and across the Coastal Plain, 100 miles. An estimate showing the approximate cost of these several sections is submitted below.

Description of the Country.

Leaving Cochrane the proposed route follows Bourke's location for about two miles, then turns more to the east and comes down to the shore of Lillabelle Lake. The country is all burnt over. The soil is clay with some deep ravines. At the north end of the lake a muskeg is reached. The East route follows down the creek from the lake, while the West route passes over a low summit, still in muskeg, and enters a wide valley which crosses the Sudbury-Nipissing boundary at Concessions 9 and 10, Glackmeyer. There will be very light work down to the Frederick House River, which is reached at the tenth mile on Lot 7, Con. 2, Township of Clute. The grade can be brought down as near water level as desired, or can be held up 30 ft. above. This elevation seems the most suitable for the country to the west. It will be necessary to rise about 60 feet above the Frederick House to cross the summit between that river and Deception Creek. The grade will be brought across this stream at a high level, about 60 feet above the bed, as both banks are high. There will not be much change in elevation of the grade between this point and the Driftwood River, which is crossed at the head of the rapids in Lot 16, Con. 8, Township of Colquhoun, at M.P. 24. The crossing will be 45 feet high. There is level muskeg from there to the north boundary of Colquhoun.

Alternative crossings of the Frederick House at the Chute in Lot 10, Con. 1, Leitch, and of Deception Creek, at its mouth, would be cheaper than at the points indicated above, but to use them would lengthen the line two miles and increase the curvature, as it is necessary to bring the line to the Driftwood, at the crossing selected, which is the first practicable one on that river.

The line via the T. C. R. would follow the west bank of the Driftwood and would be in muskeg for the most part with some gullies that would probably require trestles to be trainfilled at some later date. Borrowing to make those fills is not to be recommended, as the only material available is clay, which will not stand at steep enough slopes to make a satisfactory fill. From Colquhoun to the Northern limit of the Clay Belt the country is mostly level muskeg of 2 to 5 feet deep, and underlain by clay. But there are six miles at the head of Red Sucker Creek of rolling sand plain, with ridges about 15 feet high and muskeg on the level parts.

It seems best to keep West of the Red Sucker from the head, but there are three good bridge sites at the rapids in the first two miles, north of Niven's line of 1900, where the valley is 30 feet deep and 200 feet wide.

Along the Abitibi the rise from river level to the general elevation of the country is 150 to 250 feet, and is made in from  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile to 2 miles, and the country on top is muskeg. The descent from the Archean Plateau to the Coastal Plain is made abruptly at the Canyon, where a drop of 100 feet is made in five miles.

Along the Mattagami, through the Clay Belt, the ground rises gradually to about 200 feet above the river level in six miles. There is very little muskeg. The descent to the Coastal Plain is made over two escarpments, one opposite Little Long Portage, and one at Long Portage, with a sand plain for 18 miles between them. The first escarpment is clay, greatly cut up by ravines. The next consists of rock points with sandy valleys between them. About midway between the two rivers, the slope is easier and the descent can be made in about 15 miles through rough, sandy country. The sand area extends about 5 miles north of the Long Portage on the Mattagami and down to the Coral Portage on the Abitibi. From there northward, there is nothing but muskeg excepting on the banks of the streams where sand or clay is seen. But these banks are so cut up by ravines, as to overcome any advantage they possess in the way of drainage, even when they run parallel to the direction of the line.

At Grand Rapids on the Mattagami and at Sextant Rapids on the Abitibi, the limestone banks begin. From these points northward limestone is frequently seen in the bed and banks of the rivers.

It does not seem advisable to cross the Mattagami above its junction with the Missinabic, as that would mean an extra bridge. On the other hand, it seems well to follow the narrow strip between the Moose and Abitibi as far north as possible, as the secondary streams there are smaller than on the west side of the Moose and so less expensive to cross.

For the crossing of the Moose, good foundations were the first requisite, then the best situation with regard to ice jams during the spring floods.

The best place combining these conditions is below the second group of islands in the Moose, that is about four miles below the Gypsum beds and four miles above the point where Niven's line crosses the river.

The islands seem to hold back a great deal of the ice and to break up what does come down, so no heavy jams form at this point. This is shown by the low High Water Mark, only about 8 feet above normal; whereas above the islands the rise indicated by ice damage to the trees is 20 to 30 feet above normal.

The High Water Mark steadily rises again below this point to 20 feet above normal at the mouth of French River.

The Moose at the crossing is 2,000 ft. wide, 3 to 6 feet deep, with solid limestone bottom. The banks are 35 feet high and the current about four miles per hour.

Seven streams enter from the west side of the Moose below the crossing. They are as follows:—

1. Creek, 50 ft. wide, bank to bank 200 ft., banks 30 ft. high, spring rise 10 ft., good crossing  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile from mouth.
2. Chepas Creek, 200 feet wide, bank to bank 400 ft., banks 35 ft. high, spring rise 12 ft., limestone  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile from mouth.
3. Creek 60 ft. wide, 130 ft. at High Water Mark, bank to bank 250 ft., banks 35 ft. high, spring rise 15 ft., Boulder rapids  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile from mouth.
4. Creek 10 ft. wide, easily crossed.
5. Kwataboahagan River, at high water 400 ft. to 600 ft. wide, spring rise at mouth 20 ft., 3 miles up 10 ft., limestone bottom in many places. Banks 35 ft. high near Moose and 20 ft. high 5 miles from mouth.
6. Fountain Creek, 30 ft. wide, bank to bank 120 ft., banks 20 ft. high, spring rise 10 ft., limestone rapids at mouth and at  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile.
7. Maidman's Creek, 60 ft. wide, bank to bank 140 ft., banks 20 ft. high, spring rise 12 ft., limestone rapids at  $1\frac{3}{4}$  miles.

The structures at all these streams will have to extend the entire distance between banks, as the spring floods rise almost to the top of the banks.

Below Maidman's Creek for a distance of 8 miles the ground is almost perfectly level, with very few ravines.

There is a fringe of spruce and balsam up to 6 inches in diameter for a distance of 500 to 1,000 ft. from the shore, then muskeg 2 ft. to 3 ft. of moss over clay, and covered with scrubby bushes. As is shown at Revillions' Post this can be easily drained, so it offers a good site for terminals and for a town. The banks are, as far as can be learned, well above flood mark and a railway can be brought out to docks at any point between Revillions' and Ship Sands.

The muskegs of the Coastal Plain are undulating to a considerable degree. This can scarcely be noticed in walking over them, but is seen in the variation of the heights of the banks of small streams. In short distances, the height ranges between 5 ft. and 15 ft. On the higher banks, thick groves of small spruce are found; on the lower ones, stunted tamarac. These spruce groves are also found away from the streams, occurring like islands in the more open muskeg and seeming to indicate a better drainage in the parts where they occur.

This only applies to the country west of French River. East of that stream the country, so far as observed, is very flat and marshy.

RESOURCES.

Timber.

There is plenty of good spruce suitable for piling and bridge work along the banks of the streams, and on the dry ground of the higher ridges there is a good growth of spruce, whitewood and some jack pine. Most of these dry ridges, especially in the Transition Area, have been burned over. This has destroyed most of the jack pine.

On the wet ground the trees are only from 2 inches to 8 inches in diameter. Below the Archean Boundary the only good timber is found in a fringe 500 to 1,000 feet wide on each bank of the rivers. Here spruce up to 30 inches in diameter and 50 ft. long is found. With the exception of what can be made from this spruce, all timber required for construction purposes must be brought in from the south.

Water Powers.

Water powers of great magnitude will be rendered available by the construction of a railway. Sufficient power for operating purposes could be easily developed, should it at any time be found desirable to substitute electricity for steam power.

Minerals.

The deposits of lignite, iron ore, gypsum, bituminous shales and limestone, have been previously described. No new discoveries were made.

It is very noticeable, however, that whereas boulders of Laurentian formation predominate in the upper parts of the rivers, they become very scarce as one goes north and for the last 50 miles the boulders are principally of Keewatin and Huronian rock. Many specimens were noted carrying sulphides, and fragments of hematite and banded iron were numerous in the lower parts of the streams. One specimen of carbonate of iron was found. Rock is exposed only along the banks of the streams, but many of these have never been explored, so may repay prospecting.

Soil and Climate.

The country down to Little Long Portage on the Mattagami and to the Canyon on the Abitibi is well suited for agriculture. Along the Mattagami the drainage is better, so that part will probably be the earliest settled. The soil is clay, with a few feet of moss which appears to burn off readily. This part is very similar to the country between Matheson and Cochrane and there is no noticeable difference in climate.

The Transition Area is mostly sand with a few exposures of rock, but there are some patches of clay and black alluvial soil.

North of this is the muskeg of the Coastal Plain. As noted above, this is rolling, so when the moss is burned off a great part of it will drain itself naturally, and will become available for agriculture. At present only a narrow belt along the streams is adaptable to cultivation.

Small fruits such as raspberries, strawberries, cherries, red, white and black currants, and high bush cranberries were found to ripen at Moose Factory about the same time as they did in Central Manitoba in 1908. Red clover was also noticed in bloom at the end of July. This was on a part that had been flooded in the spring, so it is probable that clover would come to perfection under ordinary conditions early enough to permit successful cultivation.

Game and Fish.

Moose and bear were plentiful. Partridge, waterfowl and fur-bearing animals were rather scarce. Pike, pickerel and sturgeon were found in limited numbers, but I am told that in season large shoals of these fish go up the rivers.

Navigation of the Rivers.

Power boats cannot be used to advantage on the Mattagami, the Moose or the lower parts of the Abitibi. Transportation must be effected by poling or towing. There are three long stretches of the Upper Abitibi where small motor boats or steamers can be used, when warranted by the amount of traffic. These are from Frederick House River to the carrying place, 13 miles from Island Falls to Lobstick, 28 miles, and from New Post to Otter Falls, 14 miles. For the present the use of canoes only need be considered. These should be of large size and strongly built, to be safe in rough water and to stand considerable hauling over rocks in towing or poling, where there are no portages.

On the Abitibi route, the principal obstacle is the four-mile rapid on the Frederick House. The water in this river is very turbid, rendering it impossible to detect submerged rocks or other obstructions that are even barely covered by water. Great caution must be used to prevent accidents from this cause. Below the long rapids the portages are good and well marked, but the rapids must be carefully approached, especially in high water, as the portages are very close to the heads of the falls and the landings are mostly in swift water. Except in very low water, the "Little Lakes Route" should be used in preference to following the river past Lobstick Falls. None of the Indians accustomed to the river use the latter route in high water.

The Driftwood River is easy and safe for canoes to four miles above the crossing. I do not know whether this river can be used up to the T. C. R. If it is navigable, it could be used in preference to the Frederick House. The Mattagami is easily navigated in low water. There are 20 miles of good canoeing on the upper part of the Red Sucker and two miles at its mouth, but the seven miles between these parts are mostly shallow rapids which would be very hard on canoes in low water.

French River can be ascended 80 miles without portaging. Then there are about four miles of rapids and falls. I did not go past these. These falls occur at the junction of the Archean and Palaeozoic rocks, which are here seen in contact. Resting on gneiss or in some cases on diabase, is a layer of sand, or greasy shale, a few inches thick. Then a layer of fragmentary limestone of varying thickness up to five feet, then horizontal layers of limestone that have been subjected to very little disturbance. This limestone strata was not over 50 feet thick at any point along the river.

The Groundhog or Kapuskasing may be used if desired instead of the upper part of the Mattagami. The Kapuskasing has only two portages and very little rough water.

The Missinabic is probably the safest of all the routes to Moose Factory, but is of use only for a small part of the territory examined.

Supplies.

Supplies can be sent by railway to where the T. C. R. crosses the various streams mentioned above. After leaving the railway, supplies can be obtained from the Hudson's Bay Company at New Post, and at Moose Factory and from Revillion Brothers at Moose Post. These posts are supplied by the companies' steamers which arrive about August in each year. If any great quantity of supplies were desired, it would be necessary to notify these companies before their ships leave Montreal or Quebec, so they could bring an extra supply.

THE INCREASE OF THE FOOD SUPPLY FOR DUCKS IN NORTHERN ONTARIO.

In a previous pamphlet published by the Game and Fisheries Department of Ontario, entitled "The Possibilities of Northern Ontario as a Breeding Ground for Ducks," it was shown that there were probably 2,800,000 acres in the lakes and rivers of that territory on which edible water plants would grow. Since that time the district of Patricia, with a total area of about 150,000 square miles or six-sevenths the size of Northern Ontario as it existed before this addition, has been included. No definite information is available of the percentage of water-covered area in this district. From the maps published, the proportion covered by water probably is somewhere between that existing in the part east of Port Arthur and north and south of the height of land respectively, or from 2 to 10 per cent. On the basis explained in above mentioned pamphlet this would mean an addition of from 450,000 to over 2,000,000 acres available for the growth of edible water plants. In any case it must constitute a most important increase to the duck breeding possibilities.

As the idea is to propagate plants which furnish food for ducks not only in the fall but throughout the entire season during which the waters are open, we are confined to plants which have a continuous growth, and have parts other than the seed which are edible. In the following descriptions and illustrations only some of the important ones are dealt with, others might matter for further investigation and description at a later time. As it was desirable to have the aid of a skilled botanist, Mr. R. B. Thomson, Associate Professor of Botany, in the University of Toronto, was asked to collect and illustrate the plants in question. The specimens were taken from Whitewater Lake, near Sudbury, about the middle of September last year.

Of the plants described wild celery (Vallisneria spiralis) is perhaps the most important, as it provides food at all times of the year, the roots being available always, while the leaves are edible in the early part of the season and the seed pod forms a favorite morsel in the fall. In addition to this it is probably able to grow in a greater depth of water than the other edible plants and consequently can thrive over a greater area. To grow in ten feet depth is nothing unusual for the wild celery, and it will thrive in water as shallow as three feet. The means it has of propagating itself are moreover very efficient—both by seed and sending out suckers—so that it is in all ways a most desirable plant to introduce. All the varieties described here are indigenous in Northern Ontario except the wild celery.

EXPERIMENT WITH WILD CELERY IN NORTHERN ONTARIO.

That this plant will readily grow in Northern Ontario can be seen by the results in above mentioned lake. The first attempt to cultivate wild celery in this water was in 1909 when about half a bushel of pods was obtained from Lake Erie and some plants from Lake Ontario. The method used in planting was to wrap the pods in balls made of clay and drop them in water of the proper depth, viz: about four feet. The following year about two bushels of pods were introduced, and in 1911 about three bushels. By 1912 the wild celery had spread in a surprising manner. In many cases it was found half a mile or more from where any seed had been planted, no doubt it was drifted by the wind. In some places thick patches or beds had formed, the largest possibly being about an acre in extent. Then there were numerous smaller patches covering several hundred square feet each and a vast number of single plants or small groups. According to the writer's estimate the total area that would be thickly covered by the wild celery, if it could be all put together, would be about ten acres. This rapid increase was in spite of the continuous ravages of the ducks. One mistake was made in planting the seed which could be avoided another time. The great influence of the wind was not taken into account. The seed was all put towards the east end of the lake; the prevailing winds being westerly, it was found that there was a general drift towards the east (although the natural water flow was westerly) some of the seed being driven on the shore before it had an opportunity of establishing itself. This general drift could be seen also in the shape of the beds or patches of wild celery, these were always long and narrow, the long side having an easterly trend. In a few years more the plant should be well started over all parts of the lake which are capable of growing it. This would amount to about 1/2000 of the total estimated area in the Province, as it was before the addition of Patricia, available as duck-feeding ground. It does not seem, therefore, such a serious task to render productive a considerable percentage of the possible area on which plants suitable for duck feed will thrive.

In 1912 a certain amount of wild celery was procured from Lake Erie by the Game and Fisheries Department of Ontario and sent to various persons interested in the question. Unfortunately it was not possible to procure much seed as owing to the cold season it was several weeks late in maturing and at the proper time for picking there were continuous high winds making it impossible to gather the seed. After ripening the seed remains near the surface only about two weeks and then falls to the bottom where it is impossible to pick it.

VARIOUS PLANTS USEFUL FOR FOOD.

The floating pondweed (Potamogeton natans) is an important source of food, as it is so widespread, growing not only in lakes but also in rivers and creeks. In these it forms a most valuable food. A full description is given below. The leaves, which float on the surface, are coarse and wiry in appearance and the writer has never seen any evidence of the leaves being eaten by ducks. Only the seed appears to be edible. This ripens in September, and in the creeks is a welcome food for the marsh duck, while in the lakes it also helps to support the deep water feeders. It will grow in water up to six feet in depth and it is important because it grows in so many places in Northern Ontario: in some lakes and streams indeed, where feed is scarce it seems to be the only article of diet. This plant furnishes food in September chiefly. With many of the other members of the Potamogeton family the seed ripens later.

Another member of the same family is the Potamogeton heterophyllus, also illustrated. It grows entirely under the surface of the water, the leaves and also the seed being edible. The larger roundish leaves are easily mistaken for the Potamogeton natans, but are submerged instead of floating. The seed ripens in October and the plant grows in water 3 to 6 feet deep.

Potamogeton perfoliatus is probably the most important member of this family growing in Northern Ontario at the present time, owing to the fact that it thrives in so many places and will grow in a greater depth of water than the others. It is found also on the shoals in Lake Ontario where the ducks feed in the winter and thus makes it possible for a number of them to avoid migrating. For these reasons it must be considered one of our most important duck plants. This Potamogeton, which grows entirely submerged and in water up to 8 feet in depth furnishes an edible leaf besides the seed which ripens in October. The leaf with this plant is much more important than the seed. These various Potamogetons in addition to animal food form the principal diet of the deep water ducks in Northern Ontario at the present time.

FOOD FOR MARSH DUCKS.

As explained in above mentioned pamphlet probably more can be done to increase the number of the deep water feeders than of the marsh duck, as the area available for growth of edible deep water plants is much greater in Northern Ontario than it is for the ones on which the marsh duck feed. If anything substantial is to be done in increasing the number of ducks breeding in the North, the wild rice illusion must be destroyed. The common belief is that if only wild rice could be grown there would be plenty of ducks. Wild rice does not support the ducks while they are breeding. It merely attracts those that have bred and fed elsewhere to the rice beds when the seed is ripe, very often to their destruction. That it will sometimes thrive in Northern Ontario can be seen by the growth in Rice Lake north of Biscotasing, Summit Lake north of Nipigon, and Shoal Lake near Kenora. Even if it grew everywhere it would only furnish food for possibly a month or so out of the seven which the ducks spend in the north each season. Moreover, as it is only an annual and is propagated solely by seed which is extremely delicate and loses its fertility easily, efforts to transplant it will not on the whole be accompanied by much success. The writer has on a number of occasions planted wild rice, taking every precaution to have the seed in proper condition, but the results have never been worth the trouble: at the best after several years there would be a few miserable scattered tufts of wild rice showing here and there.

As something greatly superior to wild rice, because it supplies food from the spring to the fall, and has an extraordinarily rapid rate of increase and is easily transplanted and is even transported by the ducks themselves, the writer recommends plants of the Lemna family. Large numbers of black duck have been observed where this was almost the sole food. This plant, which is described by Mr. Thomson looks like tiny clover leaves growing on the surface of the water: at a distance it would be mistaken for a green scum. As the tiny rootlets which it sends out are only about an inch long, there is nothing to fasten it to the bottom, and hence it would be swept away if exposed to wind or current. Protected pools in marshes and drowned lands are the only practical places for this plant. Drowned lands with water-killed trees are particularly favorable. These will be formed almost always where there is a water power developed with a proper storage reservoir. Usually such lands will be a square mile or more in extent. The maintenance of constant water levels so desirable for water powers is beneficial to the duck plants. The violent fluctuations of these levels caused in lumbering operations are very destructive of aquatic plant life.

The plant illustrated is the Lemna minor: Lemna polyrhiza is similar to this but larger and having more rootlets. These two species as they grow on the surface of the water can be transplanted by taking sphagnum moss which may be obtained from flower and seed dealers and skimming the surface of the water with pieces of moss of convenient size. The Lemna sticks to the moss which acts like a sponge in taking up and retaining moisture. These balls of moss with adhering Lemna should be sent to where they are to be planted as quickly as possible. If they are kept well moistened and have free access of air the plants will keep for some days. The balls of sphagnum can then be thrown on the surface of the stagnant water where it is desired to plant the Lemna. In this way some Lemna taken from Grenadier Pond near Toronto was sent by the writer about the end of May last year and planted on drowned lands near Sudbury. By September the plant had spread well, some of it being found half a mile up stream from where it had been scattered. As the plant floats on the surface of the water and is not anchored in any way, it is easy to see that some of the leaves are likely to stick to the bird when a duck swims in among a bed of this and greedily feeds. When it flies off and alights in the water elsewhere the plant will be detached, and owing to its efficient method of propagation explained further on will become the nucleus of a new growth. There is no reason why all drowned lands should not be made productive of ducks by introducing this plant.

Another member of this same family is Lemna trisulca, also illustrated. This plant grows wholly submerged; from its peculiar lattice work structure, it might readily be entangled in a duck's feet and transported. It has a rapid growth and is tender and lasts throughout the season. This submerged form is of minor importance to the floating ones.

FOOD FOUND IN DUCKS.

In order to ascertain definitely the relative importance of different kinds of food for the different varieties of duck, it is necessary to open and examine a number of birds. The duck's feeding organs are simple and efficient. A tube leads direct from the mouth to the gizzard, which is lined with a very tough skin and surrounded by powerful muscles, and contains fine gravel and coarse sand. As soon as any food enters the gizzard, the muscles start working and the food is quickly cut up between the sand and gravel. For this reason any tender thing such as leaves of any kind or soft animal tissue quickly becomes an unrecognizable mass for the ordinary observer and requires an expert botanist and zoologist to identify it. To settle more particularly the relative importance of the different kinds of food, the contents of a number of gizzards of birds killed during the latter part of October on Whitewater Lake were sent by the writer to Mr. Thomson for examination. His results appear below and are worth careful study. Four different varieties of ducks were sent, all of them being deep water feeders. Two of these varieties, the Bluebill and Buffle Head, were shown to be almost exclusively vegetable feeders, while the Whistle Wing or American Golden Eye showed more plant than animal food. Of the vegetable matter, the wild celery was most important in two and second in one. Potamogeton heterophyllus appeared in all more or less and evidently is a plant worth cultivating. As explained by Mr. Thomson, at that time of the year, the leaves would not naturally be so important as food and hence the Potamogeton perfoliatus which is valuable mainly for the leaf would not make such a favorable showing. It will be noticed that the seed of the Miriophyllum was an important constituent of the Bluebill's food. The writer could not recommend propagating this plant, however, as he has never found that the ducks eat the leaves and the seeds are only few in number on each plant. It is such a rank grower, moreover, that it would probably choke out more useful plants. In considering the importance of the different plants mentioned as shown by the preference exercised by the ducks, account must be taken of the relative amount of each present in the waters where the birds had been feeding. When this is done the wild celery appears as much the most important. As explained above the celery would cover possibly ten acres, the Myriophyllum would certainly cover over 600 and the Potamogeton heterophyllus probably 100-200 acres: that is, although there was sixty times as much Myriophyllum and ten to twenty times as much of the Potamogeton neither on the whole formed such an important article of food.

Two of the varieties, viz: the Whistler and the Hooded Merganser contained substantial quantities of animal food, but there was absolutely no fish in the seven Whistlers examined and only an insignificant amount of fish in the five Mergansers. This was not because they were not obtainable, as the waters where these ducks were killed are teeming with small fish. The writer has on previous occasions examined the gizzards of many Whistlers and Hooded Mergansers without finding fish, although fish remains would be easily recognizable. In the Report of Ontario Game and Fish Commission, 1892, (p. 331), in describing the Whistler this appears: "It feeds on fish, shellfish, molluses, marine vegetables and seeds. Its flesh is consequently fishy and almost unfit for food." This Report ignores the Hooded Merganser, and states that the Buffle Head's flesh is fishy and that its food consists of small fish. All these birds, the gizzards of which were examined were in fine condition and of excellent flavor. No doubt they will take fish if they cannot find anything else they like better, as we would eat hard-tack if we could not get bread.

The food of the small Merganser was shown to be almost exclusively animal, but it was insects, not fish. Both the Whistler and the Hooded Merganser are important for Northern Ontario as they are probably the most usual and widespread varieties there now. Their taste for animal diet should give them an advantage in the quest for food. They are certainly well worth propagating.

IMPORTANCE OF VARIETY IN FOOD.

The fact that human beings crave for variety in food and that the system revolts against a diet of any single thing is known to everyone. Domestic fowl show the same taste. If the liking for variety has anything to do with the intelligence, then the duck should show it more than other birds. It is impossible to study the detailed analyses of each of the thirty gizzards given by Mr. Thomson (not published) and come to any other conclusion. Of this number only two had been feeding on one thing exclusively, in both cases Vallisneria seed. Of the eighteen Bluebills and Buffle Heads all but one contained some Potamogeton heterophyllus seed, several gizzards were more than half filled with this material, but none of them contained that alone, although any one of these birds could have easily found enough of this seed to form its sole diet. In addition to this the different plants offer their most attractive food at different times of the year: probably, also, in some seasons the growth of certain of the varieties would be more or less a failure. Those interested should therefore try to offer a variety of food for the ducks. From the descriptions and illustrations anyone can identify the various plants and transfer them from one lake to another according to directions given and put them in a suitable depth of water. With the introduction of wild celery and any other deep water plants which may be found suitable to the northern lakes, the number of the deep water feeders will be increased. As shown before, these varieties are the most suitable for the north. A widespread planting of members of the Lemna family in suitable places would improve the means of supporting marsh ducks.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF PLANTS BY R. B. THOMSON.

As mentioned above I visited Whitewater Lake, near Sudbury, in the latter part of September, 1912, to study the plant food which the Northern lakes afford for ducks and collect specimens for illustration. With the exceptions noted under the figures, all the specimens shown are from Whitewater Lake.

In considering plants as food material it must be recognized that at one season of the year one part of a plant may contain a greater proportion of the food material than at another. For instance, a perennial withdraws its food material from the leaves in the autumn, and stores it in the stem or roots. Again, in the formation of the fruit much of the reserve of food finds its way into this region, the seed usually being packed with starch and other food materials.

DESCRIPTION OF PLANTS.

As a plant that is an important food for deep water ducks all through the season, first place must be given to the form so successfully introduced into Whitewater Lake, the so-called Wild Celery of duck hunters, illustrated in Fig. 1.

This plant (Vallisneria spiralis) is known by several other common names, Tape-grass, Eel-grass, etc. It is a submerged aquatic plant with long grass-like leaves about a half-inch wide and from a foot to a foot and a half in length. These leaves have three rather distinct veins running from the base to the tip, and here and there some transverse ones, which, no doubt, are responsible for the name Tape-grass, which is most frequently applied to the plant. These leaves all come from a very short stem, just as in the ordinary celery of the garden, with which, however, the plant has no botanical relationship, the whiteness of the leaves at their base and their crispness having, no doubt, given rise to the name wild celery. The roots of the plant are attached in a great bunch (see Fig.) just below the crown, from which the leaves come off. Their fibres penetrate the loose mud or sand at the bottom of the still water where this plant thrives.

Vallisneria has two very efficient methods of propagation. Runners (see Fig.) come from these plants in numbers, and from these a series of young plants arise. I have found five on one runner in a specimen from Whitewater Lake, though the one figured has but two attached to it. Just as in the strawberry, these young plants are smaller the farther they are from the mother plant. Their leaves are very crisp and delicate and form a valuable food for the ducks.

The plant is propagated by seed also. About the middle of August a long thread comes to the surface bearing the minute white flowers at the apex. One plant (the male) produces only pollen-bearing flowers, which will form no seed, while another plant has flowers which will bear the seed if they have been fertilized by the pollen from the other plant. The male flower usually breaks away from its anchoring thread and floats around among the female flowers, setting free its masses of pollen on the surface of the water. This reaches the female flower and fertilizes it, after which seed sets in the female flower and the male disorganizes. In most plants the pollen is carried by the wind or insects, but in the case of Vallisneria the pollen floats on the water from the one flower to the other. About the middle of September the thread supporting the female flower begins to coil into a loose spiral (from which the plant derives its scientific name) and the seed pod is drawn down from the surface. At this time of year the pod is usually about 2-3 inches in length and full of a jelly-like substance in which are incased the host of yellowish immature seeds. By October the pods have become 3 to 5 inches in length and very much thicker. The seed is then dark brown in color and is mature. The pods sink still deeper in the water and finally disorganize, setting free the seed which is drifted from place to place to establish fresh colonies of the plant. The mature seed is packed with starch and very nutritious, as is also the pod itself.

The double method of propagation of this plant enables it to establish itself very rapidly and practically ensures its permanence once it is planted in a given region.

The Potamogetons, or Pond-weeds, as they are commonly called, sometimes grow completely submerged like the wild celery, but usually some of the leaves come very near the surface or may even float on the water. They all have a long slender stem by which they are attached to the bottom; this stem may be leafy or devoid of leaves.

In the so-called Floating Pond-weed (Potamogeton natans), illustrated in Fig. 2, the lower leaves on the stem are very much reduced in size, while the upper ones are large and floating. They have usually a heart-shaped base where they join the leaf stalk. This stalk, too, is attached in a peculiar way to the blade—looks as if it were jointed. It usually bends slightly to one side instead of coming straight from the base of the leaf. Where the leaf stalk is attached to the stem there is a structure (a stipule) like a grass leaf, which in the autumn is much frayed into long colorless threads. The seed ripens in September, but persists for a long time in the fruiting head. This is from one to two inches in length, and since usually most of the seeds in a head mature and each seed has a good store of starch in it, the plant affords valuable food.

Floating Pond-weed can be propagated by seed. If the seed is found to float when collected, it can be embedded in balls of clay and will then sink when thrown into the water at the desired places.

Figure 3 is of the Various-leaved Pond-weed (Potamogeton heterophyllus). In this form there are two very distinct types of leaves. The upper ones are more or less oval in outline. They terminate in a little tooth-like projection. These leaves, though ordinarily called floating leaves, do not usually rest on the surface of the water but are slightly submerged. The lower submerged leaves are about the same length but much narrower and contracted at the base into a short stalk (see Fig. 3.) In some plants there are none of the upper type of leaves present, the whole of the leaves being of the type of the lower ones. Such plants are found growing along with the others. The stem is very slender, somewhat flattened, and usually much branched below. The stalk of the fruiting head is much thicker than the stem or other branches. The fruit and seed of this form are not more than half the size of those of the Floating Pond-weed described above. It ripens its seed in September and October. It should be propagated in the same way as Potamogeton natans.

The Claspingleaved Pond-weed (Potamogeton perfoliatus) never has any floating leaves. There is, however, considerable variation in the shape and size of the leaves which occur very abundantly on the much-branched stem. In all cases the leaf has a heart-shaped base, which embraces the stem. Usually it terminates in a long slender point (see Fig. 4). The leaf, too, is always more or less crinkled.

This plant has a very effective method of propagation, aside from reproduction by seed. As it grows the older parts die away and the young branches, with their smaller leaves, can float away and form new plants. This is especially true of the plant during the winter. No old stems and leaves survive, and in the early spring only the small-leaved type, Fig. 4a, is to be found. Towards the autumn, however, the long-leaved forms are abundant. These long leaves, however, are attached to the older part of the stem and not to the smaller branches, which are always clothed with leaves like those in Fig. 4a. The contrast between the two types of leaves is shown in Fig. 4b, drawn by Mr. Graham from a specimen from White-water Lake.

The fruiting branch of this form has a very short stalk, and its fruit is the smallest of the three described. The food value of this plant lies in its leaves chiefly. Its ease of propagation makes it very valuable.

There is a valuable Old Country Pond-weed which has been introduced into our older settled parts and which should be as valuable or even more valuable than the Claspingleaved form above described. It thrives in the vicinity of Toronto and has been found to be an important food for ducks wintering in the open lake near Toronto. It would, no doubt, do well in the north, and since it has a very rapid method of propagation by means of buds, would be very easily established. The leaves of this form (Potamogeton crispus) are crinkled and very crisp, like those of the Claspingleaved form. They are quite long but much narrower than those of the latter.

The two forms illustrated in Fig. 5, a and b, are Lemmas, and belong to the group of plants known as the Duck-weed family. They are the smallest and simplest of all the flowering plants, one form belonging to the family being not much larger than a pin-head. They thrive on the water of stagnant ponds and on muddy banks. The one illustrated in Fig. 5a is a common form. The plant consists of a single leaf-like roundish disc less than a quarter of an inch in diameter, from the centre of the under surface of which a single root hangs down into the water or penetrates the muddy bank. When fully grown three rather indistinct veins can be seen coming from a point a little behind the centre of the disc. From this spot, too, the root arises, and, what is more important, from this same spot the new plants spring, and from these again other smaller ones. The parents and offspring remain attached until a little colony of half a dozen or so is formed, and then they separate to form new groups again. They propagate very rapidly by their budding process during the summer. Towards autumn they form little bulblets which sink to the bottom during the winter and in spring come to the top and start the summer form growing again. The plant also propagates itself by seeds, but these are not either numerous or important.

The plant represented in Fig. 5b is a submerged form which, though not so important as the other, propagates in the same way. The plants when young have a very short connecting thread. This does not, however, remain short, as in the former, but elongates and thickens as well, holding the plants together for considerable time, thus producing chains or networks of rather complicated form. Two groups of these are shown in Fig. 5b. The body of the floating form (Fig. 5a) is rather thick and has a large amount of nutriment in it, while the submerged one (Fig. 5b) is much thinner and has much less food material in it.

GIZZARD ANALYSES

Towards the end of October Mr. Mickle sent me the gizzard contents of thirty ducks, and from these some important information was obtained.

In analysing the contents of each gizzard an attempt was made to estimate the proportion of plant and animal food, and then of the various constituents of each. The whole content was put at 10, and the various parts estimated as fractions of this. Of course, it is recognized that the individual results are subject to error, but on averaging these the final result is an approximation, and serves to give an idea of the relative importance of the various constituents of the food of the ducks in this region at this season of the year. A summary of the results for the different groups of ducks is given below. The percentage of animal food is bulked, except in the case of the Mergansers.

Of the gizzards of the Blue-bills, only one contained any animal food. This consisted of several dragon fly nymphs and a caddis fly larva. The most important plant seeds were those of the water mill foil (Myriophyllum) and of the wild celery (Vallisneria). Potamogeton seeds were also found in considerable amounts. In several there were the recognizable remains of leaves of various water plants, Potamogetons and wild celery. This part of the Blue-bills' food is probably much more important than appears to be the case on first sight, because the leaves of the plants are crisp and delicate and would soon be destroyed in the gizzard.

Of the eight Buffle-heads, only one had any animal food—two dragon fly nymphs and a water beetle and small fish. Of the plant food the seed of Vallisneria was found in all and formed the most important content of the gizzard. There was also a considerable amount of different Potamogeton seeds. In one instance the Potamogeton seed was the most important food.

The contents of one Whistler's gizzard consisted entirely of plant material and in one only animal food was found. The seed of the wild celery was by far the most abundant plant food, though small amounts of Potamogeton and Myriophyllum seed were found. Of animal food material the dragon fly nymphs were most important. Caddis fly larvae and water bugs and beetles were also found.

In only one of the five Mergansers was there a trace of vegetable food—a few seeds of Vallisneria—and some traces of leaves, probably of the same plant. Animal food was present in abundance. In all there were found dragon fly nymphs (larvae) and caddis fly larvae, the dragon fly larvae, however, being much the more important. In one gizzard a cray fish was found over 3 inches in length. In the same gizzard there were also the scales and other remains of an ordinary fish—a minnow (?) 2-3 inches long.

Mr. W. A. Clemens, B.A., of the Department of Biology, kindly identified the animal remains in the gizzards and gave me the information on the habits of the two forms figured below, which constituted the most important part of the animal food of the ducks examined.

Text Fig. A. Dragon Fly (Devil's Darning Needle) Nymph, after Needam, natural size. This larval form remains in the water, living about two years on other aquatic life before emerging into its commonly known adult winged form. Abundant in streams and ponds and in the bays of larger bodies of water.

Text Fig. B. Caddis Fly larva. After Furneaux, natural size. This form lives a year or two with its body encased in a tube constructed of sticks, pebbles, shells, grass, etc. After emerging and attaining its mature winged form it lives a short life, flying along the shores, mating, laying eggs, and then disappearing. It is widely distributed and abundant, like the Dragon Fly nymph.

Report on the Construction of Roads in Northern Ontario, under the Provisions of 2 Geo. V., Chap. 2.

TO THE HON. W. H. HEARST,
Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines, Ontario.

SIR,—I have the honour to submit my report of the work done under the Northern Development Branch of the Department of Lands, Forests and Mines, on the Construction of Roads in Northern Ontario, under the provisions of 2 Geo. V., Chap. 2.

Under instructions, dated the 23rd of May, 1912, I proceeded to the town of Cochrane at the junction of the National Transcontinental Railway and the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway.

After making a personal examination of the townships in the vicinity of Cochrane, I travelled over the different side-lines and concession lines along which it was proposed, in my instructions, roads should be built, if no engineering difficulties were met with and the land was found suitable for settlement. I commenced the construction of my first road on the boundary between the Townships of Glackmeyer and Lamarche, east and west from the town of Cochrane: which road will form the main highway running east to the Abitibi River and the Quebec boundary, and west to the Frederickhouse River, or to the town of Hearst, the first divisional point on the National Transcontinental Railway west of Cochrane, and distant therefrom 130 miles.

I had some difficulty at first in procuring the required number of labourers, as nearly all the available men in that part of the country were otherwise engaged on railroad construction work, and the settlers were occupied in clearing their lands. About the 20th of June I succeeded in securing 50 men, and began operations; and from that time on I had no great difficulty in securing the number of men I required. By the end of September I had 650 men on the work.

The operations of the season of 1912 extended east in townships already surveyed along the National Transcontinental Railway from the town of Cochrane to the Inter-Provincial boundary, a distance of 72 miles: and west in places along the railway as far as the town plot of Hearst, at the junction of the National Transcontinental Railway and the Algoma Central Railway: and southerly in the Townships along the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway from the town of Cochrane to the town of Englehart, a distance of 115 miles.

The roads constructed in the large or nine-mile townships along the National Transcontinental Railway were along the outer boundaries of the townships, and north and south through the centre: and east and west across the centre, where it was at all practicable to follow those lines. In the smaller, or six-mile townships along the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway, the work was confined in most instances to the outer boundaries of the townships only, except where the physical features of the country made it impracticable to follow these boundaries. In such cases, the most suitable lines were selected in the interior of the township.

In order to give settlers along the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway access to the different stations thereon, it was found necessary to construct a trunk road along the right of way, to connect up the different sideroads and concession roads which had already been constructed by the Department of Public Works during the last few years, in the townships adjacent to the railway. This trunk road was begun near the town of Matheson and extended north and south for a distance of 25 miles. Besides this trunk road, roads were constructed along the boundaries of several of the townships; and in some instances, where it was found impracticable to use the boundaries, interior roads were constructed in lieu thereof.

In the vicinity of Cochrane roads were constructed along the outer boundaries of the different townships along the National Transcontinental Railway for a distance of over 20 miles west of Cochrane, and 12 miles east, and extending 12 miles north of the railway and over 6 miles south. These townships were divided by roads running north and south through the centre, and east and west across the centre.

A trunk road was also commenced on the National Transcontinental Railway, near the Quebec boundary, through a large area of first class agricultural land, contiguous to a settlement already begun in the Province of Quebec.

At the town of Hearst, a trunk road was begun, running west from the town to the Algoma Central Ontario Railway, which will form part of the main trunk road, and east along the right of way of the National Transcontinental Railway, to open up a fine agricultural section contiguous to the town of Hearst.

The continuous rainy weather of last season, beginning about the middle of July, made it difficult to complete the grading of many roads and it was almost impossible to burn off the timber and debris. The roads, however, were all well cut out the full width and the central portion grubbed 26 feet in width ready for grading. The timber and brush was well piled so that no difficulty will be met with next season in burning it off as soon as the weather is at all favorable.

Herein is a description of the different roads cut out and graded: the amounts expended thereon, and also a general description of the character of the country through which these roads were laid out.

The total number of miles cut out or improved during the season of 1912 is 233; of which 210 is entirely new road; and the balance 23 miles, roads which have previously been cut out or partly cut out, and were improved by grading, widening, ditching, or by the construction of crosslay thereon. 39 miles of the new road, and 11 miles of the old road has been graded, or 50 miles in all.

The work was carried on strictly in accordance with the instructions and performed as economically and expeditiously as possible, both in the employment of men and in the purchase of supplies, road machinery, etc. In the progress of the work I was assisted in every way possible by the officials of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway Commission; and along the line of the National Transcontinental Railway by the contractors, in the forwarding of supplies and men from point to point.

With reference to the country through which these roads have been constructed, I am glad to be able to report that at least 75 per cent. was found to be of a first class character, suitable for agricultural purposes: the soil chiefly clay and in some instances clay loam. Only a few rock exposures were met with and those of comparatively small area: and in only a few instances was sand or gravel met with, the largest area being crossed by the road running west from Iroquois Falls, which is an extension of the sand plain in the vicinity of Nellie Lake on the Tenniskaming and Northern Ontario Railway. One of the greatest difficulties met with in the construction of these roads, more particularly along the National Trans-continental Railway, was the lack of gravel, sand, or stone for road material.

In some of the townships in which work was carried on there is very little waste land; occasionally a muskeg is met with but a great deal of land which appears at first sight to be muskeg is, after being burned over, capable of cultivation; and will, in my opinion, make first class meadow land. The land has nearly all good drainage in a northerly direction towards the small tributaries flowing north to the larger rivers, and with a reasonable amount of expenditure in drainage the proportion of cultivatable land herein mentioned can be very much increased.

On the higher land the timber is of fair size, reaching a diameter of from 12 to 20 inches. On the level land and muskegs the average diameter is from 4 to 9 inches, but is of very dense growth. The timber is chiefly spruce, balsam, Balm-of-Gilead and white birch; spruce predominating.

When travelling over the different roads I took particular notice of the quantity of timber cut, and while the timber large enough for lumber is not nearly so great as in the country to the south of the Height of Land, the quantity suitable for pulpwood is much greater.

Attached to this report is a statement of the expenditures in connection with the above work.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

J. F. WHITSON,

DESCRIPTION OF ROADS CONSTRUCTED.

Commencing at the south west angle of the Township of Glackmeyer, one mile west of the town of Cochrane and three-quarters of a mile south of the National Transcontinental Railway, in the District of Temiskaming, thence east along the boundary between said township and the Townships of Lamarche and Brower, and between the Townships of Kennedy and Fox, a distance of 12 miles to the side-road between lots 18 and 19 in the Township of Kennedy.

This road cut out through a thickly timbered country the full width of 66 feet, the centre 26 feet, 13 feet on each side of the centre was well grubbed; the timber cut on the road allowance for the first  $9\frac{1}{2}$  miles up to the west bank of the Abitibi River has nearly all been burnt off, and 6 miles of the road well drained and graded;  $3\frac{1}{2}$  miles of it corduroyed with timber 16 feet in length; the balance of the road is now ready for grading, with the exception of the burning off of the timber, which, owing to the rainy season, it was impracticable to do.

This road passes through a good agricultural country, except in the immediate vicinity of the town of Cochrane where there is an area of low-lying ground. Every lot along this road in the Townships of Glackmeyer, Lamarche, Brower and Kennedy has been located upon and in most instances small clearings have been started.

Two wooden bridges were constructed on this road across Brower Creek on Lot 11, and one across a small stream on Lot 26, Concession 1, Glackmeyer. The Abitibi River, which crosses the road on Lot 27, Concession 1, Kennedy, has a width of 400 feet and over 14 feet deep with clay banks over 50 feet high on the east side. It will be an expensive matter to construct an iron bridge at this point, but a ferry will answer the purpose for some time to come until the country is more thickly settled.

There is no waste land along this road: no rock, sand, or gravel to be found, the soil is rich clay loam. This road will serve as a main trunk road into Cochrane for the eastern townships along the railway. $14,700 was expended on this road.

Commencing at the south west angle of the Township of Glackmeyer, thence west along the boundary between the Townships of Clute and Fournier, as far as the north west angle of the latter, a distance of 6 miles, crossing the Frederickhouse River on Lot 10, Concession 1, Clute (where it has a width of 175 feet with clay banks 45 feet high and a swift current).

The road has been cut out the full width of 66 feet and grubbed 13 feet on each side of the centre line, and is now ready for grading, although part of the timber could not be burned off owing to the wet season.

The road passes through a good agricultural country. The land has all been located on either side, and in most instances, small clearings have been started. This road is a continuation of Trunk Road No. 1, and connects the Abitibi and Frederickhouse Rivers, the distance between them being  $12\frac{1}{2}$  miles. No difficulty will be found in draining the land between these two rivers: the country has a good fall, either to the Frederickhouse or to the Abitibi Rivers.

On this road $3,800 was expended.

Situate on the boundary between what was formerly the Districts of Nipissing and Algoma, on the line first run across the clay belt by the late O. L. S. Alexander Niven, in 1896, which line crosses the Canadian Pacific Railway three miles west of Sudbury. The distance between the Canadian Pacific Railway and the National Transcontinental Railway at this point being 174 miles north of Sudbury in latitude 49 degrees 5 minutes north.

This road was constructed in two sections; one section extending south from the National Transcontinental Railway between the Townships of Glackmeyer and Clute, and between the Townships of Lamarche and Fournier to the north west bank of the Frederickhouse River, a distance of  $53\frac{3}{4}$  miles. The road was cut out the full width of 66 feet and grubbed the usual width of 26 feet; the timber burned off, the first  $11\frac{1}{4}$  miles was graded, well ditched and crosslaid. The balance is now ready for grading.

There is no broken land along this road although in places, owing to lack of drainage, it was difficult to construct the road without first crosslaying. The crosslay is of the usual width of 16 feet. The land along this road was located by settlers last season and fair progress has been made in making small clearings.

North of the right-of-way of the National Transcontinental Railway, on the continuation of the same road, three contracts were let. The first for the cutting and grading of  $33\frac{3}{4}$  miles at \$1,500 per mile; the second for  $41\frac{1}{2}$  miles at \$1,500 per mile for cutting and burning off the timber the full width of 66 feet and grubbing out 26 feet in the centre, and properly draining and grading the road; and the third for the cutting and burning off 66 feet and grubbing the centre 26 feet of all roots ready for grading for \$650 per mile, the last covering 3 miles. The first two contracts for the cutting and grading have been nearly completed with the exception of the burning of some timber, the building of a few culverts, and the deepening of the drains in some instances. The third contract has been completed with the exception of the burning of the timber in places.

The total length of this road is 17 miles and is now suitable for traffic in the winter season, 9 miles of it being almost a completed road. The sum of $21,253.00 was expended thereon. The contractors are expected to finish this work as soon as the weather conditions are suitable. On these contracts and on the portion south of the right-of-way which was performed by day labour, first class corduroy was laid wherever the conditions of the ground required it. The road has been well drained from the south west angle of the township of Glackmeyer, north between the said township and the township of Clute, a distance of 9 miles. The last three miles of the road, which is not yet graded, is on the boundary between the townships of Blount and Leitch.

The road, through its entire distance, 17 miles, passes through a good agricultural country. Small areas of low land were met with, and a few semi-muskegs but not a single rock or gravel bed were encountered; and from the highest point on the road, which is undulating, it is possible to view, looking either way, the road as constructed from end to end. Fair progress has been made by the settlers who located along this road in the Townships of Glackmeyer, Blount, Clute, Fournier and Lamarche.

The road, when completed north a further distance of 6 miles to the north boundary of Blount and Leitch, will form the main trunk road north and south leading to the town of Cochrane for the territory lying between the Frederickhouse and Abitibi Rivers.

This road extends east through the centre of the Township of Glackmeyer between Concessions 6 and 7, commencing on the old boundary between the Districts of Nipissing and Algoma, as described under Road No. 3, a distance of 8 miles, to the west bank of the Abitibi River on Lot 3, Glackmeyer.

Previous to my commencing work on this road, two miles had been partially cut out and about  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile corduroyed; which corduroy, however, during the fire of 1911 was partially destroyed. The road has been widened and graded and the crosslay that was burnt renewed, and over a mile of additional crosslay laid. The road was cut out the full width of 66 feet and grubbed the usual width of 26 feet in the centre for a distance of  $5\frac{1}{2}$  miles, and the balance,  $2\frac{1}{2}$  miles, has been cut out and grubbed. Two bridges have been constructed, one at the head of Lillabelle Lake on Lot 24, and one across Brule Creek on Lot 12. The ungraded portion is in good condition for winter travel. The portion graded has been well drained.

The land along this road is first class, well timbered: the soil, a clay or clay loam; every lot has been settled upon and in several instances from 10 to 30 acres cleared. Very little waste land was met with.

$8,800 was expended on this road.

Road No. 5.

Constructed west across the centre of the Townships of Clute and Calder, between Concessions 6 and 7, a distance of 18 miles. The first  $2\frac{3}{4}$  miles west to the east bank of the Frederickhouse River has been well graded and ditched, although in some places the timber still requires to be burned off. This portion was performed under contract by E. Pauze at \$1,500 per mile. The work has not yet been taken off the contractor's hands, as in some places it was found on examination that the drainage is not complete. This will be completed by the contractor as soon as the weather conditions are favorable.

$3,800 has been advanced on this contract.

Crossing to the west bank of the Frederickhouse River the road was continued west along the centre line of the townships to the road allowance between Lots 12 and 13 in the Township of Calder, a distance of  $10\frac{1}{4}$  miles. It was cut out the full width of 66 feet, the centre part 26 feet well grubbed, and with the exception of the burning of the timber, is now ready for grading. Part of it has been crosslaid and several culverts constructed. This work was performed by day labor at a cost of \$600 per mile or \$6,150.

Still continuing west on this road from the side-road between Lots 12 and 13, a contract was let for the cutting out of the road the full width of 66 feet and the grubbing of the centre portion 26 feet to the west boundary of the township, a further distance of 5 miles, at $650 per mile. The cutting and grubbing, and part of the burning off has been done, and $2,750 paid on account of the contract, leaving a balance of $500 still to be paid as soon as the timber is burned off. The total amount expended on the three sections of road No. 5 being $12,700.

This road across both the townships of Clute and Calder passes through a good agricultural country: no rock exposures, sand or gravel were encountered. A few semi-muskogs were met with and no land not capable of being thoroughly drained at a reasonable cost. The chief timber found is spruce up to 16 inches, Balm-of-Gilead and poplar up to 18 inches in diameter, and some small white birch. Through the Township of Calder several small settlers' clearings were met with. The Township of Clute is well drained by the Frederickhouse River and its tributaries the Buskegow and Deception Creeks; a small saw-mill is located on the Buskegow Creek on the line between Lots 12 and 13. The western part of Calder Township is well drained by the Driftwood River and numerous small streams flowing into it.

This trunk road as now cut out and partly graded across the centre of the Townships of Glackmeyer, Clute and Calder has a total length of  $26\frac{3}{4}$  miles, of which 18 miles are through the Townships of Clute and Calder. The National Transcontinental Railway crosses these townships from east to west.

A north and south road through the centre of the Township of Calder was constructed, 9 miles in length, between Lots 12 and 13. A contract was let for the cutting and burning off the timber on the road 66 feet wide, and grubbing the centre 26 feet, to A. Allard at $650 per mile. The road has been cut out the full width of 66 feet and well grubbed 26 feet in the centre, and part of the timber burned off. With the exception of the burning of the balance of the timber the road is now ready for grading. $4,950 has been paid on account of this contract. The burning of the remaining timber will be done as soon as the weather is favorable.

The road passes through a good section of agricultural land gently undulating, with here and there a few small areas of semi-muskeg land.

Road No. 7.

A road on the boundary between the Townships of Clute and Calder was cut out across the 1st to the 10th Concessions inclusive, a distance of  $7\frac{1}{2}$  miles and a bridge built across Deception Creek on Concession 5, and considerable corduroy laid. This road was cut out the full width of 66 feet and grubbed the usual width of 26 feet, although very little burning of the timber has yet been done.

The road passes through a very fine farming country; very little broken land; no stone, sand or gravel was met with, and the land thickly timbered with spruce, balsam, Balm-of-Gilead, white birch and poplar. Settlers who located along this road early last spring have made fair progress in the performance of their settlement duties. Every lot has been located, some of the settlers having packed in their household effects along the blazed trail before the road was cut out. The same remarks will apply to several settlers along the centre line east and west through Clute.

This work was performed by day labor at an average cost of $525 per mile, including the construction of a bridge across Deception Creek and the laying of considerable corduroy in places.

$3,950 has been expended on this road.

Road No. 8.

A road was constructed between Lots 18 and 19 across Concessions 1 to 12 inclusive, through the Township of Clute a distance of 9 miles. The road was cut out the full width—66 feet—grubbed the usual width—26 feet—in the centre and the timber partly burned off, south of the railway. This work was performed by day labor at an approximate cost of $630 per mile. The road crosses the Buskegow Creek in the 5th Concession where the river has a width of about 75 feet with high clay banks.

There is very little waste land along this road, although, in a few places, semi-muskegs are met with. The general character of the country, however, is rolling; the soil is a rich clay loam: the timber of the usual character, spruce predominating with poplar, Balm-of-Gilead and white birch on the high land. The lots along this road are all located and in many instances fair progress has been made by the settlers in making small clearings.

Road No. 9.

Returning again to the Township of Glackmeyer, a road between Lots 18 and 19 across Concession 1, was cut out the full width and well graded. The balance of this road across Concessions 2 to 12 inclusive was cut out 3 years ago by the Department of Public Works, and partly graded as far as the line between Concessions 6 and 7. Across part of Concessions 9 and 10 the road was graded last season by the Department of Public Works. On the 2nd, 3rd and 4th Concessions there are two large semi-muskegs, one of them about  $\frac{1}{2}$  a mile in length which had not been corduroyed, but ditched; the other one, about  $\frac{3}{4}$  a mile in length had been well corduroyed but not ditched. I corduroyed the first mentioned one and deepened the ditches, and ditched the other on both sides, and re-graded and ditched parts of the balance of the road up to the 12th Concession inclusive, but owing to the wet season could not complete the work across the 12th Concession. I also cut down several steep hills on this road expending \$4,100 thereon up to the north boundary of Glackmeyer.

The land along this road was the first located upon in the vicinity of Cochrane, and, with the exception of the semi-muskegs above mentioned, the land is fairly good; the soil a clay or clay loam with the exception of one sand hill. Almost every lot is settled upon; in a few instances from 20 to 40 acres have been cleared on individual lots with fairly good buildings. There are two sawmills on this road, one in the 2nd Concession and one in the 10th.

This road has also been continued north as far as the Abitibi River across Concessions 1 and 2, Township of Blount, a distance of  $11\frac{1}{4}$  miles. The work was performed under contract for the cutting out, grubbing and burning at \$650 per mile. \$331.50 has already been advanced; the work has not yet been completed; it has been cut out and grubbed in the usual way but not burned off.

This road passes through a very fine country. Several years ago fire swept over a section of country along the Abitibi River in Blount and Leitch Townships and the burning off of the moss, which retains the moisture and retards drainage, has materially improved the country from an agricultural stand point. The road intersects the Abitibi River near the centre of the Long Soo Rapids, where the river is about 40 rods in width and very rapid, and it will be practically impossible, except at a very great expense, to construct a bridge at this point. An easier crossing can be made about  $\frac{1}{2}$  a mile down the stream where the river narrows down to about half its average width.

Cutting out a trunk road east from the town of Cochrane to the Abitibi River,

Road No. 10.

The boundary between the Townships of Glackmeyer and Blount, across part of Lot 15 and across Lots 16 to 28 inclusive, a distance of  $4\frac{1}{2}$  miles, has been cut out the usual width of 66 feet and the centre 26 feet grubbed; the timber has not, however, been burned off. The eastern mile was let by contract to E. Pauze at \$650 per mile for the cutting, grubbing and burning. \$300 has been advanced on his contract. A contract for the balance of the road across Lots 19 to 28 was let to F. Nault for cutting, grubbing and burning at \$650 per mile. Mr. Nault has completed his contract with the exception of burning off the timber and has been paid \$1,787.50 on account.

The land along this road is very fine, well drained by the Abitibi River and small tributary streams. There are several settlers located along this road who have started small clearings.

The road between Lots 12 and 13 across the 1st to the 6th Concession in the Township of Glackmeyer, a distance of  $4\frac{1}{2}$  miles, has been cut out the full width—66 feet—grubbed the usual width but not yet burned off. Two bridges across the Brule or Brower Creek on Concession 2 have been constructed and considerable corduroy laid.

The amount expended on this road is $3,664.34.

There is no broken or waste land along this road although part of it is flat and will require considerable ditching.

Road No. 12.

The road between Lots 24 and 25 across Concessions 1, 2 and 3 in the Township of Kennedy has been cut out the full width, grubbed and ready for grading, with the exception of the burning of the timber. It was found impracticable to construct the road along the boundary line between the Townships of Kennedy and Glackmeyer across these three Concessions, inasmuch as an expensive bridge would be required across the Abitibi River on Concession 3. It is proposed to extend this road  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a mile further north and then jog west on the line between Concessions 4 and 5 to the boundary, thence north along the boundary. This road, which has a length of  $2\frac{1}{4}$  miles, was cut out and grubbed at a cost of \$1,525.00.

The road passes through a good agricultural country.

Road No. 13.

The road between Lots 8 and 9 in the Township of Lamarche, across Concessions 2 to 6 inclusive, a distance of 5 miles, has been cut out the usual width and grubbed. Across Concession 6 for one mile the road has been well graded and well ditched, and a bridge constructed across Lamarche Creek on Concession 4. A large drain was constructed on each side of the road across the 6th Concession through a large spruce and tamarac swamp. These ditches will serve to drain the town of Cochrane and a large area surrounding it. The land in part of the 6th Concession is very swampy, with, however, sufficient fall for good drainage. The balance of the road is through fairly good agricultural land until the 1st Concession is met where the land is again swampy. Every lot on this road has been located on and fair progress is being made by the locaters.

On this road there was expended $4,450.

Resident Engineers' camps on the T. C. R. at Nagagami River, 172 miles west of the town of Cochrane,

Road No. 14.

A road along the boundary between the Townships of Brower and Lamarche across Concessions 2 to 6 inclusive, a distance of 5 miles, was cut out and grubbed in the usual way and the northern mile burned off. A bridge was constructed across Brule Creek in the 6th Concession.

This road passes through a good agricultural section: the soil a clay or clay loam; well timbered with spruce, Balm-of-Gilead, white birch and poplar. Several settlers have already commenced clearing land along this road and a small saw mill is in operation on the 4th Concession. It crosses both the National Transcontinental Railway and the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway.

On this road $3,850 was expended.

Road No. 15.

Townships of Fox and Brower.

A road along the boundary between the Townships of Fox and Brower was cut out the full width and well grubbed across the 1st, 2nd and part of the 3rd Concessions to the National Transcontinental Railway, a distance of about  $2\frac{1}{4}$  miles. It was found very difficult to construct a crossing over the National Transcontinental Railway owing to the high embankment, and it was considered advisable to construct the road between the 2nd and 3rd Concessions in the Township of Brower, a distance of 1 mile, across Lots 1 and 2, and construct the road between Lots 2 and 3 across the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th Concessions in the Township of Brower in lieu thereof, to the north boundary, a distance of four miles. This road will be more in the public interest and will serve a greater number of settlers and cross the railway at Brower Siding, a very suitable place for a station and a very easy crossing. These  $7\frac{1}{4}$  miles of road were cut out the full width and grubbed, and  $2\frac{1}{2}$  miles graded and ditched.

On this road $5,200 has been expended.

The land along this road is first class: the soil clay or clay loam and well timbered. The country along the banks of the Abitibi River is high above the bed of the stream: the clay banks of which rise to an elevation of from 20 to 75 feet.

The river has an average width of from 400 to 500 feet: the water is deep and the current swift. It is one of the largest of the many tributary streams of the Moose River and the land along the banks or in the valley is all well adapted for agricultural purposes. The timber is of the usual character common to Northern Ontario, spruce predominating, reaching from 4 inches up to 18 inches on the high land: the poplar, Balm-of-Gilead and white birch along the banks is from 6 inches to 20 inches or over in diameter. There is a small sawmill situate on the 5th Concession. The land is all located and good progress has been made: the road passes through one of the best settlements east of Cochrane.

Road No. 16.

A road was cut out along the south boundary of the Township of Fox across Lots 11 and 12, and along the south boundary of the Township of Brower and along the south boundary of the Township of Lamarche across Lots 1, 2 and 3, a distance of  $8\frac{1}{2}$  miles. The road was cut out the full width of 66 feet and the centre 26 feet grubbed, and is now ready for grading with the exception of the burning of the timber.

On this road $5,200 was expended by day labour.

Travelling by motor car on the Transcontinental Railway.

The easterly  $4\frac{1}{2}$  miles of this road passes through a good agricultural country, the land is high, the soil a good clay loam, the timber of the usual character—spruce, balsam, Balm-of-Gilead, poplar, and some white birch. The balance of the road passes through low swampy land with small spruce timber. There are no settlers along this road. The road, as cut out, will give access to settlers who may hereafter locate on the higher land on the easterly  $4\frac{1}{2}$  miles of the road to the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway. Part of the low land, when properly drained, will make fairly good meadow land.

Road No. 17.

A trunk road was cut out along the north side of the right of way of the National Transcontinental Railway, passing through this township for a distance of  $6\frac{1}{2}$  miles, from Lot 14 to Lot 34 inclusive. The road was cut out the full width, and well grubbed, and is ready for grading.

On this road was expended $4,949.43.

It is proposed to extend this road easterly to the Quebec boundary, a further distance of  $4\frac{1}{2}$  miles.

This road passes through a very fine section of land; the soil is all a rich clay loam. In this township, which was surveyed last season, there is over 75 per cent. of the land suitable for agricultural purposes; and, in order to promote settlement in this township, it will be necessary to complete the road to the Quebec boundary, and to construct two roads crossing the railway at right angles, so as to give access to the lots in the rear of the township. A few hundred yards east of the Quebec boundary, in the Province of Quebec, the railway crosses the Okikodosik River, which has a width of over 150 feet, and is navigable south into the Abitibi Lakes. At this point there is a station bearing the same name as the river, and a small settlement has been started by the Quebec Government, and roads are being cut out in advance of settlement by the Government of the Province of Quebec.

To the east of the township of Sargent, in Quebec, there is a large area of fine land similar to that in the Township of Sargent, and there is every reason to believe that on completion of the roads, settlement will take place on both sides of the Inter-Provincial boundary. Already several settlers have located in Sargent. The Quebec boundary is distant 72 miles east of the town of Cochrane.

Road No. 18.

In the neighbourhood of the town of Hearst, a divisional point of the National Transcontinental Railway, 130 miles west of Cochrane.

A main trunk road was begun near the town of Hearst and constructed west with a view to connecting the said town with the Algoma Central Ontario Railway running north from Sault Ste. Marie and Michipicoton Harbour and 160 miles north therefrom for a distance of  $1\frac{1}{4}$  miles. A contract was let to P. Turgeon to cut the timber on the road, burn it, and grub the centre portion 26 feet in width, at \$650 per mile. The road is now cut out and grubbed, but part of the timber has not yet been burned off. \$625 has been paid on account of this contract. The road will be ready for grading as soon as the timber is burned off.

This trunk road was extended easterly through the town plot of Hearst along the main street which is contiguous to the southerly limit of the right of way of the National Transcontinental Railway station grounds. This road was stumped, corduroyed in places, and graded for a distance of one mile, and will serve as part of the main trunk road along the line of railway between Hearst and Cochrane, which towns are 130 miles apart.

The 9th street in the town of Hearst, which intersects the railway a short distance from the station, was stumped and partly graded for a distance of a quarter of a mile, to the bank of the Mattawishquia River, or Southern boundary of the town plot. This road, when produced southerly through the township of Kendall (surveyed last season), will form part of the main trunk road projected south through the centre of the township.

On the roads in and adjacent to Hearst, in addition to the $625 already mentioned, a sum of $3,866.71 has been expended, or a total of $4,491.71.

Road No. 19.

On the line of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway, 25 miles south of Cochrane, a trunk road was constructed east and west from Iroquois Falls Station, at the junction of the Porcupine Branch of the said railway, and at the junction of a branch line of the said railway now being constructed to the Pulp and Paper Mills under construction at Iroquois Falls on the Abitibi River, situate about  $7\frac{1}{4}$  miles in a north-easterly direction from the station bearing the same name. The road was cut out and grubbed west of the railway along the boundary between the townships of Calvert and Clergue, and between the townships of McCart and Dundonald for a distance of about 7 miles to the Frederickhouse River; and east of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway to the Abitibi River, about 6 miles, or in all, a distance of 13 miles. This road was also connected, by a road  $\frac{1}{4}$  of a mile in length, with Iroquois Falls Station on the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway. The road passes through a country heavily timbered with large spruce, Balm-of-Gilead, poplar, white birch, and balsam. The land is rolling, and in several instances east of the railway, ravines, or gullies were met with. To the west of the railway, the road passes through a sandy plain about  $1\frac{1}{4}$  miles in width, which is locally known as the Nellie Lake Jack Pine District. On this road is also met a high rocky exposure about  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile in width, rising to an elevation of over 75 feet. A detour was made around the foot of this mountain to the south side. On this road, a bridge 130 feet in length was built, crossing a ravine at the end of a small lake on Lot 3. Also a bridge across a small stream on Lot 9. With the exception of the sandy plain above referred to, and the rock exposure, the land both east and west of the railway is fairly good agricultural land. A few semi-muskegs were met with, and in some instances the land is low. The road will require cross-laying in places, but it can all be drained at a moderate expense. Settlers have located on almost every lot in the township of Clergue, and on the 1st Concession in the Township of Calvert; also on lots in the 6th Concession of the Township of Dundonald, as far west as Lot 5.

This trunk road was constructed with a view to giving access to settlers who might hereafter locate in the townships of Little, Evelyn, and the townships to the west thereof, west of the Frederickhouse River; and also to give to settlers located in the townships of Teefy and Walker, east of the Abitibi River, access to the railway. It will be necessary to construct on the Frederickhouse River a bridge at the foot of Frederickhouse Lake. At this point, no great difficulty will be encountered in constructing a bridge; on the Abitibi River it may be practicable to construct a ferry, as the river is wide at this point.

This road was cut out the full width; the timber well piled, and the centre portion, 26 feet in width, well grubbed.

Township of Clergue.

In the Township of Clergue, on the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway, south of Kelso Station a road cut out about three years ago as a winter road for mining purposes was widened from 30 feet to 66 feet, and grubbed ready for grading. This road commences at the centre of the township and runs east between Concessions 3 and 4 from Lots 7 to 12. The same road was cut out the full width east from the centre of the township across Lots 6 to 1 inclusive, and from the same point it was cut out the full width across the 3rd and 2nd Concessions, and north across part of the 4th, 5th, and part of the 6th Concessions.

A road was also cut out the usual width, and grubbed, along the boundary between the townships of Clergue and Walker, across the 4th and part of the 5th Concessions. Half a mile of the road between Lots 6 and 7, Concession 4, was well graded and ditched. A bridge was constructed on the 5th Concession and some corduroy laid. The road between the townships of Walker and Clergue, as cut out, connects with a road cut out this season by the Department of Public Works, commencing at the Experimental Farm near Monteith. In this section, 10½ miles of new road were cut out, and ¾ of a mile graded, at a cost of $9,277.44.

These roads connect Kelso Station with the Experimental Farm at Monteith, and will also serve to connect the village of Kelso with the Porcupine branch of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway. The country served by these roads is very fair agricultural land. Along the Driftwood Creek it is somewhat broken and a few rocky outcrops were met with. In some places the land is low, but there is fair drainage. There is a dense growth of timber on the ground of large size; Balm-of-Gilead, poplar, white birch and spruce, the Balm-of-Gilead reaching a diameter of 24 inches. The country is rolling, with high clay banks along the creeks; the soil is a rich clay loam.

Road No. 21.

A trunk road was constructed along the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway from a point north of Homer Siding, in the Township of Taylor, to a point south-east of the east boundary of the township of Playfair in the Township of Cook, which road passes through the townships of Taylor, Carr, the town of Matheson, the townships of Bowman, Hislop, and Playfair, a distance of 25 miles. This road was cut out and grubbed the usual width, and about 3 miles of it ditched and graded; 25 culverts have been constructed. The ungraded portion of the road, as soon as the dry weather sets in and the timber burned off, will be ready for grading. The road will connect all the different side-roads and Concession lines on which roads have been constructed by the Department of Public Works and others in the above-named townships, and give to the settlers access to the different stations, more particularly to the town of Matheson. The road passes through a fairly good agricultural country; in some instances it is broken by ravines and a few rock outcrops, and also a few semi-muskegs. The soil, however, is chiefly clay or clay loam, with an occasional sand and gravel ridge. Fair progress has been made by the settlers who have located on the lots in the above-mentioned townships. There are some large clearings and there is every appearance that, in the not distant future, Matheson will be the centre of a prosperous farming community.

$12,599.90 has been expended on this road.

A road along the town line between the townships of Walker and Taylor was constructed from the railway east to the township of Carr, a distance of 3 miles. The road was well cut out and grubbed, but not burnt, at a cost of $1,900. The road passes through a fairly good country, on which a fair beginning has been made by settlers.

On the town line between the townships of Taylor and Carr, a road was cut out and grubbed ready for grading, with the exception of the burning. The road is situate across the 3rd and 4th Concessions, a distance of 2 miles in length.

$1,200 was expended on this road.

The land adjacent to this road is very fine; the soil a rich clay loam. On Lot 1, Taylor, and Lot 12, Carr, Concession 3, there are large clearings. Forty bushels of fall wheat per acre were grown on Lot 1, and, notwithstanding the backward season, ripened. Timothy, clover, and vegetables of all kinds matured, equal to any produced in Old Ontario under more favorable conditions.

The road between the townships of Bowman and Currie, across the 6th, 5th, and 4th Concessions, was cut out and grubbed in the usual way, and is now ready for grading, except the burning. The total distance is 4 miles, performed at a cost of $2,868.16.

This road passes through a fairly good agricultural country. The road crosses the Way-tay-beg River, over which a bridge with a span of 70 feet has been constructed.

A road was constructed through the townships of Hislop and Bowman from the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway south across part of the 5th, the 4th, 3rd, 2nd, and 1st Concessions, and between the townships of Hislop and Playfair across Lots 1 to 13 inclusive, a distance of  $6\frac{1}{2}$  miles, or in all a total distance of 11 miles; and a substantial wooden bridge with a span of 43 feet constructed across the Black River on Lot 4, south boundary of Hislop, and the approaches to the bridge cut down; 20 culverts built on the town line between Hislop and Bowman, and the road cross-laid in places. This work was done at a cost of \$9,311.23.

The road passes through a good agricultural country, part of which has, within the last seven years, been burned over and easily cleared. The country is rolling, and near the Black River and tributary streams it is broken by clay ridges and a few rock outcrops. The bridge is one of two across the Black River, the other being at Matheson, and will give access to a large section of agricultural land, east of the river, not yet settled on.

Road No. 26.

A road was built on the town line between the townships of Carr and Beatty across the 1st to 6th Concession inclusive, a distance of 6 miles. This road was well cut out and grubbed the full width, and is now ready for grading, with the exception of the burning of the timber. It passes through a fine agricultural country, with the exception of the 6th Concession and part of the 5th, where there is a narrow ridge of sand. Most of the country has been burned over, and is easily cleared. The lots are all located on, and fair progress is being made by the settlers.

The valley of the Fredericthouse River, nine miles west of the town of Cochrane.

The cost of this road was $3,345.86.

Road No. 27.

The road between the townships of Beatty and Hislop, known as the Munro Road, was improved and partly graded, and 6 clay hills cut down in front of Lots 7, 8, and 9, a distance of  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles, at a cost of \$1,855.18.

This road passes through a rolling clay country broken by clay ridges; the soil is A1. The country was all swept by fire 7 years ago and easily cleared.

Road No. 28.

The Night Hawk Lake Road, on the line between the townships of Carr and Bowman was repaired and regraded from the west boundary of the town of Matheson across Lots 6 to 10 inclusive, a distance of  $2\frac{1}{2}$  miles; and the corduroy around Jean Lake which had been partly burned two years ago was replaced, and several small culverts repaired.

This work was done at a cost of $400.

This road was originally constructed by the Department of Public Works to connect Matheson, on the T. & N. O. Railway, with the mining district around Porcupine. It passes through a good section of agricultural land.

Road No. 29.

A road between the townships of Ingram and Evanturel across part of the 2nd and 1st Concessions, and the town line between the townships of Hilliard and Armstrong across the 6th and part of the 5th Concessions, a distance of two miles, was ditched and part of it corduroyed, at a cost of $1,154.77. This road was cut out and the greater portion of it corduroyed by the Department of Public Works early last spring. The road passes through a flat country with fairly good farming land. The road was cut out to give settlers in the vicinity of Tomstown an outlet south to Thornloe and Earlton. The ditches now constructed will assist in draining the low lying lands adjacent; there is abundance of fall.

Road No. 30.

Townships of Marter and Catherine.

A road was cut out the full width and grubbed, commencing on the line between Concessions 2 and 3 at the south-west angle of Lot 10, Marter; thence east one mile, thence north one mile, thence east one mile, to the south-east angle of Lot 7 in the 4th Concession; hence east between the 3rd and 4th Concessions across Lots 5, 4, and part of Lot 3, a distance of  $1\frac{1}{4}$  miles; thence north one mile through the centre of Lot 3, Concession 4, to the line between Concessions 4 and 5; thence east  $1\frac{1}{4}$  miles to the Windigo Road leading to Tomstown. These roads were all cut out the full width and well grubbed, and  $2\frac{1}{4}$  miles well graded, that is the road across Lots 5, 4, and part of 3, and north along the centre line of Lot 3, Concession 4, a distance of  $2\frac{1}{4}$  miles.

The road was also widened and graded between Lots 4 and 5 across part of Concession 2, Concessions 3 and 4, and part of Concession 5, a distance of 3 miles; and cut out and grubbed across part of Concession 5, Concession 6, township of Marter; and between Lots 4 and 5 across the south half of Concession 1, Township of Catherine; also cut out and grubbed along the town line between the townships of Catherine and Marter across Lots 5 and 6. This road was partly ditched on Concession 6, Marter, and two bridges or large culverts and several small ones constructed; also a bridge on Concession 5, Marter. The total length of roads cut out in the townships of Marter and Catherine is  $11\frac{1}{2}$  miles.

These roads were constructed at a total cost of $10,900.

The country through which these roads are constructed is fairly good in places, and in places is very sandy, broken by ridges, and has very little timber of value. The lots are nearly all located on and some of them well improved.

Road No. 31.

Four clay hills were cut down on either side of the Blanche River, at the approaches to the bridges crossing the said river on Lot 10, Concession 5, Evanturel, and on Lot 1, Concession 3, Township of Daek; both on main travelled roads leading into Englehart. These hills in wet weather were impassable for heavy traffic.

The cutting down of the hills on Lot 10 cost $1,000, and those on Lot 1 cost $992.10.

The road between the townships of Evanturel and Daek, across Concessions 3 and 4, was improved by cleaning out the ditches and repairing the culverts.

The total cost of these two works amounted to $1,992.10.

The work was badly needed, and has since given general satisfaction.

Besides the above roads, a fireproof warehouse 24 feet by 50 feet was constructed at Cochrane at a cost of $794.89.

To the Honourable the Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines, Ontario.

SIR,—After closing down most of the operations on the construction of roads for the season of 1912 on the 15th of November, I immediately proceeded, as directed by you, to examine the different sections of Northern Ontario where there was immediate likelihood of opening up new settlements by the construction of roads under the provisions of 2 Geo. V., Chap. 2, during the season of 1913.

District of Rainy River.

I proceeded first to the Rainy River Valley in the District of Rainy River, and drove over parts of the different roads which had already been constructed, and examined, as far as possible, the unsettled parts of the country in the valley suitable for agricultural purposes, and from my observation have made an estimate of the amount that would be required this coming season in opening up new roads and improving one main thoroughfare or trunk road from the town of Fort Frances West through the valley to the mouth of the Rainy River; and also in constructing trunk roads north and south at regular intervals, chiefly along township boundaries so as to connect up the various short roads now constructed; and also to open up twelve new townships in which there is a large percentage of good agricultural land in which there are as yet few settlers and few existing roads.

I estimate that $100,000 would be required in opening up 100 miles of new road, and repairing and grading 50 miles of old road.

These roads, when constructed, will allow the settlers to reach the different stations along the Canadian Northern Railway passing through the Valley.

Leaving the Rainy River Valley, I proceeded to the District of Kenora, and drove through the townships north-east, north and west of the town of Kenora and Keewatin. In these townships I found a fair percentage of agricultural land: although, speaking generally, the country is not well adapted for that purpose. Where the land is free from stone the soil is fairly good, and farming is at present being carried on in places with apparently some success. The difficulty at present, however, is that the farmers cannot get to Kenora and Keewatin with their produce, except during the winter season or during the dry seasons.

After examining the different roads which have already been opened up, I engaged a small exploration party, with a view to determining what agricultural land might be opened up by the continuation of the present colonization road west through the township of Pellart and west towards the Manitoba Boundary; and, if possible, locate a branch road northerly to the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway: as it has been found almost impracticable, owing to the rough character of the country north or north-east of Kenora, to tap the Transcontinental Railway in that direction. I am glad to report that fair success has been met with, and my explorer reports having been able to locate a good line of road, passing through, in places, sections of good agricultural land, which will be tributary to Keewatin or Kenora. The length of the road from Kenora to the boundary is 34 miles. Of this distance, 12 miles were partly constructed last season by the Department of Public Works, and now requires to be graded. The 22 miles of proposed new road, besides opening up agricultural land, will pass through a section of country on which there are considerable quantities of tie and other timber, which at present cannot be reached.

I also found good agricultural land along the Canadian Pacific Railway, east of Dryden, which has been partly settled upon. The construction of a good trunk road along the right of way for 10 miles would greatly assist in promoting settlement in these sections, and enable the settlers to get their produce to a market.

$75,000 would be required to cover the cost of these roads.

District of Thunder Bay.

In the District of Thunder Bay, in the sections tributary to Fort William and Port Arthur, roads have been constructed in different directions leading into the agricultural sections. After these roads reach a few miles beyond the limits of the cities it is difficult to travel over them during several months in the summer season. Many of them have never been graded or ditched, and settlers in the outlying districts find it difficult to get their produce to a market. There is a considerable area of good agricultural land in small sections between Fort William and Pigeon River, but as yet few settlers have located on the land, owing to the fact that it is difficult or almost impossible to reach this land for want of roads. A road has been partly constructed through the Slate River Valley and extending southerly to the International boundary. It is impossible in the summer season however, to drive over a good portion of this road.

I beg to recommend the reconstruction of this road. I would also recommend that the road from Fort William into the Whitefish Valley be improved and graded. There is a large area of first class land in this valley and in the neighborhood thereof, which would be settled upon if there was one good road to a market. I would also recommend that two other trunk roads, tapping this main road, be constructed through the valley. Also that the old Dawson Road, which was constructed in the early seventies, be improved as far as the Kaministiquia River; also that a trunk road be constructed running north from the said Dawson Road through the township of Gorham; also that the extension of John Street through the township of Oliver and part of the township of McIntyre, be improved; and that the Oliver Road through the township of Oliver and part of the township of McIntyre be improved; that the main road west of Fort William into Slate River Valley be improved; and that a trunk road be constructed through the centre of the townships of Scoble, Gillies, and Lybster.

It will cost $150,000 to carry out this work.

I then proceeded to the Sudbury District and examined the different roads constructed tributary to the town of Sudbury and the mining sections. I found that while there is a good section of agricultural land to the west and north of Sudbury, through which roads have already been constructed, it is difficult, owing to the lack of good main roads, for the settlers to get their produce to the most important market in the district.

I beg to recommend that a main road leading West from Sudbury, passing the Murray Mine, and through the agricultural sections in the vicinity of Chelmsford and Larchwood, be improved; and a trunk road opened up north from Azilda, through the townships of Blezzard and Hammer; also that the Stobi Mine road be extended north; and that the main road from Sudbury north-easterly, known as the Wahnapiatae Lake Road, passing the Garcon Mine, be properly graded. This road passes through a good mining section, as well as a section in which there is considerable land, suitable for agricultural purposes, not yet settled on. I also beg to recommend that the road between Sudbury and Connisan be extended from Connisan easterly along the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, through Wahnapiatae Station, and continuing easterly towards Markstay. The construction of this road would give to the settlers between Sturgeon Falls and Sudbury access to the town of Sudbury with their produce. Situated as they are at present, it is impossible for them to reach a market.

I would recommend that $75,000 be expended on these roads.

Shining Tree Roads.

I also beg to recommend the construction of a wagon road from the Canadian Northern Ontario Railway, commencing about 80 miles north of Sudbury and running in a north-easterly direction to the West Shining Tree gold mining properties, now being developed in the vicinity of West Shining Tree Lake; and to further continue the said road in an easterly direction to the silver mining district on the East Shining Tree Lake, where considerable successful development work has been done. The length of this road would be approximately thirty miles, through a country where no engineering difficulties will be met with in road construction.

This will not be an expensive road to construct, and I would recommend the expenditure thereon of $25,000.

This road, besides opening up two very promising mining camps, would later on be of great service in connection with the development of the timber resources in that locality.

District of Algoma.

On the Sudbury and Sault Ste. Marie road. I would recommend the expenditure of $50,000 on the Western section of this road.

I beg to recommend the construction of trunk and other roads along the main line of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway, and along the Earlton and Elk Lake and the Charlton branches thereof, extending west as far as the Montreal River, and east for a distance of about 20 miles, through the agricultural lands. Also short roads into the more important mining sections around Gowganda and Swastika.

I estimate that $75,000 will be required to carry out this work.

I would also recommend the construction of new trunk and other roads along the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway, and the Porcupine branch thereof, and in the townships east and west of the said railway between Matheson and Cochrane, including the cost of grading and improving roads cut out last season.

$125,000 will be required for these roads.

Northern Part of the Districts of Temiskaming and Algoma.

From the information gained last season in constructing roads along the Transcontinental Railway, I am convinced that for the next few years, at all events, settlement along this line of railway and throughout the Clay Belt should, as far as possible, be permitted only in the best sections, where the land is most suitable for agricultural purposes: in localities well drained by the larger or main streams tributary to the Moose River; where the land is higher and less subject to summer frosts and requires less drainage; or in sections which have been burnt or partially burnt over, thus reducing the cost of clearing: and where the drainage has been improved by the burning off of the moss.

I, therefore, beg to recommend that first the roads which were cut out and not graded last year (owing to the inclemency of the season) should be graded this season and extended where settlement is most likely to take place. The work of last season in this locality extended east and west from Cochrane, and in a small section adjacent to the Quebec boundary.

In the vicinity of the Groundhog River, one of the eight largest tributaries of the Moose River, it is suggested that a new section be opened up for settlement. There is a very large area of fine agricultural land tributary to this stream, which is about 50 miles west of Cochrane. This area extends south of the Transcontinental Railway for nearly 50 miles, and for about 30 miles North. Twenty or more years ago, fire swept over a very large area along this river, and it is now grown up with a small second growth, and would be much more easily cleared and brought under cultivation than the land covered with virgin forest. The soil is the usual clay or clay loam, with occasional sections of sandy loam. At the railway crossing there is a considerable clearing where vegetables and hay crops have been grown successfully since railway construction first began.

I beg to recommend the opening up of roads in two townships at this point, and the construction of a trunk road along the right of way for a distance of about 25 miles east and west from the river. The cost of this work, together with the work in the vicinity of Cochrane, and near the Quebec boundary, would amount to about $150,000.

At present there is a road between the towns of North Bay and Mattawa, which is passable for winter traffic and for light vehicles during the dry season. It follows in a general course the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The road is in bad condition in places, and in other sections the location of the road would require to be changed, in order to avoid bad hills. The distance between North Bay and Mattawa is 46 miles. This road will give to the settlers of the township of Chisholm access to a good market at North Bay or Callander for their farm produce.

I would recommend the expenditure of $75,000 on this work.

I beg to recommend the expenditure of $75,000 in the construction of a trunk road along the Transcontinental Railway east and west from the town of Hearst at the junction of the Algoma Central Ontario and the Transcontinental Railways, for a distance of about 25 miles; also the opening up of trunk roads in advance of settlement on the boundaries and centre lines of two townships at this point.

On completion of the Algoma Central Ontario Railway, within probably a year or 18 months, there should be no better point in the Clay Belt to commence a settlement than in the vicinity of this junction and divisional point of the railway. The land is well adapted for agricultural purposes, and owing to its splendid location and easy distance (160 miles) from navigation on Lake Superior, settlers should find an easy market for all the pulp timber on their land. A town of some importance will soon spring up at Hearst, and there seems no reason why the land should not be rapidly settled on if colonization roads are opened in advance of settlement.

Salaries.

A further sum of approximately $25,000 will be required to pay the wages of inspectors, engineers, and office staff required to carry out the above works.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

J. F. WHITSON,
Road Commissioner.

Memorandum giving the amount recommended to be expended in the construction of Main or Trunk Roads; and the improving by grading or otherwise, of main roads, or roads partially constructed; and also in the construction of a few short roads into sections sparsely settled, where few, if any, roads have as yet been constructed.

REPORT OF S. PRICE, Re LIMITATION OF THE HOURS OF LABOR OF UNDERGROUND WORKMEN IN THE MINES OF ONTARIO.

THE HONOURABLE W. H. HEARST,
Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines.

DEAR SIR,—Pursuant to your instructions of 10th August, 1912, I have inquired into and considered the matter of legislation for the limitation of the hours of labor of underground workmen in the mines of Ontario and I now beg to make my report.

MODE AND NATURE OF INVESTIGATION.

My investigation has been for the most part informal. I have endeavored by personal examination and by inquiry from the men and the mine managers to ascertain and understand the nature of the underground employment in the mines, and the conditions under which the men work, and to gather what knowledge and information I could as to the effect which an eight hour law would be likely to have upon the mining industry. The fullest opportunity has been given for expression of the views of those chiefly concerned. Public meetings, advertised in the press and by posting up and distributing notices, were held in the most important mining centres and every one interested was invited to be present to make known his views, or to hand in or send me in writing anything he desired to say. The mine owners throughout the province have been communicated with and data collected from them regarding the number of men employed, the present hours of labor, the means of descent and ascent, the time taken for meals or rest and other matters which might have a bearing upon the question in hand. I personally visited a number of the mines in various parts of the province, spent considerable time underground seeing the men at work, and examining the character of their employment and the conditions surrounding it, and conversed with large numbers of the men and with their foremen and employers.

By these means and from petitions and letters, and other statements and material handed or sent to me by the men and the mine managers, by discussion with a large number of them, by taking a secret ballot from the men at a number of the mines, and by consultation with the mine inspectors and other officers of the province, and interviews with other disinterested persons having knowledge of mining affairs, I satisfied myself as fully as I could as to the views and wishes of both parties, and as to the facts and conditions having to do with the matter under inquiry.

I have obtained copies of and perused the eight hour laws in force in other countries, and collected what information I could get regarding their operation and effect.

The reports of Commissions elsewhere upon the eight hour question, and various articles and comment, opinions of political economists and other literature upon the subject, have also had consideration.

MINE WORKMEN AND IMPORTANCE OF MINING IN ONTARIO.

About 7,700 men in all are employed in and about the mines at which there are underground workings (excluding smelters, concentrators and mills not operated in immediate connection with the mine). Of these 7,700 about 4,000 are underground men, who would be directly affected by the proposed legislation. These 4,000 underground men are distributed among the different mining districts of the province approximately as follows:—Cobalt 1,800, Porcupine 440, Sudbury 1,000, Michipicoten 281, Elk Lake and Gowganda 74, Hastings and vicinity 154, Grand River district 57, various places in eastern Ontario 43, and in northwestern Ontario 124, the rest belonging to Swastika, Temagami and eastern Algoma.

There are no statistics as to the men's nationality, but the great majority of them are foreign born, especially in the Sudbury and Michipicoten districts, coming largely from Italy, Finland, Austria and Poland.

In most of the mines the greater number of the men are lodged and boarded by the mining company, being either unmarried or having a family living elsewhere.

The total annual wage list for these mines is over $6,000,000, and if the smelters, concentrators and mills in the province were all included this would add some three or four million dollars more.

It need hardly be pointed out that by reason of this large wage bill and by reason of the great quantity of provisions, machinery and supplies of various kinds used in and about the mines, the province generally reaps great advantage from its mining industry. The enviable position which Ontario now occupies as easily the premier mining province of the Dominion, and one of the great mining districts of the world, is not only a matter to be proud of, but is something that brings substantial benefit to a large part of our population. The farmer, the merchant, the manufacturer, the railway man and many others of various occupations reap advantage from the prosperity of this industry, and all are interested in its welfare.

PRESENT HOURS AND CONDITIONS.

The present hours of labor underground vary from 8 to 10 hours, mines which are side by side often differing. Of the 86 mines from which complete returns have been received 40 work 10 hours a day, 32 work 9 hours, 10 work 8 hours, 2 between 8½ and 9 hours and one works 9½ hours. The average for the province would be a little over 9 hours. A number of what are called prospects, not included in the above, work more or less irregularly.

Taking the mines by districts: in the Cobalt district 13 mines work 10 hours, 14 work 9 hours and one works 9½ hours. In the Elk Lake and Gowganda district one works 10 hours and 8 work 9 hours. In the Porcupine district 1 works 10 hours, 4 work 9 hours, one about 8 2/3 hours and 4 work 8 hours. In the Sudbury district 3 work 10 hours and 5 work 8 hours, but in the latter the half hour taken for dinner or lunch underground is not included, neither is the time taken in ascending and descending. In Michipicoten the men work 10 hours, as also generally in Hastings and eastern and western Ontario. In the Grand River district one mine works 10 hours and the other 8. In many mines, however, the hours on Saturday are from 1 to 3 less than on other days, though it seems as a rule the men are paid the ordinary day's wages. In most cases the time occupied descending and ascending is included in the above figures.

The depth of the mines varies all the way to 1,300 or 1,400 feet, but the great majority of the workings are less than 400 feet and very many of them less than 200 feet deep. In 46 of the mines the means of descent and ascent is by ladder, in 24 by lowering and hoisting of cage, in 13 both means are used and in 4 entrance is by tunnel or adit. The number of mines using the cage is increasing, but for depths not exceeding 200 feet the ladder seems preferable by reason of being safer, though the men as a rule no doubt generally prefer the cage.

Nearly all the mines in the chief mining districts work two shifts a day—a day and a night shift, each commencing at 7 o'clock morning or evening as the case may be and quitting at 6, 5, 4 or 3.30, an hour or less being usually taken for dinner or lunch about the middle of the period. When shafts are being sunk or other work is desired to be specially rushed three shifts a day of 8 hours each are usually put on. It might also be mentioned that for shaftsinking or other very wet work extra pay is generally allowed. Often the hours are shortened or changed on Saturdays by reason of Sunday intervening or to give a part holiday.

At Cobalt, Porcupine and Sudbury the men are usually paid by the day or the hour, though the contract system is to some extent used. In Michipicoten the men are paid, as far as possible, on the piece or contract system, getting so much per foot or so much per car for what they do, and in most cases their daily earnings are good. One of the mines in the Cobalt district gives the men who stay with them a year or over a bonus of 10 per cent. of their total year's wages. In other parts of the province systems of pay vary considerably.

The most numerous of the underground men are the shovellers, or muckers or trammers as they are called, and the drill runners ( or "miners") and drill helpers. The larger or piston drills require 2 men to handle them but the smaller or hammer drills, which are now coming largely into use for stoping, need only one. There are also in many cases a large number of timbermen, and there are pumpmen and others, and sometimes blacksmiths or drill sharpeners underground, and shiftbosses, scalers and others are underground more or less regularly.

The supply of men generally, as well as I can ascertain, with some exceptions in the summer months, has been in most cases equal to the demand, though sometimes the mine managers would employ more if they could obtain them readily, and in many cases they have to be content with men having little experience in the work. Surface men, it is generally stated, are more often hard to obtain than underground men.

WHAT THE MEN SAY.

Careful inquiry and test by ballot, where that was considered desirable, satisfies me beyond doubt that the men, under whatever system of pay they are working, are nearly all in favor of an eight hour law. The meetings held at Porcupine and Cobalt, which were largely attended, and those at Sudbury, Marmora, Kingston, and elsewhere, at which the attendance was slight, expressed themselves unanimously, so far as the men were concerned, in favor of the eight hour legislation, and this after the matter had been explained and discussed and after the mine manager's statement declaring that it would involve a deduction in pay, had been read to them. Petitions purporting to be signed by a number of men at Elk Lake (not all however miners), and by nearly all the underground men of two of the important mines at Sudbury, and resolutions and addresses from the miners' unions, asking and arguing for the law, were presented to me. Owing, however, to statements from the mine managers that many of the men were really not in favor of the eight hour law, but against it, but that they sometimes did not like to say so, I determined to test the matter by distributing a ballot by which the men could express their wishes secretly if they desired. Care was taken to include a number of the mines as to which I was satisfied the relations generally between the owners and the men were good. In nearly all the mines where the ballot was taken I am satisfied that the men as a rule are well treated and not at all dissatisfied in general with the way they are used by their employers. In a number of cases I know a good deal of pains have been taken by the employers to look after the men's welfare. The result of the ballot, however, was to show that even in these cases and in cases where the men did not belong to any miners' organization nearly all the men desired the eight hour law, 332 ballots being returned in favor of it and only 12 against it. Six of the ballots marked for it, however, had the words "with a minimum wage" written upon them, and 3 of those marked against it asked for a 9 hour day. The most significant feature in regard to this ballot was the fact that where the men are paid by the piece and depend for the amount of their pay on the amount of work they can do in a day they are almost as strongly for the law as in the places where the pay is by the day, and before the vote was taken the difference in their position as compared with other places and the effect the proposed law would have in reducing their pay, unless they could do as much work in eight hours as they are now doing in ten, was carefully pointed out and explained to them. As expressed at some of the meetings, the feeling of the men seemed to be "get the law passed anyway and see about the matter of pay afterwards."

The chief grounds urged are as follows: First, the humanitarian aspect—that working underground is working under unnatural and trying conditions, being away from the surface and the sunlight and in air more or less impure and inferior to the natural air, being often contaminated with fumes of gas and with injurious dust or particles from the drilling and other operations. They complain at Cobalt that the hydraulic air used in a large number of the mines there is not as good as the air of the ordinary compressor. It is a frequent occurrence they say in underground mines to have men overcome by gas from the blasting powder and sometimes to lose their lives thereby, and they say headache and sickness from the powder are common. They say that the work is dangerous and a strain on the system, and that the working places are often wet or damp and the work usually strenuous and more exhausting and harder on the constitution than similar work would be on the surface, and that the mining life of an underground miner is short. They claim that eight hours efficient work is all the ordinary man is capable of, and that exhaustion or dulling of faculties causes accidents to be more frequent in the latter part of a long shift. They point to the various other mining countries where the 8 hour law is in force, and ask why Ontario should not be as good as these. Some say that a better and more efficient class of men would be induced to come into Ontario if the hours of labor were as favorable as in British Columbia and the Western States. Many say that those who oppose reduction of hours think only of dividends and are willing to sacrifice the health of the men for money.

Others say they are in favor of the eight hour law because it is in conformity with the principles of socialism, and many frankly state that their object is to get as short hours and as much pay as possible.

Most of the men also claim that with proper system and management as much work can be done in eight hours as is now done in nine or ten, and that there would be no decrease in the output of the mines or increase in the cost of production. There will always, they say, be objections made to any change in existing conditions, and they claim that the cries of injury to the industry raised in other places when the law was being put in force there have proved ill-founded.

They urge that the eight hour law should apply to all mines, with no qualification or exemption, except only for cases of emergency where life or property is in imminent danger, and that it would be fatal to the usefulness of the law to exempt contract or piece work or to complicate the Act by special provisions or exemptions.

WHAT THE MINE MANAGERS SAY.

The mine managers generally oppose the eight hour law. Less than half a dozen are wholly in favor of it, a few are not strong one way or the other, while others would not object to it if it was made eight hours face to face and not bank to bank and provisions were inserted to meet special conditions and contingencies. Quite a number would have no objection to a nine hour day.

The arguments urged against the adoption of the eight hour legislation are very numerous, but those in which the greater number of its opponents concur are: That it would mean reduction of wages and consequent dissatisfaction of the men; that it would decrease the output and profits of the industry, make low grade propositions unworkable and discourage influx of capital; that the eight hour law has in fact had disastrous effects in British Columbia, Australia, and parts of the United States, and is driving capital and labor out of England and the United States; that the popular belief that underground employment on the present basis is injurious or objectionable is not correct, experience, the hospital records, and the fact that men prefer underground to surface work being appealed to in support of this contention; that legislation upon such a question is not wise, and that it would be inexpedient to disturb existing conditions, which it is claimed are generally satisfactory to the men who are willing to work.

It is also urged by a large number that, even if such a law were proper or desirable in very large mines or in more advanced stages of the industry, it is not justified in Ontario, where most of the mines are comparatively small and the industry largely in the development stage; and it is pointed out that while some of the mines pay very large dividends many others in different parts of the province have but a slight margin of profit and cannot bear increased expense.

By the Cobalt Mine Managers it is also urged that they have to compete in silver with Mexico, which has cheaper labor and less expense by reason of a warmer climate; that they have to pay supplementary revenue taxes and some of them royalties, and that freight and other charges are high; that a shorter day would necessitate greater speed and conduce to increase of accidents; that as the time of actual operation of the drills is only 6.45 hours a day, the rest of the 10 hour day being taken up in going to and from work, taking down and setting up drills, blasting, etc., a reduction of two hours in the working day would mean only 4.45 hours of actual drilling, and would therefore cause a reduction of 31 per cent. in the output and in the dividends.

Others object to the eight hour law on the ground that it is of socialistic tendency, and say that the agitation for it comes from undesirable foreign organizations, from agitators seeking their own personal advantage, and from those who are not willing to do an honest day's work under any conditions. Others, though not opposing the law in principle, point out that it would work harshly in their own particular cases. One requests that if any such law is passed it should be postponed for ten years so that he may have time to get out of the mining business.

LAWS IN OTHER PLACES.

Eight hour laws are now in force in the following places:

British Columbia (as to both coal and metalliferous mines).

Alberta (as to coal mines).

Great Britain (as to coal mines, stratified iron mines, slate mines, and fireclay mines. The practice in metalliferous mines also is to operate practically on the 8 hour basis).

France (as to coal mines).

California.

Colorado.

Idaho.

Missouri.

Montana.

Nevada.

Oregon.

Utah.

Washington.

Wyoming.

These laws vary considerably in detail. The eight hours under some of them is reckoned from bank to bank and under others face to face, while under several of them the time taken in descending and ascending is partly included and partly excluded. In some of them the time allowed for dinner, or lunch, and rest is excluded; in some special provision is made in respect of Saturday shifts, on account of Sunday, and to change of shifts, etc., and in nearly all of them exemption is provided for in cases of emergency where life or property is in danger. Some of them except men of certain occupations, and one or two exempt workings up to a limited state of development. In the English Act and one or two others the operator may extend the hours for a limited number of days during the year, and provision is made for suspension of the Act by Order-in-Council in case of imminent national danger or great emergency or economic disturbance. Most of the more recent Acts, including the English, the French, and the Alberta Acts, were not brought into force until a considerable time after they were passed, and in France the reduction of time was brought into force in three successive stages.

OPERATION AND EFFECT OF EIGHT HOUR LAWS.

In addition to what information I could glean from articles and reports and from interviews with persons having more or less knowledge of conditions in places where eight hours laws are in force, a number of the mine inspectors of British Columbia and of the Western States have been good enough to answer a list of questions which I submitted to them regarding the operation and effect of the law in their country, and to give me their opinion generally as to the expediency of such a law.

Chief Inspector Graham, of British Columbia, where the eight hour law has been for a long time in force, thinks it increased the cost of mining slightly, but very slightly, but that it does not decrease the output, though it may mean a re-organization of the working forces. He says the men unanimously and the operators generally favor its existence, and that instead of being injurious it is beneficial to the mining industry. He is decidedly in favor of having such a law. Inspector Strachan, of the Nicola valley district, gives answers generally much to the same effect, but thinks the law does not increase the cost of operating, and believes the eight hour day is better for the company financially, and he says he has found none of the operators now desiring to have the day longer than eight hours, and he is even more strongly in favor of the eight hour law than the Chief Inspector. The inspector of the West Kootenay district thinks the eight hour law does decrease the output, but does not think it is injurious to mining industries, and thinks an eight hour law in mining is desirable.

Mr. Henahan, Commissioner of Mines, Colorado, where the eight hour law has been in force since 1904, thinks the law does not raise the cost of operating and that such a law is desirable in mining. He says the workmen favor it, and that the metalliferous mine operators generally favor it also. Mr. Bartholomew, Secretary of the Bureau of Mines, Missouri, which has had the eight hour law since 1899, is not prepared to answer as to the effect of the law on the output, but says the men and the operators generally favor its existence, and that he thinks it is desirable to have such a law. Inspector Walsh, of Montana, where the eight hour law came into force in 1907, does not think it raises the cost of operating and says that the men and in most cases the operators favor its existence, and his opinion is that the law is desirable in mining. Inspector Jones, of Wyoming, says the 8-hour law raises the cost of operating at first, but thinks, with proper adjustments to meet the altered conditions, this can be more than offset. He says the men favor its existence, but that the operators are not favorable to outside regulation. He thinks the law is desirable. State Inspector Bell, of Idaho, thinks the 8-hour law raises the cost of operating proportionately and decreases the output of the mine, but that the men and most of the operators favor its existence, and he thinks such a law is desirable in mining. State Mineralogist Storms, of California, where the 8 hour law has been in force since 1909, thinks it raises the operating tonnage cost and undoubtedly decreases the output. He says the men generally favor its existence, but some of the operators are opposed to it. He thinks, generally speaking, such a law is desirable in mining.

Mr. Sutherland (now Assistant Inspector of Mines in Ontario), who has had extensive practical experience in a number of the mining districts of the west, says the men and he thinks, generally, the operators favor the existence of the 8-hour law where it is in force, and he thinks it does not decrease the output of the mines and that it is not injurious to the mining industry.

As to the operation and effect of the 8-hour law in England, where it went into force in 1909 and 1910, all the information I have obtained has been derived from the inspectors' official reports and from information which Sir George Askwith, of the Industrial Commissioner's Department, has been kind enough to give me. It seems that owing to the customs and privileges which had grown up in different parts of the country some friction occurred at first as to a number of matters, but the law seems now to be working pretty smoothly. The comparatively short time it has been in force and the other labor disturbances that have occurred and the changes that have been made in other respects make it difficult to tell what are its effects. It does not appear to have decreased the output, but the chief inspector, while thinking there has been an increase in the working cost per ton, says it is impossible to say how far this is due to the operation of the "Eight Hours" Act. On the whole it would not appear that any very material economic effects are attributed to the operation of the law.

INDEPENDENT OPINION IN ONTARIO.

I have discussed the question of an 8-hour law very fully with our own mine inspectors and other officials and with other disinterested persons familiar with mining conditions. The inspectors, whose efficiency and usefulness I found in my visits to the mines to be held in high respect both by the operators and the men, naturally and properly do not wish unduly to take part in any controversy between the two parties, but their knowledge and experience in these matters and the opportunities they have had for understanding circumstances and conditions are such that it seemed to me imperative to obtain the benefit of their knowledge and opinion. It is chiefly upon the various points arising during the investigation that I have consulted them; some of the information they have given me upon these is more particularly referred to in other parts of the report, but I think it is right to say here that they and the other mining officials with whom I have discussed the eight hour day do not seem to fear evil results from it, and Inspector Sutherland is very strong in the belief that a reasonable eight hour law for underground workers would be beneficial.

I think the weight of well-informed independent opinion is in favor of the law.

REVIEW OF THE MATTER.

From what has already been stated I think it must be concluded that forebodings of disastrous results to the mining industry if an 8 hour bill is enacted are not justified. The mine managers do not produce any figures or evidence in support of their prediction that injury would result, except statements of a number of mining men who attribute their financial difficulties in whole or in part to the 8 hour law, and a reference to the closing down of a number of mines in British Columbia after the 8 hour bill went into effect. Other opinions, however, do not attribute these things to the reduction of the hours of labor. Inspector Sutherland and others think the trouble in British Columbia was due to other causes, and it may be pointed out that returns indicate that the past year's mining operations in British Columbia have been the most profitable in the history of the province. The strongest support I have found in favor of the contention that the mining industry would be injured is the refusal of the Commission on Hours of labor in Nova Scotia in 1910, to recommend the 8 hour day for the coal miners because they believed such a law would undoubtedly add to the cost of operating or seriously reduce wages, and because apparently they feared injury would in consequence result to the coal industry, which as they pointed out had to meet competition from other places.

In the British coal mines the average hours of labor prior to the enactment of the 8 hour law were about the same as we now have in Ontario, and the Commission dealt pretty fully with the matter of reduction of output which the owners claimed would result, and arrived at the conclusion that this would not be so great as claimed though they believed some diminution of production would follow. The actual effects, as already pointed out, seem at least no worse than the Commission anticipated.

With regard to the figures as to drill time submitted by the Cobalt Mine Managers, and the contention based thereon, which is very similar to what was urged by the coal mine operators in Great Britain, I am told by independent persons having knowledge of these matters that there is no reason why the actual drill time should not be a good deal longer than the contention indicates. I am informed also that it is claimed by the managers of the mines in Ontario which are working on an 8 or a 9 hour basis that their costs are as low as those of 10 hour mines, and western shiftbosses and mine captains working in the Ontario mines claim that they can get as much work done in 8 hours as in 10. It is stated and admitted on nearly all sides that the amount of work done generally in the Ontario mines is not satisfactory for the time that is spent at it, and that in fact the efficiency of a great many of the men is not as high as it should be.

What the effect of the enactment of an 8 hour law would really be no one of course can definitely say. As pointed out in the report of the Miners' Eight Hour Day Committee in Great Britain in 1907, much would likely depend on the spirit in which the law was received and the efforts made to adapt operations to the new conditions, and to minimize friction between the men and the employers. Probably upon the whole the conclusion that would be most warranted is that while results might vary in different places or under different circumstances and while there might probably, generally speaking, be some increase in cost of production, the increase which may reasonably be feared is slight.

The fact that little or no injury would likely result to the industry or that the mine owners are able to stand a diminution of profits is no ground for a change or disturbance of conditions unless other reasons warrant or require it. Neither on the other hand I think would even material decrease in output and profits be reason for refusing the law if the conditions in regard to the health and welfare of the workers were so serious as imperatively to require it.

Turning to the latter question, I am convinced that the popular idea of hardship and injuriousness of working underground is only partly right. The mines of Ontario, I believe, as a whole, are naturally as healthful as any in the world. Figures and opinions show that there is little in the assertions regarding arsenic poisoning in the Cobalt mines, though, no doubt, through infection, that does in a few instances occur. There seems, however, to be better basis for the fear of harm arising from the breathing of the dust caused by the drilling and other operations, and especially from the hammer drills where no water is used to allay the dust, and particularly in the quartz workings. Phthisis or miners' consumption is at present a disease little known in Ontario, but the time has been short for its development and it is undoubtedly a matter to be considered and as far as possible guarded against. Our inspectors are fully alive to this necessity and no doubt will do their best to minimize the evil, but I may here mention that one of their difficulties is that the men are not always as willing as they should be to co-operate in precautionary measures. It is undoubtedly true that there is a good deal of powder gas in many of our mines and that this causes considerable trouble, and is more or less harmful even where the men are not actually overcome by it and no fatality occurs thereby. I think it cannot be questioned either that underground mining though not the most hazardous of occupations, must be distinctly classed as a hazardous one. The allegation of greater frequency of accidents in the latter hours of shifts I find after very careful investigation, assisted by the hospital records and other figures produced by the managers, and especially by the data put together for me by Chief Inspector Corkill, is not borne out by the facts. The figures really show that a rather larger percentage of the accidents take place during the early hours of the shift than during the later hours. Reports and opinions do not on the other hand confirm the allegation that shorter hours and consequent speeding up would be likely to increase accidents. Hospital records do not show a large percentage of sickness among the miners. The Commissioners in the British

8 hour day report already mentioned, find that the health and physique of coal miners in Great Britain compares favorably with that of other workpeople, although the 8 hour law was in fact adopted there. The best information I have been able to get shows metalliferous mines as a class to be generally less healthful than coal mines.

The prevailing view expressed in the reports received from the inspectors and other officials of British Columbia and the Western States, is that in their opinion underground work is more injurious to the health than surface work, and that there are special reasons why underground men should have shorter hours than other workmen. The 8 hour mining laws, as a rule at least, seem to be based upon that assumption, some of the United States statutes specifically so declaring. I am not unmindful in considering the above reports that officials will naturally be disposed to favor their own law, and that the employers whose opinions they refer to in support of the law may not feel disposed to complain of what they cannot help; nor do I forget that the exigency of the situation in the United States from a constitutional point of view may have something to do with the legislative declarations as to the injuriousness and danger of underground employment. Neither do I neglect what is said by the mine managers here, which I think is to a great extent true, that men after getting used to working underground prefer that to surface work; but higher wages and a certain fascination about it, and a sense of pride or dignity in having attained to a higher or more important stage in the mining occupation, probably account largely for the preference. Whatever the reason may be such a preference is not incompatible with the statement that the occupation is in fact unhealthful and injurious.

Undoubtedly the air in mines even under favorable conditions is not as good as ordinary air. It contains a smaller percentage of oxygen (especially where hydraulic air is used), is more or less laden with dust or small particles of rock or mineral and with powder gas—the prevalence of which, however, varies very greatly in different cases—and as natural ventilation is always poor other impurities also are pretty sure to be present. There is besides usually more or less water or dampness underground, though our inspectors say that as a class the Ontario mines would be considered dry in comparison with others. Working under these conditions, and always by artificial light, I think cannot reasonably be contended to be as good for the worker as working under ordinary conditions, and the element of danger may add something to the burden. It is estimated that 80 per cent. of the underground men are under 40 years of age and 90 per cent. under 50.

Upon consideration of everything I have been able to gather I think the conclusion must be that working underground is unhealthful and injurious, though not at all to as great an extent as is claimed by a number of the men or as is ordinarily believed by persons unfamiliar with mining conditions.

Some of the statements put forward as arguments for or against the law are not relevant. That the workmen have among them persons who favor the law upon grounds that do not commend themselves to the general community, or that they have in their ranks or in the organization to which a number of them belong, individuals who are not a credit to them, should not condemn their case if it is in fact meritorious; though I think the importance to any body of men of so controlling their members as to maintain public opinion upon their side can hardly be over-estimated. I should be sorry on the other hand to see any law put in force for no better reason than that those upon whom it may be assumed to be a burden are making large profits and are well able to bear it, even where that is the case.

The prevailing idea, however, that the mine owner gets his money easily is far from being always correct. While some of the mines may return investment a hundred fold and be almost able to pay their last year's wagebill from the mere advance in the price of their product, there are many where profits are very much smaller, and some where more money goes in than ever comes out. I have sometimes felt that the mine owners of Ontario have not always had the sympathy that they should have from the rest of the population, but objections on the ground of taxation and royalties, which have no relevancy in the present inquiry and which can only be regarded as complaints against what the people of the province generally regard as just and reasonable, can hardly be hoped to enlist public opinion in their favor. But this is beside the question.

A consideration which I think should have weight is the tendency the proposed legislation would likely have toward allaying unrest and removing friction and difficulty existing in a number of the mining camps. Taking out of the field of controversy and settling permanently what has been and will apparently likely otherwise continue to be a fruitful source of trouble between the employers and the men would of itself be a good deal gained. Sir George Askwith, speaking of the question generally, and Inspector Sutherland, speaking of conditions in Ontario particularly, are both of opinion that the 8-hour day will likely come sooner or later, or will be a source of agitation until it is obtained, and they both see advantages in establishing it now. The history of the matter in Ontario supports this view. There has been a gradual reduction in the length of the day in a number of the mining districts. The newer camp at Porcupine has, on the whole, considerably shorter hours than Cobalt, and lately the shorter day has been introduced in some of the mines in the older districts. As already mentioned, it is not only the miners' organizations that are wanting the shorter day, but also the men who neither belong to the union nor live in districts where unions exist, and those working by piece work or contract, as well as those working for day wages. This desire of the men for the law, I think, is an important consideration in estimating its desirability. It cannot, of course, be hoped that the legislation would settle all difficulties and wholly prevent strikes, but it would remove one of the chief causes of trouble.

I think there is something, too, in the contention that the shorter day would tend to greater skill and efficiency of the men, and that by improving conditions it would encourage a more permanent class of residents in the mining camps and lessen the very large remittances of wages now sent out of the country by those having no established home here.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

Everything considered, I think the balance is in favor of enacting a reasonable 8-hour law for underground workmen in the mines of Ontario.

Of the laws in force in other places, I think that in Great Britain is the most carefully devised, and that its principles should, in the main, be followed, with simplification of some of its provisions where that is possible.

Subject to proper safeguards for securing suitable means of descent and ascent, I would recommend that the law respecting metalliferous mines in British Columbia, and that in force in most of the Western United States, approximating closely in this respect to the laws of Great Britain and France, should be followed as to making the 8-hours from face to face rather than bank to bank.

The law, I think, should apply to contract and piece work, as well as work by the day, and men as well as employers should be obliged to observe it, notwithstanding any consent or agreement between them; otherwise I think the chief benefit of the law would be lost.

I think no overtime or deviation from the Act should be permitted except in emergencies where life or property is in danger and for repair work and an exception for Saturdays; but I think pumpmen and shiftbosses and persons engaged solely in surveying or measuring might properly be excepted from its provisions, and I think, having in view the conditions now prevailing at a number of the mines, the time taken for dinner or lunch, not exceeding half or at most three-quarters of an hour, should be excluded, and I do not think the usefulness of the Act would be materially impaired by exempting workings where not more than six men are employed in a shift. Very strong representations have been made to me in respect of the hardship an inelastic 8-hour law might entail in performance of development work, especially in out of the way districts, and I think this exemption might safely be conceded.

I would suggest that the mine managers, in order to be permitted to exclude the time taken in descending and ascending, should be required to obtain from the Mine Inspector a certificate that the means provided for descent and ascent are satisfactory. I think also the question as to whether a shift is in fact composed of not more than six men should, in case of dispute, be determined by the Mine Inspector.

In answer to a question asked, I would say I do not think it would be desirable that, instead of enacting a positive 8-hour law, the fixing of the hours of labor should be left with a Board. That, I think, would be sure to cause trouble, and would destroy one of the chief benefits I see in passing the legislation.

I can see no harm in inserting a provision such as the British and Alberta Acts contain, empowering suspension of the law by Order-in-Council in the event of great emergency or grave economic disturbance.

The provision in the British Act allowing an extra hour during periods not exceeding 60 days in the year is, I think, unnecessary here, and would only tend to cause complication.

Following the course pursued in the enactment of similar laws in a number of other places, I think, in order to permit of preparation for it, the coming into effect of the Act should be postponed for a reasonable time—not less than six months—from its passing, and, perhaps, it would be but fair to postpone it longer in respect of the mines or the district where there have recently been strikes, as it might be considered a hardship upon the mines which, according to the findings of the Arbitration Board, have not been in the wrong, to disturb conditions again after so short an interval.

Faithfully submitted,

Failure to give, or defect in notice not to affect right to compensation in certain cases.

23. Any weekly or other periodical payment to a workman may be reviewed at the request of the employer or of the workman, if the compensation is payable by the employer individually, or, if the compensation is payable out of the accident fund, of the Board's own motion or at the request of the workman and on such review the Board may put an end to or diminish or may increase such payment to a sum not beyond the maximum hereinafter prescribed.

Increase of compensation to workman under 21.

24. Where the workman was at the date of the accident under twenty-one years of age and the review takes place more than six months after the accident the amount of a weekly payment may be increased to any sum not exceeding per cent. of the weekly sum which if he had remained uninjured he would probably have been earning at the date of the review.

Commutation of payments for lump sum.

(e) applied partly in one and partly in another or others of the modes mentioned in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d).

as the Board may determine.

26.—(1) Where a weekly or other periodical payment is payable by the employer individually and has been continued for not less than six months, the Board may on the application of the employer allow the liability therefor, to be commuted by the payment of a lump sum of such an amount as, if the incapacity is permanent, would purchase an immediate annuity from a life insurance company approved by the Board, equal to seventy-five per cent. of the annual value of the weekly or other periodical payment, and in other cases of such an amount as the Board may deem reasonable.

Where employer insured Board may require insurer to pay amount payable to employer directly to injured workman.

30.—(1) Where an employer who is individually liable to pay the compensation is insured against his liability to pay compensation, the Board may require the insurance company or other underwriter to pay the sum which under the contract of insurance such company or underwriter would be liable to pay to the employer in respect of an accident to a workman who becomes, or whose dependants become entitled to compensation under this Part, directly to the Board in discharge or in discharge pro tanto of the compensation to which such workman or his dependants are found to be entitled.

Notice to be given to insurer.

Sect. 25 to apply.

(3) Section 25 shall apply to the compensation payable to the Board under subsection 1.

In case of permanent disability employer may be required to pay capital sum,

31.—(1) Where the accident causes permanent disability, either total or partial or the death of the workman and the compensation is payable by the employer individually the Board may require the employer to pay to the Board such sum as in its opinion will be sufficient with the interest thereon if invested so as to earn interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum to meet the future payments to be made to the workman or his dependants, and such sum when paid to the Board shall be invested by it and shall form a fund to meet such future payments.

(2) The Board, instead of requiring the employer to make the payment provided for by subsection 1, may require him to give such security as the Board may deem sufficient for the future payments. or to give security for payment of compensation.
