Grand jury not bound to hear evidence may order explanatory

Sec. 217. The grand jury is not bound to hear evidence for the defendant, but it is their duty to weigh all the evidence submitted to them, and when they have reason to believe that other evidence within their reach will explain away the charge, they should order such evidence to be produced, and for that purpose may require the district attorney to issue process for the witnesses.

Degree of evidence

Sec. 218. The grand jury ought to find an indictment when all the evidence before them, taken together, is such as in their judgment would, if unexplained or uncontradicted, warrant a conviction by the trial jury.

Grand jurors must declare their knowledge
&c.

Sec. 219. If a member of the grand jury know, or have reason to believe, that a public offense has been committed, which is triable in the county, he must declare the same to his fellow jurors, who must thereupon investigate the same.

Must inquire as to persons imprisoned

Sec. 220. The grand jury must inquire :

1, Into the case of every person imprisoned in the jail of the county on a criminal charge, and not indicted, and into all indictable offenses of which they have or can obtain knowledge.

2, Into the condition and management of the public prisons in the county ; and

3, Into the willful and corrupt misconduct in office of public officers of every description in the county.

Sec. 221. They are also entitled to free access at all reasonable times, to the public prisons, and to the examination, without charge, of all public records in the county.

Entitled to access to prisons &c.

Sec. 222. The grand jury may at all reasonable times, ask the advice of the court, or of any member thereof, or of the district attorney of the county; but unless such advice be asked, neither of those officers are permitted to be present during the sessions of the grand jury, nor is any other person permitted to be present during their sessions, except the members of the grand jury, and a witness actually under examination.

When and from whom they may ask advice

Sec. 223. Every member of the grand jury must keep secret, whatever he himself, or any other grand juror may have said, or in what manner he or any other grand juror may have voted on a matter before them.

Secrets

Sec. 224. A member of the grand jury may, however, be required by any court to disclose the testimony of a witness examined before the grand jury, for the purpose of ascertaining whether it is consistent with that given by the witness before the court, or to disclose the testimony given before them by any person, upon a charge against him for perjury in giving his testimony, or upon his trial therefor.

When bound to disclose

Sec. 225. A grand juror cannot be questioned for anything he may say, or any vote he may give in the grand jury, relative to a matter legally pending before the jury, except for a perjury of which he may have been guilty in making an accusation or giving testimony to his fellow jurors.

FINDING AND PRESENTATION OF THE INDICTMENT.

Section 226. Indictment must be found by twelve grand jurors, and endorsed by foreman.

227. If not so found, depositions, &c., must be returned to the court with dismissal endorsed.

228. Effect of dismissal.

229. Names of witness must be inserted at foot of indictment, or endorsed thereon.

230. Indictment must be presented in presence of grand jury and filed.

Indictment, how found

Sec. 226. An indictment cannot be found without the concurrence of at least twelve grand jurors. When so found, it must be endorsed, "A true bill," and the endorsement must be signed by the foreman of the grand jury.

How dismissed

Sec. 227. If twelve grand jurors do not concur in finding an indictment, the depositions [and statement, if any.] transmitted to them, must be returned to the court with an endorsement thereon, signed by the foreman, to the effect that the charge is dismissed.

Effect of dismissal

Sec. 228. The dismissal of the charge does not, however, prevent its being again submitted to a grand jury as often as the court may so direct. But without such direction, it cannot be again submitted.

Names of witnesses inserted thereon

Sec. 229. When an indictment is found, the names of the witnesses examined before the grand jury, or whose depositions may have been read before them, as provided in section 216, must, in all cases, be inserted at the foot of the indictment or indorsed thereon before it is presented to the court.

How presented

Sec. 230. An indictment when found by the grand jury, as prescribed in section 227, must be presented by their foreman, in their presence, to the court and must be filed with the clerk, and remain in his office as a public record.

CHAPTER II.

232. First pleading for the people is indictment.

236. Indictment must charge but one offense and in one form, except where it may be committed by different means.
237. Statement as to time when offense was committed.
238. Statement as to person injured or intended to be injured.
239. Construction of words used in indictment.
240. Words used in a statute need not be strictly pursued.

242. Indictment not insufficient for defect of form not tending to prejudice defendant.
243. Presumptions of law and matters of which judicial notice is taken, need not be stated.
244. Pleading a judgment or determination of, or proceeding before a court or officer of special jurisdiction.
245. Private statute, how pleaded.
246. Pleading in indictment for libel.
247. Pleading in indictment for forgery, where the instrument has been destroyed, or withheld by defendant.

251. Accessory after the fact, in felony, may be indicted, tried and punished, though principal neither tried nor indicted.
252. Indictment for compounding a felony, though the person guilty of the original offense be neither indicted nor tried.

Forms of pleading abolished

Sec. 231. All the forms of pleading in criminal actions, heretofore existing, are abolished; and hereafter the forms of pleading, and the rules by which the sufficiency of pleadings is to be determined, are those prescribed by this code.

First pleading people, indictment

Sec. 232. The first pleading on the part of the people is the indictment or information.

Indictment, want to contain

Sec. 233. The indictment or information must contain:

1, The title of the action, specifying the name of the court to which the indictment is presented, and the names of the parties;

2, A statement of the acts constituting the offense, in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

Must be direct and certain

Sec. 234. The indictment or information must be direct and certain, as it regards:

1, The party charged;

2, The offense charged;

3, The particular circumstances of the offense charged, when they are necessary to constitute a complete offense.

When indicted by fictitious name

Sec. 235. When a defendant is indicted or prosecuted by a fictitious or erroneous name, and in any stage of the proceedings his true name is discovered, it may be inserted in the subsequent proceedings, referring to the fact of his being indicted by the name mentioned in the indictment.

Must charge but one offense

Sec. 236. The indictment must charge but one offense, and in one form only; except that where the offense may be committed by the use of different means, the indictment may allege the means in the alternative.

Statement as to time &c.

Sec. 237. The precise time at which the offense was committed need not be stated in the indictment; but it may be alleged to have been committed at any time before the finding thereof, except where the time is a material ingredient in the offense.

Statement as to person

Sec. 238. When an offense involves the commission of, or an attempt to commit a private injury, and is described with sufficient certainty in other respects to identify the act, an erroneous allegation as to the person injured, or intended to be injured, is not material.

Sec. 239. The words used in an indictment must be construed in their usual acceptation, in common language, except words and phrases defined by law, which are to be construed according to their legal meaning.

Construction of words

Sec. 240. Words used in a statute to define a public offense, need not be strictly pursued in the indictment; but other words, conveying the same meaning, may be used.

Words used in statute not strictly pursued

Sec. 241. The indictment is sufficient if it can be understood therefrom:

Indictment,
when sufficient

1, That it is entitled in a court having authority to receive it, though the name of the court be not accurately stated;

2, That it was found by a grand jury of the county in which the court was held;

3, That the defendant is named, or if his name cannot be discovered, that he is described by a fictitious name, with the statement that he has refused to discover his real name;

4, That the offense was committed at some place within the jurisdiction of the court; except where, as provided by sections 93 to 102, both inclusive, the act, though done without the local jurisdiction of the county, is triable therein;

5, That the offense was committed at some time prior to the time of finding the indictment;

6, That the act or omission, charged as the offense, is clearly and distinctly set forth, in ordinary and concise language, without repetition; and in such a manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended;

7, That the act or omission, charged as the offense, is stated with such a degree of certainty, as to enable the court to pronounce judgment, upon a conviction, according to the right of the case.

Sec. 242. No indictment is insufficient, nor can the trial, judgment, or other proceedings thereon be affected, by reason of a defect or imperfection in matter of form, which does not tend to the prejudice of the substantial rights of the defendant upon the merits.

Indictment not sufficient, when

Sec. 243. Neither presumptions of law, nor matters of which judicial notice is taken, need be stated in an indictment.

Presumptions of law &c.

Pleading a judgment &c.

Sec. 244. In pleading a judgment or other determination of, or proceeding before, a court or officer of special jurisdiction, it is not necessary to state the facts conferring jurisdiction; but the judgment or determination may be stated to have been duly given or made. The facts constituting jurisdiction, however, must be established on the trial.

Private statutes how pleaded.

Sec. 245. In pleading a private statute, or right derived therefrom, it is sufficient to refer to the statute by its title and the day of its passage, and the court must thereupon take judicial notice thereof.

Pleading in indictment for libel

Sec. 246. An indictment for libel need not set forth any extrinsic facts for the purpose of showing the application to the party libeled of the defamatory matter on which the indictment is founded; but it is sufficient to state generally that the same was published concerning him, and the fact that it was so published must be established on trial.

For forgery

Sec. 247. When an instrument, which is the subject of an indictment for forgery, has been destroyed or withheld by the act or procurement of the defendant, and the fact of the destruction or withholding is alleged in the indictment and established on the trial, the misdescription of the instrument is immaterial.

For perjury

Sec. 248. In an indictment for perjury or subornation of perjury, it is sufficient to set forth the substance of the controversy or matter in respect to which the offense was committed, and in what court, or before whom, the oath alleged to be false, was taken, and that the court or person before whom it was taken had authority to administer it, with proper allegations of the falsity of the matter on which the perjury is assigned; but the indictment need not set forth the pleadings, record or proceedings with which the oath is connected, nor the commission or authority of the court or person before whom the perjury was committed.

Upon indictment against several, one or more may be convicted or acquitted

Distinction between accessory &c.

Sec. 249. Upon an indictment against several defendants, any one or more may be convicted or acquitted.

Sec. 250. The distinction between an accessory before the fact and a principal, and between principals in the first and second degree, in cases of felony, is abrogated; and all persons concerned in the commission of a felony, whether they directly commit the act constituting the offense, or aid and abet in its commission, though not present, must hereafter be indicted, tried and punished as principals, as in the case of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 251. An accessory after the fact to the commission of a felony, may be indicted, tried and punished, though the principal felon be neither indicted nor tried.

Accessory after the fact, in felony how tried

Sec. 252. A person may be indicted for having, with the knowledge of the commission of a public offense, taken money or property of another, or a gratuity or reward, or an engagement or promise therefor, upon the agreement or understanding, express or implied, to compound or conceal the offense, or to abstain from a prosecution therefor, or to withhold any evidence thereof, though the person guilty of the original offense have not been indicted or tried.

Indictment for compounding &c.

Sec. 301. If the court do not direct the case to be re-submitted, the defendant, if in custody, must be discharged, or if admitted to bail, his bail is exonerated, or if he have deposited money instead of bail, the money must be refunded to him.

If demurrer disallowed

Sec. 304. When the objections mentioned in section 296, appear upon the face of the indictment or information, they can only be taken by demurrer, except that the objection to the jurisdiction of the court over the subject of the indictment or information or that the facts stated do not constitute a public offense, may be taken at the trial, under the plea of not guilty, and in arrest of judgment.

Sec. 313. When, however, he was acquitted on the merits, ^{Same} he is deemed acquitted of the same offense, notwithstanding a defect in form or substance in the indictment or information on which he was acquitted.

Sec. 314. When the defendant shall have been convicted or acquitted upon an indictment or information for an offense ^{Conviction or acquittal &c.} consisting of different degrees, the conviction or acquittal is a bar to another indictment or information for the offense charged in the former, or for any inferior degree of that offense, or for an attempt to commit the same, or for an offense necessarily included therein, of which he might have been convicted under that indictment or information.

Sec. 341. A challenge to the panel can be founded only on a material departure from the forms prescribed by the code of civil procedure, in respect to the drawing and return of the jury, or on the intentional omission of the sheriff to summon one or more of the jurors drawn. Upon what founded

Sec. 342. A challenge to the panel must be taken before the jury is sworn, and must be in writing, specifying plainly and distinctly the facts constituting the ground of challenge. When and how taken

Sec. 343. If the sufficiency of the facts alleged as a ground of challenge be denied, the adverse party may except to the challenge. If it be disallowed, the court must direct the jury to be impaneled.

Sec. 348. Before a juror is called, the defendant must be informed by the court, or under its direction, that if he intend to challenge an individual juror, he must do so when the juror appears, and before he is sworn.

- 2, For cause.

Challenge, when taken

Sec. 350. It must be taken when the juror appears, and before he is sworn; but the court may, for good cause, permit it to be taken after the juror is sworn, and before the jury is completed.

Peremptory challenge—what—how taken

Sec. 351. A peremptory challenge can be taken by the defendant only, and may be oral. It is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the court must exclude him.

Sec. 356. Particular cause of challenge are of two kinds :

- 2, For the existence of a state of mind on the part of the juror, in reference to the case, or to either party, which satisfies the triers, in the exercise of a sound discretion, that he cannot try the issue impartially without prejudice to the substantial rights of party challenging, and which is known in this code as actual bias.

Sec. 357. A challenge for implied bias may be taken for all or any of the following causes, and for no other :

challenge

Sec. 359. An exemption from service on a jury is not a cause of challenge, but the privilege of the person exempted.

Causes, how stated

Sec. 360. In a challenge for implied bias, one or more of the causes stated in section 357 must be alleged. In a challenge for actual bias, the cause stated in the second subdivision of section 356 must be alleged. In either cases, the challenge may be oral, but must be entered upon the minutes of the court.

Exceptions
and denial

Sec. 361. The adverse party may except to the challenge in the same manner as to a challenge to the panel, and the same proceedings must be had thereon as prescribed in section 343 ; except that if the exception be allowed the juror must be excluded. The adverse party may also orally deny the facts alleged as the ground of challenge.

Challenge, how tried

Sec. 362. If the facts be denied, the challenge must be tried as follows :

- 1, If it be for implied bias, by the court ;
- 2, If it be for actual bias, by triers.

Triers, how

Oath of trier

Sec. 364. The triers must be sworn, generally, to inquire whether or not the several persons who may be challenged, and in respect to whom the challenges shall be given to them in charge, are true, and to decide the same according to the evidence.

Sec. 365. Upon the trial of a challenge to an individual juror, the juror challenged may be examined as a witness to prove or disprove the challenge; and is bound to answer every question pertinent to the inquiry therein.

Juror challenged may be examined
as a witness

Sec. 366. Other witnesses may also be examined on either side; and the rules of evidence applicable to the trial of other issues, govern the admission or exclusion of testimony, on the trial of the challenge.

Rules of
evidence

Sec. 367. On the trial of a challenge for implied bias, the court must determine the law and the fact, and must either allow or disallow the challenge, and direct an entry accordingly upon the minutes.

Challenge for implied bias,
how determined

Sec. 368. On the trial of a challenge for actual bias, when the evidence is concluded, the court must instruct the triers that it is their duty to find the challenge true, if the evidence establishes the existence of a state of mind on the part of the juror, in reference to the case or to either party, which satisfies them in the exercise of a sound discretion, that he cannot try the issue impartially and without prejudice to the substantial rights of the party challenging; and that if otherwise, they must find the challenge not true. The court can give them no other instruction.

Instructions to triers

Sec. 369. The triers must thereupon find the challenge either true or not true; and their decision is final. If they find it true the juror must be excluded.

Verdict of triers

Sec. 370. All challenges to an individual juror, except peremptory, must be taken, first by the defendant, and then by the people; and each party must exhaust all his challenges before the other begins.

Challenge, first
by defendant
then by people, each must exhaust
challenges

Sec. 371. The challenges of either party need not all be taken at once; but they must be taken separately, in the following order, including in each challenge all the causes of challenge belonging to the same class:

Order of challenges

- 1, To the panel;
- 2, To an individual juror for a general disqualification;
- 3, To an individual juror for implied bias;
- 4, To an individual juror for actual bias.

Peremptory

of reasonable doubt

Sec. 376. A defendant in a criminal action is presumed to be innocent until the contrary be proved, and in case of a reasonable doubt as to whether his guilt is satisfactorily shown, he is entitled to be acquitted.

Sec. 377. When it appears that a defendant has committed a public offense, and there is reasonable ground of doubt in which of two or more degrees he is guilty, he can be convicted of the lowest of those degrees only.

Reasonable doubt of which degree

Sec. 378. When two or more defendants are jointly indicted for a felony, any defendant requiring it, must be tried separately. In other cases defendants jointly prosecuted may be tried separately or jointly in the discretion of the court.

Separate trial of defendants

Sec. 379. When two or more persons are included in the same indictment, or information, the court may, at any time before the defendant has gone into his defense, on the application of the district attorney, direct any defendant to be discharged from the indictment or information, that he may be a witness for the people.

Discharging one of several defendants
before verdict

Sec. 380. When two or more persons are included in the same indictment or information, and the court is of opinion that in regard to a particular defendant there is not sufficient evidence to put him on his defense, it must order him to be discharged before the evidence is closed, that he may be a witness for his co-defendant. The order is an acquittal of the defendant discharged, and a bar to another prosecution for the same offense.

Same effect of discharge

Sec. 381. The rules of evidence in civil cases are applicable also to criminal cases, except as otherwise provided in this code.

Rules of
evidence, applicable in certain cases

Sec. 382. A confession of a defendant, whether in the course of judicial proceedings or to a private person, cannot be given in evidence against him when made under the influence of fear produced by threats, nor is it sufficient to warrant his conviction, without additional proof that the offense charged has been committed.

Confessions

Sec. 383. Upon a trial for treason, the defendant cannot be convicted unless upon the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or of one witness to one overt act, and another witness to a different overt act of the same treason. But if two or more distinct treasons of different kinds be alleged in the indictment, two witnesses to prove different treasons are not sufficient to warrant a conviction.

Evidence on trial for treason

- Same. Sec. 384. Upon a trial for treason evidence cannot be admitted of an overt act not expressly charged in the indictment; nor can the defendant be convicted unless one or more overt acts be expressly alleged therein.
- For conspiracy Sec. 385. Upon a trial for conspiracy, in case where an overt act is necessary to constitute the offense, the defendant cannot be convicted, unless one or more acts be expressly alleged in the indictment, nor unless one or more of the acts alleged be proved, but any other overt act, not alleged in the indictment, may be given in evidence.
- For rape Sec. 386. Proof of actual penetration into the body is sufficient to sustain an indictment for rape, or for the crime against nature.
- Testimony of accomplice Sec. 387. A conviction can not be had upon the testimony of an accomplice unless he be corroborated by such other evidence as tends to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense, and the corroboration is not sufficient if it merely show the commission of the offense, or the circumstances thereof.
- Trial for false pretences Sec. 388. Upon a trial for having, with intent to cheat or defraud another designedly by any false pretense, obtained the signature of any person to a written instrument, or having obtained from any person any money, personal property, or valuable thing, no evidence can be admitted of a false pretense expressed orally and unaccompanied by a false token or writing unless the pretense or some note or memorandum thereof, be in writing, either subscribed by, or in the handwriting of the defendant. But this section does not apply to a prosecution for falsely representing or personating another, and in such assumed character receiving money or property.
- Conviction, where had. Sec. 389. Upon a trial for inveigling, enticing, or taking away an unmarried female of previous chaste character, under the age of twenty-five years, for the purpose of prostitution, or aiding or assisting therein, or for having, under promise of marriage, seduced and had illicit connexion with an unmarried female of previous chaste character, the defendant can not be convicted upon the testimony of the person injured unless she is corroborated by other evidence tending to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense.

Sec. 390. If it appear by the testimony that the facts proved constitute an offense of a higher nature than that charged in the indictment or information, the court may direct the jury to be discharged, and all proceedings on the indictment to be suspended, and may order the defendant to be committed or continued on, or admitted to bail to answer any new indictment or information which may be found against him for the higher offense.

If testimony show higher offense

Sec. 391. If a new prosecution be not commenced for the higher offense at or before the next term, the court must again proceed to try the defendant on the original indictment.

If new
found

Sec. 392. The court may direct the jury to be discharged, where it appears that it has not jurisdiction of the offense, or that the fact as charged in the indictment or information do not constitute an offense punishable by law.

Court may discharge jury

Sec. 393. If the jury be discharged because the court has not jurisdiction of the offense charged in the indictment or information, and it appears that it was committed out of the jurisdiction of this Territory, the court may order the defendant to be discharged, or to be detained for a reasonable time specified in the order, until a communication can be sent by the district attorney to the chief executive officer of the State, Territory, or district, where the offense was committed.

Proceedings if jury discharged

Sec. 394. If the offense were committed within the exclusive jurisdiction of another county of this Territory, the court must direct the defendant to be committed for such time as it deems reasonable to await a warrant from the proper county for his arrest, or if the offense be a misdemeanor only, it may admit him to bail in an undertaking, with sufficient sureties, that he will, within such time as the court may appoint, render himself amenable to a warrant for his arrest from the proper county, and if not sooner arrested thereon, will attend at the office of the sheriff of the county where the trial was had, at a time particularly specified in the undertaking, to surrender himself upon the warrant, if issued, or that his bail will forfeit such sum as the court may fix, and to be mentioned in the undertaking.

Proceedings in such case

Sec. 395. In the case provided for in the last section the clerk must forthwith transmit a certified copy of the indictment or information, and of all the papers in the action, filed with him, to the district attorney of the proper county, the expenses of which transmission is chargeable to that county.

If defendant be not arrested as provided

Sec. 396. If the defendant be not arrested, as provided in section 394, on a warrant from the proper county, he must be discharged from custody, or his bail in the action be exonerated, or money deposited instead of bail refunded, as the case may be; and the sureties in the undertaking mentioned in that section must be discharged.

If he be arrested same proceedings

Sec. 397. If he be arrested, the same proceedings must be had thereon as upon the arrest of a defendant in another county, on a warrant of arrest issued by a magistrate.

If jury be discharged &c.

Sec. 398. If the jury be discharged because the facts as charged do not constitute an offense punishable by law, the court must order that the defendant, if in custody, be discharged therefrom, or if admitted to bail, that his bail be exonerated, or if he have deposited money instead of bail, that the money deposited be refunded to him, unless in its opinion a new indictment or information can be framed, upon which the defendant can be legally convicted, in which case it may direct that the case be re-submitted to the same or another grand jury, or in case of misdemeanor to the district attorney of the proper county.

Court may advise acquittal

Sec. 399. If, at any time after the evidence on either side is closed, the court deem it insufficient to warrant a conviction, it may advise the jury to acquit the defendant. But the jury are not bound by the advice; nor can the court, for any cause, prevent the jury from giving a verdict.

When it is proper that jury should view the place where offense is charged to have been committed

Sec. 400. When, in the opinion of the court, it is proper that the jury should view the place in which the offense is charged to have been committed, or in which any other material fact occurred, it may order the jury to be conducted in a body, in the custody of proper officers, to the place, which must be shown to them by a judge of the court, or by a person appointed by the court for that purpose.

No one suffered to speak to jury

Sec. 401. The officers must be sworn to suffer no person to speak to or communicate with the jury, nor to do so themselves, on any subject connected with the trial, and to return them into court without unnecessary delay, or at a specified time.

Sec. 402. If a juror have any personal knowledge respecting a fact in controversy in a cause, he must declare it in open court, during the trial. If, during the retirement of the jury, a juror declare a fact, which could be evidence in the cause, as of his own knowledge, the jury must return into court. In either of these cases, the juror making the statement must be sworn as a witness and examined in the presence of the parties.

Knowledge of juror to be declared in court

Sec. 403. The jurors sworn to try an indictment or information may, at any time before the submission of the cause to the jury, in the discretion of the court, be permitted to separate, or be kept in charge of proper officers. The officers must be sworn to keep the jurors together until the next meeting of the court, to suffer no person to speak to or communicate with them, nor to do so themselves, on any subject connected with the trial, and to return them into court at the next meeting thereof.

Jurors may be permitted to separate, oath of officers

Sec. 404. The jury must also, at each adjournment of the court, whether permitted to separate or kept in charge of officers, be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse among themselves, or to form or express any opinion thereon, until the case is finally submitted to them.

Jurors not to converse together on the subject of the trial

Sec. 405. If, before the conclusion of the trial, a juror become sick, so as to be unable to perform his duty, the court may order him to be discharged. In that case a new juror may be sworn, and the trial begin anew, or the jury may be discharged, and a new jury then or afterwards impaneled. With the consent of defendant the trial may proceed with the remaining jurors.

When juror becomes unable to perform duty

Sec. 406. The court must decide all questions of law which arise in the course of the trial.

Court to decide questions of law

Sec. 407. On the trial for libel, the jury have the right to determine the law and the fact.

On trial for libel

Sec. 408. On the trial of an indictment or information for any other offense than libel, questions of law are to be decided by the court, saving the right of the defendant to except questions of fact by the jury. And although the jury have the power to find a general verdict, they are bound, nevertheless, to receive as law what is laid down as such by the court.

In charging jury, court to state what

Sec. 409. In charging the jury, the court must state to them all matters of law which it thinks necessary for their information in giving their verdict; and if it present the facts of the case, must in addition to what it may deem its duty to say, inform the jury that they are the exclusive judges of all questions of fact.

Jury may decide —when

Sec. 410. After hearing the charge, the jury may either decide in court, or may retire for deliberation. If they do not agree without retiring, one or more officers must be sworn, to keep them together in some private and convenient place, without food or drink, except bread and water, unless otherwise ordered by the court; and not to permit any person to speak to or communicate with them, nor do so themselves, unless it be by order of the court, or to ask them whether they have agreed upon a verdict, and to return them into court when they have so agreed, or when ordered by the court.

When defendant on bail, appears for trial

Sec. 411. When a defendant, who has given bail, appears for trial, the court may, in its discretion, at any time after his appearance for trial, order him to be committed to the custody of the proper officer of the county, to abide the judgment or further order of the court; and he must be committed and held in custody accordingly.

CHAPTER II.

CONDUCT OF THE JURY AFTER THE CAUSE IS SUBMITTED TO THEM.

Section 412. Room and accommodations for the jury after retirement, how provided.

413. Accommodations for the jury, when kept together during the trial, or after retirement.

414, 415. What papers the jury may take with them.

416. May return into court for information.

417. If, after retirement a juror becomes sick or unable to act, the jury to be discharged.

Section 418. Not to be discharged in any other case, unless there is no reasonable probability that they can agree.

419. When the jury discharged or prevented from giving a verdict, cause to be again tried.

420. Court may be adjourned during the absence of jury, as to other business, but deemed open till verdict rendered or jury discharged.

421. Final adjournment of court discharges jury.

Sec. 412. A room must be provided by the board of commissioners of the county, [or if the trial be in a city court, by the corporate authorities of the city] for the use of the jury, upon their retirement for deliberation, with suitable furniture, fuel, lights and stationery. If the supervisors or corporate authorities neglect, the court may order the sheriff to do so; and the expenses incurred by him in carrying the order into effect, when certified by the court, are a county charge.

Room for jury after retirement, how provided

Sec. 413. While the jury are kept together, either during the progress of the trial or after their retirement for deliberation, they must be provided by the sheriff, upon the order of the court, at the expense of the county, with suitable and sufficient food.

Accommodations for jury &c.

Sec. 414. Upon retiring for deliberation, the jury may take with them all papers [except depositions,] which have been received as evidence in the cause, or copies of such parts of public records or private documents, given in evidence, as ought not, in the opinion of the court, to be taken from the person having them in possession.

Jury may take what papers

Sec. 415. The jury may also take with them notes of the testimony or other proceedings on the trial, taken by themselves or any of them, but none taken by any other person.

Same

Sec. 416. After the jury have retired for deliberation, if there be a disagreement between them as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed of a point of law arising in the cause, they must require the officer to conduct them into court. Upon their being brought into court, the information required must be given in the presence of, or after notice to, the district attorney and the defendant or his counsel.

May return into court for information

If after retirement a juror becomes sick

Sec. 417. If, after the retirement of the jury, one of them become so sick as to prevent the continuance of his duty, or any other accident or cause occur to prevent their being kept together for deliberation, the jury may be discharged.

Not to be discharged, unless

Sec. 418. Except as provided in the last section, the jury cannot be discharged after the cause is submitted to them until they have agreed upon their verdict, and rendered it in open court, unless by the consent of both parties entered upon the minutes, or unless, at the expiration of such time as the court deems proper, it satisfactorily appear that there is no reasonable probability that the jury can agree.

When discharged or prevented from giving verdict

Sec. 419. In all cases where a jury are discharged, or prevented from giving a verdict, by reason of an accident or other cause, except where the defendant is discharged from the indictment or information during the progress of the trial, or after the cause is submitted to them, the cause may be again tried at the same or another term as the court may direct.

Court may adjourn during absence of jury &c.

Sec. 420. While the jury are absent the court may adjourn from time to time as to other business; but it is nevertheless deemed open for every purpose connected with the cause submitted to them, until a verdict is rendered or the jury discharged.

Final adjournment discharges jury

Sec. 421. A final adjournment of the court discharges the jury.

CHAPTER III.

THE VERDICT.

Section 422. When the jury have agreed, to be brought into court and their names called, If all do not appear, jury to be discharged and cause again tried.

423. In felony, defendant must be present. In misdemeanor, verdict may be rendered in his absence.

424. Manner of taking the verdict.

425. Verdict may be general or special.

426. General verdict.

427. Special verdict.

428, 429. Special verdict, how rendered.

430. Special verdict, how brought to argument.

Section 431. Judgment thereon.

432. When special verdict defective, new trial to be ordered.
433. Upon indictment or information for offense consisting of different degrees, jury may convict of any degree, or of an attempt to commit the offense.
434. In other cases, jury may convict of any offense necessarily included in that charged.
435. On indictment or information against several, jury may render a verdict as to some, and the cause be again tried as to the others.
- 436, 437. In what cases court may direct a reconsideration of the verdict.
438. When judgment may be given upon an informal verdict.
439. Polling the jury.
440. Recording the verdict.
441. Defendant, when to be discharged or detained after acquittal.
442. Proceedings upon general verdict of conviction or a special verdict.
443. When defendant acquitted on the ground of insanity, the fact to be stated with the verdict. Commitment of defendant to territorial lunatic asylum.

Sec. 422. When the jury have agreed upon their verdict, they must be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge. Their names must then be called, and if all do not appear, the rest must be discharged without giving a verdict. In that case the cause must be again tried, at the same or another term.

When jury have agreed to be brought into court &c.

Sec. 423. If the indictment be for a felony, the defendant must, before the verdict is received, appear in person. If it be for a misdemeanor, the verdict may be rendered in his absence.

In felony

Sec. 424. If the jury appear, they must be asked, by the court or the clerk, whether they have agreed upon their verdict; and if the foreman answers in the affirmative, they must, on being required, declare the same.

Manner of taking verdict

Sec. 425. The jury may either render a general verdict, or where they are in doubt as to the legal effect of the facts

May be general or special proved, they may, except upon an indictment for libel, find a special verdict.

General verdict Sec. 426. A general verdict upon a plea of not guilty, is either "guilty" or "not guilty:" which imports a conviction or acquittal of the offense charged in the indictment. Upon a plea of a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense, it is either "for the people," or "for the defendant."

Special verdict Sec. 427. A special verdict is that by which the jury find the facts only, leaving the judgment to the court. It must present the conclusions of fact, as established by the evidence to prove them; find [and] the conclusions of fact must be so presented as that nothing remains to the court but to draw conclusions of law upon them.

Special verdict, how rendered Sec. 428. The special verdict must be reduced to writing by the jury, or in their presence, entered upon the minutes of the court, read to the jury, and agreed to by them before they are discharged.

Same Sec. 429. The special verdict need not be in any particular form, but is sufficient if it presents intelligibly the facts found by the jury.

How argument to be brought Sec. 430. The special verdict may be brought to argument by either party, upon two days notice to the other, at the same or another term of the court.

Judgment thereon Sec. 431. The court must find judgment upon the special verdict as follows :

1, If the plea be not guilty, and the facts prove the defendant guilty of the offense charged in the indictment or information, or of any other offense of which he could be convicted under the indictment or information as provided in sections 433 and 434, judgment must be given accordingly; but if otherwise judgment of acquittal must be given;

2, If the plea be a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense, the court must give judgment of conviction or acquittal, according as the facts prove or fail to prove the former conviction or acquittal.

When special verdict defective new trial to be ordered Sec. 432. If the jury do not, in a special verdict, pronounce affirmatively or negatively on the facts necessary to enable the court to give judgment, if they find the evidence of facts merely, and not the conclusions of fact from the evidence, as established to their satisfaction, the court must order a new trial.

Sec. 433. Upon an indictment or information for an offense consisting of different degrees, the jury may find the defendant not guilty of the degree charged in the indictment, and guilty of any degree inferior thereto, or of an attempt to commit the offense.

Upon indictment for offense of different degrees

Sec. 434. In all other cases, the defendant may be found guilty of any offense, the commission of which is necessarily included in that with which he is charged in the indictment or information.

In other cases

Sec. 435. On an indictment or information against several, if the jury cannot agree upon a verdict as to all, they may render a verdict as to those in regard to whom they do agree, on which a judgment must be entered accordingly, and the case as to the rest may be tried by another jury.

On indictment against several

Sec. 436. When there is a verdict of conviction, in which it appears to the court, that the jury have mistaken the law, the court may explain the reason for that opinion, and direct the jury to reconsider their verdict; and if, after the reconsideration, they return the same verdict, it must be entered. But when there is a verdict of acquittal, the court cannot require the jury to reconsider it.

In what cases court may direct a reconsideration

Sec. 437. If the jury render a verdict which is neither a general or a special verdict as defined in sections 426 and 427 the court may, with proper instructions as to the law, direct them to reconsider it; and it cannot be recorded until it be rendered in some form from which it can be clearly understood what is the intent of the jury, whether to render a general verdict, or to find the facts specially, and to leave the judgment to the court.

Same

Sec. 438. If the jury persist in finding an informal verdict, from which, however, it can be clearly understood that their intention is to find in favor of the defendant, upon the issue, it must be entered in the terms in which it is found, and the court must give judgment of acquittal. But no judgment of conviction can be given unless the jury expressly find against the defendant upon the issue, or judgment be given against him on a special verdict.

Judgment upon informal verdict

Polling the jury Sec. 439. When a verdict is rendered, and before it is recorded, the jury may be polled on the requirement of either party; in which case, they must be severally asked whether it is their verdict, and if any one answer in the negative, the jury must be sent out for further deliberation.

Recording verdict Sec. 440. When the verdict is given, and is such as the court may receive, the clerk must immediately record it in full upon the minutes, and must read it to the jury and inquire of them whether it is their verdict. If any juror disagree, the fact must be entered upon the minutes, and the jury again sent out, but if no disagreement be expressed, the verdict is complete, and the jury must be discharged from the case.

Defendant when to be discharged or detained Sec. 441. If the judgment of acquittal be given on a general verdict, and the defendant be not detained for any other legal cause, he must be discharged as soon as the judgment is given; except that when the acquittal is for a variance between the proof and the indictment, which may be obviated by a new indictment, the court may order his detention to the end that a new indictment may be preferred, in the same manner and with the like effect, as provided in section 398.

Proceedings upon general or special verdict Sec. 442. If a general verdict be rendered against the defendant, or a special verdict be given, he must be remanded, if in custody, or if on bail he may be committed to the proper officer of the county, to await the judgment of the court upon the verdict. When committed, his bail is exonerated, or if money be deposited instead of bail, it must be refunded to the defendant.

On ground of insanity Sec. 443. If the defense be the insanity of the defendant, the jury must be instructed, if they acquit him on that ground, to state that fact with their verdict. The court may thereupon, if the defendant be in custody, and they deem his discharge dangerous to the public peace or safety, order him to be committed to the care of the sheriff, until he becomes sane.

OF THE PROCEEDINGS AFTER TRIAL, AND BEFORE JUDGMENT.

Chapter I. Bill of exceptions.

II. New trials.

III. Arrest of judgment.

CHAPTER I.

BILL OF EXCEPTIONS.

Section 444. In what cases.

445. By whom settled, and how filed.

446. To be settled at the trial, or the point noted in writing.

447, 448. When and how settled after the trial.

449. Enlarging the time therefor.

450. Effect of not serving exceptions or amendments within the time prescribed.

451. What to be contained in bill of exceptions.

court upon a matter of law by which his substantial rights are prejudiced, and not otherwise, in any of the following cases:

1, In disallowing a challenge to the panel of the jury, or to an individual juror for implied bias;

2, In admitting or rejecting witnesses or testimony, or in charging the triers on the trial of a challenge to a juror for actual bias;

3, In admitting or rejecting witnesses or testimony, or in deciding any question of law, not a matter of discretion, or in charging or instructing the jury upon the law, on the trial of the issue.

Sec. 445. A bill containing the exceptions must be settled and signed by the presiding judge, and filed with the clerk.

Sec. 447. If the bill of exceptions be not settled at the trial, it must be prepared and served within three days thereafter, on the district attorney, who may, within three days thereafter serve on the defendant or his counsel, amendments thereto. The defendant may then, within three days, serve the district attorney with a notice to appear before the presiding judge of the court, at a specified time, not less than five, nor more than ten days thereafter, to have the bill of exceptions settled.

Effect of not serving
exceptions

Sec. 450. If the bill of exceptions be not served within the time prescribed in section 447, or within the enlarged time therefor, as prescribed in the last section, the exceptions are deemed abandoned. If it be served and the parties omit, within the time limited by section 447, the one to prepare amendments, and the other to give notice of appearance before the judge, they are respectively deemed, the one to have agreed to the bill of exceptions, and the other to the amendments.

458. Court to prescribe time and manner of making the application.

Sec. 453. A new trial is a re-examination of the issue in the same court, before another jury, after a verdict has been given. New trial defined

Sec. 454. A new trial can be granted by the court in which the former trial was had, only in the cases provided in section 456. By what court granted

Sec. 455. The granting of a new trial places the parties in the same position as if no trial had been had. All the testimony must be produced anew; and the former verdict can not be used or referred to, either in evidence or in argument. Its effect

Sec. 456. The court in which a new trial is had upon an issue or fact, has power to grant a new trial, when a verdict has been rendered against the defendant by which his substantial rights have been prejudiced, upon his application, in the following cases: In what cases granted

1, When the trial has been had in his absence, if the indictment be for a felony;

2, When the jury has received any evidence out of court other than that resulting from a view, as provided in section 400;

3, When the jury have separated without leave of the court, after retiring to deliberate upon their verdict, or been guilty of any misconduct by which a fair and due consideration of the case has been prevented;

4, When the verdict has been decided by lot, or by any means other than a fair expression of opinion on the part of all the jurors;

5, When the court has mis-directed the jury in a matter of law, or has refused to instruct them ;

6, When the verdict is contrary to law or evidence. But no more than two new trials can be granted for this cause alone.

ARREST OF JUDGMENT.

Section 459. Motion in arrest of judgment defined, and upon what defects founded.

460. Court may arrest judgment without motion.

461. Motion, when and how made.

462. Effect of arresting the judgment.

463. Defendant when to be held or discharged.

Motion in arrest
of judgment

Sec. 459. A motion in arrest of judgment is an application on the part of the defendant, that no judgment be rendered on a plea or verdict of guilty, or on a verdict against the defendant on a plea of a former conviction or acquittal. It may be founded on any of the defects in the indictment or information mentioned in section 296.

Court may arrest
judgment

Sec. 460. The court may also, on its own view of any of these defects, arrest the judgment without motion.

Motion, when
and how made

Sec. 461. The motion must be made before or at the time when the defendant is called for judgment. If made before, it must be on notice to the district attorney, or in his presence.

Effect of

Sec. 462. The effect of allowing a motion in arrest of judgment is to place the defendant in the same situation in which he was before the indictment or information was found.

Defendant when held or discharged

Sec. 463. If, from the evidence on the trial there is reasonable ground to believe the defendant guilty, and a new indictment or information can be framed upon which he may be convicted, the court may order him to be re-committed to the officer of the proper county, or admitted to bail anew to answer the new indictment or information. The person who offers to pay the amount due on any parcel of land for the smallest portion of the same, is to be considered the highest bidder, and when such a portion constitutes a half or more, of the parcel, it is to be taken from the east side thereof, dividing it by a line running north and south, except that town lots are to be divided, in such case, lengthwise by a parallel with the proper lines of the lots. If the portion taken be less than one-half of the parcel, it is to be taken from the south east corner, in a square form as nearly as the form of the land will conveniently permit.

The preceding provisions of this section are subject to the following qualifications :

The homestead is liable to be sold for no tax save that which is due upon itself exclusively, and the above directions concerning the division of a tract of land, shall be modified so as to meet this requirement; and to that end, the quantity of land bid may be obtained by drawing the division line in any direction or form, so as to avoid the homestead, and when the homestead constitutes a part of the tract or parcel sold, and is not yet ascertained, the court may in the action hereafter authorized, at the suggestion of either party, cause proceedings to be had similar to that required in relation to mechanics' liens, for the ascertainment of the homestead. And in all other cases of such sales, it may take the requisite order and proceedings to ascertain the land sold, and to set apart from the homestead.

Sec. 61. Should any person so bidding fail to pay the amount due, the treasurer may again offer land for sale if the sale has not closed, and if it has closed, he may again advertise it specially and by description, by one written or printed notice, posted for two weeks on the door of the court house or place where courts are usually held, after which it may be sold at public sale; or the treasurer may recover the amount by civil action, brought in the name of the county in which the sale was held.

The purchaser acquires the lien of the tax on the land, and if he subsequently pay any taxes levied on the same, whether levied for any year or years previous or subsequent to such sale, he shall have same lien for them, and may add them to the amount paid by him in the purchase, and the treasurer shall make out a tax receipt and duplicate for the taxes on the real estate mentioned in such certificate, the same as in other cases, and shall write thereon, "sold for tax at public sale."

CAPITOL BUILDING.

NUMBER 3.

A MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS PRAYING FOR AN APPROPRIATION TO ERECT A CAPITOL
BUILDING IN DAKOTA TERRITORY.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress Assembled :

Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, again respectfully ask that an appropriation be made by your honorable bodies for the erection of a Capitol Building at the seat of government of said Territory, and urge in support of this memorial,

Appropriation for capitol
building

That the building now used and occupied by the Legislative Assembly is wholly unsuitable and unfit for such a purpose.

That said building, and those used by the several federal officers of this Territory, are rented of private individuals, and are wooden tenements, in all respects unsafe, and liable at any time to be destroyed by fire together with their valuable contents.

That the legislative, executive, and judicial records, files, libraries, furniture, and other valuables, are, at all times, in consequence, liable to injury and total destruction, and we regard their preservation of vital importance to our Territory.

That the rent now paid, (which must increase as the value of property increases) for the several offices: the Executive's, the Secretary's, the Surveyor General's, the Marshal's, the U. S. Attorney's, and the U. S. Court Room and Legislative Halls, would, in a very few years, pay the expense of erecting a suitable building for the accommodation of the various federal officers and the Legislative Assembly, and therefore the expenditure of a sum sufficient for that purpose would be absolute economy.

Your memorialists regard this matter of great importance to Dakota; and would therefore most earnestly pray that an appropriation of not less than forty thousand dollars be made for the purpose above stated.

And your memorialists will, as in duty bound, ever pray.

CODIFICATION OF LAWS.

NUMBER 4.

A MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS PRAYING FOR AN APPROPRIATION TO CODIFY THE LAWS OF DAKOTA TERRITORY.

*To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of
the United States in Congress Assembled:*

Memorial to codify the laws

Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, would respectfully represent that the laws of Dakota, enacted since the first Legislature, are in a state of confusion, so much so that it is almost impossible to tell what laws are in force and effect, and what laws are repealed or rendered void by subsequent legislation. The laws now on our statute books are the enactments of seven legislatures. Until the laws are codified, this uncertainty will continue and increase.

Your memorialists would further recommend and pray that an appropriation be made by Congress of eight thousand dollars to compensate a commission of competent persons to codify and revise the laws of this Territory, or that such an amount may be appropriated for such codification and revision as to your honorable bodies shall seem proper. Memorial to codify the laws.

And your memorialists would further recommend and ask that the Secretary of this Territory be authorized to employ such persons as in his judgment are qualified to perform the duties of such commission of revision and to pay a reasonable compensation to the persons so employed, and also to pay the expenses of printing, &c., &c.

Resolved, That our Delegate in Congress be respectfully requested to bring the subject of this memorial to the immediate attention of Congress, and use all honorable means to bring about the asked for appropriation.

Approved, Jan. 15, 1869.

FORT RANDALL RESERVATION.

NUMBER 5.

A MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS ASKING FOR THE SURVEY OF THE VACATED PORTION OF THE FORT RANDALL MILITARY RESERVATION.

To the Honorable Congress of the United States:

Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, most respectfully represent, that by an order of General Grant, dated 1868, all that portion of the Fort

Survey of the Fort Randall military reserve.

Survey of the Fort Randall
military reserve

Randall Military Reserve lying west of the Yankton Sioux Reservation and north of the Missouri river was vacated and thrown open to settlement, and that the said tract of land now contains one of the most thriving farming settlements in this Territory, many of the residents of which had located upon the said lands, built their homes and opened their fields prior to the establishment of said military reserve in 1860.

Your memorialists would further represent that all the public lands lying to the north and west of said vacated tract for a distance of thirty miles have been surveyed and subdivided into sections, and that the Surveyor General of this district cannot direct the survey of this settled portion of the vacated reserve until authorized by Congress to expend a portion of the moneys appropriated for public surveys in surveying and subdividing this particular tract of land.

Your memorialists would therefore most respectfully petition your honorable bodies to authorize the Commissioner of the General Land Office by special act to direct the immediate survey of said lands in order that the worthy and industrious settlers located thereon may be permitted to perfect the titles to their farms under the Pre-emption and Homestead acts of Congress, the same as is allowed to other citizens of the Territory.

And your memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Approved, Jan 12. 1869.

GOVERNOR OF DAKOTA.

NUMBER 6.

A MEMORIAL TO HIS EXCELLENCY U. S. GRANT,
PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, REQUESTING THE APPOINTMENT OF HON. W. W. BROOKINGS TO THE OFFICE OF GOVERNOR OF DAKOTA TERRITORY.

To the President of the United States :

Your memorialists the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, would most respectfully request your Excellency to appoint Hon. W. W. Brookings of Yankton, Dakota Territory, to the office of Governor of said Territory.

Memorial for the appointment of
W. W. Brookings
Governor of Dakota

His appointment would meet with the cordial approval of the people of Dakota.

Mr. Brookings is one of our earliest settlers, a man of honesty and integrity, and in every way qualified for the position to which your memorialists ask his appointment.

And your memorialists as in duty bound will ever pray.

INDIANS.

NUMBER 7.

A MEMORIAL AND JOINT RESOLUTION TO THE
HON. SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR, ASKING
RELIEF FOR CERTAIN BANDS OF DESTITUTE
INDIANS.

To the Hon. Secretary of the Interior :

Memorial for the relief of destitute
Indians.

Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, respectfully represent that the condition of the Yankton and Lower Brule bands of Sioux Indians is such that some immediate steps for their relief ought to be taken, they being in an almost starving condition, and that if some assistance is not provided for them, they will, before the present winter closes be driven for want of food, to acts of lawlessness, or be reduced to a state of starvation upon their treaty reservations.

Your memorialists represent that these bands of Indians are among the most deserving of all the Sioux nation, having since located upon their present reservations been peaceable and quiet, and having made commendable progress in agriculture; and further, that these two bands have received but slight aid from the means placed by Congress at the disposal of Gen. Sherman, and that almost all kinds of wild game upon which they have heretofore mainly relied for subsistence through winter seasons having disappeared from their region of country, they must rely upon your department of the government for provisions to help them through the winter.

And, as in duty bound, your memorialists will ever pray.

Resolved, That a copy of this memorial, properly authenticated, be forwarded immediately after its passage to the Hon. Secretary of the Interior, by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Approved, Jan. 15, 1869:

NUMBER 8.

A MEMORIAL TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE
UNITED STATES, RELATIVE TO THE PEMBINA
INDIANS.

To His Excellency, the President of the United States :

Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, would most respectfully represent, that the lands in this Territory on the west side of the Red River of the North, ceded to the United States in 1863, by the Red Lake and Pembina bands of Chippewa Indians, are still occupied by said Pembina band; and that the occupation of said land by said Indians is a great nuisance to the settlements on the Pembina River, and also retards the establishment and growth of new settlements on the ceded land.

Relative to the
Pembina
Indians.

Your memorialists therefore pray that said Pembina band be removed from the ceded land, and without the limits of Pembina county, agreeable to the stipulations of said treaty.

And your memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Approved, Dec. 29, 1868.

LAND DISTRICT.

NUMBER 9.

A MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS ASKING FOR THE ERECTION OF AN ADDITIONAL LAND DISTRICT
ON THE MISSOURI RIVER IN DAKOTA TER-RITORY.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress Assembled :

For a Land
District on the
Missouri river

Your memorialists the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota would most respectfully represent that there is at present but one land district in said Territory, which is defined by the Organic Act of Dakota as including all land "west of its eastern boundary and east and north of the Niobrara or Running Water river."

That the United States surveys of the public lands in Dakota have already been made nearly one hundred miles west of what is generally acknowledged to be the western boundary of the Yankton land district; that much of said lands along the Missouri river is already occupied by industrious settlers, who have here made their homes and who are already anxious to secure from the government the title to the lands upon which they reside, while the remaining of the beautiful lands on the Missouri river, and not properly included within the limits of any land district are being rapidly settled upon and claimed by emigrants, who are constantly flocking to our western frontier.

Your memorialists would therefore humbly yet earnestly pray, that an additional land district on the Missouri river be created and established to include the following :

All that portion of Dakota Territory lying west of the line between range 61 and 62 west of the fifth principal meridian and south of the line between townships 130 and 131, north of the base line.

For a Land
District on the
Missouri river

And your memorialists further pray, that there may be a land office located and established at the county seat of Charles Mix county in said District.

And as in duty bound your memorialists will ever pray.

Approved, Jan. 12, 1869.

LAND OFFICE.

NUMBER 10.

A MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS RELATIVE TO A UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE IN THE VALLEY OF THE RED RIVER OF THE NORTH.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress Assembled:

Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, would most respectfully represent.

For a Land
Office on the Red River of
the North

1, That that portion of Dakota Territory, known as the "Red River Valley," bounded on the north by the Hudson Bay Company's possessions, in British America, and on the east by the Red River of the North,—has a population of over two thousand.

For a Land
Office on the Red River of
the North

2, That said Red River country (in Dakota), is traversed by the Pembina, Park, Salt, Turtle, Goose, Elm, Sheyenne, and Wild Rice rivers, and their numerous tributaries, which streams are well timbered with white oak, ash, maple, lynn, elm, &c., and water a country over two hundred miles long, by from forty to sixty miles wide.

3, That new settlements are being established, which, by the tide of immigration, must within a few years spread over that entire country, from Fort Abercrombie to the British line.

4, That many of the citizens of Pembina county are entitled each to one hundred and sixty acres of land, under the treaty of 1863 and 1864, between the United States and the Red Lake and Pembina bands of Chippewa Indians.

5, The Pembina settlements are by a direct line over four hundred miles from the only U. S. Land Office within this Territory, and as there is no direct line of travel between said settlements and Vermillion, on the Missouri River, (the location of the present Land Office), in order to secure title to their grants, pre-emptions, or homesteads, the people of said settlements are required to travel through a great portion of Minnesota, Iowa, as well as this Territory, a distance of over one thousand miles, at an expense equal, or greater than the value of their claims at one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre.

For the reasons briefly above stated, your memorialists most respectfully pray that a land district be established as follows:

Commencing at the intersection of parallel of latitude 49° north, with the Red River of the North; thence up the center of the main channel of said river to its intersection with the line between townships 130 and 131 north of the base line; thence west on said line to its intersection with parallel of longitude 27° west from Washington; thence north on said parallel of longitude 27° to its intersection with the parallel of latitude 49° north; thence east on said parallel of latitude 49° to the place of beginning.

And your memorialists further pray that there may be a Land Office, with a register and receiver, located at some suitable point in the said Pembina settlements.

And your memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Approved, Dec. 29, 1868.

MAIL SERVICE.

NUMBER 11.

MEMORIAL TO HON. ALEXANDER W. RANDALL,
POST MASTER GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES, PRAYING TO HAVE A WEEKLY MAIL
ROUTE ESTABLISHED BETWEEN VERMILLION
AND BLOOMINGDALE, CLAY COUNTY, DAKOTA TERRITORY.

Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, would most respectfully represent that at present there are but three post offices in Clay county in this Territory, one at Green Point, one at Vermillion, and the other at Lincoln; that all of the offices are on the United States military road.

For a mail
route from Vermillion to
Bloomingdale

That during the past year the greater number of new settlers that have come into the county, have settled on the Vermillion river and that every quarter section of land has been taken between Vermillion and Bloomingdale, and actual settlers have occupied and improved the same.

That all these settlers are without any mail facilities and in order to obtain their letters and papers they have to go to Vermillion, a distance of ten miles, which occupies much valuable time and is a course of much trouble and great inconvenience.

That the road between Vermillion and Bloomingdale, ten miles, is in good condition nearly the whole year and a mail route between these places could be established very cheap; that Vermillion is the county seat of Clay county and that there has been erected at Bloomingdale during the past summer a grist mill, a hotel, and in spring there will be a number of other business houses erected there.

For a mail
route from Vermillion to
Bloomingdale

Therefore your memorialists the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota would most urgently ask for the immediate establishment of a weekly mail between the above mentioned places.

And your memorialists will ever pray.

Approved, Dec. 18, 1868.

RAILROADS.

NUMBER 12.

A MEMORIAL TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES PRAYING FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE SIOUX CITY AND PACIFIC RAILROAD TO YANKTON, DAKOTA TERRITORY.

For the extension of the Sioux City and
Pacific rail road

Your memorialists the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota respectfully but earnestly pray your honorable bodies to pass an act, giving and granting, to the Sioux City and Pacific railroad company, for the purpose of constructing and extending the Sioux City and Pacific railroads from Sioux City, Iowa, to Yankton, Dakota Territory, via Elk Point and Vermillion, a distance of sixty miles, all and equal grants of land bonds, donations, rights, privileges and franchises, as were given and granted to said Sioux City and Pacific railroad company, to build and construct a railroad from Sioux City, to Fremont, Nebraska.

Provided, Said Sioux City and Pacific railroad company shall be obligated to build ten miles of said road, in one year from the reception of the grant and complete the whole road to Yankton, in two years from the reception of said grant.

For the extension of the Sioux City and Pacific rail road.

Resolved, That our Delegate in Congress be requested to call the attention of Congress to the prayer of this memorial, and use all honorable means for its success.

NUMBER 13.

A MEMORIAL TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, PRAYING FOR A GRANT OF LAND TO AID IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF A RAILROAD FROM YANKTON, DAKOTA TERRITORY, TO COLUMBUS, IN THE STATE OF NEBRASKA.

Your memorialists the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota would most respectfully pray your honorable bodies to grant alternate sections of land to the amount of not less than five miles on each side of the Yankton and Columbus railroad, to the Yankton and Columbus railroad company, or to the State of Nebraska for the purpose of building and constructing a railroad from Yankton, Dakota Territory, to Columbus, on the Union and Pacific railroad. The distance is about one hundred miles over an excellent agricultural co[u]ntry, and the building of a railroad would add much to the development and wealth of northern Nebraska, and give Dakota a start outlet to the Union Pacific railroad.

For a grant of land for the Yankton and Columbus rail road.

Resolved, That our Delegate to the 40th and 41st Congress be requested to use all honorable means through the proper committees to bring the object of this memorial before both branches of Congress.

NUMBER 14.

A MEMORIAL TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES PRAYING FOR A GRANT OF LAND TO THE MINNESOTA AND MISSOURI RIVER RAILROAD COMPANY, TO AID IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF A RAILROAD FROM THE STATE OF MINNESOTA; TO THE MISSOURI RIVER, AT YANKTON.

For a grant of land to the Minnesota and Missouri river rail road company

Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota would most respectfully represent that by an act of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, approved, January 11th, 1867, a charter was granted to the Minnesota and Missouri river railroad company, to construct a railroad, from the western boundary of the State of Minnesota, in latitude 44 north to the town of Yankton on the Missouri river, believing as we do that a grant of land to aid in the construction of such a road would be a great benefit to the Territory and to the general Government in an early development of a rich agricultural country, that without it, it will ever remain undeveloped.

Your memorialists respectfully but earnestly pray your honorable bodies to grant every alternate section of land to the amount of not less than six miles on each side of the line of such road to aid in the construction thereof, and that such grant be made to said Minnesota and Missouri river railroad company, with the proper restrictions, limitations and forfeitures.

Your memorialists would further represent, that the distance from the western boundary line of Minnesota, to Yankton, over the proposed railroad route is about one hundred miles over a very fertile prairie, almost entirely destitute of timber and without any natural highway, for transportation, consequently uninhabitable until the capitalist shall correct this oversight of nature by the construction of artificial highways.

The population of Illinois now makes one fifteenth of that of the whole country. It now defrays one-fifteenth of the whole burdens of the general government. Its proportion of the federal taxes equal $24,000,000, annually. Its ability to pay this vast sum is almost entirely due to the railroads that have been constructed within it during the past fifteen years. Towards their construction the federal government never contributed a penny. It did however, in 1850 make a valuable grant to the State in favor of the Illinois Central railroad, which secured the speedy construction, of this great work, and gave a wonderful impulse to the construction of other important lines. The additional price charged for reserved lands yielded to the national treasury the same sum, that would have been realized if the grant had not been made. If by the use of similar means, you can create another Illinois, as far as concerns its population, wealth and value to the Union, you will in an equal degree lighten the burdens resting upon the Nation.

For a grant of land to the Minnesota and Missouri river rail road company

A vigorous movement in this direction, consequently is the dictate of sound statesmanship, as well as of enlightened self-interest.

Therefore your memorialists most earnestly urge upon your honorable bodies to repeat the example of Illinois, in Dakota, since it by no means impairs the federal government, but earnestly enhances the wealth of the Union as well as Dakota, by enabling us to construct artificial highways, since nature has failed to furnish us any great water lines, over which we can transport the products of a rich and fruitful country.

And as in duty bound your memorialists will ever pray.

Resolved, That our Delegate to the 40th and 41st Congress be requested to call the attention of the proper committees of Congress to the objects of this memorial.

REMOVAL OF FORT DAKOTA.

NUMBER 15.

A MEMORIAL TO THE SECRETARY OF WAR
PRAYING THAT FORT DAKOTA MAY BE RE-MOVED SIXTY-FIVE MILES FURTHER UP THE BIG SIOUX RIVER.

For the removal of Fort Dakota

The Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, would most respectfully represent, that Fort Dakota, no longer serves as a protection to our frontier settlements on the Big Sioux river.

Therefore your memorialists ask that said Fort Dakota may be removed sixty-five miles north of its present location at a point known as Medary.

Resolved, That our Delegate in Congress is hereby requested, to present a copy of this Memorial to the Secretary of War, and urge upon him the necessity of the removal of said Fort Dakota to Medary on the Big Sioux river.

TRANSFER OF INDIAN BUREAU.

NUMBER 16.

A MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS PROTESTING AGAINST THE TRANSFER OF THE INDIAN BUREAU TO THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

To the Congress of the United States:

Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, desire most respectfully to present their objection to the transfer of the Indian Bureau from the civil to the Military Department of the Government.

Memorial protesting against the transfer of the Indian Bureau

1st. Your memorialists fully believe that it is susceptible of proof by documentary evidence on file in the proper departments of the Government at Washington, that it costs vastly less to feed, manage and care for the Indians (when not in a state of war,) by the civil than by the military arm of the Government.

In proof of this statement your memorialists beg leave to call your attention to the relative cost of maintaining the Indians on the Upper Missouri, and other quarters of the west and south-west, under the management of the military and civil service.

2d. Your memorialists would further represent; that according to their experience and observation the transferring of the management of Indians to the War Department, is not a step toward the advancement of that peculiar people in civilization; but, on the contrary, your memorialists believe it to be a wide stride in the very opposite direction. Such transfer, your memorialists are convinced, will greatly embarrass many of the tribes who have, since the treaties of 1865-6, settled upon reservations, opened farms, and made considerable advancement in civilized pursuits.

Memorial protesting against the transfer of the Indian Bureau

3rd. Your memorialists are happy to represent that since the treaties of 1865-6, peace and security have prevailed throughout our frontier settlements, and that, with a few exceptions by Upper Missouri bands, no treaty obligations have been violated by our numerous Indian tribes.

4th. Your memorialists deem it their duty to call your attention to the fact that the introduction among our treaty Indians of hostile bands, and the remarkable liberality with which said hostile bands have been provided for by the government, is a subject of surprise, and very grave complaint on the part of the treaty Indians. They cannot understand why those bands, who but recently were hostile to the government, and engaged in the indiscriminate slaughter of the white people, should be treated with far more liberality than those tribes who have been loyal to the government, and friendly to the white people for many years.

5th. And lastly, your memorialists beg leave to state that, in their opinion, a rigid enforcement of the laws of Congress, on the subject of intercourse with Indians, and a strict compliance with existing treaty stipulations on the part of the government, through honest, capable and efficient agents, is all that is needed to secure perfect peace and quiet throughout the length and breadth of the Indian country.

And in duty bound, your memorialists will ever pray.

WAGON ROADS.

Number 17.

A MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS FOR AN APPROPRIATION TO CONSTRUCT A WAGON ROAD FROM FORT ABERCROMBIE DOWN THE RED RIVER OF THE NORTH.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress Assembled :

Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, would most respectfully call your attention to the present great and increasing need of a wagon road from Fort Abercrombie, in this Territory, down the Red River of the North, to the Dakota Settlements on the Pembina river, and thence to parallel of latitude 49° north, in the direction of the "Selkirk," or Hudson's Bay Company's Red River Settlements.

For a wagon road down the Red River of the North.

Your memorialists would respectfully represent ;

1st. That, according to the official reports of the Collector of Customs at the port of Pembina, merchandise passing annually over this route, is inspected at said port, amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars, from which the United States Government derives a large revenue ; besides supplies for the American Settlements, (with a population of over two thousand) all the supplies the British Settlements, containing a population of from twelve to fifteen thousand, as well as supplies for the Hudson's Bay Company, and the numerous "Free Traders," are received at, or by way of the city of St. Paul, Minnesota, and pass over the route above mentioned. And all the vast amounts of furs, &c., imported from said British Settlements for consumption, or in bond for transshipment, are freighted over said route.

For a wagon
road down the Red River of
the North

2d. That this great thoroughfare between Fort Abercrombie and the Pembina Settlements, (about 200 miles) crosses eight streams, varying in width, from fifty to two hundred feet, over which the freighters annually have to throw temporary bridges, which are carried off by the first freshet, and hence the same stream is so bridged several times during one season, and

3rd. That the entire route passes over a level valley, and as nature has provided an excellent road, no appropriation will be required for any other purpose than to survey the road and bridge the streams.

Your memorialists therefore, do most respectfully pray that an appropriation be made in such sum as you, in your wisdom, may deem sufficient to survey and locate a Government Wagon Road from Fort Abercrombie in this Territory, down the Red River of the North, by the nearest and best route, to the Settlements on the Pembina river, and the 49th parallel of north latitude, and to bridge Cheyenne, Wild Rice, Elm, Goose, Turtle, Salt, Park, and Pembina rivers.

And your memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Approved, Jan. 6, 1868.

Number 18.

A MEMORIAL TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES ASKING FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A WAGON ROAD FROM YANKTON VIA CANTON, D. T., TO SPIRIT LAKE, IOWA.

For a wagon
road from Yankton to Spirit Lake

Your memorialists the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Dakota, respectfully ask your honorable bodies to authorize the survey and location of a wagon road from Yankton, D. T. to Spirit Lake, Iowa, via Canton, Dakota Territory, and for an appropriation to construct a bridge across the Big Sioux river, at or near the last named place. The location of such a road and the construction of a bridge thereon, across said river would open up to settlement a large extent of fertile country and would greatly accommodate and assist a large emigration that is now, and will continue to flow from the north-western states to this Territory.

For a wagon road from Yankton to Spirit Lake.

Your memorialists are of the opinion that an appropriation of eight thousand dollars would accomplish this desirable object, and would be returned to the government four fold by the increased amount of taxable property, and by the sale to actual settlers of large portion of the public lands, that will, unless some facilities by railroad or wagon roads are offered, remain for a long time unoccupied.

And your memorialists as in duty bound will ever pray.

Approved, Jan. 15, 1869.

Number 19.

JOINT RESOLUTION VACATING THE TERRITORIAL ROAD FROM YANKTON TO THE LOWER FERRY ON JAMES RIVER.

Whereas, All that portion of the government road which leads from Yankton to James river, together with the government bridge located on said James river, have both been relocated by order of the Secretary of the Interior, and moved some four miles north to the Upper Ferry on said James river, at which point the government bridge is now under course of construction.

Vacating road from Yankton to James river

And, Whereas, by an act of the Legislature approved, Jan. 12, 1866, there was located upon the surveyed route of said government road, a territorial road in accordance with the field notes of said government road from James river to Yankton.

And, Whereas, The Missouri river has already washed away a considerable portion of said road, and the whole of the said road being located upon the Missouri bottom, and at times made

Vacating road
from Yankton to James river

impassable by the spring overflows, which necessitates the expenditure of a large amount of county road work to keep the same in repair.

And, Whereas, There is now an established county road on the section line one-fourth mile north of, and running parallel to, said road proposed to be vacated, which meets all the demands of travel in that direction, therefore

Be it Resolved, By the Legislative Asssembly of the Territory of Dakota, that all that portion of the said territorial road lying between Yankton, and the intersede of the aforementioned county road, on sec. 13, be, and the same is hereby declared vacated, and shall be no longer considered a public highway in this county; and the said county road shall be, and hereby is declared to be a territorial road to all proper intents and purposes.

Approvd, Jan. 15, 1869.
