GUY CORDONRepublican, Candidate for Nomination for United States Senator

Guy Cordon, Oregon's senior Senator, was appointed by Governor Earl Snell to succeed Senator Charles L. McNary. He was elected in 1944 for the balance of Senator McNary's term and again in 1948 for a full six years.

Senator Cordon is eighth ranking Senate Republican in length of service. This invaluable seniority and his qualities of leadership give him membership on three vital Senate committees: Appropriations, Interior and Insular Affairs, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy. He also is on five major subcommittees of the powerful Appropriations Committee: Armed Services, Civil Functions, Independent Offices, Interior (Chairman) and Treasury—Post Office. In addition, he is a member of the Republican Policy Committee.

His senior position on the Appropriations Committee continues to be of tremendous value to the Pacific Northwest for obtaining funds to build multiple purpose dams for Electrical Energy, flood control and development of navigation and irrigation.

His connection with the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee gives him a significant voice in formulating legislation affecting all of Oregon's interests. Under the reorganization act, this committee has jurisdiction over matters previously considered by the committees on Public Lands and Surveys—Mines and Mining, Territories and Insular Affairs, Irrigation and Reclamation and Indian Affairs. His assignment to the Republican Policy Committee permits him to assist in the formulation of national and international Republican legislative policies in the Senate.

An idea of the esteem in which Senator Cordon is held by other members of the Senate may be gained from an article written by Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and published in the newspapers of her home state in the fall of 1953. She states:

Senator Cordon is one of the "quiet and effective" senators who "get results. If everyone performed as he did, the Senate would complete its work much sooner each year. Senator Cordon has the disciplined, straightforward kind of thinking that makes you keep your eye on the ball. There are no frills to Senator Cordon. He is a man of proved political courage."

Now, more than ever, it is to the best interests of Oregon and the nation to keep U.S. Senator Guy Cordon on the job!

NEWBRY FOR GOVERNOR COMMITTEE
CECIL C. CURL, Chairman

PAUL PATTERSON

Republican, Candidate for Nomination for Governor

Paul Patterson has given Oregon a fresh, vigorous leadership that people like and completely trust.

Sincere, capable and forthright—his natural friendliness, unquestioned integrity and keen inquiring mind have made him one of the most popular governors in the history of the state.

With a distinguished record of 25 years of public service that led to his election as president of the state senate and to the governorship upon the resignation of former Governor Douglas McKay—Paul Patterson brought to his present job a practical understanding and working experience in what it takes to get things done in state affairs.

HE'S DOING THE JOB THE PEOPLE OF OREGON WANT DONE. HE'S DOING IT WITH A SIMPLICITY AND EFFECTIVENESS THAT COMMANDS RESPECT, CONFIDENCE AND COOPERATION - - - (Continued)

(This information furnished by Patterson for Governor Committee)

Governor Paul Patterson is a working governor.

He takes his job seriously. Few men in the state work longer hours. He really enjoys talking with the hundreds of visitors to his office. Probably never before have as many private citizens talked personally with their governor. Always, these visitors are impressed with the informal, friendly atmosphere of his office and with the governor's quick grasp of their problems.

Despite his heavy office schedule, Governor Patterson has found time to visit every part of the state and to learn firsthand the interests and concerns of every section. Cooperation of the governor's office has been brought closer to the people.

The record of Governor Patterson is not only one of TRUSTED leadership, but of EFFECTIVE action:

The integrity of the governor's office has been above question.

Oregon's budget is balanced and despite rising costs of administration, state taxes have not been increased . . . there has been no deficit spending here.

The current five-year highway construction program is being completed on schedule with a new long-range program in the making.

The Oregon Development Commission and the Water Resources Committee are mapping a realistic and practical program for building Oregon . . . reducing theory to workable and effective measures that will get the job done.

Patterson's refusal to accept delays in the construction of an intermediate penal institution got action . . . and results. His prompt and effective leadership met the emergency at the state prison—brought needed reforms. He has been alert, interested, effective in meeting problems as they arise.

Governor Patterson's background is typically Oregonian. Born in 1900 in Kent, Ohio, he moved to Oregon with his parents in 1908. Oregon has been his home since, except for army service in World War I.

Times were not easy for the Patterson family. To stay in school, Paul carried papers for three years and worked as a Postal Telegraph messenger. During his high school years he worked long hours on the graveyard shift of a shipyard and in summers, in a lumber mill and meat company. Yet he found time to be president of his class, manager of the school paper and an outstanding student and debater.

Entering the University of Oregon in 1919, he waited on tables, washed dishes and corrected examination papers to earn a degree in business administration. An appointment as a graduate assistant made it possible for him to attend law school. He worked nights, weekends and summers to complete his law course. He graduated in 1926 with exceptionally high honors in a wide field of scholastic activities. The same year he moved to Hillsboro where he has since achieved outstanding success as a practicing attorney.

The civic record of Paul Patterson is the record of jobs effectively and well done. A member of the State Senate in 1945, 1947, 1949 and 1951, he was elected President of the Senate in 1951. In his home town of Hillsboro he has been President of the Chamber of Commerce, President of the Hillsboro Rotary Club, President of the Washington County Veterans Council, Commander of Hillsboro Post No. 6 of the American Legion and President of the Washington County Chapter of the Izaak Walton League. He has been State President and director of the Oregon State Motor Association (AAA) and State Chairman of American Legion Junior Baseball.

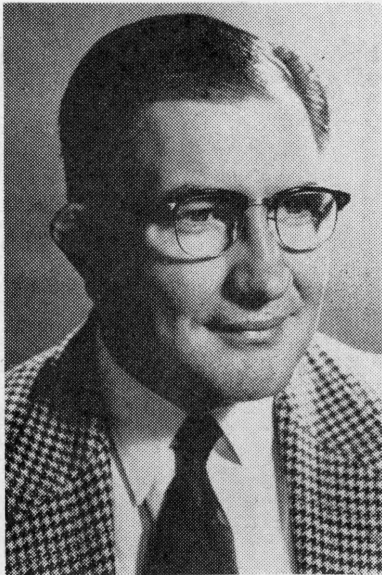

He was a trustee of the Hillsboro Congregational Church, of which he is a member, and served as chairman of the Hillsboro Boy Scout Council (he holds the Silver Beaver and Silver Antelope awards for outstanding service). For ten years he served as the advisor of the Hillsboro "Hi-Y". The Governor is a member of the Elks, Masons, Rotary and American Legion.

S. EUGENE ALLEN

Republican, Candidate for Nomination for Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor

With the retirement from Public Service of Mr. Kimsey, a fine official and splendid gentleman, it is important that the Republican Party nominate a person for the office who has breadth of vision, excellent experience, wide knowledge and sympathetic understanding as well as fine personal integrity.

I believe that prosperity and the privilege of growth and opportunity are achieved neither by fanciful shortcuts nor by panaceas. Work and experience and wisdom offer a better hope.

I have had experience in agriculture, in labor relations, in business management, in education and in public service. There are no easy answers to the problems that face us. Well-rounded experience and intellectual integrity will, however, serve in good stead those who seek the solutions.

During the 12 years I edited the Oregon Labor Press (AFL) I had an unusual opportunity to learn the aims, aspirations and ideals of American wage-earners. During the time I have served as secretary-manager of the Associated Restaurants of Oregon much of my work has been in the achievement of sound labor relations. I have shared the problems that business men are called upon to face and solve.

I have been a member of the Portland School Board for the past 12 years. I served as State Senator during the last session of the legislature. For many years I represented AF of L labor unions in many capacities. I have also had business experience and presently have a modest interest in a restaurant company and am a director in the Portland Gas and Coke Company.

The people of Oregon have established certain standards for the protection of workers. Included among these is the guarantee that every Oregon citizen shall have equal opportunity to secure employment at the job for which he is trained and qualified without regard to religion, race or color. The obligation to respect the law and uphold it against all violators will be fully met by me.

I will protect working people and their organizations in the exercise of their rights. But no organization, labor or employer, shall override the public interest nor the authority of the state.

Beyond the execution of the law—which I am sure any candidate would faithfully perform—is the important matter of basic philosophy. As the state grows and develops industrially it will be my purpose to encourage the processes of collective bargaining as the means of achieving happy labor relations. The object of government should be the maximum encouragement of citizens to find congenial, rewarding and satisfying business and employment opportunities and to keep to a minimum interference with the rights and the duties of those citizens.

That is what I believe.

H. E. BARKERRepublican, Candidate for Nomination for Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor

I respectfully submit to the Republican voters of the State of Oregon my candidacy for nomination at the May Primary for the office of Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor.

I have never before been a candidate for public office, but have been very active for many years with various groups and organizations for the betterment of the general public. I have been a member of organized labor for the past 30 years, American Federation of Labor, and have been active both on a local and state level. I have worked with both labor and management groups for many years. If elected to this high office I will administer the affairs of the Bureau of Labor in a fair and impartial manner.

Your vote for my nomination at the Primary Election, May 21st, will be most sincerely appreciated.

MARK HATFIELD

Republican, Candidate for Nomination for State Senator,
First District, Marion County

MARK HATFIELD demonstrated in the 1951 and 1953 legislative sessions an ability, personal integrity and political courage that won the respect and confidence of the citizens of Marion County.

Highly regarded by his colleagues, endorsed by the press and available to his constituents, Mark Hatfield offers straight thinking and ability in action. He earned this reputation: "He says what he thinks and does what he says he will do." Sponsors of questionable legislation learned the sting of his quiet, searching question, the ability to get to the meat of proposed legislation, his effectiveness in floor debate and his devotion to purpose in committee work.

With his background in political science (he is a professor of political science at Willamette University) he was repeatedly given assignments of great responsibility. He was chairman of the powerful and important committee on State and Federal Affairs which handled some of the most controversial and toughest bills in the 1953 session. In all the heat of debate and argument he presided in a fair and just manner which won the approval of all sides.

As a member of the Education Committee, he worked to get the greatest value from the tax dollar—always mindful that greater efficiency is often a substitute for higher taxes.

As a member of the Committee on Elections and Reapportionment, he offered bills which would simplify the voting process and thereby encourage greater participation in government.

Mark Hatfield assures clear thinking, a concern for the effect on the individual of new and heavier taxes and a time-tested courage to resist pressures and pressure groups. "A fine personality . . . exceptionally able in floor debate . . . clear in exposition," says the politically alert Oregon Voter.

Mark Hatfield balances a sincere faith in the future of Oregon and of the nation with a realistic and practical understanding of what is essential and what is not essential to sound progress.

As in his two previous elections which sent him to the House of Representatives, Mark Hatfield has the endorsement of outstanding citizens throughout Marion County.

JEFFERSON—Merle Holman; WOODBURN—Elmer Mattson; STAYTON—Arch Van Nuys; SILVERTON—George Christenson; SALEM—Mrs. W. C. Dyer, Sr., Ray Rolow, Otto R. Skopil, Jr., Fred Klaus.—Mark Hatfield for Senator Committee.

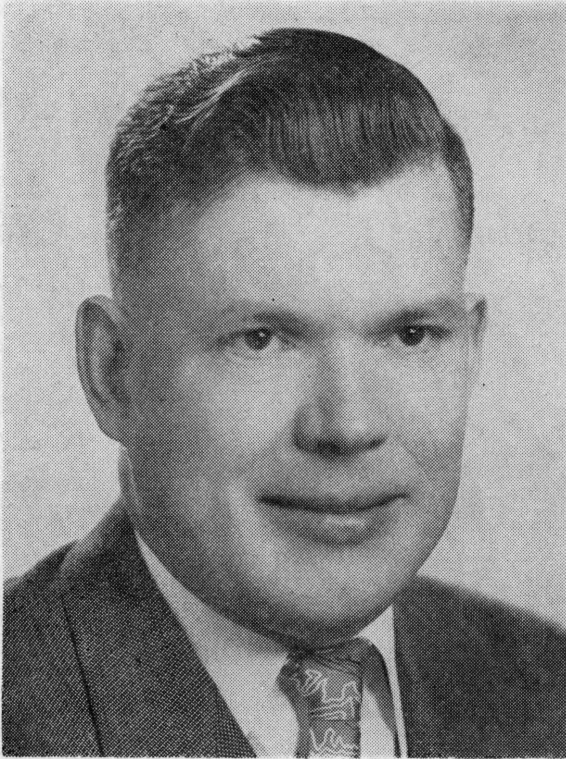

Ballot Slogan: A record of demonstrated ability, courage and integrity merits your vote again.

I was born in Liberty District in 1914, and educated in Marion County schools.

Am married and have 2 children, attending Salem schools.

Have served in various capacities in public office, including 2 years as County Clerk Pro Tem, 4 years as Clerk of the Circuit Court and 2 years in Marion County Tax Department. Served as Marion County Representative in 1951 and 1953 sessions of the Legislature and served as chairman of the House Taxation Committee in 1953. Presently serving as a member of the interim committee on Interstate Cooperation and my second term as a member of an interim tax committee.

For the past 10 years have been actively engaged as a realtor in Marion County.

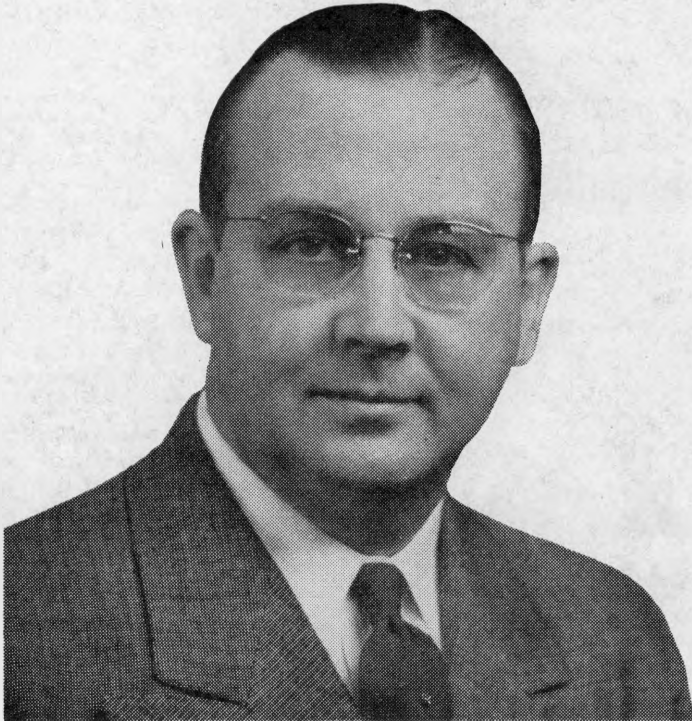

I believe that my experience in State and County Affairs, together with that gained in my profession, are valuable qualifications for the position I seek.

Integrity and service have been my prime business assets. If elected I will continue to apply the same principles in representing the people of Marion County and the State of Oregon.

LEE V. OHMART

DOUGLAS R. YEATER

Republican, Candidate for Nomination for State Senator,
First District, Marion County

As a successful business man and taxpayer in Salem, Oregon, for the past nineteen years, married and the father of two children, one a veteran of World War II, and with the experience of two sessions in the House of Representatives and two in the Senate, I feel qualified in presenting myself as a candidate for re-election as one of your State Senators for Marion County.

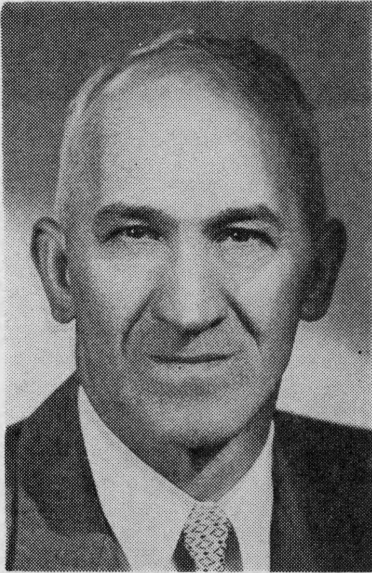

I sincerely feel that business principles should be applied to state government. If re-elected, I will apply the same effort as in the past in serving the people of the State of Oregon in both civic and governmental duties.

I am a Republican and have worked extensively for their principles.

Douglas R. Yeater

EDDIE AHRENS

Republican, Candidate for Nomination for Representative in the Legislative Assembly, Twelfth District, Marion County

I respectfully submit to the Republican voters of Marion County my candidacy for nomination at the May primary for Representative in the State Legislature. I came to Oregon and Marion County in 1910 from Nebraska and have lived continuously on a farm near Turner. Since 1929 this farm has been operated by my brother, Henry and myself under the name of Ahrens Farms. We have specialized in raising purebred sheep and seed crops. Through an aggressive improvement program we have developed our farm and livestock. During the past years we have shipped our registered sheep throughout the United States and also have exported many to foreign countries.

I have served in many organizations, devoting much time and effort in developing our community, County and State. A few organizations I have worked with are past president and now director of American Romney Breeders Association, 4 years as regional director of Oregon Farm Bureau Federation, a number of years on the Marion County A.A.A., and the Marion County Fair Board, committee member of Bureau of Land Management, Salem District, member of Salem Chamber of Commerce on which I served on the Agricultural Committee.

I am interested in preserving and improving our soils for future generations. With our fast growing population the improvement and preservation of our natural resources should be of concern to our urban population as well as the rural people. These many years spent in the development of livestock and soils should qualify me to represent the people of Marion County on these most important issues.

Property taxes are a complex problem and in many cases I believe are regressive and changes are needed with some consideration on ability to pay. I believe there could be more economy in the spending of public funds.

I have never before sought public office but believe that one of Marion County's representatives should be experienced in agriculture which is the County's principal resource. I am a firm believer in the free enterprise system and am opposed to regimented governmental controls.

I am 54 years of age, married and have a daughter in high school who lives with us on the farm. I am an active member of St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Salem, and sincerely believe in the freedom of religion.

If elected, I pledge my services and sincere consideration of all problems in behalf of the people of Marion County and the State.

EDDIE AHRENS

W. W. CHADWICK

Republican, Candidate for Nomination for Representative in the Legislative Assembly, Twelfth District, Marion County

In seeking a sixth term in the Oregon Legislature, I am actuated purely by the motive to serve in the interest of good government for our state and county.

Born in South Dakota, I moved to Oregon with my parents 54 years ago. I own and operate 75 acres of fruit and nuts, and know at first hand the problems of the farmers.

I entered the hotel business at Salem in 1923, and today operate the Chadwick Hotel System with headquarters at the Senator Hotel, Salem, Oregon.

Was elected Mayor of Salem in 1939 and re-elected to that office in 1941. Served as State Representative from Marion County in the 1943, 1945, 1947, 1949 and 1953 legislative sessions. During my terms of office in the Legislature I have served on some very important committees including Rules, Taxation,

Ways and Means, Labor and Industries, Local Government and in addition, served as chairman of the House Committee on Interstate Cooperation, a committee which meets with representatives of eleven western states for the purpose of considering mutual problems.

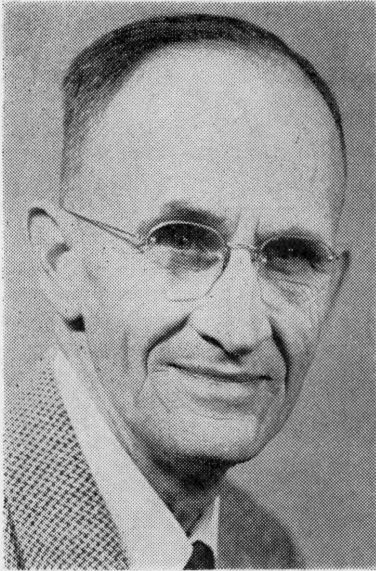

Organized labor has a definite place in our present-day society, and I have always recognized the benefits that have been brought about for the employees by organized labor. However, I am opposed to the type of labor bosses who foment labor trouble merely to enhance their own welfare and position without regard to the interests of the union members.

I believe my past record for business administration in public office as Mayor of Salem, as a Representative in the State Legislature together with my years of experience as a successful businessman in Marion County qualify me for this office.

W. W. CHADWICK

ROBERT F. COOK

Republican, Candidate for Nomination for Representative in the Legislative Assembly, Twelfth District, Marion County

Mr. Cook was born in Texas in 1899, being the great-great grandson of Captain James Cook, who explored the Oregon Coast in 1778. He was educated in the University of Nebraska for public service, taking degrees in political science. His thesis on the unicameral legislature was used as a guide by Senator George Norris in influencing the people of Nebraska to adopt the plan.

In the political field, Mr. Cook worked as a research assistant for the Legislature of Nebraska, and later was Sergeant-at-Arms in the House of Representatives there.

In 1936 he took direction of a real estate development and sales program in the lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas. The press of war in 1941 caused him to move to the West Coast for work with the Maritime Commission. He took delivery of the first ship that Kaiser built in the Swan Island yard, the S. S. Schemnectady, and logged 143,000 miles on her.

In the Navy during World War I and the Merchant Marine during World War

II he has sailed all seven seas and visited most of the major ports of the world.

On leaving the Merchant Marine in 1947 Mr. Cook purchased a farm in Marion County, where he now lives, and is one of the largest hog raisers in the Willamette Valley. He is married and has one son, now serving in the Army.

All that know him are impressed by his keen grasp of the government of Oregon, and its problems and weaknesses. He is especially concerned over the injustice of high taxes on farms, which at times equal or exceed the income. Mr. Cook is especially indignant over the fact that while the State borrows money for less than 2%, it charges a taxpayer 8% if he is unable to pay his tribute on time. He would reduce delinquent tax interest to 3%.

Our candidate contends that much of the loose spending by the various state departments and agencies could be curtailed. Article IX, paragraph 6 of the Oregon Constitution breeds this condition by requiring the legislature to find revenue for whatever is spent. Mr. Cook feels that this should be changed.

In endorsing his candidacy, and urging his election, we present one of the few men we know who has experienced the adventure of independent thinking, and has not wearied of it. We need his services in the legislature.

ROBERT L. ELFSTROM

Republican, Candidate for Nomination for Representative in the Legislative Assembly, Twelfth District, Marion County

Bob Elfstrom gave Marion County important and effective representation on committees that handled some of the major legislation of the 1953 session.

His work on the Committee on Highways was recognized by his later appointment to the Legislative Highway Interim Committee on which he is serving as secretary. This is the committee that will recommend highway legislation to the coming session that can importantly effect highway development in Marion County as well as influence truck and automobile fees.

His background of successful business experience earned a place on the Commerce and Utilities Committee of which he was vice-chairman. His service as former chairman of the Oregon Liquor Control Commission gave him a position of influence on the Committee on Alcoholic Control.

Bob Elfstrom's record of distinguished public service covers a long period of years. Elected mayor of Salem in 1946, his constructive program for Salem led to his election as president of the League of Oregon Cities.

In 1951, Elfstrom was named "First Citizen" of Salem. His public service includes director of the YMCA and Salem Community Chest, president of Rotary Club, trustee of Willamette University and Westminster Foundation, president Cascade Area Boy Scouts, elder and member of board of trustees Presbyterian Church, and campaign chairman 1952 County March of Dimes. He is a Mason, Shriner, and Elk. In the business world he heads the very successful contracting firm of R. L. Elfstrom Company.

BALLOT SLOGAN: "Incumbent. His work on highway legislation important to you and Marion County."

AL LOUCKS

Republican, Candidate for Nomination for Representative in the Legislative Assembly, Twelfth District, Marion County

It is frequently said of Al Loucks that he worked harder at being a good mayor of Salem than any man who ever held the position. It is not surprising because he has tackled every civic responsibility with the same earnestness and drive.

Few Salem business leaders have given so generously of their time and effort to civic and state affairs. He is President of the League of Oregon Cities after having served as a director and vice-president. He is a past president and campaign chairman of the Salem Community Chest. He is past president of the Salem Breakfast Club and the Salem Fuel Dealers Association. He has served or is serving as a director of the Salem YMCA, Oregon Heating Industries, and the Salem Kiwanis Club. He has served as a deacon of the First Presbyterian Church.

Elected mayor of Salem in 1950, he was reelected in 1952. While many cities have materially increased taxes to meet rising costs of administration, there have been but minor increases in Salem.

Loucks is a hard man with a tax dollar. The addition of new fire fighting equipment and increased efficiency of fire department personnel earned Salem an insurance reclassification that is saving property owners $75,000 a year, with the prospect of a further class change that will save $150,000 a year more.

During his term as mayor, a Park Advisory Board was organized to plan city park development and use. A separate planning division was added to the Zoning and Planning Commission with special responsibility for modernizing Salem's traffic control. Loucks introduced a program for taking city government to the people. In more than 175 forums before civic and other groups he discussed city problems, introduced other city officials, and invited questions from the floor on how city business was handled.

Marion County needs representation in the Legislature with his sense of responsibility for public service and his experience in public affairs. Al Loucks will not only make friends for Marion County and its legislative problems but will effectively serve the State of Oregon.

Ballot Slogan: "On his consistent record of leadership in civic jobs well done."
