Dean Named for College of Business

Dr. Edward A. Johnson, associate professor and research associate at the college of Business and Economics, West Virginia University, has been named dean of the College of Business at RIT effective Aug. 1, it has been announced by Dr. Todd H. Bullard, provost and vice president for academic affairs.

In announcing the appointment, Dr. Bullard said, "Dr. Johnson brings to the Institute an excellent background in several facets of special concern to the College of Business, including behavioral sciences, labor relations and contemporary trends in business. He will help RIT maintain distinctive programs in that college."

Dr. Johnson has been at West Virginia since 1966. In his present assignment he teaches personnel, industrial relations and other management courses at the graduate and undergraduate levels; serves as chairman of the WVU President's Personnel

Advisory Committee, and is a training consultant to numerous business and governmental agencies.

Prior to taking his present assignment in 1970, he was assistant professor and director of graduate programs in business administration and industrial relations in the College of Commerce, where he was responsible for the administration of graduate business programs. He also taught personnel and industrial relations courses at the graduate and undergraduate levels.

From 1962 to 1966, Dr. Johnson was assistant instructor and research assistant to Dr. Dalton E. McFarland, chairman, Department of Management, College of Business, Michigan State University.

Dr. Johnson holds the Ph.D. degree in management from Michigan State University; MILR (master of industrial and labor relations) in personnel administration from Cornell, and B.A. in psychology from Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio.

RIT SPORTS BOOSTER CLUB ELECTS SLATE OF OFFICERS

Three local men have been elected to lead the newly formed RIT Sports Booster Club.

Joseph V. Dengler, of 212 Vollmer Drive, Henrietta, has been elected president, while Stephen Hutchinson, 142-6 Golden Rod Lane, Henrietta, will serve as vic president. Major David Root, 134 Clearview Drive, Pittsford, has been elected treasurer.

"This type of group is long overdue," says Dengler, the coordinator of admissions for the National Technical Institute for the Deaf at RIT. "The interest that has been displayed during our current stage of organization is gratifying."

The Boosters Club is being formed with the objective of supporting RIT's sports program.

"We already have a clambake planned for next fall," says the new president.

Dengler is a 1960 business administration graduate. He was a member of the baseball team.

The RIT Sports Booster Club is open to all alumni, staff and friends of RIT.
