The incoming governor also demanded in his inaugural that these alleged irregularities be investigated. It is charged by those supporting Carter's resolution that individual state officials solicited and collected campaign contribuions from the employes in their departments and in some instances endeavored to collect monthly payments.

These charges were also made druing the campaign and have een emphatically denied by the state officials mentioned.

Public Lacks Interest in Art Matters

H. C. Swartz, sculptor, of "La Ramada," on North Brand boulevard, returned to Glendale Monday night with his guest, Peter Krasnow, the painter, after a week spent at the Contemporary French Art exhibit, held in Polk Hall, civic center, San Francisco.

This exhibit presented representative work of the modern French sculptors and painters. Works of the following, among others, were shown-Rodin, Bourdelle, Contesse and Bernard, as sculptors; and Gauguin, Matisse, Renoir and Degas, as painters.

Mr. Swartz returned to Glendale very well satisfied with Southern Coffee California as an art center, by comparison with the northen headquarters.

Public Lethargie

"Up there," he stated, "art is for the artists, and the public is lethargic. A BEAUTIFUL gem in a rich Italian Renaissance setting is a fitting description of the new drug store to be opened to the public tomorrow in the Jensen's Palace Grand shops on the west side of North Brand boulevard between Broadway and Wilson avenue. It is the first unit of the new building ready for the reception of the public, and if its beauty and elaborate design may be taken as a criterion, the Jensen building will bring Glendale wide recognition for possessing a unique and wonderful artistic arcade shopping center. ried out in the building is that of painting, and here the work of E. A. Bode is shown at its best, with every detail of the color scheme harmonizing in the minutest detail. One of the remarkable features of the Jensen's Palace Grand Shops building is the beautiful woodwork color effect carried out throughout the entire building. The main floor is finished in old ivory and mahogany with grey panel work lending a clean support to the artistic staff work and coloring. The upper floor is finished in old ivory with old gold blending in the ivory, giving the entire woodwork a very rich effect. Mahogany is the contrast color on the second floor as well as the main floor, presenting that refined appearance as only mahogany with old ivory can.

Another equally important part of the work, the plumbing and the installation of the heating system, has been carried out by Coker & Taylor, the pioneer plumbers of Glendale, in a manner that reflects the greatest credit on the firm entrusted with the task.

The electric wiring has been installed by the Glendale Electric company, and the electric signs that are seen at frequent intervals all over the building are the work of the Greenwood Advertising company, as is the immense sign that hangs over the window of the drug store itself, and at the stairway of the recreation center.

The drug store display standards were made by the Bert A. Landers Company, Inc., as were the draperies for use in the store. The fixtures used in the showcases were furnished by the Weber Show Case Fixture company of Los Angeles, and the same firm also supplied the fixtures for the recreation rooms in the basement of the building, and for the barber shop.
