WORLD CHIEFS IN PEACE ASSEMBLY

SWITZERLAND CITY TEMPORARY CAPITAL OF EUROPE

NATIONS' LEAGUE SEEKS FOR PEACE, SECURITY

International Questions of Vital Importance to World's Security Before Geneva Assembly—Five Major Projects Under Consideration.

Geneva.—The league of nations palace has become the capital of the world.

For ten days members of the league council will struggle to grasp and make fast for Europe the two post-war phantoms of peace and security.

The most important international question before the world was taken up Monday when the council began the discussion of five projects to insure safety from war. Among the group is the league protocol, drafted to provide for world wide security, arbitration, and disarmament. This document will be tabled for discussion at the September assembly meeting, when it probably will be permanently shelved.

Another proposed pact is Austen Chamberlain's original proposal for an Anglo-Franco-Belgian combination. France will not accept it because it would not protect Poland and other members of the French hegemony.

Lord Balfour will offer suggestion that England, France, Belgium, Italy and Germany agree to a five power pact, but again France will have none of it for the same reason that the Chamberlain suggestion is unacceptable.

Germany's security pact proposal, which became public last week, must also be considered. And because France believes that the German suggestion is a subterfuge to enable Germany to demand revision of her eastern frontiers where she abuts Poland and Czechoslovakia, the French council member will also refuse to approve it.

The fifth proposal is a French project and consequently has the support of France. It would provide for a pact of all European states except Russia.

According to well informed opinion, the final solution of the security middle probably will be a compromise between Balfour's proposal and the French plan. Such a compromise would lead to an agreement requiring the signatures of seven countries: England, France, Belgium, Italy, Germany, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

The obstacles before the men who envisage such a pact are tremendous. Britain does not intend to pledge herself to send troops to Poland to protect the Poles from the Germans. France cannot insure her own safety by a pact with Britain which would leave Poland open to diplomatic or armed attack.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP GAINS SUBSTANTIAL NUMBER IN 1924

New York.—The churches of America claim to have shown a membership gain of 690,000 in 1924. The total membership now claimed is 46,142,000. A gain of 366,000 is reported for the evangelical churches. The Roman Catholic church kept well in advance of all the other communions with nearly 16,000,000 communicants and its more than 18,000,000 "population." Its estimated increase in 1924 was over 220,000. The second largest body is the Methodist Episcopal church with 4,438,494.

In order of strength the other churches with more than 1,000,000 are, the Southern Baptist convention, more than 3,500,000; the Negro Baptist convention, more than 3,000,000; the Methodist Episcopal, South, 2,470,000; the Presbyterian church, Northern, 1,791,559; Northern Baptist convention, 1,382,000; Disciples of Christ, 1,351,000 and the Protestant Episcopal church, 1,139,200.

Boy's Confession Futile

Los Angeles.—Purported statements of Harold Willis, 15 years of age, that he and not his mother killed Dr. Benjamin B. Baldwin in his mother's home last April, will not save Mrs. Willis from beginning to serve her life term for the murder. District Attorney Keyes, after an investigation of the asserted confession, called it "an attempt on the part of Mrs. Willis to place the blame on the shoulders of her son."

Assassins Miss Train

Belgrade.—An attempt to assassinate the foreign minister of Bulgaria failed because the train on which the official was riding en route to Geneva was thirty minutes ahead of its schedule.

TEAPOT SCANDLE TRIAL IS OPENED

GOVERNMENT BEGINS SUIT FOR CANCELLATION OF LEASE

SINCLAIR, FALL NAMED AS ARCH CONSPIRATORS

Blunt Charges of Gigantic Fraud Against Government Made—Fight to Finish Is Indicated in Opening Skirmish.

Cheyenne, Wyo.—The government's suit for cancellation of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve lease to the Sinclair oil interests was called in the United States court Monday morning.

The government bluntly charged that Harry F. Sinclair, head of the great oil interests bearing his name, and ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall were conspirators in one of the greatest frauds ever practiced on the government. It was asserted that the Teapot Dome was secretly and fraudulently transferred to Sinclair's control, the consideration being a fortune in Liberty bonds, the total value of which the government will allege exceeded $233,000.

Coincident with the beginning of the trial it was admitted by representatives of the Standard Oil company of Indiana that Colonel Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of that company, is now outside the jurisdiction of the American courts. It was announced that he is somewhere on the Atlantic, bound either for Mexico or for South America.

The two opening sessions were largely devoted to reading into the record official correspondence and orders relating to the Teapot Dome negotiations. Ex-Senator Pomerene of Ohio made the opening address for the government, while Judge Lacey as counsel for the Sinclair interests announced that the defense would make its first statement at the conclusion of the government's case.

"The government," said Pomerene, "expects to prove in the course of these proceedings that this Teapot Dome lease and contract was made without authority of law; that this vast wealth was leased without competitive bidding; that there was no advertising of the fact; that the property was about to be turned over to private interests. These facts will be developed as the hearings proceed."

Senator Pomerene then traced the history of the Teapot Dome negotiations as disclosed by the records of the department of the interior. He declared that the contention of Fall and those who support him that the lease was made necessary as a result of drainage conditions in the Teapot Dome area was without foundation in fact and that when at last Fall decided to lease the field to Sinclair the rest of the oil world which stood ready to bid, remained in ignorance of what was going on and was denied the privilege of bidding for the property.

LOS ANGELES YOUTH ADMITS GUILT IN "TRUNK" MURDER

Los Angeles.—"Sonny" Willis surrendered to the juvenile authorities to answer the charge of murder filed against him by S. S. Hahn, his mother's attorney. The charge was contained in a petition obtained by Hahn after the boy had failed to appear to explain his asserted "confession" of the murder for Dr. Benjamin B. Baldwin, and for which crime his mother now is awaiting transportation to San Quentin penitentiary to serve a sentence of imprisonment for life. Mrs. Willis has been awaiting removal to the state penal institution for several months. The boy was a witness for his mother during the trial, but no questions were asked him concerning the actual scene of the slaying.

"Sonny" declared some time ago that he had slain Dr. Baldwin with a pistol when he found the physician assaulting his mother. The mother was tried for the crime and though she never took the witness stand in her own defense she was found guilty.

"Herb Bill" Report Pigeonholed

Sacramento.—When the assembly reconvened for the Monday afternoon session, third reading of bills was begun without objection, apparently indicating that the Graves herb bill investigation report is a closed incident. By gentlemen's agreement, the committee's report was laid over, until Monday afternoon. Failure to call it up probably means that all members are satisfied not to have the issue reopened. The report exonerated, either directly or by inference, all persons mentioned in connection with extortion charges, with the exception of two legislative employees, who were reprimanded.

CHAMBER COM. IN BUSY SESSION

Campbell Chamber of Commerce held its regular session at the Library March 5.

In connection with the road policy of the permanent road committee President Whitman appointed E. R. Kennedy, S. N. Hedegard and J. F. Wehmeyer a committee to investigate concerning the gas tax and auto license and report at the April meeting.

The secretary was authorized to answer inquiries concerning local conditions without delaying to bring before meeting.

The president appointed to the standing commercial committee, R. Alison, J. F. Wehmeyer and H. Lea.

Dr. Merrill and E. R. Kennedy were appointed to ascertain the necessary facts relative to planting trees near the Campbell avenue bridge.

Secretary Farley was authorized to write our state senators to assist in changing the present law relating to the incorporation of cities of the sixth class.

G. E. Farley and S. N. Hedegard were appointed to interview the Mercury-Herald relative to the limitation of publicity by that publication of articles of interest concerning the town. It was pointed out that news from here had been so altered or cut out entirely that the readers felt it a discrimination.

The matter of changing the date of meeting was discussed, and in order to accommodate members who wish to attend it was decided to revise the by-laws thereby setting the regular meeting for the second Monday of the month. This will be voted at meeting of April 2.

The Chamber gave a vote of thanks to the Country Woman's Club for their efforts in securing and displaying the flags on our street.

A vote of thanks was extended to the decoration committee for their effective work Old Settlers' Day and the secretary was asked to write A. Ferro expressing thanks for his efforts.

A vote of thanks was given to S. N. Hedegard and his committee for their excellent work securing the extension of Campbell avenue west.

Chairman Alison of the finance committee of Old Settlers' day made his report showing a substantial balance which was turned into the Chamber treasury.

It was voted to pay $5.00 to the Santa Clara County Consolidated as Campbell's ratio for the expense account.

Senior Play Friday, March 20.

Mah Jongg Party

Two of Campbell's charming hostesses, Mrs. W. H. Stray and Mrs. L. T. Lenox, entertained a coterie of friends, Friday afternoon. The guests assembled at the home of Mrs. Stray, where tables were set for mah jongg.

Dainty hand wrought score cards were very one of the items for which this oriental game furnishes the inspiration. Beautiful bowls and baskets filled with spring flowers from the charming gardens of the hostesses adorned both of the houses.

Quaint and artistically wrapped packages containing pieces of Japanese or Chinese art were presented the holders of the high score at each table.

When the time for refreshments arrived the company were asked to adjourn to the home of Mrs. Lenox, where daintily appointed tables were in readiness, and a delicious luncheon was served by "Chinese maids", Helen Stray, Helen Alison, Virginia and Helen Lenox.

The baby daughter of Mrs. Lenox, also in oriental costume, who met the guests at the door was quite captivating, adding the last detail to a perfect afternoon.

Senior Play Friday, March 20.

STATE EDITORS GUESTS WITH AMBASSADOR

The Japanese Society of America was hostess Saturday to the California Press association at the Fairmont hotel in San Francisco in honor of Japan's new ambassador to the United States, Tsuneo Matsudaira.

H. C. Smith of the Campbell Press was in attendance. John King, vice president of the Press association, and representing Gov. Friend Richardson, bespoke a hearty welcome to the Ambassador and assured him of the united co-operation of the country press in promoting peace and good will with their friends across the Pacific.

Mr. F. B. Loomis of the Society also spoke a hearty greeting and read a letter he had just received from President Coolidge extending, as it were, his hand across the continent to welcome the new Ambassador.

In response Ambassador Matsudaira said in part:

"I may be frank to say that we are now confronted with great social and political problems in the Pacific region. I am convinced, however, that none of them is incapable of amicable settlement if handled in the spirit of co-operation.

"Co-operation can, of course, be secured only through a thorough understanding of the character, habits, history and the economic situations of all these countries. Naturally enough the only road to understanding is knowledge of facts and that brings us at once into the domain of the newspapers.

"If the press of America will procure and give accurate information of Japan, and if our press in Japan can get and disseminate the facts about America, ample provisions will have been made toward securing the desired co-operation, which, needless to say, is an invaluable service to the cause of preserving for all time the peace and friendship between the two nations."

LADIES' NIGHT MUCH ENJOYED

Thanks to the active committee, Masonic Ladies night was a decided success and those who failed to attend may thank themselves for missing a genuine treat. The program was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The first number, piano solos, by Miss Patrice Smith, was superb as Miss Smith is a master of classic music and a prime favorite with Campbell audiences.

Mrs. Jessie Nichols, of San Jose, gave very entertaining readings.

Miss Marion Copeland, of San Francisco, who so captivated Campbell music lovers by her artistic renditions Old Settlers' Day, was recalled to sing for this occasion much to the pleasure of her admirers. Miss Copeland has a very sweet soprano voice which has been well trained in European music centers. Miss Burlingame of San Jose assisted at the piano.

J. G. Swinnerton gave a very entertaining account of his work and experiences with plenty of color and a number of charcoal sketches of his favorite pals "Jimmie," "Pinkie" "Kanyon Kiddies" and others. He's a good show in himself as he sees him.

The inimitable J. U. Higginbotham was a scream from his first story to the close of his nameless speech. He is still seeking out a name for that speech, and, without guessing, he's booked to come to Campbell later and announce the name or a substitute. His wit was so dry that ere he had fairly launched into his subject (?) his auditors were in tears. Many are laughing yet over his remarks.

Cards and mah jongg were enjoyed while refreshments were served by a band of efficient craftsmen.

MORELAND CLUB CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

The Moreland Good Will Club celebrated its twentieth anniversary Wednesday, March 4, with a most enjoyable afternoon function.

Invitations had been extended to the various women's clubs of the neighboring communities as well as to individual guests and former members, many of whom were fortunate to be able to accept.

The Moreland Hall, the club home erected through the efforts of this enterprising group of women, had been transformed into a bower by the extensive use of pepper sprays, bowls of flowers and sprays of blossoms.

The president, Mrs. Earl, opened the meeting and after greeting the former members and guests, placed the program committee in charge.

Mrs. William Sillemann, of San Jose, with Miss Hanger as accompanist, sang sweetly several numbers. Mrs. McBride, a former president, gave a short history of the club's activities and there were a few words from other past presidents. Very interesting letters were read from two former members, Mrs. Forbes James, now of Dutch Flat, Calif., and Mrs. Fred Wells, of Salt Lake City.

Miss Bogart furnished pleasing violin solos. Miss Hanger also acted as her accompanist.

A social hour followed during which Mrs. Geo. Penniman and Mrs. Nye Farley entertained with piano and vocal selections and Mrs. Farley gave several whistling numbers.

Among the guests who were especially welcome were Mrs. Hersey, of Vallejo, founder of the club, Mrs. Baehr, of San Francisco, a past president and Mrs. Roegner, of Oakland, also a former member, who had come expressly for the occasion.

Delicious refreshments were served which completed a very delightful affair that added to the many laurels which this small but ambitious band of women has already earned for themselves.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Anderson, of Saratoga Ave., March 18.

JIM HOGAN LATEST RADIO FAN

Jim's devotion to the radio drives Beverly Davis to killing him. However, the tragedy isn't as bloodcurdling as it sounds. Jim... well, why spoil a good story? The Senior play "A Beggar on Horseback" is one of the funniest comedies of the year and should keep the house in a continual uproar.

The Seniors are very fortunate in being able to give this play. It first came out a year ago. The Seniors had been rehearsing for two weeks when their right to produce it was cancelled, due to the fact that the play had been bought for moving pictures by a big corporation in Hollywood. However, permission was finally obtained for its presentation by our local high school.

The story centers about Neil McRae, a young musician, who having been refused by his sweetheart becomes engaged to the flapper daughter of a widget manufacturer. Falling asleep Neil dreams of what life would be like married to the flapper and the succeeding scenes of the play portray his dreams in which there is an amazing blending of fact and fancy. He even sees in his dreams his own wedding, and—but come and see for yourself.

BLOSSOM FESTIVAL INVITES YOU TO PARTY

By J. U. H.

The Saratoga Blossom Festival will be celebrated March 21 and 22 this year. There will be a greater sum expended on the program than ever before. Earl Towner, of San Jose, has composed a cantata called The Promise of Spring. The best poems in the language descriptive of spring and the blossom season have been selected and music composed and fitted to those verses by Mr. Towner. Trained choruses are being drilled and on the dates mentioned from one hundred and fifty to two hundred selected voices will ring out in songs of praise for the bounties promised by the spring.

THIS is what Saratoga invites you to see and hear. To ask you Campbell folks to drive five or six miles to see blossoms would be like inviting the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra to drop in some evening and hear our Victrola. You have blossoms and scenes as beautiful as anywhere on earth but the Blossom Festival happens to have been born in Saratoga and that constitutes our sole right to give the party. A speaker, yet to be announced, will address the assembly at Blossom Park on Saturday. On Sunday, there will be an appropriate program with Mr. Towner's chorus and cantatas. We are defying the weather prophets and hope to take the knocks out of old man Equinox. That is the only thing beyond our control.

All of Santa Clara county is sharing in this, the first fete of the year. They are sharing the expense and, inevitably, the benefit. Saratoga can only accommodate a moiety of the crowds or sell homes to a few of the visitors. And she does not even attempt to do that on Blossom Day. It would be as inappropriate as reserved seats at a prayer meeting. It is everybody's party. Its beneficial advertising effects could no more be localized than could the ripple in the pond caused by a stone. The remotest points in the county, even in the state, share in the love for California implanted by the Saratoga Blossom Festival.

CAMPBELL WINS AT FLOWER SHOW

Campbell came in for no little share of the glory and publicity derived from the recent flower show of the Flower Lovers, it being the fifth annual daffodil show.

Mrs. Ralston Alison, vice president of the club and director of the Campbell exhibit was the winner of a number of first prizes for individual exhibits and to her much credit is due for Campbell's winning first prize for the best community display and bowl of tulips.

Mrs. L. F. Shaw and Mrs. J. W. Person received special mention and second prizes for their pretty exhibits.

The club's next show will be held in April, iris holding first place.

FIREMEN HOLD ST. PAT DANCE TUES.

Plans are practically completed for the annual Fireman's Ball, which will be held, Tuesday, March 17, in the I. O. O. F. banquet hall. Indications all point to one of the most successful affairs given under the auspices of this popular organization. Be sure you get a ticket even if circumstances may prevent your attendance. These faithful custodians of our property are entitled to our support in this one money-making event of the year.

A WELL-BALANCED COMMUNITY

Most cities and towns just grew up, like Toosy, and it is little wonder that many towns become top-heavy—that is, with too much emphasis on one phase of development. We can point out with some degree of pride that our town is fairly well balanced in regard to its resources and growth thus far. No one man or no small group of men control all the money here. No one institution dominates. Our churches, while differing in size of structure and strength of membership, hold out a charitable and strengthening arm to help and protect others in good works. We have outstanding civic organizations and lodges, but in their social and fraternal life they are not snobbish, they live and let others live. On the whole, our merchants and business houses believe in and practice a spirit of fair play. Competition is spirited, but clean; rigorous, but healthy, and serves but to enliven trade. Ours is a well-balanced community.

"STEALING HIS STUFF"

Charlie Chaplin sued Charlie Aplin for alleged appropriation of the former's trick make-up on the screen and for infringement for imitation. The famous comedian claims that his reputation has been damaged by would-be imitators, particularly by Aplin.

This is an interesting question. Probably the sympathies of Chaplin's millions of movie fans are solidly with him. But if one must be sued or punished for imitating a funny manner of walking, the wearing of a derby hat, baggy trousers, or an eye-brow mustash, where's the matter going to stop? Could not W. J. Bryan collect damages for an imitation (if any there could be) of his oratory? Is the Dawes plan copyrighted? Is there a patent on Billy Sunday's famous saw-dust trail? And lastly, might we deplore the thought that some day there may be a monopoly on pure thinking!

AFRAID TO SHOW ITS HAND?

France asks for a delay in giving sanction to her attendance at another arms conference proposed by the United States government. Spokesmen for the French government say France wants to wait until a similar conference, sponsored by the League of Nations, is indefinitely postponed. Apparently the real reason for the French delay is her own unwillingness to confer on the matter of auxiliary naval craft (which she blocked in the former conference) and military aircraft, in which latter craft her people are perhaps further advanced than any other so far as secrecy of invention is concerned. As long as nations are reluctant to lay their military and naval "cards on the table," it will be a difficult matter either to reduce and limit armaments or promote international friendliness.

PLAY WITH THE CHILDREN

A certain social worker recently said that one trouble with the world (they always think the world has troubles) is that parents and grown-ups do not play with their children. The suggestion might even be made stronger: we should not only play with the children for the children's sake, but play as children for our own sake. The child gets out of doors, runs, romps, and exercises every muscle; while the more sedate grown-up buys most of his "recreation" at a box-office window, or engages in the exciting game of watching his speedometer climb up to CRASH!!

MARTYRS, NOT MINERS!

Forty-four widows and seventy-six fatherless children are too many to leave near the mines at Sullivan, Indiana, or anywhere else, due to mine explosions. Men must go into mines to bring out the wealth of the earth. The law of averages, we suppose, always will bring some disasters. But are mines made as safe for entrance, exploitation and exit as human ingenuity and safety measures can make them? Are there not too many mine disasters?

Criticism, if constructive, is good for our community and for people. But criticism with nothing better to offer, becomes pessimism and destructive. It breeds dissatisfaction over conditions that exist without offering any means of correcting them. The next time you feel like criticising those in authority, be charitable enough and fair enough to withhold that criticism until you are in a position to suggest a suitable remedy. You may not speak at all.

A speeding automobile in Indiana turned over twice and then kept on going. The car proved that its own tendencies were sound and that the difficulty lay in convincing the driver that cars run better right side up.

Some folks will take anything that is not nailed down except a hint or advice.

HERE'S a bit of store news. A special combination sale is scheduled for next Saturday by the Kellogg folks. Reduced prices will be made on Kellogg's Corn Flakes, Krumbles, and All-Bran, and in addition the customer receives a fifteen-cent package of PEP, free.

PEP is taking the country by storm. Everybody wants to be peppy. Everybody wants to see other folks peppy. Pep is a great word. It has "kick." It somehow stands for the zest of life, the something that gives us animation, vim and go.

Science has discovered that the pep producing elements of cereals are in the coarser parts. Here are the vitamins, aptly likened to the spark that makes the charge in a motor pop to some purpose. Who wants a pepless motor? And don't be one. Eat Kellogg's PEP.

Mr. Eckles gave a fine talk on "What is a Good Citizen," and Mrs. Pettit gave the plans of work for the coming year.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Newcomb on Wednesday, March 18, at half past two.

WORTHY WOMAN CALLED TO REWARD

Mrs. Mae M. Whitman after a long and hard fight, yielded to the grim reaper Tuesday morning, March 10. Altho the end had long been expected, nevertheless when the word was passed along it came as a shock to the community.

Mrs. Whitman had lived in Campbell for the past thirty years and had spent her life in the service of others. She was prominent in the Women's Christian Temperance Union work, having served for a number of years as one of its national officers. The far reaching results of her devotion and untiring efforts for the temperance cause, with others of the organization, can never be reckoned.

The funeral services will be in charge of the state officers of the W. C. T. U. assisted by the Rev. W. K. Towner, of San Jose and the Rev. W. E. Eckles of Campbell at two o'clock this Friday afternoon from the parlors of the San Jose Undertaking Co. Interment at Oak Hill.

Her obituary will appear next week.

QUINT SQUAD FETED BY SCHOOL COACH

Coach Noddin, of Campbell High knows how to do more things than Coach basketball. He knows how to make his husky unlimited team supremely happy.

This was proven last Friday evening when he seated his eleven huskies around the festive board, which was decorated in the Campbell High red and white from nut baskets to frosted cake.

After everyone had partaken of the wonderful chicken dinner, Coach Noddin, acting as toast master, called upon the various members for speeches. These speeches should go down in history and will be long remembered by the members of the team.

The boys had prepared a surprise for Mr. and Mrs. Noddin, which was a beautiful tortoise shell card case containing two beautiful sets of cards. Breck Reed presented this in a few well chosen words. Mrs. Noddin was assisted by Mrs. Louis Shelley.

Those present were: Breck Reed, Antone Bonacorso, Billy Robinson, Johnny Duncan, Milton Nelson, Ray Steindorf, Carl Nelson, Aldrich Kalas, Elbur Clark, Richard Shelley, Art Sundquist.

Methodists in Council

Methodist Episcopal Churches in this vicinity are preparing for one of the greatest mass meetings of Methodist men ever held on the Coast. Efforts are being made to enlist the men of local churches as delegates to the Methodist Men's Council, which meets at Grace Methodist Episcopal church, San Francisco, next Tuesday and Wednesday, and active committees are at work to secure large delegations from the churches in this section.

A team of outstanding speakers from various sections of the country will present a program which religious leaders say has never been equaled on the Pacific coast. Among these speakers will be Bishop E. H. Hughes, Chicago; Bishop C. L. Meade, Denver, Dr. E. A. Steiner, Grinnell, Ia.; Ex-Governor W. E. Sweet, Denver; Dr. R. E. Diefendorfer, New York; Dr. E. P. Tittles, Evanston, Ill.; Dr. W. S. Bovard, Chicago, and others.

Local men who have been appointed on committees to promote the Council and secure the registration of delegates, are: S. F. Graves, chairman; Ira Bogart, S. G. Rodeck, Rev. F. C. Farr.

Women Democrats Elect
Washington.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson was reelected honorary president of the Women's National Democratic Club at its annual meeting here.

Grange Urges Better Crossing

At the Grange Tuesday evening, Mr. Cook made some forceful remarks about the condition of the railroad crossing on Campbell avenue. The matter was discussed by several members and a committee appointed to interview the railroad company to get a better and more permanent crossing.

Several members spoke of the prune and apricot association. The general view seemed to be that matters were taking on a more favorable appearance and it was hoped that the association's affairs would be on a more satisfactory basis soon.

During the lecture hour, Prof. I. R. Abbott of the grammar school gave an instructive talk on education.

Miss Olive Hanger favored the Grange with two of her best musical selections on the piano, which were well received.

Miss Marian Jenkins sang two of the old songs we all love so well to her own accompaniment.

Mrs. Barnes read a paper on gardening, also Mrs. Harms read about controlling the color of hydrangias, saying that the use of one table spoon full of sulphate of iron to one gallon of water would cause the flower to have a good blue color. This may be applied several times during the early part of the season and summer.

Miss Bernice Bogart with violin and Miss Olive Hanger at the piano, rendered some beautiful duets which were much appreciated by all.

It was agreed that a plant exchange would be held at the next Grange, Tuesday evening, March 24, to which members will bring anything they have to spare in the way of flowers, fruits and vegetables or ornamental plants and exchange with other members. A good attendance is looked for.

H. G. Keesling announced that Fomona Grange would be held at San Jose, Saturday, March 14. Basket lunch.

“Was Coolidge Elected By Radio?”—Headline in The Literary Digest. We don't know about that, but we know he was elected by heck!

There are not so many peddlars any more. They can't find anybody at home nowadays. They have turned burglars.
