REPORT

FOR THE

YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31ST, 1877.

DURING the greater part of the year 1877 there has been no marked prevalence of Contagious Fevers in the metropolis. The customary autumnal outbreak of Enteric Fever was, however, more extensive than usual, and the rate of mortality high. During the latter part of the year Measles, also, assumed epidemic proportions. The statistics of the Fever Hospital are in close accordance with this general epidemic constitution of the year.

The number of patients admitted into the Hospital, as shown by Table I., was 629, and 94 remained from the previous year, making a total of 723 cases under treatment during the year: males, 265; females, 364. Of these, 575 were discharged recovered, 70 died, and 78 remained under treatment on the 1st of January, 1878.

These numbers show a falling-off as compared with the past two years, in 1876 the admissions having been 730, and in 1875, 710. This diminution in the number of admissions is almost entirely due to the gradual subsidence of the epidemic of Scarlatina, which began in 1874, and has continued to prevail, more or less, ever since. The admissions of Enteric Fever and Measles show an increase over those of the previous year.

Of the 629 admissions, 584 consisted of the various forms of Contagious Fever, and 45 were cases of other diseases.

The numbers of the different forms of Fever are shown by Table II.

Eight cases of Typhus were admitted: 4 males—of whom 3 recovered, and 1 remains under treatment—and 4 females, all of whom died. One female, who remained under treatment from the past year, was discharged recovered.

106 cases of Enteric Fever were admitted, and 18 remained from the past year, making a total of 124: males, 64; females, 60. Of these, 90 were discharged recovered, 15 remain under treatment; and 19 died—males, 10; females, 9. Rate of mortality of cases treated to their termination, 17·51 per cent.; or, excluding 4 cases who died within forty-eight hours of their admission, 14·28 per cent. The annexed Tables show the ages of the patients and the complications met with.

Mortality, 4.18 per cent.

Four patients admitted with Scarlatina developed Measles within ten days of their admission, and 3 patients convalescent from Scarlatina contracted Measles from them.

The cases of other contagious diseases comprised 9 of Mumps, 7 of Rubeola or German Measles, 3 of Erysipelas, and 1 of Diphtheria.

Table IX. gives the particulars of the 45 cases of disease other than Fever which were admitted during the year. Among these were 6 cases of Small-pox, one of which was sent to the Hospital in a moribund state, and died soon after admission. The other 5 were at once transferred to the Small-pox Hospital.

Total 45, of whom 14 died.

One male, suffering from Phthisis and general Tuberculosis, and one female, with debility, were under treatment on December 31st, 1877.

One of the nurses was attacked by Enteric Fever, and another had to undergo amputation of the finger for a poisoned wound. Both made good recoveries. Two of the servants had slight ailments.

Mr. Murphy, the Resident Medical Officer, was laid up by an attack of Rheumatic Fever, and has not yet been able to resume his duties.

Mr. Thurnam has succeeded Mr. Harvey as Assistant Medical Officer, and Mr. Henderson has undertaken the duties of Mr. Murphy during his illness.

The private wards set apart for patients of a higher position, who are able to pay for their accommodation, have been in less request this year than usual, owing, no doubt, to the subsidence of the Scarlatina epidemic. The number of admissions into these wards was 27, 20 of which were suffering from Scarlatina, 4 from Enteric Fever, 1 from Measles, and 2 from other diseases. These comparatively small numbers show that, notwithstanding the efforts of the Committee, the advantages of this department of the Hospital are still insufficiently known to the public. No deaths occurred among these patients.

Table X. gives the occupation and mode of admission of the patients. From this it appears that 66 were admitted from other hospitals, 22 from schools, and 35 from other charitable institutions. This transference of contagious cases from the wards of general hospitals, where there are no convenient means of isolation, forms a most important part of the work of the Fever Hospital; and it is the means of saving many persons—admitted into general hospitals for accidents and other diseases—from being attacked by fever when they are least capable of resisting its effects.

Thirteen cases were admitted by order of the sanitary authorities. 215 cases belonging to the poorer classes, but not in receipt of parochial relief, were admitted without the small payment required from the other patients. The Committee has to rely on the support of the public, to enable them to extend still more widely among this class the advantages of the Hospital, which is the only institution in London for the treatment of Contagious Fevers among persons who are not paupers.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

Objects of the Institution.

1. ALL poor persons (not being parochial paupers) and domestic servants of subscribers, labouring under contagious fever, and residing in the metropolis or its neighbourhood, shall be considered proper objects for this charity, and shall be admitted gratuitously, according to the next regulation. Domestic servants, employés in houses of business, and others similarly situated, and all inmates of other public charities (except medical hospitals), shall be admitted on the payment of such sum for each patient as the Committee shall from time to time determine.

2. On application for the admission of any patient to the Hospital, notice shall be immediately given to the resident medical officer, and the person after inspection may be admitted by an order signed by him, or on a certificate signed by any physician, surgeon, or apothecary, stating the disease to be fever of a contagious nature, or likely to become such. The order or certificate shall entitle the patient to admission, subject to the provisions contained in Rule No. 1, unless the case shall be deemed an improper one by the resident medical officer, or unless the Hospital shall be full.

Governors.

3. All subscribers of one guinea annually, or of ten guineas in one donation, shall be governors of this Hospital.

General Meeting and Election of the Committee.

4. A general meeting of the governors, of which ten days' previous notice must be given in three morning newspapers, shall be held every year, on the second Friday in February, or as near thereto as may be convenient, for the purpose of approving or rescinding the proceedings of the Committee for the preceding year; for receiving an annual report of the state of the funds; and for electing a president, vice-presidents, treasurer, honorary secretary, and other members of the Committee for the ensuing year. At all meetings connected with the affairs of the Hospital, a simple majority of the governors present and voting shall bind the minority; and in case of equality of votes, the chairman shall have an additional vote or casting vote.

5. A special general meeting of the governors may at any time be called by direction of the president or of the Committee; or on the requisition of any twelve governors, provided the requisition be made in writing to the Secretary, and the purpose for which the same is summoned be published in three morning newspapers at least ten days prior to the next meeting; but the proceedings of such special general meeting, though acted upon pro tempore, shall not be deemed final until confirmed by another general meeting.

6. No new rule or law shall be made, nor shall any existing rule or law be repealed or altered, until determined upon at a general meeting by a majority of governors present and voting, and until confirmed at a subsequent general or special meeting.

7. The presence of seven governors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at general meetings, and without that number no business shall be transacted.

8. At the annual general meeting, a Committee for the management of the Institution shall be elected, consisting of the president, the vice-presidents, the treasurer, honorary secretary, and twenty-four other governors; four of which governors shall not have been members of the preceding Committee. They shall meet on the last Friday, or on such other day of every month as the Committee may appoint; and three members shall be necessary to constitute a meeting, and to transact business. A special meeting of the Committee may be called by the direction of the treasurer, or by any three members of the Committee, on giving at least three days' notice of the same, and specifying the business for which it is called.

9. The Committee shall have authority to appoint sub-committees, whose reports shall be submitted to their consideration; they shall elect all the officers, except the physicians of the Hospital and the honorary secretary, who shall be elected by the governors at large; and, with the assistance of the medical officers, shall form regulations and bye-laws for the internal management of the Hospital.

10. The resolutions of one meeting of the Committee shall not be rescinded by another, unless it be specially summoned for that purpose. All accounts, except such small sums as may be comprised under the item of petty cash, shall be submitted to the Committee at the monthly meetings, after having been duly examined by the secretary, the resident medical officer, and the house-directors; and such accounts, if approved, shall be paid by cheques payable to order, signed in Committee by the chairman and one other member, or, in case a Committee cannot be formed, by two of the house-directors, and in all cases countersigned by the secretary. All the larger articles of supply, when practicable, shall be furnished by contract made after public tender. No expenditure for repairs of premises or any machinery shall be incurred, without a written order from the Committee or house-directors.

11. The Committee shall yearly publish a report of the state of the Hospital.

12. No person being a member of the Committee shall furnish for profit any goods, provisions, or other articles, for the use of, or on account of, the Hospital, or be concerned in any contract for supplying the same, or be employed for hire, or wages, or profit, in any office or employment under the charity.

Treasurer.

13. The treasurer, if present, shall take the chair at all meetings of the Committee, in the absence of the president or vice-presidents. He shall keep an account at the bankers', and all moneys received for the use of the Hospital shall be paid to such account; he shall honour all cheques signed, as provided in Rule 10; and the signature of the secretary shall be a sufficient warranty that the cheques purporting to be so signed are properly signed, and shall be an indemnity to the treasurer against risk.

Auditors.

14. Three gentlemen shall be appointed annually at the meeting of the Committee in November, who shall audit the accounts of the Institution for the current year, and approve an abstract of all receipts and disbursements to be prepared by the secretary, and laid before the annual general meeting in February.

Monthly Directors.

15. The Committee shall at their first meeting, in the month of February, elect three members of their own body to be directors of the Hospital, in addition to the trustees and two senior physicians, who shall be ex officio directors. And the Committee may appoint one of such directors to be the chairman, who shall retain his office for the ensuing twelve months, the Committee appointing the other directors, excepting the ex officio directors, monthly. Two of the directors to form a quorum.

16. They shall from time to time cause the beds, clothes, and apparel belonging to the Hospital to be examined, and shall report thereon, if necessary, to the Committee. They shall inspect the tradesmen's bills, and take care that the provisions, bedding, clothing, furniture, and every article for the use of the Hospital, be supplied on the most reasonable terms; they shall order in writing all permanent stores.

17. They shall be authorised in all respects to enforce the observance of the regulations of the Hospital; they shall notice and report to the Committee any irregularity or misconduct on the part of the officers, servants, or patients of the charity, and shall, at every meeting of the Committee, cause a statement of the house expenditure to be produced for the preceding month. They shall appoint the porters, nurses, and other menial servants of the Hospital, and dismiss them for misconduct.

17A. The chairman of the directors shall, during the intervals between their meetings, be authorised to exercise the functions of the directors in any matter of urgency, he reporting, at their next meeting, what he shall have done under this authority.

Physicians.

18. There shall be two physicians and two assistant physicians, who shall be Fellows or Members (formerly called Licentiates) of the Royal College of Physicians of London; and also a consulting surgeon, who shall be a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons.

19. The physicians and assistant physicians shall be elected by the governors at large; and no governor shall be qualified to vote, unless he shall have become a governor three months before a vacancy is declared.

20. One of the physicians shall visit the Hospital at least once every day, and at such times as they may deem necessary. They shall have the power of dismissing any patient or convalescent for refractory conduct or disobedience of orders.

Assistant Physicians.

21. In case of the illness or necessary absence of either of the physicians, one of the assistant physicians shall attend regularly in his stead. Such attendances are to be reported to the Committee.

Hospital Pupils.

22. No medical student shall be permitted to visit the Hospital unless in company with one of the physicians, and unless he is regularly entered or registered as a pupil.

Resident Medical Officer.

23. The resident medical officer shall reside constantly at the Hospital, and shall devote himself entirely to the duties of his office; and, previously to his election, he shall be required to produce satisfactory testimonials to the Committee.

24. He shall superintend the patients between the visits of the physicians, and the dispensary shall be exclusively under his control. In the absence of the Committee and house-directors, he shall be recognised as the head of the establishment.

25. Accurate registers of the patients admitted, as well as of the remedies employed for their recovery, shall be kept, which registers shall be the property of the Hospital; he shall produce a special report every month, to be laid before the Committee.

26. When the number of patients shall be great, a medical assistant shall be appointed by the house-directors, subject to the confirmation of the Committee, and he shall receive such remuneration as the Committee shall from time to time determine.

Honorary Secretary.

27. There shall be an honorary secretary, who shall also be a member of the Committee, and chosen annually with them. He shall be at liberty to attend all deputations to public bodies and private persons. He shall communicate with persons concerning the affairs of the Hospital during the intervals between the monthly meetings of the Committee, and shall report to the Committee, at their next meeting, all special or important events that shall have occurred within his knowledge during the month. He shall also assist the treasurer in the discharge of his duties when necessary.

Secretary and House Steward.

28. The duties of this officer shall be to reside in the Hospital, if required by the Committee, and, in the absence of the house-directors, to have the management of the domestic affairs of the Hospital, under the general superintendence of the resident medical officer. He shall be required to enter into a bond, with sufficient sureties, for the due and faithful performance of his duties. He shall also perform the several duties specified in the bye-laws.

Matron.

29. The duties of the matron shall principally relate to the wards, the kitchen, and the laundry. She shall exercise a strict superintendence over the nurses, shall have the charge of linen, bedding, glass, crockery, and ordinary kitchen and scullery stores, subject to the general supervision of the house-steward; and shall visit every ward of the Hospital at least three times in the day. She shall also perform the several duties specified in the bye-laws.

Collector.

30. The duties of this officer shall be—
To call on subscribers and collect all donations and subscriptions of the Hospital; to give only authorised printed receipts for the same; to attend all meetings, when required; to keep correct lists and duplicate lists of all donations and subscriptions, with the residences of the donors and subscribers made up from day to day; to pay weekly all moneys he may receive to the bankers; to deliver weekly to the secretary reports in writing of all moneys received and paid, with the balance at the bankers; to keep the accounts regularly entered in the collector's cash book; to deliver a copy of the annual report to each subscriber; and to give such security, with sureties, for the due and faithful performance of his duties, as may be required.

Nurses.

31. The head nurse in each ward shall attend principally to the patients, and to the keeping of the wards clean and quiet.

32. The under nurses shall be under the direction of the head nurses, and shall perform the more menial offices of the Hospital.

Porter and Engineer.

33. The porter and the engineer shall be employed as the Committee or directors may think proper. They shall not absent themselves without the permission of the house-directors or resident medical officer.

Trustees.

34. The legal estate in the lands, buildings, and premises of the Hospital shall be vested in five trustees, new trustees being appointed when vacancies occur at a general meeting of the governors.

35. All legacies of £100 and upwards, unless otherwise directed by the testators, shall be invested for the benefit of the Hospital, in the names of three trustees, to be called trustees of the fund.

36. No variation in the usual gratuities and fixed salaries shall be made, unless the Committee be specially summoned for that purpose, and unless the proposed addition or diminution be confirmed by a subsequent Committee.

Bye-laws.

37. The bye-laws which shall from time to time be made by the Committee shall be open to the inspection of any subscriber, and shall contain, among other things, a full specification of the duties of the resident medical officer, the matron, and other officers of the Institution, with the practices usually adopted for their election; which specification shall be read out to every individual before his appointment, and referred to on all occasions of doubt.
