The CITY of HOMES

A jolly evening was spent Tues-

Wednesday afternoon from three until five o'clock members of the St. Mark's Guild, together with friends, enjoyed a delightfully pleasant two hours in the home of Mrs. Albert C. Reed, 1456 West Broad-O. A. Lane
Way, who graciously opened the doors of her attractive little home for the occasion.

Shasta daisies and potted ferns were arranged in the rooms and on the long veranda that vied with one another for popularity. Games and contests, for which Mrs. D. W. Hunt Mrs. Scott W. Johnson awarded prizes, constituted the afternoon's pastime. Delicious refresh-ments were served at 4:30 o'clock and after a few lingering moments of merry chatter, the thirty guests departed to meet again next month in the home of Mrs. A. Parker on Louise street.

SCOTLAND VISITOR LEAVES CITY

Miss Elizabeth Smith of Duns, Scotland, who since February has been touring different parts of the states and who for the past week has been a guest in the home of uncle, Mr. Richard H. Wells, 1 1504 West Broadway, returned Wednes-day to the home of Los Angeles relatives to leave on Tuesday for the Grand Canyon, where she will remain a fortnight prior to going to Albuquerque, Chicago, Philadelphia and New York City, from which place she will sail for her Scotland home in September.

NORTH GLENDALE

Wednesday afternoon Miss Ruth Jossellyn celebrated her tenth birthday and in honor of the occasion her mother, Mrs. E. A. Jossellyn of 1641 Ruth street entertained several of her playmates most delightfully. Games were enjoyed upon the spa-cious lawn, after which a delicious luncheon was served by the gracious hostess to the happy guests. time the birthday cake, all pink and white and Oh, so good, was cut and each child wished Miss Ruth many happy returns of the day. Mrs. Jossellyn was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Miss Blanche Jossellyn, who was especially interested in entertaining the favored guests.

Dr. H. Clay Hall of Los Angeles, formerly of Tulleride, Colo., was the dinner guest of Mrs. T. W. Sampson of 1659 Ruth street on Tuesday. Mrs. Sampson, also a former resident of Tulleride, served as nurse under Dr. Hall at the hospital in Tulleride several years ago. Therefore, the visit was very pleasant for both of these old-time friends.

and Mrs. George Tyrrell of 1640 Ruth street entertained in honor of the birthday of Mr. Tyrrell's brother, Mr. Charles Tyrrell. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, red and green being the chosen motif. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening to about a dozen young people who were invited to honor the occasion. A very enjoyable evening was the report of all present.

Miss Helen Bettis of 1616 Stocker street entertained as her guests very ecently Miss Etta Johnson and Miss Mable Harper of Los Angeles.
