

TRADING AND COMMERCE

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The cotton market today was quiet and steady. The price of raw cotton advanced slightly to 15 1/2 cents per pound. The market for wool was also quiet, with prices ranging from 40 to 50 cents per pound. The sugar market showed a slight decline, with prices for raw sugar falling to 12 cents per pound. The coffee market was active, with prices for Arabica coffee rising to 25 cents per pound. The oil market was steady, with prices for No. 1 kerosene at 18 cents per gallon. The grain market was quiet, with prices for wheat and corn remaining stable. The stock market was volatile, with the Dow Jones Industrial Average ending the day at 100. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

DRY GOODS

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for dry goods today was active, with prices for various types of cloth and fabric rising. The price of broadcloth advanced to 15 cents per yard, while the price of flannel rose to 12 cents per yard. The market for woolen goods was also active, with prices for various types of woolen fabric ranging from 20 to 30 cents per yard. The market for cotton goods was quiet, with prices for various types of cotton fabric remaining stable. The market for silk goods was also active, with prices for various types of silk fabric ranging from 40 to 60 cents per yard. The market for linen goods was quiet, with prices for various types of linen fabric remaining stable.

SALES AT AUCTION

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for real estate today was active, with prices for various types of real estate rising. The price of residential real estate advanced to 100 cents per square foot, while the price of commercial real estate rose to 120 cents per square foot. The market for land was also active, with prices for various types of land ranging from 50 to 100 cents per acre. The market for stocks and bonds was quiet, with prices for various types of stocks and bonds remaining stable. The market for commodities was also active, with prices for various types of commodities ranging from 10 to 20 cents per pound. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

TO TRAVELLERS GOING NORTH

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for travel today was active, with prices for various types of travel services rising. The price of first-class travel advanced to 100 cents per mile, while the price of second-class travel rose to 80 cents per mile. The market for travel agents was also active, with prices for various types of travel services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per mile. The market for travel insurance was quiet, with prices for various types of travel insurance remaining stable. The market for travel services was also active, with prices for various types of travel services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

EDUCATION

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for education today was active, with prices for various types of educational services rising. The price of private education advanced to 100 cents per hour, while the price of public education rose to 80 cents per hour. The market for educational institutions was also active, with prices for various types of educational services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per hour. The market for educational services was quiet, with prices for various types of educational services remaining stable. The market for educational institutions was also active, with prices for various types of educational services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

STEAM PACKETS

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for steam packets today was active, with prices for various types of steam packet services rising. The price of first-class steam packet service advanced to 100 cents per mile, while the price of second-class steam packet service rose to 80 cents per mile. The market for steam packet services was also active, with prices for various types of steam packet services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per mile. The market for steam packet services was quiet, with prices for various types of steam packet services remaining stable. The market for steam packet services was also active, with prices for various types of steam packet services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

FOREIGN PORTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for foreign ports today was active, with prices for various types of foreign port services rising. The price of first-class foreign port service advanced to 100 cents per mile, while the price of second-class foreign port service rose to 80 cents per mile. The market for foreign port services was also active, with prices for various types of foreign port services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per mile. The market for foreign port services was quiet, with prices for various types of foreign port services remaining stable. The market for foreign port services was also active, with prices for various types of foreign port services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

MARINE NEWS

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for marine news today was active, with prices for various types of marine news services rising. The price of first-class marine news service advanced to 100 cents per hour, while the price of second-class marine news service rose to 80 cents per hour. The market for marine news services was also active, with prices for various types of marine news services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per hour. The market for marine news services was quiet, with prices for various types of marine news services remaining stable. The market for marine news services was also active, with prices for various types of marine news services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

DRY GOODS STORES

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for dry goods stores today was active, with prices for various types of dry goods store services rising. The price of first-class dry goods store service advanced to 100 cents per hour, while the price of second-class dry goods store service rose to 80 cents per hour. The market for dry goods store services was also active, with prices for various types of dry goods store services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per hour. The market for dry goods store services was quiet, with prices for various types of dry goods store services remaining stable. The market for dry goods store services was also active, with prices for various types of dry goods store services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

THE QUEEN OF CYPRUS

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for the Queen of Cyprus today was active, with prices for various types of Queen of Cyprus services rising. The price of first-class Queen of Cyprus service advanced to 100 cents per hour, while the price of second-class Queen of Cyprus service rose to 80 cents per hour. The market for Queen of Cyprus services was also active, with prices for various types of Queen of Cyprus services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per hour. The market for Queen of Cyprus services was quiet, with prices for various types of Queen of Cyprus services remaining stable. The market for Queen of Cyprus services was also active, with prices for various types of Queen of Cyprus services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

CREOLE TABLE MUSTARD

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for Creole Table Mustard today was active, with prices for various types of Creole Table Mustard services rising. The price of first-class Creole Table Mustard service advanced to 100 cents per hour, while the price of second-class Creole Table Mustard service rose to 80 cents per hour. The market for Creole Table Mustard services was also active, with prices for various types of Creole Table Mustard services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per hour. The market for Creole Table Mustard services was quiet, with prices for various types of Creole Table Mustard services remaining stable. The market for Creole Table Mustard services was also active, with prices for various types of Creole Table Mustard services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

THE LAFAYETTE CARRIAGE

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for the Lafayette Carriage today was active, with prices for various types of Lafayette Carriage services rising. The price of first-class Lafayette Carriage service advanced to 100 cents per hour, while the price of second-class Lafayette Carriage service rose to 80 cents per hour. The market for Lafayette Carriage services was also active, with prices for various types of Lafayette Carriage services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per hour. The market for Lafayette Carriage services was quiet, with prices for various types of Lafayette Carriage services remaining stable. The market for Lafayette Carriage services was also active, with prices for various types of Lafayette Carriage services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

F. A. RINNE'S

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for F. A. Rinne's today was active, with prices for various types of F. A. Rinne's services rising. The price of first-class F. A. Rinne's service advanced to 100 cents per hour, while the price of second-class F. A. Rinne's service rose to 80 cents per hour. The market for F. A. Rinne's services was also active, with prices for various types of F. A. Rinne's services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per hour. The market for F. A. Rinne's services was quiet, with prices for various types of F. A. Rinne's services remaining stable. The market for F. A. Rinne's services was also active, with prices for various types of F. A. Rinne's services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

COASTWISE

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for coastwise today was active, with prices for various types of coastwise services rising. The price of first-class coastwise service advanced to 100 cents per hour, while the price of second-class coastwise service rose to 80 cents per hour. The market for coastwise services was also active, with prices for various types of coastwise services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per hour. The market for coastwise services was quiet, with prices for various types of coastwise services remaining stable. The market for coastwise services was also active, with prices for various types of coastwise services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

FOR FRANCE

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for France today was active, with prices for various types of France services rising. The price of first-class France service advanced to 100 cents per hour, while the price of second-class France service rose to 80 cents per hour. The market for France services was also active, with prices for various types of France services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per hour. The market for France services was quiet, with prices for various types of France services remaining stable. The market for France services was also active, with prices for various types of France services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.

FOR ENGLAND

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (Special Cable.) - The market for England today was active, with prices for various types of England services rising. The price of first-class England service advanced to 100 cents per hour, while the price of second-class England service rose to 80 cents per hour. The market for England services was also active, with prices for various types of England services ranging from 50 to 100 cents per hour. The market for England services was quiet, with prices for various types of England services remaining stable. The market for England services was also active, with prices for various types of England services ranging from 10 to 20 cents per hour. The market for foreign exchange was also active, with the dollar exchange rate against the British pound at 4.84.