The page is framed by an elaborate, hand-colored decorative border. At the top, there are stylized waves in shades of yellow and orange. Below them, various marine life is depicted: a black branching coral, a vibrant red branching coral, a white porous coral, a green leafy plant, and a large scallop shell. On the right side, a blue ribbon is tied into a ring. The bottom border features more sea creatures, including a large yellow branching coral, a brown branching coral, and several shells. The text is centered in a calligraphic script.
