A DIRECT PRIMARY LAW.

(East San Jose Post)

The most important measure which will be brought before the coming session of the State Legislature, so far as it affects the future well-being of the people of the State, is without doubt a direct primary law. It places the choosing of all officers in the direct hands of the whole people. For that reason it will be bitterly opposed by the professional politicians and the railroads, who so delight in dictating as to who shall be the candidates for Governor, Supreme and Appellate Court Justices, Railroad Commissioners, and members of the Legislature. If they cannot prevent a direct primary law being enacted they will endeavor to doctor the measure so as to make it unconstitutional or so cumbersome in its operation as to be obnoxious to the voters. All of the political parties in California have declared in favor of a direct primary, but there seems to be a tendency on the part of some of the Legislative candidates to hedge as to their position on the question. As this is a most vital measure which affects the whole people very materially, we suggest that each candidate for the State Senate and the Assembly be asked to unequivocally state his position on the question. That the law has been of great benefit in other States there is no doubt. The San Francisco Call says:

Senator La Follette of Wisconsin has been fighting machine politics all his life and no man in the United States has achieved such important victories in this never-ending conflict. Senator La Follette sums up the advantages of the direct primary in these words:

"With the nominations of all candidates absolutely in the control of the people, under a system that gives every member of a party equal voice in making a nomination, the public official who desires renomination will not dare to seek it if he has served the machine and lobby and betrayed the public trust; if he has violated the pledges of his party and swapped its declared principles to special interests for special favors. But under a primary election the public official who has kept faith with the public can appeal to that public for its approval with confidence. He will then have every incentive to keep his official record clean. If he have no loftier standard than mere personal success, he will nevertheless so administer his office as to earn the commendation, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant.' The nomination of all their candidates by the direct vote of the people is the spirit, the very life of representative government. It is plain, simple, practical. It is their right."

J. E. Werlein, who has served several terms as city treasurer of Portland, Or., was re-elected to that position under the direct primary nominating law in June of last year. Having been in Oregon politics for many years he is well qualified for judging the value of the new primary law as compared with the old convention system. In reply to a request for his opinion on the matter, he expresses his favor for the direct primary law in no uncertain terms. Following is a statement from him in the Call:

"As a citizen and taxpayer I unqualifiedly indorse the direct primary is truly so, only when it is equipped with the celebrated "Standard" Porcelain Enameled Ware. If you are using the old fashioned bathroom fixtures, don't you think it would be advisable to install in their place fixtures that are absolutely sanitary and modern?

The old fashioned plumbing fixtures are usually made partly of wood, with numerous cracks and crevices wherein dirt and filth can find lodgment, in fact, they make more dirt than they remove.

We would suggest that you let us remove the old-fashioned fixtures and install in their place the beautiful snowy white "Standard" Ware. You will then be provided with the most sanitary and modern fixtures made.

We will be pleased to quote you prices and will gladly give you information as to sanitary plumbing in the home. Write or ask for booklet, "Modern Home Plumbing."

law. Excepting some few trifling matters that can easily be remedied I am satisfied that it comes as near placing the nominating system in a state of perfection as it is possible for the ingenuity of man to formulate a law. The old boss or spoils system did not give the people a voice in the matter of deciding who the candidates of their respective parties should be. It is true that the delegates to the nominating convention were presumably elected by the people, but this at many primary elections was a farce. Under the direct primary system every person who desires to enter the primary contest has a fair show and the conditions imposed are the same in every case. A strong, clean, fearless man had better submit his name to an open convention participated in by from 10,000 to 50,000 delegates rather than a slated convention of from 50 to 150 delegates, and you can generally depend upon the people knowing what and whom they want. It is my opinion when a man is indebted directly to the people for his nomination he will set a higher standard of efficiency as his goal than when two or three bosses dictate his nomination, and he will put in practice the saying, 'A public officer is a public servant,' rather than 'The public is his servant.'

A. E. Harris Passes Away.

Attorney Artemis E. Harris of Latimer avenue died Monday evening after an illness of several weeks. The funeral services were conducted at the home by the Rev. A. H. Needham of the Methodist church. The surviving members of his family are his mother, his wife and five little children, Edith, Rose, Gertrude, Albert and Dean; and his brothers, Walter, president of the Bank of Tonopah, and Ernest of San Francisco, all of whom were in attendance at his bedside; two sisters, Mrs. Adelaide Brower of Reno, and Mrs. Rose Marsh of Colorado were unable to be present.

Dr. R. D. Hunt of the San Jose High School pays this tribute to the deceased in a recent number of the Mercury:

"I have been personally acquainted with Mr. Harris for more than twenty years. For a time we were classmates in college at Napa; it was there that a warm friendship sprung up between us, which has ripened into real brotherly affection. After leaving Napa College, he taught very successfully for several years, when he entered the Law Department of Michigan University at Ann Arbor to give himself a thorough training for his chosen profession.

"Mr. Harris was a diligent and painstaking student in school and university and possessed those traits of personality that made him a natural leader among his fellows. His generous spirit and genial, sunny disposition, combined with student quality and sterling worth of manhood, caused him to be much sought after as friend and companion in college days.

"Mr. Harris was not intimately known to a very wide circle of acquaintances in San Jose, but those who were favored with a close walk with him found him a gentleman of refined ways, exact scholarship, deep and steady convictions of right and wrong, and withal a warm-hearted, sympathetic friend. The good influences of his life upon his long-time friends shall not fail, the memories of of kindly associations shall endure while life shall last."

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN.

Candidates Held Forth at Campbell this Friday Night.

The Republican County candidates have actively opened their campaign in Santa Clara County, and according to the usual custom are visiting the various towns. They will be here on Friday the 12th day of October, in the evening at I. O. O. F. Hall.

The County ticket presented by the Republican party this year is an exceedingly strong one; in fact the strongest that the Republican party has nominated in this County for more than twenty years. There are no black sheep on the ticket. The men who have held office heretofore and who have been renominated are all thoroughly trustworthy and efficient and the new selections are from among popular people, whose honesty and capability is entirely unquestioned.

At the head of the ticket stands Sheriff Ross. Mr. Ross has been sheriff for nearly two years and the sheriff's office of Santa Clara County has never been better administered. There has been no jury scandal in the county since Sheriff Ross took office. The sheriff is a vigorous, earnest, energetic and fearless officer; always prompt in doing his duty and ready to assist everybody who calls upon his office for help. It is exceedingly important that a man not only of honest purpose but of strong character as well should fill the office of sheriff. A man, who no matter what influences may be brought to bear on him will never falter in his efforts to ferret out and punish crime; to select honest men for jurymen and to economically save the county's money in dealing with the multitude of matters which a sheriff is called upon to do. Mr. Ross has proved himself thoroughly capable of doing all these things.

A. M. Free, the candidate for District Attorney, is the chief speaker at the candidates' meetings. Mr. Free is a graduate of Stanford University and is a vigorous and eloquent talker. He is an ambitious and earnest young man and will make an efficient helper for Sheriff Ross in the conduct of the criminal business of the county. Mr. Free's legal education has been excellent and he will make good in the District Attorney's office.

For County Treasurer E. W. Conant the present incumbent was nominated without opposition.

Wilbur P. Parker received the nomination for the place which he has filled in the Auditor's office with little intermission for many years.

J. G. McMillan, the veteran County Surveyor was also renominated for his position. These men need no recommendations for they are all tried and trusted public servants and there can be no good reason why they should not be elected in each instance to succeed themselves.

The Republican party returned, so far as the office of coroner and public administrator is concerned, to the old traditions of the county, and nominated Dr. William Simpson, present County Health Officer, for the place. It goes without saying that a physician and surgeon should be elected coroner. The principal business of the coroner's side of this office is inquests over people who have died violent deaths and the necessity of a physician in these cases is very great. Often the whole question of detecting and punishing crime of murder rest with the coroner and upon him is the responsibility for tracing out the manner in which mysterious crimes have been done. Dr. Simpson's wide acquaintance and his thorough knowledge of his profession recommend him for this office and as public administrator too his nomination commends itself to the public. He is a man of mature judgment and has reached middle life and is the kind of man who could administer successfully the estates of people who leave no relatives in the county to care for their interests.

In the nomination of Miss Jessie A. Parkman for County Superintendent of Schools the Republican party made a departure from the usual custom of this county, but it is not a departure so far as other counties of this State are concerned. There have been a number of very successful women Superintendents of Schools in California during the past twenty years. Notably among these were Miss Ames, of Napa, who came near being nominated upon the Republican ticket for State Superintendent and who has filled the position of County Superintendent in Napa County for a number of years with great success. She was preceded also in her office by a woman. Miss Parkman is a thoroughly womanly, cultured and pleasant lady and the Republican party has done well to acknowledge by this honor the services of the great number of women who contribute to the education of the young.

D. J. Flannery was nominated for County Recorder. A great deal has been said of Mr. Flannery's glad hand and of his efficient service as Deputy United States Revenue Collector in this county, but these are not by any means the best parts of Mr. Flannery's character. He is a thoroughly capable business man; an accurate accountant and a very earnest and straightforward man in every particular. He has been well known throughout the county during his whole life and too much cannot be said in praise of this nomination.

The legislative ticket presented by the Republican party is far and away the best as a whole that has ever asked for suffrages of the people of Santa Clara County. The Senatorial ticket is a particularly strong one. It consists of Marshall Black, 28th District and George Walker, 27th District. Both have seen service in the Legislature, and both have made records which are very satisfactory to their constituency. They know the ropes at Sacramento and their associations there were with the honest and clean members of the Legislature. Santa Clara County has too often been misrepresented at Sacramento, but it is certain that Black and Walker will never bring any disgrace upon the people who elect them.

Dr. J. T. Higgins, of Morgan Hill; Mr. G. W. Smith, of Saratoga; and Mr. C. C. Spaulding of Sunnyvale; are an excellent team to represent Santa Clara County in the Assembly.

Mr. G. W. Smith is a young lawyer whose home is in Saratoga and who practices in San Jose. He is a representative member of the younger lawyers of this county and can be relied on to do what is right.

The Republican convention did another unusual but gracious thing in this county. It nominated upon its ticket County Clerk Pfister, Assessor Spitzer and Tax Collector January. Mr. Pfister had some opposition in the convention, but the gentleman whose name was presented to the convention did not know of the fact until after the convention was over. He did not want the office and his business would probably have prevented him from accepting it had he been nominated. County Clerk Pfister's popularity is such that nobody would care to run against him. He has been a most efficient officer and has about him the most accommodating and capable deputies that can be gathered in the county. The same may be said of Mr. Spitzer and Mr. January, and in addition to the latter's great age and the hardship to which he would be subjected if he would be compelled to make a canvass, the misfortune which has attended him of late years in various ways would have made it a great unkindness for the Republican convention to have nominated some vigorous young man against him and have forced him into a hard political fight at his time of life; in fact it might have shortened his days on earth. It has been the custom for years in Santa Clara County at times to nominate men for public office in order to throw them down. The Republican convention this year sincerely nominated a ticket which its members intended should win. The result is a strong, energetic campaign in which every candidate is helping every other candidate and the County Committee is working for the whole ticket.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of the Pain Balm in your house and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by Farmers Union, agents.

PRESS NOTES

Robert Goddard is home from San Francisco where he has been working for L. H. Sly.

Mrs. Daniel Fore and daughter, Miss Ruby, started for the East Thursday morning.

Mrs. Albert Wilcox and daughters left for Balls Ferry Thursday after visiting her sisters, Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Fritz, for several weeks.

The Fruit Growers' Union is shipping out a large quantity of dried fruit which has been sold at a good figure, and reports from the season's work promises a more prosperous year for patrons than has been enjoyed for some time. The pool formed by certain growers seems to be a success as it is reported that advantageous sales have already been made.

Mrs. C. H. Whitman had a severe attack of heart trouble last week, but is now nearly recovered.

The Grammar School trustees have elected J. N. Mercer teacher of the fifth and sixth grades. Mr. Mercer comes with the best possible recommendations. He has been principal of various schools for fourteen years. He has spent the past year or so taking a much needed rest from school work. He accepted this position for the year intending to return to a former position next year.

The Epworth League business meeting and social was held at the home of the Misses Archibald this Friday evening.

A laboratory room has been fitted up in the basement of the High School building. Heretofore a room in the primary building has been used for the purpose. The senior and junior classes each held a "feed" in the new room this week.

The lecture on the "American Soldier" by Dr. Arnold T. Needham of San Rafael which was given at the Methodist church Thursday evening was a real treat to those who were so fortunate as to hear it. The speaker has a rare gift for telling amusing anecdotes and was equally skillful in giving the pathetic side of the soldier's life. The collection taken is for the piano fund.

Gone to Her Reward.

Mrs. Abbie P. Hurlburt, wife of Judge B. G. Hurlburt, who died Sunday afternoon after a long illness was one of the best known and most highly respected of the residents of this section. She came to California in 1887 and was married to Moses Wingate who died about thirteen years ago. Ten years ago she was married to Judge Hurlburt who survives her. She also leaves a sister, Miss Alice Phelps, who had been a constant companion for many years.

Mrs. Hurlburt was widely known for her good works, having served her church (the Congregationalist) with devoted faithfulness since its organization seventeen years ago. She gave evidence of such unusual ability and tact as a financier at that time that she was chosen treasurer and held the position for sixteen years, resigning only a year ago.

She was of a bright and cheerful disposition, a good neighbor and a true friend, devoted to her own home and family, and a devout Christian.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Geo. Atkinson at her late home on Leigh avenue Tuesday morning, interment at Oak Hill.

Sick Headache Cured.

Sick headache is caused by derangement of the stomach and by indigestion. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets correct these disorders and effect a cure. An Awful Cough Cured.

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing, just like one with the whooping cough and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat," writes Mrs. Ora Bussard, Brubaker, Ill. The remedy is for sale by Farmers Union, agents.
