Dear Mr. McGarraghy:

Quoted below is an excerpt from the teletype conference between Defense Section, International Military Tribunal for the Far East, Tokyo, Japan, and War Crimes Branch, Civil Affairs Division.

"TT8466
27 August 1947

FEC Item 10. From Defense:

Request statement from CIG, Washington, D. C., as to length of time it will take to complete their search for documents requested under Tribunal's Order Paper No. 963, of May 16, 1947, for Defense of Minami.

If search has been completed, request statement from CIG as to the description and number of volumes they have sent in response to said order and a certificate of non-availability of the balance of said documents requested and not forwarded to the defense in Tokyo

Expedite reply by air mail so same may be put in evidence as basis for producing secondary evidence of said missing documents."

It is requested that the desired statement be forwarded to this office at the earliest possible date for transmittal to the Defense Section, IMTFE.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ RAY J. LAUX
