Prince of: shi is in Julian for this should be gloved by withing the LANG EANG INCIDENT 25/4/47

The Japanese military telephone and telegraph lines between Peiping and Fientsin have been frequently cut by the Chinese. On the 23rd inst., the lines here put out of order in the neighbourhood of Lnng Fang, which is a small station tuated half-way between Teiping and Tientsin. The Japanese contingent which ias sent to the spot to do the necessary repair work come back without having accomplished the purpose, owing to Chinese obstruction. On the 24th, another nit was despatched from Fengtai, and temporary repair work was made. In order to complete the work, the Japanese military headquarters sent on the 25th a communications corps accompanied by a small unit led by Lieutenant Gonoi, as a covering force, which consist d of less than a company of men. They were cespatched after an understanding had been reached with General Chang Tsuchung, Journancer of the 35th Division and Layor of Tientsin. At 4:30 o'clock in the lite noon the Japanese arrived at Lung Fung, and found the station occupied by Thinese troops, one company strong. The Japanese negotiated with the Chinese, ifter which they entered the station and proceeded to repair the lines. At 11:10 p.m. fter the Japanese had stacked their arms and were taking their evening .cal, they were suddenly attacked by the Chinese nearby who opened fire, with ifles, hand-grentdes, and machine-guns. The Chinese unit under Tsai Chen-lin of about one regiment and belonging to theng Tsuchung's 33th Division of the 29th ar.y), holding a position 300 metres north of the station, joined in the ttuck, subjecting the Japanese to a flerce fire with trench-portars, compelling them to return the fire. The Japanese holding the station and fighting the whinese, suffered several casualties. They sent for reinforcements. And ut
