

COME TO THE FLOWER SHOW THIS SATURDAY

BIG BASEBALL GAME TOMORROW

Narberth Team and Tennis Association Players in National Sport Contest Decoration Day Morning

Everybody's heading for the Narberth High School athletic field!

Let that be the watchword for Narberth tomorrow morning—Thursday, Decoration Day.

For at 10.30 A. M. the great baseball game starts—the much talked of and much planned for contest between Fred Walzer's Narberth team and Jim McKell's combination tennis-baseball outfit. And it is sure going to be some game.

So everybody out tomorrow morning and up to the baseball field adjoining the school—for two reasons: First, because the game will be played for the benefit of our Narberth Red Cross, which has been doing such good work and is deserving of the heartiest support and co-operation of every resident of the borough; and, second, because the game itself will be a good baseball match and will be well worth seeing.

We know, of course, that the usual procedure is, when you're too old for baseball, take up tennis; and when you can't stand the strain of tennis, there's golf still left—with all due respect to Roy Clark and our other golfing friends. But this time you're going to be fooled if you think that the baseball playing members of the Tennis Association are too old to put up a regular contest in the national game.

They're some players, all right, and Fred Walzer says he knows it and he is looking forward to a good hard game. So we're not going to drag into the public prints any more personalities about Bert Simpson being the star twirler at the University of Pennsylvania just a few years back, and we're not going to say anything about Jim McKell, Bill Henderson and Ralph Hall and the other tennis players who have starred in some of the best leagues in the country. Enough that these fellows will all play with the tennis nine, and that you may expect a good game of baseball tomorrow morning (Thursday, 10.30 o'clock) at the high school grounds.

DIED FROM ACCIDENT

James Bolger, a resident of Narberth, died on Sunday afternoon at his home on Woodbine avenue, from injuries received while attending to his duties along the railroad track at Narberth station on Saturday. An iron bar accidentally fell from a passing car, striking him, causing injuries which resulted in his death.

SOLDIERS' MAIL MUST BE SPECIFICALLY ADDRESSED TO MILITARY UNITS

NARBERTH FLOWER SHOW THIS SATURDAY AFTERNOON AT THE Y. M. C. A. BUILDING

Every One Welcome and Every Resident May Enter Exhibits. Free to All and No Entrance Fee—Special Classes for Children

Narberth's fourth annual Flower Show will be held this coming Saturday afternoon and evening, June 1, in the Community-Red Cross room, on the second floor of the Y. M. C. A. Building.

The exhibit will open to the public at 2.30 o'clock and will remain open until 9 P. M. Every one is welcome, there being no admission charge of any kind.

Moreover, all residents of Narberth are invited to participate in the show by entering and exhibiting cut flowers from their gardens.

Older residents know from the experiences of the last three years that Narberth's Flower Show is in no sense professional. There are no entrance fees of any kind and the best natured rivalry and competition prevails. And Our Town wants to take this occasion to extend a particular welcome to the many new residents who have come to live in the Year-Round Home Town since last summer.

If you have in your garden any of the flowers covered by any of the classes of exhibits (see the list in another column), enter them in the show. But whether you have blooms to exhibit or not come to the show and see what a beautiful lot of flowers are grown by your neighbors and fellow-townsmen.

Entries Must Be In By 1 P. M.
The Y. M. C. A. will be open to receive exhibits at 11 A. M., and all entries must be completed by 1 P. M. The judging will be done between 1 P. M. and 2.30 P. M., and the prize winning flowers in each class marked so that visitors will know which blooms have been adjudged the best.

It is particularly important that every one observe the regulation about making their entries before 1 P. M. In the first place, it is not fair to those who have observed the regulations for late comers to wander in after 1 o'clock; and in the second place, the judges really require the hour and a half between 1 o'clock and 2.30 o'clock to make a careful study of the exhibits, and render fair decisions.

Exhibitors are requested to bring their own vases and other vessels for exhibiting their flowers, and they are also requested to attach to each exhibit that they enter small cards bearing their names and the number of the class. The class numbers are necessary in assigning the flowers to their correct classes and the names of the exhibitors will make easy the identification of the vases after the show closes.

The show will be in charge of the Garden Committee of the Narberth Civic Association, Horace R. Hillegas, chairman, and Mr. Hillegas and members of his committee will be on hand from 11 A. M. until the show closes, so exhibitors need have no fear for the safety for their glass, silver or chinaware. There is running water in the kitchen adjoining the community room, and every possible service will be rendered exhibitors.

Special for the Children
As you will see by the classes of exhibits, there will be special classes for the children, and parents are particularly urged to encourage their children to make entries. The work of gathering the flowers and arranging these special exhibits is to be done by the children exclusively. The Garden Committee is anxious that the children's part of the show this year be especially fine. So encourage the boys and girls to make up their baskets and roses of flowers and bring them to the Y. M. C. A. between 11 A. M. and 1 P. M. Explain to them that their exhibits will compete only with the exhibits of other children, and not with the flowers entered by the grown-ups.

Folks entering their flowers are under no obligations to leave them after the show closes; they may take them home if they wish. But it has been the custom of the three preceding shows for practically all the exhibits to be left so that they may be taken to the patients in Bryn Mawr Hospital the following morning. This procedure will be followed this year and it is hoped that there will be a large quantity of flowers to take to the folks who are in the hospital, and who would be only too glad to come to the show, instead of having the show brought to them, if they were well enough.

A Last Word
Remember the Narberth Flower Show will be held this Saturday afternoon and evening. Open to every one, free, from 2.30 P. M. to 9 P. M. Enter your own flowers and come and bring your neighbors (not your neighbors' flowers, but the neighbors themselves) and "the folks from the city" and show them the fine array of beautiful flowers that are grown in Narberth gardens.

Class of Exhibits for the Narberth Flower Show, Saturday, June 1

Class 1.—Best individual white or cream rose.

Class 2.—Best individual pink rose.

Class 3.—Best individual yellow rose.

Class 4.—Best individual red rose.

Class 4 (a)—Best individual rose not included in classes 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Class 5.—Best collection of white or cream roses (any number.)

NARBERTH HIGH SCHOOL HOLDS UNBROKEN RECORD

Narberth High School easily trimmed Ambler High School in a game last Friday, which was called off in the seventh to allow Ambler to catch a train, after Narberth had scored eight runs in the second. In this inning Q. Yowell won his own game by driving out a triple with the bases full, and then scoring himself on an overthrow.

Decoration Day has a peculiarly poignant appeal this year. The wounds of the battle-scarred veterans of the past burn anew, as they see our brave lads fight for God, for Country and for Home.

The ways of those who govern are deep and mysterious. Just why the two foremost railroad men of the country should be shelved at a time when their services are needed most is past finding out. Universally recognized as a railroad executive of the very highest order, Mr. Rea, at the head of the greatest railway organization in the world, has been relieved of the active direction of its affairs. It is due to the public that an explanation of this action should be made. Otherwise the suspicion will arise that it is due to personal or political prejudice. Nothing can be gained by riding rough-shod over the opinion of the best railroad experts in the country, by deposing men of the highest order of genius in the profession without giving very satisfactory reasons.

SATURDAY'S THE DAY

It is hoped that every resident of our borough will attend the fourth annual Narberth Flower Show, this coming Saturday afternoon and evening, at the Y. M. C. A. Building. And it is also hoped that every resident having flowers in his or her garden will enter them.

As is pointed out in another column, our show is in no sense professional. It was intended by Mr. Stites, who organized the Narberth Flower Show three years ago, that its object would be to encourage home gardens, and any one who saw the first, second and third shows will testify to the successful carrying out of that idea.

Incidentally Our Town would like to say a word or two in appreciation of Mr. Stites' services to the town in this particularly matter. He has done a lot for Narberth in many ways, but in no instance has he done a better or more worth while service to the community than he did in organizing and establishing the Narberth Flower Show. It is now an institution of which our town may well be proud, and it is hoped that every resident will give his heartiest co-operation to the fourth annual show which will be held this Saturday.

APPRECIATION OF THE FLOWER SHOW

Editor of Our Town:

Permit me to express by pleasure at the decision of the Civic Association, through the offer of Mr. Shand, to hold a flower show in Narberth this year, as usual. Mr. Shand when he heard that it would probably not be held, expressed much regret, and said that it was one of the most stimulating affairs given in Narberth, and had done wonders in beautifying the town. It is right in line with Mr. Bok's suggestion, that in the homeland we keep all the usual activities going, so that when the boys come back they will find no evidences of neglect. The season may not be favorable, but that is all the greater reason why everybody should make a special effort to enter flowers and do everything possible to make the show a success. Now, all together! Send in your best blooms, or bloom, if you only have one, and come to enjoy the occasion next Saturday afternoon.

Flora.

Narberth War Chest Fund Gratifying Response to Appeal

At the close of the first week of the War Fund Campaign in Narberth on Monday evening of this week about $18,000 was in sight towards the $20,000 needed to match Mr. Percival Roberts' generous offer of the same amount. Of the nearly 800 houses canvassed, over 67 per cent turned in subscriptions. Of the remaining 33 per cent most of the occupants had subscribed in Philadelphia or wherever they were employed. Some, however, declined to subscribe without stating definite reasons, and a special committee will doubtless call on them again, with the view of having the matter reconsidered.

There is little doubt that, as in every other patriotic campaign, Narberth will more than rise to the occasion in this instance. Never was the need greater. In rapidly increasing numbers our boys are entering the great conflict at close quarters. As fast as possible, troops are being sent to France. Naturally the calls on the various organizations who will be supported by funds out of the War Chest will increase by leaps and bounds.

The opportunity is presented to all to join this tremendously important work. Do not hesitate and split hairs because you may not happen to agree with every detail of the organization, the manner of the collection or distribution of the funds. This is no time to nurse prejudices, nor to indulge in carping criticism. The cry goes out from your boys (for they are your boys, fighting for you) for your sustaining help. Now they are sweltering in summer heat, straining every nerve amid the stifling smoke and gases of battle, deafened by the never-ceasing roar of cannon, deluged by the rain of bullets and shrapnel, fighting your battle. Next winter it will be the same, except that they will be frozen to the marrow by bitter cold and rain and snow.

Do not let your card be returned to the committee, inscribed "Cannot do anything," "Do not agree with the method," "Refused," or the like. If you cannot give the one day's earnings per month, at least give something to show that your heart is right. Do not meet the special committee with renewed arguments against the War Chest.

Subscribers wishing to mail checks should draw them to the order of "Narberth War Chest," and mail them to War Chest Committee, Box 1, Narberth. Cash payments may be made either to Mr. Charles V. Noel, treasurer, or at the Narberth Branch of the Merion Title & Trust Co., to Mr. Daniel Leitch, manager.

PIANO RECITAL

By Pupils of Miss Fanny H. Loos

Last Saturday afternoon the pupils of Miss Fanny H. Loos gave a very delightful piano recital in the community room of the Y. M. C. A. Parents and friends of the young students attended, and were much pleased at the evidences of advance in musical knowledge and expression since the recital of last year. These recitals, given to encourage the pupils and give them confidence by a public appearance, should be encouraged by a large attendance. The study of music, especially in the elementary stage, needs much sympathy and interest on the part of parents.

And get along with creamless cream The wheatless cake is orthodox, We've lately camouflaged our shoes! ## FILL THE WAR CHEST THIS WEEK

The War Chest Campaign is on throughout this County this week

It follows weeks of careful and thoughtful preparation on the part of men who have given of their time willingly and ungrudgingly that the Chest might be filled promptly and to its capacity. The organization which has been perfected for the campaign is probably the most thorough that has ever been formed in this county, and its personnel is imbued with the spirit of the great enterprise launched. The workers are going into every corner of the county, reaching everybody, and giving all an opportunity to do their part toward helping along the great war and making America invincible in the conflict. Everybody should give according to ability, even to the point of sacrifice, remembering that it is for the boys who have gone to the front, sacrificing not only time and money, but hazarding their lives.

There is no question of the merit of the War Chest. The money is needed and it is far more practicable and systematic to raise it this way than by continuous campaigns, one following the other, causing not only embarrassment to the individual but upsetting the processes of our normal life and activity. The money is obtained, or pledged, all at once, the extent of the community's resources and possibilities become actually known, and the burden is equally distributed. The appeal made is broad enough to cover everybody—for it is for the war, in which everybody is interested. If it were for one of the innumerable avenues of giving which have arisen in recent months, only a few perhaps would be interested. But the War Chest covers all worthy causes arising out of the great conflict. The waste of separate campaigns is eliminated and no worthy appeals for money will be prevented. The distribution of the money has been placed in the hands of a committee the integrity of whose members is unquestioned. Contributors to the Chest may be assured that no donations will be made save to organizations and agencies recognized for efficiency and character which are contributing to the necessities of the war. No more vital appeal has ever been made to the generosity and patriotism of the people of the community than the present, and there is every reason to believe that the response will be worthy of the citizenship and freedom of every man and woman, which, in the last analysis, are at stake in the present crisis.

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town:

Here's a dandy chance to make money earn 100 per cent. over night. Mr. Percival Roberts has offered to match every dollar subscribed in Narberth to the War Chest fund with another, up to $20,000. The chances are he'll go even further, but let's get the $20,000 first and then we'll see. We buy Liberty Bonds and War Stamps instead of putting the money in the bank at a lower rate of interest, or spending it. To raise this money, of course, means a sacrifice in many instances, but when we think of it, there's no occasion for feeling we've done all we should. This money, on which we receive liberal returns, is spent in our behalf so that we are getting dividends both ways. It's when we're asked to give something outright, as in this War Chest campaign, that the real test of patriotism comes. It goes hard, I know, after being called on as we have all been to go the limit for the Red Cross, Liberty Loan, War Stamps, Y. M. C. A., etc., to find ourselves confronted with this new demand. Somebody's got to do it, however, and that somebody is everybody. It's everybody's business who calls himself an American. We can't leave it all to George; if he doesn't do his part, that's none of our affair. Let's do our share and never mind the other fellow. There are no direct financial returns for money pledged to the War Chest, but there's the real satisfaction of knowing that any cash we have agreed to pay in during the course of the year is just so much given for our own protection.

Now, then, let's bear in mind when we put up a dollar it's immediately covered by one of Mr. Roberts'. At that rate, $50,000 ought to be easy for Narberth. By the way, who will match Mr. Roberts' offer? Excuse me, some one in the Arcade Building is calling.

If Narberth had gone solidly for Fletcher Stites, the grand result would not have been affected, but the fifty-seven who voted the other way ought to be ashamed of themselves and can thank their lucky stars that they haven't on their consciences the responsibility for the misfortune which befell this Congressional district on the 21st. Perhaps a vote of only 57 against him may not seem uncomplimentary to our local candidate, but it's hard for any one who knows him, his ability, his clean-cut character, etc., to understand why there should be even 57 voters who prefer his late adversary to represent us at Washington. Allowances must of course be made for a few who may think they have personal grievances, for those who want to be counted in with the booze interests regardless of all other considerations, and also the usual percentage of cuckoos in every community, but even so it is difficult to account for the whole 57 varieties of pickles, chow-chow and mustard on the list, unless the mud slinging tactics of the opposition really fooled some of them. If the latter be the case, we will have to let it go at that, but it will be disappointing to know that there are so many easy marks in the Year-Round Home Town.

Fred Walzer received one vote for Governor last week. Far be it from me to cast any asparagus, but I think Fred voted for himself. Perhaps there's nothing especially peculiar about that, in view of the fact that some people around here voted for Watson.

His regular business being dull and, seeking other worlds to conquer, Howard Wilson has decided to try goat raising. As a nucleus, he has bought a Nanny. That's no "kid," either. Miss Goat crops the lawn, thus saving feed bills and the services of a lawn mower. At night she's allowed the freedom of the cellar and has so far disposed of considerable rubbish, tin cans, etc. Howard milks her regularly and as soon as Nanny's horns grow strong enough to butt, no doubt she will furnish a fine quality of butter. When that time comes, I can see the owner of the finest and fastest automobile in town bending over his coal pile, when Nanny, representing the intrusion, will—but we butter wait and see. Don't think for a minute that you can get Howard's goat—he guards her too carefully.

I want to whisper something to you—it's about the ladies. The attendance at the Red Cross work room is gradually dropping off, and just when the ladies' services are needed most. Are they getting cold feet?

One of our local citizens on Woodside avenue has resorted to camouflage in order to hide the Board of Health sign on his house. He simply pulled his awnings down and allows them to stay down day and night.

You ought to take in that ball game on the school grounds on Decoration Day. Narberth Tennis Association vs. Narberth Baseball Association. All the local talent will be in it and it should be worth the money, which will be donated to a worthy cause or two.

Cub.

Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION TO FRENCH WAR SECRETARY

Narberth's Association Represented by Two of Its Officers

M. Godard, former Under-Secretary of War for France, was tendered an informal reception by representatives of the Boards of Directors of the various Y. M. C. A. branches of Philadelphia and the associations near Philadelphia. Two majors of the French Sanitary Corps accompanied our French visitor as aides. He is in America on an official mission, and is trying to absorb some of the American war spirit, that he might be able to take an encouraging message back to our Allies.

Mr. Obodyke, secretary of the Narberth directors, and Mr. Bowen, the general secretary, were in the party of about fifteen that received M. Godard at the general offices of the Philadelphia Y. M. C. A. Saturday, May 25, at 4 P. M. The party included: Mr. Joseph M. Steel, Mr. E. H. Bonsall, vice-president of the Land Title and Trust Company; Mr. Walter M. Wood, general secretary of Philadelphia; Mr. Crist, of Ardmore, and several others.

In speaking to the gathering the distinguished visitor laid great stress on the appreciation that the French Government and people had for both our fine army of fighting men and for the great service rendered by the American Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. even before we joined hands with them in the righteous conflict.

THE PRIMARY IN LOWER MERION

Stites and Ambler Carry the Township in Hard Fought Political Contest—Boyd Carries Six Districts

About two thousand Republican voters participated in the primary election on Tuesday in lower Merion township, while less than two hundred Democrats turned out to help select their party ticket.

The Republican contest proved to be one of the hottest fights in the history of the township and workers for both factions were busy from the time the polls opened until they closed in their efforts to get out the votes for their favorite candidates.

There was almost unanimous support given to Senator William C. Sprout for the nomination for Governor, and he received 1687 votes to 238 for J. Denny O'Neil, who was his nearest opponent.

For Lieutenant Governor Edward E. Beidleman received a total of 1087 to 522 for John R. K. Scott.

For Secretary of Internal Affairs, James F. Woodward had a big lead over Paul W. Houck, and for Congressman-at-Large the four leading candidates were Crago, Garland, Walters and McLaughlin.

The real fight centred in the contest between Stites and Watson for Congress; Ambler and Boyd, for State Senator, and Mebus and Pike, for the Legislature.

For weeks past the mails had been flooded with literature in favor of all these candidates and the largest publicity campaign in township and county politics had been conducted by both sides.

Stites, Ambler and Mebus had conducted their campaign on the prohibition amendment issue. Pike had also pledged himself for the amendment, but Wilson and Boyd had made no pledges on this point.

In many of the districts the contest was close and the temperance supporters, or the so-called church vote, were too busy to go to the polls and vote, or had neglected to see that they were properly enrolled under a political party.

Stites carried 9 of the 13 districts in the township, Watson winning in Rosemont by 22, Merion Square by 55, General Wayne by 29 and Merion by 26. Stites received a total of 1104 to 732 for Watson.

Ambler received a total of 1059 to 841 for Boyd. Ambler carried 7 of the 13 districts. He lost Rosemont by 29, Haverford by 1, South Ardmore by 11, Merion Square by 67, General Wayne by 45, Merion by 55. Mebus carried 8 and lost 5 districts, receiving a total of 928 to 854 for Pike.

The borough of Narberth paid a fine tribute to their fellow townsman, Fletcher Stites, by giving him a total of 379 votes to 57 for Congressman Watson.

Ambler received a total of 342 to 87 for Boyd in the borough, and Mebus received 328 to 96 for Pike.

The following members of the County Committee were elected by the Republican voters: Rosemont, J. C. Whitby; East Bryn Mawr, George Jans; West Bryn Mawr, Marvin E. Reynolds; Haverford, E. N. Crossman; North Ardmore, Horace W. Smedley; West Ardmore, Walter Blair; South Ardmore, Jacob Kettenring; Merion Square, W. A. L. Barker; General Wayne, James A. Stretch; Merion, William Conlen; Cynwyd, Joseph Skelton; Bala, George C. Klauder, and Pencoyd, William B. Francis. Charles V. Noel was re-elected committeeman in Narberth.

REGISTRATION DAY

Every man who has reached the age of 21 years since June 5, 1917, or who will become 21 years of age between now and June 6, 1918, must register for the selective draft on June 5, 1918.

Nothing excuses any man from registering unless he is actually commissioned or enlisted in the army or navy of the United States.

Every alien must register, whether he is an enemy alien or not.

Persons living or traveling away from home must register by mail, or by going to a draft official in their vicinity.

Persons who are ill and unable to go to the registration places must write before registration to the local board and arrange for a registrar to visit them.

Be alert! Watch for further announcements in this newspaper. Failure to register will bring serious penalties.

If you are in doubt, write or telephone to the local board, Ardmore 1053 (Bell) and get information.

According to present plans, there will be two registration places: For men living in Lower Merion and Cheltenham townships and Narberth borough.

Ardmore—Draft board headquarters, Merion Title Building.

Ogontz—Cheltenham police station. Final announcements will be made next week.

Remember the date—June 5, 1918—and watch for them.

It is estimated that about 800,000 men available for the military service will be found among the new registrants this year. During the year beginning June 5 it is planned to have quarterly registrations.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register. As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

A Boon to Every One Who Gives

THE War Chest will be a boon to the giver. It will protect the public from the multitude of importunate solicitors, a multitude which too often creates confusion. Where so many are clamoring for help the giver is often at a loss as to which need is the most pressing. By making the War Chest the one and only channel of his contributions he is relieved not only of importunities which deaden and repel, but is given the comforting assurance that his money as given will be intelligently and impartially applied where it will do the most good.
