

GOLDEN WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. L. A. HEACOCK CELEBRATE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY JULY 7

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Heacock, of 518 Lomita avenue, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday, July 7th. The day was golden like most all California days and so lent to the pleasure of the occasion. The house was aglow with bloom of the color of the precious metal. Baskets of oranges and apricots added to the rhythm of color.

When the postman arrived he brought a generous supply of mail. It consisted largely of post card greetings and congratulatory letters from members of the Men's Bible Class at the Central Christian Church. In the afternoon Mrs. Playter, president of the Loyal Women's Class, brought in a mammoth bouquet containing 50 golden margolds and a post card bearing best wishes and congratulations from each member of that class.

Those present were Dr. J. A. Munk and Judge E. R. Munk, brothers of Mrs. Heacock, Mr. J. F. Stanley, a nephew, and Mrs. Barberick, all of Los Angeles, and A. B. Heacock and family of 507 West Ninth street.

A number of useful and beautiful presents were received, notable among them being $50 in gold from each of Mrs. Heacock's brothers.

According to her husband, Mrs. Heacock was a good cook when a young woman and each year of experience seems to have added to her ability in that line, for the dinner she prepared was most delicious. It was at the table that reminiscences were indulged in and many pleasant memories of fifty years ago revived. The day was one that will ever be remembered by all present.

LESLIE TARR IN NAVY

Leslie Tarr, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Tarr of Glendale, now in the U. S. Navy, was here shaking hands with his old friends Sunday while on a 48-hour leave of absence. He is encamped at the San Diego exposition grounds, says he likes the navy fine and is anxious to be doing his bit for his country. The Los Angeles Tribune, on which Leslie worked, says of him:

There is only one way to tell this story. That is with a before-and-after picture.

The first would show Leslie R. Tarr, one-time reporter on the Morning Tribune, and a resident of Glendale, less than three months ago. Then he had a stoop in his shoulders and a droop in his nether lip.

But that was three months ago, before he joined the United States navy. Yesterday he entered the office of this newspaper and few of his old companions recognized him. He was straight. He was bronzed by the sun. He was taller. He was broader. He was full of "pep."

Tarr is encamped at the exposition grounds at San Diego with 1400 other young navy men. They live in the Fine Arts building and mess in the Christobel cafe. There are many other Los Angeles youths there. Tarr said, and his close companion is Theodore Lemmon, son of Ben Lemmon, of the Morning Tribune.

NATURE STUDY CLUB

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the first meeting for the summer of the Children's Nature Study club will be held in the Pacific avenue school. Any child interested in birds and bees, wild flowers, toads or other nature subjects is invited to attend the meetings of this club. This afternoon there will be a special exhibit of live shore crabs, limpets, kitons, and beautiful seaweeds and shells gathered by some of the children.

PRE-COMMUNION SERVICES

Pre-communion services are being held every night this week at the Presbyterian church, corner Broadway and Cedar street.

Monday and Tuesday evenings the meetings will be specially for prayer and conference. Wednesday Dr. Hunter of Presbyterian Church, Fresno, will speak on "The Power of Prayer." Program for Thursday to be announced. Friday, preparatory sermon will be preached by Rev. G. A. Breigleb, the new pastor of the Westlake Presbyterian church, Los Angeles.

The meetings begin at 7:30. Communion service and reception of new members will occur at the twilight hour, 5 o'clock, next Sabbath evening.

STATE NEWS

WILL STANDARDIZE UNIFORM OF HOME GUARDS—COST OF GOVERNMENT

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 9.—Adjutant-General J. J. Borree has undertaken the task of standardizing the uniform to be worn by the California Home Guard, which numbers 30 companies. The uniform which has been practically decided upon and which it will be suggested the various organizations adopt, consists of a khaki blue-gray coat and trousers, a blue or gray chambray shirt and olive drab hat and leggings. The choice of the blue or gray shirt will be left to the organizations. Shoulder ornaments will be used to designate officers and their rank and it is proposed to place the lettering "C. H. G." on the coat collar. Circular gilt discs on the shoulder loop will designate the rank of company officers and diamond shaped discs field officers—one for a major, two for a lieutenant-colonel and three for a colonel.

It cost $34,886,139.73 to run the state of California in all its departments, including schools and highway construction, for the fiscal year ending June 30, according to the report of John S. Chambers, state controller. During the year Chambers issued 39,233 warrants, an average of more than 100 daily.

The July apportionment of state money for schools based on a rate of 63 cents per pupil, will total $214,790,311, reports Job Wood, statistician of the state board of education. This money can be used to pay the salaries of teachers for the last school year or may be carried over to pay teacher's salaries for next year, Wood says.

The state civil service commission has announced the following list of examinations for state positions to be held in the near future: Assistant sanitary engineer, bureau of sanitary engineering of the state board of health. Monthly salary, $150. Applications close July 23.

Graduate nurse and surgical nurse in state hospitals. Applications close July 21.

Baker, cook, butcher, kitchen helpers, waiter, waitress, culinary departments of various state institutions. Applications close July 21.

LOS ANGELES, July 9.—The fact that professional crooks, after working in the mild California climate during the winter, go to eastern fields for a change of scenery and new victims accounts for the remarkable quietude in police circles this time of year, according to Detective Lieutenant Moffatt of the local force. "There never is anything doing this time of year," Moffatt says. "All the professional criminals have moved back to the east. They won't be back until winter sets in there. About seventy per cent. of all crime committed in Los Angeles is due to these men; of course we have a local crop, but it is small and like all other highly successful professional men, drifts east sooner or later."

COMFORT BAGS

In the Glendale Chamber of Commerce window, 1010 West Broadway, are four comfort bags for our soldier boys, one of silk made for a show sample by Mrs. A. M. Beamon, and another fine one, a duplicate of the one made by Mrs. Stephen C. Packer for her son Donald, who will soon go to the training camp at San Pedro. The other two are such as are ordinarily used.

One bag will be filled (cost about $1.00) by Mrs. Joseph Renshaw of 1462 Lomita avenue. There are many such bags to be filled. Why won't you fill one? It is your army also, which will be fighting for you and your liberty and your home. Possibly some one dear to you may get and use the particular bag you fill. This gives opportunity to do a special patriotic service at small cost.

If the central powers win the European war, sooner or later they will give us here a taste of what Belgian women and men endured.

Mrs. A. M. Beamon reports to the Glendale Red Cross Publicity Committee that she, as Comfort Bag Committee, is indebted to the following ladies for comfort bags made and donated:

Mrs. Charles H. Toll, 7 bags; Mrs. Henry, 1; Mrs. Logan, 1; Mrs. Knight, 1; Mrs. S. C. Packer, 1; Mrs. Salo Desky, 3.

Almost any woman can make and fill at least one comfort bag. Why not do that small but important service for our army, which is your army, too?

Eight thousand delegates of the National Education Association and its 21 departments and 14 allied organizations are gathered here. The convention ends Friday night.

SIX KILLED AND THIRTY-ONE INJURED WHEN POWDER MAGAZINE BLEW UP THIS MORNING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
VALLEJO, July 9.—Six are dead and 31 were injured as a result of a terrific explosion in the black powder magazine on Mare Island to-day. It is reported that nearly all the houses of workmen and officers in the vicinity were destroyed. So terrific was the shock that houses at Vallejo, a half mile away, were rocked and the fronts blown in. The shock was felt as far away as Sacramento. The steamer El Capitan had her prow blown in and her windows shattered. No details as to the cause of the explosion are obtainable.

On account of an executive committee meeting of the Red Cross Chapter at the home of J. H. Braly, 205 North Brand boulevard this evening and on account of other meetings at which the presence of Chamber of Commerce members is expected, the regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be postponed to such a time as the president of the Chamber may deem it advisable to call a meeting.

RED CROSS REPORT

Open from 2 to 6 every afternoon except Saturday and Sunday.

During the week just past four ambulance pillows were completed and sufficient material cut to fill six more. Mrs. H. E. Betz was there every day and undertook the considerable task of seeing that every one was provided with material of a suitable size for cutting into shreds and she saw to it that no one ran short. In the future Mrs. Witt will help her in that work. Mrs. Cora S. Taylor, Miss Berry, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Plasterer, Miss Montgomery, Mrs. Aycock, Mrs. R. F. Coles, Mrs. J. Coles and Mrs. Straight also helped us greatly.

We now have 38 names on our list. If everyone of the 1000 Red Cross members in Glendale would let us have their paper we could make our goal.

MISS WILLIAMS ENTERTAINS—PERSONS GIVE DINNER—SPRING BRIDE HONORED

Red and white was the striking color scheme used by Miss Nellie Mai Williams at a brilliant military 500 card party, given last Friday evening at her home, 903 Dryden street. A most artistic arrangement of red and white sweet peas and roses combined to make the beautiful home more attractive. The nine allied nations were the tables and the delicious refreshments further carried out the red and white color scheme.

About forty guests enjoyed this most brilliant affair. Miss Williams was assisted in entertaining by Miss Ellen D. Williams and Mrs. Harry W. Peterson. The invited guests were: Dr. and Mrs. H. M. THE PETERSON DINNER

One of the most delightful affairs of the season was a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Peterson, on Thursday, at their home, 1225 Mountain street.

The beautifully appointed table represented the patriot spirit so intense at this time. Red, white and blue were the colors of flowers, favors and candle shades, while the table was centered with glowing red roses and asparagus glousing.

The guests on this happy occasion were well-known and talented musicians of Los Angeles and Pasadena, who have been associated with Mrs. Peterson in musical circles.

A musical contest of military terms furnished amusement for the guests who later contributed a most enjoyable musical program. The ladies enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Peterson's hospitality were Miss Kie Christin, Miss Grace James, Miss Sadie Douglas, Miss Nellie Williams, Miss Eleanor Clemmons, Miss Katherine Clemmons, and Mrs. Kathryn Winters, all of Los Angeles and Pasadena, and Miss May Ward of Seattle.

PINK AND WHITE LUNCHEON

Mrs. Harold Charlton, one of the spring brides, was the honored guest at a most charming pink and white luncheon given by Mrs. Colin Cable, Saturday, at her home, 755 Columbus avenue.

The large table was laid with a beautiful Cluny luncheon set and centered with a most artistic arrangement of pink roses and Shasta daisies. The favors were crocheted baskets of pink roses at each plate and the effect was most beautiful. Smaller tables similarly adorned further accommodated the twenty-two guests who were invited to meet the fair honoree. CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The sermon last night was based on the description of the communistic spirit shown by the early Jerusalem church, coupled with the story of the sin of Ananias and Sapphira, the two who first introduced graft and lying into the church. In part, Rev. Cole said:

There are many ideas as to just what constituted this "having things in common"—that many from over the world remained in the city after Pentecost and those who had, put into a common treasury; that the rich did the distributing to those in need; some say that it represents Christian Socialism, and if so, we may note the difference, as it has been well put, between Christian Socialism and all other forms of Socialism. Ordinary Socialism is often regarded as saying, "What is yours is mine," while Christian Socialism says, "What is mine is yours." Whether we call it Christian Socialism or not, this attitude of readiness to help in need is the essence of Christianity.

Whether this Communism was only temporary, to bridge over an emergency, or whether it is the type of a perfect society, there may be a difference. But of one thing I am sure—there can be no really successful Communism, there can be no Brotherhood of man, without a Fatherhood of God; no brotherhood unless a common father. Men must be born again.

Outside of beehives and ant-hills, communism has never worked well. No sin there.

It's been tried out everywhere in America. Brook Farm in New England, Sakhers, Economites, Ruskinians, etc. Doesn't even work always in most perfect of communes, the family.

Men have to be brothers in Christ. Men have to be different from the two colored men in Washington, appointed a committee to select a candidate for important office. After while one came back and asked an extension of time. "Mr. Chairman," he said solemnly, "the committee is divided. Mr. Johnson, he's for himself, and I'm for myself, and we're having hard work to get together." If we could get at the bottom of failures of many benevolent enterprises, they could be summed up in this confession of the colored man.

In the matter of roads, school-houses, postoffices, parks, boards of health, hospitals and a score of other things, in the possibility of government ownership, etc., we are now realizing the dreams of having all things in common. But the ideal is a long way from realization. When that time comes there will be no beggars on street corners and millionaires rolling by in $6000 limousines. No sweat-shops, etc. The time is coming. It may be 100 or 1000 years away. No telling what changes will be wrought after this war. We may live 50 years in one. A lot of hoary and silk-robed fallacies, like divine right to rule (and ruin) will be blown to flinders.

When lists like the one of over 100 mighty industries refuse to employ or to advance men who drink; when there appears on the bulletin board of the largest hardware company in the world the following notice, it looks as though the greatest physical barrier in the way of brotherhood is doomed.

This was posted by direction of board of directors and headed "House Notice":

If You Must Drink To the married man who cannot get along without his drinks, the following is suggested, as a solution to the bondage of his habit: First: Start a saloon in your own house.

Second: Be the only customer, and you'll have no license to pay. Give your wife $2 to buy a gallon of whiskey, and remember there are 69 drinks in one gallon.

Third: Buy your drinks from no one but your wife, and by the time the first gallon is gone she will have $8 to put in the bank and $2 to start business again.

Fourth: Should you live ten years and continue to buy booze from her, and then die with snakes in your boots, she will have money to bury you decently, educate your children, buy a house and lot, marry a decent man, and quit thinking about you. "But—a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and kept back a part of the price."

The devil was right there on the job at the church's very start. He has never missed a service since. This couple were not the last to put on a religious harness with financial hold-backs. Ananias desired to pose as equal in devotion with Barnabas and the others. He was a grafter and a liar. They have always been Siamese twins. It's a good thing God has not kept bringing to time those who cheat Him in the church. It would keep us busy "pall-bearing."

This same lack of complete honesty with God has been the bane of the church through the ages, this "professing cream and practicing skim milk," as some one has said.

In Register and Way of Des Moines, "Wu Ting Fang when he came to leave America observed in his shrewd Chinese way that Americans profess higher ideals and fall farther shorter of realizing them than any other people in the world." Because of the two being stricken dead for their defection, their graft and lying, "great fear came upon the whole church."

"The first church members were made to realize what a holy thing they belonged to. In an earlier day they had been taught that merely to touch the ark with profane hands meant death. The fear was wholesome. They found that they were living right under the eye of God himself. That everything, even such a simple business transaction as the sale of a little farm, was done in God's counting house and under his observation. If the incident put awe into the church and fear came upon them, it also put nobility into the life of the church member. In all that I do God is my partner. "Here is a contract. Lord, look it over; I'm hired to do this work, help me to do it well and faithfully."

That's why church folks can't go to some places and do certain things. We are always in the same great room with Him and all the lights are turned on. When the wise manager builds a factory office, he makes it one great room. He puts his own "Traps" in the center and has his force all around him. Things run smoothly and successfully with the man seeing master and the master seeing men. "Brotherhood" will be more nearly practicable when we know and see and love one another. Oh, my brother, life will run more smoothly and you'll be a better man with God in the midst.

"Love one another from the heart fervently."

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. ALLEN

Mrs. Charlotte Allen, widow, a retired doctor, living at 210 East First street, dropped dead on a path between Stanley avenue and Adams street about noon today.

Mrs. Chas. Stockbridge and Mrs. B. H. Nichols, neighbors living near, saw her lying under a tree and hastened to her, but life was extinct. It is said that she has been suffering from Bright's disease.

The ambulance was called and the body removed to the Pulliam undertaking parlors.

Geo. W. Allen, a son, formerly living in Glendale but at present living at Taft, has been notified.

The Women's Committee, County Council of Defense, has requested presidents of all women's organizations in Glendale to meet to form a permanent organization in order to co-ordinate all activities pertaining to war conditions.

This meeting has been called at 2:30 in the Chamber of Commerce room, 1010 West Broadway.

Will the presiding officer of each woman's organization bear this in mind and if impossible to attend personally see that her representative is present.

(Signed) MRS. A. A. BARTON, Tem. Chairman.

How much a normal, healthy woman should weigh, at a certain height, has been made a special subject of study by the life insurance companies lately and it is interesting to see where they arrive. If a woman is in height:

Table with height and weight columns: 4 ft. 11 in., she should weigh 119 lbs; 5 feet 122 lbs; 5 ft. 1 in. 124 lbs; 5 ft. 2 in. 127 lbs; 5 ft. 3 in. 131 lbs; 5 ft. 4 in. 134 lbs; 5 ft. 5 in. 139 lbs; 5 ft. 6 in. 143 lbs; 5 ft. 7 in. 147 lbs; 5 ft. 8 in. 151 lbs; 5 ft. 9 in. 155 lbs; 5 ft. 10 in. 159 lbs.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Salmon Loaf—3 slices of bread, stale if you have it, soak in skim milk till soft, add a small can of salmon, flaked with a silver fork and all skin and bones removed, one egg, salt to taste. Turn mixture into greased pan or mould into small croquettes and place in the greased pan. Bake till delicately browned. Make white sauce as usual and add the liquor from the can of salmon. Pour over the loaf or croquettes and garnish with parsley.

A palatable marmalade may be made of apricots and loganberries. Take equal portions of the pulp of each and after measuring add an equal quantity of sugar. Boil till the mixture thickens to the consistency of jelly, turn into moulds and cover with paraffin.

The only man who makes money out of a get rich quick scheme is the man who furnishes nothing for something to the people who want to get something for nothing.

"MINCED" GASOLINE.

The United States Geological Survey estimates that if gasoline continues to be used at the present rate, the petroleum fields will be exhausted by 1950. Probably, after this, "minced" gasoline will be used. Several Middle Western States are known to contain extensive oil bearing deposits of bituminous shale. From this oil can be extracted and then distilled to obtain gasoline.

Parcel post has been established between this country and China. Packages weighing eleven pounds or less must pay twelve cents per pound going to China; from China here the rate is thirty-five cents.

Keep true, never be ashamed of doing right; decide on what you think is right, and stick to it.—George Eliot.

TEMPTATION.

When Thomas A. Edison was asked by a clergyman, "What are the greatest safeguards against temptation?" he sent this reply: "I cannot answer the question, as I have never had any experience in such matters. I have never had time, not even five minutes, to be tempted to do anything against the moral law, civil law, or any law whatever. If I were to hazard a guess as to what young people should do to avoid temptation, it would be to get a job and work at it so hard that temptation would not exist for them."

The manuscript of "Home, Sweet Home," signed by John Howard Payne, the author, was sold for three hundred and sixty dollars at an auction in New York City recently.

Fifth Avenue as an apple orchard seems incomprehensible now. But such it was, not so many years ago, all the way up from Twenty-third street, and only a cow trail ran through it under the fruit laden trees. That was when a circus under a tent was at the corner of Twenty-third street and Fifth Avenue, and opposite, at the corner of what is now Madison avenue and twenty-third street, the reform house for boys stood.

Some one has been counting up the words in the various inaugural addresses, and finds that the longest one was given by W. H. Harrison, with eighty-five hundred and seventy-eight words; the shortest was the second inaugural by George Washington, with one hundred and thirty-four words.

Easter was kept on the wrong day once. That was in 1818, when by a mistake of lunar calculations it was celebrated on March 22. But it can fall as early as this. It did in 1761. For Easter Day is fixed by the vernal equinox, March 21, and depends upon the moon. The first Sunday after the fourteenth day of the moon following March 21 is always Easter Sunday. So that suppose the equinox moon is just fourteen days old on the twenty-first of March, and this day happens to be on Saturday, then the next day, Sunday, would be Easter Sunday. So the earliest that Easter may be is March 22, and the latest is April 25. Easter fell on this latter date in 1886, and it will occur again in 1943. Four years ago, in 1913, it fell on March 23, as it did in 1845 and 1856. This is why Easter is called "a movable feast."
