Yeah, welcome!

Honor System lectures, the Activities Session, and free flicks all constitute integral parts of the Carolina Orientation Program. This year the Orientation Committee, headed by Chairman David Parker, worked from February until September in planning the six days of meetings, activities, and tours which composed the introduction to the UNC campus and the "Carolina Way of Life." The complete organization included 275 student counselors and various coordinators of the committee itself, including: Tom Overman, Men; Belinda Foy, Women; Marcy Klingel, Foreign Students; and Glenn Johnson, Graduate Students. The planning and administration of the Orientation Committee helped over 2,500 new Carolina students get adjusted to the customs and traditions of our university.

Student Government

EXECUTIVE

CHARLIE GRAY
President of the Student Body

DAVID GRIGG
Vice-President

Student Government at Carolina was instituted for the purpose of studying and attempting to solve the various problems which confront the student.

This year's administration has placed strong emphasis on creating an intellectual and international awareness on campus. Some of our big projects for the year have been the instituting of two International Awareness Weeks, an active Academic Affairs Committee, a Last Lecture Series, a Mock Democratic Convention, a Constitutional Revision Committee, a Student Government Investment Fund, an Exchange Agreement with the University of Toronto, and a drive for a new student union.

Student Government hopes to develop mature leadership which will prepare students for responsible decisions in their future communities.

STUDENT

JIM SCOTT
Speaker Pro-Tem

The Student Legislature, founded in 1938, is the supreme legislative body of Student Government. Perhaps the biggest responsibilities the Legislature has are its control over Student Government's $123,000 budget and its power to appropriate funds to the various campus organizations. In addition, the Legislature is the supervisory body for legislative subsidiary organizations, controls various activities and functions, has the power to change the procedures and structures in our Honor System, and can impeach and remove from office any elected official.

The Legislature is composed of 50 students, elected from thirteen campus districts. The Vice-President of the Student Body presides over the Legislature as Speaker. All other officers are elected by the legislators.

Legislature members show interest in the topic being presented that evening.

LEGISLATURE

JUDICIAL

ERWIN FULLER
Chairman

The Student Constitution vests the Student Council with three important responsibilities: to try cases in which an alleged violation of the Campus Code has occurred, to hear appeals from the General Election Laws, and to rule upon the constitutionality of legislative and executive acts.

The 1959-60 Student Council has been a very active group, more active than any Council of recent years. Cases have been heard in all three areas of original jurisdiction, and the Council's interpretive rulings have been of particular importance.

Among the questions decided by the Council have been the powers and authority of the Publications Board to select student publication editors, and the legality of the current student judicial procedures regarding closed trials and jury conviction.

The Council has attempted to make the Carolina student more conscious of his obligations under the Campus Code and has sought, with significant success, to promote responsible student conduct at all times.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Seated: Caroline Sikes, Erwin Fuller, Anne Rountree. Standing: Charles Hoover, Howard Holderness, John Ray, Neal Boden, Jim Rouse, Tony Salinger.

Seated: Sandy Trotman, LuRuth Sutton, Diana Harmon, Libby Johnson. Standing: Judy Rock, Linda Rehm, Melissa Osborne, Rosemary Roberts, Sophie Martin.

WOMEN'S HONOR COUNCIL

Women's Honor Council, composed of three juniors and three seniors, is the highest women's judiciary body. Its function is to try cases involving violations of the Honor Code by women. In an Honor Council trial, a nine-woman jury decides the guilt or innocence of the defendant, while the members of the Council decide the penalty.

Women's Council, composed of the members of Honor Council as well as three voting representatives of Residence Council, decides upon cases involving violations of the Campus Code and social rules, and appeals from House Councils.

It is felt that living under the Honor Code develops strong moral character, while the Campus Code encourages the highest ideals of lady-like conduct.

MEN'S HONOR COUNCIL

Seated: Hugh Patterson, Jerry Stokes, Warner Bass, George Grayson.
Standing: Clem Ford, Bill Crutchfield, George Campbell, Howard Holderness, R. V. Fulk.

HUGH PATTERSON
Chairman

The Men's Honor Council has original jurisdiction in all cases involving violations of the Honor Code, which is binding to all students at the University of North Carolina. This year the Men's Honor Council has been exceptionally outstanding in carrying out its assigned duties and in promoting the successful integration of the jury system into the framework of the court. The success of the jury system as well as the continued success of the Honor System throughout all phases of student life can only be attributed to the outstanding work done by the Men's Honor Council and its continued efforts to instill in the mind of every student the fact that honor is not merely an intangible quality but a very integral part of every man's day to day living.

WOMEN'S RESIDENCE COUNCIL

KAY BOORTZ
Chairman

Through a strong belief in self-government, the Women's Residence Council was organized as the legislative body for women. This Council co-ordinates dormitory and sorority life by establishing social rules, by granting late permissions, by sponsoring a campus-wide leadership program for women, and by assuming the responsibility of broadening student-faculty, student-administration, and student-townspeople relationships. It tries to anticipate the needs of the co-eds to work to the best alleviation of those needs, while at the same time it upholds the standards of the university. Each spring, the editor of the Women's Handbook is chosen, and candidates for the chairmanship of Women's Orientation are interviewed by the Council. Women's Residence Council works closely with the Dean of Women's Office, Women's Honor Council, and the University Administration.

Membership on Women's Residence Council includes the dormitory presidents, one junior representative-at-large from each dormitory, sorority house managers, House Council co-ordinator from Women's Honor Council, and an ex officio member from the office of the Dean of Women. The chairman is elected each year in the spring campus elections.

OTTO FUNDERBURK
President

The IDC is the governing body of the twenty men's dormitories at UNC. Composed of representatives from each dorm, the IDC meets twice monthly to discuss dorm problems and plan programs which will enrich the life of dorm men.

The IDC has a judicial branch which handles all infractions of dorm rules. This court works with the dorm officers in trying to make the dormitories a better place to study.

An active social program is presented for dorm residents by the IDC, which sponsors dances, lawn parties, and other social events. A co-ed visiting agreement allows the men to take their dates into the social rooms during certain scheduled hours. In addition, the IDC works with individual dorms in planning parties.

In co-operation with the dorm officers and residents, the IDC is constantly seeking new ways to improve living conditions in the dormitories and make them a home away from home.

REPRESENTATIVES

The Intermitory Council meets to discuss dormitory problems.

INDEPENDENT WOMEN'S COUNCIL

Seated: Beverly Andrews, Molly Short, Beverly Dickens, Prissy Wyrick, Mrs. Aycock. Standing: Carolyn Johnson, Margie Brewer, Lois Gault, Sarah Upchurch, Ellen Cohen, Sally Yoh, Jan McColskey, Peggy Carroll, Sandra Regenie, Barbara Dean, Helen House, Carolyn Durham, May Eason.

Independent Women's Council was organized in the spring of 1958 in response to the need for co-operation and co-ordination in and between women's dormitories. Among the areas Independent Women's Council works through are academic, political, social and athletic activities on campus. The Council is composed of representatives from each dormitory and town women. Some of the activities endorsed or sponsored by Independent Women's Council are the Guide Service for campus tours, dorm displays for Homecoming, dorm participation in the "Beat Dook" parade, the award and reception honoring the Outstanding Dorm girl, and a scholarship cup awarded to the dormitory with the highest average.

BEVERLY DICKENS
President

CONSOLIDATED UNIVERSITY STUDENT COUNCIL

Seated: Erwin Fuller, Swag Grimley, Sue Wood, Bob Bingham, Toni Brady, Standing: Ashe Exum, Kay Bortz, Otto Funderbork, Anne Terry, David Grigg, Mary Le Grand Parks, Bob Murray, Joe Bell.

The Consolidated University Student Council is composed of student leaders from each of the three branches of the Consolidated University — Woman's College, North Carolina State, and the University at Chapel Hill. The Council acts as a liaison group, discussing mutual problems and promoting understanding and co-operation among the three schools.

This year's C.U.S.C., under active and progressive leadership, undertook a greatly expanded program of activities.

In addition to the annual CU Day at Carolina in the fall, the Council sponsored social programs at W.C. in March and at the N.C.S. Carnival Weekend in April.

The 1959-60 C.U.S.C. sought to be more than an organization devoted to planning social events. Notable projects in this area included the initiation of a speaker exchange series among the three schools and a detailed comparative study of the faculty benefits received by the Consolidated University teaching personnel.

NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Ellen Stein, Frances Reynolds, Frank Adams, Betty Jean Baxter, Dan Robbins, Jim Scott.

The University of North Carolina was instrumental in the founding of the United States National Student Association a little over a decade ago, and has since played an active and vital role.

Here in Chapel Hill, it is the responsibility of the National Student Association Committee and the N.S.A. Coordinator, which are appointed by the president of the student body, to act as a link between the University of North Carolina and the national organization. The national organization acts as an organ of the 360-plus member schools.

As a result of ideas received by participating in the National Student Congress and regional conferences, several significant programs have been developed by direct planning or assistance of the N.S.A. Committee. Besides participating in such nationally co-ordinated programs as Educational Travel, Inc. and the Foreign Student Leadership Project, the Committee has sponsored a Student Government Evaluation Conference, has helped with the planning of International Affairs Emphasis Week throughout the year, and has aided with the establishment of a Student Tutor Service.

CAROLINA FORUM

The Carolina Forum is the official Student Government organization responsible for bringing to the campus national and international figures to address the university community. This year marks its 25th anniversary.

Professor Leslie A. Fiedler of Montana State University was this year's first speaker, and the following were being considered as possibilities for the spring slate: Sir Harold Caccia, the British Ambassador; Sir Charles P. Snow, well-known scientist-author; Vice-President Richard M. Nixon; Gov. Nelson Rockefeller; Allen W. Dulles, CIA Director; Poet Carl Sandburg; and Dr. Martin Luther King.

BUDGET COMMITTEE

The purpose of the Budget Committee is to discern an annual budget for Student Government. It is responsible for allocating Student Government's $123,000 budget to student organizations. Also, it acts as an accountant committee requiring monthly financial reports from all organizations which receive Student Government funds. It has the right to request the presidents of these organizations to explain any expenditures they deem unwise, and if necessary can have specific organizations' budgets suspended.

SENIOR CLASS

WADE SMITH
President

Dick Pattisall, Vice-President; Bunkie Jester, Social Chairman; Cynthia Grant, Secretary; Jim Crawford, Treasurer.

Class activities and projects reach their peak in the senior year at U.N.C. The activities of the class of 1960 were placed in three general categories: gift, alumni, and social.

Traditionally, each year's graduating class presents a useful contribution to the school as a token of remembrance from the class. The gift presentation will take place at the commencement ceremonies.

During the spring, the class was organized for its role as a unit in the General Alumni Association. Miss Alumna and Mr. Alumnus were elected by the class and will act as its permanent alumni officers.

The social activities reached their peak during Senior Week which was held during the first part of May.

JUNIOR CLASS

RUSS HOLLERS
President

Anne Towers, Secretary; Carolyn Kelly, Social Chairman; Eric Deaton, Treasurer; Bill Wilson, Vice-President.

The officers of the class of 1961 realized the need for greater class interest and better class participation in campus activities. This year brought a unique feature for the class of '61. New class members stormed the campus — the co-eds arrived from Meredith, W.C., St. Mary's, and other schools throughout the country. This brought a change from the predominating male class, calling for reorganization. With this many transfer students entering their Junior year, various programs were initiated to stimulate a unity within this enlarged class.

Included in our work was the continuing interest of establishing the scholarship program introduced by the previous year's class officers. The class recognized the students' first goal in his college life — to gain an education.

An effort to raise funds was made to enable our class to be independent. With these funds, a more extensive campus wide social program was promoted for every class member.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

President

The Sophomore Class Officers started the year by forming a Sophomore Cabinet, which functioned by helping with class activities and by enabling more students to participate in student government.

The aims of the class were to make a definite and useful contribution to campus government, to strive for better student relationships, and to have more unity on the single class level. Through various projects and undertakings, they tried to accomplish these objectives.

It was a profitable year because of the co-operation and efforts of the many students who became more active in the government of the campus.

FRESHMAN CLASS

ROGER SMITH
President

Don Wilkerson, Vice-President; Ann Cummings, Secretary; Carolyn Mitchell, Social Chairman; Gaston Caperton, Treasurer.

The Freshman began his college career with orientation — an informative and enjoyable introduction to UNC. After a week of gathering information about campus activities, the academic work began. He found it even more difficult than he had expected and so he launched upon the rigorous task of adapting to long hours of study, but with fraternity, sorority, and dorm parties on football weekends, he was not at a loss for social life.

The most grueling experience of every freshman was the realization that high goals are hard to attain, but the student who learned to apply himself is looking forward with anticipation to his sophomore year, now well on his way to a successful and happy four years at the Southern Side of Heaven.

Homecoming At The Hill

The Kingston Trio was here and so was the University of Tennessee football team.

And the Trio entertained us a lot better than the Volunteers.

On Friday night, the Trio played to a packed and extremely zealous audience in Memorial Hall. They brought out about all of their "old" numbers and spiced things up with a few new ones.

The reception was rousing. They were applauded to several encores; and after what seemed mere moments, the concert was over.

The usual run of parties, private and open, followed the performance. Most of the fraternities had combos, and the campus was jumping 'til the wee hours of the morn.

Saturday dawned rainy and cold; a bit damp for football. Before the trek to Kenan Stadium for the game, however, there was one other little ritual to be performed — the judging of the Homecoming Displays.

"... or Manuel, close the door."

Bob, Dave, and Nick lend their personalities in their treatment of a song.

Always one of the highlights of Homecoming, this year's displays were especially good. The fraternities, dorms and sororities pitched in enthusiastically, and some of the concoctions, though rain-soaked, were really novel.

The judges looked them over and decided upon Phi Delta Theta and Kappa Delta as the winners in their divisions.

Then came the football game.

And the only pleasant thing which occurred the entire afternoon was at halftime, when lovely Gertie Barnes, a junior Chi Omega from Lumberton, won out over dozens of other lovely lassies as Homecoming Queen — 1959.

The rest of the afternoon was miserable. Tennessee's single wing, plus the driving rain, made the students beat a hasty retreat to their umbrellas and their flasks.

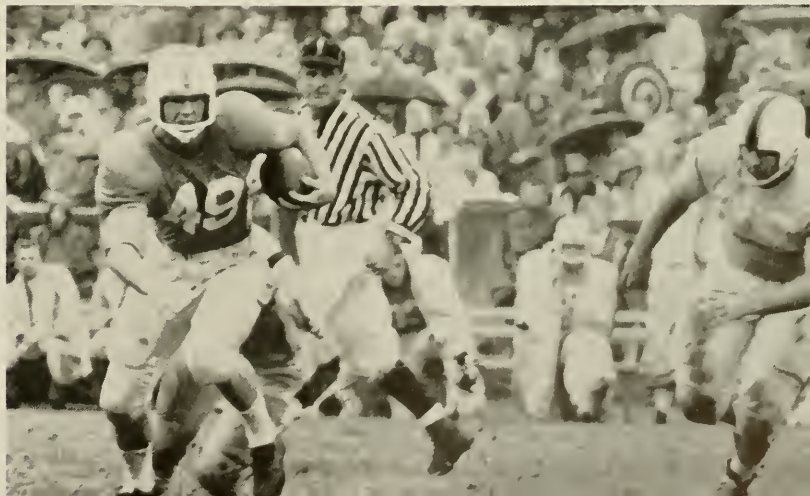

The final score was 29-7, Tennessee; and the students returned to their parties, shouting "wait 'til next year."

Homecoming Queen Gertie Barnes is crowned by Student Body President Charlie Gray.

FALL GERMANS

Nick Reynolds,
Bob Shane,
and Dave Guard.

On October 30, 1959, Memorial Hall was filled far beyond capacity with German Club members and their guests. They came to see and hear the Kingston Trio, a red-hot singing group which had been taking the entire country by storm.

For an hour and forty-five minutes the Trio held the 2,000 listeners spellbound with their renditions of such hits as "Tom Dooley," "Scotch and Soda," and "A Worried Man."

It cannot be doubted that this was the most successful weekend in German Club history. Never before in recent years has a German's weekend received such acclaim throughout the campus and the state. It was the beginning of the best year ever.

"... when the Saints go Marching in."

INTERFRATERNITY

ASHE EXUM
President

The Interfraternity Council of the University of North Carolina was founded and serves as a unifying and governing body for the twenty-four social fraternities at Carolina. The council is composed of an elected representative from each fraternity, the president of each house, and the four executive officers. Working through its seven committees — Rush, Greek Week, Scholarship, Rules, Special Projects, Publicity, and Handbook — and led by the Executive Committee, the IFC serves as a meeting ground for the separate fraternities where their problems can be discussed. Believing that the solutions to these problems are not beyond the scope of the fraternity system itself, the IFC governs its members in an effort to set a high standard of achievement and conduct for them. Other goals to which the men here pictured as members of the IFC have dedicated themselves are betterment of relations between fraternities and student organizations at UNC and service to the Chapel Hill community.

The IFC Court is composed of seven men elected from the membership of the IFC. Enforcing the rules and By-Laws of the Interfraternity Council, the IFC Court serves as the judicial branch of the IFC. It meets to try cases involving a fraternity's violation of the IFC regulations and is empowered to levy sentences upon guilty fraternities.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Walker Blanton, Treasurer; Ben Keys, Vice-President; Pete Austin, Secretary.

Under the leadership of President Ashe Exum, the IFC has had an active and successful year. Emphasis on scholarship and service to the university community have been prime motivations for this year's work. The fraternity system at Carolina is justly proud of its members in positions of campus leadership and in such activities as the annual Greek Week, community service projects, Christmas orphan parties, and a charity concert. To encourage the participation of fraternities in these and many other activities, the IFC awards the R. B. House trophy to the outstanding fraternity on campus, the Scholarship trophy to the fraternity with the highest average for the year, and the Strum trophy to the year's best pledge class.

With the best intramural start and largest pledge class we've had in many a year Sigma starts its 31st year. Alumni interest supplies the spirit (and cash) for many much needed decorations and the parties help to dull the blow of the football season. Although we've had some troubles with studying in the past we can't seem to get the books closed this year . . . we finally get a new backboard and all of our basketball players have graduated . . . the majority of the senior class needs more Q.P.'s to graduate than the sophomores . . . our new parrot has cleaner language than the old one but that's only until we can teach her to talk! The "Mystery Men" are starting a good year.

Crow solicits money for Linda and the Orphans — to go to the fair . . . The pig's love for DEKE takes him to Bowman Gray pool where he proceeds to smash all existing records . . . Beta publishes new penal code — reign of terror ensues as Brothers eye each other suspiciously . . . Executive Committee becomes Court of Last Appeal. Snake begins to squirm — "Come to think of it marriage is a serious step" . . . Gluyas becomes unbelievably wise . . . The monsoons appear on schedule and gray skies replace blue until April stages a comeback, then . . . Morehead and Myrtle . . . 3rd degree burns . . . a weekend with the girl from Salem that begins on Thursday and ends on Monday . . . Latest plans concerning the new addition are published . . . Like the football team that swept relentlessly to an undefeated season and another campus championship, the SAE's of 1959-1960 were hard to stop all along the line.

Rush yielded a pledge class that even cocky actives had to admit was the best yet.

In intramurals the perfect football season was just the beginning. On campus President Duff of GMAB headed a list of leaders that included two Honor Council members from the pledge class.

SUZANNE BURTON
SAE Sponsor

Captains Thompson and Keys of soccer and tennis led the way in varsity sports along with Woodrum in his "comeback" on the mats.

On Saturday night it sometimes looked as if all were had by a good time, but social season must be called a terrific success because invariably the pleasant memories out-lived the hangovers.

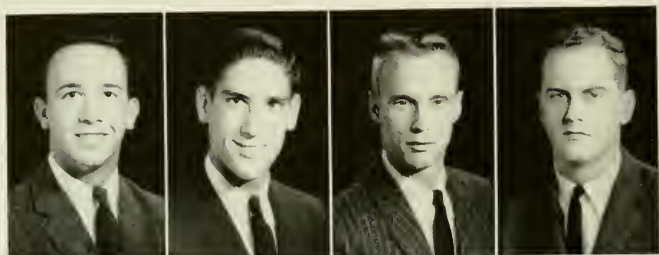

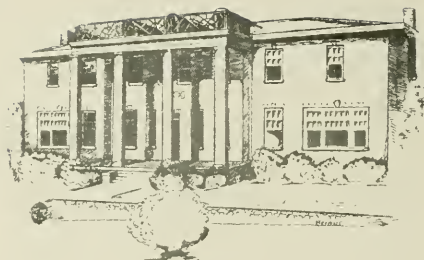

Once again there is no one to complain about the year at the SAE House except, possibly, our rivals.

"Out, out damned spot!"

Big things were happening this year at the House, highlighted by the fantastic Maryland weekend. Java-man, Bajan, and La Shill were kept busy cooking up bigger and better excursions into madness all year. The Animal trapped Rodentia Carnivore and became a headhunter. The Cosmopolities were seen sipping onion soup at a chich bistro. We gathered in the 25 seedlings that Pod had spored before leaving. News of a new cave filtered in and who knows? The one and only Green Chair was finally enshrined with all due respect. Pledges were noticed exhibiting some fine acting ability in their earthy skit. Vinnik and half-breed relative seen as our answer to Kingston Trio. Greensboro

Upsilon of Zeta Psi begins its year with the usual high hopes and aspirations. The Red Cheese is found to be a bit moldy but this is soon forgotten with rush and its results: thirteen fine pledges. Toughy and Baldy immediately astound all with their intellectual brilliance. Evins tries to avoid unnecessary trips to Durham. Football weekends bring the good parties and good times. Shannonhouse chews large size nails and often disappears into the night. Ape, Owl, and Gross subscribe to Good Housekeeping and Emily Post. Germans and the Kingston Trio arrive but a date for McDonald doesn't — "I just had one a month ago, anyhow." Juan Cozart burns up the road to Converse, usually to hear excuses. I. Allen follows people around the house, cutting off lights behind them. Embryo participates in pagan love rituals. Elam often suspects and usually finds proof — "I told you he was . . .!" Kid Clyde runs into a swift right in his ring debut and decides to hang up the gloves. Another outstanding year for Upsilon and even better ones to look forward to in the future. Take me now, Frank.

SOCCER

Carolina's 1959 soccer team compiled the best record in the 13 year history of the sport at this school. The Tar Heel booters finished the season with a 10-1 record, losing only to the Conference champion, Maryland.

Leading the Tar Heel offense was John Ghanin who tallied 16 times during the season. Backing up Ghanin were Co-Captain Mike Thompson and Tom Sprinkle who scored 7 goals each.

Other outstanding players were Co-Captain Hugh Goodman, Joe Perkins, and Bob Quackenbush.

After compiling a 9-0 record, Carolina faced powerful Maryland for the Conference championship and an NCAA playoffs berth. But Carolina's hopes were crushed in a 4-2 defeat. The final game with Duke (won 2-1) seemed an anti-climax.

leadership and the importance of military discipline are stressed.

During their junior and senior years, the cadets are offered an advanced AFROTC program. It calls for four extra hours of classroom work and two extra hours of drill each week. The objectives of the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps are two-fold: to provide a steady supply of well educated Junior Officers to serve on active duty in the Line or Staff of the Navy or the Marine Corps, and to build up a reserve of officers subject to call in the event of a national emergency.

Students within the program take eight semesters of Naval Science along with the courses in their academic field of choice. There are two drill periods each week.

Activities within the unit include the Rifle Team and the unit newspaper, The Carolina Cutter. The Drill Team and the Drum and Bugle Corps participate at football games and parades in the area. The Quarterdeck Society handles unit sponsored dances and parties which have proved quite successful.

The National Society of Scabbard and Blade is an honorary military society composed at Carolina of outstanding Air Force and Naval ROTC cadets. The overall objective of this organization is to promote interest and understanding of military affairs among the citizenry of the various colleges and universities at which it is represented. At Carolina, Scabbard and Blade presents the annual Military Ball for all AFROTC and NROTC cadets. It serves as a medium of coordination for all inter-corps activities — social, fraternal, and business. The Council also draws up and enforces the sorority rushing policies at Carolina.

During the year, Panhellenic participates in various service projects, both in the town of Chapel Hill and on the UNC campus. In addition, they take part in activities sponsored by other Panhellenic groups from nearby schools and towns.

STRAY GREEKS

The Stray Greek Organization, which was founded in 1944 under the leadership of Twig Branch, is composed of sorority women whose chapter is not represented on this campus. Its aims are to preserve the bonds of unity and sisterhood in sorority life, to provide cooperation between sorority and dormitory women, and to serve its members as a service and social organization.

Each year the Stray Greeks take over the responsibility of the Panhellenic Post Office during sorority rush and its members serve as advisors in the dormitories. Following rush, the Stray Greeks hold the Pledge Tea and the Stray Greek-Panhellenic Pledge Picnic to honor the new pledge classes.

The Stray Greeks also participate in Women's Athletic Association, various campus activities, service projects, and social events.

Symphony: first rehearsal in September with "Tree" as conductor and thirty-five members in on the session. The result — twenty-nine top pledges and plenty of harmony. As the year progressed Jenny directed, Dickie trained the ingenues, and Lou kept track of the notes. Susie kept us in the black; while Cov kept us studying the score. We took intermission for fraternity parties, pledge weekend, and side trips. But our girls found time to make music with student government, YWCA, cheerleading, and other combos. The Circle Nine kept us singing on key while Gertie and our Yack beauties proved that a pretty girl is like a melody.

With graduation came the finale — and so ends the Carolina concert.

1960 YACKETY YACK BEAUTY CONTEST

Tense excitement prevailed in Memorial Hall on November 9th as ninety-nine lovely Carolina ladies vied for the title of Yackety Yack Queen, 1960. Jimmy Capps, popular Raleigh announcer served as master of ceremonies. Mrs. Kemp Stagg, Mrs. Ty Boyd, Jerry Ball, Burnie Batchelor, and Dr. E. L. Mackie formed the panel of judges. After three suspenseful hours, the judges announced their choice for queen, Miss Maxine Greenfield, who was crowned by last year's queen, Miss Eleanor Smith. WUNC began this year with the largest returning senior staff in its history. Add to this the influx of new talent gleaned at the WUNC booth at the Freshman Activity Carnival and you have a year of expanding and outstanding activity.

This expansion is well demonstrated in a series of 15 minute dramatic productions — written, produced, and aired entirely by WUNC staff members. In addition, the WUNC remote broadcasts were increased to bring to our many listeners all Hill Hall concerts as well as a number of special events. This along with WUNC's continuing variety of program services made 1959-60 the best year in WUNC's history.

David Hitch and Martin Richek work at the controls while Tommy White, Toby Leff, and Morgan Pinney present a program for the entertainment of the Chapel Hill community.

Staff members give final approval to the '59-'60 Handbook.

The Carolina Handbook has been U.N.C.'s official orientation guide for new students since 1891. From its first edition of 16 pages, the Handbook has expanded to 156 pages with sections dealing with all phases of campus life. It has grown from "memo" size to that of 5 1/2" x 8 1/2", and it has gradually evolved to include the interests of women as well as men.

The Handbook was originally published by the Y, later adding the support of Student Government. This year it is completely under the control of Student Government as a member of the Carolina Publications Board and is operating on a budget of $3,655.00.

audit board

The primary function of the Student Audit Board is to supervise the Student Activities Fund Office. The group also serves in a financial control and advisory role to Student Government.

Five students and two faculty advisers constitute the membership of the Board. Members are appointed annually and meet throughout the school year, striving to provide continued and improved professional accounting services to student government and campus organizations through the Student Activities Fund Office. This office currently is responsible for sixty-five accounts, representing nearly two million dollars in annual transactions.

di-phi society

The Dialectic and Philanthropic Society, founded at the University in 1795, is the oldest active debating society in the United States.

Each week the Society meets in its beautifully decorated hall to debate topics of current interest, which may pertain to the University, the State, or the Nation. Meetings are modeled after those of the House of Representatives, strict parliamentary procedure being observed at all times. Members are given the opportunity to develop their public speaking abilities and to participate in the stimulating exchange of ideas through assembly debate.

Traditionally outstanding leaders have come from the Di-Phi. The rolls of membership include a President of the United States, a Vice-President, Governors of North Carolina, U. S. Congressmen, and cabinet members. Thomas Wolfe, Dr. Frank Graham, and Governor Luther Hodges are only a few of the outstanding men and women who have emerged from the Society to assume positions of prestige and responsibility.

The arduous duty of organizing the program was handled by Chairman Ed Levy and a large and capable staff. They were assisted by Dr. Donald Matthews of the Department of Political Science.

Carolina's matmen faced the new season short on experience. Composed largely of sophomores and having only one letterman (Captain Ray Russell) in the starting lineup, the Tar Heels went down before Virginia (15-16), Washington and Lee (11-21), and The Citadel (8-23) in quick succession. However, Coach Barnes, not easily discouraged, was still hoping for a good season.

The Sound and Fury production "Oh Hellas!" proved to be one of its most successful presentations in recent years. The all original script and score were written by Lew Hardee and Carl Bridgers. The production was a musical comedy based upon Aristophanes' "Lysistrata." Both the excellent music and the humorous lines proved most pleasing to the audience.

The production staff was headed by Al Salley, Producer, and Joel Fleishman, Director; while Jane Newsome, Nancy Awbrey, Al Miller, and Wally Graham composed the leaders among the actors. The Sound and Fury committee is sponsored by the Graham Memorial Activities Board and is designed to give an outlet for untrained student talent on the campus.

the carolina playmakers

Over fifty persons were in the cast and chorus of the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical play, Carousel.

Allan T. Hayward as John Moran and Bill File as Pedro starred in the new comedy, A Little to the Left.

The Carolina Playmakers serve a dual purpose as a laboratory organization for the Department of Dramatic Art and a community theatre. Participation is not limited to students in the department, but the Carolina Playmakers use actors and technicians from all departments of the University as well as people in the community.

The 1959-60 season included Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Carousel," Ben Jonson's "Volpone," Williams' "Summer and Smoke," Sophocles' "Oedipus Rex," and a new comedy, "A Little to the Left," by Brock Brower.

Three bills of one-acts, written, directed and staged by students, and a studio production round out a busy program of dramatic activities for the Playmakers.

BASKETBALL

ASSISTANT COACH DEAN SMITH

CAPTAIN HARVEY SALZ

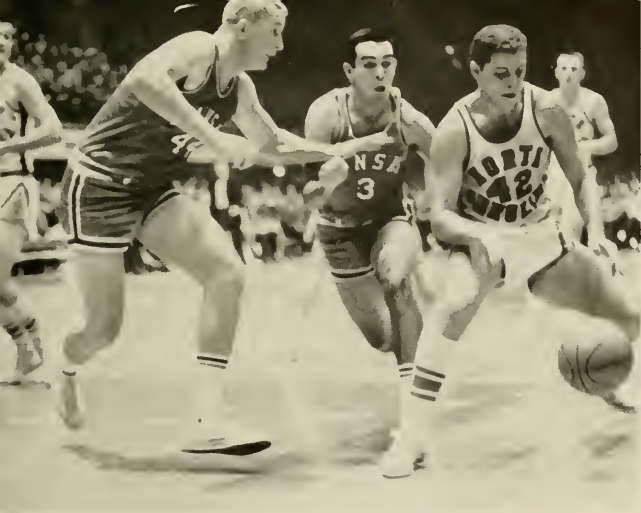

COACH FRANK MCGUIRE

Carolina's basketball team was picked to lead the Atlantic Coast Conference and take national honors in the pre-season polls. Starting the season without center Dick Kepley and forward Doug Moe, the Tar Heels made it look as if the experts were right for once. They trounced an unsuspecting South Carolina in the first game and followed that with two quick wins over outside opponents Kansas and Kansas State.

Blessed with a good floor general in Captain Harvey Salz and a quartet of sharp shooters and rebounders in Lee Shaffer, York Larese, Ray Stanley, and Grey Poole, the Tar Heels began making preparations to put their national ranking (5th) up against some of the best teams in the country as they made the rounds of the annual holiday circuit.

Harvey Salz keeps the ball away from two Kansas defenders.

Ray Stanley goes up for two in the Kansas game.

Coach Pat Earey's mermen started the 1960 season seeking their third straight Atlantic Coast Conference championship. Last year they were undefeated in Conference meets and lost only to Florida, ending a string of 25 consecutive wins dating back to 1956.

The Tar Heel swimmers opened the season by defeating East Carolina, last year's NIAI champions, in a close one 48-47. Carolina then submerged Clemson, South Carolina, and VMI in rapid succession, hitting 60 or more points in all three meets.

Although the overall team strength was weakened by the loss of Brent Nash, Kit Mercer, Dick Cashwell, and Jeff Zwicker and further weakened by the loss of varsity regulars Randy Dodson, Bob Hunter, and Joe Kalkhurst, the Tar Heels led by junior co-captain Harry Bloom and backed by co-captain Vinny Simonton, Harvey Hamrick, and a host of sophomores may make it three straight.

It doesn't take long for the new Episcopal student to find opportunities for worshipping, learning, serving, and socializing in the Canterbury Club. Along with the regular church services, he can also participate in the weekly student-led services. He develops a broader Christian understanding through stimulating discussions ranging from existentialism to the Christian interpretation of jazz, or through study groups, which help him to adjust to the college community. He may serve his church or his community through the presentation of the Feast of Lights or by giving a Christmas party for the more unfortunate children. These aims are realized and strengthened by the fellowship offered by the Canterbury Club.

Second childhood, maybe?

The primary function of the Intramural activities is to promote a broad program of competitive and recreational activities for the voluntary participation of the Carolina student body. The program includes team, individual, dual, co-recreational, and outing activities. Competition through fraternity, dormitory, graduate, and independent teams is promoted in tag football, volleyball, wrestling, basketball, handball, table tennis, badminton, softball, tennis, horseshoes, and track. All Campus Sports, Special Events, and Club Activities are also emphasized. These include the Freshman Field Day, Gymnastics Club, and Fencing Club.

This wide variety enables you to sample a sufficient number of activities to discover the one in which you are really interested and capable of participating.

Men and women have ample opportunity to participate together in annual events such as the Co-Rec Carnival, Co-Rec Volleyball, and Co-Rec Swimming.

Rather embarrassing situation, don't you think?

SPRING GERMANS

The evening of May 6 saw the best year in German Club history come to a rocking climax, a climax spurred on by the high-tension music of Ray Charles and the down-to-earth blues of Joe Turner.

A capacity Memorial Hall crowd witnessed the jumping Ray Charles and his vocal group, the Raelets, give voice to such hits as "Let the Good Times Roll" and "It Shoulda' Been Me," while Big Joe kept things moving with "Honey Hush" and "Shake, Rattle and Roll."

As the year drew to a close German Club officers thanked their lucky stars for some good breaks in booking and hoped that things will be as good next year.

Alpha Epsilon Delta is a national honor society for pre-medical and pre-dental students. It was founded at the University of Alabama, April 28, 1926. There are over 13,000 members in 64 active chapters throughout the U. S.

The North Carolina Beta Chapter was founded at the University of North Carolina on March 27, 1936. The object of the society, to recognize excellence in pre-medical and pre-dental scholarship, has grown to include stimulation of the pre-medical and pre-dental student by presentation of speakers from the medical field, assistance to him by helping him to realize his responsibilities in his pre-professional education, and benefit to him by the offer of the companionship of similarly interested students.

Founded in 1898 at the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, Mass., Phi Mu Alpha-Sinfonia is the oldest Greek letter music organization in the United States. Phi Mu Alpha both advances the cause of music in America and fosters the mutual welfare and brotherhood of students of music.

Alpha Rho Chapter, founded in 1926, takes an active part in furthering musical activities at the University of North Carolina. The chapter annually presents a concert devoted to the performance of works by American composers and frequently includes compositions by fraternity members. Whenever possible, Phi Mu Alpha-Sinfonia brings to the campus well-known artists.

The University of North Carolina was host to the third Academic Year Institute sponsored by the National Science Foundation. Fifty high school teachers of science and mathematics have returned to college to participate in this program, directed by Dr. Edwin C. Markham.

Teachers from several states are spending a year together reviewing basic principles and concepts, becoming acquainted with new developments in science and mathematics, acquiring new methods and goals. Through lectures and discussions, the group has ample opportunity to explore common problems and to exchange ideas in their fields of interest.

Intellectually refreshed in the areas of biological and physical sciences, mathematics, and education, these teachers — many with new Masters' degrees — return to the classroom to help prepare tomorrow's citizenry.

GEOFFREY BLACK
Captain

With only two starters from 1958, Geoffrey Black and Ben Keys, on the roster and a new coach in Don Skakle, a former Tar Heel tennis great, things looked bleak for Carolina's tennis team. To make matters worse they dropped 3 of the first 4 matches to Illinois and Rollins. But beginning with their first Conference match with Maryland there was no stopping the Tar Heels. They repeated their performance of 1958 by making a clean sweep of the Atlantic Coast Conference competition.

Led by Geoffrey Black who was ably backed by Ben Keys, Bruce Sylvia, Marshall Happer, and Walter Lockett, the Tar Heel netters compiled a 12-3 record and placed first in the ACC meet. They also won the John Kenfield Trophy which is presented to the team winning the most points in the tournament.

The Monogram Club is an honorary organization for the athletes on the Carolina campus who have attained enough promise in their individual sport or sports to merit their earning a varsity letter. Once an athlete has won one letter, he has the privilege of becoming an active member of the Monogram Club. These are the boys who have fought hard for Carolina's glory until the last sound of the whistle. All have worked hard — no one earns a letter without some extra effort and work on his part.

Officers of the Monogram Club are Ross Hawkins, Fred Mueller, Tom Cordle, Bob Shupin, Bing Somers, John Schroeder.

The Women's Athletic Association is an organization of which every Carolina co-ed is a member. An extensive intramural program of various sports is planned each year. A number of recreational and sport clubs are sponsored by the WAA. These include: Splash Club, Modern Dance Club, Tennis Club, Golf Club, and Basketball Club. Some of the events sponsored by these clubs are a water ballet, a modern dance recital and an annual "Tennis Day" in which participants from many North Carolina colleges enter into competition. The WAA also plans co-recreational intramurals with the men, the highlight being "Co-Rec Night."

The Splash Club, featured above, is Carolina's synchronized swimming club. It has a limited membership attained from interested women students who wish to try out. The 1960 show, "Broadway Reminiscences," in which the numbers were planned and directed by the members, was a huge success.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

For more than a century the University of North Carolina has offered instruction beyond the Bachelor's degree. A Master's degree in course was awarded as early as 1856 and the first degree of Doctor of Philosophy was conferred in 1883. In 1922, the University was invited to join the Association of American Universities, an organization of the principal institutions offering graduate work in North America.

On these pages are some of today's aspirants for graduate degrees which may be earned in more than fifty curricula, including most departments in the arts and sciences and many areas of professional training. The University's graduate students regularly come from more than forty states and over twenty foreign countries, comprising a stimulating fellowship in the quest for learning.

From the time of the establishment of Wayne Senate in 1914 at Atlanta Law School, Delta Theta Phi has grown until today it has become the largest fraternal order among students of the law in the United States. Delta Theta Phi also boasts 41 active Alumni Senates. Battle Senate was established at the University of North Carolina in 1923, and is proud to associate with 64 other Student Senates in the claim that "OUR RECORD IS OUR PROUDEST MONUMENT."

The object of Delta Theta Phi is to unite fraternally congenial students of the law, to lead them and their fellow students to high scholarship and legal learning, to surround them with an environment such that the tradition of the law and of the profession may descend upon them, to promote and to advance the interests of the law.

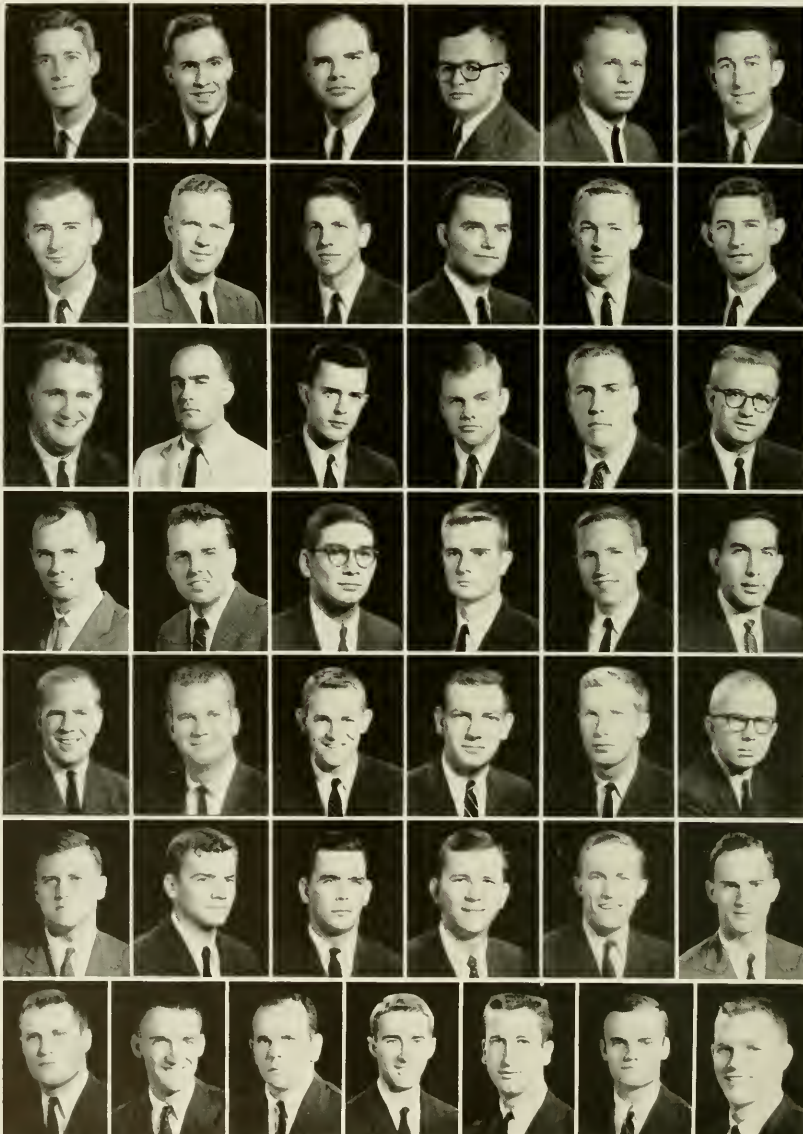

The motto: "JUSTICE FOR FELLOW MEN, HONOR TO GOD AND LOVE FOR BROTHER."

school of public health

Students in the U.N.C. School of Public Health are justifiably proud of the regional, national, and international recognition of their School.

Due to the influence of the dean, Dr. E. G. McGavran, and the faculty, the School of Public Health is a leader in the advancement of the theory of community-centered public health. As such, it is probably the most cosmopolitan division of the University in that students are attracted from all parts of the nation and the world.

The final goal of instruction is the interdisciplinary public health team, skilled in working together for the solution of community health problems with the long-term goal of total community health.

school of nursing

ELIZABETH L. KEMBLE
Dean

The University of North Carolina School of Nursing was established in 1951 as an autonomous unit within the University and the Division of Health Affairs. A four-year program was designed to prepare nurses for beginning positions in the profession. In 1955 full accreditation including that for public health nursing preparation was granted by the Accrediting Service of the National League for Nursing.

The School now offers three different programs. High school graduates are admitted to the four-year curriculum leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing. Registered professional nurses are admitted with advanced credit to the general program to complete the requirements for the baccalaureate degree in nursing. Students with a degree comparable to the B.S. in Nursing granted by the University may enter the graduate program leading to the degree Master of Science in Nursing with a major in nursing administration, psychiatric nursing or medical-surgical nursing.

Other indications of progress are further developments in the continuation of education program and research activities.

Howell Hall was the "home" of pharmacy students for only two months in the fall of 1959. Then at last the new school was completed, and we began the long hike across campus. School became fun once more with the novelty of new classrooms, labs, and library. "Y-Court periods" were spent in the spacious student center, where professors and students became acquainted across the bridge table.

This sixty-second year of pharmaceutical education at Carolina will long be remembered. Kappa Epsilon attained new spirit; Rho Chi initiated more members; Kappa Psi and Phi Delta Chi debated deferred rush; the Student Branches of APHA and NCPA recruited 100% of the Junior and Senior classes; and the Senate provoked thought and discussion. This was the last year entering freshmen were offered a four year course leading to a degree of B.S. in Pharmacy. Next fall the course will be extended to a five year program.

The Seniors returned from Kalamazoo and the tour of drug houses with a renewed pride in the profession of pharmacy. Soon these same seniors will leave Carolina as the first graduating class from the new Pharmacy Building on Medical Hill.

pharmacy senate

The Pharmacy Senate was founded at UNC in 1940, in order to stimulate and increase knowledge and appreciation for the profession of pharmacy, to promote interclass cooperation within the school and to teach public speaking as a foundation for future leadership.

Meeting once a month, the body discusses new drugs, new pharmaceutical processes, and various problems facing the profession today, thus giving each member a chance to develop a better attitude toward the various situations so that a more intelligent approach may be used in the future when faced with such problems of his own.
