CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

PREAMBLE AND DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

PREAMBLE.

We, the people of the State of California, grateful to Almighty God for our freedom, in order to secure and perpetuate its blessings, do establish this Constitution.

ARTICLE I.

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

SECTION 1. All men are by nature free and independent, and have certain inalienable rights, among which are those of enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing, and protecting property; and pursuing and obtaining safety and happiness.

SEC. 2. All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for the protection, security, and benefit of the people, and they have the right to alter or reform the same whenever the public good may require it.

SEC. 3. The State of California is an inseparable part of the American Union, and the Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land.

SEC. 4. The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall forever be guaranteed in this State; and no person shall be rendered incompetent to be a witness or juror on account of his opinions on matters of religious belief; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or justify practices inconsistent with the peace or safety of this State.

SEC. 5. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended unless when, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require its suspension.

SEC. 6. All persons shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, unless for capital offenses when the proof is evident or the presumption great. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed; nor shall cruel or unusual punishment be inflicted. Witnesses shall not be unreasonably detained, nor confined in any room where criminals are actually imprisoned.

SEC. 7. The right of trial by jury shall be secured to all, and remain inviolate; but in civil actions three fourths of the jury may render a verdict. A trial by jury may be waived in all criminal cases not amounting to felony, by the consent of both parties, expressed in open court, and in civil actions by the consent of the parties, signified in such manner as may be prescribed by law. In civil actions and cases of misdemeanor, the jury may consist of twelve, or of any number less than twelve upon which the parties may agree in open court.

SEC. 8. Offenses heretofore required to be prosecuted by indictment shall be prosecuted by information, after examination and commitment by a magistrate, or by indictment, with or without such examination and commitment, as may be prescribed by law. A grand jury shall be drawn and summoned at least once a year in each county.

SEC. 9. Every citizen may freely speak, write, and publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right; and no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press. In all criminal prosecutions for libels, the truth may be given in evidence to the jury; and if it shall appear to the jury that the matter charged as libelous is true, and was published with good motives, and for justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted; and the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the fact. Indictments found, or information laid, for publications in newspapers, shall be tried in the county where such newspapers have their publication office, or in the county where the party alleged to be libeled resided at the time of the alleged publication, unless the place of trial shall be changed for good cause.

SEC. 10. The people shall have the right to freely assemble together to consult for the common good, to instruct their representatives, and to petition the Legislature for redress of grievances.

SEC. 11. All laws of a general nature shall have a uniform operation.

SEC. 12. The military shall be subordinate to the civil power. No standing army shall be kept up by this State in time of peace, and no soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, except in the manner prescribed by law.

SEC. 13. In criminal prosecutions, in any court whatever, the party accused shall have the right to a speedy and public trial; to have the process of the court to compel the attendance of witnesses in his behalf, and to appear and defend, in person and with counsel. No person shall be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense; nor be compelled, in any criminal case, to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law. The Legislature shall have power to provide for the taking, in the presence of the party accused and his counsel, of depositions of witnesses, in criminal cases other than cases of homicide, when there is reason to believe that the witness, from inability or other cause, will not attend at the trial.

SEC. 14. Private property shall not be taken or damaged for public use without just compensation having been first made to, or paid into court for, the owner, and no right of way shall be appropriated to the use of any corporation other than municipal until full compensation therefor be first made in money or ascertained and paid into court for the owner, irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corporation, which compensation shall be ascertained by a jury, unless a jury be waived, as in other civil cases in a court of record, as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 15. No person shall be imprisoned for debt in any civil action, on mesne or final process, unless in cases of fraud, nor in civil actions for torts, except in cases of willful injury to person or property; and no person shall be imprisoned for a militia fine in time of peace.

SEC. 16. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligations of contracts, shall ever be passed.

SEC. 17. Foreigners of the white race, or of African descent, eligible to become citizens of the United States under the naturalization laws thereof, while bona fide residents of this State, shall have the same rights in respect to the acquisition, possession, enjoyment, transmission, and inheritance of all property, other than real estate, as native born citizens; provided, that such aliens owning real estate at the time of the adoption of this amendment may remain such owners; and provided further, that the Legislature may, by statute, provide for the disposition of real estate which shall hereafter be acquired by such aliens by descent or devise. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1894.]

SEC. 18. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, unless for the punishment of crime, shall ever be tolerated in this State.

SEC. 19. The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable seizures and searches, shall not be violated; and no warrant shall issue but on probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, particularly describing the place to be searched and the person and things to be seized.

SEC. 20. Treason against the State shall consist only in levying war against it, adhering to its enemies, or giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the evidence of two witnesses to the same overt act, or confession in open court.

SEC. 21. No special privileges or immunities shall ever be granted which may not be altered, revoked, or repealed by the Legislature, nor shall any citizen, or class of citizens, be granted privileges or immunities which, upon the same terms, shall not be granted to all citizens.

SEC. 22. The provisions of this Constitution are mandatory and prohibitory, unless by express words they are declared to be otherwise.

SEC. 23. This enumeration of rights shall not be construed to impair or deny others retained by the people.

SEC. 24. No property qualification shall ever be required for any person to vote or hold office.

ARTICLE II.

RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE.

SECTION 1. Every native male citizen of the United States, every male person who shall have acquired the rights of citizenship under or by virtue of the treaty of Queretaro, and every male naturalized citizen thereof, who shall have become such ninety days prior to any election, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been resident of the State one year next preceding the election, and of the county in which he claims his vote ninety days, and in the election precinct thirty days, shall be entitled to vote at all elections which are now or may hereafter be authorized by law; provided, no native of China, no idiot, no insane person, no person convicted of any infamous crime, no person hereafter convicted of the embezzlement or misappropriation of public money, and no person who shall not be able to read the Constitution in the English language and write his name, shall ever exercise the privileges of an elector in this State; provided, that the provisions of this amendment relative to an educational qualification shall not apply to any person prevented by a physical disability from complying with its requisitions, nor to any person who now has the right to vote, nor to any person who shall be sixty years of age and upwards at the time this amendment shall take effect. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1894.]

SEC. 2. Electors shall in all cases, except treason, felony, or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest on the days of election, during their attendance at such election, going to and returning therefrom.

SEC. 2½. The Legislature shall have the power to enact laws relative to the election of delegates to conventions of political parties at elections known and designated as primary elections. Also to determine the tests and conditions upon which electors, political parties, or organizations of voters, may participate in any such primary election, which tests or conditions may be different from the tests and conditions required and permitted at other elections authorized by law; or the Legislature may delegate the power to determine such tests or conditions, at primary elections, to the various political parties participating therein. It shall also be lawful for the Legislature to prescribe that any such primary election law shall be obligatory and mandatory in any city, or any city and county, or in any county, or in any political subdivision, of a designated population, and that such law shall be optional in any city, city and county, county, or political subdivision of a lesser population, and for such purpose such law may declare the population of any city, city and county, county, or political subdivision, and may also provide what, if any, compensation primary election officers in defined places or political subdivisions may receive, without making compensation either general or uniform. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1900.]

SEC. 3. No elector shall be obliged to perform militia duty on the day of election, except in time of war or public danger.

SEC. 4. For the purpose of voting, no person shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence by reason of his presence or absence while employed in the service of the United States; nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of this State, or of the United States, or of the high seas; nor while a student at any seminary of learning; nor while kept in any almshouse or other asylum, at public expense; nor while confined in any public prison.

SEC. 5. All elections by the people shall be by ballot or by such other method as may be prescribed by law; provided, that secrecy in voting be preserved. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1896.]

SEC. 6. The inhibitions of this Constitution to the contrary notwithstanding, the Legislature shall have power to provide that in different parts of the State different methods may be employed for receiving and registering the will of the people as expressed at elections, and may provide that mechanical devices may be used within designated subdivisions of the State at the option of the local authority indicated by the Legislature for that purpose. [New section; adopted November 4, 1902.]

ARTICLE III.

DISTRIBUTION OF POWERS.

SECTION 1. The powers of the government of the State of California shall be divided into three separate departments—the legislative, executive, and judicial; and no person charged with the exercise of powers properly belonging to one of these departments shall exercise any functions appertaining to either of the others, except as in this Constitution expressly directed or permitted.

ARTICLE IV.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The legislative power of this State shall be vested in a Senate and Assembly, which shall be designated the Legislature of the State of California; and the enacting clause of every law shall be as follows: "The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows."

SEC. 2. The sessions of the Legislature shall commence at twelve o'clock M. on the first Monday after the first day of January next succeeding the election of its members, and after the election held in the year eighteen hundred and eighty shall be biennial, unless the Governor shall, in the interim, convene the Legislature by proclamation. No pay shall be allowed to members for a longer time than sixty days, except for the first session after the adoption of this Constitution, for which they may be allowed pay for one hundred days. And no bill shall be introduced in either house after the expiration of ninety days from the commencement of the first session, nor after fifty days after the commencement of each succeeding session, without the consent of two thirds of the members thereof.

SEC. 3. Members of the Assembly shall be elected in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, at the time and in the manner now provided by law. The second election of members of the Assembly, after the adoption of this Constitution, shall be on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and eighty. Thereafter members of the Assembly shall be chosen biennially, and their term of office shall be two years; and each election shall be on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, unless otherwise ordered by the Legislature.

SEC. 4. Senators shall be chosen for the term of four years, at the same time and places as members of the Assembly, and no person shall be a member of the Senate or Assembly who has not been a citizen and inhabitant of the State three years, and of the district for which he shall be chosen one year, next before his election.

SEC. 5. The Senate shall consist of forty members, and the Assembly of eighty members, to be elected by districts, numbered as hereinafter provided. The seats of the twenty Senators elected in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-two from the odd-numbered districts shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, so that one half of the Senators shall be elected every two years; provided, that all the Senators elected at the first election under this Constitution shall hold office for the term of three years.

SEC. 6. For the purpose of choosing members of the Legislature, the State shall be divided into forty senatorial and eighty assembly districts, as nearly equal in population as may be, and composed of contiguous territory, to be called senatorial and assembly districts. Each senatorial district shall choose one Senator, and each assembly district shall choose one member of Assembly. The senatorial districts shall be numbered from one to forty, inclusive, in numerical order, and the assembly districts shall be numbered from one to eighty in the same order, commencing at the northern boundary of the State and ending at the southern boundary thereof. In the formation of such districts no county, or city and county shall be divided, unless it contains sufficient population within itself to form two or more districts, nor shall a part of any county, or of any city and county, be united with any other county, or city and county, in forming any district. The census taken under the direction of the Congress of the United States in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and every ten years thereafter, shall be the basis of fixing and adjusting the legislative districts; and the Legislature shall, at its first session after each census, adjust such districts and reapportion the representation so as to preserve them as near equal in population as may be. But in making such adjustment no persons who are not eligible to become citizens of the United States, under the naturalization laws, shall be counted as forming a part of the population of any district. Until such districting as herein provided for shall be made, Senators and Assemblymen shall be elected by the districts according to the apportionment now provided for by law.

SEC. 7. Each house shall choose its officers, and judge of the qualifications, elections, and returns of its members.

SEC. 8. A majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

SEC. 9. Each house shall determine the rule of its proceeding, and may, with the concurrence of two thirds of all the members elected, expel a member.

SEC. 10. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house, on any question, shall, at the desire of any three members present, be entered on the journal.

SEC. 11. Members of the Legislature shall, in all cases, except treason, felony, and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest, and shall not be subject to any civil process during the session of the Legislature, nor for fifteen days next before the commencement and after the termination of each session.

SEC. 12. When vacancies occur in either house, the Governor, or the person exercising the functions of the Governor, shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

SEC. 13. The doors of each house shall be open, except on such occasions as, in the opinion of the house, may require secrecy.

SEC. 14. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any place other than that in which they may be sitting. Nor shall the members of either house draw pay for any recess or adjournment for a longer time than three days.

SEC. 15. No law shall be passed except by bill. Nor shall any bill be put upon its final passage until the same, with the amendments thereto, shall have been printed for the use of the members; nor shall any bill become a law unless the same be read on three several days in each house, unless, in case of urgency, two thirds of the house where such bill may be pending shall, by a vote of yeas and nays, dispense with this provision. Any bill may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other; and on the final passage of all bills they shall be read at length, and the vote shall be by yeas and nays upon each bill separately, and shall be entered on the journal, and no bill shall become a law without the concurrence of a majority of the members elected to each house.

SEC. 16. Every bill which may have passed the Legislature shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor. If he approve it, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the house in which it originated, which shall enter such objections upon the journal and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, it again passes both houses, by yeas and nays, two thirds of the members elected to each house voting therefor, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the Governor's objections. If any bill shall not be returned within ten days after it shall have been presented to him (Sundays excepted), the same shall become a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature, by adjournment, prevent such return, in which case it shall not become a law, unless the Governor, within ten days after such adjournment (Sundays excepted), shall sign and deposit the same in the office of the Secretary of State, in which case it shall become a law in like manner as if it had been signed by him before adjournment. If any bill presented to the Governor contains several items of appropriation of money, he may object to one or more items, while approving other portions of the bill. In such case he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the items to which he objects, and the reasons therefor, and the appropriations so objected to shall not take effect unless passed over the Governor's veto, as hereinbefore provided. If the Legislature be in session, the Governor shall transmit to the house in which the bill originated a copy of such statement, and the items so objected to shall be separately reconsidered in the same manner as bills which have been disapproved by the Governor.

SEC. 17. The Assembly shall have the sole power of impeachment, and all impeachments shall be tried by the Senate. When sitting for that purpose, the Senators shall be upon oath or affirmation, and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected.

SEC. 18. The Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, Attorney-General, Surveyor-General, Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, and Judges of the Superior Courts, shall be liable to impeachment for any misdemeanor in office; but judgment in such cases shall extend only to removal from office and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit under the State; but the party convicted or acquitted shall, nevertheless, be liable to indictment, trial, and punishment, according to law. All other civil officers shall be tried for misdemeanor in office in such manner as the Legislature may provide.

SEC. 19. No Senator or member of Assembly shall, during the term for which he shall have been elected, be appointed to any civil office of profit under this State which shall have been created, or the emoluments of which have been increased, during such term, except such offices as may be filled by election by the people.

SEC. 20. No person holding any lucrative office under the United States, or any other power, shall be eligible to any civil office of profit under this State; provided, that officers in the militia who receive no annual salary, local officers, or postmasters whose compensation does not exceed five hundred dollars per annum, shall not be deemed to hold lucrative offices.

SEC. 21. No person convicted of the embezzlement or defalcation of the public funds of the United States, or of any State, or of any county or municipality therein, shall ever be eligible to any office of honor, trust, or profit under this State, and the Legislature shall provide, by law, for the punishment of embezzlement or defalcation as a felony.

SEC. 22. No money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law, and upon warrants duly drawn thereon by the Controller; and no money shall ever be appropriated or drawn from the State treasury for the use or benefit of any corporation, association, asylum, hospital, or any other institution not under the exclusive management and control of the State as a State institution, nor shall any grant or donation of property ever be made thereto by the State; provided, that notwithstanding anything contained in this or any other section of this Constitution, the Legislature shall have the power to grant aid to institutions conducted for the support and maintenance of minor orphans, or half-orphans, or abandoned children, or aged persons in indigent circumstances—such aid to be granted by a uniform rule, and proportioned to the number of inmates of such respective institutions; provided further, that the State shall have at any time the right to inquire into the management of such institution; provided further, that whenever any county, or city and county, or city, or town shall provide for the support of minor orphans, or half-orphans, or abandoned children, or aged persons in indigent circumstances, such county, city and county, city, or town shall be entitled to receive the same pro rata appropriations as may be granted to such institutions under church or other control. An accurate statement of the receipts and expenditures of public moneys shall be attached to and published with the laws at every regular session of the Legislature.

SEC. 23. The members of the Legislature shall receive for their services a per diem and mileage, to be fixed by law, and paid out of the public treasury: such per diem shall not exceed eight dollars, and such mileage shall not exceed ten cents per mile, and for contingent expenses not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each session. No increase in compensation or mileage shall take effect during the term for which the members of either house shall have been elected, and the pay of no attaché shall be increased after he is elected or appointed.

Sec. 24. Every Act shall embrace but one subject, which subject shall be expressed in its title. But if any subject shall be embraced in an Act which shall not be expressed in its title, such Act shall be void only as to so much thereof as shall not be expressed in its title. No law shall be revised or amended by reference to its title; but in such case the Act revised or section amended shall be reënacted and published at length as revised or amended; and all laws of the State of California, and all official writings, and the executive, legislative, and judicial proceedings, shall be conducted, preserved, and published in no other than the English language.

Sec. 25. The Legislature shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following enumerated cases, that is to say:

First—Regulating the jurisdiction and duties of justices of the peace, police judges, and of constables.

Second—For the punishment of crimes and misdemeanors.

Third—Regulating the practice of courts of justice.

Fourth—Providing for changing the venue in civil or criminal actions.

Fifth—Granting divorces.

Sixth—Changing the names of persons or places.

Seventh—Authorizing the laying out, opening, altering, maintaining, or vacating roads, highways, streets, alleys, town plots, parks, cemeteries, graveyards, or public grounds not owned by the State.

Eighth—Summoning and impaneling grand and petit juries, and providing for their compensation.

Ninth—Regulating county and township business, or the election of county and township officers.

Tenth—For the assessment or collection of taxes.

Eleventh—Providing for conducting elections, or designating the places of voting, except on the organization of new counties.

Twelfth—Affecting estates of deceased persons, minors, or other persons under legal disabilities.

Thirteenth—Extending the time for the collection of taxes.

Fourteenth—Giving effect to invalid deeds, wills, or other instruments.

Fifteenth—Refunding money paid into the State treasury.

Sixteenth—Releasing or extinguishing, in whole or in part, the indebtedness, liability, or obligation of any corporation or person to this State, or to any municipal corporation therein.

Seventeenth—Declaring any person of age, or authorizing any minor to sell, lease, or incur his or her property.

Eighteenth—Legalizing, except as against the State, the unauthorized or invalid act of any officer.

Nineteenth—Granting to any corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive right, privilege, or immunity.

Twentieth—Exempting property from taxation.

Twenty-first—Changing county seats.

Twenty-second—Restoring to citizenship persons convicted of infamous crimes.

Twenty-third—Regulating the rate of interest on money.

Twenty-fourth—Authorizing the creation, extension, or impairing of liens.

Twenty-fifth—Chartering or licensing ferries, bridges, or roads.

Twenty-sixth—Remitting fines, penalties, or forfeitures.

Twenty-seventh—Providing for the management of common schools.

Twenty-eighth—Creating offices, or prescribing the powers and duties of officers in counties, cities, cities and counties, township, election or school districts.

Twenty-ninth—Affecting the fees or salary of any officer.

Thirtieth—Changing the law of descent or succession.

Thirty-first—Authorizing the adoption or legitimation of children.

Thirty-second—For limitation of civil or criminal actions.

Thirty-third—In all other cases where a general law can be made applicable.

Sec. 25½. The Legislature may provide for the division of the State into fish and game districts, and may enact such laws for the protection of fish and game therein as it may deem appropriate to the respective districts. [New section; adopted November 4, 1902.]

Sec. 26. The Legislature shall have no power to authorize lotteries or gift enterprises for any purpose, and shall pass laws to prohibit the sale in this State of lottery or gift enterprise tickets, or tickets in any scheme in the nature of a lottery. The Legislature shall pass laws to regulate or prohibit the buying and selling of the shares of the capital stock of corporations in any stock board, stock exchange, or stock market under the control of any association. All contracts for the sale of shares of the capital stock of any corporation or association, on margin, or to be delivered at a future day, shall be void, and any money paid on such contracts may be recovered by the party paying it by suit in any court of competent jurisdiction.

SEC. 27. When a congressional district shall be composed of two or more counties, it shall not be separated by any county belonging to another district. No county, or city and county, shall be divided in forming a congressional district so as to attach one portion of a county, or city and county, to another county, or city and county, except in cases where one county, or city and county, has more population than the ratio required for one or more Congressmen; but the Legislature may divide any county, or city and county, into as many congressional districts as it may be entitled to by law. Any county, or city and county containing a population greater than the number required for one congressional district, shall be formed into one or more congressional districts, according to the population thereof, and any residue, after forming such district or districts, shall be attached, by compact adjoining assembly districts, to a contiguous county or counties, and form a congressional district. In dividing a county, or city and county, into congressional districts, no assembly district shall be divided so as to form a part of more than one congressional district, and every such congressional district shall be composed of compact contiguous assembly districts.

SEC. 28. In all elections by the Legislature the members thereof shall vote viva voce, and the vote shall be entered on the journal.

SEC. 29. The general appropriation bill shall contain no item or items of appropriation other than such as are required to pay the salaries of the State officers, the expenses of the government, and of the institutions under the exclusive control and management of the State.

SEC. 30. Neither the Legislature, nor any county, city and county, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, shall ever make an appropriation, or pay from any public fund whatever, or grant anything to or in aid of any religious sect, church, creed, or sectarian purpose, or help to support or sustain any school, college, university, hospital, or other institution controlled by any religious creed, church, or sectarian denomination whatever; nor shall any grant or donation of personal property or real estate ever be made by the State, or any city, city and county, town, or other municipal corporation, for any religious creed, church, or sectarian purpose whatever; provided, that nothing in this section shall prevent the Legislature granting aid pursuant to section twenty-two of this article.

SEC. 31. The Legislature shall have no power to give or to lend, or to authorize the giving or lending, of the credit of the State, or of any county, city and county, city, township, or other political corporation or subdivision of the State now existing, or that may be hereafter established, in aid of or to any person, association, or corporation, whether municipal or otherwise, or to pledge the credit thereof in any manner whatever, for the payment of the liabilities of any individual, association, municipal, or other corporation whatever; nor shall it have power to make any gift, or authorize the making of any gift, of any public money or thing of value, to any individual, municipal or other corporation whatever; provided, that nothing in this section shall prevent the Legislature granting aid pursuant to section twenty-two of this article; and it shall not have power to authorize the State, or any political subdivision thereof, to subscribe for stock, or to become a stockholder in any corporation whatever.

SEC. 32. The Legislature shall have no power to grant, or authorize any county or municipal authority to grant, any extra compensation or allowance to any public officer, agent, servant, or contractor, after service has been rendered, or a contract has been entered into and performed, in whole or in part; nor to pay, or to authorize the payment of, any claim hereafter created against the State, or any county or municipality of the State, under any agreement or contract made without express authority of law; and all such unauthorized agreements or contracts shall be null and void.

SEC. 33. The Legislature shall pass laws for the regulation and limitation of the charges for services performed and commodities furnished by telegraph and gas corporations, and the charges by corporations or individuals for storage and wharfage, in which there is a public use; and where laws shall provide for the selection of any person or officer to regulate and limit such rates, no such person or officer shall be selected by any corporation or individual interested in the business to be regulated, and no person shall be selected who is an officer or stockholder in any such corporation.

SEC. 34. No bill making an appropriation of money, except the general appropriation bill, shall contain more than one item of appropriation, and that for one single and certain purpose, to be therein expressed.

SEC. 35. Any person who seeks to influence the vote of a member of the Legislature by bribery, promise of reward, intimidation, or any other dishonest means, shall be guilty of lobbying, which is hereby declared a felony; and it shall be the duty of the Legislature to provide, by law, for the punishment of this crime. Any member of the Legislature who shall be influenced, in his vote or action upon any matter pending before the Legislature, by any reward, or promise of future reward, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, in addition to such punishment as may be provided by law, shall be disfranchised and forever disqualified from holding any office or public trust. Any person may be compelled to testify in any lawful investigation or judicial proceeding against any person who may be charged with having committed the offense of bribery or corrupt solicitation, or with having been influenced in his vote or action, as a member of the Legislature, by reward, or promise of future reward, and shall not be permitted to withhold his testimony upon the ground that it may criminate himself, or subject him to public infamy; but such testimony shall not afterwards be used against him in any judicial proceeding, except for perjury in giving such testimony.

Sec. 34. The Legislature shall have power to establish a system of State highways or to declare any road a State highway, and to pass all laws necessary or proper to construct and maintain the same, and to extend aid for the construction and maintenance in whole or in part of any county highway. [New section; adopted November 4, 1902.]

ARTICLE V.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The supreme executive power of this State shall be vested in a Chief Magistrate, who shall be styled the Governor of the State of California.

Sec. 2. The Governor shall be elected by the qualified electors at the time and places of voting for members of the Assembly, and shall hold his office four years from and after the first Monday after the first day of January subsequent to his election, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 3. No person shall be eligible to the office of Governor who has not been a citizen of the United States and a resident of this State five years next preceding his election, and attained the age of twenty-five years at the time of such election.

Sec. 4. The returns of every election for Governor shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government, directed to the Speaker of the Assembly, who shall, during the first week of the session, open and publish them in the presence of both houses of the Legislature. The person having the highest number of votes shall be Governor; but in case any two or more have an equal and the highest number of votes, the Legislature shall, by joint vote of both houses, choose one of such persons so having an equal and the highest number of votes for Governor.

Sec. 5. The Governor shall be commander-in-chief of the militia, the army and navy of this State.

Sec. 6. He shall transact all executive business with the officers of government, civil and military, and may require information, in writing, from the officers of the executive department upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices.

Sec. 7. He shall see that the laws are faithfully executed.

Sec. 8. When any office shall, from any cause, become vacant, and no mode is provided by the Constitution and law for filling such vacancy, the Governor shall have power to fill such vacancy by granting a commission, which shall expire at the end of the next session of the Legislature, or at the next election by the people.

Sec. 9. He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the Legislature by proclamation, stating the purposes for which he has convened it; and when so convened it shall have no power to legislate on any subject other than those specified in the proclamation, but may provide for the expenses of the session, and other matters incidental thereto.

Sec. 10. He shall communicate, by message to the Legislature, at every session, the condition of the State, and recommend such matters as he shall deem expedient.

Sec. 11. In case of a disagreement between the two houses with respect to the time of adjournment, the Governor shall have power to adjourn the Legislature to such time as he may think proper; provided, it be not beyond the time fixed for the meeting of the next Legislature.

Sec. 12. No person shall, while holding any office under the United States, or this State, exercise the office of Governor, except as hereinafter expressly provided.

Sec. 13. There shall be a seal of this State, which shall be kept by the Governor, and used by him officially, and shall be called "The Great Seal of the State of California."

Sec. 14. All grants and commissions shall be in the name and by the authority of the people of the State of California, sealed with the great seal of the State, signed by the Governor, and countersigned by the Secretary of State.

Sec. 15. A Lieutenant-Governor shall be elected at the same time and place, and in the same manner, as the Governor, and his term of office and his qualifications shall be the same. He shall be President of the Senate, but shall only have a casting vote therein. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1898.]

Sec. 16. In case of the impeachment of the Governor, or his removal from office, death, inability to discharge the powers and duties of his office, resignation, or absence from the State, the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon the Lieutenant-Governor for the residue of the term, or until the disability shall cease. And should the Lieutenant-Governor be impeached, displaced, resign, die, or become incapable of performing the duties of his office, or be absent from the State, the President pro tempore of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy in the office of Governor shall be filled at the next general election when members of the Legislature shall be chosen, or until such disability of the Lieutenant-Governor shall cease. In case of a vacancy in the office of Governor for any of the reasons above named, and neither the Lieutenant-Governor nor the President pro tempore of the Senate succeed to the powers and duties of Governor, then the powers and duties of such office shall devolve upon the Speaker of the Assembly, until the office of Governor shall be filled at such general election. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1898.]

SEC. 17. A Secretary of State, a Controller, a Treasurer, an Attorney-General, and a Surveyor-General shall be elected at the same time and places, and in the same manner, as the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor; and their terms of office shall be the same as that of the Governor.

SEC. 18. The Secretary of State shall keep a correct record of the official acts of the legislative and executive departments of the government, and shall, when required, lay the same, and all matters relative thereto, before either branch of the Legislature, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned him by law.

SEC. 19. The Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, Attorney-General, and Surveyor-General shall, at stated times, during their continuance in office, receive for their services a compensation which shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which they shall have been elected, which compensation is hereby fixed for the following officers for the two terms next ensuing the adoption of this Constitution, as follows: Governor, six thousand dollars per annum; Lieutenant-Governor, the same per diem as may be provided by law for the Speaker of the Assembly, to be allowed only during the session of the Legislature; the Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, Attorney-General, and Surveyor-General, three thousand dollars each per annum, such compensation to be in full for all services by them, respectively, rendered in any official capacity or employment whatsoever during their respective terms of office; provided, however, that the Legislature, after the expiration of the terms hereinbefore mentioned, may by law diminish the compensation of any or all such officers, but in no case shall have the power to increase the same above the sums hereby fixed by this Constitution. No salary shall be authorized by law for clerical service, in any office provided for in this article, exceeding sixteen hundred dollars per annum for each clerk employed. The Legislature may, in its discretion, abolish the office of Surveyor-General; and none of the officers hereinbefore named shall receive for their own use any fees or perquisites for the performance of any official duty.

SEC. 20. The Governor shall not, during his term of office, be elected a Senator to the Senate of the United States.

ARTICLE VI.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The judicial power of the State shall be vested in the Senate, sitting as a court of impeachment, in a Supreme Court, District Courts of Appeal, Superior Courts, Justices of the Peace, and such inferior courts as the Legislature may establish in any incorporated city or town, or city and county. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and six Associate Justices. The court may sit in departments and in bank, and shall always be open for the transaction of business. There shall be two departments, denominated, respectively, Department One and Department Two. The Chief Justice shall assign three of the Associate Justices to each department, and such assignment may be changed by him from time to time. The Associate Justices shall be competent to sit in either department, and may interchange with each other by agreement among themselves, or as ordered by the Chief Justice. Each of the departments shall have the power to hear and determine causes, and all questions arising therein, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained in relation to the court in bank. The presence of three justices shall be necessary to transact any business in either of the departments, except such as may be done at chambers, and the concurrence of three justices shall be necessary to pronounce a judgment. The Chief Justice shall apportion the business to the departments, and may, in his discretion, order any cause pending before the court to be heard and decided by the court in bank. The order may be made before or after judgment pronounced by a department; but where a cause has been allotted to one of the departments, and a judgment pronounced thereon, the order must be made within thirty days after such judgment, and concurred in by two Associate Justices, and if so made it shall have the effect to vacate and set aside the judgment. Any four justices may, either before or after judgment by a department, order a case to be heard in bank. If the order be not made within the time above limited, the judgment shall be final. No judgment by a department shall become final until the expiration of the period of thirty days aforesaid, unless approved by the Chief Justice, in writing, with the concurrence of two Associate Justices. The Chief Justice may convene the court in bank at any time, and shall be the presiding justice of the court when so convened. The concurrence of four justices present at the argument shall be necessary to pronounce a judgment in bank; but if four justices, so present, do not concur in a judgment, then all the justices qualified to sit in the cause shall hear the argument; but to render a judgment a concurrence of four judges shall be necessary. In the determination of causes, all decisions of the court, in bank or in departments, shall be given in writing, and the grounds of the decision shall be stated. The Chief Justice may sit in either department, and shall preside when so sitting, but the justices assigned to each department shall select one of their number as presiding justice. In case of the absence of the Chief Justice from the place at which the court is held, or his inability to act, the Associate Justices shall select one of their own number to perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chief Justice during such absence or inability to act.

SEC. 3. The Chief Justice and the Associate Justices shall be elected by the qualified electors of the State at large at the general State elections, at the time and places at which State officers are elected; and the term of office shall be twelve years from and after the first Monday after the first day of January next succeeding their election; provided, that the six Associate Justices elected at the first election shall, at their first meeting, so classify themselves, by lot, that two of them shall go out of office at the end of four years, two of them at the end of eight years, and two of them at the end of twelve years, and an entry of such classification shall be made in the minutes of the court in bank, signed by them, and a duplicate thereof shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State. If a vacancy occur in the office of a justice, the Governor shall appoint a person to hold the office until the election and qualification of a justice to fill the vacancy, which election shall take place at the next succeeding general election, and the justice so elected shall hold the office for the remainder of the unexpired term. The first election of the justices shall be at the first general election after the adoption and ratification of this Constitution.

SEC. 4. The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction on appeal from the Superior Courts in all cases in equity, except such as arise in Justices' Courts; also, in all cases at law which involve the title or possession of real estate, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, or in which the demand, exclusive of interest, or the value of the property in controversy, amounts to two thousand dollars; also, in all such probate matters as may be provided by law; also, on questions of law alone, in all criminal cases where judgment of death has been rendered; the said court shall also have appellate jurisdiction in all cases, matters, and proceedings pending before a District Court of Appeal which shall be ordered by the Supreme Court to be transferred to itself for hearing and decision, as hereinafter provided. The said court shall also have power to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, and habeas corpus, and all other writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its appellate jurisdiction. Each of the justices shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the State, upon petition by or on behalf of any person held in actual custody, and may make such writs returnable before himself or the Supreme Court, or before any District Court of Appeal, or before any judge thereof, or before any Superior Court in the State, or before any judge thereof.

The State is hereby divided into three appellate districts, in each of which there shall be a District Court of Appeal consisting of three justices. The first district shall embrace the following counties: San Francisco, Marin, Contra Costa, Alameda, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Fresno, Santa Cruz, Monterey, and San Benito.

The second district shall embrace the following counties: Tulare, Kings, San Luis Obispo, Kern, Inyo, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Orange, Riverside, and San Diego.

The third district shall embrace the following counties: Del Norte, Siskiyou, Modoc, Humboldt, Trinity, Shasta, Lassen, Tehama, Plumas, Mendocino, Lake, Colusa, Glenn, Butte, Sierra, Sutter, Yuba, Nevada, Sonoma, Napa, Yolo, Placer, Solano, Sacramento, El Dorado, San Joaquin, Amador, Calaveras, Stanislaus, Mariposa, Madera, Merced, Tuolumne, Alpine, and Mono.

The Supreme Court, by orders entered in its minutes, may from time to time remove one or more counties from one appellate district to another, but no county not contiguous to another county of a district shall be added to such district.

Said District Courts of Appeal shall hold their regular sessions respectively at San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Sacramento, and they shall always be open for the transaction of business.

The District Courts of Appeal shall have appellate jurisdiction on appeal from the Superior Courts in all cases at law in which the demand, exclusive of interest, or the value of the property in controversy, amounts to three hundred dollars, and does not amount to two thousand dollars; also, in all cases of forcible and unlawful entry and detainer (except such as arise in Justices' Courts), in proceedings in insolvency, and in actions to prevent or abate a nuisance; in proceedings of mandamus, certiorari, and prohibition, usurpation of office, contesting elections and eminent domain, and in such other special proceedings as may be provided by law (excepting cases in which appellate jurisdiction is given to the Supreme Court); also, on questions of law alone, in all criminal cases prosecuted by indictment or information in a court of record, excepting criminal cases where judgment of death has been rendered. The said courts shall also have appellate jurisdiction in all cases, matters, and proceedings pending before the Supreme Court which shall be ordered by the Supreme Court to be transferred to a District Court of Appeal for hearing and decision. The said courts shall also have power to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, and habeas corpus, and all other writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of their appellate jurisdiction. Each of the justices thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of his appellate district upon petition by or on behalf of any person held in actual custody, and may make such writs returnable before himself or the District Court of Appeal of his district, or before any Superior Court within his district, or before any judge thereof.

The Supreme Court shall have power to order any cause pending before the Supreme Court to be heard and determined by a District Court of Appeal, and to order any cause pending before a District Court of Appeal to be heard and determined by the Supreme Court. The order last mentioned may be made before judgment has been pronounced by a District Court of Appeal, or within thirty days after such judgment shall have become final therein. The judgments of the District Courts of Appeal shall become final therein upon the expiration of thirty days after the same shall have been pronounced.

The Supreme Court shall have power to order causes pending before a District Court of Appeal for one district to be transferred to the District Court of Appeal of another district for hearing and decision.

The Justices of the District Courts of Appeal shall be elected by the qualified electors within their respective districts at the general State elections at the times and places at which Justices of the Supreme Court are elected. Their terms of office and salaries shall be the same as those of Justices of the Supreme Court, and their salaries shall be paid by the State. Upon the ratification by the people of this amendment the Governor shall appoint nine persons to serve as Justices of the District Courts of Appeal until the first Monday after the first day of January in the year nineteen hundred and seven, provided, that not more than six of said persons shall be members of the same political party. At the election in the year nineteen hundred and six nine of such justices shall be elected as above provided, and the justices of each District Court of Appeal shall so classify themselves by lot that one of them shall go out of office at the end of four years, one of them at the end of eight years, and one of them at the end of twelve years; an entry of such classification shall be made in the minutes of the court, signed by the three justices thereof, and a duplicate thereof filed in the office of the Secretary of State. If any vacancy occur in the office of a Justice of the District Courts of Appeal, the Governor shall appoint a person to hold office until the election and qualification of a justice to fill the vacancy; such election shall take place at the next succeeding general State election as aforesaid; the justice then elected shall hold the office for the unexpired term.

One of the justices of each of the District Courts of Appeal shall be the presiding justice thereof, and as such shall be appointed or elected as the case may be. The presence of three justices shall be necessary for the transaction of any business by such court, except such as may be done at chambers, and the concurrence of three justices shall be necessary to pronounce a judgment.

Whenever any Justice of the Supreme Court is for any reason disqualified or unable to act in a cause pending before it, the remaining justices may select one of the Justices of a District Court of Appeal to act pro tempore in the place of the justice so disqualified or unable to act.

Whenever any Justice of a District Court of Appeal is for any reason disqualified or unable to act in any cause pending before it, the Supreme Court may appoint a Justice of the District Court of Appeal of another district, or a Judge of a Superior Court who has not acted in the cause in the court below, to act pro tempore in the place of the justice so disqualified or unable to act.

No appeal taken to the Supreme Court or to a District Court of Appeal shall be dismissed for the reason only that the same was not taken to the proper court, but the cause shall be transferred to the proper court upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as may be just, and shall be proceeded with therein as if regularly appealed thereto.

All statutes now in force allowing, providing for, or regulating appeals to the Supreme Court shall apply to appeals to the District Courts of Appeal so far as such statutes are not inconsistent with this article and until the Legislature shall otherwise provide.

The Supreme Court shall make and adopt rules not inconsistent with law for the government of the Supreme Court and of the District Courts of Appeal and of the officers thereof, and for regulating the practice in said courts. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 5. The Superior Court shall have original jurisdiction in all cases in equity, and in all cases at law which involve the title or possession of real property, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, and in all other cases in which the demand, exclusive of interest, or the value of the property in controversy, amounts to three hundred dollars, and in all criminal cases amounting to felony, and cases of misdemeanor not otherwise provided for; of actions of forcible entry and detainer; of proceedings in insolvency; of actions to prevent or abate a nuisance; of all matters of probate; of divorce and for annulment of marriage; and of all such special cases and proceedings as are not otherwise provided for. And said court shall have the power of naturalization, and to issue papers therefor. They shall have appellate jurisdiction in such cases arising in Justices' and other inferior courts in their respective counties as may be prescribed by law. They shall be always open (legal holidays and non-judicial days excepted), and their process shall extend to all parts of the State; provided, that all actions for the recovery of the possession of, quieting the title to, or for the enforcement of liens upon real estate, shall be commenced in the county in which the real estate, or any part thereof, affected by such action or actions, is situated. Said courts, and their judges, shall have power to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, quo warranto, and habeas corpus, on petition by or on behalf of any person in actual custody, in their respective counties. Injunctions and writs of prohibition may be issued and served on legal holidays and non-judicial days.

SEC. 6. There shall be in each of the organized counties, or cities and counties, of the State, a Superior Court, for each of which at least one judge shall be elected by the qualified electors of the county, or city and county, at the general State election; provided, that until otherwise ordered by the Legislature, only one judge shall be elected for the counties of Yuba and Sutter, and that in the City and County of San Francisco there shall be elected twelve Judges of the Superior Court, any one or more of whom may hold court. There may be as many sessions of said court, at the same time, as there are judges thereof. The said judges shall choose, from their own number, a presiding judge, who may be removed at their pleasure. He shall distribute the business of the court among the judges thereof, and prescribe the order of business. The judgments, orders, and proceedings of any session of the Superior Court held by any one or more of the judges of said courts, respectively, shall be equally effectual as if all the judges of said respective courts presided at such session. In each of the counties of Sacramento, San Joaquin, Los Angeles, Sonoma, Santa Clara, and Alameda there shall be elected two such judges. The term of office of Judges of the Superior Courts shall be six years from and after the first Monday of January next succeeding their election; provided, that the twelve Judges of the Superior Court elected in the City and County of San Francisco, at the first election held under this Constitution, shall at their first meeting so classify themselves, by lot, that four of them shall go out of office at the end of two years, and four of them shall go out of office at the end of four years, and four of them shall go out of office at the end of six years, and an entry of such classification shall be made in the minutes of the court, signed by them, and a duplicate thereof filed in the office of the Secretary of State. The first election of Judges of the Superior Courts shall take place at the first general election held after the adoption and ratification of this Constitution. If a vacancy occur in the office of Judge of a Superior Court, the Governor shall appoint a person to hold the office until the election and qualification of a judge to fill the vacancy, which election shall take place at the next succeeding general election, and the judge so elected shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

SEC. 7. In any county, or city and county, other than the City and County of San Francisco, in which there shall be more than one Judge of the Superior Court, the judges of such court may hold as many sessions of said court at the same time as there are judges thereof, and shall apportion the business among themselves as equally as may be.

SEC. 8. A Judge of any Superior Court may hold a Superior Court in any county, at the request of a Judge of the Superior Court thereof, and upon the request of the Governor it shall be his duty so to do. But a cause in the Superior Court may be tried by a judge pro tempore, who must be a member of the bar, agreed upon in writing by the parties litigant, or their attorneys of record, approved by the court, and sworn to try the cause.

SEC. 9. The Legislature shall have no power to grant leave of absence to any judicial officer; and any such officer who shall absent himself from the State for more than sixty consecutive days shall be deemed to have forfeited his office. The Legislature of the State may, at any time, two thirds of the members of the Senate and two thirds of the members of the Assembly voting therefor, increase or diminish the number of Judges of the Superior Court in any county, or city and county, in the State; provided, that no such reduction shall affect any judge who has been elected.

SEC. 10. Justices of the Supreme Court, and of the District Courts of Appeal, and Judges of the Superior Courts may be removed by concurrent resolution of both houses of the Legislature adopted by a two-thirds vote of each house. All other judicial officers, except Justices of the Peace, may be removed by the Senate on the recommendation of the Governor; but no removal shall be made by virtue of this section unless the cause thereof be entered on the journal, nor unless the party complained of has been served with a copy of the complaint against him and shall have had an opportunity of being heard in his defense. On the question of removal the ayes and noes shall be entered on the journal. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 11. The Legislature shall determine the number of Justices of the Peace to be elected in townships, incorporated cities and towns, or cities and counties, and shall fix by law the powers, duties, and responsibilities of Justices of the Peace; provided, such powers shall not, in any case, trench upon the jurisdiction of the several courts of record, except that said justices shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the Superior Courts in cases of forcible entry and detainer, where the rental value does not exceed twenty-five dollars per month, and where the whole amount of damages claimed does not exceed two hundred dollars, and in cases to enforce and foreclose liens on personal property when neither the amount of liens nor the value of the property amounts to three hundred dollars.

SEC. 12. The Supreme Court, the District Courts of Appeal, the Superior Courts, and such other courts as the Legislature shall prescribe, shall be courts of record. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 13. The Legislature shall fix by law the jurisdiction of any inferior courts which may be established in pursuance of section one of this article, and shall fix by law the powers, duties, and responsibilities of the judges thereof.

SEC. 14. The Legislature shall provide for the election of a Clerk of the Supreme Court, and shall fix by law his duties and compensation, which compensation shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he shall have been elected. The County Clerks shall be ex-officio clerks of the courts of record in and for their respective counties, or cities and counties. The Legislature may also provide for the appointment, by the several Superior Courts, of one or more commissioners in their respective counties, or cities and counties, with authority to perform chamber business of the Judges of the Superior Courts, to take depositions, and perform such other business connected with the administration of justice as may be prescribed by law.

SEC. 15. No judicial officer, except Justices of the Peace and Court Commissioners, shall receive to his own use any fees or perquisites of office.

SEC. 16. The Legislature shall provide for the speedy publication of such opinions of the Supreme Court and of the District Courts of Appeal as the Supreme Court may deem expedient, and all opinions shall be free for publication by any person. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 17. The Justices of the Supreme Court and of the District Courts of Appeal, and the Judges of the Superior Courts, shall severally, at stated times during their continuance in office, receive for their service such compensation as is or shall be provided by law. The salaries of the Judges of the Superior Court, in all counties having but one judge, and in all counties in which the terms of the Judges of the Superior Court expire at the same time, shall not hereafter be increased or diminished after their election, nor during the term for which they shall have been elected. Upon the adoption of this amendment the salaries then established by law shall be paid uniformly to the justices and judges then in office. The salaries of the Justices of the Supreme Court and of the District Courts of Appeal shall be paid by the State. One half of the salary of each Superior Court Judge shall be paid by the State; and the other half thereof shall be paid by the county for which he is elected. On and after the first day of January, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and seven, the Justices of the Supreme Court shall each receive an annual salary of eight thousand dollars, and the justices of the several District Courts of Appeal shall each receive an annual salary of seven thousand dollars; the said salaries to be payable monthly. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1906.]

SEC. 18. The Justices of the Supreme Court, and of the District Courts of Appeal, and the Judges of the Superior Courts shall be ineligible to any other office or public employment than a judicial office or employment during the term for which they shall have been elected. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 19. Judges shall not charge juries with respect to matters of fact, but may state the testimony and declare the law.

SEC. 20. The style of process shall be "The People of the State of California," and all prosecutions shall be conducted in their name and by their authority.

SEC. 21. The Supreme Court may appoint a reporter and not more than three assistant reporters of the decisions of the Supreme Court and of the District Courts of Appeal. Each of the District Courts of Appeal shall appoint its own clerk. All the officers herein mentioned shall hold office and be removable at the pleasure of the courts by which they are severally appointed, and they shall receive such compensation as shall be prescribed by law, and discharge such duties as shall be prescribed by law, or by the rules or orders of the courts by which they are severally appointed. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 22. No judge of a court of record shall practice law in any court of this State during his continuance in office.

SEC. 23. No one shall be eligible to the office of a Justice of the Supreme Court, or of a District Court of Appeal, or of a Judge of a Superior Court, unless he shall have been admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the State. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 24. No Judge of the Supreme Court nor of a District Court of Appeal, nor of a Superior Court, shall draw or receive any monthly salary unless he shall make and subscribe an affidavit before an officer entitled to administer oaths, that no cause in his court remains pending and undecided, that has been submitted for decision for a period of ninety days. In the determination of causes all decisions of the Supreme Court and of the District Courts of Appeal shall be given in writing, and the grounds of the decision shall be stated. When the Justices of a District Court of Appeal are unable to concur in a judgment, they shall give their several opinions in writing and cause copies thereof to be forwarded to the Supreme Court. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 25. The present Supreme Court Commission shall be abolished at the expiration of its present term of office, and no Supreme Court Commission shall be created or provided for after January 1st, A. D. 1905. [New section; adopted November 8, 1904.]

ARTICLE VII.

PARDONING POWER.

SECTION 1. The Governor shall have the power to grant reprieves, pardons, and commutations of sentence, after conviction, for all offenses except treason and cases of impeachment, upon such conditions, and with such restrictions and limitations, as he may think proper, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law relative to the manner of applying for pardons. Upon conviction for treason, the Governor shall have power to suspend the execution of the sentence until the case shall be reported to the Legislature at its next meeting, when the Legislature shall either pardon, direct the execution of the sentence, or grant a further reprieve. The Governor shall communicate to the Legislature, at the beginning of every session, every case of reprieve or pardon granted, stating the name of the convict, the crime for which he was convicted, the sentence, its date, the date of the pardon or reprieve, and the reasons for granting the same. Neither the Governor nor the Legislature shall have power to grant pardons, or commutations of sentence, in any case where the convict has been twice convicted of a felony, unless upon the written recommendation of a majority of the Judges of the Supreme Court.

ARTICLE VIII.

MILITIA.

SECTION 1. The Legislature shall provide, by law, for organizing and disciplining the militia, in such manner as it may deem expedient, not incompatible with the Constitution and laws of the United States. Officers of the militia shall be elected or appointed in such manner as the Legislature shall, from time to time, direct, and shall be commissioned by the Governor. The Governor shall have power to call forth the militia to execute the laws of the State, to suppress insurrections, and repel invasions.

SEC. 2. All military organizations provided for by this Constitution, or any law of this State, and receiving State support, shall, while under arms, either for ceremony or duty, carry no device, banner, or flag of any State or nation, except that of the United States or the State of California.

ARTICLE IX.

EDUCATION.

SECTION 1. A general diffusion of knowledge and intelligence being essential to the preservation of the rights and liberties of the people, the Legislature shall encourage by all suitable means the promotion of intellectual, scientific, moral, and agricultural improvement.

SEC. 2. A Superintendent of Public Instruction shall, at each gubernatorial election after the adoption of this Constitution, be elected by the qualified electors of the State. He shall receive a salary equal to that of the Secretary of State, and shall enter upon the duties of his office on the first Monday after the first day of January next succeeding his election.

SEC. 3. A Superintendent of Schools for each county shall be elected by the qualified electors thereof at each gubernatorial election; provided, that the Legislature may authorize two or more counties to unite and elect one Superintendent for the counties so uniting.

SEC. 4. The proceeds of all lands that have been or may be granted by the United States to this State for the support of common schools, which may be, or may have been, sold or disposed of, and the five hundred thousand acres of land granted to the new States under an Act of Congress distributing the proceeds of the public lands among the several States of the Union, approved A. D. one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and all estates of deceased persons who may have died without leaving a will or heir, and also such per cent as may be granted, or may have been granted, by Congress on the sale of lands in this State, shall be and remain a perpetual fund, the interest of which, together with all the rents of the unsold lands, and such other means as the Legislature may provide, shall be inviolably appropriated to the support of common schools throughout the State.

SEC. 5. The Legislature shall provide for a system of common schools, by which a free school shall be kept up and supported in each district at least six months in every year, after the first year in which a school has been established.

SEC. 6. The public school system shall include primary and grammar schools, and such high schools, evening schools, normal schools, and technical schools as may be established by the Legislature, or by municipal or district authority. The entire revenue derived from the State school fund and from the general State school tax shall be applied exclusively to the support of primary and grammar schools; but the Legislature may authorize and cause to be levied a special State school tax for the support of high schools and technical schools, or either of such schools, included in the public school system, and all revenue derived from such special tax shall be applied exclusively to the support of the schools for which such special tax shall be levied. [Amendment adopted November 4, 1902.]

SEC. 7. The Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the President of the University of California, and the professor of pedagogy therein, and the principals of the State normal schools shall constitute the State Board of Education, and shall compile, or cause to be compiled, and adopt, a uniform series of text-books for use in the common schools throughout the State. The State Board may cause such text-books, when adopted, to be printed and published by the Superintendent of State Printing, at the State Printing Office, and, when so printed and published, to be distributed and sold at the cost price of printing, publishing, and distributing the same. The text-books so adopted shall continue in use not less than four years; and said State Board shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall provide for a Board of Education in each county in the State. The County Superintendents and the County Boards of Education shall have control of the examination of teachers and the granting of teachers' certificates within their respective jurisdictions. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1894.]

SEC. 8. No public money shall ever be appropriated for the support of any sectarian or denominational school, or any school not under the exclusive control of the officers of the public schools; nor shall any sectarian or denominational doctrine be taught, or instruction thereon be permitted, directly or indirectly, in any of the common schools of this State.

SEC. 9. The University of California shall constitute a public trust, and its organization and government shall be perpetually continued in the form and character prescribed by the Organic Act creating the same, passed March twenty-third, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight (and the several Acts amendatory thereof), subject only to such legislative control as may be necessary to insure compliance with the terms of its endowments and the proper investment and security of its funds. It shall be entirely independent of all political or sectarian influence, and kept free therefrom in the appointment of its regents, and in the administration of its affairs; provided, that all the moneys derived from the sale of the public lands donated to this State by Act of Congress, approved July second, eighteen hundred and sixty-two (and the several Acts amendatory thereof), shall be invested as provided by said Acts of Congress, and the interest of said moneys shall be inviolably appropriated to the endowment, support, and maintenance of at least one college of agriculture, where the leading objects shall be (without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics) to teach such branches of learning as are related to scientific and practical agriculture and the mechanic arts, in accordance with the requirements and conditions of said Acts of Congress; and the Legislature shall provide that if, through neglect, misappropriation, or any other contingency, any portion of the funds so set apart shall be diminished or lost, the State shall replace such portion so lost or misappropriated, so that the principal thereof shall remain forever undiminished. No person shall be debarred admission to any of the collegiate departments of the University on account of sex.

SEC. 10. The trusts and estates created for the founding, endowment, and maintenance of the Leland Stanford Junior University, under and in accordance with "An Act to advance learning, etc.," approved March ninth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, by the endowment grant executed by Leland Stanford and Jane Lathrop Stanford on the eleventh day of November, A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and recorded in liber eighty-three of deeds, at page twenty-three, et seq., records of Santa Clara County, and by the amendments of such grant, and by gifts, grants, bequests, and devises supplementary thereto, and by confirmatory grants, are permitted, approved, and confirmed. The board of trustees of the Leland Stanford Junior University, as such, or in the name of the institution, or by other intelligible designation of the trustees or of the institution, may receive property, real or personal, and wherever situated, by gift, grant, devise, or bequest, for the benefit of the institution, or of any department thereof, and such property, unless otherwise provided, shall be held by the trustees of the Leland Stanford Junior University upon the trusts provided for in the grant founding the university, and amendments thereof, and grants, bequests, and devises supplementary thereto. The Legislature, by special act, may grant to the trustees of the Leland Stanford Junior University corporate powers and privileges, but it shall not thereby alter their tenure, or limit their powers or obligations as trustees. All property now or hereafter held in trust for the founding, maintenance, or benefit of the Leland Stanford Junior University, or of any department thereof, may be exempted by special act from State taxation, and all personal property so held, the Palo Alto farm as described in the endowment grant to the trustees of the university, and all other real property so held and used by the university for educational purposes exclusively, may be similarly exempted from county and municipal taxation; provided, that residents of California shall be charged no fees for tuition unless such fees be authorized by act of the Legislature. [New section; adopted November 6, 1900.]

SEC. 11. All property now or hereafter belonging to "The California School of Mechanical Arts," an institution founded and endowed by the late James Lick to educate males and females in the practical arts of life, and incorporated under the laws of the State of California, November twenty-third, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, having its school buildings located in the City and County of San Francisco, shall be exempt from taxation. The trustees of said institution must annually report their proceedings and financial accounts to the Governor. The Legislature may modify, suspend, and revive at will the exemption from taxation herein given. [New section; adopted November 6, 1900.]

SEC. 12. All property now or hereafter belonging to the "California Academy of Sciences," an institution for the advancement of science and maintenance of a free museum, and chiefly endowed by the late James Lick, and incorporated under the laws of the State of California, January sixteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, having its buildings located in the City and County of San Francisco, shall be exempt from taxation. The trustees of said institution must annually report their proceedings and financial accounts to the Governor. The Legislature may modify, suspend, and revive at will the exemption from taxation herein given. [New section; adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 13. All property now or hereafter belonging to the Cogswell Polytechnical College, an institution for the advancement of learning, incorporated under the laws of the State of California, and having its buildings located in the City and County of San Francisco, shall be exempt from taxation. The trustees of said institution must annually report their proceedings and financial accounts to the Governor. The Legislature may modify, suspend, and revive at will the exemption from taxation herein given. [New section; adopted November 6, 1906.]

ARTICLE X.

STATE INSTITUTIONS AND PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

SECTION 1. There shall be a State Board of Prison Directors, to consist of five persons, to be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall hold office for ten years, except that the first appointed shall, in such manner as the Legislature may direct, be so classified that the term of one person so appointed shall expire at the end of each two years during the first ten years, and vacancies occurring shall be filled in like manner. The appointee to a vacancy occurring before the expiration of a term shall hold office only for the unexpired term of his predecessor. The Governor shall have the power to remove either of the directors for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty, after an opportunity to be heard upon written charges.

SEC. 2. The board of directors shall have the charge and superintendence of the State prisons, and shall possess such powers and perform such duties, in respect to other penal and reformatory institutions of the State, as the Legislature may prescribe.

SEC. 3. The board shall appoint the warden and clerk, and determine the other necessary officers of the prisons. The board shall have power to remove the wardens and clerks for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty. All other officers and employes of the prisons shall be appointed by the warden thereof, and be removed at his pleasure.

SEC. 4. The members of the board shall receive no compensation, other than reasonable traveling and other expenses incurred while engaged in the performance of official duties, to be audited as the Legislature may direct.

SEC. 5. The Legislature shall pass such laws as may be necessary to further define and regulate the powers and duties of the board, wardens, and clerks, and to carry into effect the provisions of this article.

SEC. 6. After the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, the labor of convicts shall not be let out by contract to any person, co-partnership, company, or corporation, and the Legislature shall, by law, provide for the working of convicts for the benefit of the State.

ARTICLE XI.

COUNTIES, CITIES, AND TOWNS.

SECTION 1. The several counties, as they now exist, are hereby recognized as legal subdivisions of this State.

SEC. 2. No county seat shall be removed unless two thirds of the qualified electors of the county, voting on the proposition at a general election, shall vote in favor of such removal. A proposition of removal shall not be submitted in the same county more than once in four years.

SEC. 3. The Legislature, by general and uniform laws, may provide for the formation of new counties; provided, however, that no new county shall be established which shall reduce any county to a population of less than eight thousand; nor shall a new county be formed containing a less population than five thousand; nor shall any line thereof pass within five miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided. Every county which shall be enlarged or created from territory taken from any other county or counties, shall be liable for a just proportion of the existing debts and liabilities of the county or counties from which such territory shall be taken. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1894.]

SEC. 4. The Legislature shall establish a system of county governments, which shall be uniform throughout the State; and by general laws shall provide for township organization, under which any county may organize whenever a majority of the qualified electors of such county, voting at a general election, shall so determine; and whenever a county shall adopt township organization, the assessment and collection of the revenue shall be made, and the business of such county and the local affairs of the several townships therein shall be managed and transacted, in the manner prescribed by such general laws.

SEC. 5. The Legislature, by general and uniform laws, shall provide for the election or appointment, in the several counties, of Boards of Supervisors, Sheriffs, County Clerks, District Attorneys, and such other county, township, and municipal officers as public convenience may require, and shall prescribe their duties and fix their terms of office. It shall regulate the compensation of all such officers, in proportion to duties, and for this purpose may classify the counties by population; and it shall provide for the strict accountability of county and township officers for all fees which may be collected by them, and for all public and municipal moneys which may be paid to them, or officially come into their possession.

SEC. 6. Corporations for municipal purposes shall not be created by special laws; but the Legislature, by general laws, shall provide for the incorporation, organization, and classification, in proportion to population, of cities and towns, which laws may be altered, amended, or repealed. Cities and towns heretofore organized or incorporated may become organized under such general laws whenever a majority of the electors voting at a general election shall so determine, and shall organize in conformity therewith; and cities and towns heretofore or hereafter organized, and all charters thereof framed or adopted by authority of this Constitution, except in municipal affairs, shall be subject to and controlled by general laws. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1896.]

SEC. 7. City and county governments may be merged and consolidated into one municipal government, with one set of officers, and may be incorporated under general laws providing for the incorporation and organization of corporations for municipal purposes. The provisions of this Constitution applicable to cities, and also those applicable to counties, so far as not inconsistent or prohibited to cities, shall be applicable to such consolidated government. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1894.]

SEC. 8. Any city containing a population of more than three thousand five hundred inhabitants may frame a charter for its own government, consistent with and subject to the Constitution, (or, having framed such a charter, may frame a new one), by causing a board of fifteen freeholders, who shall have been for at least five years qualified electors thereof, to be elected by the qualified voters of said city at any general or special election, whose duty it shall be, within ninety days after such election, to prepare and propose a charter for such city, which shall be signed in duplicate by the members of such board, or a majority of them, and returned, one copy to the Mayor thereof, or other chief executive officer of such city, and the other to the Recorder of the county. Such proposed charter shall then be published in two daily newspapers of general circulation in such city, for at least twenty days, and the first publication shall be made within twenty days after the completion of the charter; provided, that in cities containing a population of not more than ten thousand inhabitants, such proposed charter shall be published in one such daily newspaper; and within thirty days after such publication it shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said city at a general or special election, and if a majority of such qualified electors voting thereon shall ratify the same, it shall thereafter be submitted to the Legislature for its approval or rejection as a whole, without power of alteration or amendment. Such approval may be made by concurrent resolution, and if approved by a majority vote of the members elected to each house, it shall become the charter of such city, or, if such city be consolidated with a county, then of such city and county, and shall become the organic law thereof, and supersede any existing charter, (whether framed under the provisions of this section of the Constitution or not,) and all amendments thereof, and all laws inconsistent with such charter. A copy of such charter, certified by the Mayor, or chief executive officer, and authenticated by the seal of such city, setting forth the submission of such charter to the electors, and its ratification by them, shall after the approval of such charter by the Legislature, be made in duplicate, and deposited, one in the office of the Secretary of State, and the other, after being recorded in said Recorder's office shall be deposited in the archives of the city, and thereafter all courts shall take judicial notice of said charter. The charter, so ratified, may be amended at intervals of not less than two years by proposals therefor, submitted by the legislative authority of the city to the qualified electors thereof at a general or special election, held at least forty days after the publication of such proposals for twenty days in a daily newspaper of general circulation in such city, and ratified by a majority of the electors voting thereon, and approved by the Legislature as herein provided for the approval of the charter. Whenever fifteen per cent of the qualified voters of the city shall petition the legislative authority thereof to submit any proposed amendment or amendments to said charter to the qualified voters thereof for approval, the legislative authority thereof must submit the same. In submitting any such charter, or amendments thereto, any alternative article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1906.]

SEC. 8½. It shall be competent, in all charters framed under the authority given by section eight of article eleven of this Constitution, to provide, in addition to those provisions allowable by this Constitution and by the laws of the State, as follows:

1. For the constitution, regulation, government, and jurisdiction of Police Courts, and for the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the judges of such courts shall be elected or appointed, and for the compensation of said judges and of their clerks and attachés.

2. For the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the members of boards of education shall be elected or appointed, and the number which shall constitute any one of such boards.

3. For the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the members of the boards of police commissioners shall be elected or appointed; and for the constitution, regulation, compensation, and government of such boards and of the municipal police force.

4. For the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the members of all boards of election shall be elected or appointed, and for the constitution, regulation, compensation, and government of such boards, and of their clerks and attachés; and for all expenses incident to the holding of any election.

Where a city and county government has been merged and consolidated into one municipal government, it shall also be competent in any charter framed under said section eight of said article eleven, to provide for the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the several county officers shall be elected or appointed, for their compensation, and for the number of deputies that each shall have, and for the compensation payable to each of such deputies. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1896.]

SEC. 9. The compensation of any county, city, town, or municipal officer shall not be increased after his election or during his term of office; nor shall the term of any such officer be extended beyond the period for which he is elected or appointed.

SEC. 10. No county, city, town, or other public or municipal corporation, nor the inhabitants thereof, nor the property therein, shall be released or discharged from its or their proportionate share of taxes to be levied for State purposes, nor shall commutation for such taxes be authorized in any form whatsoever.

SEC. 11. Any county, city, town, or township may make and enforce within its limits all such local, police, sanitary, and other regulations as are not in conflict with general laws.

SEC. 12. The Legislature shall have no power to impose taxes upon counties, cities, towns or other public or municipal corporations, or upon the inhabitants or property thereof, for county, city, town, or other municipal purposes, but may, by general laws, vest in the corporate authorities thereof the power to assess and collect taxes for such purposes.

SEC. 13. The Legislature shall not delegate to any special commission, private corporation, company, association, or individual, any power to make, control, appropriate, supervise, or in any way interfere with any county, city, town, or municipal improvement, money, property, or effects, whether held in trust or otherwise, or to levy taxes or assessments, or perform any municipal functions whatever.

SEC. 13½. Nothing in this Constitution contained shall be construed as prohibiting the State or any county, city and county, city, town, municipality, or other public corporation, issuing bonds under the laws of the State, to make said bonds payable at any place within the United States designated in said bonds. [New section; adopted November 6, 1906.]

SEC. 14. No State office shall be continued or created in any county, city, town, or other municipality, for the inspection, measurement, or graduation of any merchandise, manufacture, or commodity; but such county, city, town, or municipality may, when authorized by general law, appoint such officers.

SEC. 15. Private property shall not be taken or sold for the payment of the corporate debt of any political or municipal corporation.

SEC. 16. All moneys, assessments, and taxes belonging to or collected for the use of any county, city, town, or other public or municipal corporation, coming into the hands of any officer thereof, shall immediately be deposited with the treasurer, or other legal depository, to the credit of such city, town, or other corporation, respectively, for the benefit of the funds to which they respectively belong.

SEC. 16½. All moneys belonging to the State, or to any county or municipality within this State, may be deposited in any national bank or banks within this State, or in any bank or banks organized under the laws of this State, in such manner and under such conditions as may be provided by law; provided, that such bank or banks in which such moneys are deposited shall furnish as security for such deposits, bonds of the United States, or of this State or of any county, municipality or school district within this State, to be approved by the officer or officers designated by law, to an amount in value of at least ten per cent in excess of the amount of such deposit; and provided, that such bank or banks shall pay a reasonable rate of interest, not less than two per cent per annum on the daily balances therein deposited, and provided, that no deposit shall at any one time exceed fifty per cent of the paid-up capital stock of such depository bank or banks, and provided further, that no officer shall deposit at one time more than twenty per cent of such public moneys available for deposit in any bank while there are other qualified banks requesting such deposits. [New section; adopted November 6, 1906.]

SEC. 17. The making of profit out of county, city, town, or other public money, or using the same for any purpose not authorized by law, by any officer having the possession or control thereof, shall be a felony, and shall be prosecuted and punished as prescribed by law.

SEC. 18. No county, city, town, township, board of education, or school districts, shall incur any indebtedness or liability in any manner or for any purpose exceeding in any year the income and revenue provided for such year, without the assent of two thirds of the qualified electors thereof, voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor unless before or at the time of incurring such indebtedness provision shall be made for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due, and also provision to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof on or before maturity, which shall not exceed forty years from the time of contracting the same; provided, however, that the City and County of San Francisco may at any time pay the unpaid claims, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, for materials furnished to and work done for said city and county during the forty-first, forty-second, forty-third, forty-fourth, and fiftieth fiscal years, and for unpaid teachers' salaries for the fiftieth fiscal year, out of the income and revenue of any succeeding year or years, the amount to be paid in full of said claims not to exceed in the aggregate the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, and that no statute of limitations shall apply in any manner to these claims; and provided further, that the City of Vallejo, of Solano County, may pay its existing indebtedness incurred in the construction of its waterworks whenever two thirds of the electors thereof voting at an election held for that purpose shall so decide, and that no statute of limitations shall apply in any manner. Any indebtedness or liability incurred contrary to this provision, with the exceptions hereinbefore recited, shall be void. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1900.]

Section 18 amended by adding the following, adopted November 6, 1906:

The City and County of San Francisco, the City of San José and the Town of Santa Clara may make provision for a sinking fund, to pay the principal of any indebtedness incurred, or to be hereafter incurred, by it, to commence at a time after the incurring of such indebtedness of not more than a period of one fourth of the time of maturity of such indebtedness, which shall not exceed seventy-five years from the time of contracting the same. Any indebtedness incurred contrary to any provision of this section shall be void.

SEC. 19. In any city where there are no public works owned and controlled by the municipality for supplying the same with water or artificial light, any individual, or any company duly incorporated for such purpose under and by authority of the laws of this State, shall, under the direction of the Superintendent of Streets, or other officer in control thereof, and under such general regulations as the municipality may prescribe for damages and indemnity for damages, have the privilege of using the public streets and thoroughfares thereof, and of laying down pipes and conduits therein, and connections therewith, so far as may be necessary for introducing into and supplying such city and its inhabitants either with gas-light or other illuminating light, or with fresh water for domestic and all other purposes, upon the condition that the municipal government shall have the right to regulate the charges thereof. [Amendment adopted November 4, 1884.]

ARTICLE XII.

CORPORATIONS.

SECTION 1. Corporations may be formed under general laws, but shall not be created by special act. All laws now in force in this State concerning corporations, and all laws that may be hereafter passed pursuant to this section, may be altered from time to time or repealed.

SEC. 2. Dues from corporations shall be secured by such individual liability of the corporators and other means as may be prescribed by law.

SEC. 3. Each stockholder of a corporation or joint-stock association shall be individually and personally liable for such proportion of all its debts and liabilities contracted or incurred during the time he was a stockholder, as the amount of stock or shares owned by him bears to the whole of the subscribed capital stock or shares of the corporation or association. The directors or trustees of corporations and joint-stock associations shall be jointly and severally liable to the creditors and stockholders for all moneys embezzled or misappropriated by the officers of such corporation or joint-stock association during the term of office of such director or trustee.

SEC. 4. The term corporations, as used in this article, shall be construed to include all associations and joint-stock companies having any of the powers or privileges of corporations not possessed by individuals or partnerships, and all corporations shall have the right to sue and be subject to be sued, in all courts, in like cases as natural persons.

SEC. 5. The Legislature shall have no power to pass any act granting any charter for banking purposes, but corporations or associations may be formed for such purposes under general laws. No corporation, association, or individual shall issue or put in circulation, as money, anything but the lawful money of the United States.

SEC. 6. All existing charters, grants, franchises, special or exclusive privileges, under which an actual and bona fide organization shall not have taken place, and business been commenced in good faith, at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, shall thereafter have no validity.

SEC. 7. The Legislature shall not extend any franchise or charter, nor remit the forfeiture of any franchise or charter, of any corporation now existing, or which shall hereafter exist, under the laws of this State.

SEC. 8. The exercise of the right of eminent domain shall never be so abridged or construed as to prevent the Legislature from taking the property and franchises of incorporated companies and subjecting them to public use the same as the property of individuals; and the exercise of the police power of the State shall never be so abridged or construed as to permit corporations to conduct their business in such manner as to infringe the rights of individuals or the general well-being of the State.

SEC. 9. No corporation shall engage in any business other than that expressly authorized in its charter or the law under which it may have been or may hereafter be organized; nor shall it hold for a longer period than five years any real estate, except such as may be necessary for carrying on its business.

SEC. 10. The Legislature shall not pass any laws permitting the leasing or alienation of any franchise, so as to relieve the franchise or property held thereunder from the liabilities of the lessor or grantor, lessee or grantee, contracted or incurred in the operation, use, or enjoyment of such franchise, or any of its privileges.

SEC. 11. No corporation shall issue stock or bonds, except for money paid, labor done, or property actually received, and all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void. The stock and bonded indebtedness of corporations shall not be increased, except in pursuance of general law, nor without the consent of the persons holding the larger amount in value of the stock, at a meeting called for that purpose, giving sixty days' public notice, as may be provided by law.

SEC. 12. In all elections for directors or managers of corporations every stockholder shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares of stock owned by him, for as many persons as there are directors or managers to be elected, or to cumulate said shares and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors multiplied by the number of his shares of stock shall equal, or to distribute them, on the same principle, among as many candidates as he shall think fit; and such directors or managers shall not be elected in any other manner, except that members of coöperative societies formed for agricultural, mercantile, and manufacturing purposes may vote on all questions affecting such societies in manner prescribed by law.

SEC. 13. The State shall not, in any manner, loan its credit, nor shall it subscribe to or be interested in the stock of any company, association, or corporation.

SEC. 14. Every corporation, other than religious, educational, or benevolent, organized or doing business in this State, shall have and maintain an office or place in this State for the transaction of its business, where transfers of stock shall be made, and in which shall be kept, for inspection by every person having an interest therein, and legislative committees, books in which shall be recorded the amount of capital stock subscribed, and by whom; the names of the owners of its stock, and the amounts owned by them, respectively; the amount of stock paid in, and by whom; the transfers of stock; the amount of its assets and liabilities, and the names and places of residence of its officers.

SEC. 15. No corporation organized outside the limits of this State shall be allowed to transact business within this State on more favorable conditions than are prescribed by law to similar corporations organized under the laws of this State.

SEC. 16. A corporation or association may be sued in the county where the contract is made or is to be performed, or where the obligation or liability arises or the breach occurs; or in the county where the principal place of business of such corporation is situated, subject to the power of the court to change the place of trial, as in other cases.

SEC. 17. All railroad, canal, and other transportation companies are declared to be common carriers, and subject to legislative control. Any association or corporation, organized for the purpose under the laws of this State, shall have the right to connect at the State line with railroads of other States. Every railroad company shall have the right with its road to intersect, connect with, or cross any other railroad, and shall receive and transport each the other's passengers, tonnage, and cars, without delay or discrimination.

SEC. 18. No president, director, officer, agent, or employé of any railroad or canal company shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in the furnishing of material or supplies to such company, nor in the business of transportation as a common carrier of freight or passengers over the works owned, leased, controlled, or worked by such company, except such interest in the business of transportation as lawfully flows from the ownership of stock therein.

SEC. 19. No railroad or other transportation company shall grant free passes, or passes or tickets at a discount, to any person holding any office of honor, trust, or profit in this State; and the acceptance of any such pass or ticket by a member of the Legislature, or any public officer, other than Railroad Commissioner, shall work a forfeiture of his office.

SEC. 20. No railroad company or other common carrier shall combine or make any contract with the owners of any vessel that leaves port or makes port in this State, or with any common carrier, by which combination or contract the earnings of one doing the carrying are to be shared by the other not doing the carrying. And whenever a railroad corporation shall, for the purpose of competing with any other common carrier, lower its rates for transportation of passengers or freight from one point to another, such reduced rates shall not be again raised or increased from such standard without the consent of the governmental authority in which shall be vested the power to regulate fares and freights.

SEC. 21. No discrimination in charges or facilities for transportation shall be made by any railroad or other transportation company between places or persons, or in the facilities for the transportation of the same classes of freight or passengers within this State, or coming from or going to any other State. Persons and property transported over any railroad, or by any other transportation company or individual, shall be delivered at any station, landing, or port, at charges not exceeding the charges for the transportation of persons and property of the same class, in the same direction, to any more distant station, port, or landing. Excursion and commutation tickets may be issued at special rates.

SEC. 22. The State shall be divided into three districts as nearly equal in population as practicable, in each of which one Railroad Commissioner shall be elected by the qualified electors thereof at the regular gubernatorial elections, whose salary shall be fixed by law, and whose term of office shall be four years, commencing on the first Monday after the first day of January next succeeding their election. Said Commissioners shall be qualified electors of this State and of the district from which they are elected, and shall not be interested in any railroad corporation, or other transportation company, as stockholder, creditor, agent, attorney, or employé; and the act of a majority of said Commissioners shall be deemed the act of said Commission. Said Commissioners shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to establish rates of charges for the transportation of passengers and freight by railroad or other transportation companies, and publish the same from time to time, with such changes as they may make; to examine the books, records, and papers of all railroad and other transportation companies, and for this purpose they shall have power to issue subpoenas and all other necessary process; to hear and determine complaints against railroad and other transportation companies, to send for persons and papers, to administer oaths, take testimony, and punish for contempt of their orders and processes, in the same manner and to the same extent as courts of record, and enforce their decisions and correct abuses through the medium of the courts. Said Commissioners shall prescribe a uniform system of accounts to be kept by all such corporations and companies. Any railroad corporation or transportation company which shall fail or refuse to conform to such rates as shall be established by such Commissioners, or shall charge rates in excess thereof, or shall fail to keep their accounts in accordance with the system prescribed by the Commission, shall be fined not exceeding twenty thousand dollars for each offense; and every officer, agent, or employé of any such corporation or company, who shall demand or receive rates in excess thereof, or who shall in any manner violate the provisions of this section, shall be fined not exceeding five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding one year. In all controversies, civil or criminal, the rates of fares and freights established by said Commission shall be deemed conclusively just and reasonable, and in any action against such corporation or company for damages sustained by charging excessive rates, the plaintiff, in addition to the actual damage, may, in the discretion of the judge or jury, recover exemplary damages. Said Commission shall report to the Governor, annually, their proceedings, and such other facts as may be deemed important. Nothing in this section shall prevent individuals from maintaining actions against any of such companies. The Legislature may, in addition to any penalties herein prescribed, enforce this article by forfeiture of charter or otherwise, and may confer such further powers on the Commissioners as shall be necessary to enable them to perform the duties enjoined on them in this and the foregoing section. The Legislature shall have power, by a two-thirds vote of all the members elected to each house, to remove any one or more of said Commissioners from office, for dereliction of duty, or corruption, or incompetency; and whenever, from any cause, a vacancy in office shall occur in said Commission, the Governor shall fill the same by the appointment of a qualified person thereto, who shall hold office for the residue of the unexpired term, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

SEC. 23. Until the Legislature shall district the State, the following shall be the railroad districts: The First District shall be composed of the counties of Alpine, Amador, Butte, Calaveras, Colusa, Del Norte, El Dorado, Humboldt, Lake, Lassen, Mendocino, Modoc, Napa, Nevada, Placer, Plumas, Sacramento, Shasta, Sierra, Siskiyou, Solano, Sonoma, Sutter, Tehama, Trinity, Yolo, and Yuba, from which one Railroad Commissioner shall be elected. The Second District shall be composed of the counties of Marin, San Francisco, and San Mateo, from which one Railroad Commissioner shall be elected. The Third District shall be composed of the counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, Fresno, Inyo, Kern, Los Angeles, Mariposa, Merced, Mono, Monterey, San Benito, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Joaquin, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Stanislaus, Tulare, Tuolumne, and Ventura, from which one Railroad Commissioner shall be elected.

SEC. 24. The Legislature shall pass all laws necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this article.

ARTICLE XIII.

REVENUE AND TAXATION.

SECTION 1. All property in the State, not exempt under the laws of the United States, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, to be ascertained as provided by law. The word "property," as used in this article and section, is hereby declared to include moneys, credits, bonds, stocks, dues, franchises, and all other matters and things, real, personal, and mixed, capable of private ownership; provided, that property used for free public libraries and free museums, growing crops, property used exclusively for public schools, and such as may belong to the United States, this State, or to any county or municipal corporation within this State, shall be exempt from taxation. The Legislature may provide, except in case of credits secured by mortgage or trust deed, for a deduction from credits of debts due to bona fide residents of this State. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1894.]

SEC. 1½. All buildings, and so much of the real property on which they are situated as may be required for the convenient use and occupation of said buildings, when the same are used solely and exclusively for religious worship, shall be free from taxation; provided, that no building so used which may be rented for religious purposes and rent received by the owner therefor, shall be exempt from taxation. [New section; adopted November 6, 1900.]

SEC. 1¾. All bonds hereafter issued by the State of California, or by any county, city and county, municipal corporation, or district (including school, reclamation, and irrigation districts) within said State, shall be free and exempt from taxation. [New section; adopted November 4, 1902.]

SEC. 2. Land, and the improvements thereon, shall be separately assessed. Cultivated and uncultivated land, of the same quality, and similarly situated, shall be assessed at the same value.

SEC. 3. Every tract of land containing more than six hundred and forty acres, and which has been sectionized by the United States Government, shall be assessed, for the purposes of taxation, by sections or fractions of sections. The Legislature shall provide by law for the assessment, in small tracts, of all lands not sectionized by the United States Government.

SEC. 4. A mortgage, deed of trust, contract, or other obligation by which a debt is secured, shall, for the purposes of assessment and taxation, be deemed and treated as an interest in the property affected thereby. Except as to railroad and other quasi-public corporations, in case of debt so secured, the value of the property affected by such mortgage, deed of trust, contract, or obligation, less the value of such security, shall be assessed and taxed to the owner of the property, and the value of such security shall be assessed and taxed to the owner thereof; in the county, city, or district in which the property affected thereby is situate. The taxes so levied shall be a lien upon the property and security, and may be paid by either party to such security; if paid by the owner of the security, the tax so levied upon the property affected thereby shall become a part of the debt so secured; if the owner of the property shall pay the tax so levied on such security, it shall constitute a payment thereon, and to the extent of such payment, a full discharge thereof; provided, that if any such security or indebtedness shall be paid by any such debtor or debtors, after assessment and before the tax levy, the amount of such levy may likewise be retained by such debtor or debtors, and shall be computed according to the tax levy for the preceding year.

SEC. 5. [Repealed; adopted November 6, 1906.]

SEC. 6. The power of taxation shall never be surrendered or suspended by any grant or contract to which the State shall be a party.

SEC. 7. The Legislature shall have the power to provide by law for the payment of all taxes on real property by installments.

SEC. 8. The Legislature shall by law require each taxpayer in this State to make and deliver to the County Assessor, annually, a statement, under oath, setting forth specifically all the real and personal property owned by such taxpayer, or in his possession, or under his control, at twelve o'clock meridian on the first Monday of March.

SEC. 9. A State Board of Equalization, consisting of one member from each congressional district in this State, as the same existed in eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, shall be elected by the qualified electors of their respective districts, at the general election to be held in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and at each gubernatorial election thereafter, whose term of office shall be for four years; whose duty it shall be to equalize the valuation of the taxable property in the several counties of the State for the purposes of taxation. The Controller of State shall be ex-officio a member of the board. The Boards of Supervisors of the several counties of the State shall constitute Boards of Equalization for their respective counties, whose duty it shall be to equalize the valuation of the taxable property in the county for the purpose of taxation; provided, such State and County Boards of Equalization are hereby authorized and empowered, under such rules of notice as the County Boards may prescribe as to county assessments, and under such rules of notice as the State Board may prescribe as to the action of the State Board, to increase or lower the entire assessment roll, or any assessment contained therein, so as to equalize the assessment of the property contained in said assessment roll, and make the assessment conform to the true value in money of the property contained in said roll; provided, that no Board of Equalization shall raise any mortgage, deed of trust, contract, or other obligation by which a debt is secured, money, or solvent credits, above its face value. The present State Board of Equalization shall continue in office until their successors, as herein provided for, shall be elected and shall qualify. The Legislature shall have power to redistrict the State into four districts, as nearly equal in population as practical, and to provide for the elections of members of said Board of Equalization. [Amendment adopted November 4, 1884.]

SEC. 10. All property, except as hereinafter in this section provided, shall be assessed in the county, city, and county, town, township, or district in which it is situated, in the manner prescribed by law. The franchise, roadway, roadbed, rails, and rolling stock of all railroads operated in more than one county in this State shall be assessed by the State Board of Equalization at their actual value, and the same shall be apportioned to the counties, cities and counties, cities, towns, townships, and districts in which such railroads are located, in proportion to the number of miles of railway laid in such counties, cities and counties, cities, towns, townships, and districts.

SEC. 10½. The personal property of every householder to the amount of one hundred dollars, the articles to be selected by each householder, shall be exempt from taxation. [New section; adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 11. Income taxes may be assessed to and collected from persons, corporations, joint-stock associations, or companies resident or doing business in this State, or any one or more of them, in such cases and amounts, and in such manner, as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 12. The Legislature shall provide for the levy and collection of an annual poll tax, of not less than two dollars, on every male inhabitant of this State over twenty-one and under sixty years of age, except paupers, idiots, insane persons, and Indians not taxed. Said tax shall be paid into the State school fund.

SEC. 12¾. Fruit and nut-bearing trees under the age of four years from the time of planting in orchard form, and grapevines under the age of three years from the time of planting in vineyard form, shall be exempt from taxation, and nothing in this article shall be construed as subjecting such trees and grapevines to taxation. [New section; adopted November 6, 1894.]

SEC. 13. The Legislature shall pass all laws necessary to carry out the provisions of this article.

ARTICLE XIV.

WATER AND WATER RIGHTS.

SECTION 1. The use of all water now appropriated, or that may hereafter be appropriated, for sale, rental, or distribution, is hereby declared to be a public use, and subject to the regulation and control of the State, in the manner to be prescribed by law; provided, that the rates or compensation to be collected by any person, company, or corporation in this State for the use of water supplied to any city and county, or city, or town, or the inhabitants thereof, shall be fixed, annually, by the Board of Supervisors, or City and County, or City, or Town Council, or other governing body of such city and county, or city, or town, by ordinance or otherwise, in the manner that other ordinances or legislative acts or resolutions are passed by such body, and shall continue in force for one year and no longer. Such ordinances or resolutions shall be passed in the month of February of each year, and take effect on the first day of July thereafter. Any board or body failing to pass the necessary ordinances or resolutions fixing water rates, where necessary, within such time, shall be subject to peremptory process to compel action, at the suit of any party interested, and shall be liable to such further processes and penalties as the Legislature may prescribe. Any person, company, or corporation collecting water rates in any city and county, or city, or town in this State, otherwise than as so established, shall forfeit the franchises and waterworks of such person, company, or corporation to the city and county, or city, or town, where the same are collected, for the public use.

SEC. 2. The right to collect rates or compensation for the use of waters supplied to any county, city and county, or town, or the inhabitants thereof, is a franchise, and can not be exercised except by authority of and in the manner prescribed by law.

ARTICLE XV.

HARBOR FRONTAGE, ETC.

SECTION 1. The right of eminent domain is hereby declared to exist in the State to all frontages on the navigable waters of this State.

SEC. 2. No individual, partnership, or corporation, claiming or possessing the frontage of tidal lands of a harbor, bay, inlet, estuary, or other navigable water in this State, shall be permitted to exclude the right of way to such water whenever it is required for any public purpose, nor to destroy or obstruct the free navigation of such water; and the Legislature shall enact such laws as will give the most liberal construction to this provision, so that access to the navigable waters of this State shall be always attainable for the people thereof.

SEC. 3. All tide lands within two miles of any incorporated city or town of this State, and fronting on the waters of any harbor, estuary, bay, or inlet, used for the purposes of navigation, shall be withheld from grant or sale to private persons, partnerships, or corporations.

ARTICLE XVI.

STATE INDEBTEDNESS.

SECTION 1. The Legislature shall not, in any manner, create any debt or debts, liability or liabilities, which shall, singly or in the aggregate with any previous debts or liabilities, exceed the sum of three hundred thousand dollars, except in case of war to repel invasion or suppress insurrection, unless the same shall be authorized by law for some single object or work to be distinctly specified therein, which law shall provide ways and means, exclusive of loans, for the payment of the interest of such debt or liability as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt or liability within twenty years of the time of the contracting thereof, and shall be irrevocable until the principal and interest thereon shall be paid and discharged; but no such law shall take effect until, at a general election, it shall have been submitted to the people and shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election; and all moneys raised by authority of such law shall be applied only to the specific object therein stated, or to the payment of the debt thereby created, and such law shall be published in at least one newspaper in each county, or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout the State, for three months next preceding the election at which it is submitted to the people. The Legislature may, at any time after the approval of such law by the people, if no debt shall have been contracted in pursuance thereof, repeal the same.

ARTICLE XVII.

LAND AND HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION.

SECTION 1. The Legislature shall protect, by law, from forced sale, a certain portion of the homestead and other property of all heads of families.

SEC. 2. The holding of large tracts of land, uncultivated and unimproved, by individuals or corporations, is against the public interest, and should be discouraged by all means not inconsistent with the rights of private property.

SEC. 3. Lands belonging to this State, which are suitable for cultivation, shall be granted only to actual settlers, and in quantities not exceeding three hundred and twenty acres to each settler, under such conditions as shall be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE XVIII.

AMENDING AND REVISING THE CONSTITUTION.

SECTION 1. Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in the Senate or Assembly, and if two thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses shall vote in favor thereof, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered in their journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon; and it shall be the duty of the Legislature to submit such proposed amendment or amendments to the people in such manner, and at such time, and after such publication as may be deemed expedient. Should more amendments than one be submitted at the same election, they shall be so prepared and distinguished, by numbers or otherwise, that each can be voted on separately. If the people shall approve and ratify such amendment or amendments, or any of them, by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon, such amendment or amendments shall become a part of this Constitution.

SEC. 2. Whenever two thirds of the members elected to each branch of the Legislature shall deem it necessary to revise this Constitution, they shall recommend to the electors to vote, at the next general election, for or against a convention for that purpose, and if a majority of the electors voting at such election on the proposition for a convention shall vote in favor thereof, the Legislature shall, at its next session, provide by law for calling the same. The convention shall consist of a number of delegates not to exceed that of both branches of the Legislature, who shall be chosen in the same manner, and have the same qualifications, as members of the Legislature. The delegates so elected shall meet within three months after their election, at such place as the Legislature may direct. At a special election to be provided for by law, the Constitution that may be agreed upon by such convention shall be submitted to the people for their ratification or rejection, in such manner as the convention may determine. The returns of such election shall, in such manner as the convention shall direct, be certified to the Executive of the State, who shall call to his assistance the Controller, Treasurer, and Secretary of State, and compare the returns so certified to him; and it shall be the duty of the Executive to declare, by his proclamation, such Constitution as may have been ratified by a majority of all the votes cast at such special election, to be the Constitution of the State of California.

ARTICLE XIX.

CHINESE.

SECTION 1. The Legislature shall prescribe all necessary regulations for the protection of the State, and the counties, cities, and towns thereof, from the burdens and evils arising from the presence of aliens who are or may become vagrants, paupers, mendicants, criminals, or invalids afflicted with contagious or infectious diseases, and from aliens otherwise dangerous or detrimental to the well-being or peace of the State, and to impose conditions upon which such persons may reside in the State, and to provide the means and mode of their removal from the State, upon failure or refusal to comply with such conditions; provided, that nothing contained in this section shall be construed to impair or limit the power of the Legislature to pass such police laws or other regulations as it may deem necessary.

SEC. 2. No corporation now existing or hereafter formed under the laws of this State shall, after the adoption of this Constitution, employ, directly or indirectly, in any capacity, any Chinese or Mongolian. The Legislature shall pass such laws as may be necessary to enforce this provision.

SEC. 3. No Chinese shall be employed on any State, county, municipal, or other public work, except in punishment for crime.

SEC. 4. The presence of foreigners ineligible to become citizens of the United States is declared to be dangerous to the well-being of the State, and the Legislature shall discourage their immigration by all the means within its power. Asiatic coolieism is a form of human slavery, and is forever prohibited in this State, and all contracts for coolie labor shall be void. All companies or corporations, whether formed in this country or any foreign country, for the importation of such labor, shall be subject to such penalties as the Legislature may prescribe. The Legislature shall delegate all necessary power to the incorporated cities and towns of this State for the removal of Chinese without the limits of such cities and towns, or for their location within prescribed portions of those limits, and it shall also provide the necessary legislation to prohibit the introduction into this State of Chinese after the adoption of this Constitution. This section shall be enforced by appropriate legislation.

ARTICLE XX.

MISCELLANEOUS SUBJECTS.

SECTION 1. The City of Sacramento is hereby declared to be the seat of government of this State, and shall so remain until changed by law; but no law changing the seat of government shall be valid or binding unless the same be approved and ratified by a majority of the qualified electors of the State voting therefor at a general State election, under such regulations and provisions as the Legislature, by a two-thirds vote of each house, may provide, submitting the question of change to the people.

SEC. 2. Any citizen of this State who shall, after the adoption of this Constitution, fight a duel with deadly weapons, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with deadly weapons, either within this State or out of it, or who shall act as second, or knowingly aid or assist in any manner those thus offending, shall not be allowed to hold any office of profit, or to enjoy the right of suffrage under this Constitution.

SEC. 3. Members of the Legislature, and all officers, executive and judicial, except such inferior officers as may be by law exempted, shall, before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of _____ according to the best of my ability."

And no other oath, declaration, or test shall be required as a qualification for any office or public trust.

SEC. 4. All officers or commissioners whose election or appointment is not provided for by this Constitution, and all officers or commissioners whose offices or duties may hereafter be created by law, shall be elected by the people, or appointed, as the Legislature may direct.

SEC. 5. The fiscal year shall commence on the first day of July.

SEC. 6. Suits may be brought against the State in such manner and in such courts as shall be directed by law.

SEC. 7. No contract of marriage, if otherwise duly made, shall be invalidated for want of conformity to the requirements of any religious sect.

SEC. 8. All property, real and personal, owned by either husband or wife, before marriage, and that acquired by either of them afterwards by gift, devise, or descent, shall be their separate property.

SEC. 9. No perpetuities shall be allowed except for eleemosynary purposes.

SEC. 10. Every person shall be disqualified from holding any office of profit in this State who shall have been convicted of having given or offered a bribe to procure his election or appointment.

SEC. 11. Laws shall be made to exclude from office, serving on juries, and from the right of suffrage, persons convicted of bribery, perjury, forgery, malfeasance in office, or other high crimes. The privilege of free suffrage shall be supported by laws regulating elections, and prohibiting, under adequate penalties, all undue influence thereon from power, bribery, tumult, or other improper practice.

SEC. 12. Absence from this State, on business of the State or of the United States, shall not affect the question of residence of any person.

SEC. 13. A plurality of the votes given at any election shall constitute a choice, where not otherwise directed in this Constitution.

SEC. 14. The Legislature shall provide, by law, for the maintenance and efficiency of a State Board of Health.

SEC. 15. Mechanics, materialmen, artisans, and laborers of every class shall have a lien upon the property upon which they have bestowed labor or furnished material, for the value of such labor done and material furnished; and the Legislature shall provide, by law, for the speedy and efficient enforcement of such liens.

SEC. 16. When the term of any officer or commissioner is not provided for in this Constitution, the term of such officer or commissioner may be declared by law; and, if not so declared, such officer or commissioner shall hold his position as such officer or commissioner during the pleasure of the authority making the appointment; but in no case shall such term exceed four years; provided, however, that in the case of any officer or employé of any municipality governed under a legally adopted charter, the provisions of such charter with reference to the tenure of office or the dismissal from office of any such officer or employé shall control. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1906.]

SEC. 17. The time of service of all laborers or workmen or mechanics employed upon any public works of the State of California, or of any county, city and county, city, town, district, township, or any other political subdivision thereof, whether said work is done by contract or otherwise, shall be limited and restricted to eight hours in any one calendar day, except in cases of extraordinary emergency caused by fire, flood, or danger to life and property, or except to work upon public, military, or naval works or defenses in time of war, and the Legislature shall provide by law that a stipulation to this effect shall be incorporated in all contracts for public work and prescribe proper penalties for the speedy and efficient enforcement of said law. [Amendment adopted November 4, 1902.]

SEC. 18. No person shall, on account of sex, be disqualified from entering upon or pursuing any lawful business, vocation, or profession.

SEC. 19. Nothing in this Constitution shall prevent the Legislature from providing, by law, for the payment of the expenses of the convention framing this Constitution, including the per diem of the delegates for the full term thereof.

SEC. 20. Elections of the officers provided for by this Constitution, except at the election in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, shall be held on the even-numbered years next before the expiration of their respective terms. The terms of such officers shall commence on the first Monday after the first day of January next following their election.

ARTICLE XXI.

BOUNDARY.

SECTION 1. The boundary of the State of California shall be as follows: Commencing at the point of intersection of the forty-second degree of north latitude with the one hundred and twentieth degree of longitude west from Greenwich, and running south on the line of said one hundred and twentieth degree of west longitude until it intersects the thirty-ninth degree of north latitude; thence running in a straight line, in a southeasterly direction, to the River Colorado, at a point where it intersects the thirty-fifth degree of north latitude; thence down the middle of the channel of said river to the boundary line between the United States and Mexico, as established by the treaty of May thirtieth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight; thence running west and along said boundary line to the Pacific Ocean, and extending therein three English miles; thence running in a northwesterly direction and following the direction of the Pacific coast to the forty-second degree of north latitude; thence on the line of said forty-second degree of north latitude to the place of beginning. Also, including all the islands, harbors, and bays along and adjacent to the coast.

ARTICLE XXII.

SCHEDULE.

That no inconvenience may arise from the alterations and amendments to the Constitution of this State, and to carry the same into complete effect, it is hereby ordained and declared:

SECTION 1. That all laws in force at the adoption of this Constitution, not inconsistent therewith, shall remain in full force and effect until altered or repealed by the Legislature; and all rights, actions, prosecutions, claims, and contracts of the State, counties, individuals, or bodies corporate, not inconsistent therewith, shall continue to be as valid as if this Constitution had not been adopted. The provisions of all laws which are inconsistent with this Constitution shall cease upon the adoption thereof, except that all laws which are inconsistent with such provisions of this Constitution as require legislation to enforce them shall remain in full force until the first day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty, unless sooner altered or repealed by the Legislature.

SEC. 2. That all recognizances, obligations, and all other instruments entered into or executed before the adoption of this Constitution, to this State, or to any subdivision thereof, or any municipality therein, and all fines, taxes, penalties, and forfeitures due or owing to this State, or any subdivision or municipality thereof, and all writs, prosecutions, actions, and causes of action, except as herein otherwise provided, shall continue and remain unaffected by the adoption of this Constitution. All indictments or informations which shall have been found, or may hereafter be found, for any crime or offense committed before this Constitution takes effect, may be proceeded upon as if no change had taken place, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution.

SEC. 3. All courts now existing, save Justices' and Police Courts, are hereby abolished; and all records, books, papers, and proceedings from such courts, as are abolished by this Constitution, shall be transferred, on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty, to the courts provided for in this Constitution; and the courts to which the same are thus transferred shall have the same power and jurisdiction over them as if they had been in the first instance commenced, filed, or lodged therein.

SEC. 4. The Superintendent of Printing of the State of California shall, at least thirty days before the first Wednesday in May, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, cause to be printed at the State printing office, in pamphlet form, simply stitched, as many copies of this Constitution as there are registered voters in this State, and mail one copy thereof to the post office address of each registered voter; provided, any copies not called for ten days after reaching their delivery office, shall be subject to general distribution by the several postmasters of the State. The Governor shall issue his proclamation, giving notice of the election for the adoption or rejection of this Constitution, at least thirty days before the said first Wednesday of May, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, and the Boards of Supervisors of the several counties shall cause said proclamation to be made public in their respective counties, and general notice of said election to be given at least fifteen days next before said election.

SEC. 5. The Superintendent of Printing of the State of California shall, at least twenty days before said election, cause to be printed and delivered to the Clerk of each county in this State five times the number of properly prepared ballots for said election that there are voters in said respective counties, with the words printed thereon: "For the New Constitution." He shall likewise cause to be so printed and delivered to said Clerks five times the number of properly prepared ballots for said election that there are voters in said respective counties, with the words printed thereon: "Against the New Constitution." The Secretary of State is hereby authorized and required to furnish the Superintendent of State Printing a sufficient quantity of legal ballot paper, now on hand, to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 6. The Clerks of the several counties in the State shall, at least five days before said election, cause to be delivered to the inspectors of election, at each election precinct or polling place in their respective counties, suitable registers, poll books, forms of return, and an equal number of the aforesaid ballots, which number, in the aggregate, must be ten times greater than the number of voters in the said election precincts or polling places. The returns of the number of votes cast at the presidential election in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-six shall serve as a basis of calculation for this and the preceding section: provided, that the duties in this and the preceding section imposed upon the Clerks of the respective counties shall, in the City and County of San Francisco, be performed by the Registrar of Voters for said city and county.

SEC. 7. Every citizen of the United States, entitled by law to vote for members of the Assembly in this State, shall be entitled to vote for the adoption or rejection of this Constitution.

SEC. 8. The officers of the several counties of this State, whose duty it is, under the law, to receive and canvass the returns from the several precincts of their respective counties, as well as of the City and County of San Francisco, shall meet at the usual places of meeting for such purposes on the first Monday after said election. If, at the time of meeting, the returns from each precinct in the county in which the polls were opened have been received, the board must then and there proceed to canvass the returns; but if all the returns have not been received, the canvass must be postponed from time to time until all the returns are received, or until the second Monday after said election, when they shall proceed to make out returns of the votes cast for and against the new Constitution; and the proceedings of said board shall be the same as those prescribed for like boards in the case of an election for Governor. Upon the completion of said canvass and returns, the said board shall immediately certify the same, in the usual form, to the Governor of the State of California.

SEC. 9. The Governor of the State of California shall, as soon as the returns of said election shall be received by him, or within thirty days after said election, in the presence and with the assistance of the Controller, Treasurer, and Secretary of State, open and compute all the returns received of votes cast for and against the new Constitution. If, by such examination and computation, it is ascertained that a majority of the whole number of votes cast at such election is in favor of such new Constitution, the Executive of this State shall, by his proclamation, declare such new Constitution to be the Constitution of the State of California, and that it shall take effect and be in force on the days hereinafter specified.

SEC. 10. In order that future elections in this State shall conform to the requirements of this Constitution, the terms of all officers elected at the first election under the same shall be, respectively, one year shorter than the terms as fixed by law or by this Constitution; and the successors of all such officers shall be elected at the last election before the expiration of the terms as in this section provided. The first officers chosen after the adoption of this Constitution shall be elected at the time and in the manner now provided by law. Judicial officers and the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be elected at the time and in the manner that State officers are elected.

Sec. 11. All laws relative to the present judicial system of the State shall be applicable to the judicial system created by this Constitution until changed by legislation.

Sec. 12. This Constitution shall take effect and be in force on and after the fourth day of July, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, at twelve o'clock meridian, so far as the same relates to the election of all officers, the commencement of their terms of office, and the meeting of the Legislature. In all other respects, and for all other purposes, this Constitution shall take effect on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty, at twelve o'clock meridian.

Attest: EDWIN F. SMITH, Secretary.

SECTION 1. Section 595 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

595. The insurance commissioner must receive all bonds and securities of persons engaged in the transaction of insurance business in this state, and file and safely keep the same in his office, or deposit them as provided in this article. He must examine and inspect the financial condition of all persons engaged, or who desire to engage, in the business of insurance; issue a certificate of authority to transact insurance business in this state to any persons in a solvent condition, who have fully complied with the laws of this state, and are in nowise in arrears to the state, or to any county or city of the state, for fees, licenses, taxes, or penalties accrued upon business previously transacted in the state; determine the sufficiency and validity of all bonds and other securities required to be given by persons engaged, or to be engaged, in insurance business, and cause the same to be renewed in case of the insufficiency or invalidity thereof; and perform all other duties imposed upon him by the laws regulating the business of insurance in this state, and enforce the execution of such laws; prepare and furnish, on demand, to all persons engaged in the insurance business, blank forms for such statements or reports as may by law be required of them; make, on or before the first day of August in each year, a report to the governor of this state, containing a tabular statement and synopsis of the reports which have been filed in his office, showing, generally, the condition of the insurance business and interests in this state, and other matters concerning insurance, and a detailed statement, verified by oath, of the moneys and fees of office received by him, and for what purpose. And whenever any insurance company, doing business in this state, shall voluntarily surrender to the insurance commissioner its certificate of authority previously granted, thereby withdrawing from business in this state, the commissioner must make due publication of such surrender and withdrawal daily for the period of one week, in each of two daily newspapers, the one published in the city of San Francisco, and the other in the city of Sacramento. It is further enacted that if in any action hereafter commenced in the superior court of this state, by a citizen thereof, against a foreign corporation or company doing insurance business in this state, such corporation or company shall transfer, or cause to be transferred, remove, or cause to be removed, such

CHAPTER 21.

An act transferring money from the traveling expense fund of the bureau of building and loan supervision to a special fund to defray the expenses of restoring the office furniture and fixtures of said bureau, lost or destroyed by conflagration or other public calamity, and directing the state controller and state treasurer to make such transfer and to draw and pay warrants for the disbursement thereof.

[Approved February 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Building and loan bureau, special fund.

SECTION 1. The sum of three hundred (300) dollars is hereby transferred from and out of any unexpended balance remaining to the credit of the traveling expense fund of the bureau of building and loan supervision, at the close of the 57th fiscal year, to a special fund to be used by the building and loan commissioners in defraying the expenses of restoring the office furniture and fixtures of said bureau, lost or destroyed by conflagration or other public calamity.

SEC. 2. The state controller and state treasurer are directed to make said transfer in conformity with section one of this act, and to respectively draw and pay the necessary warrants for the disbursement thereof.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 22.

An act to amend an act entitled, "An act to establish a Code of Civil Procedure," approved March 11th, 1872, by adding a new section thereto to be numbered 274a, providing for the taking down and transcribing of instructions to jurors by judges of the superior court, and for opinions rendered in cases before said superior court.

[Approved February 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered section 274a, and to read as follows:

274a. Judges of the superior court may have any opinion given or rendered by such judge in the trial of any action or proceeding, pending in such court, or any instructions to be given by such court to the jury taken down in shorthand and transcribed by the official reporter of such court; but if there be no official reporter for such court, then by any competent stenographer or typewriter, the cost thereof to be a legal charge against the county, payable out of the general fund in the county treasury in the same manner as any other claims against the county, when properly approved by the said judge so ordering the same.

Transcribing of opinions and instructions, a county charge.

CHAPTER 23.

An act making an appropriation for the contingent expenses of the senate for the thirty-seventh session of the legislature.

[Approved February 21, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, for contingent expenses of the senate for the thirty-seventh session of the legislature; and the controller of the state is authorized to draw his warrants for the same, and the treasurer of the state is directed to pay the same.

Contingent expenses of senate, appropriation.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 24.

An act to repeal an act entitled "An act to reorganize Swamp Land District Number Seventy, of Sutter county, and to provide for the construction, maintenance and repairs of levees therein," approved March 27, 1878.

[Approved February 23, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Repealed. SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act to reorganize Swamp Land District Number Seventy, of Sutter county, and to provide for the construction, maintenance and repairs of levees therein," approved March 27, 1878, is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 25.

An act providing for the organization and government of districts for the protection of the lands of farming or other communities or neighborhoods within this state from overflow or damage from the waters of any unnavigable stream, water course, cañon, or wash extending by, through, or over such communities or neighborhoods, and to provide for the acquisition of lands, rights of way, and other property by purchase, gift, or condemnation, and for extending, straightening, locating, improving, and maintaining the channels of such streams, water courses, cañons, or washes, and confining said waters in such channels and preventing the overflow thereof, and for the construction by such districts of the necessary works for said purposes.

[Approved February 23, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Protection districts, organization.

SECTION 1. Whenever fifty, or a majority of the owners who are also the owners of a majority of the lands of any farming or other community or neighborhood within this state, which lands lie in one body and are liable to overflow or damage from the waters of any unnavigable stream, water course, cañon, or wash extending by, through, or over such community or neighborhood, and may be protected by the same system of works, desire to provide for the protection of such lands from said damage; they may propose the organization of a protection district under the provisions of this act, and when so organized, such district shall have the powers, rights, and duties conferred, or which may be conferred by law upon such protection districts. The equalized county assessment roll next preceding the presentation of a petition for the organization of a protection district under the provisions of this act, shall be prima facie evidence of ownership for the purposes of this act; provided, that no person who has received or acquired ownership of land within such proposed district for the purpose of enabling him or her to join in such petition or to become an elector of said district, shall be competent to sign such petition or vote at any election held for the purpose of its organization. Such illegal signing, however, shall not invalidate such petition when there shall be found a sufficient number of other legal petitioners.

ownership

SEC. 2. In order to propose the organization of a protection district, a petition shall be presented to the board of supervisors of the county in which the lands of the community or neighborhood and within the proposed district, or the greater portion thereof, are situated, signed by the required number of owners of lands within such proposed district, as above provided, which petition shall set forth and particularly describe the proposed boundaries of such district and the purposes of such organization, and shall pray that the same be organized under the provisions of this act. The petitioners must accompany the petition with a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the said board of supervisors, in double the amount of the probable cost of organizing such district, conditioned that the obligors will pay all the cost in case such an organization will not be effected. The petition shall be presented at a regular meeting of said board of supervisors, and shall have been published for at least two weeks before such presentation, in some newspaper of general circulation in said community or neighborhood and printed and published in the county where the petition is presented, together with a notice stating the date of the meeting of said board at which the petition will be presented; and if any portion of the proposed district lies within another county, or counties, then said petition and notice shall be likewise published in such a newspaper printed and published in each of such counties.

posed district lands not liable to be damaged by such overflow; nor shall said board modify said boundaries so as to include any lands not included within the boundaries proposed in said petition. Any owner of lands adjacent to the borders of said district may, by his written application therefor filed with said board on or before the time of the hearing of said petition, in the discretion of said board have such lands included within said proposed district. Upon such hearing of said petition, the board of supervisors shall determine whether or not said petition complies with the requirements and purposes of this act, and must hear all competent and relevant testimony offered in support or in opposition thereto. Such determination shall be entered upon the minutes of said board of supervisors.

Determination of board.

SEC. 4. When under the provisions of the preceding sections the boundaries of the proposed district shall be defined and established by said board, they shall make an order dividing said district into three or five divisions, as nearly equal in size as practicable, which divisions shall be numbered consecutively and constitute election precincts for said district, and one director, who shall be an elector and resident of the precinct for which he is elected, shall be elected as hereinafter provided, by each precinct; provided that when requested in the petition, three directors, who shall be residents, and electors, of the district, shall be elected at large by the qualified electors of the district.

SEC. 5. Said board of supervisors shall then give notice of an election to be held in such proposed district, for the purpose of determining whether or not the same shall be organized under the provisions of this act. Such notice shall designate a name for such proposed district and describe the boundaries of the precincts established therein, when more than one, together with a designation of the polling place and board of election for each precinct; and said notice shall be published for at least three weeks previous to such election, in a newspaper of general circulation within the boundaries of said proposed district and published within the county in which the petition for the organization of such district was presented; and if any portion of such proposed district is within another county, or counties, then such notice shall be published for the same length of time in such a newspaper published in each of said counties. Such notice shall require the electors to cast ballots which shall contain the words, "Protection District—Yes," or, "Protection District—No," or words equivalent thereto, and also the names of one or more persons (according to the division of the proposed district as prayed for in the petition and ordered by the board), to be voted for to fill the office of director. Such election shall be conducted, as nearly as practicable, in accordance with the general laws of the state, but no particular form of ballot shall be required.

SEC. 8. Said board shall then cause a copy of such order, duly certified by the clerk of said board, to be immediately filed for record in the office of the county recorder of any county in which any portion of the lands embraced in such district is situated, and must also immediately forward a copy thereof to the clerk of the board of supervisors of each of said last mentioned counties; and no board of supervisors of any county in which any portion of the lands embraced in such districts are situated, shall, after the date of the organization thereof, allow another district to be formed including any portion of said lands, without the consent of the board of directors of the district in which they are situated. From and after such filing, the organization of the district shall be complete.

SEC. 9. Such election or organization may be contested by any person owning property within the proposed district liable to assessment. The directors elected at such election shall be made parties defendant. Such contest shall be brought in the superior court of the county where the petition for organization is filed; provided, that if more than one contest be pending, they shall be consolidated and tried together. The court having jurisdiction shall speedily try such contest, and determine upon the hearing whether the election was fairly conducted and in substantial compliance with the requirements of this act, and enter its judgment accordingly. Such contest may be brought within twenty days after the canvass of the vote and declaration of the result by the board of supervisors, but not later. The right of appeal is hereby given to either party to the record.

SEC. 11. Such directors shall, on the first Tuesday after their election after they shall have qualified, meet and classify themselves by lot into two classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, and the term of office of the class having the greatest number shall expire at the next general February election in

- this act provided for; and the term of office of the class having the lesser number shall terminate at the next general February election thereafter. After such classification said directors shall organize as a board, shall elect a president from their number and appoint a secretary, who shall each hold office during the pleasure of the board: The salary of the secretary and the amount of the bond to be given by him for the faithful performance of his duties shall be fixed by the board of directors.
- Organization. SEC. 12. The board of directors shall hold regular meetings in their office, on the first Tuesday in March, June, September, and December, and such special meetings as may be required for the proper transaction of business; provided, that all special meetings must be ordered by a majority of the board, by an order entered in the minutes specifying the business to be transacted. Three days' notice to any member not joining in the order must be given by the secretary, and only the business specified in the order must be transacted at such special meeting. All meetings of the board must be public, and a majority of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A minute of all proceedings of the board shall be kept by the secretary, and all records of the board shall be open to public inspection during business hours. The board of directors shall, on the first Tuesday in March of each and every year, render, and immediately thereafter cause to be published, a verified statement of the financial condition of the district, showing particularly the receipts and disbursements of the last preceding year, together with the source of such receipts and purpose of such disbursements. Said publication shall be made at least once a week, for two weeks, in some paper of general circulation within said district and published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is situated.
- Salary of secretary. SEC. 13. The board of directors shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to manage and conduct the business and affairs of the district; to make and execute, in the name of the district, all necessary contracts; to adopt a seal for the district, to be used in the attestation of proper documents; to provide for the payment from the proper fund of all the debts and just claims against the district; to employ and appoint engineers to survey, plan, locate, and supervise the construction of works necessary for the protection of the lands within said district from damage by overflow from the waters of said stream, water course, canon, or wash, as hereinbefore stated, and to estimate the cost of such works and the land needed for right of way, also to construct, maintain, and keep in repair all works necessary for the purpose of such protection. The board and its agents and employees shall have the right to enter upon any land to make surveys, and may locate the necessary protection works for the purpose of protecting the lands of said district from damage by the overflow of the waters of said stream, water course, canon, or wash. Said board shall also have the right to acquire, hold, and possess, either by donation, purchase, or condemnation, in the name and on behalf of said district, any land or other property necessary for the construction, use, maintenance, repair, and improvement of any works for the purpose of protection, as herein provided. The board may establish equitable by-laws, rules, and regulations necessary or proper for carrying on the business herein provided for.

SEC. 14. The board of directors, when they deem it advisable, for the best interests of the district, and the convenience of the electors thereof, may at any time, but not less than sixty days before an election to be held in the district, change the boundaries of the election precincts of the district; provided, such changes shall be made to keep all the precincts as nearly equal in area and population as may be practicable. Such changes of boundaries of the precincts must be shown on the minutes of the board.

Change of boundaries.

SEC. 15. In case of condemnation proceedings, the board shall proceed, in the name of the district, under the provisions of Title VII., Part III., of the Code of Civil Procedure, which said provisions are hereby made applicable for that purpose; and it is hereby declared that the use of the property which may be condemned, taken, or appropriated under the provisions of this act, is a public use, subject to the regulation and control of the state, in the manner prescribed by law.

Condemnation proceedings.

SEC. 16. In each district organized as herein provided, an election shall be held on the first Wednesday in February of each odd numbered year, at which directors for the district shall be elected to fill the places of those whose terms then expire. The person receiving the highest number of votes for the office to be filled at such election is elected thereto. Within ten days after receiving their respective certificates of election, each of said persons shall qualify as such director by taking and subscribing the official oath and filing a bond, as herein provided. Each director shall execute an official bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, which shall be approved by the judge of the superior court of the county where the organization of the district was effected, and shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of such county, and then, together with his official oath, filed with the secretary of the board of directors. All official bonds herein provided shall be in the form prescribed by law for the official bonds of county officers. If a vacancy shall occur in the office of director, the same shall be filled by appointment by the remaining members of said board of directors. A director so appointed shall qualify within ten days after receiving notice of his appointment, as in said act provided, as if he were elected to such office, as hereinbefore provided; and he shall hold such office only until the next regular election for such district, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

SEC. 17. On the first Tuesday in March next following the election, the directors who shall have been elected at the general February election, and those whose terms have not expired shall meet and organize as a board, elect a president and appoint a secretary, who shall each hold office during the Office, place of. pleasure of the board. The full term of office of directors is hereby fixed at four years. The office of the board of directors of any such district may be established by said board of directors at the county seat, of the county where the same was organized, or at some proper and convenient place within the district, but after the office is once established it shall not be changed without giving notice thereof by posting in three public places in the district and by publishing a similar notice for thirty days in some newspaper of general circulation throughout said district and published in the county where the same is organized.

Notice of election. SEC. 18. Fifteen days before any election held under this act, subsequent to the organization of any district, the secretary of the board of directors shall cause notices to be posted in three public places in each election precinct, of the time and place of holding the election, and shall also post a similar notice of the same in a conspicuous place in the office of said board, specifying the polling places of each precinct, and the names of the members of the boards of election, for each precinct. Prior to the time for posting such notices, the board Election officers, appointment. must appoint for each precinct, from the electors thereof, one inspector and one judge and one clerk, who shall constitute a board of election for such precinct. If the board fail to appoint a board of election, or the members appointed, or any of them, do not attend at the opening of the polls on the morning of election, the electors of the precinct present at that hour, may appoint the board, or supply the place of an absent member thereof. The board of directors must in its order appointing the board of election, designate the place within each precinct where the election must be held.

Organization of election board. SEC. 19. The inspector is chairman of the election board, and may administer all oaths required in the progress of an election; and appoint judges and clerks, if, during the progress of the election, any judge or clerk cease to act. Any member of the board of election, or any clerk thereof, may administer and certify oaths required to be administered during the progress of an election. The board of election for each precinct must, before opening the polls, appoint two persons to act as clerks of the election. Before opening the polls, each member of the board and each clerk must take and subscribe an oath to faithfully perform the duties imposed upon them by law. Any elector of the precinct may administer and certify such oath. The polls must be open at 9:00 o'clock A. M., and be kept open until 4:00 o'clock P. M., when the same must be closed. The provisions of the general election laws concerning the form of ballots to be used shall not apply to elections held under this act.

Polls, when opened and when closed. SEC. 20. Voting may commence as soon as the polls are opened, and may be continued during all the time the polls remain opened, and shall be conducted, as nearly as practicable, in accordance with the provisions of the general election laws in this state.

Voting

SEC. 21. As soon as all the votes are read off and counted, a certificate shall be drawn up on each of the papers containing the poll list and tallies, or attached thereto, stating the number of votes each one voted for has received, and designating the office to fill which he was voted for, which number shall be written in figures and in words at full length. Each certificate shall be signed by the clerk, judge and the inspector. One of said certificates with the poll list and the tally paper to which it is attached, shall be retained by the inspector, and preserved by him at least six months. The ballots shall be strung upon a cord or thread by the inspector, during the counting thereof, in the order in which they are entered upon the tally list by the clerks; and said ballots together with the other of said certificates, with the poll list and tally paper to which it is attached, shall be sealed by the inspector in the presence of the judges and clerks and endorsed "election returns of (naming the precinct) precinct" and be directed to the secretary of the board of directors and shall be immediately delivered by the inspector, or by some other safe and responsible carrier designated by said inspector, to said secretary, and the ballots shall be kept unopened for at least six months, and if any person be of the opinion that the vote of any precinct has not been correctly counted, he may appear on the day appointed for the board of directors to open and canvass the returns and demand a recount of the vote of the precinct that is so claimed to have been incorrectly counted.

returns.

SEC. 22. No list, tally paper, or certificate, from any election, shall be set aside or rejected for want of form if it can be satisfactorily understood. The board of directors must meet at its usual place of meeting on the first Monday after each election to canvass the returns. If, at the time of meeting, the returns from each precinct in the district in which the polls were opened have been received, the board of directors must then and there proceed to canvass the returns; but if all the returns have not been received, the canvass must be postponed from day to day until the returns have been received, or until six postponements have been had. The canvass must be made in public and by opening the returns and computing the vote of the district for each person voted for and declaring the result thereof.

returns.

SEC. 23. The secretary of the board of directors must, as soon as the result is declared, enter in the records of such board a statement of such result, which statement must show: (a) the whole number of votes cast in the district and in each precinct thereof if there be more than one precinct; (b) the names of the persons voted for; (c) the office to fill which each person was voted for; (d) the number of votes given in each precinct to each of such persons; (e) the number of votes given in each division for the office of director. The board of directors must declare the persons having the highest number of votes given for each office. The secretary must immediately make out and deliver to such person a certificate of election, signed by him, and authenticated with the seal of the board.

Number of directors. SEC. 24. In any district the board of directors thereof may, upon the presentation of a petition therefor, by a majority of the landowners of said district, order that on and after the next ensuing general election for the district, there shall be either three or five directors, as said board may order, and they shall be elected, by the district at large, or by divisions, as so petitioned and ordered; and after such order such directors shall be so elected.

Titles to district property, where vested. SEC. 25. The legal title to all property acquired under the provisions of this act shall immediately and by operation of law vest in such protection district, and shall be held by such district in trust for and is hereby dedicated and set apart to the uses and purposes set forth in this act. And said board is hereby authorized and empowered to hold, use, acquire, manage, occupy, and possess said property as herein provided. The said board is hereby authorized and empowered to take conveyances or other assurances for all property acquired by it under the provisions of this act, in the name of such protection district, to and for the uses and purposes herein expressed, and to institute and maintain or defend any and all actions and proceedings, suits at law or in equity, necessary or proper in order to fully carry out the provisions of this act, or to enforce, maintain, protect, or preserve any and all rights, privileges and immunities created by this act, or acquired in pursuance thereof. And in all courts, actions, suits, or proceedings, the said board may sue, appear, and defend in person or by attorneys, and in the name of such protection district.

Employment of engineer.
Plans for work. SEC. 26. Upon the completion of the organization of such district and of its board of directors, as hereinbefore provided for, said board of directors shall employ a civil engineer, or engineers, to make a plan, or plans, for the construction of works necessary for the protection of the land of such district from overflow and damage as hereinbefore specified; and also an estimate of the cost of said works and of the lands and property necessary to be taken or injured by such construction; which engineer, or engineers, shall report in writing to said board such plans and estimates, when completed; and said board of directors, after securing such plans and estimates, shall determine therefrom and such other information and evidence as they may deem proper to secure, the probable cost of the construction of said works and the lands and property necessary to be taken and injured by such construction. Said board shall thereupon call a special election, at which shall be submitted to the electors of such district the question whether or not the bonds of said district shall be issued in the amount so determined. Notice of such election must be given by posting notices in three public places in each election precinct in said district for at least twenty days, and also by publication of such notice in some newspaper of general circulation within said district and published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, once a week for at least three successive weeks. Such notices must specify the time of holding the election, the amount of bonds proposed to be issued; and said election must be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions of this act governing the election of officers; provided, that no informalities in conducting such an election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such election the ballots shall contain the words "Bonds—Yes" or "Bonds—No," or words equivalent thereto. If a majority of the votes cast are "Bonds—Yes," the board of directors shall cause bonds in said amount to be issued; if a majority of the votes cast at any bond election are "Bonds—No," the result of such election shall be so declared and entered of record. Whenever, also, the construction fund in this act provided for has been exhausted by expenditures therefrom as in this act authorized, and it is necessary to raise additional money for said purpose, the board of directors may estimate and determine the amount of the money necessary to be raised and thereupon submit to said electors the question of raising the same by the issuance of bonds in the same manner and with like effect as at such previous election hereinbefore provided for.

To be submitted to electors.

SEC. 28. The board may sell said bonds from time to time, in such quantities as may be necessary and most advantageous to raise money for the construction of said works, the acquisition of said property and rights, and otherwise to fully carry out the objects and purposes of this act. Before making any sale the board shall, at a meeting, by resolution, declare its intention to sell a specified amount of the bonds, and the day and hour and place of such sale, and shall cause such resolution to be entered in the minutes, and notice of the sale to be given, by publication thereof at least three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in said district and published in the county where the office of the said board is located, and in any other newspaper, at its discretion. The notice shall state that sealed proposals will be received by the board at their office, for the purchase of bonds, till the day and hour named in the resolution. At the time appointed the board shall open the proposals, and award the purchase of the bonds to the highest responsible bidder; provided, however, that they may reject all bids. Said board shall in no event sell any of said bonds for less than the par value thereof.

SEC. 29. Any bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be a lien upon the property of the district and the lien for the bonds of any issue shall be a preferred lien to that for any subsequent issue. Said bonds, and the interest thereon, shall be paid by revenue derived from an annual assessment upon the real property of the district; and all the real property in the district shall be and remain liable to be assessed for such payments as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 30. In case the money raised by the sale of bonds issued be insufficient or in case the bonds be unavailable for the completion of the works, and additional bonds be not voted, the board of directors shall provide for the completion of said works by levying assessments therefor; provided, however, that such levy of assessment shall not be made except first an estimate of the amount required for the purpose thereof has been made by said board, and the question as to the making of said levy submitted to a vote of the electors of the district. Before such question is submitted, the order of submission shall be entered in the minutes of the board, stating the amount to be levied and the purpose therefor, and if submitted at a special election said order shall, in addition, fix the day of election. Notice of such election must be given by posting notices in three public places in each election precinct in said district for at least twenty days, and also by publication of such notice in some newspaper of general circulation in said district and published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, once a week for at least three successive weeks. Such notices must specify the time of holding the election, and the amount of assessment proposed to be levied. Said election must be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions of this act governing the election of officers; provided, that no informalities in conducting such an election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such election the ballots shall contain the words, "Assessment—Yes," or "Assessment—No," or words equivalent thereto. If a majority of the votes cast are "Assessment—Yes," the board of directors shall proceed in the manner prescribed in the sections herein provided for raising funds for the annual requirements; if a majority of the votes cast are "Assessment—No," the result of such election shall be so declared and entered of record.

Notice of election.

SEC. 31. Whenever a district organized under the provisions of this act, has outstanding bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness, the payment thereof may be provided for by the issuance of new bonds, in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

New bonds.

SEC. 32. In order to propose the funding of such bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness a petition shall be presented to the board of directors of such protection district, signed by a majority of the owners of the land situated therein, which petition shall set forth the amount of bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness proposed to be funded, together with a general description of same, also the total amount of the bonds sought to be issued (provided, that said amount shall in no case be greater than the total amount of bonds, coupons, and other evidences of indebtedness then outstanding and sought to be funded), together with a full and complete statement of the purposes for which such bonds are to be used. On presentation of such petition, the same shall be entered in full on the minutes of the board.

Funding of bonds.

SEC. 33. Immediately after the recording of said petition the board shall call a special election, at which shall be submitted to the electors of such district the question whether or not the bonds of such district in the amount set forth in said petition shall be issued. Notice of such election must be given by posting notices in three public places in each election precinct in said district for at least twenty days, and also by publication of such notice in some newspaper of general circulation in said district and published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, once a week for at least three successive weeks before such election. Such notice must specify the time of holding the election, the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, the amount of bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness proposed to be funded, together with a general description of the same. Said election shall be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions governing the election of officers; provided, that no informalities in conducting such an election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such election, the ballots shall contain the words "Bonds—Yes" or "Bonds—No" or words equivalent thereto. If two-thirds of the votes cast are "Bonds—Yes" the board of directors shall cause bonds in said amount to be issued. If more than one-third of the votes cast at such election are "Bonds—No," the result of such election shall be so declared. The result in either case shall be duly entered of record.

Refunding bonds, how payable.

SEC. 34. If said bonds are directed to be issued as herein provided for the board of directors shall cause the same to be issued. Said bonds shall be made payable in gold coin of the United States, in twenty series, as follows, to wit: On the first day of January after the expiration of twenty years, five per cent of the whole amount of said bonds, and on the first day of January of each year thereafter, an equal amount of such bonds until all shall have been finally paid; that is, five per cent of the whole issue of bonds—not five per cent of each bond, each being wholly payable when due. Said bonds shall bear interest at a rate to be determined by the board of directors and specified in the notice of election not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of January and July of each year. They shall be negotiable in form, and shall be of denominations of not less than $100 nor more than $500. Said bonds shall in all respects conform to the form of bonds prescribed hereinbefore.

Must sell at par.

SEC. 35. It shall be unlawful to sell or exchange any of the bonds as herein provided for less than their par value.

County treasurer to be custodian.

SEC. 36. When bonds issued under section 34 of this act shall be duly executed, they shall be deposited with the treasurer of the county wherein the district was organized, who is hereby authorized and charged with the duty of receiving the same, and his receipt shall be taken therefor, and he shall be charged with the same on his official bond, and shall have no power to deliver the same in exchange for any bonds or indebtedness proposed to be funded until the bonds or evidence of indebtedness proposed to be funded shall have been surrendered to him, and he shall have been ordered by the board of directors of the district, by an order duly entered on their records to make such delivery. When such bonds have been exchanged for other bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness, the treasurer shall at once cancel such other bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness by writing across the face thereof "cancelled" and the date of cancellation, and report the same with his next regular report hereinafter provided for to the board of directors of the district designating the bond, coupon, or other evidence of indebtedness, so that it can be identified, the date of cancellation, and the person from whom it was received, together with the amount paid therefor, or the terms of exchange, in case there is an exchange.

SEC. 37. When said bonds are issued for the purpose of sale to the highest bidder, the board may sell said bonds from time to time, in such quantities as may be necessary and most advantageous, to raise money to pay bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness of the district which were outstanding at the time of the filing of said petition, and generally described therein. Resolution of intention must be declared, and notice given, and the sale conducted in the manner prescribed in this act for the sale of original bonds. Said bonds shall in no event be sold for less than their par value including accrued interest. All moneys realized from the sale of bonds, issued under the provisions of this section, shall be paid into the hands of the said treasurer, and by him kept in a separate fund, known as the funding fund, and shall be applied exclusively to the payment of bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness of the district outstanding at the time of the filing of the said petition, and described therein.

Bonds may be sold from time to time.

SEC. 38. The bonds issued as herein provided for may be exchanged, at not less than their par value, including accrued interest, for any of the indebtedness set out and described in the notice of the election authorizing the issuance of said refunding bond. A contract for such exchange may be made by the board of directors upon such terms as said board may deem advisable; provided, that they must receive not less than par value for the bonds so exchanged.

Exchange of bonds.

SEC. 39. The board of directors must, on or before the first meeting of the board of supervisors in September of each year, furnish the supervisors and the auditor of the county wherein the district is situated, or if such district is not entirely within one county, then as hereinafter provided, to the supervisors and auditors of each county in which any portion of the district is situated, an estimate in writing of the amount of money needed for the purposes of the district for the ensuing fiscal year. The amount must be sufficient to raise the annual interest on the outstanding bonds, to pay the estimated cost of repairs, the incidental expenses of the district, and in any year in which any bonds shall fall due, an amount sufficient to pay the principal of the outstanding bonds as they mature; and in any year when an assessment or installment thereof is payable, sufficient to pay the same.

Estimate of amount needed.

SEC. 40. If such district is in more than one county the total estimate as provided for in the preceding section shall be divided by the board of directors in proportion to value of the real property of the district in each county. This value must be determined from the equalized values of the last assessment rolls of such counties. When such division of the estimate has been made, the board shall furnish the supervisors and auditors of the respective counties a written statement of that part of the estimate apportioned to that county.

Division of estimate.

Protection
district
tax levy.

SEC. 41. The board of supervisors of each county wherein is situated a district or any part thereof organized under the provisions of this act, must, annually, at the time of levying county taxes, levy a tax to be known as the "_____ (name of district) protection district tax," sufficient to raise an amount reported to them as herein provided, by the board of directors. The supervisors must determine the rate of such tax by deducting fifteen per cent for anticipated delinquencies from the total assessed value of the real property of the district within the county as it appears on the assessment roll of the county, and then dividing the sum reported by the board of directors as required to be raised by the remainder of such total assessed value.

Duty
of county
auditor.

SEC. 42. The tax so levied shall be computed and entered on the assessment roll by the county auditor, and if the supervisors fail to levy the tax as provided in the preceding section, then the auditor must do so. Such tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes, and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of said district.

Levying and collecting tax.

SEC. 43. The provisions of the Political Code of this state prescribing the manner of levying and collecting taxes and the duties of the several county officers with respect thereto, are, so far as they are applicable and not in conflict with the specific provisions of this act, hereby adopted and made a part hereof. Such officers shall be liable upon their several official bonds for the faithful discharge of the duties imposed upon them by this act.

Repository of funds.

SEC. 44. If the district is in more than one county, the treasury of the county wherein the district was organized shall be the repository of all the funds of the district. For this purpose the treasurers of any other counties wherein is situated a portion of said district, must, at any time, not oftener than twice each year, upon the order of the board of directors, settle with said board and pay over to the treasurer of the county where the district was organized, all moneys in their possession belonging to the district. Said last-named treasurer is authorized and required to receive and receipt for the same, and to place the same to the credit of the district. He shall be responsible upon his official bond for the safekeeping and disbursement, in the manner herein provided, of these and all other moneys of the district held by him.

Apportionment
of funds.

SEC. 45. The following funds are hereby created and established, to which the moneys properly belonging shall be apportioned by the treasurer, to wit: Bond fund, construction fund, general fund, funding fund.

Duty
of county
treasurer.

SEC. 46. The treasurer shall pay out of the same only upon warrants of the board of directors, signed by the president and attested by the secretary. The treasurer shall report in writing to the board of directors whenever requested by them or the secretary, the amount of money in the fund, the amount of receipts since his last report, and the amounts paid out.

SEC. 47. Upon the presentation of the coupons due, to the treasurer, he shall pay the same from the bond fund. Whenever said fund shall amount to the sum of ten thousand dollars in excess of an amount sufficient to meet the interest coupons due, the board of directors may direct the treasurer to pay such an amount of said bonds not due as the money in said fund will redeem, at the lowest value at which they may be offered for liquidation, after advertising in the manner hereinbefore provided for the sale of bonds, for sealed proposals for the redemption of said bonds. Said proposals shall be opened by the board in open meeting, at a time to be named in the notice, and the lowest bid for said bonds must be accepted; provided, that no bond shall be redeemed at a rate above par. In case the bids are equal, the lowest numbered bond shall have the preference. In case none of the holders of said bonds shall desire to have the same redeemed, as herein provided for, said money shall be invested by the treasurer, under the direction of the board, in United States bonds, or the bonds of the state, which shall be kept in said "bond fund" and may be used to redeem said district bonds whenever the holders thereof may desire.

of bonds.

SEC. 48. After the adoption of a plan of works and providing funds for the construction of the same, and securing the necessary rights of way as in this act provided, the board of directors shall give notice by publication thereof not less than twenty days in one newspaper published in each of the counties composing the district (provided, a newspaper is published therein) and in such other newspapers as they may deem advisable, calling for bids for the construction of such work, or of any portion thereof; if less than the whole work is advertised, then the portion so advertised must be particularly described in such notice. Said notice shall set forth that plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the board, and that the board will receive sealed proposals therefor, and that the contract will be let to the lowest responsible bidder, stating the time and place for opening said proposals, which, at the time and place appointed shall be opened in public; and as soon as convenient thereafter the board shall let said work, whether in portions or as a whole, to the lowest responsible bidder; or they may reject any and all bids and readvertise for proposals, or may proceed to construct the work under their own superintendence. Contracts for the purchase of material shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. Any person or persons to whom a contract may be awarded shall enter into a bond, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the board, payable to said district for its use for fifty per cent of the amount of the contract price, conditioned for the faithful performance of said contract. The work shall be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of the engineer, and be approved by the board.

construction of works.

Warrants. SEC. 49. No claim shall be paid by the treasurer until allowed by the board, and only upon a warrant signed by the president, and countersigned by the secretary.

Construction fund. SEC. 50. The cost and expense of purchasing and acquiring property and constructing the works and improvements herein provided for, shall be wholly paid out of the construction fund.

Pay of directors. SEC. 51. Each member of the board of directors shall receive three dollars per day and actual and necessary expenses for each day's attendance at the meetings of the board, and while engaged in official business under the order of the board.

Officers must not be interested in contracts. SEC. 52. No director or any other officer named in this act shall in any manner be interested, directly or indirectly in any contract awarded or to be awarded by the board, or in the profits to be derived therefrom; and for any violation of this provision, such officer shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and such conviction shall work a forfeiture of his office, and he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Special assessments, elections for. SEC. 53. The board of directors may at any time, when in their judgment it may be deemed advisable call a special election and submit to the qualified electors of the district the question, whether or not a special assessment shall be levied for the purpose of raising money to be applied to any of the purposes provided in this act. Such assessment may be payable in one or more equal annual installments as may be determined by the board of directors and specified in the notice of the election hereinafter provided. Such election must be called upon the notice prescribed and the same shall be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects in conformity with the provisions of section 26 of this act. The notice must specify the amount of money proposed to be raised and the purpose for which it is intended to be used. At such election the ballots shall contain the words "Assessment—Yes" or "Assessment—No." If two thirds or more of the votes cast are "Assessment—Yes," the board shall proceed in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for raising the annual funds by taxation. When collected, the money shall be paid into the district treasury for the purposes specified in the notice of such special election.

Limit of debt. SEC. 54. The board of directors shall have no power to incur any debt or liability whatever either by issuing bonds or otherwise, in excess of the express provisions of this act; and any debt or liability incurred in excess of such express provisions shall be and remain absolutely void; except for the purposes of organization, or for any of the purposes of this act, the board of directors may, before the collection of the first assessment, incur an indebtedness not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of five thousand dollars, and may cause warrants of the district to issue therefor, bearing interest at the rate of not to exceed seven per cent per annum.

SEC. 55. The rights of way and works belonging to any protection district organized under this act shall not be taxed for state and county or municipal purposes. Tax exemption.

SEC. 56. The board of directors shall within thirty days after the issue of any bonds in this act provided for bring an action in the superior court of the county wherein is located the office of such board, to determine the validity of any such bonds. Such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of summons for at least once a week for three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in said district and published in the county where the action is pending, such paper to be designated by the court having jurisdiction of the proceedings. Jurisdiction shall be complete within thirty days after the full publication of such summons in the manner herein provided. Any one interested may, at any time before the expiration of said thirty days, appear, and by proper proceedings contest the validity of such bonds, and may in the same action or proceeding contest the validity of any bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness referred to in the petition for funding and proposed to be funded, and if any such bonds, coupons, or evidences of indebtedness be shown to be invalid, then the same shall only be funded for the amount of such proportion thereof as equals the fair and reasonable value of whatever the district may have received in consideration therefor, together with the unpaid interest thereon, and the amount of such proportion shall be determined and adjudicated by the court in said action or proceeding. Said action shall be speedily tried and judgment rendered declaring such bonds so contested either valid or invalid. Either party shall have the right to appeal from such judgment. Suit to determine validity of bonds.

SEC. 57. If no such proceeding shall have been taken by the board of directors, then at any time after thirty days and within ninety days after the issue of any bonds under the provisions of this act, any district assessment-payer may bring an action in the superior court of the county wherein the office of the board of directors is located, to determine the validity of any such bonds. The board of directors shall be made parties defendant and service of summons shall be made on the members of the board personally, if they can be found within the state; if not, then by publication for three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in said district and published in the county wherein the office of the board of directors is located, such newspaper to be designated by the court having jurisdiction. Before such publication can be had, an affidavit, in the usual form shall be made, showing such facts. Said board shall have the right to appear and contest such action. Notice of said action shall be given by publication of summons therein in the same manner and for the same time as required in the preceding section hereof in actions brought by the publication of such summons in the manner herein provided. Any district assessment-payer or any one interested may appear and defend said action, and thereafter Same.

the same proceedings shall be had in such action as are hereinbefore provided for in the preceding section hereof in actions brought by the board of directors, and the same matters determined and adjudicated by the court therein. Such action shall be speedily tried, with the right of appeal to either party, Proceedings.

SEC. 58. At the hearing of such proceedings the court shall hear and determine the sufficiency of all proceedings.

Actions consolidated.

SEC. 59. If more than one action shall be pending at the same time concerning similar contests in this act provided for, they shall be consolidated and tried together.

Rules of pleading.

SEC. 60. The court hearing any of the contests herein provided for, in inquiring into the regularity, legality, or correctness of such proceedings, must disregard any error, irregularity or omission which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties to said action or proceeding. The rules of pleading and practice provided by the Code of Civil Procedure, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are applicable to all actions or proceedings herein provided for. The costs of any hearing or contest herein provided for may be allowed and apportioned between the parties or attached to the losing party, in the discretion of the court.

Contest.

SEC. 61. No contest of any matter or thing herein provided for shall be made other than within the time and manner herein specified.

Boundaries may be changed.

SEC. 62. The boundaries of any protection district now organized or hereafter organized under the provisions of this act, may be changed, and tracts of land which were included within the boundaries of such district at or after its organization under the provisions of this act, may be excluded therefrom, in the manner herein prescribed; but neither such change of the boundaries of the districts nor such exclusion of lands from the district shall impair or affect its organization, or its right in or to property, or any of its rights or privileges of whatever kind or nature; nor shall it affect, impair, or discharge any contract, obligation, lien, or charge for or upon which said district was or may become liable or chargeable, had said change of its boundaries not been made, or had not such land been excluded from the district.

Petition for exclusion from district.

SEC. 63. The owner or owners in fee of one or more tracts of land which constitute a portion of a protection district, may, jointly or severally, file with the board of directors of the district a petition, praying that such tract or tracts, and any other tracts contiguous thereto, may be excluded and taken from said district. The petition shall state the grounds and reasons upon which it is claimed that such lands should be excluded, and shall describe the boundaries thereof, and also the lands of such petitioner, or petitioners which are included within such boundaries; but the description of such lands need not be more particular or certain than is required when the lands are entered in the assessment book by the county assessor. Such petition must be acknowledged in the same manner and form as is required in the case of a conveyance of land, and the acknowledgment shall have the same force and effect as evidence as the acknowledgment of such a conveyance.

SEC. 64. The secretary of the board of directors shall cause a notice of the filing of such petition to be published for at least two weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in the district and published in the county where the office of the board of directors is situated, and if any portion of such territory to be excluded lie within another county or counties, then said notice shall be so published in a newspaper published within each of said counties; or, if no newspaper be published therein, then by posting such notice for the same time in at least three public places in said district, and in case of the posting of said notices, one of said notices must be so posted on the lands proposed to be excluded. The notice shall state the filing of such petition, the names of the petitioners, a description of the lands mentioned in said petition, and the prayer of said petition; and it shall notify all persons interested in, or who may be affected by such change of the boundaries of the district, to appear at the office of said board at a time named in said notice, and show cause, in writing, if any they have, why the change of the boundaries of said district, as proposed in said petition, should not be made. The time to be specified in the notice at which they shall be required to show cause shall be at the regular meeting of the board next after the expiration of the time for the publication of the notice.

petition.

What notice
shall state.

SEC. 65. The board of directors, at the time and place mentioned in the notice, or at the time or times to which the hearing of said petition may be adjourned, shall proceed to hear the petition, and all evidence of proofs that may or shall be introduced by or on behalf of the petitioner or petitioners, and all objections to such petition that may or shall be presented in writing by any person showing cause as aforesaid, and all evidence and proofs that may be introduced in support of such objections. Such evidence shall be taken down, in shorthand, and a record made thereof and filed with the board. The failure of any person interested in said district, other than the holders of bonds thereof outstanding at the time of the filing of said petition with said board, to show cause, in writing, why the tract or tracts of land mentioned in said petition should not be excluded from said district, shall be deemed and taken as an assent by him to the exclusion of such tract or tracts of land, or any part thereof, from said district; and the filing of such petition with said board, as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as an assent by each and all of such petitioners to the exclusion from such district of the lands mentioned in the petition, or any part thereof. The expenses of giving said notice and of the aforesaid proceedings shall be paid by the person or persons filing such petition.

petition.

Expenses
of hearing.

SEC. 66. If upon the hearing of any such petition, no evidence or proofs in support thereof be introduced, or, if the evidence fail to sustain said petition, or if the board deem it not for the best interests of the district, that the lands, or

Board may grant or deny petition to exclude.

some portion thereof, mentioned in the petition, should be excluded from the district, the board shall order that said petition be denied as to such lands; but if the said board deem it for the best interests of the district that the lands mentioned in the petition, or some portion thereof, be excluded from the district, and if no person interested in the district show cause in writing why the said lands, or some portion thereof, should not be excluded from the district, or if, having shown cause, withdraws the same, or upon the hearing fails to establish such objections as he may have made, then it shall be the duty of the board to, and it shall forthwith, make an order that the lands mentioned and described in the petition, or some defined portion thereof, be excluded from said district.

Holders of bonds may consent to exclusion.

SEC. 67. If there be outstanding bonds of the district at the time of the filing of said petition, the holders of such outstanding bonds may give their assent, in writing, to the effect that they severally consent that the lands mentioned in the petition, or such portion thereof as may be excluded from said district by order of said board, may be excluded from the district; and if said lands, or any portion thereof, be thereafter excluded from the district, the lands so excluded shall be released from the lien of such outstanding bonds. The assent must be acknowledged by the several holders of such bonds in the same manner and form as is required in case of a conveyance of land, and the acknowledgment shall have the same force and effect as evidence as the acknowledgment of such conveyance. The assent shall be filed with the board, and must be recorded in the minutes of the board; and said minutes, or a copy thereof, certified by the secretary of said board, shall be admissible in evidence, with the same effect as the said assent, and such certified copy thereof may be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county wherein said lands are situated.

Assent, how given.

Minutes of board to be recorded.

SEC. 68. In the event the said board of directors shall exclude any lands from said district upon petition therefor, it shall be the duty of the board of directors to make an entry in the minutes of the board, describing the boundaries of the district, should the exclusion of said lands from said district change the boundaries of said district, and for that purpose the board may cause a survey to be made of such portions of the district as the board may deem necessary; and a certified copy of the entry in the minutes of the board excluding any land, certified by the president and secretary of the board, shall be filed for record in the recorder's office of each county within which are situated any of the lands of the district; but said district, notwithstanding such exclusion, shall be and remain a protection district as fully to every intent and purpose as it would be had no change been made in the boundaries of the district, or had the lands excluded therefrom never constituted a portion of the district.

Office of director becomes vacant, when.

SEC. 69. If the lands excluded from any district under this act shall embrace the greater portion of any division or divisions of such district, then the office of director for such division or divisions shall become and be vacant at the expiration of ten days from the final order of the board excluding said lands; and such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by appointment by the remainder of the board from the district at large. A director appointed as above provided, shall hold his office until the next regular election for said district, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

SEC. 70. At least thirty days before the next general election of such district, the board of directors thereof shall make an order dividing said district into three or five divisions, as the case may require, as nearly equal in size as may be practicable, which shall be numbered first, second, third and so on, and one director shall be elected by each division. For the purposes of elections in such district, the said board of directors must establish a convenient number of election precincts, and define the boundaries thereof, which said precincts may be changed from time to time, as the board of directors may deem necessary.

Election of directors.

Election precincts.

SEC. 71. A guardian, an executor, or an administrator of an estate, who is appointed as such under the laws of this state, and who as such guardian, executor, or administrator, is entitled to the possession of the lands belonging to the estate which he represents, may on behalf of his ward, or the estate which he represents, upon being thereto properly authorized by the proper court, sign and acknowledge the petition in section 63 of this act mentioned, and may show cause, as herein provided, why the boundaries of the district should not be changed.

Guardians and executors may sign petitions.

SEC. 72. Nothing herein provided shall, in any manner, operate to release any of the lands so excluded from the district from any obligation to pay, or any lien thereon, of any valid outstanding bonds or other indebtedness of said district at the time of the filing of said petition for the exclusion of said lands, but upon the contrary, said lands shall be held subject to said lien, and answerable and chargeable for and with the payment and discharge of all of said outstanding obligations at the time of the filing of the petition for the exclusion of said land, as fully as though said petition for such exclusion were never filed and said order of exclusion never made; and for the purpose of discharging such outstanding indebtedness, said lands so excluded shall be deemed and considered as part of said protection district the same as though said petition for its exclusion had never been filed or said order of exclusion never made; and all provisions which may have been resorted to to compel the payment by said land of its quota or portion of said outstanding obligations, had said exclusion never been accomplished, may, notwithstanding said exclusion, be resorted to to compel and enforce the payment on the part of said land of its quota and portion of said outstanding obligations of said protection district for which it is liable, as herein provided. But said land so excluded shall not be held answerable or chargeable for any obligation of any nature or kind whatever, incurred after the filing with the board of directors of said district of the petition for the exclusion of said lands from the said district; provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any outstanding bonds, the holders of which have assented to the exclusion of such lands from said district, as hereinbefore provided.

Excluded lands not released from bonded debt, when.

Change of boundaries does not impair contracts.

SEC. 73. The boundaries of any protection district now organized or hereafter organized under the provisions of this act may be changed in the manner herein prescribed, but such change of the boundaries of the district shall not impair or affect its organization, or its rights in or to property, or any of its rights or privileges of whatsoever kind or nature; nor shall it affect, impair, or discharge any contract, obligation, lien or charge for or upon which it was or might become liable or chargeable, had such change of its boundaries not been made.

Petition to include other lands.

SEC. 74. The owners of one half or more of any body of lands adjacent to the boundary of a protection district, which are contiguous and which taken together, constitute one tract of land, may file with the board of directors of said district a petition, in writing, praying that the boundaries of said district may be so changed as to include therein said lands. The petition shall describe the boundaries of said parcel or tract of land, and shall also describe the boundaries of the several parcels owned by the petitioners, if the petitioners be the owners, respectively, of distinct parcels, but such descriptions need not be more particular than they are required to be when such lands are entered by the county assessor in the assessment book. Such petition must contain the assent of the petitioners to the inclusion within said district of the parcels or tracts of land described in the petition, and of which said petition alleges they are, respectively, the owners; and it must be acknowledged in the same manner that conveyances of land are required to be acknowledged.

Notice of filing of petition.

SEC. 75. The secretary of the board of directors shall cause a notice of the filing of such petition to be given and published in the same manner and for the same time that notices of special elections for the issue of bonds are required by this act to be published. The notice shall state the filing of such petition and the names of the petitioners, a description of the lands mentioned in said petition, and the prayer of said petition; and it shall notify all persons interested in, or that may be affected by such change of the boundaries of the district, to appear, at the office of said board, at a time named in said notice, and show cause in writing, if any they have, why the change in the boundaries of said district, as proposed in the said petition, should not be made. The time to be specified in the notice at which they shall be required to show cause shall be the regular meeting of the board next after the expiration of the time for the publication of the notice. The petitioners shall advance to the secretary sufficient money to pay the estimated costs of all proceedings arising from such petition.

SEC. 76. The board of directors, at the time and place mentioned in the said notice, or at such other time or times to which the hearing of said petition may be adjourned, shall proceed to hear the petition and all the objections thereto, presented in writing by any person showing cause as aforesaid why said proposed change of the boundaries of the district should not be made. The failure by any person interested in said district, or in the matter of the proposed change of its boundaries, to show cause, in writing, as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as an assent on his part to a change of the boundaries of the district as prayed for in said petition, or to such a change thereof as will include a part of said lands. And the filing of such petition with said board, as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as an assent on the part of each and all of such petitioners to such a change of the boundaries that they may include the whole or any portion of the lands described in said petition.

petition.

Failure to show cause.

SEC. 77. The board of directors to whom such petition is presented, may require, as a condition precedent to the granting of the same, that the petitioners shall severally pay to such district such respective sums, as nearly as the same can be estimated (the several amounts to be determined by the board), as such petitioners or their grantors would have been required to pay to such district as assessments, had such lands been included in such district at the time the same was originally formed.

Condition precedent to granting petition.

SEC. 78. The board of directors, if they deem it not for the best interests of the district that a change of its boundaries be so made as to include therein the lands mentioned in the petition, shall order that the petition be rejected. But if they deem it for the best interests of the district that the boundaries of said district be changed and if no person interested in said district or the proposed change of its boundaries shows cause, in writing, why the proposed change should not be made, or if, having shown cause, withdraws the same, the board may order that the boundaries of the district be so changed as to include therein the lands mentioned in said petition or some part thereof. The order shall describe the boundaries as changed, and shall also describe the entire boundaries of the district as they will be after the change thereof as aforesaid is made; and for that purpose the board may cause a survey to be made of such portions of such boundary as is deemed necessary.

Board may accept or
petition.

SEC. 79. If any person interested in said district of the proposed change of its boundaries, shall show cause as aforesaid why such boundaries should not be changed, and shall not withdraw the same, and if the board of directors deem it for the best interests of the district that the boundaries thereof be so changed as to include therein the lands mentioned in the petition, or some part thereof, the board shall adopt a resolution to that effect. The resolution shall describe the exterior boundaries of the lands which the board are of the opinion should be included within the boundaries of the district when changed.

Resolution of change.

Election. SEC. 80. Upon the adoption of the resolution mentioned in the last preceding section, the board shall order that an election be held within said district, to determine whether the boundaries of the district shall be changed as mentioned in said resolution; and shall fix the time at which such election shall be held, and cause notice thereof to be given and published. Such notice shall be given and published, and such election shall be held and conducted, the returns thereof shall be made and canvassed, and the result of the election ascertained and declared, and all things pertaining thereto conducted in the manner prescribed by this act in case of a special election to determine whether bonds of a protection district shall be issued. The ballots cast at said election shall contain the words "For change of boundary" or "Against change of boundary," or words equivalent thereto. The notice of election shall describe the proposed change of the boundaries in such manner and terms that it can readily be traced.

Ballots.

Result of election.

SEC. 81. If at such election a majority of all the votes cast at said election shall be against such change of the boundaries of the district, the board shall order that said petition be denied, and shall proceed no further in that matter. But if a majority of such votes be in favor of such change of the boundaries of the district, the board shall thereupon order that the boundaries be changed in accordance with said resolution adopted by the board. The said order shall describe the entire boundaries of said district, and for that purpose the board may cause a survey of such portions thereof to be made as the board may deem necessary.

Order of change to be recorded.

SEC. 82. Upon a change of the boundaries of a district being made, a copy of the order of the board of directors ordering such change, certified by the president and secretary of the board, shall be filed for record in the recorder's office of each county within which are situated any of the lands of the district, and thereupon the district shall be and remain a protection district, as fully, and to every intent and purpose, as if the lands which are included in the district by the change of the boundaries, as aforesaid, had been included therein at the original organization of the district.

Petition to be recorded in minutes.

SEC. 83. Upon the filing of the copies of the order, as in the last preceding section mentioned, the secretary shall record in the minutes of the board the petition aforesaid; and the said minutes, or a certified copy thereof, shall be admissible in evidence with the same effect as the petition.

Guardians and executors may sign.

SEC. 84. A guardian, an executor or an administrator of an estate, who is appointed as such under the laws of this state, and who, as such guardian, executor or administrator, is entitled to the possession of the lands belonging to the estate which he represents, may, on behalf of his ward, or the estate which he represents, upon being thereunto authorized by the proper court, sign and acknowledge the petition in section 74 of this act mentioned, and may show cause why the boundaries of the district should not be changed.

SEC. 85. In case of the inclusion of any land within any district by proceedings under this act, the board of directors must, at least thirty days prior to the next succeeding general election, make an order redividing such district, into three or five precincts, as the case may require, as nearly equal in size as may be practicable, which shall be numbered first, second, third and so on, and one director shall thereafter be elected by each precinct. Precinct redivision.

SEC. 86. Whenever the board of directors of a protection district heretofore organized, or hereafter organized under the provisions of this act, shall determine the authorized bonded indebtedness of such protection district is greater than such district is liable to need to complete its system as planned, and there be no outstanding bonds, the board of directors may call a special election for the purpose of voting upon a proposition to reduce such bonded indebtedness to such sum as the board may determine to be sufficient for such purpose. Reduction of bonded indebtedness.

SEC. 87. Notice of the said election shall be given in the same manner as provided in this act, in relation to calling special elections for issuance of bonds. The notice of election must state the amount of the authorized bonded indebtedness of such district, and the amount to which it is proposed to reduce the same; also, the date on which said election will be held, and the polling places, as established by said board of directors. The ballots cast at said election shall contain the words, "For reducing bonds—Yes," or "For reducing bonds—No." When the vote is canvassed by the board of directors and entered of record, if a majority of the votes cast shall be "For reducing bonds—Yes," then in that event the board of directors shall only be empowered to issue or sell the amount of bonds as was stipulated in the said notice of such special election; but if a majority of said votes are not "For reducing bonds—Yes," then the authority to issue bonds shall remain the same as before said special election was held. Notice of election therefor.

SEC. 88. In case there be outstanding bonds of any district desiring to take advantage of the provisions of sections 86 and 87 of this act concerning reduction of bonded indebtedness, the assent of such bondholders may be obtained to such reduction of the bonded indebtedness, in the same manner as provided in section 67 of this act. If such assent is obtained in the manner therein provided, then, and in that event, such district shall be empowered to take advantage of all the provisions of said sections of this act, but not otherwise. No reduction of the bonded indebtedness, as in this act provided, shall in any manner affect any order of court that may have been made, adjudicating and confirming the validity of said bonds. Ballots.

SEC. 89. Whenever there remains in the hands of the board of directors of any protection district organized under the provisions of this act, after the completion of its protection system, and the payment of all demands against such district, any bonds voted to be issued by said district, but not Assent to reduction of debt, manner of.

Unsold bonds.

- sold, and not necessary to be sold for the raising of funds, for the use of such district, said board of directors may call a special election for the purpose of voting upon a proposition to destroy said unsold bonds, or so many of them as may be deemed best, or may submit such proposition at a general election.
- Special election.
- Notice of. SEC. 90. Such election shall be held in the same manner as other elections held under the provisions of this act. A notice of such election shall be given in the same manner as provided in section 26 of this act in relation to calling special elections for the issuance of bonds. The notice of election, must state the amount of the bonded indebtedness of such district authorized by the vote of the district, the amount of the bonds remaining unsold, and the amount proposed to be destroyed, and the date on which such election is proposed to be held, and the polling places as fixed by the board of directors. The ballots to be cast at such election shall contain the words "For destroying bonds—Yes" and "For destroying bonds—No," and the voter must erase the word "No" in case he favors the destruction of bonds, otherwise the word "Yes."
- Ballots.
- Destruction of bonds. SEC. 91. When the vote is canvassed by the board of directors and entered of record, if a two-thirds majority of the votes cast should be found to be in favor of the destruction of said bonds, then the president of the board, in the presence of a majority of the members of the board, must destroy the bonds so voted to be destroyed, and the total amount of bonds so destroyed and canceled shall be deducted from the sum authorized to be issued by the electors of said district, and no part thereof shall thereafter be reprinted or reissued.
- Act not to repeal other acts. SEC. 92. This act is not intended to supersede or repeal any other act for the organization of reclamation or protection districts, or for protection purposes, but is intended as an independent and alternative means of effecting the protection herein provided for where the provisions of this act are most applicable or desirable to the parties interested.
- SEC. 93. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

SECTION 1. Whenever a member of a paid police department of any county, city and county, city or town shall have served ten years as a member of such police department, he shall be entitled to senior rights in assignment of duties, and shall be entitled to day work in preference to members of such department, who have served less than ten years.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 32.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act appropriating money for building an assembly hall at the Preston School of Industry," approved March 22, 1905.

[Approved February 23, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Said act is hereby amended by adding two new sections thereto, to read as follows:

Preston School of Industry.

Plans and estimates must receive sanction of trustees.

No other sanction required.

Auditing of bills.

Section 3. All plans, descriptions, bills of material, specifications and estimates requisite, necessary, proper or convenient for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall receive a sanction of a majority of the board of trustees of the Preston School of Industry, who shall cause an entry to be made in their minutes that such plans, descriptions, bills of material, specifications and estimates have been approved. And it shall not be necessary to obtain the approval or sanction of any other board, officer or person, and this act shall be exempt from the provisions of any other act or acts requiring the sanction or approval of any other person, officer or board not herein specially mentioned, and the directions herein shall be exempt from the provisions of the act, entitled "An act to regulate contracts on behalf of the state in relation to erections and buildings," approved March 23d, 1876. All bills for improvements, repairs and constructions shall first be audited by the board of trustees of the Preston School of Industry and be approved by the state board of examiners before being paid.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 33.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to define the boundary, provide for the care, strengthening and repairing of the levee, and for the payment of the indebtedness of Levee District Number One of Sutter county," approved March 20, 1874.

[Approved February 23, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1. Said Levee District Number One shall be bounded as follows: Commencing at the water side of the base of the levee as built by Levee District Number One, at a point where the section line between sections 22 and 27, township 13 north, range 3 east, M. D. M., produced easterly, intersects said water base of said levee; thence northerly along the line of the water base of said levee, following the meanders thereof, to the point of intersection with the water base of the levee as now being built by dredge for Levee District Number One, said point of intersection being at or near the point where the north line of section 10, township 14 north, range 3 east, M. D. M., produced; would cross said levee; thence northerly along the water base of dredge built levee and following the meanders thereof to the right bank of Feather river at a point known as Shanghai Bend; thence northerly along the right bank of the Feather river and following the meanders thereof to the south line of Bridge street in the town of Yuba City; thence northerly along the water base of the levee, following the meanders thereof, to the northern boundary line of section 10, township 15 north, range 3 east, M. D. M.; thence west to the northwest corner of said section 10; thence south to the northeast corner of section 21; thence west to the northeast corner of section 20; thence south to the southeast corner of said section 20; thence west to the northwest corner of section 30; thence south to the northeast corner of section 12, township 14 north, range 2 east, M. D. M.; thence west to the northwest corner of section 11; thence south to the southwest corner of section 26; thence east one fourth of a mile; thence south one mile; thence east three fourths of a mile to the southwest corner of section 36; thence north one fourth of a mile; thence east one half of a mile; thence north one fourth of a mile; thence east one fourth of a mile; thence south one half of a mile; thence west one half of a mile; thence south one half of a mile; thence west one half of a mile; thence south one half of a mile; thence west one fourth of a mile to the quarter section corner between sections 2 and 11, township 13 north, range 2 east, M. D. M.; thence south to the quarter section corner between sections 14 and 23, township 13 north, range 2 east, M. D. M.; aries.

thence east to the northeast corner of section 20, township 13 north, range 3 east, M. D. M.; thence south one mile; thence east two and one half miles; thence south one fourth of a mile; thence east to the water base of the levee of said Levee District Number One; thence northerly and following the water base of said levee, one fourth of a mile, more or less, to the point of beginning.

SEC. 2. Section five of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Elections,
when and how held.

Section 5. All elections hereafter held in said levee district for the election of directors and assessor shall be held at the same time and places within said levee district as the general state and county elections are held, and be conducted by the same election boards as shall hold and conduct such general elections, but separate ballot boxes and separate poll lists shall be provided and kept for such elections for district officers, and separate returns thereof shall be made to the board of supervisors, and shall be by them canvassed and disposed of as provided in section two of this act. No tax collector shall hereafter be elected for said district, but the county treasurer of Sutter county shall be ex-officio tax collector of said district, upon his taking the usual oath and entering into proper bonds to said district in such amount as the board of directors may require, and with sufficient sureties to be approved by said board, conditioned for the faithful performance of his official duties as such tax collector, and filing the same with the clerk of said board; provided that should such bond not be so filed on or before the first Monday in January next succeeding the election of said county treasurer, the office of tax collector shall be vacant. Should a vacancy occur in the office of tax collector of said district, it shall be filled by appointment by the board of directors, and such appointee shall take the oath and give bond as aforesaid, and thereafter hold such office during the pleasure of the board of directors, but not later than the first Monday in January following the next succeeding general election for county officers in Sutter county. Should a vacancy occur in the board of directors, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the remaining members of the board, and such appointee shall qualify and thereafter hold such office until the next succeeding general election for state or county officers, when his successor shall be elected for the remainder of the term. Should a vacancy occur in the office of assessor it shall be filled by appointment by the board of directors.

County
treasurer, ex-officio district tax collector.

Vacancies,
how filled.

SEC. 3. Section six of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

District
assessor, oath of office and bond.

Section 6. The district assessor shall, before taking office, and within thirty days after his election or appointment, take the usual oath of office, and enter into a proper bond to said district, in such amount as the board of directors may require, and with sufficient sureties, to be approved by said board, conditioned for the faithful performance of his official duties, and shall file the same with the clerk of said board. He shall hold such office until the first Monday in March following the next general election for state or county officers, at which his successor shall be elected.

SEC. 4. Section seven of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 7. It shall be the duty of the district assessor, between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in July of each year, to assess at its actual cash value all the real and personal property in said district to the persons owning or claiming the same at noon on the first Monday in March of that year, and to enroll the same in separate columns upon an assessment roll to be prepared by him; but no mistake in the name of the owner or supposed owner of such property shall render the assessment thereof invalid. When said assessment roll has been completed by the assessor he shall deliver the same to the board of directors. During the time the assessment roll remains in his hands, the assessor must collect all taxes on personal property when, in his opinion, said taxes are not a lien upon real property sufficient to secure the payment of the taxes; estimating such taxes according to the rate for the previous year. He may collect such taxes by seizure and sale of any personal property owned by the person against whom the tax is assessed. The sale must be at public auction, after one week's notice of the time and place thereof given by posting in three public places in said levee district, and shall be of a sufficient amount of the property to pay the taxes and costs. For seizing or selling personal property the assessor may charge, in each case, the sum of three dollars, and mileage at the rate of twenty-five cents per mile for traveling from his office to the place of such seizure. On payment of the price bid for any property sold, the delivery thereof, with a bill of sale, vests the title thereto in the purchaser. The unsold portion of any property may be left at the place of sale at the risk of the owner, and all excess over the taxes and costs of the proceeds of any such sale, shall be paid to the owner of such property on demand. All taxes collected by the assessor shall be forthwith marked "paid" on the assessment roll, with the date of such payment, and immediately paid into the county treasury to the credit of said levee district. When a lower rate is fixed for the year in which said collection is made, the board of directors may order a warrant drawn in favor of the person from whom such collection was made, for the excess so collected.

Duty of assessor.

Taxes on personal property; seizure and sale.

Assessor's fees.

Unsold portions.

SEC. 5. Section eight of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 8. The board of directors must meet on the first Monday in July of each year, to examine the assessment roll and equalize the assessment of property in said district. It must continue in session for that purpose, from time to time, until the business of equalization is disposed of, but not later than the third Monday in July. The board has power, after giving notice in such manner as it may by rule prescribe, to increase or lower the entire assessment roll or any assessment contained therein, so as to equalize the assessment of the property contained in said roll, and make the assessment conform to the true value of the property in money. During such session the board may correct any errors, omissions, or defects in form or description in the assessment roll, and may direct the assessor to assess any property that has escaped assessment. Upon the hearing of any question arising during the course of such equalization, the board may subpoena such witnesses, and hear and take such evidence in relation to the subject pending, as in its discretion it may deem proper. The clerk shall note all alterations made in valuations or assessments, and within five days after the session have the total values, as finally equalized by the board, extended into columns, and added up. In order to find the per cent of taxes necessary to be levied, the board shall find: First—The amount necessary to pay the interest and any part of the principal that may become due for the then current year on the funded debt of said district. Second—The probable amount that may be needed for repairs, etc. Third—The amount needed for salaries, fees and delinquencies. Fourth—The amount of floating debt that it may be desirable to pay during the then current year; and from these several amounts shall find the rate per cent necessary to produce the probable fund needed for the ensuing year. The board of directors shall meet on the third Monday in September and fix such rate, and shall cause to be computed and entered in a separate money column in the assessment roll the respective sums in dollars and cents, rejecting the fractions of a cent, to be paid as a tax on the property therein enumerated, and have such column footed up, showing the total amount of taxes; and thereafter said assessment roll shall be delivered by the board of directors to the tax collector of the district.

Per cent of taxes to be levied.

SEC. 6. Section nine of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Taxes constitute a lien.

Section 9. From and after the delivery of said assessment roll to the tax collector of the district (which must not be later than the second Monday in October following the assessment), the taxes levied against any tract of land within the district shall constitute a lien thereon, and every tax upon personal property shall constitute a lien upon the real property of the owner thereof, and such taxes shall be due and payable from the owner of such land immediately, and in any action brought to collect such tax, or to enforce such lien, the district assessment roll, or a copy of any assessment thereon, certified by the district tax collector, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein contained, that the assessment of said property, and the equalization thereof, and the levy of such taxes, were legally made, and that the officers making the same were duly authorized by law to make the same. If such taxes be not paid before noon of the first Monday in January next succeeding, the same shall then become delinquent, and the tax collector shall add thereto a penalty of ten per cent, which shall also become due and payable from the owner and a lien upon said land, and a cause of action shall then accrue for such taxes and penalty. At any time thereafter the board of directors may commence and maintain a civil action in the name of the district for the recovery of such delinquent taxes and penalty, with legal interest thereon and costs, and for the enforcement of the lien thereof on the land assessed in the superior court of the county of Sutter. For the information of the board the district tax collector shall, whenever required, furnish said board with a complete list of all delinquent taxes, and of the persons owing the same, and with a certified copy of any assessment contained in the assessment roll. In such action any person holding or claiming any interest in the land upon which such taxes were levied, or who is a proper or necessary party to a complete determination of any question involved in the action, may be joined as defendant. Notice of the pendency of such action may be filed in the office of the county recorder of Sutter county at any time after such action is commenced, containing the matters required by section four hundred and nine of the Code of Civil Procedure of California, and with like effect as in other actions affecting real property; and, except as herein otherwise provided, the rules governing civil procedure in other actions, as expressed in said code, shall prevail in such action. In such action the court may decree and adjudge a lien against the land for the amount of taxes levied against the same and against the personal property of the owner thereof, together with the delinquent penalty and all costs of suit, which costs shall include reasonable attorneys' fees, to be fixed by the court, and may order the land to be sold as in other cases, to satisfy such lien. All taxes, penalties and costs collected by virtue of this act shall be forthwith paid into the treasury of Sutter county.

Actions to recover.

Who may be joined as defendants.

Procedure.

SEC. 7. Section ten of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 10. Upon receipt of any money from the tax collector of the district, the county treasurer of Sutter county shall place the same to the credit of the Levee District Number One fund, from which he shall set apart a sum sufficient to pay the interest and such part of the principal as may become due during the current fiscal year on any bonded indebtedness of the district, and shall pay the same out in accordance with the law under which such bonds were issued; the remainder of such Levee District Number One fund shall be paid out only on warrants in accordance with sections thirteen and fourteen of an act entitled "An act to provide for the protection of certain lands in Sutter county from overflow," approved March 25, 1868; provided, that warrants presented and registered as not paid for want of funds shall bear only six per cent interest per annum from date of registration.

personal property taxes collected by him. The district tax collector shall be entitled to receive one per cent. on all moneys collected and paid into the county treasury by him for the use of the district; and the election officers shall receive for their services such sum as the board of directors shall deem just and reasonable.

SEC. 9. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 10. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 34.

An act making an appropriation to pay the claim of C. W. R. Koke for services performed at the Marshall monument, at Coloma, from October 20, 1905, to February 6, 1906, (the payment of which claim has been approved by the state board of examiners in accordance with the provisions of law).

[Approved February 23, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Claim of
C. W. R.
Koke, appropriation to pay.

SECTION 1. The sum of one hundred seventy-three and thirty one-hundredths dollars ($173.30) is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the claim of C. W. R. Koke for services performed at the Marshall monument, at Coloma, from October 20, 1905, to February 6, 1906 (the payment of which claim has been approved by the state board of examiners in accordance with the provisions of law).

SEC. 2. The state controller is hereby directed to draw his warrant for the said sum of one hundred seventy-three and thirty one-hundredths dollars ($173.30) in favor of said C. W. R. Koke, and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 35.

An act to provide for the issuance of duplicates of bonds, warrants and other municipal securities which have become defaced or mutilated.

[Approved February 23. 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the legislative body of any county, city and county, city, town, irrigation district, school district or other municipal corporation, by clear and unequivocal proof, that any bond, warrant, or other evidence of indebtedness of said county, city and county, city, town, irrigation district, school district, or other municipal corporation has, without bad faith upon the part of the owner, been so mutilated or defaced as to impair its value to the owner, and such instrument is capable of being identified by number and description, such legislative body shall, under such regulations and with such restrictions as to time and retention for security or otherwise, as it may prescribe, and upon the conditions hereinafter provided, issue or cause to be issued a duplicate thereof, having the same time to run, bearing like interest, and having the same number as the evidence of indebtedness so proved to have been mutilated or defaced.

Mutilated municipal bonds, duplicates may be issued.

SEC. 2. The owner of such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness desiring to have issued duplicates for the same, shall make a written application therefor to the legislative body of such municipal corporation, setting forth the facts provided by section 1, and shall accompany such request with a deposit of such sum of money as shall be deemed sufficient by such legislative body to cover the cost of printing or lithographing, or otherwise preparing such duplicate, and all other expenses connected with the issuance thereof, and if required by such legislative body, shall also file therewith a bond in such sum as may be required, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such legislative body, with condition to indemnify and save harmless such municipal corporation from any claim upon such mutilated or defaced security.

Procedure to procure duplicates.

SEC. 3. The legislative body of such municipal corporation shall thereupon pass a resolution, setting forth the fact of said application and the compliance with the conditions herein prescribed, and with such further conditions as shall have been required by said legislative body in accordance herewith, and directing the officer or officers who had charge, in the first instance, of causing to be printed, lithographed, or otherwise prepared the original bond, warrant, or other evidence of indebtedness, to cause to be issued a duplicate thereof, as herein provided. Such duplicate bond, warrant, or other evidence of indebtedness shall be signed by the same officers, and issued in all respects as nearly as possible as the original instrument, and when so prepared and issued shall be delivered in exchange for the original bond, warrant, or other evidence of indebtedness, provided, that no exchange shall be made unless such defaced or mutilated bond, together with any coupons thereon for which duplicates shall be issued in accordance with this act, shall be capable of identification, and shall first be surrendered by the owner thereof. When surrendered, the legislative body of such municipal corporation shall cause proper record to be made of the cancellation of such original security, and thereafter the duplicate issued in accordance with the provisions of this act, shall have all the force, effect and validity of the original evidence of indebtedness.

Duty of municipal legislature.

Cancellation of original security.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 36.

An act providing for the appointment of police judges in municipalities having a freeholders' charter, wherein provision is made for a police court judge but no provision is made for the appointment or election of such police judge.

[Approved February 23, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Authority to appoint police judge.

SECTION 1. That in all municipalities having a freeholders' charter, which provides for a police court to be presided over by a police judge but makes no provision for the election or appointment of a police judge, the board of trustees or council of such municipalities shall have authority to make an appointment to fill such office.

Term of office.

SEC. 2. The person so appointed must be an elector of the municipality and shall hold office during the existence of the board of trustees or council appointing him and until his successor in office shall have been appointed and qualified.

SEC. 3. All acts or portions of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 37.

An act to amend section eleven hundred and seventy-four of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to the verdict of the jury, and judgment of the court, in forcible entry, or forcible or unlawful detainer cases.

[Approved February 23, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eleven hundred and seventy-four of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1174. If, upon the trial, the verdict of the jury, or, if the case be tried without a jury, the finding of the court be in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant judgment shall be entered for the restitution of the premises; and if the proceedings be for an unlawful detainer after neglect, or failure to perform the conditions or covenants of the lease or agreement under which the property is held, or after default in the payment of rent, the judgment shall also declare the forfeiture of such lease or agreement. The jury or the court, if the proceeding be tried without a jury, shall also assess the damages occasioned to the plaintiff by any forcible entry, or by any forcible or unlawful detainer, alleged in the complaint and proved on the trial, and find the amount of any rent due, if the alleged unlawful detainer be after default in the payment of rent. Judgment against the defendant guilty of the forcible entry, or forcible or unlawful detainer may be entered in the discretion of the court either for the amount of the damages and rent found due, or for three times the amount so found. When the proceeding is for an unlawful detainer after default in the payment of rent, and the lease or agreement under which the rent is payable has not by its terms expired, execution upon the judgment shall not be issued until the expiration of five days after the entry of the judgment, within which time the tenant, or any subtenant, or any mortgagee of the term, or any other party interested in its continuance, may pay into court, for the landlord, the amount found due as rent, with interest thereon, and the amount of the damages found by the jury or the court for the unlawful detainer, and the costs of the proceedings, and thereupon the judgment shall be satisfied and the tenant be restored to his estate; but if payment as here provided be not made within the five days, the judgment may be enforced for its full amount, and for the possession of the premises. In all other cases the judgment may be enforced immediately.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after its passage.

CHAPTER 38.

An act to amend sections four, six, seven, and nine of an act entitled "An act to define the boundary and provide for the government of Levee District Number Six of Sutter county, California," approved March 31, 1891, relating to the terms of officers, vacancies, and the assessment and collection of taxes.

[Approved February 23, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Levee
District
No. 6.

SECTION 1. Section four of an act entitled "An act to define the boundary and provide for the government of Levee District Number Six of Sutter county, California," approved March thirty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Term of office.

Section 4. The term of office of directors is three years, except as provided in section three hereof, and of assessor and tax collector two years; but each of said officers elected shall hold office until his successor is elected or appointed, and has qualified. Should a vacancy occur in the board of directors, or in the office of assessor, or of tax collector, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the board of directors, or by the remaining members thereof, and the person so appointed shall hold such office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Vacancy.

SEC. 2. Section six of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Oath of office and
bond.

Section 6. Every officer elected or appointed hereunder shall, within thirty days after his election or appointment, take the usual oath of office, and file the same in the office of the county clerk, and said assessor and tax collector shall each, within the same period, enter into a proper bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, payable to said Levee District Number Six, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. Said bonds must be approved by the chairman of the board of directors, and filed with the clerk thereof.

SEC. 3. Section seven of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

District assessor's
duty of.

Section 7. It shall be the duty of the district assessor, between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in July of each year to assess at its actual cash value all real property in said district to the persons owning or claiming the same at noon on the first Monday in March of that year, and to enroll the same upon an assessment roll to be prepared by him; but no mistake in the name of the owner or supposed owner of such real property shall render the assessment thereof invalid. When said assessment roll has been completed by the assessor he shall deliver the same to the board of directors.

SEC. 4. Section nine of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 9. From and after the delivery of said assessment roll to the tax collector of the district (which must not be later than the second Monday in October following the assessment), the taxes levied against any tract of land within the district shall constitute a lien thereon, and shall be due and payable from the owner of such land immediately, and in any action brought to collect such tax or to enforce such lien, the district assessment roll, or a copy thereof, certified by the district tax collector, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein contained, that the assessment of said land, and the equalization thereof, and the levy of said taxes, were legally made, and that the officers making the same were duly authorized by law to make the same. If such taxes be not paid before noon of the first Monday in January next succeeding, the same shall then become delinquent, and the tax collector shall add thereto a penalty of ten per cent, which shall also become due and payable from the owner, and a lien upon said land, and a cause of action shall then accrue for such taxes and penalty. At any time thereafter the board of directors may commence and maintain a civil action in the name of the district for the recovery of such delinquent taxes and penalty, with legal interest thereon, and costs, and for the enforcement of the lien thereof on the land assessed, in the superior court of the county of Sutter. In such action, any person holding or claiming any interest in the land upon which such taxes were levied, or who is a proper or necessary party to a complete determination of any question involved in the action, may be joined as defendant. Notice of the pendency of such action may be filed in the office of the county recorder of Sutter county at any time after such action is commenced, containing the matters required by section four hundred and nine of the Code of Civil Procedure of California, and with like effect as in other actions affecting real property; and except as herein otherwise provided, the rules governing civil procedure in other actions as expressed in said code shall prevail in such action. In such action the court may decree and adjudge a lien against the land, for the amount of taxes levied against the same, together with the delinquent penalty and all costs of suit, and may order the land to be sold as in other cases, to satisfy such lien. All taxes, penalties and costs collected by virtue of this act shall be forthwith paid in to the treasury of Sutter county, and placed to the credit of Levee District Number Six, and shall thereafter be paid out only in the manner hereinafter provided.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 39.

An act to amend section eight hundred and twenty-seven of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to changing terms of lease.

[Approved February 26, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 827 of the Civil Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Change of terms of lease,
notice of.

827. In all leases of lands or tenements, or of any interest therein, from month to month, the landlord may, upon giving notice in writing at least thirty days before the expiration of the month, change the terms of the lease to take effect at the expiration of the month. The notice, when served upon the tenant, shall of itself operate and be effectual to create and establish, as a part of the lease, the terms, rent, and conditions specified in the notice, if the tenant shall continue to hold the premises after the expiration of the month.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force immediately after its passage.

CHAPTER 40.

An act to provide for the erection of buildings, the construction of improvements, the purchase of furniture, supplies, machinery and livestock, and for paying the operating expenses of the University farm at Davisville in Yolo county, and for the conduct of the experimental work and the operation of the school of agriculture and the educational work to be conducted thereon and in connection therewith and appropriating money for such purpose.

CHAPTER 47.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of optometry and for the appointment of a board of examiners in the matter of said regulation," approved March 20, 1903, by amending sections 1, 3, 5, 12, 14, 16, and 17 and by adding a new section thereto.

[Approved February 28, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of optometry, and for the appointment of a board of examiners in the matter of said regulation," approved March 20, 1903, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:—

Practice of optometry defined.

Section 1. The practice of optometry is defined as follows, namely: The employment of subjective or objective methods or means to determine the accommodative and refractive state of the eye and the scope of its functions in general.

SEC. 2. Section three of an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of optometry and for the appointment of a board of examiners in the matter of said regulation," approved March 20, 1903, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:—

examiners
optometry.

Section 3. There is hereby created a board, whose duty it shall be to carry out the purposes and enforce the provisions of this act, and shall be styled the California State Board of Examiners in Optometry. Said board shall be appointed by the governor as soon as practicable after the passage of this act, and shall consist of three persons actually engaged in the practice of optometry and residing in the State of California. Each member of said board shall hold office for a term of six years, one member of the board to retire every two years, but members shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. Appointments to fill vacancies caused by death, resignation or removal, shall be made for the residue of such term by the governor. The members of said board, before entering upon their duties, shall respectively take and subscribe to the oath required to be taken by other state officers, and filed with the clerk of the county in which said member resides and said board shall have a common seal.

SEC. 3. Section five of an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of optometry and for the appointment of a board of examiners in the matter of said regulation," approved March 20, 1903, is hereby amended to read as follows:—

tions.

Section 5. Every person before beginning to practice optometry in this state, after the passage of this act, shall pass an examination before said board of examiners. Such examination shall be confined to such knowledge as said board deems essential to the practice of optometry. Any person having signified to said board his desire to be examined by them, must fill out and swear to the application furnished by the board, and shall appear before them at such time and place as they may designate, and before beginning such examination, shall pay to the secretary of said board the sum of twenty dollars, and if he shall successfully pass such examination, shall pay to said secretary for the use of said board a further sum of five dollars, on the issuance to him of a certificate. All persons successfully passing such examinations shall be registered in the board register, which shall be kept by said secretary, as licensed to practice optometry, and shall receive a certificate of such registration to be signed by the president and secretary of said board, which shall be filed as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 4. Section twelve of an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of optometry and for the appointment of a board of examiners in the matter of said regulation," approved March 20, 1903, is amended to read as follows:—

Section 12. Every registered optometrist who desires to continue the practice of optometry in this state, shall annually, on or before the first day of August of each year, pay to the secretary of said board, a registration fee to be fixed by the board, but which shall in no case exceed the sum of five dollars per annum, for which he shall receive a renewal of said registration; and in case of default of such payment, by any person, his certificate shall be revoked by the board of examiners, under twenty days notice of the time and place of considering such revocation. But no certificate shall be revoked for such nonpayment if the person so notified shall pay before or at such time of consideration his fee and such penalty as may be imposed by said board, provided that said board may impose a penalty of $10.00 and no more, upon persons so notified, as a condition of allowing his certificate to stand valid; provided further, that said board may collect any such fines by suit.

Annual registration fee

SEC. 5. Section fourteen of an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of optometry and for the appointment of a board of examiners in the matter of said regulation," approved March 20, 1903, is hereby amended to read as follows:—

Section 14. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, or shall be confined not less than one month, nor more than three months in the county jail; or fined not less than fifty dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, and imprisoned not less than one month, nor more than three months in the county jail, and in default of payment of said fine, shall be imprisoned in the county jail at the rate of one day for every two dollars of the fine so imposed, and all fines thus received, shall be paid to the secretary of the board for the purposes of the enforcement of this act.

Violations of act.
Penalty.

SEC. 6. Section sixteen of an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of optometry and for the appointment of a board of examiners in the matter of said regulation," approved March 20, 1903, is hereby amended to read as follows:—

Section 16. Nothing in this act shall be construed to apply to physicians and surgeons authorized to practice under the laws of the State of California, nor to persons who sell spectacles or eye-glasses in the ordinary course of trade, who do not attempt to employ subjective or objective methods, or means, to determine the accommodative or refractive states of the eye.

Does not apply to physicians.

SEC. 7. Section seventeen of an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of optometry and for the appointment of a board of examiners in the matter of said regulation," approved March 20, 1903, is amended to read as follows:—

Section 17. It shall be unlawful for the board of examiners in optometry to grant a certificate to any one in the State of California under legal age.

CHAPTER 48.

An act to provide for the re-roofing of the older main buildings now in use at the Southern California State Hospital and replacing ceilings damaged by leaks in the west wing thereof, and to make appropriations for the same.

[Approved February 28, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Southern California
State Hospital.
Appropriation for
roofing.

SECTION 1. The sum of sixteen thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to be paid to the board of managers of the Southern California State Hospital, to be by them expended as follows: For replacing the present wood and tin roofs on the older main buildings in use at such hospital with modern slate roofing material, so as to effectually prevent leaking, and replace ceilings, damaged by leaks.

controller.

SEC. 2. The controller of the state is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrants in favor of said board of managers for the amount herein made payable, in such amounts and at such times as may be approved by the state board of examiners, and the treasurer is directed to pay the same.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 49.

An act to provide for the construction of stone and cement storm channels and ditches on the lands of the Southern California State Hospital, and along highways adjacent thereto, for the protection of the said lands and of the buildings thereon, and to make appropriation for the same.

[Approved February 28, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Southern California
State Hospital.
Appropriation for storm
channels.

SECTION 1. The sum of fifteen thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to be paid to the board of managers of the Southern California State Hospital to be by them expended as follows: For the construction of storm channels and ditches of stone and cement on the lands of the Southern California State Hospital at Patton, and along the highways adjacent thereto, for the purpose of collecting and diverting storm waters, which flow on, across and through said lands in times of storm, and to conduct the same around and away from said lands to other storm channels or natural water courses.

SEC. 2. The controller of the state is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrants in favor of said board of managers for the amount herein made payable, in such amounts and at such times as may be approved by the state board of examiners, and the treasurer is directed to pay the same. Duty of controller.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 50.

An act to authorize the deposit of state moneys in banks in this state, and to repeal all acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act.

[Approved February 28, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All moneys in the state treasury belonging to the state not immediately required to meet current expenditures may be deposited by the state treasurer to the credit of the state in such state or national bank, or banks, in the state, as the treasurer, with the approval of the governor and state controller, shall select for the safe-keeping of such deposits, and any sum so deposited shall be deemed to be in the state treasury; provided, that the bank or banks in which such money is deposited shall furnish security as hereinafter provided, and provided further, that such depository bank or banks be selected from those agreeing to pay the highest rate of interest, not less than two per cent per annum, for such deposits, as may be determined by bids to be submitted at such times and in such manner, as the treasurer, with the approval of the governor and state controller, shall direct; provided, that not more than one tenth of the aggregate amount of state moneys available for deposit and on deposit shall be deposited in any one bank, and provided further, that such deposit shall not exceed twenty-five per cent of the paid-up capital, exclusive of reserve and surplus, of any depository bank. Any and all bids may be rejected by the treasurer, with the approval of the governor and state controller, and new bids asked for. The expense of transportation of moneys to and from the state treasury to such depositories shall be borne by such depositories. Said deposits, with interest thereon, shall be subject to withdrawal at any time upon the demand of the state treasurer, or upon presentation of a certificate of deposit properly indorsed.

Interest, when payable.

SEC. 2. The interest to be paid by any such depository bank shall be on the average daily balances of the state moneys kept on deposit therewith, and shall be paid and credited to the state monthly on the first day of each and every month, and such interest shall accrue to the general fund of the state treasury; provided that if any moneys belonging to the state school fund or the state school land fund shall at any time be deposited under the provisions of this act, the interest received thereon shall be paid into the state school fund.

moneys.

Security of funds
deposited.

SEC. 3. For the security of the funds deposited by the state treasurer under the provisions of this act, there shall be deposited with the treasurer bonds of the United States, or of this state, or of any county, municipality or school district within this state, which bonds shall be approved by the governor, controller and treasurer, to an amount in value at least ten per cent in excess of the amount of the deposit with such bank or banks; and if in any case, or at any time, such bonds are not deemed satisfactory security to the governor, controller and treasurer, they may require such additional security as may be satisfactory to them. Said bonds or any part thereof may be withdrawn on the written consent of the governor, controller and treasurer; provided, that a sufficient amount of said bonds to secure said deposits shall always be kept in the treasury; and in the event that said bank or banks of deposit shall fail to pay such deposits or any part thereof on the demand of the state treasurer, or upon any presentation of a certificate of deposit properly indorsed, then it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to forthwith convert said bonds into money and to disburse the same according to law; provided, however, that he shall sell no bonds for less than their face value except at public sale after ten days' printed notice in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the sale is to take place.

Provisions
contract.

SEC. 4. The treasurer shall take from such depository or depositories a written contract, in duplicate setting forth the conditions and terms upon which the funds of the state are deposited therewith, one of which shall be filed with the controller. One provision of said contract shall be that each depository shall at the end of each month render to the treasurer a statement in duplicate showing the daily balances or amount of money of the state held by it during the month and the amount of the accrued interest thereon separately, one of which shall be filed by the treasurer with the controller. The treasurer shall annually on the first day of July furnish each depository bank with a statement showing the amount and description of the bonds on deposit with him by such bank to secure state deposits.

SEC. 5. The treasurer, with the approval of the governor and controller, shall, if in his judgment it shall appear necessary for the security of the state, require said banks of deposit to give an indemnity bond, the sureties on which shall not be interested as stockholders in said bank or banks, to be approved by the governor, controller and treasurer, to secure the state against loss by any depreciation in value that may occur in such bonds held by him as security for the safe-keeping and prompt payment of the state moneys in such depositories.

SEC. 6. The state treasurer shall not be responsible for any moneys deposited in a bank or in banks under the provisions of this act while the same remain there deposited with the consent of the governor and controller; but the treasurer shall be chargeable with the safe-keeping, management and disbursement of the bonds and certificates of deposit deposited with him as security for deposits of state moneys, and with the interest thereon, and the proceeds of any sale under the provisions of this act.

Treasurer
not responsible

CHAPTER 53.

An act to amend section 1532 of the Political Code relating to duties of the superintendent of public instruction.

[Approved March 1, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section fifteen hundred and thirty-two of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1532. It is the duty of the superintendent of public instruction: General duties.

First—To superintend the schools of this state.

Second—To report to the governor, on or before the fifteenth day of September preceding each regular session of the legislature, a statement of the condition of the state normal schools and other educational institutions supported by the state and of the public schools. Biennial report.

Third—To accompany his report with tabular statements, showing the number of school children in the state; the number attending public schools, and the average attendance; the number attending private schools, and the number not attending schools; the amount of state school fund apportioned, and the sources from which derived; the amount raised by county, city and county and district taxes, or from other sources of revenue, for school purposes; and the amount expended for salaries of teachers, for building school houses, for district school libraries, and for incidental expenses. School statistics.

Fourth—To apportion the state school fund; and to furnish an abstract of such apportionment to the state controller, the state board of examiners, and to the county and city and county auditors, county and city and county treasurers and to the county and city and county school superintendents of the several counties of the state. In apportioning said fund he shall apportion to every county and to every city and county two hundred fifty dollars for every teacher determined and assigned to it on school census by the county or city and county school superintendent for the next preceding school year, as required of the county or city and county school superintendent by the provisions of section 1858 of this code, and after thus apportioning two hundred fifty dollars on teacher or census basis, he shall apportion the balance of the state school fund to the several counties or cities and counties according to their average daily attendance as shown by the reports of the county or city and county school superintendents for the next preceding school year. Apportion school fund.

Fifth—To draw his order on the controller in favor of each county or city and county treasurer for school moneys apportioned to the county or city and county. Orders on controller.

Furnish blanks and books.

Sixth—To prepare, have printed, and furnish all officers charged with the administration of the laws relating to the public schools, and to teachers, such blank forms and books as may be necessary to the discharge of their duties, including blank teachers' certificates to be used by county and city and county boards of education.

laws.

Seventh—To have the laws relating to the public schools printed in pamphlet form, and to supply school officers and school libraries with one copy each.

Visit orphanages.

Eighth—To visit the several orphan asylums to which state appropriations are made, and examine into the course of instruction therein.

Visit schools.

Ninth—To visit the schools in the different counties, and inquire into their condition; and the actual traveling expenses thus incurred provided, that they do not exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum shall be allowed, audited, and paid out of the general fund in the same manner as other claims are audited and paid.

Seal.

Tenth—To authenticate with his official seal all drafts or orders drawn by him, and all papers and writings issued from his office.

Bind reports.

Eleventh—To have bound, at the state bindery, all valuable school reports, journals, and documents in his office, or hereafter received by him.

Report to controller.

Twelfth—To report to the controller, on or before the tenth day of August of each year, the total number of children in the state between the ages of five and seventeen years, as shown by the latest reports of the county and city and county superintendents on file in his office.

Succession.

Thirteenth—To deliver over, at the expiration of his term of office, on demand, to his successor, all property, books, documents, maps, records, reports, and other papers belonging to his office, or which may have been received by him for the use of his office.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 54.

An act to amend section three thousand four hundred and seventy-one of the Political Code, relating to procuring rights of way and material for works of reclamation of reclamation districts, and condemnation of property therefor.

[Approved March 1, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3471 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3471. The trustees of any reclamation district in which the by-laws have been filed, may acquire rights of way for canals, drains, embankments, and other works necessary to the reclamation of the lands in the district, and may take materials for the construction, maintenance and repair thereof; such rights of way and materials may be acquired outside of as well as within the limits of the district by purchase or donation, or the trustees may proceed under the provisions of Title VII, Part III, of the Code of Civil Procedure, for the condemnation thereof in the name of the district.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force immediately.

CHAPTER 55.

An act to amend section three hundred and seventy-four of the Penal Code of the State of California relating to putting dead animals in streets, rivers, etc.

[Approved March 1, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred and seventy-four of the Penal Code of the State of California, is hereby amended to read as follows:

374. Every person who puts the carcass of any dead animal, or the offal from any slaughter pen, corral, or butcher shop into any river, creek, pond, reservoir, stream, street, alley, public highway, or road in common use, or who attempts to destroy the same by fire within one fourth of a mile of any city, town, or village, except it be in a crematory, the construction and operation of which is satisfactory to the board of health of such city, town, or village; and every person who puts any water-closet or privy, or the carcass of any dead animal, or any offal of any kind, in or upon the borders of any stream, pond, lake, or reservoir from which water is drawn for the supply of any portion of the inhabitants of this state, so that the drainage of such water-closet, privy, carcass or offal may be taken up by or in such stream, pond, lake, or reservoir; or who allows any water-closet or privy, or carcass of any dead animal, or any offal of any kind, to remain in or upon the borders of any such stream, pond, lake, or reservoir within the boundaries of any land owned or occupied by him, so that the drainage from any such water-closet, privy, carcass, or offal, may be taken up by or in such stream, pond, lake, or reservoir; or who keeps any horses, mules, cattle, swine, sheep, or live stock of any kind, penned, corralled, or housed on, over, or on the borders of any such stream, pond, lake, or reservoir, so that the waters thereof become polluted by reason thereof; or who bathes in any such stream, pond, lake, or reservoir; or who by any other means fouls or pollutes the waters of any such stream, pond, lake, or reservoir, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as prescribed in section three hundred and seventy-seven.

Penalty.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect from its passage.

CHAPTER 56.

An act to amend section 2984 of the Political Code of the State of California, for the enforcement of the rules, orders and regulations of the state board of health, within municipalities and incorporated towns, and prescribing the duties of boards of health and health officers of such municipalities and towns in relation to the state board of health.

[Approved March 1, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand nine hundred and eighty-four of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

2984. It shall be the duty of the board of health of each municipality and incorporated town within this state, and of every chief executive health officer thereof, where there is no municipal or town board of health, to enforce within such municipality and incorporated town all orders, rules and regulations concerning health and quarantine, and the registration, certification, and reporting of births, marriages and deaths as prescribed or directed by the state board of health; and it shall be the duty of such board of health, or chief executive health officer to report in writing to the state board of health

CHAPTER 57.

An act to amend section one thousand, five hundred and forty-three of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the general duties of school superintendents so as to provide for transferring the funds of lapsed school districts to the districts into which they are merged.

[Approved March 1, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand, five hundred and forty-three of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

1543. It is the duty of the county superintendent of each county:

First—To superintend the schools of his county.

Second—1. To apportion the school moneys to each school district, as provided in section one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight of this code, at least four times a year. For this purpose he may require of the county auditor a report of the amount of all school moneys on hand to the credit of the several school funds of the county not already apportioned; and it is hereby made the duty of the auditor to furnish such report when so required; and whenever an excess of money has accumulated to the credit of a school district by reason of a large census roll and a small attendance, beyond a reasonable amount necessary to maintain a school for eight months in such district for the year, the superintendent of schools shall place said excess of money to the credit of the unapportioned school funds of the county, and shall apportion the same as other school funds are apportioned.

Suspend
district.

2. If in any school district there has been an average daily attendance of only five, or a number of pupils less than five, during the whole school year, the superintendent shall at once suspend the district, and report the fact to the board of supervisors at their next meeting. The board of supervisors, upon receiving such report from the superintendent, shall declare the district lapsed, and shall attach the territory thereof to one or more of the adjoining school districts in such manner as may be by them deemed most convenient for the residents of said lapsed district.

Lapsed districts, sale of property.

3. When any district has been declared lapsed, the board of supervisors shall sell or otherwise dispose of the property thereto belonging, and shall place the proceeds of such sale to the credit of the district. Thereupon the superintendent shall determine all outstanding indebtedness of said lapsed district, and shall draw his requisition upon the county auditor in payment thereof. Any balance of moneys remaining to the credit of said lapsed district after all indebtedness has been paid shall be transferred by the superintendent to the credit of the district into which the said lapsed district has been merged. If the lapsed district has been attached to more than one of the adjoining districts, the superintendent must apportion the moneys remaining to the credit of the lapsed district to the several districts pro rata according to the number of school census children of the respective districts as shown by the last preceding school census. Should there not be sufficient funds to the credit of the lapsed district to liquidate all of the outstanding indebtedness thereof, the superintendent shall draw his requisition upon the county auditor pro rata for the several claims.

Requisitions for expenses.

Third—On the order of the board of school trustees, or board of education of any city or town having a board of education, to draw his requisition upon the county auditor for all necessary expenses against the school fund of any district. The requisitions must be drawn in the order in which the orders therefor are filed in his office. Each requisition must specify the purpose for which it is drawn, but no requisition shall be drawn unless the money is in the fund to pay it, and no requisition shall be drawn upon the order of the board of school trustees or board of education against the funds of any district except the teachers' or janitors' salaries, unless such order is accompanied by an itemized bill showing the separate items, and the price of each, in payment for which the order is drawn; nor shall any requisition for teachers' or janitors' salaries be drawn unless the order shall state the monthly salary of teacher or janitor, and name the months for which such salary is due. Upon the receipt of such requisition the auditor shall draw his warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of the parties for the amount stated in such requisition.

The order of the board of school trustees, or board of education, shall be made only on the form of blank approved by the superintendent of public instruction, provided, that said blanks shall be printed and furnished to the school districts by the board of supervisors of the respective counties of the state, and when signed by at least two members of the board of trustees, or the officials authorized to sign orders for the board of education shall be transmitted to the superintendent, who shall, in case he approve said demand, endorse upon it, "Examined and approved," together with the number and date when approved, and shall, in attestation thereof, affix his signature thereto, and deliver the same to the claimant, or his order, who shall transmit the same to the auditor, who shall, in case he allows said demand, endorse upon it, "Allowed," together with the number and date when allowed, and shall, in attestation thereof, affix his signature thereto, and deliver the same to the claimant; and said demand, when so approved, and signed by the superintendent, and when so allowed and signed by the auditor, shall constitute the requisition on the auditor, and the warrant on the treasury within the meaning of this act.

Form of demands.

Approval.

Fourth—To keep open to the inspection of the public a register of requisitions, showing the fund upon which the requisitions have been drawn, the number thereof, in whose favor, and for what purpose they were drawn, and also a receipt from the person to whom the requisition was delivered.

Register of requisitions.

Fifth—To visit and examine each school in his county at least once in each year. For every school not so visited the board of supervisors must, on proof thereof, deduct ten dollars from his salary.

Visit schools.

Sixth—To preside over teachers' institutes held in his county, and to secure the attendance thereat of lecturers competent to instruct in the art of teaching, and to report to the county board of education the names of all teachers in the county who fail to attend regularly the sessions of the institute; to enforce the course of study, the use of text-books, and the rules and regulations for the examination of teachers prescribed by the proper authority.

Preside over institutes.

Seventh—He shall have power to issue, if he deem it proper to do so, temporary certificates, valid for six months, to persons holding certificates which in his judgment correspond in grade to certificates which may be issued under the provision of section 1775 of the Political Code, or to graduates of those schools of the State of California which in his judgment are the equivalent in scholarship required for graduation from the normal schools of California; provided, that no person shall be entitled to receive such temporary certificate more than once in the same county.

Issue temporary certificates.

- Distribute laws. Eighth—To distribute all laws, reports, circulars, instructions, and blanks which he may receive for the use of school officers.
- Keep reports. Ninth—To keep in his office the reports of the superintendent of public instruction.
- Record of official acts. Tenth—To keep a record of his official acts, and of all the proceedings of the county board of education, including a record of the standing, in each study, of all applicants examined, which shall be open to the inspection of any applicant or his authorized agent.
- Plans for school houses. Eleventh—Except in incorporated cities having boards of education, to pass upon and approve or reject all plans for school houses. To enable him to do so, all boards of trustees, before adopting any plans for school buildings, must submit the same to the county superintendent for his approval.
- Appoint trustees and janitors. Twelfth—To appoint trustees to fill all vacancies, to hold until the first day of July succeeding such appointment; when new districts are organized, to appoint trustees for the same, who shall hold office until the first day of July next succeeding their appointment. In case of the failure of the trustees to employ a janitor, as provided in section sixteen hundred and seventeen, subdivision seventh, of this code, he shall appoint a janitor, who shall be paid out of the school fund of the district. Should the board of school trustees of any district fail or refuse to issue an order for the compensation for such service, the superintendent is hereby authorized to issue, without such order, his requisition upon the county school fund apportioned to such district.
- Reports. Thirteenth—To make reports, when directed by the superintendent of public instruction, showing such matters relating to the public schools in his county as may be required of him.
- Delivery to successor. Fourteenth—To preserve carefully all reports of school officers and teachers, and, at the close of his official term, deliver to his successor all records, books, documents, and papers belonging to the office, taking a receipt for the same, which will be filed in the office of the county clerk.
- Grade schools. Fifteenth—The county superintendent shall, unless otherwise provided by law, in the month of July of each year grade each school, and a record thereof shall be made in a book to be kept by the county superintendent in his office for this purpose. And no teacher holding a certificate below the grade of said school shall be employed to teach the same.

CHAPTER 58.

An act to provide for the acceptance and investment of gifts and bequests to the Industrial Home of Mechanical Trades for the Adult Blind of California.

[Approved March 1, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of directors of the Industrial Home of Mechanical Trades for the Adult Blind of California, is authorized and empowered to receive gifts and bequests for the benefit of the home and its inmates. Gifts and bequests.

SEC. 2. When such gifts are received and bequests made, the board of directors must inform the state board of examiners and must immediately deposit the funds given or bequeathed, with the state treasurer to be by that officer invested in interest bearing securities, and set aside in a fund to be known as the donation fund of the Blind Home. Donated funds to be invested.

SEC. 3. When said fund has accumulated to an amount sufficient to erect a building or construct other permanent improvement and addition to the facilities of the institution, as decided by the board of directors, it shall be from time to time expended for such purpose under the supervision of the state board of examiners and the board of directors of the home, and none of said fund shall be diverted or used for any other purpose. How expended.

SEC. 4. If such gift or bequest be of real property, then the same shall remain in charge of the directors of the institution and its income, if any, or its proceeds when sold by the directors, shall be deposited as provided in section 2 of this act. If such gift or bequest be in personal property other than cash or securities, then the same shall be devoted to the purposes of the institution by the directors. Gifts of realty.

SEC. 5. Provided that if any gift or bequest be made to the Blind Home for a specific purpose in harmony with the interest and purpose of the institution, the board of directors shall have the power to accept it and devote it to such specific purpose. Specific purpose gifts.

SEC. 6. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 59.

An act appropriating the sum of seven thousand dollars, for the purchase of furniture and equipment for the State Normal School at Chico, and for the construction of cement floors and sidewalks for said school.

[Approved March 1, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Furniture
for Chico State Normal School.

SECTION 1. The sum of seven thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to be paid out by the trustees of the Chico State Normal School, in the purchase of furniture and equipment, and for the construction of cement floors and sidewalks for the use of said school.

SEC. 2. The state controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant or warrants for the said amount in favor of the trustees of said Chico State Normal School, upon the requisition of said board, and the state treasurer is hereby ordered and directed to pay such warrant or warrants.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 60.

An act to amend section 70 of the Civil Code; and declaring that marriage may be solemnized by a justice of a district court of appeal.

[Approved March 1, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

CHAPTER 63.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to establish a Civil Code" approved March 21st, 1872, by amending section one hundred thirty-seven of said Civil Code relative to expense of actions, alimony, and actions for maintenance and support.

[Approved March 1, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one hundred and thirty-seven of the Civil Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Alimony pending suit for divorce.

137. When an action for divorce is pending, the court may, in its discretion, require the husband to pay as alimony any money necessary to enable the wife to support herself and her children, or to prosecute or defend the action. When the husband willfully deserts the wife or when the husband willfully fails to provide for the wife or when the wife has any cause of action for divorce as provided in section ninety-two of this code, she may, without applying for a divorce, maintain in the superior court an action against him for permanent support and maintenance of herself or of herself and children. During the pendency of such action the court may, in its discretion, require the husband to pay as alimony any money necessary for the prosecution of the action and for support and maintenance, and execution may issue therefor in the discretion of the court. The final judgment in such action may be enforced by the court by such order or orders as in its discretion it may from time to time deem necessary, and such order or orders may be varied, altered, or revoked at the discretion of the court.

Permanent support.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage and approval.

CHAPTER 64.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the formation, government, operation and dissolution of sanitary districts in any part of the state for the construction of sewers and other sanitary purposes; the acquisition of property thereby; the calling and conducting of elections in such districts; the assessment, levy, collection, custody and disbursement of taxes therein; the issuance and disposal of the bonds thereof, and the determination of their validity, and making provision for the payment of such bonds, and the disposal of their proceeds," approved March 31, 1891, by adding thereto a new section to be numbered and known as section 22½, relating to the annexation of outlying territory to sanitary districts, and the conditions of such annexation.

[Approved March 1, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act to provide for the formation, government, operation and dissolution of sanitary districts in any part of the state for the construction of sewers and other sanitary purposes; the acquisition of property thereby; the calling and conducting of elections in such districts; the assessment, levy, collection, custody and disbursement of taxes therein; the issuance and disposal of the bonds thereof and the determination of their validity, and making provision for the payment of such bonds and the disposal of their proceeds," approved March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered and known as section twenty-two and one-half, and to read as follows:

Sanitary districts.

Section 22½. The boundaries of any sanitary district may be altered, and outlying contiguous territory in the same county as such sanitary district annexed thereto, in the manner following. A petition signed by the owner or owners of such contiguous territory proposed to be annexed, designating specifically the boundaries of the same and the assessed valuation thereof as shown by the last equalized assessment book of the county, and stating that such territory is not within the limits of any incorporated city, town or other sanitary district, and asking that such territory be annexed to said sanitary district, shall be presented to the sanitary board thereof.

Alteration of boundaries, manner of.

Said petition shall contain a statement of the probable cost of the necessary sanitary work to be done in such territory and of the terms and conditions under which the signers thereof are willing that such annexation be accomplished. Said petition shall be verified by the oath of each of the signers thereof.

What petition shall contain.

Consideration by sanitary board.

At their first regular meeting after the presentation of said petition, said sanitary board shall take up and consider the same. If said petition is disapproved, such disapproval shall be entered upon the minutes of the board and no further proceedings shall be taken in regard to such annexation until a new petition is filed.

If said petition and the terms of annexation expressed therein be approved by said board, such approval shall be entered upon the minutes of said board and endorsed upon said petition, and said petition shall thereupon be transmitted to and filed with the board of supervisors of the county in which said sanitary district is situated.

Annexation of new territory.

Said board at its next regular meeting after the filing of said petition, shall by order, alter the boundaries of said sanitary district, and cause the contiguous territory described in said petition to be annexed thereto.

Such order shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all prior proceedings leading to such annexation and recited in said order, and from and after the same such territory shall become and be a part of such sanitary district, and the sanitary board thereof shall have the power to order and contract for the construction of sewers in any or all of the streets and roads of said annexed territory as provided in section twenty-two of this act and in the manner set forth therein.

Agreement to assume existing indebtedness.

No property within such territory so annexed shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness of such sanitary district existing prior to such annexation, except upon express agreement in writing executed by the owner or owners of said property, by which, in consideration of such annexation and the use of the sewers of said sanitary district, said property is subjected to such tax. Said agreement shall be acknowledged, so as to entitle the same to be recorded, and shall be delivered to said sanitary board at the time of the presentation of the petition above mentioned, and said sanitary board is hereby empowered to receive said petition and to record the same in the office of the county recorder of the county in which such sanitary district is situated.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 65.

An act to amend section one of an act entitled, "An act to establish law libraries," approved March 1, 1891, and relating to the creation of a "law library fund."

[Approved March 1, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of an act entitled "An act to establish law libraries," approved March first, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. On the commencement in, or removal to, the superior court of any county in this state of any civil action, proceeding, or appeal, on the filing of the first papers therein, the party instituting such proceeding, or filing the said first papers, and thereafter, any defendant or respondent or adverse party, or intervening party, on his first appearance therein, (or any number of such defendants or respondents or adverse parties appearing jointly therein), and also the party on whose request any default case is placed on the court calendar for hearing or trial, shall pay to the clerk of said court, in addition to fees fixed by law, the sum of one dollar as costs, for a fund which shall be designated as the "Law Library Fund," to be expended in the purchase of law books and periodicals, and in the establishment and maintenance of a law library at the county seat of said county, which law library shall be governed and controlled, and said fund be expended by the board of trustees hereinafter provided.

CHAPTER 66.

An act to amend section 3051 and section 3052 of the Civil Code of California, relating to the lien on personal property for services performed thereon, and providing a method of enforcing said lien for the amount secured thereby.

[Approved March 1, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3051 of the Civil Code of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

3051. Every person who, while lawfully in possession of an article of personal property, renders any service to the owner thereof, by labor or skill, employed for the protection, improvement, safekeeping, or carriage thereof, has a special lien thereon, dependent on possession, for the compensation, if any, which is due to him from the owner for such service; a person who makes, alters, or repairs any article of personal property, at the request of the owner, or legal possessor of the property, has a lien on the same for his reasonable charges for work done and materials furnished, and may retain possession of the same until the charges are paid; and livery or boarding or feed stable proprietors, and persons pasturing horses or stock, have a lien, dependent on possession, for their compensation in caring for, boarding, feeding, or pasturing such horses or stock; and laundry proprietors and persons conducting a laundry business have a general lien, dependent on possession, upon all personal property in their hands belonging to a customer, for the balance due them from such customer for laundry work; and veterinary hospital proprietors and veterinary surgeons shall have a lien, dependent on possession, for their compensation in caring for, boarding, feeding and medical treatment of animals.

Special lien on personal property.

SEC. 2. Section 3052 of the Civil Code of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Lienholder may sell property.

3052. If the person entitled to the lien provided for in section three thousand and fifty-one of this code be not paid the amount due and for which said lien is given, within twenty days after the same shall have become due, then such lienholder may proceed to sell said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said lien and costs of sale, at public auction, and by giving, at least ten days previous notice of such sale by advertising in some newspaper published in the county in which such property is situated; or, if there be no newspaper published in such county, then by posting notices of the sale in three of the most public places in the town or place where such property is to be sold, for ten days previous to the date of sale. The proceeds of the sale must be applied to the discharge of the lien and the cost of keeping and selling the property; the remainder, if any, must be paid over to the owner thereof.

Notice of sale.

Proceeds.

of schools, or the board of trustees, make and file such complaint, and see that such charge is prosecuted by the proper authorities.

SEC. 2. Section 4 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Attendance officer.

Compensa-
tion.

Section 4. The board of education of any city, or city and county, may appoint and remove at pleasure one or more attendance officers of such city, or city and county, or the board of trustees of any school district having at least six hundred census children, may appoint and remove at pleasure one attendance officer, and shall fix his or their compensation, not exceeding one thousand dollars per annum for any such officer, payable from the county or special school fund of such city, city and county, or school district, and shall prescribe their duties, not inconsistent with law, and make rules and regulations for the performance thereof; provided, that in any city, or city and county, containing less than twenty thousand school census children, not more than one attendance officer shall be appointed, and in any city, or city and county, containing more than twenty thousand school census children, not more than one attendance officer shall be appointed for each twenty thousand school census children, or fraction greater than one half thereof.

SEC. 3. Section 5 of said act is amended to read as follows:

Duty of attendance officer.

Section 5. It shall be the duty of the attendance officer, or of any peace officer or any school officer, to arrest during school hours, without warrant, any child between eight and fourteen years of age, found away from his home, and who has been reported to him by the teacher, the superintendent of schools, or other person connected with the school department or schools as a truant from instruction upon which he is lawfully required to attend within the county, city, or city and county, or school district. Such arresting officer shall forthwith deliver the child so arrested either to the parent, guardian or other person having control or charge of such child, or to the teacher from whom said child is then a truant, or if such child shall have been declared an habitual truant, he shall bring such child before a magistrate for commitment by him to a parental school, as provided in this act. The attendance officer or other arresting officer shall report promptly such arrest, and the disposition made by him of such child to the school authorities of such city, or city and county, or school district. Any child may be reported as a truant, in the meaning of this act, who shall have been absent from school without valid excuse more than three days or tardy on more than three days, any absence for a part of a day being regarded as a tardiness. Any child who has once been reported as a truant and who is again absent from school, without valid excuse, one or more days, or tardy on one or more days, may again be reported as a truant. Any child may be deemed an habitual truant who shall have been reported as a truant three or more times. Any child who has once been declared an habitual truant and who, in a succeeding year, is reported as a truant from school one or more days or tardy on one or more days without valid excuse, may be again declared an habitual truant.

SEC. 4. Section 6 of said act is amended to read as follows:

Section 6. The board of education of any city, or of any city and county, or the board of trustees of any school district having at least six hundred census children, may establish schools in a manner hereinafter prescribed, or set apart in public school buildings for children between eight and fourteen years of age, who are habitual truants from instruction upon which they are lawfully required to attend, or who are insubordinate or disorderly during their attendance upon such instruction, or irregular in such attendance. Such school or room shall be known as a parental school. A parental school, as herein designated and provided for, shall be one of the primary or grammar schools of the city, or city and county, or school district, and the teachers therein shall have the same qualifications and be employed and paid in the same manner as in other primary and grammar schools; but such parental school shall be established and maintained specially for the instruction therein of such pupils, between the ages of eight and fourteen years, as shall be committed thereto as provided in this act, and no pupil shall be committed to, or required to attend, such school, except as in this act provided. Said board of education or board of trustees may make such special rules and regulations for the government of a parental school as shall be consistent with the provisions and purposes of this act, and not contrary to law. Such board may provide for the detention, maintenance and instruction of such children in such schools; and the county superintendent of schools, or such board, or the city superintendent of schools in any city, or city and county, or board of trustees, may, after reasonable notice to any such child, and an opportunity for the child to be heard, and with the consent of the parent, guardian or other person having control or charge of such child, order such child to attend such school, or to be detained and maintained therein for such period and under such rules and regulations as such board may prescribe, not exceeding the remainder of the school year. If such parent, guardian, or person having control or charge of such child shall not consent to such order, such child may be proceeded against under this act. If any child in any city, or city and county or school district in which a parental school shall be established, shall be an habitual truant, or be irregular in attendance at school, within the meaning of these terms, as defined in this act, or shall be insubordinate or disorderly during attendance at school, it shall be the duty of the attendance officer, or of the secretary of the board of education or clerk of the board of trustees if there be no attendance officer, to make and file a complaint against such child, in the proper court, charging the fact, and to see that such charge is prosecuted by the proper authority; and if the court, upon the hearing of such complaint, shall find that such charge is sustained, the court shall render judgment that such child be committed to, and be detained and maintained in, a parental school in such city, or city and county or school district for a term not to exceed the remainder of the current school year; provided that, if any child in any district of a county where there is not a parental school shall be an habitual truant, or be irregular in attendance at school, within the meaning of those terms as defined in this act, or shall be insubordinate or disorderly during attendance at school, it shall be the duty of the county superintendent of schools to make and file a complaint against such child, in the superior court of such county, charging the facts; and if the court, upon the hearing of said complaint, shall find that such charge is sustained by the evidence, the court shall render judgment that such child shall be detained and maintained in a parental school, if there be one in such county, during the remainder of the school term, and if there be no parental school in such county, the court shall render judgment that the parent, guardian or person having the control or charge of such child shall deliver such child at the beginning of each school day for the remainder of the school term, at the school from which such child is then a truant; provided, that if the parent, guardian, or other person having control or charge of such child shall, within three days after the rendition of such judgment, execute a good and sufficient bond to the board of education of the city, or city and county, or board of trustees of the district, with sufficient sureties, in the sum of two hundred dollars, conditioned that such child will, during the remainder of such current school year, regularly attend some public or private school in such city, or city and county, or school district and not be insubordinate or disorderly during such attendance, such bond to be approved by the judge of said court, and be filed with the secretary of the board of education or clerk of the board of trustees, then such court shall make an order suspending the execution of such judgment so long as the condition of such bond shall be complied with. If the condition of such bond be violated, such court, upon receiving satisfactory evidence of the fact in any action brought therefor shall make an order declaring such bond forfeited and directing such judgment to be thenceforth enforced. Such board of education or board of trustees may, at any time within one year after any such bond shall be declared forfeited, have execution issued against any or all of the parties to such bond, to collect the amount thereof; and all moneys paid or collected on such bond shall be paid over to the parental school fund of such city, or city and county, or school district. No fees shall be charged or received by any court or officer in any proceeding under this section. The confinement of any child in a parental school shall be conducted with a view to the improvement of the child and to its restoration, as soon as practicable, to the school which he would, if not so confined, be required to attend. The city superintendent of schools, or, if there be no city superintendent, the board of education of any city, or city and county, or county superintendent of schools, shall have authority, in their discretion, to parole at any time any child committed to, or ordered to attend, a parental school, except when such commitment shall be by judgment or order of a court; and when such commitment of any child shall be by judgment or order of a court, such court may, on the recommendation of the city superintendent of schools, of the board of education or county superintendent of schools, make an order paroling such child, upon such terms and conditions as shall be specified in the order. The expense incurred by any city, or city and county, or school district in purchasing or renting a school site, erecting or renting a building and equipping the same, for the maintenance of a parental school, shall be paid out of funds other than those collected for the maintenance of schools. The salaries of teachers and the expense for all school supplies in a parental school shall be paid out of the same funds from which similar salaries and expense are paid for primary and grammar schools, but all other expense incurred in the maintenance of such parental schools shall be paid out of the parental school fund.

Parole of child.

SEC. 5. That said act be amended by adding a new section thereto, to be numbered 7½, and to read as follows:

Section 7½. The board of trustees of any school district wherein a parental school may be established under the provisions of this act, and whenever such board deems it proper, may, for the purpose of raising money for the establishment and maintenance of a parental school for said district, proceed under the provisions of Article XIX, Chapter III, Title III, of Part III, of the Political Code of this state, to raise moneys for such purpose, and the moneys so raised shall be paid into the county treasury, and shall constitute a "parental school fund," for such district. The moneys of such fund shall be used for no other purpose than herein indicated. Money shall be drawn from said fund by the trustees of the district in the same manner as money is drawn from other school funds.

SEC. 5. The said board is hereby authorized, directed and empowered to grade, fence and otherwise improve the said new site in a manner suitable for its intended uses; to erect and construct upon grounds to be purchased or to be acquired for that purpose as herein provided all buildings and other structures and improvements necessary and proper for said school in accordance with plans and specifications herein provided for; to employ a competent architect or architects to provide plans, drawings and specifications for a suitable building or buildings and for other structures and improvements necessary and proper for said school; or otherwise secure, or purchase such plans, drawings, specifications and so adapt said plans, drawings, and specifications as to them may seem best suited to the purposes of said school. The said board is also authorized, directed, and empowered to provide and purchase all such furniture, fixtures, apparatus, and other things as may be required for the proper equipment of said buildings and grounds for conducting the state normal school.

Erection of new buildings.

Furniture
and apparatus.

SEC. 6. Upon said sale of said lands and buildings being made, the board of trustees of said school is hereby authorized to rent, for the purpose of said school, such grounds and buildings as they deem necessary, to be occupied temporarily until the completion of the new buildings provided for by this act.

Trustees
may rent temporary quarters.

SEC. 7. The state board of examiners shall from time to time, as presented, examine, audit, and allow all demands arising under this act, and the state controller shall thereupon draw his warrant on the aforesaid "Los Angeles State Normal School Building and Improvement Fund" for all demands for and on account of the purchase of said lands, the improvement of the same, and for said plans, drawings, and specifications and the employment of architects and other expenses connected with the selection of said site and the preparation and selection of said plans, drawings, and specifications, and for rent of buildings and grounds for temporary use of said school; and the state treasurer is directed to pay said demands out of the aforesaid "Los Angeles State Normal School Building and Improvement Fund."

SEC. 9. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 80.

An act to legalize bonds to be issued and sold by municipalities where authority for such issuance has already been given by a vote of more than two-thirds of the electors of such municipality.

[Approved March 4, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Municipal bonds, valid under certain conditions.

SECTION 1. In all cases where the legislative branch of any municipality in the State of California, organized under an act of the legislature of said state, entitled: "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations," approved the 13th day of March, 1883, has deemed it necessary to incur any indebtedness in excess of the money in the treasury, applicable to the purpose for which said indebtedness is to be incurred, and has called a special election of the qualified electors of such municipality to determine whether such indebtedness as specified in the resolution or ordinance calling such election shall be incurred, and where, at such election, not less than two-thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, and such legislative branch of such municipality shall have passed an ordinance providing for the mode of creating such indebtedness and of paying the same, and the mode of creating such indebtedness has been by the proposed issuance of the bonds of such municipality, all the proceedings of such municipality leading up to and including the issuance and the proposed issuance of such bonds are hereby legalized, ratified, confirmed and declared valid to all intents and purposes; and all such bonds, sold after the passage of this act for not less than their par value, are hereby legalized and declared to be legal and valid obligations of and against such municipality so issuing and selling the same, and the faith and credit of such municipality is hereby pledged for the prompt payment and redemption of the principal of such bonds, and the coupons thereto attached; provided this act shall not operate to legalize any bonds of any municipality already sold or any bonds that have not, at the time of the passage of this act, been authorized by not less than two-thirds of the qualified electors of such municipality voting at any such election.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 81.

An act to amend section two thousand nine hundred and seventy-nine a of the Political Code of the State of California relating to the preservation of the public health.

[Approved March 4, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand nine hundred and seventy-nine a of the Political Code of the State of California is amended to read as follows:

2979a. It is the duty of each coroner, and of every county, city and county, city or town health officer, and every member of the local board of health, knowing, or having reason to believe that any case of cholera, plague, yellow fever, leprosy, diphtheria, membranous croup, scarlet fever, smallpox, Manila, Philippine or Cuban itch, dobe, bumps, typhus fever, typhoid fever, malignant pustules, anthrax, glanders, cerebro-spinal meningitis, pulmonary tuberculosis, pneumonia, dysentery, erysipelas, uncinariasis or hookworm, trachoma, dangue, tetanus, measles, chickenpox, whooping cough, mumps, or any other contagious or infectious disease exists, or has recently existed, within the city, county, city and county, town, or township of which he is such officer, to take such measures as may be necessary to prevent the spread of such disease, and to report at once in writing such cases to the secretary of the state board of health at Sacramento.

Duties of health officers in cases of infectious disease.

It is also the duty of every attending or consulting physician, nurse, or other person having charge of or caring for any person afflicted with any of said contagious diseases, to report at once in writing to the local board of health or local health officer the nature of the disease, the name of the person afflicted and the place of his or her confinement.

Duty of physicians.

The state board of health, or its secretary, upon being informed of any such contagious or infectious disease, may thereupon take such measures as may be necessary to ascertain the nature of such disease and prevent the spread of such contagion, and to that end, said state board of health, or its secretary, may, if deemed proper, take possession or control of the body of any living person, or the corpse of any deceased person, and may direct and take such means as may be deemed expedient to arrest or prevent the further spread of such disease.

Duty and power of state board of health.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect from its passage.

CHAPTER 82.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code of the State of California to be numbered section 372a declaring it a misdemeanor to spit or discharge mucus upon public sidewalks, public buildings, trains, cars, stages, ferryboats, steamers, boats or other vehicles or vessels used for the transportation of the public.

[Approved March 4, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code of the State of California to be numbered section 372a to read as follows:

Spitting prohibited,
where.

372a. It shall be a misdemeanor for any person to discharge mucus from the nose or mouth or spit upon any sidewalk, of any public street or highway or upon any part of any public building or railroad train, street car, stage, ferryboat, steamer, boat or other vessel or vehicle used for the transportation of the public.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect from its passage.

CHAPTER 83.

An act to amend section 1576 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the formation of school districts, providing for the addition of territory thereto and taxation thereof.

[Approved March 4, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1576 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

City school districts, government.

1576. Every city or incorporated town unless subdivided by the legislative authority thereof, shall constitute a separate school district, which shall be governed by the board of education or board of school trustees of such city or incorporated town; provided, that whenever a city or town shall be incorporated the board of supervisors of the county may annex thereto, for school purposes only, the remainder, or any part of the remainder, of the district or districts from which such city or incorporated town was organized, whenever a majority of the heads of families residing therein, as shown by the last preceding school census, shall petition for such annexation;

Annexa-
additional territory.

and provided further, that the board of supervisors may include more territory than the remainder of the district or districts from which the city or incorporated town was organized, whenever a petition for such purpose is presented to them, signed by a majority of the heads of families, as shown by the last preceding school census, residing in such additional territory. When said remainder or part thereof, or said additional outside territory, has been annexed to said city or incorporated town, it shall be deemed a part of said city or incorporated town for the purpose of holding the general municipal election, and shall form one or more election precincts, as may be determined by the legislative authority of said city or incorporated town, the qualified electors of which shall vote only for the board of education, or the board of school trustees; and such outside territory shall be deemed to be a part of said city or incorporated town for all matters connected with the school department thereof, for the annual levying and collecting of the property tax for the school funds of said city or incorporated town; and for all purposes specified in sections one thousand eight hundred and eighty to one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight of this code, inclusive, provided, however, that the last assessment roll made by the county assessor, shall be the only basis of taxation for such school district on the property outside the corporate limits so annexed for school purposes.

Outside territory,

elections.

CHAPTER 84.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to establish a uniform system of county and township government," approved April 1st, 1897, and as amended March 23, 1901, and March 19, 1903, and as amended March 20, 1905, by amending section one hundred and eighty-four thereof relating to counties of the twenty-seventh class.

[Approved March 4, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 184 of an act entitled "An act to establish a uniform system of county and township government" approved April 1, 1897, and as amended March 23, 1901, and March 20, 1905, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

County government.

Section 184. In counties of the twenty-seventh class the county officers shall receive, as compensation for the services required of them by law or by virtue of their offices, the following salaries to-wit:

Salaries in counties of twenty-seventh class (Napa).

1. The county clerk, three thousand dollars per annum, and five hundred dollars additional per annum for compiling great register of the county.

Salaries in counties of twenty-seven class (Napa).

2. The sheriff, five thousand dollars per annum, and the fees, mileage or commissions for the service of all papers whatever issued by any court outside of this county, and all mileage for service of papers issued out of any civil case in his own county.

3. The recorder, two thousand dollars per annum; provided that such recorder shall collect and pay into the county treasury, for the use and benefit of the county, the fees required by law to be so collected; and provided, that when the amount of said fees so collected shall amount to more than one hundred and fifty dollars in any month, the said recorder may receive and retain for his own use, in addition to his salary, all fees in excess of one hundred and fifty dollars in any month so collected.

4. The auditor, seven hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

5. The treasurer, two thousand dollars per annum, and fees as now provided.

6. The tax collector, two thousand dollars per annum, and fees on delinquent poll taxes, which shall be in full for all services as tax collector.

7. The assessor, three thousand two hundred dollars per annum.

8. The district attorney, two thousand dollars per annum. In counties of this class the district attorney may appoint a stenographer for service in his office, which office of stenographer to the district attorney is hereby created, and said stenographer shall receive as compensation for his services the sum of six hundred dollars per annum to be paid out of the county treasury in equal monthly installments in the same manner and at the same time other county officers are paid.

An act to amend section three thousand and seventy-eight, three thousand and eighty-one and three thousand and eighty-three of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the registration, certification and reporting of births, marriages and deaths.

[Approved March 6, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three thousand and seventy-eight of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Registry of marriages and births, duty of county recorder and health officer.

3078. It shall be the duty of every county recorder to receive without fee or charge each certificate of registry of marriage and birth; provided however, that in cities having a freeholders' charter the health officer shall act as local registrar for births, and shall receive, without fee or charge, each certificate of birth and enter the same in the same manner as provided for the county recorder; to make a complete and accurate copy of each certificate registered by him, upon a form identical with the original certificate, to be filed and permanently preserved in his office as the local record of such marriage or birth, in such manner as directed by the state registrar. The recorder or health officer must carefully examine each report, and register the same marriage or birth but once, although it may be reported by different persons. The certificates shall be numbered by him and entered in the order in which they are reported to him, beginning with number one for the first birth, or marriage, in each calendar year. He shall also sign his name as registrar in attest of the date of filing in his office. On or before the fifth day of each month each recorder, or health officer, shall transmit by United States mail, carefully enclosed in appropriate envelopes or wrappers, addressed to the state registrar at Sacramento, or shall personally deliver to him at his office in Sacramento, on or before the fifth day of each month, the original certificates of births and marriages, filed with him during the preceding month. The state registrar shall thereupon file said original certificates of marriage and birth, and cause the same to be separately and systematically indexed.

Duty of state registrar.

SEC. 2. Section three thousand and eighty-one of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

State registrar to examine certificates.

3081. The state registrar shall carefully examine the certificates of marriages and births received monthly from the county recorders or health officers, and if any such are incomplete or unsatisfactory, he shall require such further information to be furnished as may be necessary to make the record satisfactory. All physicians, clergymen, judges, midwives, nurses, parents, or other informants upon whom the duty is imposed of certifying to marriages or births, and all other persons having knowledge of the facts, are required to furnish such information as they may possess regarding any marriage or birth upon demand of the state registrar in person, by mail, or through the local registrar. Whenever it may be alleged that the facts are not correctly stated in any certificate of marriage or birth, theretofore registered, the county recorder or city health officer shall require an affidavit under oath to be made by the person asserting the fact, to be supported by the affidavit of one other credible person having knowledge of the facts, setting forth the changes necessary to make the record correct. Having received such affidavits he shall file them and shall then draw a line through the incorrect statement or statements in the certificate, without erasing them, and make the necessary corrections, noting on the margin of the certificate his authority for so doing, and transmit the affidavits, attached to the original certificate, when making his regular monthly returns to the state registrar. If the correction relates to a certificate previously returned to the state registrar, he shall transmit the affidavit forthwith to the state registrar. If the correction is first made upon the original certificate on file in the state bureau of vital statistics, the state registrar shall immediately transmit a certified copy of the original certificate corrected as above, to the county recorder or city health officer, who shall thereupon substitute such certified copy for a copy of the certificate in his records. All such corrections and marginal notes referring to them shall be legibly written in ink, typewritten or printed.

Incorrect
statements.

SEC. 3. Section three thousand and eighty-three of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

3083. The state registrar shall, upon request, furnish any applicant a certified copy of the record of any marriage or birth registered under the provisions of this chapter, for the making and certification of which he shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents, to be paid by the applicant. Any such copy of the record of a marriage or birth, when certified by the state registrar to be a true copy thereof, shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and places of the facts therein stated. For any search of the files and records, when no certified copy is made, the state registrar shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents, to be paid by the applicant, for each hour or fractional part of an hour employed in such search. And the state registrar shall keep a full and correct account of all fees received by him under these provisions and deposit such money with the state treasurer, who shall credit the amount to the fund provided and to be used for the payment of the traveling and contingent expenses of the state board of health.

CHAPTER 93.

An act to add a new section to the Civil Code of the State of California to be known as number 329, relating to lost or destroyed bonds of a corporation.

[Approved March 6, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code to be numbered section three hundred and twenty-nine and to read as follows:

329. Whenever a bond or bonds of a corporation organized under the laws of this state or of any other state, or any territory of the United States has or have been lost or destroyed in this state by fire, earthquake, or other calamity, the owner thereof may bring an action against such corporation and the trustee or mortgagee of such bonded indebtedness in the superior court of the county in which such bond or bonds were lost or destroyed, or in which owner resides, or in which is located the principal place of business of such corporation for the purpose of obtaining a new or duplicate bond or bonds. If said bond or bonds stand in the name of, or are registered in the name of a person other than the plaintiff, or if it appears by the books of the corporation that any other person claims or has some right, title, interest in, or lien upon such bond or bonds, all such persons must be made parties defendant with the corporation and the trustee and mortgagee. Summons must be issued and served as in other civil actions and in addition thereto the court must direct its clerk to issue and cause to be published at least once a week, for four successive weeks, in some newspaper published in the county a notice setting forth the pendency of the action, the names of the parties thereto, the court in which it is pending, the name of the corporation which had issued the bond or bonds, the number of said bond or bonds, if any, and the amount thereof, and the person in whose name the same stands or is registered, and notifying all persons claiming said bond or bonds, or any of them or any interest or lien therein or thereupon, to be and appear before the court at a time and place to be designated in the notice, not less than thirty days from the first publication thereof, then and there to show cause why a new bond or bonds should not be directed to be issued to the plaintiff and to set forth their rights in, or claims to such bond or bonds. If any one appears and answers or intervenes in the action it must proceed to trial as in other civil cases and the court must enter judgment as from the facts established may be proper; but if no one appears within the time designated in said notice, nor within the time allowed by law after the service of such sum-

SEC. 2. The controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant on the state treasurer in favor of said board of managers for the said sum of three thousand dollars herein appropriated, and the state treasurer is directed to pay the same.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and approval.

CHAPTER 97.

An act to amend section 1970 of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to the responsibility of employers for injury to or death of employees.

[Approved March 6, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1970 of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

1970. An employer is not bound to indemnify his employee for losses suffered by the latter in consequence of the ordinary risks of the business in which he is employed, nor in consequence of the negligence of another person employed by the same employer in the same general business, unless the negligence causing the injury was committed in the performance of a duty the employer owes by law to the employee, or unless the employer has neglected to use ordinary care in the selection of the culpable employee; provided, nevertheless, that the employer shall be liable for such injury when the same results from the wrongful act, neglect or default of any agent or officer of such employer, superior to the employee injured, or of a person employed by such employer having the right to control or direct the services of such employee injured, and also when such injury results from the wrongful act, neglect or default of a co-employee engaged in another department of labor from that of the employee injured, or employed upon a machine, railroad train, switch signal point, locomotive engine, or other appliance than that upon which the employee is injured is employed, or who is charged with dispatching trains, or transmitting telegraphic or telephonic orders upon any railroad, or in the operation of any mine, factory, machine shop, or other industrial establishment.

When employer not bound to indemnify employee.

Knowledge by employee.

Knowledge by an employee injured of the defective or unsafe character or condition of any machinery, ways, appliances or structures of such employer shall not be a bar to recovery for any injury or death caused thereby, unless it shall also appear that such employee fully understood, comprehended and appreciated the dangers incident to the use of such defective machinery, ways, appliances or structures, and thereafter consented to use the same, or continued in the use thereof.

Right of action for death of employee.

When death, whether instantaneous or otherwise, results from an injury to an employee received as aforesaid, the personal representative of such employee shall have a right of action therefor against such employer, and may recover damages in respect thereof, for and on behalf, and for the benefit of the widow, children, dependent parents, and dependent brothers and sisters, in order of precedence as herein stated, but no more than one action shall be brought for such recovery.

Benefits of this section may not be waived.

Any contract or agreement, express or implied, made by any such employee to waive the benefits of this section, or any part thereof, shall be null and void, and this section shall not be construed to deprive any such employee or his personal representative, of any right or remedy to which he is now entitled under the laws of this state.

Contributory negligence.

The rules and principles of law as to contributory negligence which apply to other cases shall apply to cases arising under this section, except in so far as the same are herein modified or changed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 98.

CHAPTER 101.

An act to prevent the waste and flow of water from artesian wells, and prescribing penalties therefor, and defining waste and artesian wells.

[Approved March 6, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Uncapped artesian wells declared public nuisance.

SECTION 1. Any artesian well which is not capped, equipped or furnished with such mechanical appliance as will readily and effectively arrest and prevent the flow of any water from such well, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance. The owner, tenant, or occupant of the land upon which such well is situated, who causes, permits, or suffers such public nuisance, or suffers or permits it to remain or continue, is guilty of a misdemeanor; and any person owning, possessing or occupying any land upon which is situated an artesian well, who causes, suffers, or permits the water to unnecessarily flow from such well, or to go to waste, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. For the purposes of this act, an artesian well is defined to be any artificial hole made in the ground through which water naturally flows from subterranean sources to the surface of the ground for any length of time. Artesian well defined.

SEC. 3. Waste is defined, for the purposes of this act to be the causing, suffering or permitting any water flowing from an artesian well, to run into any river, creek, or other natural water-course or channel, or into any bay or pond, (unless used thereafter for the beneficial purposes of irrigation of land or domestic use.) or into any street, road or highway, or upon the land of any person, or upon the public lands of the United States or of the State of California, unless it be used thereon for the beneficial purposes of the irrigation thereof or for domestic use or the propagation of fish. The use of any water flowing from an artesian well for the irrigation of land, whenever over ten per cent of the water received on such land for irrigation is allowed to escape therefrom, is also hereby declared to be waste within the meaning of this act. Waste defined.

SEC. 4. Each day's continuance of such waste shall constitute a new offense under this act. New offense.

SEC. 5. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall, for each offense, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than $25.00 and not more than $500.00, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. All prosecutions for the violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be instituted in the justice's court of the county in which such well is situated. Any fine imposed under the provisions of this act may be collected as in other criminal cases, and the justice may also issue an execution upon the judgment therein rendered, and the same may be enforced and collected as in civil cases. Penalty.

SEC. 6. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 7. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 102.

An act to regulate the sale of poisons in the State of California and providing a penalty for the violation thereof.

[Approved March 6, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Poison packages to be labeled.

Purchaser must be put on inquiry.

Sales must be recorded.

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to vend, sell, give away or furnish either directly or indirectly, any poisons enumerated in schedule "A" or in sections 8 and 9 as hereinafter set forth in this act, without labeling the package, box, bottle or paper in which said poison is contained, with the name of the article, the word "Poison" and the name and place of business of the person furnishing the same. Said label shall be substantially in the form hereinafter provided. It shall be unlawful to sell or deliver any of the poisons named in schedule "A" or any other dangerously poisonous drug, chemical, or medicinal substance, which may from time to time be designated by the state board of pharmacy of California, unless on inquiry it is found that the person desiring the same is aware of its poisonous character, and it satisfactorily appears that it is to be used for a legitimate purpose. It shall be unlawful for any person to give a fictitious name or make any false representations to the seller or dealer when buying any of the poisons thus enumerated. Printed notice of all such additions to the schedule of poisons named and provided for in this section, and the antidote adopted by the board of pharmacy for such poisons, shall be given to all registered pharmacists with the next following renewal of their certificates. It shall be unlawful to sell or deliver any poison included in schedule "A" or the additions thereto, without making, or causing to be made, an entry in a book kept solely for that purpose, stating the date and hour of sale, and the name, address, and signature of the purchaser, the name and quantity of the poison sold, the statement by the purchaser of the purpose for which it is required, and the name of the dispenser, who must be a duly registered pharmacist.

Said book shall be in form substantially as follows:

Form of record.

Date and Hour.	Name of Purchaser	Residence.	Kind and Quantity.	Purpose of Use.	Signature of Druggist.	Signature of Purchaser.
----------------	-------------------	------------	--------------------	-----------------	------------------------	-------------------------

This book shall always be open for inspection by the proper authorities, and shall be preserved for at least five (5) years after the date of the last entry therein.

Form of label.

SEC. 2. The label required by this act, to be placed on all packages of poison, shall be printed upon red paper in distinct white letters, or in distinct red letters upon white paper, and shall contain the word "poison," the "vignette" representing the skull and cross-bones, and the name and address of the person or firm selling the same. The name of an antidote if any there be for the poison sold, shall also be upon the package. No poison shall be sold or delivered to any person who is less than eighteen years of age.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the state board of pharmacy to adopt a schedule of what in their judgment are the most suitable common antidotes for the various poisons usually sold. After the board has adopted the schedule of antidotes as herein provided for, they shall have the same printed and shall forward by mail one copy to each person registered upon their books, and to any other person applying for the same. The particular antidote adopted (and no other) shall appear on the poison label, provided for in section 2 of this act, or be attached to the package containing said poison. The board shall have power to revise and amend the list of antidotes from time to time, as to them may seem advisable. The entries in the poison book and the printed or written matter provided for in section 2 and 3 of this act, shall be in the English language, provided that the vendor of said poison may enter the same in any foreign language he may desire, in addition to said entry and label in English.

State board of pharmacy to adopt schedule of antidotes.

Entries to be in English.

SEC. 4. When in the opinion of the state board of pharmacy, it is in the interest of the public health, they are hereby empowered to further restrict, or prohibit the retail sale of any poison by rules, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, by them to be adopted, and which rules must be applicable to all persons alike. It shall be the duty of the board, upon request, to furnish any dealer with a list of all articles, preparations and compounds, the sale of which is prohibited or regulated by this act.

State board may prohibit sale of any poison.

SEC. 5. Wholesale dealers and pharmacists shall affix or cause to be affixed to every bottle, box, parcel or other enclosure of an original package containing any of the articles named in schedule "A" the additions thereto, or in sections 8 and 9 of this act, a suitable label, or brand with the word "poison" but they are hereby exempted from the registration of the sale of such articles when sold at wholesale to a registered pharmacist, physician, dentist or veterinary surgeon duly licensed to practice in the state; provided, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to the sale of such upon the prescriptions of practicing physicians, dentists or veterinary surgeons who are duly licensed to practice in this state.

Duty of wholesale dealers.

SEC. 6. It is hereby made the duty of the district attorney of the county wherein any violation of this act is committed, to conduct all actions and prosecutions for the same, at the request of the board of pharmacy.

Duty of district attorney.

SEC. 7. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction of the same shall be punished by a fine of not less than thirty dollars, or by imprisonment for not less than fifteen days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. All fines recovered under this act, shall be paid by the magistrate receiving the same, to the state board of pharmacy.

Penalty.

SCHEDULE "A."

Sale of morphine, etc.

SEC. 8. The sale of morphine, codeine, heroin, opium and cocaine, their salts, compounds or preparations is hereby prohibited, unless upon the prescription of a physician, dentist, or veterinary surgeon, licensed to practice in this state, except preparations of opium containing less than two grains of opium to the fluid ounce.

Drugs exempted from registration.

SEC. 9. The drugs hereinafter named may be sold, without registration in the poison book as in this act required; provided, however, that in all other respects the requirements of this act as to the sale of poisons must be complied with: Acid muriatic, nitric, oxalic, and sulphuric, bromine, cocculus indicus, conium, cowhage, creosote, hyoscyamus, Indian hemp, iodine and its tinctures, nitro-glycerine, and its preparations, santonine, sugar of lead, sulphate of zinc, cantharides, digitalis, wood alcohol.

SEC. 10. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 103.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act amending section two of an act entitled, 'An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities,' approved March eighteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five," approved February 20, 1905, by providing for the construction of storm water drains within municipalities.

[Approved March 6, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That section 2 of an act entitled, "An act amending section 2 of an act entitled, 'An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities,' approved March eighteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five," approved February 20, 1905, be amended so as to provide for the construction of storm water drain or storm water drains within municipalities, and to read as follows:

Section 2. Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, the city council is hereby authorized and empowered to order the whole, or any portion, either in length or width, of the streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, or places of any such city graded or re-graded, to the official grade, planked or re-planked, paved or re-paved, macadamized or re-macadamized, graveled or re-graveled, piled or re-piled, capped or re-capped, oiled or re-oiled, sewerd or re-sewerd, and to order sidewalks, manholes, culverts, bridges, cesspools, gutters, tunnels, curbing and crosswalks to be constructed therein, or to order storm water ditches and channels, breakwaters, levees, or walls of rock, or other material, to protect the same from overflow or injury, and to order any work to be done which shall be necessary to complete the whole or any portion of said streets, avenues, sidewalks, lanes, alleys, courts, or places, and it may order any of the said work to be improved; and also to order a sewer or sewers, with outlets, for drainage or sanitary purposes, in, over, or through any right of way granted or obtained for such purpose; and also to order storm water drain or storm water drains, with outlets, for drainage or sanitary purposes, in, over, or through any right of way granted or obtained for such purpose; provided, that whenever the grade of a street, avenue, lane, alley, court, or place shall hereafter be changed, the petition of the owners of a majority of the feet fronting thereon, asking for grading the same to the new grade, shall be a condition precedent to the ordering of such grading to be done.

Work upon streets, etc.

Change of grade, conditions precedent.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force immediately after its passage.

CHAPTER 104.

An act to prevent deception in the manufacture and sale of California wines by establishing a uniform wine nomenclature for pure wines, to secure its enforcement, and to provide a penalty for the violation of the provisions thereof.

[Approved March 6, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented by senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A uniform wine nomenclature is hereby adopted for pure wines manufactured in this state from the juice of the grape. Such wine nomenclature shall consist in the use of the prefix "Cal" or "Cala" to the name of any kind, type, name or abbreviation of name of wine, as for example: "Calclaret," Uniform wine nomenclature.

“Calburgundy,” “Calariesling,” etc., in stamping or labeling such wines.

Unlawful to use prefix on impure wines.

SEC. 2. And it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, in this state, to use such prefix in connection with wine nomenclature upon any imprint, label, trademark, tag, stamp, stencil, paper, or brand, or other inscription or device, placed or impressed upon any vessel, bottles, cask, barrel, case, or package, containing any liquid substance other than pure wine of California manufacture, made from the juice of the grape; or to use in marking, branding, stamping, stenciling, tagging, or labeling any vessel, bottle, cask, barrel, case, or package containing any liquid other than pure wine of California manufacture, made from the juice of the grape, any imitation or counterfeit of such nomenclature, or any paper or brand in the similitude or resemblance thereof, or any paper or brand of such form and appearance as to be calculated to mislead or deceive any unwary person or cause him to suppose the contents thereof to be pure wine of California manufacture, origin or production, made from the juice of the grape.

Same.

SEC. 3. And it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation, in this state, to sell or offer for sale, or have in his or its possession, for sale, any liquid substance marked, branded or labeled by the use of such wine nomenclature aforesaid, or by the use of any mark, or brand, or stencil in semblance thereof, unless the same be pure wine of California manufacture, made from the juice of the grape.

Pure wine defined.

SEC. 4. For the purposes of this act, pure wine shall be such as is defined to be pure wine under the provisions of the laws of the United States relating to the fortification of pure sweet wines, and of the food and drugs act, adopted by the congress of the United States, and approved June 30th, 1906, and under laws of the State of California now or hereafter adopted.

Penalty for violation of act.

SEC. 5. Whoever violates any of the provisions or sections of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.), nor more than one thousand dollars ($1000.), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days, nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect sixty days after its passage.

CHAPTER 107.

An act to amend section 2567 of the Political Code of California relating to the board of harbor commissioners of the port of Eureka on Humboldt bay.

[Approved March 6, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2567 of the Political Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Board of harbor commissioners of the port of Eureka.

2567. There is a board of three commissioners, known as the "Board of Harbor Commissioners of the Port of Eureka." The board of harbor commissioners of the port of Eureka shall consist of three members who shall be appointed by the governor of this state and shall hold office for a term of four years, and until each of their successors are appointed and qualify: And an appointment to fill vacancies, which may hereafter occur in the board of harbor commission of the port of Eureka shall be for the term of four years, and no person shall be eligible to the office of harbor commissioner of the said port of Eureka unless he be a citizen of the State of California and a resident of the city of Eureka.

SEC. 2. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 108.

An act to amend section 2572 of the Political Code of California relating to the board of harbor commissioners of the port of Eureka on Humboldt bay, fixing a compensation of the members thereof, etc.

[Approved March 6, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2572 of the Political Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Salaries of board of harbor commissioners of the port of Eureka.

2572. The commissioners of the board of harbor commissioners of the port of Eureka shall each receive a salary of four hundred dollars per annum. The secretary shall receive a salary of one thousand dollars per annum. The harbor master shall receive a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum. All salaries of said commission and its officers herein named are to be paid out of the treasury of the State of California in the same manner as the salaries of other state officers are paid.

SEC. 2. All other expenses of said commission necessarily incurred are to be paid from the treasury of Humboldt county in the same manner that claims against said county are paid. Other expenses, how paid.

SEC. 3. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect from and after June 30th, 1907.

CHAPTER 109.

An act to amend section 1202 of the Political Code of the State of California relating to the appointment of election officers.

[Approved March 6, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1202 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1202. At the same time and in the same manner as inspectors and judges of election are now appointed in this state, two ballot clerks for each election precinct in the state shall be appointed, whose duty it shall be to have charge of the ballots on the day of election, and to furnish them to the voters in the manner hereinafter provided; provided, however, that in precincts where voting or ballot machines are used, such clerks need not be appointed. Such ballot clerks shall be electors of the precinct from which they are appointed, and shall be paid the same compensation as inspectors of election. In making appointments of such ballot clerks, one of them shall be taken from the political party that polled the largest number of votes at the last preceding general election, and the other from the party that polled the next largest number of votes at such general election. They shall act as additional clerks of election when the polls are closed, and they shall serve until the votes are counted and the returns are signed; provided, that whenever a general and a municipal election shall be held at the same time, there shall be appointed one additional inspector, one additional judge, and two additional clerks in the manner now provided by law. Ballot clerks.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 110.

An act to amend an act relating to estrays, providing for taking them up and giving a lien on them for all damages, costs and expenses incurred by reason of taking them up, and repealing all other acts and parts of acts now in force relating to estrays, approved March 23, 1901.

[Approved March 6, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Estrays.

SECTION 1. Section 2 of the act entitled, "An act relating to estrays, providing for taking them up and giving a lien on them for all damages, costs, and expenses incurred by reason of taking them up, and repealing all other acts or parts of acts now in force relating to estrays, approved March 23, 1901," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Notice must be filed with county recorder.

Section 2. Any person taking up an estray animal or animals shall confine the same in a secure place, and within five (5) days file with the county recorder of the county in which such estray is found, a notice containing a description of the animal or animals taken up, with the marks and brands, if they have any, together with the probable value of each animal, and a statement of the place where the taker up found, and where he has confined the same. The county recorder shall receive for filing said notice the sum of fifty cents. If, however, the animal has the owner's brand or mark upon it, and such brand or mark has been recorded according to law, or if the finder knows the owner of said animal or the person having charge thereof, then, within five days after said animal is taken up, he shall notify the owner of said animal, or the person having charge thereof, which notice shall contain the same information as the notice to be recorded, and hereinabove provided, describing said animal so taken up, the date when it was taken up, the place where found, and the place where kept. This notice shall be in lieu of recording a notice for which notice he shall be entitled to the sum of fifty cents.

Notice to owner of branded animal.

the term of two years from the date of appointment. Each of said clerks shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the mayor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. Each of said clerks shall receive an annual salary of two thousand and one hundred dollars a year, payable in equal monthly installments out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be the full compensation for all services rendered by him. Each of the said clerks shall keep a record of the proceedings of, and issue all processes ordered by, the city justices, or either of them, or by said police court, and receive and pay into the city treasury all fines imposed by said court. They shall also render each month to the city council an exact and detailed account under oath of all fines imposed and collected, and of all fines imposed and uncollected since their last reports. They shall prepare bonds, justify bail when the amount has been fixed by either of said justices or by said police court, in cases not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may administer and certify oaths. Said clerks shall remain at the court rooms of said court during the business hours and during such reasonable times thereafter as may be necessary for a proper performance of their duties. Before receiving any monthly payment of salary each of said clerks shall make and file with the city auditor an affidavit that he has deposited with the city treasurer all moneys that have come into his hands, belonging to the city. Any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor.

- Miscellaneous. Thirteenth. Miscellaneous insurance, including any and all casualty insurance not included under any of the foregoing twelve kinds, and which is a proper subject of insurance.
- Capital stock required for life companies. After January 1st, 1908, no company having a capital stock shall do in California any of said first kind of insurance without having a capital stock of at least $200,000.00 nor shall any such company do in California any other of said kinds of insurance except the sixth and eighth, provided that any such insurance company desiring to do the kind of insurance embraced within either the sixth or eighth kind must have in addition to such $200,000.00 of capital stock, at least $50,000.00 of capital stock and to do the kind of insurance embraced within both the sixth and eighth kinds at least the sum of $100,000.00 capital stock in addition to the said $200,000.00 of capital stock required to do the first kind of insurance.

After January 1st, 1908, no company having a capital stock shall do in California any of said second kind of insurance without having a capital stock of at least $200,000.00 nor shall such company do in California any other of such kinds of insurance except the third nor do the third without having in addition to such $200,000.00 capital stock at least $200,000 capital stock for such additional kind of insurance.

Capital stock required for fire companies.

After January 1st, 1908, no company having a capital stock shall do in California any of said third kind of insurance without having a capital stock of at least $200,000.00 nor shall any such company do in California any other of said kinds of insurance except the second nor do the second without having in addition to such $200,000.00 capital stock at least $200,000.00 capital stock for such additional kind of insurance.

Formarine companies.

After January 1st, 1908, no company having a capital stock shall do in California any of the 4th or 5th or 6th or 7th or 8th or 9th or 10th or 11th or 12th or 13th of said kinds of insurance without having a capital stock of at least $100,000.00 nor shall any such company do in California any other of said 4th or 5th or 6th or 7th or 8th or 9th or 10th or 11th or 12th or 13th kinds of insurance without having in addition to such $100,000.00 capital stock at least $50,000.00 capital stock for each additional kind of insurance.

For other insurance companies.

Such capital stock required must be fully paid up before the doing of any such business in the State of California except that companies incorporated under the laws of California must have at least twenty-five per cent of their capital stock paid in previous to the issuance of any policies and the residue within twelve months of the filing of the certificate of incorporation.

Capital stock must be paid up.

The capital stock required must be exclusive of all liabilities for losses reported, expenses, taxes and re-insurance of all outstanding risks, as provided in section 602 of the Political Code.

Must be exclusive of liabilities.

Every company organized or formed under the laws of any other state or country as a mutual or as a joint stock and mutual company having a capital stock of not less than $100,000.00 must have in lieu of such capital stock available cash assets of at least $200,000.00 above all liabilities for losses reported, expenses, taxes, and re-insurance of all outstanding risks as provided in section 602 of the Political Code.

Cash assets required.

594a. No insurance company organized or existing under the laws of any country outside of the United States shall transact any business of insurance in the State of California without first making deposit, and thereafter continuously maintaining such deposit except as hereinafter otherwise specially provided, so long as any such business transacted in this state remains in existence for any purpose whatever, either unmaturred or maturred but unsettled, and whether in controversy or not. Such deposit must be of securities which the law of California permits for the investment of the assets of such California insurance companies. Such deposits may be with the insurance commissioner or superintendent of insurance, or with the auditor, comptroller or general fiscal officer of any state in the United States in which said foreign company is authorized to do such insurance business, or a like amount held in trust for the purposes herein specified as provided for by the laws of that state.

Amount of deposit.

The amount of the deposit must be equal to the minimum amount of the capital stock or available cash assets required by the preceding section.

Such deposit may for all purposes of the insurance laws of this state be treated as a part of the capital of the company making it.

Deposits in other states.

Must be certified to commissioner.

If such deposit is not so maintained in the State of California, its existence in some other state of the United States shall be certified at least annually to the insurance commissioner of the State of California by the superintendent of insurance or commissioner of insurance or auditor, or comptroller, or general fiscal officer of the state in the United States wherein such deposit is so maintained, and also so certified oftener and whenever from time to time required by the insurance commissioner of the State of California, and such certificate shall show in detail of what such deposit consists.

Value of securities deposited.

The value of such securities so deposited must be equal to the value of interest-bearing bonds of the United States government, but none of such securities shall be estimated above the par value of the same nor above the market value. Such deposits must be for the benefit and security of all the policy holders of the company in the United States. Such securities so deposited with the insurance commissioner of the State of California shall be by him specially deposited in the state treasury in packages marked with the name of the company from whom received, and so long as the company continues solvent it shall be permitted to collect the interest or dividends on the securities so deposited, and from time to time to withdraw such securities on depositing other securities in the stead of those to be withdrawn, such new securities to be of the character and value specified in this section, but none of such securities shall be withdrawn from the state treasury except upon the written order of the company making the deposit, which order must be indorsed by the insurance commissioner of the State of California or else such withdrawal must be had under the authority of some court of competent jurisdiction, which must be obtained if the insurance commissioner for any reason refuses to so indorse said order. Whenever such deposit has been made with the insurance commissioner of the State of California as provided in this section said commissioner must issue to the company so depositing, a certificate under his official seal stating the items and amount of securities so deposited, and their value, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, and in case of withdrawal and substitution, he shall issue suitable supplemental similar certificate. None of the provisions of this section shall affect the present statutes of California, either as to registered policies, or under what is known as the retaliatory law, or otherwise, either as to papers, bonds, or other securities.

595. The insurance commissioner must receive all bonds and securities of persons engaged in the transaction of insurance business in this state, and file and safely keep the same in his office, or deposit them as provided by law. He must examine and inspect the financial condition of every company engaged, or which desires to engage in the business of insurance and issue a certificate of authority to transact insurance business in this state to any company in a solvent condition which has fully complied with the laws of this state. He must determine the sufficiency and validity of all bonds and other securities required to be given by persons engaged, or to be engaged, in insurance business, and cause the same to be renewed in case of the insufficiency or invalidity thereof; and perform all other duties imposed upon him by the laws regulating the business of insurance in this state, and enforce the execution of such laws. He must make, on or before the first day of August in each year, a report to the governor of the state, containing a tabular statement and synopsis of the reports which have been filed in his office, showing, generally, the condition of the insurance business and interests in this state, and other matters concerning insurance, and a detailed verified statement, of the moneys and fees of office received by him, and for what purpose, and the printing of said report and all other printing required by the insurance department shall be exempt from the provisions of Article XII, Chapter III, Title I, Part III of the Political Code. Any insurance company may pay the fees and costs therefor and may surrender to the insurance commissioner its certificate of authority previously granted, and apply to withdraw from this state, such application to be in the form of a written instrument, duly executed, and accompanied with evidence of due authority for such execution, and such written instrument to be properly acknowledged. The commissioner, at the expense of the company, paid by it in advance, must make due publication of such application for withdrawal, daily, for the period of one week, in each of two daily newspapers of general circulation, the one published in the city of San Francisco, and the other in the city of Sacramento. The commissioner must make such examination of the books of such company as may be necessary to ascertain that such company has no liabilities outstanding and not paid to residents of this state and no uncanceled policies in favor of residents of this state and if he finds that such company has no outstanding liabilities to residents of this state and no uncanceled policies in favor of the residents of this state, he shall cancel such certificate of authority. All such examinations must be at the expense of the company, and such expense must be paid in advance.

Certificate to do business.

596. No company shall transact any insurance business in this state without first complying with all the provisions of the laws of this state and thereafter procuring from the insurance commissioner a certificate of authority and continuing to comply with the laws of this state, provided that insurance in companies not authorized to transact business in this state may be placed upon the terms and conditions in this section hereafter set forth.

Such certificate of authority shall expire on the first day of July after it is issued unless sooner revoked, and must be renewed annually.

No certificate of authority shall be granted or renewed to any company in arrears to the state, or to any county or city of the state, for fees, licenses, taxes, assessments, fines or penalties accrued upon business previously transacted in the state nor while the company is otherwise in default for failure to comply with any of the laws of this state regarding the government and control by the state, of such company and all such authorizations and certificates of authority heretofore granted shall expire on July 1st, 1907.

Licenses to procure insurance in companies not authorized to do business.

The insurance commissioner may issue a license to any citizen of this state, subject to revocation at any time, permitting the person named therein to procure policies of insurance on risks located in this state for companies not authorized to transact business in this state, and for such license the insurance commissioner shall collect a fee of fifty dollars for each such license and renewal thereof and each such license and renewal shall expire on the first day of July unless sooner revoked.

Affidavit required.

Before the person named in such license shall procure any insurance in such company he shall in every case execute and file with the insurance commissioner an affidavit that he is unable to procure, for a specified person, firm or corporation, in a majority of the companies authorized to do business in this state the amount of insurance necessary.

Account of business.

Every person so licensed shall keep a separate account of the business done under said license, open at all times to the inspection of the insurance commissioner, and shall file a certified copy thereof forthwith with the insurance commissioner, showing the exact amount and character of such insurance placed for any person, firm or corporation, the gross premiums charged thereon, the companies in which the same is placed, the dates of the policies and the terms thereof, the location of the insured property and also a report in the same detail of all such policies canceled and the gross return thereon.

Before receiving such license the person licensed shall execute and deliver to the insurance commissioner a bond to the people of the State of California in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars, with such sureties as the commissioner shall approve, conditioned that the licensee will faithfully comply with all the requirements of this section, and will file with the insurance commissioner on or before the first day of March of each year, a sworn statement of the gross premiums charged for insurance procured or placed, and the gross return premiums on such insurance canceled under such license during the year ending on the thirty-first day of December last preceding, and will pay to the insurance commissioner of the State of California, for the use and benefit of said state, an amount equal to four per cent of such gross premiums less such return premiums so reported, and in default of the payment of any sum imposed by this section, the said insurance commissioner may sue for same in any court of record in this state.

Bond of licensee.

Any person, firm, company or corporation for whom such insurance as herein specified shall have been effected, whenever required by the insurance commissioner so to do, shall produce for examination by him the policy or policies issued for such insurance, and disclose to him the true amount of the gross premiums agreed to be paid therefor, and upon refusal so to do shall forfeit to the State of California for each such refusal the sum of two hundred dollars to be recovered in a civil action.

Examination of policies issued by licensee.

All policies and insurance contracts issued without full compliance, by all parties concerned, with the laws of this state are null and void.

596a. Before the insurance commissioner issues any certificate of authority or any other certificate or gives any permission or authority of any kind, based upon any written instrument or document or certified copy thereof, required by the statutes of the State of California, the commissioner shall submit such instrument, document or certified copy to the attorney-general of the State of California, who shall examine the same and return it to the commissioner with his certificate or opinion as to whether such instrument, document or certified copy is in accordance with the requirements of law, and such certificate or opinion of the attorney-general shall govern and control the commissioner, subject only to review by a court of competent jurisdiction, provided that neither the authority to nor bond of an agent or solicitor, nor the annual statements as to the condition and affairs need, but may, be so submitted (with the same effect) by the commissioner to the attorney-general.

Attorney-general to examine documents.

597. The commissioner, whenever he deems necessary, or whenever he is requested by verified petition, signed by twenty-five persons interested, either as stockholders, policyholders, or creditors of any company engaged in insurance business in this state, showing that such company is insolvent under the laws of this state, must make an examination of the business and affairs relating to the insurance business of such company, and must make such an examination whenever any company is organized to do insurance business in this state, and before issuing a certificate of authority other than renewals to such company, and may make such examination whenever any company not organized under the laws of this state applies for a certificate to do insurance business in this state, and before issuing a certificate of authority to such company; and for such purposes shall have free access to all the books and papers of such company, and must thoroughly inspect and examine all its affairs, and ascertain its condition and ability to fulfill its engagements, and that it has complied with all the provisions of law applicable to its insurance transactions. Such company must open its books and papers for the inspection of the commissioner, and otherwise facilitate such examination; and the commissioner may administer oaths and examine under oath any person relative to the business of such company; and if he finds the books to have been carelessly or improperly kept or posted he must employ sworn experts to re-write, post and balance the same at the expense of such company. Such examination must be conducted in the county where such company has its principal office, and must be private, unless the commissioner deems it necessary to publish the result of such investigation, in which case he may publish the same in two of the public newspapers of this state, one of which must be published in the city of San Francisco. Whenever the commissioner shall deem such examination necessary, the same must be at the expense of the company, such expense to be paid in advance, and if any such company refuses to pay such expenses in advance the insurance commissioner may refuse to issue any such certificate of authority and must revoke any existing certificate of authority authorizing such company to do business.

tion about policies.

598. Any person interested in, as owner, assignee, pledgee or payee, of any policy of insurance and desiring any information about such policy, may file with the insurance commissioner an affidavit showing that he is entitled to the benefits of the provisions of this section and apply to the insurance commissioner for his certificate of the facts or information desired. If the records of his office show the facts or information desired, the insurance commissioner shall prepare his certificate reciting such facts or information. If his records do not show the facts or information desired the insurance commissioner may deliver an order to the agent of the company, designated under section 616 of the Political Code, directing such company to state such information or facts in an affidavit and deliver such affidavit to him. In such affidavit the company must make a full, true and correct statement of all the said facts and information in the possession of said company, whether such information be contained in the books, records, or papers in this state or in any other state or country. If such company neglects or refuses to make and deliver such affidavit to the insurance commissioner within ninety (90) days from the date of the delivery of the said order by the commissioner to the said agent as herein provided, the commissioner must revoke the certificate of authority authorizing the company to do business in this state. Immediately after receiving any affidavit from any insurance company pursuant to the provisions of this section the commissioner must certify such affidavit to the person so applying for the information or facts. Such affidavit so certified by the insurance commissioner shall be delivered to the applicant by delivering it to him personally or by depositing the same in the United States postoffice and prepaying the postage thereon. If a loss has been sustained under any policy of insurance and such policy has been lost or destroyed all rights of every kind and nature and the time for the presentation of notice of loss and the time for the presentation of proof of loss are stayed from the date such interested person delivers to the commissioner the affidavit herein provided for and until five days after the date of the delivery by the insurance commissioner to such interested person of any affidavit furnished by any insurance company pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Lost policy, stay of rights.

599. The commissioner may issue subpoenas for witnesses to attend and testify before him on any subject touching insurance business, or in aid of his duties, which may be served, obeyed, and enforced as provided in the Code of Civil Procedure for civil cases, and the commissioner may issue attachments and impose the same penalty which a court might impose for disobedience; and, in addition, the defaulting witness may be punished as provided in the Penal Code.

Subpoena.

600. The commissioner must keep and preserve in a permanent form a full record of his proceedings, including a concise statement of the condition of each company visited or examined by him.

Records of commissioner.

600a. If any insurance company (whose certificate of authority has been revoked by the insurance commissioner on the ground that such company is insolvent) within ninety days after the receipt of the notice of revocation, shall repair its capital to such an extent that such company is solvent within the provisions of section six hundred and two (602) of the Political Code, then upon such fact being made to appear to the insurance commissioner, he may issue a new certificate of authority in the same manner and to the same effect as an original certificate of authority.

Restoration of authority after revocation.

601. The commissioner may employ an actuary to make the valuation of life policies at a compensation of not exceeding one cent for each thousand dollars of insurance, to be paid by the company for which the valuation is made.

Employment of actuary.

fire, marine, or inland navigation insurance in this state, for losses reported, expenses, taxes and reinsurance of all outstanding risks, estimated at fifty per cent of the premiums received and receivable on all fire risks and marine time risks, at the full premiums received and receivable on all other marine risks, would so far impair its capital paid in as to reduce the same below two hundred thousand dollars, or below seventy-five per cent of said capital paid in, such company is insolvent; and in case of a company engaged in such insurance in this state, on the mutual plan, if the available cash assets of such company shall not exceed its liabilities, as hereinbefore enumerated, in the full sum of two hundred thousand dollars, such company is insolvent; and wherever provision for the liabilities of any company engaged in the business of insuring any one against loss or damage resulting from accident to or injury suffered by an employé or other person for which the person insured may be liable, for losses reported, expenses, taxes, and reinsurance of all outstanding risks estimated as provided in section six hundred and twelve a of the Political Code would so far impair its capital paid in as to reduce the same below one hundred thousand dollars, or below seventy-five per cent of said capital paid in, such company is insolvent; and whenever provision for the liabilities of any company engaged in any kind of insurance business in this state, other than life, liability, and insurance of titles to real estate, provided for in section four hundred and twenty of the Civil Code of this state, for losses reported, expenses, taxes, and reinsurance of all outstanding risks, estimated at such rates as are accepted by the insurance authorities of the State of New York, would so far impair its capital paid in as to reduce the same below one hundred thousand dollars, or below seventy-five per cent of said capital stock paid in, such company is insolvent; and in case of a company engaged in such insurance business in this state, on the mutual plan, if its available cash assets shall not exceed its liabilities, as hereinbefore enumerated, in the full sum of one hundred thousand dollars, such company is insolvent. In the case of a company engaged in the business of life insurance, whenever its liabilities for losses reported, expenses, taxes, and reinsurance of all its outstanding risks written prior to January 1st, eighteen hundred and ninety-two, at the rates based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of four and one half per cent per annum, and reinsurance of all its outstanding risks written from and after the thirty-first day of December, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, up to and including the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and seven, at rates based upon the Combined Experience or Actuaries Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of four per cent per annum, and reinsurance of all its outstanding risks written from and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and seven, at rates based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one half per cent per annum, exceeds its assets such company is insolvent. In the case of a company engaged in the business of insurance of the title to real estate, whenever provision for its liability for losses reported, expenses, and taxes, would, after exhausting its surplus fund, so far impair its capital stock paid in as to reduce the same below one hundred thousand dollars, or below seventy-five per cent of said capital paid in, such company is insolvent.

602a. In estimating the condition of any company engaged in the business of liability insurance under the provisions of this article the insurance commissioner shall charge as liabilities all outstanding indebtedness of such company, and the premium reserve on policies in force, equal to the unearned portions of the gross premiums charged for covering risks, computed on each respective risk from the date of the issuance of the policy. There shall also be charged as a liability to each company engaged in the business of insuring any one against loss or damage resulting from accident to or injury suffered by an employé or other person for which the person insured may be liable, whether a natural person, a firm or a corporation organized under the laws of this or any other state or country, a further reserve as hereinafter provided. For the purpose of computing said reserve, each company which has been engaged in liability underwriting for ten years or more, shall, on or before the first day of October in each year, state in writing to the insurance commissioner its experience in the United States, under all forms of liability policies, each year separately according to the calendar years in which the policies were written, during a period of five years commencing ten years previous to the thirty-first day of December of the year, in which the statement is made, in the following particulars, namely: The number of persons reported injured under all of the forms of liability policies, whether such injuries were reported to the home office of the given person or to any of his representatives; the amount of all payments made on account or in consequence of injuries reported under such policies; the number and amount, separately, of all suits or actions against policy-holders under such policies which have been settled, either by payment or compromise; both of the above amounts to be ascertained as of date of the thirty-first day of August of the year in which the statement is made, and to include in the case of suits all payments made on account or in consequence of the injury from which the suit arose, whether prior to or later than the date at which the suit was brought. Each person shall thereupon reserve upon all said kind of policies, irrespective of the date at which the policies were issued, (1) for each suit or action pending, on injuries reported prior to eighteen months previous to the date of making the statement, whether such injuries were reported to the home office of the given company or to any of its representatives, and which is being defended for or on account of the holder of any such policy, the average cost thereof as shown by said experience.

and (2) for injuries reported under such policies at any time within eighteen months, whether such injuries were reported to the home office of the given person or to any of his representatives, the average cost for each injured person as shown by said experience. From the sum so ascertained the person may deduct (1) the amount of all payments on said pending suits on injuries reported prior to eighteen months, including all payments made on account or in consequence of the injury from which the suit arose, whether prior to or later than the date at which the suit was brought, and (2) the amount of all payments made on account or in consequence of said injuries reported within eighteen months; both of the above amounts to be taken as of the date at which the statement is made. Any person who now issues, or shall hereafter issue, liability policies as aforesaid, and who shall not be engaged in liability underwriting for ten years, shall nevertheless, until such times as he may be able to state his experience of the period hereinbefore required, make and maintain a reserve upon all said kind of policies, irrespective of the date at which the policies were issued, determined as follows: (1) For each suit or action pending, on injuries reported prior to eighteen months previous to the date of making the statement, whether such injuries were reported to the home office of the given company or to any of his representatives, and which is being defended for or on account of the holder of any such policy, the average cost thereof as shown by the average of said experience of all other persons stated as required by this section, and (2) for injuries reported under such policies at any time within eighteen months, whether such injuries were reported to the home office of the given person or to any of his representatives, the average cost for each injured person as shown by the average of said experience of all other companies stated as required by this section; which average costs for suits and for injured persons shall be furnished by the insurance commissioner to each such company on or before the first day of December, in each year. From the sum so ascertained each company may deduct (1) the amount of all payment on said pending suits on injuries reported prior to eighteen months, including all payments made on account or in consequence of the injury from which the suit arose, whether prior to or later than the date at which the suit was brought, and (2) the amount of all payments made on account or in consequence of said injuries reported within eighteen months; both of the above amounts to be taken as of the date at which the statement is made.

603. Whenever the commissioner ascertains that any company engaged in the insurance business is insolvent within the meaning of this chapter, he must revoke the certificate of authority granted, and send by mail to such company, addressed to it at its principal place of business, or deliver to it, a notice of such revocation and cause a copy of such notice together with the proof of service to be filed in his office.

604. When the insurance commissioner ascertains that any insurance corporation is insolvent he must certify such fact to the attorney-general. Upon receipt of such certificate so made by the insurance commissioner, the attorney-general must commence an action against such company under the provisions of Chapter V, Title X, Part II of the Code of Civil Procedure. If on the trial of any such action it appears to the court that such company is insolvent, before causing judgment to be entered, the court may direct the corporation and the officers thereof to levy an assessment on the capital stock sufficient to enable the defendant corporation to pay its debts. and in such order shall give full directions as to the manner of levying such assessment and the amount thereof, and such assessment must be levied before judgment is entered. In all other respects the relief awarded against the defendant company shall be the same as provided in said chapter five of the Code of Civil Procedure. Any receiver thereafter appointed to liquidate the affairs of such company, shall have full power to bring such actions as may be necessary for the purpose of recovering the amounts of the assessments levied as herein provided. In any action commenced pursuant to the provisions of this section the court shall have power to authorize the defendant insurance company, or the receiver appointed to liquidate the affairs of such company, to reinsure all or any part of the business theretofore written by such company.

attorney-
general.

604a. When the insurance commissioner shall have revoked the certificate of authority authorizing any insurance company, not a corporation, to do business on the ground that such company is insolvent, any person or persons may commence insolvency proceedings against such company. Such proceedings must be done, had, and taken in all respects as provided by the then existing insolvency laws of the state.

Insolvency proceedings.

605. The commissioner must require in advance, in United States gold coin, the following fees: (1) For filing the articles of incorporation or certified copies of articles or other certificates required to be filed in his office, thirty dollars; (2) for filing the annual statement required to be filed, twenty dollars; (3) for filing any other papers required by this chapter to be filed, five dollars; (4) for furnishing copies of papers filed in his office, twenty cents per folio; (5) for certifying copies, one dollar each; (6) for each certificate issued, as provided in section six hundred and nineteen, the sum of five dollars; (7) for filing any copy of any paper in this section mentioned or any amendment thereof, ten dollars; (8) for registering each policy, one dollar; (9) for issuing each annual certificate of authority authorizing any insurance company to transact business in this state, ten dollars annually; (10) for issuing each annual license authorizing an agent to solicit any insurance business, one dollar; (11) for attaching the seal of office to any paper or document not herein specified, one dollar; (12) for issuing any other certificate, two dollars.

commissioner.

Assessments.

606. If the salary of the commissioner and the expenses of his office exceed the fees and charges collected by him, such excess must be annually assessed by the commissioner upon all persons or corporations engaged in the business of insurance in this state, and they are severally liable therefor, pro rata, according to the amount of premiums received or receivable from risks taken in this state, respectively, during the year ending on the thirty-first day of December next preceding the assessment. The commissioner must collect all fees and assessments, and pay monthly into the state treasury whatever amounts may be received and collected by him. If any insurance company neglects or refuses to pay the amount of any such assessments within ten days after demand thereof in writing by the insurance commissioner, the commissioner may revoke the certificate of authority previously granted and commence an action to recover such assessment.

papers companies must file with commissioner.

607. The commissioner must cause every company, before engaging in the business of insurance, to file in his office as follows:

1. If incorporated under the laws of this state, a copy of the articles of incorporation certificate of any increase or diminution of the capital stock, certified by the secretary of state to be a copy of that which is filed in his office;

2. If incorporated under the laws of any other state or country, a copy of the articles of incorporation, if organized or formed under any law requiring articles to be filed, duly certified by the officer having the custody of such articles; or if not so organized, a copy of the law, charter, or deed of settlement under which the deed of organization is made, duly certified by the proper custodian thereof, or proved by affidavit to be a copy; also, a certificate under the hand and seal of the proper officer of such state or country having supervision of insurance business therein, that such corporation or company is organized under the laws of such state or country, with the amount of capital stock or assets required by this article.

3. If not incorporated, a certificate setting forth the nature and character of the business, the location of the principal office, the names of the persons and of those composing the company, firm, or association, the amount of actual capital employed or to be employed therein, and the names of all officers and persons by whom the business is or may be managed. The certificate must be verified by the affidavit of the chief officer, secretary, agent, or manager of the company; and if there are any written articles of agreement or company, a copy thereof must accompany such certificates; provided, however, when the number of persons composing such company shall exceed ten, such certificate need not state the names of any greater number of persons than ten, who shall be the largest owners; and if such company be formed out of the United States, the said certificate need not contain the names of any officers or managers other than those resident within the United States, nor any statement of capital not employed within the United States, and the affidavit must be made by the chief executive officer or manager in the United States.

When by any law, agreement, or other instrument, any change is made in respect to the particulars set forth in any certificate hereinabove mentioned, a certified copy of such law, agreement, or other instrument must be filed by such insurance company with the insurance commissioner.

608. If any foreign insurance company doing business in this state shall transfer or cause to be transferred to the United States circuit court from any court of this state having jurisdiction of the subject matter, any action or special proceeding arising or growing out of any business previously transacted in this state, then the insurance commissioner shall have the power and it shall be his duty upon receiving a certified copy of the record showing the facts hereinabove set forth to immediately revoke the certificate of authority authorizing such company to transact insurance business in this state.

Actions
not to be transferred

U. S. court.

609. The commissioner must require the name under which any company hereafter proposes to be formed or organized under the laws of this state, for the transaction of insurance business, to be submitted to him before the commencement of such business; and he may reject any name or title so submitted when the same is an interference with or too similar to one already appropriated, or likely to mislead the public in any respect; and in such case a name not liable to such objection must be chosen.

Approval of name of company.

610. The commissioner must require statements and reports to be verified as follows: (1) If it be made by a corporation organized under the laws of this state, by the oaths of any two of the executive officers thereof; (2) If it be made by an individual or firm, by the oath of such individual or member of the firm; (3) If made by a foreign insurance company, or person, by the oath of the principal executive officer thereof, or manager residing within the United States.

Statements to be verified.

611. All companies doing business in this state must make and file with the insurance commissioner, on or before the first day of March of each year statements, which must exhibit the condition and affairs of every such company, on the thirty-first day of December then next preceding, which statements, as adjusted by the commissioner upon a proper examination of the same, must be published by such company daily, for the period of one week, in some newspaper published in the city where the principal office in this state is located.

614. Mutual companies formed, existing, and doing business under an act entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation of mutual insurance companies," passed April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, may report their approved stock as capital paid up, and such notes for all purposes must be deemed part of the paid-up capital stock of such corporation. Mutual companies.

615. The insurance commissioner must cause to be prepared, and furnish on demand to each of the companies printed forms of the statements herein required; and he may make such changes from time to time in the form of such statements and reports as seems to him best adapted to elicit from the companies a true exhibit of their condition. The same forms must be so furnished on demand to all companies engaged in the same kind of business. Forms of statements to be furnished.

616. The insurance commissioner must require, as a condition precedent to the transaction of insurance business in this state by any foreign insurance company, that such company file in his office a writing designating the name of an agent, and his place of business in this state, on whom any notice provided by law or by any insurance policy, proof of loss, summons and other process may be served in all actions or other legal proceeding against such company. All notices, proof of loss, summons, or other process so served give jurisdiction over the person of such company. The agent so appointed and designated shall be deemed in law a general agent, and must be the principal agent of such company in this state; any such foreign company shall, as a further condition precedent to the transaction of insurance business in this state, and in consideration of the privilege to transact such insurance business in this state, make and file with the insurance commissioner an agreement or stipulation, executed by the proper authorities of such company, in form and substance as follows: The (giving name of company) does hereby stipulate and agree that, in consideration of the permission granted by the State of California to it to transact insurance business in this state, that if at any time said company shall leave this state or cease to transact business in this state or shall be without an agent in said state, on whom any notice, proof of loss, summons, or other legal process may be served, then in any action or proceeding arising out of any business or transactions which occurred in this state, service of any notice provided by law, or insurance policy, proof of loss, summons, or other legal process may be made upon the insur- Foreign companies must designate name of agent.

ance commissioner, and that such service upon the commissioner shall have the same force and effect as if made upon the company. Whenever such service of notice, proof of loss, summons, or other legal process shall be made upon the insurance commissioner, he must, within ten days thereafter, transmit by mail, postage paid, a copy of such notice, proof of loss, summons, or other legal process to the company, addressed to the manager, president, or secretary thereof at its home or principal office. The sending of such copy by the commissioner shall be a necessary part of the service of the notice, proof of loss, summons, or other legal process.

Service of process.

When any notice, summons, or other legal process is served upon the insurance commissioner pursuant to the provisions of this section, the service as to the company shall be deemed complete at the end of sixty (60) days after the date of the delivery of the notice, summons, or other process to the insurance commissioner.

When any notice, provided by law or by any insurance policy, is to be served on the agent designated, as in this section provided, such service may be made as provided in Chap. V, Part II, Title XIV of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Penalty
for failure to file statements.

617. The commissioner must collect the sum of one hundred dollars from any company engaged in the business of insurance in this state, for a willful failure to make and file in his office within the time prescribed by law, any statements or stipulations required by this title, and an additional penalty of two hundred dollars for each and every month or fractional part of a month thereafter, that such company continue to transact the business of insurance until such statements and stipulations are filed.

When laws of other states require trust deposits,
duty of commissioner.

618. Whenever the laws of any state of the United States, or of any country foreign to the United States, require any insurance company organized under the laws of this state, to deposit with some officer of this state securities in trust for, and for the benefit of, the policy-holders of such company, as a prerequisite to transacting insurance business in such other state or foreign country, and whenever under any laws of this state any insurance company is required to deposit with any officer of this state securities in trust for, and for the benefit of policy-holders of such company, the insurance commissioner of this state must receive from such company securities in the amount required by the law under which such deposit is made on deposit and in trust for the policy-holders of such company. The value of such securities must be equal to the value of interest-bearing bonds of the United States government, but none of such securities must be estimated above the par value of the same, nor above their market value. The commissioner must, upon the receipt of such securities, forthwith make a special deposit of the same in the state treasury, in packages marked with the name of the company from whom received, where they must remain as security for policy-holders in the company to which they respectively belong; but so long as the company continues solvent he must permit it to collect the interest or dividends on the securities so deposited, and from time to time to withdraw any such securities on depositing other securities in the stead of those to be withdrawn. Such new securities to be of the same value and character mentioned in this section, but such securities must not be withdrawn from the state treasury unless upon the written order of the company making the deposits, which order must be indorsed by the commissioner, or upon the order and authority of some court of competent jurisdiction. If the deposit is of mortgages, it shall be accompanied by full abstracts of title or policies of title insurance or certificates of title issued by a duly organized title insurance company authorized to transact business under the laws of California, and the fees for examination of title, unless accompanied by such certificates of title or policies of title insurance, and the fees for appraisal of property shall be paid by the company making the deposit. If the deposit is of stocks or bonds, it shall be accompanied by the fees necessary for the appraisal thereof.

619. Whenever an insurance company has deposited with the commissioner the requisite security, in conformity with the requirements of the preceding section, the commissioner must issue to such company a certificate, under his official seal, of such deposit, for each state or country requiring the same, which said certificate must state the items and amount of securities so deposited, and that they are of the value therein represented.

620. Whenever any insurance company so depositing securities with the commissioner has paid, canceled, or reinsured all its unexpired policies outstanding in the state, satisfactorily to the insurance commissioner, and all its liabilities under such policies are extinguished, or assumed by other responsible companies or corporations, then, if on application of such company, duly verified, and from an examination of the books of the company, and of its officers under oath, the insurance commissioner is satisfied that all of its policies are so paid, canceled, extinguished, or reinsured, he must deliver up to the company the securities deposited; provided, however, that pending such examination the securities requested to be withdrawn may at the discretion of the commissioner be delivered to the depositor upon the condition that the applicant deposit with the commissioner securities of like value; and whenever the laws of any other state or country, by reason of which section six hundred and twenty-two of the Political Code of this state is brought into force, shall be repealed and abrogated, then any deposit which shall have been made with the commissioner, under and by reason of said section six hundred and twenty-two of the Political Code, must be delivered up to the company making the deposit.

621. The commissioner must make an annual examination of the securities received by him from each insurance company, and if it appear at any time that the securities deposited by any such company amount to less than the sum required for the purposes for which the deposit was made, he must notify the company thereof, and unless the deficiency is made up within thirty days after notice, the commissioner must revoke the certificate of authority previously granted and countermand all the certificates he may have issued to the company under this chapter, and give notice thereof to the officers of the several states to whom the certificate may have been transmitted.

Relative to laws of other states.

622. When by the laws of any other state or country, any taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money or of securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, are imposed on insurance companies of this state doing business in such other state or country, or upon their agents therein, in excess of such taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, imposed upon insurance companies of such other state or country, so long as such laws continue in force, the same obligations and prohibitions of whatsoever kind must be imposed upon insurance companies of such other state or country doing business in this state. And whenever under this section any deposit of security shall be made in this state, such deposit shall be made in bonds of the United States government, or in those of the State of California, or in interest-bearing bonds of any of the countries or incorporated cities and towns of the State of California, not in default for interest on such bonds, which said securities must be estimated at not exceeding their par value nor their market value.

Tax on gross premiums, other than California
companies.

622a. Every insurance company other than life, not organized or incorporated under the laws of California, and doing business in this state, and every other insurance company other than life, whose charter may be owned, or a majority of whose stock may be controlled, or whose business may be carried on in the interest, or for the benefit of any insurance company or association not organized or incorporated under the laws of California, shall annually pay to the insurance commissioner, for the state, a tax of two (2) per cent upon the amount of the gross premiums received upon its business done in the state, during the year ending on the preceding thirty-first day of December, less return premiums, re-insurance in companies authorized to do business in this state, and losses actually paid on its business in this state, and every life insurance company not organized or incorporated under the laws of California, which does business or collects premiums or assessments in the state, shall annually pay to the insurance commissioner, for the state, a tax of one per cent upon the amount of the gross premiums received upon its business done in this state during the year ending on the preceding thirty-first day of December. This section shall not be held or construed so as to relieve any company or organization from any tax, fee or other obligation or charge imposed upon it by the provisions of section six hundred and twenty-two of this code, and whenever the taxes imposed by the application of section six hundred and twenty-two exceed those imposed by the application of this section the provisions of the former section shall prevail.

623. The commissioner must require every company, not incorporated under the laws of this state, now transacting or proposing to transact insurance business by agent or agents in this state, before commencing such business to file in his office a bond in favor of the people of the State of California, to be signed by the company, as principal, with two sureties, to be approved by the commissioner, in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars, the condition of such bonds to be as follows: (1) That the company and its agents will pay all state, county, and municipal property and license taxes, in the manner and at the time prescribed by law; (2) That the company named therein will conform to all the provisions of the revenue and other laws made to govern them; (3) and that the company will promptly pay all fees, assessments, taxes, penalties, and fines that may be laid upon or against such company. Such bonds may be sued on in the same manner and shall be subject to the same rules governing official bonds.

required.

624. Whenever the same company desires to collect premiums of insurance for more than one company, the commissioner must require a separate bond, as provided in the preceding section, for each company so represented by such company.

Same.

625. The commissioner must, before the commencement of each fiscal year as fixed in the revenue laws, furnish the assessor of the county in which the principal office of any company doing business of insurance is situated, all the data concerning premiums collected by and all other necessary information in relation to the business of such company as will assist the assessor in the performance of his duties.

Commissioner
to furnish data to county
assessors.

626. The commissioner must require from every company, before and after engaging in the business of insurance, a full compliance with all the provisions of Title II, Part IV, Division I, of the Civil Code applicable thereto; and every company neglecting to comply with such requirements is subject to the fines and penalties therein prescribed.

Full compliance of law
required.

627. All statements, estimates, percentages, payments, and calculations, required by this chapter to be made, either by the commissioner or companies, must be made on the basis of gold coin of the United States.

Payments to be on gold basis.

628. When the certificate of the insurance commissioner of this state, of the valuation of the policies of a life insurance company, as provided in the next section of this code, issued to any company organized under the laws of this state, shall not be accepted by the insurance authorities of any other state, in lieu of a valuation of the same, by the insurance officer of such other state, then every company organized under the laws of such other state doing business in this state, shall be required to have a separate valuation of its policies made under

Separate valuation of policies.

the authority of the insurance commissioner of this state, as provided in the next section.

Life companies must furnish data for valuation of policies.

Basis of valuation.

629. Every life insurance corporation organized under the laws of this state must, on or before the first day of February of each year, furnish the insurance commissioner the necessary data for determining the valuation of all its policies outstanding on the thirty-first day of December then next preceding. And every life insurance company organized under the laws of any other state or country, and doing business in this state, must, upon the written requisition of the commissioner, furnish him, at such time as he may designate, the requisite data for determining the valuation of all its policies then outstanding; such valuations must be based upon the rate of mortality established by the American Experience Life Table, and interest at four and one-half per cent per annum on all outstanding risks written prior to January 1st, 1892, and such valuations must be based upon the rate of mortality established by the Combined Experience or Actuaries' Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of four per cent per annum on all outstanding risks written from and after the thirty-first day of December, A. D., one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, up to and including the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and such valuations must be based upon the rate of mortality established by the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum on all outstanding risks written from and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and seven. When the laws of any other state or territory require of a life insurance company organized under the laws of this state a valuation of its outstanding policies by any standard of valuation different from that named in this section, the insurance commissioner is hereby authorized to make such valuation for use in such other state or territory, and to issue his certificate in accordance therewith. For the purpose of making the valuations, the insurance commissioner is authorized to employ a competent actuary, whose compensation for such valuations shall be one cent for each thousand dollars of insurance, to be paid by the respective companies whose policies are thus valued.

Fraternal societies exempt.

630. Secret or fraternal societies, lodges, or councils incorporated or organized for the purpose of mutual protection and relief of their members and for the payment of stipulated sums of money to their members or to the beneficiaries of deceased members which conduct their business and secure membership on the lodge system exclusively, having ritualistic work and ceremonies in their societies, lodges, or councils, and all mutual or benefit associations, organized or formed and composed of members of any such society, lodge or council exclusively, are exempt from the provisions of all the insurance laws of this state.

Right of action against commissioner.

631. If at any time the insurance commissioner revokes the certificate of authority theretofore granted to any insurance company or refuses to grant a certificate of authority to any insurance company, any interested person or company may commence an action against the insurance commissioner for the purpose of reviewing the facts and the law pertinent to the controversy and for the purpose of obtaining the relief refused or for canceling the action of the commissioner. In any such action the court shall have full power to investigate all of the facts de novo without regard to the determinations previously made by the commissioner. In the trial of such actions all of the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, not inconsistent herewith, shall be applicable.

631a. Whenever any insurance company shall have withdrawn from business in this state, and whenever for any reason the insurance commissioner shall have revoked or canceled the certificate of authority authorizing any insurance company to do business in this state, the insurance commissioner shall cause to be published, in each of two daily newspapers, one published in San Francisco and one published in Sacramento, a notice of such revocation or of such withdrawal. The expense of such publication shall be paid in advance by the insurance company withdrawing or whose certificate shall have been so revoked.

Publication of notice of withdrawal.

632. Whenever the insurance commissioner ascertains that any insurance company, or any of its agents, officers or employes, or any other person has been guilty of violating any of the penal statutes of this state, the commissioner shall certify such facts to the district attorney of the county in which such offense was committed. Such offenses shall be prosecuted and tried in all respects as provided in the Penal Code. For the purpose of evidence the commissioner shall furnish to the district attorney, without cost to the county, certified copies of any papers or records of the office of the commissioner.

District attorney to be notified of penal offense.

633. No person shall in this state act as the agent or solicitor of any insurance company doing business in this state until he has produced to the commissioner, and filed with him, a duplicate power of attorney from the company, or its authorized agent, authorizing him to act as such agent or solicitor. Upon filing such power, the commissioner shall issue a license to him to act as such agent or solicitor for such company, if such company has received a certificate of authority from such commissioner to do business in this state. Such license shall continue in force until July 1st after the date thereof, but must be, and shall be, sooner revoked upon application of the company or its authorized agent. Such license may be renewed from time to time, for an additional period of twelve months, on production by the holder to the commissioner of a certificate from the company that such person's authority as such agent or solicitor continues. The commissioner shall keep an alphabetical list of the names of the persons to whom such licenses shall be issued, with the date of the license and renewal, and the name of the company for whom such person is working.

Agents must file duplicate power of attorney.

Registration of life
policies.

634. It shall be lawful for any company or corporation transacting the business of life insurance in this state to register with the insurance commissioner such of its policies as may be agreed upon by the company and the insured; such registration to consist in a written or printed list of such policies filed with the commissioner, showing the name and age of the insured, number and date of the policy, and the kind and amount of insurance in each case. Such list must be filed with the commissioner within thirty days after the issuance of the first registered policy; and must contain all such policies issued up to the date of filing. After that date the company must, within three days after the first day of each calendar month, file a statement embracing all its registered policies issued since the filing of its last preceding list. Upon filing such lists of policies, from time to time, the company must deposit with the commissioner, as a special deposit for the benefit of such registered policies, securities of the denominations stated in section four hundred and twenty-one of the Civil Code as permissible for the investment of the capital and accumulations of insurance companies. Such deposit must be in an amount equal to the full net value of all policies registered up to the time of making the deposit, and must at all times be equal to such net value of all registered policies. Upon receipt of such securities, the commissioner must immediately deposit them in the state treasury, in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred and eighteen of the Political Code, where they must remain as a special security for the benefit of such registered policies. Such company may at any time withdraw any excess of securities above the net present value hereinbefore specified, upon satisfying said commissioner by written proof that such excess exists, and shall be allowed to receive the interest on all securities deposited, and to exchange such securities by substituting other securities of the character in which, by the laws of this state, it may invest its funds.

CHAPTER 158.

An act to amend section one hundred and three of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to justices' courts and justices of the peace.

[Approved March 11, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one hundred and three of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Justices' courts and justices, number in each

opinion of the board of supervisors, the public convenience requires it, the said board may, by order, provide that two justice's courts may be established in any township, designating the same in such order; and in such case one justice of the peace must be elected in the manner herein provided for each of such courts. In every city or town of the third and the fourth class there must be one justice of the peace, and in every city or town of the first and one-half class there must be four justices of the peace and in every city or town of the second class there must be two justices of the peace, to be elected in like manner by the electors of such cities or towns, respectively; and such justices of the peace of cities or towns, and justices' courts of cities or towns, shall have the same jurisdiction, civil and criminal, as justices of the peace of townships, and township justices' courts. Said justices of the peace of cities, and justices' courts of cities, shall also have jurisdiction of all proceedings for the violation of any ordinance of any city in which courts are established, both civil and criminal, and of all actions for the collection of any license required by any ordinance of any such city or town, and generally exercise all powers, duties and jurisdiction, civil and criminal, of police judges, judges of the police court, recorder's court, or mayor's court within such city.

No person is eligible to the office of justice of the peace in any city or town of the first, first and one half, second or third class who has not been admitted to practice law in a court of record; and no justice of the peace is permitted to practice law before another justice of the peace in the city, town or county in which he resides, or to have a partner engaged in the practice of law in any justice's court in such city, town or county. Every city justice of the peace in any city or town of the fourth class shall receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, and every city justice of the peace in any city or town of the third class shall receive a salary of two thousand dollars per annum; and every city justice of the peace in any city or town of the first and one half class and the second class shall receive a salary of twenty-four hundred dollars per annum; and each city justice of the peace shall be provided by the city or town authorities with a suitable office in which to hold his court. Where the compensation of the justice of the peace of any city or town is by salary, it shall be paid by warrants drawn each month upon the salary fund, or, if there be no salary fund, then upon the general fund, of such city or town; such warrants to be audited and paid as salaries of other city officials. All fees which are chargeable by law for services rendered by such city justices of the peace in the cities or towns aforesaid shall be by them, respectively, collected, and on the first Monday of each month every such city or town justice of the peace shall make a report, under oath, to the city or town treasurer, of the amount of

SEC. 15. The said director of the state laboratory shall make an annual report to the state board of health, on or before August first of each year, upon adulterated or misbranded foods and liquors, in which report shall be included the list of cases examined by him in which adulterants were found, and the list of articles found mislabeled or misbranded, and the names of the manufacturers, producers, jobbers and sellers. Said report, or any part thereof, may, in the discretion of the state board of health, be included in the report which the state board of health is already authorized by law to make to the governor. The state board of health may, in its discretion publish any part of said report in any issue of its monthly bulletin.

Hearings
for violations
of act.

SEC. 16. When an examination or analysis of the director of the state laboratory shows that any of the provisions of this act have been violated, notice of that fact together with a copy of the certificate of the findings, shall be furnished to the party or parties from whom the sample was obtained or who executed the guaranty as provided in this act, and a date shall be fixed by the secretary of the state board of health at which said party or parties may be heard before the state board of health or before any two members thereof and the secretary. The hearing shall be held in the city of Sacramento, and at least fifteen days' notice thereof shall be first served upon the party complained of. These hearings shall be private and confined to questions of fact. Parties interested therein may appear in person or by attorney and may propound interrogatories and submit oral or written evidence to show any fault or error in the findings made by the director of the state laboratory. If the examination or analysis be found correct, or if the party or parties fail to appear at such hearing after notice duly served as provided herein, the secretary of the state board of health shall forthwith transmit a certificate of the facts so found to the district attorney of the county in which said adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded food was found. No publication as in this act provided shall be made until after said hearing is concluded.

An act providing for the maintenance of a residence for the governor of the State of California, and providing the salaries of the necessary employés and servants selected and employed by the governor therein, and for the appropriation of necessary moneys for such purpose, and directing the state controller to issue warrants upon the general fund, and directing the state treasurer to pay said warrants.

[Approved March 11, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Governor's residence fund.

SECTION 1. A fund is hereby created which shall hereafter be known and designated as the "Governor's Residence Fund," which fund shall be drawn upon by the governor of the State of California for maintenance and salaries of necessary employés and servants, to be selected and employed by the governor to properly maintain and conduct said governor's residence; provided that the aggregate amount of the salaries of said employés, servants and maintenance shall not exceed the sum of three thousand three hundred and fifty dollars per year, and the said items of appropriation necessary therefor shall thereafter be carried in the general appropriation bill as are the items of appropriation for the maintenance of other state property.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 183.

An act to create for the State of California a department of engineering, to provide for the appointment of the officers and employes thereof, defining its powers and prescribing the duties of said department, its officers and employes, to provide the compensation of such officers and employes, to make an appropriation for the salaries and other expenses for the remainder of the fifty-eighth fiscal year and making certain acts a felony and repealing an act entitled "An act creating a commissioner of public works, defining his duties and powers and fixing his compensation," approved February ninth, nineteen hundred, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof; also repealing an act entitled "An act to create a department of highways for the State of California, to define its duties and powers, to provide for the appointment of officers and employes thereof, and to provide for the compensation of said officers and employes, and for the additional expenses of said department, and to make an appropriation therefor for the remainder of the forty-eighth fiscal year," approved April first, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven; also repealing an act entitled "An act providing for the appointment of an auditing board to the commissioner of public works, authorizing and directing him and them to perform certain duties relating to drainage, to purchase machinery, tools, dredges, and appliances therefor, to improve and rectify water channels, to erect works necessary and incident to said drainage, to condemn land and property for the purposes aforesaid, making certain acts a felony, and making an appropriation of money for the purposes of this act," approved March seventeenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof; also repealing an act entitled "An act to provide for the appointment, duties and compensation of a debris commissioner, and to make an appropriation to be expended under his directions in the discharge of his duties as such commissioner," approved March twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof; also repealing an act entitled "An act to create the office of Lake Tahoe wagon road commissioner, providing the term of office and compensation of such commissioner, defining his duties, and making an appropriation for the salary and expenditures provided for and authorized by this act," approved April first, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof.

[Approved March 11, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Department of engineering created.

SECTION 1. A department of and for the State of California to be known as the department of engineering is hereby created to consist of an advisory board composed of the governor as ex officio member and chairman of said board, and a state engineer who shall be the chief executive officer of the department, the general superintendent of state hospitals and the chairman of the state board of harbor commissioners of San Francisco. The said department, its officers and employes shall have and exercise the powers and duties hereinafter set forth and specified, and such as are or may be hereafter provided by law.

Consulting board on irrigation, drainage, etc

SEC. 1½. Upon this act becoming effective the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate shall appoint five persons who shall be known as a consulting board to the department of state engineering upon all matters that affect irrigation, drainage and river improvement.

Such board shall be appointed from citizens of either the Sacramento or San Joaquin valleys. Such board shall meet at such times as the work requires and shall meet at least once in two months. They may report to the advisory board upon all matters relating to irrigation, drainage and river improvement together with their conclusions thereon, and may render a report to the advisory board upon all plans for river improvements.

State engineer.

SEC. 2. Upon this act becoming effective the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate shall appoint a competent civil engineer as the head of the department of engineering, and such person shall be known as the state engineer. The state engineer shall devote his entire time to the services of the state and shall not actively engage in any other pursuit while serving as such state official. He shall have charge of all the engineering and structural work of the department and may receive by and through the approval of the advisory board such special assistance of a technical character beyond the employes hereinafter specified as they shall allow for the proper conduct of the business of the department.

Duties.

Term of office.

SEC. 3. The state engineer shall hold office for the term of four years from and after the date of qualification, provided however, when a vacancy occurs in the office of state engineer from whatever cause, the governor shall fill, by appointment, said term for the unexpired part thereof only. Immediately after qualifying, the advisory board shall meet and organize and shall adopt a seal for the authentication of its acts and records.

SEC. 4. Within twenty days after receiving notice of appointment the person appointed as state engineer shall file a bond in the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) with at least two sufficient sureties thereon or with a surety company of recognized standing for the faithful performance of his duties which bond must be approved by the governor and filed with the secretary of state and he shall qualify by taking the oath of office as prescribed for other state officers.

Bond of engineer.

SEC. 5. The office of the department of engineering shall be in the state capitol; and the secretary of state shall assign to the department, for its use, such rooms as may be necessary for its accommodation. All of the regular meetings of the advisory board shall be held at such office. The said board may, however, hold such special meetings at such places as the duties of the department, or the best interests of the state may require. The state board of harbor commissioners for the port of San Francisco shall assign proper rooms in the Ferry Building at San Francisco for the use of one assistant state engineer and his necessary office help.

Office of department.

SEC. 6. The department of engineering through and by the state engineer shall have the power to appoint two assistant engineers, one state architect, one architectural draughtsman, two engineer's draughtsmen, one person to be secretary and stenographer, and one porter, and such additional engineers, architects or draughtsmen as the advisory board may, in their judgment deem necessary, and to fix their salaries and compensation, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the appointive power, and who must be confirmed by the advisory board before proceeding with their duties. Such officers and employes shall not be eligible for appointment unless they possess special qualifications for and are competent to perform the duties devolving upon them, and they shall devote their entire time to the service of the department; provided however, that the state architect shall perform the duties only as required of him.

Assistants.

Salaries.

Eligibility.

SEC. 7. The advisory board shall meet at such times as the work of the department may require and shall meet at least once in two months. Such board shall advise with the state engineer and state architect as necessity requires and may advise with the boards of managers or trustees of the various state institutions requiring engineering or structural work and with any state commission regarding all works wherein such commission may be interested. The advisory board shall approve all plans and specifications for all public work and shall determine the kind, quality and extent of all public work of the state. All boards of managers, trustees and state commissions of state institutions shall apply to the department of engineering for plans and specifications for all public works coming under their charge and before accepting any work done under contract shall have a certificate from the state engineer who shall examine and certify to its completion. All public work coming under the full control of the department of engineering may upon the discretion of the advisory board be either contracted for or done by days labor. The advisory board shall have the power on the approval of plans and specifications by the state engineer, to direct whether any building or structure at any state institution shall be let by contract in part or in whole, or whether said building or structure shall be built by days labor in part or in whole.

Supersede-board of public works.

SEC. 8. The full control of all public work being done or now completed by the board of public works shall be assumed by the department of engineering and all public work done by the state, except as otherwise provided for by law, shall be under the full control of the said department. It shall be the duty of the department of engineering whenever required by the advisory board to make examinations of lands subject to inundation and overflow by flood waters and of the waters causing such inundation or overflow and plans and estimates of the cost for works to regulate and control such flood waters. All matters of drainage, and improving and rectifying river channels and other work on any river or slough flowing into San Francisco bay, San Pablo bay and Suisun bay, and also the tide waters flowing into said bays, shall be placed under the management and control of the department of engineering whenever the law provides therefor. The department of engineering shall have charge of all expenditures unless otherwise provided by law for all public works relating to general river and harbor improvements, including reclamation and drainage of lands. It may purchase, construct and operate one or more dredges or any other needed appliances to promote or properly carry out the work of the department. The state engineer in the name of the State of California, may obtain or condemn any right of way necessary for any construction herein named and shall proceed if necessary, to condemn under the terms of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to such proceedings. The department shall have the power to employ such additional help for the performance of the work of this section as the advisory board shall order and all money now appropriated to the board of public works and remaining unexpended shall be used for the purposes intended by the law, by the department of engineering, and the state controller shall transfer said funds to the credit of the department of engineering. Wherever under any statutes of this state any duty or obligation the performance of which is imposed upon the commissioner of public works or the auditing board to the commissioner of public works, the same shall be assumed and the performance of the same shall devolve upon the department of engineering.

Control of state highways.

SEC. 9. The department of engineering shall take full possession and control of all roads which have been declared state highways enumerated as follows: The Lake Tahoe wagon road, the Sonora and Mono road, the Mono Lake Basin road and all other state highways which may hereafter be constructed and all public work being done or now completed by the department of highways. All expenditures by the state for highway purposes except as otherwise hereafter provided by law shall be under the full charge of the department of engineering, and all moneys appropriated for such purpose shall be made payable upon the proper order of said department and shall be audited by the state board of examiners. The department of engineering, through its state engineer, shall have the power to obtain or condemn necessary rights of way for the change of any existing state highway or for any road placed under the department's charge by law unless otherwise provided. It shall have power to alter or change the route of a road and shall do all things necessary, and obtain all tools and implements required to properly care for and manage the roads under the charge of the department. The department may, in its discretion, appoint superintendents of the state highways who shall hold office at the pleasure of the appointive power. They shall, however, be confirmed by the advisory board and shall be specially qualified in road work. All unexpended balances of money now existing by law for improvements or maintenance of whatever kind under the department of highways, and the Lake Tahoe wagon road commissioner shall be placed under the control of the department of engineering, and the state controller shall transfer said funds to the credit of the department of engineering. Wherever under any statutes of this state any duty or obligation the performance of which is imposed upon the department of highways, the same shall be assumed and the performance of the same shall devolve upon the department of engineering.

SEC. 10. The department of engineering shall make examination into existing highway conditions in the State of California, and shall, furthermore, make such investigations within the state as will put at the service of the state the most approved methods of highway improvement. It shall supply, on request, without charge, any information relative to highways required by any county or district official having care of and authority over highways within this state. It shall collect and collate data relating to the geological formation of the state in so far as it relates to material suitable for highway construction, and make analyses and tests of such material as it may deem suitable for highway uses, with the view of determining the value of the same for such purposes. All data so collected, together with such other matters of value or interest to the people of the state, shall be published in bulletins, or upon maps or diagrams, or in other proper form, or in the biennial report of the department, as it, in its discretion, shall determine. The department shall prepare and adopt styles and forms of books for use by officials, in which to keep account of the expenditure of highway money and all other records or proceedings relating to highways. It shall prepare such forms as may be necessary for use in connection with opening, abandoning, altering, locating, constructing, maintaining, obtaining title to, or otherwise relating to proposed state highways; and such books and forms, when so adopted, shall be the standard for use in the state. Copies of them shall be forwarded to the various officials who are charged with keeping or using the same, and such officials shall immediately prepare books and forms after the style shown by such standard, and shall thereafter use them exclusively for the purposes for which they are intended. It shall be the duty of the department to adopt such general forms for the surveying of state highways, mapping, and keeping of the notes thereof, and the permanent marking of the same on the ground, as it shall deem necessary, and shall issue instructions defining such general forms and markings to the person having charge of the making of such surveys; and it shall thereafter be the duty of such persons to follow the methods prescribed in such instructions. The department of engineering, in performance of its duties, shall have the power to call upon any state, county, or district official to furnish it with any information contained in his office which relates to or is in any way necessary to the proper performance of the work of said department; and it is hereby made the duty of such officials to furnish such information without cost.

Architect-tural work of state

SEC. 11. All architectural work of the department shall be under the charge of the state architect, and it shall be the duty of said architect to make plans and specifications and estimates for all state building work. He shall, in company with the state engineer, visit and inspect all completed work and shall certify to the state engineer its proper or improper completion. The state architect shall have general charge under the state engineer, of the erection of all buildings and must have an inspector at each building during the whole time of its construction.

One assistant engineer to be assigned to San Francisco
harbor.

SEC. 12. One assistant state engineer shall be assigned to the state board of harbor commissioners at San Francisco, where he shall have an office. He shall prepare such plans and specifications as the board may direct and if adopted and the work ordered by the board to be done, must superintend its construction. He must give constant attention to the condition of the sea wall and thoroughfare, of the sheds, wharves, piers and landings, of the streets or parts thereof under the jurisdiction of the board and when repairs are needed, must forthwith report to the board in writing their nature and extent, and if ordered by the board, must have the same done at once. He must keep himself informed as to the depth of water in the various docks and slips and report to the board from time to time what dredging is required. He must keep a register properly indexed, showing the date, place and character of every piece of work done and dock dredged, when begun and finished, with proper descriptions and drawings. He shall do all engineering work required by the said board of harbor commissioners. Said assistant engineer shall be subject to the control, at all times, of the state engineer, and a copy of all work under his charge as assistant engineer shall be filed in the office of the department of engineering. A complete record of cost in detail, of all work done under the supervision of this assistant engineer shall be filed with the department of engineering upon the completion thereof. One engineer's draughtsman shall be assigned to the said harbor board by the state engineer, and the advisory board of the department of engineering shall employ such field and other assistants to the foregoing assistant state engineer as may be necessary and such field and other assistants shall be paid from the San Francisco harbor improvement fund.

Draughtsman to harbor board.

Sec. 13. All cooperative engineering work now existing or to be engaged in by the state with the United States government shall be placed under the department of engineering. All plans, estimates and specifications shall be approved by the state engineer and the advisory board shall have full power to determine the kind, quality and extent of such work under cooperation with said government before entering into agreement with said government for such work. All unexpended moneys provided for by law on the aforesaid cooperative basis shall be expressly placed under the full control of the department of engineering, and the state controller shall transfer such funds to the credit of the said department. Hereafter plans, estimates and specifications for such work shall be filed in the office of the said department.

Coöperative work with U. S. government.

Transfer of funds.

Sec. 14. It shall be the duty of the state engineer to consult and advise with the members of the corps of engineers of the United States army comprising the California debris commission (created by act of congress approved March first, eighteen hundred and ninety-three), in relation to the construction of works for the restraining and impounding of debris resulting from mining operations, natural erosion, or other causes; and it shall be his duty to examine such works and to report the result of such examination to the advisory board. Said state engineer is further authorized and directed to consult and advise with said "California Debris Commission" in relation to any and all plans and specifications that may have been or may hereafter be prepared or adopted by said "California Debris Commission," for the construction of such restraining or impounding works, and said state engineer shall file a copy of all such plans and specifications in the office of the department. Whenever the advisory board approves said plans and specifications the state engineer shall notify the "California Debris Commission." Whenever said "California Debris Commission" or the government of the United States shall have entered into any contract for the construction of works for the purposes described in this act, in pursuance of plans and specifications that have been theretofore approved by the advisory board as in this act provided, it shall then be the duty of the state engineer to cause such work to be carefully inspected during the progress of their construction and to keep a record of the result of such inspection. Said state engineer shall also from time to time, during the progress of the construction of such works, when requested so to do by the said "California Debris Commission," present his claims to the state board of examiners in favor of such person or persons as may be designated by said "California Debris Commission" for such amounts as shall equal one-half of the cost of the construction of said works; and said state engineer shall in like manner, and when requested so to do by said "California Debris Commission," present his claims to the state board of examiners for an amount equal one-half the purchase price of any site or sites necessary for the construction of said works; provided, that the purchase of said site or sites shall have been first approved by the advisory board. All unexpended balances of money provided by law for the work under the debris commissioner shall be placed to the credit of the department of engineering by the state controller. Whenever under any statutes of the state any duty or obligation the performance of which is imposed upon the debris commissioner, the same shall be assumed and the performance of the same shall devolve upon the department of engineering.

Employment of assistants.

SEC. 15. When in his judgment it is deemed necessary, the state engineer, subject to the approval of the advisory board, shall employ such assistance on the public work of the state or on public work at any state institution as may be necessary for the proper discharge of his duties, and shall under like restrictions, have the authority to purchase such supplies, instruments, tools and conveniences as may be necessary for the proper discharge of the duties of the department of engineering. All employes of the department of engineering other than those provided for in section six of this act, when employed upon public work at any state institution in this state shall be paid from the funds of the state institution at which such work is performed. In all other cases, such employes shall be paid by the department of engineering. All inspectors employed by the state engineer on any public work shall render to the state engineer a full, true and correct report of the kind, manner and progress of all work upon which he is such inspector. Any inspector who renders a false report knowing the same to be false shall be guilty of a felony. It shall be the duty of the state engineer to keep a full, true and correct detailed account of the cost of all work done under the control of the department of engineering, and with the consent of the advisory board may employ a clerk for the proper compiling thereof. Such account shall be always open to the inspection of the public.

ment may deem necessary, all of which shall however, be subject to the approval of the state board of examiners.

SEC. 17. The state engineer shall receive the sum of four thousand eight hundred dollars ($4,800) per annum; each assistant state engineer shall receive three thousand dollars ($3,000) per annum; the state architect shall receive four thousand dollars ($4,000) per annum; each draughtsman shall receive two thousand dollars ($2,000) per annum; the secretary and stenographer shall receive one thousand eight hundred dollars ($1,800) per annum; and the porter shall receive four hundred and eighty dollars ($480) per annum. Such salaries shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as are the salaries of other state officers. The two assistant state engineers and the state architect shall each furnish the state with a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for the faithful performance of their duties. Said bonds must be approved by the governor of the State of California and filed in the office of the secretary of state. Each and every one of the above mentioned officers shall take the oath of office as prescribed for other state officers. The members of the advisory board, the state engineer and the officers and employes of the department of engineering shall be allowed their necessary traveling expenses while engaged in the discharge of their duties within the state.

SEC. 18. The state board of examiners shall audit all bills or claims incurred by the department of engineering and the state engineer shall present claims to said board for all expenditures directly under his charge. The attorney-general of the state shall be the legal adviser of the department of engineering and the said department shall call upon the attorney-general of the state for all such legal advice and services as the discharge of its duties may require.

SEC. 19. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) is hereby appropriated to pay the salaries of the officers and employes and the other expenses of said department for the remainder of the fifty-eighth fiscal year.

SEC. 20. It shall be the duty of the auditing board to the commissioner of public works, the commissioner of public works, the state highway commissioner, the debris commissioner and the Lake Tahoe wagon road commissioner to transfer to the state controller all of the property, books, reports and papers and maps of every description which is state property, and the said controller shall transfer all of said things and property to the department of engineering.

SEC. 21. An act entitled "An act creating a commissioner of public works, defining his duties and powers and fixing his compensation," approved February ninth, nineteen hundred, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof are hereby expressly repealed.

CHAPTER 184.

An act to amend section 2521 of the Political Code relating to employés of the state harbor commission of the port of San Francisco.

[Approved March 11, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2521 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Bonds of harbor commissioners for port of San Francisco.

2521. The president of the board must give an official bond in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, and each of the other commissioners in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, which must be approved by the governor and state treasurer by written indorsement thereon, and within fifteen days after the date of their respective commissions must be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state, together with the official oath prescribed by law. The commissioners shall not be sureties for one another, nor shall any officer of the state, nor any officer or member of the legislature, be accepted as surety on said bonds. As soon as the commissioners first appointed under this act have qualified, the offices of the present commissioners shall be and are hereby declared to be vacant. The board, on entering on the duties of their office, must appoint the following officers, viz: A secretary, an assistant secretary, an attorney, a chief wharfinger, and such number of wharfingers and collectors as they deem necessary. Such officers shall hold for a term of four years from the dates of their respective appointments, but may be removed by the board at any time, after due investigation, for causes affecting their official character or competency. The order for such removal, stating distinctly the causes therefor, must be entered on their minutes. In case of a vacancy in such offices by the expiration of a term, or for any other cause, the board must fill the same by an appointment for four years.

CHAPTER 185.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to regulate contracts on behalf of the state, in relation to erections and buildings," approved March 23, 1876, and as amended March 31, 1891, March 27, 1895 and March 20, 1905.

[Approved March 11, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of an act entitled "An act to regulate contracts on behalf of the state in relation to erections and buildings," approved March 23, 1876 and as amended March 31, 1891, March 27, 1895 and March 20, 1905 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. That in all cases where the commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officer or officers, to whom is confided by law the duty of devising and superintending the erection, alteration, addition to, or improvement of any state institution, asylum or other improvement, erected, or now being erected, or to be erected, by the state, such commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officer or officers, before entering into any contract for the erection, alteration, addition to, or improvement of such institution, asylum, or other improvement, or for the supply of materials therefor, the aggregate cost of which erection, alteration, or improvement, and materials therefor, exceed the sum of one thousand dollars, shall procure of the department of engineering a full, complete, and accurate plan or plans of such institution, asylum or other improvement, or of any addition to, or alteration or improvement thereof, in all its parts, showing all the necessary details of the work, together with working plans suitable for the use of the mechanics or other builders during the construction thereof, so drawn and represented as to be plain and easily understood; and also accurate bills, showing the exact amount of all the different kinds of materials necessary in the erection thereof, addition thereto, or in the alteration or improvement thereof, to accompany said plan or plans; and also full and complete specifications of the work to be done, showing the manner and style in which the same will be required to be done, giving such directions for the same as will enable any competent mechanic or other builder to carry them out, and afford the bidders all needful information to enable them to understand what will be required in the erection, addition to, alteration, or improvement of such institution, asylum, or other improvement; and to make, or cause to be made, a full, accurate, and complete estimate of each item of expense, and the entire aggregate cost of such institution, asylum, or other improvement, or of any addition to, alteration or improvement thereof, when completed.

Estimate of cost.

Sec. 2. Section two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Plans to be approved by advisory board of department of engineering.

Section 2. That such plans, drawings, representations, bills of materials and specifications of work, and estimates of the cost thereof, in detail and in the aggregate as required in the first section of this act to be obtained, shall be when made, submitted to the commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officer or officers of the institution for which said plans, drawings, representations, bills of materials, and specifications of work are made and by him or them submitted to the advisory board of the department of engineering for their approval, and if approved by them, a copy thereof shall be filed and kept in the office of the department of engineering, and a copy thereof shall be deposited and safely kept in the office of controller of state.

Sec. 3. Section three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Public notice of sealed proposals.

Section 3. That after such plans, descriptions, bills of materials and specifications and estimates as are in this act required are made and approved, in accordance with the requirements of this act, it shall be and is hereby made the duty of such commissioners, directors, trustees or other officer or officers to whom the duty of devising and superintending the erection, addition to, alteration, or improvement of such institution, asylum, or other improvement as in this act provided, to give or cause to be given public notice of the time and place when and where sealed proposals will be received for performing the labor and furnishing the materials necessary to the erection of such institution, asylum, or other improvement, or for the adding to, altering, or improvement thereof, and a contract or contracts based on such sealed proposals will be made, which notice shall be published weekly for four consecutive weeks next preceding the day named for the making of such contract or contracts, in the paper having a general circulation in the county where the work is to be let, and in three papers specially representing the building trades, and having the largest circulation and published each in the cities of San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Sacramento, and shall state when and where such plan or plans, descriptions, bills, and specifications can be seen, and which shall be open to the public inspection at all business hours between the date of such notice and the making of such contract or contracts; provided, however, that the rates of said advertisements shall not exceed the regular advertising rates for similar matter, whether public or private, in such paper or papers. The aforesaid notice must state that bids will be received for the entire work and that bids will also be received for the performance of each of the following parts of said erection, addition, alteration or improvement, including the furnishing of materials and labor necessary therefor, viz: first, for the masonry work, including all brick, stone, terra cotta, and concrete work, and all necessary excavations and filling; second, for the iron work; third, for the carpenter, electric, and glazing work; fourth, for the plastering work; fifth, for the plumbing and gasfitting work; sixth, for the heating work; seventh, for the tinning, galvanized iron, and slating work; eighth, for the painting and graining work.

ests of the state, or reject all proposals and advertise for others in the manner aforesaid. All contracts shall provide that such commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officer or officers may, as hereinafter provided, and on the conditions stated, make any change in the work or materials.

SEC. 5. Section five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Advisory board must approve changes of plans.

Section 5. That no change of the plan or plans, descriptions, bills of materials, or specifications which shall either increase or decrease the cost of said institution, asylum, building, or improvement, exceeding the sum of one thousand dollars, shall be made or allowed after they are once approved and filed with the controller of state and in the office of the department of engineering, until such proposed change shall have received the approval of the advisory board of the department of engineering; and when so approved, the plan or plans of such change, with the description thereof, and the specifications of the work, and bills of material, shall be filed with the controller of state and in the office of the department of engineering, in the same manner as required before such change was made; and no allowance whatever shall be made for work performed or materials furnished under such change of plan or plans, or descriptions, or specifications, or bills of materials, unless, before such labor is performed and materials furnished, a contract or contracts therefor is made in writing, which contract or contracts shall show distinctly the nature of such change, and shall be subject to all the conditions and provisions herein imposed upon the original contracts, and be subject also to the approval of the attorney-general as hereinbefore provided; provided, that all changes in the contract exceeding five hundred dollars shall be by contracts in writing, with full specifications and estimates, and shall become a part of the original contract, and shall be filed with the controller of state and in the office of the department of engineering, with the original contract; and provided further, that the amount of such change in the contract, plans, descriptions, bills of materials, or specifications shall not, in the aggregate, increase the cost of construction of said institution, asylum, building, or improvement more than three per centum of the original contract price of cost.

Changed plans to be filed.

Contract for change to be in writing.

Increased cost limited to three per cent.

SEC. 6. Section six of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Contract not to exceed amount authorized by law.

Section 6. That no contract or contracts shall be made for the labor or material herein provided for at a price in excess of the entire estimate thereof in this act required to be made, and the entire contract or contracts shall not, including estimates of expenses for inspectors and otherwise, exceed in the aggregate the amount authorized by law for such institution, asylum, building, or other improvement, or such addition to, or alteration or improvement thereof, under the penalties of section ten of this act hereinafter provided.

SEC. 7. Section seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 7. At the time or times named in the contract or contracts made and filed with the controller of state, or which has been previously made and filed with him, in accordance with the provisions of this act, for payment to the person or persons with whom such contract or contracts had been made, it shall be and is hereby made the duty of the commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officer or officers, to whom is confided the duty of superintending the erection of such institution, asylum, building, or improvement, or adding to, altering, or improving the same, to make or cause to be made a full, accurate, and detailed estimate of the various kinds of labor performed and materials furnished under such contract or contracts, with the amount due for each kind of labor and materials, and the amount due in the aggregate, which estimate shall be based upon an actual measurement of the labor so performed and materials so furnished, which estimate shall, in all cases, give the amounts of the preceding estimate or estimates, and the amount of labor performed and materials furnished since the last estimate, which estimate or estimates so made, as in this act required, a copy of which shall be filed in the office of the department of engineering, shall be recorded in a book for that purpose to be provided and kept, or caused to be kept, by the said commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officer or officers, and a certified copy thereof, addressed to the controller of state by the said commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officer or officers, or by such person as they may designate for that purpose, be delivered to the contractor or contractors, entitled thereto; provided, that upon all estimates of materials furnished and delivered, and not actually having entered into and become a part of said institution, building or other improvement, there shall not be paid, until the same shall be incorporated into and become a part of said institution, building or other improvement, exceeding fifty per centum of such estimated value.

Trustees to estimate amount due.

Based on measurement.

Estimate to be recorded.

Maximum of payment.

Sec. 8. Section twelve of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 12. Whenever, in the opinion of the commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officers charged with the duty of devising and superintending the erection, alteration, addition to, or improvement of any state institution, asylum, building, or other improvement under this act, or any law of this state, the work under any contract made in pursuance of this act, or any such law, is neglected by the contractor or contractors, or that the same is not prosecuted with the diligence and force specified, meant, or intended in and by the terms of the contract, it shall be lawful for such commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officers to make a requisition upon such contractor or contractors for such additional specific force, or for such additional specific materials, to be brought into the work under such contract, or to remove improper materials from the grounds, as in the judgment of such commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officers, said contract and its due and faithful fulfillment require; of which action of said board or other officers, due notice in writing of not less than five days, shall be served upon such contractor, or his or their agent having charge of the work. And if such contractor or contractors fail to comply with such requisition within fifteen days, it shall be lawful for said commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officers, with the consent, in writing, of the advisory board of the department of engineering, to employ upon such work the additional force, or supply the materials so specifically required as aforesaid, or such part of either as they may deem proper, and to remove improper materials from the grounds; and it shall be the duty of such commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officers, to make separate estimates of all such additional force or materials so employed or supplied as aforesaid, and which, being certified to by said commissioners, directors, trustees, or other officers, shall be paid by the controller of state the same as if made out agreeably to section seven of this act, and the amount so paid shall be charged against said contractor or contractors, and deducted from his or their next, or any subsequent, estimate; or the same, or any part thereof, not paid as aforesaid, may be recovered by action from such contractor or contractors, and their sureties.

CHAPTER 186.

An act for the prevention of the manufacture, sale or transportation of adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded drugs, regulating the traffic in drugs and providing penalties for violation thereof.

[Approved March 11, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Sale of adulterated drugs prohibited.

SECTION 1. The manufacture, production, preparation, compounding, packing, selling, offering for sale or keeping for sale within the State of California, or the introduction into this state from any other state, territory, or the District of Columbia, or from any foreign country, of any drug which is adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded within the meaning of this act is hereby prohibited. Any person, firm, company, or corporation who shall import or receive from any other state or territory or the District of Columbia or from any foreign country, or who having so received shall deliver for pay or otherwise, or offer to deliver to any other person, any drug adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded within the meaning of this act, or any person who shall manufacture or produce, prepare or compound, or pack or sell, or offer for sale, or keep for sale, in the State of California, any such adulterated, misbranded, or misbranded drug, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, that no article shall be deemed misbranded, mislabeled or adulterated within the provisions of this act when intended for export to any foreign country and prepared or packed according to the specifications or directions of the foreign purchaser when no substance is used in the preparation or packing thereof in conflict with the laws of the foreign country to which said article is intended to be shipped; but if said article shall be in fact sold or offered for sale for domestic use or consumption, then this proviso shall not exempt said article from the operation of any of the other provisions of this act.

Goods intended for export.

SEC. 2. That the term "drug" as used in this act, shall include all medicines and preparations recognized in the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary for internal or external use, and any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for the cure, mitigation, or prevention of disease of either man or other animals.

Definition of term, "drug."

SEC. 3. The standard of purity of drugs shall be the United States Pharmacopœia and National Formulary, and the regulations and definitions adopted for the enforcement of the food and drugs act of June 30, 1906, shall be adopted by the state board of health for the enforcement of this act.

Standard of purity.

SEC. 4. Drugs shall be deemed adulterated within the meaning of this act in any of the following cases:

What constitutes adulteration.

First. If, when a drug is sold under or by a name recognized in the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary, it differs from the standard of strength, quality or purity, as determined by the test laid down in the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary official at the time of investigation; provided, that no drug defined in the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary shall be deemed to be adulterated under this provision if the standard of strength, quality, or purity be plainly stated upon the package thereof although the standard may differ from that determined by the test laid down in the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary.

Second. If the strength or purity fall below the professed standard or quality under which it is sold.

SEC. 5. That the term "misbranded" as used herein shall apply to all drugs, the package or label of which shall bear any statement, design, or device, regarding such article or the ingredients or substances contained therein which shall be false or misleading in any particular, and to any drug which is falsely branded or labeled as to the county, city and county, city, town, state, territory, District of Columbia or foreign country in which it is manufactured or produced.

Definition of term "misbranded."

SEC. 6. Drugs shall be deemed mislabeled or misbranded under the meaning of this act in either of the following cases:

What shall be deemed mislabeled or misbranded.

First. If it be an imitation of or offered for sale under the name of another article.

Second. If the contents of the package as originally put up shall have been removed, in whole or in part, and other contents shall have been placed in such package, or if the package as offered for sale at retail or wholesale, fail to bear a statement on the label of the per cent of volume of alcohol, or the quantity of any morphine, opium, cocaine, heroin, alpha or beta eucaine, chloroform, cannabis indica, chloral hydrate, acetanilide, or any derivative or preparation of any such substances contained therein, except when prescribed by a licensed physician, licensed dentist, or licensed veterinary surgeon.

Definition of term "package."

SEC. 7. The term "package" as used in this act shall be construed to include any phial, bottle, jar, demijohn, carton, bag, case, can, box or barrel or any receptacle, vessel or container of whatsoever material or nature which may be used by a manufacturer, producer, jobber, packer or dealer, for inclosing any drug.

Evidence of violation of act.

SEC. 8. The sale or offering for sale of any adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded drug by any manufacturer, producer, jobber, packer or dealer in drugs, or broker, commission merchant, agent, employé or servant of any such manufacturer, producer, jobber, packer or dealer, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of this act.

State laboratory to analyze suspected drugs.

SEC. 9. Whenever required by the state board of health or its secretary, examinations and analyses of drugs on sale in California suspected of being adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded, shall be made by the director of the state laboratory for the examination and analysis of foods and drugs. Said state board of health or the secretary may appoint such agent or agents as it may deem necessary for the enforcement of this act, and the sheriffs of the respective counties of the state are hereby appointed and constituted such agents. Any agent or sheriff shall have the right to purchase at the place of business of any manufacturer or dealer, any drug suspected of being adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded within the meaning of this act, tendering the market price of said articles, if a sale be refused, he may take from any person, firm or corporation samples of any articles suspected of being adulterated, mislabeled and misbranded, and shall deliver or forward such samples to the said director of the state laboratory for examination and analysis.

Right of sheriff to purchase or seize.

Report to district attorney.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the state board of health whenever it has satisfactory evidence of the violation of any of the provisions of this act respecting the adulteration, mislabeling or misbranding of drugs, to report such facts to the district attorney of the county where the law is violated.

Unlawful to refuse to sell to sheriff.

SEC. 11. It shall be a misdemeanor for any person to refuse to sell to any sheriff or other agent of the state board of health, any sample of drug upon tender of the market price therefor, or to conceal any such drug from such officer, or to withhold from him information where such drug is kept or stored. Any such person so refusing to sell, or concealing such drug, or withholding such information from said officer, shall upon conviction, be punished as provided in section nineteen of the Penal Code of the State of California.

SEC. 12. Whenever said director shall find from his examination and analysis that adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded drugs have been on sale in this state, he shall forthwith report to the secretary of the state board of health, and shall promptly transmit a certificate of the facts so found to the district attorney of the county in which said adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded drug was found.

When analysis shows adulteration, report.

SEC. 13. Every certificate signed by the said director of the state laboratory shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

Evidence of facts

SEC. 14. The said director of the state laboratory shall make an annual report to the state board of health, on or before August first of each year, upon adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded drugs, in which report shall be included the list of cases examined by him in which adulterants were found, and the list of articles found mislabeled or misbranded, and the names of the manufacturers, producers, jobbers and sellers. Said report, or any part thereof, may, in the discretion of the state board of health, be included in the report which the state board of health is already authorized by law to make to the governor. The state board of health may, in its discretion publish any part of said report in any issue of its monthly bulletin.

Annual report of director of state laboratory.

SEC. 15. When the examination or analysis of the director of the state laboratory shows that any of the provisions of this act have been violated, notice of that fact together with a copy of the certificate of the findings, shall be furnished to the party or parties from whom the sample was obtained or who executed the guaranty as provided in this act, and a date shall be fixed by the secretary of the board of health at which time said party or parties may be heard before the state board of health or any two members thereof, and the secretary. The hearing shall be held in the city of Sacramento and at least fifteen days notice thereof shall be first served upon the party complained of. These hearings shall be private and confined to questions of fact. The parties interested therein may appear in person or by attorneys and may propound the interrogatories and submit oral or written evidence to show any fault or error in the findings made by the director of the state laboratory. If the examination or analysis be found correct, or if the party or parties fail to appear at such hearing, after notice duly served as provided herein, the secretary of the state board of health shall forthwith transmit a certificate of the facts so found to the district attorney of the county in which said adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded drug was found. No publication thereof shall be made until after said hearing is concluded.

Hearings for violation of act.

Where held.

Facts to be certified to district attorney.

SEC. 16. It is hereby made the duty of the sheriff of any county of this state, on presentation to him of a verified complaint of the violation of any provisions of this act, at once to obtain by purchase a sample of the adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded drug complained of and divide said article into three parts, and each part shall be sealed by the sheriff with a Duty of sheriff.

seal provided for that purpose. If the package be less than four pounds, or in volume less than two quarts, three packages of approximately the same size shall be purchased and the marks and tags upon each package noted as above. One sample shall be delivered to the party from whom procured, or to the party guaranteeing said drug. One sample shall be sent to the director of the state laboratory, and the third sample shall be sent to and held under seal by the state board of health.

Fees of sheriff.

SEC. 17. For his services hereunder the said sheriff shall be allowed the same fees for travel allowed by law to sheriffs on service of criminal process, together with such compensation as by the board of supervisors of his county may be deemed reasonable, and all accounts expended by him in procuring and transmitting the said samples, which fees and amount expended shall be audited and allowed by the said supervisors and paid by his said county as other bills of said sheriff.

Duty of district attorney.

SEC. 18. It shall be the duty of the district attorney of each county to prosecute all violations of the provisions of this act occurring within his county.

Penalty
for violation of act.

SEC. 19. Any person, firm, company or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Drugs found to be adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act may, by order of any court or judge, be seized and destroyed.

Disposition
of fines.

SEC. 20. One half of all fines collected by any court or judge for the violations of the provisions of this act shall be paid to the state treasurer and the state treasurer shall deposit such money to the credit of the fund for the maintenance of the state laboratory, to be drawn against by warrants of the state controller upon claims which shall be approved by the state board of examiners.

Guaranty of jobber protects dealer.

SEC. 21. No dealer shall be prosecuted under the provisions of this act, when he can establish a guaranty signed by the wholesaler, jobber, manufacturer or other party residing in the United States from whom he purchased such article to the effect, that the same is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act, designating it. Said guaranty to afford protection, must contain the name and address of the party or parties making the sales of such article to said dealer, and an itemized statement showing the articles purchased; or a general guaranty may be filed with the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture by the manufacturer, wholesaler, jobber or other party in the United States and be given a serial number, which number shall appear on each and every package of goods sold under such guaranty with the words "Guaranteed under the food and drugs act, June 30, 1906." In case the wholesaler, jobber, manufacturer or other party making such guaranty to said dealer resides without this state, and it appears from the certificate of the director of the state laboratory that such article or articles were adulterated or misbranded, within the meaning of this act, or the national pure food act, approved June 30, 1906, the district attorney must forthwith notify the attorney-general of the United States of such violation.

Sec. 22. This act shall be in force and effect from and after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and eight.

CHAPTER 187.

An act making an appropriation of two thousand nine hundred ($2900.00) dollars to be applied to the cost of grading, curbing with wood, macadamizing and concrete guttering Hearst avenue in Berkeley, along the northerly boundary of the grounds of the University of California, and defining the duties of the controller and treasurer in reference thereto.

[Approved March 11, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of two thousand nine hundred ($2900.00) dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the use of the regents of the University of California, to be applied to the cost of grading, curbing with wood, macadamizing and concrete guttering Hearst avenue in Berkeley, along the northerly boundary of the grounds of the University of California.

Improvement of street adjacent to state university, appropriation.

Sec. 2. The controller is authorized and directed to issue his warrant for the above named sum, payable to the treasurer of the University of California, and the treasurer of the state is directed to pay the same.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 188.

An act to provide for the construction of an additional building at the Veterans' Home of California, located at Yountville, Napa county, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved March 11, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for the erection of an additional building at the Veterans' Home of California, located at Yountville, Napa county, to be used as a storehouse for quartermaster and commissary supplies.

An act providing for an appropriation of $8000 for the purpose of purchasing additional land along the south line of "L" street between 26th and 28th streets, in Sacramento City, so as to extend and improve the grounds in and about "Sutter's Fort."

[Approved March 13, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of $8000.00 is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of purchasing a strip of land along the south line of "L" street between 26th and 28th streets in the city of Sacramento, for the purpose of providing more suitable boundaries of said "Sutter's Fort."

CHAPTER 212.

An act for the regulation of the practice of medicine and surgery, osteopathy, and other systems or modes of treating the sick or afflicted, in the State of California, and for the appointment of a board of medical examiners in the matter of said regulation.

[Approved March 14, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The governor shall appoint a board of medical examiners to be known as the board of medical examiners of the State of California, consisting of eleven members. Such appointments shall be made from separate lists presented to him every second year; five members from a list of ten names presented by the Medical Society of the State of California, two members from a list of four names presented by the California State Homeopathic Medical Society, two members from a list of four names presented by the Eclectic Medical Society of the State of California, and two members from a list of four names presented by the Osteopathic Association of the State of California. Vacancies occurring in the representation of said societies, respectively, shall be filled by appointment from said lists. The appointment of each member shall be for a term of two years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified; provided, however, that no professor, instructor, or other person in any manner connected with, or financially interested in any college or school of medicine or surgery or osteopathy shall be appointed a member of said board. It shall require the affirmative vote of seven members of said board to carry any motion or resolution to adopt any rule to pass any measure or to authorize the issuance of any certificate as in this act provided.

SEC. 2. Each member of said board, shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take the constitutional oath of office, and shall, in addition, make oath that he is a graduate in medicine and surgery or osteopathy, and a licensed practitioner of medicine and surgery, or of osteopathy, of this state.

SEC. 3. Said board shall organize on or before the first Tuesday of May, 1907, by electing from its number a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, who shall hold their respective positions during the pleasure of said board.

Said board shall hold its regular meetings in the city and county of San Francisco on the first Tuesday of April, August, and December of each year, with power of adjournment from time to time until its business is concluded; provided, however, that examinations of applicants for certificates may, in the discretion of the board, be conducted in any part of the state designated by the board. Notice of each regular meeting of the board shall be given by publication twice a week for each of the two weeks next preceding each meeting, in two daily papers published in the city of San Francisco, in one daily paper published in the city of Sacramento, and one daily paper published in the city of Los Angeles, which notice shall also specify the time and place of holding the examination of applicants. Special meetings of the board may be held at such time and place as the board may designate, and the same notice thereof shall be given as in case of regular meetings. Said board shall receive through its secretary applications for the certificates provided to be issued by this act, and shall on or before the first day of January of each year transmit to the governor a full report of all its proceedings, together with a report of its receipts and disbursements.

SEC. 4. The office of said board shall be in the city and county of San Francisco, and in all legal proceedings against the board the said city and county shall be deemed to be the residence of the members thereof.

Office of board.

SEC. 5. Said board may from time to time adopt such rules as may be necessary to enable it to carry into effect the provisions of this act. Any member of said board may administer oaths in all matters pertaining to the duties of said board, and the board shall have authority to take evidence in any matter cognizable by it.

Rules.

SEC. 6. Three forms of certificate shall be issued by said board under the seal thereof and signed by the president and the secretary: first, a certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice medicine and surgery; second, a certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice osteopathy; third, a certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice any other system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted not referred to in this section.

Forms of certificates.

In order to procure a certificate to practice medicine and surgery, the applicant for such certificate must file with said board at least two weeks prior to a regular meeting thereof, satisfactory testimonials of good moral character, and a diploma issued by some legally chartered medical school, the requirements of which shall have been at the time of granting such diploma in no particular less than those prescribed by the Association of American Medical Colleges for that year, or satisfactory evidence of having possessed such diploma, and he must also file with said diploma an application sworn to before some person authorized to administer oaths, and attested by the hand and seal of such officer, if he have a seal, stating that he is the person named in said diploma, that he is the lawful holder thereof, and that the same was procured in the regular course of instruction and examination, without fraud or misrepresentation. The said application shall be made upon a blank furnished by said board, and it shall contain such information concerning the medical instruction and the preliminary education of the applicant as said board may by rule provide. Applicants who have failed to meet the above requirements must be rejected. Applicants for a certificate to practice osteopathy shall be subject to the above regulations, except that in place of the diploma hereinbefore referred to, they shall be required to file a diploma from a legally chartered college of osteopathy, having a course of instruction of at least twenty months, requiring actual attendance, and after 1908, of three years of nine months each, and including the studies examined upon under this act. Applicants for a certificate to practice any other system or mode of treatment not in this act referred to, shall be subject to the above regulations, except that in place of the diplomas hereinbefore referred to, they shall be required to file a diploma from a legally chartered college of the system or mode of treatment which the applicant claims or intends to follow.

In addition to the requirements above set forth, all applicants for a certificate must be personally examined by said board as to their qualifications. The examination shall be conducted in the English language, shall be practical in character and designed to discover the applicant's fitness to practice his profession, and shall be, in whole or in part, in writing on the following fundamental subjects, to wit:

Anatomy, histology, gynecology, pathology, bacteriology, chemistry and toxicology, physiology, obstetrics, general diagnosis, hygiene. Examinations in each subject shall consist of not less than ten questions, answers to which shall be marked upon a scale of zero to ten. But all applicants must obtain not less than a general average of seventy-five per cent and not less than sixty per cent in any one subject; provided, that applicants who can show at least ten years of reputable practice shall be granted a credit of five per cent upon the general average, and five per cent additional for each subsequent ten years of such practice.

The examination papers shall form a part of the records of the board and shall be kept on file by the secretary for a period of one year after each examination. In said examination the applicant shall be known and designated by number only, and the name attached to the number shall be kept secret until after the board has finally voted upon the application. The secretary of the board shall in no instance participate as an examiner in any examination held by the board.

Sec. 7. Each applicant on making application shall pay to the secretary of the board a fee of twenty-five (25) dollars, which shall be paid to the treasurer of the board by said secretary. In case the applicant's credentials are insufficient, or in case he does not desire to take the examination, the sum of ten (10) dollars will be retained, the remainder of the fee being returnable on application.

SEC. 8. Said board shall keep an official record of all its proceedings, a part of which record shall consist of a register of all applicants for certificates under this act, with the result of each application. Said record shall be evidence of all the proceedings of said board which are set out therein. Record.

SEC. 9. Every person holding a certificate authorizing him to practice medicine and surgery, or osteopathy, or any other system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted, in this state, must have it recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the holder of said certificate is practicing his profession, and the fact of such recording shall be endorsed on the certificate by the county clerk recording the same. Every such person, on each change of his residence must have his certificate recorded in the county to which he shall have changed his residence. The absence of such record shall be prima facie evidence of the want of possession of such certificate. And any person holding a certificate who shall practice medicine or surgery or osteopathy, or any other system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted, in this state, or to attempt to practice medicine or surgery or osteopathy, or any other system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted, in this state, without first having filed his certificate with the county clerk as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for a period of not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Certificates to be recorded by county clerk.

SEC. 10. The county clerk shall keep in a book provided for the purpose, a complete list of the certificates recorded by him, with the date of the record; and said book shall be open to public inspection during his office hours. County clerk to keep record.

SEC. 11. Said board must refuse a certificate to any applicant guilty of unprofessional conduct; but before such refusal the applicant must be cited by citation, signed by the secretary of the board, and sealed with its seal. No such citation shall be issued except upon a sworn complaint filed with the secretary of the board, charging the applicant with having been guilty of unprofessional conduct, and setting forth the particular acts constituting such unprofessional conduct. On the filing of such complaint the secretary must forthwith issue a citation and make the same returnable at the next regular session of said board, occurring at least thirty days next after filing the complaint. Such citation shall notify the applicant of the time and place, when and where the matter of said unprofessional conduct shall be heard, the particular unprofessional conduct with which the applicant is charged, and that the applicant shall file his written answer, under oath, within twenty days next after the service on him of said citation, or default will be taken against him, and his application for a certificate refused. The attendance of witnesses at such hearing shall be compelled by subpoenas issued by the secretary of the board, under its seal; and said secretary shall in no case refuse to issue any such subpoena, upon a fee of twenty Unprofessional conduct.

cents being paid him for each subpoena. Said citation and said subpoenas shall be served in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force as to the service of citations and subpoenas generally, and all provisions of the statutes of this state then in force relating to subpoenas are hereby made applicable to the subpoenas provided for herein. If any person refuse to obey a subpoena served upon him in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force providing for the manner of serving subpoenas, the fact of such refusal shall be certified by the secretary of said board, under the seal thereof, to the superior court of the county in which the service was had, and said court shall thereupon proceed to hear said matter in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force as to contempts for disobedience of process of the court; and should said court find that the subpoena has been legally served, and that the party so served has willfully disobeyed the same, it shall proceed to impose such penalty as provided in cases of contempt of court. In all cases of alleged unprofessional conduct arising under this act, depositions of witnesses may be taken, the same as in civil cases, and all the provisions of the statutes of this state then in force as to the taking of depositions are hereby made applicable to the taking of depositions under this act. If the applicant shall fail to file with the secretary of said board his answer, under oath, to the charges made against him, within twenty days after service on him of said citation, or within such further time as the board may give him, and the charges on their face be deemed sufficient by the board, default shall be entered against him, and his application refused. If the charges on their face be deemed sufficient by the board, and issue be joined thereon by answer, the board shall proceed to determine the matter, to that end shall hear such evidence as may be adduced before it; and if it appear to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant is guilty as charged, no certificate shall be issued to him. No certificate shall be refused on the ground of unprofessional conduct unless the applicant has been guilty of such conduct within two years next preceding his application. Whenever any holder of a certificate herein provided for is guilty of unprofessional conduct, as the same is defined in this act, and the said unprofessional conduct has been brought to the attention of the board granting said certificate, in the manner hereinafter pointed out, or whenever a certificate has been procured by fraud or misrepresentation, or issued by mistake, it shall be their duty to, and they must, revoke the same at once, and the holder of said certificate shall not be permitted to practice medicine or surgery, or osteopathy, or any other system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted, in this state. But no such revocation shall be made unless such holder is cited to appear and the same proceedings are had as is hereinbefore provided in this section in case of refusal to issue certificates. Said secretary in all cases of revocation shall enter on his register the fact of such revocation and shall certify the fact of such revocation under the seal of the board, to the county clerk of the counties in which the certificate of the person whose certificate has been revoked, is recorded; and said clerk must thereupon write upon the margin or across the face of his register of the certificate of such person, the following: "This certificate was revoked on the _____ day of _____," giving the day, month and year of such revocation in accordance with said certification to him by said secretary. The record of such revocation so made by said county clerk shall be prima facie evidence of the fact thereof, and of the regularity of all the proceedings of said board in the matter of said revocation. From the time of the revocation of a certificate the holder thereof shall be disqualified from practicing medicine or surgery, osteopathy, or any other system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted, in this state.

The words "unprofessional conduct," as used in this act, are hereby declared to mean:

Unprofessional conduct defined.

First—The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring a criminal abortion.

Second—The willfully betraying a professional secret.

Third—All advertising of medical business which is intended or has a tendency to deceive the public or impose upon credulous or ignorant persons, and so be harmful or injurious to public morals or safety.

Fourth—All advertising of any medicine or of any means whereby the monthly periods of women can be regulated or the menses re-established if suppressed.

Fifth—Conviction of any offense involving moral turpitude, in which case the record of such conviction shall be conclusive evidence.

Sixth—Habitual intemperance.

Seventh—The personation of another licensed practitioner of a like or different name.

SEC. 12. Said board shall have the power to employ legal counsel and clerical assistance and to fix the salaries of the same and to incur such other expenses as may be deemed necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act. It shall also fix the salary of the secretary, not to exceed the sum of twelve hundred dollars ($1200) per annum, and the sum to be paid to other members of said board, not to exceed ten (10) dollars per diem each, for each and every day of actual service in the discharge of official duties; and said board may, in its discretion, add to said sums necessary traveling expenses. All money in excess of the actual expenses of the board shall be paid annually into the state treasury.

An act to create a reclamation district to be called "Reclamation District No. 800," and providing for the control and management thereof.

[Approved March 14, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A reclamation district is hereby created to be called "Reclamation District No. 800," and the boundaries of said reclamation district shall be as follows:

Reclamation District No. 800.

Beginning at a point in the county of Sacramento, State of California, where the northeasterly boundary line of lot No. 7, in the Sheldon Grant, intersects the westerly bank of the Cosumnes river, and running thence northwesterly along said northeasterly boundary line of said lot No. 7 being along the division line between the lands of Sarah W. Belcher and Annie Murray to the easterly bank of Deer creek in said Sheldon Grant; thence follow the meanderings of the easterly bank of said Deer creek down stream in a southwesterly direction to a point where the easterly bank of said Deer creek intersects the southwesterly boundary line of the north 360 acres of lot No. 1, in the lower Daylor estate. Said southwesterly boundary line of said north 360 acres of said lot No. 1, being a division line between the lands of C. J. Sharon and S. B. Moore; thence following said division line between the lands of said Sharon and Moore in a southeasterly direction to the westerly bank of the Cosumnes river in said lower Daylor estate; thence northeasterly along the westerly bank of said Cosumnes river upstream to the point of beginning.

Management.

SEC. 2. The management and control of said reclamation district is hereby made subject to the provisions of the Political Code of the State of California and other laws of this state, relative to reclamation districts formed under the provisions of said Political Code.

SEC. 3. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 214.

An act to change, establish and permanently locate the boundary lines of the county of Kings, and a portion of the south boundary line of the county of Fresno, and to provide for the submission of such change, establishment and location of such boundary lines, to the qualified electors of the territory to be affected by the change.

[Approved March 14, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Proposed boundary lines of Kings county.

SECTION 1. The boundary lines of the county of Kings are hereby changed, established and permanently located as follows, viz:

Beginning at the northeast corner of section one (1) in township seventeen (17) south, range twenty-two (22) east, Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence south six (6) miles; thence east three (3) miles; thence south nine (9) miles to the southeast corner of section sixteen (16) in township nineteen (19) south, range twenty-three (23) east, Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence west three (3) miles to the southeast corner of section thirteen (13) in township nineteen (19) south, range twenty-two (22) east, Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence south nine (9) miles to the southeast corner of township twenty (20) south, range twenty-two (22), Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence west to the northeast corner of township twenty-one (21) south, range twenty-two (22) east; thence south twenty-four (24) miles to the north boundary line of Kern county, as now established by law; thence west along said north boundary line of Kern county to the corner common to the counties of Monterey, San Luis Obispo and Kern, as now established by law; thence northerly along the summit of the Coast Range mountains, being also the eastern boundary of the counties of Monterey and San Benito, as now established by law, to the southwest corner of township eighteen (18) south, range thirteen (13) east, Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence north twelve (12) miles along the range line between ranges twelve (12) and thirteen (13) to the northwest corner of township seventeen (17) south, range thirteen (13) east, Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence due east along the fourth standard line parallel south to the place of beginning.

SEC. 2. The south boundary line of Fresno county between Kings and Fresno counties is hereby declared to be the fourth standard parallel line south.

South line of Fresno county.

SEC. 3. The governor shall within ten days after this act takes effect and as hereinafter provided, appoint five persons, residents and electors of that certain territory within the following described boundaries, viz: Beginning at the northwest corner of township seventeen (17) south, range thirteen (13) east, Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence due south along the range line between ranges twelve (12) and thirteen (13), to the summit of the Coast Range mountains; thence southerly along the summit of the Coast Range mountains, the same being also the boundary line between the counties of San Benito and Monterey and the county of Fresno as now established by law, to the corner common to the counties of Fresno, Monterey and Kings; thence northeasterly along and following the boundary line between Kings and Fresno counties, as now established by law, to a point where said boundary line intersects the fourth standard parallel line south; thence due west on said fourth standard parallel line south to the place of beginning, who shall be and constitute a board of commissioners to carry out the provisions of this act. All costs and expenses that may be incurred by said commissioners, as such, in holding any election hereinafter provided for and any compensation due said commissioners, for services rendered as such, or any clerk employed by them, shall be legal charges against the county of Kings. The said commissioners shall each receive five dollars per day for each and every day's services actually rendered as such commissioners, not exceeding twenty days' services by each commissioner, and their actual traveling expenses, the same to be audited and paid as other expenses are audited and paid by the board of supervisors of Kings county. Said commissioners shall meet within said territory above described within ten days after their appointment, and after being duly sworn to faithfully discharge their duties as such commissioners, shall organize by electing one of their number president, and shall elect a clerk, who shall also be duly sworn to faithfully discharge the duties of clerk of said board of commissioners, and shall receive the sum of fifty dollars per month during his term of office. Three of the members of said board shall be necessary to transact any business and a majority of the members present at any meeting shall control in all matters coming before said board. It shall be the duty of said board of commissioners, after they shall have duly organized, to divide the territory last above described into not less than five nor more than nine election precincts, and to designate the place in each precinct where the election herein provided for must be held. Said commissioners and the clerk elected by them are hereby authorized, empowered and required to discharge the same duties as are now required by law of boards of supervisors and county clerks in the counties of this state so far as the same apply to holding elections, canvassing the returns and certifying the results thereof; they shall keep a full record of their proceedings, transmitting to the secretary of state a certified copy thereof, and filing the original, with the original election returns, in the office of the county clerk of the county of Fresno; and in case the qualified electors of said territory last above described shall vote in favor of such change as herein provided the said commissioners shall file a certified copy of all their proceedings and of said election returns with the county clerk of the county of Kings; and thereupon the powers and duties of said commissioners shall cease and terminate. Within sixty days from the time of the first meeting of the commissioners herein provided for, said commissioners shall order and hold an election in the said territory last hereinbefore described and in each precinct thereof created by said commissioners. At said election there shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said territory the question whether said territory herein described shall be annexed or added to Kings county; and for the purpose of ascertaining the choice of said electors the ballots used at said election shall have printed thereon the words: "For annexation to Kings County, Yes," "For annexation to Kings County, No," and all ballots on which a cross is marked with a stamp after the words "For annexation to Kings County, Yes," shall be counted in favor of such annexation of said territory hereinbefore described to Kings county, and all ballots on which a cross is marked with a stamp after the words "For annexation to Kings County, No," shall be counted against such annexation. Said election shall be conducted in every respect, except as otherwise herein provided, in accordance with the general election law for the election of county and township officers. All qualified electors of this state who have been residents and electors of the said territory last herein described for ninety days preceding the election herein provided for shall be qualified to vote at said election. The great register of Fresno county used at the general election held in the year nineteen hundred and six in the territory last above described shall be prima facie evidence of the qualification of electors; the county clerk of the county of Fresno is hereby directed to furnish the said commissioners a certificate under seal, showing the additional names of the voters on the great register of the county of Fresno, registered as residing in the said territory hereinbefore described, since the last great register of Fresno county was printed, and the certificate of the county clerk of Fresno county under seal, showing the registration of any qualified voter residing in the said territory prior to three months before such election shall entitle the holder thereof, if otherwise qualified by law, to vote at said election. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to furnish to the clerk of said board of commissioners the quantity of ballot paper ordered by the said clerk for use at said election upon the payment of the cost of said paper. If at said election sixty per cent of the votes cast on the question of annexation of the said territory hereinbefore described to Kings county shall be in favor of such annexation, then the said territory shall be and become a part of the said county of Kings from and after the day upon which the returns of said election shall be ascertained and declared by said board of commissioners. But if at such election less than sixty per cent of the qualified electors voting for and against such annexation of said territory to the county of Kings shall be in favor thereof, then said territory hereinbefore described shall continue to be and remain a portion of the said county of Fresno. Sealed returns from the officers of election of the several precincts established by said board of commissioners shall be made to such board of commissioners at such office as they may select within the said territory within six days after the day of election. All justices of the peace, and all constables, duly elected and qualified and residents of the said territory herein described at the taking effect of this act shall hold their offices for the terms provided by law for the respective townships in which they reside. All school trustees acting as such at the time of the taking effect of this act, and residents of the said territory herein described, shall hold their offices for the time provided by law, for the respective school districts in which they severally reside, as such districts are now organized. All notaries public residents of the said territory herein described shall hold their offices until the expiration of their terms.

Secretary of state to furnish ballot paper.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 215.

An act to provide for taking down the agricultural pavilion now located in Capitol Park, in the city of Sacramento, moving the material therein to Agricultural Park, near the city of Sacramento, and erecting in said park from said material, and such additional material as may be necessary, two exhibition buildings to be known as Agricultural Pavilion and Manufacturers Pavilion, respectively, and appropriating money therefor.

[Approved March 14, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Bids for razing agricultural pavilion.

SECTION 1. It shall be, and is hereby made, the duty of the board of directors of the State Agricultural Society, immediately after the passage of this act, to advertise for bids in at least two papers of general circulation for wrecking or taking down the building known as the "New Agricultural Pavilion," now located in Capitol Park, city of Sacramento, and moving the material therein which may be suitable for use in the construction of other exhibition buildings, to Agricultural Park, located near the city of Sacramento.

What advertisement must specify.

SEC. 2. The advertisement for wrecking the said new pavilions shall specify that the work must be done with as little damage to the lumber and other material therein as possible, having in view its use for other structures.

Sale of wreckage.

SEC. 3. All wreckage or material that is not suitable for use in other buildings shall be sold by the directors of the State Agricultural Society to the highest bidder, for cash, after due notice shall have been given of such sale, and the amount received therefrom shall be added to the appropriation herein made, and must be duly accounted for.

CHAPTER 216.

An act to prohibit adulteration and deception in the sale of dairy products, defining adulteration in dairy products, to establish standards of quality in dairy products and to provide for enforcing its provisions.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to produce, manufacture or prepare for sale, or to sell or offer for sale, or have on hand for sale, any milk, or product of milk, that is adulterated within the meaning of this act. The word "person" as used in this act shall be construed to import both the singular and plural, as the case demands, and shall include individuals, corporations, companies, societies and associations. When construing and enforcing the provisions of this act, the act, omission or failure of any employé, officer, agent or other person, acting for or employed by any individual, corporation, company, society or association, within the scope of his employment or office, shall in every case also be deemed to be the act, omission or failure of such individual, corporation, company, society or association, as well as that of the person. The provisions of this act shall be construed to apply to hotel keepers, restaurant keepers and boarding house keepers or any person who shall serve meals and accept money therefor. The words "product of milk" as used in this act, shall not apply to any product into which milk, or a product of milk, may enter as an ingredient or component of a food product that does not consist of milk, or milk products alone, such as pastry, confectionery and ice cream, and excepting in case of condensed milk or evaporated milk or cream in which case the provisions of this act shall apply, provided, that this section shall not be construed to prevent the use of common salt (chloride of sodium) in dairy products. Any label, printed matter, or advertising or descriptive matter appearing upon, or in connection with any package, parcel or quantity of milk or milk products when being sold, offered for sale, or having on hand for sale, and having reference to the article being sold, offered for sale, or on hand for sale, shall conform with the provisions of this act, and if it fails to conform with the provisions of this act, such article shall be deemed adulterated under this act. It shall be unlawful for any person under this act, when selling or offering for sale, or having on hand for sale, milk or any product of milk to use the words "milk," "condensed milk," "sweetened condensed milk," "condensed skimmed milk," "evaporated cream," "cream" or "butter," either verbally or printed or written on any label or printed matter used in connection with the sale, or offering for sale, or having on hand for sale, of milk or any product of milk, or upon any bill of fare used in any hotel, restaurant or other places where meals are served when the article shall not conform with the provisions of section two of this act.

"Product of milk" defined.

Labels must conform to provisions of act.

Definitions and standards.

SEC. 2. Milk and the products of milk enumerated in this section shall be deemed adulterated within the meaning of this act if it or they shall not conform with the following definitions and standards:

Milk.

1. Milk is the fresh, clean, lacteal secretion obtained by the complete milking of one or more healthy cows, properly fed and kept, excluding that obtained within fifteen (15) days before and five (5) days after calving, and contains not less than three (3.0) per cent of milk fat, and not less than eight and five-tenths (8.5) per cent of solids—not fat.

Skim milk.

2. Skim milk is milk from which a part or all of the cream has been removed and contains not less than nine and twenty-five hundredths (9.25) per cent of milk solids.

Condensed milk.

3. Condensed milk or evaporated milk, is milk from which a considerable portion of water has been evaporated and contains not less than twenty-eight (28) per cent of milk solids of which not less than twenty-seven and five tenths (27.5) per cent is milk fat.

4. Sweetened condensed milk is milk from which a considerable portion of water has been evaporated and to which sugar (sucrose) has been added, and contains not less than twenty-eight (28) per cent of milk solids, of which not less than twenty-seven and five tenths (27.5) per cent is milk fat.

Sweetened condensed milk.

5. Condensed skim milk is skim milk from which a considerable portion of water has been evaporated.

Condensed skim milk.

6. Cream is that portion of milk, rich in milk fat, which rises to the surface of milk on standing, or is separated from it by centrifugal force, is fresh and clean and contains not less than eighteen (18) per cent of milk fat.

Cream.

7. Evaporated cream, clotted cream, is cream from which a considerable portion of water has been evaporated.

Evaporated cream.

8. Milk fat, butter fat, is the fat of milk and has a Reichert-Meissel number not less than .905 (40 degrees C.).

Milk fat.

9. Butter is the clean, non-rancid product made by gathering in any manner the fat of fresh or ripened milk or cream into a mass, which also contains a small portion of the other milk constituents, with or without salt, and contains not less than 80 per cent of milk fat.

Butter.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the state dairy bureau, now existing under the laws of this state, to enforce the provisions of this act; provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any city or county board of health or other city or county official from enforcing the provisions of this act.

Duty of state dairy bureau.

SEC. 4. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten nor more than sixty days. Provided that no conviction shall be had where a conviction is sought upon any alleged sample of milk, or product of milk, unless such sample has been taken in duplicate, sealed and marked for identification, and one of such samples left with the person accused. All fines collected under this act shall be paid to the state dairy bureau when the complaint is made through the state dairy bureau and the state dairy bureau shall pay the same to the state treasurer and the amount paid by the state dairy bureau to the state treasurer is hereby appropriated to the use of the state dairy bureau in enforcing this act for the fiscal year in which the amount was paid to the state treasurer.

Penalty for violation of act.

Fines.

SEC. 5. It shall be unlawful for any person to prevent or interfere with the duly authorized inspectors or agents of the state dairy bureau, or any city or county board of health, from entering any place or premises where milk or products of milk are produced or manufactured or prepared or to prevent or interfere with such inspectors or agents in the event they deem it advisable to secure samples of milk or milk products from any person producing or selling milk or products of milk for the purposing of analyzing the same to ascertain whether this act is being violated.

Interference with inspectors.

Duty of district
attorney.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the district attorney, upon application of the state dairy bureau or any city or county board of health to attend to the prosecution, in the name of the people, of any complaint entered for violation of any of the provisions of this act within his district.

SEC. 7. All acts, or parts of acts, inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 8. This act shall take effect and be in force sixty days after its passage.

CHAPTER 217.

An act to convert, transfer and return to the general fund of the state treasury, all unexpended moneys heretofore appropriated for the care, management or improvement, or for any other purpose, with reference to the "Yosemite Valley and Mariposa Big Tree Grove" or any money which may be or hereafter come into the Yosemite Valley and Mariposa Big Tree Grove."

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Moneys

An act to repeal sections 357, 3584, 3585 and 3586 of the Political Code, relating to the "Yosemite Valley and the Mariposa Big Tree Grove."

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 357, 3584, 3585 and 3586 of the Political Code are hereby repealed.

Political Code sections repealed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 220.

An act to amend the Penal Code of California by adding four new sections thereto, to be numbered section 597a, section 597b, section 597c, and section 597d, relating to docking of horses' tails, and providing a punishment therefor.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code to be numbered section 597a, as follows:

597a. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to dock the tail of any horse, within the State of California, or to procure the same to be done, or to import or bring into this state, any docked horse, or horses, or to drive, work, use, race or deal in any unregistered docked horse, or horses, within the State of California except as provided in section five hundred and ninety-seven d of this code.

Docking tails of horses.

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code to be numbered section 597b, as follows:

597b. Within thirty days after the passage of this act, every owner, or user of any docked horse, within the State of California, shall register his or her docked horse, or horses by filing in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such docked horse, or horses, may then be kept, a certificate, which certificate shall contain the name, or names of the owner, together with his or her postoffice address, a full description of the color, age, size and the use made of such docked horse, or horses; which certificate shall be signed by the owner, or his, or her agent. The county clerk shall number such certificate consecutively and record the name in a book, or register to be kept for that purpose only; and shall receive as a fee for recording of such certificate, the sum of fifty cents, and the clerk shall thereupon issue to such person so registering such horse or horses a certificate containing the facts recited in this section which upon demand shall be exhibited to any peace officer, and the same shall be conclusive evidence of a compliance with the provisions of section 597a of this code.

SEC. 3. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code to be numbered section 597c, as follows:

Evidence.

597c. The driving, working, keeping, racing or using of any unregistered docked horse, or horses, after sixty days after the passage of this act, shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the fact that the party driving, working, keeping, racing or using such unregistered docked horse, or horses, docked the tail of such horse or horses.

SEC. 4. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code to be numbered section 597d, as follows:

Violation a misdemeanor.

Certain stock excepted.

597d. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, however, that the provisions of sections 597a, 597b, and 597c, shall not be applied to persons owning or possessing any docked pure-bred stallions and mares imported from foreign countries for breeding or exhibition purposes only, as provided by an act of congress entitled "An act regulating the importation of breeding animals" and approved March 3, 1903, and to docked native bred stallions and mares brought into this state and used for breeding or exhibition purposes only; and provided further, that a description of each such animal so brought into the state, together with the date of importation and name and address of importer, be filed with the county clerk of the county where such animal is kept, within thirty days after the importation of such animal.

CHAPTER 221.

An act to repeal section thirty-nine hundred and seventy-seven of the Political Code, to add a new section thereto to be known as section thirty-nine hundred and seventy-five b, and to amend sections thirty-nine hundred and seventy-six, thirty-nine hundred and eighty-one and thirty-nine hundred and eighty-five thereof, all relating to county seats and proceedings for the change thereof.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section to be known as section thirty-nine hundred and seventy-five b is hereby added to the Political Code, to read as follows:

3975b. The county seats of the respective counties of the state, as now fixed by law, are hereby recognized as, and declared to be, the county seats of the respective counties. County seats.

SEC. 2. Section thirty-nine hundred and seventy-six of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3976. Whenever there shall be presented to the board of supervisors of any county a petition signed by the qualified electors of such county in number equal to a majority of the votes cast at the preceding general election, praying for the submission of the question of the removal of the county seat of such county, it shall be the duty of such board, by due proclamation, to submit the question of such removal thereof to the qualified electors of such county at the next general election. Question of removal.

SEC. 3. Section thirty-nine hundred and seventy-seven of the Political Code is hereby repealed. Repealed.

SEC. 4. Section thirty-nine hundred and eighty-one of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3981. When the returns have been received and compared, and the results ascertained by the board, if two-thirds of the qualified voters of the county voting on the proposition shall vote in favor of removal, and in favor of any particular place, the board shall so declare on its minutes, and give notice of the result by posting notices thereof in all the election precincts of the county. Notice of result of election.

SEC. 5. Section thirty-nine hundred and eighty-five of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3985. When the county seat of a county has been once removed by a popular vote of the county, it may be again removed from time to time, in the manner provided by this chapter; but no election must be ordered to affect any such subsequent removal, unless a petition praying for an election is signed by qualified electors of the county, equal in number to at least three-fourths of all the votes cast at the next preceding general election. Subsequent removals.

CHAPTER 222.

An act to amend section one hundred and nine of the Penal Code, relating to assisting prisoners, paroled prisoners and escapes to escape.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one hundred and nine of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

109. Any person who willfully assists any paroled prisoner whose parole has been revoked, any escape, any prisoner confined in any prison or jail, or any inmate of any public train- Assisting prisoners to escape.

ing school or reformatory, or any person in the lawful custody of any officer or person, to escape, or in an attempt to escape from such prison or jail, or public training school or reformatory, or custody, is punishable as provided in section one hundred and eight of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

An act to amend section eight hundred and six of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, relating to recorder's courts and giving the city justice's court jurisdiction and power over all records, registers, dockets, books, papers, causes, actions and proceedings lodged, deposited or pending before the recorder's court."

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eight hundred and six of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Recorder's court
5th class).

Section 806. A recorder's court is hereby established in such city, to be held by the recorder of such city; provided, that the provisions of this section as to the establishment of the recorder's courts and recorders in such city shall not apply to any such city in which a city justice's court or a city justice of the peace is now or may hereafter be established, and any recorder's court now existing in any such last mentioned city is hereby abolished. The justice of the peace of any city wherein said recorder's court shall have been abolished or which may hereafter be abolished is the successor of the recorder of such city whose court has been abolished as aforesaid; and all records, registers, dockets, books, papers, causes, actions, and proceedings lodged, deposited, or pending before said recorder's court or before the recorder of said city, are transferred to the justice's court of said city, which shall have the same power and jurisdiction over them as if they had been in the first instance lodged, deposited, filed, or commenced therein. Said recorder's court shall have jurisdiction, concurrently with the justice's courts, of all actions and proceedings, civil and criminal, arising within the corporate limits of such city, and which might be tried in such justice's court; and shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all actions for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city, of all actions founded upon any obligation or liability created by any ordinance, and of all prosecutions for any violation of any ordinance. In all civil actions for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forvisors.

SEC. 2. Whenever it is desired to divide any county or counties then existing, and form a new county out of a portion of the territory of such then existing county or counties, a petition shall be presented to the board of supervisors of the county from which said new county is to be formed, in case said county is to be formed from but one county, or to the board of supervisors of the county from which the largest area of territory is proposed to be taken for the formation of such new county in case said new county is to be formed from portions of two or more existing counties. Such petition shall be signed by at least one half of the qualified electors of the proposed new county, whose names appear on the great register or registers used at the general election held therein last preceding the presentation of said petition to the board of supervisors as herein provided; provided, that in cases where the proposed new county is to be formed from portions of two or more existing counties, separate petitions shall be presented from the territory taken from each county; and each of said separate petitions shall be signed by at least one half of the qualified electors of each of said proposed portions. Such signatures need not all be appended to one paper, but may be signed to several petitions which must be identical in form and when so signed the several petitions may be fastened together and shall be treated and presented as one petition. Such petition or petitions shall contain:

Number of signers required.

What petition shall contain.

A particular description of the boundaries of the proposed new county to be formed; and a statement that no line thereof passes within five miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided;

A statement of the population in such proposed county, as near as may be;

A statement of the population remaining in the county or each of the counties from which such new county is to be established, as near as may be;

A statement of the area in square miles which will remain in the county or counties from which territory is taken to form such new county, after such new county is formed;

The name of the proposed new county;

A prayer that such proposed new county be organized into a new county under the provisions of this act.

There shall be attached to and filed with said petition or petitions the affidavit of three qualified electors and taxpayers within each county sought to be divided to the effect that they have read said petition and examined the signatures affixed thereto, and they believe that the statements therein are true, and that it is signed by at least one half of the qualified electors of the proposed new county, or of the proposed portion thereof taken from each existing county, where the proposed new county is to be formed from portions of two or more existing counties; that the signatures affixed thereto are genuine, and that each of such persons so signing was a qualified elector of such county therein sought to be divided, at the date of such signing.

Affidavit to petition.

Such petition or petitions so verified and the verification thereof shall be accepted in all proceedings permitted or provided for in this act, as prima facie evidence of the truth of the matters and facts therein set forth.

By order of the board of supervisors of _____ county.

By _____, Chairman.

Attest: _____, County Clerk.

Bond of petitioners.

Said petitioners shall on or before the date fixed for said hearing, or on or before the date to which said hearing may have been adjourned, file with said board of supervisors a bond to be approved by said board, in such amount as the said board shall designate, but not exceeding five thousand dollars, payable to the county in which said petition is filed, conditioned that the obligors named in said bond will pay to said county all expenses incurred in the proceedings and election provided for in this act, not exceeding the amount specified in said bond, in the event that at the election herein provided for more than thirty-five per cent of the votes cast at said election are "For the new county of _____ (naming the proposed new county) No."

Hearing, and what supervisors shall determine.

At the time so fixed for said hearing the board of supervisors shall proceed to hear the petitioners and any opponents, and may adjourn such hearing from time to time, not exceeding fourteen days in all, and shall receive the proofs offered to establish or controvert the facts set forth in said petition, or petitions and on the final hearing of such petition or petitions said board shall by resolution entered on its minutes determine:

1st. The boundaries of the proposed new county, and the boundaries so determined by said board of supervisors shall be the boundaries of such proposed new county if it be created as herein provided.

2d. Whether the said petition contains the genuine signatures of at least one half of the qualified electors of the proposed new county as herein required, or, in cases where separate petitions are presented from portions of two or more existing counties, as herein required, whether each petition is signed by at least one half of the qualified electors of that portion of each of such existing counties which it is proposed to take into the proposed new county.

3d. Whether the establishing of the proposed new county will reduce the population of any county proposed to be divided to less than twenty-five thousand.

4th. Whether the proposed new county will contain a population of at least six thousand.

5th. Whether any line of the proposed new county passes within five miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided.

6th. Whether the area of any existing county from which territory is taken to form such new county will be reduced to less than twelve hundred square miles by taking the territory proposed to be taken therefrom to form such new county.

7th. The class to which said proposed new county after its creation, shall belong, and the name of said proposed new county as herein provided.

In determining the population of the proposed new county and the population remaining in any county proposed to be divided, after such division, the board of supervisors shall assume that such population is five times the number of names of qualified electors recorded on the great register at the date when said petition is filed in each of the counties proposed to be divided, as residents in the territory of which the population is required to be determined.

Determining population.

On the final hearing said board of supervisors must, upon petition of not less than fifty per cent of the qualified electors of any territory lying within said proposed new county and contiguous to the boundary line thereof, and lying entirely within a single old county, and described in said petition, asking that said territory be not included within the proposed new county, make such changes in the proposed boundaries as will exclude such territory from such new county, and shall establish and define such boundaries; provided that any changes made by said board shall not reduce the population of the proposed new county to less than six thousand; petitions for exclusion shall be disposed of in the order in point of time in which they are filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors, and on final determination of boundaries no changes in the boundaries originally proposed shall be made except as prayed for in said petition or petitions or to correct clerical errors or uncertainties.

Board may reduce proposed boundaries.

Petitions for exclusion.

SEC. 3. If the said board of supervisors determines that the formation of said proposed new county will not reduce the population of any county proposed to be divided to less than 25,000 nor the area thereof to less than 1200 square miles, and that the proposed new county contains a population of at least 6,000, and that no line of said proposed new county passes within five miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided, and that said petition contains the genuine signatures of at least one half of the qualified electors of the proposed new county or in cases where separate petitions are presented from portions of two or more existing counties, as herein required, that each of said petitions contain the genuine signatures of at least one half of the qualified electors of that portion of the proposed new county from which it is taken, then said board of supervisors shall divide the proposed new county into a convenient number of judicial townships, road and school districts and define their boundaries and designate the names of such districts, and each of them; they shall also divide the proposed new county into five supervisorial districts to contain as nearly as practicable an equal population, and number said districts; they shall also, if necessary for the purposes of the election hereinafter provided for, change the boundaries of the election precincts in said old county or counties to make the same conform to the boundaries of the proposed new county; provided that the boundary lines of no such precinct shall extend beyond the boundary lines of the existing county in which it is located and from which the territory is proposed to be taken; and said board shall appoint the election officers to act at said election and to be paid by said board. Within two weeks after its determination of the truth of the allegations of said petition as aforesaid the said board of supervisors shall order, and give proclamation and notice of, an election to be held on a specified day in the territory which is proposed to be taken for the new county, not less than twenty-five nor more than forty days thereafter, for the purpose of determining whether such territory shall be established and organized into a new county, and for the election of officers and locating of a county seat therefor in case the vote at such election shall be in favor of the establishment and organization of such new county.

Election
proclamation.

Who entitled to vote.

All qualified electors resident within the proposed new county who are qualified electors of the county or counties from which territory is taken to form such proposed new county, and who have been such resident qualified electors twenty-five days prior to the date of said election, shall be entitled to vote at said election. Registration and transfers of registration shall be made and shall close in the manner and at a time provided by law for registration and transfers of registration for a general election in the State of California.

Publication of notice of election.

Such proclamation and notice of election shall be published at least once a week for three weeks before holding of such election, in some newspaper of general circulation published in the territory which is proposed to be taken for the new county and a copy thereof shall be mailed immediately by the county clerk of the county in which the petition is filed to the county clerk of each county from which territory is taken for the proposed new county. Such proclamation and notice shall require the voters to cast ballots which shall contain the words "For the new county of (giving the name of the proposed new county) Yes," and "For the new county of (giving the name of the proposed new county) No," and each voter desiring to vote for the establishment and organization of said new county shall stamp a cross (X) opposite the words "For the new county of ——— Yes," in the manner now required by law in other elections, and each voter desiring to vote against the establishment and organization of said new county shall mark a cross (X) opposite the words "For the new county of ——— No," in the manner now required by law in other elections; and shall also contain the names of persons to be voted for to fill the various elective offices designated in said proclamation for counties of the class to which said proposed county will belong, as determined by the board of supervisors as herein directed and in the manner provided by law, except as herein otherwise provided, and also shall have printed thereon the words "For county seat" with a blank space left below said words and the voter shall write his choice for county seat in said space and the name so written shall be counted as the choice of the voter for such county seat, whether a cross (X) shall be marked after said name or not or whether said name be written in ink or pencil.

The proclamation calling the election and the notice thereof provided for in this act shall be made and given exclusively by the board of supervisors with which is filed the said petition for the formation and establishment of such new county and such board shall cause the clerk of said county to furnish to the officers of each precinct in such proposed new county all ballots, poll lists, tally lists, registers for voters' signatures, ballot boxes and other election supplies and equipment necessary to conduct such election and which are not hereinafter specifically directed to be furnished by the clerk of another county or counties.

Election supplies.

Such election shall be governed and controlled by the general election laws of the state so far as the same shall be applicable, except as herein otherwise provided.

Conduct of election.

The county clerk of each county from which territory is taken for the proposed new county shall five days before the date of such election furnish to each board of election within said proposed new county the book of affidavits of registration for the precincts of such proposed new county as are within their respective counties, and the copies of indexes thereof required by law, containing the names of all persons who were qualified electors therein up to twenty-five days before the date of such election. All returns of election herein provided for shall be made to the board of supervisors calling such election.

Registers for election officers.

All certificates of nomination of candidates for the offices required to be filed at said election shall be filed with the county clerk of the county represented by the board of supervisors calling said election, not less than ten days next before the date of such election.

Certificates of nomination.

The provision of the election laws relating to preparation, printing and distribution of sample ballots and the provisions of said laws relating to primary elections in this state shall have no application to any election provided for in this act.

Sample ballots.

SEC. 4. If upon the canvass of the votes cast at such election it appears that sixty-five per cent of the votes cast where the proposed new county is formed from one existing county or that sixty-five per cent of the votes cast in the territory taken from each county, where the proposed new county is formed from two or more existing counties, are "For the new county of _____ (naming it) Yes," the board of supervisors shall by a resolution entered upon its minutes declare such territory duly formed and created as a county of this state, of the class to which the same shall belong, under the name of _____ county (naming it), and that the place (naming it) receiving the highest number of votes cast at said election for county seat shall be the county seat of said county until removed in the manner provided by law, and designating and declaring the persons receiving respectively the highest number of votes for the several offices to be filled at said election, to be duly elected to such offices, and prescribing the amount in which such officers must execute official bonds, where official bonds are required by law. Said board shall forthwith cause a copy of its said resolution duly certified, to be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and from and after the date of such filing said new county shall be deemed to be fully created, and the organization thereof shall be deemed completed and such officers shall be entitled to enter immediately upon the duties of their respective offices upon qualifying in accordance with law and giving bonds for the faithful performance of their duties, as herein required. The clerk of the board of supervisors with which said petition was filed, as herein provided, must immediately make out and deliver to each of said persons so declared and designated to be elected, a certificate of election authenticated by his signature and the seal of said board of supervisors. All the officers elected at said election or appointed under this act shall hold their offices until the time provided by general law for the election and qualification of such officers in this state and until their successors are elected and qualified and for the purpose of determining the term of office of such officers, the years said officers are to hold office, are to be computed respectively from and including the first Monday after the first day of January following the last preceding general election.

Certificate to be filed with secretary of state.

Certificate of election.

Proceedings cease if proposition be lost.

If, however, upon such canvass it appears that more than thirty-five per cent of the votes cast at said election where the proposed new county is formed from one existing county or that thirty-five per cent of the votes in the territory taken from any county, where the proposed new county is formed from two or more existing counties, are "For the new county of _____ (naming it) No," the said board of supervisors shall pass a resolution in accordance therewith and thereupon the proceedings relating to the division of such county or counties shall cease and determine and no other proceedings in relation to the division of said county or counties shall be instituted for at least one year after such determination.

Officers of new county.

SEC. 5. At the election provided for in section three of this act there shall be chosen one judge of the superior court of said new county whose salary shall be $3,000 per annum, payable at the same time and in the same manner as salaries of the judges of the superior court of the several counties of the state are paid; also such other county, township, and district officers as are now or may hereafter by general law be provided for in counties of the class to which said new county is determined to belong as herein provided; provided, however, that all duly elected, qualified and acting supervisors residing within the proposed new county at the time of the division of such county into supervisorial districts as hereinbefore in section 3 hereof provided, shall hold office of supervisors in said new county for the remainder of the term for which they were elected on qualifying as supervisors for the respective districts in which they reside, as said districts are organized as provided in this act.

Provided also, that all duly elected, qualified, and acting justices of the peace and constables residing within the proposed new county at the time of the division of such county into judicial townships as hereinbefore in section 3 hereof provided, shall hold office as such justices of the peace or constables in said county for the remainder of the term for which they were elected on qualifying as justices of the peace or constables for the respective townships in which they reside, when said townships are organized as provided in this act; also provided, that all duly elected, qualified and acting school trustees residing within the proposed new county at the time of the division of such county into school districts as hereinbefore in section 3 hereof provided shall hold office as school trustees in said new county for the remainder of the term for which they were elected on qualifying as school trustees for the respective districts in which they reside as said districts are organized as provided by this act.

Each person elected or appointed to fill an office of such new county under the provisions of this act shall qualify in the manner provided by law for such officers, except as herein otherwise provided and shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of his office within twenty days after the receipt of the certificate of his election. Each of such officers may take the oath of office before any officer authorized by the law of the State of California to administer oaths and the bond of any officer from which a bond is required shall be approved by any judge of the superior court of any county from which territory was taken to form such new county. The officers elected or appointed under the provisions of this act shall each perform the duties and receive the compensation now provided by general law for the office to which he has been appointed or elected in counties of the class to which such new county shall have been determined to belong as herein provided under the general classification of counties in this state.

SEC. 6. If by reason of the provisions of section 5 of this act, any vacancies in the offices of supervisors, justices of the peace, constables or school trustees are created in the old county or counties, the vacancies shall be filled, as is now provided by general laws, for the unexpired terms of such officers respectively; and the board of supervisors of such old county shall redistrict the territory remaining therein into supervisorial districts and in any of such districts in which none of the remaining supervisors reside the office of supervisor shall be deemed to be vacant and supervisors for such district shall be appointed as by general law provided.

SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of the persons elected to or continuing to hold the office of supervisors of said new county to meet at the county seat thereof within five days after all of them shall have qualified, and upon organization of said board of supervisors, it shall notify the governor of the state of the organization of said county, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the governor to appoint three persons, one of whom shall be a resident and taxpayer within the new county, and no two of whom shall be from any one county; the three persons so appointed shall form and be a board of commissioners. Such commissioners shall within ten days after the notice of their appointment, meet at the county seat of the new county and organize by electing from their number a chairman, and also elect a secretary who must not be a member of said commission. Thereafter such commission may meet at such place or places as it may select. A majority of said commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Said commission shall have power to compel by citation or subpoena signed by their president and secretary the attendance of such persons and the production of such books and papers before said commission as may be required in the performance of the duties imposed by this act except that the official records of any county or counties from which said new county was formed shall in no case be taken from the county seat of said county. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of any county to execute in his county all lawful orders and citations of the said commission; and for any services so performed the sheriff shall be allowed the same fees as are allowed to him for services in civil actions and all witnesses attending before said commission shall be entitled to the same compensation and mileage as is allowed to witnesses in civil actions; provided, that no witness shall be excused from attendance at the time and place mentioned in said order or citation by reason of the failure of the officer making such service to tender to such witness his fees and mileage in advance.

SEC. 8. Said board of commissioners shall immediately after its organization ascertain the costs of the election held hereunder and apportion the same equally between each of the counties from which territory was taken to form such new county, and said new county, and shall also ascertain the indebtedness of each county from which territory was taken to form the new county, as the same existed at the time when the result of the election thereon was declared by the board of supervisors as hereinbefore provided, and also the total value of all property at that time belonging to each of said counties from which territory was taken, and situate within the limits of said old counties respectively. It shall also ascertain the assessed value of all property in each of the original old counties from which territory was so taken, according to the last completed assessment made for said county, and also the assessed value, under the same assessment, of all property within the territory of the new county which shall have been taken from the old county or counties from which said new county was formed. They shall then find the difference between the amount of the indebtedness of the old county and the value of the property belonging to the old county at the date of the declaration of the result of said election as herein-before provided, and if such indebtedness exceeds the value of such property belonging to the old county, the new county shall pay to the old county a due proportion thereof, to be determined as follows: As said assessed value of the property in the old county is to the said assessed value of the property in the territory provided by this act to be incorporated within the new county from said old county, so is the amount of said excess to the amount to be paid by said new county to said old county. Said board of commissioners shall certify forthwith to the boards of supervisors of the new county and the old counties thereby affected, the amount constituting the due proportion of said excess payable by such new county to each of them; also the value of any property belonging to each old county at the time when said division took effect as hereinbefore provided, which is situated in the new county. The sum of said ascertained value of said last mentioned property added to the ascertained proportion of said excess which the new county is to pay to the old county, and its proportion of the expense of said election as aforesaid, shall be an indebtedness from the new county to the old county, and the said property situated as aforesaid in the new county, shall upon settlement therefor, as provided in this act, become the property of the new county, and the old county shall pay the entire indebtedness against it, and the expense of said election shall be paid by the county calling such election, and any other county affected thereby shall pay its proportion thereof as hereinbefore provided.

Indebtedness of old county, how apportioned.

Indebtedness of new to old county.

The proceedings in this section required to be taken in the ascertainment and adjustment of property rights and debts shall be had and taken as between said new county and each of the counties from which territory is taken to form said new county in the manner and at the ratio in said section provided. If upon the settlement between the old and the new county as herein provided for, the new county shall be found to be indebted to the old county or either of the old counties, the money necessary to pay said indebtedness shall be raised by a tax levied upon the property contained in said new county and said new county shall pay the same; provided, however, that such payment by said new county may be made in not more than three equal annual payments, or by funds to be derived from the sale of bonds of said new county, as may be determined by a resolution of the board of supervisors of said new county adopted within one year after the receipt of the statement from the board of commissioners as aforesaid of the amount or amounts due from it.

How debt may be paid.

SEC. 9. Members of the board of commissioners provided for under this act shall receive a compensation of not to exceed $8 per day for every day they are actually employed under the provisions of this act, together with their actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, and the clerk of said board shall receive as compensation for his services not to exceed $5 per day for every day that he is actually employed

SEC. 10. After the creation of a new county as herein provided its officers shall proceed to complete all proceedings necessary for the assessment or collection of the state and county taxes for the then current year and all acts and steps theretofore taken by the officers of the old county or counties prior to the creation of the new county shall be deemed and taken as having been performed by the officers of the new county for the benefit of the new county; and upon the creation of the new county it shall be the duty of the officers of the old county or counties to immediately execute and deliver to the board of supervisors of such new county copies of all assessments or other proceedings relative to the assessment and collection of the current state and county taxes of property in such new county. Such copies shall be filed with the respective officers of the new county who would have the custody of the same if the proceeding had been originally had in the new county and such certified copies shall be taken and deemed as originals, and original proceedings in the new county, and all proceedings therein recited shall be taken and deemed as original proceedings in the new county, and shall have the same effect as if the proceedings therein stated had been had at the proper time and in the proper manner by the respective officials of the new county, and the officials of the new county are hereby authorized and directed to proceed thenceforth with the assessment and collection of said taxes as if the proceedings originally had in the old county or counties had been originally had in the new county.

CHAPTER 228.

An act to amend an act creating a state commission on voting or balloting machines, defining their powers, and providing for the use at the option of indicated local authorities of voting or ballot machines for receiving and registering the vote in one or more precincts of any county, or city and county, city or town, at any or all elections held therein, and for ascertaining the result at such elections; and providing for the punishment of all violations of the provisions of this act, approved March 20, 1903.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Voting machines.

SECTION 1. Section 10 of an act entitled an act to amend an act creating a state commission on voting or balloting machines, defining their powers, and providing for the use at the option of indicated local authorities of voting or balloting machines for receiving and registering the vote in one or more precincts of any county, city and county, city, or town, at any or all elections held therein, and for ascertaining the result at such election; and providing for the punishment of all violations of the provisions of this act, approved March 20, 1903, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Time allowed to vote.

Section 10. After the opening of the polls, the inspectors shall not allow any voter to pass within the guard-rail until they ascertain that he is duly entitled to vote. The operation of voting by an elector while voting shall be secret and obscured from all other persons except as provided in cases of voting by assisted electors. No voter shall remain within the voting or ballot machine booth longer than two minutes, and if he shall refuse to leave it after the lapse of two minutes he may be removed by the inspectors. No vote cast in the independent or blank column shall be counted for a person whose name is printed upon the ballot or face of the machine as a candidate for the same office for which he is voted in the independent or blank column.

Votes in blank column.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 229.

An act to appropriate money for the repair and improvement of the pipe line and water system at the Preston School of Industry.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars, to be used by the trustees of the Preston School of Industry for the repair and improvement of the pipe line and water system at said school. Pipe line for Preston School of Industry, appropriation.

SEC. 2. The controller of state is hereby directed to draw his warrant in favor of said board of trustees of the Preston School of Industry for the amount of money appropriated by section one of this act, and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same out of said appropriation.

SEC. 3. All plans, descriptions, bills of material, specification and estimates requisite, necessary, proper or convenient for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall receive a sanction of a majority of the board of trustees of the Preston School of Industry; who shall cause an entry to be made in their minutes that such plans, descriptions, bills of material, specifications and estimates have been approved. And it shall not be necessary to obtain the approval or sanction of any other board, officer or person, and this act shall be exempt from the provisions of any other act or acts requiring the sanction or approval of any other person, officer or board not herein specially mentioned, and the directions herein shall be exempt from the provisions of an act entitled "An act to regulate contracts on behalf of the state, in relation to erections and buildings," approved March 23d, 1876. All bills for improvements, repairs and constructions shall first be audited by the board of trustees of the Preston School of Industry and be approved by the state board of examiners before being paid. Plans to be approved by trustees.

Exempt from contract law.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect July 1st, 1907.

CHAPTER 230.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to establish a Penal Code," approved February 14, 1872, by amending section thirteen hundred and twenty-two of said Penal Code, relating to when husband and wife are competent witnesses in criminal actions and proceedings.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section thirteen hundred and twenty-two of the Penal Code of the State of California, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Husband and wife, when competent witnesses.

1322. Neither husband nor wife is a competent witness for or against the other in a criminal action or proceeding to which one or both are parties, except with the consent of both, or in cases of criminal violence upon one by the other, or in cases of criminal actions or proceedings brought under the provisions of sections 270 and 270a of this code, or in cases of criminal actions or proceedings for bigamy or adultery.

CHAPTER 231.

An act requiring the recording of maps of subdivisions of land into lots for the purpose of sale, and prescribing the conditions on which such maps may be recorded and prohibiting the selling or offering for sale of land by reference to said maps unless the same are recorded.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Recording tracts of subdivided land.

SECTION 1. Whenever any tract or subdivision of land shall be laid out into lots for the purpose of sale, the owner or owners thereof shall cause to be made out and filed with the county recorder of the county in which the same is situated, an accurate map or plat thereof on cloth particularly setting forth and describing:

Particular description.

First: All parcels of ground within such tract or subdivision offered for dedication for public uses, whether they be intended for public highways, parks, courts, commons or other public uses, and their dimensions and boundaries and the courses of their boundary lines.

Second: All lots intended for sale, or reserved for private purposes and not offered for dedication to the public use, either by number or letter, and their dimensions and boundaries and the courses of their boundary lines. All parcels of land offered for dedication as public highways and not accepted by the proper authorities upon presentation to them, shall also be designated by number or letter.

Third: The exact location of such tract or subdivision of land into lots with reference to adjacent subdivisions of land into lots; the maps or plats of which have been previously recorded, if any, or if none, then with reference to corners of a United States survey, or to some natural or artificial monument.

SEC. 2. Every such map or plat shall be on cloth and be clearly and legibly drawn in all its details upon tracing cloth of good quality, or other equally durable material, and shall be not more than 36x36 inches in size, and if it occupies more than one sheet the sheets shall be numbered consecutively and each sheet shall contain a reference to the others showing where they connect with it. Size of map.

SEC. 3. Upon every such map or plat there shall be endorsed a consent to the making thereof, signed by the owner or owners of the tract or other subdivision of land shown thereon, and also by all other persons whose consent is necessary to pass a clear title to such land, and acknowledged by all the signers in the same manner as conveyances of real property; also a certificate from the county auditor, and from the auditor or other proper officer of any municipal corporation in which any part of such tract or other subdivision is situated, showing that there are no liens for unpaid state, county, municipal or other taxes, except taxes not yet payable, against said tract or subdivision of land or any part thereof. Upon every such map or plat which shows any parcels of land intended for public use and not previously dedicated therefor, there shall be endorsed a statement of the dedication of such parcels of ground intended for public use, executed by the owner or owners and by all other persons whose consent is necessary to pass a clear title to such parcels of ground to the public, and acknowledged by all persons executing the same in the same manner as conveyances of real property. Clear title must be shown.

SEC. 4. The map or plat so made, endorsed and acknowledged shall, if the same offers for dedication any highway, or portion thereof, be presented to the board of supervisors, board of trustees, city council or other governing body having control of public highways in the territory shown on such map or plat, and said governing body shall endorse thereon which of the public highways offered by said map or plat they accept on behalf of the public, and thereupon such highways as have been so accepted, and no others, shall be and become dedicated to the public use. Acceptance of public highways.

SEC. 5. Upon every such map or plat there shall be endorsed a name, title or designation, but no such tract or subdivision of land into lots shall be given any title, name or designation Name of plat to be endorsed on map.

that is the same as the name of any existing city, town, tract or subdivision of land into lots in the same county, of which the map or plat has been previously recorded, or so nearly the same as to mislead the public or cause confusion as to the identity thereof. Whenever any map or plat required by this act to be made shall be presented to a county recorder for filing or recording, he shall examine the title, name or designation endorsed thereon and compare the same with the records in his office, and if he finds that said title, name or designation violates this section in any respect, he shall refuse to file or record such map or plat, whether the same be offered for record as a separate map or as a licensed surveyor's record, or as a part of any deed or other instrument.

Duty of recorder.

Recorder not to accept unauthorized dedication.

SEC. 6. No map or plat showing any public highways or portion of a public highway not already dedicated to the public use shall be accepted by the recorder for filing or recording, whether offered for record as a separate map or as a licensed surveyor's record or as a part of a deed or other instrument, unless the same shall have been presented and endorsed as required by section 4 of this act. No map or plat referred to in this act shall be accepted by the county recorder for filing or recording unless the same shall in all respects comply with the provisions of this act, and the recorder shall be entitled, before accepting or refusing such map or plat, to sufficient time to enable him to examine the same.

Book of maps.

SEC. 7. When any map or plat, referred to in this act is presented to the county recorder and is received and accepted by him, he shall paste or otherwise fasten the same securely in a book of maps which he shall keep in his office, and it shall be deemed to have been recorded and shall become a public record.

Sale of lots by reference to map.

SEC. 8. No person shall sell or offer for sale any lot or parcel of land, by reference to any map or plat, unless such map or plat has been made, certified, endorsed, acknowledged and filed in all respects as provided in this act, or was filed or recorded prior to the taking effect of this act and in accordance with the laws in force at the time it was so filed or recorded.

Penalty for violation of act.

SEC. 9. Every person who violates any of the provisions of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $25, and not more than $500, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

CHAPTER 232.

An act appropriating money for the purchase of furniture and bedding for the use of and for repairs at the Preston School of Industry.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of five thousand dollars, to be used by the trustees of the Preston School of Industry, for the purchase of furniture and bedding for the use of and for repairs at said school. Furniture for Preston School of Industry, appropriation.

SEC. 2. The controller of state is hereby directed to draw his warrant in favor of said board of trustees of the Preston School of Industry, for the amount of money appropriated by section one of this act, and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same out of said appropriation.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect July 1st, 1907.

CHAPTER 233.

An act to amend section 1693 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to unclaimed estates.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1693 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, is hereby amended to read as follows:

1693. When personal property remains in the hands of the agent unclaimed for a year, and it appears to the court that it is for the benefit of those interested, it shall be sold under the order of the court, and the proceeds after deducting the expenses of the sale, allowed by the court, must be paid into the county treasury. When the payment is made, the agent must take from the treasury duplicate receipts, one of which he must file in the office of the auditor, and the other in the court. Where any agent has money in his hands as such agent, and it appears to the court upon the settlement of his account as such agent that the balance remaining in his hands should be paid into the county treasury, the court may direct such payment and upon such agent filing the proper receipt showing such payment, the court shall enter an order discharging such agent and his sureties from all liability therefor.

Unclaimed estates, how disposed of.

CHAPTER 234.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to create and establish a commission for revising, systematizing, and reforming the laws of this state, and for appointment of the members of said commission, to be known as "The Commissioners for the Revision and Reform of the Law," and to prescribe their powers and duties; and to authorize the appointment of a secretary and stenographer therefor; and to provide for the compensation and expenses of said commission, secretary, and stenographer, and to appropriate money therefor,' approved March 28, 1895," approved March 25, 1903, by amending section 6 thereof relating to the powers and duties of such commission, and by amending section 9 thereof, relating to the tenure of such commission.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Revision and reform of the law.

SECTION 1. Section six of an act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to create and establish a commission for revising, systematizing, and reforming the laws of this state, and for the appointment of the members of said commission, to be known as "Commissioners for the Revision and Reform of the Law," and to prescribe their powers and duties; and to authorize the appointment of a secretary and stenographer therefor; and to provide for the compensation and expenses therefor of said commission, secretary, and stenographer, and to appropriate money therefor,' approved March 28, 1895," approved March 25, 1903, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Duty of
commissioner.

Section 6. 1. It shall be the duty of said commissioner to revise and examine the parts of the Code of Civil Procedure, the Political Code, the Civil Code, and the Penal Code of the State of California, under the provisions of an act of which this act is amendatory; to note all decisions of the supreme court upon sections of the codes herein specified, and to present to the legislature, at each session, all sections of the codes which have been declared unconstitutional and have, for any reason, been declared by the supreme court as inoperative; and to suggest any such legislation as will remedy defects in existing laws by reason of decisions of the supreme court or otherwise; and to make and compile an index of all the laws of California.

To revise statutes.

2. To revise and examine all the statutes of this state that have been or shall hereafter be passed by the legislature thereof and published by the state.

Statutes
in force.

3. He shall ascertain, determine, and designate, according to his best judgment, those statutes now in force, and those expressly or by implication repealed, and report the same to the next legislature.

4. He shall note and designate the errors, defects, or omissions, verbal, grammatical, or otherwise, and suggest what will be necessary to supply, correct, or amend the same, and such improvements as shall introduce precision and clearness into the wording of the codes and statutes. Note errors.

5. All or any of the reports, and records of said commission shall be printed by the state printer, when so ordered and directed by said commissioner. Reports to be printed.

6. Said commissioner shall have the power to order the state printer to print and deliver to him such number as said commissioner may designate of any report or record of said commission.

7. Said commissioner shall attend at the capitol, during every session of the legislature, and act as legislative counsel or advisor, in drafting or passing upon the form of any bill, or proposed bill, pending or to be introduced before the legislature; and also, when requested, give advice to said legislature, or any committee thereof, as to the form of any proposed legislation, and its effect upon existing laws, and as to whether any bill, as drawn, is so constructed and worded as to carry out the purpose intended, and shall advise as to the constitutionality thereof. Act as legislative advisor.

8. Thirty days prior to every session of the legislature, said commissioner shall make and file with the secretary of state a report of his work relating to matters of legislation, or which would give any information or knowledge to said legislature as to legislation in the past, and as to the policy for future legislation. And he shall file schedules or exhibits, showing the form or substance of all proposed legislation which he may recommend. And he shall suggest all such improvements as shall conduce to precision and clearness in the wording of the codes and statutes, and propose such measures as may be necessary to improve or give unity and completeness to the system of the laws of this state. Said reports, schedules, and exhibits shall be printed by the state printer, upon the requisition and under the supervision of the commissioner. They shall be so printed as to show, in the readiest manner, the changes proposed by the commissioner, and in those cases wherein he shall recommend the repeal of a law, and propose a substitute therefor, such law and substitute shall be printed in the manner most convenient for the comparison; and his report, when so printed, shall be mailed to every member who has been elected to sit in such legislature. Report of work.

9. Said commissioner shall, at all such times as he may designate by rules and regulations which he may adopt, hear in public such arguments as may be addressed to him, for or against any proposed or existing legislation, and a record of all proceedings shall be kept and preserved by the secretary of said commission. Suggestions.

SEC. 2. Section nine is hereby amended to read as follows: Duty of state printer.

Hearings.

Tenure of commission.

Section 9. The commission hereby created shall cease to exist and this act shall become inoperative on and after the 1st day of October, 1911.

SEC. 3. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 235.

An act to grant permission to the "Sacramento Society of California Pioneers" to erect a memorial building on the grounds of the Sutter's Fort Park in Sacramento City.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Memorial building at Sutter's
Fort.

SECTION 1. The "Sacramento Society of California Pioneers" is hereby granted permission to erect, at their own expense, upon the Sutter's Fort Park in Sacramento City, California, at some suitable place thereon to be agreed upon between said society and the Sutter's Fort Park trustees, a memorial building to the members of said association.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 236.

An act to amend sections three, four, nine, ten, thirteen, fourteen and fifteen of an act entitled "An act for the registration of deaths, the issuance and registration of burial and disinterment permits and the establishment of registration districts in counties, cities and counties, cities and incorporated towns, under the superintendence of the state bureau of vital statistics and prescribing the powers and duties of registrars, coroners, physicians, undertakers, sextons and other persons in relation to such registration and fixing penalties for the violation of this act," approved March 18, 1905.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Vital statistics

SECTION 1. Sections three, four, nine, ten, thirteen, fourteen and fifteen of an act entitled "An act for the registration of deaths, the issuance and registration of burial and disinterment permits and the establishment of registration districts in counties, cities and counties, cities and incorporated towns, under the superintendence of the state bureau of vital statistics and prescribing the powers and duties of registrars, coroners, physicians, undertakers, sextons and other persons in relation to such registration and fixing penalties for the violation of this act," approved March 18, 1905, are hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3. That the recorder of each county and city and county, and the clerk of each city or incorporated town, shall be the local registrar in and for such primary registration district and shall perform all such duties of local registrar as hereinafter provided; provided however, that in cities having a freeholders' charter the health officer shall act as local registrar and perform all the duties thereof. Each local registrar shall immediately appoint in writing, a deputy who shall be authorized to act in his stead in case of absence, death, illness or disability, and when it may appear necessary for the convenience of the people in any registration district, the local registrar is hereby authorized with the approval of the state registrar of vital statistics to appoint one or more proper and competent persons to act as subregistrars, who shall be authorized to receive certificates of death and to issue burial permits or removal permits in and for such portions of the registration district as may be designated. Each subregistrar shall note in legible writing over his signature, the date each certificate of death was filed, and shall forthwith forward the certificate to the local registrar of the registration district, and in all cases before the fifth day of the following month; provided, that all subregistrars shall be subject to the supervision and control of the state registrar of vital statistics.

Section 4. That the body or remains of no person whose death occurs in the State shall be interred, deposited in a vault, grave or tomb, cremated, disinterred or otherwise disposed of, or removed from or into any registration district until a permit for burial, disinterment or removal shall have been properly issued by the registrar of the registration district in which the death occurs, except in the case where there are two or more registration districts within the same county, or where there are two contiguous registration districts not in the same county, a body may be removed from the registration district where the death occurred to another registration district within the same county, or contiguous registration districts in different counties, for the purpose of preparing said body for burial or shipment, provided that before such burial or shipment the undertaker, sexton or other person in charge shall have first secured a permit for the interment or removal of said body from the registrar of the registration district where the death occurred. And no such burial or removal permit shall be issued by any registrar until a complete and satisfactory certificate and return of the death has been filed with him, as hereinafter required; provided that in case of any death outside of the state, where the body is accompanied by a removal or transit permit issued in accordance with the law and the health regulations in force where the death occurred, such removal or transit permit shall be accepted as of the same authority as a permit from the local registrar when such removal or transit permit shall have indorsed thereon the written approval of the state registrar of vital statistics, or when said state registrar otherwise officially notifies the local registrar of his approval.

Local registrar to supply blanks.

Section 9. It shall be the duty of each local registrar to supply to any persons requiring them, blank forms of certificates prepared and furnished by the board of supervisors of the county. He shall carefully examine each certificate when presented for record to see that it has been made out in accordance with the provisions of this act, and the instructions of the state registrar, and if any certificate is incomplete or unsatisfactory, it shall be his duty to call attention to the defects in the return and to withhold issuing the burial or removal permit until they are corrected. He shall then number them in consecutive order, beginning with number one for the first death in each calendar year, and sign his name as registrar in attest of the date of filing in his office. If the certificate is properly executed and complete, he shall then issue a burial or removal permit to the undertaker; provided, that in case the death occurred from some disease that is held by the state board of health to be infectious, contagious, or communicable and dangerous to the public health, no permit for the removal or other disposition of the body shall be granted by the registrar except under such conditions as may be prescribed by the state and local boards of health. He shall also make a complete and accurate copy of each certificate registered by him, upon a form identical with the original certificate, to be filed and permanently preserved in his office as the local record of such death, in such manner as directed by the state registrar. He shall, on or before the fifth day of each month, transmit to the state registrar all original certificates registered by him during the preceding month. If no deaths occurred in any month he shall, on or before the fifth day in any month, report that fact to the state registrar in such manner as the state registrar shall direct.

Defects in returns.

Deaths from contagious diseases.

Wording of permit.

Section 10. If the interment or other disposition of the body is to be made in the registration district in which the death occurred, or in a contiguous registration district in the same or an adjoining county, the wording of the burial permit may be limited to a statement by the registrar, and over his signature, that a satisfactory certificate of death having been filed with him as required by law, permission is granted to inter, remove or otherwise dispose of the body of the deceased, stating the name, age, sex, and cause of death and other necessary details upon the form prescribed by the state registrar. In case the interment or other disposition of the body is to be made in some registration district not contiguous to that in which the death occurred, a complete copy of the certificate of death shall be attached to and made a part of the removal permit issued by the registrar of the district in which the death occurred.

When facts are not correctly stated, duty of registrar.

Section 13. Whenever it may be alleged that the facts are not correctly stated in any certificate of death theretofore registered, the local registrar shall require an affidavit under oath to be made by the person asserting the fact, to be supported by the affidavit of one other credible person having knowledge of the facts, setting forth the changes necessary to make the record correct. Having received such affidavits, the local registrar shall file them and shall then draw a line through the incorrect statement or statements in the certificate, without erasing them, and make the necessary corrections, noting on the margin of the certificate his authority for so doing, and transmit the affidavits, attached to the original certificate, when making his regular monthly returns to the state registrar. If the correction relates to a certificate previously returned to the state registrar, the local registrar shall transmit the affidavit forthwith to the state registrar. If the correction is first made upon the original certificate on file in the state bureau of vital statistics, the state registrar shall transmit a certified copy of the original certificate, corrected as above, to the local registrar, who shall thereupon substitute such certified copy for the copy of the certificate in his records. All such corrections and marginal notes referring to them shall be legibly written in ink, typewritten or printed.

Filing of affidavits.

Corrections in certificates.

Section 14. Each local registrar shall be entitled to be paid the sum of not exceeding twenty-five cents for each death certificate properly and completely made out and registered with him, and by him returned to the state registrar on or before the fifth day of the following month, which sum shall cover and include the making out of the burial permit and the copy of the certificate to be filed and preserved in his office. And in case no deaths were registered during any month, the local registrar shall be entitled to a sum not exceeding twenty-five cents for each report to that effect, promptly made in accordance with the directions of the state registrar: provided, however, that all such compensation for such services shall be fixed by the board of supervisors, city council, trustees or other governing body of such county, city and county, city or town, constituting such registration district.

Fee of local registrar.

Fees for reports.

All amounts payable to registrars under the provisions of this act shall be paid out of the funds provided by the supervisors, council, trustees, or other governing body of such county, city and county, city or town, constituting a primary registration district, upon warrants drawn by the local auditor or other proper local officer of such county, city and county, city or town, which warrants shall specify the number of certificates properly registered and also the number of reports promptly returned where no deaths are registered, with the amount claimed to be due for each: provided, however, that a warrant shall not be issued to any local registrar, or if issued shall not be paid, where notice is previously given by the state registrar to the auditor, treasurer or other proper officer of such county, city and county, city or town constituting such registration district, that the local registrar claiming any fee has failed to comply with the rules and regulations of the state bureau of vital statistics and the instructions of the state registrar.

Warrants for fees, how payable.

Fees of sub-registrars.

Each subregistrar shall be entitled to be paid the sum of not exceeding fifteen cents for each death certificate properly and completely registered with him, and by him returned to the local registrar before the fifth day of the following month. All amounts payable to subregistrars shall be paid to them by the local registrars appointing them from the amounts received by the local registrars as hereinbefore provided.

Certified

fee for.

Section 15. The state registrar or local registrar shall, upon request, furnish any person a certified copy of the record of any death registered under provisions of this act, for the making and certification of which he shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents to be paid by the applicant. And any such copy of the record of a death, when certified by the state registrar or local registrar to be a true copy thereof, shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and places of the facts therein stated. For any search of the files and records, when no certified copy is made, the state registrar or local registrar shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents, to be paid by the applicant, for each hour or fractional part of an hour employed in such search. And the state registrar or local registrar shall keep a full and correct account of all fees received by him under these provisions and deposit such money with the state treasurer who shall credit the amount to the fund provided and to be used for the payment of the traveling and contingent expenses of the state board of health.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit the United States fish commission and the fish commission of this state, from taking, at all times, such fish as they deem necessary for the purpose of artificial hatching. It shall be no defense in a prosecution for the violations of any of the provisions of this section that the fish were caught or taken outside or within this state.

SEC. 7. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 8. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 240.

An act appropriating money for the equipment of the trades building at the Preston School of Industry.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of three thousand dollars, to be used by the trustees of the Preston School of Industry for the equipment of the trades building at said school. Trades building at Preston School of Industry, appropriation.

SEC. 2. The controller of state is hereby directed to draw his warrant in favor of said board of trustees of the Preston School of Industry for the amount of money appropriated by section 1 of this act, and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same out of said appropriation.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 241.

An act to amend section sixty-nine of the Civil Code of California, relating to marriage licenses.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section sixty-nine of the Civil Code of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

69. All persons about to be joined in marriage must first obtain a license therefor, from the county clerk of the county in which the marriage is to be celebrated, which license must show: Marriage licenses.

1. The identity of the parties.
2. Their real and full names, and places of residence.
3. Their ages; and
4. Whether white, mongolian, negro or mulatto.

No license must be granted when either of the parties, applicants therefor, is an imbecile, or insane, or who at the time of making the application, or proofs herein required, for said license, is under the influence of any intoxicating liquor, or narcotic drug; no license must be issued authorizing the marriage of a white person with a negro, mulatto, or mongolian: If the male is under the age of twenty-one years, or the female is under the age of eighteen years, and such person has not been previously married, no license must be issued by the county clerk unless the consent in writing of the parents of the person under age, or one of such parents, or of his or her guardian, is presented to him, duly verified by such parents, or parent, or guardian; and such consent must be filed by the clerk, and he must state such facts in the license. For the purpose of ascertaining all the facts mentioned or required in this section, the clerk, at the time the license is applied for, may, if he deems it necessary in order to satisfy himself as to matters in this section enumerated, examine the male applicant for a license on oath, which examination shall be reduced to writing by the clerk, and subscribed by him.

SEC. 2. This act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 242.

An act to amend sections nine and ten of an act entitled "An act to establish and support a bureau of labor statistics" approved March 3, 1883, relating to the commissioner for the bureau of labor statistics, the compensation of the said commissioner, his deputy, his agents and assistants and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section nine of an act entitled "An act to establish and support a bureau of labor statistics" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Assistants to labor
commissioner.

Section 9. The commissioner shall appoint a deputy who shall have the same powers as the said commissioner, and such agents or assistants, not exceeding six, as he may from time to time require, at such a rate of wages as he may prescribe, but said rate must not exceed four dollars per day, and actual traveling expenses for each person while so employed; he shall procure rooms necessary for offices, and at a rental not to exceed one hundred dollars per month.

SEC. 2. Section ten of an act entitled "An act to establish and support a bureau of labor statistics" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 10. The salary of the commissioner shall be three thousand dollars per annum, and the salary of the deputy commissioner shall be one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum, to be audited by the controller, and paid by the state treasurer, in the same manner as the other state officers are paid; there shall be allowed the sum of not to exceed nine thousand dollars per annum for the salaries of agents, or assistants, for traveling expenses, and for other contingent expenses of the said bureau of labor statistics.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 243.

An act to repeal section 645 of the Penal Code relating to harboring deserting seamen.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred and forty-five of the Penal Code is hereby repealed.

Sec. 645
Penal Code
repealed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 244.

An act to amend sections ten hundred and eighty-six, ten hundred and eighty-seven, ten hundred and eighty-eight, and ten hundred and eighty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure, all relating to writs of mandate.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section ten hundred and eighty-six of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1086. The writ must be issued in all cases where there is not a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy, in the ordinary course of law. It must be issued upon the verified petition of the party beneficially interested.

Writ of mandate, when to issue.

SEC. 2. Section ten hundred and eighty-seven of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1087. The writ may be either alternative or peremptory. The alternative writ must command the party to whom it is directed immediately after the receipt of the writ, or at some other specified time, to do the act required to be performed, or

Writ must be either alternative or peremptory.

to show cause before the court at a specified time and place why he has not done so. The peremptory writ must be in a similar form, except that the words requiring the party to show cause why he has not done as commanded must be omitted and a return day inserted.

SEC. 3. Section ten hundred and eighty-eight of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

When application is made without notice.

1088. When the application to the court is made without notice to the adverse party, and the writ is allowed, the alternative must be first issued; but if the application is upon due notice and the writ is allowed, the peremptory may be issued in the first instance. With the alternative writ and also with any notice of an intention to apply for the writ, there must be served on each person against whom the writ is sought a copy of the petition. The notice of the application, when given, must be at least ten days. The writ cannot be granted by default. The case must be heard by the court, whether the adverse party appears or not.

SEC. 4. Section ten hundred and eighty-nine of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Adverse party may answer under oath.

1089. On the return of the alternative, or the day on which the application for the writ is noticed, the party on whom the writ or notice has been served may answer the petition under oath, in the same manner as an answer to a complaint in a civil action.

CHAPTER 245.

An act to amend section ten hundred and fifty-seven of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the justification of sureties.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section ten hundred and fifty-seven of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Undertakings, requisites
of.

1057. In any case where an undertaking or bond is authorized or required by any law of this state, the officer taking the same must, except in the case of such a corporation as is mentioned in the next preceding section, require the sureties to accompany it with an affidavit that they are each residents and householders, or freeholders, within the state, and are each worth the sum specified in the undertaking or bond, over and above all their just debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution; but when the amount specified in the undertaking or bond exceeds three thousand dollars, and there are more than two sureties thereon, they may state in their affidavits that they are severally worth amounts less than the amount specified in the undertaking or bond, if the whole amount is equivalent to that of two sufficient sureties. Any corporation such as is mentioned in the next preceding section, may become sole surety on such bond. No such corporation must be accepted in any case as a surety when its liabilities exceed its assets as ascertained in the manner provided in section ten hundred and fifty-six. Whenever an undertaking has been given and approved in any action or proceeding, and it is thereafter made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that any surety upon such undertaking has for any reason become insufficient, the court may, upon notice, order the giving of a new undertaking, with sufficient sureties, in lieu of such insufficient undertaking. In case such new undertaking so required shall not be given within the time required by such order, or in case the sureties thereon fail to justify thereon when required, all rights obtained by the filing of such original undertaking shall immediately cease.

CHAPTER 246.

An act to amend section ten hundred and fifty-five of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to judgments upon bonds of indemnity.

[Approved March 15, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section ten hundred and fifty-five of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1055. If an action is brought against any officer or person for an act for the doing of which he had theretofore received any valid bond or covenant of indemnity, and he gives reasonable notice thereof in writing to the persons who executed such bond or covenant, and permits them to conduct the defense of such action, the judgment recovered therein is conclusive evidence against the persons so notified; and the court may, on motion of the defendant, upon notice of five days, and upon proof of such bond or covenant, and of such notice and permission, enter judgment against them for the amount so recovered and costs.

CHAPTER 247.

An act to define the duties of and to license land surveyors, and to repeal an act entitled, "An act to define the duties of and to license land surveyors," approved March 31, 1891.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Requirements to receive license.

SECTION 1. Every person desiring to become a licensed land surveyor in this state must present to the state surveyor-general of this state a certificate that he is a person of good moral character; also a certificate signed by three licensed surveyors, which certificate shall set forth that the person named therein is, in the opinion of the person signing the same, a fit and competent person to receive a license as a land surveyor, together with his oath that he will support the constitution of this state and of the United States, and that he will faithfully discharge the duties of a licensed land surveyor, as defined in this act.

Surveyor-general to issue license.

SEC. 2. Upon receipt of such certificate and oath by the state surveyor-general, it shall be his duty to forthwith issue to such applicant a license, which license shall set forth the fact that the applicant is a competent surveyor, or that he has had at least two years' experience in the field as a surveyor or assistant surveyor.

Contents.

SEC. 3. Such license shall contain the full name of the applicant; the technical institution from which he is a graduate (if he be a graduate), or if he is not a graduate, the fact must be stated in the license; his birthplace, age, and to whom issued; the names of the licensed surveyors upon whose certificate the license is issued, and the date of its issuance.

Lists to be sent to county
recorders.

SEC. 4. All papers received by the state surveyor-general on application for licenses shall be kept on file in his office, and a proper index and record thereof shall be kept by him, and a list of all licensed land surveyors shall be kept by him, and he shall monthly transmit to the county recorder of each county in this state a full and correct list of all persons so licensed; and it is hereby made the duty of such recorders to keep such lists in their offices in such way as they may be easily accessible to all persons.

Seal
of office.

SEC. 5. Every licensed surveyor shall have a seal of office, the impression of which must contain the name of the surveyor, his principal place of business, and the words "licensed surveyor"; and all maps and papers signed by him, and to which said seal has been attached, shall be prima facie evidence in all the courts of this state.

Term of license.

SEC. 6. Surveyors' licenses issued in accordance with this act, shall remain in force until revoked for cause, as herein-after provided.

SEC. 7. Every licensed surveyor is authorized to administer and certify oaths, when it becomes necessary to take testimony to identify or establish old or lost corners; or if a corner or monument be found in a perishable condition, and it appears desirable that evidence concerning such corner or monument be perpetuated; or whenever the importance of the makes it desirable, to administer an oath, for the faithful performance of duty, to his assistants. A record of such oaths shall be preserved as part of the field-notes of the survey.

May administer oaths.

SEC. 8. Every licensed surveyor is hereby authorized to make surveys relating to the sale or subdivision of lands, the retracing or establishing of property or boundary lines, public roads, streets, alleys, or trails; and it shall be the duty of each surveyor, whenever making any such surveys, except those relating to the retracing or subdivision of cemetery or town lots, whether the survey be made for private persons, corporations, cities, or counties, to set permanent and reliable monuments, and such monuments must be permanently marked with the initials of the surveyor setting them.

surveyors.

SEC. 9. Within sixty days after a survey relating to the sale or subdivision of lands, the retracing or establishing of property and boundary lines, public roads or trails, original cemetery or town sites, and their subdivisions has been made by a licensed surveyor, he shall file with the recorder of the county in which such survey or any portion thereof lies, a record of survey. Such record shall be made in a good draughtsman-like manner, on one or more sheets of firm paper of the uniform size of twenty-one by thirty inches. This record of survey shall be either an original plat or a copy thereof, and must contain all the data necessary to enable any competent practical surveyor to retrace the survey. The record of survey must show: All permanent monuments set, describing their size, kind and location, with reference to the corners which they are intended to perpetuate; all bearing or witness trees marked in the field; complete outlines of the several tracts or parcels of land surveyed within courses, and lengths of boundary lines; the angles, as measured by Vernier readings, which the lines of blocks or lots, if the record relate to an original townsite survey, make with each other and with the center lines of adjacent streets, alleys, roads, or lanes; the variations of the magnetic needle with which old lines have been retraced; the scale of the map, the date of survey; a proper connection with one or more points of an original or larger tract of land, and the name of the same; the name of the grant or grants, or of the township and ranges, within which the survey is located; the signature and seal of the surveyor; provided, that nothing in this section shall require record to be made of surveys of a preliminary nature, where no monuments or corners are established.

Record of surveys.

What record must show.

SEC. 10. The record of surveys thus filed with the county recorder of any county must be by him pasted into a stub book, provided for that purpose, and he must keep a proper

County recorder

surveys.

index of such records, by name of owner, by name of surveyor, by name of grant, city, or town, and by United States subdivisions; and in all cases where such maps, plats, diagrams, or descriptions are filed by a state licensed land surveyor the county recorder shall make no charge for filing and indexing such records of surveys.

Revocation of license.

SEC. 11. It shall be the duty of the county surveyor of each county, immediately on ascertaining that any licensed surveyor has failed to comply with the requirements of this act, to furnish the surveyor-general with satisfactory proofs of such fact. Upon receipt of such proofs, the state surveyor-general must revoke his license, and no other license shall be issued to him within one year from such revocation. A violation of section nine of this act shall be a misdemeanor, and any person convicted of such violation shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days.

Fees of
general.

SEC. 12. The surveyor-general shall receive a fee of ten dollars for each license, and five dollars for each duplicate license, issued by him; the fees so received to be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the general fund as provided in section thirty-five hundred and seventy-four of the Political Code.

Repeal of prior acts.

SEC. 13. An act entitled "An act to define the duties of and to license land surveyors," approved March 31, 1891, and all other acts, and parts of acts, in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 14. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 248.

An act to amend sections thirteen hundred and forty-nine, thirteen hundred and fifty, and thirteen hundred and fifty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to add a new section thereto to be numbered thirteen hundred and fifty a, all relating to letters testamentary and of administration with the will annexed.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section thirteen hundred and forty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

To whom letters on proved will
to issue.

1349. If no objection is made as provided in section thirteen hundred and fifty-one, the court admitting a will to probate, after the same is proved and allowed, must issue letters thereon to the persons named therein as executors who are competent to discharge the trust, unless they or either of them have renounced their right to letters. In the order, the court must ascertain and determine whether said estate is worth more or less than ten thousand dollars, which determination is conclusive for the purpose of giving notice to creditors, but for no other purpose.

SEC. 2. Section thirteen hundred and fifty of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1350. No person is competent to serve as executor who, at the time the will is admitted to probate, is:

Who incompetent as executor.

1. Under the age of majority;
2. Convicted of an infamous crime;
3. Adjudged by the court incompetent to execute the duties of the trust by reason of drunkenness, improvidence, or want of understanding or integrity.

SEC. 3. A new section is hereby added to said code, to be numbered thirteen hundred and fifty a, and to read as follows:

1350*a*. If no executor is named in the will, or if the sole executor or all the executors therein named are dead, or incompetent, or renounce, or fail to apply for letters, or to appear and qualify, letters of administration with the will annexed must be issued as designated and provided for in granting of letters in case of intestacy.

When no executor is named in will.

SEC. 4. Section thirteen hundred and fifty-one of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1351. Any person interested in the estate or will may file objections in writing to granting letters testamentary to the persons named as executors or any of them, and the objections must be heard and determined by the court; a petition may, at the same time, be filed for letters of administration with the will annexed.

Interested parties may file objections.

CHAPTER 249.

An act to amend section thirteen hundred and seventy-one of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to letters of administration.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section thirteen hundred and seventy-one of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1371. Petitions for letters of administration must be in writing, signed by the applicant or his counsel, and filed with the clerk of the court, stating the facts essential to give the court jurisdiction of the case, and when known to the applicant, he must state the names, ages, and residences of the heirs of the decedent, and the value and character of the property. If the jurisdictional facts exist, and are proved at the hearing but are not fully set forth in the petition, the decree or order of administration and subsequent proceedings are not void on account of such want of jurisdictional averments.

Petition for letters, how made.

CHAPTER 250.

An act to amend sections thirteen hundred and twenty-eight and thirteen hundred and twenty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure, both relating to the contesting of wills after probate.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section thirteen hundred and twenty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Citation to interested parties.

1328. Upon filing the petition, and within one year after such probate, a citation must be issued to the executor of the will, or to the administrator with the will annexed, and to all the legatees and devisees mentioned in the will, and heirs residing in the state, so far as known to the petitioner or to their guardians, if any of them are minors, or to their personal representatives, if any of them are dead, requiring them to appear before the court on some day therein specified, to show cause why the probate of the will should not be revoked.

SEC. 2. Section thirteen hundred and twenty-nine of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Trial of issues of fact.

1329. At the time appointed for showing cause, or at any time to which the hearing is postponed, proof having been made of service of the citation upon all of the persons named therein, the court must proceed to try the issues of fact joined in the same manner as an original contest of a will.

CHAPTER 251.

An act to amend section thirteen hundred and twenty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the probate of foreign wills.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section thirteen hundred and twenty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Proceedings on production of foreign will.

1323. When a copy of the will, and the probate thereof, duly authenticated, shall be produced by the executor, or by any other person interested in the will, with a petition for letters, the same must be filed, and the clerk of the court must appoint a time for the hearing; notice whereof must be given as hereinbefore provided for an original petition for the probate of a will.

CHAPTER 252.

An act to amend section thirteen hundred of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to proceedings for the probate of wills.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section thirteen hundred of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1300. A petition for the probate of a will must show

1. The jurisdictional facts;
2. Whether the person named as executor consents to act, or renounces his right to letters testamentary;
3. The names, ages, and residences of the heirs, legatees, and devisees of the decedent, so far as known to the petitioner;
4. The probable value and character of the property of the estate;
5. The name of the person for whom letters testamentary are prayed.

What
petition for probate of will must show.

No defect of form or in the statement of jurisdictional facts actually existing, shall make void the probate of a will.

CHAPTER 253.

An act to repeal Title VIII of Part III of the Code of Civil Procedure and each and every section of said Title VIII, and to substitute a new Title VIII to take the place thereof in said code, relating to escheated estates.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title VIII of Part III of the Code of Civil Procedure and each and every section of said Title VIII are repealed, and a new Title VIII is substituted to take the place thereof in said code to read as follows:

TITLE VIII.

ESCHEATED ESTATES.

- Section 1269. Manner of commencing proceedings relative to.
1270. Receivers of rents and profits.
 1271. Appearance, pleadings, and judgment.
 1272. Proceedings after judgment by persons claiming escheated estates.

Escheated estates.

1269. When the attorney-general is informed that any estate has escheated to this state, he must file an information, in behalf of the state, in the superior court of the county in which said estate, or any part thereof, is situate, setting forth a

Manner of commencing proceedings.

- description of the estate, the name of the person last possessed thereof, and the person claiming the estate, if known, and the facts and circumstances in consequence of which the estate is claimed to have escheated, with an allegation that, by reason thereof, the State of California has right by law to such estate. Upon such information, a summons must issue to said claimant and possessor, requiring them to appear and answer the information within the time allowed by law in civil actions; and the court must make an order setting forth briefly the contents of the information, and requiring all persons interested in the estate to appear and show cause, if any they have, within forty days from the date of the order, why such estate should not vest in this state; which order must, prior to the expiration of such time, be published for at least one month, in a newspaper published in the county, if one is published therein, and in case no newspaper is published in the county, in some other newspaper in this state.
- Summons.
- Order to show cause.
- Receiver of income. 1270. The court, upon the information being filed, and upon application of the attorney-general, either before or after answer, upon notice to the party claiming the estate, if known, may upon sufficient cause therefor being shown, appoint a receiver to take charge of such estate, or any part thereof, or to receive the rents, income and profits of the same until the title of such estate is finally settled.
- Appearance. 1271. All persons named in the information may appear and answer, and traverse or deny the facts stated therein at any time before the time for answering expires, and any other person claiming an interest in such estate may appear and be made a defendant, by motion for that purpose in open court within the time allowed for answering, and if no such person appears and answers within the time, then judgment must be rendered that the state is the owner of the property in such information claimed. But if any person appears and denies the title set up by the state, or traverses any material fact set forth in the information, the issue of fact must be tried as issues of fact are tried in civil actions. If, after the issues are tried, it appears from the facts found or admitted that the state has good title to the property in the information mentioned, or any part thereof, judgment must be rendered that the state is the owner and entitled to the possession thereof, and that it recover costs of suit against the defendants who have appeared and answered. In any judgment rendered, or that has heretofore been rendered by any court, escheating property to the state, on motion of the attorney-general, the court must make an order that such property, unless it consists of money, be sold by the sheriff of the county where it is situate, at public sale, for gold coin, after giving notice of the time and place of sale, as may be prescribed by the court in such order; that the sheriff, within five days after such sale, make a report thereof to the court, and upon the hearing of such report, the court may examine the report and witnesses in relation thereto, and if the proceedings were unfair, or if the sum bid disproportionate to the value, or if it appears that a sum exceeding said bid, exclusive of the expense of a new sale, may be obtained, the court may vacate the sale, and direct another to be had, of which notice must be given, and the sale in all respects conducted as if no previous sale had taken place. If an offer greater in amount than that named in the report is made to the court in writing, by a responsible person, the court may, in its discretion, accept such offer and confirm the sale to such person, or order a new sale. If it appears to the court that the sale was legally made, and fairly conducted, and that the sum bid is not disproportionate to the value of the property sold, and that a sum exceeding such bid, exclusive of the expense of a new sale, cannot be obtained, or if the increased bid above mentioned is made and accepted by the court, the court must make an order confirming the sale, and directing the sheriff, in the name of the state, to execute to the purchaser or purchasers a conveyance of said property sold; and said conveyance vests in the purchaser or purchasers all the right and title of the state therein, and the sheriff must, out of the proceeds of such sale, pay the cost of said proceedings incurred on behalf of the state, including the expenses of making such sale, and also an attorney's fee, if additional counsel was employed in said proceedings, to be fixed by the court, not exceeding ten per cent on the amount of such sale, and the residue thereof must be paid by said sheriff into the state treasury.

1272. Within twenty years after judgment in any proceeding had under this title, a person not a party or privy to such proceeding may file a petition in the superior court of the county of Sacramento, showing his claim or right to the property, or the proceeds thereof. A copy of such petition must be served on the attorney-general at least twenty days before the hearing of the petition, who must answer the same; and the court thereupon must try the issue as issues are tried in civil actions, and if it is determined that such person is entitled to the property, or the proceeds thereof, it must order the property, if it has not been sold, to be delivered to him, or if it has been sold and the proceeds paid into the state treasury, then it must order the controller to draw his warrant on the treasury for the payment of the same, but without interest or cost to the state, a copy of which order, under the seal of the court, shall be a sufficient voucher for drawing such warrant. All persons who fail to appear and file their petitions within the time limited are forever barred; saving, however, to infants, and persons of unsound mind, the right to appear and file their petitions at any time within the time limited, or within five years after their respective disabilities cease.

CHAPTER 254.

An act to amend sections twelve hundred and twenty-eight, twelve hundred and thirty, and twelve hundred and thirty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure, all relating to the voluntary dissolution of corporations.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twelve hundred and twenty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Application for dissolution of corporation, what to contain.

1228. The application must be in writing, and must set forth:

1. That at a meeting of the stockholders or members called for that purpose, the dissolution of the corporation was resolved upon by a vote of two thirds of the members or of the holders of two thirds of the subscribed capital stock;

2. That all claims and demands against the corporation have been satisfied and discharged.

SEC. 2. Section twelve hundred and thirty of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Publication
of notice.

1230. Upon the filing of the application, the clerk must give notice of the same for such time as the court may order, but not less than thirty nor more than fifty days, by publication in some newspaper published in the county; or if there be no newspaper published therein, then by notices posted in three of the principal public places in the county.

SEC. 3. Section twelve hundred and thirty-four of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Unclaimed
deposits in savings associations, proceedings.

1234. If the applicant is a savings and loan association, or engaged in the business of receiving money on deposit, and there is any unclaimed deposit or dividend in its hands belonging to a person whose whereabouts are unknown to the trustees, directors, or other officers presenting the application, the application must set forth the name of the person making such deposit, or entitled to such dividend, the time when such deposit was made or dividend declared, the residence, if known, of such person at the time of such deposit, the amount of such deposit or dividend, and the fact that the whereabouts of such person are unknown. The same facts must be stated in the notice of the application given by the clerk. If, at any time before the expiration of the time of publication, any person files a claim to such deposit or dividend, the court must, at the hearing and upon five days' notice to him, hear and determine his claim, and, if such claim is established, order such money to be paid to him. All such deposits or dividends not so claimed, or as to which no claim shall be established, must, upon order of the court, be paid into the state treasury, accompanied with a copy of the order, which

Disposition of unclaimed
deposits.

must set forth the facts hereinbefore required to be stated concerning such deposits or dividends; and, upon production of the treasurer's receipt for such payment, the court may proceed to declare the corporation dissolved as in other cases. All unclaimed deposits and dividends so paid into the state treasury must be received, invested, accounted for, and paid out, in the same manner and by the same officers as is provided by law in the case of escheated estates, and in section twelve hundred and seventy-two.

CHAPTER 255.

An act to amend sections twelve hundred and nine and twelve hundred and ten of the Code of Civil Procedure, both relating to contempts.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twelve hundred and nine of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1209. The following acts or omissions in respect to a court of justice, or proceedings therein, are contempts of the authority of the court:

1. Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior toward the judge while holding the court, tending to interrupt the due course of a trial or other judicial proceeding;

2. A breach of the peace, boisterous conduct, or violent disturbance, tending to interrupt the due course of a trial or other judicial proceeding;

3. Misbehavior in office, or other willful neglect or violation of duty by an attorney, counsel, clerk, sheriff, coroner, or other person, appointed or elected to perform a judicial or ministerial service;

4. Abuse of the process or proceedings of the court, or falsely pretending to act under authority of an order or process of the court;

5. Disobedience of any lawful judgment, order, or process of the court;

6. Assuming to be an officer, attorney, or counselor of a court, and acting as such, without authority;

7. Rescuing any person or property in the custody of an officer by virtue of an order or process of such court;

8. Unlawfully detaining a witness, or party to an action, while going to, remaining at, or returning from the court where the action is on the calendar for trial;

9. Any other unlawful interference with the process or proceedings of a court;

What acts or omissions are contempts of court.

10. Disobedience of a subpoena duly served, or refusing to be sworn or answer as a witness;

11. When summoned as a juror in a court, neglecting to attend or serve as such, or improperly conversing with a party to an action, to be tried at such court, or with any other person, in relation to the merits of such action, or receiving a communication from a party or other person in respect to it, without immediately disclosing the same to the court;

12. Disobedience by an inferior tribunal, magistrate, or officer, of the lawful judgment, order, or process of a superior court, or proceeding in an action or special proceeding contrary to law, after such action or special proceeding is removed from the jurisdiction of such inferior tribunal, magistrate, or officer;

13. Practicing law, or advertising or holding one's self out as practicing or as entitled to practice law, in any court, except a justice's or police court, without having received a license as attorney and counselor, issued under the laws of this state. But no speech or publication reflecting upon or concerning any court or any officer thereof shall be treated or punished as a contempt of such court unless made in the immediate presence of such court while in session and in such a manner as to actually interfere with its proceedings.

SEC. 2. Section twelve hundred and ten of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Reentry on property after ejection, when a contempt.

1210. Every person dispossessed or ejected from any real property by the judgment or process of any court of competent jurisdiction, who, not having right so to do, reënters into or upon or takes possession of any such real property, or induces or procures any person not having right so to do, or aids or abets him therein, is guilty of a contempt of the court by which such judgment was rendered or from which such process issued. Upon a conviction for such contempt the court must immediately issue an alias process, directed to the proper officer, and requiring him to restore such possession to the party entitled under the original judgment or process, or to his lessee, grantee, or successor in interest, and no appeal from the order directing the issuance of an alias writ of possession stays the execution thereof, unless a written undertaking is executed on the part of the appellant, with two or more sureties to the effect that he will not commit or suffer to be committed any waste thereon, and if the order is affirmed, or the appeal dismissed, he will pay the value of the use and occupation of the property from the time of his unlawful reëntury until the delivery of the possession thereof, pursuant to the judgment or order, not exceeding a sum to be fixed by the judge of the court by which the order for the alias writ was made, and which must be specified in the undertaking.

CHAPTER 256.

An act to repeal Chapter III of Title IV of Part III of the Code of Civil Procedure and each and every section of said Chapter III, and to substitute a new Chapter III to take the place thereof in said code, relating to liens for salaries and wages.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter III of Title IV of Part III of the Code of Civil Procedure and each and every section of said Chapter III are repealed, and a new Chapter III is substituted to take the place thereof in said code to read as follows:

CHAPTER III.

CERTAIN LIENS FOR SALARY AND WAGES.

- Sec. 1204. Preferred creditors when assignment of property is made.
 Sec. 1205. Same against estates.
 Sec. 1206. Same in cases of execution or attachment.
 Sec. 1207. Dispute of claim, or some portion thereof—Costs.
 Sec. 1208. Distribution of proceeds where the entire claims cannot be paid.

1204. When any assignment, whether voluntary or involuntary, is made for the benefit of the creditors of the assignor, or results from any proceeding in insolvency commenced against him, the wages and salaries of miners, mechanics, salesmen, servants, clerks, laborers, and other persons, for services rendered for him within sixty days prior to such assignment, or to the commencement of such proceeding, and not exceeding one hundred dollars each, constitute preferred claims, and must be paid by the trustee or assignee before the claim of any other creditor of the assignor or insolvent.

Persons preferred on assignment of property.

1205. Upon the death of any employer, the wages, not exceeding one hundred dollars in amount, of each miner, mechanic, salesman, clerk, servant, laborer, or other employé, for work done or services rendered within sixty days prior to such death, must be paid before any other claim against the estate of such employer, except his funeral expenses, and expenses of the last sickness, the allowance to the widow and infant children, and the charges and expenses of administration.

Same against estates.

1206. Upon the levy of any attachment or execution, not founded upon a claim for labor, any miner, mechanic, salesman, servant, clerk, laborer, or other person who has performed work or rendered services for the defendant within sixty days prior to the levy, may file a verified statement of his claim therefor with the officer executing the writ, and give copies thereof to the debtor and the creditor, and such claim, not exceeding one hundred dollars, unless disputed, must be paid by such officer from the proceeds of such levy remaining in his hands at the filing of such statement. If any claim is disputed, within the time, and in the manner prescribed in section twelve hundred and seven, the claimant must within ten days thereafter commence an action for the recovery of his demand, which action must be prosecuted with due diligence, or his claim to priority of payment is forever barred. The officer must retain in his possession until the determination of such action so much of the proceeds of the writ as may be necessary to satisfy the claim, and if the claimant recovers judgment, the officer must pay the same, including the costs of suit, from such proceeds.

Same in case of execution or attachment.

Dispute of claim, or some portion.

1207. Within five days after receiving a copy of the statement provided for in the preceding section, either the debtor or the creditor may file with the officer a verified statement denying that any part of such claim is due for services rendered within sixty days next preceding the levy of the writ, or denying that any part of such claim, beyond a sum specified, is so due. If a part of the claim is admitted to be due, and the claimant nevertheless brings suit and does not recover more than the amount so admitted, he cannot recover costs, but the costs must be adjudged against him, and the amount thereof deducted from the sum found due him.

Costs.

Distribution of proceeds.

1208. If the claims presented under section twelve hundred and six and not disputed, or, if disputed, established by judgment, exceed the proceeds of the writ not disposed of before their presentation, such proceeds must be distributed among the claimants in proportion to the amount of their respective claims.

CHAPTER 257.

An act to amend sections eleven hundred and sixty-six and eleven hundred and sixty-seven, of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to repeal section eleven hundred and seventy-five thereof, all relating to summary proceedings for obtaining possession of real property.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eleven hundred and sixty-six of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Complaint must be verified.

1166. The plaintiff, in his complaint, which shall be verified, must set forth the facts on which he seeks to recover, and describe the premises with reasonable certainty, and may set forth therein any circumstances of fraud, force, or violence which may have accompanied the alleged forcible entry or forcible or unlawful detainer, and claim damages therefor. In case the unlawful detainer charged is after default in the payment of rent, the complaint must state the amount of such rent. Upon filing the complaint, a summons must be issued thereon.

SEC. 2. Section eleven hundred and sixty-seven of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1167. The summons must require the defendant to appear and answer within three days after the service of the summons upon him, and must notify him that if he fails to so appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint. In all other respects the summons, or any alias summons in such proceedings, must be issued and served and returned in the same manner as summons in a civil action.

Summons, form and service of

SEC. 3. Section eleven hundred and seventy-five of said code is hereby repealed.

Repeal of Section
1175.

CHAPTER 258.

An act to amend section fourteen hundred and seventeen of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to special administrators and their powers and duties.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section fourteen hundred and seventeen of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1417. The special administrator must render an account, on oath, of his proceedings in a like manner as other administrators are required to do. He is entitled to a reasonable compensation for his services, to be fixed by the court at the time of the settlement of his final account.

Special administrator to render account.

CHAPTER 259.

An act to amend section fourteen hundred and twenty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to wills found after letters of administration granted.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section fourteen hundred and twenty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1423. Upon the admission to probate of a will after a grant of letters of administration on the ground of intestacy, or upon the admission to probate of a later will than the one

Pre-existing grant of letters, when revoked.

before admitted to probate, the pre-existing grant of letters testamentary or of administration must be revoked, and the administrator or executor whose grant of authority is thus terminated must render an account of his administration within such time as the court may direct.

CHAPTER 260.

An act to amend sections fourteen hundred and thirty-one and fourteen hundred and thirty-two of the Code of Civil Procedure, both relating to transfers of administration.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section fourteen hundred and thirty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Proceedings when no judge qualified to act.

1431. When a petition is filed in the superior court, praying for admission to probate of a will, or for granting letters testamentary or of administration, or when proceedings are pending in the superior court for the settlement of an estate, and there is no judge of said court qualified to act, an order must be made transferring the proceedings to the superior court of an adjoining county, and the clerk of the court ordering the transfer must transmit to the clerk of the court to which the proceedings are ordered to be transferred a certified copy of the order and all papers on file in his office in the proceedings; and thereafter the court to which the proceeding is transferred shall exercise the same authority and jurisdiction over the estate, and all matters relating to the administration thereof, as if it had original jurisdiction of the estate; provided, there shall not be any necessity for transferring such proceedings, or any of them, when a judge of some other county qualified to act attends at the request of the judge of the county where such proceedings are pending, to hold court, to conduct and to try such proceedings; and such judge when so called upon to preside, shall exercise the same jurisdiction over any proceeding in the estate as is exercised in other cases under like circumstances.

Proviso.

SEC. 2. Section fourteen hundred and thirty-two of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Transfer not to change right to administer.

1432. The transfer of a proceeding from one court to another as provided for in the preceding section, shall not affect the right of any person to letters testamentary or of administration on the estate transferred, but the same persons are entitled to letters testamentary or of administration on the estate, in the order hereinbefore provided. If, before the administration is closed of any estate so transferred as herein provided, another person is elected or appointed, and qualified as judge of the court wherein such proceeding was originally commenced, who is not disqualified to act in the settlement of the estate, and the causes for which the proceeding was transferred no longer exist, any person interested in the estate may have the proceeding returned to the court from which it was originally transferred, by filing a petition setting forth these facts, and moving the court therefor.

CHAPTER 261.

An act to amend sections fourteen hundred and thirty-six and fourteen hundred and thirty-seven of the Code of Civil Procedure, both relating to removal of executors and administrators.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section fourteen hundred and thirty-six of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1436. Whenever a judge of a superior court has reason to believe from his own knowledge, or from credible information, that any executor or administrator has wasted, embezzled, or mismanaged, or is about to waste or embezzle the property of the estate committed to his charge, or has committed or is about to commit a fraud upon the estate, or is incompetent to act, or has permanently removed from the state, or has wrongfully neglected the estate, or has long neglected to perform any act as such executor or administrator, he must, by an order entered upon the minutes of the court, direct such executor or administrator to be cited to appear and show cause why his letters should not be revoked, and may also suspend the powers of such executor or administrator, until the matter is investigated. Suspension of powers of executor.

SEC. 2. Section fourteen hundred and thirty-seven of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1437. If the executor or administrator fails to appear in obedience to the citation, or, if he appears, and the court is satisfied from the evidence, that there exists cause for his removal, his letters must be revoked. Revocation of letters.

CHAPTER 262.

An act to amend section fourteen hundred and forty-five of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the inventory and appraisement of the estates of the decedents.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section fourteen hundred and forty-five of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Oath of appraisers.

1445. Before proceeding to the execution of their duty; the appraisers must take and subscribe an oath, to be attached to the inventory, that they will truly, honestly, and impartially appraise the property exhibited to them, according to the best of their knowledge and ability. They must then proceed to estimate and appraise the property; each item of property must be set down separately, with the value thereof in dollars and cents, in figures, opposite the items respectively. The inventory must contain all the estate of the decedent, real and personal, a statement of all debts, bonds, mortgages, notes, and other securities for the payment of money belonging to the decedent, specifying the name of the debtor in each debt or security, the date, the sum originally payable, the indorsement thereon (if any), with their dates, and the sum which, in the judgment of the appraisers, may be collected on each debt or security; and a statement of the interest of the decedent in any partnership of which he was a member, to be appraised as a single item. The inventory must also show, so far as the same can be ascertained by the executor or administrator, what portion of the property is community property, and what portion is the separate property of the decedent.

Inventory.

CHAPTER 263.

An act to amend section fourteen hundred and fifty-two of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the possession of the property of deceased persons.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section fourteen hundred and fifty-two of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Executor entitled to possess all of estate of decedent.

1452. The executor or administrator is entitled to the possession of all the real and personal estate of the decedent, and to receive the rents and profits of the real estate until the estate is settled or until delivered over by the order of the court to the heirs or devisees; and must keep in good tenantable repair all houses, buildings and fixtures thereon which are under his control. After the expiration of the time for the presentation of claims, he is not entitled to recover the possession of any property of the estate from any heir, who has succeeded to the property in his possession or from any devisee, or legatee, to whom the property has been devised or bequeathed, or from the assignee of any such heir, devisee, or legatee, unless he proves that the same is necessary for the payment of debts or legacies, or of expenses of administration already accrued, or for distribution to some other heir, devisee, or legatee entitled thereto. The heirs or devisees may themselves, or jointly with the executor or administrator, maintain an action for the possession of the real estate, or for the purpose of quieting title to the same, against any one except the executor or administrator; but this section shall not be so construed as requiring them so to do.

CHAPTER 264.

An act to add a new section to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered fourteen hundred and fifty-four, relating to collection of deposits made by deceased persons in banks.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered fourteen hundred and fifty-four, to read as follows:

1454. The surviving husband or wife of any deceased person, or, if no husband or wife is living, then the children of such decedent, may, without procuring letters of administration, collect of any bank any sum which said deceased may have left on deposit in such bank at the time of his or her death; provided, such deposit shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars. Any bank, upon receiving an affidavit stating that said depositor is dead, and that affiant is the surviving husband or wife, as the case may be, or stating that decedent left no husband or wife, and that affiant is or affiants are the children of said decedent, and that the whole amount that decedent left on deposit in any and all banks of deposit in this state does not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, may pay to said affiant or affiants any deposit of said decedent, if the same does not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and the receipt of such affiant is sufficient acquittance therefor.

Surviving heirs may collect money deposited in bank.

CHAPTER 265.

An act to amend sections fourteen hundred and fifty-eight, fourteen hundred and fifty-nine, and fourteen hundred and sixty of the Code of Civil Procedure, all relating to proceedings against persons who unlawfully hold or dispose of the property of decedents.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section fourteen hundred and fifty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Embezzling effects of a decedent.

1458. If any person embezzles, conceals, smuggles, or fraudulently disposes of any of the moneys, goods, chattels, or effects of a decedent, he is chargeable therewith, and liable to an action by the executor or administrator of the estate for double the value of the property so embezzled, concealed, smuggled, or fraudulently disposed of, to be recovered for the benefit of the estate.

SEC. 2. Section fourteen hundred and fifty-nine of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Citation to person suspected of embezzlement.

1459. If any executor, administrator, or other person interested in the estate of a decedent, complains to the superior court, or a judge thereof, on oath, that any person is suspected to have concealed, embezzled, smuggled, or fraudulently disposed of any moneys, goods, or chattels of the decedent, or has in his possession or knowledge any deeds, conveyances, bonds, contracts, or other writings, which contain evidences of or tend to disclose the right, title, interest, or claim of the decedent to any real or personal estate, or any claim or demand, or any lost will, the said court or judge may cite such person to appear before such court, and may examine him on oath upon the matter of such complaint. If such person is not in the county where the decedent died, or where letters have been granted, he may be cited and examined either before the superior court of the county where he is found, or before the superior court of the county where the decedent died, or where letters have been granted. But if he appears and is found innocent, his necessary expenses must be allowed him out of the estate.

SEC. 3. Section fourteen hundred and sixty of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Penalty for refusal to obey citation.

1460. If the person so cited refuses to appear and submit to an examination, or to answer such interrogatories as may be put to him, touching the matters of the complaint, the court may, by warrant for that purpose, commit him to the county jail, there to remain in close custody until he submits to the order of the court, or is discharged according to law. If, upon such examination, it appears that he has concealed, embezzled, smuggled, or fraudulently disposed of any moneys, goods, or chattels of the decedent, or that he has in his possession or knowledge any deeds, conveyances, bonds, contracts, or other writings containing evidences of or tending to disclose the right, title, interest, or claim of the decedent to any real or personal estate, claim, or demand, or any lost will of the decedent, the court may make an order requiring such person to disclose his knowledge thereof to the executor or administrator, and may commit him to the county jail, there to remain until the order is complied with, or he is discharged according to law; and all such interrogatories and answers must be in writing, signed by the party examined, and filed in the court. In addition to the examination of the party, witnesses may be produced and examined on either side.

CHAPTER 266.

An act to amend section two hundred and twenty-six of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to the procedure of adopting minor children, and the manner of procuring consent thereto.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two hundred and twenty-six of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

226. Any person desiring to adopt a child may, for that purpose, petition the superior court of the county in which the petitioner resides. The person adopting a child, and the child adopted, and the other persons, if within or residents of said county, whose consent is necessary, must appear before the court, and the necessary consent must thereupon be signed and an agreement executed by the person adopting, to the effect that the child shall be adopted and treated in all respects as his own lawful child should be treated. If the persons whose consent is necessary are not within or are not residents of said county, then their written consent, duly proved or acknowledged, according to sections eleven hundred and eighty-two and eleven hundred and eighty-three, must be filed in said superior court at the time of the application for adoption.

Adoption

ings.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 267.

An act to amend section ten of an act approved March 11th, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled "An act to accept from the Veterans' Home Association the conveyance of, and to vest the title in the State of California, to the tract of land in Napa county known as the Veterans' Home, with the improvements and furnishings thereon, to make the same a state home for United States soldiers, sailors, and marines, and to provide for the government thereof by the state," as amended by an act approved March 20th, nineteen hundred and five, providing for the disposition of pension money belonging to deceased members.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Veterans' Home.

SECTION 1. Section ten of an act approved March 11th, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled "An act to accept from the Veterans' Home Association the conveyance of, and to vest the title in the State of California, to the tract of land in Napa county known as the Veterans' Home, with the improvements and furnishings thereon, to make the same a state home for United States soldiers, sailors, and marines, and to provide for the government thereof by the state," as amended by an act approved March 20th, nineteen hundred and five, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Disposition of moneys received.

SECTION 10. All moneys received by the directors, or by any officer of the home, (except such as may be paid to them by the state for disbursement) including pension moneys belonging to the pensioners in the home, and all other trust moneys, shall be immediately paid over to the treasurer of the home. On or before the tenth day of each month the treasurer of the home shall forward to the state treasurer all moneys then in his possession, except pension moneys, and other trust funds, the post fund, and the moneys hereinafter referred to as subject to their direct disbursement and designated the "Emergency Fund," together with a statement of the source from which the same has been received. Said moneys shall be immediately deposited by the state treasurer to the credit of the fund hereinafter designated "Fund for the support and maintenance of the Veterans' Home of California." Any balance of pension money held by the board, or by its authority upon the death of the pensioner, or any moneys belonging to the members of the home, shall, upon their death, be held as a trust fund, to be paid by the board, directly and without probate, or by its order, to the widow, minor children or mother or father of the pensioner or member in the order named; and should no widow, minor child, or parent be discovered within one year from the time of the death of the pensioner, or of Emergency fund.

Balance of pension money held as trust fund.

the member, said balance, or moneys, shall be paid to the post fund of the home, to be used for the common benefit of the members of the home under the direction of the board, subject to future reclamation by the relatives hereinbefore designated in the order named, upon application filed by the one entitled to the same within five years after the death of said pensioner, or member. All personal effects of deceased members of the home shall be held for the relatives above mentioned for a period of one year from the date of their death and if not claimed within said time shall be turned over to the commandant, or other officer in charge, who, on a day and hour to be fixed by him, and after posting notices of the same in three conspicuous places at the home, shall sell at public sale the said personal effects, the proceeds of which sale shall go to the post fund to be used for the common benefit of the members as hereinabove provided for pension and other moneys, and subject to future reclamation within the period of five years from the date of the death of the member as hereinbefore mentioned. The board of directors shall make proper rules and regulations to carry this into effect. Provided however, that nothing in this act shall in any way conflict with the right of any member of the home to dispose of his property, including such pension moneys, by last will.

This act shall take effect and be in force on and after its passage.

CHAPTER 268.

An act to amend section 224 of the Civil Code of the State of California, relative to the adoption of minor children.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 224 of the Civil Code of California is amended to read as follows:

224. A legitimate child can not be adopted without the consent of its parents, if living; nor an illegitimate child without the consent of its mother, if living; except, that consent is not necessary from a father or mother deprived of civil rights or adjudged guilty of adultery or cruelty, and for either cause divorced, or adjudged to be habitually intemperate in the use of intoxicants, or who has been judicially deprived of the custody of the child on account of cruelty or neglect.

Adoption: consent of child's parents.

Neither is consent of any parent necessary in case of any abandoned child; provided, however, that any such child, being a half-orphan, and kept and maintained in any orphan asylum in this state for more than two years, may be adopted, with the consent of the manager of such orphan's home without the consent of the parent unless such parent has paid toward the expenses of maintenance of such half-orphan at least a reasonable sum during the said time, if able to do so. Any child deserted by both parents or left in the care and custody of another by its parent or parents, without any agreement or provision for its support, for the period of one year, is deemed to be an abandoned child within the meaning of this section and where the parent is a non-resident of this state such child may be adopted with the consent of the managers of such home whenever it has been left in such home for more than one year; or any abandoned child, within the meaning of this section, if left in the care and custody of another person for one year or more, may, with the consent of the district attorney of the county wherein the person applying to adopt such child is a resident, be adopted by such person.

CHAPTER 269.

An act to amend section 1774 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to the settlement of the final accounts of guardians of insane persons.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1774 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Settlements of guardians.

1774. The guardian must upon the expiration of a year from the time of his appointment and as often thereafter as he may be required, present his account to the court for settlement and allowance, provided that no final account of the guardian of any insane person, who is or has been during such guardianship confined in a state hospital in this state, shall be settled or allowed unless notice of the settlement of said account shall have been first given to the secretary of the state commission in lunacy.

CHAPTER 270.

An act to amend an act entitled, an act to provide for the formation of levee districts in the various counties of this state and to provide for the erection of levees, dikes and other works for the purpose of protecting the lands within such districts from overflow and to levy assessments to erect and construct and maintain such levees, dikes and other works and to pay the necessary costs and expenses of maintaining said districts, approved March 20, 1905.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act to provide for the formation of levee districts in the various counties of this state, and to provide for the erection of levees, dikes and other works for the purpose of protecting the lands within such districts from overflow and to levy assessments, to erect and construct and maintain such levees, dikes and other works and to pay the necessary costs and expenses of maintaining said districts, approved March 20, 1905, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

SEC. 2. Whenever the board of supervisors of any county in this state shall receive a petition signed by a majority of the land owners within any portion of said county, accompanied by a deposit sufficient to cover the cost of publication of all notices required by sections two and three of this act, which said portion of said county shall be specifically described and set out by metes and bounds in said petition, asking that said portion of said county be set apart and erected into a levee district for the purpose of protecting the lands embraced in said portion of said county from overflow from any river, stream or streams, or water course, the board of supervisors shall pass a resolution signifying its intention to erect and set apart said portion of said county into a levee district, for the purpose of protecting the lands therein from overflow and describing the exterior boundaries of the district of lands embraced therein, and to be assessed to pay the damages, costs and expenses thereof. Such resolution shall also contain a notice to be published, which said notice shall be headed, "Notice of intention of the board of supervisors to form a levee district," and shall state the fact of the passage of such resolution, with the date thereof, the boundaries of the district, and the statement that it is proposed to assess all properties embraced within such proposed levee district for the purpose of paying the damages, costs and expenses of erecting and repairing dikes, levees and other improvements to protect the said lands from overflow, and the necessary expense of maintaining the said district and refer to the resolution for further particulars. Such notice to be given by the board of supervisors and signed by its clerk. Petitions shall be heard in the order of filing.

Term of publication.

SEC. 3. Such notice shall be published for a period of thirty days, in a newspaper published and circulated in said county and designated by said board of supervisors.

Objections to formation of
district.

SEC. 4. Any person interested, objecting to the formation of such levee district or to the extent of the district of lands to be affected or benefited by erection or repair of such dikes, levees or other improvements to protect the same from overflow, and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, may make written objections to the same within ten days after the expiration of the time of the publication of said notice, which objection shall be delivered to the clerk of said board of supervisors, who shall indorse thereon the date of its reception by him, and at the next regular meeting of said board of supervisors or at an adjourned meeting or a special meeting called for that purpose, after the expiration of said ten days lay such objection before said board of supervisors. Said board shall then fix a time for hearing of said objections not less than fifteen days thereafter and direct its clerk to notify each person objecting of such day fixed for hearing, by depositing a notice thereof in the postoffice at the county seat of such county, postage prepaid addressed to such person objecting, which said notice shall be deposited in the post-office not less than ten days before the day set for hearing.

Time for hearing.

Hearing.

SEC. 5. At the time specified or to which the hearing may be adjourned, the board of supervisors shall hear the objections urged and pass upon the same. Such board may, in its discretion sustain, in whole or in part, any or all of the objections made and filed, and must declare such levee district as petitioned for formed as a subdivision of such county, and shall designate such district by name as the "—— Levee District of —— County."

Declaration of supervisors.

SEC. 6. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the board of supervisors that it is the desire of a majority of the owners of land in such proposed district that the same should be erected into a levee district, and that it is just and proper, they may declare said territory a levee district for the above purposes, and record the same in a book to be kept for that purpose, giving the metes and bounds.

Notice of
of trustees.

SEC. 7. Within ten days after the board of supervisors have declared the territory a levee district and recorded the same as provided in section 5 of this act, the board of supervisors must give notice of an election to be held in the said district, for the election of three eligible persons, who shall be property owners in said district and, who shall constitute when elected and qualified, the board of trustees of the district for the management of the affairs thereof, and who shall hold office for two years next succeeding their election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The notice calling such election shall not be less than one month, and at such election every qualified elector in said district whose names shall appear on the last preceding assessment roll of the county and having been assessed on property within the boundaries of said district, shall be entitled to vote, and a majority of votes cast at such election shall elect. The board of supervisors must appoint a time and place for holding such election. The notice of such election shall be given by publication for not less than one month, in a newspaper in the county where such district is situated. For the purpose of such election the board of supervisors of the county in which said district is situated must appoint from the qualified electors and property owners of said district, one inspector and two judges of election for such district; but in case the board of supervisors fail to appoint, or the persons appointed, fail to attend at the time and place appointed for such election, the voters present at the time and place of opening the polls may appoint the board or supply the place of the absent member thereof. Each member of the board of election must before entering upon his duties, be sworn to faithful performance thereof by some officer authorized to administer oaths. The board of election must canvass the votes cast, and issue certificates of election to the persons elected, and must place the ballots when canvassed in an envelope, and forward the same sealed to the clerk of the board of supervisors. Any legally qualified voter may challenge any vote, and the board of election shall determine, by the oath of the parties or otherwise, as they may think proper, whether or not the person challenged is entitled to vote, and in case of challenge, either one of the board of election is hereby authorized to administer oaths. The polls shall be open from 10 A. M. until 4 P. M. In case of vacancy in the board of trustees, the board of supervisors shall by appointment fill such vacancy. Similar elections shall be held every two years from and after the date of the first election, and shall be called in the same way as the first election.

SEC. 8. The board of trustees must keep an office in or near the district for the transaction of the business thereof, and the books, maps, papers, records, contracts and other documents pertaining to the affairs of the district must be open for inspection to any person interested at all times. From and after the election and qualification of said trustees said district shall be deemed organized and shall have power to sue or be sued. The board of trustees shall have power to elect one of its members president thereof, to employ engineers and others, to survey, plan, locate and estimate the cost of the works and improvements necessary, in the way of erection or repair of levees, dikes and other works for the benefit of said district; to thereafter and at any time in its discretion modify or change said original plan or plans, or to adopt any new supplemental or additional plan or plans, when in its judgment the same shall become necessary; to acquire by purchase, condemnation or otherwise, rights of way, and the right to take material for the construction of all works necessary for the accomplishment of the objects of the district including drains, levees and embankments, and to construct, maintain and keep in repair all works, requisite and necessary to that end; and to do all other acts and things necessary or required for the protection of the lands in said district from the overflow of any river, stream, streams or water course, and to employ the service of any person legal or otherwise which in the judgment of said board of trustees may be necessary to the welfare of the district. The said board of trustees shall each year estimate the total cost for all purposes of erecting, constructing or repairing levees, dikes or other works, and doing the necessary things for the protection of the lands and property within said district from the overflow of any river, stream, streams or water course, and maintain the same for one year, including all damages awarded to any person by reason of the erection or construction of any of said levees, dikes or other works for protection, and upon approval by a majority of the electors shall thereupon make a report of the foregoing matters to the board of supervisors in which said district is situated, showing the amount of money required by said district for all purposes for one year thereafter. Said estimate of moneys necessary for said district for each year, and said report shall be made to said board of supervisors by said board of trustees on or before the 1st day of September of each year after the formation of said district, and said estimate made as aforesaid and report to said board of supervisors by said board of trustees as hereinbefore set out, shall in each instance form the basis of the estimates of the board of supervisors for the amount of money required to be raised by assessment on the lands and personal property within such district for such year.

Yearly estimate of cost.

Report to supervisors.

Duty of county assessor.

SEC. 9. The county assessor of such county shall, on or before the 1st day of September of each year after the formation of such district, and at such other times as the board of supervisors shall require, furnish said board of supervisors with a detailed statement showing the names of all owners of land and personal property within the boundaries of said district and the assessed valuation of said lands, improvements thereon, and personal property, as shown on the last preceding assessment roll, made by such assessor on the property within said district.

Annual tax levy.

SEC. 10. At the time when by law it is the duty of the board of supervisors of such county to fix the annual tax rate of such county, the said board of supervisors taking as a basis the last previous estimate and report of said board of trustees of said district as hereinbefore specified, for the amount of money necessary to be raised in said district for the purposes thereof for that year, and the valuation of the lands and improvements thereon, and personal property within such district as furnished them by the county assessor, must levy a tax upon all taxable property in such levee district sufficient to raise the amount set forth in said estimate and report as made by said board of trustees.

The rate of taxation shall be ascertained by deducting twenty per cent for anticipated delinquency from the aggregate value of all the property in said district as shown by the statement prepared and furnished to said board of supervisors by the assessor as hereinbefore provided, and then dividing the amount necessary to be raised in said levee district by the remainder of such aggregate assessed value as shown in said statement as furnished by said assessor. The taxes so levied shall be computed and entered upon the assessment roll of the county by the county auditor and collected at the same time, and in the same manner as state and county taxes; and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of said levee district in which said taxes were levied. And all taxes so levied as hereinbefore provided shall be a lien upon the lands and property in said district, in the manner, and with the same effect, and collected in the same way, as are state and county taxes.

Rate of taxation, how ascertained.

SEC. 11. All moneys collected from such district for such taxes, and all moneys received from any source for the benefit of such district shall be by the county treasurer placed in a fund, to be called the "—— Levee District Fund"; and all payments of any of the expenses of the work or improvements or other expenses of such district shall be made upon warrants drawn by the county auditor upon such fund, and paid by said treasurer, and all claims as well for the land and improvements taken or damaged, as for the charges and expenses of said district, shall be paid on claims prepared in the manner required by law for the preparation of claims against the county and first presented to the board of trustees of said district, and be by them approved, and then to be presented and filed as are the claims against the county, and shall thereupon be paid as are the claims against the county, and upon the order of the board of supervisors, and the claims shall be itemized in the same manner as are the claims against the county.

Disposition of moneys collected.

Payment of claims.

SEC. 12. No levees, dikes or other works for the benefit of said district must be constructed or repaired except on the order of the board of trustees of said district and when such repair or construction will exceed the sum of $500.00 the same must be repaired or constructed under a contract let, after reasonable notice given by the said board of trustees by publishing said notice at least once a week for two weeks in a newspaper published and circulated in said county and designated by said board of trustees. All bids shall be sealed and shall be opened at the time specified in the notice, and the contract awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. The board may however, reject any and all bids. The contract and bond for its performance must be entered into and approved by the board of trustees, except however in cases of great emergency, by the unanimous consent of the whole board of trustees they may proceed at once to replace or repair any and all levees, dikes or other works of whatever nature without notice. Prior to the publication of the notice of the letting of any contract for the erection or repair of dikes, levees or other works, the board of trustees must cause to be prepared by a competent engineer, plans and specifications and working details of such work, which said plans and specifications shall be adopted by the board of trustees and filed in the office of said board and shall be subject to inspection by any person for at least two weeks prior to the date of the letting of such contract. The board of trustees must appoint an engineer to supervise the construction, repair or other works to be done under such plans and specifications and no claim shall be allowed for any work done under any contract let under such plans and specifications without a certificate being first filed in the office of the board of trustees and in the office of the clerk of the board of supervisors of said county signed by said engineer, certifying that such work has been completed and constructed according to the plans and specifications and the terms of the contract. Such engineer shall be paid such compensation as may be agreed upon by the board of trustees and such compensation shall be paid in the same manner as are other claims against said district.

Supervising engineer.

When county may contribute to expenses.

SEC. 13. Whenever the board of supervisors of any county in which said district is situated shall consider that the construction or repair of dikes, levees or other works of said district along or upon any of the county roads of such county, will be for the mutual benefit of such district and such county, then in that event the said board of supervisors shall have power, and may contribute to the expense and cost of such work, such sums of money as they may deem proper on behalf of the county, and such moneys shall be paid out of either the general road fund or the special fund of any road district, in which said work is done, and as a majority of said board of supervisors may determine.

Bond of trustees.

SEC. 14. The board of trustees elected under this act shall serve without compensation, and shall each file a bond for the faithful performance of their duties in the sum of $5000.00 said bond to be approved by the judge of the superior court of the county in which said district is situated.

Power to condemn land.

SEC. 15. The board of trustees shall have power, in the name of the district to condemn land, or other property, for the purpose of erecting levees, dikes and other improvements or obtaining material for the same for the purpose of protecting the lands embraced in said district from overflow, and for that purpose, all of the provisions of part 3, title 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure are hereby made applicable to exercise of the right of eminent domain for such purpose to the needs of such district.

Not to supersede other acts.

SEC. 16. This act is not intended to supersede or repeal any other act for the construction and maintenance of ditches, levees, dikes or works of protection or for drainage or for reclamation but is intended as an independent and alternative means of constructing and erecting such districts, levees, dikes or other works of protection where most applicable and desirable to the parties interested.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 271.

An act to amend section 1240 of the Code of Civil Procedure, specifying the property which may be taken under the law of eminent domain, and authorizing proceedings therefor.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1240 of the Code of Civil Procedure be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

1240. The private property which may be taken under this title includes: "Private property" defined.

1. All real property belonging to any person;

2. Lands belonging to this state, including tide and submerged lands, not within the corporate limits of any city, or city and county, or to any county, incorporated city, or city and county, village or town, not appropriated to some public use;

3. Lands belonging to the United States or owned or held by the United States in trust, or otherwise, for any purpose, except lands owned or held for light houses, postoffice or other government buildings, forts, arsenals, or other military purposes;

4. Property appropriated to public use; but such property shall not be taken unless for a more necessary public use than that to which it has been already appropriated;

5. Franchises for toll-roads, toll-bridges, and ferries, and all other franchises; but such franchises shall not be taken unless for free highways, railroads, or other more necessary public use;

6. All rights of way for any and all the purposes mentioned in section twelve hundred and thirty-eight, and any and all structures and improvements thereon, and the lands held or used in connection therewith shall be subject to be connected with, crossed, or intersected by any other right of way or improvements, or structures thereon. They shall also be subject to a limited use, in common with the owner thereof, when necessary; but such uses, crossings, intersections, and connections shall be made in manner most compatible with the greatest public benefit and least private injury;

No railroad main track crossing, outside the limits of any incorporated town, city or city and county, shall be at grade, unless the party proposing such crossing at grade shall, at its own sole cost and expense, protect such crossing by the construction, operation and maintenance of an interlocking plant, with suitable signals and derails; but either party to such crossing may insist upon a separation of grades, in which case the cost of constructing such crossing with separate grades shall be equally divided between the railroad companies concerned; and provided further that where any such crossing has Railroad main track crossings.
Separation of grades.

been constructed at grade, either company may, at any time thereafter, require a separation of the grades at such crossing, each company paying one half of the expense of such separation; and provided further that the foregoing provisions shall not be construed as requiring a separation of grades where such separation is physically impracticable, and in case of any dispute or controversy as to the physical practicability of any undergrade or overhead crossing, the same shall be determined by the superior court of the county in which such crossing is situate in an action or proceeding brought by either party for that purpose.

7. All classes of private property not enumerated may be taken for public use, when such taking is authorized by law;

Proceedings to condemn.

8. Proceedings to condemn lands belonging to this state are hereby authorized, and must be maintained and conducted in the same manner as are other condemnation proceedings provided for in this title; except, that in such proceedings the summons and a copy of the complaint must be served on the governor, attorney-general, and surveyor-general of this state;

Same as to lands of United States.

9. Proceedings to condemn any of said lands belonging to the United States or owned or held by the United States in trust, or otherwise, for any purpose, are hereby authorized, and must be maintained and conducted in the same manner as are other condemnation proceedings provided for in this title; except, that in such proceedings, the summons and a copy of the complaint must be served on the United States district attorney for the district in which the land sought to be condemned is situated and also upon the United States surveyor-general for this state.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 272.

An act to amend sections five hundred and twenty-five, five hundred and twenty-six, five hundred and twenty-seven, five hundred and twenty-nine, five hundred and thirty, five hundred and thirty-one, and five hundred and thirty-two of the Code of Civil Procedure, all relating to injunctions.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section five hundred and twenty-five of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Injunction, what is, and who may grant.

525. An injunction is a writ or order requiring a person to refrain from a particular act. It may be granted by the court in which the action is brought, or by a judge thereof; and when granted by a judge, it may be enforced as an order of the court.

SEC. 2. Section five hundred and twenty-six of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

526. An injunction may be granted in the following cases: When may be granted.

1. When it appears by the complaint that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded, and such relief, or any part thereof, consists in restraining the commission or continuance of the act complained of, either for a limited period or perpetually;

2. When it appears by the complaint or affidavits that the commission or continuance of some act during the litigation would produce waste, or great or irreparable injury, to a party to the action;

3. When it appears, during the litigation, that a party to the action is doing, or threatens, or is about to do, or is procuring or suffering to be done, some act in violation of the rights of another party to the action respecting the subject of the action, and tending to render the judgment ineffectual;

4. When pecuniary compensation would not afford adequate relief;

5. Where it would be extremely difficult to ascertain the amount of compensation which would afford adequate relief;

6. Where the restraint is necessary to prevent a multiplicity of judicial proceedings;

7. Where the obligation arises from a trust.

An injunction can not be granted:

When can not be granted.

1. To stay a judicial proceeding pending at the commencement of the action in which the injunction is demanded, unless such restraint is necessary to prevent a multiplicity of such proceedings;

2. To stay proceedings in a court of the United States;

3. To stay proceedings in another state upon a judgment of a court of that state;

4. To prevent the execution of a public statute by officers of the law for the public benefit;

5. To prevent the breach of a contract, the performance of which would not be specifically enforced;

6. To prevent the exercise of a public or private office, in a lawful manner, by the person in possession;

7. To prevent a legislative act by a municipal corporation.

SEC. 3. Section five hundred and twenty-seven of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

527. An injunction may be granted at any time before judgment upon a verified complaint, or upon affidavits, if the complaint in the one case, or the affidavits in the other, show satisfactorily that sufficient grounds exist therefor. A copy of the complaint or of the affidavits, upon which the injunction was granted, must, if not previously served, be served therewith. No injunction granted prior to the trial of the cause shall continue in force longer than twelve months, after answer filed, except by consent of the parties, unless the cause has been set for trial upon its merits, or unless the party in whose favor it was granted has sought to have the cause so set for trial, and the failure to set it has not been due to his fault. At what time may be granted.

SEC. 4. Section five hundred and twenty-nine of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Undertaking required.

529. On granting an injunction, the court or judge must require, except when it is granted on the application of the people of the state, a county, or a municipal corporation, or a wife against her husband, a written undertaking on the part of the applicant, with sufficient sureties, to the effect that he will pay to the party enjoined such damages, not exceeding an amount to be specified, as such party may sustain by reason of the injunction, if the court finally decides that the applicant was not entitled thereto. Within five days after the service of the injunction, the person enjoined may except to the sufficiency of the sureties, and unless within five days thereafter, upon notice of not less than two days to the person enjoined, such sureties, or others in their place, justify before a judge of the court or county clerk at a time and place designated in such notice, the order granting the injunction must be dissolved.

Exception to sureties.

SEC. 5. Section five hundred and thirty of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Order to show cause may issue.

530. If the court or judge deem it proper that the person, sought to be enjoined, should be heard before granting the injunction, an order may be made requiring cause to be shown, at a specified time and place, why the injunction should not be granted, and the defendant may, in the meantime, be restrained. In all actions which may be hereafter brought when an injunction or restraining order may be applied for to prevent the diversion, diminution or increase of the flow of water in its natural channels, to the ordinary flow to which the plaintiff claims to be entitled, the court shall first require due notice of the application to be served upon the defendant, and upon the hearing thereof, if it be made to appear to the court that plaintiff is entitled to the injunction, but that the issuance thereof pending the litigation will entail great damage upon defendant, and that plaintiff will not be greatly damaged by the acts complained of pending the litigation and can be fully compensated for such damages as he may suffer, the court may refuse the injunction upon the defendant giving a bond such as is provided for in section five hundred and thirty-two; and upon the trial the same proceedings shall be had, and with the same effect as in said section provided.

Notice to defendant.

SEC. 6. Section five hundred and thirty-one of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Injunction to suspend business of corporation.

531. An injunction to suspend the general and ordinary business of a corporation can not be granted without due notice of the application therefor to the proper officers or managing agent of the corporation, except when the people of this state are a party to the proceeding.

SEC. 7. Section five hundred and thirty-two of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Motion to modify or vacate.

532. If an injunction is granted without notice to the person enjoined, he may apply, upon reasonable notice to the judge who granted the injunction, or to the court in which the action was brought, to dissolve or modify the same. The application may be made upon the complaint or the affidavit on which the injunction was granted, or upon affidavit on the part of the person enjoined, with or without the answer. If the application is made upon affidavits on the part of the person enjoined, but not otherwise, the person against whom the application is made may oppose the same by affidavits or other evidence in addition to that on which the injunction was granted. In all actions pending, or which may hereafter be brought, wherein an injunction or restraining order has been or may be granted or applied for, to prevent the diversion, pending the litigation, of water used, or to be used, for irrigation or domestic purposes only, if it be made to appear to the court that great damage will be suffered by the person enjoined, in case the injunction is continued, and that the person in whose behalf it issued can be fully compensated for any damages he may suffer by reason of the continuance of the acts enjoined during the pendency of the litigation, the court in its discretion, may dissolve or modify the injunction, upon the person enjoined giving a bond with sureties to be approved by the judge, and in such amount as may be fixed by the court or judge, conditioned that such enjoined person will pay all damages which the person in whose behalf the injunction issued may suffer by reason of the continuance, during the litigation, of the acts complained of. Upon the trial the amount of such damages must be ascertained, and in case judgment is rendered for the person in whose behalf the injunction was granted, the amount fixed as such damages must be included in the judgment, together with reasonable attorney's fees. In any suit brought on the bond, the amount of such damages as fixed in said judgment is conclusive on the sureties.

Bond
on modification.

CHAPTER 273.

An act to amend section 3902 of the Political Code, relating to the division of the state into counties.

[Approved March 16, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section thirty-nine hundred and two of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3902. This state is divided into counties, named, bounded and constituted as provided by law. The several counties of this state, as they now exist, and such other counties as may be hereafter organized, according to law, are hereby recognized as legal subdivisions of the state.

Counties are legal subdivisions.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 274.

An act to amend section four hundred and one of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to corporations, and providing for the extension of the terms of existence of corporations.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four hundred and one of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Extension of corporate existence.

401. Every corporation heretofore or hereafter formed, and existing under the laws of this state, may at any time prior to the expiration of the term of its corporate existence extend such term to a period not exceeding fifty years from the date of such extension. Such extension may be made at any meeting of the stockholders, or members, called by the directors expressly for considering the subject, if voted for by stockholders representing two-thirds of the capital stock; or by two-thirds of the members where there is no capital stock; or may be made upon the written assent of two-thirds of the members or of stockholders representing two-thirds of the capital stock. A certificate of such vote or assent shall be signed and sworn to by the president and secretary and by a majority of the directors of the corporation, and filed in the office of the county clerk where the original articles of incorporation were filed, and a copy certified by such clerk shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and thereupon the term of existence of the corporation shall be extended for the period specified in such certificate. The fees for certifying such certificate and filing the same and the certified copy thereof, shall be the same as those prescribed by law for certifying and filing articles of incorporation in such cases. In no event shall such extension be construed to prolong or extend the duration of any franchise or privilege heretofore granted to any corporation or joint stock company by special legislative act, or by the municipal authorities of any county, city, city and county, town, or other political subdivision of this state, beyond the term fixed by the provisions of the act, ordinance or resolution conferring such privilege or franchise, or beyond the term fixed for the maximum period of existence of such corporation or joint stock company by laws in force and governing the formation and organization thereof at the time such corporation or joint stock company was formed or organized.

CHAPTER 275.

An act to amend section 1279 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the filing in the office of the secretary of state of a certified copy of a decree of court changing the name of a person or corporation.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1279 of the Code of Civil Procedure, is hereby amended to read as follows:

1279. A certified copy of the decree of the court, changing the name of a person or corporation, shall within thirty days from the date of such decree, be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

CHAPTER 276.

An act to amend section 3198 of the Political Code, relating to the recording of trademarks.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3198 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3198. The secretary of state must keep for public examination a record of all trademarks, or names filed in his office, with the date when filed and name of claimant; and must at the time of filing issue to the claimant a certificate of such filing under the great seal of the state, and collect from such claimant, a fee of five dollars, as provided for in section four hundred and sixteen of this code.

CHAPTER 277.

An act to create a fund to be known as the United States forest reserve fund and to provide for the payment out of such fund to the treasuries of the several counties entitled thereto of certain moneys received from the government of the United States, and also to regulate the manner of expenditure by the counties of the moneys so paid.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Creation of United States forest reserve fund.

SECTION 1. All moneys which have been received, and all moneys which may hereafter be received, by the State of California from the government of the United States in pursuance of an act of congress approved June 30, 1906 (Public — No. 382), which act provides for the distribution to states and territories of ten per cent of the moneys received from the forest reserves established therein, shall be credited to a fund to be known as the United States forest reserve fund, which fund is hereby specifically created, and such moneys shall be disposed of, in accordance with the terms of such act of congress, by the payment of the same to the counties in which such forest reserves are situated. The payment made to each county from the receipts of any given forest reserve shall be in the proportion which the area of such forest reserve situated in such county bears to the total area of such reserve.

Controller to keep record of receipts.

SEC. 2. The controller of state shall keep a record of the receipts from the government of the United States on account of each forest reserve in this state. On or before the thirtieth day of June of each year the controller shall draw his warrant in favor of the treasurer of each and every county entitled to payment hereunder for whatever sum of money may be due to such county according to the terms of this act. The state treasurer shall pay the warrants so drawn.

Duty of surveyor-general.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the surveyor-general, upon application from the controller, to furnish a statistical statement showing the area, or the proportionate area, of each United States forest reserve situated in each of the counties of the state, and the data thus secured shall be made the basis of the computation of the amounts due to the several counties.

County auditor to apportion money.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the county auditor of any county receiving a payment of money under the provisions of this act, immediately to apportion such money by placing fifty per cent thereof to the credit of the unapportioned county school fund of such county and fifty per cent to the credit of the general road fund. The money thus added to the unapportioned county school fund shall be apportioned by the county superintendent of schools in the same manner as other county school fund moneys, and the money so added to the county general road fund shall be used for the same purposes as other general road fund moneys.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 278.

An act to amend section 290 of the Civil Code, relating to the contents of articles of incorporation of corporations.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two hundred and ninety of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

290. Articles of incorporation must be prepared, setting forth:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The purpose for which it is formed.
3. The place where its principal business is to be transacted.
4. The term for which it is to exist, not exceeding fifty years.

5. The number of its directors or trustees, which shall not be less than three, and the names and residences of those who are appointed for the first year; provided, that the corporate powers, business, and property of corporations formed, or to be formed, for the purpose of erecting and managing halls and buildings for the meetings and accommodations of several lodges or societies of any benevolent or charitable order or organization, and in connection therewith the leasing of stores and offices in such building or buildings for other purposes, may be conducted, exercised, and controlled by a board of not less than three or more than fifty directors, to be chosen from among the stockholders of such corporation, or among the members of such order or organization; and provided, also, that at any time during the existence of corporations for profit, other than those of the character last hereinabove provided for, the numbers of the directors may, by a majority of the stockholders of the corporation, be increased, or diminished to any number not less than three, who must be members of the corporation; whereupon a certificate stating the number of directors must be filed, as provided for in section two hundred and ninety-six for the filing of the original articles of incorporation; and provided, also, that the corporate powers, business, and property of corporations formed or to be formed for social purposes, and not directly for profit, may be exercised, conducted, and controlled by a board, consisting of such number of directors as may be in the constitution or by-laws provided; and corporations so formed may, in their constitution or by-laws, provide for the length of time that the directors, or any number thereof, shall act, and may, in like manner provide that certain directors, or a certain number of the board of directors, to be selected by the corporation or the board of directors, in the mode and manner provided in the constitution or by-laws, shall act for any specified length of time, or otherwise, as shall be in the constitution or by-laws set forth.

Capital stock.

6. The amount of its capital stock, and the number of shares into which it is divided. Corporations formed for profit, pursuant to the provisions of this code, may, by their articles of incorporation, provide for the classification of their capital stock into preferred and common stock. In the event that the articles of incorporation shall provide for such classification the same must contain a statement of the number of shares of stock to which preference is granted, and the number of shares of stock to which no preference is granted. The articles of incorporation shall also state, in clear and succinct manner, the nature and extent of the preference granted, and except as to the matters and things so stated, no distinction shall exist between said classes of stock or the owners thereof; provided, however, that no preference shall be granted nor shall any distinction be made between the classes of stock either as to voting power or as to the statutory or constitutional liability of the holders thereof to the creditors of the corporation.

Amount
subscribed.

7. If there is a capital stock, the amount actually subscribed, and by whom.

CHAPTER 279.

An act to amend section 323 of the Civil Code, relating to the contents of certificates of stock of corporations for profit.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred and twenty-three of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Certificates of stock, how issued.

323. All corporations for profit must issue certificates for stock when fully paid up, signed by the president and secretary, and may provide, in their by-laws, for issuing certificates prior to full payment, under such restrictions and for such purposes as their by-laws may provide, but any certificate issued prior to full payment must show on its face what amount has been paid thereon. All certificates of stock issued by corporations authorized by their articles of incorporation to issue stocks of different classes, shall express upon their face the character of stock represented by said certificates. The said certificates shall also state the number of shares of stock of each class which said corporation is authorized to issue, and the said certificates shall also contain a statement of the nature and extent of the preference granted to the preferred stock.

CHAPTER 280.

An act to amend section 359 of the Civil Code, relating to the issuance of stocks or bonds of corporations, to the increase or diminution of their capital stock, and to the creation or increase of bonded indebtedness of corporations, including the creation or increase of a consolidated bonded indebtedness by two or more corporations.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred and fifty-nine of the Civil Code is hereby amended, to read as follows:

359. No corporation shall issue stocks or bonds except for money paid, labor done or property actually received, and all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness is void. Every corporation may increase or diminish its capital stock, and every corporation, or two or more corporations, may create or increase its or their bonded indebtedness, subject to the following provisions:

Fictitious increase of stock is void.

First—The capital stock of a corporation may be increased or diminished at a meeting of the stockholders by a vote representing at least two-thirds of the subscribed or issued capital stock, or in the manner otherwise in this section provided; when by meeting as aforesaid, then such meeting must be called by the board of directors or trustees, and notice must be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county or city and county where the principal place of business of the corporation is located, or if there be none published in said county or city and county, then in a newspaper published in an adjoining county, or city and county, such paper to be designated by the board of directors or trustees in the order calling for the meeting; provided, however, that where the articles of incorporation provide for two or more kinds of capital stock, no increase or reduction of capital stock shall be made without the assent of two-thirds of all the subscribed stock, and in making such increase or reduction, the assent shall identify the particular class or classes of stock to be increased or reduced, and the amounts apportioned to each.

How capital stock may be increased or diminished.

Second—The notice must specify the object of the meeting and the amount to which it is proposed to increase or diminish the capital stock, the time and place of holding the meeting, which latter must be at the principal place of business of the corporation and at the building where the board of directors or trustees usually meet. The notice herein provided must be published once a week for at least sixty days. The capital stock can not be diminished to an amount less than the indebtedness of the corporation.

What notice must specify.

How bonded indebtedness may be created or increased.

Third—The bonded indebtedness of a corporation may be created or increased by a vote of the stockholders representing at least two-thirds of the subscribed or issued capital stock at a meeting called by the board of directors or trustees, and after notice of the time and place of the meeting published in the same manner and for the time prescribed, which notice shall state the amount of the bonded indebtedness which it is proposed to create, or the amount to which it is proposed to increase such indebtedness, and shall in all other respects contain the same matters as are above provided and set forth in the notice of meeting to increase or diminish the capital stock; or such original creation of bonded indebtedness may be made as otherwise in this section provided.

Notification to stockholders.

Fourth—In addition to the notice by publication, when proceedings are to be had hereunder at a meeting of stockholders, the secretary of the corporation shall also address a notice to each of the stockholders whose names appear on the company's books as sufficiently addressed or identified, at his place of residence, if known, and if not known, then at the place in which the principal place of business of the corporation is situate, which notice shall be so mailed to such stockholders at least thirty days before the day appointed for such meeting.

Directors may diminish stock and create indebtedness.

Fifth—In lieu of such call for meeting of stockholders and of such notice and publication of the same and of a stockholders' meeting held in pursuance thereof and of said vote thereat representing at least two-thirds of the subscribed capital stock, any corporation may diminish its capital stock and also originally create its bonded indebtedness by a resolution adopted by the unanimous vote of its board of directors or trustees at a regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose and approved by the written assent or assents of the stockholders holding two-thirds of the subscribed or issued capital stock, which assent or assents must be filed with the secretary of the corporation; but the secretary of the corporation must address by mail, postage fully prepaid, a copy of such resolution to each of the stockholders whose names appear upon the company's books as sufficiently addressed or identified, at his place of residence, if known, and if not known, then at the place in which the principal place of business of the corporation is situate, which notice shall be so mailed to such stockholders at least thirty days before the certificate hereinafter provided is made and signed or filed, as hereinafter provided, and within that time any stockholder may file with such secretary his dissent in writing; but it is further provided, that if at any time within said thirty days such written assent or assents of the stockholders holding all of the subscribed or issued capital stock be so filed with said secretary, then and at once and without further delay the certificate hereinafter provided for may be so made, signed and filed as hereinafter provided and with the same effect, but such capital stock can not be diminished to an amount less than the indebtedness of the corporation, and no increase of capital stock or bonded indebtedness can be made, except at a meeting of stockholders as in this section provided.

Limit of diminu-
tion.

Sixth—Any two or more corporations may by a separate compliance by each corporation with the provisions of this section applicable in the premises in respect to creating or increasing bonded indebtedness, create or increase a consolidated bonded indebtedness of such corporations, to be binding jointly and severally on such corporations, and which may be secured by a consolidated mortgage or deed of trust executed by all such corporations, mortgaging or conveying in trust all or any of the properties of all such corporations, acquired or to be acquired.

Consolidated indebtedness.

Seventh—Upon such increase or diminution of the capital stock or creation or increase of the bonded indebtedness being made in accordance with the provisions of this section there shall be made, if proceedings are had under subdivisions first, second, third and fourth above, a certificate under the corporate seal and signed by the president and secretary of the corporation or of each corporation acting in the premises and a majority of the directors or trustees of such corporation, or each corporation so acting, showing a compliance by such corporation, or each corporation so acting, with the requirements of said last named subdivisions and the amount to which the capital stock has been increased or diminished or the amount of the bonded indebtedness created, or to which the bonded indebtedness may have been increased, and the amount of stock represented at the meeting and the total vote in the affirmative by which the same was accomplished and the total vote in the negative; or if such proceedings be had and taken under subdivision fifth of this section as to diminution of capital stock or original creation of bonded indebtedness a like certificate shall be made and sealed and signed, as aforesaid, showing a compliance by such corporation, and by each corporation acting in the premises, with the requirements of said subdivision fifth, and the amount to which the capital stock has been diminished or the amount of bonded indebtedness so originally created, and the total amount of the stock represented by the said written assent or assents so filed with the secretary and the total amount of stock represented by the said written dissent or dissents so filed. In case of a consolidated bond of indebtedness each corporation which is a party thereto shall cause to be made and signed and sealed and verified and filed, as in this section provided, a separate certificate.

Certificate of increase or diminu-
tion.

Eighth—In all cases the certificates shall state the total number of subscribed or issued shares of the capital stock of the corporation, or of each corporation respectively acting in the premises, and shall be verified by the oath of the said president and secretary, or of the said respective presidents and secretaries. Such consolidated bonded indebtedness may be created or increased to an amount equal to the par or face value of the aggregate amount of the subscribed or issued capital stocks of said two or more corporations, but shall not exceed such aggregate amount. In each and every case the certificate must be filed in the office of the clerk in the county or city and county where the original articles of incorporation of the corporation or corporations acting hereunder are filed and a certified copy thereof, certified by such clerk, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state; and thereupon the capital stock shall be so increased or diminished, or the bonded indebtedness or consolidated bonded indebtedness shall be created or increased accordingly, and such certificate or certificates so filed shall be, when said certified copy or copies are so filed, conclusive proof of such increase or diminution of capital stock or such creation or increase of bonded or consolidated bonded indebtedness and the validity of each thereof. When the by-laws of a corporation prescribe the paper in which notices of meetings of directors or trustees or stockholders are to be published the notices of publication herein provided for shall be published in such paper, unless publication thereof shall have ceased.

CHAPTER 281.

An act to amend section four hundred and sixteen of the Political Code, relating to the fees of the secretary of state.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four hundred and sixteen of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Disposition of fees.

State library fund.

All fees collected by the secretary of state must, at the end of each month, be paid into the state treasury. Three thousand five hundred dollars of such monthly returns shall be credited to and constitute the state library fund, and the balance shall be paid into the general fund of the state.

CHAPTER 282.

An act to repeal Title II of Part IV of the Political Code, and to add a new Title II of Part IV of said code in place thereof, relating to the establishment of a uniform system of county and township governments.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title II of Part IV of the Political Code is hereby repealed, and a new Title II of Part IV of said code is hereby added to read as follows:

TITLE II.

THE GOVERNMENT OF COUNTIES.

 VIII. Department of Public Works.
 IX. Department of Health.
 X. Salaries and Fees of Office.
 XI. Other County Charges.
 XII. Miscellaneous Provisions.

CHAPTER I.

COUNTIES AS BODIES CORPORATE.

- Section 4000. Every county a body corporate and politic.
 4001. Powers, how exercised.
 4002. Name and designation.
 4003. Enumeration of powers.
 4004. Restriction on loaning credit.
 4005. Prohibited contract forms no basis for claim.
 4005a. Officers become personally liable, when.
 4005b. Action to recover money unlawfully paid.

County is body corporate.

4000. Every county is a body corporate and politic, and as such has the powers specified in this title, and such other powers as are necessarily implied from those expressed.

4001. Their powers can only be exercised by the board of supervisors, or by agents and officers acting under their authority, or authority of law. Who may exercise powers.

4002. The name of a county designated in the law creating it is its corporate name, and it must be designated thereby in all actions and proceedings touching its corporate rights, property, and duties. Corporate name.

4003. It has power: Powers.

1. To sue and be sued.

2. To purchase, receive by gift or bequest, and hold land within its limits.

3. To make such contracts and purchase and hold such personal property as may be necessary to the exercise of its powers.

4. To manage and dispose of its property as the interests of its inhabitants may require.

5. To levy and collect such taxes, for purposes under its exclusive jurisdiction, as are authorized by law.

4004. No county shall, in any manner, give or loan its credit to or in aid of any person or corporation. An indebtedness or liability incurred contrary to this provision shall be void. Credit not to be loaned.

4005. All contracts, authorizations, allowances, payments, and liabilities to pay, made or attempted to be made in violation of law, shall be absolutely void, and shall never be the foundation or basis of a claim against the treasury of such county. And all officers of said county are charged with notice of the condition of the treasury of said county, and the extent of the claims against the same. Prohibited contracts void.

4005a. Any officer authorizing, or aiding to authorize, or auditing, or allowing, or paying any claim or demand upon or against said treasury, or any fund thereof, in violation of any of the provisions of law, or of the constitution of this state, shall be liable in person, and upon his official bond, to the person or persons damaged by such illegal authorization, to the extent of his or their loss by reason of the non-payment of his or their claims. Officers personally liable, when.

4005b. Whenever any board of supervisors shall, without authority of law, order any money paid as a salary, fees, or for any other purposes, and such money shall have been actually paid; or whenever any county officer has drawn any warrant or warrants in his own favor, or in favor of any other person, without being authorized by the board of supervisors, or by the law, and the same shall have been paid, the district attorney of such county is hereby empowered, and it is hereby made his imperative duty, to institute suit, in the name of the county, against such person or persons, to recover the money so paid, and twenty per cent damages for the use thereof; and no order of the board of supervisors therefor shall be necessary to maintain such suit. When the money has not been paid on such order or warrants, it is hereby made the imperative duty of the district attorney of such county, upon receiving notice thereof, to commence suit, in the name of the county, to restrain the payment of the same; and no order of the board of supervisors shall be necessary in order to maintain such suit. Action to recover money unlawfully paid.

vided, or may separate said duties without reconsolidation, and provide that the duties of each office shall be performed by a separate person, whenever, in their discretion, the public interest will be best subserved thereby.

Duty of officer filling consolidated offices.

4019. When offices are united and consolidated, the person elected to fill the offices so united and consolidated must take the oath and give the bond required for each, discharge all the duties pertaining to each, and receive the compensation of the offices consolidated.

Each office filled by election, when.

4020. When there is an omission by the board of supervisors to consolidate and to advertise the consolidation of offices as in this article authorized, each office not so consolidated must be filled by an election.

ARTICLE IV.

ELECTION FOR AND QUALIFICATION OF OFFICERS.

- Section 4021. Officers, when elected.
4022. Official bonds
4023. Who is eligible to county and local offices.
4024. Appointment of deputies.
4025. Registers, indexes, etc.
4026. Canvass of elections.

When officers shall be elected.

4021. All elective county and township officers, except otherwise provided for in this title, and by law, shall be elected at the general election at which the governor is elected, and shall take office at twelve o'clock meridian on the first Monday after the first day of January next succeeding their election. All officers elected under the provisions of this title shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed and qualified. Supervisors shall be elected at the general election prior to expiration of the term of the incumbent. The supervisors of any county created after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and seven, shall, within six months after the first general election succeeding the creation of such county, classify themselves by lot into two classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, and the term of office of the class having the greater number shall expire in two years from such general election, and the term of office of the class having the lesser number shall terminate in four years from such general election.

Official bonds.

4022. The board of supervisors of each county shall, on or before the first Monday in September, preceding the election of the following officers, prescribe the amount in which said officers must execute official bonds: Treasurer, county clerk, auditor, sheriff, tax collector, district attorney, recorder, assessor, surveyor, superintendent of schools, public administrator, coroner, justice of the peace, and constable. The judge or judges of the superior court shall, on or before the said first Monday of September, prescribe the amount in which each member of the board of supervisors must execute an official bond before entering upon the discharge of the duties of his office. The bonds and sureties of such officers must, before the bonds can be recorded and filed, be approved by the judge, or judges, if there be more than one, of the superior court. All persons offered as sureties on official bonds may be examined on oath touching their qualifications, and no person can be admitted as surety on any such bond unless he is a resident and freeholder or householder within the state, and is worth in real or personal property, or both, situate in this state, the amount of his undertaking, over and above all sums for which he is already liable, exclusive of property exempt from execution and forced sale. All official bonds shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder, and then filed and kept in the office of the county clerk. The official bond of the county clerk shall, after being recorded, be filed and kept in the office of the county treasurer. The tax collector shall also before qualifying give a bond as license collector in such sum as may be fixed by the board of supervisors, to be approved as provided in this section.

Approval of bonds.

Shall be recorded.

4023. No person is eligible to a county, district, or township office, who, at the time of his election, is not of the age of twenty-one years, or over, a citizen of the state, and an elector of the county, district, township, or other division, in which the duties of the office are to be exercised; provided, that any woman who is of the age of twenty-one years, or over, a citizen of the state, and a resident of the county or district, shall be eligible to the office of superintendent of public schools, school trustee, or member of the county board of education; and provided further, that no person shall hereafter be eligible to the office of district attorney who has not been admitted to practice in the supreme court of the State of California; and provided further, that the county live stock inspector shall, at the time of his appointment, be a duly qualified veterinary surgeon having on file in the office of the county clerk a certificate issued to him by the state veterinary medical board.

Who is eligible to county and local offices.

4024. Every county, township, or district officer, except a supervisor or judicial officer, may appoint as many deputies as may be necessary for the prompt and faithful discharge of the duties of his office. Such appointment must be made in writing, and filed in the office of the county clerk; and until such appointment is so made and filed, and until such deputy shall have taken the oath of office, no one shall be or act as such deputy.

Appointment of deputies.

4025. The board must provide the registers required by law and printed copies of the indexes, poll lists, poll books, blank returns and certificates, proclamations of elections, and other appropriate and necessary appliances for holding all elections in the county, and allow reasonable charges therefor, and for the transmission and return of the same to the proper officers.

Appliances for holding elections.

4026. Whenever, as canvassers, the board of supervisors have declared the result of an election held in the county, certificates must be, by the county clerk, issued to all persons elected to a county, township, or district office therein, and such other certificates must be made out and transmitted as required by law.

Certificates of election.

- 4034. Meetings of.
- 4035. Special meetings of.
- 4036. May direct sheriff to attend meetings of, etc.

Board of supervisors.

4027. Each county must have a board of supervisors, consisting of five members.

Qualification of members.

4028. Each member of the board of supervisors must be an elector of the district which he represents, must reside therein during his incumbency, must have been such elector for at least one year immediately preceding his election, and shall be elected by such district, and not at large; provided, that in any county or city and county in which supervisorial districts have not been established by law or ordinance, and in which supervisors are now required to be elected at large, but from particular wards, the members of the board of supervisors shall be elected at large and without regard to residence.

Supervisor districts.

4029. The board of supervisors may, by a two-thirds vote of the members of said board, change the boundaries of any or all of the supervisor districts of a county. Said districts shall be as nearly equal in population as may be. The boundaries of no supervisor district shall at any time be changed in such manner as to affect the term of office of any supervisor who has been elected, and whose term of office has not expired. No change in the boundaries of any supervisor district shall be made within ninety days next preceding a general election.

Vacancy in office of supervisor, how filled.

4030. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the board of supervisors of a county, the governor shall fill the vacancy, and the appointee shall hold office until the election and qualification of his successor. In such case the election of a supervisor shall be held at the next general election to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term, unless such term expires on the first Monday after the first day of January succeeding said election.

4031. The supervisors shall elect a chairman, who shall preside at all meetings of the board, and in case of his absence or inability to act, the members present must, by an order entered on their records, select one of their number to act as chairman temporarily. Any member of the board may administer oaths, when necessary in the performance of his official duties. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and no act of the board shall be valid or binding unless a majority of all the members concur therein.

Organization
of board.

4032. The records and minutes of the board must be signed by the chairman and the clerk.

Minutes.

4033. All meetings of the board must be public, and the books, records, and accounts of the board must be kept at the office of the clerk, open at all times for public inspection.

Meetings
must be public.

4034. The board of supervisors must, by ordinance, provide for the holding of regular meetings of the board at the county seat.

Meetings.

4035. A special meeting may be ordered by a majority of the board. The order must be signed by the members calling such meeting, and must be entered in the minutes. Five days' notice of such meeting must be given by the clerk, personally or by mail, to the members not joining in the order. The order must specify the business to be transacted at such special meeting, and none other shall be transacted.

Special meetings.

4036. The board of supervisors shall have power to direct the sheriff to attend, in person or by deputy, all the meetings of the board, to preserve order, serve notices, subpoenas, citations, or other process, as directed by the board.

Duty of sheriff.

4039. The board must cause to be kept:

1. A "minute book," in which shall be entered the daily proceedings had at all regular and special meetings, and all orders and decisions made by them, except such as are required to be recorded in the "road," "franchise," or "ordinance" books.

2. An "allowance book," in which must be recorded all orders for the allowance of money from the county treasury, to whom made, and on what account, dating, numbering, and indexing the same through each year.

3. A "road book," containing all proceedings and adjudications relating to the establishment, maintenance, change, and discontinuance of roads and road districts.

4. A "franchise book," containing all franchises granted by them, and all proceedings had in relation thereto.

5. A "warrant book," to be kept by the county auditor, in which must be entered, in the order of drawing, all warrants drawn on the treasury, with their number and reference to the order on the minute book, with the date, amount, on what account, and name of payee.

6. An "ordinance book," in which must be entered all ordinances duly passed by the board.

Records open to public.

4040. The records, books and accounts of the board must be kept at the office of the clerk at all times for public inspection.

ARTICLE IV.

GENERAL PERMANENT POWERS.

Section 4041. General powers of the board.

General powers.

4041. The boards of supervisors, in their respective counties, shall have jurisdiction and power, under such limitations and restrictions as are prescribed by law:

1. To supervise the official conduct of all county officers, and officers of all districts and other subdivisions of the county charged with the assessing, collecting, safe-keeping, management, or disbursement of the public revenues; to see that they faithfully perform their duties, direct prosecutions for delinquencies, and, when necessary, require them to renew their official bonds, make reports and present their books and accounts for inspection.

Supervise county officers.

2. To divide the counties into townships, election, school, road, supervisor, sanitary, and other districts required by law, change the same, and create others, as convenience requires.

Divide counties into districts.

3. To establish, abolish, and change election precincts, and to appoint inspectors, clerks and judges of election, canvass all election returns, declare the result, and order the county clerk to issue certificates thereof; but no election precinct shall be established or abolished, or the boundaries of any precinct changed, within ninety days prior to any election.

Establish election precincts.

4. To lay out, maintain, control, construct, repair, and manage public roads, turnpikes, ferries, wharves, chutes, and other shipping facilities and bridges within the county, unless otherwise provided by law, and to grant franchises and licenses to collect tolls thereon; provided, where the cost of the construction of any bridge, wharf, chute, or other shipping facilities that may be built under the provisions of this subdivision exceeds the sum of five hundred dollars, they must cause to be prepared and must adopt plans and specifications, strain sheets, and working details, and must advertise for bids for the construction of such bridge, wharves, chutes, or other shipping facilities, unless otherwise provided by law, in accordance with the plans and specifications so adopted. All bidders shall be afforded opportunity to examine such plans and specifications, and said board shall award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder, and the plans and specifications so adopted shall be attached to and become a part of the contract; and the person or corporation to whom the contract is awarded shall be required to execute a bond, to be approved by said board, for the faithful performance of such contract; provided, that after the submission of the bids as herein provided, the board of supervisors being advised by the county surveyor that the work can be done for a sum less than the lowest responsible bid, it shall then be their privilege to reject all bids and to order the work done or structure built by day's work, under the supervision and control of the said surveyor; provided further, that the surveyor in such cases shall be held personally responsible, under his official bond, to construct said bridge or structure, according to his plans and specifications, at a cost not to exceed the amount of the lowest responsible bid received; provided, that the road commissioners or road overseers in their respective districts shall employ all labor required and direct the conduct of work of any kind upon any and all public roads; provided further, that in cases of great emergency, by the unanimous consent of the whole board, they may proceed at once to replace or repair any and all bridges and structures without notice.

Roads, bridges, etc.

Labor on public roads.

Hospitals and poor-houses.

5. To construct or lease, officer and maintain, hospitals and almshouses, or otherwise, in their discretion, provide for the care and maintenance of the indigent sick or dependent poor of the county; and for such purposes to levy the necessary property or poll taxes, or both. The board of supervisors shall appoint some suitable person to take care of and maintain such hospitals and almshouses, and shall also appoint some suitable graduate or graduates in medicine to attend to such indigent sick or dependent poor, and to the patients in such hospitals and almshouses. The board shall not let the care, maintenance, or attendance of such indigent sick or dependent poor by contract to the lowest bidder.

County
farm.

6. To provide a farm, in connection with the county hospital, or almshouse, and make regulations for working the same.

Water rights.

7. To purchase, receive by donation, or lease any real or personal property or water rights necessary for use of the county, and to purchase or otherwise acquire necessary real estate upon which to sink wells to obtain water for sprinkling roads, and other county purposes, and to erect thereon tanks and reservoirs for the storage of water for such purposes, and to erect pumping apparatus for obtaining the same, to preserve, take care of, and manage and control the same; but no purchase of real property shall be made unless a notice of the intention of the board to make such purchase, describing the property to be purchased, the price to be paid therefor, from whom it is proposed to be purchased, and fixing the time when the board will meet to consummate such purchase, has been published for at least three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation, published in the county; or if none be published in the county, then has been posted at least three weeks prior to the time when the board meets to consummate such purchase, in at least three public places in each supervisor district.

To erect courthouse, jail, etc.

8. To cause to be erected, or rebuilt, or furnished, a court-house, jail, hospital, and such other public buildings as may be necessary, or to provide suitable buildings for such purposes. None of the aforesaid buildings shall be erected or constructed until the plans and specifications have been made therefor and adopted by the board. All such buildings must be erected by contract, let to the lowest responsible bidder, after notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in such county, for at least thirty days. In case there is no newspaper published in such county, then such notice shall be given by posting in three public places.

To sell property not needed.

9. To sell at public auction, at the court-house door, or at such other place within the county as the board may, by a four-fifths vote, order, after thirty days' notice, given either by publication in a newspaper published in the county, or by posting in five public places in the county, and convey to the highest bidder for cash, any property belonging to the county not required for public use, paying the proceeds into the county treasury for the use of the county; provided, if in the unanimous judgment of the board, the property does not exceed in value the sum of seventy-five dollars, or if it be the product of the county farm, the same may be sold at private sale, without advertising, by any member of the board empowered for that purpose by a majority of the board.

10. To examine and audit, at least every twelve months, the accounts of all officers having the care, management, collection, or disbursement of moneys belonging to the county, or moneys received or disbursed by them under authority of law. Examine accounts.

11. To examine, settle, and allow all accounts legally chargeable against the county, except salaries of officers, and such demands as are authorized by law to be allowed by some other person or tribunal, and order warrants to be drawn on the county treasurer therefor. Allow demands.

12. To levy taxes upon the taxable property of their respective counties for all county purposes, and also upon the taxable property of any district, for the construction and repair of roads and highways and other district purposes; provided, that no tax shall be levied upon any district until the proposition to levy the same has been submitted to the qualified electors of such district, and received a majority of all the legal votes cast upon such proposition. Levy taxes.

13. To acquire and take by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, land for the uses and purposes of public boulevards; to lay out, establish and improve public boulevards and to incur a bonded indebtedness for any of such purposes; provided, that no such indebtedness shall be incurred for any of such purposes until after the question of the issue of bonds therefor shall have been submitted to the qualified electors of the county, at a special election called for that purpose and two thirds of the electors of the county voting at such election shall have voted in favor of issuing such bonds; said election to be called and held, and said bonds, if authorized, to be issued, sold and made payable in the manner and form prescribed by section four thousand and eighty-eight. Said boards shall also have power to maintain public boulevards, established and laid out under the provisions of this title, and to make and enforce rules and regulations for the protection, management, control and use of such boulevards. Public boulevards.

14. To maintain, regulate, and govern public pounds, fix the limits within which animals shall not run at large, and appoint poundkeepers, who shall be paid out of the fines imposed and collected from the owners of impounded animals, and from no other source. Public pounds.

15. To equalize assessments.

16. To direct and control the prosecution and defense of all suits to which the county is a party, and, by a two-thirds vote of all the members, may employ counsel to assist the district attorney in conducting the same. Employ counsel.

17. To insure the county buildings and other property in the name of and for the benefit of the county. Insure buildings.

18. To establish a salary fund, and such other county funds as they may deem necessary for the proper transaction of the business of the county, and to transfer moneys from one fund to another, as the public interest may require. Establish funds.

- Fill vacancies. 19. To fill, by appointment, all vacancies that may occur in any office filled by the appointment of the board of supervisors and elective county or township officers, except in those of judge of the superior court and supervisor, the appointee to hold office for the unexpired term or until the next general election.
- Employ copyists. 19a. To employ the copyists necessary to reproduce any of the county records that may be in danger of destruction by age, obliteration, or constant use in any of the county offices.
- Enforce rules. 20. To make and enforce such rules and regulations for the government of their body, the preservation of order, and the transaction of business, as may be necessary.
- Seal. 21. To adopt a seal for the board, a description and impression of which must be filed in the office of the county clerk and of the secretary of state.
- Licenses. 22. To license, in the exercise of their police powers, and for the purpose of regulation, as herein provided, and not otherwise, all and every kind of business not prohibited by law, and transacted and carried on within the limits of their respective jurisdictions, and all shows, exhibitions, and lawful games carried on therein, to fix the rates of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same by suit or otherwise; provided, that every honorably discharged soldier, sailor, or marine of the United States, who is unable to obtain a livelihood by manual labor, shall have the right to hawk, peddle and vend any goods, wares or merchandise, except spirituous, malt, vinous or other intoxicating liquor, without payment of any license, tax or fee whatsoever, whether municipal, county or state, and the board of supervisors or legislative body shall issue to such soldier, sailor or marine, without cost, a license therefor; provided, however, no license can be collected, or any penalty for the non-payment thereof enforced against any commercial traveler whose business is limited to the goods, wares, and merchandise sold or dealt in in this state at wholesale.
- Gophers. 23. To provide for the destruction of gophers, squirrels, other wild animals, noxious weeds, and insects injurious to fruit or fruit trees, or vines, or vegetable or plant life.
- Dog tax 24. To provide for the prevention of injuries to sheep by dogs, and to tax dogs and direct the application of the tax.
- Fish and game protection. 25. To provide, by ordinances not in conflict with the general laws of the state, for the protection of fish and game, and may shorten the season for the taking or killing of fish and game, within the dates fixed by the general state laws, but shall not lengthen the same.
- Working of prisoners. 26. To provide for the working of prisoners confined in the county jail, under judgment of conviction of misdemeanor, under the direction of some responsible person, to be appointed by the sheriff, whose compensation shall not exceed one hundred dollars per month, upon the public grounds, roads, streets, alleys, highways, or public buildings, or in such other places as may be deemed advisable, for the benefit of the county.
- Indigent dead. 27. To provide for the burying of the indigent dead.

28. To make and enforce, within the limits of their county, all such local police, sanitary, and other regulations as are not in conflict with general laws. Sanitary regulations.

29. To adopt such rules and regulations, within their respective counties, with regard to keeping and storing of every description of gunpowder, Hercules powder, giant powder, or other explosive or combustible material, as the safety and protection of the lives and property of individuals may require. Gun-powder.

30. To appropriate from the general fund of the county, unless otherwise in this title provided, not to exceed, in counties of the first and second class, the sum of three thousand dollars, and in all other counties the sum of two thousand dollars in any one year, to aid in or carry on the work of inducing immigration thereto, or for the purpose of exhibiting or advertising the agricultural, mineral, manufacturing, or other resources of the county. Inducing immigration.

31. To enforce, by ordinance, within the limits of their counties, all such regulations concerning the size of wagons and vehicles of all kinds to be used on the roads or highways, and the width of tires on the same, as are not in conflict with general laws. Width of wagon tires.

32. To grant licenses and franchises for constructing, keeping, and taking tolls on roads, bridges, ferries, wharves, chutes, booms, and piers, and to grant franchises along and over the public roads and highways for all lawful purposes, upon such terms and conditions and restrictions as in their judgment may be necessary and proper, and in such manner as to present the least possible obstruction and inconvenience to the traveling public. Grant franchises.

33. To grant, on such terms, conditions, and restrictions as in their judgment may be necessary and proper, licenses and franchises for taking tolls on public roads or highways, whenever in their judgment the expense necessary to operate or maintain such public roads or highways as free public highways is too great to justify the county in so operating or maintaining them. It shall always be a condition attached to the granting of such licenses and franchises, that such roads or highways shall be kept in reasonable repair by the person or persons to whom such licenses or franchises may be granted. Toll roads.

34. To enact ordinances and regulations for the construction, alteration, repair, and control of all public roads and highways in the county, unless otherwise provided by law. Control of roads.

35. To levy a special road fund tax, not to exceed two (2) mills on the one dollar of assessed valuation, on all the property in such counties, outside of any incorporated city or town. Such tax shall be in addition to all taxes otherwise provided for, and the fund so created shall be expended for the construction and maintenance of the main public roads or county highways in the several road districts, in proportion to the amount collected from such districts. Special road tax.

36. To encourage, under such regulations as they may adopt, the planting and preservation of shade and ornamental trees on the public roads and highways, and on and about the public Encourage tree planting.

grounds and buildings of the county, and pay to persons planting and cultivating the same, for every living tree thus planted, at the age of four years, a sum not exceeding one dollar.

Improvement of rivers.

37. To provide by ordinance for the organization and government of districts, to protect and preserve the banks of rivers and streams and lands lying contiguous thereto from injury by overflow or the washing thereof, and to provide for the improvements of said rivers and streams, and prevent the obstruction thereof, and to provide for the assessment, levy, and collections within such districts of a tax therefor.

Tax for forest
protection.

38. To appropriate a sum not exceeding two cents per one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of their county in any one year, in addition to any sum which may be chargeable to the county for the repayment of money expended by the state for protection against fire in such county, for the purpose of protecting forest, brush and grass lands therein, against fire or other injury, and of aiding the state and federal authorities in forestry work.

General powers.

39. To do and perform all other acts and things required by law not in this title enumerated, or which may be necessary to the full discharge of the duties of the legislative authority of the county government.

ARTICLE V.

 4050. Must require assessor to report.
 4051. Must have prepared annual statement of finances, etc.
 4052. Lands and other property granted.
 4052a. May accept or reject gifts.
 4053. May transfer money from certain funds.
 4054. Must repay same.
 4055. May take census, when.
 4056. To furnish data to secretary of state agricultural society.
 4056a. To preserve health of domestic live stock.

May improve streams not navigable.

defray the cost of the improvements provided for under this section, they may levy a tax or contract a bonded indebtedness therefor in the manner provided by this title.

4043. Whenever it appears to the board that any public road, in any road district of the county, is in danger of being damaged by storm waters or floods, or whenever any public highway has already been damaged by storm waters or floods, it is hereby made the duty of the board to adopt such measures as may be necessary to prevent such damage, or to repair the same; and the board is hereby authorized to construct flumes, ditches, or canals, for the purpose of carrying off such storm waters or floods to a place of safety, and may condemn the right of way for such flumes, ditches or canals for such purpose; provided, however, that no more than the sum of one thousand dollars shall be used for such purpose in any one road district of the county in any one year. All moneys used for the purposes of this section may be taken from the general or road fund of the county.

May protect highways from damage by floods.

Limit of expense.

4044. The board shall provide, for the use of the surveyor, a suitable office, office furniture, heat, light, and care for the same, office and record books, and other necessary material, also all necessary expenses and transportation on work performed in the field. In lieu of fees, as now provided by law, the surveyor shall receive such compensation as the board of supervisors may allow, not to exceed ten dollars per day for all work performed for the county, and in addition thereto, all necessary expenses and transportation on work performed in the field.

County surveyor, office for.

4045. The board, upon receiving a certified copy of the record of conviction of any officer for receiving illegal fees, must declare his office vacant.

Illegal fees.

4046. The board must furnish the sheriff and deputy sheriffs with a suitable badge of office upon which shall be inscribed on that for the sheriff the word "Sheriff" and on those for the deputy sheriffs the words "Deputy Sheriff."

Badges of sheriff.

4047. The board of supervisors may under such regulations, restrictions and limitations as it may provide subject to existing laws, grant franchises for the construction of paths and roads, either on the surface, elevated or depressed, on, over, across, or under the streets and public highways of their respective counties for the use of bicycles, tricycles, motor-cycles, and other like horseless vehicles propelled by the rider, and for a term not exceeding fifty years.

Franchises for roads for horseless vehicles.

4048. The board of supervisors of the several counties shall annually advertise, for at least ten days in a newspaper of general circulation in the county (if there be a newspaper published in the county, otherwise by posting notices in three public places), for sealed bids for furnishing the county with stationery, clothing, bedding, groceries, provisions, drugs, medicines, and all other supplies. All bids shall be on a schedule, showing all articles needed in the several offices and departments, prepared by the clerk of the board, shall state separately the price of each article to be furnished, and any person may bid upon any article separately. In considering such bids, the board may accept or reject all or any of them, or may accept or reject a part of any such bid, preference being given, however, to the lowest responsible bidder. All supplies furnished the county, or any officer thereof, shall be furnished at a price no greater than is specified in the bid which may be accepted by the board.

Fix price to be paid for printing.

The board shall annually fix the price at which the county shall be supplied with job printing and blank books, from a schedule prepared by the clerk of the board, showing all blanks and blank books used in the several offices and departments, and also the price of all county advertising; and each county officer shall procure such blank books, job printing, and advertising required for the proper discharge of his official duties, such printing and advertising to be done by such person or newspaper as such county officer may designate, at a price no greater than is so fixed, and certify the bill therefor to the board of supervisors. A square of advertising shall be two hundred and thirty-four ems nonpareil.

Publish statement of proceedings.

4049. Within ten days after each session of the board, it shall cause to be published a fair statement of all its proceedings.

Publish statistical report.

4049a. The board of supervisors shall cause to be prepared, and shall publish each year a statistical report showing in compendious form all the financial transactions of the county for the last fiscal year, exhibiting separately the receipts and expenditures by or on account of each office, board, commission, institution, court, and road district and school district, and classifying the principal items of income and expenditure, so as to show the financial transactions and the financial condition of the county.

Assessor to report.

4050. The board must require the assessor to report to the state board of equalization, annually, a true statement of the agricultural and industrial pursuits and products of the county, with such other statistical information as they may direct.

Annual statement of finances.

4051. The board must have prepared by the clerk, and when he is not also auditor, then by that officer, and under their direction, prior to their annual meeting for levying taxes, a statement showing:

1. The indebtedness of the county, funded and floating, stating the amount of each class, and the rate of interest borne by such indebtedness, or any part thereof.

2. A concise description of all property owned by the county, with an approximate estimate of the value thereof, and the amount of cash in the county treasury and its several funds.

Lands and other property granted.

4052. The board must receive from the United States, or other sources, lands and other property granted or donated to the county for the purpose of aiding in the erection of county buildings, roads, bridges, or other specific purposes, and may use the same therefor, and may provide for the sale of the same, and the application of the proceeds thereof.

4052a. The board of supervisors are hereby authorized to accept or reject, as they may deem advisable, any gift, bequest, or devise heretofore, or that hereafter may be made to or in favor of the county represented by such board in their official capacity, or to or in their favor in trust for any public purpose, and to hold and dispose of the same, and the income and increase thereof to and for such lawful uses and purposes as have been or may hereafter be prescribed in the terms of such gift, bequest or devise.

May accept gifts.

In the event of any such gift, bequest or devise having been, or being hereafter made unaccompanied by any provision prescribing or limiting the uses or purposes to which the property received thereunder, or the income or increase thereof, may be put, it shall be put to such uses and purposes as such board may prescribe, and the proceeds or income therefrom shall be paid into the school fund of the county.

Income of gift paid to school fund.

4053. The boards of supervisors in the several counties, when expedient and necessary, are hereby authorized and empowered to transfer moneys remaining in the swamp-land fund and such moneys as may remain in any of the sinking funds of their county, to the general fund of such county, which transfer or transfers shall be deemed a loan from the swamp-land fund or sinking fund to such general fund.

May transfer funds.

4054. Whenever it shall be necessary to repay the amount so transferred or borrowed to the swamp-land or sinking fund from which the same has been transferred, or any part thereof the board of supervisors shall cause a warrant to be drawn upon said general fund for the amount so transferred or borrowed, or any part thereof; and such warrant shall be a preferred claim upon such general fund over and above all warrants outstanding against said fund, and shall be paid out of the first money received in such general fund.

Repayment of transferred funds.

4055. The board of supervisors in years other than those in which a census is taken by the United States, may cause by ordinance, when necessary, a census of their respective counties, or any township or district therein to be taken. The persons taking such census shall enumerate all the inhabitants thereof, plainly writing the full name of each person and arranging the names alphabetically and numbering the same consecutively in one complete series. When completed the same shall be verified before any officer authorized to administer oaths, and filed with the county clerk. A certified copy thereof shall be prepared by the clerk and filed by him in the office of the secretary of state, and thereupon shall be known and be the official census of the political division described therein. The expenses of taking such census shall be a county charge.

May take census.

4056. It shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of each county, on or before the first day of November of each year, to supply the secretary of the State Agricultural Society upon blanks to be furnished by him for that purpose, statistics showing the products grown, produced or manufactured in said county, for the year preceding, and the expense thereof shall be a county charge, to be paid as other county charges against the county.

Furnish data to state agricultural society.

Health of domestic live stock.

4056a. The board shall adopt orders and enact ordinances not in conflict with state or federal laws necessary for the preservation of the health of domestic live stock, and shall provide for the payment of all expenses incurred in enforcing the same, which expenses shall be a county charge and payable in the same manner and out of the same funds as other county charges are paid.

ARTICLE VI.

ORDINANCES.

Section 4057. How enacted.

Ordinances.

4057. The enacting clause of all ordinances of the board shall be as follows: "The Board of Supervisors of the County of _____ do ordain as follows." Every ordinance shall be signed by the chairman of the board and attested by the clerk. On the passage of all ordinances the votes of the several members of the board shall be entered on the minutes, and all ordinances shall be entered at length in the "Ordinance book." No ordinance passed by the board shall take effect within less than fifteen days after its passage, and before the expiration of the said fifteen days the same shall be published, with the names of the members voting for and against the same, for at least one week, in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one, and if there be none published in the county, then such ordinance shall be posted at the court-house door at least one week. An order entered in the minutes of the board that such ordinance has been duly published or posted shall be prima facie proof of such publication or posting.

Proof of publication.

ARTICLE VII.

THE EXAMINATION OF PERSONS, BOOKS AND PAPERS.

Section 4065. Chairman may issue subpoenas.
4066. Sheriff shall serve subpoenas.
4067. Committee of the board.
4068. Disobedience of subpoena.
4069. Proceedings on attachment.
4070. Witnesses not to be prepaid.

Chairman may issue subpoenas.

4065. Whenever the board of supervisors of any county shall deem it necessary or important to examine any person as a witness upon any subject or matter within the jurisdiction of such board, or to examine any officer of the county in relation to the discharge of his official duties, as to the receipt or disbursement by him of any moneys, or concerning the possession or disbursement by him of any property belonging to the county, or to use, inspect, or examine any books, account, voucher, or document in the possession of such officer or other person, or under his control, relating to the affairs or interests of such county, the chairman of such board shall issue a subpoena, in proper form, commanding such person or officer to appear before such board, at a time and place therein specified, to be examined as a witness; and such subpoena may require such person or officer to produce on such examination all books, papers, and documents in his possession or under his control, relating to the affairs or interests of the county.

4066. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of the county to whom the subpoena is delivered, to serve the same by reading it to the person named therein, and at the same time to deliver to him a copy thereof, and his official return thereon, of the time and place of such service, shall be prima facie evidence thereof. Sheriff shall serve subpoenas.

4067. Whenever the board of supervisors shall appoint any members of their body a committee upon any subject or matter of which the board has jurisdiction, and has conferred upon such committee power to send for persons and papers, the chairman of such committee shall possess all the powers and be liable to all the duties herein given to and imposed upon the chairman of the board of supervisors. Committee of board, powers of.

4068. Whenever any person duly subpoenaed to appear and give evidence, or to produce any books and papers, as herein provided, shall neglect or refuse to appear, or to produce such books and papers, as required by such subpoena, or shall refuse to testify before such board or committee, or to answer any questions which a majority thereof shall decide to be proper and pertinent, he shall be deemed in contempt, and it shall be the duty of the chairman of the board, or of the committee, as the case may be, to report the fact to the judge of the superior court of the county, or of the city and county, who shall thereupon issue an attachment in the form usual in the court of which he shall be judge, directed to the sheriff of the county where such witness was required to appear and testify, commanding the said sheriff to attach such person, and forthwith bring him before the judge by whose order such attachment was issued. Disobedience of subpoena.

4069. On the return of the attachment and the production of the body of the defendant, the said judge shall have jurisdiction of the matter, and the person charged may purge himself of the contempt in the same way, and the same proceedings shall be had, and the same penalties may be imposed, and the same punishment inflicted as in the case of a witness subpoenaed to appear and give evidence on the trial of a civil cause before a superior court. Proceedings on attachment.

4070. The witnesses summoned to testify on behalf of the county in matters of public concern before the board of supervisors are not entitled to have their fees prepaid; but the board must allow them the reasonable expenses of their attendance. Witness fees.

ARTICLE VIII.

LIABILITIES.

Section 4071. Liabilities not to exceed revenue.

4071. The board must not, for any purpose, contract debts or liabilities, in any manner or for any purpose, which exceed in any fiscal year the income and revenue provided for Liabilities not to exceed revenue.

Duty of auditor.

such year, except as permitted by the constitution. It shall be the duty of the auditor, at the commencement of each regular session of the board, to lay before it a statement prepared by him of the aggregate amount of allowance against each fund, and of salaries and liabilities fixed by law, paid or payable therefrom since the beginning of the fiscal year, together with a statement of receipts of each fund for that portion of the year already elapsed, and an exact estimate of the revenue for the remainder of the year apportioned to the different funds, based upon the receipts for the corresponding portion of the preceding year. Whenever the board shall have levied the state and county tax for the fiscal year, the auditor's estimates for the remainder of the year shall, as to receipts from property tax, be based upon the assessment roll and tax levy, deducting ten per cent for the anticipated delinquencies. Up to and including the 1st day of January in each fiscal year the board shall have no power for any purpose to contract debts or liabilities in any manner or for any purpose nor to make any allowances against any funds, which with all the debts and liabilities previously incurred and with all allowances previously made, and salaries and liabilities fixed by law payable therefrom, shall exceed seventy per cent of the auditor's estimate of revenue for the year, except to build or repair roads and bridges which have been destroyed or made impassable by flood or fire. Any debts or liabilities contracted in any manner or for any purpose and any allowances made contrary to the provisions of this section shall be null and void and the auditor shall not draw his warrant therefor nor the treasurer pay the same. When several allowances are made on the same day, they shall be deemed to have been made in the order in which they are entered in the "Allowance book," and shall be certified in that order by the auditor.

Limit of allowances.

ARTICLE IX.

BUILDINGS.

Section 4072. Plans, etc., not to be altered.

4073. Contracts not to be altered, etc.

Plans not to be altered.

4072. Whenever the board of supervisors shall adopt plans and specifications for the erection, alteration, construction, or repair of any public building, bridge, or other public structure, such plans and specifications shall not be altered or changed in any manner whereby the cost of such building, bridge, or structure shall be increased, except by a vote of two thirds of their number.

Contracts not to be altered.

4073. Whenever the board of supervisors shall enter into a contract for the erection, construction, alteration, or repair of any public building, bridge, or other structure, such contract shall not be altered or changed in any manner, unless they shall, by a vote of two thirds of their number, and with the consent of the contractor, first so order. And whenever any such change or alteration is so ordered, the particular change or alteration shall be specified, in writing, and the cost thereof agreed upon between the board and the contractor. In no case shall the board pay or become liable to pay for any extra work done on, or extra material furnished for, such building or structure.

ARTICLE X.

CLAIMS AGAINST COUNTY.

- Section 4074. Presenting of claims by officers.
- 4075. Claims to be itemized.
- 4076. Form for claims.
- 4077. Improper claims to be rejected.
- 4078. When claimant may sue.
- 4079. Claims of members.

4074. No county officer shall, except for his own service, present any claim, account, or demand for allowance against the county, or in any way except in the discharge of his official duty advocate the relief asked in the claim or demand made by any other. Any person may appear before the board and oppose the allowance of any claim or demand made against the county. Claims by officers.

4075. The board of supervisors must not hear or consider any claim in favor of any public officer, person, corporation, company, or association against the county, nor shall the board credit or allow any claim or bill against the county or district fund, unless the same be itemized, giving names, dates and particular services rendered, character of process served, upon whom, distance traveled, where and when, character of work done, number of days engaged, supplies or materials furnished, to whom, and quantity and price paid therefor, duly verified to be correct, and that the amount claimed is justly due, and is presented and filed with the clerk of the board within a year after the last item of the account or claim accrued. If, in case of any claim which requires itemizing, the board do not hear or consider the same because it is not itemized, they shall cause notice to be given to the claimant or his attorney of that fact, and give time to have the claim itemized and reverified. Claims must be itemized.

4076. No account shall be passed upon by the board, unless made out as prescribed in this and the preceding section and filed with the clerk three days prior to the time of the meeting of the board at which it is asked to be allowed. Form for claims.

Such demand shall be made out in form substantially as follows:

Clerk's memoranda, No. _____ Fund.
 Demand of _____, dated _____, in sum of $_____, for _____. Allowed by the Board of Supervisors _____, 19____, in sum of $_____.

Attest: _____, Clerk of Board.

State of California, }
 County of _____ } ss.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, says: That the above claim and the items as therein set out are true and correct; that no part thereof has been heretofore paid, and that the amount therein is justly due this claimant, and that the same is presented within one year after the last item thereof has accrued.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, _____, County Clerk.

Allowed by Board of Supervisors, _____, 19—, in sum of $ _____, payable out of _____ fund.

Attest: _____, Clerk of Board of Supervisors.

Countersigned: _____, Chairman Board of Supervisors.

Warrant No. _____.

Allowed _____, 19—, for the sum of $ _____, payable out of _____ fund.

_____, County Auditor.

No. _____ Registered _____, 19—.

_____, County Treasurer.

Approval of demands.

Said demand shall be approved before filing by the officer who directed such expenditure. If said demand be allowed by the board, the clerk of the board shall detach and file the memorandum, and shall indorse on such demand "allowed by the board of supervisors," together with the date of such allowance, the amount of such allowance, and from what fund; shall attest the same with his signature, and, when countersigned by the chairman, shall transmit the same to the auditor, who shall, in case he allows said demand, indorse upon it "allowed," together with the amount for which it is allowed, from what fund, date, and number of the warrant, and shall, in attestation thereof, affix his signature thereto and deliver the same to the claimant; and said demand, when so allowed and signed by the auditor, shall constitute the warrant on the treasury, within the meaning of this chapter.

Improper claims to be rejected.

4077. When the board finds that any claim presented is not payable by the county, or is not a proper county charge, it must be rejected; and said rejection shall be plainly indorsed on said claim; if they find it to be a proper county charge, but greater in amount than is justly due, the board may allow the claim in part, and draw a warrant for the portion allowed, on the claimant filing a receipt in full for his account. If the claimant is unwilling to receive such amount in full payment, the claim may again be considered at the next regular session of the board, but not afterward.

4078. If the board refuse or neglect to allow or reject a claim or demand for ninety days after the same has been filed with the clerk, such refusal or neglect may, at the option of the claimant, be deemed equivalent to a final action and rejection on the ninetieth day, and a claimant dissatisfied with the rejection of his claim or demand, or with the amount allowed him on his account, may sue the county therefor at any time within six months after the final action of the board, but not afterward, and if, in such action, judgment is recovered for more than the board allowed, on presentation of a certified copy of the judgment, the board must allow and pay the same, together with the costs adjudged; but if no more is recovered than the board allowed, the board must pay the claimant no more than was originally allowed.

When claimant may sue.

4079. All claims against the county, presented by members of the board of supervisors for per diem and mileage, or other service rendered by them, must be itemized and verified as other claims, and must state that the service has been actually rendered, and before allowance such claims must be presented to the district attorney, who must indorse thereon, in writing, his opinion as to the legality thereof. If the district attorney declare the claim, or any part thereof, illegal, he must state specifically wherein it is illegal, and the claim, or such part, must then be rejected by said board.

Claims of supervisors.

ARTICLE XI.

WARRANTS ON COUNTY TREASURY.

Section 4081. What warrants must specify.

4081. Warrants drawn by order of the supervisors on the county treasury for the current expenses during each year must specify the liability for which they are drawn, and when they accrued, and must be paid in the order of presentation to the treasurer. If the fund is insufficient to pay any warrant, it must be registered, and thereafter paid in the order of registration.

What warrants must specify.

ARTICLE XII.

THE SEVERAL FUNDS.

Section 4085. Public revenues must be kept in separate funds.

4086. Moneys in fund, how used.

4087. General fund, what constitutes.

4085. The income and revenue paid into the county treasury shall be at once appropriated to and kept in separate funds.

Separate funds.

4086. The several funds in the treasury authorized by law at the time this title takes effect, or provided for by this title shall continue therein so long as there shall be occasion therefor, and the moneys therein, or which may belong thereto shall not be used for any purpose other than that for which the same were raised, except as otherwise provided in this title.

General fund.

4087. The general fund shall consist of moneys received into the treasury and not specially appropriated to any other fund.

ARTICLE XIII.

ISSUANCE OF BONDS.

Section 4088. Issuance of bonds for certain purposes; proceedings on.

Bonded indebtedness.

4088. Any county having an outstanding indebtedness, evidenced by bonds or warrants thereof, may refund such indebtedness and issue bonds of the county therefor, and any county may incur or refund a bonded indebtedness for any purposes for which the board of supervisors are herein authorized to expend the funds of said county, or for the purpose of building or constructing roads, bridges or highways. Such indebtedness shall be refunded or incurred in the following manner, to wit: The board of supervisors thereof shall by order specify the purpose for which the indebtedness is to be incurred, the amount of bonds which they propose to issue, the rate of interest, and the number of years, not exceeding forty, the whole or any part of said bonds are to run, and shall further provide for submitting the question of the issuance of said bonds to the qualified electors of the county at the next general election, or at a special election to be called by the board for that purpose, and the words to appear upon the ballot shall be "Bonds—Yes," and "Bonds—No," or words of similar import, together with a general statement of the amount and purpose of the bonds to be issued. Several separate propositions may be submitted at the same election. If a special election is called, none but qualified voters of the county shall be permitted to vote thereat, and it shall be held as nearly as practicable in conformity with the general election law of the state; provided, however, that for the holding of such special election the board may form bond election precincts by adopting the precincts established for general election purposes, or by consolidating such precincts inside of incorporated cities and towns, to a number not exceeding six in each bond election precinct, and shall appoint only one inspector, two judges and one clerk for each bond election precinct. Notice shall be given of such election by publication in one or more newspapers published in the county, once a week for at least four weeks, or daily for not less than thirty days, prior to said election. If there be no such newspaper, then by posting the same conspicuously in five public places in said county at least thirty days before said election. Such notice must contain the time and place or places of holding such election, the names of election officers to conduct the same, the amount and denomination of the bonds, the rate of interest to be paid, and the number of years, not exceeding forty, the whole or any part of such bonds are to run. If any election officers so named in such notice are not present at the opening of the polls, the electors present may appoint election officers to take the place of such election officers so absent. If two thirds of the electors of the county voting at such an election shall vote in favor of issuing such bonds, the board must proceed to issue the amount of bonds specified; provided, that the total amount of bonded indebtedness shall at no time exceed five per cent of the taxable property of the county, as shown by the last equalized assessment book thereof. This limitation shall not apply to bonds which may be issued to refund an indebtedness existing January first, eighteen hundred and eighty. The board of supervisors, by an order entered upon its minutes, shall prescribe the form of said bonds, and of the interest coupons attached thereto, and fix the time when the whole or any part of the principal of said bonds shall be payable, which shall not be more than forty years from the date thereof; and said board may also, at their option, by a provision in such bonds, make such principal payable on or before a specified date, at the pleasure of the county. Said bonds may be issued in denominations not to exceed one thousand dollars and not less than one hundred dollars; principal and interest payable in gold coin of the United States, either at the treasury of said county, or at such place within the United States as such board may designate, or both at such treasury or such designated place, at the option of the bondholder. Interest on said bonds shall not exceed six per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually, as said board may designate. Said bonds shall be signed by the chairman of the board of supervisors, and attested by the auditor of said county, and have the seal of the board of supervisors attached, and said coupons shall be signed by said auditor by original or lithographed fac simile signature; and said bonds shall be sold at the times, in the amounts and in the manner prescribed by said board of supervisors, but for not less than par. The board of supervisors, at the time of making the next general tax levy after incurring the indebtedness of any bonds issued under the provisions of this title, and annually thereafter until all of said bonds are paid, or until there shall be a sum in the treasury of the county set apart for that purpose sufficient to meet all sums coming due for principal and interest on such bonds, must levy a tax for that year upon the taxable property of said county for the interest and redemption of said bonds, which shall be in addition to all other taxes, and such tax must not be less than sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds, and such portion of the principal, if any, as is to become due before the time for making the next general tax levy, and in any event must be sufficient to raise annually for the first half of the term said bonds have to run, a sufficient sum to pay the interest thereon; and during the balance of the term sufficient to pay such annual interest, and to provide annually a proportion of the principal of said bonds equal to a sum produced by taking the whole amount of said bonds outstanding and dividing it by the number of years said bonds then have to run. And the board of supervisors, before or at the time of issuing said bonds by ordinance shall provide for the levy of an annual tax sufficient to effect the objects of this provision.

Tax levy
for bond payments.

Such tax, when collected, shall be paid into the treasury of the county, and used solely to pay the interest and principal of said bonds as they respectively become due.

How revenue from bonds to be applied.

The revenue derived from the sale of said bonds shall be applied to the purpose specified in the order of the board, and no other. Should there be any surplus, it shall be applied toward the payment of said bonds. The board of supervisors of any county can contract a bonded indebtedness for county purposes only as in this title provided.

Form of bond.

In issuing bonds under this title, the board of supervisors may, at its option, use the following form of bond and coupon:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

No. ———. County of ———, $———. State of California.

The county of ———, State of California, hereby acknowledges itself indebted and promises to pay the bearer hereof, on the ——— day of ———, one thousand ——— (herein insert, if the board of supervisors elect to make the bond payable on a certain date, or before that date, at the pleasure of the county, the words "or at any time before that date, at the pleasure of the county"), the sum of ——— dollars in gold coin of the United States, with interest thereon, in like gold coin, at the rate of ——— per centum per annum, payable at ——— semi-annually (or annually) on the first day of ——— and ——— (or on the first day of ———, if interest payable annually), on presentation and surrender of the interest coupon hereto attached.

This bond is issued by the board of supervisors of the county of ———, State of California, in strict compliance with the provisions of Title II of Part IV of the Political Code of the State of California, and in pursuance of an order of said board duly made on the ——— day of ———, 19—, and with the assent of two thirds of the qualified electors of said county voting at an election legally called and duly held for that purpose on the ——— day of ———, 19—.

And it is hereby certified and recited that the bonded indebtedness of said county, including this bond, does not exceed five per cent of the taxable property thereof, as shown by the last equalized assessment of said county, and that provision has been made for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on this indebtedness as it falls due, and also sufficient to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of said indebtedness at or before maturity.

In witness whereof, the said county, by its board of supervisors, has caused this bond to be signed by the chairman of said board, and attested by the auditor thereof, and the seal of the board of supervisors to be hereto attached, this ——— day of ———, one thousand ———.

—————,
Chairman Board of Supervisors.

Attest: ———, County Auditor.

And the interest coupon may be in the following form:

"The county of _____, State of California, hereby promises to pay the holder hereof, on the _____ day of _____, one thousand _____, at _____ in _____, $_____, United States gold coin, for interest on its county bond, No. _____, _____, County Auditor."

Form of coupon.

If the board of supervisors of any county which has issued bonds under the provisions of this title shall fail to make the levy necessary to pay such bond or interest coupons at maturity, and the same shall have been presented to the county treasurer and the payment thereof refused, the owner may file the bond, together with all unpaid coupons, with the state controller, taking his receipt therefor, and the same shall be registered in the state controller's office; and the state board of equalization shall, at their next session, and at each annual equalization thereafter, add to the state tax to be levied in said county, a sufficient rate to realize the amount of principal or interest past due and to become due prior to the next levy, and the same shall be levied and collected as a part of the state tax and paid into the state treasury and passed to the special credit of such county as bond tax, and shall be paid by warrants, as the payments mature, to the holder of such registered obligations, as shown by the register in the office of the state controller, until the same shall be fully satisfied and discharged, any balance then remaining being passed to the general account and credit of said county.

4092. All warrants must distinctly specify the liability for which they are drawn, and when it accrued.

To settle with debtors of county.

4093. The auditor must examine and settle the accounts of all persons or officers indebted to the county, or holding moneys payable into the county treasury, and must certify the amount to the treasurer, and upon the presentation and filing of the treasurer's receipt therefor, give to such persons a discharge, and charge the treasurer with the amount received by him.

Accounts and receipts.

4094. The auditor must keep accounts current with the treasurer, and when any person deposits with the auditor any receipt given by the treasurer for any money paid into the treasury, the auditor must file such receipt, and charge the treasurer with the amount thereof.

Warrants
numbered

4095. All warrants issued by the auditor during each year, commencing with the first Monday after the first day of January, must be numbered consecutively, and the number, date, and amount of each, and the name of the person to whom payable, and the purpose for which drawn, must be stated thereon; and they must, at the time they are issued, be registered by him, and after such warrants have remained uncalled for for two years they shall be canceled.

Examine treasurer's books.

4096. The auditor must, between the first and tenth day of each month, examine the books of the treasurer, and see that the same have been correctly kept.

Count the money in treasury.

4097. The chairman of the board of supervisors, district attorney, and auditor, must, at least once in each month, count the money in the county treasury, and make and verify, in duplicate, statements showing:

1. The amount of money that ought to be in the treasury.
2. The amount and kind of money actually therein.

4098. They must file one of the statements in the office of the county clerk, and the auditor must post and maintain the other in his office for at least one month thereafter. Same.
File statements.

4099. The auditor and treasurer of each county must, on the first Monday in February, May, August, and November, and at such other times as the board of supervisors may require, make a joint statement to the board of supervisors, showing the whole amount of collections (stating particularly the source of each portion of the revenue) from all sources paid into the county treasury; the funds among which the same are distributed, and the amount to each; the total amount of warrants drawn and paid, and on what fund; the total amount of warrants drawn and unpaid, and accounts or claims audited or allowed and unpaid, and the fund out of which they are to be paid, and, generally, make a full and specific showing of the financial condition of the county. Joint statement, auditor
and
treasurer.

4099a. It shall be and is hereby made the duty of every county auditor in the State of California to keep all the books and necessary accounts with reference to payments made by the county of which he is auditor for minor orphans and half-orphans and abandoned children and to prepare the necessary data and make out all claims against the state for such payments, and the board of supervisors may allow the auditor a reasonable compensation for performing the extra duty herein provided. duties.

ARTICLE III.

THE TREASURER.

- Section 4101. Specific duties of treasurer.
 4102. Auditor's certificate required.
 4103. Must give receipts.
 4104. Must pay warrants, when.
 4105. To endorse warrants, when no funds on hand.
 4106. Warrants drawing interest.
 4107. Advertising warrants.
 4108. Preference of warrants.
 4109. Unpaid warrants.
 4110. Must note interest paid.
 4111. Monthly and annual statements.
 4112. Detailed report each session of the board.
 4113. Penalty for not reporting.
 4114. Must sue district attorney, when.
 4115. Property received from coroner.
 4116. Money of decedents.
 4117. Possession of public moneys.
 4118. Suspended from office, when.
 4119. Death of treasurer.
 4120. Examination of books and accounts of.
 4121. Same.
 4122. Treasurer to receive and pay out moneys arising from gifts, etc.

4101. The treasurer must:

1. Receive all moneys belonging to the county, and all other moneys by law directed to be paid to him, safely keep the same, and apply and pay them out, rendering the account thereof as required by law.

2. File and keep the certificates of the auditor delivered to him when moneys are paid into the treasury.

Duties of treasurer.

Duties of treasurer.

3. Keep an account of the receipt and expenditure of all such moneys, in books provided for the purpose, in which must be entered the amount, the time when, from whom, and on what account all moneys were received by him; the amount, time when, to whom, and on what account all disbursements were made by him.

4. So keep his books that the amount received and paid out on account of separate funds or specific appropriations are exhibited in separate and distinct accounts, and the whole receipts and expenditures shown in one general or cash account.

5. Enter no moneys received for the current year on his account with the county for the past fiscal year, until after his annual settlement for the past year has been made with the county auditor.

6. Disburse the county moneys only on county warrants issued by the county auditor, except on settlement with the state.

7. Disburse the moneys in the treasury on such warrants only when they are based on orders of the board of supervisors, or upon order of the superior court, or as otherwise provided by law.

Auditor's certificate required.

4102. He must receive no money into the treasury unless accompanied by the certificate of the auditor, provided for in section four thousand and ninety-three.

Must give receipts.

4103. When any money is paid to the county treasurer he must give to the person paying the same a receipt therefor, which must forthwith be deposited with the county auditor, who must charge the treasurer therewith, and give the person paying the same a receipt.

Must pay warrants.

4104. When a warrant is presented for payment, if there is money in the treasury for that purpose, he must pay the same and write on the face thereof "paid," the date of payment, and sign his name thereto.

Action when no funds on hand.

4105. When any warrant is presented to the treasurer for payment, and the same is not paid for want of funds, the treasurer must indorse thereon "Not paid for want of funds," with the date of presentation, and sign his name thereto, and from that time until paid the warrant bears five per cent interest per annum.

Warrants drawing interest.

4106. When there are sufficient moneys in the treasury to pay the warrants drawing interest, the treasurer must give notice in some newspaper published in the county, or if none is published therein, then by written notice posted upon the court-house door, stating therein that he is ready to pay such warrants. From the first publication or posting of such notice, such warrants cease to draw interest.

Advertising warrants.

4107. In advertising warrants under the provisions of the preceding section in any newspaper, the treasurer must not publish the warrants in detail, but give notice only that county warrants presented for payment prior to such a date, stated in the notice, are payable. When a part only of the warrants presented for payment on the same day are payable, the treasurer must designate such payable warrants in the advertisement.

4108. Warrants drawn on the treasury, and properly attested, are entitled to preference as to payment out of moneys in the treasury properly applicable to such warrants, according to the order in which they were presented. The time of presenting such warrants must be noted by the treasurer, and upon receipt of moneys into the treasury not appropriated, he must set apart the same, or so much thereof as is necessary for the payment of such warrants.

Preference as to payment.

4109. Should such warrants not be again presented for payment within sixty days from the time the notice hereinbefore provided for is given, the fund set aside for the payment of the same must be by the treasurer applied to the payment of unpaid warrants next in order of registry. The board of supervisors may, on application and presentation of warrants properly indorsed, which have been advertised, pass an order directing the treasurer to pay them out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Unpaid
warrants.

4110. When the treasurer pays any warrant upon which any interest is due, he must note on the warrant the amount of interest paid thereon and enter on his account the amount of such interest distinct from the principal.

Must note interest paid.

4111. The treasurer must settle his accounts relating to the collection, care, and disbursement of public revenue, of whatsoever nature and kind, with the auditor, on the first Monday of each month. For the purpose of making such settlement, he must make a statement, under oath, of the amount of money or other property received prior to the period of such settlement, the sources whence the same was derived, the amount of payments or disbursements, and to whom, with the amount remaining on hand. He must, in such settlements, deposit all warrants redeemed by him, and take the auditor's receipt therefor. He must also make a full settlement of all accounts with the auditor, annually, on the first Monday of January, in the presence of the supervisors.

Monthly
annual statements.

4112. Each county treasurer must make a detailed report, at every regular meeting of the board of supervisors of his county, of all money received by him, and the disbursement thereof, and of all debts due to and from the county, and of all other proceedings in his office, so that the receipts into the treasury and the amounts of disbursements, together with the debts due to and from the county, may distinctly appear.

Detailed report each session of supervisors.

4113. If any county treasurer neglect or refuse to settle or report, as required in sections forty-one hundred and eleven and forty-one hundred and twelve, he forfeits and must pay to the county the sum of five hundred dollars for every such neglect or refusal, and the board of supervisors must institute suits for the recovery thereof.

Penalty for not reporting.

4114. If the district attorney refuse or neglect to account for and pay over money received by him, as required by the fifth subdivision of section forty-one hundred and fifty-three, he shall be liable for such refusal or neglect upon his official bond, and the county treasurer must bring an action against him for the recovery thereof, in the name of the county, and may attorney,

when.

recover in such action, in addition to the amounts so received, fifty per cent thereon by way of damages. And no order of the board of supervisors shall be necessary to bring such action. His reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, shall be a county charge.

Property received from coroner.

4115. The treasurer, upon receiving from the coroner, or justice of the peace acting as coroner, money found on a dead body, must place it to the credit of the county; on receiving other property in like manner, he must, within thirty days, sell it at public auction, upon reasonable public notice, and must, in like manner, place the proceeds to the credit of the county. All said moneys must be kept in a separate fund.

Money of decedents.

4116. If the money in the treasury is demanded within six years, by the legal representatives of the decedent, the treasurer must pay it to them, after deducting the fees and expenses of the coroner, and of the county, in relation to the matter, or the same may be so paid at any time thereafter, upon the order of the board of supervisors.

Possession of public
moneys.

4117. The treasurer must keep all moneys belonging to this state, or to any county of this state, in his own possession, until disbursed according to law. He must not place the same in the possession of any person, to be used for any purpose; nor must he loan, or in any manner use, or permit any person to use the same, except as provided by law; but nothing in this section prohibits him from making special deposits for the safe-keeping of the public moneys; but he shall be liable therefor on his official bond.

Suspended from office,
when.

4118. Whenever an action, based upon official misconduct, is commenced against any county treasurer, the supervisors may, in their discretion, suspend him from office until such suit is determined, and may appoint some person to fill the vacancy, who shall qualify and give such bond as may be required by the board of supervisors.

Death of treasurer.

4119. In case of the death of any county treasurer, his legal representatives must deliver up to the person appointed to fill the vacancy occasioned by such death, all official moneys, books, accounts, papers, and documents which are or may come into their possession.

Inspection of books.

4120. The books, accounts, and vouchers of the treasurer are at all times subject to the inspection and examination of the board of supervisors and grand jury.

Same.

4121. The treasurer must permit the chairman of the board of supervisors, district attorney, and auditor to examine his books and count the money in the treasury, whenever they may wish to make an examination or counting.

Money arising from gifts.

4122. The treasurer is hereby authorized to receive any money constituting a gift or bequest, or the money resulting or accruing from any gift, bequest or devise and pay the same out in accordance with the terms thereof, or when none are fixed, then according to law.

ARTICLE IV.

THE ASSESSOR.

Section 4125. Duties of.

4125. The assessor must perform such duties as are prescribed in title nine, part three, of this code, and such other duties as are required by law; provided, that where any salary is allowed to the assessor, by law, then where such officer is charged, or to be charged, with the making of maps or block books, he shall be allowed the actual cost of making the same, and must file with the county auditor a sworn statement, monthly, showing in detail the names of persons, and amounts paid to each for such expense, and the assessor must thereupon pay over and account to the county, or city and county, for the difference between any amount allowed for such purpose, and the amount actually expended by him therefor.

Duties of assessor.

ARTICLE V.

THE TAX COLLECTOR.

Section 4126. Duties of.

4126. The tax collector must perform such duties as are prescribed in title nine, part three, of this code, and as license collector shall collect all county licenses, and shall perform such other duties as are required by law. He shall, at least once a month and oftener, in his discretion, pay the public money in his hands into the county treasury, taking the receipt of the treasurer therefor.

Duties of tax collector.

ARTICLE VI.

THE LICENSE COLLECTOR.

Section 4127. Duties of.

4127. The tax collector shall be ex-officio license collector, and as license collector shall perform the duties prescribed by law, and by the ordinances of the board of supervisors.

Duties of license collector.

25. Such other indices and books of record as may be required in the performance of his official duties.

Certificates of sales.

4133. The recorder must keep in his office a book, to be called "Certificates of Sales," and record therein all certificates of sales of real estate sold under execution, or under order made in any judicial proceeding. He must also prepare an index thereto, in which, in separate columns, he must enter the names of the plaintiff in the execution, the defendant in the execution, the purchaser at the sale, and the date of the sale.

Final judgments.

4134. The recorder must file and record in the record of deeds, grants, and transfers, certified copies of final judgments or decrees partitioning or affecting the title or possession of real property, any part of which is situate in the county of which he is recorder.

Filing for record imparts
notice.

4135. Every such certified copy of a judgment or decree mentioned in the preceding section, from the time of filing the same with the recorder for record, imparts notice to all persons of the contents thereof; and subsequent purchasers, mortgagees, and lienholders purchase and take with like notice and effect as if such copy of decree was a duly recorded deed, grant, or transfer.

Two or more indices in one volume.

4136. The recorder may keep in the same volume any two or more of the indices mentioned in section forty-one hundred and thirty-two; but the several indices must be kept distinct from each other, and the volume distinctly marked on the outside in such a way as to show all the indices kept therein. The names of the parties in the first column in the several indices must be arranged in alphabetical order, and when a conveyance is executed by a sheriff, the name of the sheriff and the party charged in the execution must both be inserted in the index; and when an instrument is recorded to which an executor, administrator, or trustee is a party, the name of such executor, administrator, or trustee, together with the name of the testator, or intestate, or party for whom the trust is held, must be inserted in the index.

4137. When any instrument, paper, or notice, authorized by law to be recorded, is deposited in the recorder's office for record, the recorder must indorse upon the same the time when it was received, noting the year, month, day, hour, and minute of its reception, the amount of fees for recording, and must record the same without delay, together with the acknowledgments, proofs, and certificates, written upon or annexed to the same, with the plats, surveys, schedule, and other papers thereto annexed, in the order in which the same were received for record, and must note at the foot of the record the exact time of its reception, and the name of the person at whose request it was recorded.

Indorse documents.

4138. He must also indorse upon each instrument, paper, or notice the time when, the book, and pages in which it is recorded, and must thereafter deliver it to the party leaving the same for record, or upon his order.

Must indorse time.

4139. It shall be the duty of the recorder, upon the payment or tender of the fees therefor, to take and certify the acknowledgment of all instruments authorized by law to be acknowledged.

Take acknowledgments.

4140. If any recorder to whom an instrument, proved or acknowledged according to law, or any paper or notice which may by law be recorded, is delivered for record:

Penalty for neglect or misconduct.

1. Neglects or refuses to record such instrument, paper, or notice within a reasonable time after receiving the same;

2. Records any instrument, paper, or notice, willfully or negligently, untruly, or in any other manner than is hereinbefore directed;

3. Neglects or refuses to keep in his office such indices as are required by this article, or to make the proper entries therein; or,

4. Alters, changes, or obliterates any records deposited in his office, or inserts any new matter therein, he is liable to the party aggrieved for three times the amount of the damages which may be occasioned thereby.

4141. He shall not record any instrument, or file any paper or notice, or furnish any copy, or render any service connected with his office, until the fees for the same, as prescribed by law, are, if demanded, paid or tendered.

Fees must be prepaid.

4142. All books of record, maps, charts, surveys, and other papers on file in the recorder's office, must, during office hours, be open for inspection by any person, without charge;

Records open to inspection.

and the recorder must arrange the books of record and indices in his office in such suitable places as to facilitate their inspection.

When contracts and plans may be returned.

4142a. After the expiration of two years from the date of filing in the recorder's office of notice of completion of any building or improvement, the contract, plans and specifications under which the work or improvement was performed may be returned by the recorder to the person filing the same unless the recorder has been notified in writing to retain the same by some one claiming some interest under such contract or in the property affected thereby. If no such notice be given the recorder may, after the expiration of said two years, destroy such contract, plans and specifications.

Recording of instruments when records lost by fire.

4142b. 1. Whenever any record of any instrument has been, or shall hereafter be, lost, injured or destroyed by conflagration or other public calamity, the recorder of such county, or city and county is hereby authorized and directed to record any instrument of writing entitled to record under the provisions of Article VII, Chapter V, Title II, Part IV, of this code, which instrument of writing had been previously recorded in his office. In recording the same, the recorder shall record all certificates attached thereto and all endorsements thereon, and if any of such certificates or endorsements show the previous recording of the same in the county, or city and county, where said instrument is presented for record, the date appearing in such certificate or instrument of such record shall be deemed and taken as the date of the recording thereof in said county or city and county, where said instrument is presented for record. Such record and certified copies thereof, duly certified by the recorder of any such county, or city and county, under his seal of office, may be introduced in evidence, with the same force and effect as the original record or certified copies of the original record.

Same, when certified by recorder of another county.

2. Whenever any record of any instrument has been, or shall hereafter be, lost, injured or destroyed by conflagration or other public calamity, the recorder of such county, or city and county is hereby authorized and directed, when presented to him for record, to record any instrument of writing entitled to record under the provisions of Article VII, Chapter V, Title II, Part IV, of this code, which said instrument of writing shall have been or shall be duly certified by the recorder of any other county, or city and county, of this state as being of record in his office. In recording the same, the recorder shall record all certificates attached thereto, or endorsements thereon, and if any of such certificates or endorsements show the previous recording of the same in the county, or city and county, where the said certified copy of the said instrument is presented for record, the date appearing in such certificate or endorsement of such record shall be deemed and taken as the date of the recording thereof in said county, or city and county recorder's office, where the said certified copy is so presented for record. Said record and certified copies of any such record, duly certified by the recorder of any such county, or city and county, under his seal of office, may be introduced in evidence with the same force and effect as the original record or certified copies of the original record.

3. Such county, or city and county recorder shall be entitled, for his services hereunder, to receive the same amount of fees as he is entitled to receive for the recording of instruments of like character. Same, fees.

4142c. Each county recorder shall have the powers and shall perform the duties within the county of which he is the recorder, which are prescribed and required by the provisions of an act entitled, "An act for the registrations of deaths, the issuance and registration of burial and disinterment permits and the establishment of registration districts in counties, cities and counties, cities and incorporated towns, under the superintendence of the state bureau of vital statistics and prescribing the powers and duties of registrars, coroners, physicians, undertakers, sextons and other persons in relation to such registration and fixing penalties for violation of this act," approved March 18, 1905. He shall also have the powers, and shall perform the duties within the county of which he is such officer which are prescribed and required by the provisions of Chapter III, Title VII, of Part III, of this code, relating to the registry of births, marriages and deaths. Duties with reference to registry of births, marriages, and deaths.

- 4146. Duties as to property of deceased persons.
- 4147. Justices of the peace to act as coroner, when.
- 4148. Coroner to act as sheriff, when.

4143. The coroner must hold inquests as prescribed by chapter two, title twelve, part two, of the Penal Code. The coroner, or other officer holding the inquest upon the body of a deceased person, may subpoena a chemist to make an analysis of the contents of the stomach or of the tissues of the body, or a physician or surgeon to inspect the body, or hold a post-mortem examination of the deceased, and give a professional opinion as to the cause of death, and shall cause the testimony given by any witness to be reduced to writing, under his direction, and may, upon the written order of the district attorney, employ a clerk or stenographer for such purpose, at the same compensation allowed to stenographers in the superior court of the county; and when such testimony is taken down by a stenographer, his transcription thereof, duly certified to, shall constitute the deposition of such witness. Duties of coroner.

4144. When an inquest is held by the coroner, and no other person takes charge of the body of deceased, he must cause it to be decently interred; and if there is not sufficient property belonging to the estate of the deceased to pay the necessary expenses of the burial, the expenses are a legal charge against the county. Cause bodies to be buried.

Keep official register.

4145. It shall be the duty of the coroner of each county to keep an official register, to be labeled "Coroner's Register," in which he shall enter the date of holding all inquests, the name of the deceased, when known, and when not, such description of the deceased as may be sufficient for identification; property found on the person of deceased, if any; what disposition was made of the same by the coroner; the cause of death, when known, and such other information as may pertain to the identity of the deceased.

Duties
as to property of deceased persons.

4146. The coroner must, within thirty days after an inquest upon a dead body, deliver to the treasurer, or the legal representatives of the deceased, any money or other property found upon the body, and at the same time file an affidavit with the treasurer, showing:

1. The amount of money or other property belonging to the estate of the deceased person which has come into his possession since his last statement.

2. The disposition made of such property.

3. If the coroner, or any justice of the peace acting as coroner, fail to deliver to the treasurer, within thirty days after any inquest upon a dead body, all money and property found upon such body, unless claimed in the meantime by the public administrator, or other legal representative of the decedent, as required by this section, the district attorney must proceed against the coroner, or justice of the peace acting as coroner, to recover the same, by civil action, in the name of the county.

Justice of the peace to act, when.

4147. If the office of coroner is vacant, or he is absent, or unable to attend, the duties of his office may be discharged by any justice of the peace of the county, with the like authority, and subject to the same obligations and penalties as the coroner.

To act
as sheriff,
when.

4148. In the cases specified in section forty-one hundred and seventy-two, the coroner must discharge the duties of sheriff.

ARTICLE IX.

Liable for escape of prisoner.

4163. A sheriff who suffers the escape of a person arrested in a civil action, without the consent or connivance of the party in whose behalf the arrest or imprisonment is made, is liable as follows:

1. When the arrest is upon an order to hold to bail, or upon a surrender in exoneration of bail before judgment, he is liable to the plaintiff as bail.

2. When the arrest is on an execution or commitment to enforce the payment of money, he is liable for the amount expressed in the execution or commitment.

3. When the arrest is on an execution or commitment other than to enforce the payment of money, he is liable for the actual damages sustained.

4. Upon being sued for damages for an escape or rescue, he may introduce evidence in mitigation and exculpation.

4164. He is liable for the rescue of a person arrested in a civil action, equally as for an escape. Liable for rescue of prisoner.

4165. An action can not be maintained against the sheriff for a rescue, or for an escape of a person arrested upon an execution or commitment, if, after his rescue or escape, and before the commencement of the action, the prisoner returns to the jail, or is retaken by the sheriff. When not liable.

4166. No direction or authority by a party or his attorney to a sheriff, in respect to the execution of process or return thereof, or to any act or omission relating thereto, is available to discharge or excuse the sheriff from a liability for neglect or misconduct, unless it is contained in a writing, signed by the attorney of the party, or by the party, if he has no attorney. Authority to execute process must be in writing.

4167. When the sheriff is committed, under an execution or commitment, for not paying over money received by him by virtue of his office, and remains committed for sixty days, his office is vacant. When office is vacant.

4168. A sheriff or other ministerial officer is justified in the execution of, and must execute, all process and orders regular on their face and issued by competent authority, whatever may be the defect in the proceedings upon which they were issued. Must execute orders.

4169. The officer executing process must then, and at all times subsequent, so long as he retains it, upon request, show the same, with all papers attached, to any person interested therein. Officer to exhibit process.

4170. The sheriff in attendance upon court must act as the crier thereof, call the parties and witnesses, and all other persons bound to appear at the court, and make proclamation of the opening and adjournment of the court, and of any other matter under its direction. Act as court crier.

4171. Service of a paper, other than process, upon the sheriff may be made by delivering it to him or to one of his deputies, or to a person in charge of the office during office hours; or, if no such person be there, by leaving it in a conspicuous place in the office. When any process remains with the sheriff unexecuted, in whole or in part, at the time of his death, resignation of office, or at the expiration of his term of office, said process shall be executed by his successor or successors in office; and when the sheriff sells real estate, under and by virtue of an execution or order of court, he or his successors in office shall execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers all such deeds and conveyances as are required by law and necessary for the purpose, and such deeds and conveyances shall be as valid in law as if they had been executed by the sheriff who made the sale. Service of process upon sheriff.

4172. When the sheriff is a party to an action or proceeding, the process and orders therein, which it would otherwise be the duty of the sheriff to execute, must be executed by the When coroner to execute process.

coroner of the county; provided, when any action is begun against the sheriff, all process and orders may be served by any person, a citizen of the United States over the age of eighteen years, in the manner provided in the Code of Civil Procedure.

When elisor to execute process.

4173. Process or orders in an action or proceeding may be executed by a person residing in the county, designated by the court, or the judge thereof, and denominated an elisor, in the following cases:

1. When the sheriff and coroner are both parties;

2. When either of these officers is a party, and the process is against the other; and,

3. When either of these officers is a party, and there is a vacancy in the office of the other, or where it appears, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the court in which the proceeding is pending, or the judge thereof, that both of these officers are disqualified, or by reason of any bias, prejudice, or other cause, would not act promptly or impartially.

Compensation of elisor or coroner.

When process is delivered to an elisor, he must execute and return it in the same manner as the sheriff is required to execute similar process. Whenever process is executed, or any act performed by a coroner or elisor, in the cases provided by law in that behalf, such coroner or elisor shall be entitled to receive a reasonable compensation, to be fixed by the court, to be paid by the plaintiff in case of the summoning of jurors to complete the panel, and by the person or party requiring the service in all other cases in private action. If rendered at the instance of the people, it shall be audited and paid as a county charge.

Other duties.

4174. The sheriff must perform such other duties as are required by law.

Transporting prisoners, expenses.

4175. There shall be allowed by the state board of examiners, to the sheriff, to be retained by him for his own use, for delivering a prisoner to either of the state prisons, actual expenses and five dollars per diem for the time necessarily consumed in delivering such prisoner.

Transporting insane persons, expenses.

4176. There shall be allowed by the state board of examiners to the sheriff, to be retained by him for his own use, unless otherwise provided in this title, for delivering any insane person to either of the state hospitals for the care and treatment of the insane, his actual expenses and the same per diem as is allowed in the preceding section.

- First—To make and enforce all rules, regulations, and by-laws necessary for the administration, government, and protection of such library, and all property belonging thereto, or that may be loaned, devised, bequeathed, or donated to the same.
- Second—To remove any trustee, except an ex-officio trustee, who may neglect to attend the meetings of the board of trustees, or who may absent himself from such meetings, and fill all vacancies that may from any cause occur in the board.
- Third—To define the powers and prescribe the duties of any and all officers, determine the number, and elect all necessary subordinate officers and assistants, and at their pleasure remove any officer or assistant.

Fourth—To purchase books, journals, publications, and other personal property.

Fifth—To order the drawing and payment, upon properly authenticated vouchers, duly certified by the president and secretary, of money from out of the law library fund, for any liability or expenditure herein authorized, and generally do all that may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this article.

Sixth—To fix the salaries of the librarian, secretary, and other subordinate officers and assistants.

Seventh—To contract with any existing law library association to make use of its library for the purposes of a public law library, under proper rules and regulations to be prescribed by the board of trustees, either by lease or such other contract as may best carry the purposes of this article into effect.

4196. The orders and demands of the trustees of any such public law library, when duly made and authenticated as above provided, shall be verified and audited by the auditing officer, and paid by the treasurer of such county out of the library fund properly belonging thereto, of which full entry and record shall be kept as in other cases.

Duties of auditor and treasurer.

4197. The said board of trustees, on or before the first Monday in December of each year, shall make an annual report to the board of supervisors of their county, giving the condition of their trust, with full statements of all their property and money received, whence derived, how used and expended, the number of books, periodicals, and other publications on hand; the number added by purchase, gift, or otherwise during the year; the number lost or missing, and such other information as might be of interest. A financial report, showing all receipts and disbursements of money, shall also at the same time be made by the secretary of the board of trustees, duly verified by his oath.

Annual report of trustees.

4198. The board of supervisors of any such county shall provide a library-room for the use of such library, whenever such room may be demanded by such board of trustees.

Library room.

4199. The said board of trustees shall meet the first Tuesday of each month, and at such other times as they may appoint, at a place to be appointed for that purpose; and a majority of all their number shall constitute a quorum for business. They shall appoint one of their number as president of their board. They shall elect a secretary, who shall keep a full statement and account of all property, money, receipts and expenditures, and a record and full minutes, in writing, of all their proceedings. They may appoint a librarian. The secretary may certify to such proceedings, or any part or portion thereof, under his hand, verified by an official seal, adopted and provided by the trustees for that purpose.

Meetings.

Officers.

4200. Said libraries shall be free to the judiciary, county officials, and members of the bar of said county, and to all

Who entitled to privileges of.

inhabitants of said county; but the board of trustees may provide that no books shall be removed from said libraries, except by the judiciary, county officials, and members of the bar, without the payment of such dues as the board of trustees may ordain, and under such rules or regulations as may be by them provided.

Secretary of state to furnish publications.

4201. The secretary of state is hereby authorized and directed to transmit to the county clerk of each county of the state, for the use of said library, a copy of each and every publication which may hereafter be made by this state, and especially a copy of each report of the decisions of the supreme court, district courts of appeal, and of the statutes of this state; and also a copy of all such reports and statutes heretofore published.

Supreme court library, duplicate books.

4202. The librarian of the supreme court library is hereby authorized and directed to distribute among the law libraries herein provided for such duplicates of books as may be in state library, and not needed for its own purposes.

Limitations on effect of this article.

4203. Wherever a law library, and a board of trustees to govern the same, is in existence under the provisions of any law, in any county, or city and county, in this state, this article shall not be considered a repeal of any legislation under which such library is established and now governed, but shall be deemed to confer upon such library the benefits of section forty-one hundred and ninety; provided, however, that it shall be discretionary with the board of supervisors of any county to provide by ordinance for the application of the provisions of this article to such county.

May be discontinued, how.

4204. Whenever the board of supervisors in any county in this state which shall have adopted the provisions of this article and have established a law library, desire to discontinue such law library, they shall by ordinance declare their intention so to do, and shall provide in such ordinance that the books already in the library shall be transferred to and kept in the chambers of the judges of the superior court of such county; and all moneys on hand in the library fund of such county shall be by the same ordinance transferred to the school fund of such county, and the office of the board of trustees of such law library shall be abolished. After such an ordinance shall take effect, the county clerk of such county shall not collect the fees provided for in section four thousand one hundred and ninety.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

ARTICLE I. The Surveyor.
II. Road Commissioners.

ARTICLE I.

THE SURVEYOR.

Section 4214. Duties of.

- 4215. Same.
- 4216. Other duties and fees of.
- 4217. Must assist surveyor-general, when.
- 4218. Ex-officio deputy recorder, when, and duties of.
- 4219. Surveys of county roads by.
- 4220. Other duties of.
- 4221. Courses to be run by true meridian; variation to be noted.

4214. The surveyor must be a licensed land surveyor of the state, and must make any survey that may be required by order of court or of the board of supervisors, or upon application of any person; keep a correct and fair record of all surveys made by him, number them in the order made, and preserve a copy of the field notes and calculations of each survey, and endorse thereon its proper number; a copy of the same, and a fair and accurate plat, together with a certificate of survey, must, upon application, be furnished by him to any person, upon payment of the fees allowed by law. Duties of surveyor.

4215. Any person owning or claiming lands which are divided by county lines, and wishing to have the same surveyed, may apply to the surveyor of any county in which any part of such land is situated, and on such application being made, the surveyor must make the survey, which is as valid as though the lands were situated entirely within the county. Lands divided by county lines.

4216. When land, the title to which is in dispute before any court, is divided by a county line, the court making an order of survey may direct the order to the surveyor of any county in which any part of the land is situated. In all surveys the courses must be expressed according to the true meridian, and the variation of the magnetic meridian from the true meridian must be expressed on the plat, with the date of the survey. Disputed titles, duties of surveyor.

Must assist surveyor-general,
when.

4217. The surveyor must, when required, aid and assist the surveyor-general in making surveys within the county. When the surveyor is interested in any land, the title to which is in dispute, and a survey thereof is necessary, the court must direct the survey to be made by some disinterested person, and the person so appointed is for that purpose authorized to administer and certify oaths. He must return such survey, verified by his affidavit annexed thereto, and receive for his services the same fees as the surveyor would be entitled to for similar service.

Ex-officio deputy recorder,
when.

4218. The surveyor shall copy, plat, or trace all maps filed for record in the office of the recorder of the county for which he shall be elected, and shall be ex-officio deputy recorder for said county for such purposes, at the cost of the party filing the same for record; provided, however, that all maps and plats filed by a licensed land surveyor, and such other maps and plats as are filed and are thereby made a record, are exempt from the provisions of this section. The surveyor shall plat, trace, blue-print, or otherwise make all county, township, road, district, and all other maps, and all assessors' block books, for the county of which he is surveyor; provided, that in counties where the office of assessor has not prior to the taking effect of this title been provided with such maps and block books and the surveyor neglects and refuses to make the same, the board of supervisors may contract with other competent person or persons for the making thereof, and may provide for the payment therefor from the funds of the county. All such maps which are platted, traced, blue-printed, or otherwise made as aforesaid, shall be filed in the surveyor's office, together with all data obtained by the surveyor from other sources, and the same thereafter shall become the property of the county.

Assessors'
block
books.

Surveys of county roads.

4219. The surveyor shall make such surveys of county roads, and perform such other engineering work as the board of supervisors may direct. All such maps and field notes of surveys shall be filed in the office of the surveyor, and the same shall thereafter be and remain the property of the county. It shall be the duty of the surveyor to advise the board of supervisors regarding all engineering work, and to perform such engineering work for the county as may be required by the board of supervisors.

Copy of field notes to surveyor-
general.

4220. Each surveyor, immediately after making any survey, except surveys of city or town lots, must make out a copy of the field-notes and plat, and transmit the same to the surveyor-general, indicating plainly upon the plat at what point of any line any river or stream or county line is touched or crossed. He must communicate to the surveyor-general such information concerning surveys made by him, and other matters connected with the duties of his office, as may be required.

Courses, how to be run.

4221. In all surveys the courses must be expressed according to the true meridian, and the variation of the magnetic meridian from the true meridian must be expressed on the plat, with the date of the survey.

ARTICLE II.

THE ROAD COMMISSIONERS.

Section 4222. Duties of.

Fees to be paid into treasury.

4293. Each of the officers authorized to receive fees under the provisions of this title must keep a fee book, open to the public inspection during office hours, in which must be entered, at once and in detail, all fees or compensation, of whatever nature, kind, or description, collected or chargeable. On the first Monday of each and every month, the officer must add up each column in his book to the first day of the month, and set down the totals. On the expiration of the term of such officer, he must deliver all fee books kept by him to the county auditor. Fec book.

4294. The fees and compensation collected and chargeable for the county in each month shall be paid to the treasurer on the first Monday in the following month, and must be accompanied by a statement of the aggregate amount thereof, as shown by the fee book, duly verified by the officer making such payment. The affidavit shall be in the following form: Statement of fees.
 "I, A. B., County Clerk (or other officer, as the case may be), do swear that the fee book in my office contains a true statement in detail of all fees and compensation of every kind and nature for official services rendered by me, my deputies and assistants, for the month of ———, A. D. ———, and that said fee book shows a full amount received or chargeable in said month, and since my last monthly payment; and neither myself, nor to my knowledge or belief, any of my deputies or assistants have rendered any official service, except for the county, which is not fully set out in said fee book, and that the foregoing statement thereof is true and correct." Affidavit.

The treasurer shall file and preserve in his office said statements and affidavit.

4295. The officers mentioned in this title are not in any case, except for the state or county, or a public board or body acting in behalf of the state, to perform any official services, unless upon the prepayment of fees prescribed for such services, except in proceedings upon habeas corpus, and on such payment the officer must perform the services required. For every failure or refusal to perform official duty when the fees are tendered, the officer is liable on his official bond. Official services and fees.

Receipt for fees.

4296. Every officer, upon receiving any fees for official duty or service, may be required by the person paying the same to make out, in writing, and deliver to such person a particular account of such fees, specifying for what they, respectively, accrued, and shall receipt the same; and if he refuse or neglect to do so when required, he shall be liable to the party paying the same in treble the amount so paid.

No fees

CHAPTER 283.

An act to amend sections 405 and 408 of the Civil Code, relating to foreign corporations.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 405 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Designation of person on whom process may be served.

405. Every corporation other than those created by or under the laws of this state must, at the time of filing the certified copy of its articles of incorporation, file in the office of the secretary of state a designation of some person residing within the state upon whom process issued by authority of or under any law of this state may be served. A copy of such designation, duly certified by the secretary of state, is sufficient evidence of such appointment. Such process may be served on the person so designated, or, in the event that no such person is designated, then on the secretary of state, and the service is a valid service on such corporation.

SEC. 2. Section 408 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

408. Every corporation organized under the laws of another state, territory, or of a foreign country, which is now doing business in this state, or is maintaining an office herein, or which shall hereafter do business in this state or maintain an office herein, or which shall enter this state for the purpose of doing business herein, must file in the office of the secretary of state of the State of California a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, or of its charter, or of the statute or statutes, or legislative, or executive, or governmental act or acts creating it, in cases where it has been created by charter, or statute, or legislative, or executive, or governmental act, duly certified by the secretary of state, or other officer authorized by the law of the jurisdiction under which such corporation is formed to certify such copy, and a certified copy thereof, duly certified by the secretary of state of this state, in the office of the county clerk of the county where its principal place of business is located, and also where such corporation owns property.

Must file copy of articles in office of secretary of state.

CHAPTER 284.

An act to amend section 1239 of the Penal Code, relating to the times in which appeals may be taken in criminal cases.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1239 of the Penal Code of California is hereby amended so as to read when amended as follows:

Within what time appeal may be taken.

1239. An appeal from a judgment must be taken within ninety days after its rendition and from an order within sixty days after it is made.

CHAPTER 285.

An act to amend section 1467 of the Penal Code of California relating to the taking, hearing and determination of appeals to the superior court in criminal actions.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1467 of the Penal Code of California is hereby amended so as to read when amended as follows:

Within what time appeal may be taken.

1467. The appeal may be taken, heard and determined as provided in title 9, part 2 of this code, except that such appeal must be taken within fifteen days after the judgment is rendered or within ten days after the order is made from which the appeal is taken.

CHAPTER 286.

An act to amend section 1475 of the Penal Code, relating to the issuance of writs of habeas corpus and to petitions therefor, and to service of copies thereof upon the district attorney in certain cases, and to the discharge of persons on such writs.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1475 of the Penal Code of California is hereby amended so as to read when amended as follows:

Writ of habeas corpus,
proceedings thereon.

1475. The writ of habeas corpus may be granted in the manner provided by the constitution. If the writ has been granted by any court or a judge or justice thereof, and after the hearing thereof the prisoner has been remanded, he shall not be discharged from custody by the same or any other court of like general jurisdiction, or by a judge or justice of the same or any other court of like general jurisdiction, unless upon some ground not existing in fact at the issuing of the prior writ. Should the prisoner desire to urge some point of law not raised in the petition for or at the hearing upon the return of the prior writ, then, in case such prior writ had been returned or returnable before a superior court or a judge thereof, no writ can be issued upon a second or other application except by the appropriate district court of appeal or some justice thereof, or by the supreme court or some judge thereof, and in such an event such writ must not be made returnable before any superior court or any judge thereof. In the event, however, that the prior writ was returned or made returnable before a district court of appeal or any justice thereof, no writ can be issued upon a second or other application except by the supreme court or some judge thereof, and such writ must be made returnable before said supreme court or some judge thereof. Every application for a writ of habeas corpus must be verified, and shall state whether any prior application or applications have been made for a writ in regard to the same detention or restraint complained of in the application, and if any such prior application or applications have been made the later application must contain a brief statement of all proceedings had therein, or in any of them, to and including the final order or orders made therein, or in any of them, on appeal or otherwise. Whenever the person applying for a writ of habeas corpus is held in custody or restraint by any officer of any court of this state or any political subdivision thereof or by any peace officer of this state or any political subdivision thereof, a copy of the application for such writ must in all cases be served upon the district attorney of the county wherein such person is held in custody or restraint at least twenty-four hours before the time at which said writ is made returnable and no application for such writ can be heard without proof of such service in cases where such service is required.

Application for writ must be verified; prior applications.

Proof of service required before hearing.

CHAPTER 287.

An act to amend section ten of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to holidays.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section ten of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

10. Holidays, within the meaning of this code, are every Sunday, the first day of January, the twenty-second day of February, the thirtieth day of May, the fourth day of July, the ninth day of September, the first Monday in September, the twenty-fifth day of December, every day on which an election is held throughout the state, and every day appointed by the president of the United States or by the governor of this state for a public fast, thanksgiving or holiday. If the first day of January, the twenty-second day of February, the thirtieth day of May, the fourth day of July, the ninth day of September, or the twenty-fifth day of December fall upon a Sunday, the Monday following is a holiday. Every Saturday from twelve o'clock noon until twelve o'clock midnight is a holiday as regards the transaction of business in the public offices of this state, and also in political divisions thereof where laws, ordinances, or charters provide that public offices may be closed on holidays; provided, this shall not be construed to prevent or invalidate the issuance, filing, service, execution, or recording of any legal process or written instrument whatever on such Saturday afternoons.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 288.

An act to repeal sections 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294 and 295 of the Political Code, all relating to the contesting of elections.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Sections
repealed.

SECTION 1. Sections 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294 and 295 of the Political Code are hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 289.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act authorizing certain corporations to act as executor and in other capacities, and to provide for and regulate the administration of trusts by such corporations," approved April 6, 1891.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of an act entitled "An act authorizing certain corporations to act as executor and in other capacities, and to provide for and regulate the administration of trusts by such corporations," is hereby amended to read as follows:

What corporation may act as executor.

Section 1. Any corporation which has or shall be incorporated under the general incorporation laws of this state, authorized by its articles of incorporation to act as executor, administrator, guardian, assignee, receiver, depositary or trustee, and having a paid-up capital of not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, of which one hundred thousand dollars shall have been actually paid in, in cash, may be appointed to act in such capacity in like manner as individuals. In all cases in which it is required that an executor, administrator, guardian, assignee, receiver, depositary, or trustee, shall qualify by taking and subscribing an

Qualification by corporation.

oath, or in which an affidavit is required, it shall be a sufficient qualification by such corporation if such oath shall be taken and subscribed or such affidavit made by the president or secretary or manager or trust officer thereof, and such officer shall be liable for the failure of such corporation to perform any of the duties required by law to be performed by individuals acting in like capacity and subject to like penalties; and such corporation shall be liable for such failure to the full amount of its capital stock; provided, any such appointment as guardian shall apply to the estate only, and not to the person. Such corporation shall be entitled to and shall be allowed proper compensation for all the services performed by them under the foregoing provisions of this act; but such compensation shall not exceed that allowed to natural persons for like services.

Compensation.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 290.

An act to amend section 4452 of the Political Code, relating to liabilities of counties and cities for injuries to property by mobs or riots.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section forty-four hundred and fifty-two of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4452. Every county and municipal corporation is responsible for injury to real or personal property situate within its corporate limits, done or caused by mobs or riots.

Counties and cities responsible for injuries to property by mobs.

CHAPTER 291.

An act to amend section nineteen hundred and seventy-three of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to agreements which, or some note or memorandum whereof, must be in writing.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section nineteen hundred and seventy-three of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1973. In the following cases the agreement is invalid, unless the same or some note or memorandum thereof be in writing, and subscribed by the party charged, or by his agent.

Agreements, when must be in writing.

Evidence, therefore, of the agreement, cannot be received without the writing or secondary evidence of its contents:

1. An agreement that by its terms is not to be performed within a year from the making thereof;

2. A special promise to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another, except in the cases provided for in section twenty-seven hundred and ninety-four of the Civil Code;

3. An agreement made upon consideration of marriage other than a mutual promise to marry;

4. An agreement for the sale of goods, chattels, or things in action, at a price not less than two hundred dollars, unless the buyer accepts or receives part of such goods and chattels or the evidences, or some of them, of such things in action, or pays at the time some part of the purchase money; but when a sale is made at auction, an entry by the auctioneer in his sale book, at the time of the sale, of the kind of property sold, the terms of the sale, the price, and the names of the purchaser and person on whose account the sale is made, is a sufficient memorandum;

5. An agreement for the leasing for a longer period than one year, or for the sale of real property, or of an interest therein; and such agreement, if made by an agent of the party sought to be charged, is invalid, unless the authority of the agent is in writing, subscribed by the party sought to be charged;

6. An agreement authorizing or employing an agent or broker to purchase or sell real estate for compensation or a commission;

7. An agreement which by its terms is not to be performed during the lifetime of the promisor, or an agreement to devise or bequeath any property, or to make any provision for any person by will.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 292.

An act to amend section eleven hundred and eighteen of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the setting of a day by the superior court for trial of contested election cases.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eleven hundred and eighteen of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1118. Upon the statement being filed, the county clerk must inform the superior court of the county thereof, which shall thereupon set some day to be named by it, not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of such order, to hear and determine such contested election.

SECTION 1. Section thirteen hundred and eighty-six of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1386. When any person having title to any estate not otherwise limited by marriage contract, dies without disposing thereof by will, it is succeeded to and must be distributed, unless otherwise expressly provided in this code and the Code of Civil Procedure, subject to the payment of his debts, in the following manner:

Succession to and distribution of estate of deceased person.

1. If the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife, and only one child, or the lawful issue of one child, in equal shares to the surviving husband, or wife and child, or issue of such child. If the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife, and more than one child living, or one child living and the lawful issue of one or more deceased children, one third to the surviving husband or wife, and the remainder in equal shares to his children and to the lawful issue of any deceased child, by right of representation; but if there is no child of decedent living at his death, the remainder goes to all of his lineal descendants; and if all of the descendants are in the same degree of kindred to the decedent, they share equally, otherwise they take according to the right of representation. If the decedent leaves no surviving husband or wife, but leaves issue, the whole estate goes to such issue; and if such issue consists of more than one child living, or one child living and the lawful issue of one or more deceased children, then the estate goes in equal shares to the children living, or to the child living and the issue of the deceased child or children by right of representation;

Succession to and distribution of estate of deceased
person.

2. If the decedent leaves no issue, the estate goes one half to the surviving husband or wife, and the other half to the decedent's father and mother in equal shares, and if either is dead the whole of said half goes to the other. If there is no father or mother, then one half goes in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of decedent and to the children or grandchildren of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation. If the decedent leaves no issue, nor husband nor wife, the estate must go to his father and mother in equal shares, or if either is dead then to the other;

3. If there is neither issue, husband, wife, father, nor mother then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of decedent and to the children or grandchildren of any deceased brother or sister, by right of representation;

4. If the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife, and neither issue, father, mother, brother, sister, nor the children or grandchildren of a deceased brother or sister, the whole estate goes to the surviving husband or wife;

5. If the decedent leaves neither issue, husband, wife, father, mother, brother, nor sister, the estate must go to the next of kin, in equal degree, excepting that, when there are two or more collateral kindred, in equal degree, but claiming through different ancestors, those who claim through the nearest ancestor must be preferred to those claiming through an ancestor more remote;

6. If the decedent leaves several children, or one child and the issue of one or more children, and any such surviving child dies under age and not having been married, all the estate that came to the deceased child by inheritance from such decedent descends in equal shares to the other children of the same parent and to the issue of any such other children who are dead, by right of representation;

7. If, at the death of such child, who dies under age, not having been married, all the other children of his parents are also dead, and any of them has left issue, the estate that came to such child by inheritance from his parent descends to the issue of all other children of the same parent; and if all the issue are in the same degree of kindred to the child, they share the estate equally, otherwise they take according to the right of representation;

8. If the deceased is a widow, or widower, and leaves no issue, and the estate, or any portion thereof, was common property of such decedent and his or her deceased spouse, while such spouse was living, such property goes in equal shares to the children of such deceased spouse and to the descendants of such children by right of representation, and if none, then one-half of such common property goes to the father and mother of such decedent in equal shares, or to the survivor of them if either be dead, or if both be dead, then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of such decedent and to the descendants of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation, and the other half goes to the father and mother of such deceased spouse in equal shares, or to the survivor of them if either be dead, or if both be dead, then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of such deceased spouse and to the descendants of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation.

If the estate, or any portion thereof, was separate property of such deceased spouse, while living, and came to such decedent from such spouse by descent, devise, or bequest, such property goes in equal shares to the children of such spouse and to the descendants of any deceased child by right of representation, and if none, then to the father and mother of such spouse, in equal shares, or to the survivor of them if either be dead, or if both be dead, then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of such spouse and to the descendants of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation.

9. If the decedent leaves no husband, wife, or kindred, and there are no heirs to take his estate or any portion thereof, under subdivision eight of this section, the same escheats to the state for the support of the common schools.

CHAPTER 298.

An act to provide for drainage by irrigation districts.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any irrigation district heretofore organized or hereafter to be organized under the laws relating to such districts may provide for any and all drainage made necessary by the irrigation provided for by such laws; and the officers, agents and employes of such districts shall have the same powers, duties and liabilities respecting such drainage, and the construction, repair, maintenance, management and control thereof as they now have or may hereafter have respecting such irrigation, and all laws respecting such irrigation or such irrigation districts shall be so construed, applied and enforced as to apply to such drainage as well as such irrigation.

Irrigation district may provide for drainage.

SEC. 2. Whenever it appears necessary, or proper, or beneficial to the lands affected thereby, to drain such lands or any portion thereof on account of the irrigation which has been done, or which is intended to be done under such laws, whether for the purpose of more beneficially carrying on such irrigation, or to protect such districts from liability by reason of such irrigation, whether the irrigation works have already been constructed or not, it shall be the duty of the board of directors to provide for such drainage, and said board and its officers, agents and employes shall do all necessary and proper acts for the construction, repair, maintenance and management of drainage work for such purpose.

Duty of board of directors.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 299.

An act to add a new section to an act entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns and municipal corporations, for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction or completion thereof" which became a law February 25, 1901, relating to the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns and municipal corporations, for municipal improvements, to be known as section 12½ and providing for the validation of proceedings taken by cities, towns and municipal corporations, for the incurring of indebtedness for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, completing or repairing any wharf or wharves, and making valid any such indebtedness incurred or any bond which has been or may be issued in pursuance of any such proceedings.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Incurring indebtedness by municipal corporations.

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the act referred to in the title hereof entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction or completion thereof," and which became a law February 25, 1901, to be known as and numbered section 12½, and to read as follows:

Proceedings prior to this act declared valid.

Section 12½. All proceedings which may have been prior to the passage of this act, taken by any city, town or municipal corporation, incorporated under the laws of this state, in the manner prescribed by the said act of which this act is amendatory, for the incurring of indebtedness for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, completing or repairing any wharf or wharves, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be valid as fully as though the incurring of indebtedness for such purpose had been expressly authorized by said act, and any and all indebtedness incurred, or which may hereafter be incurred, by any such city, town or municipal corporation, or any bonds which may have been or may hereafter be issued pursuant to any such proceedings so taken or had shall be and the same are hereby declared to be valid, as fully as though the creation of said indebtedness or the issuance of said bonds had been expressly authorized by said act.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 300.

An act to amend section 3415 of the Political Code, relating to actions to determine the right to purchase state lands.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section thirty-four hundred and fifteen of the Political Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

3415. After such order is made, either party may bring an action in the superior court of the county in which the land in question is situated, to determine the conflict, and the production of a certified copy of the entry, made by either the surveyor-general or register, gives the court full and complete jurisdiction to hear and determine the action. Any person, legally qualified to purchase from the state public lands of the same character as the land involved in said action, may, after such order of reference has been made, present to the surveyor-general his application, in due form as required by law, to purchase said land, or any part thereof not less than the smallest legal subdivision, and upon presenting to the court in which such action is pending, a certificate of the surveyor-general, showing that such application has been so presented and a certified copy of such application, the court may, at any time before the trial, upon such terms as may be just, allow such party to intervene in the action and contest the right of any other party thereto to purchase the land applied for by the intervenor, and to have his own right determined. Provided that when any contest arises as provided for in this section, and section 3414 of this code, there must be filed with the surveyor-general a statement by the contestant of the grounds of contest, and such statement, other than as to matters of record or law, must be corroborated by the affidavit of some competent person having personal knowledge of the facts set forth therein.

Contest of right to purchase state lands, how disposed of.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 301.

An act authorizing the superintendent of state printing to have prepared and printed an index of all the laws of California, 1850-1907 inclusive.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Printing
index of all the laws.

SECTION 1. The superintendent of state printing is hereby authorized and directed to have printed a complete index of all the laws of California, eighteen hundred and fifty to nineteen hundred and seven, both dates inclusive, as the same shall be prepared by the commissioner for the revision and reform of the laws.

Number of copies to be printed.

SEC. 2. There shall be printed the same number of copies of the index as is printed of the Statutes of California, and the distribution and sale of the same shall be made under the laws governing the distribution and sale of the Statutes of California.

Cost of printing.

SEC. 3. The cost of compilation and printing of the index shall be paid out of the appropriation made for the support of the state printing office; provided, however, that the state board of examiners shall have the authority to invite bids of outside printing houses for the publication of said index, and in case any bid so obtained is less than the cost of said printing as estimated by the office of the state superintendent of printing, said printing may be awarded to said outside printing house making a lower bid than said cost as so estimated; and provided, further, that said board of examiners shall have authority to reject all bids of said outside printing houses.

Bids.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 302.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act creating a board of bank commissioners, and prescribing their duties and powers," approved March 24, 1903, as amended March 20, 1905, by amending certain sections thereof, and adding two new sections thereto, and repealing section 580 of the Civil Code.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Board of bank commissioners.

SECTION 1. Section eight of an act entitled "An act creating a board of bank commissioners, and prescribing their duties and powers," approved March 24, 1903, and amended March 20, 1905, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 8. Any corporation mentioned in section three of this act, including banks in liquidation or insolvency, shall, whenever required by the board of bank commissioners, make a report in writing to the commissioners, verified by the oath of its president and its secretary, or cashier, or its two principal officers. Said report shall show the actual financial condition of the corporation making the report at the close of any past day by the commission specified, by stating:

Banks to make verified report whenever required.

First—The amount of its capital stock, and the number of shares into which it is divided; or, if not incorporated, the amount of capital actually paid in and by whom.

What report shall show.

Second—The names of the directors, and the number of shares of stock held by each; or, if not incorporated, the names of each member of the firm and the amount of capital stock paid in by each.

Third—The total amount actually paid in, in money, by stockholders for capital stock, and the total amount of contingent and other reserve funds, if any.

Fourth—The total amount due to depositors.

Fifth—The total amount and character of any other liabilities it may have.

Sixth—The amount at which the lot and building, occupied by the bank for the transaction of its regular business, stands debited on its books, together with the market value of all other real estate held, whether acquired in settlement of loans or otherwise; the amount at which it stands debited on the bank books; in what county situated, and in what name the title is vested, if not in the name of the corporation itself.

Seventh—The amount loaned on real estate, specifying the amount secured on real estate in each county separately; also, specifying the name of the person in whose name the property is held in trust, or as security, in case it is held in any name other than that of the bank, and the instrument creating the security does not of itself disclose the name of the bank.

Eighth—The amount invested in bonds, designating each particular class, and the amount thereof.

Ninth—The amount loaned on stocks and bonds, designating each particular class, and the amount thereof.

Tenth—The amount of money loaned on other securities, with a particular designation of each class, and the amount loaned on each.

Eleventh—The actual amount of money on hand or deposited in any other bank or place, with the name of the place where deposited, and the amount in each place.

Twelfth—Any other property held or any amount of money loaned, deposited, invested, or placed, not otherwise herein enumerated, with the place where situate, and the value of such property, and the amount so loaned, deposited, or placed.

The oaths of the officers to the statements above required shall state that they, and each of them, have a personal knowledge of the matters therein contained, and that they believe every allegation, statement, matter, and thing therein contained is true; and any willfully false statement in the premises shall be perjury, and shall be punished as such. The reports as provided for by this section shall by the commissioner be required from each and every corporation herein mentioned at least three times in each year, and shall be transmitted to the commissioners within five days after the receipt from them of a request or requisition therefor.

False statements, perjury.

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to said act and is hereby numbered section ten and one half so as to read as follows:

Commissioners have powers of trustees.

Section 10 $\frac{1}{2}$. When the bank commissioners shall have taken control of a bank, banking company or banking corporation, with possession of its property and assets, pursuant to the provisions of the preceding section, they shall have full power to sell any portions which they deem perishable, to realize on securities where they deem depreciation of value to be imminent, to preserve liens of any and every kind, protect the property from waste, dissipation, and tax liens and in this behalf they shall have all the powers of trustees of an implied trust, otherwise, they shall preserve all the property intact, so near as may be, until the final determination of the action in the preceding section provided.

SEC. 3. Section eleven of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Salaries of commissioners.

Section 11. The bank commissioners shall each receive a salary of three thousand six hundred dollars per annum, and necessary traveling expenses, not to exceed, for the four commissioners, the sum of five thousand dollars per annum, to be audited by the state controller and paid by the state treasurer, in the same manner as the salaries and expenses of other state officers. No person while holding any other office, or engaged in business of any kind requiring his personal attention between the hours of nine A. M. and four P. M. shall serve as bank commissioner.

SEC. 4. Section thirteen of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Secretary,
his salary and duties

Section 13. The bank commissioners shall have the power to appoint a secretary, at a salary of three hundred ($300) dollars per month. It shall be the duty of the secretary, whenever required by the bank commissioners, to visit and make personally a full examination of any corporation mentioned in section three (3) of this act and report its conditions to the bank commissioners, and the secretary shall be allowed his actual expenditures necessarily incurred in making such examination and report, and for this purpose the secretary of the bank commissioners is hereby empowered to administer oaths. The said commissioners shall keep their office open for business from nine o'clock A. M. until four o'clock P. M. every day, except non-judicial days. They shall procure rooms necessary for their office, at a rent not to exceed two hundred ($200) dollars per month. They may also provide stationery, fuel and other conveniences necessary for the transaction of their duties, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of seven thousand five hundred ($7,500) dollars per annum, for the hours.

Office

Expenses.

year 1907 they may provide furniture and furnishings in the sum of twenty-seven hundred ($2700) dollars to replace furniture destroyed by fire on April 18, 1906; and they shall cause their annual reports to the governor of this state to be printed by the lowest bidder and distributed, at a cost not to exceed two thousand ($2,000) dollars per annum, and which printing shall be exempt from the provisions of Article XII, Chapter III, Title I, Part III of the Political Code. All expenditures authorized in this section shall be audited and paid in the same manner as the salary of the commissioners.

Annual reports.

SEC. 5. Section fifteen of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 15. To pay the salaries, the cost of printing the bank commissioners' annual reports, and all other necessary expenses of the commissioners, as provided for in this act, every corporation, person, or partnership receiving a license shall pay annually therefor, in advance, to the commissioners, in gold coin, the sum of forty ($40) dollars for each place of business. The cost of such licenses shall be pro rated for such proportional number of months as the license is to run, and all of such licenses shall be due and payable on the first day of July in each year and shall expire on the thirtieth day of the following June. To meet the balance of such expenses, after deducting therefrom the amount received from licenses, each of said corporations, persons and partnerships shall pay annually, in advance, to the commissioners, in gold coin, its, his, or their share of the amount of said balance; the share to be paid by any such corporation, person, or partnership to be determined by the proportion which the deposits of any such corporation, person or partnership bear to the aggregate deposits of all such corporations, persons or partnerships receiving licenses, as shown by the latest reports of such corporations, persons and partnerships to the commissioners. Said commissioners shall, on demand made therefor, and without charge, furnish to every corporation, society, association, company, institution, partnership, person or persons, mentioned in this act, copies of papers, statements and reports filed in their office, and may, as provided by this act, recover any and all moneys payable to them by any corporation, association, society, company, institution, partnership, person or persons herein mentioned; and all moneys collected or received by such bank commissioners, or either of them, under or by virtue of the provisions herein, shall be by them delivered to the treasurer of this state, who shall pay the same into a fund which is hereby created, and which shall be known as the "bank commissioners' fund." And the unexpended balances of all moneys heretofore paid into the state treasury by said bank commissioners shall be transferred to said fund and become a part thereof.

Salaries and expenses, how paid.

Copies of papers.

Disposition of moneys collected.

SEC. 6. Section eighteen of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 18. The bank commissioners may sue for and recover, in the name of the people, in any court of competent Commissioners may sue.

jurisdiction, all sums of money which become due, payable, or forfeited by any of the provisions of this act. Except as provided in this statute, the provisions of Part II of the Code of Civil Procedure are applicable to and constitute the rules of practice in proceedings mentioned in this section.

Sec. 7. A new section is hereby added to the said act and is hereby numbered section nineteen a so as to read as follows:

Amount of paid-in capital required of banks.

Section 19*a*. Every person, company, or corporation, except savings and loan corporations, which is now transacting or which may hereafter transact the business of a bank, or banking corporation, must at all times have actually paid in a capital equal to at least ten per cent of the total amount owing to the depositors, banks and bankers, and to its creditors by such bank, or banking corporation; provided that the minimum amount of such capital, to be actually paid in, shall in no instance be less than the sum of twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars; and provided further that the maximum amount of such capital, so required to be actually paid in, shall, in no instance, be required to exceed the sum of one million ($1,000,000) dollars. The bank commissioners of the State of California shall not issue to any bank or banking corporation a license to transact business until this section shall be complied with, and said commissioners shall thereafter have full power to make such order, or orders, from time to time, as may be necessary to compel a full compliance with the provisions thereof, and may, in this behalf, revoke any and all licenses heretofore or hereafter granted. In construing the provisions of this section, net surplus shall be treated and considered as part of the paid in capital.

Sec. 580 of Civil Code
repealed.

SEC. 8. Section five hundred eighty of the Civil Code and all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 9. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 303.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to establish a Code of Civil Procedure," approved March 11, 1872, by amending section 1192 thereof, relating to liens upon real property and the improvements thereon.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eleven hundred and ninety-two of an act entitled "An act to establish a Code of Civil Procedure," approved March eleventh, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

1192. Every building or other improvement mentioned in section one thousand one hundred and eighty-three of this code, constructed upon any lands with the knowledge of the owner, or the person having or claiming any interest therein, and the work or labor of every character whatsoever done and materials furnished, mentioned in said section, upon, in or to any mining claim or claims, or real property worked as a mine, with the knowledge of the owner, or the person having or claiming any interest therein, shall be held to have been constructed, performed or furnished at the instance of such owner or person having or claiming any interest therein, and the interest owned or claimed shall be subject to any lien filed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, unless such owner or person having or claiming any interest therein shall, within ten days after he shall obtain knowledge of the construction, alteration, repair, or work or labor, give notice that he will not be responsible for the same, by posting a notice in writing to that effect, in some conspicuous place upon the said land or mining claim or claims, or upon the building or other improvements situated thereon, or file and record a copy of such notice in the office of the county recorder of the county wherein such mining claim or real property worked as a mine is situate. And all mining machinery placed upon or in any mining claim or claims, or real property used as a mine, under a lease or other agreement by the terms of which such machinery shall not lose its identity as the personal property of the lessor, and which is used in the operation and working of such mining claim or claims, or real property used as a mine, shall be deemed to be a fixture attached to such mining claim or claims, or real property used as a mine, for the purposes only of the lien hereinbefore mentioned, and shall be subject to such lien, unless such lessor shall within ten days after such machinery shall have been delivered at such mining claim or claims, or real property used as a mine, file and record such lease or other agreement in the office of the county recorder of the county in which such machinery shall be used as aforesaid; or within said ten days shall post a notice in some conspicuous place in some building on said mining claim wherein said machinery is to be used, stating therein that said machinery is the property of said lessor and has been leased or contracted to be sold to the person operating said mine, and that said machinery will not be liable for any lien provided for in this chapter. Any person performing labor on such mining claim or real property worked as a mine may post and keep posted in a conspicuous place thereon a notice containing the substance of either or both of the notices above provided and it shall be a misdemeanor for any person to take down, remove or deface such notice.

Improvement held constructed at instance of owner.

Owner's notice of non-liability.

Rights of lessor.

Lessor's notice of non-liability.

CHAPTER 304.

An act to repeal section 384 of the Civil Code, relating to the power of the legislature to repeal Part IV of Division First of said code, or any title, chapter, article, or section thereof.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Sec. 384 of Civil Code
repealed.

SECTION 1. Section three hundred and eighty-four of the Civil Code is hereby repealed; provided however, that this shall not be deemed to repeal or otherwise affect section four hundred and four of said code; and provided further that no rights acquired under the provisions of said section three hundred and eighty-four shall be affected hereby, but the same shall be continued in force under the provisions of said section four hundred and four.

CHAPTER 305.

An act to amend section fourteen hundred ninety-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to claims against the estates of deceased persons.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section fourteen hundred ninety-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Claims barred by statute of limitations.

1499. No claim must be allowed by the executor or administrator, or by a judge of the superior court, which is barred by the statute of limitations. When a claim is presented to a judge for his allowance, he may, in his discretion, examine the claimant and others, on oath, and hear any legal evidence touching the validity of the claim. No claim against any estate, which has been presented and allowed, is affected by the statute of limitations, pending the proceedings for the settlement of the estate.

CHAPTER 306.

An act to amend section 593 of the Civil Code, relating to the formation of corporations for purposes other than profit.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 593 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

593. Any number of persons associated together for any purpose, where pecuniary profit is not their object, and for which individuals may lawfully associate themselves, may, in accordance with the rules, regulations, or discipline of the association, elect directors, the number thereof to be not less than three nor more than twenty-one, and may incorporate themselves as provided in this title.

Formation of corporations not for profit.

CHAPTER 307.

An act to amend section nine hundred and fifty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the dismissal of appeals.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section nine hundred and fifty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

954. If the appellant fails to furnish the requisite papers, the appeal may be dismissed; but no appeal can be dismissed for insufficiency of the undertaking, if a good and sufficient undertaking, approved by a justice of the supreme court be filed in the supreme court, or (where the appeal is pending before a district court of appeal either by direct appeal thereto or by transfer thereto by the supreme court) if a good and sufficient undertaking, approved by a justice of said district court of appeal, be filed in said district court, before the hearing upon motion to dismiss the appeal. When it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the court or a judge thereof, from which the appeal was taken, that a surety or sureties upon an appeal bond from any cause has or have become insufficient, and the bond or undertaking inadequate as security for the payment of the judgment appealed from, or that the bond has been lost or destroyed, the last named court, or a judge thereof, may order the giving of a new bond with sufficient sureties, as a condition to the maintenance of the appeal. The said bond or undertaking shall be approved by the last-named court, or a judge thereof; and in case said sureties fail to justify before said last-named court, or a judge thereof, or fail to comply with the order to appear and justify, execution may issue upon the judgment as if no undertaking to stay execution had been given.

When an appeal may be dismissed; when not.

CHAPTER 308.

An act to amend sections 2787 and 2789 of the Political Code, and to add a new section thereto to be known as section 2802, relating to the construction of toll roads.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2787 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Acquisition of lands for toll roads.

2787. Lands, roadways, and rights to the use of land necessary for the purposes of the toll road or its appurtenances may be acquired by gift, purchase, transfer, or consent, or by condemnation as hereinabove provided for. If after any toll road company has actually constructed its road over any land, adverse claim be made to such land, the company may, without making the application to the board of supervisors hereinabove provided for, acquire the right of way for said road over such land by condemnation in the manner provided for in Title VII of the Code of Civil Procedure. Lands within any public highway may be granted by the board of supervisors or town or city authorities on such terms and for such sums as may be agreed upon.

SEC. 2. Section 2789 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Plat must be made before tolls are fixed.

2789. When the company has obtained all necessary lands, roadways, and rights of way in any county by gift, purchase, transfer, consent or agreement, the road may be constructed or completed without making the application to the board of supervisors hereinbefore provided for; but before the supervisors fix the tolls to be taken on such road, an accurate survey or plat of the road must be made by a practical surveyor, signed and sworn to by the president and secretary, and filed for record in the county clerk's office of each county through which the road passes.

SEC. 3. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be known as section 2802, and to read as follows:

Provisions apply to all toll roads.

2802. The provisions of this article apply to all toll roads, whether owned by companies, corporations, or natural persons, and include toll roads constructed or to be constructed and operated for the use of light vehicles for the carriage of persons, and for the use of automobiles and other horseless vehicles.

CHAPTER 309.

An act to repeal section eleven of the Political Code, relating to holidays.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eleven of the Political Code is hereby repealed. Sec. 11 of Political Code repealed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 310.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code, to be known as section thirty-five thereof, relating to the conveying to the United States of state lands covered by navigable waters.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be known as section thirty-five thereof, and to read as follows:

35. The governor, on application therefor by a duly authorized agent, may convey to the United States any tract of land not exceeding ten acres, belonging to the state and covered by navigable waters, for the site of a lighthouse, beacon, or other aid to navigation. After such conveyance the United States shall have jurisdiction over such tract, subject to the right of the state to have concurrent jurisdiction so far that all process, civil or criminal, issued under authority of the state may be executed by the proper officers thereof within such tract, upon any person or persons amenable to the same, in like manner and with like effect as if such conveyance had not been made. Conveyance of state lands for lighthouse sites.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 311.

An act to repeal Article XIII of Chapter III of Title I of Part III of the Political Code, relative to state geologist.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Secs. 548 to 554 of Political Code repealed.

SECTION 1. Article XIII of Chapter III of Title I of Part III of the Political Code and every section in said article contained are hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 312.

An act to add two new sections to the Political Code to be known as sections four hundred and forty-four and four hundred and sixty-one thereof, both relating to the general fund.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be known as section four hundred and forty-four thereof, and to read as follows:

State general fund, transfer of moneys to.

444. The controller must, when the general fund of the state treasury is exhausted, and there is money in some other fund not required to meet any demand which has accrued or may accrue against it, report such fact to the governor and the treasurer. If they find that the money is not needed in such other fund, the governor may order the controller to direct the transfer of such money, or any part thereof, to the general fund. All money so transferred must be returned to the fund from which it was transferred as soon as there is sufficient money in the general fund to return it. Nothing in this section warrants the transfer of any money from any fund so as to in any manner interfere with the object for which such fund was created.

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code to be known as section four hundred and sixty-one thereof, and to read as follows:

Payment of salaries when general fund is exhausted.

461. When the general fund is exhausted, the state treasurer may advance out of any public fund in his charge, moneys on the controller's warrants, drawn for the salaries of public officers, entitled to monthly payments from the state, keeping such warrants as his vouchers until there is money in the general fund to cancel them, and to place them to his credit; but he must not take any money out of any fund against which there is any warrant then due, or which may become due, nor in any way keep claimants from their just demands.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 313.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code to be known as section four hundred and fifty-three a thereof, relating to donations to the state.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code to be known as section four hundred and fifty-three a thereof, and to read as follows:

453a. Whenever any person donates to the state any money, the state treasurer is hereby authorized, upon the receipt of a certificate from the controller, to receive the same; and in case the donor, at the time of making the donation, designates, in writing, the fund he desires to benefit thereby, such donation must be appropriated accordingly, but if no such designation is made, then it must be paid into the common school fund.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 314.

An act to repeal section three hundred and sixty-seven of the Political Code, relating to state prisons.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred and sixty-seven of the Political Code is hereby repealed.

Sec. 367 of Political Code
repealed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 315.

An act to amend section three hundred and sixty-four of the Political Code, relating to the board of examiners.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred and sixty-four of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

State board of examiners.

364. The board of examiners consists of the governor, the secretary of state, the attorney-general, or during his absence from the capital, the assistant attorney-general. The secretary of the board is ex officio a member thereof, to act only in the absence from the capital of any two of the members.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 316.

An act to repeal section three hundred and forty-nine of the Political Code, relating to state printer.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Sec. 349 of Political Code
repealed.

SECTION 1. Section three hundred and forty-nine of the Political Code is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 317.

An act to add a new title to Part III of the Penal Code, to be known as Title I thereof, relating to the government and management of state prisons.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

State prisons.

SECTION 1. A new title is hereby added to Part III of the Penal Code, to be known as Title I thereof, and to read as follows:

TITLE I.

OF STATE PRISONS.

1572. The state prisons of this state shall be known as the State Prison at San Quentin, which shall have an official staff conforming to the laws of the state in relation to state prisons; and the State Prison at Folsom, which shall have a similar staff and be similarly organized, and all the finances and accounts of the two prisons shall be kept separate and apart from each other.

Names of state prisons.

1573. For the government and management of the state prisons there shall be appointed by the governor, by and under the advice of the senate, five directors, who shall hold their office for the term of ten years, from and after the date of such appointment; such appointments to be made as vacancies occur in the board. In case of death or resignation of a director his successor shall be appointed to fill the unexpired term of such director by the governor, by and with the advice of the senate. Each director shall subscribe an oath of office, which shall be indorsed on his commission, within ten days after receiving written notice of such appointment, and a duplicate of such oath shall also be filed with the secretary of state.

Directors,
how appointed.

1574. The board of directors shall annually elect one of their members president of the board, whose duty it shall be to preside at the meeting of the board and to perform such other duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the rules and regulations for the government of the board.

Organization
of board.

1575. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business, but no order of the board shall be valid unless concurred in by three or more members.

Quorum.

Duties of directors.

1576. It shall be the duty of the directors to determine the necessary officers and employés of the prisons other than those of the wardens and clerks, specifying their duties severally, and fixing their salaries; to prescribe rules and regulations for the government of the prisons, and to revise and change the same from time to time as circumstances may require, and to board and lodge the officers and employés, or allow them a money commutation in lieu thereof; provided, the warden may make temporary rules, in cases of emergency, to remain in force until the succeeding meeting of the board. At least three of the directors shall visit the prisons once in each month, and oftener if necessary, at such time as they may select. The directors shall audit all claims for supplies, services, and expenses of officers and employés, and all other demands against the prison.

Record of official acts.

Second—To enter or cause to be entered on their journal by the clerks all official acts which shall be signed by at least three members of the board.

Annual reports.

Third—On or before the first day of December of each year to report to the governor the condition of the prisons, together with detailed statements of receipts and expenditures, and such suggestions concerning the prisoners as may appear to be necessary and expedient.

Rules and regulations.

Fourth—The board of directors shall also adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and the laws of the State of California for the government of the board, and may change the same at their pleasure.

Place of office.

Fifth—The board of directors shall have power to establish an office in San Francisco, and employ a secretary.

Appointment of wardens.

1577. The board of directors shall appoint a warden for each prison, who shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation faithfully to discharge the duties of his office, as prescribed by law and by the rules and regulations of the board of directors, and to enter into a bond to the State of California, in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the directors and the attorney-general of the state, conditioned to the faithful performance of such duties as such officer aforesaid, and he shall hold his office four years after such appointment.

Duties of wardens.

1578. The wardens shall reside at the state prisons to which they are respectively assigned in houses provided and furnished at the expense of the state, as may be ordered by the board of directors, and it shall be their duty:

To fill subordinate positions.

First—To fill all subordinate positions that may be created by order of the board of directors by appointment of suitable persons thereto.

To prosecute suits at law.

Second—Under the order and direction of the board to prosecute all suits at law or in equity that may be necessary to protect the rights of the state in matters or property connected with the prisons and their management, such suits to be prosecuted in the name of the board of state prison directors.

Third—To supervise the government, discipline, and police of the prisons, and to enforce all orders and regulations of the board in respect to such prisons. A registry of convicts shall be kept by them respectively, in which shall be entered the name of each convict, the crime of which he is convicted, the period of his sentence, from what county sentenced, by what court sentenced, his nativity, to what degree educated, at what institution and under what system, an accurate description of his person, and whether he has been previously confined in a state prison in this or any other state, and if so, when and how he was discharged.

To supervise the prisons.

Fourth—To report to the governor before the twentieth of each month the names of all prisoners whose terms are about to expire, giving in such report the terms of their sentences, the date of imprisonment, the amount of total credits to the date of such report, and the date when their service would expire by limitation of sentence.

To report monthly to governor.

Fifth—To perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors.

Other duties.

1579. The governor, at the expiration of the term for which any prisoner has been sentenced, less the number of days allowed and credited to him, must order the release of such prisoner, by an order under his hand, addressed to the warden of the prison in which he has been confined, in such mode and form as he may deem proper, and with or without restoration to citizenship, according to his discretion, and if he order the release of such prisoner without restoration to citizenship, he may at any time thereafter, in his discretion, make a further order restoring to citizenship the prisoner so released.

Prisoners, release and restoration of to citizenship.

1580. The board of directors shall appoint a clerk for each prison, who shall take an oath of office and enter into a bond to the state, with sureties satisfactory to the board, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned that they will faithfully discharge the duties required of them. The clerks shall hold their office for the period of four years after such appointments. The clerks shall keep the accounts of the prisons to which they are severally appointed, in such manner as to exhibit clearly all its financial transactions; and the clerks shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be required of them by the board of directors.

Appointment and duties of clerks.

1581. No person shall be appointed to any office by the wardens or be employed in the prisons on behalf of the state who is a contractor or agent, or who is interested directly or indirectly in any business carried on therein; and no male person who is not a qualified elector of the State of California shall be appointed by the wardens to any office in or about the prisons, nor shall any be appointed or employed by virtue of this title, who is in the habit of intemperate use of liquors, and a single act of intemperance shall justify his discharge or removal, and it shall be the duty of such warden to discharge such person. Wardens and clerks may be removed

Removal of wardens, clerks, etc.

by the board of directors at any time for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty; and all other officers and employés may be removed at any time at the pleasure of the wardens.

Salaries of wardens and clerks.

1582. The wardens shall receive a salary of not less than twenty-four hundred dollars, and not to exceed three thousand dollars, per annum, in the discretion of the board of directors. The clerks shall receive a salary not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum, and all other officers and employés shall receive such compensation as the directors may deem just and equitable in each case.

Contracts for supplies.

1583. The board of directors are hereby authorized and required to contract for provisions, clothing, medicines, forage, fuel, and all other staple supplies needed for the support of the prisons for any period of time, not exceeding one year, and such contracts shall be limited to bona fide dealers in the several classes of articles contracted for. Contracts for such articles as the board may desire to contract for, shall be given to the lowest bidder at a public letting thereof, if the price bid is a fair and reasonable one, and not greater than the usual market value and prices. Each bid shall be accompanied by such security as the board may require, conditional upon the bidder entering into a contract upon the terms of his bid, on notice of the acceptance thereof, and furnishing a penal bond with good and sufficient sureties in such sum as the board may require, and to their satisfaction that he will faithfully perform his contract. If the proper officer of the prison reject any article, as not complying with the contract, or if a bidder fail to furnish the articles awarded to him when required, the proper officer of the prison may buy other articles of the kind rejected or called for, in the open market, and deduct the price thereof, over the contract price, from the amount due to the bidder, or charge the same up against him.

Notice of letting of contracts.

Notice of the time, place, and conditions of the letting of contracts shall be given for at least two consecutive weeks in two newspapers printed and published in the city and county of San Francisco, and in one newspaper printed and published in the city of Sacramento, and in the county where the prison to be supplied is situated. If all the bids made at such letting are deemed unreasonably high, the board may, in their discretion, decline to contract and may again advertise for such time and in such papers as they see proper for proposals, and may so continue to renew the advertisement until satisfactory contracts are made; and in the meantime the board may contract with any one whose offer is regarded as just and equitable, or may purchase in the open market. No bid shall be accepted, nor a contract entered into in pursuance thereof, when such bid is higher than any other bid at the same letting for the same class or schedule of articles, quality considered, and when a contract can be had at such lower bid. When two or more bids for the same article or articles are equal in amount, the board may select the one which, all things considered, may by them be thought best for the interest of the state, or they may divide the contract between the bidders, as in their judgment may seem proper and right. The board shall have power to let a contract in the aggregate or they may segregate the items, and enter into a contract with the bidder or bidders who may bid lowest on the several articles. The board shall have the power to reject the bid of any person who had a prior contract, and who had not, in the opinion of the board, faithfully complied therewith.

1584. All moneys received or collected by the warden of San Quentin prison shall be reported to the state controller on the first day of each and every month in such form as the controller may require, and at the same time shall be paid into the general fund of the state treasury on the order of the controller, except so much thereof as shall be necessary to be paid into the jute revolving fund as required by the provisions of an act of the legislature approved March 9th, 1885, and amended March 16th, 1889, and of any other act amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. All moneys received or collected by the warden of Folsom prison shall be reported to the state controller on the first day of each and every month in such form as the controller may require and at the same time shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the Folsom state prison fund, excepting so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the expenses and money allowed discharged prisoners under the provisions of this title. The wardens shall require vouchers for all moneys by them expended and safely keep the same on file in their respective offices at the prisons. For all sums of money required to be paid other than for the uses above named, as well as for said uses when there is not sufficient money in the hands of the warden, drafts shall be drawn on the controller of state, signed by at least three of the directors, and the controller of state shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer who shall pay the same out of any moneys belonging to the state prison fund or appropriated for the use or support of the state prisons. The amount of all money retained by the wardens and the aggregate amount paid out shall be reported quarterly to the controller of state and the proper entries shall be made on the controller's books.

Disposition of moneys collected by wardens.

Money allowed discharged prisoners.

1585. All revenues of the prisons, unless in this title otherwise provided, shall be paid to the wardens, who alone are authorized to receipt for the same and discharge from liability. When any sum of money is paid to the wardens, who alone are authorized to receipt for the same and discharge from liability, they shall cause the same to be properly entered on the books by the clerks. On payment of any moneys into the state treasury, as provided in this title, the wardens and state treasurer shall report to the controller of state the amount so paid, and the state treasurer shall give the wardens a receipt therefor, which receipt shall be filed with the controller. The wardens shall report to the controller of state the amount of money paid into said treasury by them during each month, and shall also report to said controller of state the amounts received and disbursed by them every three months, and during the period for which such report shall be made, which quarterly report shall be signed by the warden and at least three of the directors.

Moneys collected by wardens, receipts to be given for.

Employment of convicts.

1586. All convicts may be employed by authority of the board of directors, under charge of the wardens respectively and such skilled foremen as he may deem necessary in the performance of work for the state, or in the manufacture of any article or articles for the state, or the manufacture of which is sanctioned by law. At San Quentin no articles shall be manufactured for sale except jute fabrics. At Folsom after the completion of the dam and canal the board may commence the erection of structures for jute manufacturing purposes. The board of directors are hereby authorized to purchase from time to time such tools, machinery, and materials, and to direct the employment of such skilled foremen as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section, and to dispose of the articles manufactured, and not needed by the state, for cash, at private sale, in such manner as provided by law.

Treatment of prisoners.

1587. In the treatment of the prisoners the following general rules shall be observed :

First—Each convict shall be provided with a bed of straw or other suitable material, and sufficient covering of blankets, and shall be supplied with garments of coarse, substantial material, of distinctive manufacture, and with sufficient plain and wholesome food of such variety as may be most conducive to good health.

Second—No punishment shall be inflicted except by the order and under the direction of the wardens.

Third—The warden shall keep a correct account of all money and valuables upon the prisoner when delivered at the prison, and shall pay the amount, or the proceeds thereof, or return the same to the convict when discharged, or to his legal representative in case of his death; and in the case of the death of such convict without being released, if no legal representative shall demand such property within five years, the same shall be paid into the state prison fund.

Fourth—The rules and regulations prescribing the duties and obligations of the prisoners shall be printed and hung up in each cell and shop.

Fifth—Each convict, when he leaves the prison, shall be supplied with the money taken from him when he entered, and which he has not disposed of, together with any sum which may have been earned by him for his own account, allowed to him by the state for good conduct or diligent labor, or may have been presented to him from any source; and, in case the prisoner has not funds sufficient for present purposes, he shall be furnished with five dollars in money, a suit of clothes, costing not more than ten dollars, and by the cheapest route to the place where sentenced from, if the prisoner desires to return there, or to any other place of the same cost; and he shall be entitled, if he so elect, to immunity from having his hair cut, or from being shaved, for three calendar months immediately prior to his discharge. It shall not be lawful for the officers of the prison to furnish, or permit to be furnished, to any one, for publication, the name of any prisoner about to be discharged. When the warden, and such other officers as may be designated by the directors to act with him in such cases, shall be of opinion that any convict is insane, they shall make proper examination, and if they remain of the opinion that such person is insane, the warden shall certify the fact to the superintendent of one of the state asylums for the insane, and shall forthwith send such convict to said asylum for care and treatment. If at the expiration of the term of sentence the insane convict is still in the insane asylum, he shall be allowed to remain there until discharged cured. It shall be the duty of the warden, also, to send to the directors a copy of such certificate, and thereafter a statement as to his subsequent acts regarding the said insane convict. And it shall be the duty of the superintendent of the insane asylum to receive such insane convict and keep him until cured. It shall be his duty, upon receipt of such insane convict, to notify the directors of the fact, giving name, date, and where from, and from whose hands received. When, in the opinion of the superintendent, such insane convict is cured of insanity, it shall be his duty to immediately notify the directors thereof; and it shall be his duty also to notify the warden of the prison from whence he was received, who shall immediately send for, take, and receive the said convict back into the prison, the time passed at the asylum counting as a part of such convict's sentence. Before discharging any convict who may be insane at the time of the expiration of his sentence, the warden shall first give notice, in writing, to a judge of the superior court of the county in which the state prison may be located, over which he has control, of the fact of such insanity; whereupon said court shall forthwith make an order, and deliver the same to the sheriff of said county, commanding him to remove such insane convict and take him before said court. Upon the receipt of such order, it shall be the duty of said sheriff, to whom it is directed, to execute, and return the same forthwith to the court by whom it was issued, and thereupon the said court shall cause proper examination to be made by medical experts, and if it shall satisfactorily appear that such convict is insane, said court shall order him to be confined in one of the insane asylums. The sheriff shall receive the same compensation as for transferring a prisoner to the state prison, and to be paid in the same manner. If any judge, after having been notified by the warden, shall neglect to cause such order to be made, as herein provided, or any such sheriff shall neglect to remove such insane convict, as required by the provisions of this section, it shall be the duty of the warden to cause such insane convict to be removed before a superior court of a county in which the state prison is located, in charge of an officer of the prison, or other suitable person, for the purpose of examination; and the cost of such removal shall be paid out of the state treasury, in the same manner as when removed by the sheriff, as in this title provided.

Credits of convicts.

1588. The state board of prison directors shall require of every able-bodied convict confined in a state prison as many hours of faithful labor in each and every day during his term of imprisonment as shall be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the prison. Every convict who shall have no infraction of the rules and regulations of the prison, or laws of the state, recorded against him, and who performs in a faithful, orderly, and peaceable manner the duties assigned to him, shall be allowed from his term, instead and lieu of the credits heretofore allowed by law, a deduction of two months in each of the first two years, four months in each of the next two years, and five months in each of the remaining years of said term, and pro rata for any part of a year, where the sentence is for or more or less than a year. The mode of reckoning credits shall be as shown in the following table:

Schedule of credits.

No. of Years of Sentence.	Good Time Granted.	Total Good Time Made.	Time to be Served if Full Time is Made.
First year ...	2 months..	2 months	10 months.
Second year ...	2 months..	4 months	1 year and 8 months.
Third year ...	4 months..	8 months	2 years and 4 months.
Fourth year ...	4 months..	1 year	3 years.
Fifth year ...	5 months..	1 year and 5 months	3 years and 7 months.
Sixth year ...	5 months..	1 year and 10 months	4 years and 2 months.
Seventh year ...	5 months..	2 years and 3 months	4 years and 9 months.
Eighth year ...	5 months..	2 years and 8 months	5 years and 4 months.
Ninth year ...	5 months..	3 years and 1 month	5 years and 11 months.
Tenth year ...	5 months..	3 years and 6 months	6 years and 5 months.

And so on, through as many years as may be the term of the sentence. Each convict shall be held entitled to these deductions, unless the board of directors shall find that for misconduct or other cause he should not receive them. But if any convict shall commit any assault upon his keeper, or any foreman, officer, convict, or person, or otherwise endanger life, or shall be guilty of any flagrant disregard of the rules of the prison, or commit any misdemeanor, or in any manner violate any of the rules and regulations of the prison, he shall forfeit all deductions of time earned by him for good conduct before the commission of such offense, or that, under this section, he may earn in the future, or shall forfeit such part of such deductions as to the board of directors may seem just; such forfeiture, however, shall be made only by the board of directors after due proof of the offense and notice to the offender; nor shall any forfeiture be imposed when a party has violated any rule or rules without violence or evil intent, of which the directors shall be the sole judges. The board shall have power to restore credits forfeited, for such reasons as by them may seem proper.

Forfeiture of credits.

1589. All criminals sentenced to the state prisons by the authority of the United States shall be received and kept according to the sentence of the court by which they were tried, and the prisoners so confined shall be subject in all respects and discipline and treatment as though committed under the laws of this state. The wardens are hereby authorized to charge and receive from the United States, for the use of the state, an amount sufficient for the support of each prisoner, the cost of all clothing that may be furnished, and one dollar per month for the use of the prisoner. No other or further charge shall be made by any officer for or on account of such prisoners.

United
prisoners.

1590. The board of directors shall have power to contract for the supply of gas and water for said prisons, upon such terms as said board shall deem to be for the best interests of the state, or to manufacture gas, or furnish water themselves, at their option. They shall also have power to erect and construct, or cause to be erected and constructed, electrical apparatus or other illuminating works in their discretion with or without contracting therefor, on such terms as they may deem just. The board shall have full power to erect any building or structure deemed necessary by them, or to alter or improve the same, and to pay for the same from the fund appropriated for the use or support of the prisons, or from the earnings thereof, without advertising or contracting therefor; provided, that no building or structure, the cost of which will exceed five thousand dollars, shall be erected or constructed without first obtaining the consent of the governor, secretary, and treasurer of the state, or a majority thereof. The board shall have power to give for meritorious service to any convict discharged, or about to be discharged, a sum in addition to that already allowed, not exceeding ten dollars.

directors.

1591. No officer or employé shall receive, directly or indirectly, any compensation for his services other than that prescribed by the directors; nor shall he receive any compensation whatever, directly or indirectly, for any act or service which he may do or perform for or on behalf of any contractor, or agent, or employé of a contractor. For any violation of the provisions of this section the officer, agent, or employé of the state shall be discharged from his office or service; and every contractor, or employé, or agent of a contractor engaged therein, shall be expelled from the prison grounds, and not again permitted within the same as a contractor, agent, or employé.

Officers to no other than prescribed compensation.

1592. No officer or employé of the state, or contractor, or employé of a contractor, shall, without permission of the board of directors, make any gift or present to a convict, or receive any from a convict, or have any barter or dealings with a prisoner. For every violation of the provisions of this section, the party engaged therein shall incur the same penalty as prescribed in section one thousand five hundred and ninety-one of this code. No officer or employé of the prison shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract or purchase made or authorized to be made by any one for or on behalf of the prisons.

Number of reports to be printed. 1593. There shall be printed annually for the use of the prisons five hundred copies of the annual report of the board of directors, and the clerk shall annually transmit to each of the state prisons in the United States one copy of such report.

Bonds, where deposited. 1594. All the bonds of officers and employes under this title shall be deposited with the secretary of state.

Buildings destroyed by fire, rebuilding of. 1595. If any of the shops or buildings in which convicts are employed are destroyed in any way, or injured by fire or otherwise, they may be rebuilt or repaired immediately, under the direction of the board of directors, by and with the advice and consent of the governor, attorney-general, and secretary of state, and the expenses thereof paid out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated by law.

Reports to governor. 1596. The board of directors must report to the governor from time to time the names of any and all persons confined in the state prisons who, in their judgment, ought to be pardoned out and set at liberty on account of good conduct, or unusual term of sentence, or any other cause, which, in their opinion, should entitle the prisoner to pardon.

Construction of act. SEC. 2. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to shorten or extend the term of office of any person holding office or employment at the time this act goes into effect under the provisions of an act entitled, "An act to regulate and govern the state prisons of California," approved March 19, 1889, or the acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto.

CHAPTER 318.

An act to amend section 2349 of the Political Code and to repeal section 2351 thereof, both relating to certain streams and waters declared public ways.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Streams and waters declared
navigable.

Clear Lake, in Lake county, provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to interfere with rights of owners and claimants of swamp or overflowed land around the margin of said Clear Lake to reclaim the same.

Sec. 2351
of Political Code
repealed.

SEC. 2. Section twenty-three hundred and fifty-one is hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 319.

An act to repeal section 312 of the Civil Code, as approved March 21st, 1905, and to amend section 312 of said code, as approved March 22, 1905, both relating to elections by stockholders or members in corporations.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Sec. 312 of Civil Code
repealed.

SECTION 1. Section 312 of the Civil Code, as approved March 21st, 1905, is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 312 of the Civil Code, as approved March 22, 1905, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Majority of stock must be represented at elections.

312. At all elections or votes had for any purpose in corporations formed for profit there must be a majority of the subscribed capital stock or of the members represented, either in person or by proxy in writing; provided, that in all instances of corporations formed for purposes other than profit the by-laws shall provide the number of members or stockholders that shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every person acting therein, in person or by proxy or representative, must be a member thereof or a stockholder, having stock in his own name on the stock books of the corporation at least ten days prior to the election. Any vote or election had other than in accordance with the provisions of this article is voidable at the instance of absent or any stockholders or members, and may be set aside by petition to the superior court of the county where the same is held. Any regular or called meeting of the stockholders or members may adjourn from day to day, or from time to time, if for any reason there is not present a majority of the subscribed stock or members, or no election had, such adjournment and the reasons therefor being recorded in the journal of proceedings of the board of directors.

Meeting may adjourn from day to day.

CHAPTER 320.

An act to repeal section 421 of the Civil Code, as approved March 3, 1905, relating to the investment of the capital and accumulations of corporations organized for the transaction of business in any kind of insurance.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four hundred and twenty-one of the Civil Code, as approved March 3, 1905, is hereby repealed. Sec. 421 of Civil Code repealed.

SEC. 2. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to repeal any of the provisions of section four hundred and twenty-one of said code, as approved March 21, 1905, and any rights acquired under said section 421, as approved March 3, 1905, shall be preserved under the provisions of said section 421, as approved March 21, 1905. Rights preserved.

CHAPTER 321.

An act authorizing any incorporated city, town or municipal corporation, to construct, equip, use, maintain and operate any works, road, railroad, tramway, power plant, telephone or telegraph line, or other necessary works or structures, for the preparation, manufacturing, handling or transporting of materials or supplies required in the construction or completion of any public work, improvement or utility, and to lease, acquire, by purchase, condemnation or otherwise, and hold and use lands and other necessary property for said purposes.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any incorporated city, town or municipal corporation in this state is hereby authorized to construct, equip, use, maintain and operate any works, road, railroad, tramway, power plant, telephone or telegraph line, or other necessary works or structures, within or without such city, town or municipal corporation, or the county wherein such city, town or municipal corporation is located, for the preparation, manufacture, handling or transporting of any materials or supplies required in the construction or completion by such city, town or municipal corporation of any public work, improvement or utility, and, for the purpose of constructing, equipping, using, maintaining or operating any such works, road, railroad, tramway, power plant, telephone or telegraph line, or other necessary works or structures, such city, town or municipal corporation is hereby authorized to lease or acquire, by purchase, condemnation or otherwise, and hold and use, any land, rights of way, water, water rights, quarry, gravel bed or other mineral deposits, or any other necessary property, within or without such city, town or municipal corporation, or the county wherein such city, town or municipal corporation is located.

Municipal corporations may acquire and operate works, etc., for construction of public utilities.

Limitation of act.

SEC. 2. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as extending or enlarging any limitation prescribed by law or municipal charter upon taxation, expenditure of public funds, or the incurring of indebtedness, by any city, town or municipal corporation.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 322.

An act to amend section five of "An act regulating the employment and hours of labor of children; prohibiting the employment of minors under certain ages; prohibiting the employment of certain illiterate minors; providing for the enforcement hereof by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics, and providing penalties for the violation hereof," approved February 20th, 1905.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Employment of children.

SECTION 1. Section five of the "Act regulating the employment and hours of labor of children; prohibiting the employment of minors under certain ages; prohibiting the employment of certain illiterate minors; providing for the enforcement hereof by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics; and providing penalties for the violation hereof," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Construction of act.

Section 5. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the employment of minors at agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, or domestic labor, during the time the public schools are not in session, or during other than school hours. For the purpose of this act, horticulture shall be understood to include the curing and drying, but not the canning, of all varieties of fruit.

CHAPTER 323.

An act to amend sections three hundred thirty-seven and three hundred thirty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to time within which certain actions must be commenced.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people in the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred thirty-seven of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

337. Within four years:

1. An action upon any contract, obligation or liability founded upon an instrument in writing executed within this state; provided, that wherever the time within which any such action must be so commenced would in any case expire by the terms of this section after the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and six and before the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seven, such action may be commenced at any time before the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seven, with the same force and effect as if commenced within four years as in this section provided.

2. An action to recover a balance due upon a mutual, open and current account or upon an open book account.

SEC. 2. Section three hundred and thirty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

339. Within two years:

1. An action upon a contract, obligation or liability not founded upon an instrument of writing, other than that mentioned in subdivision two of section three hundred thirty-seven of this code; or an action founded upon an instrument of writing executed out of the state.

2. An action against a sheriff, coroner, or constable upon a liability incurred by the doing of an act in his official capacity and in virtue of his office, or by the omission of an official duty, including the non-payment of money collected upon an execution. But this subdivision does not apply to an action for an escape.

Time of commencing actions:
Within
four years.

Within two years.

CHAPTER 324.

An act to amend section eight hundred and three of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to actions for the usurpation of an office or franchise.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eight hundred and three of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Action against party usurping office or franchise.

803. An action may be brought by the attorney-general, in the name of the people of this state, upon his own information, or upon a complaint of a private party, against any person who usurps, intrudes into, or unlawfully holds or exercises any public office, civil or military, or any franchise, or against any corporation, either de jure or de facto, which usurps, intrudes into, or unlawfully holds or exercises any franchise, within this state. And the attorney-general must bring the action, whenever he has reason to believe that any such office or franchise has been usurped, intruded into, or unlawfully held or exercised by any person, or when he is directed to do so by the governor.

CHAPTER 325.

An act to amend sections nine hundred and ninety-two and nine hundred and ninety-three of the Code of Civil Procedure, both relating to proceedings against joint debtors.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section nine hundred and ninety-two of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Answer,
what
to contain.

992. Upon such summons, the defendant may answer within the time specified therein, denying the judgment, or setting up any defense which may have arisen subsequently; or he may deny his liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was recovered, by reason of any defense existing at the commencement of the action.

SEC. 2. Section nine hundred and ninety-three of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

What to constitute pleadings.

993. If the defendant, in his answer, denies the judgment, or sets up any defense which may have arisen subsequently, the summons, with the affidavit annexed, and the answer, constitute the written allegations in the case; if he denies his liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was recovered, a copy of the original complaint and judgment, the summons, with the affidavit annexed, and the answer, constitute such written allegations, subject to the right of the parties to amend their pleadings as in other cases.

CHAPTER 326.

An act to amend section one thousand and five of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to motions and notices thereof.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand and five of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1005. When a written notice of a motion is necessary, it must be given, if the court is held in the county in which at least one of the attorneys of each party has his office, five days before the time appointed for the hearing; otherwise, ten days. When the notice is served by mail, the number of days before the hearing must be increased one day for every twenty-five miles of distance between the place of deposit and the place of service; such increase, however, not to exceed in all thirty days; but in all cases the court, or a judge thereof, may prescribe a shorter time.

Notice of motion, when to be given.

CHAPTER 327.

An act to amend sections ten hundred and ten, ten hundred and eleven, ten hundred and thirteen, and ten hundred and fifteen of the Code of Civil Procedure, all relating to notices in civil actions.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section ten hundred and ten of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1010. Notices must be in writing, and the notice of a motion, other than for a new trial, must state when, and the grounds upon which it will be made, and the papers, if any, upon which it is to be based. If any such paper has not previously been served upon the party to be notified and was not filed by him, a copy of such paper must accompany the notice. Notices and other papers may be served upon the party or attorney in the manner prescribed in this chapter, when not otherwise provided by this code.

Notices and papers, how served.

SEC. 2. Section ten hundred and eleven of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Personal service.

1011. The service may be personal, by delivery to the party or attorney on whom the service is required to be made, or it may be as follows:

Upon
attorney

1. If upon an attorney, it may be made during his absence from his office, by leaving the notice or other papers with his clerk therein, or with a person having charge thereof; or when there is no person in the office, by leaving them between the hours of nine in the morning and five in the afternoon, in a conspicuous place in the office; or, if it is not open so as to admit of such service, then by leaving them at the attorney's residence, with some person of not less than eighteen years of age, if his residence is in the same county with his office; and if his residence is not known, or is not in the same county with his office, or being in the same county it is not open, or there is not found thereat any person of not less than eighteen years of age, then by putting the same, inclosed in a sealed envelope, into the postoffice directed to such attorney at his office, if known; otherwise to his residence, if known; and if neither his office nor his residence is known, then by delivering the same to the clerk of the court for the attorney;

Upon a party.

2. If upon a party, it may be made by leaving the notice or other paper at his residence, between the hours of eight in the morning and six in the evening, with some person of not less than eighteen years of age; and, if his residence is not known, by delivering the same to the clerk of the court for such party.

SEC. 3. Section ten hundred and thirteen of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Service by mail, how.

1013. In case of service by mail, the notice or other paper must be deposited in the postoffice, in a sealed envelope, addressed to the person on whom it is to be served, at his office or place of residence, and the postage paid. The service is complete at the time of the deposit, but if, within a given number of days after such service, a right may be exercised, or an act is to be done by the adverse party, the time within which such right may be exercised or act be done is extended one day for every twenty-five miles distance between the place of deposit and the place of address; such extension, however, not to exceed thirty days in all.

SEC. 4. Section ten hundred and fifteen of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Service on non-resident.

1015. When a plaintiff or a defendant, who has appeared, resides out of the state, and has no attorney in the action or proceeding, the service may be made on the clerk for him. But in all cases where a party has an attorney in the action or proceeding, the service of papers, when required, must be upon the attorney instead of the party, except service of subpoenas, of writs, and other process issued in the suit, and of papers to bring him into contempt. If the sole attorney for a party is removed or suspended from practice, then the party has no attorney within the meaning of this section. If his sole attorney has no known office in this state, notices and papers may be served by leaving a copy thereof with the clerk of the court, unless such attorney shall have filed in the cause an address of a place at which notices and papers may be served on him, in which event they may be served at such place.

CHAPTER 328.

An act to amend section one thousand and sixty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to writs of review.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand and sixty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1069. The application must be made on the verified petition of the party beneficially interested, and the court may require a notice of the application to be given to the adverse party, or may grant an order to show cause why it should not be allowed, or may grant the writ without notice.

Application for certiorari,
how made.

CHAPTER 329.

An act to amend sections seven hundred and fifty-three, seven hundred and fifty-six, seven hundred and fifty-eight, seven hundred and fifty-nine, seven hundred and sixty-one, seven hundred and sixty-three, seven hundred and sixty-four, seven hundred and sixty-five, seven hundred and sixty-six, seven hundred and seventy-four, seven hundred and seventy-five, seven hundred and eighty-four, seven hundred and eighty-five, and seven hundred and ninety-nine, and to repeal sections seven hundred and ninety-five and seven hundred and ninety-seven of the Code of Civil Procedure, all relating to actions for the partition of real property.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section seven hundred and fifty-three of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

753. The interests of all persons in the property, whether such persons are known or unknown, must be set forth in the complaint, as far as known to the plaintiff; and if one or more of the parties, or the share or quantity of interest of any of the Interests of all parties must be set complaint.

parties, is unknown to the plaintiff, or is uncertain or contingent, or the ownership of the inheritance depends upon an executory devise, or the remainder is a contingent remainder, so that such parties cannot be named, that fact must be set forth in the complaint.

SEC. 2. Section seven hundred and fifty-six of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Summons, to whom directed.

756. The summons must contain a description of the property sought to be partitioned, and must be directed to all of the persons named as defendants in the complaint, and when it shows that some person has or claims an interest in or lien upon the property whose name is unknown to the plaintiff, the summons must also be directed to all persons unknown who have or claim any interest in or lien upon the property.

SEC. 3. Section seven hundred and fifty-eight of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Answer of defendant,
what
to contain.

758. If the defendant fails to answer within the time allowed by law, he is deemed to admit and adopt the allegations of the complaint. Otherwise, he must controvert such of the allegations of the complaint as he does not wish to be taken as admitted, and must set forth his estate or interest in the property, and if he claims a lien thereon must state the date and character of the lien and the amount remaining due, and whether he has any additional security therefor, and if so, its nature and extent, and if he fails to disclose such additional security, he must be deemed to have waived his lien on the property to be partitioned.

SEC. 4. Section seven hundred and fifty-nine of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Rights of all parties may be put in issue.

759. The rights of the several parties, plaintiff as well as defendant, may be put in issue, tried, and determined in such action; and when a sale of the premises is necessary, the title must be ascertained by proof to the satisfaction of the court before the sale can be ordered; except that where there are several unknown persons having an interest in the property, their rights may be considered together in the action, and not as between themselves.

SEC. 5. Section seven hundred and sixty-one of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Rights of lien-holders:
appoint-
referee.

761. If it appears to the court that there are outstanding liens or incumbrances of record upon such real property, or any part thereof, which existed and were of record at the time of the commencement of the action, and the persons holding such liens are not made parties to the action, the court must either order such persons to be made parties to the action, by an amended or supplemental complaint, or appoint a referee to ascertain whether or not such liens or incumbrances have been paid, and if not paid, what amount remains due thereon, and their order among the liens or incumbrances severally held by such persons and the parties to the action, and whether the amount remaining due thereon has been secured in any manner, and if secured, the nature and extent of the security.

SEC. 6. Section seven hundred and sixty-three of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

763. If it appears by the evidence, whether alleged in the complaint or not, that the property or any part of it is so situated that partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, the court may order the sale thereof; otherwise, upon the requisite proofs being made, it must order a partition according to the respective rights of the parties as ascertained by the court, and appoint three referees therefor, and must designate the portion to remain undivided for the owners whose interests remain unknown, or are not ascertained; or the court, with the consent of the parties, may appoint one referee instead of three, and he, when thus appointed, has all the powers and may perform all the duties required of three referees. When the site of an incorporated city or town is included with[in] the exterior boundaries of the property to be partitioned, the court must direct the referees to survey and appraise the entire property to be partitioned by actual lots and subdivisions then existing in the actual possession of the several tenants in common, exclusive of the value of improvements thereon, first setting apart necessary portions of the property for ways, roads, and streets, as in section seven hundred and sixty-four provided, and to report such survey and separate appraisement on each lot and subdivision to the court. The court may confirm, change, modify, or set aside the report in whole or in part, and if necessary appoint new referees. When, after the final confirmation of the report of such survey and appraisement, it appears by evidence to the satisfaction of the court that an equitable partition of the whole property is impracticable, and a sale of the site of such city or town, or any portion thereof, will be for the best interests of the owners of the whole property, it must order a sale thereof; provided, that within sixty days thereafter any tenant in common, or tenants in common, having improvements erected on any town or city lot or subdivision included in such order of sale, shall have the prior right to purchase the same at such appraised valuation, and may pay into court the amount so appraised as the value thereof, and upon such payment the title shall vest in such purchaser or purchasers, and the court shall cause to be executed by such referees a deed for such lot or subdivision in fee and in severalty to such purchaser or purchasers; such further proceedings shall then be had as to the remainder of the property, and the money so paid to the court, as by this chapter provided. If, during the pendency of the action, any of the parties die, or become insane, or otherwise incompetent, the proceedings shall not for that cause be delayed or suspended, but the attorney who has appeared for such party may continue to represent such interest; and in case any such party has not appeared by an attorney, the court must appoint an attorney to represent the interest which was held by such party, until his heirs or legal representatives, or successors in interest, shall have appeared in the action; and an attorney so appointed must be allowed by the court a reasonable compensation for his services, which may be taxed as costs against the share or interest represented by such attorney, and may be adjudged a lien thereon, in the discretion of the court.

Court may order sale or partition.

SEC. 7. Section seven hundred and sixty-four of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Partition must be according to rights of parties.

764. In making partition, the referees must divide the property, and allot the several portions thereof to the respective parties, quality and quantity relatively considered, according to the respective rights of the parties as determined by the court, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, designating the several portions by proper landmarks, and may employ a surveyor with the necessary assistants to aid them. Before making partition or sale, the referees may, whenever it will be for the advantage of those interested, set apart a portion of the property for a way, road, or street, and the portion so set apart must not be assigned to any of the parties or sold, but must remain an open and public way, road, or street, unless the referees shall set the same apart as a private way for the use of the parties interested, or some of them, their heirs and assigns, in which case it shall remain such private way. Whenever the referees have laid out on any tract of land roads sufficient in the judgment of said referees to accommodate the public and private wants, they must report that fact to the court, and upon the confirmation of their report all other roads on said tract cease to be public highways. Whenever it appears, in an action for partition of lands, that one or more of the tenants in common, being the owner of an undivided interest in the tract of land sought to be partitioned, has sold to another person a specific tract by metes and bounds out of the common land, and executed to the purchaser a deed of conveyance, purporting to convey the whole title to such specific tract to the purchaser in fee and in severalty, the land described in such deed shall be allotted and set apart in partition to such purchaser, his heirs or assigns, or in such other manner as shall make such deed effectual as a conveyance of the whole title to such segregated parcel, if such tract or tracts of land can be so allotted or set apart without material injury of the rights and interests of the other co-tenants who may not have joined in such conveyance. In all cases it is the duty of the referees, in making partition of land, to allot the share of each of the parties owning an interest in the whole or in any part of the premises sought to be partitioned, and to locate the share of each co-tenant, so as to embrace as far as practicable the improvements made by such co-tenant upon the property, and the value of the improvements made by the tenants in common must be excluded from the valuation in making the allotments, and the land must be valued without regard to such improvements, in case the same can be done without material injury to the rights and interests of the other tenants in common owning such land.

undivided interests.

Allotment of shares of each party.

SEC. 8. Section seven hundred and sixty-five of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

765. The referees must make a report of their proceedings, specifying therein the manner in which they executed their trust, and describing the property divided, and the shares allotted to each party, with a particular description of each share. Any party to the action, after giving at least ten days' notice in writing to the other parties who have appeared therein of his intention to do so, may move the court to confirm, change, modify, or set aside such report.

Report of referees.

SEC. 9. Section seven hundred and sixty-six of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

766. The court may confirm, change, modify, or set aside the report, and if necessary, appoint new referees. Upon the report being confirmed, judgment must be rendered that such partition be effectual forever, which judgment is binding and conclusive:

Court may confirm or set aside report.

1. On all persons named as parties to the action, and their legal representatives, who have at the time any interest in the property divided, or any part thereof, as owners in fee or as tenants for life or for years, or as entitled to the reversion, remainder, or the inheritance of such property, or any part thereof, after the determination of a particular estate therein, and who by any contingency may be entitled to a beneficial interest in the property, or who have an interest in any undivided share thereof, as tenants for years or for life;

Upon whom judgment binding.

2. On all persons interested in the property, who may be unknown, to whom notice has been given of the action for partition by publication;

3. On all other persons claiming from such parties or persons, or either of them.

And no judgment is invalidated by reason of the death of any party before final judgment or decree; but such judgment or decree is as conclusive against the heirs, legal representatives, or assigns of such decedent, as if it had been entered before his death. If, during the pendency of the action, and before final judgment therein, any of the co-tenants has conveyed to another person his interest, or any part of his interest, such conveyance, whatever its form, shall be deemed to have passed to the grantee any lands which, after its execution, may have been set aside to the grantor in severalty, or such proportionate interest in such lands as the interest so conveyed bears to the whole interest of the grantor.

Not invalidated by death of any party.

SEC. 10. Section seven hundred and seventy-four of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

774. When the proceeds of the sale of any share or parcel belonging to persons who are parties to the action, whether known or unknown, are paid into courts, the action may be continued as between such parties, for the determination of their respective claims thereto, which must be ascertained and adjudged by the court. Further testimony may be taken in court, or by a referee, at the discretion of the court, and the court may, if necessary, require such parties to present the facts or law in controversy, by pleadings, as in an original action.

SEC. 11. Section seven hundred and seventy-five of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Referees' sales must be at public auction.

775. All sales of real property, made by referees under this chapter, must be made at public auction to the highest bidder, upon notice given in the manner required for the sale of real property on execution. The notice must state the terms of sale, and if the property, or any part of it, is to be sold subject to a prior estate, charge, or lien, that must be stated in the notice.

SEC. 12. Section seven hundred and eighty-four of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Referee must report sale to court.

784. After completing a sale of the property, or any part thereof, ordered to be sold, the referees must report the same to the court, with a description of the different parcels of land sold to each purchaser; the name of the purchaser; the price paid or secured; the terms and conditions of the sale, and the securities, if any, taken. The report must be filed in the office of the clerk of the county where the property is situated. Thereafter any purchaser, or any party to the action, may, upon ten days' notice to the other parties who have appeared therein, and also to the purchaser if he be not the moving party, move the court to confirm or set aside any sale or sales so reported.

SEC. 13. Section seven hundred and eighty-five of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Referees to execute conveyances.

785. If the sale is confirmed by the court, an order must be entered, directing the referees to execute conveyances and take securities pursuant to such sale, which they are hereby authorized to do. Such order may also give directions to them respecting the disposition of the proceeds of the sale. If the purchaser, after the confirmation of the sale, refuses to pay the amount of his bid, the referees may again sell the property at any time to the highest bidder, and if any loss is occasioned thereby the referees may recover the amount of such loss and the cost from the bidder so refusing, or the referees, without making a resale, may maintain an action against the purchaser for the amount of his bid.

Sec. 795 repealed.

SEC. 14. Section seven hundred and ninety-five of said code is hereby repealed.

Sec. 797 repealed.

SEC. 15. Section seven hundred and ninety-seven of said code is hereby repealed.

SEC. 16. Section seven hundred and ninety-nine of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Plaintiff may procure abstract of title.

799. If it is necessary to have an abstract of title of the property to be partitioned, the plaintiff may procure one before commencing the action, and may, in his complaint, state that he has done so, and that the abstract is subject to the inspection and use of all the parties to the action, designating a place where it will be kept for such inspection. Otherwise the court may, upon application of any one of the parties, authorize him to procure an abstract, which, when made, shall be kept at some place designated by the court for the inspection and use of all parties, any of whom is entitled to make a copy thereof. The expense reasonably incurred in procuring such abstract must be allowed to the party incurring it, with interest thereon from the commencement of the action, if it had been procured before that time, otherwise from the time of payment.

CHAPTER 330.

An act amending an act entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction or completion thereof," which became a law under constitutional provision, without governor's approval, February 25, 1901, by amending sections 2, 5, 7 and 9 thereof.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That section two of an act entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction, or completion thereof," which became a law February 25, 1901, be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 2. Whenever the legislative branch of any city, town or municipal corporation shall, by resolution passed by vote of two-thirds of all its members and approved by the executive of said municipality, determine that the public interest or necessity demands the acquisition, construction or completion of any municipal improvement, including bridges, water-works, water rights, sewers, light or power works or plants, buildings for municipal uses, wharves; school houses, fire apparatus, and street work, or other works, property or structures necessary or convenient to carry out the objects, purposes and powers of the municipality, the cost of which will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of the municipality, it may at any subsequent meeting of such board, by a vote of two-thirds of all its members, and also approved by the said executive, call a special election and submit to the qualified voters of said city, town or municipal corporation the proposition of incurring a debt for the purpose set forth in said resolution, and no question other than the incurring of the indebtedness for said purpose shall be submitted; provided, that propositions of incurring indebtedness for more than one object or purpose may be submitted at the same election. The ordinance calling such special election shall recite the objects and purposes for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, the estimated cost of the proposed public improvements, the amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor, and the rate of interest to be paid on said indebtedness, and shall fix the date on which such special election will be held, the manner of holding such election and the voting for or against incurring such indebtedness, and in all particulars not recited in such ordinance, such election shall be held as provided by law for holding municipal elections in such municipality; provided, however, that if the rate of interest to be paid on such indebtedness shall not exceed four and one-half per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, the rate of interest need not be recited in such ordinance, but, in its discretion, the said legislative branch may recite in such ordinance a maximum rate of interest to be paid on such indebtedness, not exceeding six per centum per annum payable semi-annually, which rate when so recited, shall not be exceeded in the issuance of bonds for such indebtedness.

Special election.

What ordinance shall recite.

Rate of interest.

SEC. 2. That section five of the aforesaid act be amended so as to read as follows:

Municipal bonds, how payable.

Section 5. All municipal bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be payable substantially in the following manner: A part to be determined by the legislative body of the municipality, which shall be not less than one-fortieth part of the whole amount of such indebtedness, shall be paid each and every year on a day and date, and at a place within the United States, to be fixed by the legislative branch of the municipality issuing the bonds and designated in such bonds, together with the interest on all sums unpaid at such date; provided, however, that, in case of bonds issued for the acquisition, construction or completion of water-works or light or power-works or plants, or any other authorized revenue-producing public works, plant, utility or property, the legislative body of the municipality may, in its discretion determine and fix a date for the earliest maturity of the principal of such bonds not more than ten years from the date of the issue of such bonds, but, in this event, the whole amount of such indebtedness must be made payable in equal annual parts in not to exceed forty years from the time of contracting the same. The bonds shall be issued in such denominations as the legislative branch of the municipality may determine, except that no bonds shall be of a less denomination than one hundred dollars, nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars, and shall be payable on the day and at the place fixed in such bonds, and with interest at the rate specified in the bonds, which rate shall not be in excess of six per cent per annum and shall be payable semi-annually, and said bonds shall be signed by the executive of the municipality, and also by the treasurer thereof, and shall be countersigned by the clerk. The coupons of said bonds shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the treasurer.

Denominations of.

In case any of such officers whose signatures or countersignatures appear on the bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds to the purchaser, such signatures or countersignatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if they had remained in office until the delivery of the bonds.

Signatures of officers.

SEC. 3. That section seven of the aforesaid act be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 7. The legislative branch of said city, town or municipality shall at the time of fixing the general tax levy, and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect annually each year until said bonds are paid, or until there shall be a sum in the treasury of said city, town or municipality set apart for that purpose to meet all sums coming due for principal and interest on such bonds, a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds, and also such part of the principal thereof as shall become due before the time for fixing the next general tax levy. Provided, however, that if the maturity of the indebtedness created by the issue of bonds be made to begin more than one year after the date of the issuance of such bonds, such tax shall be levied and collected at the time and in the manner aforesaid annually each year, sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due, and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof on or before maturity. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for municipal purposes, and shall be collected at the time and in the same manner as other municipal taxes are collected, and be used for no other purpose than the payment of said bonds and accruing interest.

SEC. 4. That section nine of the aforesaid act be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 9. All contracts for the construction or completion of any public work or improvement or for furnishing labor or materials therefor, as herein provided, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. The legislative branch of the municipality shall advertise for at least ten days in one or more newspapers published in the municipality, inviting sealed proposals for furnishing the labor and materials for the proposed work or improvement before any contract shall be made therefor. The said legislative branch shall have the right to require such bonds as they may deem best from the successful bidder to insure the faithful performance of the contract work, and shall also have the right to reject any and all bids: provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting the municipality itself from constructing or completing such works or improvements, and employing the labor necessary therefor; and provided further, that, in cities, towns or municipalities operating under a charter, heretofore or hereafter framed under section 8 of article 11 of the constitution and providing for a board of public works all the matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative branch of the municipality shall be done and performed by the board of public works of such city, town or municipality, and, in case such charter also prescribes the manner of letting and entering into contracts for the furnishing of labor, materials or supplies for the constructing or completion of public works or improvements, the contracts therefor shall be let and entered into in conformity with such charter.

Issue of bonds prior to this act.

SEC. 5. That nothing in this act contained shall be construed as affecting the issue or sale of bonds in pursuance of proceedings begun prior to the taking effect of this act and under the provisions of the act amended hereby.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 331.

An act to amend the Political Code, by adding thereto a new section to be numbered 419a.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered 419a, to read as follows:

Salary and duties of statistician.

419a. The statistician provided for in section 415, of the Political Code, shall perform such special duties as shall be assigned to him by the secretary of state, and shall receive an annual salary of twenty-four hundred dollars, to be paid in the same manner and at the same time as other state officers.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 332.

An act making an appropriation for searching for beneficial insects.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

CHAPTER 335.

An act to add a new article to Chapter I of Title III of Part III of the Political Code, to be known as Article VII, relating to Hastings College of Law.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new article is hereby added to Chapter I of Title III of Part III of the Political Code, to be known as Article VII, and to read as follows:

ARTICLE VII.

HASTINGS COLLEGE OF LAW.

- Section 1478. Officers and their appointment.
- 1479. Affiliation of, with the university.
- 1480. Granting and issuing of diplomas.
- 1481. Rooms and halls for use of the students and directors.
- 1482. The dean.
- 1483. Rights of students under their diplomas.
- 1484. Appropriations to be made.
- 1485. Purposes of the college.
- 1486. Founders—professorships.
- 1486a. Powers and duties of directors.
- 1486b. Use of law library.
- 1486c. Payments to be made in case of failure of appropriations, etc.
- 1486d. The president of the board.

1478. The law college founded and established by S. C. Hastings shall forever be known and designated as the Hastings College of Law. Its officers are a dean, registrar, and eight directors. Whenever any vacancy occurs in the board of directors, they must fill the same from the members of the Bar Association of San Francisco or otherwise; but such vacancies must be so filled that one of such directors shall be an heir or representative of said Hastings. The dean and registrar are appointed by the directors.

Hastings College of Law, officers.

1479. Such college is affiliated with the university of the state, and is the law department thereof.

Affiliation with University.

1480. The faculty of the university must grant, and the president must sign and issue, diplomas to the students of the college.

Diplomas.

1481. There must be set apart for the use of the students of the college, some room or suitable hall at the university, and the board of supervisors of the city and county of San Francisco is authorized to supply a suitable hall therein for the students and directors.

Rooms for students and directors.

- The dean. 1482. The dean of the college is ex-officio of the faculty of the university, to be designated as such by the directors of the college.
- Rights of students under diplomas. 1483. A diploma entitles the student to whom it is issued to a license to practice in all the courts of the state, subject to the right of the chief justice of the supreme court of the state to order an examination as in ordinary cases of applicants without such diploma.
- Appropriations to be made. 1484. The sum of seven per cent per annum upon one hundred thousand dollars must be appropriated by the state and paid in two semi-annual payments to the directors of the college.
- Purposes of the college. 1485. The business of the college is to afford facilities for the acquisition of legal learning in all branches of the law, and to this end it must establish a curriculum of studies and must matriculate students who may reside at the university of the state, as well as students residing in other parts thereof.
- Professorships. 1486. Professorships may be established in the name of any founder thereof, who pays to the directors the sum of thirty thousand dollars.
- Management. 1486a. All the business of the college must be managed by the directors without compensation. The acting officers, including the dean and register, must be appointed and may be removed by the directors.
- Use of law library. 1486b. The Law Library Association of the city and county of San Francisco must grant to the students the use of its library upon such terms and conditions as it may agree upon with the directors of the college.
- Payments in case of failure of appropriations. 1486c. If the state fails to pay to the directors of the college the sum of seven thousand dollars per annum, as stipulated in section fourteen hundred and eighty-four, or if the college ceases to exist, the state must pay to the said Hastings, his heirs or legal representatives, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and all unexpended accumulated interest, unless such failure is caused by mistake or accident, or the omission of the legislature to make the appropriation at any one session.
- President of board. 1486d. The chief justice of the supreme court of the state is president of the board of directors, five of whom constitute a quorum to transact all business.

CHAPTER 336.

An act providing for the organization and management of mutual fire insurance companies.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Private corporations may be formed for the purpose of insuring the property of their members in accordance with and on the properties designated in this act, and not otherwise. Such corporations may be formed and organized as provided in part four, division first, of the Civil Code of the State of California. Mutual fire insurance corporations

SEC. 2. Any such corporation may be formed for the purpose of transacting fire insurance business and in one of the following lines, to wit: Lines of insurance.

1. Lumber yards, factories and mills.

2. Mercantile risks, dwelling houses, churches, schools and farm buildings, and contents.

SEC. 3. Each person or corporation accepting a policy in any such mutual insurance corporation shall thereby become a member of such corporation and shall be liable for his pro rata share of losses and operating expenses, except as hereinafter provided. Liability of members.

SEC. 4. No policy shall be issued by such corporation until not less than two hundred thousand dollars of insurance, in not less than two hundred separate risks, have been subscribed for and entered on its books, and until it shall have a cash reserve fund of fifty thousand dollars. No officer or other person whose duty it is to determine the character of risks, and upon whose decision the application shall be accepted or rejected by such corporation, shall receive as any part of his compensation a commission upon the premiums, but his compensation shall be a fixed salary and such share of the net profits as the directors may determine. Minimum business required.

SEC. 5. Every member shall be notified of the time and place of holding its meeting by a written notice, or by an imprint upon the back of each policy receipt or certificate of renewal, and shall be entitled to a vote as provided by law. Notice of meeting.

SEC. 6. Such company may issue policies provided the term of any policy does not exceed the time limited for the existence of the charter but not for an amount in excess of twenty-five hundred dollars on any one risk; provided, however, that one thousand dollars additional insurance may be written on any one risk for each million dollars of total insurance outstanding on the books of the company in excess of one million dollars; provided further, that two or more buildings situated in the same city block, or separated by less than one hundred feet shall be deemed to be one risk. Amount of risk permitted on each policy.

How mutual company may procure license.

SEC. 7. When any number of citizens or corporations not less than one hundred owning insurable property in this state desire to insure in a mutual company incorporated under the laws of some other state, they shall petition the insurance commissioner to grant such company a license to transact business in this state. Such corporation before being licensed in this state must file with the insurance commissioner its last annual statement signed by its president and secretary under oath, showing that the company is solvent and possessed of not less than two hundred thousand dollars bona fide premium notes or contingent liabilities of its members, and not less than seventy-five thousand dollars available cash assets over and above all liabilities or losses reported, expenses, taxes and reinsurance on all outstanding risks estimated at fifty per cent of the premiums received and receivable on all risks. Such company must also file a copy of its articles of incorporation and a certificate from the insurance commissioner of the state in which such company is incorporated, in which certificate the insurance commissioner must certify that such company's annual statement is correct. Any mutual insurance company incorporated under the laws of any other state, after complying with the provisions of this section shall be granted a license by the insurance commissioner of this state, granting such company full power to transact business under this act.

Assessments for losses.

SEC. 8. Each policy holder shall be liable to pay his proportionate part of any assessment which may be levied by the company, in accordance with the law and his contract, on account of losses and expenses incurred while he is a member. Mutual insurance companies shall charge and collect upon its policies the full premium in cash or notes, absolutely payable, and may, in its by-laws, fix the liability of its members for the payment of the losses and expenses not provided for by its cash funds; provided that the liability of a member shall not be less than a sum equal to the cash premium written in his policy. The total amount of the liability of a policy holder shall be plainly and legibly stated upon the back of each policy.

Same.

SEC. 9. Whenever such company is not possessed of cash funds above its permanent cash reserve fund hereinafter provided, sufficient for the payment of accrued losses and expenses, it shall make an assessment for the amount needed to pay such losses and expenses, upon its members liable to assessment therefor, in proportion to their several liabilities.

Record of assessment.

The company shall cause to be recorded in a book kept for that purpose, the order for such assessment, together with a statement which shall set forth the condition of the company at the date of the order, the amount of its cash assets and of its premium notes, or other contingent funds liable to assessment and the amount the assessment calls for. Such record shall be made and signed by the directors who voted for the order, before any part of the assessment is collected, and any person liable to assessment may inspect and take a copy of the same.

SEC. 10. Any member of any such corporation may withdraw at any time by surrendering his policy or certificate of insurance to the corporation, and giving thirty days written notice of his intention to withdraw and by paying his share of all losses which shall have accrued by the end of the time specified in the notice, and all assessments due, accrued, or pending at the time of his withdrawal, but the company may retain the rate usually charged by standard insurance companies for a short term policy; provided, also, that the corporation shall have power to cancel or determine any policy by giving the insured five days written notice to that effect, and returning to the insured his pro rata of the unearned premium.

Withdrawal of members.

SEC. 11. No mutual fire insurance corporation formed under this act may make any dividend except from profits in hand after retaining unimpaired:

Dividends.

1. The sum of fifty thousand dollars.

2. A fund equal to one half the amount of all premiums on risks not terminated at the time of making such dividend.

3. A sufficient sum to pay all losses reported, or in course of settlement, and all liabilities for expenses and taxes.

SEC. 12. Nothing in this act shall be construed to restrict or affect the provisions of "An act to provide for the organization and management of county fire insurance companies," approved April 1st, 1897.

Construction of act.

SEC. 13. The general provisions applicable to all corporations as expressed in part four of division first of the Civil Code of the State of California, also all provisions of the Political Code so far as compatible with the provisions of this act, are hereby made applicable to corporations provided for by this act.

provisions.

CHAPTER 337.

An act to amend the Penal Code of the State of California, by adding a new section thereto, to be numbered four hundred seventy-six a (476a), relating to the making, drawing, uttering or delivery of a bank check or draft for the payment of money by a person without funds or credit to meet the same upon presentation, and prescribing a penalty therefor.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code of the State of California, to be numbered 476a and to read as follows:

476a. Every person who, willfully, with intent to defraud, makes or draws, or utters, or delivers to another person any check or draft on a bank, banker or depository for the pay-

Drawing of bank checks with intent to defraud.

ment of money, knowing at the time of such making, drawing, uttering or delivery, that he has not sufficient funds in or credit with such bank, banker or depository to meet such check or draft in full upon its presentation, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one year nor more than fourteen years. The word "credit" as used herein shall be construed to be an arrangement or understanding with the bank or depository for the payment of such check or draft.

CHAPTER 338.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction, or completion thereof" by adding a new section thereto to be numbered section 9½, providing for the disposition of money raised by the sale of bonds under said act, whenever it appears to be impracticable to use said money for the purpose for which the bonds were voted.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section to be known as "section 9½" is hereby added to the act entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction, or completion thereof" to read as follows:

Expenditure of money raised by sale of bonds;
consent to use for other than original purpose, how given.

9½. Whenever the legislative branch of any municipality shall by resolution deem the expenditure of money raised by the sale of bonds under the terms of this act for the purpose for which said bonds were voted impracticable or unwise, said legislative branch of said city, town, or municipal corporation may call a special election to obtain the consent of the people of said city, town, or municipal corporation to use said money for some other specified municipal purpose. The ordinance calling such special election shall recite the new object or purpose for which the said money is proposed to be expended, and shall fix the date on which such special election will be held, the manner of holding such election and the voting for or against the expenditure of said money for said purpose, and in all particulars not recited in said ordinance such election shall be held as provided by law for holding of such municipal elections in such municipality. Such ordinance shall be published once a day for at least seven days in some newspaper published at least six days a week in such municipality, or once a week for two weeks in some newspaper published less than six days a week in such municipality, and one insertion each week for two succeeding weeks shall be a sufficient publication in such newspaper published less than six days per week. In municipalities where no such newspaper is published, such ordinance shall be posted in three public places therein for two succeeding weeks. No other notice of such election need be given. It shall require the votes of two thirds of all the voters at such special election to authorize the expenditure of the money for the purpose mentioned in the ordinance calling said special election.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 339.

An act to repeal article nine of chapter two of title six of part three of the Political Code, and every section thereof, and to add to said code a new article to said chapter, to be numbered article nine, embracing sections twenty-seven hundred and forty-five to twenty-seven hundred and seventy-two, both inclusive, relating to permanent road divisions.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Political Code is hereby amended by repealing article nine of chapter two of title six of part three of the Political Code, and every section thereof, and adding a new article to chapter two of title six of part three thereof, to be numbered article nine, embracing sections twenty-seven hundred and forty-five to twenty-seven hundred and seventy-two, both inclusive, so as to read as follows:

Repeal of Article 9, Chapter 2, Title 6, Political Code.

ARTICLE IX.

PERMANENT ROAD DIVISIONS.

2745. Any portion of a county not contained in a permanent road division may be formed into a permanent road division under the provision of this act, and when so formed shall have the powers herein enumerated and such as may hereafter be conferred thereon by law.

Permanent road divisions.

2746. A petition for the formation of a permanent road division (naming it) may be presented to the board of supervisors of the county wherein the division is proposed to be formed. It shall be signed by at least a majority of the land-owners residing within the proposed division, and shall contain:

Petition for formation of, what to contain.

1. The boundaries of the proposed division;

2. The number of acres therein contained and the assessed valuation of the same accordingly to the last completed assessment roll of the county;

3. The value of the improvements on real estate and of the personal property within the proposed division according to the last completed assessment roll;

4. The number of inhabitants therein as near as can be ascertained;

5. A particular description as to location of the road or roads which it is desired to construct or improve and the necessity for such work;

6. By the last completed assessment roll is meant the last roll as made up by the assessor, with the changes ordered by the supervisors sitting as a board of equalization.

Affidavit
required.

2747. Such petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit stating that affiant has compared the valuations therein given with those on the last completed assessment roll and that the same are complete and correct.

Publication
of notice.

2748. Such petition shall be presented at a regular meeting of the board of supervisors or at a special meeting called to receive and consider the same, and shall be published at least once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county before the time at which it is to be presented, together with a notice stating the time of the meeting at which the board will be asked to consider the petition, which time shall not be more than ten days after the last publication of the petition and notice.

petition.

2749. On the day named in the notice the board shall hear the petition and may adjourn such hearing from time to time, but not longer than one month in all. On the final hearing they may make such changes in the boundaries of the proposed road division as they may find to be proper and shall define and establish such boundaries; but such changes shall not include any territory outside of the boundaries described in the petition, until the board has given at least fifteen days' notice of its intention to include such territory in such road division. Such notice shall be given by publication at least once a week for three successive weeks in a paper published in the county, and by leaving a copy thereof at each place of abode in said territory.

Boundaries established.

2750. The boundaries established by the board shall be the boundaries of such permanent road division until the same shall be changed in the manner provided by law; but if it shall appear to the board that the boundaries of any such division have been incorrectly described, it shall direct the county surveyor to ascertain and report a correct description of the boundaries in conformity with the orders of the board. At the first regular meeting of the board after the filing of the county surveyor's report, they shall cause notice to be published in some newspaper published in the county that the report will be considered at the next regular meeting of the board, naming the day, and at such meeting the board shall ratify the report of the surveyor, with such modifications as they deem necessary. And the boundaries so established shall be the legal boundaries of such permanent road division.

Special road tax.

2751. At the time of forming a permanent road division, or at any time thereafter, any ten or more resident freeholders thereof, may petition the board of supervisors to have plans prepared for the construction or improvement of the road or roads or any part thereof mentioned in the petition for the formation of said division, or of the whole or any part of any other road in the division. Such petition shall state:

Petition for construction of road.

1. The recommendations of the petitioners as to the materials to be used and the manner of constructing or repairing said road or roads;
2. An estimate of the probable cost of such work;
3. A request that the board appropriate for said work a sum of money, naming it, from the general road fund of the county;
4. A request that the board appropriate for said work a sum of money, naming it, from the road district funds in the road districts of which said permanent road division forms a part;
5. A request that a special tax be levied or that the bonds of the division be issued to raise the balance necessary for said work.

What petition shall state.

2752. Upon receiving such petition the board shall proceed to prepare, or cause to be prepared, plans and specifications for and an estimate of the cost of the work mentioned in said petition, and for any other road, bridge, culvert or work considered a necessary part of the permanent road petitioned for.

Board to prepare plans.

2753. When the board has adopted plans and specifications for said work they may set apart therefor such a sum from the general road fund of the county as they shall consider equitable; also, such sum from the funds of the district or districts of which said division is a part, as they consider equitable, but not less than seventy-five per cent of the sum which bears the same ratio to the whole fund of the district or districts which the assessed valuation of the division bears to the whole valuation of the district or districts of which it forms a part. The board may in its discretion give more than this percentage. These sums shall be set apart in a fund, to be known as the permanent road fund of ——— division (using the name of the division).

May set apart moneys.

2754. When a special tax is petitioned for, the board of supervisors shall immediately order an election within such road division to determine whether the same shall be levied; and the board may in its discretion submit to the electors at such election the question whether the balance of the estimated cost of the proposed work shall be raised by a special tax in one, two, or three successive years, raising an equal amount each year. Such election must be called by posting notices not more than one mile apart, and not less than three such notices, along the road or roads proposed to be improved or constructed,

Special tax election.

Notices of.

at least fifteen days before the election, and by publishing the same at least once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county.

What notice must specify.

2755. Such notices must specify the time and place or places of holding the election, the amount of money proposed to be raised and the purpose for which it is to be used, including a brief description of the proposed work and materials to be used, and whether it is proposed to raise the amount in one, two or three successive years. If in more than one year, the amount proposed to be raised each year.

Conduct of election.

2756. For the purposes of this election, the supervisors shall establish, by order, one or more precincts and appoint three judges for each to conduct the same, and it must be held in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the general election law; but no particular form of ballot need be used, nor shall any informality in conducting such election invalidate the same if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted.

Ballots.

2757. At such elections the ballots shall contain the words "Tax—Yes" or "Tax—No."

Certificate of vote

2758. The officers of the election must certify the result of the election to the board of supervisors, giving the whole number of votes cast, the number for and the number against the tax. If the majority shall be against the tax, the money theretofore transferred to the fund of such division shall revert to the funds from which it was taken.

Tax, how levied.

2759. If the majority of the votes cast are for the tax, the supervisors must at the time of levying the county taxes levy a tax upon all the taxable property in the division sufficient to raise the amount voted for the current fiscal year. The rate of taxation shall be ascertained by deducting fifteen per cent for anticipated delinquencies from the aggregate assessed value of the property in the division as it appears on the assessment roll of the county and then dividing the sum voted by the remainder of such aggregate assessment value. The tax so levied shall be computed and collected in the same manner as state and county taxes, and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of the division in which the tax is voted.

Permanent road bonds.

Special bond election.

2760. If the petition mentioned in section 2751 of this code asks for the issuance of bonds the supervisors shall call an election in such road division and submit to the electors thereof the question whether the bonds of the division shall be issued. Such election must be called by posting notices not more than one mile apart and not less than three such notices, along the road or roads proposed to be constructed or improved, at least fifteen days before the election, and by publishing the same at least once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county. The supervisors shall in such notice designate the polling place or places and define the boundaries of the election districts, but no election precinct shall be part in one and part in another of such districts.

2761. Such notice must contain :

What notice to contain.

1. The time and place or places of holding such election ;
2. The name of three judges for each election district to conduct the same ;
3. The hours during the day in which the polls will be open, not less than eight ;
4. The amount and denomination of the bonds ; the rate of interest, not exceeding seven per cent ; and the number of years, not exceeding twenty, any part of said bonds shall run ;
5. The purpose for which it is to be used, including a brief description of the proposed work and the materials to be used ;
6. The signature of the chairman of the board, attested by the county clerk.

2762. Such election shall be conducted as near as practicable in accordance with the general election law, but no particular form of ballot need be used. No informality in conducting such election shall invalidate the same if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such elections the ballots shall contain the words "Bond—Yes" or "Bond—No."

Conduct of election.

2763. The officers of the election must certify the result of the election to the board of supervisors, giving the whole number of votes cast and the number for and the number against the bonds. If two thirds of those voting thereon are in favor of issuing such bonds, then the board of supervisors shall cause an entry of that fact to be made upon the minutes, and thereupon they shall be authorized and empowered to issue the bonds of said division to the number and amount provided for in such proceedings, payable out of the funds of such division, and that the money shall be raised by taxation upon the property in said district for the redemption of said bonds and the payment of interest thereon, but the total amount of bonds so issued shall not exceed fifteen per cent of the taxable property of the division as shown by the last equalized assessment roll of the county.

Certificate
of result.

2764. The supervisors, by an order entered upon the minutes, shall prescribe the form of said bonds and of the interest coupons attached thereto, and shall fix the time when the several bonds shall become due, not exceeding twenty years from the date thereof.

Form of bonds.

2765. Such bonds shall bear no greater rate of interest than seven per cent per annum, and the interest shall be payable annually. The bonds and each coupon shall bear the autograph or fac simile printed signature of the chairman of the board and of the county clerk. Said bonds shall be sold by the county treasurer, after reasonable notice, to the highest and best bidder, but not for less than par and accrued interest, if any.

Rate of interest.

How sold.

2766. If at the election mentioned in section sixteen of this act, an issue of bonds is not authorized, the money transferred to the fund of the division shall revert to the funds from which it was taken.

Reversion of moneys.

Manner of performing the work.

Road work must be by contract.

2767. The road work provided for in this act shall be done by contract let to the lowest responsible bidder in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-six hundred and forty-three of the Political Code of California. The successful bidder shall give a bond in such sum as the supervisors shall provide, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, and for the payment of all labor employed and material used in said work, and such bondsmen shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all such labor employed and such material used.

Appointment of inspectors.

2768. Before opening the bids for doing the work herein provided for, the supervisors shall appoint two inspectors, residents of the division, both of whom shall not belong to the same political party, and fix their compensation, not exceeding thirty cents an hour for the time actually spent in the performance of their duties, which compensation shall be paid out of the funds of the division. It shall be the duty of the inspectors to inspect from time to time the work being done under the contract. They shall file with the board of supervisors at least once a month written reports on the manner in which the contractor is performing the work, setting forth in detail any objections they or either of them may have to the manner in which the work is being done, with recommendations as to changes desirable and provided for in the plans and specifications. They shall also estimate the amount of work of an unsatisfactory nature done since their last report and the supervisors shall make no payment on account of such alleged unsatisfactory work until the objections have been inquired into or until the contractor shall have performed the work in strict compliance with the plans and specifications.

Duties of.

Payments
on account.

2769. The supervisors may, from time to time as the work progresses, make payments on account, but shall not, before the completion of the contract, pay more than seventy-five per cent of the contract price of the amount completed, and final payment shall not be made until the work has been accepted by the board.

Money remaining after completion
of work.

2770. Any money remaining after the completion of the work contracted for shall remain in the fund of the road division and shall be expended only in maintaining the roads of such division. On the payment of the debts of the division or on the failure at two successive elections to vote a special tax or bonds for any proposed work such road division shall cease to exist as a permanent road division; provided, that the second election for a special tax or bond issue shall be held not less than six months nor later than one year after the election at which a special tax or bond issue has been defeated.

Where notices must be published.

2771. All publications required to be made in the proceedings for the formation of a permanent road division, or the elections or other proceedings had therein, shall be published in a newspaper published within such road division if any paper is published therein; if there is no paper published within such road division, such publication shall be made in a paper published within the county and deemed by the supervisors most likely to give notice to the residents of the road division. One publication each week for three successive weeks shall be a sufficient publication under this act, including any publication under proceedings commenced but not concluded before this act takes effect.

2772. The expenses of organizing a permanent road division and of conducting any election under the provisions of this act shall be a county charge, payable out of the general county fund. Expenses of organizing division.

2773. This act is intended to furnish an alternative method for accomplishing the road construction and improvement provided for herein, and does not repeal, modify, or abridge any other act or acts having for their object the construction or improvement of roads, streets, or other public highways not within the boundaries of a municipal corporation. Construction of act.

CHAPTER 340.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code to be numbered section thirteen hundred and sixty-one a, and to amend section thirteen hundred and sixty-seven of the Political Code in relation to primary elections.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code to be known as section 1361a to read as follows:

1361a. The governing committee of any political party when filing its petition or application for a place on the primary official ballot, shall at the same time and with the officer of election authorized to receive such petitions, file a resolution prescribing the party test necessary for an elector to vote for the delegates to the nominating convention of said party, in addition to the qualifications required by law. None but persons who possess the qualifications required by law and by the resolution of said party committee must be permitted to vote for delegates to the nominating convention of said party. Primary elections.
Resolution prescribing party test.

SEC. 2. Section 1367 of the Political Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

1367. A person desiring to vote at any primary election on behalf of any party or for delegates to any convention, shall write his name and address on the roster of voters, or where unable to write shall have the same written thereon for him as provided by law, and he must also write, or where unable to write, have written for him on such roster, opposite such name Manner of voting.

and address, the name of the political party for whose candidates he in good faith, intends to vote at the election for which the primary is held. The ballot clerk shall thereupon announce his name and address and the name of the political party for whose candidates he intends to vote. Any voter may be challenged as to his right to vote for the candidates of the political party for whom he desires to vote, and when so challenged, his right to vote must be denied unless in addition to the challenges allowed by law he subscribes to the test required by the resolution of the committee of the political party for whose candidates he desires to vote. It shall be the duty of the inspector or judge to tender such oath or affirmation to any voter challenged on the grounds aforesaid. The voter may likewise be challenged for any cause that might disqualify a voter at a general election. If not challenged, or if the challenge is overruled or withdrawn, he shall receive from the ballot clerk a ballot having the designation or heading of the political party whose name was written on such roster by or for him, and he may be permitted to prepare and vote the same. The roster of voters herein provided for, must be delivered to the county clerk or registrar of voters as provided for in section twelve hundred and sixty-four a of the Political Code, and kept as a public record for public inspection, for a period of at least two years.

Challenge.

Roster of voters, disposition.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 341.

An act to amend sections 1115, 1118, and 1125 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to contesting certain elections.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1115 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1115. When an elector contests the right of any person declared elected to such office, he must, within twenty days after the declaration of the result of the election by the body canvassing the returns thereof, file with the county clerk a written statement, setting forth specifically:

1. The name of the party contesting such election, and that he is an elector of the district, county, or township, as the case may be, in which such election was held;

2. The name of the person whose right to the office is contested;

Proceedings on election contest.

3. The office;
4. The particular grounds of such contest.

Such statement must be verified by the contesting party, as provided by section four hundred and forty-six of this code.

SEC. 2. Section 1118 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1118. Within five days after the end of the time allowed for filing such statements the county clerk must notify the superior court of the county or city and county of all statements filed. The court shall thereupon order a special session to be held, on some day to be named by it, not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of such order, at which session the ballots shall be opened and a recount taken, in the presence of all the parties, of the votes cast for the various candidates in all contests where it appears from the statements filed that a recount is necessary for the proper determination of such contest or contests. The court shall continue in special session to hear and determine all other issues arising in such contested elections and within ten days after the submission thereof, the court shall file its findings of fact and conclusions of law and immediately thereafter judgment thereon shall be entered.

Special session of court to hear contest.

SEC. 3. Section 1125 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1125. If the proceedings are dismissed for insufficiency, or for want of prosecution, or the election is by the court confirmed, judgment must be rendered against the party contesting such election, for costs, in favor of the party whose election was contested; but if the election is annulled or set aside, judgment for costs must be rendered against the party whose election was contested, in favor of the party contesting the same; provided, that where two or more contested elections are joined for the purpose of recounting votes as in this title provided, the costs shall be apportioned among the parties in the discretion of the court. Primarily each party is liable for the costs created by himself, to the officers and witnesses entitled thereto, which may be collected in the same manner as similar costs are collected in other cases.

Costs.

CHAPTER 342.

An act to amend section twelve of an act entitled "An act creating a state commission on voting or balloting machines, defining their powers, and providing for the use, at the option of indicated local authorities, of voting or ballot machines for receiving and registering the vote in one or more precincts of any county, or city and county, city or town, at any or all elections held therein, and for ascertaining the result at such elections; and providing for the punishment of all violations of the provisions of this act." (Approved March 20, 1903.)

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Voting machine
commission.

SECTION 1. Section twelve of an act creating a state commission on voting or balloting machines, defining their powers, and providing for the use, at the option of indicated local authorities, of voting or ballot machines for receiving and registering the vote in one or more precincts of any county, or city and county, city or town, at any or all elections held therein, and for ascertaining the result at such elections; and providing for the punishment of all violations of the provisions of this act (approved March 20, 1903), is hereby amended to read as follows:

Duties of
of election.

Section 12. The inspectors of election shall, as soon as the result is fully ascertained and declared, as in the preceding section required, lock the machine so that the record of each election shall be preserved for the period of six months following such election, except in cases where the machine is required for use in a subsequent election during such period, in which case the board of supervisors or other board having charge and control of elections shall inspect the registering or recording and receiving device of the machines and file a report of said inspection with the county clerk or registrar of voters. Said report of said board when so certified and filed shall be prima facie evidence of the vote at such election. Any supplementary or duplicate record of an election, which may be furnished by a machine, shall be preserved by the county clerk or registrar of voters for one year following such election. Whenever either house of the legislature shall by resolution, adopted and entered upon its journal, direct that any standing or special committee of such house, shall be empowered to open and examine any voting machine or voting machines which were used at any election held within six months before the passage of such resolution, the committee of such house so empowered and authorized shall have the power and authority by its resolution in writing to order any such machine or machines to be opened, inspected or examined in any manner which such committee shall prescribe. If the opening of such a machine or machines be for the purpose only of counting or recounting the votes cast or registered at said election in a contest pending before such house, then and in such event the opening thereof and such count or recount must be made in the presence of said committee, or its sub-committee duly designated by its resolution in writing for such purpose. If the opening of such machine or machines be for any other purpose or for the investigating of the mechanism and manner of operation of a machine or machines, or for determining or reporting upon the mode of its operation, or its nature as a safe mechanical appliance for the receiving and registration of the votes of electors, then the committee must by its resolution in writing specify the person or persons who are to make such mechanical or expert inspection, and the place where and the time when such inspection is to commence, and may, if it deem proper, limit the duration of such inspection, and fix the place where the same is to be made, and state whether the same is to be made in the presence of the said committee, or of its duly appointed sub-committee, or of any other person or persons to be named by said committee. Every person employed or permitted to take part in any such inspection of such a machine or machines, or in whose presence said inspection occurred, may be required to attend and testify as a witness before such committee if required, and be subject to the subpoena of such committee. If such machine or machines be opened under the provisions of this section by order of such committee, the said committee, or its sub-committee duly appointed, shall immediately upon opening the doors, or the opening to the dial or place where the votes thereon are registered, which were cast at the last election, take off in writing the complete record of votes for all candidates which are recorded or registered upon or by said machine, and certify the same to be true and correct, with the date of such certificate, and place the same in an envelope, and seal the same in the manner required for sealing election returns, and make an endorsement upon the outside of such envelope stating the number of the machine whose record is enclosed, and forthwith file the same with the county clerk, or registrar of voters, of the county, or city and county, where such election was held, who shall receive and keep the same with the other returns of the said election in his office for a period of twelve months from the date of said election, and such record shall in any court having jurisdiction of an election contest be prima facie evidence of its contents in any case where the vote upon such a machine or machines might have been recounted by the court if such machine or machines had not been previously opened or the result thereof in any manner affected. Immediately upon the conclusion of such investigation, examination and inspection of such machine or machines, the same shall be again securely locked by the clerk, or registrar of voters, or the said committee or its sub-committee, and the keys thereof returned to the officer entitled to possession of the same under the provisions of this act, and shall not be again opened except in accordance with the provisions of this act. One voting machine of each kind or pattern may be taken by such committee or upon its order, and upon its receipt therefor, to the city of Sacramento, or the state capital, and there kept under the directions of such committee, but no such machine shall be so taken or transported without the consent of the owner thereof, unless the same be the property of a city, county, or city and county, or other political subdivision of the state. If such committee shall permit such a machine or machines to be taken apart, then and in such event the said committee shall cause the same to be restored and properly put together again, before or at the termination of its investigation, and to be returned by order of such committee, and at the expense of the state, to the place from which it was taken. If any such machine or machines be taken to Sacramento, or the state capital, under the provisions of this section, and the legislature shall adjourn sine die, without such machine or machines having been so restored and returned by such committee, then and in such event the secretary of state shall forthwith, upon such adjournment, take charge of such machine or machines, and cause the same to be properly restored and returned to the place or places respectively from which the same were taken, and the expense thereof shall be a charge against the state, and a written demand therefor, verified by the secretary of state, must be allowed by the controller by his endorsement of allowance thereon, and thereupon, upon presentation, the same shall be paid to the secretary of state by the state treasurer out of any funds of the state not otherwise appropriated. Any voting machine used at an election may, within six months from the date of such election, in any election contest, or action in the nature of quo warranto in any court of this state having jurisdiction thereof, be opened by order of such court and in its presence, for the purpose of recounting the vote involved in such election contest, under the same rules and conditions that apply to the opening of packages of sealed ballots and the recounting of the same, and must be forthwith locked again as soon as the result upon each machine is tallied, and in the presence of the said court.

CHAPTER 343.

An act supplementary to an act entitled "An act creating a state commission on voting or balloting machines, defining their powers and providing for the use at the option of indicated local authorities of voting or ballot machines for receiving and registering the vote in one or more precincts in any county or city and county, city or town, at any or all elections held therein, and for ascertaining the result of such election; providing for the punishment of all violations of the provisions of this act," approved March 20, 1903, and providing for the testing and inspection of such machines.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Within not more than thirty nor less than twenty days before the holding of any election in any county, city and county, city or town, at which is to be used voting or ballot machines adopted under the provisions of the act referred to in the title of this act, the county clerk or other officer having control of such election in such county, city and county, city or town, shall fix a day, which shall not be more than fifteen days nor less than five days before the date of such election, upon which the voting or ballot machines to be used at such election shall be examined, tested and sealed as hereinafter provided.

Voting machine to be tested before election: duty of county clerk.

SEC. 2. At least twenty days before an election in any political subdivision where voting machines are to be used in one or more precincts, of such subdivision, under and pursuant to the law of this state, it shall be the duty of the board of election commissioners or other body having charge and control of such election, to notify in writing by mail with postage prepaid the chairman or secretary of the executive or central committee of any political party or organizations for the territory, which may have made nominations of candidates to be voted for at such election, that it may appoint representatives of such political party who shall be authorized to attend and observe the final adjustment, testing and sealing of such ballot machines, and thereupon it shall be the right of such committee to appoint as many representatives as it may see fit to select for such purpose, and to issue certificates of such appointment to such representatives by the secretary of such committees, respectively, which shall forthwith send a list of such representatives with the name of the political party or organization for which they are selected, and the name of each representative with his full address, adding street and number, to the said board of election commissioners or other body having charge and control of such election. If any political party or organization which has made nominations shall not have any chairman or secretary of such committee, or the name and address of such chairman or secretary shall not appear in its nomination papers, then the said election commissioners may send the notice above required to any person named in its nomination papers as the person to whom the certificate of nomination may be returned. Such board of election commissioners shall thereafter, and at least five days before the time therefor, send written notice with postage prepaid to each such representative of a political party or organization which has so been filed in its office, with the address of such representative; which notice shall state the time and place before such election where such representatives are invited to attend, to observe the final adjustment, testing and sealing of such voting machines, and thereafter at such time and place the final adjustment, testing and sealing of such voting machines under the directions of such board of election commissioners, shall proceed in the presence of as many of said representatives as shall assemble to observe and view the same, a full and complete opportunity shall then and there be given to such representatives to observe the processes by which such adjustment, testing and sealing is performed, and to see that the said machines are set at zero, and without any vote registered thereon for the advantage of any party or candidate or otherwise. When the said machines are so sealed they shall not be unsealed again, except by the precinct election board on the day of election and except for trial as to their correctness after transportation to the various booths or polling places, at which places such trial may be made as the board of election commissioners or body having control of the elections shall direct, to see if any machine has become in any way disarranged during transportation to the polling place, and a seal necessary to such investigation may be broken or any work performed that may be necessary to put any machine in any such polling place in complete working order for such election, and the representatives aforesaid shall have the right to attend at any and all polling places for the purpose of viewing and observing any such unsealing arrangement and resealing, which final work shall take place not later than the day before the election, nor earlier than the third day before the election. If independent candidates are nominated, and no chairman or secretary is named in the certificate of nomination, then such candidate, or candidates, shall be notified as herein specified, and may attend, or appoint representatives to attend, with all the rights and privileges provided for by this act.

Notice of time and place.

May be unsealed on day of election.

Rights of independent candidates.

Notice of final inspection.

It shall be the duty of the board of election commissioners, or other body having charge and control of such election, to notify in writing by mail with postage prepaid, the chairman or secretary of any of the executive or central committee of any political party or organization hereinbefore referred to, and any independent candidate or candidates hereinbefore referred to, of the time when the final inspection, adjustment, testing and sealing of such voting or ballot machines will commence at the polling places, and of the place or places from which the inspectors will start in the performance of such duty, and that the representatives appointed pursuant to this act or such independent candidate or candidates, may attend as provided by this act. Such notices shall be so mailed not less than three days before the time named for commencing such final inspection.

SEC. 3. Any person violating any provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment of not more than six months, or both. Penalty.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 344.

An act to amend sections 1123 and 1126 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to contesting certain elections.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1123 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1123. If in any such case it appears that another person than the one returned has the highest number of legal votes, the court must declare such person elected. The person declared elected by the superior court shall be entitled to a certificate of election; and, if a certificate has not already been issued to him, the county clerk must immediately make out and deliver to such person a certificate of election signed by him, and authenticated with the seal of the superior court. If the clerk has issued any certificate for the same office to any other person than the one declared elected by the court, such certificate shall be annulled by the judgment. Certificate of election, to whom, must be issued.

SEC. 2. Section 1126 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1126. Either party, aggrieved by the judgment of the court, may appeal therefrom to the district court of appeal, as in other cases of appeal thereto from the superior court; provided, that during the pendency of the proceedings on appeal, and until final determination of such proceedings, the person declared elected by the superior court shall be entitled to the office in like manner as if no appeal had been taken. Appeal.

SEC. 3. None of the provisions of this act shall be held to apply to any pending contest or any contest in which the decision of the superior court shall have been rendered prior to the passage of this act. Pending contests.

CHAPTER 345.

An act to amend sections 1189, 1192, 1358, 1079, 1361, 1186 and 1188 of the Political Code relating to elections.

[Approved March 19, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eleven hundred and eighty-nine of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Certificates of nomination, filing of.

1189. Certificates of nomination shall be filed with the secretary of state for the nomination of candidates for office to be filled by the electors of the entire state, or for members of the state board of equalization, state board of railroad commissioners, house of representatives, or justices of the district courts of appeal. Certificates of nomination shall be filed with the clerk or secretary of the legislative body of any incorporated city or town for the nomination of any candidate for an office under the government of any city or town, to be filled by the electors of such city or town. For all other nominations to public office, certificates of nomination shall be filed with the clerks of the respective counties wherein the offices are to be filled by the electors; and where the district or political division embraces more than one county, such certificate must be filed with the clerk of the county in which the candidate resides, and the name of each such candidate, as specified in the certificate of nomination, shall be certified by said county clerk to the county clerks of the other counties within the district or political division, not less than twenty-seven days before the day of election.

Sec. 2. Section 1192 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Certificates of nomination, time of filing.

1192. Certificates of nomination required to be filed with the secretary of state shall be filed not more than sixty days and not less than forty days before the day fixed by law for the election of the persons in nomination, when the nomination is made by a convention, and not more than sixty days and not less than thirty-five days before the day of election, when the nomination is made by electors, as provided in section one thousand one hundred and eighty-eight of this code. Certificates of nomination required to be filed with the county clerks, or with the clerk or secretary of the legislative body of any city or town, shall be filed not more than fifty nor less than thirty days before the day of election, when the nomination is made by a convention, and not more than fifty days nor less than thirty days before the day of election, when the nomination is made by electors. The county clerk of the county wherein certificates of nominations for senators and members of the assembly and judges of the superior court are required to be filed, must, within five days after the filing of such certificates, make out a copy of such certificate of nomination, certify the same under his official seal, and forward such copy or copies to the secretary of state. Should a vacancy in the list of nominees of a convention occur, such vacancy may be filled by the convention; or if it has delegated to a committee the power to fill vacancies, such committee may, upon the occurring of such vacancy, proceed to fill the same; provided, that such nominations shall be made and certified, and such certificate filed at least thirty days before the day of election, and not thereafter. The chairman and secretary of the convention, or of such committee, shall thereupon make and file with the proper officer a certificate setting forth the cause of the vacancy, the name of the person nominated, the office for which he was nominated, the name of the person for whom the new nominee is to be substituted, the fact that the committee was authorized to fill vacancies, and such further information as is required to be given in an original certificate of nomination. The county clerk of the county wherein such certificate to fill a vacancy in the list of nominees of a convention for senators, or members of the assembly, or judges of the superior court, must, within five days after the filing of such certificate, make out a copy of such certificate, certify the same under his official seal, and forward such copy or copies to the secretary of state. When a certificate to fill any vacancy shall be filed with the secretary of state, he shall, in certifying the nomination to the various county clerks, insert the name of the person who has been thus nominated to fill a vacancy in the place of the original nominee. Any person whose name has been presented as a candidate, may, at least thirty days before the day of election, cause his name to be withdrawn from nomination, by filing in the office where the original certificate of nomination was filed his request therefor, in writing, signed by him and acknowledged before the county clerk of the county in which he resides; and no name so withdrawn shall be printed on the ballot. Whenever any certificate of nomination is presented for filing to any officer authorized to file the same, such officer shall forthwith, upon receipt of the same and before filing, examine the same, and if there is any defect, omission, or reason why the same should not be filed, such officer shall then and there forthwith designate, in writing, the defect, omission, or reason why such certificate cannot be filed, and return the said certificate to the person named in such certificate as the person to whom the same may be returned, under this section, with such written designation of defect, omission, or reason for not filing the same; and after the filing of any certificate of nomination, no officer required by law to transmit any nomination, or to make up or print any ballot, shall fail or omit to transmit such nomination, or omit to print the name of any nominee or candidate named in any certificate of nomination which has been filed; and unless a certificate of nomination is returned as herein required, the officer to whom the same is properly presented shall file the same as soon as he shall receive and examine the same as herein required, and must file it as of the day it is presented. No certificate of nomination shall be entitled to be filed unless the same shall contain a designation of the name of a person to whom the same may be returned, pursuant to the provisions of this section, with the address of such person, adding street and number when there is such. Where a certificate of nomination shows that the nominations were made by a convention, or by a committee appointed by a convention to fill vacancies, if the official vote of record in the office of the secretary of state, or in the office of the officer where the same is required by law to be filed shows that the political party which held the convention referred to in such certificate had not polled three per cent of the entire vote of the state, or the county, city and county, district, or other political division, for which such convention was held, such certificate shall not be filed, and the officer with whom such a certificate is required to be filed, shall examine such official vote to ascertain the fact.

SEC. 3. Section thirteen hundred and fifty-eight of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Certain terms relating to political conventions defined.

1358. A convention to nominate candidates for public office to be voted for by the electors of the entire state will be hereinafter in this chapter designated as a state convention, and a primary election for the election of delegates to such convention will be hereinafter in this chapter designated as a state primary. Conventions to nominate candidates for representatives in congress, justices of the district courts of appeal, and members of the board of equalization, or railroad commissioners, or for senators and assemblymen, or judges of the superior court, from districts including more than one county, will be hereinafter in this chapter designated as district conventions, and a primary election to elect delegates to such conventions will be hereinafter in this chapter designated as a district primary. Conventions to nominate candidates for county, or city and county officers, judges of the superior court, or justices of the peace in any city and county, and members of the senate and assembly representing districts wholly within one county, or city and county, supervisors, and all township officers, will be hereinafter in this chapter designated as local conventions, and a primary election to elect delegates to such conventions will be hereinafter in this chapter designated as a local primary. A convention to nominate candidates for city or town officers will be hereinafter in this chapter designated as a city convention, and a primary election to elect delegates to such conventions will be hereinafter in this chapter designated as a city primary.

SEC. 4. Section 1079 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Expenditures in respect to elections.

1079. Whenever the clerk, secretary or any officer of a county, city, or city and county, is charged with the performance of any official duty, in respect to elections which involves the expenditure of public moneys, such expenditures shall be subject to the control and supervision of the board of election commissioners; and when any printing or other service is to be performed, or materials are to be furnished, the amount of which in the aggregate shall exceed the value of five hundred dollars, it shall be the duty of the board of election commissioners to invite proposals for the work, or the furnishing of the materials, and to let the contract for the same to the lowest responsible bidder therefor, in the same manner and upon the same conditions as is required in the letting of contracts for doing other and similar work, or furnishing other and similar materials, for county, city, or city and county purposes; provided, that no such proposal or bid shall be required for the contract to print ballots or the printed index of the precinct registers, if the time within which such ballots or index must be had does not reasonably admit of such proposal and bid, or where an emergency requires the immediate performance of a duty relating to the management or conduct of an election and delay in the performance of such duty might imperil the holding of the election at the time and in the manner provided by law.

ballots
or index.

SEC. 5. Section thirteen hundred and sixty-one of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1361. All political parties which, at the last election prior to any ensuing primary election herein provided for, polled at least three per cent of the entire vote of the state, county, district, city and county, city or town, or other political division for which a primary election is to be held under the provisions of this chapter, or which, in the case of any county, city and county, township, city, or district wherein no general election shall have been held after its organization, shall have polled at least three per cent of the votes cast in the precincts composing such county, city and county, township, city, or district, shall be entitled to a designation and place upon the official ballot to be used in all elections for delegates under this chapter upon complying with the provisions of this section. All other political organizations which shall file with the proper officer or board of election commissioners the petition required in such behalf by the provisions of this chapter shall be entitled to participate in such primary election.

Parties
entitled to

official primary election ballot where such primary election is to be held under the provisions of this chapter. Where a state convention is to be held, the respective petitions as filed shall provide that the same delegates composing the state convention, who reside within the respective appellate districts, railroad commissioner districts and state equalization districts, shall be the delegates to the respective conventions to nominate candidates for justices of the district courts of appeal, railroad commissioners, and for members of the state board of equalization. And the petitions filed by congressional district committees, where there are such committees, shall state whether the delegates elected to a state convention, within such congressional district, shall be the delegates empowered to nominate a candidate for congress in such district, or whether separate delegates shall be selected in such congressional district for that purpose. And petitions filed by senatorial or assembly district committees, from districts including more than one county, where there are such district committees, shall state whether the same delegates to the state convention residing within such district shall nominate the candidate for senator or assemblyman in such district, or whether separate delegates shall be elected in such district for that purpose. And unless there shall be such district petitions providing for such separate delegates in the cases aforesaid, such district candidates for congress, state senator, or assemblyman shall be nominated by the delegates to the state convention who come from and reside within such respective districts. Such petition must further state the number of delegates who will compose the convention, and specify the basis of the apportionment upon which they are to be elected. Such petition may either make such apportionment in detail, or may leave such apportionment in detail to the party committees of the respective counties, or of any city and county, in this state; provided, however, that any apportionment made in accordance with the provisions of this chapter must be made on the same basis for each subdivision, and must not be to, or the election by, territory not included in the same assembly district; nor such as to allow voters in different counties to vote for the same delegate or delegates; such petition must be duly verified as to the truth of such matters by the chairman or secretary, or a governing officer of such party, before an officer authorized to administer an oath in this state. If the petition be by a political organization which has not previously polled three per cent of the vote as heretofore mentioned and specified in this section, then and in that event such petition must be signed by the electors residing within the state, district, or political division for which candidates are to be presented, equal in number to at least three per cent of the entire vote cast at the last preceding election in the state, district, or political division for which nominations are to be made, and must be verified as required by section eleven hundred and eighty-eight of the Political Code, and be signed and arranged in all respects as required for certificates of nomination by the provisions of section eleven hundred and eighty-eight of the Political Code, and contain the name and complete address of a person to whom the same may be returned if not entitled to be filed; and all the provisions of section eleven hundred and ninety-two of the Political Code relating to the presentation, examination, and return of certificates of nominations, shall apply to the petitions mentioned in this section. Such petition may also contain the names of any committee of said organization and of the officers of such committee for the territory to which said petition relates, with the address of such officers. Where local conventions are to be held such petitions must be authenticated in the same manner as above provided for state or district conventions by the governing officers or committee of the party for the county, city, or city and county, or by signers to a verified petition as hereinbefore specified, and must set forth the same things as hereinbefore required in a petition for participation in a state or district primary election. Such last named petition must further specify whether or not the same delegates are to serve in the local convention, and also in subdivisions of such local conventions, for the purpose of nominating state senators, members of the assembly, judges of the superior court, supervisors, or other township and local officers, or whether different sets of delegates are to be elected to such local conventions, and must specify in detail the apportionment of delegates, whether by assembly districts, or by wards, or by primary election precincts, or combinations thereof not to exceed an assembly district, for each proposed convention, and the basis of apportionment shall be the same as hereinbefore provided; provided, however, that only such delegates as have been elected from any senatorial or assembly district shall make the nomination of senator or assemblyman from such district, respectively. If the apportionment last mentioned is not contained in any petition filed, then such apportionment shall be made by the board of election commissioners with whom the petition is filed before the publication provided for in section thirteen hundred and sixty-three of this code. Such last named petition for participation in a local primary election must be filed with the board of election commissioners of the county, or city and county, at least thirty days before the date of such primary election. Where a city primary is to be held such petition must set forth the same facts required to be set forth in a petition for participation in a local primary election, must be governed by the same rules, and must be executed by the governing officers or committee of the party for such city or town, and in like manner and time filed with the governing body of such city or town, or by signers to a verified petition as hereinbefore specified. Such last named petition for participation in a city primary must specify in detail the apportionment of delegates, whether by assembly districts, or by wards, or by primary election precincts, or combinations thereof not to exceed an assembly district, where the same have already been established.

SEC. 6. Section 1186 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Nomination of candidates for public office.

1186. Any convention as hereinafter defined may make nominations of candidates for public office, including electors of president and vice-president of the United States to be filled by election within the state. A convention, within the meaning of this chapter is an organized assemblage of delegates representing a political party, or organization. If such convention be assembled to present candidates for public office to be elected within territory, or political division in the whole of which the provisions of sections thirteen hundred and fifty-seven to thirteen hundred and seventy-five, both inclusive of this code are mandatory or were in force and effect at the time of the election of delegates thereto, then and in such event all the delegates acting therein must have been chosen at a primary election held under the provisions of said sections of this code. If such convention be assembled to present candidates for public office to be elected within territory in a portion of which the said sections of this code are mandatory or in force and effect, and in a portion of which said sections are not in force or effect, then and in such event the delegates acting in such convention representing there in territory or a political division where such said sections are in force and effect, must have been chosen at a primary election held under the provisions thereof. If such convention be assembled to present candidates for public office to be elected within territory or a political division in no portion of which said sections of this code are mandatory or in force and effect, then and in such event the political party which such organized assemblage of delegates represents, must have at the last election before the holding of such convention polled at least three per cent of the entire vote of the state, or of the county, city and county, district, or other political division for which nominations are to be made; provided, that in any political division of this state wherein no general election shall have been held after its organization, a convention as last above referred to, of any political party polling at least three per cent of the votes cast in the precincts composing said political division, shall have the same power, and its nominations the same effect as though such political division had been organized before the next preceding general election. Any conventions as herein defined may, in addition to making nominations of candidates for public office, appoint or elect a governing committee for the political party which the delegates in such convention represent, for the territory which is thus represented, which committee shall serve for the next ensuing two years, and until the next biennial convention of the party which it represents has organized, but no longer; provided, that in years when a state convention assembles to select delegates to a national convention to nominate a candidate for president and for vice-president of the United States, such state convention shall have the power to choose a committee or governing body to represent the party in the territory which such convention represents, which committee or governing body shall hold and exercise its power until the next state convention to nominate a governor and other state officers shall assemble and select its successors. Whenever there shall be in any political subdivision of the state more than one body claiming to represent a certain political party or organization in such territory, if such political party have a state committee, such state committee or its executive committee, if it have one, and has delegated such power to it, may determine which of such bodies represents such political party in such territory, and such decision shall be final and all officers shall be bound thereby. The decision shall be in writing, and shall name the chairman and secretary of the political committee for such political subdivision which it recognizes, and shall be attested by the secretary of the committee making the decision, and a duplicate must be filed with the election commissioners of such political subdivision or its clerk, secretary, or registrar of voters.

Every certificate of nomination where the nominations have been made by a convention or where a vacancy is filled by certificate made by a committee appointed by a convention, must set forth that the party which held such convention had at the last preceding election before the holding of such convention, cast at least three per cent of the entire vote of the state, or of the county, city and county, district, or other political division for which such nominations were made. In determining the question whether such political party had cast such three per cent of such vote as specified in this section the vote shall be considered and computed only, which was cast for a candidate or candidates, of such party at said last preceding election, who was not, or were not previously, nominated by a convention of any other political party or organization than the party holding the convention referred to in such certificate.

What certificate of nomination must show.

No such certificate of nomination by a convention or by such a committee shall be filed if it appear from the official vote, of record, in the office of the secretary of state, or of the officer with whom such certificate is required to be filed, that such party had not polled three per cent of the entire vote at the last preceding election, as required by this section; and the officer to whom such certificate is presented is required to examine such official vote so of record and to ascertain such fact.

When certificate shall not be filed.

SEC. 7. Section 1188 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1188. A candidate for public office may be nominated otherwise than by a convention, in the manner following: A certificate of nomination containing the name of the candidate to be nominated, with the other information required to be given in the certificates provided for in section eleven hundred and eighty-seven of this code, shall be signed by electors residing within the district or political division for which candidates are to be presented equal in number to at least three per cent of the entire vote cast at the last preceding election in the state, district, or political division for which the nomination is to be made. Said petitioners may also designate any number of Nominations other than by conventions.
