RENEW! RENEWE!

Many of our subscribers are still filled with their subscriptions. Some of them have the prospect of being able to show their appreciation and requesting a renewal, which we cheerfully will respond.

UNINTENTIONAL DISCOVERIES.

Working up the Cynosure, we have been told that the editor was not a member of the Cynosure. We are sorry to hear this, but we are sure that the editor is a member of the Cynosure.

The first article we noticed was upon slavery in Idaho. The editor complained that his name was not mentioned in the article. We are sorry to hear this, but we are sure that the editor is a member of the Cynosure.

Yes, and there is beyond doubt, a large number who are thus disappointed; not in this matter of fraternal sympathy only, but in respect to the beautiful prospect which this Cynosure affords to the friends of the cause.

Looking further, we found remarkable evidence that there is a little harmony among the friends of the cause. We are glad to hear this, and we are sure that the editor is a member of the Cynosure.

Our best wishes are to all who are true to the cause. We are sure that the editor is a member of the Cynosure.

these truths will increase, and that other friends will be added to the ranks of the true friends of the cause.

MERCENARY FOLLOWERS.

The Life Boat is a Chicago weekly, in its issue of the 17th inst. it publishes an article in which it attacks the Cynosure.

THE LESSON OF SELF SURRENDER.

By the late France we received the third number of the Life Boat, which has been published in the city of Chicago.
