CHRONICLES OF THE 123D OHIO VOLUNTEER INFANTRY.

1st. Man that is born of woman, and enlisteth as a soldier in the One Hundred and Twenty Third Ohio, is of a few days, and short of rations

2d. He cometh forth at "reville," is present also at "retreat," yea, even "tattoo," and returneth apparently at "taps."

3d. He draweth his rations from the Commissary and devoureth the same.—He striketh his teeth against much "hard tack," and is satisfied. He filleth his canteen with "applejack," and clappeth the mouth thereof upon the mouth of a whiskey barrel, and after a little while goeth away rejoicing in his strategy.

4th. Much soldiering bath made him sharp; yea, even the seat of his breeches is in danger of being cut through.

5th. He covenanteth with the credulous farmer for many turkeys and chickens; also at the same time for much milk and honey, to be paid for promptly at the end of each ten days, and lo! his regiment moveth on the ninth day to another post.

6th. His tent is filled with potatoes, cabbages, turnips, kroun, and other delicate morsels of a delicious taste, which abound not in the Commissary Department.

7. And many other things not in the "returns," and which never will return; yet of a truth it must be said of the soldiers of the One Hundred and Twenty-Third that he taketh nothing that he cannot reach.

8. He fireth his Austrian rifle at midnight, and the whole camp is aroused and formed in line of battle, when lo! his mess comes bearing in a nice porker, which he solemnly declareth so resembled a scesch that he was compelled to pull trigger.

9th. He giveth the Provost Marshal much trouble, often capturing his guard, and possesseth himself of the city.

10th. At such times lager and pretzels flow like milk and honey from his generous hand. He giveth without stint to his own comrade: yea, and withholdeth not from the One Hundred and Sixteenth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, or from the lean, lank, expectant Hooser of the Eighty seventh Pennsylvania.

11th. He stretcheth forth his hand to deliver his fellow soldiers of the One Hundred and Sixteenth from the power of the enemy; yea, he starteth at early dawn from Petersburg, even on a "double quick" doth he go, and telleth on through much heat, suffering, privation, and much "vexation of spirit," until they are delivered. Verily, I say unto you, after that he suffereth for want of tents and camp kettles. Yea, on the heights of Moorfield his voice may be heard proclaiming loudly for "hard tack and coffee," yet he murmureth not.

12th. But the grunt of a pig or the crowing of a cock awaketh him from the soundest sleep, and he goeth forth until halted by the guard, when he instantly clappeth his hands against his "bread-basket," and the guard, in consideration alloweth him to pass in the rear.

13th. No sooner hath he passed the sentry's beat than he striketh a bee line for the nearest hen roost, and seizing a pair of plump pullets, returneth soliloquizing, "the noise of a goose saved Rome," how much more the flesh of chickens preserveth the soldier.

14th. He even playeth at eucher with the parson to see whether or not there shall be preaching in the camp on the following Sabbath; and by dexterously drawing from the bottom a Jack, goeth away rejoicing that the service is postponed.

15th. And many other things doth he; and lo! are they not recorded in the "morning reports" of Company B?

Yea, verily.

ENGLISH Court circles are much agitated (says a London correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer) by the publication of a command by the Queen, prohibiting the use of tobacco anywhere within the precincts of Windsor Castle. So determined is she in her purpose that, not content with issuing the order in general terms, she has had it printed, framed, and glazed, and hung up in every room in the castle—not only in the apartments appropriated to ordinary guests, but in those occupied by the officers, Lords and Ministers in waiting, and even in those now being fitted up in one of the separate towers for the especial and exclusive use of the Prince of Wales. It is generally understood that it is particularly against him that the movement is directed, and that it covers other and more serious offenses. The recent birthday of the Prince, hitherto kept as a day of great festivity at the Court, passed over without the slightest recognition at Windsor Castle. What the real trouble is no one seems to know.

COWHIDES AND PEPPER.—Cincinnati

(not Chicago, this time,) is apparently much excited about this time by an affair which occurred in the Park Street Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday. The parties were Mark R. Barnitz, who appears to be one of the pillars and high in the church, and Miss Penelope E. Jacob, who was a prominent member of the same church, and had been in Barnitz employ as seamstress. Barnitz made insulting and disgraceful overtures to her, which she resented, and a muss followed in the church. Some months were occupied in bringing charges against him, but Barnitz contrived to have the proceedings suppressed. Miss Jacob determined to commence suit for defamation of character; but this process being a slow one, she resolved on another. Accordingly, on Thursday, Miss Jacob went to a saddlery establishment on Main st., and purchased a cowhide, the proprietor suggested to her "not to whip children with that cowhide." She replied, "No, sir, it is to be used on big ones." On her way home she purchased a quarter of a pound of cayenne pepper. Without imparting to any one her purpose, she got up on Sunday morning as usual, took her breakfast and then dressed for church. She arrived at the chapel before the services were commenced, and took a seat immediately opposite to the one occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Barnitz. Mr. B., who is the leader of the singing in the church, observed Miss Jacob take a seat opposite to him, and eye him closely. His eyes dropped, and he immediately appeared agitated. He did not sing, the task being assigned to Brother Hidden. When the second hymn was being sung, all the congregation were on their feet except Mr. Barnitz and Miss Jacob. They two only remained seated. The first one to kneel was Barnitz, covering his face with both hands. As soon as the Rev. Mr. Hitchcock had commenced his prayer, Miss Jacob deliberately pulled the gloves from her hands, and then untying the whip which was under her cloak, drew it out, and walking over to where Barnitz was kneeling, dealt five or six heavy blows across his head, face, and hands, each stroke sounding distinctly in every part of the house. The minister ceased prayer, the congregation rose to their feet, and Barnitz, still on his knees, raised up, and seizing the cowhide, wrenched it from her hand, and attempted to strike her, but was prevented by a Mr. Cumming, who grappled his arms. Miss Jacobs then seized him by the hair of the head with her left hand, and with her right washed his face all over with cayenne pepper, exclaiming: "Mack Barnitz, you are a black-hearted, cowardly villain, and this is for your lying." Then turning to Mrs. Barnitz, she said, "You wanted to know who my mother was. She was a decent woman, and I'm not a bastard, and that is more than you can say." At this instant some one put his hand over her mouth, when she took another handful of pepper, and throwing it over her shoulder at him, the crowd, which were wont to press upon her, soon beat a hasty retreat. A Mr. Rennie caught her round the waist and pulled her toward the door. Miss Jacob, seeing Mr. Rennie, recognized in him one of her persecutors, and, turning upon him, also washed his face with the pepper. The Rev. Marley was seated in the pulpit during all this contumacious. Before quiet was restored and the services could go on more than half the congregation had left the church.—N. Y. Corres. Call.

THE HUMAN FIGURE.—The proportions of the human figure are strictly mathematical. The whole figure is six times the length of the foot. Whether the form be slender or plump, this rule holds good. Any deviation from it is a departure from the highest beauty of proportion. The Greeks made all their statues according to this rule. The face, from the highest point on the forehead, where the hair begins, to the chin, is one-tenth of the whole stature. The hand, from the wrist to the middle finger, is the same. The chest is one-fourth; and from the nipple to the top of the head is the same. From the top of the chest to the highest point of the forehead is one-seventh. If the length of the face, from the roots of the hair to the chin, be divided into three equal parts, the first division determines the place where the eyebrows meet, and the second the place where the nostrils. The navel is the central part of the human body, and if a man should lie on his back with his hands extended, the periphery of the circle which might be described around him, with the navel for its centre, would touch the extremities of his hands and feet. The height from the feet to the top of the head is the same as the distance from the extremity of the fingers when the arms are extended.

"I CAN'T believe it's any use, this vaccination," said a Yankee. "I had a child vaccinated, and he fell out of the window a week after and got killed."

DOGS.—Dogs are a nuisance—or they are not. We like dogs, some kinds of dogs, dogs of certain breeds and good education. But good as a few dogs are in their places, we do not like too many of them. Even a good thing can be overdone. But as to mongrel whelps and hounds of low degree, we repudiate, abhor, and condemn the whole pack that run yelping at people's heels, hunting their carriages, killing their chickens, worrying their sheep, and frightening their children. In the eastern States there are dog laws, which make this property pay taxes—regulate it and puts money in the treasury. This State has long wanted a dog law. The man who has a good dog will readily take out a license for him, and he who has a scrub will not care how soon he is killed. Mr. Dodson, Assemblyman from Lake and Napa, has introduced a bill on this subject, the substance of a few sections of which we subjoin. Every owner of a dog shall, on or before the first day of April of each year, cause it to be registered, numbered, described, and licensed for one year from the date of such registration, in the office of the County Clerk of the county wherein he resides, and shall pay for such license two dollars and fifty cents for a male dog, and five dollars for a female dog. The money shall be paid into the county treasury. Every dog so licensed shall wear around its neck a collar, distinctly marked with its owner's name and registered number. Any person may, and every police officer and constable shall kill or cause to be destroyed all dogs going at large and not licensed and collared according to the provisions of this Act. Officers shall receive from the city or county treasury one dollar for each dog so destroyed by them. Whoever wrongfully removes the collar from the neck of a dog so licensed and collared, or steals a dog so licensed or collared, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars. Whoever wrongfully kills, maims, entices or carries away a dog so licensed or collared, shall be liable to its owner for its full value of an action of tort. The owner of any sheep, lambs, hogs, or cattle, suffering loss by reason of the worrying, mangling, or killing thereof by dogs, may present to the mayor or justice of the peace of the town or township wherein the damage is done, proof thereof; and thereupon the said officers shall draw an order in favor of the owner upon the Treasurer for the amount of such loss. Whoever keeps a dog not registered, numbered, described, and licensed according to the provisions of this Act, shall forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by complaint, to the use of the city or county wherein the dog is kept. The city council of any city or town may make such additional by-laws and regulations concerning the licensing and restraining of dogs as they may deem expedient; and may fix any penalties not exceeding ten dollars, for any breach thereof; said by-laws and regulations shall relate only to dogs, owned or kept in such city or town; and the annual fee required for a license shall not be more than two dollars, in addition to the sum required by the first section of this Act.—Bee.

MANURING PEAR TREES.—At one of the Fruit Growers' Meetings, Dr. I. M. Ward, of Newark, N. J., gave, by request an account of his manner of manuring his pear orchard. In Autumn he applies several barrow loads of coarse stable manure to each tree, spreading it several inches thick all around the tree as far as the roots extend. During the Winter the soluble matter is gradually leached from the manure and carried into the soil. In the spring what remains of the manure is covered with a coating of salt hay (or any other cheap hay) and it is allowed to remain on until Fall, when it is removed, and manure applied as before. By having the ground mulched in this way, it is kept moist and free from weeds. This mode of applying manure is approved by some of our most successful cultivators, and is preferred to plowing in the manure, at the risk of disturbing the surface roots.

WOOL.—The history of the growth of wool is very curious. Fifty years ago not a pound of wool was raised in the United States, in Great Britain, or in any other country except Spain. In the latter country the flocks were owned exclusively by the nobility or by the Crown. In 1794 a small flock was sent to the Elector of Saxony, as a present from the King of Spain, whence the entire product of Saxony wool, now of such immense value. In 1809, during the second invasion of Spain by the French, some of the valuable Crown flocks were sold to raise money. The American Consul at Lisbon, Jarvis, purchased fourteen hundred head and sent them to this country. A portion of the blood of these pure unimixed Merino flocks is to be found in Vermont at this time. Such was the origin of the immense flocks of fine wool sheep in the United States.

A NATION OF PIGMIES.—In the Bay

of Bengal, on the very high road of commerce, is a group of islands thickly covered with impenetrable jungle, and swarming with leeches in the rainy, and ticks in the dry season. Except a species of pig, until recently unknown to science, there are no wild animals that offer any molestation to man; but to make up for this deficiency, the human inhabitants are among the most savage and hostile that voyagers have ever encountered. They may truly be termed a nation of pigmies, being on an average only four feet five inches high, and weighing from seventy to seventy-five pounds, but they are well proportioned and show an agility and nimbleness truly wonderful. Their skin is dark, though not black as that of the negro, and their faces decidedly ugly. They go entirely naked, shave the hair off their head with pieces of bamboo or broken bottle, and further increase their unsightly appearance by daubing themselves all over with a mixture of red ochre and oil, or covering their persons toward nightfall with a thick coating of soft mud to serve as a protection against mosquitoes, with which, in addition to the leeches and ticks, they seem to be tormented the whole year round. They are excellent swimmers, taking to the water almost before they can walk; and they rely upon the sea for the principal supply of their food—turtles, oysters, and fish.

ADVICE OF AN OLD LADY.—Now,

John, I am older than you, or I couldn't be your mother. Never do marry a young woman, John, before you have contrived to drop in at the house where she lives at least four or five times before breakfast. You should know how late she lies in bed in the morning. You should take notice whether her complexion is the same in the morning as it is in the evening, or whether the morning wash and the towel have robbed her of her evening bloom. You should take care to surprise her so that you may see her in her morning dress, and observe how her hair looks when she is not expecting you. If possible, you should be where you can hear the morning conversation between her and her mother. If she is ill-natured and snappish to her mother, so she will be to you, depend on it. But if you find her up and dressed neatly in the morning, with the same countenance, the same neatly combed hair, the same ready and pleasant answers to her mother, which characterizes her appearance and deportment in the evening, and particularly if she is lending a hand to get the breakfast ready in good time, she is a prize, John, and the sooner you secure her to yourself the better.

HOW A NEWSBOY OUTWITTED ARTEMUS

WARD.—We have heard this good story about Artemus Ward, the "Grate Showman." On his trip from Placerville to Carson, he had for a travelling companion a San Francisco newsboy, whose sallies of wit fairly eclipsed the imported wit of the "hero of the Babes of the Wood." So sociable did they become, that upon reaching Strawberry Valley, Artemus extended an invitation to his new friend to join him in "something to drink." They accordingly went to the bar, where the newsboy called for a bottle of wine. It was handed to them, and the two individuals imbibed, after which Artemus demanded the amount of the bill. "Five dollars, sir," answered the bar-tender. The money was paid and the travellers resumed their seats in the coach. After riding a short distance the showman turned to the boy and said, "I think you ran it pretty steep on me; when I asked you to take a drink I expected it would cost about fifty cents, instead of which you made it cost me five dollars. The newsboy shut one eye, and after looking quizzically at Artemus for a moment, replied, "Don't mind it, old fellow; you have no reason to complain; you 'bilked' me twice in San Francisco, and I make it a rule to always play for even."—Call.

ANSWERING THE INFIDEL.—The Rev.

Dr. Wadsworth, of San Francisco, in the course of a sermon, a few weeks since, remarked: "If the infidel tells me Christianity is a fable, devised by priestcraft, I am assured either that he is insincere and utters a falsehood, or else that he is incapable of drawing from reason a correct conclusion; and in neither case fit for logic."

A FARCE was produced in Bannister's time under the title of "Fire and Water."

"I predict its fate,"

"What fate?" whispered the anxious author at his side.

"What fate?" said Bannister; "why what can fire and water produce but a hiss?"

"Don't cry, little boy. Did he hit you on purpose?"

"No, sir; he hit me on the head."

We would call the attention of our readers to the New Advertisements in another column—as follows:

H. T. Holmes, manufacturer of Line and Marble Dust, and importer of Plaster, Cement, Hair, Lath, Nails, etc., 6th street, between K and L, Sacramento.

B. Kozminsky & Co., importers and dealers in Cigars, Tobacco, Pipes, Cards, etc.; also, Dried Fruits and Nuts, No. 166 J street, Sacramento.

Land to Let or for Sale; Stock taken on Pasture; Blacksmith Shop, etc., to Let; Vineyard and Orchard to Let, and Personal Property for sale. Inquire of Green & Trainor, Sacramento.

300,000 Fruit and Ornamental Trees and Plants, Evergreens, Shrubs, Roses, &c., comprising a general assortment of Nursery articles, for sale, at low prices, by C. W. Reed, Sacramento. C. F. Reed is agent for Knight's Landing.

R. P. Glass has purchased the Livery and Sale Stable of Adams & Glascock at Woodland. He has always on hand good saddle and buggy horses.

We would particularly call the attention of Contractors to the notice of the Supervisors, that sealed proposals will be received for the erection of a bridge across Dry Slough.

DR. HARTSOUGH, Assemblyman from this county, introduced a bill on Wednesday last, which was referred, providing for an increase of the pay of the Board of Supervisors in this county. We hope the bill will pass, for the present pay of four dollars per day in County Warrants, that are, as a general thing, never redeemed in less than a year, is no compensation for the expenses they necessarily incur and the duties they are required to perform. Whilst we are opposed to the useless expenditure of public moneys, or to paying princely salaries to public officers, yet we are in favor of allowing a fair compensation (such as will command suitable talent for the position) to all public officers.

SENATOR J. T. HALL presented a petition from the citizens of Yolo county, representing that under the laws for the sale of swamp and overflowed lands they have become purchasers, and, as they had been led to believe, owners of lands in that county, on which they have resided from ten to thirteen years, built houses and proceeded to adopt measures for further reclamation, having paid their money and received certificates of purchase; and that now the Register of the General Land Office at San Francisco is advertising their lands for sale. It was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The Annual Meeting of this Society, for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may come before it, will be held at the Pavilion, in Sacramento, on Tuesday, the 26th of the present month, at 1 o'clock P. M. A general attendance of members and delegates from District and County Societies is desired, as subjects of importance to the material interests of the State will be discussed.

At a late meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Placer county, it was ordered that bonds to the amount of $25,000 be issued to the Pacific Railroad Company, from No. 451 to No. 500 inclusive, and the County Treasurer was authorized and required to transfer from the County General Fund the sum of $1,000, and hold the same subject to the order of the Railroad Commissioners of Placer county.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—On Monday week next the Board of Supervisors will hold their regular quarterly meeting at Woodland.

PAPERS AND PICTORIALS.—We return thanks to J. Stratman & Co. for full files of Atlantic Papers and Periodicals.

PUB. DOCS.—We are under obligations to the Hon. J. T. Hall for public documents during the week.

LUMBER.—B. S. Stanley has just received about 100,000 feet assorted Lumber.

GARDEN SEEDS.—Just received, a fine lot of fresh Garden Seeds at Raveley's.

THE total number of saw-mills in the State is 218, which turn out per annum 111,785,500 feet of lumber, and 22,867,000 shingles.

The Legislature on the Currency Question.

The effort making by a few self-assumed patriots in the Legislature to repeal the Special Contract Act passed last winter, is giving these worthies the desired chance of letting off their surplus steam, at the expense of the tax-payers of the State. Seriously considered, we have no hesitation in saying that the people in this State, as a mass, are opposed to this needless tinkering with the currency.—There are a few who, generally speaking, have nothing to lose, and all to gain, by changes of this nature, that think in the general scramble they might possibly better their condition, just as a drowning man catches at straws; but the business men—the community who receive and pay the great portion of the currency of the State—are perfectly satisfied with the present law of last year, and desire no change. The subterfuge of patriotism is a very cheap way to cover up these shallow designs. Ask any of the advocates of a change in currency, and they will tell you the war will be over in a year from this date, and then we and the nation can return to a metallic currency.—Take this for granted, and even say it takes two years, which is the longest time set for the termination of the war, and then consider, would it be policy to revolutionize the financial statutes of our State twice—once in the change, and once in the return to the old order—in such a short space of time? Especially when this change can in no way help to advance the interests of the Government, or tend one iota to further the war's progress? Our people have been and are still willing, and show by their deeds that they as patriotically, sustain the Government as any State in the Union, and we have not, neither do we propose to repudiate the National currency; we simply say, pay your debts in the article you intend to use to pay them in. If in currency, be it; if gold, gold let it be; or any other species of merchandise which the contract calls for. We presume if the heads of the nation felt the least inconvenience from the course we are pursuing on the currency question, they would intimate to us their disapproval of our course.—When that time arrives it will be time enough to agitate the question. In the meantime we firmly believe there is good sense enough in our Legislature to put a quietus on this useless and uncalled-for agitation on the currency question.

THE LEADING EXPORT OF THE PAST YEAR.—Statistics, which have been carefully kept during the past year, show, says the Bulletin, that $52,500,000 of gold and silver were received in that city from the various mines of the Pacific coast. Of this amount $12,000,000 comes from the eastern slope of the Sierra Nevada; $5,000,000 from Oregon, Idaho, Washington, and British Columbia; $2,000,000 from Mexico, mostly in coin; the balance being the product of the mines of California west of the Sierra Nevada. These figures exhibit a considerable increase upon the treasure receipts of last year, for which the silver mines of Washoe are entitled to nearly all the credit.—Considering the present wonderful activity in mining enterprises, it is probable that another year will show a larger increase in the production of precious metals than has the last; but $55,000,000 may be regarded as an outside estimate of the product of 1864 from all the mines of the Pacific coast, over which the United States exercises jurisdiction.

An impression prevailed, says the Bee, among some persons here—and some of the newspapers, without consideration, doubtless, gave expression to it—that the President's conditional offer of pardon to certain traitors included the Chapman pirates. This is not so, as will be seen by the following:

A letter from Judge Advocate General Holt, just published, says the President holds that the amnesty offered by the proclamation does not extend to the prisoners of war nor to persons suffering punishment under sentence of court martial, or under charges for military offenses.

On Saturday the condition of the State Treasury was as follows: In general fund, $59,463 89; total in treasury, $515,574 34. General fund warrants payable to No. 1,708. Capital fund to No. 2,169, and Legislative fund to No. 1,780.

THE rebel pirates, up to October 1st, 1863, had captured no less than 178 vessels, the tonnage of which amounted to 80,899 tons, and whose value was estimated at $30,000,000.

V. E. GEIGER passed through Salt Lake recently on his way to Dixie.

Board of Supervisors.

The Board of Supervisors of Yolo county met at Woodland on Friday, January 15th, 1863, pursuant to adjournment, and during the session disposed of the following business:

Two reports of Amos Matthews, Superintendent of the work on bridge and road leading from Washington to Tule House, certifying the completion of said bridge and road, it is, on motion, ordered that the balance due contractors on said work be paid.

On motion, the Treasurer of Yolo county is hereby requested and authorized to receive from Chas. H. Gray the sum of $90 27, receipting therefor, and place the same to the credit of the Contingent Fund.

In the matter of the petition of F. G. Russell and others, for a bridge across Dry Slough, on Sacramento and Buckeye road, it is, on motion, ordered that said petition be granted, and that the clerk forward advertisements to the "Knight's Landing News" for sealed proposals for erecting said bridge in pursuance of plan and specifications now on file.

On motion, ordered that one-half of road between Schindler and Warring be declared a public highway.

Sundry and numerous accounts this term allowed.

On motion adjourned.

SALE OF THE LINDELL HOTEL.—On Wednesday, Dec. 16, this splendid hotel, the pride and boast of St. Louis, was sold at public auction, in accordance with the terms of a deed of trust which has been published in the city papers for some time past. The sale was made by the trustees on account of the failure of the Hotel Company to meet the coupons due in July, on the second mortgage bonds, amounting to $338,000, which were held by the Boatmen's Savings Institution of this city. Henry Ames & Co., the extensive meat packers of this city, were the successful bidders at $150,000—their purchase being subject, of course, to the first mortgage bonds of $200,000, the bonds bearing ten per cent. interest. These bonds have about eight years to run. The sale was, of course, subject to the lease of the present proprietors, Messrs. Spear and Parks, whose lease for fifteen years was fully ratified and approved by both classes of bondholders, when they engaged to occupy, furnish at an immense outlay, and open the house. The sight of lease will be acknowledged under the sale, and there will be no interference, present or future, with the plans Messrs. S. and P. are carrying out, of making the Lindell one of the model hotels of the world. The purchase may fairly be considered an excellent one for Messrs. Ames & Co. They receive for less than $400,000 a superb structure, which is the chief ornament of the city, and on which has been expended more than three-quarters of a million of dollars. From present prospects, and the popularity of the house since its opening, the purchasers will find their purchase a good investment.—St. Louis Corres. of Call.

SACRAMENTO.—There is no city existing on God's footstool that has suffered by fire and flood as has Sacramento; and there is not another set of people to be found anywhere—either in Europe, Asia, Africa, or America—possessing the energy and perseverance of the people who inhabit the "City of the Plains." In November, 1852, nearly the entire city was destroyed by fire. In December, 1853, or January, 1854, it was entirely inundated with water. In 1862 the most terrible flood ever known to occur on this coast again swept over the city, destroying millions of dollars worth of property, rendering a large number of families homeless and homeless, and impoverishing thousands of her citizens; and yet to-day Sacramento stands with head erect and as beautiful to behold as she ever has been since the first house was erected within her limits. Many of the streets have been filled up to a grade, to which others are being raised as fast as possible. J, K, L, M, and N are undergoing the process of graveling; while all the streets lying between N and R—the southern limit of the city—are being graded.—Many of the cross streets lying between Front and Ninth are also filled to the grade, or partially so; and the crossings are as good as any to be found in any city in the State. The people of Sacramento deserve great credit for their energy and perseverance, and for the indomitable spirit displayed by them in conquering fire and floods.—San Juan (Nevada) Press.

THE PRAISES OF McCLELLAN INTERDICTED.—At the Washington Varieties, on the 1st inst., after Mr. Budworth had finished his second banjo song, a tremendous call was made for a song about "Little Mac." Mr. Budworth politely informed the audience that the authorities had given orders that no one was to sing about McClellan, but his heart was there all the same. This did not satisfy all the people, as they were louder than ever in their demands. Mr. B. again came forward and explained that if he sang on the subject he would be discharged, and there the matter ended.—N. York paper.

A SUIT AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT FOR TWO MILLIONS OF DOLLARS.—We learn that Mr. Milton Whitney, of Baltimore, is here, investigating a claim against the Government by certain persons in this city. The claim grows out of an alleged contract made by Postmaster-General Hubbard in 1853, and certain other persons, for the benefit of the Mexican Ocean Mail and Transit Company, for the carrying of mails between New Orleans and San Francisco through Mexico by the way of Vera Cruz and Acapulco. It is alleged that the Company equipped the overland route and made provisions for transporting the mails, when Postmaster-General Campbell abrogated the contract; and this claim of two millions is made for damages sustained in consequence. The claim has been before Controllers Medill, Whitney and Taylor, and both Houses of Congress, and other departments of Government, having been made the subject of controversy for the last ten years. Reverdy Johnston and William Curtis Noyes have appeared as counsel for the claimants, and Milton White, of Baltimore, has been retained by the Government to protect its interests. Mr. Whitney has been here during the week taking the testimony, which, it is understood, will take considerable time.—N. Y. Even. Post.

MINERAL CITY, Dec. 25th, 1863.

The many attractions which presented themselves to our view were numerous; however we will not tax your patience by enumerating, suffice that Clifton is a beautiful place, presenting many advantages which will overbalance the disadvantages. It is situated within a beautiful flat, comprising an area of one mile in length, by one quarter in width. The location for a city is much better than that of Austin, as the altitude is not so great, and the place is not visited by those cold and piercing winds that a person comes in contact with at Austin. Leaving Clifton, we ascend the hill to the far-famed city of Austin. Here we found all bustle and excitement; liquor shops and gaming houses in full blast, and every person seemingly making money. By some unaccountable means we were ushered by the crowd that throngs the streets to the International; here our attention was directed to the auctioneers, who were full of business, and knocking off good horses at $18 to $30, and goods of all description for less than freight. I began to despond, as I had embarked upon an enterprise that appeared lucrative at a distance; but seeing everything going this way made me reflect seriously upon consequences. Our stay in Austin being of several days' duration, we became accustomed to this, and looked forward to a bright future. As to mining and mining ground about Austin, it cannot be surpassed in point of quality, yet the ledges are small, and some of them run out at a depth of from 60 to 150 feet. Most of the ledges, however, are more extensive. The greatest inconvenience under which the people here labor is the scarcity of water for milling purposes, the greater part of the time there not being sufficient to run the mills; and such as it is, is of a poor quality for use in families, etc., on account of its mineral properties. Austin is upon the whole a place of much importance; standing in the same light to other towns in this section as Virginia City does to the Washoe country, it being the place of most importance in point of convenience to any other. There is a probability of a decrease in property, and in that event, then other localities will become the great emporium of Reese River; and the point which is likely to surpass Austin, in point of mineral wealth and natural attractions, is Big Creek, of which place I propose giving you a few items. This place is some 12 miles from Austin, consisting of a large stream of water, with 1500 inhabitants, and 475 houses.

The creek takes its rise in a canon of the same name, and sinking in a beautiful valley some 10 miles from its head; there is a sufficiency of water to run one hundred, yes, five hundred mills, and it never ceases flowing. We have here on Big Creek three mills, and two others in course of erection, with three more on the way to this locality. The miners here have been busily engaged in erecting winter quarters; but as all are non-comfortably situated in that particular, they have turned their attention strictly to mining, and, from indications, are likely to be handsomely remunerated for their zeal and fidelity. We have here some fine ledges opened out, varying in width from four to twenty-five feet. Among the ledges which are the most notable are the "Ben Franklin," "Bob Tail," "Martini-que," and "Maj. Bull." The "Sara. Bell" stands forth in broad proportions, though not sufficiently worked to test her true merits. Through the indomitable will and perseverance of G. W. Carpenter, an owner and contractor in the "Maj. Bull," he has succeeded in completing a tunnel of forty feet in length, which, in opening to the main ledge, fully repaid him for any extra exertion and labor expended.

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

A DOUBLE HOMICIDE.—We have been informed that B. T. Bradley and Wilson, residents of Salt Spring Valley, in this county, were recently killed at Carson Valley by B. F. Marshall formerly of Mokelumne Hill. It seems there was a difficulty between Marshall and Bradley, in which the former killed the latter. An examination was had, and Marshall admitted to bail. After being released, Marshall found Wilson, father-in-law of Bradley, who had been a witness against him on the examination, and deliberately shot him through the head. Marshall was formerly Sheriff of this county.—Bradley a member of the Senate, and Wilson a member of the Assembly in 1860, and was a candidate for County Judge at the last election, on the Democratic ticket.—San Andreas Register.

A HUNDRED MOUNTED PROSPECTORS FOR ARIZONA.—The Virginia City Union of 14th January says:

We understand that a number of persons, not satisfied with Nevada, or perhaps having despaired of their luck here, propose organizing themselves into a company to prospect Arizona Territory for gold, silver and other minerals. The company is to consist of 100 persons, each member to furnish his own horse, ammunition, provisions, etc. A guide, well acquainted with the Indian language and the manners and customs of the aborigines, has been engaged, and every precaution has been taken to make the expedition a complete success. As soon as spring opens the company expect to start for the Arizona country by the overland route.

DURABLE.—It is almost impossible to estimate the endurance of some men working in our mines under ground, but those men who are so well fitted for endurance, are always fitted out with suits of those desirable clothing of HEUSON, HASTINGS & CO.'S, San Francisco.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE Remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties. Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System. The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wanted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthful invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged. In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirit, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits. For Females. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances & derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the oppressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction. Beware of Counterfeits. Purchase only of reliable dealers, Sold everywhere. HOSTETTER, SMITH & DEAN, Agents, 227 Montgomery street, (Russ Block,) San Francisco.

Dr. Guyssot's Improved EXTRACT OF Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla Will Cure without Fail Scrofula or King's Evil, Cancers, Tumors, Eruptions of the skin, Erysipelas, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ringworm or Tetter, Scald Head, Rheumatism, Pains in the Bones and Joints, Old Sores and Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Diseases of the Kidneys, Loss of Appetite, Diseases arising from the use of Mercury, Pain in the Side and Shoulder, General Debility, Dropsy, Jaundice, Lumbago, &c.

Dr. Guyssot's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla put up in the largest sized bottles, contains more of the Honduras Sarsaparilla than any other preparation extant, which is combined with the extract of Yellow Dock, the extract of Wild Cherry and the Balsam of Fir, thus making the remedy more thoroughly efficient than any other Sarsaparilla before the public. At the same time it is perfectly free from ALL mineral poisons, which can not be said of any other of the Sarsaparilla compounds. The Invalid should beware of poisons. Mercury, Iron, Quinine, Potash, Iodine, Sulphur, Arsenic, and many other mineral and metallic poisons enter into and form the active basis of most of the sarsaparilla and panacea of the day. Guyssot's Compound Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla does not contain a particle of the substances; as any one can ascertain by applying the necessary tests.

These poisons may occasionally remove disease, but they so vitiate the blood and impregnate the whole system with their baneful effects, that the first cold or the first attack of disease, prostrates the patient's strength and subjects him or her to the most excruciating torture, and renders another cure almost impossible and hopeless. Let all poisonous sarsaparilla preparations alone, and use Guyssot's Improved Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, which is thoroughly efficacious, perfectly harmless and purely vegetable. All kinds of diseases yield to its genial influence. Caution.—Beware of counterfeits. All genuine Dr. Guyssot's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla has the name of Jons D. Park, Present Proprietor, Cincinnati, O., on the label. Remember this fact when buying, all without the name of "Jons D. Park, Cincinnati, Ohio," on the label are counterfeits. Sold by all Druggists. HOSTETTER, SMITH & DEAN, sole Agents for Pacific Coast, San Francisco.

TARRANT'S Effervescent Seltzer Aperient!! THE BEST Bilious and Dyspeptic Remedy!! The most Efficacious and Agreeable Saline Aperient, FOR ALL Bilious and Febrile Diseases, Costiveness, sick Headache, Nausea, Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, Acidity of the stomach, Torpidity of the Liver, Gout, Rheumatic Affections, Gravel, Piles, and all Complaints where a gentle Aperient or Purgative is required. It is in the form of a powder, carefully put up in bottles, to keep in any climate, and merely requires water poured upon it, to produce a delightful effervescent beverage. Manufactured only by Tarrant & Co., New York. For sale by druggists generally.

Tarrant's Cordial Elixir of Turkey Rhubarb.—This beautiful preparation from the True Turkey Rhubarb has the approval and sanction of many of our best physicians as a valuable and favorite Family Medicine, and it is preferable to any other form in which Rhubarb is administered, either for adults or children, it being combined in a manner to make it at once palatable to the taste and efficient in operation. THE Knight's Landing News.

KICKING A YOUNG BRIDE OUT OF BED.—Recently a fun-loving bridesmaid played a very unhandy joke upon a newly wedded pair.

"Good gracious!" cried her friend Lizzy, in affected astonishment, "What is the matter, dear, do tell me?"

"He—he—he," sobbed the weeping bride, and stopped. "He—he—he—oh, how can I tell?" sobbed the bride.

"Come, come, out with it. It shall be a secret. Do tell me," implored her friend.

"How can I—how can I? But he—" "He what?" asked Lizzy; "kissed you?"

"No, no!" sobbed the bride; "he kicked me out of bed!"

The matter was soon explained, and no divorce has yet been applied for.

THE MILLER'S PORTRAIT.—A worthy miller, wishing for a portrait of himself, applied to a painter to have it accomplished.

"But," said he, "I am a very industrious man; I want to be painted as looking out of my mill window. But when any one looks at me I wish to pop my head in, so as not to be thought lazy, or as spending too much time at the window."

"Very well," said the painter, "it shall be done so."

He painted the mill and the mill window. The miller looked at it.

"Very well," said he, "but where is myself looking out?"

"Oh," said the painter, "whenever any one looks at the mill, you know, you pop your head in, of course, to preserve your credit for industry."

"That's right," said the miller. "I'm content—just so I'm in the mill now, ain't I? Just so—that will do."

CACHEVILLE HOTEL. W. Campbell, Proprietor.

THE PROPRIETOR TAKES PLEASURE in announcing to his numerous friends and acquaintances that he has taken the above Hotel, and is now ready to accommodate families and permanent boarders, in the best style and most satisfactory manner.

The DINING ROOM is spacious, and is well calculated to accommodate any number of guests.

The BAR-ROOM is also large, and will at all times be supplied with the choicest brands of WINES and LIQUORS that can be procured in the San Francisco market.

The proprietor has spared neither trouble or expense in fitting up this Hotel in all its essential appointments, to make it the best Hotel north of Sacramento.

Mr. Campbell hopes by strict attention to business, and a desire on his part to please his patrons, to receive a share of the public patronage. W. CAMPBELL. Cacheville, March 29, 1862. m29-tf

LICK HOUSE, ALSTROM & CO.—The undersigned, formerly proprietors of the Oriental Hotel, respectfully inform the public that they have purchased the Lease and Furniture of the Lick House. Our friends and the public can rest assured that we shall leave nothing undone to merit their patronage.

It is conceded that the Lick House, has far superior advantages over all other hotels in California.

The house being but three stories high, the rooms are easy of access, well lighted, and contain all the modern improvements; the staircase and halls are wide, spacious and airy.

The Kitchen and Pantry are being enlarged, and we are certain of being able to give complete satisfaction in the Dining-hall department.

The Office will be under the superintendence of Mr. FRANK J. LAWLOR, late of the St. Nicholas, New York.

BAKER & HAMILTON, IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN Farming Implements & Machines, J STREET, BETWEEN FRONT AND 2D, Sacramento.

VIZ: Threshing, reaping and mowing machines; horse hay rakes, cast and steel plows, harrow castings, cultivators, barrows, harrow teeth, churns, cheese presses, grain cradles, seed sowers, corn planters, corn shellers, hoes, horse hoes, shovels, spades and trowels, garden shears, reels and lines, gard in rakes, straw cutters, sugar mills, fan mills, hay and manure forks, hay knives, axes, hatches, ax-handles, sickles, scythes, snathes, bush scythes, road scrapers, grind stones, wheel barrows, sausage cutters and stuffers, ox yokes and bows, patent bow pins, budding and pruning knives, well wheels and buckets, etc., etc.

PATENT COMBINED GANG PLOW, SEED SOWER AND HARROW. We have purchased the right this great labor-saving implement for the State of California.

With this combined Machine one man, with six horses, can do the work of three twelve inch plows, besides sowing the grain, and harrowing it in as he proceeds, thus finishing his work in the best manner possible, without being obliged to travel over the plowed ground. This Machine has been very thoroughly tested. It is made very substantial; is not liable to get out of order, and being on large truck wheels, the Gang Plow, Seed Sower and Harrow, runs lighter than three plows would, cutting the same amount of land.

We are desirous of having these plows generally introduced throughout the State, and are therefore prepared to offer very favorable inducements to farmers and the trade.

Field, Grass, Herb, Flower AND GARDEN SEEDS. A large portion of which are imported by Express, and selected by experienced Seedsmen in the East, packed in hermetically sealed cases, and guaranteed.
