BULLETIN

Shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon, after a severe grilling by Chief of Police J. D. Fraser, Detective Sergeants Charles P. Blake and H. A. Stanford and Deputy Sherfifs Glen Wilson and Henry Purrier, Mrs. C. H. Wickstrom broke down, according to Chief Fraser, and confessed that her husband had served one term in San Quentin for burglary, being in Hollywood.

She denied that she had participated in robberies here, but admitted she had seen Wickstrom bring home articles in the middle of the night. When confronted with this, Wickstrom still protested his innocence.

Senate Continues Its Inquiry Into Daugherty Office

WEATHER: Fair

WASHINGTON, March 31.

The Senate investigation of the department of justice during the administration of Harry M. Daugherty as attorney-general will continue, despite the latter's retirement from the cabinet, the Wheeler-Brookhart committee decided in executive session today. The scope of the inquiry will be altered in some particulars because of Mr. Daugherty's elimination, but the main lines of the probe will be followed

For Refusal to Answer Senate Questions

WASHINGTON, March 31 .-Harry F. Sinclair, millionaire owner of the Teapot Dome oil lease, was indicted this afternoon by a federal grand jury charged with contempt of the United States Senate for refusing to answer questions propounded by the Senate public lands commit-

The indictment contained ten counts against the magnate-one for every question he refused to

It was returned by the grand jury in criminal court No. 1 before Justice Hitz, and an order was issued immediately for the arrest of Sinclair. It was announced that Sinclair would appear in court here to-morrow and submit to formal arrest and to give bail.

Former Employment by Oil Interests Is Cited as Reason for Move

WASHINGTON, March 31. -A resolution demanding that President Coolidge immediately request the resignation of Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt because of his connections with the leasing of naval oil reserves, was introduced in the Senate this afternoon by Senator Dill, Democrat, of Washington.

Immediate consideration of the Dill resolution was blocked by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader. As a result it went over until tomorrow under Senate rules.

Dill cited Roosevelt's former employment by Sinclair Oil interests and his action in ordering marines to drive oil claimants off Teapot dome as the chief reason why he should be removed from his post. The resolution follows:

In Sinclair Company nat, whereas Theodore "That, Roosevelt, the assistant secretary of the navy, was a member of the Sinclair Oil company previous to his entrance into the government

"Whereas, as assistant secretary of the navy, he personally carried the executive order to the White House for the president to sign, which order transferred the control of the navy oil reservees from the secretary of the navy to the secretary of the interior.

Used U. S. Marines "And, whereas on July 9, 1922. Mr. Roosevelt, then the acting secretary of the navy in the absence of Secretary of the Navy Denby, ordered the United States marines to remove all oil claimants from the naval reserve No. 3, and thereby made an outrageous use of the armed forces of the United States government to perform acts which should have been performed only by civil officers on the order of a court after due hearing of all of the facts in the case. "Now, therefore, be it resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that the president should be and he is hereby requested to ask for the resignation of Mr. Theodore Roosevelt as assistant secretary of Poincare told the Chamber of the navy."

GRANDPA ALWAYS ATTENDS CIRCUS ALTHOUGH HE'S 86

Jacob J. Morse, Ranchers in San Fernando Valley, Tells of First Tent Show

Eighty-six years old-and he has only missed ten annual circuses in all that time!

For five years Jacob J. Morse, rancher, living about thirty miles from Glendale on the Ventura road, was too young. When he was 6 years old he went to his first circus—a wagon show of one ring that traveled through Kansas. Morse, who told his story while watching the group of dwarfs perform in the sideshow at the Al G. Barnes circus here last Saturday, couldn't remember the name of that first circus.

With the aged fan was his 6-year-old great-granddaughter, Elizabeth Fleming. Little Elizabeth was enjoying her first sight of the sawdust rings. She was in a high pitch of excitement. With her great grandfather and her mother, Mrs. L. E. Fleming, she watched the parade, visited all of the sideshows, fed the elephants and drank pink lemonade just as her aged ancestor did seventysix years ago.

Many Similarities

"Circuses haven't changed very much in seventy-six years," said Mr. Morse. They have gotten bigger—immeasurably bigger but beyond that they are about the same acts, the same clowns, the same sideshows, the same spielers.

"I think some of the acts are poorer now than they were seventy-six years ago. The clowns Alex Mitchell Writes have increased in number, but I don't believe they are as funny." "Don't you think that is because you were a boy then—impressionable?" Morse was asked.
"Maybe—I'm not sure.

Got Stuck in Mud "After that first circus had left the city to which I had gone with my parents to watch the performance, some of the wagons, I remember, got stuck in Kansas That wasn't unusual, Circuses couldn't have schedules and stick to them like they do nowadays. If roads were

Believe Many Will Save by Community Property Decision

enue Rex B. Goodcell an-nounced today that approxi-mately 117,714 Southern California taxpayers would be affected by the community property ruling of Com-missioner Blair, which pro-vides that a husband and wife may render separate income tax returns and may each report as gross income one-half of the income that is community property, enabling them in many cases to reduce the assessment of the higher surtaxes. As the ruling is retroactive, going back to 1918, re-funds for overpayment of taxes will be made for each year in all cases where the filing of a joint return by husband and wife resulted in the assessment of a higher tax than would have resulted had separate returns conforming to the new ruling been filed. The refund will be for the difference in the tax in favor of the taxpayer when computed on a separate return basis instead of the joint return computation on which it was filed.

Under the ruling, the period affected by the de-cision goes back to the calendar year 1918, but waivers for 1918 must be filed before June 14, 1924. No waiver is necessary for subsequent years, but claims for refund must be filed.

Collector Goodcell estimated that $3,000,000 in refunds to taxpayers would be made, covering returns filed in Southern California for 1918, 1919, 1920, 1921, 1922

Nothing Around Here Pleases Easterner; Scenery Is Too Monotonous

By GIL A. COWAN We are indebted to R. Cleyk, firm Glendale booster, for a lipping from the Montclair, N. SENIORS SELECT HISTORIC DRAMA FOR CLASS PLAY

The First Lady of the Land' Presents Early Days In Nation's Life

"The First Lady of the Land," historical drama written by Charles Nirdlinger, is to be pre-sented as the senior play at Glendale High school. This will take place on Thursday and Friday nights, May 9 and 10, in the Broadway High school auditorium, and will be under the direction of Harold L. Brewster, the school dramatics instructor.

One reason for Brewster's selection of this play was the excellent educational knowledge it offered to the students of history. "The First Lady of the Land" deals with the important incidents in the lives of James Madison, Aaron Burr and Dolly Todd, all of which persons have had their names written in the history of this na-tion. The plot is cleverly worked. out, and is original, vital and natural. Insight into the characters of men and women of this period is gained through the careful characterization portrayal, as is a retrospective view of past events. Aids Study Courses So much time is being given to the study of the constitution and to the reviewing of history in general this spring that this play will be right in keeping with the spirit of the year. All incidents brought into the plot are just as

AWNINGS AND

It is the busy hum of business that is attractive to new residents

We hear much of the disloyalty and wrong-doing of those in high places and little of those who go on day after day doing their duty conscientiously and loyally. The men and women who are loyal to the home Community to the extent of spending their money, be it much or little, in the local stores and with the local workers, deserve paeans of praise which they rarely get. It is they who are responsible for Community development.

Glendale has thousands of these loyal citizens who have pledged themselves to do what they can to help keep Glendale the fastest growing city and the best and most attractive city in the United States. These cities are making the city physically attractive and morally strong by building churches, schools, streets and sewers and a retail center that is becoming famed throughout the South. They are making the city commercially great by giving their business to the local people and putting pep into the business life of the Community.

It is a fine, modern retail center and the busy hum of trade that attracts new people after all. There must be life and progress and loyalty in a Community where there are fine stores and office buildings and where there is evidence of commercial activity. "This community," so reasons the homeseeker, "has all good things needful for a city of homes or it will soon have them." Business pep is an indication and a proof of Community loyalty. The people are supporting Community welfare and progress.

The advertisers on this page long ago realized that business prosperity is the foundation of Community growth and greatness, and they entered upon a campaign to teach this principle to the people. They are pleased with the response of the loyal citizenship of Glendale.

Many Persons Have Ranked As Owners of Tract at Various Times

By CLARA PRUNTY SHARPE Only in the memory of the oldest remaining scions of the Verdugo family lives the picture of the first home erected in the valley on the site where today stands the attractive foothill residence of Mrs. D. W. Cunningham, 1346 Virginia avenue, near Glen-

One morning, members of the family visited the old place and found a large excavation had been made by some nocturnal visitor, who left unmistakable evidence that he had been successful. The print of an oblong box, also prints of coins in the freshly dug earth, proved conclusively that the Verdugo treasure had fallen into the hands of the prowler. This homesite, including forty acres of land, was sold about the year 1880 to Randolph Stracy scion of a fine old English family, a "remittance man," one of those whose history is interwoven with that of almost every section of the sparsely settled, open country of the western states. The portions of the old building that were fast falling into decay were demolished and carted away. Stracy built upon the old site a modern home, unpretentious but comfortable and finished with excellent taste.

California Satisfies

Wherever a major league team has trained in California nothing but entire satisfaction has been expressed by the owners and players. Yesterday Bill McKechnie, manager, and Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pittsburg Pirates, respectively, stated that it was the most successful training trip in which they had ever participated, and stated "they would surely be back in 1925." To prove their good intent, they are already dickering for games with coast league teams next spring.

Some hair dressers advise singeing, for the heat, they say, seals up the end of the tiny tube that runs down each hair and prevents a waste of oils and coloring matter. Other hair dressers say that the heat dries the ends of the hair and causes more splitting. Personally, I don't think it makes a bit of difference which way it is done so long as it is done at certain regular intervals. There is an old-fashioned idea that it should be done every new moon (or is it every full moon?). I think a better way is to do it once in six weeks, which would bring it every other shampoo, for, whether you clip or singe it is much better to do it just before you wash the hair. Knows What It Is That summer Little Joe, who had an active mind, began collecting this evil fungus and writing letters about it to the people of the Service who know. When the three rangers met again in the winter he was posted. It was a trifle humiliating to find that the two elder men already knew that Indians had used the red interior of the fungus for paint, but he was in a class by himself when he sprung the technical name. "Conk," he said, "is the Echinodontium tinctorum, and is a mighty active enemy of our ma-

Clergymen Favor Coolidge, Reports In Poll Indicate

Reports received during the third week poll of California clergymen indicate more completely the drift to Coolidge, according to a statement issued yesterday by the local campaign committee.

Replies received from 557 clergymen show 417 are pro-Coolidge; three, pro-Johnson; 80, undecided, and 16 Democratic. The world court has been endorsed by 505 of the ecclesiastics and registration is being urged by 517, according to the figures which have been received from the San Francisco campaign headquarters.
