If are authorized to by the week, at the by the week and the wee hour, when the previous question was demanded.

The vote was first taken on the substitute of Mr. English, offered on Saturday, proposing censure instead of expulsion, and it was rost.—3 to 1/4. The question on the resolution of the minority of the committee, reported by Mr. Cobb, of Georgia, denying the authority of the House to punish for the assault, was decided in the negative—66 to 164. The question was then taken on the first resolution of the committee, proposing to expel Mr. Brooks, upon which the vote stood, year 11, mays 96. This, being less than a two-thirds vote, was insufficient for the object. Thereupon Mr. Brooks rose, and after some opposition, said that Mr. Stumer uttered a slander on his State sind on a venerable relative, who at the time was absent. Not content with this, be published a libel on the State and blood. Whoever insulted South Carolina insulted him, and be stood ready at all times, humbly and modestly, as a son, to perform the influence of the self-respect and the good opinion of his countrymen, if he had permitted the offense to pass anypunished.

It was a personal stater, and in taking re-men, if he had permitted the onense to passa unputsished.

It was a personal affair, and in taking redress in his own hands he meant no disrespect to the Sanate or House. Nor did he respect to the Sanate or House.
