MOORESVILLE HIGH

OUR ROAD

TO SUCCESS

Since the opening of the new high school building in 1959, many Pioneers have walked its halls endeavoring to obtain the education and wisdom to be found in the courses and everyday experiences at MHS, to start them on their way to new roads and adventures. For, MHS is a road that if followed with a will to learn, will lead to success.

Roads have footprints of the many who have taken them. MHS is no different. One can see the footprints of the gang around the Coke machine that enjoyed so many noon hours laughing and talking among themselves.

Then there are the footprints of the many hundreds who walked down the hall to attend a class or greet a friend.

Certainly there are footprints on the floor of the gym where the shouts and yells of kids who back their team can be heard almost every Friday night.

There are intangible footprints that can't be seen, but are as much a part of MHS as the students. They are the footprints of desire, earnest, fellowship, and understanding that are to be found in the hearts of every student that is a part of Mooresville High.

Yes, Mooresville is a step toward the future, a road to success.

The last day of yearbook sales was depicted by a western theme, "WAGON TRAILS Round-up Day." Here, Sherry Morley, editor, Jeanne Pugh, Sandy Cunningham, and Linda Smith, business manager, "coax" Bill Lawrence into buying a yearbook with their six-shooters.

The Monzels were among many performers who displayed their talents at the Student Council Hootenanny, a big success.

To boost spirit and morale, the Student Council sponsored "Stomp Spencer Day." Several girls here display their weapons. (Shoes)

Cheerleader Cheryl Beasley hangs out one of the articles of clothing used to spell out "Beat Danville" in a pep session skit.

"This is a football," explains Coach Hill to the dumbfounded students.

Students join in one of the yells at an eighth period pep session. Several members of the basketball team are seen in the center of the picture.

Francis Loomis, Carol Newcomb, Jan Potts, Princess Teresa Chambers, Queen Cindy Hite, Jeanne Pugh, Linda Morley, Jerry Collins.

1964 Homecoming a Big Success

Preparations for the 1964 Homecoming were made by the Student Council. Classes voted on float themes and queen or princess candidates, the parade route was planned and a pep session was organized. The afternoon of the parade, organization cars were decorated, the floats were lined up, and the band led the procession to the football field where the cheerleaders built up enthusiasm for the game. That night at half-time, cars and floats were lined up on the field to await the announcement of winners in the float division, and queen and princess. The junior class took top float honors with "Brewin' Up A Victory," and Seniors received a second with their float "Raid the Trojans." Senior queen candidate Cindy Hite was crowned 1964 Homecoming Queen by co-captain Marcus Robinson. Teresa Chambers, Freshman princess candidate was crowned by co-captain Bill Lawrence. The Pioneer team fought a hard battle, but fell to Center Grove's Trojans 14-13. The exciting events of the night were brought to a close by the dance, "Football Fantasy."

The Senior float, "Raid the Trojans," took second place.

The Juniors took to the Mountains (with first place) in their float, "Brewin' Up a Victory."

Band Stages '65 Musical Varieties';

As the lights grew dim, the audience held its breath. The band had begun to play the traditional opening song, "That's Entertainment."

With Ralph Gilbert as emcee, the show progressed from a Mancine medley to the well-known songs of Cole Porter.

The Kadettes, as always, were a big attraction, performing various dances in their luminous costumes.

"Dear Heart," "Girl from Ipanema," and "Sunday Morning" were favorites played by the Dance Band.

The spotlights of the show were the impressive highlights from two famous Broadway hits: "Hello, Dolly" and "The Unsinkable Molly Brown."

Mr. Patchett and the members of the band are to be congratulated and thanked for a very enjoyable production of "Musical Varieties of '65."

Seniors Linda Smith and Melinda Marksbery, this year's choreographers, portray rag dolls in a final dance routine.

The band accompanies seniors Les Heshelman and Tom Borges in their drum duet.

Fourth Big Success

Hillbillies, J. Mallott, J. Haymaker, S. Morrison, M. Petty, S. Carson, F. Loomis, J. Barlow, S. Venable, L. Broadstreet, S. Gunnell, S. Davis, J. McConnell, M. Marksbarry, C. Barlow, L. Smith, and S. Wratten have settled a feud in the Variety Show.

The finale of the 1965 Musical Varieties included the famous "Hello, Dolly" score with dolls J. Malott, M. Rariden, S. Wratten, M. Marksbarry, S. Morrison, L. Smith, S. Smitherman, S. Davis, M. Petty, J. Barlow, S. Carson, F. Loomis, S. Gunnell, S. Venable, J. Haymaker, L. Broadstreet, S. Barlow, and J. McConnell.

Hard Work and Careful Planning Make

Mr. Bell crowns Patty Park to reign over 1965 "Wonderland by Night."

The Royal Court surrounds the King and Queen. They are: Bob Edmondson, Cheryl Beasley, Queen Patty Park, King Richie Gunnell, Jerry Wallace, Sherry Morley, Bill Lawrence, and Linda Smith.

'65 Prom an Event to Remember

Special costumes were worn by hostesses (sitting) M. Rariden, B. Harrison, (standing) K. Rose, M. Martins, C. Irvine, and D. Hartsburg.

Record breaking magazine sales, high concession sales, and hard work made the 1965 prom, "Wonderland by Night," one of the best at MHS. Many long hours of planning were spent by the Prom Steering Committee and the parents heading the Post Prom.

Patty Park and Richie Gunnell were crowned Queen and King of the Prom held at the Knights of Columbus Building. A carnival theme characterized the Post Prom. Several booths, games, music, and much food were enjoyed by everyone. Individual picnics ended the memorable week-end.

Several students and mothers work hard making various trees for the Post Prom.

Hard Work and Effort Pay Off

Mrs. Wooden congratulates Phyllis Smith for her achievement in the IHSAP. Phyllis' award entitles her to three college hours of credit.

MHS was proud that four scholarships were presented to Mooresville High School students. Receiving these scholarships from Mr. East are Cheryl Beasley, Margaret Mason, Suzanne Venable, and Pam Pence.

Awards from various clubs, organizations, and colleges were presented to MHS students in recognition of their service and achievement in the past year. The American Legion Award was presented to Sherry Morley and George Ferkins. Tom Borges received the John Philip Sousa Award for his work in Band. Janice Townsend and Margaret Mason received the Valedictorian and Salutatorian Award. Other awards went to Connie Fox, DAR; Margaret Mason, Honor Society; Eugene Herbstreet and Linda Miller, VFW; and Carolyn Thompson, Women's Club Award.

The program was climaxed as Janice Townsend relinquished her office as Student Council president to Dennis Parr.

in Awards on Honors Day

Mr. Farr and former president, Janice Townsend congratulate Dennis Parr on being the new Student Council President for 1966.

Senior play director, Mr. Korra, presents the Best Actor trophy to Sherry Morley for her part in the Senior Play.

Linda Miller happily accepts the VFW Award presented by Mr. Harold Bridges.

Lives Are Changed as Tassels Turn

The crowd stands as the graduating seniors proudly march down the aisle.

Mr. Emery, principal of Harry E. Wood High School, was the main speaker at Commencement.

The Class of '65 was composed of 143 proud seniors at Commencement. May 27, 1965 was a night to be remembered by these people, for it symbolized the end of a twelve year period spent in learning, achieving, and planning. It marked, however, the beginning of a new and different way of life that demands maturity and hard work in return for success.

As the main speakers, Mr. Emery and Reverend Liechty, delivered their messages, the graduating seniors truly realized that "the Golden Age is before them, and not behind them."

Janice Townsend delivers the Valedictorian speech.

Mr. Bell congratulates Jeweleen Calton as she receives her diploma.

Janice Townsend, Margaret Mason, Mr. Farr, Bill Lawrence, Mr. Emery, Mr. Bell, Reverend Ridgeway, and Reverend Rees stand as the seniors march to their seats.

Classes take up much of the average Pioneer's time. The selection of classes range from Social Studies, where past and present civilizations are examined, to Science, where the Universe and its components are analyzed.

MHS students realize the value of an education. Each student knows that he is to be a guidepost on the road to our nation's destiny, and so, with diligence and hard work, strives to make himself a guidepost pointing to the right direction. Perhaps the one person at MHS who did much in one field to aid the students in their quest to find the right direction was Mrs. Richardson, the Latin teacher. MHS is sad to see her retire. On behalf of the school and many students she has helped and loved, we would like to dedicate this section of the 1965 WAGON TRAILS to her for her work in setting each student upon a road to success.

Administration Guides School

The school schedule ran smoothly under the fine guidance and supervision of the administration.

Mr. Bell (left) saw that there were solutions to needs and problems that arose. Mr. Bell is resigning after four years of fine service.

Mr. Smith (lower left) will assume the position of Superintendent next year. As Assistant Superintendent, Mr. Smith (lower left) aided Mr. Bell in coping with any difficulties that arose.

Mr. Farr, as always, was a popular figure. He aided students and kept a sound teacher-student relationship.

The paper work of the system was handled by Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Call, Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Burlingame, Mrs. Bradford, and Mrs. Stephens.

Guidance in behavior, school courses, and future occupations was given by Mrs. Rogers, Mr. East, and Mr. Bastin.

System Through the Year

Mr. Harvey Bastin, Dean of Boys; Mr. Irvine East, Guidance Counselor; Mrs. Mary Rogers, Dean of Girls.

Mrs. Imogene Wood, Secretary; Mrs. Mary Lou Call, Secretary; Mrs. Kathryn Cross, Extracurricular Treasurer.

Mrs. Eweather Stephens, Laura Burlingame, and Mildred Bradford, Secretaries.

MHS Features an

NORBERT JOHNSON, B.S. Indiana State, Assistant Basketball Coach, Freshman Basketball Coach, Teaches Algebra 2, College Algebra, Solid Geometry, and Trigonometry, 3 years at Mooresville.

DON E. LIND, A.B. Central Normal College, Teaches General Mathematics, 4 years at Mooresville.

WILLIAM A. PARKER, A.B. Indiana State, A.M. Indiana University, Teaches Algebra 1, 5 years at Mooresville.

RUTH STACY, B.S. Indiana State, Teaches Plane Geometry, 2 years at Mooresville.

Mr. Johnson confers with Don Pauley about his grades.

Math students at MHS had unlimited opportunities to advance their knowledge of mathematics. Highly qualified teachers guided these students to the very best of their ability.

A new course, College Algebra, plus General Mathematics, Algebra I, Plane Geometry, Algebra II, Solid Geometry, and Trigonometry were all offered by Mooresville's expanded mathematics department.

Mr. Johnson, Mr. Parker, Mrs. Stacy, and Mr. Lind trained MHS students in the challenging field of mathematics.

Expanded Math Department

Mr. Lind helps a General Math student with a difficult problem.

"Board drill" gives General Math students a chance to show the solutions to problems.

Sandy Rhodes receives some instruction as she tries to plot a point in her Algebra class.

Sharon Capps explains a poster showing the many types of figures in Solid Geometry.

Mr. Parker demonstrates the correct way to solve a problem in Algebra I.

Mrs. Stacy holds a conference with several boys to explain a theorem, while two students show how to prove two triangles to be congruent.

Common knowledge around MHS is Mr. Johnson's great eating ability.

Science Department Instructs

MAUREEN BROWN, A.B. Butler University, Teaches Biology, Spanish 1, 2 years at Mooresville.

JERRY L. FISHEL, B.S. Hanover College, Indiana University, Teaches Biology and Health, Assistant Football Coach, Wrestling and Track Coach, 2 years at Mooresville.

CYNTHIA MITCHELL, B.A. Northwestern University, Teaches Chemistry and Health, 2 years at Mooresville.

ADOLPHUS SEARS, B.S. Indiana State Teachers College, M.S. George Peabody College, Creighton University, Sponsors Science Club, Teaches Physics and Physical Science, 8 years at Mooresville.

Science is a mysterious thing, and students at MHS were curious to unveil these mysteries.

They began with the basic fundamentals of biology—studying the complex life cycles of plants and animals. Next they gained a general knowledge of the importance of science in physical science classes.

In chemistry and physics classes MHS students broadened their knowledge even further as they studied the make-up of chemicals and energy.

Science teachers at Mooresville, Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. Sears, Miss Brown, and Mr. Fischel have played an important role in helping students explore the mysteries of the science world.

Mr. Sears demonstrates light energy to his Physical Science class.

Students on Life and the Elements

Mrs. Mitchell helps Laraine Dolen test for water purity.

Biology student, Susan Saltgiver, bisects a fish under the direction of Mr. Fishel.

Gary Hunter lights a match by light concentration in Physical Science class.

Pam Pence and Bill Warren help Mr. Sears explain radioactivity in Physics class.

French Added to Language Dept.

JUDY GROUNDS, B.A. Indiana State College, Sponsors Spanish Club, Teaches Spanish, 3 years at Mooresville.
NANCY KELLER, A.B. Western Michigan University, Teaches U.S. History and French, 1 year at Mooresville.

LUCILE RICHARDSON, A.B., M.A. Indiana University, Sponsors Jr. and Sr. Latin Clubs, Honor Society, Teaches Latin, 8 years at Mooresville.
MISS BROWN (See page 28).

The language department at MHS has expanded to include French and Spanish III. Four years of Latin, three years of Spanish, and one year of French were offered to students interested in foreign language education. Mrs. Richardson, Miss Grounds, and Miss Brown were assisted by Mrs. Keller, a new French teacher.

Mrs. Keller instructs her French class in proper pronunciation.

Miss Brown aids a student in a Spanish I assignment.

Miss Grounds seems to be relating a funny incident to her Spanish III class.

With the help and guidance of Mrs. Richardson students find Latin easy and interesting.

Home Ec. Dept. Prepares Girls

SARAH BOGARD, B.S. Indiana University, M.S. Indiana State, F.H.A. Sponsor, 5 years at Mooresville, Teaches Home Economics.
PRISCILLA ROYAL, B.S. and M.S. at Purdue University and Indiana State College, Sponsors F.H.A. 1 year at Mooresville, Teaches Home Economics.

Mrs. Royal shows Sue Bunch the proper stitching technique.

Home Ec. II girls learn to prepare meals efficiently.

Girls in Mrs. Bogard's Home Ec. III class identify various fabric textures.

MHS was proud of its Home Economics department. Under the direction of Mrs. Bogard and Mrs. Royal, Home Economics students were prepared for the future by learning the effectiveness of well-balanced meals. Home nursing and child care were studied in Home Economics II classes. Marital and family planning was discussed in Home Economics III. Girls in Home Economics IV used their cooking and sewing skills on more advanced projects. Home Economics 4's students received a combination of all four years study in this course.

for Careers in Homemaking.

Home Ec. II girls listen as Mrs. Royal explains grade scale on a test previously given.

Linda Mynatt puts a zipper in her dress.

Cheryl Morning, Cindy Hite, Kay Persinger, and Wanda Garrett help in the preparation of Spumoni ice cream.

Students Learn 'Basics' of Grammar

PATRICIA COX, B.S., Indiana State, sponsors freshman class and junior play, teaches 10th grade literature and grammar. 1 year at Mooresville.

DIXIE DEBREWSTER, B.A., Evansville College, Sponsors Speech Club, Teaches English, Literature, and Speech, 3 years at Mooresville.

BARBARA KRIEGER, B.S., Indiana University, Sophomore Class Sponsor, Teaches Freshman Literature and Grammar, 1 year at Mooresville.

BETTY JOAN ROBERTS, B.S., Purdue University, Sponsors Senior Class, Teaches Junior English and Literature, 2½ years at Mooresville.

MARY ALICE TAYLOR, A.B., Butler University, Syracuse and Ohio Northern Universities, Sponsors Student Librarians and Honor Society, Teaches English and is High School Librarian, 3 years at Mooresville.

CYNTHIANN WHICKER, B.A., Butler University, Sponsors Campus Crier, Teaches Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior English, 1 year at Mooresville.

CYNTHIA L. WINEKE, B.A., Susquehanna University and Gettysburg College, M.A., Pennsylvania State University, Sponsors Sophomore Class, Teaches English Composition and Senior Literature, 1 year at Mooresville.

It seems like Phil Thompson is more interested in the photographer than in what Mrs. Whicker is saying.

and Composition in English Dept.

Mrs. Roberts' class study sentence structure.

The English department at Mooresville is ever expanding to meet the requirements set by today's colleges. Courses in grammar taught correct punctuation, sentence structure, and parts of speech. These basics were later used to construct themes in composition class. Poetry, drama, the short story, great plays, and many other forms of writing were studied in the literature classes. Speech, taught to those interested in public speaking, rounded out the English curriculum at MHS.

Mrs. Cox asks Ann Lipscomb to explain an aspect of grammar.

Mrs. Whicker finds a response amusing in her literature class.

Mrs. Cox tells the class the long-awaited news . . . grades!

Mrs. Kreiger explains a poem to Debbie Poe.

Mrs. Brewster demonstrates some of the techniques of Speech.

Mrs. Roberts is pondering a question asked by Sandy Fleener.

Everyone seems to be enjoying the comments made by Mike Priller to Mrs. Wineke.

Mrs. Taylor has her freshman English class stumped on a question.

Art Dept. Increases in Popularity

MIRIAM R. PETERS, B.S. Manchester College, Teaches Art, 1 year at Mooresville.

High School Art has increased in popularity among the MHS students this year. Due to the expanded classes the art department installed new equipment and received new painting materials as well as new ideas to ponder.

A mixed media was covered this year which included chalk, oil, painting, watercolor, charcoal, pencil drawings, ink, and design. An interesting array of artists were studied by MHS art students. All students participated in the annual art exhibit.

"Ugh!" Mrs. Peters aids several students with their fuzz pictures.

Bob Foster can't decide what to call his creation.

Safety First at MHS

KEITH HILL, B.S. Hanover College, Athletic Director, Football and Baseball Coach, Teaches Drivers Education and Bookkeeping, 2 years at Mooresville.
LARRY RAMEY, B.S., M.S. Butler University, Vanderbilt University, Basketball and Cross-Country Coach, Teaches Drivers Education and Health, 4 years at Mooresville.

Driver's Education students were first taught the basic operations of the car. They were then taught the rules of the road. Finally, after hard and strenuous studying they were allowed to drive and operate the car.

Drivers' Ed. students look on as Mr. Ramey explains various mechanisms of a car.

Students are taught traffic rules and the fundamentals of driving safety in the classrooms.

Students Gain Knowledge

WALTER J. DAVIS, B.S. Butler University, M.S. Indiana University, Teaches American Government and Economics, 4 years at Mooresville.

EDWARD HUMPHREY, A.B. Indiana University, Teaches Civics, 1 year at Mooresville.

C. RICHARD KELLY, B.S. Indiana University, Teaches Sociology and Problems of Democracy, 1 year at Mooresville.

HERBERT M. KORRA, A.B. Indiana University, Butler University, Teaches Psychology and Civics, Sponsors Senior Class Play, 1 year at Mooresville.

REBA WOODEN, B.A. Butler University, Indiana Central, Teaches World History and U.S. History, Sponsors Yearbook, 3 years at Mooresville.

NANCY KELLER, (See page 30).

DEE ROBBINS, (See page 48).

Mr. Kelly explains one of the many Problems in a Modern Democracy.

of Past and Future

Danny Kays explains the position of India to Mrs. Wooden's World History class.

By learning of problems in the past, United States and World History students hopefully gained an insight into the solutions of today's problems.

In the required history course, juniors traced the development of our country from Columbus to Kennedy. They learned the problems of a democracy through its developing years until it emerges as a modern industrial nation.

World history acquainted students with past and present civilizations of the world.

In Civics, freshmen learned the structure of our government and the principles of good citizenship.

Mr. Humphrey shows a student some mistakes in her paper.

Mrs. Keller helps Larry Mundy in U.S. History.

'Psyc.' and 'Soc.' New at MHS;

Ginni House, Dan Via, and Connie Stevens seem to find one aspect of psychology to be funny.

Mr. Kelly explains "Monogamy" and "Polygamy" to his Sociology class.

Gov't. and Econ. Old Standards

The Social Studies department at MHS has been expanded to include Psychology, a study of human behavior, and Sociology, a study of group behavior with reference to environment. Government classes learned the structure and functions of the United States government plus those of foreign nations. Economics classes learned the complex banking and monetary system of the United States. Field trips to a bank and the Statehouse aided students in understanding the intricate functions of our government today.

Mr. Davis explains the stucture of the Russian Government to his government class.

The checking system is explained to the Economics class.

Business Department Teaches

NANCY CARENDER, B.S. Ball State University, Sponsors Junior Class, Teaches Typing I, Business Communications, Business Law, Bookkeeping II, 2 years at Mooresville.

DORIS DUE, B.S. Indiana State University, Sponsors Senior Class, Teaches Shorthand I and II, Typing II, 2 years at Mooresville.

ALEOHA SOMMERS, Associate in Secretarial Science, B.S. Indiana Central College, Sponsors Freshman Class, Teaches Typing I and General Business, 1 year at Mooresville.

RUTH STACY, Bookkeeping (see pg. 24)

For those interested in a business career, MHS offered Typing I and II, Shorthand I and II, Bookkeeping I and II, plus Business Law and Business Communications.

Typing courses taught students the basics of typing, later going into letters, business forms, and office practice.

Shorthand provided students with the ability to take high speed dictation.

Bookkeeping was a means of learning how to enter items in journals and keep a budget, while Business English and Law provided the students with the theory of the business world.

Mrs. Stacy explains a budget.

Mr. Hill keeps a watchful eye on his bookkeeping class.

Skills of Business World

Which one's the teacher? Mrs. Carender supervises the work of one of her Business Communications class.

Miss Sommers goes over a General Business test with her students.

Miss Due aids a puzzled Typing II student.

Many Vocations Taught in 'Shop'

HOMER ANDREWS, B.S. Ball State University, Indiana State University, Sponsors Industrial Arts Club and Senior Class, Teaches Machine Shop, 4 years at Mooresville.

GAYLAN HUSSAIN, B.S. Bradley University, M.S. Bradley University, Doctor Candidate for ED.D., Teaches Woodshop and Mechanical Drawing, 1 year at Mooresville.

FRANK J. RILEY, B.S. Indiana State University, Teaches Drafting, supervises printing of school paper, 1 year at Mooresville.

Boys in Metal Shop learned the nature and use of various metals. They worked with hand tools and complicated machines. Various projects, ranging from serving trays to paper punches, were made. Boys in Metal Shop also gain valuable experience in blue-print reading.

Woodshop acquainted boys with the characteristics and uses of several types of wood. Projects included cedar chests, lamps, wooden bowls, and shelves. Many sanding techniques and wood finishes were also learned.

Mr. Andrews inspects the serving trays made by several boys in Metal Shop.

Junior Lawyer is receiving some instruction from Mr. Riley in Drafting class.

'Ag' Classes Prepare Future Farmers

DEWEY W. STEWART, B.S. Purdue University, Sponsors FFA, Teaches Vocational Agriculture, 3 years at Mooresville.

Mr. Stewart trained M.H.S. boys for a possible farming vocation in his agriculture classes this year. They studied crossbreeding of various grains and learned qualities and characteristics of many farm animals. The agriculture classes entered judging contests and have shown great promise.

Mr. Stewart explains the principle of crossbreeding to his 'Ag.' class.

Several students study varieties of grain.

Girls Develop Many Skills

DEE ROBBINS, A.B. Anderson College, Ball State Teachers College, Indiana University, Butler University, Sponsors G.A.A., Cheerblock, and Cheerleaders, Teaches Physical Education, U.S. History, and Health, 3 years at Mooresville.

Girls were taught skills in noncompetitive sports as well as competitive sports and gymnastics. Freshman girls were prepared in team activities, while sophomores were taught skills in sports such as golf, archery, and bowling.

Sophomore girls look on as Sharon Morrison prepares to show the proper technique in artificial respiration.

These girls seem to be enjoying themselves as they show us one of the many things they were taught in gym this year.

Boys Improve Theirs

WILL CHESSEMAN, A.B. Franklin College, Teaches Health and PE, Sponsors the Letterman's Club.

Like the girls, all sophomore and freshman boys take two semesters of Physical Education alternating with health. The boys are taught skills in baseball, tumbling, touch football, and basketball. Mr. Cheseman is the instructor.

After a short roll check, the PE boys are off for a period of rough athletics.

Music Dept. Developes Talent

JAMES PATCHETT, B.S. Indiana State, M.A. Ball State and Indiana State, Teaches Band and Music Theory, 5 years at Mooresville.
JAMES SNELL, B.S.M.E. Indiana State, Teaches Jr. High Chorus, General Chorus, Concert Choir, and Vocal Ensembles, 2 years at Mooresville.

MHS is exceptionally proud of its fine music department. Mr. Snell leads the choirs and singing groups in their performances in convocations and at Christmas. Under Mr. Patchett's direction, the band puts on entertaining half time shows at football games. Candy sales are conducted and proceeds go into the production and presentation of the Variety Show, an exhibit of dancing and musical talent and skills. Both the band and chorus are to be commended on their fine job of providing entertainment at MHS.

The Concert Band prepares to begin a selection as they await the downward stroke of Mr. Patchett's hand.

Mr. Patchett listens to the music scale played by the members of Band B.

Mr. Snell directs the Concert Choir in a split melody.

Everyone seems to be having a laugh in Mr. Patchett's Music Theory class.

The General Choir members seem to be having difficulty with this selection.

MHS students had a fine selection of clubs and organizations from which to choose. Girls found FHA and GAA to their suiting, while boys joined such organizations as Industrial Arts Club and FFA.

Girls and boys enjoyed Spanish Club, Speech Club and Latin Club.

Achievements in various fields were requirements for membership in Honor Society and Letterman's Club.

Whatever the organization, or whoever the person, MHS club members benefited from the requirements, standards and goals set by each club. The achievement of these goals gave each member a sense of pride and satisfaction that perhaps may serve as a vehicle on their road to success.

Yearbook Staff Adds New Features

"Deadline tomorrow!" "Crop this picture!" "Write some copy!" These are common cries which came from the 1965 yearbook staff.

Staff members were chosen in the spring from applications submitted to Mrs. Wooden. In the summer, editor, Sherry Morley, and business manager, Linda Smith, attended Yearbook Institute at Indiana University to learn the techniques of planning and managing a yearbook.

Fall brought planning, and by winter, staff members were working hard to meet the first deadline. During spring and summer months, members piled up page after page, finally completing the 1965 WAGON TRAILS.

Sponsor, Mrs. Wooden, Editor, Sherry Morley, and Business Manager, Linda Smith, put up a poster to start the yearbook sales campaign.

YEARBOOK STAFF—ROW 1: D. Via, D. Parr, C. Barlow, J. Deeter, J. Bridges. ROW 2: S. Morley, J. Townsend, Mrs. Wooden, P. Park, B. Lawrence, C. Beasley, B. Cable, R. Lundy, M. Arnold.

Without the extra efforts of the ad staff, the 1965 WAGON TRAILS would not have been able to increase the size of the yearbook. These members gave up many hours of their spare time to sell ads to Mooresville businessmen.

Ad Staff members seem to be enjoying the sale of this ad.

National Honor Society and HONOR SOCIETY—ROW 1: Mrs. Taylor, K. Marini, J. Haymaker, C. Stevens, L. Hopper, M. Petty, C. Barlow, Mrs. Richardson, Mr. Farr. ROW 2: D. Parr, S. Morley, C. Beasley, M. Arnold, S. Venable, M. Mason, J. Fields, L. Hebert. ROW 3: H. Pierce, J. Townsend, D. Via, S. Saucerman, B. Weaver, R. Lundy, R. Compton, J. Boone Miller, G. Ferkins.

Mooresville has one of the more than 5,000 National Honor Society chapters in the country. This national organization furthers scholarship, leadership, service, and character. The Honor Society holds biannual initiations to admit students who are outstanding in these four different areas.

This year as all previous years was climaxed by the annual Honor Society picnic at Danville Park.

Margaret Mason receives the trophy for most outstanding honor society member from sponsor, Mrs. Taylor.

Student Council Serve School

Student Council is a student elected organization. After a week of hard campaigning in the spring, the president and vice-president were chosen. Class representatives were selected the next week.

The council held weekly meetings and worked on many projects to further student interests at MHS.

Student Council officers were:

President—Janice Townsend
Vice President—Ginni House
Secretary—Susan Hodges
Treasurer—Jeanne Deeter

Students join in and sing during the first Hootenanny, sponsored by the Student Council.

'Crier' Keeps MHS Informed

REPORTERS and TYPISTS—ROW 1: P. Park, J. Chambers, S. Venable, S. Capps, L. Dolen, L. Howard, T. Chambers. ROW 2: G. Marlen, L. Hebert, P. Fields, D. Hartsburg, C. Fox, N. Taylor, C. Chenoweth, L. Gajderowicz, S. Money. ROW 3: S. Davis, S. Hodges, J. Boone Miller, S. Gunnell, G. Anderson, N. Dorsett, P. Roane, R. Duncan, S. Tackett, S. Fleener.

The CAMPUS CRIER staff strives to keep the students in touch with all the activities and happenings at MHS. Publishing a school newspaper isn't an easy job. Students must be interested, copy must be faultless, pictures must be taken and developed, and the finished papers must be printed and circulated. It isn't easy, but any CRIER staff members will tell you it's worth it and is fun.

The CAMPUS CRIER did an especially fine job this year under editor Margaret Mason and advisor Mrs. Whicker.

EDITORS and ASSISTANTS—SEATED: P. Leath, Mrs. Whicker, M. Mason, P. Pence, G. House, C. Barlow. STANDING: S. Carson, G. Adams, A. Butler, M. Jessup, K. Marini, J. Haymaker, M. Norris.

FHA members Linda Miller and Brenda Boger get ready for the chili supper.

One of the more active clubs around MHS is the Future Homemakers of America. Members and officers were initiated in the fall, and worked on various money-making projects in order to send representatives to the state and district conventions, and to end the year with a picnic for all FHA members. The projects included a chili supper, sale of Christmas wrapping paper, sale of ball-point pens, and the locker clean-up.

Hopes are high for the 1965 chapter of FHA to become the fifth Mooresville chapter to receive an honor rating at the state convention this summer.

in Homemaking and Farming

The FFA teaches many of the fundamental skills of farming. The interested members participated in regional livestock contests, and worked on local projects, making FFA the most active boy's club at MHS. The boys, under the supervision of Mr. Stewart, divided the field behind the school into four sections and experimented with different types of plowing and fertilizing.

The FFA boys worked hard improving our campus—keeping it clean and planting additional trees.

Mr. Stewart presents Jeff Fields with the Hoosier Farmer award on Honors Day.

ROW 4: C. Archer, B. Edmondson, J. Wallace, T. Deeter, J. Allender, R. Reed, R. Gilbert, D. Willis, D. Kays. Not pictured: R. Gunnell.

The Lettermen helped at basketball games by serving as ticket-takers and ushers. They also sold ice-cream and used the profits to buy athletic equipment. The Lettermen honored Mr. Farr this year by presenting him with a Pioneer blazer as thanks for his support of the athletic department while at Mooresville.

The Lettermen's main money-making project is the sale of ice cream during noon hours.

Interest in Sports

GAA—ROW 1: K. Andrews, R. Hayes, P. McElyea, K. Persinger, L. Morley, S. Reed, M. Smith, S. Cunningham, N. Derbyshire, P. Simpson, D. Dalton. ROW 2: S. Cummins, C. Smith, D. Stephens, C. Vandervender, D. Pryor, S. Wood, R. Scott, G. Adams, D. White, S. Day, L. Swiney, S. Durrett, C. Morning.

Baseball, Tennis, swimming, bowling, and golf were just a few of the activities undertaken by the GAA girls. Under the leadership of Miss Robbins, these girls kept fit and learned the fundamental skills of various sports.

Girls earned points according to their participation in GAA. A chevron was awarded to each girl who obtained the required number of points. During the fourth year, each qualified girl may buy a GAA letter-sweater.

Miss Robbins teaches GAA members the skills of archery. Her "victim" is Danny Grass.

Cheerleaders and Pep

Neither rain nor snow nor gloom of defeat could keep the cheerleaders from generating enthusiasm at Mooresville football and basketball games. Under the supervision of Miss Delores Robbins, the girls spend many hours trying out new techniques and practicing old ones.

Try-outs for cheerleader are held in the spring, and girls must design and execute a new routine to illustrate their ingenuity and agility.

Besides cheering at games, the Varsity cheerleaders must organize pep sessions, make posters to promote school spirit, and work with the cheerblock to develop routines.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS—Barbara Cable, Cheryl Beasley, Laraine Dolen, Janice Townsend

The Junior Varsity cheerleaders worked hard supporting the reserve team. They also helped the Varsity cheerleaders make posters and organize pep sessions.

The Freshman cheerleaders put all their effort into backing the Freshman team and instilling school spirit into members of the Freshman class.

FRESHMAN CHEERLEADERS—Connie Harris, Charlene Knapp, Pam Wampler, Linda Mynatt.

Block Boost Enthusiasm

Willingness to learn routines, long-sleeved white blouses, and a loud voice are the requirements for membership in the cheerblock. Members were:

Vocalists Display Their Talents

GIRLS' QUARTET—Nancy Taylor, Dhea Rae Hawkins, Janie Allison, Darlene Majors.

BOYS' QUARTET—Charles Payton, Richard Sexton, Bud Sweet, Gary Chitwood.

The many different groups of MHS chorus have worked hard to make this year a successful one. The concert choir presented a Christmas program and their annual spring concert. Making up the combined group this year were the Concert Choir, General Chorus, Madrigals, Boys' Quartet, Girls' Quartet, and Hootenanners.

That's Our Band

At each home football game, fans were given an impressive half time performance when the 97 piece Mooresville band took the field. Long nights and afternoons of diligent practice brought the desired results—imaginative drills executed with precision. As the school year continued, the enthusiasm at pep rallies and basketball games was bolstered by the Pep Band, and the Dance Band added a peaceful atmosphere to various events.

Rehearsal and the actual staging of the Variety Show called for many weeks of hard work from band members, majorettes, and kadettes. The success and acclaim given to band members and to their devoted director, Mr. Patchett, were well deserved.

KADETTES—TOP CENTER, CLOCKWISE: S. Gunnell, L. Broadstreet, S. Carson, D. Rushing, S. Smitherman, S. Jackson, S. Wratten, L. Ooley, J. Malott, S. Morrison, M. Petty, S. Venable, M. Zielska, J. Haymaker, J. Collins.

Seniors Shine in

"THE MOUSE THAT ROARED"

The Senior class produced the two act comedy, "The Mouse that Roared." This satire of United States foreign policy told of the small, backward European dutchy of Grand Fenwick which declared war on the United States because the U.S. was imitating Fenwick's only import—a rare wine. Grand Fenwick captures the Q-bomb, thus becoming the most powerful country in the world. A peace settlement is finally made.

The Seniors were directed by Mrs. Cox and Mr. Korra. Student directors were Ginni House and Sharon Capps.

Mrs. Call and Mrs. Wood take time to decorate the office for Christmas.

Mrs. Weber, school nurse, comes to the aid of injured Dan Via.

Together for a Better MHS

It is said that experience is the best teacher, and Mooresville students readily agreed.

Student librarians gain experience and help the school by assisting Mrs. Taylor in checking out books and keeping the library in order.

Mrs. Taylor is assistant sponsor for the Central Indiana Council of Hoosier Student Librarians Association, and Nancy Taylor is vice-president of the organization.

Those students who planned to teach after college had a good opportunity to see what teaching is really like by substituting at Northwood.

Mrs. Taylor and Nancy Taylor are active in the Student Librarian Association.

The bus drivers have the big responsibility of getting many of the Mooresville students to school on time every school day no matter what the weather.

The four members of the Mooresville High School maintenance staff deserve credit for the tremendous job they do all year—keeping the school clean and repaired, and keeping the heating system working properly.

CUSTODIANS—Kenny Fields, Paul Cooper, John Downey, Roy Blanton.

Many Pioneers have spent cold Friday nights sitting on hard bleachers with blankets about their legs shouting through clattering teeth, "Go, Pioneers!" Seemingly not enough, they packed themselves into hot gymnasiums and stood with an ocean of other Pioneer fans to yell, "Come on, boys!" On hot days after school they journeyed to the smoldering baseball or track field to yell once again for the Pioneer team.

Why? Because the bond between player and fan in achieving the same goal is strong. Each co-operates with the other to form a hard to beat combination.

Co-operation and a common goal are the mainstays of anything of importance. They lead to achievement, advancement, and of course, success.

Underclassmen Gain Valuable Experience

As the end of summer vacation drew near, over fifty Pioneers began practice for the 1964 football season. Two new coaches, head coach Keith Hill and assistant Will Cheeseman, and seven returning lettermen made the season look bright for the Pioneers. But, due to lack of size, Coach Hill experimented with several new offenses, using many underclassmen. Although the season proved to be disappointing, it gave many underclassmen a chance to gain valuable experience.

Bob Harris shows good form as he converges on a Trojan ball carrier.

Tackle Mike Knapp grimaces as he blocks for Roy Reed. End Bob Harris looks on.

Dave Norton tries to elude a Center Grove tackler as Guy Selke offers help.

Halfback Bill Lawrence turns the corner around right end as a Plainfield tackler lunges at his legs.

The 1964 season had some good games and some bad ones for the Pioneers. The team outlasted a strong Greencastle team, 14-13. In a game played at Franklin, the Pioneers handed the Whiteland Warriors a 13-0 defeat. Only a last minute let down kept Mooresville from beating Greenwood, which had previously tied Danville, the conference powerhouse. In the Homecoming game against Center Grove, the Pioneers lost a heartbreaker by a 14-13 count. The team lost 6-0 to a strong Plainfield eleven. Mooresville also lost to Northwest, Decatur Central, and Danville.

On an end sweep Dave Norton has his feet cut from under him.

Quarterback Mickey Thompson is thrown to the turf by two Center Grove tacklers as Coaches Hill and Cheeseman watch.

Bob Boles, Clay Simmons, and Jack Allender pursue a Danville ball carrier.

There seems to be some attraction to this spot on the field and both teams want their turn. In the action for the Pioneers are Bob Harris, Guy Selke, Mike Thompson, Steve O'Dell, and Dave Willis.

Dave Norton sweeps left end for a substantial gain.

Guy Selke comes to a sudden stop at the hands of two Center Grove defenders.

Cross Country Team Goes 8-2

The 1964 cross country team continued the winning ways started several years ago. The Mid-state conference seemed more powerful in this relatively new sport than in the past. The team lost only two meets in 1964, and was highly thought of going into the conference meet at Plainfield. Mooresville placed third behind strong teams from Speedway and Decatur Central.

This year's team had only one underclassman letter winner, and next season's team will be a challenge to coach Larry Ramey.

*Denotes conference meet

The Pioneer wrestling team had a successful season this year, finishing 3rd in the Columbus Invitational, 5th in the Mid-State Conference Meet at Decatur Central, and 4th in the sectionals at Franklin Central.

The grapplers traveled to Columbus, Indiana, to participate in the Columbus Invitational, in which Seymour, Connersville, and Columbus were entered. The team finished third, a few points behind Seymour and Columbus.

Bob Foster achieved the best individual record of the season by winning 18 matches. He lost his last match of the sectionals and wound up 18-1.

The team gained valuable experience for next season, losing only one senior.

Jerry Stanley uses his famous surfboard hold to pin a Greencastle foe.

Referee Jack Brown raises Steve O'Dell's hand in victory.

Dennis Parr gets ready to try to escape his Greencastle opponent.

Richie Gunnell moves in for one of his "how did he do it" shots as Carl Archer and Dave Barnett close in for the rebound.

Pioneer Season Best Since '55

Carl Archer finds himself in rough traffic in the Decatur Central contest.

Bruce Strack scores two on a driving layup as Meredith Trusty follows.

Meredith Trusty sets and looks for the open man.

Dave Barnett scores from underneath while Bruce Strack awaits possible rebound.

Strack pumps two points from the corner in the Center Grove contest.

Senior Jerry Wallace gets a step on his Decatur opponent and heads for the basket.

The 1965 addition of Mooresville High School basketball got off to a rapid start, winning ten straight ball games. By Christmas, with a 10-0 record, the Pioneers were gaining state-wide recognition and were ranked 25th in the UPI poll. In January the team met its first defeat, at the hands of the Greenwood Woodmen. The Pioneers closed out the regular season with a victory and wound up 15-5. In the sectionals the team posted a win over a stubborn Monrovia five, and fell in the next match to a fired up University squad by a narrow margin.

Pioneers Win Morgan Co. Tourney

BOTTOM ROW: Laraine Dolen, Janice Townsend, Bill Clark, Richard Gunnell, Bob Harris, Bill Lawrence, Terry Lane, Bill Arnold, Cheryl Beasley, Barbara Cable. SECOND ROW: Coach Norb Johnson, Mike Griffith, Meredith Trusty, Dan Kays, Bruce Strack, Carl Archer, Jerry Wallace, Rodger Smith, Coach Larry Ramey, Phil Thompson, Larry Gajderowicz.

Co-captains, Richie Gunnell, Bruce Strack, and Carl Archer receive the championship trophy from IHSAA Commissioner Phil Eskew.

After the title game, Carl Archer cuts the nets.

Jerry Wallace does not seem pleased with the outcome of this attempted layup. Carl Archer, at right, fights for position.

Dave Barnett reaches high for a two-pointer as Trusty looks on.

Bob Harris attempts a pass over the outstretched arms of the opponent.

This year's junior varsity compiled a respectable 14-4 record. The record is even more remarkable considering the fact that the nucleus of last season's squad made the step up to the varsity. Coach Norb Johnson has racked up a total of 32 victories against only 4 defeats in his two years as junior varsity mentor. Next year's team seems even more promising, as several underclassmen will be returning with valuable experience.

The most permanent and rewarding object obtained in high school is a friend. Friends are as much a part of the student's life as studies and homework. They share interests, good times and sadness.

MHS students were grieved at the loss of their fellow classmate, Jim Sumners, in an auto accident earlier in the year. We dedicate this section of the 1965 WAGON TRAILS to his memory.

Long after the graduation tassel has faded, the memories and thoughts of friends made in high school will still be in our minds. They are and always will be a part of our road to success.

What would MHS students do without Mooresville merchants? Girls rely upon them for items to make themselves more attractive. Boys rely upon them for machine parts to make their cars run. Parents rely upon them for the items to build strong bodies, make chores easier, and maintain a smooth running household.

Merchants play an important part in the advancement of a community. Their backing and hard work keep MHS and the surrounding community on the road to success.
