First cousins of the late Queen Victoria in the paternal line were the Duke of Cambridge, born 1819; Augusta, Duchess of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, born 1822, and Mary Adelaide, Duchess of Teck, born 1822, died 1897. A second cousin of the Queen in the paternal line was the Duke of Cumberland, born 1845. There are numerous descendants of these relatives. The Queen also had a large number of cousins through her mother, the Duchess of Kent. Whitaker's Peerage has a list of 234 living blood relatives of the late Queen. * [Children in SMALL CAPS. ## The British Parliament.

THE supreme legislative power of the British Empire is, by its constitution, vested in Parliament. This body consists of two houses, the Lords and the Commons.

THE HOUSE OF LORDS.

The House of Lords is composed of the whole Peerage of England and of the United Kingdom, and of certain representatives of the peerages of Scotland and Ireland, but many members of these latter have also English titles, which give them seats in the House. The Duke of Buccleuch sits as Earl of Doncaster, and the Duke of Leinster as Viscount Leinster. Exclusive of 1 baron, whose claim is not established, the House at present consists of 6 Princes of the Blood, 2 Archbishops, 22 Dukes, 22 Marquises, 123 Earls, 31 Viscounts, 24 Bishops, 319 Barons, 16 Scottish Representative Peers elected for each Parliament, and 28 Irish Representative Peers elected for life (1 Scottish and 2 Irish Representative Peers are also included as Peers of England)—in all, 589 members.

The Lord Chancellor of England is always the Speaker of the House of Lords.

High Commissioner in London, England, Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, G. C. M. G. Salary, $10,000.

The Dominion of Canada has an area of 3,653,946 (including the Hudson Bay) square miles, and comprises one-sixteenth of the land surface of the globe. It is the largest of all the British possessions, Australia, the next in size, containing 2,944,628 square miles. The Government of Canada is Federal, centred at Ottawa, which city is the capital of the Dominion, while the provinces and the Northwest Territories have their respective local Legislatures. The head of the Federal Government is the Governor-General, appointed by the Queen of Great Britain, and holding office for five years, his salary being paid by the Dominion Government.

The Lieutenant-Governors of the several provinces are appointed by the Federal Government for a term of five years. The Legislatures are elected by the people of each province. The highest Court in the Dominion is the Supreme Court, composed of a Chief Justice and five Judges, each of whom receives a salary of $7,000 per annum, except the Chief Justice, who is paid an additional $1,000. From the decisions of this Court the only tribunal to which appeal can be made is to the Judicial Committee of the Imperial Privy Council of Great Britain. The only other Federal Court is the Exchequer Court, presided over by a single Judge, for trying cases connected with the revenue. All others are of a provincial character, limited to jurisdiction in their respective provinces only.

The present Constitution of Mexico bears date February 5, 1857, with subsequent amendments. By its terms Mexico is considered a Federative Republic, divided into States, nineteen at the outset, but at present twenty-seven in number, with two Territories and one Federal District, each having a right to manage its own local affairs, while the whole are bound together in one body politic by fundamental and constitutional laws. The powers of the Federal Government are divided into three branches—the legislative, executive, and judicial. The legislative power is vested in a Congress, consisting of a House of Representatives and a Senate; the executive in a President, and the judicial in Federal Courts. Representatives elected by the suffrage of all male adults, at the rate of one member for 40,000 inhabitants, hold their places for two years. The qualifications requisite are to be twenty-five years of age and a resident in the State. The Senate consists of two members from each State, of at least thirty years of age, who hold their places for four years. Senators are elected indirectly, half of them being renewed every two years. The members of both Houses receive salaries of $3,000 each a year.

The President is elected by electors popularly chosen in a general election, holds office for four years, and, according to the last Amendment of the Constitution, there will be no prohibition to his re-election. In case of his sudden disability, the Secretary of Foreign Affairs officiates in his place; in case of leave, death, or permanent disability, Congress elects a pro tempore President, who acts until, in either of the two last cases, a President is elected by the people. Congress has to meet annually from September 16 to December 15, and from April 1 to May 31, and a permanent committee of both Houses sits during the recesses.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

The Federal revenues collected during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1901, were about $65,000,000; disbursements were about $62,000,000; value of imports year ended June 30, 1902, $64,648,774; value of exports, $168,041,271.

ARMY AND NAVY.

The army consists of infantry, 22,964; engineers, 766; artillery, 2,304; cavalry, 8,454; rural guards of police, 2,365; gendarmerie, 250; total, 37,103. There are over 3,000 officers. There is a fleet of two unarmored gun-vessels, each of 450 tons and 600 horse-power, and armed with 20-pounders, one training-ship of 1,221 tons armed with four 4.72-guns, two 57-mm. guns and two 32-mm. guns, and three small gunboats. Two new gunboats have been recently built at Elizabeth, N. J.

NATIONAL DEBT.

The external debt, contracted in London, is £16,500,000, and the total debt of the country was in 1897, in gold, $114,675,895.49; in silver, $88,549,111.80. Total, $203,225,067.34.

* Egypt and the Egyptian Soudan, although nominally under the suzerainty of Turkey, are really controlled by Great Britain, and it is only a matter of time as to when they will be incorporated into the British Empire. Adding Egypt and the Soudan to the Empire would increase the figures above given to 2,985,220 square miles and 47,952,877 population.

The remaining territory of Africa unoccupied is a part of the great Desert of Sahara and the Independent States of Abyssinia and Liberia. Even this territory, except the last, is destined to pass under the power of the Europeans. The tabular figures are from "The Statesman's Year-Book."

Egyptian (British) and French territory in the Soudan, according to British claims, touch along the line of the 27th degree of latitude. Prior to the revolt of the Mahdi in 1882 Egypt claimed Darfar, Kordofan, Senaar, Taka, the Equatorial Province, and the Bah-el-Ghazal Province. Though authority over these was lost by the success of the Mahdi, Egypt did not relinquish her claim, and her full authority was resumed by the victories of General Kitchener in 1898. The French were disposed to dispute these claims and assert a right to territory as far east as the banks of the Nile, thus covering the Bah-el-Ghazal Province. Hence the appearance of Major Marchand at Fashoda on the Nile, many miles south of Khartoum. But this position the French have now abandoned.

The two Boer republics have, as the result of the recent war, been annexed to the British Crown under the names of the Transvaal Colony and the Orange River Colony. The administration is carried on under the Governor, who is assisted by an Executive Council, and the general aim is to provide a constitution under which self-government may be granted as soon as circumstances will permit. Municipalities, with the usual powers for local administration, exist at Pretoria, Johannesburg, Bloemfontein, and other centres. Local laws, customs, and conditions will be respected, and in appointments to administrative offices preference will be given to men born in the colonies. Under the title of Rhodesia is included the whole region lying between the north and west of the Transvaal and the 22d degree of south latitude and the southern boundaries of the Congo Free State, and having for its eastern and western boundaries the Portuguese and German spheres.

* Population of Greater London (metropolitan and city police districts), 6,540,616. † With suburbs.

NOTE.—The population of Chinese cities other than Canton, Peking, and Shanghai is omitted, because reports respecting it are utterly untrustworthy. There are forty or more Chinese cities whose inhabitants are numbered by rumor at from 200,000 to 1,000,000 each, but no official censuses have ever been taken; and setting aside consideration of the Oriental tendency to exaggeration, there is reason to believe that the estimates of population in many instances covered districts of country bearing the same names as the cities, instead of definite municipalities.

* Including all persons in the military and naval service of the United States. † Including all persons of negro descent.

The whole number of persons of school age—that is, from 5 to 20 years of age, inclusive—in 1900 is 26,110,788, of whom 21,573,492 are from 5 to 17 years of age and 4,537,296 from 18 to 20 years of age. These figures include, however, 217,523 persons of school age reported in Alaska, Hawaii, Indian Territory, and on Indian reservations. Eliminating the latter from the account, there are native born, 24,689,118; foreign born, 1,204,147; native white (native parents), 14,775,476; native white (foreign parents), 6,371,221; foreign white, 1,193,443; colored, 3,553,125; persons of negro descent, 3,485,188; males, 12,972,994; females, 12,920,271.

The number of males of voting age is 21,329,819, of which there are native born, 16,227,285; foreign born, 5,102,534; native white (native parents), 10,636,893; native white (foreign parents), 3,466,721; foreign white, 4,932,524; colored, 2,293,676; persons of negro descent, 2,065,589.

The ratio of population to males of voting age in the entire country is 3.6. This ratio varies, however, for the several elements of the population, the ratio of negro population to negro males of voting age being 4.3.

AREA.—According to the census of 1900, the largest county in the United States is Custer County, Montana, which has 20,490 square miles. The smallest is Bristol County, Rhode Island, which has 25 square miles.

NOTE.—The figures relating to conjugal condition are not absolute, as the statements as to those married and unmarried are apt to be incorrectly reported, partly through unintentional misstatement and partly through a desire to conceal the facts. For instance, an incorrect return may be made through lack of knowledge, in the case of boarders and lodgers (particularly men) who are reported as single when in fact they are or have been married; or from motives of concealment, in the case of divorced persons who report themselves as single, of couples who have separated but are not legally divorced, or of persons who are not lawfully married.

*The average size of families was 4.7 persons in 1900, against 5 in 1880 and 5.6 in 1850. Of the 15,963,965 private families in 1900, 14,042,546 had male heads and 1,921,419 female heads.

†Of 7,218,755 persons owning their homes in 1900, 5,064,248 were native whites, 1,730,970 were foreign whites, 372,444 were negroes, 48,219 were Indians, and 2,274 Chinese and Japanese.

The density of population is obtained by dividing the population of each State and Territory and of the United States by its total land area in square miles at each census. In computing density of population for the United States, the areas and population of Alaska and Hawaii in 1900, of Alaska in 1890, and of Indian Territory in 1860, 1870, and 1880 are not considered. The area of Indian reservations, outside of Indian Territory, is included in the area of the States and Territories in which they are severally situated, and in that of the United States, prior to 1890, although the population of these Indian reservations was not ascertained, and, for this reason, cannot be considered in figuring density of population at the censuses prior to 1890.

The density of population of the United States, exclusive of Alaska and Hawaii, according to the census of 1900, is 25.6—that is, there were in the United States in 1900, on the average, 25.6 inhabitants to the square mile, using land surface only. At the census of 1790 there were less than 5 inhabitants to the square mile, so that the density of the population of the country has increased in 110 years more than fivefold, although the land area of the country in 1900, exclusive of Alaska and Hawaii, was more than three and one-half times what it was in 1790.

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

The government of the District of Columbia is vested by act of Congress approved June 11, 1878, in three Commissioners, two of whom are appointed by the President from citizens of the District having had three years' residence therein immediately preceding that appointment, and confirmed by the Senate. The other Commissioner is detailed by the President of the United States from the Corps of Engineers of the United States Army, and must have lineal rank senior to Captain, or be a Captain who has served at least fifteen years in the Corps of Engineers of the Army. The Commissioners appoint the subordinate official service of said government. The present Commissioners are H. B. F. Macfarland (Republican), President, whose term will expire May 2, 1903; John W. Ross (Democrat), whose term will expire May 5, 1903; Major John Biddle (non-partisan), Corps of Engineers, United States Army, detailed during the pleasure of the President of the United States. The Secretary is William Tindall. The offices of the Commissioners are 464 Louisiana Avenue, N. W., Washington.

Washington had a municipal government from 1802 to 1871. By an act approved February 21, 1871, Congress provided a territorial form of government for the entire District of Columbia, with a Governor, Secretary, Board of Public Works, and Council, appointed by the President of the United States, and a House of Delegates and a delegate in Congress elected by the citizens of said District. This form of government was abolished June 20, 1874, and a temporary government by three Commissioners substituted. The temporary form of government was succeeded by the present form of government July 1, 1878. Congress makes all laws for the District, but has intrusted to the Commissioners authority to make police regulations, building regulations, plumbing regulations, and other regulations of a municipal nature.

Reconstruction of the City of New York.

THE City of New York is in the midst of a great transformation period. The borough of Manhattan is undergoing a radical reconstruction. The vast expanse of Bronx has been cut up into building lots; streets have been laid out and graded; city water and sewerage have been carried into its hitherto inaccessible quarters, and builders have started an energetic campaign in the erecting of dwellings and flats. Brooklyn is pushing outward with beautiful suburbs to its very confines, the volume of dwelling construction exceeding for the past two years all former records of such development. Queens is following close with operations of a similar character. Richmond is just beginning to burst forth into like activity from the same causes.

The fundamental cause of this evolution is found in gigantic rapid transit subway projects which are now under way. The metropolis will be crossed at right angles by two immense arteries of traffic. One is the Rapid Transit Subway, extending northward from City Hall through the centre of the island to Yonkers on the west and Eastern Bronx on the east. Another section of this subway will extend southward under Broadway, from City Hall, crossing the East River to Brooklyn. The second great traffic artery will be the tunnel of the Pennsylvania and Long Island railroads. It will cross the North River from Jersey City, traversing Manhattan under the line of Thirty-third Street, thence under the East River to Brooklyn. A mammoth terminal station for this subway in Manhattan will be built on the blocks bounded by Seventh and Ninth Avenues, Thirty-first and Thirty-third Streets; another at Thirty-third Street and Broadway; a third at Fourth Avenue and Thirty-third Street, to connect with the city's Rapid Transit Subway.

Secondary causes of the metropolitan transformation lie in the construction of three additional bridges across the East River; the construction of the New York and New Jersey Railroad tunnel along the route of the old Morton Street project, through which the trolley roads of North New Jersey will enter Manhattan; the prosperity of the country, which is making New York the financial centre of the world; the success of steel skeleton construction, by which buildings of twenty stories have been proven both practical and profitable investments; new devices in electricity, which have rendered the operation of tall buildings comparatively inexpensive; an abundance of money, which has offered to shrewd operators the right opportunity for discounting a great future.

The effect of these factors is seen in the current readjustment of population centres. The old means of transit had set a limit to the expansion of business and residential districts. The new projects at once burst these limits. They pushed far outward the logical confines of metropolitan activity.

Business districts first felt the forces of expansion. They began to overflow into residential districts. The population unhoused by the overflow sought homes further removed from the new business centres. The population of this new territory in turn was forced along toward the suburbs.

Such was the start of the movement in 1899, when the construction of the Rapid Transit Subway became a certainty. Speculative operators rushed into the field and aroused a building boom which broke all records. The fever subsided with a natural reaction in 1900. In 1901 the market again resumed the discounting of gigantic transit projects.

The first reaction was as thorough as it was salubrious. The operations of 1901 and 1902 rested upon a more conservative basis, although greater in scope. Rapidly rising values of land made individual operations more difficult, because a larger amount of capital was required for each operation.

This situation was promptly met by a wholesale incorporation of realty companies, which undertook operations on a scale larger than had yet been recorded in metropolitan real estate. Their first successes attracted much outside capital into the market. During 1901 and 1902 no less than eighty of these companies were incorporated, with aggregate capitalization exceeding $75,000,000. This was followed in the last half of 1902 by a merger of several large companies into the United States Realty and Construction Company, with capital stock of $66,000,000.

Factors operating for the elimination of private dwellings in central Manhattan were accentuated by the withdrawal of large areas for the uses of railroads, public institutions, bridges, parks, and business enterprises. The enlarged business routine of the metropolis tended also to render city homes desirable only during eight or nine months of the year at most and country homes the real luxury. Thus the apartment hotel began to receive attention. It became the ideal residence for persons who refused to follow the suburban trend. Architects and builders lavished on the new structures manifold luxuries and conveniences in the way of simplifying service and making lighter the cares of house-keeping. And the apartment hotel, during 1901 and 1902, became the most remarkable and picturesque factor in the rebuilding of the metropolis.

The annual hotel construction prior to 1900 had been six structures at an aggregate cost of $2,500,000. The apartment hotel first appeared as a factor in 1900, when thirteen were built at an aggregate cost of $2,768,000. In 1901 forty-six were constructed at a cost of $20,421,000. During the last quarter of 1902 there were sixty-six hotels and apartment hotels under construction at an aggregate cost of $38,055,000. The average cost of each building, with the land, was $750,000. The total investment represented in the year's construction was $50,000,000.

PRIVATE DWELLINGS.

These projects illustrate the wonderful transformation under way in central Manhattan, and the rapidity with which the home life of the metropolis is changing. The statistics are supplemented by others showing the decrease in private dwellings constructed, and steady increase in their average cost.

The Sons of the Revolution have purchased a site for a building for their meetings and archives on 55th Street east of Seventh Avenue.

NEW THEATRES.

Theatres moved up to Long Acre Square, where the managers picked out available sites, with the conviction that no further northward movement in metropolitan evolution could oust them. Their argument is based on the theory that the northward movement of hotel and theatre districts must necessarily stop at 59th Street, where Central Park divides Manhattan into east side and west side. Theatre and hotel projects demand a district that is capable of drawing patronage from all quarters of the metropolis. Long Acre Square, where all of the great new transit and traffic lines come together, is regarded as the ideal spot. That it will so remain for more generations than human foresight can now discern is the theme of the new theatre-builders. It is also a motive for great advances in the value of Long Acre land. Theatres under construction with the closing of 1902 were:

GREAT OFFICE BUILDINGS.

The direct force operating upon central districts to urge this mass of construction is a pressure from the lower end of Manhattan in the shape of business expansion. This pressure is acting in two ways: It is claiming more ground northward, and it is claiming more room skyward. The increase of rentable floor space south of Fulton Street during the past five years far exceeded the increase over the same district during the preceding fifteen years. In thirty-one latest office structures there is an average of 68,630 square feet of rentable floor space for each building. The increase in gross floor space during 1902 was 2,596,225 square feet. The increase in rentable floor space was 421,700 square feet.

This sudden expansion in the size of individual structures is shown by the comparative constructional projects of 1901 and 1902. During the last quarter of 1902 there were thirty-five office buildings under way at an aggregate cost of $17,290,000; or an average cost for each building of $494,000. During 1901 there were constructed forty-one office buildings at an aggregate cost of $11,095,000; or an average for each of $270,600. The principal office buildings under way during the last quarter of 1902 were:

LARGE STORES.

The construction of stores and lofts was secondary only to office buildings in forcing the transformation of central districts. The 1902 construction was represented by 70 buildings, at an aggregate constructional cost of $16,544,000. The average for each building was $236,000. In comparison, 83 structures were built in 1901 at an aggregate cost of $7,660,000, or an average for each of $92,300. Some of the notable structures under way in 1902, including great department stores, were:

- Broadway, southeast corner Spring Street; 11-story; Bayard Realty Company; $450,000.
- Broadway, east side, south of Astor Place, through to Lafayette Place; 11-story; William E. Finn; $1,600,000.
- Broadway, No. 476; 11-story; Henry Corn; $375,000.
- Broadway, northeast corner 12th Street; 11-story; National Realty Company; $625,000.
- Broadway, west side, 33d to 34th Street; 7-story (Saks & Co.); Herald Square Realty Company; $100,000.
- Broadway, west side, 34th to 35th Street; 9-story; R. H. Macy & Co.; $2,500,000.
- Eleventh Street, northeast corner University Place; 11-story; Empire Realty Company; $985,000.
- Thirteenth Street, south side, east of Washington Street; 3-story factory; John Jacob Astor; $200,000.
- Fifteenth Street, Nos. 629-635 East, to 16th Street; 5-story bakery; American Pastry Manufacturing Company; $110,000.
- Nineteenth Street, north side, west of Sixth Avenue; 10-story; Simpson-Crawford Co.; $350,000.
- Twenty-second Street, Nos. 28-32 West; 11-story; Louis Sachs; $350,000.

- Fifth Avenue, northwest corner 14th Street; 11-story; H. S. Van Buren and Henry Corn; $500,000.
- Fifth Avenue, northwest corner 18th Street; 11-story; Henry Corn; $600,000.
- Fifth Avenue, Nos. 105-107; 11-story; Henry Corn; $550,000.

TENEMENT CONSTRUCTION.

Tenement operations were restricted during the first half of 1902 by the new laws. Speculative builders soon learned that 6-story model structures on 40-foot plots could be built at a profit, and 100 such buildings were under way in the last quarter. The aggregate cost of construction was $4,104,000, or an average of $41,000 for each structure.

This construction does not include flats, which are classed under the new laws as tenements. The flat-house construction of 1902 was confined to Harlem districts. It was comparatively insignificant after the record of 1,160 flats for 1901. The great slump in the building of flats caused the total construction of Manhattan and Bronx to show a 22 per cent decrease for 1902 from the figures of 1901. The sudden check to flat building, however, strengthened the investment market in northern districts. It filled vacant houses with tenants, and established rental values on a firm basis.

* Date when admission took effect is given from U. S. Census reports. In many instances the act of admission by Congress was passed on a previous date. A bill to admit New Mexico, Arizona, and Oklahoma (the latter to include the Indian Territory) as States was pending in Congress when this edition went to press.

NEW POSSESSIONS.—A government for Porto Rico was established by the Fifty-sixth Congress. The Philippines are under a provisional civil government appointed by the President, and Guam and Tutula under Governors appointed by the President. (Consult Index.)

United States Military Academy at West Point.

EACH Senator, Congressional District, and Territory—also the District of Columbia—is entitled to have one cadet at the Academy. There are also forty appointments at large, specially conferred by the President of the United States. The number of students is thus limited to five hundred and twenty-one. At present there are two extra cadets at the Academy, who were authorized by Congress to enter it at their own expense from Venezuela and Costa Rica.

Appointments are usually made one year in advance of date of admission, by the Secretary of War, upon the nomination of the Senator or Representative. These nominations may either be made after competitive examination or given direct, at the option of the Representative. The Representative may nominate a legally qualified second candidate, to be designated the alternate. The alternate will receive from the War Department a letter of appointment, and will be examined with the regular appointee, and if duly qualified will be admitted to the Academy in the event of the failure of the principal to pass the prescribed preliminary examinations. Appointees to the Military Academy must be between seventeen and twenty-two years of age, free from any infirmity which may render them unfit for military service, and able to pass a careful examination in reading, writing, spelling, English grammar, English composition, English literature, arithmetic, algebra through quadratic equations, plane geometry, descriptive geography, and the elements of physical geography, especially the geography of the United States, United States history, the outlines of general history, and the general principles of physiology and hygiene.

The course of instruction, which is quite thorough, requires four years, and is largely mathematical and professional. The principal subjects taught are mathematics, French, drawing, drill regulations of all arms of the service, natural and experimental philosophy, chemistry, chemical physics, mineralogy, geology, electricity, history, international, constitutional, and military law, Spanish, civil and military engineering, art and science of war, and ordnance and gunnery. About one-fourth of those appointed usually fail to pass the preliminary examinations, and but little over one-half the remainder are finally graduated. The discipline is very strict—even more so than in the army—and the enforcement of penalties for offences is inflexible rather than severe. Academic duties begin September 1 and continue until June 1. Examinations are held in each December and June, and cadets found proficient in studies and correct in conduct are given the particular standing in their class to which their merits entitle them, while those cadets deficient in either conduct or studies are discharged.

From about the middle of June to the end of August cadets live in camp, engaged only in military duties and receiving practical military instruction. Cadets are allowed but one leave of absence during the four years' course, and this is granted at the expiration of the first two years. The pay of a cadet is $609.50 per year, and, with proper economy, is sufficient for his support. The number of students at the Academy is usually about four hundred and seventy.

Upon graduating cadets are commissioned as second lieutenants in the United States Army. The whole number of graduates from 1802 to 1902, inclusive, has been 4,121. It is virtually absolutely necessary for a person seeking an appointment to apply to his Senator or Member of Congress. The appointments by the President are usually restricted to sons of officers of the army and navy, who, by reason of their shifting residence, due to the necessities of the service, find it next to impossible to obtain an appointment otherwise.

The Academy was established by act of Congress in 1802. An annual Board of Visitors is appointed, seven being appointed by the President of the United States, two by the President of the Senate, and three by the Speaker of the House of Representatives. They visit the Academy in June, and are present at the concluding exercises of the graduating class of that year. The Superintendent is Colonel Albert L. Mills, United States Army, and the military and academic staff consists of seventy-two persons. Captain William C. Rivers, First Cavalry, is adjutant.

The two oldest living graduates of the Military Academy are Thomas A. Morris, of Indianapolis, 1834, and General Herman Haupt, of Washington, D. C., 1835.

United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.

THERE are allowed at the Academy one midshipman for each Member or Delegate of the United States House of Representatives, one for the District of Columbia, and ten at large. The appointment of midshipmen at large and for the District of Columbia is made by the President. In addition to the above an act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides that until the year 1914 the President shall appoint five midshipmen, and there shall be appointed from the States at large upon the recommendation of Senators two midshipmen from each State. The Secretary of the Navy, as soon after March 5 in each year as possible, must notify in writing each Member and Delegate of the House of Representatives of any vacancy that may exist in his district. The nomination of a candidate to fill the vacancy is made, on the recommendation of the Member or Delegate, by the Secretary. Candidates must be actual residents of the districts from which they are nominated.

The course of midshipmen is six years, the last two of which are spent at sea. Candidates are examined mentally by the United States Civil Service Commission at points designated by the commission; the first two examinations taking place at points nearest the homes of the candidates and the third at Washington. Members of Congress having the appointment of a midshipman are authorized to nominate one principal and five alternates. Candidates at the time of their examination for admission must be not under fifteen nor over twenty years of age and physically sound, well formed, and of robust constitution. They are examined mentally by the academic board in reading, writing, spelling, arithmetic, geography, English grammar, United States history, world's history, algebra through quadratic equations, and plane geometry (five books of Chauvenet's Geometry, or an equivalent). Deficiency in any one of these subjects may be sufficient to insure the rejection of the candidate. They enter the Academy immediately after passing the prescribed examinations, and are required to sign articles binding themselves to serve in the United States Navy eight years (including the time of probation at the Naval Academy), unless sooner discharged. The pay of a midshipman is $500 a year, beginning at the date of admission.

The Academy was founded in 1845 by the Hon. George Bancroft, Secretary of the Navy in the Administration of President Polk. It was formally opened October 10 of that year, with Commander Franklin Buchanan as Superintendent. During the Civil War it was removed from Annapolis, Md., to Newport, R. I., but was returned to the former place in 1865. It is under the direct supervision of the Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department. Captain W. H. Brownson, United States Navy, is the present Superintendent. By act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, the former title "naval cadet" was changed to "midshipman."

THE NAVY.

The active list of the Navy comprises 1,346 commissioned and 461 warrant officers. The enlisted force numbers 25,258 men.

By act of Congress approved March 3, 1899, the officers constituting the engineer corps were transferred to the line of the navy. A system of voluntary retirement was provided for by which a certain number of vacancies in the higher grades are insured each year, thus facilitating promotion. A force of 100 warrant machinists (afterward increased to 150) to perform engineer duty was appropriated for and increases authorized in the medical, pay, and marine corps.

MARINE CORPS.

The United States Marine Corps consists of a force of 212 officers and 6,000 men. Major-General Charles Heywood is commandant.

NAVAL EXAMINING AND RETIRING BOARDS.

The Naval Examining Board consists of Rear-Admiral John C. Watson, President; Captains Francis A. Cook and Theodore F. Jewell, and Commander Charles W. Rae, members.

The Naval Retiring Board is composed of Rear-Admiral John C. Watson, President; Captains Francis A. Cook and Theodore F. Jewell, and Medical Directors John C. Wise and Charles U. Gravatt, members.

NAVAL OBSERVATORY.

Superintendent, Captain Colby M. Chester; Assistants, Lieutenant-Commander E. E. Hayden and Professors A. N. Skinner, W. S. Eichelberger, W. S. Harshman, and Frank B. Littell, members.

NAUTICAL ALMANAC.

Director—Professor Walter S. Harshman.

UNITED STATES NAVAL ENLISTMENT.

The term of enlistment of all enlisted men of the navy is four years. Minors over the age of eighteen may be enlisted without consent of parents or guardians, but minors under, but claiming to be over eighteen years of age, are liable, if enlisted, to punishment for fraudulent enlistment. Only such persons shall be enlisted as can reasonably be expected to remain in the service. Every person, before being enlisted, must pass the physical examination prescribed in the medical instructions. Applicants for enlistment must be American citizens, able to read and write English, and when enlisted must take the oath of allegiance.

OLD NAVAL VESSELS.

Old Iron Vessels.—Alert, Monocys, Michigan, and Ranger. These have a tonnage varying from 550 to 1,370; horse-power, 190 to 850, and speed, 8.5 to 11.2 knots.

Old Wooden Vessels.—Adams, Enterprise, Essex, Hartford (recently rebuilt), Lancaster, and Mohican. These have a tonnage varying from 900 to 3,250; horse-power, 220 to 2,000, and speed, 7.5 to 12 knots. They are now used for the training of apprentices and landsmen.

The above are steam vessels. In addition to the old navy vessels enumerated above, are the following sailing vessels: Training-ship Constellation, 8 guns, built 1854; Training-ship Monongahela, built 1862; School-ships St. Mary's and Saratoga, and Training-ship Alliance.

TUGS.

There are 41 tugs in the Naval Service, the largest of which, the Potomac, has a displacement of 785 tons, and the two smallest, the Chickasaw and Rapido, 100 tons. These vessels are distributed among the various naval stations in the United States and the Philippine Islands.

The following vessels are being used by various State naval militia: Fern, Marion, Minnesota, Portsmouth, Yantic, Dale, New Hampshire, and St. Louis.

The Jamestown and Iroquois have been transferred to the Marine Hospital Service.

The Michigan, an iron cruiser of 685 tons, is employed on special duty in the northwestern lakes.

The Library of Congress.

(From the Official Congressional Directory.)

THE Library of Congress was established in 1800, destroyed in 1814 by the burning of the Capitol, afterward replenished by the purchase by Congress of the library of ex-President Jefferson, 6,760 volumes (cost, $24,950); in 1851, 35,000 volumes destroyed by fire; in 1852, partially replenished by an appropriation of $75,000; increased (1) by regular appropriations by Congress; (2) by deposits under the Copyright law; (3) by gifts and exchanges; (4) by the exchanges of the Smithsonian Institution, the library of which (40,000 volumes) was, in 1866, deposited in the Library of Congress with the stipulation that future accessions should follow it. Sixty sets of Government publications are at the disposal of the Librarian of Congress for exchange, through the Smithsonian, with foreign governments, and this number may be increased up to 100. Other special accessions have been. The Peter Force collection (22,529 volumes, 37,000 pamphlets), purchased 1867, cost $100,000; the Count de Rochambeau collection (manuscript), purchased 1883, cost $20,000; the Toner collection (24,484 volumes, numerous pamphlets), gift in 1882 of Dr. Joseph M. Toner; the Hubbard collection (engravings), gift in 1898 of Mrs. Gardiner G. Hubbard.

The collection is now the largest in the Western Hemisphere. It comprised at the end of the fiscal year (June 30, 1902) about 1,114,111 printed books and pamphlets (including the law library of 92,582 volumes, which, while a division of the Library of Congress, still remains at the Capitol), 99,532 manuscripts, 64,921 maps and charts, 345,511 pieces of music, and 127,002 photographs, prints, engravings, and lithographs. Of the printed books, probably one-sixth are duplicates not in use.

The collection is rich in history, political science, jurisprudence, in official documents, National, State, and foreign, and in Americana, including important files of American newspapers and original manuscripts (colonial, revolutionary, and formative periods). Many of the rare books and manuscripts belonging to the Library are exhibited in show cases on the second floor.

The Smithsonian deposit is strong in scientific works, and includes the largest assemblage of the transactions of learned societies which exists in this country.

In 1897 the main collection was removed from the Capitol to the building erected for it under the acts of Congress approved April 15, 1886, October 2, 1888, and March 2, 1889, at a cost of $6,347,000 (limit by law, $6,500,000), exclusive of the land, which cost $585,000. The architects who furnished the original designs were John L. Smithmeyer and Paul J. Pelz. By the act of October 2, 1888, before the foundations were laid, Thomas L. Casey, Chief of Engineers of the Army, was placed in charge of the construction of the building, and the architectural details were worked out by Paul J. Pelz and Edward P. Casey. Upon the death of General Casey, in March, 1896, the entire charge of the construction devolved upon Bernard R. Green, General Casey's assistant, and under his superintendence the building was completed in February, 1897; opened to the public November, 1897. The building occupies three and three-quarter acres upon a site ten acres in extent at a distance of 1,270 feet east of the Capitol, and is the largest and most magnificent library building in the world. In the decorations some forty painters and sculptors are represented—all American citizens. The floor space is 326,195 square feet, or nearly 8 acres. The book stacks contain about 45 miles of shelving, affording space for 2,200,000 octavo volumes. Were the long corridors, now used in part for exhibition purposes, completely shelved, the building would accommodate over 4,000,000 such volumes.

The Library is maintained by annual appropriations by Congress for various purposes, including the purchase of books. For the year 1902-3 these amounted to $652,785, as follows: $384,185 for services (including the Copyright Office, and including also the care of the building); $91,300 for books and periodicals; $37,500 for fuel, supplies, miscellaneous purposes, including contingent expenses; $45,000 for furniture, shelving, etc., and $95,000 allotment for printing and binding at the Government Printing Office.

Library Service.—Library proper, 231 employes; Copyright, 58; disbursement and care of buildings and grounds, 117. Total, 406.

Copyright Office.—The Copyright Office is a distinct division of the Library of Congress, and is located on the ground floor, south side; open 9 to 4. It is under the immediate charge of the Register of Copyrights, who, by the act of February 19, 1897, is authorized, "under the direction and supervision of the Librarian of Congress," to perform all the duties relating to copyrights. Copyright registration was transferred to the Librarian of Congress by the act of July 8, 1870. The copyright entries from that date to June 30, 1902, numbered 1,317,496. Of most articles copyrighted two copies, and of some one copy, must be deposited in the Library of Congress to perfect copyright. Books, maps, musical compositions, photographs, periodicals, and other articles deposited in the Copyright Office to complete copyright numbered, during the fiscal year 1901-2, 169,726 articles.

Entitled by statute to draw books for home use are the following: The President, the Vice-President; Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress (no books may be given out upon the orders of members in favor of those who are not members); Heads of Departments; the Justices, Reporter, and Clerk of the Supreme Court; the Judges and Clerk of the Court of Claims; Judges of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia and Judges of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia; representatives at Washington of foreign governments; the Solicitor-General and Assistant Attorney-General; the Secretary of the Senate; the Clerk of the House of Representatives; the Solicitor of the Treasury; ex-Presidents of the United States; the House of Representatives; the Congress; the Secretary and Regents of the Smithsonian Institution; the Chairmen of the two Houses of the Interstate Commerce Commission; Chief of Engineers of the Army.

Hours.—The Library building is open to the public all days in the year excepting legal holidays. The hours are from 9 A. M. to 10 P. M. week days, and from 2 P. M. to 10 P. M. Sundays.

The Main Reading Room, Periodical Reading Room, and Music Division are open to the public from 9 A. M. to 10 P. M. week days, and from 2 P. M. to 10 P. M. Sundays.

The Reading Room for the Blind is open week days from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.

The Librarian's Office and the Department of Bibliography are open for the transaction of business from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. week days, and from 2 P. M. to 6 P. M. Sundays.

The other administrative divisions of the Library, including the Copyright Office, are open for the transaction of business from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. all days in the year, excepting legal holidays and Sundays.

Librarians Since the Inception of the Library.—1800-1814, the Clerk of the House of Representatives (for the time being); 1815-1829, George Watterston; 1829-1861, John S. Mehan; 1861-1864, John G. Stephenson; 1864-1897 (June 30), Ainsworth R. Spofford; 1897-January 17, 1899, John Russell Young; 1899 (April 5), Herbert Putnam.

Library Staff, General Administration.—Librarian of Congress, Herbert Putnam, 1215 Nineteenth Street; Librarian's Secretary, Allen R. Boyd, 2025 N Street; Chief Clerk, Thomas G. Alvord, 1855 Mintwood Place; Chief Assistant Librarian, A. R. Spofford, 1621 Massachusetts Avenue.

JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT.

The salaries of Justices of the Supreme Court are: First and Second Districts, $17,500; remaining Districts, $7,200; but non-resident Justices, sitting in the Appellate Divisions of the First and Second Departments, receive the same compensation as the Justices in those Departments; if assigned to duty in the First and Second Districts, other than in the Appellate Division, their additional compensation is $10 per day.

Pawnbrokers' Regulations in the City of New York.

PAWNBROKERS in New York City are regulated by statute. The rate of interest fixed by law is 3 per cent a month or any fraction of a month for the first six months, and 2 per cent per month for each succeeding month upon any loan not exceeding $100, and 2 per cent a month for the first six months and 1 per cent a month for each succeeding month on any loan exceeding $100. Pledges cannot be sold until after they have been kept one year, and then at public auction by a licensed auctioneer, after publication of at least six days in two daily newspapers designated by the Mayor. Pawnbrokers pay a yearly license fee of $500 to the city and are under the control of the Mayor. The license is issued through the Bureau of Licenses, and their books must be kept open to the Mayor, Criminal Courts, Magistrates, and Police.

PROVIDENT LOAN SOCIETY, 279 4TH AVE., 186 ELDRIDGE ST., 119 W. 42D ST., 105 E. 125TH ST.

Office hours: 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.; Saturday to 6 P. M. Ticket good for one year only. Loans may be paid by instalments, in sums not less than $1. Rate of interest: One per cent per month, or any fraction thereof. On loans of $250 and over the rate of interest is 10 per cent per annum. Only one-half month interest charged on all loans redeemed within two weeks after date of pledge. Condition of loan: Agreed to by the holder of the ticket in consideration of interest being charged at less than the rate allowed by law. The Provident Loan Society of New York shall not be liable for loss or damage by fire, breakage, dampness, theft, or moths; nor shall it be liable in any event for more than 25 per cent in addition to the amount loaned. Otto T. Bannard, President; James Speyer, Treasurer; Robert W. De Forest, Secretary; Max G. Hopf, Assistant to Treasurer; Moses Aufses, Manager.

The loan may be renewed at or before maturity on payment of the full amount of interest due, accompanied by the ticket. When making payment by instalment, the full amount of interest due on the sum loaned must be included, and the ticket must be returned. The interest due on the loan cannot be paid by instalment. The Society has thus far limited the classes of personal property on which it has made loans to clothing and so-called "jewelry," including under that designation all articles of gold or silver, precious stones, opera-glasses, eye-glasses, also men's clothing in good condition, and ladies' and men's furs.

Banks in Manhattan and Bronx Boroughs.

The Clearing-House is at 77 Cedar Street, Manhattan Borough. Wm. Sherer is manager, Wm. J. Gilpin, assistant manager. Sixty banks are associated for the purpose of exchanging the checks and bills they hold against each other. Other banks, not members of the association, clear through members. The representatives of the members appear at the Clearing-House at 10 o'clock A. M. every business day, with the checks and bills to be exchanged. The resulting balances are ascertained in about an hour, and before half-past one o'clock those indebted pay their balances, and after that hour the other banks receive the amounts due them. The Clearing-House has been in operation since 1853.

Following are extracts from the Manager's annual report for year ending September 30, 1902: The Clearing-House transactions for the year have been as follows: Exchanges, $74,753,189,435.86; balances, $3,377,504,072.11; total transactions, $78,130,693,507.97. The average daily transactions: Exchanges, $245,898,649.46; balances, $11,110,210.76; total, $256,793,423.21. Total transactions since organization of Clearing-House (49 years): Exchanges, $1,435,161,868,993.05; balances, $68,263,324,729.55; total, $1,503,425,193,722.60.

Banks are open from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M., and on Saturdays from 10 A. M. to 12 noon. Commercial paper, except sight or demand bills, falling due on Saturday, is payable on the following business day.

Public Library, Astor, Lenox, and Tilden Foundations.

ESTABLISHED by consolidation of "The Trustees of the Astor Library," "The Trustees of the Lenox Library," and "The Tilden Trust," May 23, 1895, twenty-one trustees being chosen from the trustees of these corporations. The agreement of consolidation provided for the establishment and maintenance of a free public library and reading-room in the City of New York, with such branches as might be deemed advisable for the continued promotion of the objects and purposes of these several corporations.

The Astor Library was founded in 1849 by John Jacob Astor, and his endowment was increased, and land and buildings added, by the beneficence of various members of the Astor family.

The Lenox Library was founded in 1870 by James Lenox, who gave land on Fifth Avenue between Seventieth and Seventy-first Streets, large funds, and valuable collections of Bibles, manuscripts, and Americana. It received subsequently large endowments from his sister, Miss Henrietta Lenox, from Mrs. R. L. Stuart, and others.

The Tilden Trust, incorporated in 1887, was created by the will of Samuel J. Tilden, made in 1884, which gave his entire residuary estate to trustees to establish and maintain a free library and reading-room. A long contest in the courts resulted, before the termination of the suit, in an agreement of compromise by which the Tilden Trust became possessed of over $2,000,000.

The Trustees soon after the consolidation in 1895 determined to pursue a liberal policy and to create a great library system not only for the use of scholars, but for the people. The best permanent site for the future great library was considered to be in Bryant Park, on Fifth Avenue, between Fourth and Forty-second Streets, on the site of the reservoir, which had become obsolete and was practically unused. On March 25, 1896, the Trustees made a formal address to the Mayor asking aid from the city in securing the site of the reservoir, and in May, 1896, the Legislature passed a law authorizing the removal of the reservoir and the lease of the land to the Library. On May 19, 1897, another act was passed providing for the construction by the city of a library building on the reservoir site, and for its lease to the Library, which act was amended in 1900, removing the limit of cost. On November 10 the architects were selected for the new building and on December 1 the plans were approved by the city. The building will front on Fifth Avenue, looking east. The greatest projection of the main façade of the building is seventy-five feet back of the Fifth Avenue building line. It is intended to make a terrace out of this seventy-five feet of foreground, serving as a grand approach to the main entrance. The terrace will be 455 feet long. There will be a hallway in the centre of the building eighty feet long and forty feet wide. The staircases which lead to the second and third floors will be of stone, twelve feet wide. The arches forming the vestibule will be thirty-five feet high and fifteen feet wide. The entrance to the stairs and the elevators will be on the Fortieth Street side. The rooms for the circulation of books and the children's room will be on the basement floor, 42d Street side; on this floor will be also the rooms for patents, the binding and printing departments; the first floor will contain the offices of the business superintendent, the superintendent of circulation, newspaper and periodicals reading-rooms, and exhibition rooms; on the second floor will be the Trustees' room, the office of the director, lecture and assembly rooms, cataloguing and accession departments, and various special reading-rooms; the third floor will contain the large general reading-rooms, the public catalogue, special reading-rooms for manuscripts, Americana, etc., the Stuart books and pictures, the print room, etc. There will be about 140 feet of ground between the west elevation of the building and the present park. The design of the building will be monumental in character, with classical proportions. After delays, owing to the inability of the city to appropriate funds for the work, the removal of the reservoir was begun on June 6, 1899. The reservoir has since been removed and the foundations for the new building completed and the corner-stone for the building laid. The Park Department, acting on behalf of the city, entered into a contract with contractors to construct the building at a cost of $2,865,706.

In June, 1900, the Finance Department of the city requested the Library to investigate the condition of free circulating libraries, and on September 24 a report was made, after careful investigation, recommending a definite centralized system of free circulating libraries. On December 11, 1900, the Trustees of the New York Free Circulating Library offered to consolidate with the Public Library, and on February 23, 1901, an agreement of consolidation was effected. An act permitting libraries to deed their properties to the Public Library became a law on March 6, 1901, and under the St. Agnes Free Library and the Washington Heights Free Library have conveyed all their property to the Public Library.

On November 14, 1900, the Library received a communication from the Board of Education for the Boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, recommending cooperation with the public schools, and on December 12 an agreement with the Board of Education was made by which books were to be supplied in 1901, for reading-rooms in eight public schools. These reading-rooms were discontinued in 1902 owing to lack of appropriation by the Board of Education for maintenance.

On March 12, 1901, Mr. Andrew Carnegie offered to give $5,200,000 to the city for the construction and equipment of free circulating libraries upon condition that the city should provide the land and agree to maintain the libraries when built. This communication was submitted to the Mayor on March 15, and on April 26 an act was passed authorizing acceptance of the gift by the city upon the terms imposed by Mr. Carnegie. An agreement with the city was executed on July 7, the Library acting as agent for Mr. Carnegie, under which forty-two buildings are to be erected in Manhattan, the Bronx, and Richmond (later increased to fifty), on sites to be selected and purchased by the city with the approval of the Library, the buildings to be leased to the Library and under its control. The city agrees to provide adequate yearly maintenance of 10 per cent of the cost of each building, being agreed upon as a minimum.

On November 7, 1901, an agreement was made with three firms of architects in New York to prepare plans and specifications for these branch libraries. On June 6, 1902, an issue of bonds for $500,000 was authorized for purchase of sites. The first Carnegie building, known as the Yorkville branch, was opened December 13, 1902, at 222 East Seventy-ninth Street. Seven other sites have been acquired under the contract, and building operations are under way. The Trustees of the library are:

CENTRAL PARK.

The great park of New York extends from 59th St. to 110th St., being over 2½ miles long, and from 5th Ave. to 8th Ave., being over half a mile wide. It covers 843 acres, of which 185 are in lakes and reservoirs and 400 in forest, wherein over half a million trees and shrubs have been planted. There are 9 miles of roads, 5¼ of bridge paths, and 28¼ of walks. The landscape architects of the Park were Frederick Law Olmsted and Calvert Vaux. Public park carriages can be found (except in Winter) at the entrances on 5th Ave. and 8th Ave. The fare for an extended ride through the Park is 25 cents. Work was begun on the Park in 1857. The following fanciful names have been officially applied to the several entrances to the Park: 5th Ave. and 59th St., Scholar's Gate; 6th Ave. and 59th St., Artist's Gate; 7th Ave. and 59th St., Artisan's Gate; 8th Ave. and 59th St., Merchant's Gate; 8th Ave. and 72d St., Woman's Gate; 8th Ave. and 81st St., Hunter's Gate; 8th Ave. and 85th St., Mariner's Gate; 8th Ave. and 96th St., Gate of All Saints; 8th Ave. and 100th St., Boy's Gate; 8th Ave. and 110th St., Stranger's Gate; 5th Ave. and 67th St., Student's Gate; 5th Ave. and 72d St., Children's Gate; 5th Ave. and 79th St., Miner's Gate; 5th Ave. and 90th St., Engineer's Gate; 5th Ave. and 96th St., Woodman's Gate; 5th Ave. and 102d St., Girl's Gate; 5th Ave. and 110th St., Pioneer's Gate; 6th Ave. and 110th St., Farmer's Gate; 7th Ave. and 110th St., Warrior's Gate.

FACTS ABOUT PUBLIC PARKS.

Union Square was purchased by the city in 1833 for $116,051; Madison Square, in 1847, for $65,952; Tompkins Square, in 1854, for $93,358; Washington Square, in 1857, for $77,970, and Manhattan Square, in 1858, for $54,657. The latter is assessed as a part of Central Park. The other four are assessed at over $16,000,000, and are easily worth $20,000,000, while their original cost to the city was only $353,331. Prospect Park, Brooklyn, contains 516 1-6 acres, in woodland, 110 acres, in lakes and water courses, 77 acres, in meadows, 70 acres, in plantations, 259 1-6 acres, in drives, 9 miles, in bridle roads, 3 1-10 miles, in walks, 12 miles. Ocean Parkway is 5 1-2 miles long and 210 feet wide. Eastern Parkway is 2 1-2 miles long and 210 feet wide. London has 271 public parks, containing 17,876 acres of ground. The largest European city park is in Denmark; it contains 4,200 acres. The great forest of Northern New York covers an area of 3,588,803 acres.

Bridges in and About the City of New York.

BROOKLYN BRIDGE.

THE bridge connecting Manhattan Borough and Brooklyn Borough over the East River from Park Row, Manhattan Boro., to Sands and Washington Streets, Brooklyn Boro., was begun January 3, 1870, and opened to traffic May 24, 1883. Total cost of the bridge to December 1, 1897, about $21,000,000.

The tolls are: For foot passengers, free; railway fare, 3 cents, or 2 tickets for 5 cents; one horse, 3 cents; one horse and vehicle, 5 cents; two horses and vehicle, 10 cents; each extra horse above two attached to vehicle, 3 cents; bicycles, free. On July 1, 1898, the bridge railway was leased to the elevated railroad companies (now operated by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit), paying therefor $250 per day; trolley cars, 5 cents per round trip. About 120,000 surface cars cross the bridge each month. The carriageways are under control of the Bridge Commissioner, and about $60,000 per annum is derived from this source.

The following are the statistics of the structure: Width of bridge, 85 feet. Length of river span, 1,595 feet 6 inches. Length of each land span, 930 feet. Length of Brooklyn approach, 998 feet. Length of New York approach, 1,562 feet 6 inches. Total length of carriageway, 6,016 feet. Total length of the bridge, with extensions, 7,580 feet.

Size of Manhattan Borough caisson, 172 x 102 feet. Size of Brooklyn Borough caisson, 168 x 102 feet. Timber and iron in caisson, 5,253 cubic yards. Concrete in well holes, chambers, etc., 5,669 cubic feet. Weight of Manhattan Borough caisson, about 7,000 tons. Weight of concrete filling, about 8,000 tons.

Manhattan Borough tower contains 46,945 cubic yards masonry. Brooklyn Borough tower contains 88,214 cubic yards masonry. Depth of tower foundation below high water, Brooklyn Borough, 45 feet. Depth of tower foundation below high water, Manhattan Borough, 78 feet. Size of towers at high water line, 140 x 59 feet. Size of towers at roof course, 136 x 53 feet. Total height of towers above high water, 278 feet.

Clear height of bridge in centre of river span above high water at 90° F., 135 feet. Height of floor at towers above high water, 119 feet 3 inches.

Grade of roadway, 3¼ feet in 100 feet. Height of towers above roadway, 159 feet. Size of anchorage at base, 129 x 119 feet. Size of anchorage at top, 117 x 104 feet. Height of anchorages, 89 feet front, 85 feet rear. Weight of each anchor plate, 23 tons.

Number of cables, 4. Diameter of each cable, 15¼ inches. Length of each single wire in cables, 3,578 feet 6 inches. Ultimate strength of each cable, 12,000 tons. Weight of wire, 12 feet per pound. Each cable contains 5,296 parallel (not twisted) galvanized steel, oil-coated wires, closely wrapped to a solid cylinder, 15¼ inches in diameter. Permanent weight suspended from cables, 14,680 tons.

NEW YORK AND NEW JERSEY BRIDGE.

Andrew H. Green, Chairman; F. W. Devoe, Evan Thomas, R. Somers Hayes, Isidor Straus, Commissioners; Evan Thomas, Secretary; Charles H. Swan, Assistant Secretary. Commissioners' office, 21 Park Row, Manhattan Borough. The Commissioners of the New York and New Jersey Bridge and the Sinking Fund Commissioners of the City of New York selected a location midway between 49th and 51st Streets, Manhattan Borough. And the State Commissioners have located a freight approach along the marginal wharf, or place, 5 feet west of the westerly line of West Street, with power of the Dock Department saying what docks and turnouts shall be built upon in order that cars can be loaded from ships without extra handling. The maximum length of span is 2,710 feet. Guaranteed cost of the bridge is $20,000,000, and will be a double-deck bridge, as approved by the Secretary of War July 5, 1900, for trolley and steam traffic. The law provides that the bridge must be completed within ten years. The Union Bridge Company has made a contract with the companies to construct the bridge within six years from the time it commences work, and gave a bond of $1,000,000 for the faithful performance of the contract. It is intended to begin work of construction when the freight approaches to the bridge have been approved by the Sinking Fund Commissioners of New York City.

WILLIAMSBURG (NEW EAST RIVER) BRIDGE.

The tower foundations for the bridge in the borough of Manhattan are at the foot of Delancey Slip, and in the borough of Brooklyn at a point between South Fifth and South Sixth Streets. The bridge will end at Norfolk Street in the borough of Manhattan, and at Havemeyer Street in the borough of Brooklyn. The dimensions of the bridge are as follows: Main span, 1,600 ft.; entire bridge, between terminals, 7,200 ft.; width of bridge, 118 ft.; minimum height of bridge above mean high water, 135 ft.; height of centre of cables at top of towers above high water, 335 ft.; width of carriage ways, each 18 ft.; width of two foot-walks, each 10½ ft.; width of two bicycle paths, each 7 ft.; width of four trolley-car tracks, centre to centre, 93½ ft.; width of two elevated railroad tracks, centre to centre, 11 ft. New York side—North caisson, 54.8 ft. below low water mark; south caisson, 70 ft. Brooklyn side—North caisson, 91 ft. below low water mark; south caisson, 85 ft. The tower foundations are 23 ft. above high water mark and the towers that are to be placed on top of them are made of steel. The estimated cost is about $12,000,000. The structure may be completed in about one year.

PROPOSED BRIDGES OVER THE EAST RIVER.

Manhattan Bridge (No. 3). Work of construction of tower foundation in the borough of Brooklyn commenced August 29, 1901. Title to land vested in the city September 14, 1901.

Blackwell Island Bridge (No. 4). Plans approved by the War Department February 23, 1901. Ordinance providing for the issue of stock to the extent of $550,000 signed by the Mayor May 21, 1901. Title to land vested in the city December 22, 1901. Work of constructing the piers commenced July 19, 1901.

Hack and Cab Fares in Manhattan Borough.

RATES REGULATED BY LAW.—The city ordinance regulating the rates which may be charged customers by cabbmen is as follows; distance is computed at twenty blocks to a mile north and south, and seven blocks to a mile east and west:

SEC. 434. The price or rates of fare to be asked or demanded by the owners or drivers of hackney coaches or cabs shall be as follows:

Cabs.

1. For conveying one or more persons any distance, sums not exceeding the following amount: Fifty cents for the first mile or part thereof; and each additional half mile or part thereof, twenty-five cents. By distance, for "stops" of over five minutes and not exceeding fifteen minutes, twenty-five cents. For longer stops, the rate will be twenty-five cents for every fifteen minutes or fraction thereof, if more than five minutes. For a brief stop, not exceeding five minutes in a single trip, there will be no charge.

2. For the use of a cab, by the hour, with the privilege of going from place to place and stopping as often and as long as may be required, one dollar for the first hour or part thereof; and for each succeeding half-hour or part thereof, fifty cents, if agreed upon in advance, otherwise mileage rate will apply.

Coaches.

3. For conveying one or more persons any distance, sums not exceeding the following amounts: One dollar for the first mile or part thereof; and each additional half-mile or part thereof, fifty cents. By distance, for "stops" of over five minutes and not exceeding fifteen minutes, forty cents. For longer stops, the rate will be forty cents for every fifteen minutes. For a brief stop, not exceeding five minutes in a single trip, there will be no charge.

4. For the use of a coach, by the hour, with the privilege of going from place to place and stopping as often and long as may be required, one dollar and fifty cents for the first hour or part thereof; and for each succeeding half-hour or part thereof, seventy-five cents, if agreed upon in advance.

5. No cab or coach shall be driven by the time rate at a place less than five miles an hour.

6. Line balls, two passengers, two dollars for first mile or part thereof; one dollar for each additional mile; fifty cents for each additional passenger.

7. Every owner or driver of any hackney coach or cab shall carry on his coach or cab one piece of baggage, not to exceed fifty pounds in weight, without extra charge; but for any additional baggage he may carry he shall be entitled to extra compensation at the rate of twenty-five cents per piece.

SEC. 436. All disputes as to prices or distance shall be settled by the Mayor's Marshal or the police.

SEC. 437. In all cases where the hiring of a hackney coach or a cab is not at the time thereof specified to be by the hour, it shall be deemed to be by the mile; and for any detention, exceeding fifteen minutes, when so working by the mile, the owner or driver may demand at the rate of one dollar per hour.

SEC. 15. Every licensed hack shall be provided with a suitable lamp on each side, and shall have fastened across the middle of the outside of each lamp a metal band not less than two inches in width, bearing the official number of the license. Every licensed hack shall have the official number of the license legibly engraved or embossed upon a metal plate and affixed inside.

SEC. 16. Every licensed hackman, immediately after the termination of any hiring or employment, must carefully search such hack for any property lost or left therein, and any such property, unless sooner claimed or delivered to the owner, must be taken to the nearest police station and deposited with the officer in charge within twenty-four hours after the finding thereof; and in addition a written notice, with brief particulars and description of the property, must be forwarded at once to the Bureau of Licenses.

SEC. 17. Every licensed hackman shall have the right to demand payment of the legal fare in advance, and may refuse employment unless so prepaid, but no licensed hackman shall otherwise refuse or neglect to convey any orderly person or persons, upon request, anywhere in the city, unless previously engaged or unable so to do. No licensed hackman shall carry any other person than the passenger first employing a hack without the consent of said passenger.

The following table of distances is published by the Mayor's Marshal:

FROM SOUTH FERRY to Wall Street, one-half mile; to City Hall, one mile; to Canal Street, one and one-half miles; to Houston Street, two miles; to 4th Street, two and one-quarter miles; to 14th Street, two and three-quarter miles; to 24th Street, three and one-quarter miles; to 37th Street, four miles; to 42d Street, four and one-quarter miles; to 62d Street, five and one-quarter miles; to 82d Street, six and one-quarter miles; to 102d Street, seven and one-quarter miles; to 122d Street, eight miles.

EAST AND WEST, FROM BROADWAY to East River, across 14th Street, one mile; to East River, across 23d Street, one mile; to East River, across 34th Street, seven-eighths of a mile; to East River, across 42d Street, one mile; to East River, across 59th Street, one and one-quarter miles; to North River, across 14th Street, one and one-quarter miles; to North River, across 23d Street, one and one-eighth miles; to North River, across 34th Street, one and one-quarter miles; to North River, across 42d Street, one mile; to North River, across 59th Street, seven-eighths of a mile.

Public Porters.

EVERY Public Porter must wear, in a conspicuous position, a badge bearing the number of his license, and is not entitled to receive any pay for services unless such a badge is worn, and if he shall demand a greater sum for his services than accords with the rates below, he shall not be entitled to any pay for the service.

Any Public Porter may decline to carry any article, if the distance he shall be required to go shall be more than two miles.

Public Porters shall be entitled to charge and receive for the carrying or conveyance of any article, any distance within half a mile, twenty-five cents if carried by hand, and fifty cents if carried on a wheelbarrow or hand-cart; if the distance exceeds half a mile and is within a mile, one-half of the above rates in addition thereto, and in the same proportion for any greater distance.

Help in Case of Accidents.

Drowning. 1. Loosen clothing, if any. 2. Empty lungs of water by laying body on its stomach, and lifting it by the middle so that the head hangs down. Jerk the body a few times. 3. Pull tongue forward, using handkerchief, or pin with string, if necessary. 4. Imitate motion of respiration by alternately compressing and expanding the lower ribs, about twenty times a minute. Alternately raising and lowering the arms from the sides up above the head will stimulate the action of the lungs. Let it be done gently but persistently. 5. Apply warmth and friction to extremities. 6. By holding tongue forward, closing the nostrils, and pressing the "Adam's apple" back (so as to close entrance to stomach), direct inflation may be tried. Take a deep breath and breathe it forcibly into the mouth of patient, compress the chest to expel the air, and repeat the operation. 7. DON'T GIVE UP! People have been saved after hours of patient, vigorous effort. 8. When breathing begins, get patient into a warm bed, give WARM drinks, or spirits in teaspoonfuls, fresh air, and quiet.

Burns and Scalds. Cover with cooking soda and lay wet cloths over it. Whites of eggs and olive oil. Olive oil or linseed oil, plain, or mixed with chalk or whiting. Sweet or olive oil and lime-water.

Lightning. Dash cold water over a person struck.

Sunstroke. Loosen clothing. Get patient into shade and apply ice-cold water to head. Keep head in elevated position.

Mad Dog or Snake Bite. Tie cord tight above wound. Suck the wound and cauterize with caustic or white-hot iron at once, or cut out adjoining parts with a sharp knife. Give stimulants, as whiskey, brandy, etc.

Stings of Venomous Insects, etc. Apply weak ammonia, oil, salt water, or iodine.

Fainting. Place flat on back; allow fresh air, and sprinkle with water. Place head lower than rest of body.

Tests of Death. Hold mirror to mouth. If living, moisture will gather. Push pin into flesh. If dead the hole will remain, if alive it will close up. Place fingers in front of a strong light. If alive, they will appear red; if dead, black or dark. If a person is dead decomposition is almost sure to set in after 72 hours have elapsed. If it does not, then there is room for investigation by the physician. Do not permit burial of dead until some certain indication of death is apparent.

Cinders in the Eye. Roll soft paper up like a lamplighter, and wet the tip to remove, or use a medicine dropper to draw it out. Rub the other eye.

Fire in One's Clothing. Don't run—especially not downstairs or out-of-doors. Roll on carpet, or wrap in woollen rug or blanket. Keep the head down, so as not to inhale flame.

Fire from Kerosene. Don't use water, it will spread the flames. Dirt, sand, or flour is the best extinguisher, or smother with woollen rug, table-cloth, or carpet.

Smothering from Inhaling Illuminating Gas. Get into the fresh air as soon as possible and lie down. Keep warm. Take ammonia—twenty drops to a tumbler of water, at frequent intervals; also, two to four drops tincture of nux vomica every hour or two for five or six hours.

Antidotes for Poisons.

First. Send for a physician.

Second. INDUCE VOMITING, by tickling throat with feather or finger. Drink hot water or strong mustard and water. Swallow sweet oil or whites of eggs.

Acids are antidotes for alkalis, and vice versa.

SPECIAL POISONS AND ANTIDOTES.

Acids, muriatic, oxalic, acetic, sulphuric (oil of vitriol), nitric (aqua-fortis). Soap-suds, magnesia, lime-water.

Prussic acid. Ammonia in water. Dash water in face.

Carbolic acid. Flour and water, mucilaginous drinks.

Alkalis. Such as potash, lye, hartshorn, ammonia. Vinegar or lemon juice in water.

Arsenic, rat poison, paris green. Milk, raw eggs, sweet oil, lime-water, flour and water.

Bug poison, lead, saltpetre, corrosive sublimate, sugar of lead, blue vitriol. Whites of eggs or milk in large doses.

Chloroform, chloral, ether. Dash cold water on head and chest. Artificial respiration. Piece of ice in rectum. No chemical antidote.

Carbonate of soda, copperas, cobalt. Soap-suds and mucilaginous drinks.

Iodine, antimony, tartar emetic. Starch and water. Astringent infusions. Strong tea, tannin.

Mercury and its salts. Whites of eggs, milk, mucilages.

Nitrate of silver, lunar caustic. Salt and water.

Opium, morphine, laudanum, pargorie, soothing powders, or syrups. Strong coffee, hot bath. Keep awake and moving at any cost.

Strychnine, tincture of nux vomica. Mustard and water, sulphate of zinc. Absolute quiet. Plug the ears.

Rules in Case of Fire.

CRAWL on the floor. The clearest air is the lowest in the room. Cover head with woollen wrap, wet if possible. Cut holes for the eyes. Don't get excited.

Ex-Chief Hugh Bonner, of the New York Fire Department, gives the following rules applying to houses, flats, hotels, etc.:

Familiarize yourself with the location of hall windows and natural escapes. Learn the location of exits to roofs of adjoining buildings. Learn the position of all stairways, particularly the top landing and scuttle to the roof. Should you hear cry of "fire," and columns of smoke fill the rooms, above all KEEP COOL. Keep the doors of rooms shut. Open windows from the top. Wet a towel, stuff it in the mouth, breathe through it instead of nose, so as not to inhale smoke. Stand at window and get benefit of outside air. If room fills with smoke keep close to floor and crawl along by the wall to the window.

Do not jump unless the blaze behind is scorching you. Do not even then if the firemen with scaling ladders are coming up the building or are near. Never go to the roof, unless as a last resort and you know there is escape from it to adjoining buildings. In big buildings fire always goes to the top. Do not jump through flame within a building without first covering the head with a blanket or heavy clothing and gauging the distance. Don't get excited; try to recall the means of exit, and if any firemen are in sight DON'T JUMP.

If the doors of each apartment, especially in the lower part of the house, were closed every night before the occupants retired there would not be such a rapid spread of flames.

Rod and Reel-Casting Records.

Single-Handed Fly-Casting (out of doors, rod 11 feet, 10⅞ ounces)—H. C. Golcher, 140 feet. Made at San Francisco Fly-Casting Club, 1902.
 This record was made at a Club Tournament.

WEIGHT-CASTING.

- Striped Bass Casting (Light)*—H. W. Hawes, 129 6-10 feet, average of five casts; sinker 1½ ounces. Made at Central Park, N. Y., 1884.
Striped Bass Casting (Heavy)—John A. Roosevelt, 204 feet 3 inches, average of five casts in lane, 35 feet wide; rod 7 feet 5 inches; sinker 2½ ounces. Made at Central Park, N. Y., 1884.
Striped Bass Casting (Heavy)—W. H. Wood, 250 feet, longest single cast without lane; rod 9 feet; sinker 2½ ounces. Made at Central Park, N. Y., 1885.
Minnow Casting for Black Bass—E. C. Sturges, 140 feet 11 inches, average of five casts; sinker ¼ ounce. Made at Camp Lake, Wis., 1891.
Minnow Casting for Black Bass—F. B. Davidson, 167 1-5 feet, average of five casts; sinker ½ ounce. Made at Chicago, Ill., 1894. Under these conditions Mr. Davidson made a single cast of 173 feet, and Mr. Sturges 148 feet.

LINE CASTING WITH SOLID RUBBER FROG.

- C. R. Kenniff, with a percentage of 97 9-15. Made at San Francisco, Cal., 1902.
 Team line casting, Chicago won against San Francisco, with 97 15-30 against 94.7. Made at San Francisco, 1902.
 The "San Francisco Fly-Casting Club" rule is that the height of the platform over water must not exceed 18 inches for all casting.
 The American records have been compiled by John A. Roosevelt, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

ENGLISH FLY AND BAIT-CASTING RECORDS.

- Salmon Fly-Casting, Amateur*—*J. J. Hardy, 140 feet 3 inches (1895). *John Enright, 147 feet (1896).
Salmon Fly-Casting, Scotch Professional—J. Stevens, 126 feet.
Salmon Switch-Casting, Amateur—C. M. P. Burns, 108 feet.
Trout Fly-Casting, Single-Handed Rod—Mr. P. D. Mallock, 492 feet; Mr. R. B. Marston, Mr. Hyde Clark, tie, 474 feet; Mr. Reuben Wood (of Syracuse, N. Y.), 82 feet 6 inches.
Trout Fly-Casting, Two-Handed Rod—John Enright, 111 feet.
Trout Fly-Casting, Ten-Foot Rod—Edgar S. Shrubsole, 90 feet (1896).
Thames Bait-Casting, Amateur—Mr. R. Gillson, 191 feet 11 inches.
Longest Cast, Heavy (3 ounces) Sinker—Mr. Hobden, 216 feet.
Nottingham Bait-Casting, Amateur—J. T. Emery, 2½ ounce lead, 214 feet (1896). J. T. Emery, 1¼ ounce lead, 204 feet 6 inches (1896).

*Mr. Hardy's cast was made at a tournament with a rod of 18 feet. Mr. Enright's cast of 147 feet was made in a tournament, with a 20-foot salmon rod. Afterward with the same rod he made an exhibition cast, before reliable witnesses, of 151 feet 3 inches.

†This distance was made by measuring the line after casting.

‡This cast of Messrs. Marston and Clark is given in English reports as the best, but for some unknown reason Mr. Wood's cast of 82 feet 6 inches and Mr. George M. Kelson's cast of 81 feet have been entirely overlooked, although both are records at an international tournament.

§In Nottingham casting the cast is made from the reel, as is done in America.

¶In Thames casting the line is coiled at the feet of the caster.

The National Florence Crittenton Mission.

President—Charles N. Crittenton, 21 Bleeker Street, New York City. General Superintendent—Kate Waller Barrett, M. D. Secretary—Mrs. Emma L. Robertson, Washington, D. C. Treasurer—F. B. Waterman, New York. This is an organization chartered by special act of the United States Government for the purpose of reaching and leading into better lives unfortunate girls and women. It consists of a chain of more than fifty homes, located in different cities, as well as one each in Japan and France, besides numerous circles, the members of which visit the haunts of sin and encourage the girls to forsake the evil life. About 80 per cent of those reached are permanently reformed. The first home was opened at 21 Bleeker Street, New York City, eighteen years ago, by Mr. Crittenton, the founder and president, and named for his little daughter, Florence. The headquarters of the Mission are at 218 Third Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

DASH AHEAD!

Why be a SLOW-COACH all your life? Get out of the RUT of "old-fogyism!"

Procure a copy of Goodwin's Improved Book-keeping and Business Manual and "get in line" with all the progressive, "up-to-date" Book-keepers and Business Men of the present day! The NEW POINTS acquired from this book will make a difference in

Your salaries as Book-keepers
Your success as business men.

"It raised my salary from $780 to $1,650 a year!"

"It saved us the expense of one man in our office!"

Don't wait until you need it so badly that you will have to TELEGRAPH for it, as many others have done, but send for a descriptive pamphlet at once, upon receipt of which you will surely order a copy of THE BOOK. 66,018 copies sold and 6,736 testimonials received up to Saturday, October 4, 1902.

Wake Up, Old Man—Wake Up!

BE A BOOK-KEEPER—BE A FIRST-CLASS BOOK-KEEPER!

You Will Never Fall Asleep Over Your Work

or be troubled over long columns of figures, if you will purchase and master the contents of GOODWIN'S IMPROVED BOOK-KEEPING AND BUSINESS MANUAL. This book is not a luxury, but a necessity—particularly to the progressive. It leads directly to money-making and money-saving. You can learn from it in three weeks how to open, keep, and close a set of double-entry books for a business of any kind and any size, average accounts, compute interest, prove postings, audit accounts, teach book-keeping, do expert work, change books from single to double entry, take off trial balances or find errors therein, make annual reports and comparative statements and—save 40 per cent of labor in any office. MONEY REFUNDED if you do not consider the book worth TEN TIMES what you pay for it!

Or in any way connected with a STOCK COMPANY?

If so, you should possess a copy of GOODWIN'S IMPROVED BOOK-KEEPING AND BUSINESS MANUAL.

This book explains at length how the books of STOCK COMPANIES are opened and closed, and describes in detail many other peculiarities appertaining especially to this class of business concerns. It will prove of especial value as a BOOK OF REFERENCE, as it contains more practical information on the subject of STOCK COMPANIES than that contained in all the other works which have ever been published. It is, in fact, an AUTHORITY on the subject,—among the LARGEST CORPORATIONS OF THE WORLD.

"Would not take $50 for the information I have gained from your article on Stock Companies alone! Your book is by far the most thorough and complete exponent of ADVANCED BOOK-KEEPING I have ever seen."—W. L. BARNES, Secretary and Treasurer of the Providence Coal Co., Providence, Ky.

Price, $3.00. (Sent, post-paid, upon receipt of price.) 21st edition NOW READY. You will surely have to have this book SOME DAY, and you MAY need it SOON! Send NOW for a descriptive pamphlet, or for—THE BOOK. Address all orders exactly as follows:

THE INTERNAL BATH

MORE IMPORTANT THAN THE EXTERNAL.

If external cleanliness is essential to health, how much more important is internal cleanliness! Every disease arises from the retention of waste and foreign matter in the system—Nature's drainage being clogged. In the vast majority of cases the clogging is in the colon or large intestine. Positively the one harmless and efficient means of clearing away this waste is the Internal Bath given with the

the only appliance especially made for the successful practice of the Internal Bath. It is simple in construction, absolutely safe—invariably effective, and can be applied by any person.

This treatment is a sovereign remedy for and prevention of 90 per cent of all digestive derangements. It is hygienic, scientific, and logical. It is a perfect tonic with no after depression. Its action

PREVENTS AND CURES APPENDICITIS, Bilioussness, Dyspepsia, Obesity, Headaches, Constipation, and all Malarial Diseases.

Have you read of the wonderful cures made by the Internal Bath? Do you know that it goes to the root of all disease and eradicates the cause? Do you know that many of the greatest physicians of the world endorse and prescribe this treatment? Do you know that such eminent people as the following use the Internal Bath: U. S. Senator A. P. Gorman, Maryland; ex-Governor Goddell, Vermont; Admiral Tyrtoff, St. Petersburg, Russia; Col. A. O. Grainger, Girard Building, Philadelphia, Pa.; Gen. T. S. Peck, G. A. R.; Miles Devine, Chicago, Ill.; Marguerite Sylvia, and a host of others.

Were it possible to reproduce here our file of voluntary letters of commendation received from prominent people who do not ordinarily permit the use of their names in advertisements, no doubt could exist in one's mind as to the extraordinary merit of the "J. B. L. Cascade" treatment. As proof of what the Cascade treatment will do we call your attention to the following letter from Mr. H. A. Joyce, one of the prominent merchants of Cambridge, Md.

We want to send free to every person, sick or well, a simple statement setting forth this treatment. It contains matter which must interest every thinking person. If you live in New York you are earnestly invited to call, but if you cannot call, write for our pamphlet, "THE WHAT, THE WHY, THE WAY," which will be sent free on application, together with our great special offer for this month only.

TYRRELL'S HYGIENIC INSTITUTE,

Clerk 20, 1562 Broadway, New York.

Mr. H. A. JOYCE.

CAMBRIDGE, MD., Aug. 7, 1900.

PROF. CHAS. A. TYRRELL:

Dear Sir—I deem it a duty I owe you, as well as my fellow man, to say I have been restored to perfect health by the use of the flushing treatment so easily accomplished by the "J. B. L. Cascade." Previous to its use I was in very bad health, suffering from dyspepsia, nervousness, constipation, insomnia, and, in fact, was almost in despair of ever getting well, but thanks to you and your wonderful invention, and the loving kindness of a merciful God, I am now in splendid health.

Gratefully yours,

H. A. JOYCE.

About Your Outings.

Have you ever been at a loss as to where you or your family would spend Sunday or a holiday?

The MANHATTAN RAILWAY COMPANY, on the following page, gives a list of the various points of interest reached by its lines. Of the many places mentioned, beautiful Westchester County, with its charming scenery and places of amusement and interest, is the most desirable, and can be reached for the nominal fare of EIGHT CENTS.

To sum it up briefly, the Westchester resorts are refined, and for refined people, with the exorbitant charges for food and refreshments eliminated. You can ride from the Battery to Hastings-on-the-Hudson, a distance of over twenty miles, for EIGHT CENTS.

Take a trip on the next holiday or Sunday to any of the places mentioned on the next page, and you will certainly spend a most enjoyable day at a small cost.

CATARRH FREE BOOK

ITS CAUSE, ITS DANGERS, ITS CURE.

Twenty-six years ago CATARRH was almost unknown and nearly all doctors neglected it as unimportant. To-day CATARRH should be more dreaded than Yellow-fever, Cholera, Small-pox, Diphtheria, or any epidemic disease. Statistics show that deaths from Consumption have increased more than 200 per cent in the last five years. Nearly all of these cases have been traced back to neglected Catarrh. CATARRH IS ANCIENT CONSUMPTION. I cannot cure it when it develops into Consumption. No one can. I do cure Catarrh. Catarrh is a germ disease and penetrates the blood. It can never be cured by nasal balms, washes, snuffs, etc. Catarrh is curable only through the blood, by constitutional treatment. All remedies must be specially prepared for each particular case. No two cases are alike. Some of the most common symptoms are Spitting up slime, Nose feels full, Nose discharges matter, Nose runs water, Crusts form in the nose, Pain across the eyes, Breath smells offensive, Mitter drops into the throat, sometimes the hearing is affected.

These symptoms increase until the bronchial tubes and lungs are reached. Then the patient Takes cold easily, Raises frothy matter, Voice grows hoarse and husky, Feels stuffed up inside, Feels weak and easily tired, Cough increases, Pain in the lung appears. All these symptoms grow worse till at length spitting of blood and death comes on.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

In some cases Catarrh, instead of entering the lungs, drops down into the stomach. The poisonous matter coats the lining of the stomach and prevents digestion. The food sours and ferments. This produces symptoms so like dyspepsia that the doctors usually treat it for that with pepsin, sodas, etc. The result, of course, is failure. Catarrh of the Stomach can be cured in only one way—by removing the cause—the Catarrh germs and the thick, slimy mucus that coat the stomach. If this is not done in time, the germs will cause great Ulcers in the Stomach, producing intense pain, and making life unbearable. Some early symptoms of Catarrh of the Stomach are: Variable appetite, Belching up of gas, Heavy feeling after eating, Nausea, Drowsiness after meals, Rumbling of the bowels, Palpitation of the heart, Bad taste in the mouth, Gnawing sensation in the stomach, Pains, etc.

CATARRH OF THE LIVER.

Catarrh frequently attacks and coats the liver. This great organ provides the Bile, which is Nature's Purgative. It is the only purgative that always acts, from which there is no ill effect. No pills can ever take its place. A liver clogged with Catarrh cannot pour out this juice. Chronic Constipation is the result. Pills and purgatives only make matters worse. Catarrh of the Liver produces Chronic Constipation; Yellowish, muddy skin; Pimples, Sick headaches, Lack of energy, Poor circulation, Low spirits, Bloating after eating, Sleepy feelings in the day, Disinclination to work, etc.

THE KIDNEYS

drain out the liquid waste matter from the blood. Catarrh in the kidneys prevents this filtering process. Poisons are left within to irritate and injure the tissues of the body. This causes Heavy feeling in the legs, Weakness or pain in the small of the back, Changes in the urine, Variable appetite, Depression of spirits, Blurred sight, Specks before the eyes, etc. Catarrh of the kidneys, if neglected, runs into the dreaded Bright's Disease.

MANY OTHER DISEASES

are caused by Catarrh working its way into different parts of the body—Deafness, Heart trouble, General Weakness, Nervous Debility, etc. I have fully explained it all in my "Book on Catarrh: Its Dangers, Its Origin, Its Cure." You can find out for yourself just what your trouble is.

I will gladly send this book FREE to any one suffering from any form of Catarrh. My one aim in life is to do the greatest good to the greatest number; to eradicate this curse of Catarrh from the American continent. If you have Catarrh in any form, do not delay. Do not wait until your case is incurable.

Write to me and send me all your symptoms. Answer those I have given above. Send me any others that you have. I will diagnose your case Absolutely Free. I will tell you just what treatment you ought to have. My opinion will cost you nothing. If your case has gone too far I will refuse to take it. I never accept money where I cannot do good. But I have cured hundreds of cases where all other doctors and remedies had been tried in vain. While other physicians were neglecting Catarrh as unimportant, and letting it spread throughout the land, I was studying its nature and cure. Now when other physicians say Catarrh is incurable, I point to my long list of cured patients. If you have failed with all others, write to me before you give up.

Such cases arouse my greatest interest and my deepest sympathy. For seventeen years I have been curing Catarrh in the Head, Nose, Throat, Ears, Chest, Lungs, Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys, and in all parts of the body. I now treat Catarrh almost exclusively. My method is scientific and constitutional. My cures are quick, but they are always permanent.

Write for testimonials. Write for my Free Book. Write for Diagnosis. Write before it is too late. Address

A PERFECT "ACTINA" POCKET
ELECTRIC BATTERY

Eyesight

Deafness

Restored

Cured

By the Great Eye Restorer and Only Catarrh Cure.

ACTINA is a marvel of the nineteenth century, for by its use the Blind see, the Deaf hear, and Catarrh is impossible. Actina cures, without cutting or drugging, Cataracts, Ptergiums, Granulated Lids, Glaucoma, Amaurosis, Myopia, Presbyopia, Common Sore Eyes, or Weakened Vision from any cause. No animal except man wears spectacles. There need not be a spectacle used on the streets of the world and rarely to read with. Street Glasses abandoned. Actina also cures Neuralgia, Headache, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, and Weak Lungs. Actina is not a snuff or lotion, but a Perfect Electric Pocket Battery, usable at all times and in all places by young or old. The one instrument will cure a whole family of any of the above forms of diseases.

Mr. F. W. Harwood, Springfield, Mass., says that "Actina" cured him of deafness of nine years' standing.

Robert Baker, 80 Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I should have been blind had I not used 'Actina.'"

Prof. Wilson's Magneto-Conservative Garments cure Paralysis, Rheumatism, and all chronic forms of disease. These garments are as puzzling to the physicians as is the wonder-working "ACTINA."

A VALUABLE BOOK FREE.—Prof. Wilson's Treatise on the Eye and on Diseases in General, It should greatly interest every one afflicted with any form of disease.

Simplicity Thousand-Candle Power Arc Lamp

For Outside and Inside Lighting.

The Only Successful Outside Arc Lamp.

Can be placed under a sidewalk in the city business property, or in the rear of premises at any distance desired, and the gasoline forced through the almost invisible seamless copper tubing up into the lamp, where it is vaporized under about 17 pounds pressure, producing a very high power light. The same tank can be connected with an inside lighting system if desired.

We can furnish pressure gauge to those desiring it with compressed air tank, though that is unnecessary owing to the low pressure at which the system is run.

No C. O. D. fraud, no prescription that you cannot get filled, but a full month's treatment. If they do as we claim, you can pay after you are cured, and we leave it entirely to your honor. Our faith is so great and we know so well the wonderful virtues of PARIS VITAL SPARKS, we can do this. They surprise and please you. They astonish the medical world. They act at once on the system, and no miracle of Bible times can compare with the wonderful results obtained. They cure urinary diseases. The skin becomes clean, the eyes bright and clear. Confidence returns, step elastic, bowels regular. They assist digestion, increase the appetite when it is poor; headaches, flushings, and nervous symptoms fade away, the head becomes clear, the memory good, the mind bright and active. They make new, rich, red blood, which mantles the cheeks and lips, and makes them rosy with health. Dark circles under the eyes disappear, and the weak man or woman is made a new being, and restored to perfect health and glorious youth at once.

A food for Brain, Blood, Muscles, Bones, and Nerves. Not a stimulating drug to help for a few days and leave you in worse condition in the end, but real, permanent good always results, no matter how chronic the case. Do not even send us a

EVERY WOMAN CAN BE BEAUTIFUL.

Superfluous Hair Destroyed Forever by a Wonderful Electrical Invention Without Pain—Without Injury—Without Expense. A God-Send to Every Tortured Woman, and FREE OF CHARGE.

Every woman can now have beauty without injury as far as superfluous hair is concerned, for the world has been given a great invention, a never-failing method for the removal of this embarrassing blemish. This great invention is called the Mahler Electrical Apparatus, and is manufactured by Daniel J. Mahler, of Providence, R. I., who has been established over twenty years as a specialist in the treatment of superfluous hair, who has found after twenty years of continuous practice that the only way to bring about a quick, permanent, painless, non-injurious cure is by the use of his new electrical device. If you are a woman afflicted with Superfluous Hair, Moles, Warts, Red Veins, or Birthmarks, and want to make the very best impression in society with absolutely nothing to mar it, you need the Mahler Electrical Apparatus. It is the least painful, the most thorough, and the very best of any method or process for the removal of Superfluous Hair to which your attention has been or may be directed. If you are afflicted with Superfluous Hair, Moles, Warts, Red Veins, or Birthmarks, just remember that the perfect remedy, the quickest remedy, the surest remedy is here offered you free of charge.

Every other kind of treatment is injurious. Every kind of treatment excepting electricity is injurious, and in time will not only cause the skin to wither, wrinkle, become rough, red, inflamed, unsightly, and sore, but the hair will not be destroyed. It will grow stronger than ever. Mr. Mahler will positively guarantee that nothing except electricity will effect a lifelong cure. He will also guarantee by taking a binding oath, and giving a legal guarantee that the Mahler Electrical Apparatus is a never-failing means to rid one's self of every form of hair blemishes. The Mahler Electrical Apparatus—any woman can operate it. In the Mahler Electrical Apparatus the generating power and the method of its control is simplicity itself, so that any one may understand it and receive benefit from it. The patient does her own operating in the privacy of her own home, at an outlay of but the small initial price of the device; the operation is accomplished with no loss of time and without the least pain, and is complete, quick, and permanent. Write to-day—write quickly, and learn how to obtain this apparatus absolutely WITHOUT COST.

Sheldon, of curvature of the spine of thirty years' standing.

Throw away the cumbersome and costly plaster-of-paris and sole-leather jackets. Our appliance is light in weight, durable, and conforms to the body as not to evidence that a support is worn. It is constructed on strictly scientific anatomical principles, and is truly a godsend to all sufferers from spinal troubles, male or female. We also make Scientific Appliances for protruding abdomen, weak back, stooping shoulders. Send for free booklet and letters from physicians, physical instructors, and those who know from experience of our wonderful appliances. Satisfaction guaranteed. Write to-day for measurement blank. I am permanently cured of a weak and deformed spine by the use of the Philo Burt Company's Appliance. Previous to procuring the appliance I was unable to stand on my feet; after wearing it for six weeks I could walk with crutches. To-day I can do as much work as any able-bodied man. I cannot say too much for your appliances; they are so light and comfortable and can be removed so easily.

Mr. List writes above after six years' experience, the latter two he has worn no support or brace whatever.

THE ART PRESERVATIVE.

In none of the arts is the advance of the beautiful more pronounced than in that of the art preservative of arts. And it is by a return to the past, idealizing the typography of the Fifteenth Century, that the highest form of the beautiful has been attained. Within ten years the greatest changes for the better have been made. William Morris, of the noted Kelmscott Press, is quoted as saying in 1890 that no good book printing has been done since the middle of the Sixteenth Century, and that the degradation of the art had been largely due to mean types. He urged the use of better types, a tolerance of quaintness, and the revival of mediæval methods.

The adverse criticism of 1890 does not hold good now. A revolution has taken place in ten years from the over-ornate to the attractive and restful in typography. America has not been behind in this regard. The Jenson type is, perhaps, the best-known illustration. Between Nicholas Jenson and the American Type Founders' Company stretch nearly 450 years. It was in 1453 that Jenson, an engraver of the Paris mint, was sent to Mainz by Charles VII., King of France, to learn the new art of printing. He studied for three years, and returned to Paris. In 1471 Jenson printed four books in Venice. He remained in that romantic city to the end of his life, in 1481. It is said that he was not the first printer to make Roman types, but that he made them better than did his rivals.

In honor of this old typemaker the Jenson type of to-day is named. Like the French pioneer of the craft, the American type founders excel in their time in making the best faced type. On reflection, however, it seems strange that this handsome Roman letter, used in Venice in the Fifteenth Century, reached in the highest degree the necessary qualities of legibility and purity of line, and that the Twentieth Century can do no better than borrow its beauties for to-day's readers.

From the inception of printing from movable types, the masters who have handed down the honorable calling have taken pride in their work like all true artists. Pierre-Simon Fournier, in his Manual Typographique, wrote:

"Type-founding is not like other arts, in which imperfect workmanship may find a use proportionate to its relative value. Printing should tolerate nothing that is bad, nor even that which is mediocre, since it costs as much to found and print bad types as it does to found and print perfect ones."

It is safe to say that the time will never come when the handicraft of the type-founder will be a lost art. The demand for the artistic in type, as well as in the other finer fancies of the age, is growing, and is being met by "the founders," by which appellation the printers of the entire country designate the American Type Founders' Company, embracing the best-known and oldest-established concerns of a dozen cities.

This Company is the originator of all the leading type designs, and has unequalled facilities for supplying everything required in printing offices. It has lately issued very attractive specimen books, which cover the widest range in type faces in both plain and original designs. Among the new faces are the Jenson Condensed, the Abbott, the Tiffany Text, Engravers' Italic, and Arlington Italic.

Additional specimen sheets are constantly being issued from the office, corner of Rose and Duane Streets, New York City, showing the new faces as soon as they are brought out for the public verdict.

WHENCE COMES THIS MIGHTY HEALING POWER?

All the Land Wonders at the Remarkable Cures Effected by Professor Adkin.

HEALS DISEASES CALLED INCURABLE

Ministers, Doctors, and Professional Men Tell How He Has Cured the Blind, the Lame, the Paralytic, and Many on the Very Brink of Death.

FREE HELP FOR THE SICK.

Professor Adkin Offers to Help All Sufferers from Any Disease
Absolutely Free of Charge—Professional Men
Investigate His Powers.

In all parts of the country men and women doctors and surgeons, clergymen, and educators are wondering at the remarkable cures made by Prof. Thomas F. Adkin, discoverer of the Adkin Vitaopathic treatment.

Professor Adkin heals not by drugs, nor by Christian Science, nor by Osteopathy, nor by Hypnotism, nor by Divine Healing, but by a subtle psychic force of nature, in combination with certain vital magnetic remedies which contain the very elements of life and health.

A reporter recently talked with Professor Adkin and was asked to invite all readers of this paper who are sick, or who are worried by the ills of those dear to them, to write to him for assistance. "Some people have declared," said Professor Adkin, "that my powers are of God; they call me a Divine Healer—a man of mysterious powers. This is not so. I cure because I understand nature—because I use a subtle force of nature to build up the system and restore health. But at the same time I believe that the Creator would not have given me the opportunity to make the discoveries I have made, nor the ability to develop them, if He had not intended that I should use them for the good of humanity. I therefore feel that it is my duty to give the benefit of the science I practise to all who are suffering. I want you to tell your readers that they can write to me in the strictest confidence if they are troubled with any kind of disease, and I will thoroughly diagnose their cases absolutely free of charge, and explain by a simple guaranteed home treatment how a complete cure should be effected. I care not how serious their cases, nor how hopeless they may seem; I want them to write to me and let me make them well. I feel that this is my life's work."

So great is the sensation wrought in the medical world by the wonderful cures performed by Professor Adkin that several professional gentlemen were asked to investigate the cures. Among the gentlemen were Dr. L. B. Hawley and Dr. L. G. Doane, both famous physicians and surgeons. After a thorough and painstaking investigation, these eminent physicians were so astounded at the far-reaching powers of Professor Adkin, and the wonderful efficacy of Vitaopathy, that they volunteered to forsake all other ties in life and all other kinds of treatment, and devote themselves to assisting Professor Adkin in his great work for humanity. With the discovery of the Adkin Vitaopathic treatment, eminent physicians are generally agreed that the treatment of disease has at last been reduced to an exact science.

In all, some 8,000 men and women have been cured by the powers of Professor Adkin. Some were blind, some were lame, some were deaf, some were paralytics scarcely able to move, so great was their infirmity. Others were afflicted with Bright's disease, heart disease, consumption, and other so-called incurable diseases. Some were sufferers from kidney trouble, dyspepsia, nervous debility, insomnia, neuralgia, constipation, rheumatism, female troubles, and other similar ills. Some were men and women addicted to drunkenness, morphine, and other evil habits. In all cases Professor Adkin treats he guarantees a cure. Even those on the brink of the grave, with all hope of recovery gone, and despaired of by doctors and friends alike, have been restored to perfect health by the force of Vitaopathy and Professor Adkin's marvellous skill. And, remarkable as it may seem, distance has made no difference. Those living far away have been cured in the privacy of their own homes, as well as those who have been treated in person. Professor Adkin asserts that he can cure any one at any distance as well as though he stood before them.

Not long ago John Adams, of Blakesbury, Iowa, who had been lame for 20 years, was permanently cured by Professor Adkin without an operation of any kind. About the same time the city of Rochester, N. Y., was startled by the cure of one of its oldest residents, Mr. P. A. Wright, who had been partly blind for a long period. John E. Neff, of Millersburg, Pa., who had suffered for years from a cataract over his left eye, was speedily restored to perfect sight without an operation. From Logansport, Ind., comes the news of the recovery of Mrs. Mary Eicher, who had been practically deaf for a year; while in Warren, Pa., Mr. G. W. Savage, a noted photographer and artist, who was not only partially blind and deaf, but at death's door from a complication of diseases, was restored to perfect health and strength by Professor Adkin.

Vitaopathy cures not one disease alone, but it cures all diseases when used in combination with the proper remedies. If you are sick, no matter what your disease nor who says you cannot be cured, write to Professor Adkin to-day; tell him the leading symptoms of your complaint, how long you have been suffering, and he will at once diagnose your case, tell you the exact disease from which you are suffering, and prescribe the treatment that will positively cure you. This costs you absolutely nothing. Professor Adkin will also send you a copy of his marvellous new book, entitled, "How to Be Cured and How to Cure Others." This book tells you exactly how Professor Adkin will cure you. It fully and completely describes the nature of this wonderful treatment. It also explains to you how you yourself may possess this great healing power and cure the sick around you.

Professor Adkin does not ask one cent for his services in this connection. They will be given to you absolutely free. He has made a wonderful discovery, and he wishes to place it in the hands of every sick person in this country, that he may be restored to perfect health and strength. Mark your letter personal when you write, and no one but Professor Adkin will see it. Address, Professor Thomas F. Adkin, office 643 C, Rochester, New York.

The Whispers of Fancy

Never breathed a more marvelous story than that told in the fascinating free book—“The Philosophy of Personal Influence.” It reveals the secrets of success and explains that intangible, subtle something called “Personal Magnetism” that holds the world in bondage and makes one person obedient to the slightest wish of another.

Have you failed to succeed ?

Read this book and learn the reason why. Have you hoped and wished and worked in vain while others, seemingly without an effort, have forged ahead in the race of life? Your failure is not blind chance; their success is not an accident. There is a cause—a reason—for every effect. This remarkable book contains the key. It draws the line between success and failure so bold that you cannot help but see it. Read it and learn the secret of Napoleon's success, of Rockefeller's vast accumulation of wealth. You can master this marvelous power at your own home in a few days, and wield an influence that will make you master of your destiny. The book is absolutely free. A postal card will bring it while the present edition lasts. If you wish to own a Sewing Machine that will do fine work and that is guaranteed, send us your name and address at once, and agree to sell only 20 cases of Perfumery at 5 cents each. Don't send a cent! Order to-day, and we will send Perfumery by mail postpaid; when sold send us the money, $1.00, and we will promptly forward to you by express our new Sewing Machine and guarantee safe delivery; no charge for boxing, packing, etc. Be sure to send name of your nearest Express Office. We are giving away these Sewing Machines to quickly introduce our Perfumery, and all we ask is that when you receive the Sewing Machine, which we give absolutely free for selling only 20 cases, you will show it to your friends. This is a grand opportunity to get a fine Sewing Machine for very little work.

$1,000 REWARD

Will be paid to any one who can prove that we do not give the Sewing Machine as we say for selling only 20 cases of Perfumery. This is no humbug; we actually give the Sewing Machine, which may therefore be obtained FREE for only an hour's work.

This Sewing Machine that we give away is one of the most useful and practical machines ever placed on the market. Its simplicity of construction and ease of operation appeal to all. It can be operated by a child, will sew with cotton or silk thread, and makes a beautiful chain stitch on the top of the cloth; it is therefore useful for making all kinds of embroidery and fancy work. It is nicely japanned and nickelled, and each machine is thoroughly tested before leaving the factory. One machine in a home will advertise our Perfumery so well that we can afford to give it away for selling only 20 cases of Perfumery at 5c. each. Address,

One Little Germ . . .

So Small it Can't be Seen on a Needle Point

CAN CAUSE TYPHOID.

Millions of people are suffering from diseases caused directly by impure water; in fact, nearly all illness is due to this cause.

Distilled Water Prevents Sickness

because distilling makes it absolutely pure, removes all mineral matter, disease germs, filth, and impurities.

The Sanitary Still

is very simple and easy to operate. Simply fill it with water, put it on the kitchen stove and it will supply you an abundance of pure aerated drinking water. Lasts for years and a child can operate it. Indorsed by thousands of physicians and prominent people as the only reliable still on the market.

DR. R. A. TORREY,
Moody's Church, Chicago, Says:

"We have tried filters but they were not satisfactory. We have tried boiled water, and though we prefer cooled filth to raw we don't enjoy it in any form. We have tried mineral waters, but we have found nothing so satisfactory as the 'SANITARY STILL.'"

DON'T BE A ROBBER!

Husband the fertility of your farm and every time you plant seed you will get a paying crop.

Strange how a man will take crop after crop off the farm, putting nothing back, and then expect to be prosperous. If you handled the manure you have on the farm properly, results would be different and you should not need to be buying commercial fertilizer.

The KEMP MANURE SPREADER

Will Double and Treble the Value of the Manure Heap.

It spreads all kinds of fine and coarse manure evenly; makes no "skips;" does not dump a great load in one spot, but covers the entire ground evenly. Tears up coarse and lumpy manure and makes it fine. Better than anybody can do it by hand. Spreads lime, wood ashes, salt, etc., equally well. With the drill attachment it puts the manure direct into the open drill. Made in three convenient sizes. Ask the opinion of anybody that uses one. Write for illustrated catalogue.

IF YOU HAVE A LIFE TO LIVE

The First Book on Health and Disease, with Recipes, contains all that any one needs to know about right and wrong ways of living, the causes of disease, their prevention and cure, the symptoms and nature of common, chronic diseases, and the simplest, practicable, "common-sense" methods of cure, including even "Christian Science," and all hygienic resources, mental or physical. Over 250 "tried and true" recipes for all sorts of common complaints are alone worth the price of the book. The text is well illustrated with 260 clear-cut pictures, in addition to over

The Second Book is Plain Home Talk, by Dr. Foote, together with Tocology for Mothers, by Dr. Westland. This is the book for every one who is married, or ever expects to be. It is, in short, plain talk about the sexual relations of mankind, marriage, its history in all countries, curious varieties and experiments, mistakes, reforms, and possible improvements in marriage. The opening chapters on the sexual system, and reproduction, present a fine series of showing the blood and nerves; the eye; the vital organs and their relations to special (pelvic) parts, skin, parasitic, venereal and throat diseases; varicocele, etc. These must be seen to be appreciated, they are the finest ever placed in a popular work—accurate, clear, and beautiful. Remember, too, this is a complete, unemasculated book. It ignores none of the parts, propensities, vices, or errors of mankind, sheds light of truth on dark places, and enables the reader to know himself all through, and escape the pitfalls of ignorance. The chapters on prostitution, sexual isolation, unhappy marriage, contagious diseases, impotency, barrenness, "perverts," etc., are as Dr. Eadon well says, "original, startling, and very instructive, priceless in value, and calculated to regenerate society." Every sufferer from disease will find help somewhere in the 850 pages of this unequalled home counsellor, and to many persons it will easily save from $10 to $100 yearly.

These two books are companion volumes of about the same size, but each is complete in itself, useful and interesting, with or without the other. Families really ought to have both books. Individuals may care for only one of them. Try one and you'll surely want the other also.

25 Color Illustrations on 4 Plates, to illustrate "The Origin of Life," man from the egg, fetal development, or life before birth, and the "breast signs of pregnancy" (very useful). The uses and abuses of the great generative-function are treated frankly and fully, with the hope of teaching "how to be happy though married;" and the later "essays for married people" present original ideas on sleeping apart, excess, moderation, jealousy, sexual indifference, continence, contraception, signs of pregnancy, food during pregnancy, child-making, barrenness, excessive child-bearing, early marriage, control of sex, etc. All who hesitate to consult home physicians about delicate questions will find them answered plainly in this work. Dr. Foote's celebrated book, revised and enlarged, is alone worth the price, but to cover the needs of mothers and instruct them how to bear children safely, with least possible discomfort and pain, and how to care for and raise fine children, Dr. Westland's thorough and practical Tocology for Mothers (300 pages) is bound in with Dr. Foote's book, making two in one, and the latter (besides numerous illustrations for the text) has a series of appropriate and pleasing pictures of the important events in maternity, by well-known artists, in the form of

Our remarkable recent inventions enable us to offer the public an intensely brilliant, smokeless gas at much less cost than city gas, better, safer, and cheaper than electricity, and costing but one-fourth as much as acetylene. Most durable and least expensive apparatus to maintain in effective perpetual operation. Gives services of lighting, cooking, and heating, and operating pumping engines. Fullest satisfaction guaranteed, and easy terms. The very apparatus for suburban homes, institutions, etc. We construct special apparatus also for fuel gas for manufacturing, producing gas equivalent to city gas at 50 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, and made to respond to very large demands; also for lighting towns, etc. Cooking by gas rescues a person from the intolerable heat experienced with other stoves.

FREE BOOK ON HYPNOTISM.

Would you like to become a hypnotist and be able to cast a mystic spell over whomever you will? You can learn this magic art in an incredibly short time, during your leisure hours. When you are master of the grand science of Hypnotism your value to yourself and others will be immeasurably increased. It makes you interesting, fascinating, convincing, either in business or society. You can overcome domestic trouble with contentment and happiness. You can make stingy persons liberal. You can mould the minds of men and women and control their very existence. You can dispel, as if by magic, your own ill luck, misfortune, and unhappiness and that of others. You can strengthen your will power, memory, and intellect. You can control a subject though hundreds of miles away. You can be the central magnet at any social gathering and mystify and uproariously entertain your friends. You can hypnotize a dozen people at a time. You can make a subject laugh, cry, sing, dance, shout, stammer, forget his name, and perform hundreds of wonderful mental feats. You can influence wealthy but obdurate relatives to make you heir to what you deserve. You can cure liquor drinking, cigarette smoking, morphine using, and all other bad habits.

The American College of Sciences, of Philadelphia, Pa., has just published a remarkable book, which discloses the inner mysteries of Hypnotism, Personal Magnetism, etc. If you are interested you can get a copy free, by merely sending your name and address. It will give you a good working knowledge of these sciences. It teaches you how to acquire the mystic influences which have won wealth, love, and social power for many prominent men and women in America and Europe. It describes the favorite methods of the world's greatest hypnotists. It gives secret rules for attaining success in Hypnotism. It fully explains the mystic wonders of this master power. It tells you how to use your eyes, your hands, your mind to powerfully influence people. It gives you private methods for hypnotizing different subjects. It tells you how to give money-making entertainments. It will help you to attain what you desire to do and be in life. Send for this intensely interesting and practical book, now. A postal card will bring it to you, postpaid. Address AMERICAN COLLEGE OF SCIENCES, Dept. D 3, 420 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.
