OBREGON REGIME WANTS RECOGNITION

Budget Speech Now Postponed So Borden May Discuss Details

Financial Proposals of Government Will Not Be Laid Before Commons To-morrow; Delay Is Topic of Keen Discussion in Political Circles

Ottawa, May 11.—The budget has been delayed. Official announcement was made last week that it would be presented tomorrow, but, to quote a high authority, "it is very doubtful" if the budget will be brought down this week at all.

In political circles, the much-delayed budget is a topic of keen discussion. Why further delays and the consequent prolongation of the session? This question is asked on all sides.

On this point, while no official announcement is to hand, it is understood that the main cause of postponement is the arrival of Sir Robert Borden to-morrow. Following a five months' holiday, Sir Robert would in the ordinary course have reached Ottawa about a couple of hours or so before the Finance Minister presented his proposals to the House.

URGED SAILORS TO BE AUDACIOUS

In 1917 Wilson Told American Navy Men to Throw Away Tradition

Washington, May 11.—President Wilson's historic published instructions to the officers of the Atlantic Fleet, given in person on the quarterdeck of the flagship Pennsylvania on August 11, 1917, and bidding them "throw tradition to the winds," strike the word prudent from their vocabularies and "do the thing that is audacious to the utmost point of risk and daring," were made public here to-day by Secretary Daniels.

In laying the text of his remarks before the Senate naval investigating committee, Secretary Daniels said that he showed the "bold and vigorous" policy the President had outlined for the navy.

No Hesitation. "Do not stop to think what is prudent for a moment," said the President. "You will win by audacity of method when you cannot win by circumspection and prudence."

"I think there are willing ears to hear this in the American navy and the American army because that is the kind of folks we are."

"There will have to come a new tradition into the service which does do audacious and imprudent things."

The President also expressed dissatisfaction with progress then being made to crush the submarine menace.

The British Admiralty had met American suggestions with what amounted to statements that "it never had been done," the President said, adding: "and I felt like saying, 'Well, nothing was ever done so systematically as nothing is being done now.'"

BRIG-GEN. M'LEAN HAS APOLOGIZED

Resignations of Peck and Cooper From Pensions Committee Withdrawn

Ottawa, May 11.—(Canadian Press)—The resignation of Lieut.-Colonel C. W. Peck, V.C., and Lieut.-Colonel R. C. Cooper from the Pensions Committee have been withdrawn. A statement from Brigadier-General H. H. McLean apologizing for an offense which his words may unintentionally have caused to returned soldiers, their wives or widows, has been placed on the records of the Committee and the whole matter which for a time threatened to disrupt the Committee, has been settled.

Brigadier-General McLean's statement is as follows: "There has been a distinct misunderstanding as to words used by me in the Select Committee on Pensions. This circumstance I regret exceedingly, and nothing was further from my mind than to reflect in any way either on soldiers or their dependents, and while still affirming my statements as to what I did say on that occasion, I desire to apologize for any offence which my words may have unintentionally caused to the returned soldiers, their wives or widows."

(Signed) "HUGH H. McLEAN." Met To-Day. Ottawa, May 11.—(Canadian Press)—The Special Committee of the Commons on Pensions and the Establishment met this morning in private and it is understood to have discussed the procedure to be followed when the hearing of re-establishment witnesses is begun.

This side of the investigation probably will be taken up in all its different phases with as great continuity as possible, and it is expected that witnesses whose evidence will deal with a certain aspect of the problem will be called as closely together as can be done.

BRITISH WATCHING AMERICAN BILL

Daniels Says Routing of U Boats Was Delayed

Washington, May 11.—A counter-charge that establishment of the North Sea mine barrier was delayed six months because of the opposition of Rear-Admiral Sims and the British Admiralty, was made before the Senate naval investigating committee to-day by Secretary Daniels in presenting the second part of his reply to Sims' charge that the Navy Department had unnecessarily prolonged the war through failure to co-operate fully at first with the Allied naval forces.

The barrage, Mr. Daniels added, was the most effective measure that had been taken to check the submarines and wholly an American idea. "Admiral Sims attempted to rob the United States and the United States navy of the credit for initiating this great achievement and to give it the impression that it was a British plan, though it originated in our Navy Department and was proposed and urged by us for half a year before we could induce the

French Labor Federation May Be Dissolved Soon

Paris, May 11.—The French Cabinet at a meeting to-day instructed Minister of Justice L'Hopiteau to open proceedings against the General Federation of Labor with a view to the dissolution of the organization, which has been supporting the strike of the French railwaymen by calling other strikes. The decision of the Government to seek dissolution of the Federation came after an hour's discussion by the Council of Ministers at the Palace of the Elysee, presided over by President Deschanel.

The Cabinet first discussed the advisability of Premier Millerand receiving United Socialist Deputies bearing a message from the General Federation saying it was ready to call off the strike providing the Premier would give an understanding to appoint a governmental commission to meet the Federation's delegates and discuss nationalization of the public utilities.

Paris, May 11.—In spite of the appeal to the Electricians' Union by the General Federation of Labor yesterday, power throughout the city seemed not to be affected this morning.

At 5.30 o'clock trains on the suburban and the north and south systems began to run, volunteers taking the places of the few workers who had failed to report. At 6.30 o'clock street cars were operating over the main lines throughout the city. The auto bus service seemed to be working under similar conditions.

PEACE RESOLUTION IN U. S. SENATE

Republican Leader Wants No Break in Debate Until the Vote

Washington, May 11.—The Republican resolution to declare the war with Germany and Austria at an end was called up in the Senate to-day by Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, who announced that he would keep the measure continuously before the Senate until a vote was taken.

Senator Lodge said he expected to vote within a few days and added that he might ask the Senate to hold longer sessions than usual. He said he did not expect much of a debate, but he would not yield to any disposition on the part of the Democrats to delay consideration.

Senator McCumber, Republican, North Dakota, then delivered a prepared answer in opposition to the resolution.

Opening the fight against the Republican plan to end the state of war by joint resolution of Congress, Senator McCumber declared that such a step would bring dishonor upon the nation and it would involve desertion of the associates of the United States in the war.

"This administration has made many mistakes," he said, "but all will become insignificant compared with the colossal blunder of making the President's individual and autocratic stand on the League of Nations a political issue."

"If this were the only issue, the President would stand alone in his determination to subvert the will of the nation to his individual conviction on this important national question."

WM. DEAN HOWELLS DIES IN NEW YORK

Prolific American Writer Had Reached Age of Eighty-three

Began His First Book Just Before American Civil War

New York, May 11.—William Dean Howells, the novelist, died here to-day.

Mr. Howells returned a few weeks ago from Savannah, where he had spent the winter. While in the South he was stricken with influenza and never had fully recovered from its effects.

At a dinner given in New York in 1912 to do honor to William Dean Howells upon his seventy-fifth birthday, William Howland Taft, then President of the United States, lauded the great author as "the greatest living American writer and novelist."

He was the dean of American letters, a poet, essayist, dramatist and editor, as well as a weaver of fiction. Beginning his first book, "Poems of Two Friends," just before the American Civil War, Mr. Howells had completed and published seventy-five volumes at the time of his death, besides acting as editor of various publications, crossing the ocean eighteen times in search of material for his novels, and writing essays, criticisms and magazine articles.

Born in Martin's Ferry, Ohio, in 1837, he served his literary apprenticeship as a compositor, reporter and editor on his father's newspaper.

"Inwardly I was a poet," said the eminent novelist in reviewing his early experiences, "with no wish to be anything else, unless in a moment of careless abstraction I might so far forget myself as to be a novelist."

When twenty-three years old he travelled to Boston to make the acquaintance of Longfellow, Hawthorne, Emerson, Holmes and Lowell. Though (Concluded on page 16.)

ENDORSEMENT FOR SHIP DELEGATION

Citizens Will Give Support to Harbor Marine Project This Evening

Endorsement of the plan to secure an additional shipbuilding contract for the Harbor Marine Company, Ltd., will be given at the public meeting scheduled for 8 o'clock to-night at the City Hall.

Major Cunningham and Major Kirkpatrick-Crockett, representing the Harbor Marine Veterans' Association, will leave to-morrow for Ottawa in an effort to influence the Dominion cabinet to place more work with the steel shipbuilding plant here. It is hoped that Mayor Porter will be in a position to make the trip as a member of the delegation.

The object of the delegation has the endorsement of the ex-Servicemen Council, the Rotary Club and the Kiwanis Club and the Board of Trade. In view of the approaching completion of the steel ships now under construction here, and the fact that the yard largely employs returned veterans, the delegation will have a strong argument to back up the petition for more ships.

It is claimed by the management that the Government is under an obligation to keep the yard here fully occupied for at least two years.

POINTS TO SUCCESS IN THIS COUNTRY

Long, Debating Irish Bill, Says Senateless Canadian Provinces Progress

London, May 11.—(Canadian Associated Press)—In the course of the discussion in the Commons on the Home Rule Bill on the question whether there should be a second Chamber for each of the two Parliaments in Ireland as a protection for minorities, Rt. Hon. Walter Hume replied to criticisms which had been made that there was no precedent for the Government's proposal of a single Irish Council for two Parliaments instead of two second Chambers. He said that so far from there being any ground for the suggestion that the experiment was being tried for the first time, the precedent did actually exist in Canada. When local government was first set up in Canada, he said, there was a second Chamber in all the old parts, whereas to-day in every province, barring Quebec, the second Chamber had been abandoned because it had been found not to be a protection, but on the contrary, rather a danger.

The Government had taken this as its example. He thought it was the best precedent that could have been taken.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

FRANCHISE BILL BATTLE WAS WARM

Euler and Pardee Amendments Were Voted Down in Commons

Ottawa, May 11.—The battle on the franchise commenced in earnest in the House yesterday. It was over the section regarding enfranchisement of alien women naturalized by marriage, and there was a night of front bench attack from the Opposition and Progressives.

When the bill was last discussed, W. D. Euler, North-Westerner, moved that the whole section be deleted. Under the section, it was claimed that negroes would be enfranchised and an educated Frenchwoman married to a British subject would be denied the right to vote.

"It is this sort of thing," declared Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Opposition, "that is promising with one hand and denying British justice with the other—that is breeding unrest and distrust throughout the country."

"It is discriminatory," added Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the Progressives, "and you cannot have discrimination in the franchise law. Keep the honor of the country clear."

Enabling Clause. To the criticism, Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Solicitor-General, replied that the clause was not discriminatory. It was not a disfranchising clause, but an enabling clause with certain restrictions. The Farmer Government of Ontario had taken the section line by line, and placed it in its statute.

The Euler amendment was lost by 78 to 138. A Government majority of 20. Major Andrews was the only cross-bencher voting with the Government. An amendment proposed by the Solicitor-General to give the vote to women of enemy alien birth naturalized by marriage, was carried.

Pardee Amendment. Fred Pardee, Lambton, West, had an amendment to modify the effect of the Naturalization Act so far as the right to vote is concerned. Under that Act, an enemy alien, not already naturalized, cannot secure a naturalization certificate for ten years after the proclamation of peace. Mr. Pardee's amendment would enable such aliens, resident in Canada prior to 1914, to secure certificates for the purpose of enfranchisement, provided they have the other necessary qualifications for an elector.

Mr. Pardee, in moving his amendment, said it was time the war spirit idea was dropped and an attempt made to join all people into one great body of Canadians.

Hon. Hugh Guthrie said the amendment was in effect an amendment to the Naturalization Act, and refused to accept it.

Hon. N. W. Rowell, replying to Mr. Pardee, claimed that the war spirit in Ontario was much more drastic in its requirements for voters than the bill now being discussed.

Would Remove Grievance. Hon. W. S. Fielding supported the Pardee amendment, because it would remove a grievance caused by the ten-year clause in the Naturalization Act, which members of the Government admitted should be remedied as far as voting was concerned.

Hon. Arthur Meighen said the Liberals were interested in these people chiefly because they expected to get their votes. The War-Time Election Act gave the franchise only to British subjects. Now the Opposition was becoming solicitous as to German and Austrian aliens and others, who were not entitled to vote.

Cross-Firing. There was much cross-fire while Mr. Meighen was speaking, and the chairman had on many occasions to call for order.

The vote taken half an hour after midnight, went seventy-six to forty-four in favor of the Government.

Messrs. Caldwell and Kennedy, of the Progressives, were with the Opposition, while Mr. McNutt voted with the Government.

The clause as amended by Mr. Guthrie was carried half an hour later.

NINE MURDERS WERE CONFESSED

Man Imprisoned For Life in California Admitted Three More Yesterday

Los Angeles, May 11.—A total of nine murders of his "wives" had been confessed up to last night by the man who yesterday, under the name of James P. Watson, was sentenced to serve a life term in San Quentin prison for the slaying of Nina Lee Deloney.

In making that statement Thomas Lee Woolwine, District Attorney, expressed the opinion that the prisoner had laid bare all of the murders he was alleged to have committed.

No additional information was obtainable on bigamous marriages charged to the confessed murderer, but officials declared the number was in excess of twenty.

Three of the alleged wife murders became known yesterday. They were the slayings of Mrs. W. A. Watt, Winnipeg, and Marie Austin and Eleanor Fraser, both of Calgary. The first two were drowned in Lake Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and the latter in the Spokane River, Wash. it was said.

In addition the man asserted his true name was Dan Holden, and that he had been born and reared in Arkansas and was of a "respectable" family.

The List. The nine murders to which the District Attorney stated Watson, or Holden, had confessed, were: Nina Lee Deloney, of Bureka, Mont. Married at San Francisco, December 9, 1919; struck on the head with a hammer and smothered in a blanket at Signal Hill, near Long Beach, Los Angeles County, January 26, 1920.

Elizabeth Prior, of Wallace, Idaho. Married March 25, 1919, at Coeur d'Alene, skull crushed with a sledge hammer and body buried near Plum Station, Wash. where it was found.

Alice M. Muddison, of Seattle, Wash. Married at Port Townsend, Wash. October 6, 1917; drowned under heavy logs in the St. Joe River, Idaho.

Bertha A. Goodrich, of Spokane, Wash. Married at North Yakima, Wash. June 11, 1919; drowned in Lake Washington, Seattle.

Agnes Wilson, of Edmonton, Alberta. Married at Vancouver, September 20, 1918; drowned in Lake Washington, Seattle.

Eleanor Fraser, of Calgary, Alta. Married in Seattle, Wash. near Spokane, Wash.; believed by the murderer to have been carried over the falls and crushed on the rocks below.

Marie Austin, of Calgary, Alta.; beaten with a rock and drowned in Lake Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Mrs. W. A. Watt, box 739, Winnipeg, Manitoba; drowned in Lake Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

CONSTIPATION or COSTIVENESS

Constipation although generally described as a disease, can never exist unless some of the organs are deranged, which is generally found to be the liver.

There is nothing more productive of general ill health than constipation of the bowels, and a regular action is absolutely essential to general health. One of the most common, painful and troublesome troubles caused by constipation is piles, and unless the bowels are kept open by the use of a good laxative such as Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills the whole system will be poisoned and many different complications of disease arise, so if you would be well, keep your bowels regular.

Mr. A. Roder, Hastings St. E., Vancouver, B.C., writes:—"I desire to express my thanks for what Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills have done for me. I had been suffering from constipation for two years, and also had a bad cough and headaches. I tried all sorts of cures and remedies, but got no relief until I was advised to try your pills. I got great relief after the first few doses."

Get Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills when you ask for them or send 25c. and they will be sent by return of mail by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PROPAGANDA IN THE UNITED STATES

London, May 11.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Sir Edward Carson writes to The Morning Post the following:

"I have had hundreds of letters from the United States complaining of the folly of the British Government in making no effort to counteract anti-British propaganda carried on there on a huge and systematic scale. New York is the headquarters of this propaganda, which is creating ill-will and anti-British feeling, not only in the United States but in India and Egypt. Yet the British Government is apparently convinced that a policy of taciturnity is the most dignified and efficient one."

Masters of the Road

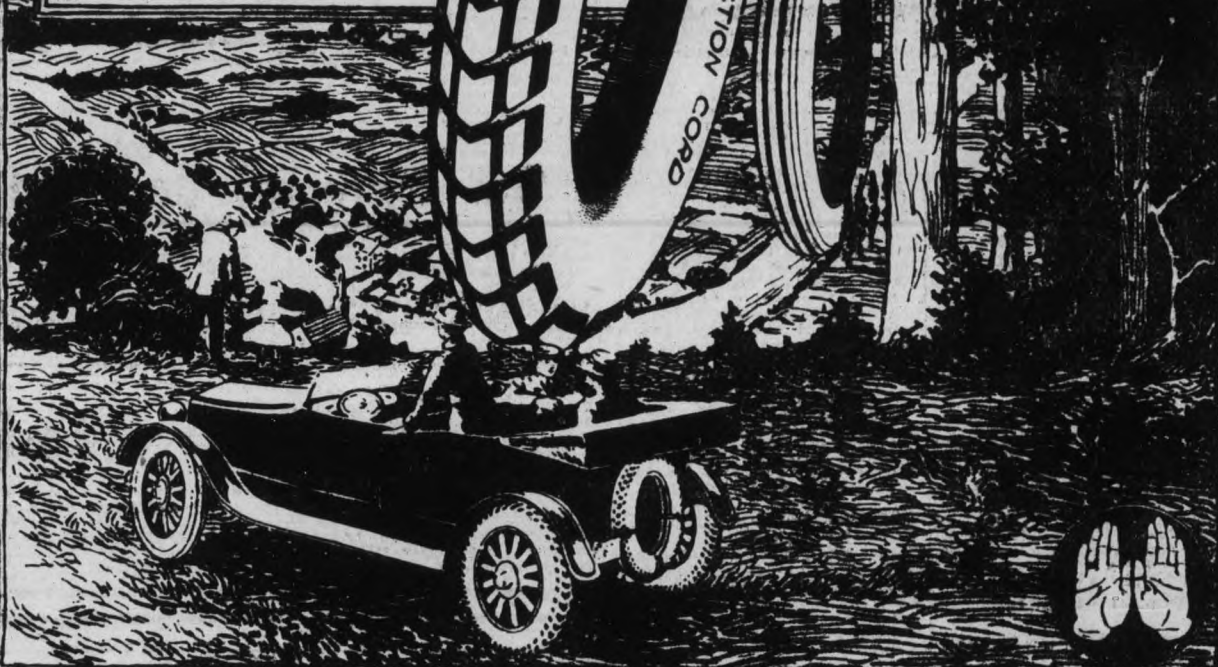

Superb AND Supreme

- ¶ The measure of mileage you expect to get from an automobile tire is exactly the measure we are prepared to give you in Dunlop Cord Tires.
- ¶ Dunlop Tires are thoroughly "thought out" in the Scientific Research Department, then they are thoroughly "tried out" on the road. You, as a tire buyer, get the Final Result.
- ¶ The new ideas we have evolved from world-wide collaboration with Dunlop Master Tire Builders have worked wonders in tire construction.
- ¶ Every other make of tire has suffered in comparison with Dunlop in a test of endurance; and that means foreign-made tires as well as Canadian-made.
- ¶ A tough tread, sturdy walls, largest air-chamber, unsurpassable anti-skid features, are some of the reasons why Dunlop Cord Tires are so much in evidence these days.
- ¶ And just as Dunlop Cord Tires, wherever you go, are being awarded the palm as "1920's best," so, right across Canada, our 1920 sales figures are registering the definite approval of motorists in decidedly unusual increases.
- ¶ When you buy Dunlop Tires you buy from the world's greatest rubber organization, whether the comparison is in technical knowledge, area of plants, financial resources, etc.
- ¶ Our new million-and-a-half-dollar factory is now nearing completion. It will be exclusively devoted to the manufacture of Dunlop Cord Tires—"Traction," "Ribbed."

AUSTRALIA CURBS RENT PROFITEERS

Government Also Embarks on Big House Construction
Policy

New York, May 10.—Edward G. Theodore, Premier of Queensland, Australia, is now in this country in the interest of housing in his country. He is buying building material, steel and other things, in addition to machinery for the manufacture of these articles of prime necessity to the australian.

Australia Has Curbed Landlord
Premier Theodore visited the headquarters of the Mayor's Committee on Rent Profiteering to get better acquainted with the operations and the features of the New York anti-rent measures. Australia has had similar curbs in operation against unfair landlords for several months. They are known as the fair rents act, which was passed without any opposition. The act was the work of the people; they framed it and then passed it on to the Legislature to be made a legal condition.

No landlord under its terms is permitted to charge more for his premises than will give him 8 per cent. net on his investment. The New York law allows 10 per cent., which shows the magnanimity of the New York law, despite the fact that it has been hurried at them by the men who have been curbed.

A fair rent tribunal is established by the act, over which presides a judge of the district court or the police commissioner. The law is merciless to the man who is discovered profiteering in rentals.

Government Building Homes
The Australian Government also has been given power by new Legislation to engage in home construction. The government-built houses are for the use of those whose yearly income is not more than £200, or $1,000. The family man who makes more than that amount, say $2,000 a year, may borrow from the government and build his own house, the money to be paid back in installments, in addition to a low interest payment.

The man whose income in a year is $1,000 or less is termed a "worker" and the house erected for him costs about $3,000. It is of frame construction and, as a rule, comprises five rooms and bath and has modern accommodations, including electric lights and the means of using electricity in household work.

The financial plan requires the worker to invest $5 to every £100 of the Government's money; in other words, the house buyer would put in $25 to every $500 by the Government in the project. This would make his investment in a $3,000 home $150. Every week after possession is gained the house buyer pays 20 shillings, or $5. Out of those 20 shillings a sinking fund is provided for fire and life insurance, so that in the event of the death of the worker before the expiration of twenty-five years the Government, by reason of its insurance plan, can give over to the worker's widow a house free and clear in lieu of life insurance. The insurance is about 10 pence (20 cents) a week.

If a worker should change his mind, or if he should move out of the state he may have his interest in the house transferred, with the approval of the Workers' Dwellings Board.

For the man above the "worker" class who desires help in providing a home for his family, there is a building loan plan whereby the Government advances him $2,500 at 5 per cent. toward a house costing $3,100. The loan is for twenty years. The initial investment required in most such instances is 20 per cent. or about $600.

TRIAL OF STRIKERS COST $154,271

Ottawa, May 11.—(Canadian Press) The trial of the strike leaders in Winnipeg cost the Dominion Government $154,271.09, of which $50,000 has not yet been paid. MOTHERS! NEVER NEGLECT WHOOPIING COUGH

Many mothers make the mistake of thinking that whooping cough is not of serious importance, but unfortunately this mistake often leads to the neglect of this dangerous child's disease.

Never neglect whooping cough, for it may be followed by some serious lung trouble.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is highly recommended by mothers everywhere for the relief of this trouble. It will clear the clogged passages of the throat, soothe the inflamed membrane that has collected, and in this way bring on the "whoop" which brings the so-much-sought-for relief. Mrs. Francis Burlingham, New Gate, B. C., writes: "This Spring three of my children took the whooping cough, and they had it so bad I thought they would choke. I was getting pretty worried when my sister wrote me, telling me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I sent for some right away and I believe me, I never forget how it worked. I will always have it in my house." There are many imitations of Dr. Wood's on the market. Get the genuine when you ask for it. It will get in the end. Put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

GOOD OUTLOOK FOR GRAIN IN MANITOBA

Winnipeg, May 11.—"The season's development is well advanced," Premier Norris stated after a trip through the country over the weekend. PURE BLOOD IS SECRET OF HEALTH

Majority of Human Diseases
May Be Traced to Impurities in the Blood

"Keep your blood pure" is the first and foremost advice of all physicians. And the person whose blood is pure is the one who has acquired the secret of good health.

The blood is the vital fluid. It comes in coursing contact with every part of the human organism. Every organ, every functional fluid, every muscle is dependent upon it for energy and vitality. Let there be impurities in your blood, and they are carried to every part of the system. Naturally the resistance of the body to disease is lowered, and there is a general depression and liability to sickness. Also the impurities are carried to the various organs where the imprities lodge and set up conditions which lead to a condition of chronic disease.

For keeping the blood pure there is nothing like herbs. Some people may laugh at them, but the wise person trusts to them to rid the blood of impurities. The record of Wonder Health Restorer, the unrivaled herb remedy which has brought relief to thousands is proof positive of the marvelous medicinal properties of herbs. This remedy was the life-work of a great Scotch herbalist. It combines those herb principles which the Creator gave to the world for the relief of specific diseases. It is a remedy which must not be confounded with ordinary patent medicines which often depend upon alcohol or opiates to give temporary relief. Wonder Health Restorer is a preparation which contains no alcohol, no drugs—nothing but the distilled juices of rare herbs. These work on the blood, remove the impurities and in this manner restore to health and strength.

If you are suffering from disease ask yourself if your blood is pure. Ask your druggist for our booklet, "The Road to Health," just issued, and read the marvelous manner in which Wonder Health Restorer has brought health to the suffering. You will make no mistake by investigating this remedy. It is one with a record which is unequalled in the relieving of disease. Wonder Health Restorer may be obtained in Victoria at Ivie's Pharmacy and also at most drug stores throughout the province. Ask for our literature. Try this remedy. If your druggist can't supply you send direct to the distributor, The W. Y. McCarter-Burr Drug Co., Ltd., 646 Hillside Avenue, Victoria, Phone 6950.

MINERS AT WORK NEAR VANCOUVER

New Oppogol Mine But Two Hours' Journey From the City

Vancouver, May 11.—Rich in copper, silver and gold, a new mining property is being developed within sight of Vancouver, being but two hours' journey away in the mountains overlooking Howe Sound. It is named the Oppogol Mine and is being operated by a company of the same name. It was located by W. T. Newman, M.C. M.L., a skilled geologist, a curious feature being that the prospect presented none of the customary surface indications, and was discovered purely by scientific study of the geology of the country and by deduction.

ROGERS IS WORKING TO RE-ORGANIZE THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY

Toronto, May 11.—That in the opinion of this conference of Dominion-wide Liberal-Conservative, the time has arrived to perfect an organization for all the provinces of Canada, and through such an organization prepare those who believe in the traditional policy of Macdonald and Cartier, to register their opinion at the impending general election on that great policy.

Such was the substance of a resolution unanimously adopted at a round table conference here yesterday of Liberal-Conservatives, when at least three delegates were present from every province under the guiding leadership of Hon. Robert Rogers. This conference arose from a meeting held here on April 16, and is the first move toward Dominion organization on strict party lines, to be followed as early as possible this year by a national Conservative convention in Ottawa, "for the purpose of selecting a leader and dealing with such matters as may properly come before the convention."

While the meeting was private, it was stated afterward that the proceedings had been entirely harmonious and some dozen resolutions were handed to the press as having been adopted unanimously.

Toronto, May 11.—The following Western men were delegates at the Liberal-Conservative convention here yesterday:

J. E. Edworthy, Toronto, president of the Liberal-Conservative Association of Toronto; J. B. Cote, farmer, St. Boniface, Manitoba, secretary of the Liberal-Conservative Association; Stephen Benson, farmer, Neepawa, Man., member of the executive of the Liberal-Conservative Association of the West; J. W. McEwen, secretary of the Moose Jaw; T. H. Hart, North Battleford, Sask., secretary of the Saskatchewan Provincial Conservative Association; Dr. William E. Spink, Calgary, president of the Liberal-Conservative Association of the City of Calgary; J. E. Merryfield, broker, Vancouver, a member of the British Columbia Liberal-Conservative Association; William Taylor, Edmonton; Hon. Robert Rogers, former Minister of Public Works of the Dominion of Canada, Manitoba, and General D. M. Hogarth, M.P.P., Port Arthur, Ont.

DISPUTES BILL WAS ADVANCED

Bill Amending Lemieux Act
Put Through Committee
Stage in Commons

Ottawa, May 11.—The bill to amend the Industrial Disputes Act, which had provoked keen discussion when last before the House, went through committee stage in the Commons on a vote of thirty-nine to twenty-six yesterday afternoon. Three cross-benchers, Angus McDonald, Temiskaming; Major Andrews, Centre Winnipeg; and Thomas MacNutt, Saltcoats, voted with the Government. J. F. Johnson, Last Mountain, the only other cross-bencher present, voted with the Opposition. Prior to being reported, the bill was so amended as to provide that the majority of workers in a dispute, whether organized or not, can request the appointment of a conciliation board.

Fees.
Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King thought the provision placing the minimum witness fees for those appearing before boards at $4 was unwise. Agitators might even start labor trouble by telling workers that they would receive $4 for acting as witnesses before a board if one were established.

Hon. Arthur Meighen thought there was little danger of men making trouble in order to get a fee of $4 a day which, he pointed out, would be required to pay their expenses. As far as the amendment was concerned, he thought it should pass.

Mr. Lemieux and Hon. T. W. Crothers objected to stipulating that $4 should be the minimum fee for witnesses.

The clause finally was passed.

templated renewing the term of office of the Wheat Board.

The term of the present wheat board would expire, he said, when the entire wheat crop of 1919 had been marketed, probably about September 1 next.

Full payment on participation certificates could not be made until all the crop had been marketed and the payments and expenses had been adjusted. Farmers holding the certificates could reasonably count on receiving at least 40 cents a bushel in cash payment for the certificates, Sir George stated.

Bill Killed.
Ottawa, May 11.—Bill 50, to amend the Fish Inspection Act in regard to uniformity of containers, inspection and grading of fish, affecting both the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts, died an unnatural death in committee yesterday morning. So far as this session is concerned, members of the Marine and Fisheries Committee claim that the bill is gone beyond recall.

This is the first bill killed this session, and it is said to be the first killed in a similar manner in many years.

After the committee had proceeded for some time last week, the chairman's attention was called to lack of a quorum. Then a motion for the committee to rise was carried.

An attempt to revive the bill yesterday morning failed. R. E. Wigmore's motion that the committee approve the principle of the bill was defeated, 7 to 6. F. J. Pelletier, Matane, Que., moved that the "chairman do now leave the chair," was carried and the members left the room, killing the bill for the present session.

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION.

The latest revolution in Mexico has been remarkably successful. President Carranza, who last Saturday fled from the capital, is variously reported as having been captured, as in hiding and as making a last stand twenty miles from Vera Cruz. In any case, his Government has been overthrown, and if he has not been taken prisoner it will not be long before he will have to surrender to the forces of General Obregon. The majority of the most important states have declared against him and it is scarcely likely his friends will be able to develop sufficient strength anywhere to effect a restoration of his regime.

General Obregon, the leader of the revolutionists, is the leading soldier of Mexico, and is well known as a man of unusual ability and striking personality. He is a candidate for the presidency in the elections to be held in July, being the leader of the Liberal-Constitutionalist party. He charged Carranza with alienating foreign investors instead of encouraging them and the development of the country. Carranza, however, won out in the primaries, which gave him full control of the electoral machinery, and it was his victory in this preliminary round, no doubt, which prompted Obregon to play his trump card, the revolution which has swept his rival out of the way.

There unquestionably is strong ground for Obregon's charge that Carranza has driven foreign capital from Mexico. Recently a new clause was inserted in the constitution imposing taxation upon foreign oil holdings so heavy as to be confiscatory. This and other enactments and acts hostile to foreigners have involved Carranza in sharp controversy with outside Governments, notably with Washington, which, on one occasion, addressed to him what practically amounted to an ultimatum. Carranza's policy appears to be "Mexico for the Mexicans," at least as far as the English-speaking people, particularly Americans, are concerned.

During the war Carranza's attitude, while not openly hostile to the Allies, was favorable in certain aspects to the Germans; so much so that Germany counted upon Mexico as a factor in causing trouble for the United States. But for that attitude Carranza would have much more sympathy outside of Mexico than he is likely to receive now. His ambition to develop Mexico into a strong, self-contained nation and the inhabitants into an enlightened, progressive population is a laudable one, but he has not been going about it the right way. Discouraging outside capital and outside help in other ways will not do it. Eighty per cent. of the people are either Indians or of mixed blood and a much greater percentage are illiterate. The encouragement of outside interest in Mexico, of course, can be carried too far, as it was carried too far by Diaz and Huerta, since it made Mexico nothing better than a happy hunting-ground for foreign concessionaires and a veritable hive of political corruption. Perhaps a compromise policy between what Carranza adopted and what Obregon advocates would be the best thing for Mexico.

CANADA AT WASHINGTON.

Mr. Mackenzie King is on strong ground in his protest against the determination of Canada's status at Washington without the Canadian Parliament being properly enlightened on the negotiations. Apparently a three-cornered interchange between the Governments in London, Washington and Ottawa relative to this matter has been going on for some time, and the people who are most directly concerned, that is, the people of Canada, have not been permitted to know more about it than was disclosed by comments in American newspapers, to whom the matter is no secret. It is from Washington, not Ottawa, that we learn that Canada's representative at Washington is to have the status of a Minister who will have exclusive charge of all negotiations between Canada and the United States. From London we learn, on the authority of Mr. Bonar Law, that the Canadian Minister to Washington will have charge of all negotiations between the British Empire and the United States in the absence of the British Ambassador. All this is of the highest importance to the Canadian people as indicative of a new character to be assumed by Canada in her diplomatic relations with the United States, and certainly the plan should be considered by the Canadian Parliament before being carried into effect.

A USEFUL MISSION.

It is gratifying to observe that the Jobbers' and Manufacturers' section of the Board of Trade is alert to the possibilities of trade extension on Vancouver Island. The excursion now being undertaken is a form of commercial enterprise which should be well worth the time spent and the cost involved. It should be possible for this city to obtain most of the business of Vancouver Island. Unfortunately this is not now the case. Mainland firms have been unwearingly in their endeavors to get a large part of the business which should be won by Victoria. It may be expected, therefore, that the tour of inspection and investigation into commercial and industrial conditions now being carried out under the auspices of the Victoria Board of Trade will result in a more profitable trading relationship for this city.

WHY SCRAP THE RAINBOW?

On a number of occasions during the last twelve months the attention of the public has been directed towards the need of training Canadian boys for service in an all-Canadian mercantile marine. And with merely a skeleton of nautical accommodation and equipment excellent progress has marked the activities of the Victoria Boys' Naval Brigade. Repeated applications have gone to Ottawa, however, with the object of seeking federal assistance towards providing a vessel for the permanent use and instruction of these enthusiastic young mariners. So far the Government has not seen its way to translate its sympathy with the movement into a more practical form of aid. But an opportunity now presents itself in considering the disposal of the Rainbow. Surely a much better purpose would be served if this obsolete craft were used for service in training the young seamen of the Pacific coast than to allow it to meet an inglorious end at the hands of the junkmen. It is quite possible, of course, that operating expenses in connection with the Rainbow for purely educational purposes would preclude her putting to sea save upon rare occasions; but this phase of the suggestion need not worry the authorities to any extent for the simple reason that her use as a floating training school would create an impression in the young mind that should be well worth the cost of her maintenance and an occasional trip in the neighboring waters of the gulf and sound.

NOTE AND COMMENT

It may surprise many people to learn that General Brusiloff, who was one of the ablest generals in Russia during the Czar's regime, is now chief military adviser to Trotzky. Nevertheless, according to authoritative report from Moscow this is the case.

Among the names mentioned in connection with the Post of Canadian representative at Washington is that of C. A. Magrath. As Canadian member of the International Waterways Commission, not to speak of his attainments and achievements in other ways, Mr. Magrath has demonstrated his fitness for such an important post as that of Canadian Minister to Washington.

According to a Toronto dispatch the member for South Brant in the Ontario Government is somewhat annoyed over the lack of success of the "round robin" recently presented to the Cabinet by a number of members advocating an increase in sessional indemnities. So worked up has the member become that he has labelled Premier Drury as a dictator and the United Farmer whip as the exponent of the best example of hypocrisy ever paraded under the guise of sincerity. Thus is Canada's newest farmer Government beginning to get its troubles.

Canada's trading for the year which ended with March shows that her exports decreased a little while her imports increased. This is business of the wrong kind. It is noteworthy, however, that exports to the United States have increased at the expense of an outflow to the British Isles. This condition, if maintained as far as our neighbors to the south are concerned, should have the effect of adjusting the trade balance which is causing the adverse exchange rate.

There is an individual in Detroit who has added to the perplexity of federal officials by his discovery of the manner in which liquor has escaped from the Canadian side into the drier territory across the border. He declares that electrically-operated torpedoes loaded with whiskey are being sent across by means of the Detroit River and that the aquatic performance takes little more than five minutes to complete the journey. But this individual who refuses his identity did not tell all his story. It now remains for some astute official to discover actually how far science has become an ally of those who object to prohibition law.

According to a decree of the French Government automobiles weighing less than 5,500 pounds are prohibited entry to France from foreign countries. It is pointed out that there is nothing in the new mandate designed for the exclusive protection of French industry; it is declared that the ruling has for its object the general improvement of France's financial situation. France always has depended upon the thrift of her people to deliver her from her difficulties and it is just that the poorer housewife should get support from those of her compatriots who can afford to curtail the outflow of money required at home.

OTHER NEWSPAPERS' VIEWS

A KITCHENER STORY.

(From The Westminster Gazette.)
One of the good stories that are to be found in Sir George Arthur's "Life of Lord Kitchener," which Macmillans publish to-day—three great volumes, packed full of matter of the deepest interest—concerns his adventures as a "pollu"—though the name had not been invented when he, a Woolwich cadet, took service with a company who is now Sir Henry Dawson to fight for France against "les Prussiens." The end of the campaign came, for him, when an ascent in a balloon gave him a chill which induced pneumonia, and left him such a physical wreck that "his one fear was that he would never have the strength to be a soldier."
But "K." trouble did not end here. When he got back to England, Sir George Arthur says, "he found his alleged breach of military discipline," which, he always maintained, was no breach at all—"had been taken seriously, and he was told to report himself at the Horse Guards. Brought into the presence of the Duke of Cambridge, he was severely scolded, informed that he had behaved abominably, and threatened with the forfeiture of his status and the refusal of a commission. The Commander-in-Chief, having administered this fierce rebuke, paused a moment, and then murmured:—"I am bound to say that in your place I should have done the same thing!"

PATHFINDER TWO HAS CHANGED HANDS.

Aerial League Sells Machine to New Aviation Company

W. H. Brown, Secretary of the Aerial League, told The Times this morning that he and N. A. Goddard, of Courtenay, have purchased the Pathfinder II from the local branch of the Aerial League and will commence commercial flying operations under the name of the Vancouver Island Aerial Service.

The new company has secured rights to landing grounds at Comox, Courtenay and Victoria, and will operate the Curtiss aeroplanes both as a seaplane and an aeroplane. Special floats are to be constructed that will permit of the change from land to sea using aircraft being made within a few minutes by changing the undercarriage of wheels for a set of floats.

The company will commence commercial flying immediately and will handle all classes of passenger carrying and special survey work. Running from Courtenay north into the less accessible country, the aeroplanes will be able to reach any point with the minimum of time, Mr. Brown contends, and that the Aerial Service will undertake every conceivable type of work that might be done by air.

His new activities will take Mr. Brown away from the local Aerial League, of which he was one of the founders and a very popular secretary for some time past. His record as a scout pilot in France, which won for him the coveted M. C. was ably borne out by his flying achievements here, and the local League is experiencing a loss of one of its most useful members.

CROWDS JAM COURT

Men and Women Eager For Details of Sensational Case Now Before the Jury

Those men and women who have been following closely all the intimate details of the Ah Louie Moke rape case since it opened last week, were at the Assize Court to-day long before the morning session began in order to get their seats in the gallery.

Persons who were a little late in coming could not get in for a while. Guards were put on the doors to keep down the crowds. At one time crowds clamoring to get in the main entrance, which was jammed, made such a commotion that they interrupted the work of the court. Mr. Justice Macdonald asked that officers find out who it was who was making all the noise. Many persons stood during the whole of the session.

To-day's evidence was less sensational than yesterday's, which brought about some startling developments in the aspect of the case. The chief witness for the prosecution sat with her husband in the gallery to-day. Ah Louie Moke, defendant, and women were on the stand all morning.

Canadian students attending the University in the past have found themselves more or less alone, and with no one to "show them the ropes." About thirty Canadians who are studying in Seattle, considered the matter at a recent meeting and decided to form an organization for the purpose of changing this condition. If present plans are carried out the new club will secure a club house within three blocks of the University.

DUNCAN PLANS PUBLICITY

Victoria Officials to Attend Cowichan Meeting to Arrange United Campaign For Settlers.

The plans of Duncan and the Cowichan district for a great publicity campaign this year are to be worked out at a meeting in Duncan on Wednesday, May 26. Leading publicity men from this city and officials of the Victoria and Island Development Association will go to Duncan to take part in the meeting. Arrangements for the meeting were made yesterday at a conference in Duncan between members of the Duncan Board of Trade and J. Carl Pendry, president of the Victoria and Island Development Association. Duncan has just had a taste of what it is like to have settlers pouring into the district, and wants to stimulate more publicity. Already the district has decided to make a large publicity grant this year. Because of the extent of the campaign of the Development Association and its established facilities it is likely it will give financial support to the Association in return for the service.

Conflicting News.
New York, May 11.—While the advices coming through from Mexico on the revolutionary situation there are fragmentary and conflicting, they cast considerable doubt on the reports that President Carranza has been made a prisoner.

A Vera Cruz dispatch from the newspaper El Dictamen, a member of the Associated Press, bearing Monday's date, declared the fugitive President of the republic had broken through the revolutionary lines and was standing at bay with 4,000 men at San Marcos, twenty-seven miles north of Puebla.

Pre-supposing the accuracy of the reports that Carranza is still at large, the situation he finds himself in, according to the Vera Cruz advices, is precarious. It is announced that Government troops in Vera Cruz have deserted their commander, General Candido Aguilar, the Governor of the state, and gone over to the revolutionists, making that state apparently no longer a safe refuge for the fugitive President.

In addition, revolutionary forces under Generals Hill and Trevino were reported closing in on Carranza near San Marcos.

Censorship.
Some news messages on the Mexican situation came through early today from American correspondents in Mexico City, but were received with parts missing and other portions garbled. The messages dealt for the most part only with political features of the situation. It appeared probable that a rigid censorship was being imposed upon messages.

Broken Through.

Vera Cruz, May 11.—President Carranza, whose train was stopped at Apizaco by revolutionary forces on Saturday, has succeeded in breaking through the rebel lines and has come twenty miles nearer this city, according to dispatches. Latest reports received here indicate he is standing at bay with 4,000 men at San Marcos, a railroad junction point twenty-seven miles northeast of Puebla. Rebel troops commanded by Generals Hill and Trevino are closing in on him there.

Soldiers mobilized at Oaxaca and Puebla have been sent to San Marcos and three trainloads of other troops have been sent from here to participate in the operation. Troops commanded by General Candido Aguilar, Governor of the State of Vera Cruz and son-in-law of President Carranza, have deserted him and have gone over to the revolutionists, according to the correspondent of El Dictamen, who accompanied the Aguilar forces in Western Vera Cruz.

Dispatches indicate Carranza, when he fled from Mexico City, did not know of the revolutionary movement in this state and had planned to make a stand here at the head of faithful troops sent in anticipation of trouble.

Quick Change.

El Paso, Texas, May 11.—The revolutionists now control all but three states in Mexico.

On April 10 Sonora withdrew from the Carranza Government, setting in force the elements which overthrew Carranza.

General Alvaro Obregon, leader of the Liberal Constitutionalist Party escaped from Mexico City at midnight April 12 disguised as a railroad brakeman. He made his way to Iguala, Guerrero, where he joined the forces that took Mexico City, May 5. The revolutionary "plan" of Agua

SWIMMING BATH PROJECT OUTLINED

Oak Bay Baths, Ltd., Appeal to Public With Attractive Scheme

At a public meeting held yesterday evening at the Oak Bay Municipal Hall, the directors of the Oak Bay Swimming Baths, Ltd., outlined the project in detail to an enthusiastic gathering. P. F. Curtis, managing director, occupied the chair, and opened the meeting with a resume of the work already done in connection with bringing the matter to the attention of the public.

Public Spirited Venture.
The whole success of the venture was based upon the support that would be afforded to it by the public, he stated. The directors themselves in the first place, he continued, had originated the idea solely as a public need and with patriotic and communal spirit.

Bathing, continued the speaker, was far more important than baseball, and the support offered to the Stadium, Golf Links and other schemes had been far more pronounced than the Baths. There remained only eighteen days to test the feeling of the community, as under the Companies Act they would have to go to allotment within a limit of seven days, said Mr. Curtis.

Ideal Site Located.

The proposed baths would be situated in a natural site in the rocks, which would, it is stated, require very little blasting to round out into the conventional style of swimming pool, Mr. Curtis stated. For the first season the baths would be heated solely by the sun, but evidence was brought forward to show that this method would be very satisfactory for six months in the year. Later a portion would be roofed over into a winter bathing pool that would be steam heated. Side lines, such as therapeutic baths, hot salt baths, and other devices would be installed.

Hubert Lethaby then outlined the cost of operations and gave figures of the numbers that could normally be expected to benefit from the swimming baths. The water in the vicinity was too cold to bath in freely without proper arrangements, he stated, and the baths would be a first-class investment for the children of not only Oak Bay, but the whole community. Mr. Lethaby had the average attendance that might be expected from the public school, private school, swimming clubs and all other organizations estimated. He brought figures to his aid to show that after the initial cost had been met, the baths could be run very cheaply and would be quite a paying investment as such. He concurred with the remarks of the former speaker in stating that the bath idea had been patriotic and for the good of the community, since its inception.

It was on behalf of the children that Mr. Lethaby made his appeal, as they had no place fit to bathe on account of the extreme cold of the local waters.

The meeting was well attended and the support of all present was readily offered.

The ladies of the district, and the other public bodies of women are to be asked to support the movement for the good of the district as a whole.

FORESTRY CONFERENCE ARRANGED FOR JULY

The Imperial Forestry Conference, scheduled to be held in London on July 5 to 17, will be attended by representatives of the British Dominions, including Canada. M. A. Grainger, of the local forestry department will attend for this Province, leaving for England shortly for that purpose. The co-ordination of the lumber trade of the entire Empire is one of the main benefits looked for at this important conference.

An Empire Timber Exhibition is to be held in London on or about the same dates, in which the timber wealth of the Dominion will be clearly set forth for comparison with the timber products of the world. One of the most important duties of the conference will be the compilation of estimates as to the resources of timber in the Empire—types and varieties—with the co-ordination of the methods of marketing and conserving the timber, and providing new forests. Over 150 are expected to attend and trade relations will be considerably ameliorated by the deliberations of the gathering, in so far as lumber is concerned.

A BEDTIME STORY

UNCLE WIGGILY AND SAMMIE'S RATTLE

By HOWARD R. GARIS.
Copyright, 1920, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate

One day, when Uncle Wiggily was out walking in the woods, he thought he would go call on Mrs. Littletail, the rabbit lady with whom he used to live before he and Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy went to housekeeping in a hollow stump bungalow.

"I haven't seen Mrs. Littletail in some time," said the bunny uncle, as he gave his red, white and blue striped rheumatic crutch a twist through the air. And he almost knocked off his tall silk hat doing this.

"Oh, I must be careful!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily. "I would look queer calling on Mrs. Littletail with a hole in my hat—I mean a hole in addition to the one where my head goes in."

So Uncle Wiggily laughed in jolly fashion and hopped over the fields to where Mrs. Littletail lived.

"Come in!" called a faint voice, as he tapped on the door, and entering, can think of something that will be good for my headache.

"Why, I have often cured Nurse Jane's," remarked Mr. Longears. "Sometimes a rag, wrung out of cold water, will do the trick. Here, you lie down on the couch and I'll see what I can do."

"I haven't seen Mrs. Littletail in some time," said the bunny uncle, as he gave his red, white and blue striped rheumatic crutch a twist through the air. And he almost knocked off his tall silk hat doing this.

"Oh, I must be careful!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily. "I would look queer calling on Mrs. Littletail with a hole in my hat—I mean a hole in addition to the one where my head goes in."

So Uncle Wiggily laughed in jolly fashion and hopped over the fields to where Mrs. Littletail lived.

"Come in!" called a faint voice, as he tapped on the door, and entering,

Daisy Chain Chapter, I. O. D. E.—The monthly meeting of the Daisy Chain Chapter, I. O. D. E., was held on Saturday at the home of the regent, Mrs. Love, fourteen members being present. The total receipts from the tea-dance held on May 1 were most gratifying, for after paying expenses a balance of $37.55 was reported. The grateful thanks of the chapter are tendered to Mrs. Campbell for her kindness in loaning her home for the dance. Two junior members, Alex Bradshaw and Dolly Clark, have written and sold a magazine and turned in 80c towards the chapter's funds. A letter was read from Lillawattie Lal, whom the chapter supports in the Zenana, Bible and Medical Mission School at Leeltauapur, and she enclosed a bunch of sweetpeas and pansies gathered from her school garden. It was decided to send a cheque for $40 for Lillawattie's upkeep this year. A splendid picture of H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, suitably framed, was presented to Miss Wynne's special class by the chapter. All members are asked to attend the June meeting, when arrangements will be made for the Fall reunion.

Were women twenty times in excess of men the world could not do without one of them.—Lady Askwith.

Uncle Wiggily, "Yes, but I forgot," answered Sammie. "I was making believe I was a fire engine and also one of the war guns that shoot so fast."

"Well, don't do it again," cautioned the young gentleman. "I guess I'd better stay out here and watch to see that you do not forget until your mother's head is better."

So Uncle Wiggily sat on the front stoop near the fence where he could call to Sammie in case the rabbit boy forgot again and played with the rattle.

But Sammie seemed to be remembering now, for he laid aside the rattlesack and began to play with some marbles. These made no noise, and Uncle Wiggily was just thinking that now Mrs. Littletail could get a nap, which would cure her headache. And Uncle Wiggily was almost falling asleep himself, it was so still and quiet, when, all of a sudden, out of the woods came the bad old Pipsisawah.

"Ah, ha," said the Pip to himself, as he saw Uncle Wiggily asleep on the stoop. "I'll sneak up and get his mouse now!"

The Pip was sneaking up when, just then, Sammie saw the bad chap. "Oh, how can I scare him away?" thought the little rabbit boy. "I'll use that," said Sammie. "I guess my mother and Uncle Wiggily won't mind now."

So Sammie ran along the fence, drawing his stick quickly across the pickets, and it made such rattle-bang sound that the Pip cried: "Oh, they're after me with a machine gun!"

Oh, they're after me with a machine gun!

"Oh, my poor head!" she exclaimed. "Such a noise!"

"What was that racket?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"I guess it was Sammie and his rattle," said the mother of the rabbit boy.

"Sammie is too big to play with a rattle," said Uncle Wiggily, somewhat severely. "I must stop him."

"Oh, it isn't a regular rattle box, such as babies play with," spoke Mrs. Littletail, and, going to the door, Mr. Longears saw what it was.

Sammie was running up and down in front of the house, rubbing a stick over the pickets of the fence, making a rattling rub-a-dub-dub sound.

"Hello, Uncle Wiggily!" cried Sammie stopping as he saw Mr. Longears. "Hear my rattle!"

And before the bunny gentleman could stop him, the rabbit boy loudly rattled the stick on the fence pickets again.

WOMEN TO CONSIDER REFERENDUM MATTER

Local Council to Hold Special Meeting on Proposed City and B.C.E.R. Agreement

That the City Council submit a referendum to the electors on the matter of the proposed agreement between the B. C. Electric Company and the City was the purport of a resolution presented to the Local Council of Women at their meeting yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Grace Johnston on behalf of the Women's Independent Political Association. Owing to pressure of business on yesterday's agenda it was decided to leave the consideration of the matter to a special session to be held on Thursday evening next.

This session will precede a public meeting called by the Local Council for 8 o'clock on Thursday evening at which David Brankin, Provincial Superintendent of Neglected Children, who has been appointed by the government to investigate the Children's Aid Home, will give an address on "Child Welfare." Miss Winn, Miss Grimmer and Miss Bell were appointed a committee to arrange for a hall for this address.

Uniform Dress at High School. Among the reports received during the afternoon was that from Mrs. Herchner in reference to the growing tendency to the extreme in women's dress. In a very excellent paper Mrs. Herchner advocated the standardization of dress for High School students, with a navy blue dress for the girls and sweaters and trousers for boys, thus eliminating much of the rivalry caused by the wear of silk stockings and fancy waists and lessening the expense to parents; the giving of monthly addresses to students of morals and eugenics, such addresses to be given by experts who would handle the matter with proper delicacy; also addresses to girls on the subject of suitable dress for every occasion with the intention of inculcating taste and refinement in the growing girl.

Another suggestion was that an appeal should be made to the men to discontinue immediately in women's dress and the extreme in fashions; also that the movement in the United States to create American styles be investigated, and if thought advisable be encouraged as being more suitable for Anglo-Saxon women.

To Prevent Water Waste. Reporting for the committee appointed to ascertain the possibilities of securing a Juvenile Court Judge for Victoria, Mrs. Spofford stated that the work of the committee was held in abeyance pending the report of the Superintendent of Neglected Children on detention homes.

A. E. Mitchell gave an excellent paper showing the possibilities in increased food production by the use of the overflow at Sooke Lake water-works in irrigating vacant lots and otherwise idle land.

Mrs. R. S. Day was appointed to represent the council at a thrift conference to be held in Calgary shortly. Attention was drawn to an exhibit of art work and domestic science to be held in the Boys' Central School on Friday afternoon and evening from 3.30 to 5 and from 7.30 to 9 o'clock, to which Local Council members were specially invited to attend. Members were also reminded of a garden fête to be held on June 2 at "Gonzales," Rockland Avenue, by the Women's Auxiliary to the Navy League in aid of the funds for the Seaman's Institutes.

Oons Memorial Ward.—In honor of the four Victoria nurses who gave their lives in the late war a memorial ward will be formally opened at the Jubilee Hospital next Saturday. The room has been furnished by the Victoria Graduate Nurses' Association as a memorial to Miss Greta Wake, Christina Campbell, Jessie King, and Miss Mabel J. McDiarmid. The letter was a supervisor at the hospital for some time, and the remainder all trained at that institution. At 3 o'clock on Saturday the Rev. G. H. Andrews will conduct the service. Col. EXPERT WILL TALK ON CHILD PROBLEM

David Brankin, Supt. of Boys' Industrial School, Here on Thursday

David Brankin, Superintendent of the Vancouver Industrial School and Provincial Superintendent of Neglected and Delinquent Children, is to address a public meeting under the auspices of the Local Council of Women on Thursday evening at eight o'clock, at a place to be announced later. Mr. Brankin will speak on "Child Welfare" and one-half of the time will be given over to open discussion of the problem relating to institutional life and the interpretation of the B. C. Infants' Act. Opportunity will be given to ask questions on any subject connected with these problems.

Mr. Brankin, who is a returned soldier, has made a life study of social service work. Receiving his early training in England he has for the past twenty-two years devoted himself to the laudatory work of reclaiming boys and girls who are guilty of those offences which bring them under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court. He was for twelve years probation officer in Vancouver and some time ago was placed in charge of the Boys' Industrial Home.

Believing that sympathy, understanding and friendship are the real keys to a child's heart—whether that child is of exemplary character or a delinquent—Mr. Brankin has achieved a conspicuous success in dealing with his charges at the Industrial Home. Under his regime, the cells have been transformed into honor rooms; all forms of arbitrary punishment have been eliminated, the child being allowed to choose his own form, and not one child has been deprived of a single meal, while the report given by the Grand Jury after its recent visit to the Home was the most encouraging ever received on any of the B. C. juvenile institutions.

Mr. Kenneth Forbes, who for the past several years has managed the St. John branch, will succeed to the management of the Winnipeg house.

WAR PAINTINGS NOW ON EXHIBITION HERE

Lieut. - Governor Yesterday Opened Exhibit of Mrs. Riter Hamilton's Pictures

The exhibition of Vimy Ridge pictures painted by Mrs. Mary Riter Hamilton and shown under the auspices of the Amputation Club of British Columbia, was formally opened at the Arts and Crafts Club rooms yesterday afternoon by the Lieutenant-Governor, who was accompanied by Mrs. Prior and H. J. S. Muskett. The exhibition will be open to-day and to-morrow from 2.30 till 5 in the afternoon and from 7.30 till 9 in the evening in order that the public may have an opportunity of viewing them.

The exhibition comprises about sixty pictures, all representative of war-scared scenes on the battlefields on which the Canadians won undying fame. A characteristic scene portrays Vimy Ridge, showing in the foreground the ruined Cathedral of St. Ablain, St. Nazaire, and on the left the Lorette Ridge with the white markings revealing the locations of the trenches and dug-outs occupied by the Canadians prior to the eventual battle which resulted in victory on April 9, 1917. Another picture of unusual interest shows a military armistice hut, in all the glory of "camouflage," while this art of deception is also seen in the picture of the camouflaged Chateau de la Hal. The tragedy of war and the toll exacted in ruined homes, devastated villages, shell-torn churches and dreary landscapes is graphically told in these pictures, and returned men who have seen them declare that they do not in any way exaggerate conditions in the war-areas.

GORGE BRIDGE

The Gorge Bridge is now closed to all classes of traffic, during the progress of repairs.

Will Assemble at Willows From Victoria and Other Western Cities

It is expected that some five hundred Shriners will be in attendance, including representatives from Tacoma, Seattle, Bellingham and other Sound cities.

The feature of the ceremony will be the initiation of from seventy to seventy-five candidates, who will make the pilgrimage across the burning sands under unusually striking auspices. From five to seven o'clock the Shriners will partake of dinner and later in the evening the proceedings will terminate with a grand banquet.

Following is the list of officers of Gizeh Temple whose jurisdiction embraces British Columbia and the Yukon:

POLICE TO ENFORCE BREAD LAW STRICTLY

Mayor Says Labelling of Loaves Must Proceed As Usual Now

The matter having been referred by the City Council last night to him and his colleagues for action, Mayor Porter, Chairman of the Police Commission, this morning stated that the Commissioners had absolutely no intention of "winking" at the by-law, which requires bakers to label all their bread.

As reported elsewhere in these columns, the bakers requested the Council last night to show leniency concerning the present bakers' strike. The Mayor, however, while appreciating the bakers' difficulty, declared this morning that the law must be enforced.

"We have given the police no instructions not to enforce the law," he said. "As for the fines to be levied," His Worship remarked when questioned regarding certain proceedings in the Police Court this morning, "the Police Commissioners cannot dictate to the Police Magistrate, of course. However, the bread must be labelled now. As I understand the situation the condition in the bakeries is fairly well cleared up, so that we can expect a resumption of the customary system right away. The police certainly will continue to enforce the law to the letter, insisting that bread be labelled."

"I cannot believe that there is such a tremendous shortage of bread weights as reported to the Council last night by Mr. Woodward, of the Trades and Labor Council. However, the police will do their duty in this direction, too, enforcing the law which governs the weight of each loaf of bread."

TO SEND DELEGATE FOR INSPECTION

British and Foreign Sailors Society to Look Into Question of Local Institutions

A well known eastern jurist, Judge Craig, has been selected by the British and Foreign Sailors' Society for the purpose of visiting Victoria, and making an examination into the financial workings of the two institutions here, the Comaught Seamen's Institute, and the Sailors' Club.

Intimation of this course has been received by wire from Dr. Hall, representative of the association in Canada, to H. T. Ravenhill, Chairman of the Victoria branch of the Navy League. Mr. Ravenhill will take the necessary steps to welcome the visitor on arrival here.

As the position stands briefly since the meetings last year, the Sailors' Society retains the buildings, and local control, while the Navy League of Canada, as a Canadian organization under the War Charities Act, is enabled to lend its name to the movement for philanthropic effort. Advances, it is stated, have been made to sustain the institutions here pending a permanent settlement.

Last year a British judge came out, and visited the buildings of the local institutions which were then more closely affiliated to the Navy League.

Why Teeth Glisten

Millions of them—a new method

All statements approved by high dental authorities

You see glistening teeth now wherever you look, for millions clean teeth in a new way. We offer you here a ten-day test, to show the results on your own teeth.

The fight on film

Dental science has found a way to combat film on teeth—the film that dims teeth and destroys them.

Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. The ordinary tooth paste does not dissolve it, so brushing has left much of it intact. And very few people have escaped its damage.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea, which attacks 95 in 100.

Now, after years of research, a way has been found to combat it. Able authorities have amply proved its efficiency. Leading dentists everywhere now urge its daily use.

And millions of people now employ it, largely by dental advice.

The method is embodied in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. Two other new factors are combined with it. And this tooth paste is inaugurating a new dental era.

Free to all who ask

A ten-day test of Pepsodent is sent to all who ask. Also a book to explain the results. The method quickly proves itself.

Pepsodent is based on pepsin, the digester of albumin. The film is albuminous matter. The object of Pepsodent is to dissolve it, then to day by day combat it.

Pepsin long seemed impossible. It must be activated, and the usual agent is an acid harmful to the teeth. But science has found a harmless activating method, so pepsin can be every day applied.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.

Do this for your own sake and your family's sake. Nearly everybody suffers from this film. Cut out the coupon so you won't forget.

Visiting Commission of Timber Experts Admires Island Timber

A commission of Swedish and Norwegian foresters visiting this continent in quest of seed selection and the study of methods of production, express themselves as very much pleased with the British Columbia spruce, stating that it is far superior to that of California.

At the meeting of the Natural History Society, where this fact was brought out last night, it was also stated that Queen Charlotte Islands enjoyed very much the same climatic conditions as Norway, and that the commission in visiting had discovered a variety of seedlings suitable to their purpose admirably.

Charteris Pemberton conducted the commission over the island timber wealth, and stated that they were very much struck with the enormous size of the trees.

The last field meet held by the Society at Prospect Lake at the home of Mrs. McVicker was fully discussed and results analyzed. About twenty members enjoyed the outing and found some 124 varieties. Singing birds and the varieties on the island came in for some discussion. The success of the mudshark fishing industry at Mayne Island was the subject of an interesting talk, the new leather stated as being very satisfactory.

SUNFLOWER SILAGE DOES NOT SUCCEED

Such Is the Experience at Sidney Experimental Station

At the Experimental Station for Vancouver Island, Professor Stevenson has grown an acre of sunflower for ensilage last season. The cost per acre was the same as for corn. The yield green weight was slightly larger than for corn. The sunflowers were ensilaged when about five per cent. of the heads had reached the black seed stage. Considerable juice exuded from the silo after filling, indicating the high water content of the sunflower. This high water content is responsible for much of the excess weight when yields are quoted in contrast with corn. The silage after being placed in the silo was much greater than with corn, giving a total yield of ensilage that was considerably less than that secured from an equal weight of corn at time of ensiling.

The sunflower silage had a very fair aroma, was free from mould, and had apparently made and kept well. When offered to Jersey cattle that had been used to good corn ensilage, they refused to eat the sunflower ensilage. Heifers that had never eaten ensilage of any kind refused to eat the sunflower silage. After two weeks of coaxing and at the expense of a decline in the milk yield the cows would consume about ten pounds each per day. In any district where corn, clover, vetch, peas and oats do well dairy farmers are advised to leave the sunflower alone. The sunflower can serve a useful purpose in the dry cold districts where cattle are maintained rather than fed for milk production. To produce milk profitably something more palatable than the sunflower must be offered to the dairy cow.

$50 to $75

C. C. M. Prices Only Half Those of Twenty-Five Years Ago

Twenty-five years ago $100 to $150 was paid willingly for a bicycle.

In those days, riders carefully examined the specifications and equipment before buying.

They took pride in their bicycles. They kept them clean, polished and bright.

Then came the slump!

Country riding was dropped.

People became careless about their bicycles.

Any kind of a bicycle was thought good enough.

Price—cheapness—was the main consideration.

The Bicycle of Quality Has Come Back

To-day the bicycle—the Bicycle of Quality—has come back.

The few blocks of good pavement in our cities have grown to miles. In some cases to hundreds of miles.

Country roads are being steadily improved.

As a result, bicycling for pleasure, as well as for utility, is gaining in popularity every year.

Riders are again taking pride in their mounts and showing discrimination in their buying.

They are demanding bicycles built of the highest grade materials, with all parts accurately made.

They are demanding bearings that will not only run perfectly when new, but that will continue to run easily.

They are insisting on bicycles that are not only easy and comfortable to ride, but with a quality of materials that assures safety in riding.

They are demanding bicycles that will retain the bright lustre of the showroom product.

The demand to-day is for good bicycles—the highest grade bicycles—the parts of which are always interchangeable, always procurable and have the reputation of a long-established manufacturer behind them. In other words, Canadian riders are insisting on C.C.M. Bicycles—the Standard of Canada—used and sought for by Bicycle Riders in all overseas British possessions throughout the world.

C. C. M. Bicycles are sold at prices consistent with C. C. M. quality.

To pay less is to risk disappointment.

BAKERS DE FRAUD PUBLIC OF $500 DAILY, HE SAYS

E. S. Woodward Charges Under-weight Bread Aggregates 5,000 Pounds

By selling loaves of bread under the weight required by law the bakers of Victoria are defrauding the public at $500 daily, E. S. Woodward, President of the Trades and Labor Council, informed the City Council last night. Moreover, wrote Mr. Woodward, bakers are not living up to the law which, requires them to label their bread.

In a letter to the Council, the Victoria Cake and Bread Manufacturers' Association admitted that bread had not always been labeled lately on account of the bakers' strike.

"The men quit work without notice, leaving all doughs which had been prepared for the heavy week-end trade without attention," Harry Amphlett, Secretary of the Association, stated. "Since this time we have been working with untrained labor, and notwithstanding these difficulties, have succeeded in maintaining adequate supplies to the public."

"Any extra operation involved in production would have greatly reduced our output, which in turn would have caused great inconvenience to the public, and in the case of our supplies to hospitals and public institutions, probably some actual suffering."

"We are laying the position before you with the request that you will, if possible, forego the demands of the by-law in connection with labeling until our present labor difficulties are overcome. If it is impossible for you to grant such concession, we suggest that our delinquency in this regard will be viewed as lightly as possible, credit being given us for the fact that we are not committing any willful infraction of the by-law, but simply are hindered from carrying it out by the difficulties of our position."

Alderman Johns, seconded by Alderman Dewar, moved that the request of the Bakers' Association be referred to the Police Commissioners. Cannot interfere.

Alderman Todd, however, declared that the Council had absolutely nothing to do with the dispute between the bakers and their employees. The people should be made to realize, he said, that the Council was not the proper body to settle such controversies. Nor had the Council any power to instruct the police to enforce any law. All the Council could do was to amend a by-law which it considered unsatisfactory.

The John's Motion Carried.

"The police have no option on the matter," observed Mayor Porter, Chairman of the Police Commission. "They must prosecute."

5,000 Pounds Short.
Mr. Woodward's letter charged that the writer had seen unlabelled bread showing "an alarming shortage in regulation weight." In fact, by striking an average regarding the shortage just now, he calculated that the public was losing 5,000 pounds of bread a day in this way. This bread, he asserted, was worth $500.

"It is grossly unfair," wrote Mr. Woodward, "that the public should be defrauded of $500 daily in order to facilitate the task of the master bakers in breaking a strike. It is not enough to bring a solitary prosecution against these men. All unlabelled bread should be seized by the fair weight officer and withheld from the market."

CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

Anglican Dean Takes Leading Part in Special Services of Centennial Methodist Church.

Dean Quanton of Christ Church Cathedral was the feature of last night's anniversary service of the Centennial Methodist Church. The Dean gave the anniversary address. Chief of the church's activities during the year have been the increase of the salary of the pastor, the Rev. J. L. Darty, by $500, addition of 31 families with 58 members to the church rolls, increase in plate collections of $1,747, increase in total contributions of $3,628. The spiritual condition of the church was reported to be healthy.

The Centennial Sunday School celebrated its thirty-fifth anniversary by a Sunday concert given by the choir of 200 voices under J. W. Treen, accompanied by a twelve-piece orchestra. Children of the Junior and primary grades entertained more than 400 persons. The Rev. W. M. Scott, of James Bay Methodist Church, gave an anniversary address.

VICTORIA BREAKS WITH UNION OF MUNICIPALITIES

To Absent Itself As Long As Mr. McDiarmid Fights City

ALDERMEN DIFFER ONLY ON REASON FOR BREAK

The long-threatened break between Victoria and the Union of B. C. Municipalities was effected by the City Council last night without opposition.

A portion of the Council, led by Alderman Todd, favored an unconditional break with the Union for no specified reason, except that Victoria was deriving no advantage from its membership. A majority, however, under Alderman Sargent, managed to pass a resolution to the effect that, as long as F. A. McDiarmid, the Union solicitor, continued to conduct legal cases against the city, Victoria should "absent itself from the activities of the Union."

As soon as City Solicitor Pringle's report on certain phases of the Union's work and status—a report which has been tabled by the Council for many weeks—was brought up again, Alderman Todd moved that Victoria do not join the Union this year. "I am prepared to discuss the matter at length or simply allow it to go to a vote," he said.

Alderman Sangster seconded the motion without comment, and urged that the question be put to a vote.

Before the Mayor could put the motion before the meeting, however, Alderman Patrick protested against precipitate action. "This matter has been lying on the table for three months," he observed. "Now you propose to decide it without discussion at all. Personally, I think, we have derived great benefits from our membership in the Union. We must remember that in union is strength—you can laugh as much as you like at that, but it doesn't change the fact, which is before the Government undoubtedly the Union will have more influence than a single municipality."

Mr. McDiarmid has been so rash as to voice a protest was made to the effect that the new Act would be promulgated through the convention and that it would be rushed through the Legislature and made law early in 1919.

Referring to Alderman Patrick's charge that the matter had been delayed for three months, Alderman Todd replied that he had postponed action at the request of the Council.

He went on to say that representation as Victoria and the Union population, "It is simply a happy-go-lucky organization," he declared. "Almost any town can have a large representation as Victoria and the Union population, it is different, for Vancouver has its own charter and is not so much affected by the deliberations of the Union. Moreover, the constitution is such that matters can be referred to Alderman Patrick's charge that the matter had been delayed for three months, Alderman Todd replied that he had postponed action at the request of the Council.

He has fought City Eight Times. "I note, however, that since 1914, Mr. McDiarmid has taken at least eight cases against the city," the Alderman proceeded, naming the lawsuits in question. "This is an absurd position—the solicitor of the Union acting against one of the Union members. To my mind we had better withdraw than remain with a solicitor who would take cases against the city to the extent Mr. McDiarmid has. That is my reason for withdrawing. I have no other reason."

"I have never seen any benefit derived by Victoria from its membership in the Union," declared Alderman Sangster. "I also support Alderman Patrick's idea about Mr. McDiarmid."

Todd Has Changed Mind. "It is peculiar that there should be an assault of this kind on the Union," said Alderman Sargent, who with the Mayor and Alderman Patrick represented Victoria at the last Union convention. "Alderman Todd, when Mayor, I recall, used to be a very ardent supporter of the Union and I can remember that he solicited, at a meeting of the Council, a large attendance at the Duncan convention. And at the next convention the delegates from Victoria carried to the Union the regrets of Mayor Todd that he could not be present, and issued an invitation that the next convention be held in Victoria."

"The questions which Alderman Todd has desired the Solicitor to report upon are simply stirring up strife with other municipalities. We should not quarrel with our neighbors. Let us live in peace with them."

"However, there is a bona fide complaint with regard to Mr. McDiarmid that would justify us regarding our strong protest. If Mr. McDiarmid is successful in the suit for the St. Andrew's Roman Catholic Cathedral, then church taxes all over the Province will be in

THE SARGENT PLAN.

The Alderman therefore moved, by Alderman Patrick, that:

"The Union of B. C. Municipalities be informed that whenever the solicitor of the union at one time held the position of solicitor for this city and since has pleaded in the courts on several occasions against the city, and about a year ago was engaged by the St. Andrew's Roman Catholic Church here to prevent by means of the courts the Council from collecting the taxes levied against that property, which action looks towards the annulment of all church property taxes in all the municipalities of the Province, that these conditions were made plain at the convention in North Vancouver last October by the representatives of Victoria at said convention, and, in face of such knowledge the said solicitor, who was engaged as a municipality within the Province this Council claims it is improper for a solicitor to represent it as a solicitor for the union and to act in withdrawal for any party who is seeking to disturb the taxation of the Province as in the St. Andrew's case, and that while such an assembly could obtain this Council is of the opinion Victoria should absent itself from the activities of the union."

Should Not Be Goat. "The two Aldermen who have just spoken have dealt in generalities, but I want to give you a single instance in which Victoria has benefited from membership in the Union," asserted Alderman Todd. "The Union solicitor, continued to conduct legal cases against the city, Victoria should absent itself from the activities of the Union."

Urges Break. As soon as City Solicitor Pringle's report on certain phases of the Union's work and status—a report which has been tabled by the Council for many weeks—was brought up again, Alderman Todd moved that Victoria do not join the Union this year. "I am prepared to discuss the matter at length or simply allow it to go to a vote," he said.

Alderman Sangster seconded the motion without comment, and urged that the question be put to a vote.

Before the Mayor could put the motion before the meeting, however, Alderman Patrick protested against precipitate action. "This matter has been lying on the table for three months," he observed. We must remember that in union is strength—you can laugh as much as you like at that, but it doesn't change the fact, which is before the Government undoubtedly the Union will have more influence than a single municipality."

Mr. McDiarmid has been so rash as to voice a protest was made to the effect that the new Act would be promulgated through the convention and that it would be rushed through the Legislature and made law early in 1919.

Referring to Alderman Patrick's charge that the matter had been delayed for three months, Alderman Todd replied that he had postponed action at the request of the Council.

He went on to say that representation as Victoria and the Union population, "It is simply a happy-go-lucky organization," he declared. "Almost any town can have a large representation as Victoria and the Union population, it is different, for Vancouver has its own charter and is not so much affected by the deliberations of the Union. Moreover, the constitution is such that matters can be referred to Alderman Patrick's charge that the matter had been delayed for three months, Alderman Todd replied that he had postponed action at the request of the Council.

THE SARGENT PLAN.

The Alderman therefore moved, by Alderman Patrick, that:

"The Union of B. C. Municipalities be informed that whenever the solicitor of the union at one time held the position of solicitor for this city and since has pleaded in the courts on several occasions against the city, and about a year ago was engaged by the St. Andrew's Roman Catholic Church here to prevent by means of the courts the Council from collecting the taxes levied against that property, which action looks towards the annulment of all church property taxes in all the municipalities of the Province, that these conditions were made plain at the convention in North Vancouver last October by the representatives of Victoria at said convention, and, in face of such knowledge the said solicitor, who was engaged as a municipality within the Province this Council claims it is improper for a solicitor to represent it as a solicitor for the union and to act in withdrawal for any party who is seeking to disturb the taxation of the Province as in the St. Andrew's case, and that while such an assembly could obtain this Council is of the opinion Victoria should absent itself from the activities of the union."

Should Not Be Goat. "The two Aldermen who have just spoken have dealt in generalities, but I want to give you a single instance in which Victoria has benefited from membership in the Union," asserted Alderman Todd. "The Union solicitor, continued to conduct legal cases against the city, Victoria should absent itself from the activities of the Union."

Urges Break. As soon as City Solicitor Pringle's report on certain phases of the Union's work and status—a report which has been tabled by the Council for many weeks—was brought up again, Alderman Todd moved that Victoria do not join the Union this year. "I am prepared to discuss the matter at length or simply allow it to go to a vote," he said.

Alderman Sangster seconded the motion without comment, and urged that the question be put to a vote.

Before the Mayor could put the motion before the meeting, however, Alderman Patrick protested against precipitate action. "This matter has been lying on the table for three months," he observed. "Now you propose to decide it without discussion at all. Personally, I think, we have derived great benefits from our membership in the Union. We must remember that in union is strength—you can laugh as much as you like at that, but it doesn't change the fact, which is before the Government undoubtedly the Union will have more influence than a single municipality."

Vancouver Woman Says Dyspepsia and Headaches Are Gone Since She Took Tanlac

"I had taken but a few doses of Tanlac when I realized that I had at last found the right thing for my troubles," declared Mrs. M. Moares, 1847 Second Avenue, Vancouver, B. C., in telling of her experience with the medicine.

"For a year or more I had suffered from stomach trouble, and until I began taking Tanlac had been unable to find anything that did me a particle of good. I had no appetite, and it often made me sick to even look at anything to eat. After almost every meal I became badly nauseated, and it was often impossible for me to retain a thing. My food lay heavy and turned sour in my stomach. I would blot up with gas until I could hardly breathe, and my heart palpitated so bad that at times it actually frightened me. Then, too, I had a awful feeling of choking sensation, just like there was a lump in my throat that I could neither get up or down. My kidneys worried me a great deal, and I suffered with intense pains in the small of my back nearly all the time. I was always badly constipated, had such severe headaches I could hardly stand them, and at times became so dizzy it was all I could do to stand on my feet. My sleep did not seem to do me any good, and I always got up feeling tired and exhausted. I had little life or energy left, and when I started taking Tanlac was in such a badly run-down, weakened condition I was barely able to do my household work."

"Tanlac went right after my troubles at once, and now after taking only six bottles, I am a well woman. My appetite is simply fine, I eat just anything I want, and everything agrees with me perfectly. My kidneys never bother me, and the pains are all gone out of my back. I am entirely relieved of constipation, and do not know what it is to have a headache or become dizzy any more. My sleep does me a world of good, and I feel so well all the time my household work is a pleasure to me. Tanlac has helped me so much I would just love to tell everybody about it, and I am always recommending it to others."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas, and Lang's Drug Store, Esquimalt Road.

TOO MANY CHILDREN, SAANICH NOW SEEKS CHURCH FOR SCHOOL

April Figures Set Record and More Are Ready to Come In

Boys and girls getting their education in Saanich may have to go to church at least five days a week, as a result of action taken by the Saanich School Trustees last night.

The child population of Saanich is growing so rapidly that the trustees can find no place to put the children. April attendance figures with 1,576 set the record. Two hundred more children are ready to come into the schools after midsummer. Chairman P. C. Coates announced at last evening's meeting.

Trustee Harold M. Diggon told of how children are jammed even into the principal's office, and their hats and coats are thrown all over the floor. The desks are not fastened down, but slide around at the will of the pupils or as the teacher moves. So that two pupils can sit at the teacher's desk and partly in the cupboard, the door of the cupboard has been removed.

Pupils Build Own Schools? The Board instructed Trustee Diggon to try to get one of the churches in the Tillicum district for school use. Chairman Coates is to try to get one in the Mackenzie Avenue district.

Besides the church possibilities the Gary system is being investigated whereby children learn in shifts.

Chairman Coates said that pupils learning manual training might be used to build more school accommodation. He told how similar schemes are being worked elsewhere.

To Have Working Bee. Parents living near the North Dairy School appeared before the Board, and asked that they be allowed to clear land near the school so that they and their children might have a basketball court. The Board will buy the wood that is cut for school stoves, and the money will go to school sports. Plans for the working bee will be made at a meeting at the school Saturday afternoon.

The Board told the North Dairy people asking for a flag that flags these days cost $42.50, which is considered too much. It was said that the Government has refused to supply the school with a flag although it is supposed to.

Start School Library. There is even a shortage of bunting to stimulate patriotism in Saanich schools, it was said.

The Board was also asked for a library for the North Dairy School.

STRIKERS USE LAW AS WEAPON

Nominal Fine For Failing to Label Bread During Strike

Claiming that the striking bakers laid information out of sheer spite, and to aid them in their negotiations, Frank Higgins, K. C., asked Magistrate Jay this morning to impose minimum sentence in the case of the Rennie Bakery, charged with selling bread without the requisite labels required by law.

Mr. Higgins, counsel for the defence, rehearsed the struggle of the Master Bakers to keep up the production needed to supply even the hospitals and institutions of the district. The "Big Three"—Messrs. Shelly, Rennie and the Golden West Bakers—all combined their resources and took off their own coats in the struggle to turn out the bread necessary for the daily consumption of the residents of the city. Their work was impeded, claimed the counsel, by the fact that the striking bakers used every means in their power to induce the remainder of the men to walk out, to entice the drivers away from their vans, and generally to bring about a bread famine in the city.

The present situation, alleged Mr. Higgins, that the master bakers were using all necessary supplies, but had neither the time nor the opportunity to delay production urgently needed to stick on labels as required.

The offence was a technical one, claimed Mr. Higgins, and asked for a nominal fine.

The fine imposed and subsequently paid was $1. Prosecutor Harrison declined to press the charge, saying that he realized the situation, and the public need for bread, labels or without REACHED THE LIMIT.

If there is one thing on earth that young Mrs. Blake likes more than another, it is clothes—hats, frocks, coats, and—oh, all the rest of 'em. One morning she rushed into her hubby's private room at his office and burst out gleefully:

"I've just ordered the most beautiful hat to be sent home. It's a sweet thing, dearest, and only ten guineas. It's a perfect love!"

But "dearest" had reached his limit. Without raising his eyes from the letter he was reading, he replied: "I regret to have to tell you, my dear, that your love will be returned."

Carpentier Is a Regular Rascal When in Training

Georges Likes to Smoke, Dance, Eat Sweets, Sing and Cut Up When He Is Preparing for a Bout; Long Hours on the Road and a Training Camp in Wilds Does Not Suit Him

New York, May 11.—"There are no hard and fast rules about training," said Georges Carpentier, the French champion. "What food for one is poison for another, you know. It is all a matter of man, his mind, temperament, inclination, etc. No one system will do for all boxers. Each boxer must study himself and find out what best suits him. "Old-fashioned training methods," continued the French boxer, "from what I have observed and heard are passing out of existence on this side of the Atlantic just as they are in England and France. Boxers no longer have the same ideas about dieting and they have ceased to punish themselves with some of the rigors of old-time training. A boxer now eats what he feels like. If he wants vegetables he eats them. He is only careful that he gets plenty of solids much of their energy on the road. They left their speed on the road, yet wondered what was the matter with their footwork in the ring. Old champions used to continue their long long runs right up to the day of their encounter. Nowadays boxers realize that the long runs only are smothering the training; that as soon as the wind is gone and the muscles are hardened, too long runs do more harm than good."

So far Carpentier, in giving his ideas on training for the ring, only expressed the views accepted by modern trainers and physical culture experts on this side of the pond. When he was asked about smoking, however, his opinions were rather revolutionary.

Sure He Smokes.
"Do you smoke when in actual training?" was asked.

Georges inhaled from a cigarette and the interpreter's query and answered:

"Certainly. Why not? I am not a heavy smoker at any time. I do not smoke enough out of training to injure my throat membranes or my lungs. When in strict training if I feel the need of a cigarette I light one and find it quieting and soothing to the nerves. I wouldn't think of smoking a cigarette when arising in the morning or perhaps smoking immediately before a fight. But sometimes I don't know what I would do without my after-dinner cigarette. I might go days without touching a cigarette. But when the craving comes that I need one, why I satisfy the craving.

It certainly is more wearing on the nerves to combat the craving than it is to satisfy the longing. After a man has become addicted to the habit the strain of refraining from smoking is more injurious than perhaps slightly overindulging in it.

Short Training.

Another thing Carpentier is adverse to is too long training periods. He claims that six weeks is plenty enough to point any active boxer for a ring contest. Longer training periods only are for those whose long absence from the ring and cessation of active physical exercise demand it. "When a man is as active physically as I am," says Carpentier, "six weeks is plenty of time to fit him for a world's championship contest. To get the best result from training the period should bring joy and exhilaration. When in training I feel happy and joyous. Happiness and buoyant spirits are the offspring of health and good feeling. The minute I find the training grind getting boring I know I am showing a tendency to overdo things and am in danger of getting stale. When my work becomes difficult and it is an effort to go through by routine I know it is time to stop. So I drop things and forget all about training. Sometimes for a day or so and sometimes for a whole week at a time. Then when I resume I find I have my old pep and snap.

Likes to Dance.
"I mix up plenty of music, dancing and tomfoolery with my training. It finds it helps me. Likewise I find going to the theatre and an occasional dance or something during the training period are beneficial. That is why I prefer training quarters near some amusements rather than some place where one has to change or a relaxation. I want plenty of laughter and song around my training quarters. Many times Monsieur Deschamps hires a sparring partner, more for his entertaining abilities and his good nature than for his boxing abilities."

SENDS OUT CALL TO ALL STICK-HANDLERS

Lester Patrick Looking For Some-New Blood For Senior Team.

"I have a fairly good idea of the material which will be available for the world's champions this year, but I know there are a lot of young fellows in the city who have become fairly efficient in the handling of lacrosse sticks and who would like to mix with the senior amateurs but will not turn out owing to shyness or nervousness," said Lester Patrick, manager of the Mann cupholders this morning. "I wish to extend an invitation to every lacrosse player in Victoria to turn out to a practice tonight at the Royal Athletic Park. We are going to have a hard fight this year and will need the best team the city can assemble. To get that we must have all the available material to pick from."

This evening, at 8:30 o'clock, the Victoria team will have its first official work-out. Lester Patrick will be on hand to watch the players in action and will put them through their paces. The team is particularly favored in having such an astute leader as the renowned Lester at their head and he will be a big force in determining whether or not the Mann Cup remains in this city.

CRICKET MEETING.

A meeting will be held this evening at 8 o'clock of the Comrades Cricket Club. All intending players are requested to attend, also any returned men who are interested in cricket. The meeting will be held at the Comrades' Club rooms.

LOOKING THINGS OVER

Carpentier Changes the Old Order.
There's no two ways about it you've got to hand it to Georges Carpentier. When it comes to showing the western world style and class the European heavyweight is there like an Adonis. The wardrobe which in New York used to be the sporting world some time ago. A sports writer and after the go took a chance of receiving a lift from some chap who owned a hansom or coach and four, and there were a lot of them who had to ride the bumpers.

Getting Ready For School Sports.
In a few weeks the annual school sports will be held at the Willows track, and the public will be able to discover what kind of athletic material is being developed here. School athletics are essential. It is in the early days of a boy's life that he received the rudiments of training in various branches of sports. His muscles are young and need to be carefully watched and coached to determine what particular branch he is suited for. He may have the legs of a sprinter and again he may be the build of a miler or distance runner. Taken hold of at the proper time he can be developed and probably made into a world-beater. In Victoria, unfortunately, track athletics has been ignored, which is to be deplored. A few years ago the school sports produced many fine athletes who made records. The late Ray Brewster, when attending the Central School, ran the 100 yards in eleven seconds and gave promise of becoming a fine sprinter. Ronald Heater, a North Ward boy, made five feet three inches in the high jump, which was a Canadian record at that age. George Dickson was one of the finest all-around athletes who wore local school colors. He ran the 100 and 220 with the best of them, smashed records for the mile and three miles and was good at the high jump. It is hoped that in the future more attention will be paid to the Public School athletes.

BAYS' ROWERS READY FOR STARTER'S GUN

Six Heats and Final Race in Saturday's Regatta; Getting Ready For N.P.A.A.O.

Owing to the large number of entries in the Spring regatta of the J.B.A.A. which is to be held on Saturday afternoon over the harbor course, it will be necessary to row six heats and a final race. All heats will be pulled off on time and any crews which are not ready to take their boats on schedule are liable to forfeit the heat. This evening the crews will be drawn against each other, the heats arranged and the time for each heat announced. The crews have been practicing daily for the event, and all getting into good condition. The races are to be held over a three-quarter of a mile course and finish at the club boat house.

All the oarsmen are keen on the event and the new men are particularly anxious to participate in their first race. They are showing surprisingly good form, and the boating committee expects to have a difficult task in selecting the crews to represent the club in the N.P.A.A.O. regatta this year.

Pick Tentative Crews.

Early next week tentative crews will be picked to start training at once for the N.P.A.A.O. regatta. Owing to the large number rowing this year it has been decided to pick two junior crews and two 140-lb. crews for the four-oared races, and the same thing will be done as regards the sculling events.

After a few weeks' training and coaching these crews will be matched against each other and the winning crew to represent the club in the event. It must be distinctly understood, however, that each member of a crew must continue to show the highest possible standard, or else he is liable to be replaced by another member. The club captain is directly responsible for the crews and if he thinks that a man is not doing his best, it will not be long before a change is made in the boat.

Members not fortunate enough to catch places on the N.P.A.A.O. crews this year will still have the privilege of rowing at the club, and another regatta will be arranged to take place sometime in June for their benefit.

It must also be remembered that at the N.P.A.A.O. regatta to be held at Shawnigan Lake, July 16-17 that a series of races for club members will be arranged, so those not in selected crews can look forward to just as busy a season as those crews in training for the big regatta.

Recommend Open Seasons Be Named for Three Years

B. C. Game Conservation Board to Make Important Recommendations to Government—Will Help to Attract Big Game Hunters—Open Seasons Named for 1920

Important recommendations are to be made to the Government by the B. C. Game Conservation Board in regard to the fixing of the opening seasons for big game. Last week a meeting of the board was held in Vancouver and representatives of various game associations expressed their views in regard to the open seasons with the result that the B. C. Board has decided upon the recommendations to be made to the Government.

The board has decided upon the rules to govern the hunting of big game for 1920 and it will recommend to the government that these rules be effective for 1921 and 1922 as well. This will obviate the necessity of calling the board together each year to consider the season and will have a beneficial effect in bringing big game hunters to this province. Under the present system non-resident hunters are not in a position to arrange their trips a year or two in advance, but with the seasons set for three years it would enable these people to arrange their trips and make provision for guides and outfitters.

Only Two Goats.
Another recommendation to be made to the Government by the board will be the reduction from three to two mountain sheep north of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. In the East Kootenay the same limit will be in effect as last year.

The seasons to be recommended to the Government are as follows: Moose, bulls only. In Atlin, Fort George, Omineca and Cariboo electoral districts, open season from September 1 to December 15. In Columbia Electoral district the open season will be from October 1 to November 15.

Cariboo, bulls only. Throughout the Province, except south and east of the Canadian Northern Pacific Railway, the open season will be from September 1 to December 15. Mountain sheep, rams only. North of the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, open season from September 1 to November 15. In Columbia, Fernie and Cranbrook electoral districts, open season from October 1 to November 15.

Mountain goat. Throughout the Province open season from September 1 to December 15.

Bear. Throughout the Province, open season from September 1, 1920, to June 30, 1921.

Only One Game Played as Teams Made Long Jumps

Tacoma Badly Handled Beavers in Opening Game—Victoria Opens in Yakima This Afternoon and Spokane at Seattle—Tickets on Sale for Opening Game Here

Owing to Victoria and Spokane having to make long jumps only one game was played in the Pacific International League yesterday. The Tacoma Tigers went right after Bob Brown's Beavers and gave them their first trimming of the season. Victoria had to make the jump from Tacoma to Yakima and Spokane moved westward to open the series in Seattle and on this account the teams were unable to get into action. The second week of baseball will get underway this afternoon and a better idea will be obtained as to the ability of the various teams. The Beavers looked good last week while battling with Dave Hilliard's squad, but the Tigers put a different complexion on things.

Yakima has picked up four Coast Leaguers and the Capitals will have a busy time trying to take the series from Tealey Raymond, the fighting manager of the Yaks. Seattle is still weak and will probably find the going hard against Spokane. Efforts are being made to strengthen the Giants during the home series.

Tickets On Sale.

Grandstand tickets for the opening game here next Tuesday afternoon will be on sale to-morrow at O'Connell's, Strath's, Tighe & Wheeler's, Levy's Clear Stand, and Two Jack's Dope. Every arrangement is being made to take care of the vast crowd which will be in attendance. Fans who purchase tickets at the stores will be able to proceed direct to the grandstand and escape the jam around the box offices.

It is probable that a double-header will be played next week in order to pick up the Monday game, which has been cancelled owing to the Caps having to make the long jump back from Spokane.

Civic Half Holiday.

At the Council meeting last night Mayor Porter declared a civic half-holiday on Tuesday next. Many merchants in town are closing their stores from 2:30 o'clock until 5 o'clock in order that the staffs may see the game.

Through the courtesy of Brig.-General J. M. Ross, C. M. G., D. S. O., G. O. C., the headquarters staff of M. D. II will be given the afternoon off.

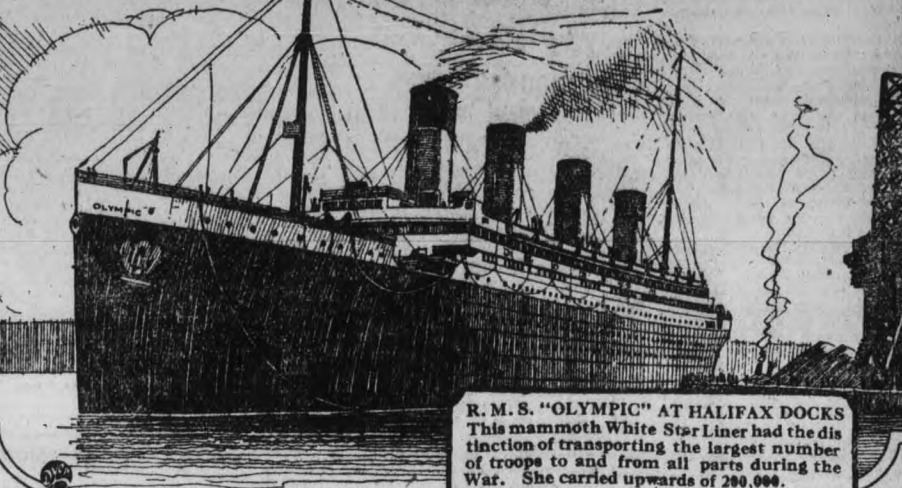

The School Board is to be approached by the directors of the club to have members of the Boys' Scouts and Boys' Naval Brigade released from school during the afternoon so that they can participate in the parade.

Band Leads Parade.

Lt. Bob Webb, who is arranging the parade, is still working on his plans. He states that the parade

STEWARDS STRIKE IS NOT GENERAL

Men of C.P.R. Boats Remain at Their Posts Despite Order

Although the threatened strike of ship stewards became effective this morning the response to the strike order was negligible and the passenger steamships operating out of this port are carrying full crews in the commissariat department.

"Everything is going along as usual," said Captain W. Froude, Manager of the B.C. Coast Steamship Service, when asked whether the strike order affected any of the company's ships. The C.P.R. has arrived at an agreement with its stewards along similar lines to that reached with the deckhands and firemen.

According to a dispatch from Vancouver, Fred Walsh, business agent of the union, announced that no call would be made by stewards on Canadian Pacific boats to quit work, pointing out that negotiations were under way. The strike is effective on Grand Trunk Pacific and Union Steamship Company's boats, but this will have practically no effect on the general situation, as the vessels of these fleets are tied up anyway by the seamen's and firemen's strike.

The move to establish a conciliation board is not favored by the steamship operators. The C.P.R. claims that its employees have no grievance although attempts are being made by a few agitators to foster discontent.

A full crew has been signed on the Princess Adelaide, which for some time has been out of commission undergoing overhaul and minor repairs, and to-night the steamship will resume her sailings in the night service to Vancouver.

Fishing Boats Lay Up.

New developments in the mainland strike situation include the extension of the strike of firemen to include the fishing vessels of the

New England Fish Company and the Canadian Fishing Company. "The fish companies will make no attempt to operate, but will tie up their boats as they arrive in Vancouver. It is stated that the fishing vessels has been running at a loss for several weeks past.

The Canadian Merchant Service Guild has passed the following resolution: "The masters and mates are recommended to attend to their regular duties as such, and further will see to the navigation of ships from port to port and look after mails and passengers only; but that it will be up to the company to have further work done on ships or in connection with driving winches or otherwise handling freight or baggage."

SCHOONER LADY MINE WILL SAIL NORTH FROM SOUND

The power-schooner Lady Mine, owned by the Lady Mine Shipping Company, is now at Seattle from Victoria, and will leave the Puget Sound port on Saturday for the North. The Lady Mine, commanded by Capt. W. H. Smith, will be operated out of Prince Rupert to Stewart, Hyder and Alice Arm.

TO INSPECT HATCHERIES.

KATORI WAS OFF ESTEVAN EARLY

Uncertainty Prevails As to Whether She Will Make Quarantine

The liner Katori Maru, inbound from the Orient, at 9 o'clock this morning was reported by wireless aboard the Estevan Point Station, heading for the Straits. Her master previously reported that he expected to reach William Head at 9 o'clock to-night. In view of the fact that she was off Estevan this morning there is a possibility that she may succeed in passing quarantine this evening. If she reaches quarantine before 7:35 p. m., official sun-down, practice will be granted.

Among the saloon passengers arriving by the Katori Maru will be Sir John and Lady Randles, who have been touring the Orient. Sir John Randles is chairman of the Workington Dock & Harbor Board and also chairman of the Workington Iron & Steel Company Ltd., as well as a director of various railways in England. He is also a politician and represented the Cockermouth constituency in the British House of Commons, and now sits for a Manchester division.

The Katori Maru has a cargo from China, Japan and the Philippines valued at $10,000,000, including 4,000 bales of raw silk valued at $3,000,000. For Victoria she has about 1,700 tons of freight and will be here discharging about two days. Eighty-six of the 300 passengers comprise Japanese tour parties.

The steamship Toyohashi Maru, on her first voyage in the N. Y. K. service to this port, sailed from Hongkong May 3. The Toyohashi Maru is due here June 16. She is preceded by the regular liner Suwa Maru, due May 31.

Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine and Naval Affairs, assured the deputations that their requests would receive the very earnest consideration of the government, which, indeed, already had these matters under advisement, and he hoped the result would be that building of ships in Canadian yards would be continued and the men employed in those yards would continue to receive employment at wages as good as they were receiving.

Sir George Foster pointed out that the government always was glad to have the views of different sections of the country made known, and that he had heard the case of the deputations and he assured his hearers he would give it every consideration.

If it was found impossible to go quite the length requested, he reminded them that the Government of Canada must be guided by world conditions as well as home, and that very few governments to-day were able to carry out one-half of the reconstruction work they wished to do.

Bound from this port for Sydney, N. S. W., the liner Makura, of the Canadian-Australasian fleet, sailed from Honolulu May 9.

GOVERNMENT FAVORS GRANTING SUBSIDIES FOR SHIPBUILDING

Cabinet Interviewed by Returned Soldiers Seeking Continuance of Industry

Ottawa, May 11.—Asking that the Government continue with a substantial shipbuilding programme, in order that as much work as possible be found for the men now employed in the various yards throughout the Dominion, a deputation of returned soldier workers, over 100 strong, waited upon Sir George Foster and members of his Cabinet yesterday.

In a memorandum submitted by the deputation it was said that the French Government was willing, if Canada would provide the credit, to place orders for merchant marine vessels which would be built in Canadian yards at high pressure for two or three years. The men also advocated extension of the merchant marine and the granting of Government subsidies to private enterprise which was willing to build this year.

Under Advisement.

Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine and Naval Affairs, assured the deputations that their requests would receive the very earnest consideration of the government, which, indeed, already had these matters under advisement, and he hoped the result would be that building of ships in Canadian yards would be continued and the men employed in those yards would continue to receive employment at wages as good as they were receiving.

Sir George Foster pointed out that the government always was glad to have the views of different sections of the country made known, and that he had heard the case of the deputations and he assured his hearers he would give it every consideration.

If it was found impossible to go quite the length requested, he reminded them that the Government of Canada must be guided by world conditions as well as home, and that very few governments to-day were able to carry out one-half of the reconstruction work they wished to do.

SHIPS FOR CANADA.

Sir George urged that instead of assisting other countries to build up a merchant marine, it was the duty of the Government to build ships in Canadian yards and for the expansion of Canada's trade, which expansion, he said, was about to grow to a considerable extent. It was for Parliament to decide between the subsidy and the credit method of assisting the industry and the balance seemed to be in favor of the former.

Gang Reported to Be Stealing From Cargoes on Ships Bound to Australia

London, May 11.—A dispatch to The London Times from Sydney, N. S. W., says that recent experiences have indicated that a gang of men with world-wide ramifications are engaged in stealing from cargoes on their way to Australia from English and American ports. The cost to transportation companies and merchants, it is said, has aggregated thousands of pounds sterling annually.

Other cases, supposed prior to shipment from the points of origin, during transmission and after arrival at destinations. At Sydney, 15,000 pounds worth of goods have been stolen since Christmas time and other ports have suffered in a similar manner. As an indication of the extent to which thieves are carrying out their work it may be mentioned that a piano shipped from London was taken from the shipping case and the case filled with bricks. Other cases, supposed to contain costumes of silk goods, arrived at their destination stuffed with newspapers, while boxes of merchandise from New York were filled with shavings.

Owing to the finesse of the thieves in extracting cases and refilling them, says the correspondent, it is almost impossible to detect those that have been tampered with. The correspondent asserts that a sea captain remarked when the situation was brought to his attention that "he was pleased to bring his vessel into port with his funnels intact."

NEW STEAMSHIPS TO ENTER P. & O. SERVICE

The offices of the Cunard Line, general representatives in the United Kingdom for the Peninsular & Oriental Steam Navigation Co., have been notified that two new P. & O. vessels, the Naldora and Narunda, have been reconditioned and have entered the Australian and East Indian service of the P. & O. These vessels were launched at Greenock in December of 1917, and during the war emergency were used for various naval purposes. They are now entering the service for which they were originally planned. Sister ships they are of 15,800 gross tons, with a length of 695 feet, a beam of 87 feet, and a depth of 47 feet 4 inches, and are driven by quadruple expansion reciprocating engines developing 18,000 h. p. and a sea speed of 18 1/2 knots. They have three funnels and a cruiser stern, being the earliest of the P. & O. steamers to be so designed. They are the first of a new series of six vessels which will greatly strengthen the P. & O. fleet.

BROOM TO BE DECORATIVE FEATURE OF PAGEANT PARADE

Broom is peculiarly Victoria's spring glory, adding a charm to this fair city unequalled in any part of this continent, and it is very fitting that the Victoria and Island Development Association has decided that the broom should be specially featured in the great Pageant to be staged by the Hudson's Bay Company on May 24.

This feature deserves the serious consideration of private car owners. Broom will be plentiful—the exertion necessary to decorate cars with this material will be trifling and the organizers of the Pageant will be much surprised if there are not at least twenty-five cars showing unique designs all worked in broom joining in the Pageant.

KIWANIAN LEADERS HEAR TALK ON PSYCHOLOGY

Dr. Butler Tells Club of Static Versus Dynamic Mentality

Contrasting the state of the human race to-day with the character of every woman in the photoplay of that name, Dr. Butler told the Kivanians to-day that the world was just coming to the realization of the New Virtue. Truth—and that it was this greater realization of the new virtue that would bring about the Golden Age—not Gabriel's Trumpet.

"We used to separate piety from business," said Dr. Butler. "Be pious on Sundays and Devilish every other day in the week." The world is coming to new conditions, awakening consciousness of the dignity of man. It is not his greatness, instill him with a sense of personal responsibility and dignity, instead of the old system of teaching him that he is weak, that he was made from the dust.

"The power of suggestion is one of the most vital forces in the study of the mind. We are going to see to it that it is only helpful suggestions that are put into the heads of men, suggestions that will help them to help themselves.

"The new virtue that is growing out of the power of service is to help man to help himself. Mind is the measure of the man, all things that he does or is passes through his mind and receives the imprint of his mentality, good or bad. All thought passes through the mind before it receives expression and becomes action.

"Mind is static, like a reservoir on a hill, a storehouse of latent power, which only needs to be turned into the proper channels to do the world's work. Thought is the same, provide the proper channels by correct education, the expression of the individual and original in humanity, and the new virtue, truth, will be the saving of the world.

Men With Blank Minds.

"All minds are not alike in capacity—storage room—some had originality and individuality, others were more or less blanks awaiting the guidance of another's brain.

"That is because we have heretofore treated man as an animal man and not as a creature fashioned on the very mold of the Divine Power Himself. We are going to appeal to the good in man make him a divine man—not an animal man—foster his originality, teach him to use his individuality, and acquire a sense of dignity, the dignity of creative instinct for good.

"Thought is the greatest power in the hands of humanity to-day, but the mind is static, it needs to be turned into the proper channels to become the great dynamic force, that is a limitless power in creative thought.

"Thought is mind in dynamic action, and receives the impress from the individual mentality, good or bad. We are going to see to it that that impress will be for good, a hallmark for God on the creative thoughts of the mind.

The Measure of Men.

"Mind is the measure of a man and to-day we measure men, not by their waist-line but by their hand-band.

"The world to-day is still in the transition period of the old and the new, the new thought and the overlapping of the old system with the new has produced chaos that will pass off leaving the Golden Age of man the creator, fashioned after his Maker."

Dr. Butler's address was received with close attention and he was accorded a distinct ovation on the conclusion of the period. Some eighty Kivanians were present, the attendance prize donated this week by Kivaniwan B. C. Nicholas, going to F. M. Killam, being a collar bag of generous proportions.

Dean Quinton suggested that the Kivanians enter a cricket challenge against the Rotarians, an idea that received the enthusiastic support of the assembly.

G. Swales treated the members to two vocal selections that were much appreciated, and the company did full justice to the playing of Mr. Heaton in the popular choruses.

How a Pipe Chokes.

Nanaimo—Anyone who wishes to pay a visit to the City Hall will find out one of the reasons why the quantity of water discharged from the South Forks pipe line has been so small. Waterworks Manager Sheppard has on exhibition an enormous quantity of foreign matter which he removed from a section of the pipe line at a point in the line between Extension Hill and the Nanaimo River. The obstruction consisting of a mass of vegetable matter, roots fibre and a parasitic growth that has the resemblance to the hide of an animal. From one section of pipe alone Mr. Sheppard removed enough material to nearly fill an express wagon, the growth apparently having had its inception through a small crevice in the pipe through which the roots of a tree had found its way and once inside the pipe had gathered substance and strength and added to itself until the pipe was almost completely blocked.

One looking at the material that has been taken from the pipe line would be led to wonder how any water whatever had flowed through the pipe.—Nanaimo Free Press.

Reception at Bastion.

Nanaimo—The newly organized Post of Native Daughters will hold a public reception in the Bastion on Wednesday, from 3 to 5 in the afternoon and from 8 to 10 in the evening. The entertainment committee, Miss Bet Wilcox, convener, will provide a continuous informal programme of vocal and instrumental music and Mrs. Thorpe with a large committee of helpers will serve dainty refreshments to all who attend. The room will be decorated with dogwood, the floral emblem of the coast.

To Improve Two Blocks.

A committee of the City Councillors interviewed Mr. Stewart, the local member, and the district engineer, Mr. Owens, on the B. C. Highways Act and its application to the city of Cumberland. After going over the subject thoroughly and taking into consideration the fact that the Government had done nothing in this connection last year, they decided that in the event of the city providing the necessary material for the work the Government would supply the labor in putting two blocks of the city streets in proper shape. This offer was accepted by the committee, and they have every reason to be satisfied with the arrangement.—Cumberland Islander.

The influence of a good woman on evil characters is an old song, tale and scenario. It began in the dim mysterious ages and continues unabated—because it is a true, authentic influence. The danger is that in presenting it, banalities both of spirit and of action will perforce emanate from the author. But Rex Beach, in his new picture, "The Girl From Outside," which is the attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre again tonight, has skillfully drawn the line just when necessary so that his theme, despite its antiquity, has a freshness and power all its own.

June, the "girl from outside," lands in the rough town of Nome in the gold-seeking days. She has been orphaned on the voyage to the port. Immediately on her entrance on the scene she is caught up in a destiny which involves a gang of crooks and also Denton, a gambler and crook who rules Nome. "The Curly Kid," the leader of the gang, falls in love with her, and it is not long before all the others do likewise. Denton, however, remains unchanged; and the conflict between the elemental forces of good and evil is intensified by the clash between "the curly kid" and his loyal henchmen and the "boss" who has no compromise possible, and Mr. Beach attempts none; his tale works out with the death both of the reformed gangster and the gambler. June, however, finds her happiness in the love of a man who has done much for her. "The Girl From Outside" is an artistic picture; it has atmosphere, action, logic, and beauty.

DOMINION

"Stronger Than Death," compelling in mystery and the dramatic thrill of the Far East, tells of a famous London dancer, Sigrid Fersen, played by Nazimova, who enters the British colony in a barracks town in India and immediately divides the community into factions—one hating and the other adoring her. She falls in love with an army physician, who goes about curing natives at the height of an epidemic of cholera. To shield the doctor after he has struck down the post commander, Sigrid consents to wed one Barclay, a hounder who treats to accuse the physician. But she becomes his wife in name only.

There is an uprising of the natives, incited by Vahana, high priest of the Temple, who seeks revenge on the whites for the defilement by one of them of the Bride of Vishnu, a native girl. As the revolt is nearing its climax, Sigrid goes to dance in the moonlight on the Temple steps. The Hindus mistake her for the goddess and carry her to the temple to be sacrificed to the aid of the imperiled colony. In the melee that follows, Barclay is slain and Sigrid finds her belated happiness with the doctor.

Nazimova, as Sigrid, has one of the strongest roles of her remarkable career—a role in which she runs the entire gamut of emotions. It also affords her opportunity for a display of artistic dancing for which she is famous.

In addition to this picture an excellent Sennett Comedy "The Star Boarder" is also shown.

VARIETY

"Man's Desire," starring Lewis S. Stone, distributed by Exhibitors Mutual, is a vivid drama of the timber country with a "kick" in every reel, and is showing at Variety Theatre. By "kick" is meant punch, and following out that line of thought "Man's Desire" at the present time, in some instances, seems to be concentrated on something with a "kick" and a "punch" to it. The k and p in this galvanic drama, however, leave

X-RAY FAILED

Mechanic Gives Evidence

There are cases where science in its most profound phases is absolutely balked, yet other help is at hand. This is proved by the testimony of a mechanic, 35 years of age, who suffered, at times, positive torture from stone in the bladder. After trying many remedies without result, he had an X-Ray photograph taken, which also failed to show where the trouble was. Fortunately, just at this juncture, when he almost had given up hope of any relief, Gin Pills were brought to his notice. These famous Pills in a very short time enabled him to pass the stone which was the cause of his trouble. We will give the name of this man on request.

Kidney and Bladder troubles should not be neglected. The first symptoms should be sufficient warning. Pain in the sides or back, constant headaches, neuralgic and sciatic pains, rheumatism, dizziness, constipation, gravel, highly-colored urine, specks before the eyes, all point to derangement. Gin Pills should be obtained without delay. Druggists and dealers carry them—50¢—your money refunded if not satisfied. Free sample on request.

no headache in their wake. The "desire" of Tom Denton was a normal, healthy and manly craving—to make a good woman happy. Tom had other desires, too, which were more or less praiseworthy. One was to "get" the accused crook who had killed his brother in cold blood and had terrorized the girl Tom wished to make happy, into a compulsory marriage with Tom Denton, a "straight shooter" in everything. He played square with his partner whose wife tried to vamp him. He played square with the girl whose brute of a husband mistreated her. He was a "straight shooter"—and a fast one—when he came up with "Bull" Larkin and "got" him with his shooter.

COLUMBIA

Constance Talmadge. Select's charming and winsome star, is ably directed in the latest Select Picture, "Experimental Marriage," by Robert G. Vignola, whose name on a production is the sign of a good picture.

Mr. Vignola had a string of seven years, during which time he has also had a wide and varied career as a director, producing many successful pictures, including Clara Kimball Young in "The Reason Why" and "The Claw," "The Vampires," "The Reward of Patience," "Great Expectations," "The Fortunes of Fifi," "Her Better Self" and "The Love That Lives." His skilful handling of the vivacious comedy-plus-drama, "Experimental Marriage," in which Constance Talmadge is presented by Lewis J. Selznick and which can be seen at the Columbia Theatre, stamps him as one of the foremost directors of the day. "Experimental Marriage," which is an adaptation of the stage play, "Saturday to Monday," by William J. Hurlbut, is a farce story of a woman's liberty after marriage, and is full of sprightly humor. Constance Talmadge is excellent in the characterization of Suzanne Ercoll, the widow who feared to marry again because she thought she would be compelled to sacrifice too much of her dearly prized liberty. Popular Harrison Ford again plays opposite Miss Talmadge. Walter Hler, Vera Sison, Edythe Chapman, Mayme Kelso and Raymond Hatton complete the cast.

Two Paramount Artercraft pictures recently completed are Robert Warwick in "The Fourteenth Man," Joseph Henabery directing, and Bryant Washburn in "What Happened to Jones," James Cruze directing. Both are founded on well-known successes, Robert Warwick's production being an adaptation of "The Man From Blankley's."

BOBBY VERNON SIGNS UP.

Bobby Vernon, who has long been a star comedian in Christie Film productions, has just made another contract with the Christie Film Company, having completed the previous arrangement whereby he was featured exclusively in Christie Comedies. Vernon's new contract with the Christie is understood to be for a period of several years. GOOD TALENT HOLDS BOARDS AT PANTAGES.

Six High Class Acts Comprise Current Vaudeville Show

Pantages show this week effervesces with entertainment of real merit. From the opening act by Carlita and Dick Lewis to the concluding musical satire "His Taking Way" the current bill is full of interest and may be summed up as one of the best all-round shows seen over the Pantages circuit this year.

Carlita and Dick Lewis open the show with a delightful vocal offering, "Luzon Love." The rippling notes of Carlita's high soprano are heard to advantage in "The Kiss Waltz," from Il Bacio, while Dick Lewis' rendition of "On the Road to Mandalay" is masterly. Aside from the vocal artistry the act offers a distinctive appeal by its attractive setting depicting Lovita's bungalow on the shores of Manila Bay. Both artists were accorded an enthusiastic curtain reception at the conclusion of their performance.

"The Unexpected Witness" is a comedy-dramatic playlet offered by William R. Abrams and Agnes Johns, is a vehicle admirably suited to the ability of these talented players. The playlet revolves about a trial in which Liz Higgins, assuming the guise of a Beverly girl, with the object of securing evidence for conviction, completely turns the tables on the judge while in his chamber awaiting the verdict of the jury. The playlet has its mistletoe and dramatic moments and the characters are skilfully portrayed.

Willie Holt Wakefield sings everyday songs for everyday folks and she makes a good impression, not only by her effective singing and manipulation of the piano keys, but also by her charming stage presence. Willie Holt Wakefield is assured an appreciative audience during her stay in Victoria.

An unusual singing and dancing and tumbling novelty is put on by Nevins and Gordan in "A Holland Hallowe'en." In conception and manner of presentation this act is surprising that could be desired and it is not surprising that the clever team wins instant favor.

Walter and Emily Walters are clever ventriloquists who depart from the stereotyped comedy. Walter is among the best in this particular line of entertainment and Emily makes the baby cry realistically.

Billy Kelly and Boyd Warren, with six girls, are featured in "His Taking Way," a musical satire on the movies. Billy Kelly is an amusing comedian who persistently demands that the studio girls "demonstrate" their ability.

The third episode of "The Adventures of Ruth," shows the heroine, after a series of exciting adventures, again in the toils.

Manufacturers Cut Down Overhead and Reduce Profits

New York, May 11.—Women will be able to buy their coats, suits, dresses and waists cheaper next Fall than they have been this Spring, if plans upon which manufacturers and retailers are now working mature. Two elements, outside of any reduction in labor or raw material costs, that may ensue between now and July, when the Fall manufacturing season will begin, are of prime importance in the plan. These are overhead expense and profits. Many manufacturers are preparing to cut down both of these items, and several larger ones have broached the subject to prominent retailers who are in accord with them.

START DRIVE TO KEEP MILK CLEAN

Council to Adopt System of Prosecuting Sellers of Dirty Milk

Alarmed by the continual reports from the Medical Health Officer, Dr. A. G. Price, that certain dairies were selling dirty milk, the City Council last night instructed the Health Committee to recommend some method whereby a "drive" on such establishments could be conducted. At present, it was explained to the Council, there is no by-law under which prosecutions can be made, and it is hoped that such an ordinance will be framed without delay.

Discussion on the perennial milk question arose last night when Dr. Price reported that twenty-four samples of milk tested by his department had been clean, three fairly clean and three dirty.

A Pertinent Query.

"What happens to these dirty people?" asked Alderman Patrick. "After their milk is seen to be impure are they allowed to continue to sell it?"

Month after month certain dealers are reported to be selling dirty milk—are they still in business?"

"We have no by-law by which to prosecute dealers selling unclean milk," replied Alderman Johns, chairman of the Health Committee.

"Will then, the sooner we get one the better?" exclaimed Alderman Patrick. "It's up to the Health Committee to bring in some measure to handle this situation so that the people of this town shall get proper milk."

Alderman Andros wondered whether the city was still publishing in the press the results of official milk tests, so that the public would see what dairies were selling dirty milk.

The Mayor replied that such publication was proceeding.

At the suggestion of Alderman Patrick, the Health Committee was instructed to report on some method whereby sellers of dirty milk could be prosecuted.

COUNCIL CHARY ABOUT SWIMMING BATH PLAN

Refuses to Deal with Mr. Best Until He Proves Financial Standing

Before the City Council will negotiate with the Seaview Pavilion Swimming Bath Company, which proposes to establish salt water baths near the new Stadium, the concern must show that it is backed by substantial capital.

This was the decision of the Mayor and aldermen last night when W. F. Best, representing the company, wrote to the Council suggesting that the city lay a salt water main from the sea at Dallas Road near Beacon Hill Park to the proposed site of the baths at the southwest corner of Belleville Street and Douglas Streets.

The estimated cost of such a pipe line, he said, was $19,000.

"The company agrees," wrote Mr. Best, "that as the building will cost over $30,000, not to ask the city to lay this water main until the sum of $40,000 has been expended on the baths. This will, of course, leave ample time for the city to have the mains laid by the time the building is completed."

Wants Referendum.

Mr. Best suggested that the Council submit to the ratepayers a referendum on the expenditure of the $19,000 along with the Municipal Golf Links Referendum.

Alderman Johns thought that the matter should be tabled until Mr. Best could show that he had capital behind him.

If the company spent $40,000 on establishing the bath pavilion, Alderman Andros felt, then the city would be safe in spending $19,000 on the pipe line.

Alderman Patrick pointed out that no agreement between the city and the company existed, as Mr. Best had claimed in an interview in the press.

As Alderman Johns' motion that the matter be laid over until Mr. Best could show that he enjoyed satisfactory financial support was passed, Alderman Fullerton urged the City Clerk to write to Mr. Best in a very guarded way so that the letter could not be used for stock selling purposes. He did not want the Bath Company to be able to utilize the letter as a "lever" for persuading the public to buy stock in the concern. "It's easy to see the purpose of Mr. Best's letter," he said significantly.

DISCRIMINATION IN BUILDING LICENSES IS CHARGED BY ALDERMAN

That discrimination is practiced by the civic authorities in granting building licenses was the charge voiced at the City Council meeting last night by Alderman W. F. Fullerton.

The Alderman's remarks were provoked by the Council's decision to force a concern, which is operating an automobile repair shop on Burdett Avenue, to close up, following the complaints of residents in the district and the report on the matter by the Fire Chief and Building Inspector.

"The Council doesn't act the same one day as another," asserted Alderman Fullerton. "If this repair shop were in my section of the city it would be allowed to continue, but as it is among the 'big wigs' as you might say, it cannot proceed."

TO ASK FOR POWER TO TAX HOUSEBOATS

The city has no power to levy a tax on people who live on houseboats along the waterfront, City Solicitor Fringle informed the City Council last night. The matter, he said, was purely within the jurisdiction of the Dominion Government.

"Well, we should go to the Dominion Government and get action," advised Alderman George Sargent. "We must have power to make these people help pay for the upkeep of the city."

This suggestion was adopted.

REFUSES TO DISCUSS PROPOSED NEW TAXES

Council Has No Use For Poll Tax and Increased Amusement Tax

So unsatisfactory does the City Council consider the Provincial Government's plan to relieve the financial position of British Columbia municipalities, that it declined last night to discuss the imposition of the $5 poll tax or the increase of the amusement tax. The matter may be revived again, but there appears to be no possibility that the proposed levies will be put into effect.

At the close of last night's meeting Mayor Porter suggested that the Council decide definitely whether it would enforce the new taxes or not. He thought that a special meeting of the Council might be held to discuss the matter.

"Discuss it right now, it won't take long to pass judgment," urged Alderman Fullerton.

"Why consider it at all?" demanded Alderman Patrick. "We've all considered it in our own minds and I dare say, are unanimous on the subject."

"Well, I thought we should dispose of it so that the Government will not be able to say when we meet it again next year, 'We gave you extra revenue and you refused to take it,'" replied the Mayor.

SELL CITY BONDS TO CITY PEOPLE

Victorians to Be Asked to Purchase Corporation Debentures

Debentures aggregating $45,000 and issued to pay for the work of paving Fairfield Road will be sold to the citizens of Victoria over the counter in the City Treasurer's office, the City Council was informed last night by Alderman Sargent, chairman of the Finance Committee.

The whole matter was left in the hands of the Finance Committee, which was urged, however, to sell the bonds with interest at six per cent. instead of five and a half per cent. in order that they might be disposed of at par.

To Our Own People.

"We should sell these bonds at six per cent. instead of five and a half per cent. and sell them at par," urged Alderman Todd. "We should make a determined attempt to sell our bonds to our own people. They will buy them. We should make money if we increase the interest to six per cent. If we had stuck to the policy of selling to our people this city would be in a different position than it is to-day."

CATERPILLAR ASSAULT WILL NOT BE CHECKED

Council Decides It Cannot Hope to Cope With Pest This Year

Caterpillars will have their own way in Victoria this year as far as the City Council is concerned, that body decided last night. Some of the aldermen made a half-hearted attempt to get some official action to counteract the efforts of the pest, but the majority felt that protection from crawling defoliators was everyone's job. Expenditure of the city's money in conducting a campaign against the caterpillars, they said, would be simply unparadonable waste.

BAKER STRIKERS PLEAD

But Cake Makers Decide They Will Stick to Open Shop and Support "Big Three."

Striking bakers, defeated in their struggle with the "big three" bread makers, appeared before the Cake Makers' Association last night and headed by Harry Jacque pleaded for a compromise settlement with the smaller plants.

The cake makers, however, stood firm for the open shop and support of the "big three" in their refraining from having any negotiations whatever with the strikers and operating their shops with newly trained employees. The cake makers declared that such a compromise as the strikers proposed to get their jobs back, would boost the price of food to the consumer.

H. N. Fynn, secretary of the meeting, issued a statement afterwards in which he says the strikers under Harry Jacque admitted that the statements they gave out for publication were "exaggerated" and that they had been guilty of using sandwich board propaganda, which they now regret.

"PRETTY FANNY" AND "CUPID."

Mr. Balfour was called "Arthur" or "Prince Arthur" by his admirers, and sometimes "Pretty Fanny" by the rest.

The "G.O.M." was much in favor in Gladstone's time, though he was occasionally called "the Gladder" or "W.E.G." by the less appreciative. Disraeli was still "Dizzy" even after he acquired an earldom, but it is open to question whether anyone tried to coin a nickname for Lord Salisbury. Palmerston was "Pan" or "Cupid." Lord John Russell was "Johnny."—Tit-Bits.

The best way out of a difficulty is through it.
