BRITAIN URGES NEW GERMAN REPARATION OFFER

ROME GAVE A WARM WELCOME TO BRITISH KING AND QUEEN TO-DAY

Italian King and Queen and Members of Cabinet Met Them at Railway Station; Throngs in Streets Cheered the Royal Visitors; Flags of Two Countries Displayed.

Rome, May 7.—King George and Queen Mary arrived in Rome at three o'clock this afternoon on their long-planned visit to Italy.

King Victor Emmanuel, Queen Elena, Crown Prince Humbert and the other royal princes and princesses greeted them at the station. Also included in the welcoming party were the members of the Cabinet, headed by Premier Mussolini, General Diaz and Admiral De Reval, representing the army and navy, the Presidents of the Senate and Chamber, the members of the British embassy staff, with their wives.

The station was profusely decorated with flowers and the flags of Great Britain and Italy, while from the train to the royal waiting room—members of the Fascist line—the station and an infantry company, with its band, rendered military honors.

King George appeared in full dress uniform as the royal carriages stopped and was greeted with tremendous cheering. He quickly stepped down, followed by Queen Mary, and the British and Italian sovereigns warmly embraced. King Victor Emmanuel presented the leading members of the welcoming party to the British royals, after which King George reviewed the infantry, while the band played the British National Anthem.

From the station to the Quirinal Palace the public squares were crowded with applauding people and the buildings along the route were decorated with flags and flowers. Signor Royal Commissioner of the municipality met the sovereigns in the historical galleys of the city and welcomed them to the city. The royal cortege, preceded and followed by cuirassiers in their shining breastplates and helmets, presented a brilliant and imposing spectacle. The square facing the royal palace was filled with an immense crowd and in response to its applause King George and Queen Mary, accompanied by the Italian sovereigns, appeared on the balcony.

A dispatch from Modena, France, last night said: King George and Queen Mary of Great Britain arrived through here about 5 o'clock this evening on their way to Rome, where they will be the guests of the Italian sovereigns at the palace.

The station was decorated with British, French and Italian flags, while a beautiful bouquet of Alpine flowers from the mountains of Savoy, from the mayor of the city, together with some lovely Spring blossoms from the Italian colony here, were handed to Queen Mary. French and Italian officials were present at the station and Count Carlo Maccehi di Cellere, Master of Ceremonies at the Italian Court, welcomed the royal visitors in the name of the King and Queen of Italy.

Their Majesties' special cars were detached from the French train and attached to the Italian royal train, which had been sent to the frontier to meet them. The engine was driven by the Chief Engineer of the Italian railways, and was decorated with British and Italian flags.

A. Barnard, K.C., the Montreal lawyer representing the interests of the Canadian financiers, who own approximately ten per cent. of the syndicate's stock. A story recently appeared in the New York World to the effect that "Canadian capital was likely to become a contender for ownership of the concession and that an appeal might be made to the courts."

Peking, May 7.—Reports trickling in here slowly to-day from the Shantung border at Linchong, where early yesterday 1,000 bandits seized the Shanghai-Peking express train on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway and took captive 150 of its passengers, indicate that one foreigner, a British subject named Rothman, was killed and that a number of Americans, probably all men, stood in peril at the mercy of the brigands this afternoon. Troops were believed to be pursuing the bandit army.

Among the Americans reported held were Robert Scripps, the newspaper publisher; Major Pinger and two other officers of the American army named Roland and Allen, all three in the Philippine service, and four others whose names were given as Henley, Lee, Solomon and Levy.

The passengers included thirty-nine foreigners, and ten of them escaped or were released. The forward part of the train by means of a broken track, fired a volley toward the coaches. Major Pinger's two sons also were taken prisoner, but Mrs. Pinger escaped. The captives included E. Powell, editor of The Weekly Review at Shanghai.

ISSUES CHALLENGE BACKING VERACITY OF HEALING CASES

Rev. Dr. W. J. Sipprell Challenge Critics of Dr. Price Mission

Dr. Price Has 6,000 at Opening Meeting in Vancouver

Owing to comment of a sceptical character by persons in this city, and because of distorted verbal statements concerning the various cases that were apparently healed during the Rev. Dr. C. S. Price campaign, now being circulated in Victoria, Rev. Dr. W. J. Sipprell, Pastor of the Metropolitan Church, made a challenge from his pulpit last night to the doctors of this city or anyone who might be doubtful as to the authenticity of the reported healings.

Many telephone calls have come to Dr. Sipprell during the past week to the effect that persons reported to have been cured are now worse than they were before the evangelist came to town. Particularly was this the circumstance in one case where it was reported that a woman was in a condition much worse than that before the evangelist came. Investigating the matter, and visiting the woman in question, Dr. Sipprell discovered that the lady was just as well as she had been after she had been prayed for, and apparently healed. She was now up and doing her house work and visiting her friends, Dr. Sipprell said.

LABOR LEADERS MET GOVERNOR

Workers' Representatives Had Luncheon at Ontario Government House

Tom Moore Urged Unity Among Canadian People

Toronto, May 7.—Canadian and local labor leaders to the number of 150 launched Saturday with Colonel Harry Cocksbutt, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, in doing so they honored the first time a crown representative had invited the recognized leaders of labor to dine at his table.

Beside the Lieutenant-Governor sat Tom Moore, president of Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, and near the head of the table were Hon. William Rolfe, Minister of Labor; Hon. Henry Mills, Minister of Mines; Senator G. D. Robertson, Controller Gibbons, Toronto; Alderman Roberts, Toronto; Bert Merson and Tom Black, Toronto. After the toast to the King had been honored, the lieutenant-governor proposed a toast to Canada and Tom Moore and Senator Robertson replied.

Mr. Moore rejoiced that so many labor men in official and public posts were present, "all of them carrying their union cards in their pockets still."

"The Lieutenant-Governor has done us a favor in inviting us here to-day so we can get acquainted with him and give him some of our ideas and sympathy with labor," he said. "He has not taken advantage of his exalted position to seclude himself from the trials and troubles, the strife and struggles of the ordinary people. We must, in the interest of our Canada, set aside envy and hatred and go forward unitedly for the good of our country, doing our duty as citizens and bearing our responsibilities."

Senator Robertson declared that it had been found essential in Canada, as in other lands, that workers should unite and organize to maintain a proper standard of living. He sounded a note of warning that Labor must not progress too fast. It should not bring embarrassment but should progress at a steady pace, and one that would build the confidence of all classes.

"Reference has been made to our being democratic," Colonel Cocksbutt said in responding to a toast in his honor.

"Why should we not be? We are all Canadians. We are all together. I never entered Government House until I was sworn in. I was one of you until that time, and I am still with you. I have a sympathy with labor. I have worked in a smith shop and in a machine shop in the Cocksbutt works at Brantford. I had a father who told me I would have to work to keep myself. So I learned to work."

"My object in getting you here to-day is to meet you, to talk to you, to get acquainted. We may read about each other in the papers, but my idea is to get in personal contact."

"My ambition is to see harmony, peace and good will prevail, not in Ontario only, but in all Canada. I don't want to be provincial. Let us approach our problems in a spirit of union and harmony, and do what we can for the good of our country. We wipe out race and creed prejudices. Humanity stands first. Let us be men and work for the good of all."

I couldn't eat my food, many days I didn't eat a thing, and lost weight until my clothes were way too large for me. I had piercing headaches, was so weak I would give out before the middle of the day, and at night just seemed to hear the clock strike every hour. I suffered more agony than tongue can tell.

"But Tanlac ended all my troubles, and if I had my say I would put a bottle in every home. It has won my everlasting gratitude, and I will always praise it."

PROHIBITION CAMPAIGN AN ISSUE BEFORE PEOPLE, SAYS CHRISTIAN GUARDIAN

Toronto, May 7.—The Christian Guardian, organ of the Methodist Church in Canada, says editorially this week, under the heading, "The Great Issue."

"It will be contended by some that prohibition is not an issue in the Ontario general election and that temperance men have no right to drag it into the Moderation League of Ontario does not share this view. DRAFT PROGRAMME OF ROADS CONGRESS IS NOW PREPARED

The tentative programme of the tenth annual convention of the Canadian Good Roads Association, to be held at the Royal Connaught Hotel, Hamilton, Ont., June 11, 12, 13 and 14, has been drawn up by the executive and indicates the wide scope of the subjects for discussion by the delegates. Every phase of the road problem from construction to use and maintenance, will be dealt with in the papers that will be submitted by eminent authorities, and the various provinces will be able to utilize their appropriation under the Dominion Highways Act will be an additional important feature in the papers on "Who Shall Pay for the Roads?" which will not only deal with the most equitable manner of distributing the cost, but also bring to the whole question of Federal as well as provincial aid to the municipalities in road construction and maintenance. There is a strong feeling throughout all the provinces in favor of an additional Federal grant, and it is probable that the convention will decide to make strong representations to the Government in this regard. Those provinces which have undertaken the construction of provincial systems of highways of permanent types will lay before the convention details of their work, while there will also be papers dealing with the important question of maintenance, covering not only the best methods of maintaining all types of roads and the merits of an effective patrol system for repairs, but also dealing in a concise way with the maintenance of the highways by highway engineers for reference purposes.

The proper use of the highway will be another important subject, divided into several sub-sections which include improved methods for the regulation of traffic, the use of motor trucks, headlight regulations, lights on all vehicles, illuminated and unilluminated, signals and uniform hand signals. The executive in placing this subject on the programme felt that the proper use of the highway is one of the most important factors in the proper construction of it in order to arrive at the economic factor in highway improvement. The official programme of the convention will be under all sorts of conditions that have been carried out in the United States by the various governments and state highway boards will provide a lot of data and information, and this subject will be dealt with in an illustrated lecture. Other papers will include methods for reconstructing old macadam roads, metal and other types of culverts, the use of refined tar in road construction and maintenance, the utility of single track cement concrete roads, bituminous surfaces, tourist traffic, and something about the contractor and his worries.

The official slogan of the convention will be "Adequate Maintenance Means Road Economy," it being the desire of the association to disseminate all the information possible regarding the most effective means of keeping highways in good condition. A subject which most provinces are at the present time the closest attention to. Delegates will not only be able to discuss these matters, but will make official tours of inspection over parts of the Ontario highway system and see for themselves what is being done. On the first afternoon cars will be provided to take all delegates for a sixty-mile drive to Galt, Guelph and Kitchener over concrete, heavy bituminous, graded gravel and asphaltic constructions. On the Thursday afternoon the drive will be to Niagara Falls, Queenstown and Brock's Monument, traveling over roads built seven years ago of asphaltic concrete by the penetration method, and the delegates will see the use of cement concrete on grades, as well as some very fine gravel roads.

Owing to the brevity of the season it is probable the delegates will be in the Niagara fruit district around Blossom Sunday. If they are they will see a unique sight.

It is indicative of the progress made in improved highways that many of the delegates from the maritime provinces, Quebec, Ontario and the United States will go to the convention by automobile this year. The Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, Col. Harry Cocksbutt, has been invited to be the president of the convention. The Engineering Bureau of Standards, which met in Ottawa recently in connection with the Federal aid delegation, has appointed a number of committees to study the question of standardizing traffic signals and signs, and they will hold their next conference at Hamilton during the convention.

The various committees for the convention are now being appointed, and a specially strong ladies' committee has been formed to ensure a round of entertainment for the wives of the delegates during the time the latter are engaged in the business sessions of the convention.

URGE LOWER LAKE FREIGHT RATES

Manitoba M.P.P.'s Wish Federal Government to Act

Winnipeg, May 7.—Before the Manitoba Legislature prorogued Saturday, a resolution proposed by Premier Bracken calling on the Dominion Government to suspend the Dominion coasting regulations and take steps to ensure fair and equitable lake freight rates was unanimously passed.

Establishment of a body similar to the Railway Commission to control ocean and lake freight charges was urged by Robert Jacob.

Attacks on the lake shippers were made by Premier Bracken and Mr. Jacob when dealing with the lake freight rate resolution. The Premier declared the farmers had lost $20,000,000 through the increasing of rates last fall. Mr. Jacob asserted a combination of the most vicious nature appeared to exist, and he urged the Dominion Government to act fearlessly and ruthlessly in destroying the present monopoly.

Premier Bracken said it had been estimated that restoration of the Crow's Nest Pass Agreement last year had saved the farmers of the prairies $20,000,000 on freight rates, but that saving had been practically lost through increased lake freight rates brought about by a combination of three shipping concerns and the lack of competition and the Canadian coasting regulations.

The producer had no say in the fixing of rates. The Premier declared the remedy for the situation was with the Dominion Government and he thought immediate action should be taken.

F. J. Dixon, leader of the Labor Party, said the Dominion Government should use its own ships to break up the combination on the lakes. He heard Government ships were tied up at docks now, and that the Government proposed to sell them. He was opposed to such action.

The New Roads did it

"Why, Jim, when did you start riding a bicycle? I thought you took your exercise in an easy chair."

"Surprised, eh, Fred? Well, I've just been riding a short time. It was the new roads that did the trick."

"What roads?"

"Why, man alive, have you been asleep? Haven't you seen those wonderful new highways the Government has been spending millions of dollars on?"

"Gee, you make a fellow anxious to get out on those new roads, too."

"Why not get a bicycle and come along with me, Fred? Come and breathe the clover-laden breezes. And see the fields sprout up this spring. And the grain ripen golden in the fall. I know some pools where there's a fish or two. And some places where the mushrooms grow. We'll take our bicycles along next vacation, too."

"You've sure got me going, Jim."

"Well, now I've got you going. I want to steer you right. Let me whisper a word of advice. Get a C.C.M. Bicycle."

"Why, what's the difference?"

A Peppy Bike

"For one thing, there's the Triplex Hanger. No other bike has it. The Triplex responds to the slightest pressure on the pedals. You start easier. Get under way faster. Every bit of weight you put on the pedals counts for speed. The Triplex Hanger is sure a peppy power plant."

The New Pedal

"There's the new Gibson Pedal, too. A beauty! Aluminum frame that looks like silver and cannot rust. Strong, yet wonderfully light. Watch how she spins. And see how perfectly it fits the foot."

Like A Toboggan

"They've cut down the big hills, too, Fred. The new grades are easier to climb. As for coasting—you can let her go now just like a toboggan. And, say, it's great to feel the wind in your face and to see the trees whizzing by. And, after you reach the bottom you shoot on—and on—and on! You'd never believe you could coast so far unless you'd tried it yourself."

Bottom Prices

"Go down and get your C.C.M. now and come out for a ride. You can easily afford one—C.C.M. Bicycles are almost down to pre-war prices; $15 to $20 less than the 'peak' prices. They've hit the bottom for a quality bicycle."

ANGLO-AMERICAN RELATIONS.

According to the 1922 report of the Sulgrave Institution of the United States relations between Great Britain and our neighbor are distinctly less friendly than they have been at any time in the last eight or nine years.

The brief dispatch from New York which gives this interesting information to the world does not indicate the manner in which the conclusions have been reached. On that account it may be unwise and unfair to challenge such surprising statements.

Great Britain and the United States will have differences of opinion. There will be diplomatic rows on lines which families always take. They are privileged to call one another names.

Great Britain and the United States will have differences of opinion. There will be diplomatic rows on lines which families always take. They are privileged to call one another names.

ADVERTISING THE PROVINCE.

In conducting a tour of Britain by some of its most influential members the Vancouver Board of Trade is performing an important service to this Province as a whole.

Commercial British Columbia in its varied aspects is influentially represented in the party which left for the Old Country on Saturday.

Personal contact with industrial leaders in Great Britain is the most effective way of conveying some idea of the opportunities that British Columbia has to offer.

It is fortunate that the delegates are fully conversant with conditions throughout British Columbia as a whole.

AN IDLE THREAT.

If Great Britain breaks off political and trade relations with Soviet Russia, out of protest against the recent murders of Russian priests and breaches of the trade agreement, the British Empire will be little the worse for it under present conditions.

NEW YORK STATE'S ACTION.

If the State of New York withdraws its active co-operation in the matter of enforcing the Volstead Act it goes without saying that the Administration at Washington will find it still more difficult to keep that part of the country "dry."

The measure repealing the State Prohibition Enforcement Act already has passed through the Legislature and Senate at Albany and it is hardly to be expected that Governor Smith—by no means a hard and fast prohibitionist—will refuse to append the gubernatorial signature.

In view of the "activity" which goes on in deep water within sight of Manhattan it is easy to understand what this new development may mean to the Federal authorities.

As the most populous and wealthiest State in the Union the example set by New York may well react upon other parts of the country.

On the other hand the case in point will be viewed more seriously than the opinion of other countries.

CITY HALL SYSTEMS.

If the City of Victoria can economize by spending a liberal sum upon new blood in the Comptroller's office there is everything in favor of such a course being taken.

Shortages in the draft estimates for the ensuing year obviously disclose faults in the system that is now doing duty at the City Hall.

In any case the cause of good government and sane economy must be served. Due regard for the efficiency of the vital services should also be paid.

A LITTLE EXAGGERATED?

According to the opinion of a Victoria citizen who has just returned from Great Britain the Province of British Columbia is "distinctly out of it" as far as obtaining more settlers from the Old Country is concerned.

To take such a conclusion seriously would be to discount the work that has been put in by Agent-General Wade and Mr. Pattullo.

Thus in spite of the considered judgment by one so recently on the spot we shall agree to differ and suggest that there is a very considerable interest being manifested in this Province by people who are ready to leave Britain for Canada.

NOTE AND COMMENT

It is to be hoped that Victoria will turn out in large numbers at Sidney to-morrow at noon in order to welcome our friends from the neighboring State. This is an important event in itself and a reminder of re-awakened activity in the realm of international tourist travel.

We are informed from Paris that the French have perfected a gun that will shoot a death-dealing projectile for a distance of something like one hundred miles.

A French aviator has crossed the English Channel in an aeroplane of less than fifteen horsepower and with less than half a gallon of gasoline.

Trades Union membership in Great Britain has fallen in the last two years from 6,500,000 to a little over 5,000,000 and the Trades Union Congress is beginning to campaign to increase it.

The Great War Veterans' Association is nothing if not courageous and persevering. The Dominion Command is going to get action on the findings of the Royal Commission on pensions by camping on the doorstep of the Pensions Office at Ottawa.

OUR CONTEMPORARIES

HAD $90 WORTH ON SMALL WAGON LOAD. Monitor Enterprise—Martin Thompson brought in a load of grass seed and poultry last Tuesday, which he says weighed under 800 lbs. and was worth around $90.

OLEO IN ALBERTA.

Red Deer News—Although we have a farmer government, a government that should shove all things stand shoulder to shoulder behind the farmer and the dairy industry, the greatest blow ever administered to this industry was given when the majority vote was passed favoring the manufacture and importation of oleomargarine into Canada.

DUNCAN CAMPING SITE

To the Editor—In your issue of Monday last, under a heading with reference to Island camping sites, you state that the camp site in this city "may or may not be available during the coming season."

The Duncan camp site will be open this year to tourists on payment of a very small charge. It is to be equipped with many conveniences and will be in charge of a caretaker.

LIQUOR SALES FOR DEEP SEA BOTTOMS

Vancouver, May 7.—A good deal of misapprehension seems to exist with regard to the recent action of the Liquor Control Board in undertaking to sell liquor to deep sea vessels.

The Franco-Pacific lines heretofore either imported their own "in bond" liquor from the distillers for the supplying of their ships, or they purchased "in bond" liquor from export liquor concerns on the coast of British Columbia.

hence the discrepancy in price as against the ordinary retail price per bottle at the stores. The suggestion of some fertile imagination that the Board is endeavoring to encourage shipping to call at British Columbia ports by supplying them with liquor at a low price is, of course, ridiculous.

PASTOR ASKS ABOUT CHURCH'S FUTURE

Montreal, May 7.—If the proposed church union bill is passed by Parliament and the disruption of the Presbyterian Church, which the anti-unionists claim is inevitable, occurs, what then? This question was asked by Rev. F. G. Short, of Olds, Alta., at a public meeting under the auspices of the Women's League of the Presbyterian Church Association here on Saturday night.

TO PRESENT UNIQUE LIVING PICTURE

Gonzales Chapter, I. O. O. F., has undertaken to furnish the two sun-rooms at the new Jubilee Hospital. The cost will be at least $2,000, and to help raise this money the members are busy in the preparation of a unique and most fascinating entertainment. The main feature is the living pictures, which are to be exact reproductions of all the periods from the Egyptian frieze down to the works of modern painters. An artist is at work painting the backgrounds, and every detail of color and pose are to be exact. Besides the living pictures there will be a one-act play, vocal and instrumental music and some charming dancing. The object is a very worthy one, and the production delightful in every detail, so the members are expecting a crowded house on the evenings of May 28 and 29.

Hospital Auxiliary Has Stand in David Spencer's, Ltd.

The work of the Women's Auxiliary to the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital in providing "extras" as well as articles which might be deemed necessary for the institution is so well-known that a recital of its accomplishment is unnecessary. One of the chief sources of revenue of the Auxiliary lies in the membership fees, and this week an attempt is being made to obtain all the fees due for 1923. For this purpose Mrs. Hermann Robertson has arranged a stand in David Spencer's, Ltd., by kind permission of the management, where two members of the Auxiliary will be in attendance each day from 10 until 6 o'clock to receive dues, also new memberships.

GAVE FINE CONCERT

A remarkably good concert was given by the students of St. Margaret's School on Friday evening, and was very much enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. Among the items of special interest were: Nona Twigg's rendering of the Brahms' Rhapsody and Irma Haskamp's "March Wind" (Macdowell). The former's splendid work merits great praise. Her feats of memory and mature musicianship in one so young were truly remarkable. Irma Haskamp also won great applause for her delicate touch and fine technique.

Those taking part in the programme were: Nora Wilson, Katherine Poole, Gertrude Hyndman, Marie Tolson, Margaret Mackenzie, Gretchen Johnson, Pauline Macdonald, Irma Haskamp, Mollie Sharps, Sylvia Taylor, Louise Campbell, Adelaide Atkinson, Sheila Fiddall, Isabel Munn, Irene Quelch, Nona Quigg, Desirée Wolff, Elsie Sinclair, Doreen Ashburnham and Miss Long.

NATIONAL HOSPITAL DAY

The Provincial Royal Jubilee and St. Joseph's Hospitals are making arrangements for visitors to these institutions on Saturday in connection with National Hospital Day.

The illustration shows the suggested new wing for the fifteenth century-banqueting hall of the famous Crosby Hall at Chelsea, London, which is to be used as an international hostel by the British Federation of University Women. The hall is an ancient and historic structure and was removed from the City of London some years before the war.

Unusually attractive were the floral adornments in the various rooms, large bouquets of tulips, lilies and other Spring blooms having been arranged with effectiveness. Their Excellencies received the guests, which numbered over 200, in the hall adjoining the blue room. Captain the Hon. W. Joliffe, A.O.C., was in attendance, and the other members of the staff of 1215. Excellencies were also present. Lady Byng was wearing a handsomely modelled gown of mole colored panne velvet with a silver cloth girdle. Miss Walpole was present and assisted the staff in looking after the comfort and enjoyment of the guests. Miss Walpole was in a gown of black-crepe-de-Chine with linings of grey, and long flowing sleeves. Mrs. Arthur Sinden and Mrs. Willis O'Connor, wives of other members of the staff, were also present.—Ottawa Citizen.

reason, the pastor felt, that people should lack faith in the power of God because there had been a few failures owing to the lack of faith on the part of those being prayed for.

It was during his sermon on the subject "Jesus" that Dr. Sippell made the following statement: "I would be glad to take any person in the congregation, medical or otherwise, to interview persons who claim to be entirely healed, of lame who could walk, of blind who could see, of deaf who claimed to hear and of other cases that have been under the care of medical practitioners for years and that were regarded by them as practically hopeless, persons were now not at their work in their homes enjoying a measure of health they have not enjoyed for years." This challenge was greeted with vociferous applause from those who packed the church to almost its capacity.

Dr. Price telephoned from Vancouver to Dr. Sippell at 12 o'clock on Sunday afternoon that he had 8,000 people at his afternoon and evening service, while the answer to the altar call on Sunday afternoon surprised 400 young people coming forward. The excursion which was to go to Vancouver on Wednesday conveying some 400 persons to the Dr. Price campaign at the Terminal City has been cancelled owing to insufficient guarantees.

Opens in Vancouver—Vancouver, May 7.—Confidently predicting that Vancouver will see the deaf made to hear, the blind to see, the paralyzed to walk and invalids restored to health and that these modern miracles will be performed before the eyes of the thousands attending the revival meetings here, Rev. C. S. Price, evangelist, opened a three-weeks' campaign in the Arena yesterday.

Referring to the case of Miss Dimmick in Victoria, daughter of Rev. F. Dimmick, in which paralysis of the leg had been cured, the evangelist stated that doctors had examined the muscles and bones of the limb and pronounced the restoration perfect, yet they were unwilling to give credit to Divine power.

YOUR HOME AND YOU

By HELEN KENDALL

A White Picket Fence

The street was pleasant and commonplace, as we passed down its discreet pavement. Concrete paths led from the concrete sidewalk to the pleasant, commonplace front porches—sometimes glassed in, sometimes not—and patches of lawn on either side were dotted with shrubs and an occasional flower bed.

And then we stopped short, caught one another by the arm, and said in unison: "Oh, look at that! Did you ever, in all your life....." and all the rest of it. For there, wedged in between the polite, proper, dignified dwellings, was a saucy little white cottage behind a saucy white fence—the kind of white fence you love to take hold of, pull yourself up by, and look over. Flowers were thrusting their bright heads through the pickets, trying to see what was going on out in the street (the flowers at the fenceless places could see and didn't care), and a crooked little bricked walk led beyond the curved white picket gate up to a white diamond-paned door.

Well, it was charming, that's all. We walked very slowly past, frankly admiring.

"It isn't the house," we told each other. "It's an ordinary enough little white cottage. The diamond panes are the only thing that makes it specially attractive. It's that fence that is so enchanting. If it had no fence—if its lawn touched the pavement out here with nothing between, we would never want to go in. As it is, I'm wild to open that gate and walk up that weedy little walk, aren't you? Why is it?"

"Well," said the other of us, "it is a lovely frame for the cottage, to begin with, and of course the flowers look brighter seen through this pavement out here with nothing between. We would never want to go in. As it is, I'm wild to open that gate and walk up that weedy little walk, aren't you? Why is it?"

OCEAN AND COASTWISE SHIPPING

ALEXANDER IS MENTIONED FOR SHIPPING BOARD

H. N. Alexander, president of the Admiral-Orion Line, is mentioned as the possible successor to Chairman Lasker, head of the United States Shipping Board, who is retiring at the end of June. Mr. Alexander, according to Washington dispatches, is being favorably considered by President Harding, if he will accept the post. Mr. Alexander was considered for the appointment two years ago. He is well known in shipping circles both on the Pacific and the Atlantic, and of late years has come rapidly to the fore as an operator of Trans-Pacific and coastwise lines.

THREE WEEKS FROM ORIENT TO EUROPE

Passengers Arriving Here To-day Can Make Ship Leaving Quebec May 12

Passengers arriving here to-day by the liner Empress of Russia will be able to complete the trip from the Orient to Great Britain without interruption, in three weeks, under the new arrangement of the Canadian Pacific schedules. This is time that cannot be equalled on any other route.

Travellers arriving here to-day by the Empress of Russia, if they are in a hurry, will be able to make connections with the liner Empress of Scotland, sailing from Quebec May 12.

The innovation which was inaugurated by the Canadian Pacific Railway last year of assuring passengers using trans-continental trains of direct connection with their steamers via the St. Lawrence route to Europe, has proved very popular. It is expected that this year's traffic out of the St. Lawrence will exceed all previous records. In fact, during the summer season, which lasts about 200 days, there are 176 sailings by all lines from Montreal and Quebec to Europe, and out of this number 99 are Canadian Pacific.

ARABIA MARU IN PORT FROM ORIENT

The Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Arabia Maru reached quarantine from the Orient this afternoon and is expected to reach her berth at the Outer Docks about 4.30. The ship has aboard 170 passengers all told, including 20 cabin, 46 intermediate and 47 Asiatic steerage for Seattle. Fifty-seven steerage passengers will come ashore here.

COURTESY IN RAILWAY SERVICE

Montreal, May 7.—In a circular letter addressed to all officers and employees of the company, E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, urges them to a maintenance of their traditional courtesy and efficiency and a promotion of the spirit of service. "Every patron," the circular reads, "must be made to feel that we have his personal interest at heart; that we appreciate his patronage; that he will receive a quality of service from the Canadian Pacific that he cannot hope for elsewhere."

Brings Many Passengers From Orient To-day: Empress of Russia

EMPERESS OF RUSSIA BRINGS GOOD LIST FROM ORIENT PORTS

Canadian Pacific Liner Docked To-day at 8 a.m., Standard Time

Brought in 180 Saloon, 60 Second and 300 Steerage

Daylight saving time did not affect the trans-Pacific liner Empress of Russia which docked at Pier 2 at 7 a. m., standard time, to-day after an average passage of nine days from Yokohama. By Victoria time it was 8 o'clock, but the ship's chronometers, which are not in the habit of being switched to suit the seasons, recorded standard time, by which all ships and trains are operated.

The Canadian Pacific liner reached William Head at an early hour and was passed by Dr. Chester Brown at daybreak. A total of 180 saloon, 60 second cabin and 300 steerage passengers was carried by the Empress of Russia. Twenty saloon and 150 Chinese steerage passengers disembarked at this port.

The saloon passengers included William Vanderbilt, who returned from a two months' tour of the Far East, and Mrs. E. S. Vanderbilt and Miss C. S. Vanderbilt, who joined the ship at Hongkong.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Sisson, of the well known Sisson family, are en route from Hongkong to London.

Lord and Lady Digby, Lady Belper and Lady Burn, were other notable people aboard.

R. H. Clive, counselor to the British Legation at Peking, accompanied by Hon. Mrs. Clive, is returning to England.

Capt. F. W. Maxse, secretary of the British Embassy at Tokio, is going to London on sick leave.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hosken, R. N. R., commander of the Empress of Russia, reported an excellent voyage, the ship experiencing good weather for the greater part of the passage from Yokohama. The Russia left Hongkong April 19 and cleared from Yokohama on the afternoon of April 28.

She brought in a valuable Oriental cargo, including the usual amount of silk.

With Pilot George Roberts on the bridge the ship left at 8 a. m., standard time, for Vancouver.

GRAIN IS MOVING ON GREAT LAKES

Twenty-five Ships Clear Twin Ports With 6,000,000 Bushels

Fort William, Ont., May 7.—In the first two days of navigation, about 25 vessels have cleared the twin ports with the year's initial grain shipments, amounting to approximately 6,000,000 bushels. Twice that number of steamers have arrived. The giant carriers are arriving hourly and going out again after a few hours, so swift is the system of loading and unloading.

Not for years has such excitement and interest prevailed at the opening of navigation. Given a keener impulse by the race of steamships across Lake Superior which ended in the victory of the Glen Isla, first vessel to enter either port, presentation of the historic silk hat to Capt. James Tindall, a similar ceremony in Port Arthur where the Glen Sea arrived shortly afterward, then the docking of the balance of the fleet now belonging to the Great Lakes Transportation Company.

Glen boats all making up the biggest fleet of a single line ever to reach the lake heads, then the resumption of passenger travel on the Northern Navigation and Canadian Pacific lines, these are but incidents that have given the 1923 season of open water a wonderful start over the week-end.

Elevators Busy. Hardly an elevator is without its tank frothers alongside. The harbors, tranquil on Friday, have in the past two days become marvels of activity. When the first boat arrived, the biggest accumulation of grain ever known here was in store, and operators were put to severe tests finding additional accommodation.

Railway cars were lined up in the yards, unable to unload. But now it goes out faster than the West is sending it down. One result will be increased shipments from prairie points to market the balance of last year's crop. Employment has been greatly stimulated in the handling of grain, coal and package freight. More than 1,400 men have obtained work. Both cities have been able to take care of the demand for labor without strain, as most of those employed are regular hands. The biggest year in shipping for a long season is expected and an air of jubilation prevails.

When a loose bolt or nut is found in the drip-pans it is wise to immediately learn where it belongs and re-seat it.

LINER MONTROSE REACHES QUEBEC

Quebec, May 7.—The first transatlantic passenger steamer to reach the port of Quebec this season was the Canadian Pacific steamer Montrose, which arrived here from Liverpool yesterday afternoon.

She carried 1,352 passengers. The third cabin passengers included a party of 90 boys who came out under the auspices of the Salvation Army. Twenty-five of these boys are destined for farms in Manitoba.

After the vessel had docked, Captain Farry was presented with an address on behalf of the first cabin passengers for the able manner in which he sailed this vessel through the ice of the straits.

Motorists should signal ahead to pedestrians of their proposed movements, just as they warn other moving vehicles coming from the rear.

The Theben is due to sail on Thursday for Vancouver and she will complete at Genoa Bay for New York. The Kosmos Line vessel is loading 1,500,000 feet of lumber here, the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber Company supplying 1,000,000 feet, and the Cameron Lumber Company about 500,000 feet.

PEOPLE MADE PORT OVER ICE FLOES

Passengers from SS. Kyle Reached Nova Scotia Port Under Difficulties

North Sydney, N.S., May 7.—After scrambling over one of the roughest packs ever laid up off Sydney Harbor, twelve passengers and eleven members of the crew of the steamer Kyle reached shore yesterday afternoon, making the last few hundred yards in dories which put off to meet them.

The Kyle is stuck in very heavy floes about eight miles off Cranberry and has abandoned all efforts to reach North Sydney until the wind changes and breaks up the pack.

Some of the fifty-three passengers have been on board for a month, or since the vessel left St. Johns, Nfld. After eighteen days in Fortune Bay, she left Port aux Basques, Nfld., last Sunday, and has been a full week at sea, covering a distance which she makes ordinarily in a night's steaming.

It was decided to send a party ashore across the ice to get some flour, and twelve passengers, who were anxious to be on their way, decided to accompany the steamer. So rough was the going over the huge piled up floes that many detours had to be made.

SHIP VANCOUVER AT MAINLAND PORT

Schooner Built at Local Yard Loading at Vancouver for Hawaii

Vancouver, May 7.—After delivering the first full cargo of British Columbia lumber to Honolulu that has been sent in the past thirteen years, the schooner Vancouver, Captain H. Hansen, owner and master, returned to Vancouver, and is now berthed at the Great Northern dock loading an island full cargo for the Hawaiian Islands ports. The shippers are Perkins & Pearson of this city.

The Vancouver arrived, shining from waterline to truck with a new coat of paint, due entirely, it is said, to the industry of a Filipino stow-away who was discovered shortly after the ship sailed for home. This Filipino was at once put to work on dressing the hull with a new coat, and he spent most of his time on an overboard staging as the sailing ship rode the billows.

He is now in the hands of the immigration authorities and will probably return to Honolulu when the Vancouver sails. The Vancouver was brought up by the American tugboat Sea Monarch. Captain Hansen reported good weather. He left here with 1,100,000 feet of lumber. Mrs. Hansen accompanied him.

Perkins & Pearson report the American schooner Mindanao, due here to load 300,000 feet of lumber for San Pedro.

Sandwich, England, May 7.—The battle for the British amateur golf championship began to-day in a field where the warriors with wood and iron clubs will aggregate almost 200 of the most skillful players in the United Kingdom and the United States. There is a general feeling that the threat to take the title across the Atlantic to the United States has a good chance of success. The United States team is regarded as the strongest set of invaders that has ever contested for the British amateur crown.

Among the strong English players in the upper half are: Roger Wethered, Cyril Tooley, Bernard Darwin, G. E. Aylmer, M. Tweedie, E. W. Holderness, the British titleholder, Dr. H. G. Gillies, and W. Mackenzie. The Scott brothers and the Torrence brothers are bunched in the other half.

Among the stars from the United States who will compete for the title are Francis Oimett, Dr. O. F. Wilkins, Robert Gardiner, Jess Sweetzer, E. Noel Layton, H. S. Lake. The course on which the championship will be played is one of the most difficult in England. The first seven holes are in the second of the two groups and the last seven are almost at a straight line back to the clubhouse.

Island Division Suggested to Show Amateur Lacrosse Tangle

Vancouver, May 7.—The Victoria and Nanaimo clubs were admitted to the British Columbia Coast Lacrosse Association Saturday night on condition that these clubs should form an Island division, the league, playing a regular schedule, but also taking part in a number of inter-division games with Mainland clubs, the results of these contests to count in the league standings of the two divisions. This would mean that Victoria and Nanaimo would each play one game at home and one game away against Vancouver, New Westminster and the Squamish Indians, instead of two contests which would be necessary in an ordinary schedule, and operating expenses would be relieved.

West Ham Earns Promotion and Not Leicester

London, May 7.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Interest in the Association Football League warfare was maintained right up to Saturday, the last day of the season, when it was decided that Nottinghams and West Ham should ascend to the First Division, replacing Stoke and Oldham, and that Rotherham County should accompany the Wolverhampton Wanderers into the third division.

Liverpool, who beat Stoke, finished at the top of the first division for the second consecutive season with total points equalling the record of the West Bromwich Albion. Stoke and Oldham go down to the next division. Stoke's fall has been due as much to bad luck and to injuries to players as to inferior play, while Oldham's failure was due to weakness in front of the goal.

They have played no fewer than four games since the first of the year without scoring a single goal.

West Ham, despite their setback at Upton Park, secured promotion on their goal average, for Bury obligingly defeated Leicester City, who improved their position in the Southern section by a fine victory over Charlton.

Taking the season all through, the Southern clubs have not been much in the limelight but West Ham nobly upheld the honor of the Metropolitan by securing the runner-up position both the cup and the league contests.

Carpentier's Wicked Right Dropped Nilles

Battle For French Heavyweight Title Ended in Eighth Round; Critics Not Impressed With Georges' Showing and Think He Has Gone Back; Little Experience Would Have Won Fight For Nilles in Third Round

Paris, May 7.—Georges Carpentier knocked out Marcel Nilles, the French heavyweight, in the eighth round of their scheduled 15-round bout for the French heavyweight title yesterday afternoon.

Although he won, Carpentier, according to ringside observers, added nothing to his reputation. It was noticeable that the old Carpentier spirit was lacking.

Georges was in difficulty as early as the second round and weathered the third only through the inexperience and lack of combativity of his opponent. The experts agreed that Carpentier's attempt to stage a come back, failed to demonstrate any of the fighting qualities required of a champion, and that had the former French idol been facing a real batter, the fight would have ended in the second with Georges the loser.

Great Crowd on Hand. Forty thousand persons witnessed the bout and they gave Carpentier a great ovation. Georges appeared to be in much better condition than when he fought the "Jack" in this round. Nilles momentarily abandoned his offensive for the stomach in the second round and reached Carpentier with a hard right to the jaw and had Georges groggy at the bell. Nilles also had the better of the third round and should have ended the fight in this period. He seemed to be wary of Carpentier's right.

Carpentier rushed out of his corner in the sixth and uppercut Nilles, the blow landing on the body. Nilles dropped to the floor, claiming a foot. The referee would not allow the claim and Nilles, after he had taken a count of nine, rose and lasted the round, apparently in great distress. The blow from the ringside appeared to have been a fair one, hitting Nilles in the region of the solar plexus. Nilles never recovered from its effect.

A Right Ended It. The end came in the eighth. Nilles rushed into a clinch and Carpentier pushed him off and swung his right to the jaw. Nilles dropped and was counted out amid mingled cheering and hooting from the spectators.

Hobin, of Belgium, successfully defended his title of welterweight champion of Europe by winning from Forcher, France, on points.

Charley Ledner retained his title in a 15-round bout with Androu-His, challenger for the European bantamweight title.

Farmer Lodge Floored by Foul Blow in Fourth Round; Will Fight Again

Havana, May 7.—The bout between Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, and Walter "Farmer" Lodge, the Minnesota fighter, was terminated at the end of the fourth round early to-day after Lodge had been floored by a blow which he said was foul.

Johnson led in the first three rounds of tussle fighting. It was later announced that the bout would be postponed a week. Persons at the ringside thought the alleged foul was unintentional.

They have played no fewer than four games since the first of the year without scoring a single goal.

TACTICAL EXERCISES HELD BY SIXTEENTH

Interesting Training Field Manoeuvres Carried Out at Week-end by Highlanders

The Sixteenth Battalion, Canadian Scottish, held some interesting tactical exercises at the week-end, with the officer commanding, Lieut. Col. H. M. Urquhart, D. S. O., M. C., A. D. C., in charge. Major Goodve, D. S. O., of the general staff of M. D. No. 11, and several other officers were present. There was a good attendance, and those present threw themselves heartily and intelligently into the various problems prepared for solution by Lieut. Col. Urquhart, who laid before them various situations arising out of a general idea which assumed that a hostile force had landed at Union Bay, and were moving southward, while the defence forces had sent a division northward to arrest the enemy.

FOLDERS ADVERTISE THIS ISLAND BEST

Publicity Bureau Realizes the Value of Literature Distribution

The multitude of letters received from the offices of the Victoria and Island Development Association, questioning officials as to the climatic condition of the island, or the possibilities for farming and business enterprises, points to the fact that Victoria is getting good advertising. Advertisements of this sort are what make any town advance, so the Victoria publicity people believe, and with this in mind they have worked in the past and are striving now, to make the name of this city known all over the continent, and elsewhere.

Through the medium of the folders which the publicity department has compiled—"Victoria" and "Island"—and which have been given publicly from Australia to the United Kingdom. Men from the island continent write for information concerning the farming possibilities, and men from England write asking for facts concerning business opportunities. All of these questions the bureau has answered truthfully, and sends along an assortment of folders that the people demanding information may be satisfied.

From this it is seen the importance of good folders. Not merely facts and figures in print, but attractively written articles and pictures of the beauty spots of the island, have been included in the folders. In the past the Publicity Bureau has relied on these folders and other modes of literary advertising to a greater extent than is commonly believed. This year, up to the present at least, the folders prepared have been excellent. It is evident their value is realized.

son everywhere in Eastern and Western Canada may be had by the fact that in Winnipeg, Fort William, Toronto and many other cities they have played the seat sale was so large that hundreds were unable to gain admission at all. John Conklin, the well-known dramatic critic of the Winnipeg Free Press, said of the show: "Not forgetting the good times we all have had at former Dumbell shows, there is at the Walker this week the best Dumbell performance ever brought to the city. It is a matter of pride that such a wonderful production is the work of Canadians and that it is played by a cast of Canadian boys. What a wonderful reception they met with last night; it started right from the rise of the curtain and kept growing in volume and warmth until, in the second part, it was one outburst of enthusiasm after another."

After meeting with the same great success in all the prairie cities, the Old Dumbells open their Victoria engagement to-night at the Royal Victoria theatre. There will be three evening performances and a popular matinee Wednesday at 2.30. Every lover of good entertainment should see this new revue, for in artistic environment, in singing voices, in comedy effects of one kind and another, in the clever lighting effects and its cleanliness, it has never had a peer. The evening performance commences at 8 o'clock sharp and patrons are reminded that the advance sale points towards the heaviest of any attraction playing Victoria this season and will be practically a sell out for every performance.

Rex Ingram Stars in Dominion Offering This Week

Rex Ingram, famous Metro director, who was in Miami making his latest production, "Where the Pavement Ends," which is now at the Dominion Theatre, can spin his yarn with any salesman these days. On a trip to Nassau, in the Bahama Group, he went through two terrific electrical storms in a forty-foot boat, storms that threatened at any moment to swamp the cockleshell, whose decks were swept time and again by huge waves. And Rex Ingram spent the whole of his time on deck! He admits frankly that his courage was bolstered chiefly by the fact that he preferred to drown in an ocean wave rather than suffer the quins of mal de mer in a stuffy, reeling cabin.

All night long while Jove raged overhead and John Russell, author of "Where Pavement Ends," roared in his bunk below, the boat fought its way through the tempest until finally the light that marks the reef of Cape Florida announced that they had gotten back to within striking distance of America.

Then the sea showed its malice. It drove them on great sweeping waves toward the white line of the reef, invisible now but audible by the roar and surge of the sea upon it. Frantic efforts were made to bring a change in the course of the vessel, but not until the mad "rage" of the reef could be seen did a merciful change come in the wind to blow them out again to sea. Three times the approach was made to the break in the bar, three times they were blown back. Rex Ingram was called on by the captain to lend his hand to a wheel that spun furiously in his impotent hands.

But, finally they got in. "Where the Pavement Ends," was adapted by Rex Ingram and photographed by John F. Seitz. Alice Terry and Ramon Navarro play important roles.

LOU CHANEY STARRED IN DRAMATIC STORY

Achieves Stardom at Columbia in "The Trap"

Lou Chaney achieves stardom in "The Trap," the Universal-level masterpiece, which will appear three days at the Columbia Theatre. Theatre patrons who remember his remarkable work in "The Miracle Man," "The Penalty" and "Outside the Law" are going to agree that he scales new heights in "The Trap." An exceptional story to start with, Chaney's characterization of Gaspard, hero and villain alike, lifts the production into the ranks of really notable successes of the screen. "The Trap" tells the story of a man who was tugged from a trusting child of nature into a snarling, snapping beast, whose one aim in life is to wreak vengeance on the man who stole his mine and lured away his sweetheart. How he accomplishes his revenge, step by step and with wolfish cunning, is a masterpiece of dramatic technique.

"FLAME OF LIFE" POWERFUL FILM

Priscilla Dean Stars as Down-trodden Woman of 1870 at Capitol

In 1870 the class lines were a wall of steel between coal miners in North England and the gentry. So strict were they that passage from one class to another was virtually impossible. Joan Lowrie was only one of a thousand women who did not look nor act like women, but served as human beasts of burden in the mines, toiling pitilessly by day, eating, sleep, and cursing fate by night.

"Why, you talk nonsense," laughed a rich baron when his over-man wanted to inaugurate better conditions for the workers, "these people are little better than beasts."

The new young over-man in one of the mines believed in human nature, even though sunk in this low scale. He looked for the best in everyone. Always was he eager to extend a helping hand to his fellowmen.

"You are a noble, unselfish character," he said to Joan Lowrie, one of the women who drudged in the slate pit.

That was the beginning of the upward climb for her.

Humbly, timidly, not for a moment with even a faint hope of his love for her reward, she struggled in silence. She would learn to read, to write; she would become "lady."

This wonderful character of Joan Lowrie in one of Frances Hodgson Burnett's most popular books has been adapted for the screen under the title of "The Flame of Life." It is a Hobart Henley Universal-Jewel production—starring vital and dynamic Priscilla Dean, who will be seen at the Capitol Theatre.

An excellent cast was gathered together to support Miss Dean and includes in the principal roles, Robert Ellis, Wallace Heery, Kathryn McGuire and Beatrice Burnham. Mr. Ellis gives a remarkably strong performance in a very difficult part and seldom has appeared to better advantage in any screen success.

Manager Robertson of the Capitol Theatre booked "The Flame of Life" as soon as reports of its glowing success were received from metropolitan circles. He is confident that it will prove a delightful evening's entertainment.

COMPTON COMPANY TO OPEN WEDNESDAY

"David Garrick" Will Be Presented at Playhouse

The re-opening of the Playhouse on Wednesday with Francis Compton and the Compton Comedy Company is a matter for congratulation to all Victoria playgoers.

So the well-known actor Edward Compton, whose celebrated Compton Comedy Co. was one of the great institutions of the British stage for over 35 years. Mr. Compton will be assured of a warm welcome by the Victoria patrons.

The opening bill will be "David Garrick," a part forever associated with the name of Edward Compton, and a most fortunate selection, as there are many in Victoria who must remember, with delight, the performance of the father, and who will be interested and

FOR THE CHILDREN. The Sandman Story For To-night

THE PRINCESS TRINA'S GOLDEN HAIR - Part 1.

Once upon a time there lived a beautiful Princess, named Trina. Her hair was like gold and it fell in ringlets over her shoulders and hung below her waist.

Her eyes were blue like a Summer sky and her voice like the rippling of a merry brook, soft, sweet and low.

The King, her father, loved her very dearly, but for all that, when the Queen, the mother of Trina, died, the King took another wife to be his Queen.

The name of the second Queen was Cruella, and though she was beautiful, she hated her lovely step-daughter, the Princess Trina, for her beauty and was always thinking how she could rid herself of her presence in the palace.

Queen Cruella was very dark and when she was angry her black eyes flashed fire and this they always did when they beheld the lovely Princess.

Princess Trina knew that her step-mother did not love her, though she did not know that her step-mother was the cause, in fact the Princess did not know that she was beautiful.

Deep in the forest far from the Palace lived an old witch in a cave and one day she happened in her wandering about the country to come to the gate of the palace garden while Queen Cruella was walking there. "Let me tell you your fortune, pretty lady," said the old witch looking through the iron bars of the gate.

"I will tell you how to rid yourself of the old witch, never fear, my pretty, you shall soon resign alone," answered the old witch as she hobbled away.

That night while the Princess Trina slept upon her bed of soft satin the old witch changed herself into a big white bird and flew into the open window of the Princess's room, and throwing over her a spell which made her as light as a feather, she picked her up with her long claws and flew away with her to the forest where she lived and carried her to her cave.

She then cut off the long golden hair of the Princess, who was still sleeping, and knew nothing of her fate.

When calling to her a goblin who often held her with her magic arts the old witch wrapped up the golden locks and told the goblin to go to the Palace and give the bundle to the Queen that she might know the Princess was in her power.

COLUMBIA SCHOOL

Successful Recital is Held by Junior Pupils

The ninth recital of the season by the Columbia School of Music, principal Mrs. Burton-Murphy, took place on Friday evening in the hall of that institution before a large gathering of interested people. The occasion was a program of piano recitals, the members contributed by the juvenile classes of that department, thirty-five pupils in all taking part. It was specially to be noticed that many tiny tots participated, several of whom played without their music. Through-out the well-selected number of piano-forte numbers were evidences of careful and sound instruction. Where all did so well it is not an easy task for discrimination but outstanding natural gifts were evidenced in the playing of Marjorie Feden and Marjorie Moffat in a piano duet, Mary Leith, Martha Crombie, Margaret Watson, Ray Hatfield, George Leith, Brian Burdon-Murphy, Catherine Murray, Marie Hemmington, Mildred Halsey and Miriam Biggin. The piano accompaniment was executed by those taking part in the "Rondo" by Debusse, being Miriam Biggin and Martha Crombie, piano one, and Mary Leith and Mildred Halsey, piano two. Other taking part in the piano recitals were Jean Plowright, Ingram McGavin, Ruby Aldred, Stella Wilkinson, Lucille Kissinger, Kenneth Bonner, Francis Biggin, Harry Peck and Veta Logan, Cyril Parsons, Rosalind Willis, Beatrice McMillan, Margaret Watson, Phyllis Laycock, Ruby Cobbe, Clarence Reeves, Norman Tyrrell, Howard Parsons and Miss Clayton in a piano duet by Leopold Godowsky, George McPherson, Margaret Hemmington, Peter Luscombe, Desmond Burdon-Murphy and Wanita Aldred.

TOURISTS MAY TRAVEL EASILY IN ARCTIC CIRCLE

Circular Route to Be Opened in Part of Yukon and Alaska

Prominent Yukon Business Man Here on Visit

Representative of one of the most famous commercial houses in the Yukon, Isaac Taylor, head of Taylor & Drury, Limited, whose headquarters are at Whitehorse, is in the city registered at the Dominion Hotel.

In a chat with The Times on Saturday Mr. Taylor stated that the Yukon was greatly encouraged by the situation in the Mayo and Keno Hill silver camp, and that while the days of a "placering" excitement might not return to the territory in the life of this generation, the country was gradually developing along systematic and solid lines.

The two big companies operating are expecting to increase their shipments next winter, having much good shipping ore in sight. Mr. Taylor observed in the Keno Hill district. Most of the Keno Hill prospectors can show ore on their workings, and in adjoining districts in Beaver River and elsewhere the situation is encouraging.

Mr. Taylor pointed out that owing to the shortness of the season, four months during which the outlying posts can be reached, his firm has to buy months ahead for the trade.

Warm clothing for next winter, and prospectors supplies are now being purchased for the Yukon trade. His company features miners, hunters and trappers' supplies, and operates the S.S. Thistle and S.S. Klugane to serve their posts. Two of the company's posts, those at Ross River and Pelly, Banks are headquarters for the big game districts, while outfitting for the Kluane Lake hunting country is made direct from Whitehorse. Owing to the location of the company's posts, it is extensively engaged in the raw fur trade.

The visitor stated that one interesting development of the coming tourist season, and one which should certainly be noted, is the proposal for a circular tour, from Skagway over the White Pass Railway, to Whitehorse, by way of the head of the new United States railway at Nenana in the Tanana country, and thence back by railway to the coast, which will give visitors an opportunity to see the country without considerable hardship to see considerable part of the Yukon and Alaska.

Mr. Taylor has many friends in this city with whom he is in acquaintance. He will shortly place a son at the University Military School. His daughter is studying in England. Mr. Drury, his partner, will meet him at Seaside, and will shortly come down to the coast cities on a purchasing trip.

AN URGENT WANT

Wishing a permit to hold a small bonfire in his garden to get rid of some weeds, a resident of the city yesterday picked up the receiver of the telephone in his home, and called "O." A gong rang sharply at the headquarters station, and eighteen members of the fire department dropped the several tasks to slide in succession down the brass poles to their places on the engines. Four motors roared and all stood by. Out in the district stations the same scene was enacted, and then came the word, someone wanted a rubbish permit.

FIRST APPLE TREE ON COAST IN BLOOM

Mayor's Gavel Here Made From Historical Tree

The famous historical apple tree at Fort Vancouver, Washington, from which the Victoria mayoral gavel is made, is again in blossom, with every prospect of it producing fruit. It is about ninety-seven years old, and stands in an enclosure on the reserve at Vancouver Barracks and was planted in 1826 by the gardener of the Hudson's Bay Company.

The story goes that a young official of the fur company on leaving London, England, for Fort Vancouver was attending a banquet, when his hostess laughingly presented him with a handle of apple seeds, saying that he might plant them in the land of the Indian and in time live to enjoy the fruit of civilization. After the young official arrived he was one day walking with Governor John McLaughlin on the fort grounds. He drew from his pocket the handful of apple seeds and told McLaughlin how he came to have them. McLaughlin took the seeds and ordered his gardener to plant them.

Five apple trees grew from the seeds. All have died or have been destroyed since then except the historical tree.

SAYS POLICY IS SMOKE SCREEN

Conservative Leader Has Poor Opinion of Third Parties

Thinks British Columbia Should Practice Retrenchment and Economy

That Premier Oliver is trying to use the freight-rate question as a smoke-screen to divert attention from the extravagance of the Provincial Government, was the charge made by Mr. Bowser, K.C., addressing the Conservatives of Saanich at the Royal Oak on Saturday evening. He stated that in the past six years the Province had borrowed $46,000,000 and had received $8,000,000 in revenue, a total of $132,000,000, and on top of this was now proposing to borrow another $5,000,000.

The charge was made by Fred G. Quick. The gathering was primarily for the purpose of reorganizing the party in the riding of the seat of the Provincial Convention held in Vancouver last year when the Liberal-Conservative Association was organized. There was a good attendance, every section of the riding being represented. The constitution of the party was approved and after considerable discussion it was decided that, in view of the scattered nature of the riding, each ward should organize and then send delegates to a general meeting at which the central organization will be formed, officers elected and other necessary business transacted.

The Opposition Leader

Mr. Bowser deprecated the entrance of a third party into the politics of the Province. Evidently Gen. McTear believed in the old adage that the way to a man's heart was through his stomach. This was no doubt the explanation of the many dinners being given under the auspices of the new organization. And now General McTear was proposing a barbecue at which the Premier was to appear to back up his challenge to the third party head, Doubtless, the people do not attend that affair would enjoy the roast ox, no matter how slim proved to be the fare furnished by the speeches of the two chief factors.

Had Deficit Every Year.

The present Government, Mr. Bowser declared, has had a deficit every year since it took office, with the result that the fixed charges of the province to-day are $15,500,000. He contended, also, that the Liberal member for Saanich was not seeing to it that his district was treated fairly, for while in Delta, the home riding of Premier Oliver, there had been spent in the last fiscal year, $348,850 on 39.20 miles of road; in Saanich, with 31.50 miles, but $5,722 was expended. Nanaimo, the home of the Minister of Mines was given no less than $10,000. The public service had been over-manned in a disgraceful manner, the present salary list calling for $3,188,000, compared with $1,886,000 in 1916, or no less than seventeen per cent. of the entire revenue of a Province containing a little over half a million people. And, in addition, it cost $225,000 in traveling expenses for officials. The Conservative party stood pledged to a policy of retrenchment and economy, and, if returned to power, would carry out that policy, Mr. Bowser asserted.

VERY INCONSIDERATE

A certain major bought a horse from a dealer and shortly afterwards the following conversation was heard: "You have swindled me with that horse you sold me last week." "How do you know the dealer? Very much surprised." "Well, I only had him for three days when he died." "That's very strange. I owned him twenty-three years and worked him hard every day, and never knew him to do that."

Y.M.C.A. MAKING SPLENDID OFFER

Summer Membership Gives Many Privileges; Good Until September 15

The Y.M.C.A. authorities have put out a special offer in the last few days, in shape of a Summer membership ticket, which will hold good until September 15. This new membership will include the privilege of using the club's lockers, the tank and the gymnasium. The boxing room and track and field sports are an added attraction. Business men will find that a plunge in the pool after a cold shower when their day's work is terminated, will be the most exhilarating and healthful thing that they can do after a hard Summer day in the office.

A track and field club has been formed to participate in the events in connection with the Maritime Frolic and workouts are now being held. The cost of the Summer membership is only five dollars.

Y.M.C.A. BOYS CLOSE SEASON

The concluding event of the Winter programme of the Boys' Department of the local Y. M. C. A. was successfully held at the Association building Saturday. A well arranged programme, in which all the boys participated, was given to the guests, who were the parents of those taking part.

One of the biggest attractions of the programme was the delightful afternoon tea served in the lobby by a committee of ladies under the convener'ship of Mrs. J. H. Fletcher. The Rowles Boys orchestra was in attendance rendering many excellent musical numbers.

A radio concert was also given, while the gymnasium display given by the boys on Friday was repeated again during the afternoon and evening with great success.

Swimming events were another attractive feature of the programme, while the numerous aquatic events, in connection with this including diving and novelty diving, caused considerable comment from those present.

REGAINS 18 POUNDS LOST WEIGHT

Taking WINCARNIS

"I was very sick; lost almost 18 pounds in weight; was extremely weak and nervous, and could not get a single night's sound sleep. I had constant medical attention and the best of wholesome foods, but my condition grew more alarming until I began taking Wincarnis, which helped me from the first few doses.

I have completely regained my former weight and strength, sleep soundly every night, eat most heartily and have an abundance of energy. My husband and my mother were so amazed at the effect of Wincarnis in my case that they both began taking it as a tonic. Today, they are just as loud in praise of Wincarnis as I am, and we do wish it were known to every weak, nervous or run-down person."
