CATALOGUE

OF THE

NEW-YORK STATE LIBRARY,

JANUARY 1, 1846.

PREPARED AND PUBLISHED IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF AN ACT OF THE LEGISLATURE, PASSED APRIL 24, 1845.

ALBANY :

C. WENDELL, PRINTER.

1846.

ADVERTISEMENT.

It is required by law, that a Catalogue of the State Library be published every five years. The Trustees, in their Annual Report to the Legislature, dated January 9, 1845, after stating the imperfections of the one then in use, recommended the suspension of the existing enactment, so far as to enable them immediately to prepare and issue a catalogue that should be more complete and accurate.

The Legislature, as will be seen, acceded to their wishes; and, indeed, the necessity for such a proceeding became still more imperative, when that body determined to purchase the Warden Collection.

The Catalogue now published, has been compiled with great labor, and an anxious desire to render it as perfect as the nature of the work would permit.

The Law Catalogue, including the Law Books proper, with their Classification, the Statute Law and State Papers, has been prepared by John L. Tillinghast, the Librarian; and the Catalogue of Miscellaneous Books, with their Classification, by George Wood, the late Assistant Librarian. The labors of the latter have been peculiarly arduous, from the necessity of arranging and incorporating the books belonging to the Warden Library.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

THIS Collection was printed at the expense of the British Government, and under the direction and superintendence of commissioners appointed for the purpose by the Crown, in accordance with the request contained in an Address of the House of Commons to the King, respecting the public Records of the Kingdom.

In that Address, presented to the King (George the Third), on the 11th of July, 1800, the House of Commons stated, that they had taken into their consideration the state of the Public Records of the Kingdom, and the necessity of providing for the better arrangement, preservation, and more convenient use of the same. They represented that in several of the principal offices, they had found the Public Records preserved with great order and regularity, and, in some few, with a method and care which were exemplary; but that in many of the most important offices, they were wholly unarranged, undescribed, and unascertained: That some of them were exposed to erasure, alteration, and embezzlement, and others lodged in places where they were daily perishing by damp, or incurring a continual risk of destruction by fire: That a period of nearly seventy years had elapsed since the last general Parliamentary inquiry upon this subject; and during that interval of time, the change which had taken place in the language and written character of judicial proceedings, as well as the large accumulation of materials, which had been progressively superadded in every department, had increased the difficulties of methodizing the several repositories, or applying their contents to purposes of practical use.

After adverting to the printing of Domesday-Book and the Rolls of Parliament, in pursuance of the suggestions of their predecessors, the House submitted to His Majesty's wisdom their desire of extending the same measure to other ancient and valuable monuments of their history, laws, and government; and they besought His Majesty to give such directions as he should think fit for the better preservation, arrangement, and more convenient use of the Public Records of the Kingdom.

On the 17th of July, 1800, the Chancellor of the Exchequer reported to the House, that His Majesty had commanded him to acquaint the House that he would give directions, as desired by the said Address.

This work was printed in the reign of King George III. (A. D. 1811), from several volumes of abstracts of pleadings during the reigns of Kings Richard I., John, Henry III., Edward I., and Edward II., made by Mr. Arthur Agard and others, keepers of such records in the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

From the commencement of these pleadings in the reign of King Richard I. (Anno Regni 6, A. D. 1194), to the end of the reign of King John (A. D. 1216), the abstract has been framed, for the most part, from the rolls of the Curia Regis; But as it is difficult to decide now, when the proceedings in the Curia Regis finished, and the component branches of the court became distinct and permanently severed, the whole of the work has therefore been printed under the title of "PLACITORUM ABBREVIATIO." During the reigns of Kings Edward I. and Edward II., far the greater part of the abstract is collected from the Rolls of Pleadings, in the King's Bench; there are, however, numerous pleadings under the following mixed titles, viz:

"Placita coram Domino Rege in Parlamento suo apud Westminster."

"Placita coram Domino Rege & Concilio suo."

"Placita coram Concilio Domini Regis."

"Placita coram Domino Rege & locum suum tenentibus."

"Placita coram Domino Rege vel locum ejus tenentibus."

"Placita coram locum tenentibus Domini Regis."

"Placita coram Domina Regina & Concilio Domini Regis."

"Placita coram Archiepiscopo Ebor' & Concilio Domine Regis."

"Placita coram H. le Bygod, Justiciar' Angliæ."

"Placita Exercitus Regis."

Besides the above, the abstract contains pleadings during the reigns of Kings Henry I. and Edward I., before the Justices Itinerant; and also before the Justices of Assize.

Throughout the whole, much important matter will be found, relating to petitions of right, and also to the Parliament and to the Concilium Regis; and frequent references from each of them to the King's Bench, and from that court to Parliament.

This abstract also furnishes much other interesting matter in relation to the law, the history and the customs of the country; amongst the most material heads, the following may afford some idea of the nature and utility of the work, viz.:

Appeals of murder, and other felonies; assize; attain; bridges and sewers, and who are liable to their repairs; charters and grants to corporations; concords and fines in real actions, and enrolments of deeds between party and party; pleadings upon the Dictum de Kenilworth; cases of error; decisions in cases of fines; tenure of Gavelkind; heirs, and the proofs of their age and pedigree; historical facts relating to rebellions and insurrections, and to the border wars of the Scots and English; honors and baronies; judgments, with the reasons and causes thereof, entered, in cases of difficulty, on the rolls; jurisdiction of the ecclesiastical and other inferior courts; juries, their special verdicts, &c.; liberties and privileges of corporations, towns, and villages; customs of the city of London, and historical facts in relation to it; the ancient measures of land, and their various contents; obsolete words and law terms, with their several interpretations; rules of practice observed by the courts in actions real, actions personal, and in other instances; the rights and prerogatives of the Crown; privileges of courts, and punishments for contempts; pleadings upon writs of quo warranto; records of the kingdom, provisions for their preservation and arrangement; statutes and ordinances, recorded on the rolls of the Court of King's Bench, together with the writs directed to the sheriffs of counties to proclaim and enforce the observance of them; trial by Domesday, and the mode of pleading that ancient record; trial by Domesday of Chester; trial by the roll of Winton; trial by duel, in criminal and in civil suits; trials by ordeal, both of fire and water, so late as the fifteenth year of the reign of King John (A. D. 1213); pleadings in writs of right and other real actions.

This work also contains the address, answer, and record commission, as in the third volume of Domesday-Book; the order of the commissioners to print this work, dated 22d July, 1800; preface; Exemplaria Placitorum (engraving); Index Locorum; Index Nominum; Index Rerum.

A CATALOGUE of the Lansdowne Manuscripts in the British Museum, with Indexes of persons, places and matters.

The collection of manuscripts of which this is a catalogue, was purchased in the year 1807, by a vote of Parliament, of the representatives of the then late Marquis of Lansdowne, for the sum of £4,925. It is divided into two parts; the first comprising the Burghley papers only; the second, comprehending the remainder of the manuscripts in general, including the Cæsar, and Kennett papers.

Of the Burghley papers, one volume contains copies of charters, and other documents of an early period; the remaining one hundred and twenty-one volumes, in folio, consist of State Papers, interspersed with miscellaneous correspondence during the long Reign of Queen Elizabeth : amongst these is the private Memorandum-Book of Lord Burghley. After passing through several hands, they at last came into the possession of Lord Lansdowne. This part of the catalogue has a separate index.

Of the remaining manuscripts, more than fifty volumes comprise a large portion of the papers and correspondence of Sir Julius Cæsar, Judge of the Admiralty in the time of Queen Elizabeth, and Chancellor of the Exchequer and Master of the Rolls in the time of King James I. and King Charles I. Sir Julius Cæsar's manuscripts, consisting originally of one hundred and eighty-seven volumes, were sold by auction in the year 1757 ; nearly one-third of which were then purchased by one person, and subsequently came into the possession of Lord Lansdowne. Of these volumes in the Lansdowne collection, thirty-one relate directly or in part to admiralty concerns ; ten to court of request, treasury, star-chamber and exchequer business ; three to ecclesiastical matters ; two contain copies of treaties ; one relates to the state and government of Ireland ; and the rest are historical, parliamentary, &c.

The papers of Dr. White Kennett, Bishop of Peterborough, form one hundred and seven volumes of different sizes, the greater part written by the Bishop's own hand ; many of these relate to English ecclesiastical history ; eleven volumes contain his biographical memorials, chiefly of the English clergy, from the year 1500 to the year 1717 ; eight or ten contain collections for a history of the diocese of Peterborough ; and one volume is filled with etymological collections.

The Lansdowne collection comprehends, besides these larger series, many valuable works on British history, topography, and jurisprudence ; heraldic and armorial manuscripts ; several manuscripts relating to coronations ; a work on coins and coinage, by Hopton Haynes, Esq., Assay Master of the Mint, A. D. 1700 ; theological manuscripts, and amongst them part of the Old Testament in English, as translated by Wickliffe ; classical manuscripts ; poetical manuscripts, and amongst them the Canterbury Tales of Chaucer, written about the reign of King Henry V., in the initial letter of which, is a full length portrait of the author ; treatises on music of the fifteenth century ; eleven volumes of the papers of Dr. John Pell, Envoy from Oliver Cromwell to the Protestant Cantons of Switzerland, between the years 1654 and 1658 ; five volumes of Sir Paul Rycaut's papers ; three volumes of the Earl of Melfort's letters during his negotiation at Rome in 1690 ; one volume of letters from Mr. Thomas Hearne ; a Chinese map of the country of China ; a hundred views in the interior, and a hundred and eighty-two drawings of the different trades, plants, fruits and vessels of that country, all executed by native artists of the first ability.

D. 1819), contains the address, answer and record commission as in the third volume of Domesday-Book ; the order of the commissioners for printing this work, dated 15th June, 1810 ; preface ; Catalogus Librorum Manuscriptorum Bibliothecæ Lansdownianæ ; general index to Part I. of the Catalogue ; general index to Part II. of the Catalogue.

The Inquisitions preserved in the Roll Office of the Court of Chancery of Ireland, are Records of the highest authority and value. They may be classed under two heads, viz: Inquisitions Post Mortem, which are the most numerous, and Inquisitions on Attainder.

The Inquisitions Post Mortem were taken under commissions directed to the Escheators of each Province, and others joined with them; and find by the oath of a jury, what lands any person died seised of, by what Rents and Services they were held, and who was the next Heir, and his age, by which the right of the Crown to Escheat or Wardship was ascertained. On them were founded all grants of Wardship of Body and Marriage; Liveries of Lands; Pardons of Intrusion; Pardons and Licenses of Alienation, &c., in virtue of the Tenures in Capite. They are the best evidences of the Descent of Families, and of the Transfer and Possession of Property during the period they embrace. Numerous family settlements, deeds, wills, leases, and other instruments relating to property in Ireland, are set out at full, or copiously recited; and of the greater number of these there are, at present, no other traces to be found.

The Inquisitions on Attainder were generally taken under Commissions directed to Commissioners in the several counties, and shew whether any person was attainted; in which case his Lands and other Property, which were also found, were seised into the King's hands.

These important documents have suffered much injury from time and neglect; but have been carefully arranged, cleansed, and placed in portfolios, by order of His Majesty's Commissioners on the Public Records; a process which will tend to secure their future preservation.

Under the same Authority, a Repertory of their contents has been formed: The 1st volume comprises that of the Province of Leinster; it will be found, in general, to contain, The date of each Inquisition, and the place where taken. The name or names of the person or persons to whom it relates. The lands of which he or they was or were seised, their acreable or other contents, and real or nominal value. The time of his or their death.

The heir or heirs, and his or their age or ages, and marriage.
 The tenure by which the lands were held under the Crown, or its tenant in capite, or by knight's service, &c. &c.
 The 2d volume, printed in the same reign, 1827, comprises the Province of Ulster.

This Work, printed in the Reign of King William IV. (A. D. 1833), contains the Roll of Sheriff's Accompts for the Third Year of the Reign of King John, which is an Antigraph or Duplication of the Great Roll of the Pipe, and is Part of the Series called the Chancellor's Rolls, in contradistinction to the Treasurer's Rolls, which are those now known by the Appellation of the Pipe Rolls, or the Great Rolls of the Pipe. These are the Rolls which are usually meant whenever Reference is made to the Rotuli Annales of the Exchequer.

This Roll of Accounts is the Record of the Returns made into the Court of Exchequer, in each successive Year, by the Sheriffs of the Counties who acted as the King's Bailiffs, and occasionally by other Persons who had to account to the King in his Exchequer for any portion of the Royal Revenue. One Record of these Returns was prepared by an Officer of the Treasurer ; his proper designation was Scriptor Rotuli de Thesauro : another Record, the Antigraph, was made by an officer of the Chancellor ; his Designation was Scriptor Rotuli de Cancellaria. It is one of the Series of Antigraphs that is the Roll contained in the present work.

This Volume also contains the List of the Commissioners on the Public Records ; Preface ; Fac Similes of the Rolls ; Contents ; Index Locorum ; Index Nominum.

OF THE

MISCELLANEOUS WORKS.

NOTE.—The Works in the Miscellaneous Department of the Library, when not anonymous, are lettered with the Author's name, and a brief title of the Work. In the Catalogue they are twice entered: once, Alphabetically, by the name of the author, and again, in a Systematic Classification, according to the nature of the subjects of which they treat;—the latter entry answering as an Index to the former, where a more full description of the character of the work is given. Each work is arranged on the shelves, Alphabetically, under the initial letter of the surname of its author. Anonymous works are lettered agreeably to their subjects, and placed, in like manner, under their initial letters. The Octavos and smaller sized volumes are disposed on one set of shelves—the Quartos and Folios, separately, on other sets of shelves. There are, however, some few exceptions to this order. Periodical Works, such as Magazines, Registers, and Reviews,—Scientific Journals and Publications of Learned Societies, together with the Dictionaries, Encyclopædias, and Gazetteers, and other similar works of repeated reference, are withdrawn from the general arrangement and placed by themselves, for more convenient consultation. The WARDEN COLLECTION, added to the Library within the past year, it was thought advisable to keep, likewise, by itself. The Works of this Collection had been numbered by Mr. Warden, in his published Catalogue, as they followed in his Classification. These numbers have been cancelled, the works new numbered in their order in this Catalogue, and indicated by the capital letters W. C. (with the number.) The Maps, Charts, and Atlases have been treated in a somewhat similar manner, and arranged in the Catalogue among the other Maps and Charts. The Words Vide, and See, are used, in the Catalogue, for two distinct purposes. Vide, when the reference is from one part of the Catalogue to another. See, when the reference is to the Book itself, on the shelves.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

STATE LIBRARY.

LAWS OF THE STATE.

Revised Statutes, Vol. I., Part I., Chap. IX., Title 8, Sect. 6. It shall be the duty of the Trustees to provide, in their regulations, that any member of the Senate or Assembly, during the Session of the Legislature, or during the sitting of the Court for the Correction of Errors, or of the Senate only, shall be permitted, under proper restrictions, forfeitures and penalties, to take to his boarding-house, or private room, any book belonging to the Library, except such books as the Trustees shall determine are necessary always to be kept in the Library, as books of reference; but no member of the Legislature shall be permitted to take or detain from the Library, more than two volumes at any one time.

Ibid. Sect. 7. Before the President of the Senate, or the Speaker of the Assembly, shall grant to any member a certificate of the time of his attendance, he shall be satisfied that such member has returned all books taken out of the Library by him, and has settled all accounts for fines, for injuring such books, or otherwise.

Act of May, 1844, Sect. 5. The State Library shall be kept open every day in the year, Sundays excepted, during such hours in each day as the Trustees of the said Library may direct.

Ibid. Sect. 6. The Librarian shall be constant in his personal attendance upon the Library, during the hours it shall be directed to be kept open, and shall perform such other duties as may be imposed by law, or by the rules and regulations which may be prescribed by the said Trustees. He may appoint some person of a suitable age, and having proper qualifications for the situation, as his assistant; but such appointment shall be submitted to the Trustees for their approval, and shall not be effectual without such approval.

I. During the session of the Legislature, or of the Senate only, and during the sitting of the Court of Errors, or of the Court of Chancery, or of the Supreme Court, in the Capitol, the Library shall be open from the hour of nine in the morning until the hour of nine in the evening, and on all other days, (Sundays excepted,) from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. On Christmas, New-Year, and other holidays, the rooms shall be kept open only one hour in the morning, from 9 to 10 A. M.

II. It shall be the duty of the Librarian and Assistant Librarian to keep the Library rooms clean, neat, and in good order ; carefully to preserve the books, maps, charts, engravings, medals and furniture ; and to suffer none of them to be taken out of the Library, unless as expressly authorised by these regulations. The Librarian will be held accountable for the full value of every book that is missing, and for every injury which a book, map or chart may receive while he is in office, except such as may be sustained by ordinary use ; and he will be relieved from such accountability, only by showing that some other person is responsible for such book or injury, without any fault of the Librarian. Whenever the Library is open, he shall attend the same, and shall on no account suffer any volume to be taken from the Library room, without first entering in a book to be provided by him, the name of the person taking the same, and the title of the volume.

For every instance of a violation of this rule, the Librarian shall forfeit one dollar, to be deducted from his salary.

III. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to preserve order, and to prevent smoking in the Library rooms. He shall also exclude, if necessary, any disorderly person. No talking, that the Librarian shall deem incompatible with quiet reading or copying, shall be permitted. Visitors are also requested not to seat themselves near the book shelves.

IV. Any member of the Legislature, during its session, or during the sitting of the Court of Errors, or of the Senate only, may take to his boarding-house or private room, any book belonging to the Library, other than those hereinafter particularly specified, under the restrictions, penalties, and forfeitures following :

1. No book can be taken out, until its delivery has been entered by the Librarian.

2. Not more than two books can be taken out at a time.

3. No book can be detained more than one week ; but the borrower may, after returning it, again take it out, unless some other member of the Legislature has in the mean time made application for it ; in which case, such applicant shall have the preference in the use of the said book ; and when there are several applicants, the preference shall be according to the priority of their applications.

4. A fine of twenty cents shall be imposed for every day's detention beyond the week above specified, and collected by the Librarian.

5. If a book is lost or destroyed, or so much injured that the whole of it cannot be read, the borrower shall be charged the full value of the volume, and one-third of such value in addition; and if it belongs to a set of volumes, he shall be charged the value of the whole set, and one-third of such value in addition.

6. For any injury to a book subsequent to its being taken out, and previous to its return, a fine shall be imposed on the borrower, equal to its injury, to be determined by the Librarian, with the addition of thirty-three per cent.

7. Whenever a fine shall be imposed, or any charge made against the borrower of a book, he shall be immediately notified thereof by the Librarian. An appeal from such fine or charge may be made to the Library Committee.

V. No map, chart, print, engraving, or medal, or books of maps, charts, prints, or engravings, can be taken out of the Library room, nor the following books: Lexicons, Dictionaries, or Cyclopedias; Niles' Register, or any files of Newspapers; Wilson's Ornithology; Audubon's Birds of America, or his American Ornithological Biography; the Album Cosmopolite; Wilkes' Exploring Expedition, the 4to edition; Denton's History of New-York, 1670; Elliot's Indian Bible, 1680; Audubon's Quadrupeds, together with such other works as may from time to time be specified, according to a signed list, to be left with the Librarian; except that, during the session of the Legislature, or of the Court for the Correction of Errors, any member thereof may take to any room in the Capitol, any Lexicon, Dictionary, or Cyclopedias, Niles' Register, or any files of Newspapers, to be returned on the same day.

VI. The Trustees hereby declare, agreeably to the provisions of the Revised Statutes, that the Law Library, in its most extensive sense, comprehends such books of reference, as should always be kept in it; but during the session of the Legislature, of the Senate, of the Court for the Correction of Errors, and of any Court held in the Capitol, law books may be taken from the Library to any room in the Capitol, to be returned on the same day. The Librarian shall previously charge each person so taking, with the book or books; and a fine of fifty cents shall be imposed for each day's detention beyond the above time. The regulations above ordained, as to loss, injury, or damage of books, shall apply in the present case.

VII. No books belonging to the Law Library are to be taken to the Miscellaneous Library, to be read; nor are books, maps, charts, or prints, belonging to the Miscellaneous Library, to be taken to the Law Library, to be read or examined.

VIII. Three days previous to the day fixed for the adjournment of any session of the Legislature, or of any sitting of the Court for the Correction of Errors, or of the Senate, shall be fixed, the Librarian shall immediately address a note to each member of the Legislature having any book belonging to the Library, requesting the return thereof within twenty-four hours.

IX. After the expiration of the said twenty-four hours, the Librarian shall immediately make out a list of the members of each house of the Legislature, who have omitted to return any books belonging to the Library, specifying the volumes retained by each, and a list of those, upon whom any fines have been imposed, remaining unpaid, or against whom any charges for the loss of books exist, stating such fines or charges; which list shall be alphabetically arranged, according to the names of the respective members, and shall be certified to be correct. To the President of the Senate, the Librarian shall forthwith deliver the list relating to that body; and the list containing the names of the members of the Assembly, he shall forthwith deliver to the Speaker; and upon each list shall be written a copy of Sec. 7, Title 8, Chap. 9, Part I. of the Revised Statutes.

X. Twenty days before the opening of any annual session of the Legislature, the Librarian shall report in writing to the Trustees the title of every book, map, chart, print, or engraving, missing from the Library, since the catalogue of the previous year was made out, or if no such catalogue has been made, since the date of said Librarian's last Annual Report to the Trustees; together with the name or names of the persons who appear, from the entries of the Librarian, to have borrowed or detained the same, to the end that such list may be submitted to the Legislature by the Trustees.

XI. These regulations shall be conspicuously posted and hung in frames in the Library, and the other rooms of the Capitol.

By order of the Regents of the University, as Trustees of the State Library.
