FEC HELD FAVORING REPARATIONS PLAN BY U.S. FOR JAPAN

Russia, However, Has Warned That It Must Have Share Before Approving Scheme

Kyodo-UP

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19—Sources close to the Far Eastern Commission told the United Press they thought the new United States interim reparations plan for Japan which was submitted to the FEC last week-end would receive a favorable reaction from most member nations.

They said, however, that Russia had already warned they would approve the plan only "if we get our share."

This was taken to mean the Russians had no intention of abandoning their contention that their removals of Manchurian industrial equipment should not be considered as reparations but "war booty."

The new interim plan which was devised by the State Department in an effort to circumvent the deadlock, resulting from Russian unwillingness to agree to any final plan unless her position was approved, was submitted to the FEC for "the information and comments" of member nations.

It would authorize General MacArthur to grant interim reparations up to 30 per cent of the amount determined available for that purpose from any single industry.

U.S. Seeking Reaction

The United States has not asked the FEC as a body to approve or disapprove the plan but is merely seeking a reaction.

State Department sources have indicated that unless there are considerable objections by a majority of FEC members, the plan will be put into effect as soon as a 'reasonable" time elapses for other FEC members to make known their reaction.

FEC sources said that while there has not been sufficient time elapsed for member nations to secure an official reaction from their capitals, comments which greeted the disclosure of the plan last Friday showed most FEC representatives privately were in favor of it.

The Russian representative said, however, he was certain his government would not approve unless his country was assured that the Russians would get their full share of reparations. This was taken to mean that the Russians anticipated the United States would contend that the Russians have already received their "interim" share in Manchuria.

However, under the Moscow decisions of 1945, the interim plan can be put into effect by the United States whether the FEC approves or not, under "emergency" provisions, whereas FEC approval would be necessary for a final settlement of all reparations.

Most diplomatic sources told the United Press they appreciated the United States attitude in seeking opinions of FEC members when it is not required to do so in interim matters.

Most sources believed that if Russia delayed long in acting on this plan as on previous United States suggestions on reparations, the Americans would have interim removals underway before Moscow replied.

Must Defray Costs To Move Reparations

Japanese Govt. To Bear All Carting Expenses

United Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The Far Eastern Commission announced that it had decided that "in delivering reparations goods from Japan to claimant countries, the Japanese Government should bear all costs connected with dismantling, packing and transporting to ports in Japan for waterborne or airborne craft, and for handling and loading on board the craft at these ports."

The Far Eastern Commission announced that the decision had been forwarded to General Douglas MacArthur, Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers, "for implementation."

However, its implementation presumably will await FEC working out a reparations plan which in 13 months of its existence it has so far been unable to do.

Exempt From Reparations

Radiopress

TOKYO, Feb. 25.—Machinery and equipment owned 100 per cent by Allied nationals in Japan on December 7, 1941, will be withheld from reparations claims, SCAP has directed the Japanese Government.

Japanese authorities were ordered specifically to release from the reparations list, property of the Ford Motor Co. absorbed by the Sagami port military arsenal on that date and property of General Motors Japan, Ltd, absorbed by the Osaka military arsenal.

The Allied property will be withheld from reparations only if its exemption does not interfere with removal of plants or other units selected for reparations, the directive explained.

LAKE SUCCESS, Feb. 21.—A UN subcommittee studying reconstruction of Far East areas has decided to seek information on the Japanese reparations problem and therefore has invited the Far Eastern Commission in Washington to send a representative to provide such data.

Australia Against Japan Reparations Proposed By US

Radiopress

LONDON, Feb. 19.—A Reuter report says that Australia does not agree with the American policy for reparations from Japan. Australia is said to want reparations to be an essential part of the peace settlement while the United States wants to make the allocations at once and without the peace settlement.

The Australian view, says Reuter, is that she is second only to the United States in the part played by the Allies in the Pacific.

New State Dept. Plan Is Turned Over To FEC; Russians Still Opposing

By Stewart Hensley,

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Sources close to the Far Eastern Commission told the United Press they thought the new United States interim reparations plan for Japan which was submitted to the FEC last weekend would receive a favorable reaction from most member nations.

They said, however, that Russia had already warned they would approve the plan only "if we get our share."

It would authorize General MacArthur to grant interim reparations up to 30 per cent of the amount determined available for that purpose from any single industry.

Memorandum for the Imperial Japanese Government, file AG 370.05 (7 May 46)GC, (SCAPIN-927), dated 7 May 1946, subject: "Repatriation."

REPATRIATION TO AND FROM JAPAN

SECTION 1 - GENERAL PLAN

1. a. The following plan governing the repatriation to and from Japan, now in affect, will continue until otherwise directed by the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers.

b. The entire plan revolves around the use of reception centers and the flow of persons to be repatriated through these centers in the numbers that can be accomodated by the available shipping and rail transportation.

c. Under this plan non-Japanese nationals who, having registered as being desirous of repatriation, refuse to comply with plans of the Imperial Japanese Government for movement to reception centers forfeit their privilege to repatriation and will not be considered in any future repatriation plans. A list of such persons by name will be maintained by the Japanese Government. The number of persons so listed is of 31 May 1946 will be reported to General Headquarters not later than 25 June 1946. Thereafter monthly reports will be furnished on or about the 10th day of the month following the month reported on.

d. Exception to paragraph 1 c above may be made in the case of families which cannot comply with plans of the Imperial Japanese Government for movement to reception conters, due to circumstances over which they have no control. Insofar as practicable the immediate family group should be considered a unit, and should be repatriated as a unit, unless members thereof have forfeited their privilege of repatriation. MEMORANDUM.

SUBJECT: Information of General Application Pertaining to Directive Number (SCAPIN - 865) File AG 720.4 (6 Apr 46)PH, this Headquarters, dated 6 April 1946, subject: "Quarantine Procedures for Cholera in Repatriates.

1. With reference to Memorandum Number (SCAPIN - 865) this Headquarters to the Imperial Japanese Government, the following is published for the information of all concerned.

2. Cholera is reported aboard incoming repatriation vessels from China. This is the beginning of the epidemic season for intestinal diseases and sanitary conditions in Japan are verypoor at present. This makes a sweeping epidemic of cholera a real possiblility.

3. Every effort is to be made to erect a barrier to the introduction of the disease to Japan. To attin this end:

a. The principle of allowing no case ashore will be applied by transferring cases from passenger vessels to hospital ships except initially before hospital ships can be anchored at the two ports of Uraga and Sasebo. It will be necessary to use the most rigid isolation technique at the shore hospitals where cases will be brought before the arrival of hospital ships. Most careful surveillance of this procedure is essential.

b. Allowing only ports where the quarantine facilities are adequate to be used by ships with cholera. At present these are Uraga and Sasebo. It is anticipated that within a month the port of Hakata will be available.

c. Ships from China without cholera may use the ports of Kagoshima, Kure and Hakata.

d. On ships which have cholera aboard, all personnel will be quarantined on the vessel for fourteen days after the appearance of the last case. All personnel immunized with 1.5 cc of cholera vaccine. Stool examinations made to determine carriers. Surveillance to be exercised to assure that these procedures are carried out, that the ship is anchored at a sufficient distance from the shore so that personnel cannot swim ashore, that discharges from the vessel are not washed ashore and that all personnel are physically examined for cholera before disembarking. The vibrio of cholera will live in sea water.

e. The passengers and crew of these vessels will be treated in the same manner.

4. The most critical points in this program are:

a. Strict isolation technique of the cholera cases which must be brought ashore before hospital ships can be made available.

b. The detection of carriers.

c. The prohibition of persons from visiting cholera ships while anchored in quarantine or from personnel escaping from quarantine.
