Astoria's Harbor

Astoria, Oregon

ASTORIA is the oldest American city west of the Mississippi River. It was founded in 1811 by the John Jacob Astor fur-trading party on a peninsula projecting into the estuary at the mouth of the Columbia River, only 10 miles from the Pacific beaches, in a remarkable forest region.

The Columbia River, at whose gateway Astoria stands, is rated by government engineers as having the safest entrance channel of any bar harbor in the world. The Port of Astoria, with one of the most modern marine terminal systems in the world, is just 10 miles from the Pacific.

Astoria is an enviable port—the western terminus of the only water grade route through the Cascade or Sierra Nevada Mountains.

Astoria's dominant industry is fishing, and the Royal Chinook Salmon is the center of this great industry.
