OUT OF THE RUT.

E. O. Burrows' Billposting Stand at Winamac, Ind., is Constantly Growing.

Mr. E. O. Burrows, Winamac, Ind., is very wide awake these days. Mr. Burrows is a hustler. The remarkable growth of his plant in the last two years is almost phenomenal. Two years ago it was next to impossible for him to post 100 sheets on space which was then made up entirely of dead walls, but a great change has taken place. Since then Mr. Burrows is now able to handle from 400 to 600 sheets per month on his own built boards. At this writing his space is all filled, but with the 16th the paper now displayed will all be dead.

In the past month Mr. Burrows has posted 88 sheets Cremo Cigars, 316 28s and 202 sheets Floradora Cigars, 58 sheets good Hair Remedy, 68 sheets Force Food, posters O. J. Gude, 512 and 252 Old Virginian Cherokees, 120, 212 and 58 Bill Diamond Tobacco, 108 sheet Sweet Caporal Cigarettes, 20 sheets for Griswold's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Company, 210 sheets for F. M. Wood's "Gambler's Daughter" Company, besides work done for several local firms.

In addition to this Mr. Burrows has displayed 1,000 booklets for Dr. Miles, 1,000 booklets for Dr. Chase, 600 booklets for Dr. Chase Medical Company, of Philadelphia and New York.

TYNER'S URBANA PLANT.

Major Tyner's plant at Urbana, O., is now completed and ready for business. In fact, some business is being done, and as the application for the renewal of the franchise has been accepted by the State Association, there is every prospect of a booming business at Urbana in the very near future. The boards are modern in construction and about the plant there is everything concomitant with a first-class bill posting outfit. Major Tyner has had more than thirty years' experience, and enjoys a reputation among advertisers in which he can take a just pride and which he declares his intention of maintaining in Urbana.

PHIL MORTON SUED.

Louis J. Hauck, president of the John Hauck Brewing Company, and Mrs. Emilie J. Heine, sued, Thursday, in the Common Pleas Court of Cincinnati, O., to force Phil Morton to remove a big signboard on the canal bank in the rear of their property. They also demand $500 damages, claiming Morton erected the signboard there without authority.

LEVINE'S LETTER.

To the Editor of "The Billboard":
Dear Sir,—I feel as if an apology is necessary on my not making my regular contribution to "The Billboard," but, as Eddy Donnelly says, "What can you do when you're busy?" I have just returned from a hurried-up trip over the country, and find that St. Louis has certainly overdone itself this year, judging by the rather flourishing bills on Charlie Hager's boards. Didn't have a chance to see Charlie, as I only remained between trains, but am positive that with him, as well as the other large cities, this must have been a record-breaking year. Chicago shows up typically Chicago, and I note with a certain gratifying feeling that Bob Campbell must certainly have, within 24 hours of my arrival, renewed every stand of paper on his boards.

Milwaukee, in consideration of its reputation as a cracker-jack, must have forgotten some of the science, or that business may possibly be light with that city, as the boards were not as good as I have remembered heretofore.

Minneapolis and St. Paul had on their gala attire as regards their boardings, and they were as pretty to look upon as Charlie Hager's cracker-jacks.

Fargo, Grand Falls and Little Falls show up immensely, and report business on the boom. In dropping down to St. Joe, Mr. Phillips had a stack of paper in his bill room the size of a skyscraper, waiting to go up.

Burlington, Keokuk, Quincy and Davenport, along with Peoria, communicated to me in my hurried trip that they were not one bit behind the other up-to-date bill-posting plants, which speaks marvelously of the hustling of my old college chum, Frank Chamberlin. Frank, as usual, took me down into the cellar over which is his sanctum sanctorum and cracked a few cold bottles.

I sometimes question whether the advertisers in the United States really understand what Charlie Bernard, of Savannah, Ga., is doing. Let us take this man's plant, his system of cities and system of distributing, and there is not a buyer of any note in the South but his mode of advertising will directly appeal to. The trustworthiness of this man can not for one instant be questioned, as he is secretary for the Bill Posters' Association, and to me it should be the same with the advertisers. Any advertiser who contemplates breaking in this territory should place himself in communication with Mr. Bernard, regardless of what solicitors place his work, as his opinion on his territory is more than a criterion.

In Mobile I had the misfortune to look upon a plant that was a disgrace in the opinion of the association, and it seems to me that a good living awaits an enterprising bill poster who would go into that city and give a man a dollar's worth for his dollar.

Dallas, Tex., has improved its plant in the past year a hundred per cent more than it had in any five years of its existence.

Ft. Worth is coming to the front in the same way, and in the same breath I can speak well of Galveston and San Antonio. Memphis is all right, but Little Rock could be greatly improved, and if we can believe it, the improvement is about to take place.

Nashville is holding its own, which is a recommendation.

Louisville is going ahead, and the new blood is very much in evidence.

I am using my utmost endeavor to get Lawrenceburg and Aurora, Ind., as members of the association, and in consideration of everything I find it is uphill work, but I think it can be done within the next six months.

Cincinnati is all right, and in my opinion did not deserve the raking over it got in Milwaukee, and the only thing that I can see about Cincinnati boards is that they are not properly capped.

I have skipped mentioning a few cities, but after a second thought will say that I was royally entertained by Lon Hudson in Kansas City, who informed me that business was far ahead of their anticipations.

Jacksonville, Ill., which is run by Mr. Hahn, has made some big improvements, the necessity of which were greatly in evidence some months ago.

Bloomington and several of the other Illinois cities whose population ranges above 10,000 inhabitants all show up in good shape, and Mr. Editor, it gives me gratification to note as the years go by the improvements in these plants and how the owners have realized the importance of being a member of the association and keeping their boards up to the standard. They are all making a good living, and I find the majority of the bill posters now throughout the United States, after their busy hours are over, attending their social functions in dress suits, and, taking them as a whole, the average intelligence of modern bill posters throughout this country is superior to the ordinary merchant in their respective cities. Yours very truly,

M. L. LEVINE.

DAUBS.

John Waterman is putting up new boards in Mexico, Mo.

C. A. Hudson, of the Hudson Billposting Company, Albuquerque, N. M., reports their boards all covered.

Geo. Chennelle, of Columbus, O., has put up a nice plant at Wilmington, O. Main's Circus was the first paper posted.

The Billposting Sign Company, of Philadelphia, has started a system of paying its men by the sheet. The plan is working well both ways, as the men now take more pride in their work.

Tom Spielman, of Hagerstown, Md., owns many good billboards, all of which are constantly in active use. The Academy of Music patronizes him abundantly, and he has also a great deal of outside work.

W. J. Odle, of Havana, Ill., writes that business has been very good with him so far this season. His boards have been full all summer, and he has added many new ones. The population of Havana is now 4,000.

Mr. Charles Butler, manager of the Curran Billposting Company at Colorado Springs, Col., recently lost his wife, whose death was very sudden from heart failure. The funeral was conducted under the auspices of F. O. E., No. 143, of which order Mr. Butler is a prominent member.

The Hudson Bill Posting Company, of Albuquerque, N. Mex., have lately put up 1,500 sheets in that city for the fair to be held Oct. 14-18. Mr. Hudson's son, who has an interest in the business, is superintending the work on the fair advertising ear, which is filling the country within a radius of 1,000 miles of Albuquerque.

The wide-awake quality of the up-to-date bill poster is demonstrated by an incident which occurred recently in New York City. Fire had demolished a store on Broadway, and before the fire inspectors were fairly through with their work, and while smoke was yet choking the bystanders, a bill poster was putting up snipes on the ruins.

John C. Martineau, who for the past six years has been the active advertising agent of the Sires' New York theaters, will during this current season have a chance of taking matters more easy, the Sires having recently sold out their interests in the New York and Casino Theaters, leaving only the Bijou for Martineau to fill. Sires Bros. are, however, building a new theater on Broadway, corner of Forty-fifth street, and when that house is built Martineau will again enlist the services of numerous merry wielders of the paste brush, if only to prove that sniping is not a lost art, and that it takes two to make a quarrel over which one of the two shall annex all municipal dead walls and fences within twenty miles of the City Hall for gratuitous bill posting.

DISTRIBUTORS' NOTES.

Tom Spielman, of Hagerstown, Md., reports business booming in his distributing department.

E. O. Burroughs, of Winamac, Ind., reports having distributed in the past month one thousand Dr. Miles Booklets, one thousand Dr. Chase Booklets and six hundred for the Dr. Chase Medical Company, of Philadelphia.

W. J. Odle, of Havana, Ill., complains of bad treatment at the hands of the Billposting Sign Company, of Philadelphia. He alleges that they sent 1,000 Munyon's Booklets to him for distribution, and he wrote and told them that he would not distribute the matter at their figure, as his price was $3 per thousand, net. They wrote him to go ahead with the work, he claims, and he sent in a bill for $3.25, the extra being for drayage. They sent him a check for $1.67, and he claims that they refuse to pay the balance.

COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS.

When a commercial house goes on the billboards it does not follow that it has achieved success merely that it is determined to do so.

An old poster is as dull and uninteresting as a stale newspaper. Posters with a well-displayed trade-mark or a distinctive design with which the public will soon become so familiar that it will at once associate them with the firm name, should be renewed once a month. The expense is trifles compared with the results.

ADVERTISING TIPS.

If terse, but not ambiguous. If you can't be original, at least be sensible.

There's no luck in advertising. It's all in doing it the proper way.

Remember the old saw, "Out of sight, out of mind," and advertise constantly.

Advertising should be so thorough that the public will be convinced of the merits of the article advertised.

INKLINGS.

The "Wrong Mr. Wright" paper is from the press of the Miner Company.

The "Suwanee River" and "Tiger Lillies" paper bears the imprint of J. W. Morgan & Co., of Cleveland, and is quite attractive.

The Spooner Stock Company, at Cincinnati, get their lithos from the Euclid Job Printing Company, in the same city, and the paper makes a good showing.

On Sept. 10 a fire, the origin of which remains a mystery, damaged the National Waterproof Sign Company, of 10 South Central street, Dayton, O., to the amount of $2,000, which loss is covered by insurance.

THE BILLBOARD

FIRST OF THE SEASON.

Repertoire Company Goes to Pieces at New Bremen, O.

The Carvel-Clifford Repertoire Company, which was recently organized in Alexandria, Ind., and which made its first week's stand in that city about a month since, went to pieces at New Bremen, O., Sept. 9. There is no possibility of the company's being reorganized as the members either joined other companies or are making negotiations to that end. This is the first failure of a theatrical organization reported this season.

SUDDEN ILLNESS

Compels Maude Adams To Cancel Autumn Dates.

Maude Adams is ill, and she has been compelled to give up all her plans for the autumn and early winter, as she will not be able to enter upon her stage duties for several months. Her ailment was caused by an overtaxed nervous system.

When Charles Frohman received the news of the condition of his leading star, he immediately canceled all her dates, including her annual engagement at the Kilkenny Theater, indefinitely postponed her coming production of "As You Like It," and took steps to fill the time that would otherwise be allotted to her.

Recent letters from Miss Allen were written in a cheerful vein, and the news of her illness caused great surprise. A decided change must have taken place suddenly.

OTIS SKINNER'S NEW PLAY.

Otis Skinner's new play, "Lazarre," which he put on for the first time at Green Bay, Wis., Sept. 8, is an unqualified success. Produced in the home city of the characters of the story, "Lazarre" was greeted by a theater with every seat, box and inch of standing room filled. With Skinner was Jennie Butt, a Milwaukee actress, who two years ago left the University of Wisconsin to go on the stage with Mr. Skinner, and whose work at once made a hit. The play in a historical Wisconsin city, with a Wisconsin actress in the cast, combined to draw an enthusiastic audience from all the cities of the State for a hundred miles around. The play in brief is the life story of Eleazar Williams, an old Green Bay missionary, who is believed by those who knew him to have been the lost Dauphin of France. For two years Skinner has spent his summers in Wisconsin in consultation with those who knew the characters as they were in life. Picturesque costumes of the French voyager, the buckskin garb of the Indians and the court dress of French courtiers combined to add color to the play, which, judging by its reception, promises to be one of the genuine successes of the season.

AUSPICIOUS OPENING.

The Curtis Theater, at Denver, Colo., which was formerly called the Denver, opened the season last week with a good attraction and a good attendance. The house has been entirely remodeled, the seating capacity enlarged, and a complete set of new scenery installed.

The new management is putting high stakes on the outcome and is, no doubt, justified in so doing. The official staff now includes A. P. Pelton, business manager; J. C. Smutler, secretary and treasurer, and J. C. Jackson, press representative.

The house now belongs to the Stair & Haylin Circuit, and nothing but first-class attractions will be booked.

PLAYS AND SKETCHES COPY RIGHTED.

DRAMATIC.

Bella Fox will again be seen in vaudeville this year.

Bertha Clayton's "A Colonial Girl" is pleasing everywhere.

Blanche Walsh will be seen on the road this year in "Salammbô."

"David Harum" pleased large audiences at Shreveport, La., last week.

"Sweet Clover" was well received at the Grand, St. Louis, last week.

Edwin Young's "Indiana Folks" stood them up at Reading, Pa., last week.

The "Fatal Wedding" played to crowded houses in Reading, Pa., last week.

William Tibbles goes in advance of the Grosvenor Stock Company this season.

Gertude Coghlan, in "Alice of Old Amherst," is standing them up everywhere.

The Irene Myer Company played to crowded houses in Harrisburg, Pa., last week.

Frederick Conrad and Miss Louise Hayden have signed with "The Quarter House" company.

James T. Powers has signed a contract by which he becomes a Lederer star for three years.

Minnell Bros. & Donaldson Dramatic Company played to big audiences last week at Sidney, O.

"The Span of Life" company enjoyed an unusually successful week in Baltimore, week of Sept. 1-6.

Lawrence Mariko, of the San Francisco Examiner, has written a play, which he calls "Life's Great Lesson."

"The Quarter House," featuring Lee Turner, takes the road Sept. 26. The company is in excellent shape.

"The Scout's Revenge" is standing them up or packing them in at every stand. Its business is almost phenomenal.

George W. Murdoch, in "Tom Logan, the Blacksmith," is making a decided hit. He is also supported by an excellent company.

M. M. Solomon has been appointed advance representative of the Royal Theater Company, which is now playing at Dayton, O.

Joseph Jefferson's fall tour of eight weeks begins Sept. 29 at the Colonial Theater in Boston. He reaches Chicago at Powers' Opera House, Oct. 6.

Frederick Lewis will be the leading man with the George Fawcett Stock Company this season. Miss Jane Oaker will assume the lighter leading roles.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell opened her season in New York, Sept. 15, with the new Dodo Benson play, "Aunt Jemima." Mrs. Campbell is her own stage manager.

Harry Swank, the boy vocalist, who made such a hit at the Woolworth Roof Garden, Lancaster, Pa., during the summer, has joined Irene Myer's Repertoire Company.

Charles A. Taylor, author of "Queen of the Highway," visited the show at Henck's Theater, in Cincinnati, last week. Mr. Taylor has five or six other shows on the road.

Mason Mitchell, the actor-soldier, who was wounded in Cuba while fighting with the Rough Riders, has been appointed as United States Consul to Zanzibar for four years.

The Tolson Stock Company in repertoire presenting "Fameion the Trickster" and other well-known plays, enjoyed a six days' season of prosperity at Pine Bluff, Ark., last week.

The Baldwin Melville Stock Company, which has been playing at Buffalo, N. Y., all summer, opened their fall season at New Orleans, Sunday, Sept. 14. "In Missouri" was the offering.

Julia Marlowe arrived in New York Sept. 8 on the Vanderbildt, after her long vacation. She was met at the boat by her manager, C. B. Dillingham, and several members of the company.

James O'Neill's new play has been christened "The Honour of the Humble." It is a Russian romantic play and was written by Miss Harriet Ford. Mr. O'Neill will open in the new play about Oct. 15.

Miss Gracia DePoy is doing great work in "The Human Heart" company. She has worked her way to the front very rapidly, being possessed of rare talent, remarkable stage presence and a pleasing voice.

Bill Turner, who has taken the part of Legree in Ibsen's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" this season, left the organization at Dyersville, Ia., Aug. 29, and has not been heard from since. His trunk is in the keeping of the company.

The Boyle Stock Company recently inaugurated the season at the Grand, Nashville, Tenn., with "The Christian." The company includes Miss Bateman, Mrs. Elsie, Miss Boland, Miss Belle Kinney, J. Edwards, Morris McHugh and Mr. Hilliard. Paul Armstrong's new comedy drama "St. Ann," opened Ford's Opera House at Baltimore, Md., Sept. 1, and was a distinct success, drawing large crowds all week in spite of the warm weather which prevailed. The play will evidently enjoy like success all season.

Hal Kendall, formerly of the People's Theater, Cincinnati, will go ahead of H. A. Powers' "Down in Hopkins" Company, which takes the road Oct. 1. Mr. Kendall has been identified with the show business for some years and is well qualified to make "Down in Hopkins" a winner.

The Brannig Stock Company, under the management of Colonel Brannig, opened their season at Houston, Tex., Sept. 1, to a big audience. "The Two Orphans" was the offering, and the company handled the play capably. Miss Louise Mitchell is the leading woman of the company.

Alice Foss, wife of a stock leading man, now playing in Denver, was divorced in Boston recently, and her maiden name restored her. In the bill of complaint against her husband, Alexander Foss, Miss Fleming charged some little indiscretions against another actress playing in Denver, and the judge decided that Mr. Foss pay his ex-wife $15 a week alimony.

After shunning New York for years and winning a provincial reputation as a tragedian, Walker Whiteside, the Hoosier dramatist, will essay the conquest of the metropolis this season under the management of E. C. Whitney, who will turn his attention from light opera long enough to make a determined effort to restore the classic drama hereabouts. Whitney has signed Whiteside for a long term of years, and will first present him to the New York public in a sumptuous revival of "Richelieu." Whiteside has always clung to the classic stage, and years ago made a hit at the old Union Square Theater as "Hamlet." At that time he also produced "Richelieu."

PLAYHOUSES.

National Hall, Buffalo, N. Y., will open as a five-cent house Oct. 13.

"Little Josie Sprightly" opens the theatrical season in Jeffersonville, O., Sept. 26.

The Wilcox Opera House, at Carrollton, Mo., will open Sept. 22, with "The Minstrel Son."

The lodges of Elks are now laying plans for the erection of a new opera house at Georgetown, Md.

A theater for light opera and vaudeville will be established in Colorado Springs, Col., next summer.

The Howard-Dorset Company opened the new Grand, at Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 1 with "An Innocent Sinner."

The Elks are erecting a theater at Albuquerque, N. Mex., which, however, will not be completed till next season.

The Auditorium Theater, at Philadelphia, Pa., is doing a big business under the new management of Stair & Haylin.

Chase's Theater, Baltimore, Md., will open Sept. 29, with the George Fawcett Stock Company, in Sardou's "Theodore."

Many improvements have been added to the Temple Theater, Louisville, Ky., and it is now one of the prettiest houses in the city.

The Academy of Music, at Baltimore, Md., will open Sept. 22, Miss Percy Haswell, in the "Royal Family," will hold the boards.

Thomas P. Littlejohn, an experienced playhouse manager, has leased the Opera House at Tuscaloosa, Ala., and is now ready to book attractions.

Mr. W. R. Moore, manager of the Athens (O.) Opera House, will play a better class of shows than this house presented last season under the old management.

Mr. D. C. Wiggins, manager of the New Opera House, Richmond, Ky., was in Cincinnati recently buying scenery and furniture for his house, which will be opened Sept. 13.

The fire curtain of the new Grand Theater, in Cincinnati, O., is black, with a white wreath in the center, inscribed in white letters, "To hold as twere a mirror up to nature."

The directors of the Wood Opera House Company, Bay City, Mich., have decided to rebuild the burned theater at once. It is hoped to have the building ready for occupancy early in the new year.

The Orion Theater, at Baltimore, Md., has been practically rebuilt, under a new management. Interior decorations are magnificent. A stock company has been installed, headed by Lida Dexter and Harry Montague, the author-actor.

The Bijou Theater, Atlanta, Ga., managed by Jake Wells, was opened Sept. 15 with a vaudeville bill. The house has been thoroughly overhauled and the fresh appearance of the interior was greeted with expressions of pleasure and applause by a large audience.

The auditorium of the National Union Building, Toledo, O., recently purchased by the A. L. Irish Company, will be turned into a new playhouse seating 1,400 people. It will be operated by a stock company. This will give Toledo six winter and four summer theaters.

The Song Opera House, Middleton, O., has an entirely new set of scenery painted by Harvey, of Cincinnati. An innovation was introduced last week at this popular playhouse when two of the scenes were put in full view of the audience, and, needless to say, the people were delighted with the treat.

The Schmitz Opera House, at Zanesville, O., has been leased to Samuel O. Weller, of that city, who will assume full charge at once, under the management of Harry W. Ross, to whom all correspondence should be addressed. All leases for the season which have been made with Mr. Wm. D. Schmitz have been assigned to Mr. Weller, and any manager holding such a contract, and who is not satisfied with the arrangement should make the fact known promptly. Mr. Weller is erecting a new theater in Zanesville, which will be opened later in the season.

Manager Scott, of the Lexington (Ky.) Opera House, is wide awake to the necessities of to-day and has placed 250 feet of hose, together with axes, buckets and chemical extinguishers in his theater. The stage hands are now being instructed how to use the apparatus, and a fire company has been formed of the opera house employees and drills begun. Manager Scott intends shortly to give the audience an exhibition fire drill, where the fire company will demonstrate its efficiency to handle a fire should one originate.

The Shuberts are quietly laying their plans to secure control of a chain of playhouses south of Chicago, to run in connection with the Dearborn Street Theater in Chicago, which they recently leased. If their plans carry through, they will include in the circuit Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Terre Haute and St. Louis, and probably other towns. They have a lot of money behind them, and if they can't lease these will build. They decline to talk about it, but will not deny that the information is correct. They now control the Herald Square, Casino and Princess and a theater in Rochester, Syracuse, Utica, Troy and Albany, N. Y.

VAUDEVILLE.

Cole and Clements will play vaudeville houses this season.

Grace Maude, the clever little soubrette, is contemplating several good offers.

The new Masonic Theatre, at Louisville, Ky., will be devoted to vaudeville exclusively.

Holt and Whitaker, banjoists and vocalists, received numerous encores at Lancaster, Pa., last week.

As soon as Keith's new Chestnut Street Philadelphian theater is finished it will be given over to vaudeville.

John E. Webster and Dorothy Neville are making good in their new act, entitled "How Mrs. Dunn Done Dunn."

Owing to previous contracts with vaudeville managers, Billy Clifford had to put off his starring project until next season.

Jessie Coulombe is one of the features of the Cincinnati Fall Festival. Miss Coulombe opens at the new Empire Theater, Columbus, Sept. 29.

Timothy W. Swartz, of Goshen, Ind., has started from St. Louis at the head of a vaudeville company, in which line of work he has had previous experience.

Miss Lotte Glenmore, formerly of Charles Faill's company, joined the Woodford Stock Company recently and is proving a valuable acquisition to that organization.

Husband and Shetton made a big hit at Louisville, Ky. Manager Rhodes, of Shady Side Park, offered to extend their time several weeks, but other engagements were in the way.

A vaudeville theater will be established at Colorado Springs, Col., next summer. Owing to the large number of tourists who stop in Colorado Springs every summer, the venture ought to be a paying one.

Ted Sparks Amusement Company is the name of a new company which has lately been organized by Mr. Ted Sparks. They report excellent business since they launched, and have so far played thirty-seven fair dates, of from one to three days each. The company makes a specialty of free attractions and has contracts for twenty-three more engagements and more coming in every day. They keep from eleven to twenty-five acts busy all the time and have built up a good reputation in and around Kansas City, which will, no doubt, serve to make them a big concern next season.

FARCE COMEDY.

The Bratton Comedy Company will play a week under canvas at Griffin, Ga.

Fisher & Carroll's farce comedy "That's All" closed at Baltimore, Md., Sept. 13.

George C. Hazelton, author of "Mistress Nell," has written a new comedy called "Captain Molly."

"Trunting for Hawkins" drew large crowds at the Auditorium Music Hall, Baltimore, Md., the week of Sept. 1-6.

Harry Davenport has signed with Charles Frohman to appear in character parts in some of the latter's regular comedy productions.

Alfred L. Dolson, press agent for Faun's "Last Days of Pompeii," will close a twenty weeks' engagement with that spectacle Sept. 15 to manage Gus Hill's Comedians in "Spotless Town." This will make Mr. Dolson's third season with Manager Hill, and he has also been re-engaged for the Faun attractions next summer.

Following is the roster of "McFadden's Row of Flats" company: Arthur Whitehead, James K. Westley, May Donohoe, Emma Italia, Willie Patton, Henry Frey, Bobby Balston, Jerry Sullivan, Jas. Brady, Woodruff Alexander, Chas. Spence, Newton Alexander, Harry Lane, Frank Stone, Henry Lisch, Frank White, Libbie Hart, Jeanette Wesley, June Deschamps, Mandie Dearborn, Mabel Dearborn, Helen Von de Lar, May Clarence, Kittle Baer, Estelle Sinclair, Dora Price.

Staub's Theater, Knoxville, Tenn., opened Sept. 3 with Yale's show, "Devil's Auction." This production is now in its twenty-first year and enjoys the same popularity it did of yore. The complete roster of this year's company is as follows: Chas. H. Yale, proprietor and manager; M. W. Wise, representative; Smith Turner, general agent; W. R. Gallagher, preliminary agent; G. Michaels, third agent; John I. Gilmette, stage manager; Aurelio Coocela, maître de ballet; Eugene Suyer, musical director; William L. Ulrichs, master mechanic; Samuel Denison, assistant carpenter; John Bannon, property man; William White, electrician; H. W. Fox, assistant electrician; Thomas Gilmore, transportation; Julia Lake, wardrobe; Jas. B. Mackie, John L. Gilmette, Frank DeWitt, Robert Burns, William Newman, W. P. Spearl, H. W. Pattee, Frank A. Masters, Lonise Sanford, Madge Torrence, Lillian Horndon, Berna DeVore, Annie Courtney, Bertha Wasserman, Julia Lake, Irma Stowe, Minnie Salt, Kate Loxley, Agnes Troy, Gertie Dempster, Pauline Pearl, Sylvia Diamond, Emma Frazer, Hattie Walcott, Jennie Lane, Marie Vestus, Lily Holmes, Addie Gaston, Sybil Homer, Emma Bartoletti, Jennie Praeger, Irene and her dog "Zaza," DeWitt and Burns, Morton and Van Allen.

BURLESQUE.

Watson's American Burlesques are drawing big crowds.

The World Beaters packed them in at the Buckingham Theater, Louisville, Ky.

The Kukla-Boo-ker Burlesques turned them away at the Star Theater, Toronto, Canada, last week.

Harry Bryant's Burlesques had a good week at the Monumental Theater, in Baltimore, week of Sept. 1-6.

Burlesque is running unusual comedy u close second in the staid old Quaker City, Philadelphia, this season.

Sam J. Jack's Own Burlesque Company is enjoying an even more marked success this season than it did last.

While a number of the company producing "Codfish Aristocracy" in Philadelphia last week were taking breakfast at a theatrical boarding house in that city, the front wall of the building commenced to cave in, causing a grand scramble for the street. Happily no one was hurt and they managed to get their trunks out before further damage was done.

Abraham Levy, known as Abraham Levy, and his wife, Charlotte, who is a burlesque actress, known as Little Elliott, separated suddenly a few weeks ago, after a few angry words, and her husband, after consultation with his counsel, Howe & Hummel, has brought an action against his wife for a divorce, while she says she has retaliated with a suit for separation on the ground of his alleged cruelty and abandonment. Levy is manager of the Rentz-Santley Theatrical Company, and his wife plays a star role in "Codfish Aristocracy," now playing in New York City.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

"The Liberty Belles" were well received in Charleston, W. Va., last week.

"The Telephone Girl" pleased large audiences in Spartanburg, S. C., last week.

Tschalkowsky's First Symphony (in G-minor) entitled, "Winter Dreams," has just been performed in London.

Phinney's United States Band, of Chicago, will appear for three weeks as the leading musical attraction at the Great Mechanics' Exposition in Boston this fall.

DAN S. FISHELL.

Mr. Dan S. Fishell, whose likeness appears herewith, has again joined the ranks of the agents, having relinquished his position as St. Louis correspondent of "The Billboard" and representative of the Great Western Printing Company, to go in advance of the famous Royal Italian Band, which has created such a sensation the past two seasons among the music lovers of the entire country.

Mr. Fishell is quite as much at home on the road as he was as correspondent of this paper. His letters from St. Louis have been a source of pleasure to "The Billboard's" many readers throughout the United States, and they can not but wish him success in his new position, in return for the moments of satisfaction those letters have given them. It will be a case of a good man ahead of a good organization, and as a result things should hum for the Royal Italians and Manager Ellery this season.

Henry D. Savage has added Puccini's opera, "La Tosca," to the repertory of his English Grand Opera Company. The opera is a version of Sardou's play of the same name.

Frank Daniel's second tour in "Miss Slimplicity" opened at Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 8. Besides return engagements in most of the larger cities visited by him last season, it will include a trip to the coast and a dash down to New Orleans.

Marie Cahill's song, "Under the Bamboo Tree," with its quaint refrain, is one of the best features of "Sally in Our Alley," but the musical hit of this New Englander piece is the chorus finale to the first act, entitled, "Won't You Come and Stroll With Me?"

On Sunday, Sept. 14, Helen May Butler and her Ladies' Military Band played the "Billboard March" the eighth hundredth time. The next in number played by the band is "Creole Belles," 610 times, and third comes "Blaze Away," played 540 times.

Spoehr's "Crusaders" has recently undergone a considerable modernization both in text and music, the former being the work of Franklin Mathilde Paar, the latter that of Dr. Franz Beier, Court Kapellmeister in Cassel. The new arrangement was performed at the Court Opera House at Dresden, on the seventeenth birthday of the King of Saxony, and was extremely successful.

Complete harmony will henceforth exist among the musicians of Atlanta, Ga., for they have all joined the union. For sometime past there had been an effort to bring the musicians of Atlanta together to form a branch of the Federation of Trades, but not until last week did the movement meet with complete success.

The numerous friends of Frederick Phinney are rightly gratified to learn he will make a tour through New England with his famous United States Band at the close of his Boston engagement. The principal feature of his concerts is the grand spectacle production and thrilling fantasy, "From Battlefield to Fireside." Mr. Phinney is a typical New Englander, his friends are legion and his success most noteworthy.

William T. Hoeffer, a trick cyclist and member of the "Zig Zag Alley" Company, had an ugly fall recently, while performing at the Grand Opera House, St. Louis, and narrowly escaped serious injury. The curtain was rung down at once, but as the act is about the last on the program, the performance was not marred to any extent. Hoeffer escaped with a bruised leg, which, however, did not interfere with his appearing as usual.

Masenlli, the noted Italian composer, author of the opera, "Cavalleria Rusticana," will tour the United States this winter. Besides "Cavalleria Rusticana," he will present "Iris," "Radcliffe" and "L'Amico Fritz," other operas of his own composition, as yet unknown to the American stage. Mascagni will supervise the performances himself, and will conduct the orchestra. The singers selected are all from Italy. Mr. S. Krouberg is manager for Mascagni.

John B. Schoeffel is to have a musical festival of four weeks at his Tremont Theater, Boston, which is to open September 22, under the direction of Henry W. Savage. Mr. Savage is to present his grand English Opera Company, of considerably over one hundred members, and will give eight operas. Verdi will be twice represented, "Il Trovatore" and "Aida." Wagner will also have two presentations—"Lohengrin" and "Tannhauser." The other operas will be Gounod's "Faust," Bizet's "Carmen," Balfe's "The Bohemian Girl" and Flotow's "Martha." During the opera engagement the usual orchestra of the theater will be displaced and one of thirty-five picked musicians take its place. There is a double set of principals, and it is one of the records of Mr. Savage's organization that although they have sung over four thousand performances of grand opera the formation of the company a curtain has never been held or a performance changed when it has been once announced.

MINSTRELS.

Lew Diamond joined Gus Sun's Minstrels Sept. 10.

Nat J. Field's Juvenile Minstrels are making a hit with their little feature farce, "Out for a Day With the Thespians."

Welsh Brothers will put out Washburn's Minstrels as soon as their circus season closes. Clinton Newton will have the management of the company.

Notes from John W. Vogel's Minstrels: During the performance of John Vogel's Minstrels at Charleston, W. Va., Manager Vogel was presented with a handsome and costly umbrella, beautifully inscribed, by the Second Regiment Band of Charleston, who occupied the boxes as guests of Manager Vogel. Lew Benedict, the famous minstrel, is occupying the position of interlocutor with the company with great success. Mr. Benedict claims to be the originator of minstrel street parades. Crawford and Flinn, musical artists, are searching heavily through Ohio and are receiving much praise for their original comedy act. The Silver Cornet Band, under the able direction of Prof. Joseph Norton, is the peer of any minstrel band ever organized.

Richard & Pringle's Georgia Minstrels recently made a big hit at Dennison, Tex., and, in fact, they are giving satisfaction wherever they appear. The complete roster this season is as follows: Ruse & Holland, proprietors; W. A. Ruse, manager; J. J. Holland, business manager; W. H. Buile, advance agent; George S. Burton, treasurer; S. H. Dudley, stage manager; William Malone, musical director; F. W. Indman, property man; William Blue, band leader; Billy Kersands, E. Taylor, A. Brown, H. Dudley, Duke Kelley, Harry Kraton, C. Edwards, John Haywood, Richard Hayes, George C. Horace, Ed Harris, George Israel, William Israel, F. A. Indman, Nan Johnson, J. E. Lightfoot, R. C. Logan, William Malone, William Blue, Simon Parish, Clarence Powell, Henry Perry, Stegor Romando, Joe Ricks, A. J. Smith, Fred Simson, John Pittman, Ed Strothen and Sol Tibbs.

FOREIGN.

Henry Arthur Jones's new play, "Chance, the Idol," was produced at Wyndham's Theater, London, Sept. 9, and received but slight praise from the critics. Mr. Jones has given a melodramatic story of Monte Carlo, with a moral that gambling never pays.

Miss Ethel Smythe, who composed an opera, enjoys the distinction of being the only woman who ever had an opera produced at the Covent Garden, London. This work, "Der Wald," was put on during the recent season and was well received. Miss Smythe received her musical education in Leipzig and Berlin.

The Vicar of Gorleston has advanced a plan of running theaters in connection with churches throughout the United Kingdom. Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, the colonial secretary, has recently written to the vicar tendering his sympathy with the project and stating his pleasure to hear of anything being done to bring light and happiness into the lives of the people.

FAT SHOWS CIRCUS, WILD WEST, MUSEUM, MENAGERIE

BOSTOCK AND HAGENBECK.

The Two Big Shows Will Vie in New York This Season.

It is announced that Bostock will take his animal show into New York this winter in opposition to the Hagenbeck troupe, which will be exhibited on the roof of the New York Theater. If this is done, there will certainly be some fur flying in Gorham.

The Bostock animals are now divided into small troupes, which are scattered throughout the country, but it is claimed he will collect them into one big aggregation, in Cleveland, where his largest show is now, and transfer them thence to the great metropolis, which will be entered early in October.

St. Nicholas Ruk, now used by Duss' Band, will be altered for the Bostock Show. The alterations will aggregate something like $15,000.

CATCHES SNAKES

Does This Young Woman for a Livelihood.

In a suburb of Altoona, Pa., there lives Miss Amanda Lauver, who earns her living, and a good one, by catching poisonous snakes and selling them to circuses, etc. She is an expert. Miss Lauver has a contract with a circus menagerie and now has about 100 snakes in captivity, which she is fattening for the circus.

On the hills back of her home all sorts of poisonous reptiles abound. Her youthful training made her familiar with their habits and haunts, which fact she is now turning to good account.

Miss Lauver receives $15 for large rattlers and smaller sums for vipers, black-snakes, copperheads and others.

She has caught more than five hundred snakes this season and has cleared more than $1,000. She says she can easily earn $2,000 a year and only work two hours a day.

WRECK.

Spark's Show Meets With a Catastrophe at Veedersburg, Ind.

On the night of Sept. 1 the cars containing the effects of the John H. Spark's Show were wrecked at Veedersburg, Ind. It is claimed that the wreck was caused by the carelessness of the employees of the Big Four Railroad. The train crew was making a switch of the show cars from the side to the main line, and in some way the cars got beyond the control of the brakemen and went crashing into some box-cars, smashing in the rear end of the sleeping-car and jolting all the inmates, who were then in dreamland, out of bed.

Two animal cages were smashed and several animals and horses were injured. Mr. John Henry, a muselman of the show, had both legs broken below the knees and died from the injuries Sept. 3.

Mr. Jack McRitchell was cut severely on one leg, and in consequence will be laid up for some time. Several workmen were injured more or less seriously. Mr. Sparks arrived on the scene in time to get everything in order and move the show on to the next stand without losing any time.

SHOWS LOCK HORNS.

Forepaugh-Sells Bros. and the Walter L. Main Shows' advance forces locked horns at Lexington, Sept. 10. The proximity of the respective dates, September 27 and 28, exerted great activity from both crews, with the result that the town resembles a barber's pole in brightness. Considerable ingenuity from both sides secured every advantageous position for location of hoard or banner. Mr. Walter T. Murphy, agent of the Main Show, with opposition crew of Messrs. Coleman, Lausch, Paulus, Beirs and Heathcote, proved a wide-awake proposition in executive ability. Telephone and telegraph served Murphy as standard-bearers for his flaming heroic dates, twice the size of his opponent. Main's general agent, Ed Knapp, says he is well pleased with the showing made by his boys. While the fight is hot, it has been clean and merry, with no ill feeling on either side. J. F. A.

CIRCUS GOSSIP.

The Great Melbourne Show will close Sept. 30.

Ringling Bros. have lined Pine Bluff, Ark., for Oct. 4.

H. W. Link is ahead of "The Way of the World" company.

The Forepaugh-Sells Show is titled for Spartanburg, S. C., Oct. 17.

Walter L. Main's advance force secured an excellent showing in Lexington, Ky.

H. S. Rowe is at Fort Worth, where he will make his headquarters for a few weeks.

Kansas City, Mo., is literally covered with paper for the Ringling Brothers' Show, which will exhibit there Sept. 22.

Welsh Bros. sent a check to a Philadelphia newspaper for $100 as a contribution for the striking coal miners of Pennsylvania.

Fred Kramer, of Logansport, Ind., a clarinetist with Ringling Bros. for the last two years, writes that this is his last season with a circus and that he will join a concert orchestra this winter.

Ringling Bros.' trains did not arrive in Great Falls, Mont., until 11:30 a.m., and the parade went out at 2 p.m. But in spite of weather that threatened snow they stayed to capture business at both performances.

Clinton Newton, who has been acting as press agent and amusement director all season with Welsh Bros.' Circus, will have the active management of Washburn's Minstrels, which goes out under Welsh Bros.' management on Nov. 8.

It is reported that Jack Cousius visited the Welsh Brothers' Shows Sept. 8 and received a cordial welcome from everybody in general and from his wife, Little Aymar, in particular, who is driving the cage-walking horse and doing the menage act.

Lon Cooke's famous ride, together with Lew Barratt's elopement, Pop Simon's birthday celebration and Major Burke's Monte Cristo appearance, have given the inhabitants of the Pacific Coast the impression that Colonel Ody's lieutenants are an exceptionally speedy bunch.

Flunup, of Garden City, Kan., is in possession of a three-legged male colt which he desires to sell. The animal was born April 3 last, is iron gray, and weighs 450 pounds. It is perfect, with the single exception of the missing limb, and has never been sick a day in its life.

While the effects of the Nickle Plate Show were being loaded onto the cars at Hamilton, O., a fierce fight ensued between several of the attaches of the show. Robert Weaver and Millard Niles were arrested by the Hamilton police, but proved that they were not in the fight and were released.

Our Paducah (Ky.) correspondent writes that the people of Paducah are particularly partial to circuses, but it seems as if the circus people are not aware of the fact. It is true that the great Wallace Shows played to big business there Sept. 5. Other shows might enjoy like success in Paducah. At any rate, it would hardly be a losing stand.

Advertising Car No. 1 of the Great Wallace Shows is now "union," the men having joined the Louisville (Ky.) Union last week. W. R. Musgrat, manager of the car, was made an honorary member. The other men on the car who joined the union were: Tom Richard, Chester Garden, Bud Fullen, A. T. Hammel, W. B. Foster, W. H. Davis, Roy Patchin, and Peter Hunt.

Perrino, lion tamer of Spark Circus, narrowly escaped being killed by one of the lions at Terre Haute, Ind., recently. His scalp was torn for several inches by the animal's teeth, and several stitches had to be taken in it. Spectators were terribly frightened, but the tamer himself was very cool and collected, finishing the performance before seeking medical aid.

Notes from Sam Dock's Keystone Shows: Business is very good. At Waynesboro, Pa., and Hagerstown, Md., we turned them away. Billy Shouts is manipulating reserved seat tickets. Wm. Acker is quite an addition to the concert with his quaint stumping speech. The new big top and marquee we received from J. C. Goss & Co. is beautyful, and is admired by all.

It is now arranged for the Hagenbeck troupe of trained animals to play in the New York Theater, New York, this season, instead of on the roof, as was previously arranged. Klaw & Erlanger control the house, and their prestige will be of great assistance in introducing the animals to New Yorkers. The exhibit will open Oct. 6.

Major John M. Burke arrived in San Francisco recently, with a fresh budget of entertainment stories concerning his recent experiences with the country editors in Wyoming, Idaho and Oregon. His article in the Boise City Statesman, inspired by anger, it is said, is one of the best things that has ever come from his pen. The Major has never looked finer or fitter for service in his life than he does today.

Dan Douglas, a canvassman with the Wallace Shows, died on the morning of Sept. 5, just after the train had pulled into Paducah, Ky. He was found in one of the band wagons on the top of a pile of harness. Douglas had been ill for some time, but against his better judgment continued his travels with the show. His relatives in Monticello, Ind., were notified, and they came and took charge of the body.

"The Billboard" has just received notice of the marriage of Mr. Fred Ledgett and Miss Dolly Julian, both leading equestrians with Forepaugh-Sells Bros.' Circus. They were married at Havana, Ill., 4 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 7, in the presence of Linda Julian and Mrs. Stevens, aunt and grandmother of Miss Julian and numerous friends. The newly wedded pair intended to keep their marriage a secret from the other members of the company for a short time.

On Sept. 3 a big party of Kansas City people visited the Sells-Downes Shows at Olathe, Kan. The party included Jack Dolling, wife and sister, Burt Scott and wife, May Maritta, family of the Lemon Bros., John Lane, Harry Gray Chas. Maloy, Wm. Cobb, Al Hatch, Ben Rosenthal and many others. After the performance the company was banqueted by Mr. Martin Downs in a royal manner.

Walter H. Creighton, who was for a number of years stenographer for General Agent Louis E. Cooke, of the Buffalo Bill Show, has succeeded Ed Gireau in charge of Car No. 2, and is doing splendid work. Mr. Cooke says that Creighton is proving himself to be one of the most valuable men he ever employed. His method of systematizing the country routes and excursion work has won high praise.

Jack Cousins, the well-known bareback rider, who was arrested in June, and has since been confined in the Media (Pa.) jail, was released on Sept. 8. The charge, which was that of larceny of horses from the Hargrave Show, was withdrawn, and Mr. Cousins was entirely exonerated. The trouble arose over a dispute as to the keep of the horses last winter. He is in good health, and will resume work in a few weeks.

Roster of Carl E. Neel's Military Band, with Walter L. Main's Show: Carl E. Neel, director; Chas. H. Tinney, Chas. E. Edwards, Ernest Partman, S. G. Hughes, Ernest Terneest, Arthur Cox, Claude H. Long, Geo. A. Walters, Jas. P. McMonies, Jas. J. Lemon, Paul Houck, P. J. Healy, Walter West, Geo. Selbert, Thos. Dohle, Joseph Nevin, Martin Duddy, Frank McStay, Harry F. Bare, B. S. Tomlinson, Ed. Conklin.

Lowery Bros.' No. 1 Show closed very suddenly in Camden, N. J., on Sept. 6, and the cars were at once shipped to Shenandoah, Pa., the winter quarters. Many of the performers claimed that they had not received salaries for five weeks, and threatened to attach the cars, but did not do so. Mr. Lowery said that all claims would be paid immediately upon his arrival home. Chas. O'Brien, the old-time clown, was one of the performers who claimed to have lost a large amount of salary.

The down-town show with the Pawnee Bill Wild West Show has had a most successful season, under the management of Billy Nelson. The principal attractions are Eugene Berry, the big-footed boy; Esau, the snake-eater, and Little Norton, the water queen. Morris Quinlan, one-man band, is the outside attraction. Dock Quaney is boss hostler and Ed Murray handles the tickets. Billy Nelson looks after the crowd. After the engagement with the Pawnee Bill Show closes the company goes to the Pacific Coast with Nelson's Big Eastern Show.

Notes from Buckskin Bill's Wild West: The herd of buffalo recently added to the show is proving a drawing feature. Chas. Tompkins, Red Rock, Lee Marshall, Johnny Blocker, Roving Ned, Littleton Cody, Wyoming Sue, Montana Ned, and several others from the disbanded Great Buffalo and Wild West Show, have joined Buckskin Bill's Wild West. Two more large stock companies have also been added to the train. General Agent Harry W. Simon is now prospecting in Florida. We showed at Ponce City, O. T., Sept. 6, with the Sells & Downs Show at Newkirk, twelve miles distant. Both shows did a tremendous business. Business with the Buckskin Bill Show is far beyond the most sanguine expectations of the management. The show is being enlarged and added to as often as anything desirable is discovered.

There is quite a circus colony at Great Falls, Mont., at present. No less than ten of the musicians in the big B. & M. Copper Company's Band are knights of the red wagons. Among some of the best known are John Kelley, trombonist, formerly with Lemon Bros.; Leo Thomas, trombonist, has been with Gentry's and later with the Norris & Rowe Shows; Eull Klingsbury, trombonist, formerly with Clark's Circus. The latter is in the millinery business and making good. He is figuring on putting out a dog and pony show next season. There is talk of his giving a smoker to his friends in the near future, providing a big top and cook tent can be procured to make the occasion more realistic.

Notes from the Walter L. Main Show: "Doc" Ogden, the well known side-show operator, has resigned his position with the Walter L. Main Show, and has taken charge of the Sells & Downs Annex. He joined the latter-named organization at Pawnee, O. T. The genial "Doc" left many warm friends with the Main Show, who wish him success in his new field of operations. John G. Robinson visited the show at Westchester, Pa., returning with Mr. Main, who looked the "Ten Big" over at York, Pa. The testimonial of esteem recently tendered to Superintendent D. Fitzgerald by the employees of the show was undoubtedly one of the finest ever presented by any circus organization. The diamond solitaire weighs  $4\frac{1}{2}$  carats, and is worth exactly \$500. The "Captain" Fitzgerald is a popular man with his fellows, goes without saying. John D. Carey, press agent for the show, has been doing some special work in advance lately. Bob Clements, assistant superintendent of the show, is back at his post of duty after a trip to Mt. Clemens, Mich., where he went to seek relief from a severe attack of rheumatism. Mr. Clements is enthusiastic over the curative qualities of the water that has made the Michigan resort famous.

Notes from the Barnum & Bailey Shows: James A. Bailey tells some interesting things about Europe which happened during his five years' stay over there. He says Americans are highly respected throughout Europe, and the skill and rapidity with which they successfully handle difficult projects is the source of great admiration on the part of our foreign brothers. The Bailey Show was the first to travel in Great Britain and the continent by rail. Needless to say that their train of sixty-five cars, each 70 feet in length, astounded the people. Mr. Bailey further states that at every meal amazed and envied throngs surrounded the dining tents, who saw the workmen fed with beef, mutton, etc. Many of them had meat of that sort only as an event in their lives, while with many horseflesh was a luxury. When told that this was only a daily happening in America, that is, the meat eating process, it caused many to seek our hospitable shores. But, to! Since the Beef Trust holds its iron sway over us poor Americans, we are perhaps in the same condition as the above-mentioned unfortunate whom fresh meat was a luxury.

Welsh Bros.' Circus exhibited at Darby, Pa., a suburb of Philadelphia, on Monday, Sept. 8, and had a packed house in the evening and a very fair house at the matinee. They had just returned from a very successful tour of the Delaware peach country, and only played Philadelphia in order to break a jump, but were more than satisfied with the day's business. A few changes have been made in the company since the last roster was published in "The Billboard." None of the performers have left, but a number have been added, as Col. M. H. Welsh wants to finish the season with the strongest show he has ever had. Lotte Aylen (Mrs. Jack Cousins) joined Sept. 1, and is now doing a graceful and exciting menuage act. Captain Ferrie, of the Boston Fire Department, has also been engaged, and is daily doing a high dive from a ladder into a net, as an outside feature. Among the new concert performers who have lately joined are Paul Klotz, a singer and dancer; Ward Sisters, whirlwind dancers, and George T. Boyd, female impersonator. Everybody is well with the company, and the show has cleaned up a large sum of money this summer. The season will run until Oct. 15, and immediately upon its termination Welsh Bros. will put out Washburn's Minstrels.

Notes from Busby Bros.' Show: The Busby Bros.' Show is in its twenty-first week. Business has been phenomenal, with the usual opposition that all shows encounter throughout Indiana, Illinois and Iowa, being surrounded by the large shows for the past six weeks. Had five weeks of bad and stormy weather during the early part of the season, still the show has lost but two performances. At Pendleton, Ind., May 6, we experienced a very heavy gale, which carried away our dressing room top; it was so badly damaged that a new 50 by 30 was purchased. The large top was saved from much damage by the heroic efforts of the large force of workmen. On the date of Sept. 6, after the night performance, a large tank of gasoline exploded and for a few minutes it threatened to burn the whole top, but by hard work on the part of the boss canvasman, Peter J. Kennedy, and his assistants, they managed to subdue the flames. Mr. Kennedy and his assistant, James Wilbur, were left to fight the flames alone, as the rest of the workmen fled for their lives. These two gentlemen were slightly burned, but not fatally so. As it happened the management had an 80-foot top, with two 40-foot middle pieces, at their winter quarters, Pana, Ill., so they have sent for some and expect it to arrive by Monday. This show carries a 60-foot baggage car, also a Pullman sleeping and dining car; have an 80-foot round top, with two 40-foot middle pieces; dressing room tent, 50 by 30; horse tent, 40 by 20. Twenty head of horses transport the show from the cars to the lot.

It is God's will, not the critic's, that decides the success of the play. The manager goes to the gallery for the highest authority.

THREE PARKS

Closed Their Season at St. Louis Last Week.

Last week marked the closing of three of St. Louis' popular parks, namely, Delmar Gardens, West End Heights and the Suburban Garden. Each park had a bill of entertainment worthy of the event, and all enjoyed a fair patronage. This leaves but two parks open in St. Louis, the Forest Park Highlands and Koerner's Garden, to bid for patronage. They will remain open a few weeks longer, and amusements fully up to the standard of those seen all summer at these parks are promised the patrons.

AMUSEMENT COMPANY.

The Indiana Amusement Company was recently incorporated at Evansville, Ind. The company was formed for the purpose of supplying parks and pleasure resorts with amusements. The capital stock is $50,000, which is divided into fifty shares. The incorporators are John Cash, Edward J. Grizzard and Joseph Burke. These gentlemen are connected with the Evansville Street Car Company.

PARK NOTES.

Paxton Park, Harrisburg, Pa., closed Sept. 13.

Prof. McKenne, the hypnotist, is the attraction at Black Eagle Park, Great Falls, Mont., this week.

The Banda Rossa closed its week's engagement at Lake Contrary Park, St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 8, having drawn large and appreciative crowds the entire week.

The Buhler Kemble-Rising Stock Company will continue for a few more weeks at Koerner's Garden, St. Louis. "Hamlet" was presented last week. Will S. Rising had his benefit Sept. 12.

The popular Delmar Garden, St. Louis,

Mo., was closed last week. An elaborate revival of "The Rounders," for which J. E. Kelley had been especially engaged to play Maginnis Pasha, was the final offering.

Fitzgerald and Stewart, the sensational high divers, were big features at Shady Side Park, Louisville, Ky., last week. Mr. Stewart's "Monte Cristo" dive excited much favorable comment from the press. Last week Husband and Shelton closed a two weeks' engagement at Shady Side Park, Louisville, Ky. Manager Rhodes offered them several weeks addition, but other engagements prevented their accepting.

Frank LeVan, an aeronaut, was painfully injured at Green Mountain Falls, Colorado, recently, his balloon striking a tree and throwing him to the ground. His left shoulder was dislocated and he was bruised up generally, but no bones were broken.

The Seaside Railway and Amusement Company claims that the railway at Walbridge Park, Toledo, O., has far more than paid expenses during the first year of its operation, and that at the end of the season they will be able to declare quite a handsome dividend to stockholders.

The work of clearing Sand Island, which is to be the new pleasure resort of Louisville, Ky., has begun. Mr. Archie Harris, a member of the Falls City Amusement Company, states that the work will be pushed with vigor. D. X. Murphy is busy on the plans for the buildings.

For its sixteenth and final week the Suburban Garden, St. Louis, Mo., offered Mr. Frank Keenan, who has turned monologist during the summer months, and he scored an emphatic hit. The Taylor-Richards Company, in a farce called "Wanted—a Typewriter," also pleased.

The program at Forest Park Highlands, St. Louis, last week was headed by the Osram troupe of aerobatics, who are new to this country. Other acts were: Katharine Broodgood, the contralto; Delphine and Delmora, clowns and comedians; the Juggling Jordans, Baby Lund, and Trask and Rogers, black-face comedians.

Last week closed the season at West End Heights, in St. Louis. The management provided good entertainment for the final week, including the Flying Bannards, who perform in midair; Sherman and BeForrest, comedy sketch artists; Barton and Mack, black-face comedians; George Austin Moore, vocalist; Harrington Sisters, soubrettes; Emma Weston and Bauer's Band.

Messrs. Barnett & Wasson, owners of the People's Park, Spokane, Wash., recently closed their park and leased a big building, in which they now give continuous vaudeville. The cool evenings made it necessary to move their performance indoors, and the large attendance now enjoyed by the wise managers fully justify their belief that the people of Spokane will patronize a good, clean vaudeville theater.

Next park season will see at least twenty loop-the-loop railroads in operation in parks in the United States. England will be invaded with six, located at London, Brighton and Blackpool. The success of "loop" railroads has been far beyond the expectations of the inventors. At the first introduction it was considered dangerous, but after three years of operation, and carrying at least 5,000,000 passengers without accident, this objection has been overcome.

The theatrical season at Terrapin Park, Parkersburg, W. Va., was closed week before last. The Carmer Stock Company, which had held the boards at the park all summer, left for Lancaster, O., where they opened their regular road season. During their stay in Parkersburg they made many friends, who will be glad to welcome the company's return next season, as it is given out that they will be at Terrapin Park again next summer. The company was also successful financially.

SPEED RING NOTES.

An excellent speed program is held in conjunction with the fair at Lake Contrary Park, St. Joseph, Mo., this week.

The State Agricultural and Mechanical Society of South Carolina will hold their thirty-fourth annual fair at Columbia, S. C., Oct. 28-31. A race meet will be held in connection with the fair, and $2,500 is offered in purses.

(See First Page.)

Mr. Chas. L. Hertzman, an excellent like-ness of whom graces our title page this week, enjoys the distinction of being one of the youngest theatrical managers in the United States. He was born Dec. 12, 1879, and attended school in Baltimore, Md., and later in Louisville, where in 1895 he was engaged as stenographer by Whallen Bros., and from this time on he made wonderful strides in the theatrical world. A year later he was appointed to the important position of private secretary to Col. John H. Whallen. In this capacity he served so well and faithfully that three years later (1898), he was made press and advertising agent of Whallen's Buckingham Theater, in Louisville, and in 1901 treasurer and business manager of the same house. Then followed his appointment as manager of the Empire Theater, Detroit, in which capacity Mr. Hertzman's competency has already asserted itself. There were many applicants for the position, and among them managers who have won a name in the theatrical world the last few years, but the Empire Circuit Company, at a meeting held in New York last month, rejected all these applications in favor of Mr. Hertzman. This we find this young hustler at the age of 23 years representing the Empire Circuit Company in Detroit and managing the Empire, Dr. Campbell's theater, in that city. Mr. Hertzman is confident of success, as the "wheel" system of booking, perfected by the Empire Circuit Company, is such that all attractions playing its theaters must maintain a high standard. Mr. Hertzman's friendly and upright disposition has won for him a wide circle of friends, and they all rejoice to hear of his advancement.

CROP REPORT.

Following is the Agricultural Department's weekly summary of crop conditions:

Although the week was cool in the central valleys and lake region, with more than the average rainfall in portions of the Upper Mississippi Valley, maturing crops have made generally favorable though not rapid advancement. The greater part of Texas, in which State severe drought prevailed at the close of the previous week, has received abundant rainfall, and drought conditions in the Middle Atlantic Coast districts have also been largely relieved, but the interior of the Middle Atlantic States, Ohio Valley and portions of the Lower Lake Region and South Atlantic States continue to need rain. Light to heavy frosts were very general in the northern districts, from Montana to New England, and the Middle Atlantic States, from the 3d to 6th, with but slight injury.

Rain is much needed in Washington and Oregon, but otherwise the general conditions on the Pacific Coast were favorable.

Notwithstanding the prevalence of low temperatures throughout the corn belts, and copious rainfall in portions of the Mississippi Valley, the corn crop has made very satisfactory advancement toward maturity, and wholly escaped injury in the States eastward of the Mississippi River from frosts occurring on the 4th and 5th, with but slight injury in the States to the westward. The bulk of the corn crop in Missouri and Kansas, and much of the early planted in Nebraska and the States of the Ohio Valley, are now safe. In Iowa, where corn has ripened very slowly, two thirds of the crop will probably be safe by Sept. 20, and the balance will require ten days longer.

The thrashing of spring wheat, although further retarded, has made more favorable progress than in the previous week.

Texas and a large part of the central and eastern districts of the cotton belt have received abundant rainfall during the week, but it is doubtful whether the beneficial effects of these rains to late cotton will offset the injury done to the open staple.

Late tobacco has experienced a general improvement in the Middle Atlantic States and Ohio Valley, and cutting and harvesting have progressed under favorable conditions in all tobacco States.

In the States of the Upper Lake Region the reports respecting apples are favorable, while those from New York and New England are variable, indicating a very light crop in some sections, with plentiful yields in others. In the Ohio Valley and most of the Middle Atlantic States the outlook continues very poor.

INDUSTRIAL REPORT.

Gradually the miners in the anthracite country are returning to work, and conditions generally are assuming their normal aspect in that section. In other parts of the country prospects remain as brilliant as possible.

Practically all the important manufacturers of vehicle poles and shafts of the country were represented at a meeting in Cincinnati, O., last week. The plants represented are located in Ohio, Indiana, Tennessee and Iowa, those being the States that furnish 95 per cent. of the output of the kind in the United States. It was decided at the meeting that a consolidation of these firms be formed at once. The capitalization is to be $1,000,000.

The demand for pig iron is still in excess of the production on account of the scarcity of coke, which is incident upon the prevailing labor conditions.

No new strikes of consequence were reported during the past week. The country is enjoying a season of industrial prosperity that promises to last twelve months at least.

ONE DAY'S WORK

Done by General Agent Gohen, of the Robinson Carnival Company, in Henderson, Ky.

Not every street fair agent enjoys the distinction of promoting an Elks' Carnival and editing a strange daily newspaper the same day, but George Gohen, general agent of the Robinson Carnival Company, turned the trick in Henderson, Ky., last week.

Mr. Gohen was in Henderson promoting an enclosed street fair for the Elks. The only lot in town fit for a fair is owned by the L. & N. Railroad, whose permission it was necessary to obtain before anything could be done. The editor and publisher of the Henderson Evening Journal is John A. Lyne, who is a member of the executive committee having the carnival in charge, as well as very close to the powers that be in the L. & N. management. The committee decided that Lyne must go to Evansville and use his "pull" to secure the lot. Lyne was willing to go, but said: "I have no one to get out my paper, and I wouldn't trust it to an inexperienced man."

"That's all right," replied Chairman Cromwell, of the Elks' committee. "Mr. Gohen is an experienced newspaper man, and he'll run the Journal for you for one day, won't you, Mr. Gohen?"

"Certainly," replied Gohen. "If Mr. Lyne is willing to take chances on my ability and judgment, I shall be glad to do anything to help this committee."

"I'll take the chance, if you'll do the work," replied Lyne.

"All right," replied Gohen. "I'll be on hand at 7 o'clock in the morning and you can leave on the 8 o'clock train for Evansville."

At 7 o'clock the next morning Gohen was on hand. He was introduced to the reporters and the foreman and in ten minutes he was grinding out copy and giving assignments from Lyne's desk as though he had been there ten years. He "covered" the court-house and police route himself, landed two "soaps," read all the proofs, in addition to attending to Dan R. Robinson's interests in the meantime, and got out a spider edition of the Henderson Evening Journal that the readers of that paper had seen in a long time. When Editor Lyne returned from Evansville in the evening he fairly gasped at the result of the change. After thanking and congratulating Mr. Gohen, he said:

"Well, if you're a fair sample of Cincinnati newspaper men, I don't wonder that they have such splendid newspapers there."

Gohen wound up his day's work by making an address to the Henderson Lodge of Elks that night, and still some people say a carnival agent don't have to be a versatile cuss in order to earn his salary.

MINSTREL ENTERPRISE

Will Be Launched by Klaw and Erlanger Next Season.

Announcement has been made that Klaw & Erlanger will put out a big minstrel troupe next season, headed by Lew Dockstader. The enterprise will be known as Klaw & Erlanger's Modern Minstrels and will include 100 people, with the operative chorus both male and female voices, a double measure of soloists, humorists and dancers.

The book for the company will be written by Mr. John J. McNally, who has written all the skits for the Rogers Bros., which have enjoyed such phenomenal success throughout the country. The show will open at the Knickerbocker Theater in August, 1904, which is not a great way off, considering the vast amount of work that must be compassed during the intervening time.

The contract between Primrose and Dockstader does not expire until the close of the present season, and they will continue to be associated in their present minstrel enterprise up to that time. This is Klaw & Erlanger's first breaking in upon minstrelsy. They have had Vandeville, farce, drama and melodrama on the road, but it is believed that the domain into which they are now entering will be made a greater success of than anything they have attempted.

LUCKY OUTCOME

Of a Bad Fall Selma Herman Narrowly Escapes Serious Injury.

While the "For Her Children's Sake" Company were busily rehearsing at the Grand Opera House, New York, preparing for their opening at that house Sept. 15, in accident befell the leading lady, Miss Selma Herman. She plays the part of a wayward girl who afterwards marries a circus manager and becomes a noted equestrienne. One night she is recognized by her father just as she is doing her daring hurdlefeat in the sawdust ring. Overcome by emotion the heroine falls from her horse. At the first rehearsal with the horse, Miss Herman fell heavily to the stage and narrowly escaped serious injury. In falling she clung to the horse's bridle, and as the animal reared the saddle turned and she fell directly under his feet on her right arm and side. Miss Herman was driven to her apartments and a physician hastily summoned. However, beyond a few bruises, she was not seriously hurt, and was able to appear at the opening.

MARRIAGES.

Mr. Fred Lidgett and Miss Dottie Julian, leading equestrians with the Forepaugh & Sells Bros.' Shows, were married at Havana, Ill., Sept. 7.

OBITUARY.

Fay Ransom, recently with a "Floradora" road company, died Sept. 10, in New York, from the effects of an operation.

"Prof." Collins, an aeronaut, died Sept. 8 at Manchester, O., from injuries suffered by falling from a balloon. His family lives in Cincinnati.

Teresa Stolz, the celebrated soprano, who was born at Trieste, Italy, in 1840, and who was an admiring interpreter of Verdi's music, died recently in Milan, Italy.

Count DeMiranda, the husband of Christine Nilsson, died Sept. 8 at Cambio, department of Basses Pyrenees, France. The intelligence of her husband's demise reached Madame Nilsson in Sweden, and she hastened to Cambio.

Mrs. Charles Butler, wife of Charles Butler, manager of the Curran Billposting Company, of Colorado Springs, Colo., died recently of heart failure at her home in that city. The funeral was conducted under the auspices of F. O. E., No. 143, of which order Mr. Butler is a prominent member.

Dan Douglas, a caymanian in the employ of the Wallace Shows, was found dead in a band wagon at Paducah, Ky., Sept. 5 just after the show had pulled into town. He was from Monticello, Ind., and had been with the show some time. For a time he had been complaining of illness, but was apparently recovering when the show reached Paducah.

Mrs. Mattie Spears, wife of the showman, Andy Spears, and who formerly traveled with her husband along the Ohio river on a showboat, giving exhibitions with her troupe of trained dogs, died in the infirmary at Portsmouth, O., recently, at the age of 55. Mrs. Spears was a victim of Bright's disease. She was buried in the Pine Street Cemetery, at Portsmouth.

Mr. John Henry, for four years a musician with the J. H. Sparks Shows, died Sept. 3 from injuries sustained in the railroad wreck at Needersburg, Ind., Sept. 1. Mr. Henry was a tuba player and a first-class musician. He was of a jovial disposition and well liked by everybody connected with the show. He leaves a large circle of friends, who sympathize with his family in their bereavement. The members of the Sparks Show sent a beautiful floral design to his home in Countessville, Ind., where the interment took place, Sept. 5.

CORRESPONDENCE.

NOTICE.—The Billboard desires a correspondent in every city and town in the United States which is not here represented.

NEW YORK.

Two English Stars Open—Mrs. Patrick Campbell at the Garden, and Lord Rosslyn at the Garrick.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell opens the season at the Garden Theater to-morrow evening with "Aunt Jeannie," by E. Y. Harburg. It is a modern society comedy.

The Earl of Rosslyn, under the theatrical name of James Erskine, makes his American debut to-night at the Garrick in Robert Marshall's new play, "There's Many a Slip." Jessie Millward makes her re-entrance in this play.

At the American, "Hoodman Bluff," originally produced at Wallack's fifteen years ago, is revived by the resident stock company of the theater.

At the Grand Opera House, "The Fatal Wedding" gives way to "For Her Children's Sake" by Theodore Kremer, and a sequel to "The Fatal Wedding."

"Hearts Adame" at the Bijou has received a strong endorsement from the public, and is drawing audiences of most flattering proportions. The smart dialogue and general view of the social life of the day make this a thoroughly interesting play.

Crowded audiences attest the continued favor with which "A Chinese Honeymoon" has been received at the Casino.

The latest Rice production, "King High Ball," at the New York, is a medium for introducing many pretty girls to public notice.

"Sally in Our Alley" at the Broadway, is not the least successful of Mr. Lederer's many production. Dan McAvoy, Marie Cahill and a few other talented artists give the libretto the necessary snap.

Weber & Fields' opening is talked of along Broadway as one of the most notable affairs of the season, and seats are already selling many weeks in advance.

The new production of "Robin Hood" at the Academy seems more like a new thing altogether than a revival, with its gorgeous stage settings and handsome costumes. The chorus is particularly well trained and sightly.

"The Bandit King," with James H. Walker, is given at the New Star.

Numerous curtain calls follow the battle scene in the third act of "Captain Molly," at the Manhattan, and the comedy parts also meet with the liberally manifested approval of the audience. Miss Tree is a charming Molly and the play goes with much spirit.

The general verdict seems to be that "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" at the Empire is one of the most attractive plays that Mr. John Drew has ever been seen in.

Nora Donnelly McCall will be the Odysseus at this week's performance of that play at the Murray Hill Theater.

Dunn and his famous band have but two weeks more at St. Nicholas Rink, then one night at Madison Square and then tour the country.

The Boston Pearl Animal Show will succeed Dunn at the St. Nicholas. Another animal show is booked to open Oct. 6 on the roof of the New York Theater.

The first two of these animal shows to get their show printing into New York will be the only ones to secure a billing, and only a very limited billing at that, as Van Buren's boards are running bumper-high and Frank Aubrey, the theatrical representative of that firm, has to steal marches on the commercial representatives to make openings for theatrical paper.

Mrs. Elsie and her company have begun the rehearsals of Heyse's "Mary of Magdala," which will be the feature of her season.

Charles Frohman has engaged Sandor Miller for the leading part in Clyde Fitch's "The Girl in the Cage."

Fred Thompson and E. S. Dandy, of the Aerial Navigation Company, have purchased the whole of Seneca Park at Coney Island from Captain Paul Boyton. Fred Wheeler, who is in charge of the publicity department, states that under the new proprietorship the park will be renamed Luna Park International Midway. During the coming winter months a huge transformation scene will develop. Among other changes, "The Trip to the Moon," "See Saw," and other special features will be removed from Steeplechase Park to Luna Park. Fred Thompson, who is now in England, is also expected to secure and bring back with him the best of anything novel or attractive now being exploited in London, Paris or Berlin. Between Geo. P. Tilyon and this firm of Thompson and Dandy, Coney Island promises next summer to be a revelation to park managers, as well as New Yorkers, in respect to outdoor attractions.

RALPH KELSO.

PINE BLUFF, ARK.

Bell Park Theater, (Hauf & Leitner, Mgrs.)—Tolson Stock Company, Sept. 39, in repertoire. Sept. 9 they presented "Fanchon, the Cricket." The role of Laundry was very cleverly enacted by Chas. Tolson, as was also that of Fanchon by Loren Tolson. They were ably supported by the entire company. Large attendance throughout the week. The engagement of this company ends Oct. 13.

Ringling Bros. Circus shows here Oct. 4, S. F. ROSENBERG.

CHICAGO.

Amelia Bingham's "A Modern Magdalene" Makes a Hit With Chicagoans—"Wizard of Oz" Soon To Take the Road.

It is really wonderful the business that is being done at the theaters in this city at this time of the year, when it is taken into consideration that the season of 1902-03 is only just begun, and if it is any criterion this is certainly going to be a season that managers in the future will recall with delight.

Powers—Miss Bingham began her second week at this theater in "A Modern Magdalene," filling the house, notwithstanding the bad weather. Better or more artistically balanced playing has never been offered to Chicago playgoers by any company.

Illinois—"The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast" has constructed a most enjoyable entertainment, which readily lends itself to the introduction of many up-to-date diversions. The three acts are divided into twelve scenes. These comprise the fairy parliament, the hydro baths, the haunted vaults of the castle, the royal assembly, the tangled forest and the ballet of the four seasons. Patronage has been good, and is likely to be for a good long run.

Grand—The season of "The Wizard of Oz" is drawing to a close. It is a pity that it can not be extended, as it is mighty to play to capacity, and could continue to do so for an indefinite period. Freshness is kept up by the introduction of new and telling bits of business, the truthful, lively dances and original comedy remaining the same. After next week it goes on tour, but will be seen here again New Year's Week.

have intervals of humor. The scenery is something unique. The company is above the average.

Criterion—"The Darkest Hour," with the German comedian, Charles A. (Karl) Gardner, as the star, moved from the Academy to the Criterion. Mention of the piece was made in my last letter.

Chicago Opera House—The program for the week presented at the Chicago Opera House has for its headliners Wayburn's Girl Jockeys, Gracie Emmett and company, and the following well-known performers: McMahon and Chapelle, the Four Oliphants, Geo. Stewart, Armstrong and Passedy, Edith W. Richards, Connelly and Kane, Woodward-Layton, Kehus, Leonora Thurber and Pleeks, Three Brothers, Rossi, Jack Burch, Conners and Connors, Bert Finer, and Behnre, Case and Martin, Bushnell good.

Olympic—For the week commencing Sept. 7 Mr. and Mrs. Milton Royle and company, James J. Morton, three Musical Dandies, Clara Ballerini, Romany Trio, Brannan and Martini, Ballerini's great dogs, Zelma Rawston, Belmont and O'Brien, Flo Adler, Raymond and Clark, George W. Moore, Marlon and Deane, Pompeji and Fay, and the Kudodrome.

Haymarket—Messrs. Kohl and Castle presented the patrons of the Haymarket the following excellent program: Matt Ott and company, sketch; Lew Hawkins, minstrel comedian; Hines and Reuning, sketch; Madame Emmy's Fox Terriers; Whoma, Banks and Winters, comedy; Brothers Bright, gymnasts; the Two Schroders, acrobatic funmakers; Alburtt and Millar, club jugglers; Steve Jennings, comedy pianist; Mattie and Pearl, acrobatic specialty; Dave Nolan, mimic; the Lims, comedy; Baby Blossom, Rockwell and Cole, and the Sam T. Jacks. Of the many burlesque organizations now touring the country, there nights, as an extra attraction, a display of fireworks is given.

The New Calumet, South Chicago, (John Connors, Mgr.)—"In Old Kentucky," with its merry little pickaninnies, filled the Calumet to overflowing. "In Old Kentucky" has an enviable record. It has been continually before the public for ten years, and is as strong a favorite with playgoers now as ever. The company was organized by Jacob Litt to play long engagements this year in Chicago, Boston and New York, and will only play a few of the smaller cities. Sept. 7, "The Irish Pawnbrokers," good business, good company.

A. H. HART.

BOSTON, MASS.

Theaters all Doing a Flourishing Business—Four Cohans Drawing Big Crowds.

The four Cohans and their company at the Boston Museum make merriment for everybody with "The Governor's Son," and the audiences have been large. The musical comedy is full of bright things, and the songs and dances of the four stars give added interest to the entertainment. The next time the Cohans come here it will be with a new play.

David Warfield and "The Auctioneer" at the Hollis Street Theater have repeated the success that they enjoyed in New York last winter, and the season in Boston has opened in the most auspicious manner. The study of Hebrew life while Mr. Warfield presents is wonderful in its effectiveness.

"Eddie Dee Dee" is drawing large audiences at Music Hall at every performance, and is giving excellent satisfaction to the patrons of this popular priced theater. The performance is a thoroughly good one. Henrietta Lee, Rice and Cady, Dorothy Drew, Charles P. Morrison and John G. Sparks scoring personal hits, while the specialties introduced by the Newsboy Quintette and the Fardownie Sisters are demanded again and again.

The Rustic Theater program at Norumbega Park this week is in many respects the best that has been seen there this season, with such well-known favorites as Waterbury Brothers and Tenney, the Aners, Salle Stember, the Horseshoe Trio, LaNotes and the komograph.

"The Banker's Daughter" is handsomely staged and costumed at the Park Theater this week, and the excellent acting by Corse Payton and his stock company is receiving hearty applause from large audiences. Next Monday afternoon Mr. Payton will present "The Woman Hater."

The excellent performances of Clyde Fitch's famous play, "Barbara Frietchie," at the Castle Square Theater, this week are attracting great audiences. "Barbara Frietchie" is announced for only this week. Monday the Castle Square Theater Stock Company will appear in R. P. Tarton's comedy, "Lady Hünworth's Experiment."

The current week's show at Keith's is one of the best presented this season, and is drawing large houses. Ten-tenths the clever Japanese magician, is gaining further laurels by his wonderful exhibitions of black art. Milton and Dolle Nobles, Stuart Barnes, the Gagnoux, Nessen and Nessen, and Henderson and Rose, contribute to the comedy department.

J. W. Gorman's Alabama Troubadours are drawing the largest audiences of the season to the Medford Boulevard Summer Theater. The theater will close for the season Saturday night.

At the Grand Opera House this week Ben Hendricks, in "Old Olson," is delighting large audiences at every performance with his quaint dialect interpretation of the immigrant Swede.

Miss Mand Williams will sing Piola with the Eastern "King Dodo" Company while Henry W. Savage has organized to cover the territory which can not be played by the other organizations.

Nat P. Goodwin and Maxine Elliott will have a hearty welcome back to Boston when they come to the Hollis Street Theater next week from Monday with "When We Were Twenty-one."

That powerful melodrama, "The Crust of Society," with Miss Zethie Tilbury in the leading role, has crowded the Bowdoin Square Theater all the week.

"Florodora," with Edna Wallace Hopper and big company of favorites, comes to the Bowdoin Theater next Monday night. The advance sale has been large.

Next week "Quincy Adams Sawyer," the great New England play, fresh from the triumphs of a phenomenal New York run in midsummer, will come to the Boston Theater. The advance sale is going on at a rate which promises big houses.

Uniformly large and enthusiastic audiences are demonstrating the popularity of "Sergeant James," Mr. Kirke LaShelle's new military drama, at the Boston Theater. It will have its last performances next Saturday afternoon and evening.

Minnie Seligman is to be the leading lady of Proctor's Fifth Avenue Stock Company in New York. At the Fifty-eighth Street house, Edna A. Crawford is to be the leading woman, and at the Harlem house, Adele Klein.

Nellie Fullis, who will be well remembered as a very pretty and very clever member of "The Chaperons" Company at the Columbia Theater last season, has been engaged by Kilow & Erlanger for the support of Jerome Sykes in "The Billionaire."

Tharmen is doing a very snappy and spry act at the Howard this week.

Dearborn—The fifth stock season at the Dearborn will be opened next Sunday with a first production of Opie Read's play, "The Darkriders." It is styled a "character comedy," and tells a story of life in Georgia. The main personages in this narrative of Mr. Read's are people of affairs—quite the reverse of the case in "The Star-bucks" and "The Jackkins." The curious and broadly humorous types are not neglected, however, as the author introduces several, but largely by way of contrast. Columbus—Howard's "Sheumadoun" created a lot of enthusiasm in big audiences on Sunday. It was well staged and played. Frederic Julian made a fine, soldierly General Haverhill, Marie Tower, a young girl of this city, who showed ability while yet pupil, made her professional debut as Edith Haverhill. She was somewhat nervous, but made a very favorable impression. Next: "The Banker's Daughter."

Bijou—Another new melodrama opened at the Bijou Sunday. It deals with life in the West. Herbert Hall Winslow and Fred S. Gibbs are the authors of this latest story of life in the mining and ranching country.

Great Northern—"Up York State," a rural play with a little of the melodrama flavor, was seen for the first time in Chicago at the Great Northern Sunday. It was written by David Higgins and Georgia Waldron, who play the two leading parts, and are well taken. Miss Waldron plays especially well the unselfish heroine misusing understanding the man she really loves. She doesn't rant, and that is much. She has a true appreciation of her art. Next: Mason and Mason.

Criterion—In order to secure vivid effect, play writers often sacrifice probability, and those events stand to reason with the persons who witness the efforts as produced on the stage. The result of this condition is that many people have come to consider a melodrama an unreasoning dramatic work, but in the case of "The Black Vipers" the author has succeeded in making the play not only sensational, but at the same time perfectly reasonable. The play tells the story of the dark side of life in a great city, but these dark sides of life is none that has met with greater success than Waldron and Bryant's Trocadero Burlesques, who are occupying the stage at Sam T. Jack's this week. The first part is entitled "Prince Henry's Reception," and is a breezy satire on the doings of the Kaiser's brother while on a visit to this country. Mr. Larry Smith plays the part of Prince Henry, ably assisted by that clever comedian, Mr. James Sullivan, who assumes the part of his valet. The closing burlesque, "The Greenhills County Fair," is a very funny skit. In the olio are: Larry Smith and Mamie Champion, Sullivan and Keefer, Van Bres, Three Herbert Brothers, Carrie Massone and Martha Haberman and the Reid Sisters.

Trocadero—Manager Fulton has cleared the policy of the Trocadero. No more combats will be played at this house for some time. He has engaged an A No. 1 stock company, and will present each week a different extravaganza, the first of which is "Hairy Bury," one of the best and cleverest of New York travesties, a big hit when first presented on Broadway. This jolly hit will be put on with a numerous company, headed by the joyful May Howard, who will head a lively chorus and wear some fanciful clothes. Nat and Sol Fields, the popular Germans, will have the comedy roles, and Alex. Carr will be the Yiddish joker. The other roles will be assumed by Frank Daniels, William Sheridan and the Connely Sisters. Between the acts will be new series of living pictures and a first-class specialty bill will be a bright particular attraction. The new Trocadero Stock Company will put on weekly the best and cleverest kind of entertainments from now on till next spring.

Hopkins—Fred. Irwin's Majestic Burlesques have enjoyed a week of good business. This company always gives a good show. With its pretty girls, clever comedians and its excellent olio, a good impression is left, that will not be forgotten when the company plays a return engagement in this city.

States—This West Side resort, notwithstanding the cool weather, continues to attract pretty good crowds. On Saturday

PHILADELPHIA.

Quaker City Given Over to Musical Comedy and Burlesque.

The season is now in full swing, and from the way the people are patronizing all amusement places it is going to be one of the best seasons known for years. Crowded houses are the rule at all the houses. Musical comedies are being showered on our people until it looks as if they were going to be the leading form of entertainment this season. It is as many appear in the future in this city as we have had in the opening weeks of the season, our people will soon get a surfeit of them and patronage will fall off. The large theaters which furnish this class of entertainment are now having strong opposition by the burlesque companies, as many of them have elaborated their entertainments to such an extent that they will compare favorably with any of the larger shows. The Auditorium, under the management of Stair & Haylin, with L. C. Wilsell in active charge, has made a big hit and the house is crowded every night. For week of Sept. 8 "When Renben Comes to Town," a musical comedy, made a hit, and it is to be followed by "Under Southern Skies." At the Chestnut Street Theater "The Defender" pleased our people and did a nice two weeks' business. It is to be followed by "The Liberty Belles." The Park only had a fair week with A. H. Woodhull's "Coddish Aristocracy," which will give way to "The Cowboy and the Lady." The National Theater had a goodly crowd all week to see the new melodrama, "The Price of Honor," and this is to be followed by "The Road to Ruin." The Garrick Theater will open on the 15th, with Frank Daniels in "Miss Simplicity," and the Walnut on the same night with "The Wild Rose." The Broad will also swing into line on the same night with "The Show Girl." At the Peoples Theater Jack Farrell had a fair week with "The Cat King" and "The Bandit King," and this will be followed by "The Ragged Hero." Keith's Theater has done a wonderful lot of business since the cool weather set in, the usual offering of high-class vaudeville being still the feature. The stock houses are all making money. Forepaugh's gave "Through the Breakers," and for the 15th, announced "Man's Enemy." The Girard Company have been giving a good production of "Esmeralda" and "Villon the Vagabond" is now in rehearsal. At the Standard "We Are of Tennessee" will be succeeded by "In the Shadow of Night." The Museum opened on Sept. 6 and has drawn big crowds since. Vaudeville and curios are the potent attractions. At the Empire Theater "Mamzell Awklns" opened on the 11th for three days, and this will be followed by attractions for three nights for the rest of the season. The Camden Theater is open and doing business. Nellie McHenry in "Miss" pleased and was a profitable booking. At the Eleventh Street Opera House Dumont's Minstrels are packing them in, and the chances are that the same state of affairs will continue all season. The Chestnut Street Opera House will open in a few weeks and the Grand Opera House on the 22d, as a stock house, with the stage under the management of Owen Davis.

GOSSIP.

Frank Wolfe, of this city, will leave in a few days to assume the management of the theater in Anderson, Ind. Mr. Wolfe is a hard-working bright showman, who has graduated from the ranks and will be a decided acquisition to any place he may go to.

As soon as Keith's new Chestnut Street Theater is finished, vaudeville will be transferred from his other house and a stock company placed in the old house. This will give us six stock theaters in this city.

Nick Woods, the old-time "boy" actor, will play a two weeks' engagement at the Standard Theater, being supported by the stock company.

Cole and Clements have returned to Philadelphia after a prosperous season at the parks. They will play the vaudeville houses during the winter season.

BOB WATT.

CINCINNATI.

Opening of the Grand Opera House—The Pike Also Now Open.

On the night of Sept. 15 the New Grand Opera House opened with a magnificent production of Klaw & Erlanger's "Ben Hur." In view of the fact that the demand for seats up to the last night of the three weeks which the attraction is to run has been the greatest ever known in Cincinnati, it is needless to say that the house was full. A double treat is tendered the patrons of this exquisite new playhouse—the spectacle of the famous play and the beauties of the theater. The company, which is almost entirely the same as that which produced the play during its first run four years ago, is perfectly acquainted with its various parts and interpretations, and the entire show of sixteen acts was given without a perceptible break, everything falling into line as though there had been no interruption since the last performance last spring.

The doors of the Pike Opera House were opened Sept. 14 for a two weeks' run of the Melbourne-McDowell Stock Star Company before the opening of the regular Pike Stock Company. The house has been completely renovated; a new curtain, painted by Sosman & Landis, of Chicago, has been put in, and the whole system of lights elaborated and rewired. The McDowell-Stone Company was enthusiastically received, and their presentation of Sardon's "La Tosca" was indeed creditable. Mr. MacDowell as Baron Scarpia, the prefect of Roman police, interpreted the part as near the author's idea as is possible, and in consequence received tributes of appreciation in the way of numerous curtain calls from the audience. Miss Florence Stone as Flora Tosca was also well received, and her acting was excellent on the whole. The part is exceedingly difficult to handle, and in it Miss Stone displays great ability. There are times in the play, however, when her acting borders on the melodramatic, but this is overshadowed by her great results in other crucial moments. Mr. Hallett Thompson plays the part of Mario Caravardossi most acceptably, and in the first and third acts shares honors with the stars. The other characters in the play are well cared for by such capable players as Mr. Charles Dade, Mr. Louis Bishop Hall, Mr. Westropp Saunders, Mr. Ellis Ryse, Mr. Henry Sackett, Miss Edna Phillips, Miss Mabel Pennock, Miss Nana Duke Foreman and others. The farce comedy, "The Wrong Mr. Wright," holds the boards at the popular Walnut Street Theater. The leading comedy role is played by Mr. Harry Beresford, and he is supported by an efficient company. Harry Beresford portrays the role of Seymour Stiles, a San Francisco millionaire, and the part could not be in better hands. Mr. Beresford is interesting at all times, and with an easy grace keeps the crowd in a continuous uproar. Miss Anne Leonard, as Henrietta Oliver, a fin de siècle detective, impresses the audience with her good work. Alfred Rumble, as Wayland Clingstone; John C. Edwards, as Frederick Bonds; Arthur Jarrett, as Lieutenant Crosby; Roy Leonard, as Lord Brazenface, and Miss Marie Bishop as Arabella Clingstone, all give good accounts of themselves. Miss Emma Dunn and Miss Nellie Lindroth are capable and do full justice to their parts. The piece is staged well, and together it is pleasing. Next week: "Belle of New York."

The bill presented at the Columbia this week consists almost entirely of singing specialties, but this is no detriment to the attraction as a whole, as it is one of the best bills this beautiful and popular theater has offered this season.

The bill presents something interesting, with plenty of singing.

The show opens with Phil and Nettie Peters in a laugh-provoking sketch, which takes. Next seen is George B. Alexander, "the tired tramp," assisted by Olive Kerr with good singing, followed by the Yankee Comedy Four. J. K. Eummet and Miss Anna Mortland presented an original sketch entitled "Artie's Dream," followed by Louise Brebany, who possesses vocal talent. Something new in juggling is seen in the Mong Toon Trio, and Charles Kenna in his monologue sketch, with songs, parodies and jokes, holds attention. The bill closes with Crawford and Stanley, tramp pianists and duane dancers, and the Bioscope with new pictures.

The Tiger Lillies Company at the People's Theater is far and away the best that has been seen there this season. It is very an attraction that attracts, and the receipts of the box-office will no doubt bear out the statement at the end of the week.

"On the Suwanee River," at Henck's Opera House, is somewhat above the average melodrama. Breezy hits of plantation life make the four acts full of interest, merriment and pathos. The show is drawing big business.

"Alaska," at the Lyceum Theater, is receiving the applause of the patrons. The play was written by W. L. Lockwood, a well-known Northern explorer, and is a graphic portrayal of life in the gold fields.

Beginning Monday night, "The Fatal Card" will be presented by the Spooner Stock Company at Robinson's Opera House for the week. This company is constantly gaining in popularity, and Miss Anna Powell, the leading lady, is already a favorite.

NOTES.

The sale of season tickets at the Pike Opera House last week was carried on with a vengeance. Many women went early to the theater, taking their lunches with them, while some spent the night at the theater, sitting before the window of the office in order to get an early choice.

BUFFALO, N. Y.

Star Theater, (John R. Stirling, Mgr.)—Ward and Vokes in "The Head Waiters" open to-night. The box sale is large, and things look promising.

Teek Theater, (John Laughlin, Mgr.)—The engagement of Al. H. Wilson in "A Prince of Tatters" was quite a local event. Mr. Wilson being a Buffalo boy, and the past week's business showed well for his friends. The star has the stage for six songs, and his rich voice was quite effective. The company, including Kate Beneteau, Fanny Bloodgood, Eva Byrne, Isabelle Stevens, Mark Price, George Riddell and others, made a favorable impression. "Sergeant James" called out a good clientele to-night.

Academy Theater, (Dr. Peter C. Cornell, Acting Mgr.)—"A Desperate Change" found favor the past week. Houses good. It is an episode of the life of the Biddle brothers. The lines of the piece are well carried out, and the company were well up in their parts. Orby Kyle, J. B. Cooper, Gilla Bennett and Anna Wilkes call for mention. Alma Stirling was seen in "A Standard Article" to right with good prospects for the week. "Alaska," Sept. 22-27.

Lyceum Theater, (E. A. Oviatt, Acting Mgr.)—Large crowds greeted "The Road to Ruin," Sept. 8-13. It is a melodrama of the badger game. The piece made good in scenic effects, which were realistic, and the company was strong in talent. Sadie Fields might be mentioned, as well as her character of the Hebrew type, which took well. "The Village Postmaster" is posted for to-night, it being quite a favorite here. Sept. 15-20. "In Old Kentucky."

Lafayette Theater, (Cas. Baggs, Local Mgr.)—Clark's New Royals put in a good appearance the past week, pulling out good business, and was voted as one of the best on the road. The La Valls, bar artists, are up to the times. Bartell and Reynolds are fine singers; Rosalie, the queen of soubrettes; Kelly and Davis, comedians; Burgess, Smith and Burgess, Will H. Armstrong and the Crawford Sisters were well received. "Only a King" and "Meet Me at the Fountain" were big producers. The Rose Hill English Folly Company made things merry to-night. Coming: The Transatlantics, Sept. 15-20.

Shea's Garden Theater, (M. Shea, Mgr.)—Business fair. The company for the past week were: McIntyre and Heath, Howard and Bland; Reynard, ventriloquist; "A Fairy Serenade," Conroy and McFarland, Scott and Wilson, Mark Sullivan, the Sisters Macarte. Underlined: Nick Long and Idalene Cotton.

National Hall, on the East Side, is advertised to open Oct. 13 as a Nickelodian Music and Theater, with new management.

Convention Hall—The popular concerts given each Sunday are a big success. Wm. Taylor, tenor, will assist Sept. 14, with Lund's Philharmonic Orchestra. Lund's Band comes Oct. 6-11.

Dr. Lynn's Museum has "The Eruption of Mt. Pelee" as an attraction, in the form of panoramic cyclorama.

Tivoli Theater, (Schmidt Bros., Mgrs.)—Business booming. People the past week: Maria Larano, M. S. Brannett, Katie Hart, Watson and Watson, Franklin Attridge. Tonight Bill opened with Bedard and Bedard, Larry Shaw and wife, Katie E. His. Prospects bright.

Fenton's Theater, (Geo. Shady, Mgr.)—Business excellent and talent making good. The Croft Trio, Perry Eldon, "Ardent," Sadie Whiting appearing. On to-night: Darville Sisters, Prebo and Allbright, Mazzatorta, Burton and Leota, Prince and Lettretta and Mike Gallagher.

Lyceum Theater, Niagara Falls. The Fun Vails, D'Arville Sisters, and Klittie Hart made part of the bill Sept. 15-20, with the Kinematograph showing Graham swimming the rapids.

NOTES.

O'Brien and Havel, Goodman's Dogs, Lawrence and Harrington, Howard Brothers, and Hal Merritt were arrivals at Shea's Sept. 15-20.

JOHN S. RICHARDSON.

BALTIMORE, MD.

The local houses enjoyed an unusually prosperous week, and the managers entertain bright prospects for the future.

Odeon Theater, (James Madison, Mgr.)—This house, in its new array of white and gold, and with a good burlesque troupe on the stage, drew large houses at each performance last week. The program for the coming week will begin with a burlesque entitled, "The Midnight Club," and the concluding feature will be "The Female Beauty." The olio contains Stuart and Sammons, Foley and Dale, Mlle. Ordard and Ed Morris.

Holiday Street Theater, (Messrs. Kieran, Rife and Hauck, Mgrs.)—"The Great White Diamond" appeared, with Sig. Gulermo Riccardi in the leading role, Sept. 8-13. "The Span of Life" enjoyed an unusually successful week, Sept. 1-6. "Miss" is the next attraction.

Auditorium Music Hall, (James L. Kieran, Mgr.)—Fisher and Carroll, in "That's All," is the attraction for the week of Sept. 8-13. "Hunting for Hawks" drew large houses Sept. 1-6. "The Two Gay Deceivers" will follow.

Monumental Theater, (James L. Kieran, Mgr.)—Merry Maidens Burlesques, headed by Nellie Hanley, occupied the boards for the week of Sept. 8-13. Harry Bryant's Burlesques had a good week, Sept. 1-6. The Moonlight Maids will follow.

Ford's Opera House, (Charles E. Ford, Mgr.)—The season opened with Paul Armstrong's new comedy-drama, "St. Ann," which was a distinct success. Despite the warm weather, the play drew good houses. "The Defender" will follow.

Academy of Music, (Messrs. Nixon and Zimmerman, Mgrs.)—The season will begin Sept. 22 with a new star, Miss Percy Blasius, in "A Royal Family."

Chase's Theater, (J. Albert Young, Mgr.)—The season will reopen Sept. 29, when the George Fawcett Stock Company, with Mary Shaw, will be seen for the first time. The opening bill will be Sardon's "Foodora." Frederick Lewis will be the leading man, and Miss Jane Oaker will assume the lighter leading roles.

The reopening of the Odeon Theater under the new management is now the talk of the town. The house was practically rebuilt and a whole new interior installed. The interior decorations are magnificent, and when the lights are turned on the auditorium fairly gleams like a fairyland. A stock company composed of twenty-eight brightly and handsomely dressed young ladies, headed by the peerless and vivacious Lida Dexter and Mr. Harry Montague, the talented author and actor, and an olio which is changed every week, produce an excellent performance. Among the big hits of the past week were Louise Gandy, with a magnificent voice; Allie Vivian, serio-comic; Frank E. Leonard, Clark and Gandy, Sadie Hart and Quigg and Gain.

SYLVAN SCHENTHAL.

Business has been very good at the various theaters. All the theaters have opened for the regular season.

Broadway Theater, (Peter McCourt, Mgr.)—"The Strollers," with Marguerite Sylvie as Bertha; her slugging and acting hold her audience. Miss Lou Middleton, as Mimi, the ballad dancer, was heartily applauded.

Miss Dorothy Hunting is very pretty as Anna. J. Boniface, Jr., makes a very good comedian. J. D. Gilbert makes quite a hit with his monologue. Mr. Warfield, as Brutus wars, was good. Next attraction, "Bonnie Brier Bush."

Tabor Grand, (Peter McCourt, Mgr.)—Harry Corson Clark, in "Hello, Bill," supported by a good company, is drawing well at this place in the role of William Fuller. Mr. Clark is very good. Miss Marguerite Dale Owen's work in the role of Isabel Bare was good. Miss Mildred Clair, as Dorothy Bare, deserves mention for her comedy work. Mr. Arthur Coglier played the role of General William Fuller to an advantage. Frank T. Glenn played the role of Ned Herrington. Next week, West Min-streets.

Carls Theater, (J. Pelton, Mgr.)—This house is attracting quite a crowd with the Girard Inter-Ocean Company. The bill is very good. Magician Miller was very clever with his tricks. Lynn and Kennedy make a very good song and dance team. The "poses plastique," by Ried and St. Clare, was well done. Williams and Tucker have a very good sketch called "Mrs. O'Grady's Wash day." John D. Rice's shadowgraph scope was pleasing. Smith and Myers' comedy musical act was good. Next attraction, "Railroad Jack."

Empire Theater, (Peter McCourt, Mgr.)—"The Stowaway" opened this house with a good company. The scenery is very good and realistic. The house has been remodeled and furnished throughout. Next week, "The Chicago Tramp."

Elitch Gardens, (Mary Elitch-Long, Mgr.)—A supplementary engagement for one week with Edmund Lyons and company, in the "Merry Wives of Windsor," is being presented here. Mr. Edmund Lyons, as Falstaff, was good in the role. Miss Anne Sutherland and Miss Nellie Reed appear as the merry wives. Mr. Tooker, as the Welsh curate, was good. Mr. Joe Stanfield's work in the role of the French physician, needs no criticism.

Alcazar Theater, (Frank Bradstreet, Mgr.)—"The Prodigal Son," by the Two Hobbs, is produced as a curtain raiser. Mamie Norris, acrobatic dancer; Harry O. Dee, contortionist; Irene McAllister, singer; Clemings and McGreevy, song and dance; Donnette, comedienne; The Two Hobbs, sketch team; Mamie Lawrence, songstress; Jeannette Monitor, dancer; Victoria Dame, dancer; May Crawford. Business is good. Next week, "The Ten Thieves."

The Curtis Theater, formerly the Denver, opened the season with a good attendance. Mr. A. P. Pelton, business manager; J. C. Smutzler, secretary and treasurer; and J. C. Jackson, press representative. Their bookings are the Star & Haylin Circuit, and will have nothing but first-class attractions. The house has been remodeled throughout, the seating capacity enlarged, scenery and employees all new. Alex. Anderson will have charge of the stage, with the present engagement this house should prove a winner.

JULIE MCGINNIS.

KANSAS CITY, MO.

The Willis Wood Theater, Woodward & Burgess, Lessors; Walter Sanford, Mgr. J. H. Stoddart, in "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," was the attraction the week of Sept. 8. As this was the first engagement of this veteran actor in this city for a number of seasons, business was of most gratifying proportions. Mr. Stoddart's work was up to its usual excellent standard and the supporting company was entirely satisfactory. A big advance sale is announced for George Ade's comic opera, "The Sultan of Sulu," which comes Sept. 15, and week.

The Grand Opera House, (Hudson & Indiana, Mgrs.)—Zeb and Zarrow, in "Zig Zag Alley," drew fair-sized houses throughout the week of Sept. 7. Besides the Zeb and Zarrow Trio, in their bicycle act, a number of other clever vaudeville turns are with this organization. Week of Sept. 14, "Sweet Clover," the latest Broadhurst & Currie production.

The Auditorium, (Woodward & Burgess, Mgrs.)—"Diplomacy" was the bill given by the Woodward Stock Company, week of Sept. 7, and business was good. Week of Sept. 14, "A Texas Steer."

Manager Lehman is now in Chicago, conferring with Martin Beck about the forthcoming bills at the ever popular Orpheum, which will open Sept. 21.

Ringling Bros.' Circus comes Sept. 22, and the town is literally covered with its paper.

Harry Potter, of the Boston-Ferrell Company, was in town last week, arranging for the engagement of his company here during the coming fair.

The Ted Sparks Amusement Company, under the personal direction of Ted Sparks, the well-known local theatrical agent, has been organized here, and has a number of excellent bookings throughout the neighboring States. The company will promote street fairs and furnish all free attractions. Manager Sparks has been engaged by the retail merchants to assist in the direction of their forthcoming fair.

William Tibbles passed through here Sept. 9 en route to join the Grosvenor Stock Company in advance.

CHARLES H. SMALL.

NEW CASTLE, PA.

New Castle Theater, (Jacob J. Genkinger, Mgr.)—"Queen of the Highway," Sept. 4, pleased fair house. Quinlan & Wall's Minstrels, Sept. 6, to large and pleased audience. "David Harum," Sept. 8; the performance to fair-sized audience. "Lover's Lane," Sept. 9, pleased large and appreciative audience. "A Standard Article," Sept. 10; fair performance; small house. "Sherlock Holmes," Sept. 11; "A Mother's Heart," Sept. 13; Ferling Stock Company, Sept. 15-20.

Cascade Park closed a very prosperous season Sept. 1.

Lew Diamond left Sept. 10 to join Gus Sun's Minstrels.

"Kid" Morrison was here Sept. 6, in advance of "A Mother's Heart."

ACHIAN L. MCKIBBIN.

Fairs & STREET FAIRS and EXPOSITIONS

AT RALEIGH

Big Things Will Be Happening During State Fair.

The forty-second annual fair of the North Carolina Agricultural Society at Raleigh, Oct. 21-31, will be a big thing. Encouraged by the fine crops in that State and the good prices, especially for cotton and tobacco, the management is more active than ever. The grand stand is being remodeled and will present an attractive appearance when finished. Many new horse and cattle stalls have been built, as last year's large fair proved the need of greater accommodations. Nearly $8,000 in cash premiums is offered this year, of which the state Board of Agriculture contributes $1,000 for head crops and live stock.

In 1901 there were ninety-four entries in the trials of speed, and many more are expected this year. Entries close Oct. 11 at 1 p.m. Two thousand five hundred dollars is the total amount set aside for speed prizes.

A feature of this fair will be the horticultural exhibit, the most extensive ever made in the State. The extraordinary fruit of the mountains of North Carolina will cause astonishment. The experts of the North Carolina Agricultural Department will be the judges, and each plate of fruit will receive a premium in the value of a barrel of apples. The fruit will be gathered and exhibited by the trained men of the State Agricultural Department.

All the usual sights of the Midway will be on hand and the management has provided liberally in the way of free attractions.

This fair was one of the big Southern successes last year, and the management confidently expect to break all records this year.

Joseph E. Pogue is secretary of the society.

MAMMOTH BUILDINGS.

St. Louis, Sept. 14.—The contract for grading the sites of the Palaces of Agriculture and Horticulture at the world's fair has been let. The work will require the handling of 252,000 cubic yards of earth, carrying it an average distance of 500 feet. The Agriculture Building, according to revised plans, will be 600 by 1,600 feet, covering an area of nearly a million square feet, or more than twenty-two acres. In this great building will be displayed the extensive exhibits of foods, dairy products, bees and bee products, farm machinery and the agricultural exhibits of states and nations of the world. The location of the building is near the central part of the exposition grounds, and its immense size, upon the elevated site which has been allotted to it, will make it perhaps the most prominent of the fifteen great exhibit palaces. The Palace of Horticulture will stand directly south of the Palace of Agriculture and will be 400 by 800 feet, having an area of 320,000 square feet, or 7½ acres. One room in this building 400 feet square will be devoted to fruits and products, another room 200 by 400 to a conservatory, with floral display, and still another room 200 by 400 feet to the accessories of horticulture, such as implements and appliances for the cultivation and handling of fruits and flowers. The elevation of these palaces is such as to afford opportunity for terraced gardens and other beautiful landscape effects, while the outdoor exhibits of agriculture and horticulture will be very extensive and interesting both to the general visitor and the practical grower or expert. Frederic W. Taylor is the chief of the department of agriculture and acting chief of horticulture. The plans for both these great palaces are now being prepared in the department of works under Isaac S. Taylor, the director of the department, and it is the expectation that they will far surpass in beauty and arrangement the similar palaces at any former exposition.

RACING OSTRICH DEAD.

Oliver W., the famous racing ostrich, which has been an attraction at various fairs in Indiana and Pennsylvania, met its death recently at Williamsport, Pa. The bird was warming up for an exhibition mile to beat his record, 1:04, when by some mischance his long, graceful neck became entangled in the rein. The ostrich made several unsuccessful attempts to disengage itself, and before it could be freed it had choked to death. The owners claim they were offered $10,000 for the ostrich at Saratoga recently.

NEW FAIR ASSOCIATION.

Billings and Bozeman, two wide-awake Montana towns, have formed fair associations, under the management of which annual fairs will be held and the products of Yellowstone and Gallatin Counties will be exhibited. The Billings Fair Association was incorporated with capital stock of $125,000, and the following are the directors, all of whom reside in Billings: C. M. Bair, Paul McCormick, Chris Yegen, W. B. Gorge, George F. Benninghoff, L. P. Fenske, and Phil. Grein.

The Interstate Fair Association of Bozeman, in addition to the agricultural and other displays, includes horse racing in its articles of incorporation. The association is to have a capital stock of $10,000. The directors are as follows: A. E. Pike, H. L. Casey, F. L. Benepe, R. S. Shaw, Burr Fisher, George Cox, C. W. Hoffman, R. D. Steele and W. R. C. Stewart, all residing at Bozeman.

The association will acquire land in their respective counties and improve the same for the purpose of holding fairs and exhibitions, thus promoting the various interests of the two counties.

FAIR NOTES.

There will be no fair at Albert Lea, Minn., this year.

The date of the Berlin (Conn.) Fair has been changed from Sept. 24-25 to Oct. 1-2. The vaudeville performance at the Princeton (Ind.) Elks' Fair proved a big success. Chattanooga, Tenn., will probably have a fair and race meet the first week in October.

Prof. Litz made a big hit with his trained dogs at Columbus, O., during the State Fair.

Twenty-fifth Century Illusion Show and worked at the Kankakee District Fair, making a big hit as the only lady black face artist on the Midway. She will also be seen at the Indianapolis State Fair.

The management of the Spokane (Wash.) Interstate Fair has issued its premium list, which contains a large list of prizes for the various exhibits and a program of the races, for which liberal purses are offered. The dates of the fair are Oct. 6-14, inclusive.

James Linahan, secretary of the Lincoln County Fair, at Troy, Mo., writes as follows: "We have just closed the most successful meeting in the history of our association, and our advertisement in 'The Billboard' brought results highly satisfactory to the patrons and management alike."

Prof. Jack Cassell, the balloonist, made a most successful ascension on Sept. 1 at Madison, Ind., at the Red Men's Labor Day celebration. He also furnished them with a "slide for life," which was done by a lady. On Friday, Sept. 5, he made an ascension at Salem, Ind., the first successful ascension that had ever been made from that place.

The directors of the Carthage (Mo.) Fair state that they have been led to invest in new grounds on which to hold the fair by the fact of the fair's having assumed such proportions that the old grounds could no longer accommodate it. The association desires to have the largest fair in the State, and to do this it is maintained that more extensive grounds must be secured.

The Clinton County Fair, which was held naut; Wormwood's troupe of trained dogs and monkeys; the Vosenays, from the Royal Theater, Berlin; Moser, Houen and Moser, from the Royal Hippodrome, London.

Mr. W. H. Holmes will leave Atlanta, Ga., about Sept. 10 in the interest of the Southern Interstate Fair, to be held in Atlanta Oct. 8-25, and of which he has been chosen traveling advertising manager. The fair this year will be the best Atlanta has seen since the exposition of 1895. There will be horse racing every day and fireworks at night. Mr. Holmes has been connected up to this week with the Southern League of baseball clubs, and is one of the best advertising men in the city. The fair people are to be congratulated on their selection.

The County Fair and Street Exposition, to be held in Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 29-Oct. 11, under the auspices of the Kansas City Retail Merchants Association, promises to be the most successful affair of the kind ever pulled off in that city. President Roosevelt will attend on the opening day, Sept. 29, and special railroad rates on all the lines centering in Kansas City have been advertised for that day. Enormous crowds are expected to be in attendance. It will be a genuine old fashioned county fair, with race tracks, live stock exhibits, trade displays, etc. The Western Bostock Ferar Company will furnish the attractions. Elisha Winter is the secretary.

Notes from the Alabama State Fair Association. Important additions have been made to the buildings of the Alabama State Fair at Birmingham, and great improvements have been made in the grounds. No fair was held in 1891, and it is the purpose of the Alabama Fair Association to make this fair the most extensive and most successful ever held in the State. The State Agricultural Department has undertaken to assist the management materially in procuring proper exhibits of agricultural and horticultural products from all over the State, and the prospects are that the live stock exhibits will be larger than ever before. A great many privileges have already been sold, and good prices have been secured for exhibition space in many lines. One of the large Northern carriage manufacturers has engaged a large space for display of several complete lines of vehicles manufactured by them. This promises to be an exceedingly attractive display. As special shows free to the public, the management has engaged a splendid aggregation of diving horses and guideless wonders; Alvin, the great balloonist; extensive fireworks from the A. L. Due Company, Cincinnati; and the band concerts will be provided by Memoli's Band. The management has decided to make an attractive feature of the Midway shows. They will be placed in a central position in the grounds, instead of being crowded off into a corner, to have the appearance of a low dive. The mineral exhibits are being vastly enlarged and extended, and in every respect the fair will possess the characteristics of a complete State Exposition.

Street Fairs and Carnivals.

THIRD FALL FESTIVAL.

Best and Greatest of the Series of Industrial and Artistic Exhibitions.

The Third Fall Festival, which opened at Cincinnati, O., September 15, promises to be the greatest event of that nature which has yet been held in the Queen City. Quality and not quantity has been the sentiment that guided the directors of the Fall Festival Association. In choosing the subjeets of the Exposition and the Plaza, and a glance at the first puts the visitor in touch with the latest achievements in the world of art, science and industry. We have published in a former issue the list of attractions which have been engaged and the list is indeed a worthy one. The night parades, under the auspices of the Mystic Order of the Illuminated, will be dazzling and gorgeous. Thousands of visitors are in Cincinnati, and the event promises a greater degree of success than any of similar nature which has preceded it.

MADE OFF WITH FUNDS.

It is alleged that Henry Warwick, who had been chief promoter of the recent Delphi (Ind.) Carnival, left Delphi last week with the carnival funds in his pocket, saying he was going to Logansport. The sheriff at Frankfort states that a man called on him and asked if he had a warrant from Carroll County for his arrest. He gave his name as Warwick, and when the sheriff told him he had no warrant the man left, saying he could be found at Lafayette if wanted. However, he was gone from there when the police at that place were notified, and his friends (who claim that he has duped them out of $1,000) think he has gone for good. Warwick had lived in Delphi seven years, and had always dealt square.

STREET FAIR AND CARNIVAL NOTES.

Gibsonburg, O., was a success. The Bell Novelty Company was organized at Marysville, O., Sept. 10.

Galveston, Tex., will most probably have a street fair some time in December.

Meridian, Miss., will probably be in line for a two-day carnival in the near future. The Cincinnati Carnival Company will furnish attractions for the Knoxville (Tenn.) Street Fair.

The Elks of Augusta, Ga., are in line for a street fair to be held the latter part of October or early in November.

South Bend, Ind., was a big go. A tem-

New Mexico Territorial Fair.

Advertising Car No. 3, representing the Twenty-second New Mexico Territorial Fair, to be held at Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 14-18, inclusive, left that city Sept. 4, under the efficient management of Mr. Scott Knight, who is assisted by an experienced corps of bill posters. The car is supplied with some of the finest paper ever put on the boards in the West, and the attractions, sports and exhibits, all of the highest class, which will be seen at the big fair this year, will be displayed to the public in New Mexico, Colorado, Texas and Arizona as never before. The car will first go north over the A. T. & S. F. Railway, through Northern New Mexico and Colorado, returning south to Texas, and hence west through Arizona, thus thoroughly hitting a territory with a radius of a thousand miles, from which the Territorial Fair will draw her crowds.

The Association has put forth every effort this year to have the fair eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted in the Southwest. Large purses will be offered for horse racing and cowboy tournaments. The resources of the territory will be exhibited as never before, and last, but not least, the Midway attractions already signed are numerous and of the highest class that money could secure.

In Frankfort, Ind., recently, turned out well. It may be safely said that there will be another fair next year. The plan of forming a stock company is being favorably considered by a number of prominent business men. If the company is organized, the fair grounds will be improved and new stands, stables, stalls, etc., will be built.

W. H. Rowland's high-stepping fancy actor horse, "Cupid," has been engaged by the Kentucky State Fair Association for the coming fair. It is claimed that "Cupid" does two-steps, waltzes, walks on his haunches, bows to the ladies, makes goo-goo eyes—in fact, does everything a man does but talk. The steed will be on at the horse show, and will go through his stunts every afternoon and night.

The annual fair and race meeting, held at Lake Contrary Park, St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 15-20, promises to be the best on record, as the management has spared no expense to make it a success. The Barnards, aerialists; LaPlaine, balloonist; Rodgers' Comedy Dog and Pony Circus; Sidonia, comedy high wire; Laredo and Blake, comedy acrobats, and Spaniard, hand balance, have been secured as attractions.

The Piedmont Colored Industrial Fair Association will hold its first annual fair Nov. 18-21 at the Mecklenburg Fair Association's grounds in Charlotte, N. C. About $1,000 will be awarded in premiums. The fair officials are: J. S. Leary, president; H. A. Hunt, vice president; W. H. Green, secretary; E. J. Young, assistant secretary; J. T. Sanders, general manager, and Dr. D. J. Sanders, president of the board of directors.

The fair at Corydon, Ind., was a success in every particular. The attendance was large and the display of stock was better than in former years, especially in the horse show. The races created much interest, several fast horses being present.

Lola (Topsy) Mitchell has joined the which the Elks had been planning to hold is now practically assured.

The Knights of Pythias of Mexico, Mo., were confident that the carnival for which they are striving will materialize. If held, it will be about the second week in October.

The Greenfield (Ind.) Carnival, Free Street Fair and Agricultural Show, which was held Sept. 16 under the auspices of the Greenfield Military Band, was a winner. The attendance was most gratifying.

H. L. Leavitt has closed the following dates for the Gaskill-Mundy Carnival Company: Birmingham, Ala.; Trades Council, Nov. 3; Selma, Ala., Nov. 9; Meridian, Miss., Nov. 15; Jackson, Miss., Elks, Nov. 21; Vicksburg, Miss., Nov. 27.

The Ted Sparks Amusement Company, under the personal direction of Ted Sparks, popular theatrical agent, has been organized in Kansas City, and has a number of excellent bookings throughout the neighboring States. The company will promote fairs and furnish all free attractions.

The Irritante Society of Columbus, O., informed with Prof. Geo. Lutz's Dog Show, which was one of the features of the street fair at Columbus, O., maintaining that "little Dandy" leap from a fifty-foot ladder was cruel. After some dickering the act was allowed to be repeated.

The Dubuque (Ia.) Fall Carnival Company was recently incorporated. The general business of the company will be to promote, give and establish exhibitions, street fairs, festivals, entertainments, excursions, and all other forms of amusements that will tend to attract visitors and promote the business interests of Dubuque. The company is to be a permanent one.

Miss Mattie Null, one of the young women who rides in Kilpatrick's Cycle Dazzle, was injured recently at the Evansville (Ind.) 4th Carnival. She fell from her wheel, head foremost when she was riding at terrific speed and struck the ground with considerable force. She is now again able to go on with her riding. Miss Null is a charming young lady, 18 years of age, and comes from one of the best families in Nashville, Tenn.

The various committees of the Saengerfest Association are now hard at work testing the plans that will bring about one of the greatest events that was ever held in Baltimore, Md. The International Saengerfest will be held for two weeks, beginning June 14, 1903. About 250 societies have thus far signified their intention of participating in the festival, and it is calculated that these singers will bring a total crowd of about 25,000 persons.

The Springfield (Ill.) Carnival will be held Sept. 20-Oct. 4. The following attractions have been secured: Charles Marsh, a cowboy; Duke Thompson, the high diver; the trapeze, gymnasts, the Amazons, acrobats, the Fabulous Family, trick bicyclists, Karten, the slack wire performer, a pantomime show by Farago Bros., Gallo's trained monkeys and Lockhardt's trained elephants. The association is to be congratulated on this list of attractions, and they will surely "make good."

C. H. Johnson, chairman of privilege committee of the Fall Festival at Ft. Wayne, Ind., writes as follows: "Mr. Fred P. Sergeant, promoter of the Fall Festival at Ft. Wayne, Ind., Aug. 20-30, 1902, has missed a very successful engagement here, and I, as chairman of the privilege committee, can recommend him as a first-class man to handle the privileges. Our Fall Festival paid back all the money to the stockholders, paid all our indebtedness and have a very nice sum of money on hand."

Frank Biltz, manager of Millie Christine, the double woman, writes that Boone, Ia., was the biggest boomer he ever had the misfortune to make. He says the grounds were a mile out of town, and 25 cents admission was charged to see a lot of side shows which, with the exception of Millie Christine and the troupe of glass blowers, were not fit to look at. Extra admission was also charged to see the so-called free attractions, and he believes that the whole event was a gigantic scheme on the part of a few private individuals to add to their bank account.

The Electric Carnival held at Columbus, O., the same week of the Ohio State Fair, was a success in every particular, and Mr. Clark W. Doughty, the well-known young promoter, deserves much credit for its success. The idea was a new one, masquerade as there was not a pay show on the street. Everything was free, and the large number of concessionaires were allowed to work without paying a cent privilege money. Everybody made big money, and at the end of the week a purse of $600 was made up by the business men and presented to Mr. Doughty, together with a handsome gold watch and chain. Mr. Doughty is now at Cirecleville, O., making arrangements for his Korn Carnival, which has been postponed to the first week in October. Cirecleville has never had anything of the kind, and large crowds are predicted all week.

One of the novelties to be presented by the Kentucky State Fair Association at the Churchill Downs grounds, Louisville, is a collision between railroad engines of at least 200,000 pounds each. Condensed engines will be used, as these can be bought at a very low price, but they will suit the purpose admirably if they are capable of a reasonable speed. A special track will be constructed, and each engine will have an engineer and fireman, who will throw the throttles wide open and then leap for safety. This event will be exciting enough and also new to most of the spectators, and ought to prove a big drawing card. Sept. 23 is the day set for the collision.

Marie George has resigned from "The Billionaire" Company, and has been succeeded by Nellie Folsom, who made a hit in "The Chaperones."

Lionel Legare's Mammoth WE BUILD Spiral Tower Exhibition

POSITIVELY THE BIGGEST, MOST SENSATIONAL AND BEST OPEN-AIR DRAWING ATTRACTION IN THE WORLD

AN UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIAL.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., August 30, 1902.

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Mr. Lionel Legare has, for the past week, been presenting his equilibristic specialty and Spiral Tower at the St. Joseph Elks' Antics Association. His performances have not only given us unbounded satisfaction in every particular, but have elicited from the viewing populace the unanimous expression that his Spiral Tower act is the strongest, most startling, sensational and attractive of any exhibition, in the way of free attractions, now being presented. Personally Mr. Legare has endeared himself to us by his sterling qualities as a gentleman of integrity, honesty and probity. The local papers have, without exception, given Mr. Legare unlimited praise as the star attraction of the Elks' Antics Association.
