NEWS FROM OUR FIGHTING MEN

Dave Stanley. I appreciated a Christmas greeting I received from the Farm Credit Club.....Most of our drill and training area is sandy. We're using 1917 model guns, too.....Our basic training is over, and we are now getting supplementary training. It includes instruction which every infantryman gets but which is not usually given to Air Force recruits. We are so favored because we're waiting around to be assigned to other bases. In the meantime we can't do nothing and we can't do basic training all over - hence the supplementary training. So far the program has included grenade and bayonet instruction, lectures on desert and jungle warfare, and on scouting and patrolling, movies on recognition of enemy aircraft, and tougher exercise than heretofore.....Had a pleasant but warm Christmas, including a wonderful meal.....There's a S-T from the Columbia district of FCA next door to me.

Frank Nelson. December 31 I got back to the base here in San Diego from the rifle range where I spent 3 weeks learning to shoot my M-1 Garand semiautomatic rifle. I got a lot out of those weeks and ended up getting a rating of Expert Rifleman and a raise of $5 a month. So I think I have made a little headway.....I may be in the Parachute Troops at the end of this month. It is a pretty tough job to get into them but I think I will make it.....Would like to see all of the gang and especially the new messengers. Haven't seen any girls in 2 months. I may be able to come in and see all of you if I get a leave.....Until then say hello to everyone for me.

Pat Di Pierro. Thanks ever so much for the holiday greetings. Cards and letters from friends are the only real touch of the holiday spirit we get here in camp though most of us don't really mind the circumstances of camp life. We do miss not being with our friends and families.....All of my service has been at Camp Berkeley, Texas. To date I have contributed nothing for I am still in training, but I hope soon to be

ARE YOU HELPING THE FARMER?

Every word spoken today about the importance of the farmer should make us feel important. However, a lot of folks are not able to see how driving a typewriter, pushing a pencil, or knitting a brow for the FCA have any close relation to agriculture and its attainment of the '43 food goals. We never see any farmers. We are a long way from a farm. The real connection that does exist is hard to see with the naked eye.

Agriculture, like industry, operates on capital. When a farmer's personal capital is not adequate, he must borrow. The FCA and its agencies lend, and the FCA cannot lend unless you perform your specialized function in this complex organization. Today the farmer is important; FCA credit is important to his production; and the FCA cannot lend without your services.

You could not help the farmer more by getting a job on a farm milking the cows and plowing corn. In the FCA you are closer to the Nation's farmers and more helpful than if you were to start working on a farm.

Here in the FCA, doing your usual, necessary job, you are of maximum service helping our farmers feed themselves, our allies, our industrial workers, and ourselves.

OUR WASHINGTON REPORTER

CR&S welcomes Stanley L. Smith who transferred from BAI.....L. F. Herrmann has left us for OPA.....Saw Mary Mathis on F Street the other day - looking fit, after her recent illness.

And a good time was had by all ---! Not to be outdone by the "Kansas Citians" the CR&S Division decided it was high time to get together for one of the old-time Farm Credit friendly gatherings - so on Wednesday, January 6, at the Harrington Hotel, 75 members of CR&S, past and present, Liason members, and husbands and wives, enjoyed a turkey dinner and the entertainment which consisted of songs and violin and piano solos. As frivolity was the keynote of the evening any speaker mentioning office work would be fined 25¢ for the "rehabilitation of the Japanese"! We are happy to say that no money for this purpose was donated. Among the "story tellers" were Dr. Warburton, Dr. Stitts, Colonel Herrmann, Dr. Fetrow, Major Weaver, and members of the Division staff.

able to do something. My little bit will be with the Medical Department....This particular service of our forces does not receive much public credit and as a result its members often wish they were in some other branch....They go with every type of unit to render life saving aid and do so without any arms protection for themselves. You can imagine the courage they have to build up to face the enemy.... Thanks again for the greetings and may we all celebrate the 1943 holidays in success and peace.

Michael Sofchak. Your very much appreciated letter would have undoubtedly reached me much sooner if I hadn't been evacuated from my former spot. You know where, I mean. I can't mention anything much of my present spot as it is forbidden....Yesterday was rather a field day for me, that is so far as mail is concerned. I received in all 25 letters, some dated as far back as July. I really enjoyed them all but several were of special interest, particularly yours, and one real long interesting letter from Miss Mathis. I enjoyed hearing from her very much. I think it's just swell of her to write me as I never expected any mail from her for I know how really busy she must be....I've taken several new slants on life. This thing called war does this to a fellow. I bet there sure must be a bunch of pretty girls at FCA now, but as I've said before, they were always there....I miss the good ole U.S.A., so do a flock of other service men out here. I wonder when we will all be back. I hope and pray it's real soon.... Don't fail to pass my best wishes and regards to the gang....thanks again.

I was "snowed" upon receiving the "Grapevine" and to find that it contained one of my letters to the gang. I showed it to some of the boys and now you should hear 'em "rubbing it in." (Mike: We think your letters are swell. Ed.)....A few days after my birthday I was wounded in action, not seriously though. I spent approximately 5 weeks recuperating and now, thanks to God, I'm in tip-top shape again. Lucky Sofchak that's what they call me....How's the bunch? Don't forget to say hello for me....Right now we are all having a time battling giant mosquitoes; seems like we just can't get friendly with them.

Byron Dupree. We are certainly busy here now. This week is especially so because we have so many songs to prepare for Christmas party programs at various camps here at the station in addition to the ones that we will sing on the "Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air" which will be broadcast next Sunday, December 27, on the Blue Network. This Great Lakes Choir is becoming quite a famous group, and I certainly consider myself extremely fortunate to have gotten into it....We are still taking shots for various things. Today, we are scheduled to get a double typhoid shot. Some of the fellows get pretty sick as a result (of which I think 75 percent is imagination)....We are scheduled to be here 12 weeks in "boat training" yet, although rumors to the contrary fly thick and fast.

THANKS FOR YOUR LETTERS, MEN

If you want to be sure your letter gets to the Grapevine, write direct.

A LETTER FROM OUR WAAC

Dear "FCA"

It is really cold up here but we have very warm clothing and our barracks are warm. The first day we were all issued service men's overcoats, knitted caps, mittens and galoshes. The coats were of all sizes and mine hit me just above my galoshes. None of us cared though as they were protection against this Iowa wind. (Don't think K.C. is the only windy place.) Now most of us have our uniforms and we all think we look pretty nice.

I am in a small room with four other girls and none of us snores. Most of the girls are awfully nice and all of the officers I have seen are just grand. They are very understanding and don't expect too much right at first.

Last week we learned something about army discipline, regulations, etc. I like drill fine and have gotten a kick out of saluting. It all seems very far from Kansas City and the FCA.

Nevertheless I do like it. They tell us that the next 3 weeks will really be hard. Today we haven't had much to do except clean up. We are allowed to go into Des Moines weekends but it is so cold and windy I don't have much desire to go. Also I thought it would be a good time to write some letters.

Each company has a day room where we can go when not busy. There is a piano, coca cola machine, magazines, etc. We have some very fine talent in our company. One girl plays very well, one has a very good voice and one does comic numbers like yodeling, and mountain music.

The more I see of army life the less I think I'll ever be an officer. They really work hard and besides I can't yell loud enough. The noncoms have to yell too, so I'll probably remain an auxiliary. We have had several aptitude tests and lectures. Next week we have to start studying.

It is almost time for mess now so I will have to stop for this time. I surely am anxious to hear from you all and get all the news.

Sincerely,

Gertrude Grove

THE WAACS' DRILL SERGEANT

You think you've a tough job
In Iceland or None;
I'll swap you the one that
They've slipped me at home.
I'm drilling the women
The best that I can,
But can't yell the things that
I'd yell to a man!

"Eyes right, ya gorilla!"
I once used to shout,
But that and "Hey, fathead!"
Are both strictly out;
Of jobs in the service
The hardest is mine --
I've got to discard all
My old army line.

Did privates toe in? I could yell, "Lissen, Stupe!"
You do that again you'll Get socked for a loop!"
"Chins up, ya baboons!" was
my cry through the day,
But drilling the dames, well,
It ain't the same way!

"Eyes right! Are ye cockeyed?"
I'd yell in loud tones,
But now it's, "Please try once
Again, Mrs. Jones!"
"Hey, mug! Wipe that grin off!"
I loved that so much,
But can't use it now for
It lacks the right touch;

"C'mon, ya big droop, get
Some snap in them knees!"
Went well with my old squads,
But never with these!
"Your shirt's out, ya dumbbell!"
I can't yell no more . . .
Forgive me my groans, it's
One elluva war! (MIK)

SOME GOOD SENSE ABOUT WAR BONDS

One of our employees reports that, while discussing his bill for dental work with his dentist, he got a clear insight into the difficult problem facing the Government in putting across its 10 percent payroll deduction plan for War Bonds. After learning the amount of his bill, the employee jokingly said, "Of course, I expect you to invest 10 percent of the amount in War Bonds." The dentist was inclined to drop the point but said in reply, "I'm working on a couple of $25 stamp books, one in the office and one at home. Way I'm going now, I expect to finish them in a couple of months."

Our employee wasn't impressed. Apparently, the guy thought he was doing all that anyone could expect, but you and I know he isn't. Plenty of FCA's $1440 employees are in the "10% Club."

This article isn't in the propaganda category but FCA employees should get a sense of superiority for their support of the War Bond Program. Sometimes it may take some close figuring to stretch our reduced salaries over a 2 week's period, but 10 years from now we will reap the harvest with satisfaction from the knowledge that when things were tough we didn't lie down on the job. And don't forget that by investing in War Bonds we are building up a swell reserve for depreciation for our machines and equipment which can't be replaced until after the war is over. Someday our dentist friend may wonder how you can afford one of those new-fangled combination airplane-autos. Then will be your turn to laugh.

BOWLING

January 18 - Although clean sweeps were posted by Graphic, Field Acctg., and Co-op over Administrative, Files, and Personnel, Graphic grabbed most of the spotlight by piling up a team count of 2,491, a season's high. Sam Weinberg's 211-555, Jones' 212-543, and Erickson's 195-511 were top-notchers. However, McClurg of Admin. racked up the evening's high set with his 203-594. In other matches, Legal, Mtg. Corp. and Accounts were odd-game winners over F&A, Land Bank, and Reports. "500" sets included Hein's 539, Frazee's 519, Prewitt and Fowler with 507, and Menk, Dellinger, and Rall with 506.

January 25 - Graphic continued their torrid pace by blasting Legal three times for their sixth straight win and twelve out of their last 15 starts. The sweep left them seven games out of first place with 12 games to go. With the exceptions of Graphic and Field Acctg., all other teams have been mathematically eliminated from the race for top place. Ritter and Porter with 520 and 502 topped the Graphic attack although Geo. Thomson of Legal copped high match set with his 528. The losers dropped Legal from fifth to tenth in the standings. Land Bank and Personnel were other 3-game victors over Admin. and Accounts. Respective individual highs for these 2 matches were, Menk - 529 and Simonds - 483; Pitts - 453 and Dellinger - 459. Admin. nosedived from fourth place to ninth. Two-game winners were: Co-op, led by Frazee's 489 and the handicap over Field Acctg. and Rall's 520; Mtg. Corp. over Files with Fowler's 216-587 showing the way and reports over F&A as W. Thompson and Hein banged out 541 and 501 to help offset Eufinger's 215-508 for F&A.

FCA WOMEN'S BOWLING LEAGUE

With Muller banging out 166-449, high set for the evening, Administrative increased its lead by four games in scoring the lone clean sweep of the evening. Audit was the losing team. Central Office Acctg. maintained its second place by winning the odd game from Short-Term Credit. Ross' 178-442 was high. Despite Gerdes' 185-427, General Files was able to take only one from Stenographic. The Personnel girls lost two at the hands of Exam; Nolz' 156-418 paced the winners. Bond and Cash and Finance and Accounts won two from Co-op and Long-Term Credit, respectively.

BASKETBALL

Farm Credit crashed into the winning column last Thursday nite by defeating Centropolis Baptist 28 to 20 for their first win in three starts. FCA led throughout the game, holding a 10-0 lead in the opening minutes and leading by 18-8 at halftime. Team play was improved over past performances with top scoring honors going to Prewitt and Kongs with 12 and 8 points respectively. In the previous week's game, the current league leaders, T.W.A. doubled the score on FCA in running up a 37-18 count. Prewitt and Young combined to score 15 markers for the Farm Credit cagers.

All games are played on Thursday nights at the Benton School, 30th and Benton Boulevard, with FCA clashing with K. C. Power and Light at 7:10 on February 4 and meeting K.C. Quartermaster Depot at 9:10 on Feb. 11.
