CONFESSION OF FAITH.

You believe, That there is one, and but one God ; subsisting in three persons, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, in whom are all perfections.

—, That God made and upholds all things by his power, and is the Supreme Governour of all worlds.

—, That the Holy Scriptures are the word of God, and are a perfect rule of faith and manners.

—, That God made man upright, and originally stamped upon him his image of knowledge, righteousness and true holiness.

—, That the first man Adam, by transgressing God's command, plunged himself with all his posterity into a state of sin and misery.

—, That it pleased God from eternity to choose some of fallen men to everlasting life, through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth ; and so in the fulness of time, he sent his only-begotten Son, born of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them who were under the curse of the law.

—, That Jesus Christ is the only Saviour of men ; neither is there salvation in any other, nor any other name given under heaven among men, by which we must be saved.

—, That faith in Christ is the only term of justification in the sight of God ; that faith which, while it works by love, is ever connected with godly sorrow, and productive of new obedience.

—, That there are certain special ordinances, Baptism and the Lord's Supper, instituted by Christ as seals of the Covenant of grace ; which are, therefore, in a religious manner, to be observed by his followers.

—, That Baptism is to be administered to unbaptized adults who profess their faith in Christ and their infant children ; and to the infant children of all who by public profession belong to the household of faith.

—, That the Lord's Supper being appointed to show forth the death of Christ and to seal unto true believers the benefits of his redemption, especially their spiritual nourishment and growth in grace, for the accomplishment of these important purposes, is to be continued in the church till the second coming of the Lord.

Finally, you believe that God has appointed a day in which he will judge the world by Jesus Christ ; and that in that day, they who have done good shall be absolved and acquitted, and made perfectly blessed in the full enjoyment of God ; but they that have done evil, and died in impenitency, shall be punished in blackness of darkness forever and ever.

Thus in the presence of Almighty God, you solemnly profess and believe.

COVENANT.

You do now in the presence of God, and before angels and men, who are witnesses to this transaction, solemnly avouch the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, to be your God.

You do also take the sacred Scriptures to be your only rule of faith and practice ; together with yourself, giving up your offspring to God in Christ, avouching the Lord to be your God, and the God of your seed.

You acknowledge, that by nature and practice you are sinful, and that all your hopes of pardon and salvation are built only on the sovereign mercy of God, through the righteousness and satisfaction of Jesus Christ.

You do, therefore, considering Christ as the way, the truth and the life. now take him as your only Saviour, your

Prophet, Priest, and King; solemnly promising, through the help of divine grace, that you will live in all respects, according to the rules and precepts of the Gospel; that you will carefully attend on all the ordinances of it; and that you will submit to the discipline and government of Christ, in this church.

Thus, in presence of God, you solemnly covenant and promise.

Then doth this Church likewise promise you, that in the strength of Divine grace, we will walk towards you in all Christian watchfulness and charity—performing all those duties which our sacred relation, as members of the same household, demand.—AMEN.

CATALOGUE

OF THE MEMBERS OF THE FIRST CHURCH IN SOUTHTINGTON,
FROM 1780 TO 1828.

N. B. The records of the Church previous to the ministry of the Rev. Mr. Robinson, are very imperfect. It was thought proper, therefore, that the following Catalogue should go no further back than 1780, the time when that gentleman was ordained.

*Those who have this mark (*) prefixed to their names are dead. Those who have this mark (†) have been dismissed from this church and recommended to some sister church. The latter, if known to be dead, are marked accordingly: The names of females who still belong to the church, and of some who are removed, are printed as they were last before this Catalogue was made out. The word WITHDRAWN, annexed to the names of a few, signifies that they have left this church without liberty, and gone to other denominations; and that from them the watch of this church is withdrawn. There is one member now living who united with this church before the date of the following catalogue; and that is, the Widow Sarah Carter.*
