Twenty Persons Killed In Train Wreck In Southern United States

CARS OF FAST TRAIN LEFT RAILS IN MISSISSIPPI AND SCORE OF DEATHS RESULTED

Forty Passengers Injured in Crash Near Victoria, Miss., To-day; Train Was Traveling Sixty Miles an Hour; Baggage Cars, Day Coaches and Sleeping Cars Plunged From Rails and Rolled Down Forty-foot Embankment; One Drove Into Claybank; Passengers Were Piled in Tops and Ends of Cars When They Came to Rest; Relief Rushed to Scene in Special Trains.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 27—Twenty dead and thirty-five to forty injured made up the known toll taken when the Sunnyland, a fast St. Louis and San Francisco passenger train, northbound from Birmingham to Kansas City, left the rails to-day near Victoria, Miss., and tumbled into a tangled mass down a forty-foot embankment.

A partial list of those killed, gathered from several sources, contained the names of six persons from southern states.

At least twenty persons were killed outright or died before relief could reach the scene, and possibly twice that number were injured.

The train, traveling about fifty or sixty miles an hour, apparently spread the rails about 200 feet from a forty-foot trestle. The locomotive cleared the trestle, as did the first baggage coach. The engine did not leave the track. Three baggage cars and nine day coaches and sleeping cars rolled up the embankment.

ROLLED DOWN BANK
All the coaches except the last sleeping car, which was the forty-foot embankment.

The three-day coaches were a tangled mass of wreckage. One of them dived headlong into the clay bank by the side of the track and the others rolled and jammed as they struck the bottom, piling the occupants into the tops and ends of the cars.

Few of the passengers sleeping in the last three Pullmans suffered serious injury, and it was they who directed the rescue and first-aid work before the relief train arrived.

MOTORISTS HAD MIRACULOUS ESCAPE WHEN CAR REDUCED TO JUNK

Remnants of coupe completely wrecked yesterday afternoon when jammed between two street cars on Fort Street. William Marshall and George Raeside, occupants of the automobile, miraculously escaped death. Both were injured and taken to hospital.

LEAGUE AWAITS PROOF OF GREEK TROOPS' RETREAT

Paris, Oct. 27—A naval demonstration before Athens is a possible League of Nations move should the Government of Premier Pangalos decline to bow to the League Council's decision that it must cease hostilities and remove all Greek forces from Bulgarian territory.

The Council hopes and believes the Greek Government will accept its decision, but it was learned in authoritative circles to-day that the advisability of a naval blockade had already been discussed privately by the Council.

Although M. Carapanos, the Greek Minister, told the Council to-day that both Greece and Bulgaria had reached an accord through the good offices of Rumieles to suspend hostilities and retire behind their frontiers, the Bulgarian representatives declared they had no confirmation of this report.

Indeed, M. Morloff, speaking for the Sofia Government, informed the Council that a direct accord with Greece was utterly impossible because of Greece's persistent refusal to liquidate Bulgaria's repeated offers to appoint a joint commission to inquire into the border trouble.

M. Morloff said the latest dispatch from Sofia showed that up to yesterday there were forty-eight killed and wounded, of those twenty-six were soldiers and twenty-two civilians, men and women. There was the probability of other unknown victims.

REPARATION ASKED
He demanded that, independently of any penalties which the Council might apply to Greece for her grave blow at Warsaw, the League of Nations should demand complete reparation for the damages to persons and property and all prisoners should be immediately released.

DISTANCES STATED
Caustic intervention by Austen Chamberlain, British Foreign Secretary, who said his information was that the Bulgarians had only penetrated Greece to a depth of from five to fifty metres (55 yards), a statement from M. Carapanos that the Bulgarians had advanced into Greece for a distance of between 400 and 500 metres (about a third of a mile). He admitted Greek troops had occupied Bulgaria to a depth of about five miles, but explained that this was the result of a turning movement carried out to prevent a frontal attack by the Bulgarians.

Marked ballots must be handed to the deputy returning officer for placement in the ballot box, and the constables, on duty at each polling place will accept any person leaving a voting booth without first surrendering the ballot.

Court of Revision additions to the voters' list are not strictly alphabetical, being inserted after official closure of the list. Persons who secured the franchise by application to the judge will find their names inserted in the voters' list at the end of each alphabetical section.

FINANCE CRISIS IN FRANCE LEADS TO PAINLEVE MINISTRY DOWNFALL

Paris, Oct. 27—Premier Painleve's Cabinet resigned to-day. M. Painleve called on President Doumergue this afternoon and presented the collective resignations of the ministers.

The Premier informed the President the Cabinet could not continue its work of restoring the French finances without being assured of a favorable majority in Parliament.

The decision of the ministers to resign was unanimous. It was caused by the attitude taken by the Radical and Socialist parties at their recent congress at Nice, where the principles of a tax levy on capital was adopted.

The Painleve ministry was formed April 11 of this year to succeed that of Edouard Herriot, who also went down through the refusal of Parliament to accept its financial policy.

Like its predecessor, the Cabinet which stepped down to-day depended for its parliamentary majority largely on the parties of the Left, including the Radicals and Radical Socialists, Joseph Caillaux, Painleve's Minister of Finance and one of the outstanding men of the Government, has steadfastly resisted the Left bloc in its desire to resort to a capital levy as a means of lifting France out of its financial difficulties.

It is plain the Premier and Foreign Minister Briand were not in sympathy with M. Caillaux's plans, the details of which were kept largely in the dark during their consideration by the cabinet.

Premier Painleve told newspaper correspondents upon leaving the presidential palace that he would follow M. Doumergue's instructions whatever they might be. He would form a new cabinet if so requested, or would collaborate heartily with any other statesman the President might call to power.

DECIDED LAST FRIDAY
M. Painleve added that the decision to resign had been taken last Friday, but that it had been withheld in order to give Foreign Minister Briand, as the "main negotiator" of the Locarno agreements, an opportunity to preside over the League of Nations Council at its sitting here in connection with the Greco-Bulgarian dispute.

THREE IN INDIA TO BE EXECUTED

London, Oct. 27 (Canadian Press Cable).—The sensational Malabar Hill murder in India last January was recalled at a sitting of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council here yesterday when Sir John Simon, in behalf of three Indians sentenced to death for the murder of Abdul Kadir Bani, a rich Parsi merchant of Bombay, petitioned for leave to appeal against the conviction and sentence.

The petition was dismissed without the Judicial Committee hearing argument from the crown counsel in the case. Their Lordships intimated they would give their reasons in writing for refusing to grant the petition.

NEWFOUNDLAND GALE CAUSED TWO DEATHS

Boy Drowned in Reservoir; Master of Schooner Was Washed Overboard

St. Johns, Nfld., Oct. 27.—Partial restoration of British Columbia telegraphic communication with outside points brought in yesterday the first news of tragedies resulting from the hurricane which struck Newfoundland on Saturday and caused at least two deaths, heavy losses to shipping and disruption of public services in many places.

According to message reports reaching the city, James Jackman, a thirteen-year-old boy, and Capt. Voiz, master of a French liquor carrying schooner, the St. Pierre and St. Louis, were victims of the gale, and the two schooners were wrecked. The Jackman boy was blown into a reservoir at Belle Island and drowned before all could reach him. Capt. Voiz was washed overboard from the St. Pierre and St. Louis just before the vessel stranded at Lamaline. No details of the stranding are available, but it is believed the remainder of the crew escaped. The vessel was bound for St. Pierre, presumably from a French port.

A report from Bona Vista stated another vessel, the Alma May, was a total loss on the rocks there. No details were given.

Garnet Ferris was convicted of participation in robbery with violence at the farm of Peter Dufour in McGregor Township in February, 1924.

WINNIPEG MAN HELD AS RESULT OF DEATH

IDENTIFIED BY TWO

Nazar was identified this morning by two taxi-cab drivers, who declared him to be the man who hired Landy's car at the Union Station here last Sunday evening. One of the drivers had previously given the police a good description of the man, noticing particularly a shambing gait he had. The arrest was made at six o'clock last evening, but was not announced by the police until this morning.

ROBBERY WAS MOTIVE

Landy's body was found at six a.m. Monday. Robbery is believed to have been the only motive for the killing. The murdered man was known to carry a large sum of money, but only 75 cents was found in the death car. Death had occurred about ten hours before the body was found.

Dressed in shabby clothes, Nazar appeared in police court to-day and was charged with the theft of the overcoat and remained. He appeared stupefied and took no interest in the proceedings.

CORONER'S JURY URGES SAANICH TO REPAIR ROAD

Verdict of Accidental Death in Medley Case; Fire Truck Skidded

A coroner's jury investigating the death of Fred Medley, city fireman killed on Saturday evening when the engine he was driving turned over on the Gorge Road, to-day brought in a verdict of accidental death.

A rider was added in the form of a recommendation that the Saanich Municipality be requested to make the incline, just outside the city limits on the Gorge Road, safer for vehicles.

Francis Stewart, one of the three firemen who were riding with the deceased, told of the truck making good speed over the city roads, which were dry, and slowing down within a block of what is known as Ebert's Hill, on the Gorge Road. When they reached the brow of this hill the wagon was traveling not more than ten miles an hour, witness asserted.

TRUCK SKIDDING

But even at this low speed, the truck began to skid as soon as it struck the hill. It lurched to the right and then swayed dangerously to the left. Stewart jumped, he said, and fell heavily in so doing. When he got up he saw the engine speeded down and the road he immediately rushed for a telephone. Meanwhile Deputy Chief A. Munroe had arrived.

The deputy chief said he had given permission for the Burnside engine to attend this particular fire because the Saanich engine was fighting a blaze at the time and the city brigade was not busy.

As he came to the brow of the hill he saw the overturned wagon and rushed to assist those whom he knew to have been riding it.

Lieut. McSweeney, now lying at his home still suffering from the effects of the accident, was at this time on his back on the road. He was moaning. Driver Medley was clear of the truck, said the chief, but unconscious and bleeding severely.

The police patrol and ambulance had been summoned by Stewart, who had come back to the scene of the accident by this time, Chief Munroe continued.

ROAD PATROL HAS BEEN INTRODUCED

Automobile Club of British Columbia Introduces New System; Now in Effect

"Emergency Road Service," is the latest feature to be introduced by the Automobile Club of British Columbia, for the benefit of its members. The service will be maintained in three cities in the Province, namely, Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster.

Arthur Veale is the local service man and is equipped with a motorcycle and sidecar. He will carry a full emergency kit and when a member is in trouble all he has to do is phone 2191 for the emergency man's service. Service will be obtainable between the hours of 3 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the evening. These hours will hold good except on Sundays and holidays. After members will have to get in touch with the nearest official garage.

"It is the intention of the club to maintain this service throughout the year.

This is an emergency service for members whose cars are disabled on the road. Service will not be rendered to cars in garages or to motors and trucks in the city streets.

The service will be extended to persons unless they have their membership card with them. Any supplies or spare parts brought to the scene by the motorcycle man are to be paid for at current prices. Emergency road service includes such immediate minor repairs or adjustments as can be made on the highway to start a member's car. If the car cannot be started within a reasonable time the mechanic will tow it or have it towed to any place the member wishes to go within a radius of twelve miles.

CHAMBER CROWDED

The Clock Hall of the French Foreign Office was crowded last evening during the session at which the League of Nations Council took its first step in dealing with the Greek-Bulgarian border dispute by declaring they must unconditionally withdraw their troops from the frontier and be asked the Greek Minister to give new assurances that the Council's conditions would be accepted without reserve.

The Council then heard the explanations of both parties regarding the dispute that had caused the conflict, and the Council adjourned shortly after noon until to-morrow morning to await the Greek and Bulgarian replies regarding the withdrawal orders to be given the troops.

GUNS IN LINE

M. Briand said this pleased the Council, but that his information was still that guns held the stage on the frontier and he asked the Greek Minister to give new assurances that the Council's conditions would be accepted without reserve.

The Council then heard the explanations of both parties regarding the dispute that had caused the conflict, and the Council adjourned shortly after noon until to-morrow morning to await the Greek and Bulgarian replies regarding the withdrawal orders to be given the troops.

GIRL OF SIXTEEN IS RESCUED IN SEATTLE

Half-caste Japanese Woman and Three Men, One a Negro, Arrested

Seattle, Oct. 27.—A sixteen-year-old girl who disappeared from her home in Port Angeles ten days ago was rescued here yesterday by detectives from a house operated by a half-caste Japanese woman in Seattle's underworld, frequented by negroes. The woman and three men, one a negro, were arrested. The girl is held for safekeeping and as a witness.

The raid on the house came as the aftermath of a sermon preached by Rev. Dr. Ambrose M. Bailey in the First Baptist Church, before 2,000 people Sunday night in which he decried bootlegging, gambling and the worst vice flourished in Seattle.

The girl was taken to the place, it was said, through circumstances hinted by Dr. Bailey when he declared that if the public knew the facts "there would be a race riot or the lid to any town would be blown off."

The girl said she had left Port Angeles with Chester Foote, one of the men arrested, "for the fun of the adventure."

LEAGUE COUNCIL AWAITING PROOF OF GREEK TROOPS' RETREAT

PLEDGE BY GREECE

Athens, Oct. 27.—The Greek Government to-day ordered the prompt evacuation of Bulgarian territory by its forces. The movement will be effected as soon as the Greek frontier guards have been restored to their former posts.

AGREEMENT REPORTED

Paris, Oct. 27.—M. Carapanos, Greek representative, announced at the opening of to-day's meeting of the League of Nations Council, that through the friendly mediation of Rumania and direct agreement had been reached between Greece and Bulgaria for evacuation of their respective territories.

The conditions of the agreement, he said, were that Bulgaria and Greek officers should proceed this afternoon to the frontier to arrange for the return of the Greek border guards to their original posts.

The Greek troops in Bulgaria would begin their withdrawal immediately, he said, and the Bulgarian forces would not advance in a manner to hinder the Greeks, until the latter had crossed the frontier.

M. Carapanos explained the agreement was really in anticipation of yesterday's action by the League Council which resulted from pleading by the Rumanian Government that both countries give proof of their mutual good intentions to prevent danger arising from fresh incidents in connection with the activities of the irregular bands.

NO EVASION

M. Briand, president of the Council, intervened to remark that he was glad to hear this news, but wished to emphasize that the agreement as outlined indicated certain reserves from the decision taken by the Council. He insisted both Greece and Bulgaria conform exactly to the conditions laid down by the Council.

To this the Greek spokesman replied that the agreement contained no conditions and argued that the accord was in conformity with the Council's action.

ROAD PATROL HAS BEEN INTRODUCED

Automobile Club of British Columbia Introduces New System; Now in Effect

"Emergency Road Service," is the latest feature to be introduced by the Automobile Club of British Columbia, for the benefit of its members. The service will be maintained in three cities in the Province, namely, Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster.

Arthur Veale is the local service man and is equipped with a motorcycle and sidecar. He will carry a full emergency kit and when a member is in trouble all he has to do is phone 2191 for the emergency man's service. Service will be obtainable between the hours of 3 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the evening. These hours will hold good except on Sundays and holidays. After members will have to get in touch with the nearest official garage.

"It is the intention of the club to maintain this service throughout the year.

This is an emergency service for members whose cars are disabled on the road. Service will not be rendered to cars in garages or to motors and trucks in the city streets.

The service will be extended to persons unless they have their membership card with them. Any supplies or spare parts brought to the scene by the motorcycle man are to be paid for at current prices. Emergency road service includes such immediate minor repairs or adjustments as can be made on the highway to start a member's car. If the car cannot be started within a reasonable time the mechanic will tow it or have it towed to any place the member wishes to go within a radius of twelve miles.

CHAMBER CROWDED

The Clock Hall of the French Foreign Office was crowded last evening during the session at which the League of Nations Council took its first step in dealing with the Greek-Bulgarian border dispute by declaring they must unconditionally withdraw their troops from the frontier and be asked the Greek Minister to give new assurances that the Council's conditions would be accepted without reserve.

The Council then heard the explanations of both parties regarding the dispute that had caused the conflict, and the Council adjourned shortly after noon until to-morrow morning to await the Greek and Bulgarian replies regarding the withdrawal orders to be given the troops.

GUNS IN LINE

M. Briand said this pleased the Council, but that his information was still that guns held the stage on the frontier and he asked the Greek Minister to give new assurances that the Council's conditions would be accepted without reserve.

The Council then heard the explanations of both parties regarding the dispute that had caused the conflict, and the Council adjourned shortly after noon until to-morrow morning to await the Greek and Bulgarian replies regarding the withdrawal orders to be given the troops.

SAW DEATH WHEN STREET CAR HIT TRAVELER'S COUPE

Wilson Bros. was completely wrecked when it was jammed between two Oak Bay street cars. Part of the wreckage was literally swept up like garbage. One wheel of the car apparently was all that was saved. The rest, jammed in the sixteen inch space between the incoming and outgoing Oak Bay cars, piled up to a height of sixteen feet and the parts were hardly recognizable.

How the men escape death is a mystery.

"The other car drew on us and with a sickening grinding sound the coupe was wedged and smashed.

"I put my hand out and leaned on the window of the street car as it traveled several feet after the crash. When they stopped I had both legs trapped in the debris. I managed to wrench one free but could not move anything. William had climbed over the wreck and yanked something off my foot." NEW YORK ROBBERS WORKED IN STORM

New York, Oct. 27.—The robbery of $100,000 worth of watchworks and jewelry from a bonded warehouse early Saturday night, when the thieves worked under cover of a big storm, was divulged to-day by detectives who had been working on the case for many hours without results.

The stolen property was taken from a building owned by Banker and Williams. Using an extension ladder, the robbers climbed to the roof of a two-story building, then to the roof of a five-story building, adjoining, and from that roof climbed two more stories to the roof of the warehouse while a gale of more than seventy miles an hour was blowing. In their exposed position on the roof they broke through a skylight and entered the building.

ROBERT J. FLEMING DIED IN TORONTO

Formerly Mayor of City; Until Recent Years Street Railway Manager

Toronto, Oct. 27.—Robert J. Fleming, former mayor of Toronto and for many years general manager of the Toronto Street Railway, died here yesterday after a brief illness from pneumonia.

News of the death of Mr. Fleming, who had been a leading figure in the business life of Toronto for many years, came as a complete surprise to his friends in the city. The former street railway executive was nearly seventy-one years of age and a week ago attended service in Timothy Eaton Memorial Church. Returning to his farm at Donlands, about ten miles northeast of Toronto, he complained he was not feeling well, and it was reported at his office on the following day that he was suffering from a chill, but that his condition was not serious. Later in the week it was announced pneumonia had developed, but it was still not thought his condition was critical.

Retaining his usual cheerfulness up to the end, Mr. Fleming died peacefully at 10 a.m. He was drinking water when he suddenly gasped, and almost immediately expired.

At the bedside were his sons, Goldie, Murray P. and Russell, and his daughters, Rebecca V., Stiel T., Evelyn, Victoria and Agnes.

The former mayor's age weighed against his chances of recovery when pneumonia set in.

The funeral will be held to-morrow.

Robert John Fleming was a prominent figure in the public life of the city of Toronto for nearly forty years. He was born in what is now the Wholesale Warehouse district of the city, on November 23, 1854. As a boy he spent a few years in public school but the necessities of life sent him to work early. He developed an aptitude for business life and made a success of retail trade. He became heavily interested in Toronto real estate, and is said to have made, lost and regained two or three fortunes in the course of his life. He died a wealthy man.

TORONTO AUDIENCE HEARD MR. MEIGHEN

Conservative Leader Spoke in Massey Hall; Also Addressed Meeting in Bowmanville

Toronto, Oct. 27.—Sir Has. Arthur Meighen, Federal Conservative leader, addressed an election campaign meeting here last night that filled Massey Hall. Many stood outside and listened to a loud speaker. An overflow meeting was held in another hall and it was late when Mr. Meighen had finished his speeches to the Toronto electors.

"It is easy to preach unity, but it is harder to practice unity," said Mr. Meighen. He declared for more practice and less preaching of unity. He thought a policy which would bring Canada prosperity would be the surest step toward national unity.

Earlier in the evening in the town hall in Bowmanville Mr. Meighen addressed a meeting in the interval of Fred W. Brown, Conservative candidate in Durham. Due to the limited time, Mr. Meighen was compelled to speak briefly on the policies of his party.

TWO MEN CHARGED WITH BANK ROBBERY

Creston, B.C., Oct. 27.—With John Ward of Frank, Alta., committed for trial on a charge of holding up the Creston branch of the Imperial Bank of Canada on October 20, and the second of the two suspected of the $5,000 robbery reported being brought here for identification, the legal proceedings are well under way a week after the crime was committed.

Assisted by five, the bandits escaped into the hills surrounding Creston after the holdup last Monday. Ward was captured a few hours later, while another man escaped. According to word received here—by the provincial police, a man answering his description was taken into custody yesterday at Yank, B.C., with a revolver and $400 cash in his possession. He will be brought here today. It is expected.

Ward, who was committed for trial by Magistrate Malandaine here on Saturday, had $4,500 on his person when captured.

Retail Merchants' Leader Discusses Problem of Prices

Winnipeg, Oct. 27.—J. T. Crowder of Vancouver, Dominion president of the Retail Merchants' Association, addressed a meeting of retailers, wholesalers and consumers here last night and argued for established prices for nationally-advertised goods. He said price-cutting had become an acute problem recently.

At conclusion of the meeting a resolution was passed "fully endorsing the principle of price-maintenance, a fair trading policy."

Mr. Crowder is making a coast-to-coast tour to ascertain the views of merchants throughout the Dominion on the question. The tour was undertaken at the request of the grocers and the dealers of British Columbia.

Milton, Ont., Oct. 27.—Acting on instructions from Premier King, which he received last Thursday, Henry Carpenter, a Hamilton barrister, yesterday issued a Supreme Court writ against Lieut.-Col. The statement credited to Colonel Hatch in a published report was to the effect that he had deceived Mr. King when the Great War broke out, went to the United States and there applied for and secured papers which made him a citizen of the United States.

The newspaper which carried the reported statement credited to Col. Hatch, but denied by him, later published a statement in which it assumed responsibility and declared it "has satisfied itself, after careful inquiry, that Colonel A. F. Hatch did not make the statement attributed to him."

THE CONSERVATIVES WOULD ATTACK BRITISH TRADE

IF THE PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY were to elect a Conservative Government on Thursday, one of the most prominent features of its first budget would be the complete abolition of the British preference.

It is this time for the Dominion of Canada to inaugurate a policy which would make it still more difficult for Britain to meet the gigantic obligations which she shouldered as her contribution to the fight against militarism?

Mr. Meighen and his followers have made a direct reference to British wools. They would increase the duty on a staple of this kind. Most of the wools in demand in Canada come from Great Britain.

One has only to look in the store windows of Victoria to understand how the Victoria merchant handles wools from Britain. He advertises them as such. In perfectly legitimate commercial fashion he rubs it in, as it were, during the tourist season.

This matter of the British preference goes much deeper than may appear at first sight. Its abolition would do a good deal more than increase the price of clothing to the Canadian consumer.

The net result of that policy is this: clothing at reasonable competitive prices; bigger turnover for Canadian merchants selling these goods to our own people and to hundreds of thousands of American tourists, more work for the men who handle the ships at our ports, and, inevitably, of course, bigger sales of Canadian goods to Great Britain.

And how the Conservatives would still further curtail the business of Canadian ports will be understood from Mr. Meighen's declaration that the measure of freight rate justice recently obtained by the West was "utterly indefensible."

Table with 4 columns: Year, Canadian Pacific Coast Ports, Canadian Atlantic Ports, American Atlantic Ports. Rows include 1922, 1923, 1924 for Wheat, Oats, and Barley.

From this statement it will be apparent that nearly two-thirds of the Canadian grain exported carries business for American Lake steamers, American Lake ports, American railroads and American seaports.

THE LEAGUE ACTS

NOTHING COULD HAVE BEEN MORE definite in tone and general implication than the ultimatum which the Council of the League of Nations presented to Greece and Bulgaria last night.

The League has not disappointed the world. It has tackled this unfortunate business in a commendably aggressive fashion. The attitude of the members of the Council was obviously dictated by the stern necessities of the situation and they followed the course which should produce the desired result.

FRUIT CROWERS DOING WELL

HOW WELL THE FRUIT CROWERS OF the Okanagan Valley have done this year may be learned from an editorial reference to the subject in the Conservative Petitioner Herald.

There have been many pessimists throughout this section of the Okanagan Valley during the past few years, and conditions, it is true, may have justified a certain amount of depression, but to those who have not wavered in their faith should come the pleasure and profit which is associated with the attainment of pleasant expectations.

Optimism is indeed justified. For weeks past apple growers in the entire district have been picking the largest crop in the history of the Southern Okanagan. The apples are being rushed out day after day in carload shipments.

Conservative speakers in this Province have been at considerable pains to explain what they have chosen to call the sad plight of the fruit growers. They have said over and over again that unless these producers can be given more protection against the foreign invasion nothing can prevent the desertion of many British Columbia orchards.

As a matter of fact this year's apple crop looks like breaking all records. Other crops are equally prolific and help to swell the evidence that British Columbia is getting into the fruit-growing business in a big way. That very naturally entails going after markets in a big way.

This simply means that if a Conservative Government is elected to office at Ottawa, record fruit crops in future years will be of little use to the grower because Mr. Meighen would shelve the freight rate question.

A SURE BAROMETER

THERE IS NO MORE SURE AND reliable indication of the conditions of trade, particularly relating to its future trend, than the stock markets of the world. The New York Stock Market is used as the barometer with which to gauge the coming cycles of business and the future possibilities of any industry by bankers, manufacturers, merchants and investors throughout the country.

Taking thirty-three stocks to-day on the Montreal Exchange, eliminating railway and bank stocks, which bring the figures down to an industrial basis, and comparing the present average price of these thirty-three stocks with those of eighteen months ago, the value placed on such stocks to-day is forty per cent. higher than at the previous period mentioned.

Dr. Tolmie told a Mainland audience the other day that the Tories will have a clear majority of eleven. Nobody can accuse him of suggesting that the age of miracles has passed.

High tariff advocates are so busy trying to convince the people of this country that a higher customs duty would not increase prices that they are now being reminded that if protection does not protect the manufacturer, of course, he is the man who wants it—why ask for it?

Prophecies

Dr. Tolmie Alters His Estimates. But Prediction Number Eight Repairs the Damage. Numbers Nine, Ten and Eleven Expected Hourly. All Bear Curious Family Resemblance to 1921 forecasts.

Just as the seventh Conservative prediction of election victory last Saturday was sinking into the weary consciousness of the Canadian electorate last week, along comes the eighth to-day and upsets everything again.

The seventh prediction was unlike any of the previous five and the eighth differs from the seventh. The Conservative predictors are striving mightily to avoid the charge of monotony. Number seven, from the lips of Hon. S. F. Tolmie, when he spoke at Cloverdale the other day, announced that the Conservative Party undoubtedly would have 128 seats out of 245 in the next Parliament.

"In the West the Government feels certain of eight seats in Manitoba, six in Saskatchewan and five in Alberta," the dispatch declared. And in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta no Conservative came within hailing distance of election.

"The Government will sweep every riding in British Columbia," was the cautious forecast of the dispatch of 1921. And in British Columbia there were three straight Liberals and three independents who invariably supported the Government.

"Summed up, it can be said without fear, that Mr. Meighen is going back to power to-morrow with at least 120 supporters behind him," said the dispatch of 1921 as the guarded climax to its cautious prediction.

It is no labor for the Conservative predictors to compile their predictions in this election. They don't have to sit up nights to collect the figures. They simply turn up the files of Conservative newspapers published just before the 1921 election and clip them judiciously.

"The same dispatch in 1921 also stated: "Speaking to Sir James Loughheed over the long distance telephone last night Mr. Meighen said: "Telegrams are pouring in to me which indicate that votes are swinging to the side of the Government in all the Provinces."

"The most astonishing and encouraging reports come from the anti-Government strongholds, the prairie provinces and Quebec," the dispatch went on. "As, not a solitary Conservative was elected in the whole length and breadth of the prairies and Quebec."

"The old Conservative party, reorganized and rejuvenated under its new leader, have waged a brilliant battle in Quebec and claim that beyond all question they will capture twenty seats,"

EMPLOYMENT IN CANADA AND U.S. To the Editor:—In current comparisons of employment in Canada and the United States an important fact is left out of account. That fact is the foreign trade of the United States as it affects international credit is concerned, on the same footing as during the war. The United States are annually lending abroad $2,500,000,000, and that sum goes abroad as an export surplus of goods. The war turned the United States from a debtor nation, paying to Europe (as estimated by Sir George Paish, National Monetary Commission, 1916) an annual balance of interest of $500,000,000, after deducting all interest payable by all countries to the United States into a creditor nation and the world banker.

"Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, who it was thought, would have a difficult fight in Montreal, will be returned by 2,000 majority and three seats at least are certain in Montreal alone," the interesting dispatch announced. And Mr. Ballantyne was defeated by 2,500 votes while Montreal returned a solid bloc of Liberals.

A DANGEROUS GAME To the Editor:—The election campaign has brought out the fact that some protection is required to increase Canadian duties against the United States to equal the amount charged against Canadian goods of the same class by the United States. This would be carrying out Sir John A. Macdonald's threat of "reciprocity of tariffs" when he failed to get reciprocity of trade. Sir John was to do it, but he did not do it and it would be rather a wild thing to attempt at the present time. It would quickly land us with sixty per cent. tariff on the total value of our exports to the United States. This would be a disaster to our country.

It is not possible here to quote his speech, but after describing to the assembly an instance of great brutality to a dog, he exclaimed in a moving voice, "Truly and conscientiously, in every respect, I would infinitely rather be the dog than the man." Continuing, he said, "We are told in haughty and dogmatic style that the secrets of nature can be learnt in no other way. Can it be believed that the Almighty has issued such a decree?"

ADD STOMACH! GAS, INDIGESTION Chew a few Pleasant Tablets—Stomach Feels Fine! Pape's Tablets FOR INDIGESTION Instant stomach relief! Harmless! The moment "Pape's Tablets" reaches the stomach all distress from acid stomach of indigestion ends. Immediate relief from flatulence, gas, biliousness, palpitation, fullness or stomach pressure. Correct your digestion for a few cents. Millions keep it handy. Druggists recommend it. (Advt.)

for the relief of the farmer from the exactions of the manufacturers becomes interested. There is another good sign on the horizon. An intelligent manufacturer sees that protection has gone too far; has forced prices up beyond the ability of the purchaser to pay. In fact, he is killing the proverbial goose that lays the golden eggs. Mr. Massey is no longer for his action in joining the King Government on a significant straw showing which way the wind blows.

"LOVE-SERVE" To the Editor:—I recently asked a friend, who professes to be a lover of animals, why he felt any interest in the movement against vivisection. Her reply, while showing that she knew little about it, bore the usual testimony to our love of self. "We are told that it is necessary in the interest of humanity." There is a great consensus of opinion, ethical, scientific, and medical which repudiates the idea that it is necessary to torture one creature in order to help another, and denies the suggestion that any knowledge useful to mankind has ever been gained from animal experimentation.

So moved was he by the horrors of animal experimentation that he wrote his story, "The thought of this diabolical system disturbs me night and day," and he eventually became the leader of the anti-vivisection movement started in England by Miss Cobbe, and under his benign influence the first society was built up. Associated with him in this work were some of the brightest lights in the ethical, spiritual and philosophical world. Bishop Westcott, Archbishop Wilberforce, Dean Stanley, Cardinal Newman and Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, John Morley, Professor Alfred R. Wallace, and a host too great to mention who, heart and soul, still speak.

Under this general doctrine I advocate and will actively work for the following lines of policy: 1. Complete equalization of freight rates so that our industries may be developed by access to all Western Canadian markets, and our costs of living be equalized as compared with all other parts of Canada.

My personal interests are all on Vancouver Island, which I have said above, is a commercial unit, and my ambition is to help in bringing the Island into its own rightful state of prosperity, extending to every community and every home. As a Liberal member, acting in alliance with a Liberal member from Victoria City, I could and would be of great service. The electors of Vancouver Island should give active support to the Liberals as the supporters of Western development. The return of a clear majority of Liberal members in the next Parliament means development and prosperity on Vancouver Island. There is no alternative, no other hope, and I confidently ask for your vote and your support.

To the Electors of NANAIMO DISTRICT RESIDENTS OF Vancouver Island have a direct and vital interest in the election of a clear majority of Liberal members in the next Parliament of Canada. Because the Liberal Party is irrevocably committed to a policy of Western Canadian development based on the wiping out of discrimination and inequalities which, as a holdover from Conservative, reactionary, policies, prevent the growth and extension of Western Canadian commerce.

The Electoral District of Nanaimo, for which I am a candidate under nomination from the Liberal Party, comprises the southern area of Vancouver Island, commencing at Nanaimo and extending southward to the limits of Victoria, B.C., so that I address myself to electors residing at great distances under circumstances rendering close personal acquaintance difficult. The binding tie, however, is that, as a holdover from a commercial unit, the progress of any community helps the whole Island, and the prosperity of every community, extending to every voter, every motive, including commercial self-interest, our necessary aim.

KIWANAWANS HEAR OF FARMERS' PROGRESS

Hon. E. D. Barrow Says British Columbia Progress is Slow But Steady

The Kiwanawans Club, was addressed at to-day's luncheon by Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, who noted a general interest in development of a settlement in British Columbia, but pointed out that conditions differ from those experienced by the prairie when settlement of fertile open lands and production of crops followed quickly upon railway facilities.

In British Columbia agriculture must be preceded by land clearing, irrigation or drainage operations, but despite these handicaps, farm production has steadily increased in value, being less than $2,000,000 in 1922, while last year it was about $60,000,000 with a rapid growth in the last few years.

In developing agriculture in a new country too much stress is often placed on production, resulting in overtaxing the land. The Minister was well shown in the fruit industry fifteen years ago, and although recent years have greatly bettered conditions, things are what they should be, the Minister pointed out.

INCREASED PRODUCTION
"Take it all around there is no question but that British Columbia has increased her production in a very satisfactory manner," he said, pointing out that in many lines importations of agricultural products have been heavily reduced.

While British Columbia has an importation of 8,000,000 pounds of butter, this is offset by export of condensed milk and diversion of butterfat to the more profitable cream market, the surplus of butterfat being ample otherwise to supply the needs of the Province.

The major imports of butter are from Ontario, where dairying has spread rapidly, as occasional crop failures showed the weakness of one crop wheat farming.

DAIRYING
Mr. Barrow pointed out that the increase in the value of dairying in British Columbia from $2,000,000 to $10,000,000 has followed land clearing and draining operations, whereas the great increase in the value of the dairy products has followed the building of dairies and other capital expenses had not to be met.

Farm settlement problems in this Province, where dairying has followed, much work must be done before production is possible. This prevents settlement on a wholesale basis, as the prairie provinces experienced.

Miss B. Simpson rendered two soprano solos, earning great applause.

LINES ARE CLEARLY DRAWN IN QUEBEC

In Federal Election Campaign Patenaude Now Recognized as Meighen's Aide

Montreal, Oct. 27.—The closing days of the Federal political engagement, the signal gun for which was fired at Richmond Hill on September 5, when the Premier announced the dissolution of Parliament, find the situation at its most intense stage. Politics have overwhelmed all other interests in the Province of Quebec and every parish hall has seen voters assembled to hear the national issues presented by speakers of all divisions.

The campaign has not been without incidents of boodism and sycophancy and irrepressible is the general opinion of on-lookers.

PATENAUDE AND BOURASSA
Two elements in the present fight have to some extent overshadowed the particular points at issue and both have to do with returns to Federal politics of men who had withdrawn from that arena years ago. Hon. E. T. Patenaude, formerly Secretary of State in a Conservative administration, reappeared after an absence of over eight years from the Dominion field, and Henri Bourassa re-entered the Federal ring following eighteen years of retirement.

The advent of Mr. Patenaude and Mr. Bourassa gave a tremendous fillip to "independence" and for a time, until the situation settled down, "independence" was so dear to either with candidates who had either been refused official nomination and were determined to run or who, finding themselves in disagreement with the main principles of both parties, considered independence as the most acceptable middle course. The progress of the campaign, however, whittled down the number of independents and the situation resolved itself into the Conservatives supporting Mr. Patenaude, thus bearing out the statement by the Liberals that despite Patenaude's claim that he did not recognize Meighen as his leader, he was in reality being put forward in an effort to revivify the Conservative Party in Quebec.

LIKE TIMOTHY HEALY
This has left Mr. Bourassa alone. The position of the Nationalist leader has been good-naturedly tagged by Mr. Bourassa as "the Rube," after Timothy Healy in the days when the present Irish Free State Government was an active parliamentary force.

The Bourassa parties in this House," said Mr. Healy once, "and I am one of them."

MURDER CHARGE IS HEARD IN VANCOUVER

Charles H. White Accused of Killing Frank Rosso; Verdict Expected To-night

Vancouver, Oct. 27.—Evidence for the prosecution of Charles Henry White on a charge of having murdered Frank Rosso on the night of June 21 in North Vancouver was concluded this morning and court was adjourned by Mr. Justice B. A. McDonald until 2:15 p.m.

The judge and counsel agreed the trial would conclude to-day. The case will probably be left in the hands of the jury late this afternoon.

Alex. Henderson, K.C., will open the defence this afternoon and expects to call six witnesses.

WITNESSES HEARD
C. R. Lane, North Vancouver city treasurer, stated that on May 21 Rosso, who was an Italian storekeeper, showed him a $100 United States bill.

Archibald Melnis, accountant of the Bank of Montreal branch in North Vancouver, testified that Rosso's last deposit was on May 6, when he banked $200, mostly cheques.

Other witnesses told of White's activities on the day previous to his arrest by Detectives Imiah and Alex. Henderson. Mr. Melnis testified they had been in White's company for much of the time. The accused, they said, had joined them at about 3 a.m. June 22, at the Olympic rooms.

MOTORED IN PARK
In the morning they went motor-ing around Stanley Park after making a liquor purchase. Again in the evening they hired a taxi and went to Hastings Park, where they had many rides on the "Deep Blue."

May MacInnes stated White had in his possession two $100 bills, one Canadian and one United States bill, when he joined them. These he had hidden in his shoe. She testified he had shown them to her.

P. M. Raine, a waiter at the Regent Hotel, stated he had changed a $100 bill brought to him by H. B. Freeman, a floorwalker, who had received it from Raine. The bill was turned over to Detective Alex Imiah later in the evening.

Detectives Imiah and Alex testified they visited a machine shop at Heather and Alexander Street and made inquiries for White. While they were there White entered and was placed under arrest. The accused man stated on his arrest he knew nothing about the case. Both officers declared their prisoner showed no agitation or nervousness.

Detectives Imiah testified he had driven White and his companions on both the morning and evening of June 22. White had paid for the taxi fare.

M. Mitchell stated he had done considerable work for the accused in his machine shop, where White was charged. On the morning of June 22, White had paid him $50 in $10 bills for some repair work that was being done.

CRYSTAL GARDEN WATER SCHEDULE

Promenade Rates Lowered During Winter Months; Schedule Changes

I. W. Awde, concessionaire and manager, announces that commencing November 2, the Crystal Garden building will be open from 2 p.m. until midnight, daily, except Sunday, and the swimming pool, between the hours of 3 p.m. and 11 p.m. daily, except Sunday. Hours for children bathing at the usual special rate will be between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. on Saturdays instead of in the morning, as at present.

As a result of the promenade will be 10 cents per person, instead of 25 cents, as at present. All other rates will remain the same.

Mr. Awde appreciates that the foster development of the park is of public and will be pleased to see people and will be pleased to see people, should they so desire, at the usual prices.

This arrangement has been discussed with Mayor Pendray, Alderman Todd and others who express their approval.

As a result of Mayor Pendray the Canadian Pacific Railway Company have arranged with Concessionaire Awde that the carnival committee shall have use of the Crystal Garden building free of charge on a specified date between the hours of 2 p.m. and midnight, when a grand masquerade ball will be staged and prices given, also a swimming gala, and a concert to go to the carnival committee.

It is understood that slight improvements are being carried on in the Crystal Garden building, but any further extension of a longer nature will be postponed until nearer the 1926 Summer season.

SOcial AND PERSONAL

A most enjoyable and successful masquerade took place in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium on Monday night, under the auspices of Queen Alexandra Review No. 11, W. W. A. Macabees. Nearly everyone appeared in fancy costume and the Judges, Mrs. H. Crocker, Mrs. Doane and Mr. H. Hunter, had great difficulty in selecting the best costume but finally decided on the following: Best lady's costume—Mrs. Yates; Canada; best gentleman's—Mr. Robson; best boy's—Mrs. Doane; best boy's—Mrs. Doane; best dressed gentleman—Mr. Crothall as an Arab. First Halloween costume, Mrs. Hugh Black; second, Mrs. Adams; third, Mrs. Malcolm; special, Miss Luft, Hagen lady; comic gentleman, Mr. Johnson, as Sally; comic gentleman, A. Hunt, Charlie Chaplin. The winner of the tombola was Mrs. Wags and after much excitement Mrs. Adams and Mrs. McGee won the balloon dance. The committee, Messrs. A. S. and Mrs. M. W. McLeod, and Miss Reid wish to thank all those who donated prizes and helped in other ways. Mr. Arthur Manson made a courteous speech of commendation and the Chamber of Commerce caterers provided excellent refreshments.

ROBERT FORKE IS HEARD IN BRANDON

Brandon, Man., Oct. 27.—Robert Forke, Progressive leader, who returned to his own constituency yesterday after a tour of Saskatchewan, renewed his campaign here last night.

He told an audience in the City Hall that the opposition in Eastern Canada described the Progressives as "all powerful," with the King of Prussia as a mere puppet in his hands, but the cry in the West was that the Progressives were futile and insignificant.

PETER RYAN DIED AT TORONTO HOME

Toronto, Oct. 27.—Peter Ryan, former Toronto registrar of deeds and long prominent in Liberal and financial circles, died last night at his home here after a long illness. He was eighty-three years old.

Mr. Ryan had lived an inconspicuous life so long before his death that only those who recall the stirring times of the seventies and the eighties realize that one of the brightest political debaters that has appeared in Canada died last night.

Peter Ryan was born in Carlisle, England, of Irish parentage.

COMMUNISTS RULE COUNCIL OF BERLIN

Berlin, Oct. 27.—The Berlin municipal council will be controlled by Communists and Socialists for the next four years, a reason for the election held Sunday, but the Communists were the only real victors, increasing the number of their seats from twenty to forty-two.

The Progressives dropped from thirty-five to thirteen, the Socialists had a slight setback and the Nationalists had a slight increase.

PEACE RESTORED IN NICARAGUA TO-DAY

Gen. Chamorro's Uprising Succeeded; Liberals Ousted From Cabinet

Managua, Nicaragua, Oct. 27.—A peace treaty has been entered into by President Solozano and General Emiliano Chamorro, whose forces on Sunday carried out a coup and captured La Loma fortress.

The town was entered by Chamorro because of his opposition to members of the Liberal Party having seats in the Cabinet. Chamorro is a Conservative. The Liberal's holding portfolios are to be dismissed under the agreement, and the Conservative Party Promises to lend its support to General Solozano.

One of the stipulations in the agreement was that $10,000 should be paid to General Chamorro for expenses incurred in the operation and that his troops will be paid off by the Government.

Chamorro is expected to be appointed a general of the army for a sufficient time to insure peace.

Umpires' Reps At Stake In World's Series For Little

Billy Evans Thinks Men Who Make Decision in Big Games Paid Too Little

Cites Rigler's Decision on Rice's Catch to Illustrate Action of Fans

By BILLY EVANS

The important part that umpiring plays in a world series has been conclusively proved in the 1925 event.

One decision very often decides a ball game. The margin of one ball game often determines the winner of a series.

During the regular playing season of 154 games it is possible for an umpire to have some rather doubtful decisions stir up all kinds of trouble for a time, but it is forgotten later on.

Plenty of Football For Fans This Week

Three Games Scheduled To-morrow in Wednesday League; Garrison, League Leaders, Will Meet Tilliums at Work Point; Rennie and Taylors Clash With Kirkhams at Central Park, While Navy and Hudson's Bay Play at Beacon Hill; All First Division Clubs Will be in Action Saturday

Table with 5 columns: Club Name, P, W, L, D, Pct. Includes Garrison, Rennie & Taylors, Tilliums, Hudson's Bay, Navy, Kirkhams.

To-morrow's Wednesday League football games should produce some fine exhibitions. The Garrison, at present top dogs, will have the husky Tilliums to deal with at Work Point.

All games will start at 3 o'clock. With the bakers and clubmen crowding them for the leadership the Garrison will be hot after a victory in order to secure a safer margin at the top.

Last week Rennie & Taylors celebrated their entrance into the mid-week league by scoring a keen victory over the Tilliums. The Garrison were forced to be satisfied with a draw with the Bays, while Kirkhams held the Navy to a 1-all draw in their opening match.

Kirkhams have shown a decided improvement since their opening match and should give the loavesmen a tough game. The bakers have a formidable club, having signed most of the teamsters who won the Wednesday League championship last season.

If the matches played so far are any criterion of what is to come, it looks as though the Wednesday League race will be a merry one this season. Last week the teams were so evenly matched that two drawn games resulted, while in the third the winning club was victorious by the odd goal in five.

First Division matches will be the order of Saturday, and three games will be played.

At last night's weekly meeting of the Lower Island Football Board the Victoria United were awarded two points for the match, which was to have been played last week in the opening games of the Combination Cup series between the United and Sons of England, but was defaulted on account of the bachelors being unable to field a team. Several of their players were ill.

Matches arranged for Saturday are as follows: United Services vs. Victoria Wests, at Royal Athletic. Referee: Payne. Victoria United vs. Sons of England, at Beacon Hill. Referee: McMillan.

Equivalents vs. James Island, at James Island. Referee: Stokes. The standing of the teams in the First Division is as follows:

"Do you believe Dempsey has any right to the title if he does not defend it within six months?"—Yes 81; no, 2,418.

The series now stands four games to one in favor of the Coast champions.

Who Sent Canadian Grain Through United States Ports?

--The Answer Is on Page 1718, Hansard, the Official Record of Parliament

Hansard quotes the Hon. George E. Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, in the Conservative Government: "As a result of conferences, application has been made to the Interstate Commerce Commission in the United States, for leave to file grain rates from the Northwest down to Minneapolis and Duluth, and so ease the pressure in the congested districts by taking the grain away from the more Western areas, down towards the South."

Is it possible that Mr. Foster, Conservative, did not know that Canada had ports on the Pacific Coast? Or, isn't it likely that Mr. Foster and his Conservative colleagues did not wish to interfere with that barrier to Western development—discriminating freight rates?

These unfair rates have paid the shareholders of the Canadian Pacific Railway $234,000,000 greater profits on their lines West of Fort William, than they received from their lines East of Fort William, during the years 1905 to 1920.

Just what has been the result of this Conservative policy of diverting Canadian grain to U.S. ports? The ports of Prince Rupert, Victoria and Vancouver have been retarded in development, immeasurably.

During the months of August and September of this year, more than 25,000,000 bushels of Canadian grain has poured through U.S. ports. Only slightly more than 1,000,000 bushels has passed through Western Canadian ports. These rates have cost the Western farmer $25,000,000 a year, in cold cash, which they have paid because they were forced to ship their grain over the long haul, East, through U.S. ports.

The voters of Victoria may well ask how, in the face of these startling facts, Dr. Tolmie can ask the endorsement of our Western people, as a supporter of the Conservative leader, Mr. Arthur Meighen, who recently made the statement that equalized freight rates were "utterly indefensible."

The records are quite clear. The Conservative Party are responsible for diverting this Canadian grain to U.S. ports. Mr. Meighen and his followers offer absolutely no hope to the West. Irrespective of what the local Conservative Candidate may say, Mr. Meighen has committed himself to his supporters in the East, with his "utterly indefensible" attitude toward equalization of freight rates.

Mackenzie King has passed this famous Order-in-Council, which will be enforced, providing he secures a majority in the next Government: "The policy of equalization of freight rates should be recognized as being the only means of dealing equitably with all parts of Canada."

The market displayed a little easier tendency during the early part to-day based on easier cables and little export business, but later there was heavy short covering in the October future and liberal buying in the deferred futures which was largely credited to the country and prices scored almost sensational advances, October soaring 3 1/2 cents from the low of the day.

Winnipeg Grain

Winnipeg, Oct. 27.—The bulls had control of the wheat pit here to-day and with active short covering in October and general speculative demand prices started skyward early in the session, closing 2 1/2 to 4 cents higher.

Winnipeg Grain

Winnipeg, Oct. 28 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Wheat. The market displayed a little easier tendency during the early part to-day based on easier cables and little export business, but later there was heavy short covering in the October future and liberal buying in the deferred futures which was largely credited to the country and prices scored almost sensational advances, October soaring 3 1/2 cents from the low of the day.

INDEPENDENCE

In later life calls for saving now—systematic saving over a term of years. We should not suggest that a young man or woman ought to put aside every cent—to deprive themselves—but it is entirely practical and easy to set aside $25 per month or more as investment against the future.

THE TIME-WORN TOWN

By J. S. Fletcher

"Suggesting!" sneered Mallett, close on his leader's right elbow. "Insinuating!"

"Hinting at things!" said Coppinger, close on the left. "Implying!"

"Dirty work!" said Alderman Crood. "Such as nobody but the likes of you—Radicals and teetotalers and chapel folk—ad ever think of doing. You say straight out before the town what's in your mind, Sam Epplewhite, and I'll see that the law has to say to you! I'm not going to have my character taken away by a fellow of your sort. Say your say here in public."

"I'll say my say at any time and place, Alderman Crood!" retorted Epplewhite. "This things going through!"

"You'll find out who murdered John Wallingford yet. There's no need to go far away to find the murderer!"

Crood's big face grew livid with anger, and his long upper lip began to quiver. He raised his hand, as if to command the attention of the crowd, but just then Hallowthwaite and a couple of policemen appeared in the open doorway behind, and Mallett and Coppinger, nudging the big man from either side, led him away along the Market-Place. And suddenly, from amongst the dispersing crowd, a small, dark, crystallized in a sharp cry from some man on its outer edge:

"Down w' the Town Trustees—they're at t' bottom o' this! Down w' 'em!"

The Town Trustees retreated before a suddenly awakened chorus of hooting. They disappeared into Mallett's private door at the bank. Brent watching and listening with speculative curiosity, felt Tansley touch his arm. He turned, to find the solicitor shaking his head, with a grave countenance.

"Bad, bad!" muttered Tansley. "Very bad! Once get public opinion set on like that, and—"

"And what?" demanded Brent. "He was already so convinced, that his cousin had fallen a victim to political hatred that he was rather welcoming the revengeful outburst of feelings."

"What now?"

"There'll be an end of all sensible and practical proceedings in connection with this affair," answered Tansley. "There's a big following of the Reform party in the town, and it they once get it into their heads that the Conservative lot put your cousin away—well, there'll be hell to pay!"

"Personally," said Brent, with a hardening of his square jaw, "I don't care if there is! If we can only put our hands on the murderer, I don't care if the people hang 'em to their lamp-posts! I shouldn't be sorry to see a little lynch law!"

"Then we shall never get at the truth," retorted Tansley. "We may—only may, mind you—have got a bit towards it this morning, but not far—"

"That threatening letter?" suggested Brent.

"I attach very little importance to it," said Tansley. "Though I wasn't going to say so much in court. In my experience in this town, if I've seen one anonymous letter I've seen a hundred. Hallowthwaite are given to that sort of thing. No, sir, there's a tremendous lot to come out yet. Don't you be surprised if all sorts of extraordinary developments materialize—perhaps when you're least expecting 'em!"

Brent made no answer. He was not easily surprised, and from the moment of his discovery of the crime he had realized that this was a mystery in the unravelling of which time and trouble would have to be expended freely. But he had a moment of genuine surprise that evening, when, as he sat in his private sitting-room, he received a note, written in a delicate feminine hand on crested and scented paper, wherein he was requested, in somewhat guarded and mysterious fashion, to stop round to the private residence of Mrs. Saumarez.

MRS. SAUMAREZ

Brent at that moment, was in a state of mind which made every fibre of his being particularly sensitive to suspicious and speculative ideas. He had no sooner slipped Mrs. Saumarez's note into his pocket than he began to wonder why she had sent for him? Of course, it had something to do with Wallingford's murder—but what? If Mrs. Saumarez knew anything, why did she not speak at the inquest? She had been present all through the proceedings. Brent had frequently turned his eyes on her; always he had seen her in the same watchful, keen-eyed attitude, apparently deeply absorbed in the evidence, and, it seemed to him, showing signs of a certain amount of anxiety. Anxiety—yes, that was it—curious—morbidly curious, most of them—but Mrs. Saumarez, he felt sure, was anxious. And—about what? He wondered, but wondering was no good; he must go and see her, of course, and presently he made himself ready and set out. But as he crossed the hall of the hotel he encountered Tansley who was just between Wellesley and Wallingford, for up to then those two had been rather close friends. But they certainly weren't after Mrs. Saumarez's death. Yet, in spite of that, continued Tansley, as if some afterthought struck him, "in spite of that, I'll say this for Wellesley: he's never allowed his undoubted jealousy of Wallingford to prevent him from supporting Wallingford on the Town Council. Wellesley, indeed, has always been one of his staunchest and most consistent supporters."

"Oh!—Dr. Wellesley's on the Town Council, is he?" asked Brent. "And a Reform man?"

"He's councillor of the Riverside Ward," answered Tansley, "and a regular Radical. In fact he, Wallingford, and that chap Epplewhite, were the three recognized leaders of the Reform party. Yes, Wellesley stuck to Wallingford as leader even when it became evident that Wallingford had ousted him in Mrs. Saumarez's affections. Fact?"

"Affections, eh?" surmised Brent. "You think it had come to as much as that?"

"I do!" affirmed Tansley. "Lord bless you, she and Wallingford were as thick as thieves. As our local saying goes: 'Oh, yes!—I'm sure she threw Wellesley over for Wallingford.'"

Brent heard all this in silence, and remained for a time in further silence.

"Um!" he remarked at last. "Odd! Mrs. Saumarez is an unusually pretty woman. Dr. Wellesley is a very handsome man. Now, my cousin was as plain and insignificant a chap to look at as ever I came across, poor fellow!"

"Your cousin was a damned clever chap!" said Tansley, incisively. "He'd got brains, my dear sir! And where women—clever women, anyhow—are concerned, brains are going to win all the way and come in winners by as many lengths as you please! Mrs. Saumarez, I understand, is a woman who dabbles in politics, and your cousin interested her. And when a woman gets deeply interested in a man—eh?"
