Is their pay adequate NO

If not, what is being done about it ?

In accordance with the full enforcement of Labor Standard Law, Pref, Nursing Sec. Health Dept is making guidance to lift up their quality and social status by training course and reeducation as well as to raise up their overall pay.

Remarks: It is difficult to catch the actual situation of nurses, and above number is presumption on the basis of qualified nurses belonging to Saitama Chapter Japan Maternity Nurse & Clinical Nurses Association of 2,500 qualified nurses total plus non-member.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 775 013

3. Persons engaged in seasonal work, excluding persons intended to be employed continuously beyond four months.

4. Persons employed by establishments engaged in temporary enterprises, excluding persons, intended to be employed continuously beyond six months;

5. Persons employed by working places or offices when such working places or offices have no fixed location;

6. Persons employed by a National Health Insurance Association or by a corporate juridical person administering National Health Insurance;

7. Persons employed by a life insurance company as solicitors for life insurance and who receive commissions instead of a fixed amount of remuneration.

When a person insured under Health Insurance in accordance with the preceding article becomes insured under National Health Insurance, with the approval of the insurer, or with the approval of the Mutual Aid Association as prescribed in Article 12, such person shall not be insured under Health Insurance during such period.

Article 14. Employers engaged in undertakings not designated in Article 13 may apply for the approval of the Welfare Minister to have all of their employees insured under Health Insurance.

In applying for the approval prescribed in the preceding paragraph the consent of one-half or more of all employees of the working place shall be necessary.

Article 15. When the approval prescribed in the preceding article is granted, such employees will be insured under Health Insurance.

The provisions of Article 13-2 shall serve to preclude approval.

Article 16. If a business of the type listed in Article 13 ceases to be subject to the provisions of such article it shall be considered as having been granted the approval prescribed in Article 14.

Article 17. Persons insured in accordance with the provisions of Articles 13 or 15, are insured as of the first day of employment or on the day when the provisions of Article 13-2 or Article 15, paragraph 2, become inapplicable to them.

Article 18. Persons insured in accordance with the provisions of Articles 13 or 15 are disqualified as insured on and after the day following the date of death, severance of employment, or when Article 13-2 or Article 15, paragraph 2, becomes applicable to them. However, if the provisions of the preceding article become applicable on the date of severence of employment, or when Article 13-2 or Article 15, paragraph 2, becomes applicable to them, they are disqualified as of that day.

Article 19. Employers of persons insured according to Article 15 may apply for the approval of the Welfare Minister to have all such insured persons disqualified as insured.

In applying for the approval prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the consent of not less than three-fourths of the persons insured is necessary.

When the approval prescribed in paragraph 1 has been granted the persons insured are disqualified as of the day following the approval.

Article 20. Any insured person disqualified by reason of Article 18 may continue to be insured providing he makes application to the insurer not later than ten days after the date of disqualification or, in case the insured person is receiving benefits at the time of disqualification, if he makes application not later than ten days after the termination of the period in which he is receiving benefits, providing further that such person has been insured for more than two months prior to the date of disqualification. However, those insured by Seamen's Insurance (excluding those designated in Article 20, paragraph 1, of the Seamen's Insurance Law) shall be excepted from this rule.

An application presented later than as prescribed in the preceding paragraph may not be accepted without proper reason being given by the insured.

Article 21. If a person, in accordance with the preceding article, comes within the provisions of the following sub-paragraphs he shall be disqualified as of the following day. However, with respect to sub-paragraphs 4 and 5 he shall be disqualified as of that day.

1. After the lapse of six months from the date he became insured;
