TWO CONVENTIONS.

Two National Conventions are either now in session, or have closed their labors. The first, which is almost a burlesque, may be briefly dismissed. It is the Abolition Convention, invoked by Gerrit Smith and other radical abolitionists, who regard the Black Republicans as weak and backsliding brethren. This assemblage convened at New York on the 28th ult., and its proceedings are detailed in the papers of the 29th. It numbered about two hundred delegates. Joseph Plumb was elected President. Several of the delegates were full-blooded negroes, and prominent among them was that pink of niggerdom, Fred Douglas. The Convention held three sessions—morning, afternoon and evening. Gerrit Smith composed the address, which is epitomized by the Herald as follows:

That, from the fact of their brotherhood, all men are bound to care for all men, even to the extent of overthrowing the civil government, however distant from them, which is inflicting unendurable wrongs, and which is obviously incorrigible; that the whole American people are authorised, by the Federal Constitution, to protect every part of the American people from the more than murderous outrage of slavery; that, at the Presidential elections of 1848 and 1852, the great mass of abolitionists voted with parties that did not recognize either the national or constitutional obligation of the whole American people from slavery, and that there is but too much reason to fear that, at the approaching Presidential election, they will be found voting with a party of a still more shallow and narrow policy, and therefore still less entitled to their votes: that the Republican party, in conceding the legality of slavery in Virginia and Missouri, does virtually concede it in Pennsylvania and Kansas, and in all the free States, for if slavery is the claim of property in man, it follows that slavery must be lawful in one State as well as another. That its affiliation and partnership with the Know-Nothing party is a sufficient reason why they who recognize the brotherhood of all men cannot join the Republican party. That the boast that it is a party to restore the Missouri Compromise is another sufficient reason why we cannot act with the Republican party. That whilst the Abolition party is the only appropriate one for all who respect human rights, the Democratic party, falsely so called, is the appropriate one for all who despise human rights. That no hope of saving Kansas to freedom is to be found in any compromise between freedom and slavery, in any of the contrivances of expediency of any of the gains of selfishness; but that great hope to this end is afforded by the prospects that the collision in Kansas will convert into abolitionists thousands within and hundreds of thousands without her borders; that the Abolition party, being sure of ultimate success, invites all to espouse its principles and to share in its labors and success; that while the convention sympathizes most tenderly with Sumner on account of the recent assault upon him, it nevertheless sees no other way of restraining that lawless and murderous spirit of slavery illustrated in this assault, than to kill slavery—in other words, the government must be put, not into the hands of the Republican, but the Abolition party.

The nominations were to be made the following day, after which the Convention would adjourn sine die. A small potato affair altogether, in which fanaticism and imbecility were mingled in equal proportions.

The other Convention is the National Democratic, which is still sitting at Cincinnati, and of which the proceedings are transmitted by telegraph with praiseworthy expedition. This body is charged with the important duty of designating a candidate for the Democracy, and establishing a platform of principles. [illegible] certain, from the tenor of the advices, that the nominee will not be chosen until the political programme is determined. Speculation busies itself in guessing the name of the gentleman who will be selected as the champion of Democracy in the coming campaign. Thus far it would seem that Mr. Buchanan's chance is the best. Pierce is deemed utterly out of the question, while Douglas does not gain ground. This, however, is little more than the surmise of correspondents whose wish is most instances is father to the thought. If Mr. Buchanan should prove the nominee, the choice of the Convention will apparently have been regulated by peculiar circumstances. The necessity of conciliating the North has become more manifest since the Sumner and Brooks affair. Mr. Buchanan is wholly unconnected with that transaction, and has doubtless had wisdom enough to be extremely guarded in his comments upon it. Mr. Buchanan, though acquiescing in the Kansas bill, is known to have been an ardent and earnest friend to the Missouri Compromise. Though a National man, he is far less intimately identified with extreme Southern sentiment than either Pierce or Douglas. In every respect, then, his nomination would be likely to be more acceptable to the North, while not distasteful to the South, than that of either of his competitors. Another circumstance militating in favor of Buchanan is his popularity among the conservatives and old-line Whigs, who regard him as a safe man—half a Whig already—and calculated to manage the affairs of the country with prudence and discretion. These considerations incline us to the belief that Mr. Buchanan may obtain the nomination.

Should this be the result of the Cincinnati Convention, the opponents of Democracy will have reason both to rejoice and grieve. To rejoice, because, in the event of the success of Buchanan, they will be certain of having a statesman, and an honorable gentleman in the Presidency. To grieve, because Old Buck is immeasurably the strongest man of the party, and will take many a vote from the ranks of the neutrals, and of that large class which usually sustains men, not principles. But after all, conjecture is bootless. The week will not close ere we shall have the upshot of the Cincinnati Convention before us, and shall know precisely who is the nominee, and the platform on which he stands.

Since the above was in type, later despatches have been received from Cincinnati. The intelligence that the Committee on Credentials will report in favor of the New York Softs, will surprise the South, as the Softs have been undoubtedly the Free-soil wing of the New York Democracy, whatever they may profess to be now. Should the Convention sustain the Committee, Mr. Pierce's chances for the nomination will improve, as the thirty-two votes from New York will, in all probability, be cast for him.

The Central American Difficulty.

Washington, May 30.—The President, in his message yesterday to the Senate on Central American affairs, enclosed a letter from Mr. Marcy to Mr. Dallas, dated the 24th instant, which reviews Great Britain's pretensions, and says that the President, rather than submit to its obligations without any reciprocal benefits, would deem it his duty to propose to Congress the annulment of the treaty.—He was willing, however, to refer all questions embracing the rightful limits of Belize, the Bay Islands and Mosquito territory to the decision of eminent men of science in Europe and America, and instructs Mr. Dallas to ascertain whether the differences can be promptly terminated by direct negotiations, and if not, to discuss the conditions of arbitration, the points of difference, which by this method seem requisite and applicable, being assumed, the other points of difference would afterwards yield to discussion. The conferences between Mr. Dallas and Lord Clarendon have, it is stated, been conducted in a spirit of cordiality and frankness.

The State Council of Ohio.—The new State Council of National Americans of Ohio convened at Columbus on the 27th ultimo. We have received reports of the first day's proceedings. Four hundred Councils were represented. It is reported that the work of organizing new Councils goes bravely on in every portion of the State. Harmony, enthusiasm, and confidence of success characterized the proceedings. An electoral ticket was announced, pledged to the support of Fillmore and Donelson.

The New York Sun, speaking of political events, says aptly enough:

"We have the war in Kansas; the outrage on Senator Sumner at Washington; the dismissal of Mr. Crampton and the British Consuls; the Panama outrage; the Central American difficulty, with the threats of the English journals that an alliance of the Central American States, backed by an alliance between England and France, may be formed to resist American policy; and half a dozen other matters of less anxious concern, all serving as accompaniments to give intensity to the general political excitement caused by the near approach of the meeting of the Cincinnati Convention.

"General Pierce has occupied the Presidential office three years and three months. Attaining office in the midst of profound peace; after a great internal excitement had abated, and while the spirit of union and patriotism ran high among the people of all [illegible] ... [illegible] dignation and fearfully agitated passions."

Know-Nothingism is denounced, and classified with the Alien and Sedition Acts.

The resolutions re-endorse the Compromise of 1850, endorse the Nebraska act, favor the admission of States into the Union, with or without slavery.

They are strong on the Monroe doctrine, and say no foreign power shall control the connection of the Atlantic and Pacific.

The Convention has adjourned till to-morrow.

Accident to an Excursion Line Steamer—Several Persons Scalded.—Philadelphia, May 29.—At six o'clock this morning, the steam-drum of the steamer Union, of the Bridgeton line, from Baltimore, exploded when off New Castle, scalding four of the hands belonging to the boat, and four passengers.—Wallace Maney, engineer, is supposed to be fatally injured, and one or two others will probably die. The rest are only slightly hurt.

The boat put into New Castle, and five physicians were brought on board to attend to the injured. The boat was then towed up to the city, and those injured taken to the Hospital.

The boat was not injured.

Daniel Barry and Alexander are the two most severely scalded.

Ex-Governor Reeder Arrived Safe at Chicago.—Chicago, May 28.—Ex-Governor Reeder and Mr. Fogg, Secretary of the Kansas Investigating Committee, arrived here this afternoon, having come through Missouri, narrowly escaping with their lives.—Governor Reeder addressed an immense crowd here to-night, and attends the Republican Convention at Bloomington to-morrow. Thence he goes to Washington. He confirms the reported destruction of Lawrence.

Kansas Sympathy Meeting—Nomination Declined.—Chicago, May 28.—Last evening an immense gathering of citizens of all parties took place here, responsive to a call for a meeting to consider the destruction of Lawrence and the assault on Senator Sumner.—Resolutions were adopted expressive of sympathy with Mr. Sumner, and of a determination to resist the invasion of Kansas. A committee was appointed to adopt a plan for the immediate organization of forces to rescue Kansas. The committee is to report at an adjourned meeting on Saturday.

Wm. B. Archer has declined the American nomination for Governor of this State.

Senatorial Election.—New Haven, May 28.—Another unsuccessful effort was made to-day by the Legislature of this State to elect a United States Senator. Three ballots were had. The first stood: Dixon 97, Toucey 96, scattering 28. The last ballot stood: Dixon 107, Toucey 92, scattering 23.

The election was then postponed until next Wednesday.

Horrible Crime.—St. Louis, May 28.—The house of Jacob Friend, four miles from St. Joseph, was fired by some unknown person lately, and Mr. Friend, his wife and five children were burned. It is supposed that they were murdered before the fire.

Loss of the Ship President—The Crew Saved.—Boston, May 27.—The ship President, Pathelar, from Liverpool, for Boston, was abandoned of the Banks, her bow having been stove in by ice, when she sunk. Her crew were taken off by the British ship Columbine, from Bristol, and taken into Quebec.

New York Republican Convention.—Syracuse, May 28.—The New York Republican State Convention met this morning. Full delegations being present. Committees were appointed to draft resolutions and to nominate delegates to the National Convention.

The Telegraph.

We copy the following article from the Richmond Whig, as it relates to a grievance common to the press everywhere. If the press of the country were called on to express their opinion of the whole telegraphic system, we believe their voice would be almost unanimous in condemning it as a nuisance. Its exactions are grievous, without corresponding benefits. It is, for the most part, managed upon a plan of speculation, in which the public and the press are the chief sufferers. Luckily, all monopolies have an end, and competition holds out the hope of better things:

The Telegraphic Nuisance.—We are glad to perceive that our late article on this subject has had the effect of opening the eyes of some of our contemporaries to the immediate importance of adopting some measure to relieve the press of this city and Petersburg of the exactions and abuses of the Telegraph between these places and Washington. We give place to the following proposition from our contemporaries of Petersburg. It is needless to say that we heartily endorse their suggestion for a conference, and would propose, if it suits them and our cotemporaries here in Richmond, that it be held in this city on Wednesday next, at the Exchange Hotel:

Editorial Conference.—The undersigned editors and proprietors of newspapers published in this city, respectfully propose to their brethren of the daily press in Richmond, to meet them on some early day, to be named by them, for the purpose of holding a conference, to ascertain if any and what means can be devised, to protect the press from the abuses occasioned by the transmission of matter over the telegraph wires, which in many cases is wholly unimportant and not unfrequently anticipated by the mails.

Dr. Bunting's Account of the Assault on Mr. Sumner.—Boston, May 29.—Dr. Bunting, of Montreal, Canada, states in the Evening Journal that he was in the gallery of the Senate chamber at the time the assault was made on Mr. Sumner. He says he saw Mr. Brooks approach Mr. Sumner, not in front, but on one side, and address him some words in a low tone, and then, at the moment Mr. Sumner raised his head, turning it to one side to listen, Brooks poured down on him blow after blow with the greatest rapidity. Mr. Sumner struggled several times to rise from his seat, but was evidently so much hemmed in as to be utterly incapable of rising till he had, by great effort, torn the desk from its fastenings, and then he pitched forward insensible on the floor.

While the assault was progressing, Mr. Keitt stood, with one hand flourishing a large cane and in the other holding a pistol behind him, partially under his coat, but which Dr. Bunting saw very distinctly projecting from beneath the tails of his coat. Dr. B. says he was, from his position in the gallery, directly above the actors in the scene, which enabled him to see this very clearly. During the attack, Mr. Douglas stood within five feet of Mr. Sumner, with his hands in his pockets. Dr. B. assisted in dressing Mr. Sumner's wounds.

The Albany Argus says, in allusion to the statement of Senator Douglas, that Mr. Sumner's speech was deliberately written out and rehearsed before delivery:

"Senator Seward was present at the rehearsal, and listened with regret to the extravagant provocations with which it was filled. He entreated the Massachusetts Senator to make it less offensive; and advised him to curtail those very passages, and to strike out those accusations, which proved afterwards so offensive to the Senate and the public.

"We regret that the advice of the New York Senator was not heeded. It might have averted an occurrence, for which it is true there was no justifiable provocation, but which can only be regretted as a calamity."

THE AMERICA'S NEWS.

The British mail steamship Africa arrived at New York on the evening of the 29th May, with dates from Liverpool to the 17th of the same month. The news is not of much importance.

Parliament not being in session, there is little of political import, excepting the repeated reports that the Conservatives are employed in weeding out the lukewarm and disaffected of their party. Very little has been said or written regarding the battles in Costa Rica. One influential journal, in the government interest, explains Lord Clarendon's letter respecting the 2,000 rifles, by saying that the British government have quantities of old muskets on sale, and will be glad to meet with other customers besides the Costa Ricans! Italian affairs continue prominently before the public. Small other parts of the continent, there is but little news.

United States and Russia.

A correspondent of the London Times, writing from Constantinople, under date of May 5, says:

"I told you in my last that a treaty had been concluded between the United States and Persia. It was concluded under the auspices of the Russian mission, and its tenor is directed against England. It pretends to be a commercial treaty, and so it would be were it not for the following stipulation. The third of these says that, the Persians not being a seafaring nation, the Americans will be obliged for the advantages which the treaty grants to their commerce to keep a fleet in the Persian Gulf, in order to defend Persia against the enterprises of whatever maritime nation should attack her. The second gives the Americans the right to have their ships of war in the Shatt-ul-Arab, the mouth of the Tigris; and the third of these articles allows them to have a factory at Kurnah.

Such is then the result of our late mistaken policy with Persia. We have a competitor in the Persian Gulf. The most curious thing is that the Americans are to have Kurnah as a factory—one of the places which we persuaded the Turks to give up to the Persians in the frontier convention."

Great Britain.—The Crimean Board of Enquiry protracts its sitting. Sir John McNeill declines to attend before the Board in the room of Col. Tulloch, who is unable to appear from sickness. In absence of the Commissioners, therefore, the enquiry continues, but draws within a day or two of its termination.

A pension of £5,000 sterling per annum has been voted by the East India Company to the Marquis of Dalhousie, the retiring Governor-General of India. The ground of the pension is that he has annexed four kingdoms within the past four years.

The trial of Palmer, the alleged poisoner, for the murder of his betting companion Cook, had been going on during three days before the Central Criminal Court, London.—The evidence thus far had been altogether circumstantial, and had not elicited much additional to that made public after the Coroner's inquest. The most eminent Counsel at the English bar are engaged on both sides. The Attorney-General and Messrs. James, Bodkin, Wesley and Huddleston, for the Crown; Sergeant Shee, and Messrs. Grove, Gray and Kenealy, for the prisoner. Lords Campbell, Anderson and Cresswell, were on the bench. It is needless to say the Court was crowded to its utmost capacity, and among the audience were many of the leading patrons of the turf.

A Congress of "Reformers of all Nations," convened by the aged Robert Owen, in St. Martin's Hall, London, on the 14th. Mr. Owen presided, and addressed the meeting at some length, enforcing his views with great earnestness. Petitions to Parliament, and a memorial to the Queen were adopted.

Lord Ranelagh has addressed a letter to the members of the Carlton Club, declaring that the presence in that club of members of the present government is injurious to the interests of the Conservative party.

The British Association for the Advancement of Science is to meet at Cheltenham in August.

GERMANY.—On May the 8th, the representatives of Austria and Prussia officially informed the Germanic Diet that peace was restored, and, at the same time, proposed that the Bund should express its adhesion to the treaty of peace concluded at Paris on the 30th of March. On the motion of Bavaria, the subject was referred to the Committee on Eastern Affairs. It is rumored that the Bund will pass a vote of thanks to Prussia and Austria, and express entire concurrence in their policy.

ITALY.—The Sardinian Senate had under discussion the Marquis d'Azeglio's motion approving the foreign policy of Ministers. The following are the terms of the motion:

"The Senate, convinced of the happy consequences which may be produced by the treaty of peace, both for civilization in general and for the re-establishment of order and tranquillity in the Italian peninsula, and recognizing the honorable part which the policy of the government and conduct of the Sardinian Plenipotentiaries have had in these happy results, expresses its entire satisfaction."

The motion was passed unanimously, as was a vote of thanks to the army and navy.

From the East.

Correspondence continues to describe Syria as in a very unsatisfactory state. The Sultan's decree of religious equality pleased neither Mussulmans nor Christians; the Moslem rebel against the concessions to the infidels, and the latter would rather pay a tax than be compelled to serve in the army. The rioters at Naplous (Nazareth) have become alarmed at the consequences of their indiscretion, and are attempting to pacify the Pacha of Jerusalem, who threatens them with punishment. A shocking outrage has been committed at Marash, near Aleppo—an English horse-dealer having been shot, and his house set on fire, his wife and two children perished in the flames. The Easter manufacture of the Holy Fire was exhibited in the Church of the Sepulchre at Jerusalem, on Saturday, April 26th, and, as usual, the ceremony was attended with scenes of fanatic rowdyism, the worshipers being eventually beaten out of the Sanctuary by the Turkish police.

A good deal of ill-will continues to prevail at Malta between the citizens and the Anglo-Italian legion, and the Governor has found it necessary to issue an order recommending more cordiality.

The bark Eldorado, of New York, had been ashore in the Straits of Gibraltar, but afterwards got off with the loss of part of cargo.

Lord Stratford de Redcliffe has applied for and obtained leave of absence. The London papers infer that he has been recalled.

Hostilities have recommenced between the Russians and Circassians.

Fifteen hundred families of Tartars are abandoning the Crimea, and intend to colonize the Dobrudscha.

The barracks at Bacood, near Constantinople, have been accidentally burned down.

[Correspondence of the London News.]

DENMARK.—Copenhagen, May 12.—Fædrelandet states that a protocol was signed on the 9th inst. by the plenipotentiaries of Russia and Sweden, declaring the adhesion of these two States to the proposals made by Denmark for the capitalization of the Sound Dues. According to the allotment of the thirty-five millions of rix dollars claimed by Denmark as a compensation for the loss of the Sound Dues (see Daily News of the 4th of March last) Russia will have to pay twelve millions of rix dollars, (about £2,600,000) Sweden five millions, and Norway one million rix dollars. The Hanse towns, Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburg, on the other hand, have formally declined to accede to the Danish proposals, till the transit duty levied by Denmark on goods passing through Holstein and Lauenburg shall be abolished. The relations with the United States remain for the present unaltered, and there is no new feature to report in the negotiations. The treaty which originally was to expire on the 12th April has been renewed for two months, on the proposal of the Cabinet of Washington, and will now ultimately expire on the 12th of June. In the meantime, the intelligence received from Hamburg of the expected immediate arrival of an American squadron in the Elbe has caused an unpleasant feeling in this city, and some fears are entertained as to the final result of the negotiations and the pacific settlement of the question. Under all circumstances it was deemed advisable to send reinforcements to the West Indies, to prevent the Danish islands from a surprise; and for this purpose the corvette Najaden, Captain Lieutenant Muxull, has been got ready for sea with the greatest despatch, and sailed yesterday morning for her destination. The Najaden carries out a company of artillery, to reinforce the garrison of St. Thomas.

The Secret Treaty.

The following, according to the Austrian Gazette, is the real motive which led France, England and Austria to sign the separate treaty of the 15th of April:

"Different explanations have been given of this treaty. We think that they should be simply sought for in the causes of disturbances which the battle has not yet created, in Turkey, and which may lead to the depopulation of the Ottoman Empire. The Mussulman population, in fact, particularly in the Asiatic provinces, are very much irritated against the concessions made to the Christians. A pretender or an ambitious Pacha might easily profit by these elements of revolt, and if the fanaticism of the Christians becomes opposed to that of the Mussulmans, the existence of Turkey might become compromised. It is with a view to prevent these eventualities, and to secure to the Porte the assistance of Europe, that the separate treaty has doubtless been concluded. It may be conceived that Russia would not sign it, because she sets no great value on the integrity of Turkey; and as to the Porte, it has not signed it, because it would by so doing have itself expressed, in an authentic document, doubts of its vitality. Prussia confined herself to her accustomed neutrality."

Important Land Title Suit.—John W. Lapsley vs. Mitchell and Dunn. This is a suit for the value of a large body of land situated in the State of Texas, of several hundred thousand dollars in value. The plaintiff claims, by virtue of a grant made to Thomas de la Vega by the joint government of Coahuila and Tamaulipas on the 4th day of October, 1833. Samuel M. Williams, in 1840, sold to Nathaniel Williams and Michael B. Menard, in trust for Sophia St. John, and recites in the deed that he sells by virtue of a power of attorney ... Thomas de la Vega. These trustees sold to Richard M. League in 1850, and said League, the same year, sold to the plaintiff, J. W. Lapsley. The above deeds were recorded in the county of McLennan, Texas, in 1854. The power of attorney never has been recorded, nor has the grant. It was in evidence, however, that the grant was deposited in the General Land Office in 1847.

The defendants claim under a grant made to Dillard as a colonist of Robertson's Colony in 1835. The same year Dillard sold to J. B. Hord, and Hord sold to Jesse Dunn, Jr., on the 6th day of August, 1835. On the 26th day of August, 1850, said Dunn, Jr., sold to Jesse Dunn, Sr. All said deeds were duly recorded in the proper county in 1837, except the last, which was recorded in 1851 about the time the suit was instituted.

It was in evidence that Thomas de la Vega was a resident of Leon Vicario or Saltillo, and never had resided in the Republic or State of Texas; also, that Sophia St. John never had resided therein. The power of attorney offered in evidence was signed Thomas Vega; purported to have been executed in 1838 before Jose Juan Gonzales, and was proven by the deposition of Jos. Hewitson taken in Leon Vicario, or Saltillo, in the early part of 1856. The defendants, by plea supported by affidavit, alleged that the power was a forgery, and that the entry of the grant purporting to have been made by F. W. Johnson was a forgery and a fraud upon the government. The deposition of said Johnson was introduced, wherein he states that he did not make the entry or return the same to Leasessier, who extended the title.

The defendants' counsel contended that La Vega, the grantee, being an alien at the date of the Constitution of the Republic, by virtue of the provisions therein: "That no alien shall hold land except by titles emanating directly from the government"—the grant had become forfeited, without the necessity of any judicial proceeding. The Court refused to charge the jury.

The closing, and a very able argument, was made before the United States Circuit Court yesterday, by Marcus D. Herring, Esq., of Waco, on behalf of the defendants, Mitchell and Dunn, and the case submitted to the jury. No verdict had been reported up to a late hour last evening.

Fourth District Court—Hon. M. M. Reynolds, ... instituted suit in this Court against George Jonas et als., members of the Board of Health of Louisiana, for $5000, the value of a tract of land situated in the above parish, which he sold defendants for quarantine purposes. He alleges in his petition, that by an act of 1855, the Board of Health was authorised to purchase the necessary land therefor, in the name of the State, out of a fund of fifty thousand dollars appropriated in part for the purpose, which, he alleges, has been diverted therefrom and differently applied. He further alleges, that the members of said Board have rendered themselves personally liable for the amount of his claim, and therefore asks for judgment in solido against them. C. B. Pearson, Esq., counsel for plaintiff.

Contested Election Case Appealed.—An appeal bond was filed yesterday in the First District Court for an appeal to the Supreme Court, in the case of Auld vs. Walton, contesting the latter's election to the clerkship of the Fourth District Court, recently decided in his favor.

Robbery Affair.—Antonio Farca, whom we noticed in our last had been arrested as a particeps criminis with one Dominique Rogiero, on the charge of having in his possession property stolen from Mr. Couvertie's store on Royal street, yesterday made affidavit before Recorder Ramos, in which he alleges that sometime during the last month, as he was passing an oyster house kept by one Gianolo, at the corner of Common and St. John streets, and while in the company of his friend Dominique Rogiero, as above, they were called in by the said Gianolo, who, after inviting them to take a drink, proposed to sell them thirteen pieces of jewelry—coral necklaces, bracelets, &c. He further alleges that they purchased a portion of them without a knowledge that they were stolen; and that, therefore, having been unjustly arrested at the instance of Mr. Couvertie for robbery, he prays that said Gianolo be arrested as the party guilty thereof, and that a search warrant issue on the premises thereof. Gianolo has not been arrested, and Farca and his friend Rogiero are at present in prison.

Assaults.—The following parties are charged before Recorder Ramos with having committed assaults and batteries on respective parties:

Bill Roberts, charged with assaulting G. Gatliens, of Vi lere street, on the 1st inst., by striking him with his fist, and with his (Roger's) cane, after ... shutting his hands, besides chasing him therewith across the street, and striking him whenever he could.

John P. Collins, alias Jack Shepherd, charged with insulting Emeline Gibson, threatening her, throwing eggs at her door, No. 280 Customhouse street, and trying to induce persons to enter therein for the purpose of murdering her.

Charles, alias Doctor Montamat, charged by Mrs. Louisa Joachim, of Basin street, with having forcibly entered her house last evening, and slapped her in the face without provocation.

Etienne Brandt, f. m. c., accused by Chas. Rodreau, of Carondelet Walk, with having struck him several times and attempted to choke him last Sunday morning at the corner of Dauphine and St. Peter streets.

Julia Glavin, of Old Levee street, charged by Ellen Reily, her neighbor, with having assaulted and beaten her, throwing a glass pitcher at her head, and at the same time threatening to kill her with a knife, which she had concealed next to her breast. Julia gave bonds of $200 for her appearance.

Albert Roberts, f. m. c., charged by policeman Laferanderie with having committed an assault and battery on several white persons, besides himself, on Sunday night last. Robert has been arrested and is in prison to await examination.

Officer Wheelan, of the First District police, was badly beaten by some persons unknown to him.

Insane.—Jane Ducherman was arrested in the Second District yesterday, on a charge of insanity, and sent back to the Insane Asylum, from which she had but recently been discharged.

Badly Burned.—Owen O'Brian, the driver of an omnibus, was taken to the Charity Hospital yesterday, being badly burned about the face and hands from the explosion of the camphene lamp attached to his coach, while attempting to light it.

First District Court—Hon. J. B. Robertson.—A number of cases on informations for larceny, were ordered by the Court yesterday to be continued over, on account of the jurors having been ... discharged till to-day.

The case of the State vs. Wm. H. Garland was, on motion and affidavit of counsel for the defendant, continued over till the 5th of the present month.

The case of the State vs. Adam Reed and Mrs. ... for the murder of her husband, Levi Bush..., ... over to the 13th inst.

ABITA WATER. THE waters of these celebrated Springs are for sale in barrels, half barrels, or demijohns, by JAS. SYME, Druggist, corner Canal and Carondelet streets, New Orleans, sole agent. The Abita Waters have been found serviceable in all Cutaneous Diseases, Affections of the Bladder or Kidneys, Dyspepsia, Gout, Gravel, Diseases incident to Females, &c., General Debility, arising from high living, &c. In all cases of Diarrhoea, (whether chronic or otherwise) it will afford immediate relief and effect a permanent cure in a short time. During dentition it will be found of great service, and may be used by the most delicate without causing nausea as a diet drink, with pleasure, as no taste is perceived. The following is an extract from one of the numerous certificates on hand: New Orleans, April 21, 1854. This is to certify that I went to a very low state of health, and found it necessary to place myself under the care of Drs. Stone and Boyer. I was treated with great care by these gentlemen for two months, but found no relief. I then had recourse to the Abita Springs, and, under the hospitable roof of Capt. J. S. Boudiere, in the village of Claiborne, three miles from the Springs, commenced using the waters freely. In a short time I felt improved, and found myself entirely removed from my sufferings (which were very acute) in about four weeks. I am now on my way to St. Louis, where I reside, and would acquaint my friends of a duty so important to me, ... of these waters. The certificates of Dr. Warren Stone and P. C. Boyer, House Physicians to the Maison de Sante, show the nature of my disease. H. MACSHANE. This certifies that Mr. H. MacShane was under treatment in the Maison de Sante for two months, for an irritable bladder and deranged urinary secretions, from which he suffered severely. I gave him my advice in connection with the physicians of the house, and concur in the above statement. [Signed,] W. STONE, M. D., P. C. BOYER, House Physician. I refer also to a few of those who have used the Water: Gen. J. L. Lewis, Hon. J. H. Caldwell; Col. W. Christy, Dr. Wedderburn; Talbot Wilson, Esq., Dr. MacCormick; Jos. Lovell, Esq., Dr. Porter; Col. Bingaman, Natchez; L. Surgette, Esq., Natchez; E. C. Evans, Natchez, etc., etc. my 1d

IMPROVEMENT IN THE ART OF MEASURING TIME. UNIVERSAL EXHIBITION OF 1855. MEDAL AND PATENT GRANTED TO PHILIP SANDOZ & SON, Watch Manufacturers and Inventors, At Locle, in Switzerland. POCKET Chronometers moved by annular spring force, wound up by the knob, applicable to astronomical observations, mechanism of an isochronic regulating trigger applicable to every escapement, imparting a completely equal power, producing, without other complication, the fixed second or the fixed half-second, with independent second and double time-keeper, effected solely by a single motive power and the deduction of the wheelwork on the escapement. Five pocket chronometers, all different in construction, warranted an entirely new kind of work, and to which no parallel exists in the world. Each of the five is unique. To those amateurs whose tastes and inclinations lead to the study of watchmaking, we offer each of these magnificent products of art free of expense, provided any of you can furnish a fac-simile between the present time and the end of next June. Do not imagine that he who purchases one of these watches must purchase the maker at the same time. The author, now in this city, makes no mystery of his discoveries. He will guarantee to the buyer every facility for keeping his watch in good order, or repairing it, if necessary, by means of his manuscript notes illustrated by drawings, and a large moving model, on which the entire mechanism is visible and tangible, constructed expressly for the purpose of rendering his discoveries intelligible. Moreover, he will furnish all necessary directions, gratis to an artist of his choice, and afterwards to others whom he may select. Apply to M. DUHAMEL, Optician, No. 50 Chartres street. my4 1m Where these watches may be seen.
