THE REPLY.

THE REPLY. The following is the reply to the editorial published in the Herald of the 27th ult. on the subject of the proposed amendment to the constitution of the State.

When we read the editorial in the Herald of the 27th ult. on the subject of the proposed amendment to the constitution of the State, we were surprised to find that it contained so many errors of fact and so many misstatements of the truth. It is not possible to do justice to the amendment in a single article, but we will endeavor to do so in this one.

The first error in the editorial is the statement that the amendment is a "mere change of name." This is a gross misstatement of the facts. The amendment is a fundamental change in the structure of the government.

The second error is the statement that the amendment is "a mere change of name." This is a gross misstatement of the facts. The amendment is a fundamental change in the structure of the government.

The third error is the statement that the amendment is "a mere change of name." This is a gross misstatement of the facts. The amendment is a fundamental change in the structure of the government.

The fourth error is the statement that the amendment is "a mere change of name." This is a gross misstatement of the facts. The amendment is a fundamental change in the structure of the government.

The fifth error is the statement that the amendment is "a mere change of name." This is a gross misstatement of the facts. The amendment is a fundamental change in the structure of the government.

and, with this, in the first of February, that the amendment is a "mere change of name." This is a gross misstatement of the facts.
