Coolidge Awaits Verdict Of Farmers on Tax Plan

COMMERCIAL INTERESTS AGREE TO PROJECT

President Wants to Learn Just How West Takes Reduction Scheme

By GEORGE R. HOLMES For International News Service WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—President Coolidge wants to observe the reaction of the great farming interests of the west to Secretary Mellon's proposition of tax reduction before definitely committing himself on the matter, it was announced at the White House this afternoon.

Brookhart to Oppose Secretary Mellon's Plan

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Senator Smith W. Brookhart, Republican of Iowa, announced today that he would actively oppose the tax reduction plan of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, coupling this statement with a canvass of "progressive" senators with a view to concentrating the opposition.

Ford's Name Injected Into South Dakota Fight

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 20.—The second skirmish in the opening battle of the 1924 presidential nomination campaign was being fought today in South Dakota in the county proposal elections being held in each of the state's 69 counties by Democrats, Republicans and farmer-laborites.

U. S. G. Cherry, Formerly Democratic Candidate for United States Senate, Described an Interview He Had With E. G. Liebold, Ford's Private Secretary, Quoting Him as Saying:

"Mr. Ford is not a candidate for president. He does not want to be president. He wants to devote his life to the same activities and energies in which he is at present engaged.

ROTH CASE READY FOR GRAND JURY

Alleged Neilan-Sweet Complaint Is Denied by Film Luminaries

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—The case of Herman L. Roth, prominent New York and Los Angeles attorney, charged with attempting to extort $20,000 from Barbara Lamarr, film actress, was ready for presentation to the grand jury today, but the inquisitorial board was not expected to be given the case until Thursday because Chief Deputy District Attorney Charles Fricke, who is handling the case, is busy on other matters.

Discrepancies Shown

Both Miss Sweet and Neilan deny there is or was any intention on either of their parts to sue for divorce. The purported complaint had Miss Sweet suing Neilan on the grounds of desertion. In denying the complaint Neilan cited several discrepancies in the complaint. Among them were that the complaint stated the couple were married June 16, 1922, in New York, while Neilan declares they were married June 9, in Chicago.

TWO FLOATS WILL CARRY CHARMS OF GLENDALE

City and Elks Lodge Will Have Representation at Rose Tournament

Glendale's charm as "The Fastest Growing City in the United States," and the artistry of L. W. Chobe, Glendale artist and decorator, will be displayed in the coming Tournament of Roses in Pasadena, by two elaborate floats, one for the city and the other for the Glendale Elks' lodge.

Announcement of plans for the Elks' float was made this morning following the lodge meeting last night, when the Glendale Elks learned for the first time in the history of the Pasadena New Year's pageant a fraternal section would be included for Southern California Elks.

To Honor Official Grand Exalted Ruler James G. MacFarland of Watertown, S. D., is to be a holiday guest in Pasadena and the Elks' section in the Tournament will honor him. Floats are to be entered by the various lodges of Southern California and Mr. MacFarland is to offer a special trophy cup for the finest entrant.

Flight Around Globe in Thirty Days, Plan

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Army air service officials expressed the belief today that the globe-encircling flight to be attempted during the spring by army fliers can be accomplished in thirty days if favorable weather conditions prevail.

The trip across southern Asia will probably present the greatest difficulties to the fliers, according to reports which have been received by General Patrick, chief of air service, from officers who have been making a thorough study of the proposed route.

Officials have not yet decided on the route to be taken by the fliers from Washington to the Pacific coast. In all probability, however, the itinerary will include Washington, Dayton and St. Louis, and thence to San Francisco, via the established air mail service route. Otherwise the flight will proceed from St. Louis to San Antonio to El Paso; thence to Yuma, and on to San Diego.

LOCALS AND GATE CITY IN GRID BATTLE

Glendale and San Bernardino May Meet Saturday on Eagle Rock Field

A conference is being held this afternoon in Pasadena between Principal George U. Moyses of Glendale and Principal Karp L. Stockton of the San Bernardino High school, which won the football championship of the Citrus league regarding the place of playing the semi-final game to determine which team shall play in the finals for the Southern California championship.

Glendale, winner of the Central league championship by virtue of the 19-0 victory over Covina last Saturday, will meet San Bernardino next Saturday, November 24. This is the fourth time that this honor has come to Glendale, and each time they have been forced to play in the opposing team's district. Inasmuch as Pomona and Occidental will play on the Pomona field next Saturday, attracting most of the football enthusiasts, Principal Moyses will ask that the game be played on Patterson field at Occidental college, Eagle Rock.

Big Crowd Assured There is no game of any great importance scheduled for this section next Saturday, and should Eagle Rock be chosen as the scene of the conflict, a record-breaking crowd is assured, as Glendale has one of the best high school machines in the state, and San Bernardino has swept everything before them.

LINEBERGER RAPS FORBES CHARGES

California Solon Denies He Indorsed Architect for Veteran Hospital

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The committee investigating the charges of graft brought by the Veterans Bureau today announced it would make public Mrs. Horace Mortimer's testimony given two weeks ago behind closed doors. Mrs. Mortimer is the wife of one of the government's chief witnesses. This was done at the suggestion of her counsel, Judge Wright.

Judge Wright, in making his request for Mrs. Mortimer's appearance, said her "name and character had been subjected to a very grave and serious attack."

"If the committee was unable to protect Mrs. Mortimer against these attacks, in the very spirit of fair play, I demand she be given a brief opportunity to defend her character in her own behalf," Judge Wright asserted.

REED PERMITS TESTIMONY

Chairman Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, recalled there was nothing reflecting on Mrs. Mortimer's character in the record, but that he would permit Mrs. Mortimer to take the stand to answer such questions submitted by her counsel as the committee deemed relevant.

Before Mrs. Mortimer appeared, a telegram was received from Congressman Walter F. Lineberger of Long Beach, Calif., denying that he had recommended Matthew O'Brien of San Francisco as architect for the Livermore, Calif., hospital. His name had not been mentioned in the testimony, but he took exception to a phrase, "the whole California delegation," used by Colonel Charles R. Forbes, formerly director, in citing O'Brien's endorsement.

CHOOSING THE CASKET

DRIVE OPENS TO SECURE $40,000

Community Chest Campaign Starts, Following Big Public Gathering

Glendale's campaign in the initial attempt to put across the Community Welfare Chest idea and raise $40,000 for the support of fourteen deserving institutions is on today. It closes Friday, November 23.

The movement was auspiciously launched last night at a mass meeting in the high school auditorium, presided over by W. E. Hewitt, chairman of the drive, and attended by several hundred citizens who had volunteered their services in the cause, as well as many who came to get first-hand knowledge of the Community Chest idea.

Several excellent speeches were made, and the enthusiasm displayed by the speakers for the plan seemed to be contagious, and at the end of the meeting, when Chairman Hewitt asked whether or not the workers would co-operate in selling the idea to Glendale, they shouted "We will" with a roar never excelled in that auditorium by any body of students worked into a pitch of frenzy by a fanatical yell leader.

COMMUNITY SINGING

The meeting was opened with community singing, led by Francis J. M. Henry, with Mrs. Helen Sawyer at the piano. Seven songs have been especially written for the campaign, each one set to a well known tune. These will feature the program at all meetings held during the drive. J. Arthur Meyers, director of the Choral club of Community Service, also favored with two pleasing selections which he rendered in his usual pleasing manner.

W. E. Hewitt in his opening address pointed out that Glendale is only trying to raise $40,000, which is approximately $1 per capita, according to present estimates of the population. Pasadena's drive was for three and one-half times as much per person as is Glendale's. For this reason he thinks that if the people are properly sold on this idea, and the plan of operation is made (Continued on page 8)

Allan J. Holubar, Movie Director, Is Dead of Overwork

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—Allan J. Holubar, prominent motion picture director and husband of Dorothy Phillips, film actress, died at his Hollywood home today. Death, his physician said, was due to over work and illness contracted while making a picture in Tennessee recently. Miss Phillips was with her husband when death came.

WALTON MAY LECTURE ON TROUBLES

Deposed Governor Receives Offer to Give Talks on Klan Battle

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 20.—Former Governor J. C. Walton of Oklahoma, will carry his case against the Ku Klux Klan to the people of the United States. This announcement was made by his chief counsel, F. E. Riddle, today.

Walton has under consideration a $3000 a week lecture tour offer, Judge Riddle said.

However, he may make an independent tour, speaking in every important city of the United States instead, according to Riddle.

VICTORY FOR ENGLAND IN ACTION OF COUNCIL

Postponing More Penalties for Germany Looms as Baldwin Success

BULLETIN BERLIN, Nov. 20.—Socialists launched an attack against the Stresemann government immediately after the Reichstag convened this afternoon. Deputy Wells assailed the cabinet, accusing it of weakness in dealing with Bavaria.

By DAVID M. CHURCH For International News Service

LONDON, Nov. 20.—While a majority of newspapers interpreted the action of the ambassadors' council in postponing additional penalties for Germany as a victory for England and for Premier Baldwin, the Daily Mail, which up to the present has been friendly to the premier, today attacked bitterly some of the anti-French utterances in his speech yesterday.

The Daily Mail hinted at the possibility of future war if the quarrel with France is continued.

If this is indicative of the attitude of the entire Rothermere press (former Northcliffe press) it may prove a big factor in the campaign. The Daily Mail was formerly one of Lord Northcliffe's most influential dailies. It is owned by his brother, Lord Rothermere.

CITIES TO SEEK FIRE PREVENTION

Glendale, Hollywood and Tujunga to Join With L. A. for Protection

Glendale, Hollywood and Tujunga will co-operate with Los Angeles in an effort to make fire prevention an issue at the next session of the legislature, it was brought out at this noon's luncheon meeting of local Chamber of Commerce directors at the Glendale Tavern on South San Fernando road. L. T. Rowley reporting that as a result of the meeting of the Hollywood Hills association last Friday night, the following committee was appointed to co-operate in the matter with the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce: L. T. Rowley, Glendale; M. G. Hartranft, Tujunga; and Will Chapin, Los Angeles.

Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson reported that his office is serving a population of 47,000 at the present time. Dan Campbell reported that the fire relief fund would be turned over immediately, through Mayor Spencer Robinson, to Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. McGahan, who suffered the irreparable loss of a son and a husband, respectively, in the persons of Clarence Edwards and J. W. McGahan.

PLANS TWO FLOATS

L. W. Chobe stated that in addition to building the float Glendale will enter in the 1924 Tournament of Roses at Pasadena, he is also designing an entry to be made by the local Elks' club.

W. E. Hewitt spoke on behalf of the Glendale Welfare Chest, urging everyone to get behind the movement and subscribe the necessary $40,000 within the allotted time.

Music was furnished by the Immanuel Male Quartette and Saxophone club that will play tonight at the Presbyterian church. Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson (Continued on page 7)

SCOUT OFFICIALS GREET EXECUTIVE

H. R. Cheesman Welcomed at Reception by Leaders of Local Troops

An enthusiastic reception was accorded H. R. Cheesman, new Boy Scout executive, at a meeting held last night at the First Congregational church, attended by the adult troop leaders of this city. Mr. Cheesman arrived in Glendale yesterday to take up his new duties, and already has opened his headquarters at 103 1/2 South Brand boulevard, where he will be at the service of the Scoutmasters and boys of this community.

Mr. Cheesman delivered an inspiring message of hope, and commented favorably on the condition of the Boy Scout movement here, which has been under the control of the Boy Scout executive board for some time past, with A. R. Eastman as president and Roy L. Kent as treasurer.

Glendale's new Scout executive, who was for five years assistant Scout executive for Los Angeles, and for the last two and one-half years Scout executive of Ventura county, appears to be eminently qualified for the work which he has undertaken and has promised many future interesting developments for the boys of this district.

On School Faculty
Mr. Cheesman was honored by being appointed a member of the faculty of the training school for Scout executives at Oakland, Calif., conducted by the National Boy Scout organization, being associated in this work with some of the leading educators in the United States and men prominent internationally in the Boy Scout movement.

The new executive gave many interesting side lights of the work during his address. He said that of 25,000 brought before the juvenile judge in Chicago, only four were members of the Boy Scouts, and of the 3000 brought before the San Francisco court, not one was a Scout. He defined the organization as a movement "fostering a definite outdoor camping program of doing things that every boy loves, for the purpose of keeping himself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

GATEWAY GAINS POPULAR FAVOR

Theatre on San Fernando Road, Near Brand, Is Pleasing People

The Gateway Theatre, on South San Fernando road near the Brand boulevard intersection, opened early in the fall under the management of E. E. Loper, has enjoyed success from the very start, serving not only the district in which it is located, but all of Glendale as well, and in addition many of the thousands of motorists passing along San Fernando road and Brand boulevard, bound to or from Los Angeles, Hollywood, Pasadena or the San Fernando valley.

Since the boy disappeared, eight detectives had devoted their entire time to the case. Radio descriptions were broadcasted throughout the country and pictures of the missing child flashed on the screens of motion picture theatres in scores of cities.

Given Surprise
A very delightful surprise was given recently by Mrs. Howard Lennox and Miss Inez Harrison, in celebration of the wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Harrison, of 323 North Maryland street.

It was an old-fashioned surprise and the guests came arrayed in quaint old-time costumes, looking very picturesque. Old fashioned games were played. The "donation" to the bridal couple was wheeled in in a wheelbarrow and included every variety of fruit and vegetable, a veritable horn of plenty in arrangement. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison were presented with a beautiful basket of flowers.

It was also the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Weaver who were guests of the evening and they were presented with a large box of candy.

Two bridal cakes graced the occasion and were served with other dainty refreshments by the hostesses.

The guests complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Weaver were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lee, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Lusby, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Weller, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lennox, Henry B. Brown, Dr. Laura Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lennox, Miss Inez Harrison, Verne Wilson, Kenneth Lee, and John Harrison Lennox.

Girl Scouts Meet
Miss Mary Stanley was hostess last night to the members of Troop One, Glendale Girl Scouts, at a business and social meeting at her home, 728 South Maryland avenue.

Following the scout ceremony, a short business meeting was held, with Bertha Brown in the chair. Piano selections by Amy Bainbridge and Frederica Brown were enjoyed during the social hour. Light refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by scout members.

Those present were Lucile Beach, Frederica Brown, Margorie Hart, Marjorie Temple, Margery Brown, Helen Stanley, Wilma Gosser, Cecil Chase, Mary Jo Phillips, Alice Carpenter, Katherine Bender, Carolyn Ayers, Charlotte Cleveland, Lina Borthick, Amy Bainbridge, Bertha Brown, Gladys Sharpe, Emily Tortia, Martha Fleming and the hostess.

Find Body of Boy Murdered by Knife

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The body of 4-year-old Irving Picketney, kidnaped October 26, was found covered with knife wounds today in a cellar a block from his home. The child apparently had been dead a week.

An insane degenerate had slashed the boy to death, according to Dr. Benjamin Schwartz, of the county medical examiner's office. The hands, face and chest were covered with knife wounds. The hiding place of the body was the cellar of a house on the lower east side.

Since the boy disappeared, eight detectives had devoted their entire time to the case. Radio descriptions were broadcasted throughout the country and pictures of the missing child flashed on the screens of motion picture theatres in scores of cities.

Drugged and Robbed on Auto Ride, Claim

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—Declaring he had been drugged and robbed of $300 in currency and a $150 watch by "friends" with whom he had gone automobile riding, Dr. S. Macfee, 55, who came here a week ago from Detroit, was found lying in a dazed condition on the banks of the New river near Hynes, today. When found by a deputy constable Dr. Macfee bore several cuts and bruises about the head and face. Papers found on the doctor's person indicated his Detroit address was 5485 Wabash avenue.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA
If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is one of the greatest advantages. Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. —Advertisement.

BRITAIN'S FLEET TO CIRCLE WORLD

Showing the Flag Junket to Compare With American Trip Round Globe

By CHARLES A. SMITH For International News Service LONDON, Nov. 20.—Two battle cruisers and five light cruisers, composing a British fleet division, are scheduled to start within the next few days, on a "showing the flag" cruise whose itinerary will encircle the globe.

The junket compares in significance and in departure from tradition to the world cruise of the United States naval division during the administration of Theodore Roosevelt.

Battle Cruisers
The ships which will make the trip include the battle cruisers Hood and Repulse and the light cruisers Dragon, Danae, Dunedin, Dauntless and Delhi, and the cruise will occupy about a year. The ships recently were removed from Chatham Dockyard, where they underwent extensive repairs and were thoroughly tuned up for their long trip. They are expected to be ready to put to sea by next Wednesday, November 21, in time to join the rest of the light-cruiser and battleship squadron at Plymouth for parade prior to their departure on Sunday, November 25.

Many tons of provisions and canteen goods are being packed into all the available space on board the light cruisers, while each of the ships is being fitted with a soda-water manufacturing plant—an innovation on British light cruisers. During their cruise round the world the ships will be met at different places by refrigerating ships, which will supply them with special articles of food.

Many Ports on Route
The ports to be visited during the cruise include Sierra Leone, St. Helena, Capetown, Durban, Colombo, Rangoon and Singapore; thence to Australia, where the division will visit Fremantle, Adelaide, Melbourne, Sydney and Brisbane. From Australia it will proceed to New Zealand, the Fiji Islands, Honolulu and Vancouver. United States ports will be the next to receive visits, probably about September of next year.

It is stated that Prince George, the King's fourth son, will serve on the trip as a junior lieutenant.

DON'T TAKE A CHANCE

Glendale People Should Act in Time.

If you suffer from backache; if you have headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidneys secretions are irregular. Don't delay—likely your kidneys are sick. Thousands recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

And hundreds reside right in this locality. Read the statement of this nearby resident: G. J. Cook, 3228 Darwin Ave., Los Angeles, Cal., says: "When I lived in Missouri, my kidneys went back on me. I had no control over their action and had to get up often at night. The color of the secretions gave silent proof of the exact condition of my kidneys. Rheumatic pains set in and my limbs pained terribly, sometimes so bad I could hardly pull one foot after the other. Stabbing pains across my kidneys sapped my strength and I was out of trim all over. It was remarkable what Doan's Kidney Pills did for me. They eased the pains in my back. Finally Doan's cured every symptom of kidney trouble."

Countess Not Yet Ready to Give Up Husband to Another

COUNTESS OF CRAVEN

According to word from London, the Countess of Craven does not plan to begin any action for divorce from her husband, the Earl of Craven. Such action would enable him to marry Lady Cathcart, his affinity, with whom he eloped some time ago. The countess plans to let them remain as elopers for a time.

COPS FORBIDDEN TO SEARCH TRUCK

Must Have Warrant to Pry Open Doors Unless They Obtain Evidence

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—The prying prohibition cop, who poked his nose between the doors of motor trucks for a sniff, has received a curtailment of his powers here that confines the exercise of his olfactory sense to a proper distance from suspected vehicles.

In a decision by Judge Harry McEwen, police are informed that hereafter they have no right to pry open the doors of trucks in search of illicit liquor without a warrant. The only exception of the ruling is that the officer may hold the vehicle if he has positive knowledge, through his hearing, sight or other sense, that a load of hooch is aboard the motor truck.

Admirals of the motor truck navy of the wets are now hoping for an embryo Edison who can invent a clinkless bottle and odorless whiskey.

Bravery of Cripple Wins Farm as Reward

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Nov. 20.—Arthur Gwathney, 60 years old and a cripple, who has been a tenant farmer all of his life, henceforth will till his own acres. Gwathney is now the proud possessor of 100 acres of "real" farm land.

Some time ago Gwathney heard calls for help from a road near his home. Upon reaching the spot, he found W. W. Fox, prominent citizen of Clanton, and his wife, pinned beneath their burning automobile, which had skidded and overturned.

Though physically unable to offer aid, Gwathney summoned others to the scene. When the rescuers, fearing an explosion of the gasoline tank, hesitated to approach the burning car he called upon them to "follow me."

Inspired by the old man's example, the rescuers quickly raised the car and extricated the injured couple. A moment later the gasoline tank exploded.

Mrs. Fox died from her injuries but Fox recovered.

Fox, in gratitude, has deeded a farm of 100 acres, worth close to $100,000 to Gwathney and says he is getting a larger return for this property than any he has ever owned.

Gwathney is the father of seven children. Both himself and his wife are feeble and the family had always been in rather needy circumstances.

Pet Giraffes, Running Amuck, Scare People

JOHANNESBURG, Nov. 20.—Two pet giraffes belonging to the chief's son, caused a sensation when they ran amuck in the township of Serowe, in Bechuanaaland.

Before they could be secured by their native keeper, they put to flight a European tennis party, chased the native women water carriers, charged a person who attempted to hurl rocks at them, and pawed and rolled on the ground an old woman, who was not so fast as the younger members of the community.

COTTON SPINDLES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The census bureau announced today that 37,550,250 cotton spindles were in place in the United States on October 31, of which 34,378,627 were operated at some time during the month, compared with 33,929,885 in September. The aggregate number of spinning hours in October was 8,381,886, 213.

PERMITS NEARING $1,000,000 TOTAL

Month's Figures Reach $741,441 as $50,000 Apartment Authorized

The goal of $1,000,000 for building permits during the month of November is being approached by leaps and bounds at the office of the municipal building superintendent. Yesterday permits to the value of $170,952 were issued, bringing the monthly amount to nearly three quarters of a million dollars, or $741,441. The yearly total was $8,836,288.

Early this morning W. S. Bear was issued a permit for the construction of an apartment house at 308-310 North Central avenue to cost $50,000, as announced in The Glendale Evening News three weeks ago. The excavation for the basement, which will be a garage for the tenants is completed, and work of the building itself has been started. Work on the building will be rushed to completion with all possible speed.

The following permits were issued yesterday:

J. J. Graf, apartment court and garage, 116-122 West Elk	$100,000

ENGLISH COTTON WORKERS SUFFER

Investigators Find Many of Them Poorly Nourished Report Declares

MANCHESTER, Eng., Nov. 20.—Tales of human suffering which almost equal the famine stories out of Russia are coming to light in the Lancashire cotton districts, where trade depression has brought widespread unemployment.

Dr. J. Buchanan, Medical Officer of Health of Crompton District, declared he has found many families in abject poverty and too proud to seek poor relief.

The doctor said he found numerous instances of children going to school without breakfast and having only half a slice of bread for their mid-day meal, and had gone into homes where potato peelings were boiled for dinner.

Councillor Mellon corroborated many of the statements of Dr. Buchanan and said he knew of families formerly well off, but now reduced to dire poverty, whose pride kept them from seeking aid.

Councillor Taylor, who is also secretary of the Operative Spinners' Association, said: "We are only at the beginning of a fourth winter of trade depression and unless something is done the consequences are likely to be very serious."

Free State Attacked in Guesome Pageant

DUBLIN, Nov. 20.—A gruesome pageant, organized by the anti-treaty party, with the evident intention of discrediting the Free State government, in which tableaux depicting executions, shootings and other horrors were shown, has caused indignation here.

Women were largely responsible for the pageant, and the actors were mostly mere lads.

Soldiers wearing the uniforms of the Black and Tans were depicted shooting an aged prisoner, while another tableau represented a flogging, captioned: "Abolished by England—Revived by the Free State."

The culminating horror, as in melodrama, was reserved for the end tableau. This represented an execution, the condemned man wearing the white cap, with a priest standing by, Bible in hand.

FOUND DEAD IN CAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—Dr. Joseph L. Callanan, attached to the city emergency hospital staff and formerly a major in the army medical corps, was found dead here today in his automobile. The body was discovered on the floor of the tonneau of the car, parked on a side street. The police are investigating.

CALLED BY ILLNESS

Misses Betty and Lillian Benson of Seattle, Wash., arrived here Friday in order to be near their father, who is ill at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital. They will remain here indefinitely. On Sunday they motored to Pasadena, accompanied by Miss Marguerite Nielson, also of Seattle, Wash.

New Member of House of Lords Wedded U. S. Wife

CHARLES N. LAWRENCE

The recent appointment of the Hon. Charles Napier Lawrence to the British House of Lords adds to the already long list of American women to become peeresses of the British realm. For the new lord's wife was formerly Catherine Summer of New York. Lord Lawrence has been for many years chairman of the great London and North-Western railroad system in England.

AUTO KILLS YALE FOOTBALL REVELS

Visitors No Longer Remain to Celebrate After Big Games are Over

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 20.—The crowds that once flowed through the New Haven streets on the evening before and the evening after the "big game" here are now conspicuously by their absence, though Yale football games draw their 75,000 persons, where they used to draw from 18,000 to 30,000. Merchants of the old school relate how in the old days with 16,000 at a football game their stores were packed, where today with 77,000 on deck the same stores have only a normal amount of customers.

The automobile that has replaced the railroad in getting people to the annual autumn games here is taking the people away without once touching the district where the big stores are. "Severe police restrictions keep visiting machines within a few hundred yards of the bowl during the game and shunt the cars by devious routes outside the business heart of town before and afterward."

Lively hotels, crowded with men and women wearing team colors, on the night before the game, also are but a memory, along with dinner parties to celebrate a victory or to console in defeat. Game visitors now flee New Haven generally to dine in a town thirty miles remote from the bowl and then continue the journey home.

That New London, Willimantic, Hartford, Danbury and Stamford are getting their "game nights," while New Haven quickly settles into the normal Saturday night pace and the game is forgotten.

Waukegan Grid Stars Must Eschew Petting

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Nov. 20.—To play football on the Waukegan High School team one must forsake petting parties. Robert Plummer, the team captain, issued the ultimatum.

"Love," he said, "is the stuff that loses games. It's got to be stopped. Half a dozen of you fellows went to a dance Friday night. Then you went joy-riding afterwards. We got a fine trimmer the next day. If you have one more party like that we'll disband the team."

GUESTS IN GLENDALE

Mrs. Tim Spellacy and granddaughter, Florence Slaney, Mrs. Spellacy's mother, Mrs. Mary Doty, all of Los Angeles, were guests Friday of Mrs. Jack Lundregan, 308 East Maple avenue. Guests at the Lundregan home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Garretson, who were returning from a motor trip to Taft and were en route to their home in Long Beach. Monday Miss Genevieve McLafferty of Los Angeles was entertained by Mrs. Lundregan.

BREAD AND WATER

SAN QUENTIN, Nov. 20.—In the largest strike of several stated in recent months, seventy-one I. W. W. members serving sentences imposed under the state criminal syndicalism law, were in the dungeon on a bread and water diet today. The men demanded the immediate release of their leader, J. B. Childs of Los Angeles, who had been placed in the dungeon for alleged insubordination.

POETRY PART OF WILL

One of the shortest wills on record is that filed at Pittsburgh. Couched in verse, the will leaves the testator's wife several thousand dollars in personal property and real estate. It runs as follows: All my earthly goods in store To my dear wife I leave forevermore.

Yale May Have Golf Links In Three Years

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 20.—Yale students must wait three years for the great university golf course which is promised to be "the finest in the United States," and which the Yale Daily News says: "Will fill a long-felt want in athletic reservation and tend to make a New Haven tract of land on the western edge of the city, which was preserved for use as a golf course, is so rugged and full of trees that three years of work will be needed to transform it into a golf course. But work is under way and the present-day freshmen have high hopes of seeing its finish."

GERMAN BANKER DIES

BERLIN, Nov. 20.—Former President Havenstein of the Reichsbank, (the national bank of the German state) died suddenly today.

MEMORIAL FOR CARSON

BELFAST, Nov. 20.—The six counties propose to erect a statue to Sir Edward Carson in front of the new Belfast Parliament house.

MILLION BUSHELS WHEAT KING'S AIM

Cultivates Large Ranch With Motorized Machines; Horses Barred

HARDIN, Mont., Nov. 20.—Directing the cultivation of 400,000 bushels of wheat annually, with the avowed ambition of producing a million bushels a year, Thomas D. Campbell, "king of wheat growers," has added some 30,000 acres of the Crow Indian reservation to his extensive farm lands, bringing the total land under his supervision to more than 100,000 acres.

All of the acreage controlled by Campbell is leased from the Crow Indians through the Indian affairs department of the United States government.

Campbell's huge project is an outgrowth of the world war and the result of his patriotic desire to furnish more wheat at a time when governmental agencies were crying for greater production.

Leases Crows' Land
In 1918, with cash provided by New York bankers, Campbell leased huge plots of land from the Crows in Montana which had lain dormant for years, allowing him 10 per cent of the income from the crops raised. In addition he agreed to leave all permanent improvements upon the land when he was through with it.

The first year—1918—Campbell broke 7000 acres of virgin soil, and in the five years that have elapsed since he undertook the project the "largest wheat grower in the world" has put under cultivation 70,000 acres, surrounded by more than 150 miles of wire fencing.

30,000 Acres in Flux
The 30,000 additional acres secured this year will be planted to flax.

Campbell's extensive farm lands are thoroughly motorized. There are more than 100 tractors in operation, using 2000 gallons of gasoline a day. In addition there are power plows, harrows, drills and other equipment necessary to the planting, harvesting and marketing of wheat. There is not a horse on the place.

OPPOSE UNIFORM FOR GIRL PUPILS

Syracuse Principals Point Out Need to Develop Individual Taste

SYRACUSE, Nov. 20.—A movement to adopt a uniform dress for Syracuse High school girls was high and dry on the rocks here today.

Syracuse High school principals, who were asked to favor it, refused to do so. Backers of the uniform dress proposal urged that girls are dropping out of high school because they cannot dress as gracefully as wealthy classmates.

Principal G. Carl Alverson of Central High, assumed a pointed stand against the uniform.

"The girl has the right to use her garments," he said. "The high school girl should select her garments—otherwise she would never cultivate that taste for suitable clothes. Development of that taste for appropriate gowns is as much a part of her education as are the subjects of the textbooks."

"The uniforms would not be practical. No two persons are equally suited to a uniform dress. The color of the eyes, the hair and complexion is variable and in many instances would not be suited to the uniform."

"I do believe that indulgence in expenditures for clothing should be curtailed by the parent."

"I have known the girls of today too long to believe for a minute that they would ever dress in uniform," declared Principal Henry H. Deunham of Vocational High. "While it might look nice it would not be practical."

Yale University Teacher Is Wild West Writer

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 20.—Where is the teacher or professor who feels flattered and bubbles over with joy when he finds a pupil secretly reading "Buffalo Bill" or the life of some other widely known plainsman?

"Here that person is," promptly replies the Oklahoma university, for this institution has in its faculty a professor of English who is the author of picturesque tales of life on the Indian reservations a century ago. He is Professor W. F. Campbell.

"Happy Hunting Grounds" is the title of Campbell's 60,000-word novel, which will be published early in 1924 by the Standard Book company.

Professor Campbell has a master's degree received at Oxford university, England.

Special permit is required of a Japanese to carry a revolver in his own country.

Angeles Chamber of Commerce, with a view toward having in Glendale the distribution point for such a service in Southern California. Mr. Jackson arguing that this city offers the logical location for such a field.

Police in Search of Automobile Bandits
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—Two automobile bandits who early this morning rained shots from a high-powered rifle on a machine driven by William Dyer and wounded
Mrs. Cal Johnson, of Inglewood, were sought today by peace officers throughout Southern California. Mrs. Johnson was painfully but not dangerously wounded.

Many Japanese to Face Prosecution
SEATTLE, Nov. 20.—Wholesale prosecutions and evictions of Japanese holding or leasing lands in the state of Washington in violation of the state anti-alien law will be begun immediately following the grand jury sessions,
Deputy Prosecutor Ewing D. Colvin announced today, after reading the decision of the United States supreme court in sustaining the California anti-alien cropping laws.

Seattle Club Will Receive Shakeup
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—
Waivers for twelve players of the Seattle baseball club have been asked, it was learned today by Charles Lockhard, who hopes, through several trades, sales and purchase of some of the Seattle players to start the coming season with practically a new outfit.

CRIME SUSPECTS
FACE NEW TESTS
Radio and Fingerprint Code to Aid Identification of Criminals
WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—
Speedy identification of suspected criminals of international reputation by radiating their fingerprints of Copenhagen, London, Paris,
Berlin and other European capitals is the plan of Detective Sergeant Fred Sandberg, internationally known fingerprint expert of the Washington police department.

Man Is Shot by Wife
During Family Fight
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—Entering the home of his divorced wife, Mrs. Emelia Yorba Rowland, at her Puente ranch home today, Ernest Rowland, member of a prominent family of that section, engaged in a row in which he was shot twice by Mrs. Rowland and her 21-year-old son, who also engaged in the fracas. Rowland's injuries were not serious.

Commander Calhoun
Is Found Not Guilty
SAN DIEGO, Nov. 20.—Commander William L. Calhoun, skipper of the destroyer Young, which turned turtle with a loss of 29 lives at the time of the Point Honda disaster, was today found not guilty on a charge of negligence.

FATAL HUNGER STRIKE
DUBLIN, Nov. 20.—Dennis
Burry of Cork died in an interment camp of self-imposed starvation after being on hunger strike for thirty-five days. He is the first of the Irish "irregulars" to die on hunger strike.

GRANDSTAND BURNS
VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 20.—
The new grandstand at the Brighouse race track here was destroyed by fire early today at a loss of $40,000. Last August the old grandstand and club house were burned. Incendiarism is suspected in each case to opposition to racing from many sources.

SIKI TO MEET
NORFOLK TONIGHT
First Public Appearance of Senegal Fighter in U. S.
Being Awaited
By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service
NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A heavy-muscled colored man, with a veneer of civilization scarcely skin deep and with the intellect of a child, is to meet an American negro at the modern and intellectual art of fisticuffs tonight and the customers are so enamored of the prospect that Madison Square Garden is a "sell out." The principals are Battling Siki, of Senegal, not overlong out of the African jungles, and Kid Norfolk of Harlem, whose appearance might lead one to suspect that he is capable of swinging by his tail and hurling coconuts. It may be a real fight, but it is more likely to be a hippodrome.

GREENBACKS TALK
However, you can keep neither a good man nor a customer down.
California that are expected to prove valuable within the next two or three weeks, and in event they do, Lockhard, it is rumored, will sell his stock in the club to a prominent Seattle man, whose name was not divulged.

TIGHTEN UP LID
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—The lid was tightened on Los Angeles today when the new police commission refused a dance permit to the new $90,000 Richelei cafe in the West Lake park district, a semi-residence and business section. In denying the permit the commission upheld the protest of Rev. Gustav Briegleb, pastor of the West Lake Presbyterian church, to grant the cafe owners the license. The new commission is composed of Rev. Samuel
L. Montgomery, Anti-Saloon League leader, and I. W. Bir-baum, investment broker.

HOSPITAL NEEDS MANY DONATIONS

Children's Institution Calls for Assorted Supplies for Little Folks

Glendale people are included in the invitation issued for a Thanksgiving shower to be held Tuesday and Wednesday, November 27 and 28, at the Children's Hospital at Sunset boulevard and Vermont avenue, Los Angeles.

The invitation reads: "The constantly increasing number of children cared for makes it imperative that we have generous donations of blankets, bed linen, face and bath towels, bolt material, napkins and tablecloths."

Money gifts will also be acceptable and all giving are asked to bring their gifts and inspect the hospital. Those desiring to leave gifts down town can do so at the hospital salvage department at 712 Maple avenue, Los Angeles.

Recall of English representatives from the sub-organizations created under the treaty would isolate France except for her smaller allies on the European continent.

The Matin, commenting upon the situation today, said that France and Belgium are in complete union. Belgium is prepared to support any action France may take to support her demands regarding the re-establishment of allied military control over Germany and the return of the former German crown prince from Holland.

According to Belgium and Poland, France has the support of the little entente in Southern Europe.

France, according to the Matin, reserves the right to take the necessary measures for her own protection regardless of the decision of the ambassador's council.

Official circles believe that the solution adopted by the council yesterday to send a strong joint note to Berlin will greatly lessen the tension as it is a concession to England. Up to that time, France had been insisting that fresh penalties be inflicted without further note writing.

It is understood France and Belgium are preparing an independent protest against the arrest of allied military control officers by the Reichswehr in Saxony.

Mexico Land Projects Face Probe by State

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 20.—Investigation of all concerns having securities to sell in Mexico, Central or South America land projects is under way by the state corporation department; it is announced by Corporation Commissioner Edwin M. Daugherty.

Request has been made to local authorities where stock in any Mexican, Central or South American projects has been sold to communicate with the corporation department.

OPEN DRIVE FOR WELFARE CHEST

Hold Public Meeting and Make Plans to Raise Sum of $40,000

Clear to them, there will be no trouble for Glendale to go over the top. He cited the various California cities that had adopted the idea, notably San Francisco, San Bernardino and San Diego. He stated that the plan in every case had been successful. Over 150 cities in the United States have accepted the Community Chest idea as a permanent institution.

Relates Experiences
J. C. Sloan of Pasadena told of his experiences in this work in that city, and the objections that the workers would likely receive from persons who did not want to contribute. He stated that, aside from the reduced overhead in conducting this campaign for the various units at one time, more people could be reached, and the growth of the feeling of community responsibility was, to his mind, as beneficial to the city as the support of the institutions. He stated that in Pasadena the amount of designated gifts in the first drive was very large, but each subsequent year they have fallen off until now there are very few of such a nature.

Mr. Sloan stated that it was essential the community be informed that this drive was not for charitable institutions alone. It also aids those organizations which are doing an important work in the moulding of the character of our young people, such as the Boy Scouts, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. These are very important features of any community life, and every person, whether he is directly interested in their work or not, will have to admit that a wonderful work they are doing.

Children Assist
Harry F. Henderson, secretary of the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A., was the next speaker, and he gave his experiences in Cleveland, where he had been an active worker. Cleveland has raised as high as $11,000,000 in one year at one drive for the Community Chest.

Idea and people there are very enthusiastic over the idea. An important feature of the campaign there is the offering of the school children a chance to contribute. In one drive there were 109,000 contributors from the schools. This, said Mr. Henderson, is tantamount to being a contributor to worthy causes when they grow up.

Mr. Hewitt closed the meeting with a short talk on the campaign from the business point of view. He showed how overlapping in charities could be overcome, and how the cost of raising the money was lowered from 15 to 20 per cent to 2 to 6 per cent. There are no flag days and tag days for these institutions, this drive being the only one that is made throughout the year.

List of Team Majors
A. W. Tower, chairman of the campaign committee, then called the workers together for final instructions preparatory to launching the campaign this morning. Following is the list of the team majors of the various districts:

Memorial Services
Work of renovating the lower floor of the clubhouse on East Colorado street began this morning. The lobby, reading and writing rooms and secretary and charity offices are being thoroughly renovated, the floors are to be carpeted, redecoration will be done and the furniture rearranged.

Plans for the annual memorial service Sunday afternoon, December 2, are well under way. The service will be held in the lodge room. L. W. Chobe is in charge of decoration and music will be furnished by the Orphans' Four of Los Angeles. The speaker will be announced later.

One of the most brilliant social affairs of the holiday time will be the annual New Year's party, to be a dinner and dance Monday night, December 29, at the clubhouse. Reservations will be limited to 150 couples.

P. O. JOBS OPEN
Applications are desired by the Glendale postoffice for the clerk-carrier examination for males only that is to be held here on December 8. Full particulars may be obtained from the post-office officials here.

KIWANIANS BACK FROM CONVENTION

Local Delegates to Fresno Report Enthusiastic District Meeting

Back yesterday afternoon from the Kiwanis convention of the district of California and Nevada, held in Fresno last Friday and Saturday, the Glendale chapter's delegation of six members and their wives report it the biggest and most successful convention of the organization ever held, there being over 1000 Kiwanians at the big banquet Saturday night.

Mr. Hewitt closed the meeting with a short talk on the campaign from the business point of view. He showed how overlapping in charities could be overcome, and how the cost of raising the money was lowered from 15 to 20 per cent to 2 to 6 per cent. There are no flag days and tag days for these institutions, this drive being the only one that is made throughout the year.

Order Increasing
Ed Arras, international Kiwanis president, of Columbus, Ohio, was present and told the gathering that he had attended twenty district conventions since the Atlantic international convention last summer, and that this one at Fresno was the best. He said that there were now 1143 Kiwanis clubs in the United States, with a combined membership of approximately 90,000.

District Governor W. R. Brown of the Glendale Water Heater company, president, International Secretary Fred Parker of Chicago was present. Many topics were discussed, among them conservation of California's forests, together with certain angles on reforestation.

Matters of importance to the organization, and to the citizens and the state were brought up. The convention was featured by good talks, it is reported.

The Glendale delegates were: A. L. Ferguson, president of the local Kiwanis chapter; Lyman P. Clark, past president; Fred Deal, Frank Enolis, Ole Anderson and Sid Brown.

Central Ave. Property Owners Plan Meeting

Central avenue property owners are invited to attend a public meeting of the Central Avenue improvement association, to be held Thursday night, November 22, at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Glendale Union High school, announces Charles B. Guthrie, president.

The object of the meeting, it is stated, will be "to come together as neighbors and friends to consider ways and means to improve Central avenue; to exchange ideas and look at this important matter from all sides, both present and future; and to get the personal point of view and its relation to Glendale's best interests."

Calling attention to the truth of the saying, "In the multitude of councilors there is wisdom," Mr. Guthrie urges that there be a good attendance.

Enforce Quarantine on Infected Fruits

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 20.—Six hundred and seven shipments of infected fruit and agricultural products were destroyed at the state line during October, according to Lee A. Strong, head of the division of plant and pest quarantine of the state department of agriculture.

Eighty-two live alfalfa weevil were destroyed in one automobile from Nevada, Strong added.

Fifty-seven shipments of fruit from foreign countries where the fruit fly is known to exist were denied a landing at San Francisco during the month. All shipments were inspected. At San Pedro, 174 similar shipments were refused admittance.

Walton May Give Series of Lectures

homa." Chairman W. E. Disney, of the managers, declared.
"October 2, in the election Walton tried to stop with his army—the electorate of Oklahoma told the legislature what to do. We carried out their instructions to the letter."
The board of managers again assailed Walton's plea that the invisible empire of the Ku Klux Klan was responsible for his downfall, and that a conspiracy was formed to deprive him from office.

Sufficient Answer
"On the first count of the indictment voted upon, the senate unanimously declared Walton's guilt," it was announced.

"That count charged Walton with abuse of pardon and parole power by granting clemency to more than 600 prisoners in the nine months he was in office."

The senate was scheduled to meet today to consider the costs of the trial. A part of them may be assessed to the late governor. One senator on the floor a few days ago said the trial was costing Oklahoma $500 every fifteen minutes.

Walton's attorneys were preparing to go into the district federal court tomorrow with an application for a temporary injunction against the impeachment court. They will ask a retroactive injunction to undo what the senate completed yesterday. Failing in this, Judge F. E. Riddle, chief of the defense staff, said he would try to get into the United States supreme court with the case.

Offer Special Prizes in Roses Tournament

Special sweepstakes prizes for the best floats to be entered in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses that will be held on January 1, 1924, have been offered by the directors of the project, according to information reaching the Glendale Chamber of Commerce. These prizes will be awarded irrespective of the class in which the floats may have been entered and will be open to all the floats in the parade.

Nineteen prizes will be awarded in the various classes, but the sweepstakes winners will not be permitted to take the prizes in the classes in which they are entered.

Victory for England Is Seen in Action

the Anglo-French entente will be continued indefinitely.
It was learned from an authoritative source that Premier Poincare renounced his demand for immediate sanctions (penalties) upon Germany when England threatened to withdraw her representatives from allied committees and commissions created by the Versailles treaty.

Recall of English representatives from the sub-organizations created under the treaty would isolate France except for her smaller allies on the European continent.

The Matin, commenting upon the situation today, said that France and Belgium are in complete union. Belgium is prepared to support any action France may take to support her demands regarding the re-establishment of allied military control over Germany and the return of the former German crown prince from Holland.

According to Belgium and Poland, France has the support of the little entente in Southern Europe.

France, according to the Matin, reserves the right to take the necessary measures for her own protection regardless of the decision of the ambassador's council.

Official circles believe that the solution adopted by the council yesterday to send a strong joint note to Berlin will greatly lessen the tension as it is a concession to England. Up to that time, France had been insisting that fresh penalties be inflicted without further note writing.

It is understood France and Belgium are preparing an independent protest against the arrest of allied military control officers by the Reichswehr in Saxony.

THE GLENDALE

Tom Mix in "Soft Boiled" continues as the chief attraction at the Glendale Theatre, offering this well-known player in his first comedy role. Two-gun Tom in the role of a shoe clerk sounds impossible—but he does it and, consciously or otherwise, proves that underneath his hard-boiled surface is the ability of a natural comedian.

Under the stipulations of a will dictated by a hot-tempered uncle, the youth must control his desire to fight or lose his inheritance. Complications turn up rapidly when the fiery young westerner finds it necessary to take over the management of a risqué road-house.

"Soft Boiled" promises to launch Mix before the public in a new variety of role, one that his cohorts of admirers will welcome with even greater enthusiasm than did they hail his series of western straight dramas.

THE GATEWAY

In "The Isle of Lost Ships," a First National attraction, produced by M. C. Levee, now showing at the Gateway theatre, Maurice Tourneur, the director, has given to film lovers one of the most unusual and weirdly beautiful pictures ever made.

The tale is of a girl and two men who, following a shipwreck, find a haven in a legendary "land of ships" in the center of the Sargasso sea. The girl proves a welcome bit of salvage to the loathsome brute who rules the island, but, after a terrific fight, the trio manage to escape in a submarine.

Milton Sills, Anna Q. Nilsson, Frank Campbell and Walter Long have the principal roles. The picture is based on the novel of Crittenden Marriott that created such a sensation.

More than 1,000 members have been added to the Student Y. M. C. A. as a result of the annual membership campaign in Manila.

INSTITUTE MARKS EDUCATION WEEK

Faculty of Glendale Schools Meet for Conference On Teaching Work

The National Educational Week observance in Glendale yesterday was the teachers' institute at the Glendale Union High school. Sunday, the day before, had been "For God and Country Day" in the national observance, and the two days together served as great inspiration for the remainder of the week.

Today special emphasis is to be placed on the Constitution and patriotism, and in the schools of Glendale time was devoted to constitutional study and drill and the discussion of patriotism.

School and Teacher Day "School and Teacher Day" is how tomorrow has been announced, and the Glendale Union High school will hold open house, an urgent invitation being issued to patrons and friends to visit the various classes.

At 2:30 o'clock the Parent-Teachers' association of the high school will meet, and a group of the teachers will speak on their departments and the value of the various subjects taught. Each of the groups of studies will be represented: Academic or major subjects, domestic arts, fine arts, mechanical arts, commercial department and physical education.

Inter-Class Games The grade schools are devoting the day to physical education inter-class games.

Thursday will be "Literacy Day." At the high school the student assemblies will be in charge of the English department. The program will include introductory speeches by students, patriotic music by the music department, and two films will be devoted to Alexander Hamilton and Benjamin Franklin.

Friday will be "Community Day" and Saturday "Physical Education Day."

Bishop and Co-Adjutor To Be Dinner Guests

Bishop C. A. Johnson, Bishop Co-adjutor W. B. Stevens and Mrs. Stevens, and Dr. and Mrs. George Cornell, of Pasadena, are to be honored guests Friday night at the St. Mark's Episcopal parish dinner, given by the Women's Guild in the remodeled Guild hall.

The annual holiday bazaar of the Guild will occupy the afternoon, and the dinner at night will mark the formal opening of the hall since it has been re-done.

Hardy Young Pioneers to Hold Big Pow-Wow With Groups From Other Towns

A dusty covered wagon train of 100 courageous pioneers will wend its way late Friday afternoon over the Foothill highway from Glendale to Alhambra, where an over-night and Saturday pow-wow will be held on the athletic field of the Alhambra High school. The Glendadians making the trip are all local boys of the Pioneer Notchers and they will be accompanied by Rex. C. Kelley and other Y. M. C. A. leaders.

Many of the Glendale boys are busily engaged building covered wagons, which will be hitched on to automobiles or built on trucks, and the departure after school Friday afternoon and journey along the foothill boulevard will truly savour of the old pioneer days.

Boys From Other Cities In addition to the Glendale Notchers, there will be boys from Hollywood, Los Angeles, Pasadena, South Pasadena and Alhambra, totaling about 600.

Each boy is instructed to bring a small frying pan, boiling vessel, knife, fork, spoon, tin cup, tin plates and matches, and enough "grab" for supper and breakfast. He is also to take with him a pair of heavy blankets and a comfort or their equivalent and wear his old clothes. The announcement reads: "Your bed will be the ground."

The pow-wow begins at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon when sites will be assigned, arrangements made for the night and the hoisting of the Notch flags. Then there will be inspection, review, nomination of mayor and commissioners, lowering of colors, supper and mass games till 7 o'clock.

Greeting to Guests Camp fire is announced for 7 o'clock, with election of officers and a welcome from the Chamber of Commerce and Kiwanis of Alhambra. Then will follow songs, stunts, yells by towns, award of banner to best pioneer club, trial of Dr. Grouch, a mysterious ceremony and closing camp fire with devotions.

Guards will then be posted for night duty by chief of police and taps will sound at 9 o'clock.

Saturday will begin early with reveille at 5:45 o'clock, followed by Bible study at 6:30 o'clock, raising the colors and roll call at 7 o'clock, breakfast with pancake contest at 7:05 o'clock, inspection and announcement of winners at 8 o'clock, assembly, awards to honor men, presentation of pins and talks by boys and leaders at 8:30 o'clock.

The execution of Dr. Grouch will take place at 9:30 o'clock.

Tests to Be Held From 9:30 till 11 o'clock there will be tests in pioneer work, drill, fire building, signaling, first aid.

COMMENT That's All

Imperial Valley at Best. One Motion Picture Show. Cotton Prices Win Laugh. Brief Chat About Crops.

By Gil A. Cowan

It is past the middle of November. The writer is sitting in the open door of a hotel lobby in the quiet hour of evening. Almost everyone is at the one motion picture theatre of which El Centro boasts.

The Imperial Valley is at its best this season of the year—even if the roads are a bit muddy from a long rainfall. The sun shines and the birds and blossoms make you sure it is spring—unless you know spring in the valley.

We were saying, it is most pleasant and quiet and restful. And nobody is excited or perturbed—just letting life take its course out here on the reclaimed desert. People here lead very quiet lives. They go to bed early, rise early, work hard, perspire much in their labor, and thrive. It is only natural that they should.

Now for a few chatty comments on things as they are:

Everyone here, almost, attends the only motion picture show. As a rule, the picture house is open to accommodate the crowds. For 6,000 people, with perhaps another 4,000 to draw from in the rural districts, two theatres should be enough.

It would be good business if Glendale supported one motion picture house on the basis of over 10,000 population. It would, too, if Glendale people would attend Glendale theatres.

Cotton prices are making Imperial Valley ranches smile with that infectious prosperity grin that is unmistakable to an observer of facts. In fact, they are laughing heartily at the cotton buyers as they squirm over paying 34 cents a pound. That is an awful price to pay, they say, but the crop is short and nothing short of a "buyers' strike" is going to put cotton under the table this winter.

We believe it is Herbert Hoover who in 1920 predicted cotton would be selling at 30 cents or better in two or three years. He had the right hunch, but a lot of people laughed at him. But he backed his belief by planting big acreage in Kern county. Again he was wise, was Mr. Hoover. He went into a virgin field to get big production.

In Imperial valley the crop is curtailed in places because they have grown cotton and nothing else. Also, they have gotten a half dozen varieties mixed into a hybrid crop. Now they are going to take steps to change this expensive procedure and concentrate on one kind.

Incidentally, the state department of agriculture is throwing a fence around the coast to keep out the boll weevil and pink boll worm. As a result, California will produce more cotton per acre than any other state. And its crop will command a better price. All of which means prosperity.

Cotton is not the only crop in this section which concerns agricultural experts. A learned man has been sent to the Imperial Valley to get pecan groves growing. They claim this is an ideal climate for nuts. Perhaps so.

Dates in the Coachella and Imperial valleys are coming into the markets now. Fact is, the writer has just partaken of some of the rich, sticky palm fruit—and it's fine. Today we are visiting with friends at one of the big date gardens. Wonderful industry.

Another Imperial valley commodity that claims its place in the sun is the golden grapefruit, which also has to be protected from plant pest infestation by our watchful agricultural border guards. And the fruit is well worth the effort, for it is the finest grown in the country. You do not have to be an expert to feel the difference.

A little story about vegetables, which also grow well down in the southwesternmost section of California as you glance at the map.

For lack of cars last season one firm in its rush to get its golden produce to market packed one tier too many in the ventilated refrigerator cars. The lettuce didn't ventilate, so to speak, and disastrous results followed. Eight cars of the stuff rotted, causing a stupendous loss. And so shippers learn their lessons.

Vaudeville Headliner Exchange Entertainer

Al Herman, of the Orpheum circuit, headliner this week at the Hill street theatre, in Los Angeles, who ranks with Al Jolson, at the top of the list of American comedians, will be present at the regular weekly luncheon of the Exchange club, in Jensen's Egyptian Village, Wednesday noon, November 21, and entertain the members in his own inimitable way.

Members of the Community Welfare Chest committee, will make their report relative to the progress of the drive, at this time. The menu includes tenderloin steak, hot rolls, ice cream and cake and other good things. President D. Ripley Jackson hopes for a 100 per cent attendance.

OFFICIAL PLUMS FOR WESTERNERS

Federal Appointments to Go To 'Career' Men Where Possible, Dictum

By GEORGE E. DURNO
For International News Service
WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Plum-seekers at the base of the federal job-tree will be seriously handicapped unless it happens the states of their nativity lie at least several degrees west of the Atlantic seaboard.

This is the dictum that has gone forth from the White House. Bearing in mind the sagacious advice of Horace Greeley, President Coolidge has decided to "go west" in his search for job timber.

With the convening of congress and the formal opening of the 1924 campaign just over the horizon, the president is planning a careful distribution of patronage throughout the west and mid-west.

Will Pick "Career" Men Confirmation of the president's intention to allot all possible jobs to western men was given today by a White House official. This official further declared that wherever feasible "career men" would be appointed to the coveted positions.

The last two Coolidge appointments on this decision, former Senator Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota received the call over many easterners for the ambassadorship to Great Britain, while previous to consideration of his name, Frank O. Lowden of Illinois was offered the post and declined it.

The appointment of Robert J. Grant of Denver as director of the mint is considered even more significant. Previously the mint job has been looked upon as a soft social plum to be doled out to any deserving partisan. Three candidates had been in the field, each strongly backed by senators, congressmen and other politicians.

Ignoring all petitions, however, the president appointed Grant, who has been superintendent of the Denver mint since 1921 and has been an active mining man, and who may be considered primarily as a career man.

Fear of New England The war cry, "New England nomination," is most disturbing to the president and his friends. Further, the sections of the Central and western states do not take kindly to the thought of New England domination, and think the jobs should be distributed in those sections.

Several outstanding positions are waiting to be filled, among them three ambassadorships, to Italy, Mexico and Turkey. It is expected western men will be favored wherever possible.

U. S. Expert Studies California Nut Culture

C. A. Reed of Washington, D. C., an employee of the bureau of nut culture maintained by the United States government, was a week-end visitor in Glendale, being entertained by his old school friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Jewell of 1319 East Harvard street.

Last year the government sent Mr. Reed to China to investigate the English walnuts and the probability of China's being a competing country in this industry against California.

Recently he has spent several days in the walnut growing sections of Southern California, giving lectures on this investigation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell and son Percy motored to Puente Saturday to hear Mr. Reed speak, and he returned home with them. He left Sunday for Berkeley to address the Almond Growers' Association.

$30,000 in Cash, Gems Lost by Jewelry Firm

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—Cash and jewels worth $30,000 which had been placed in a safety deposit box by officials of the Ben-San Wholesale Jewelry company, have mysteriously disappeared, it was reported late yesterday.

Officials of the jewelry firm, with offices at Loew's State theatre building, declined to give any information concerning their asserted loss, but indicated they would issue a statement later. According to the report, the Ben-San company placed the valuables in a safety deposit box Saturday night. Officials of the company said that they witnessed their safe locked in the box. Upon opening the box today, the money and jewels were missing, according to the report.

Glendale College Women's Club Launches Drive to Enlarge Its Membership

It is most fitting that, during National Educational Week, the Glendale College Women's club should stress a drive for new members, and that Mrs. A. L. Ferguson, club president, should cordially invite all Glendale women who are eligible for membership to communicate with the club membership chairman, Mrs. E. B. Sutton, of 728 East Windsor road.

The Glendale College Women's club will soon celebrate its first birthday, and that celebration on January 20, 1924, will be marked with unusual attainment, for the club, since its organization, will have increased to over 100 in membership, representing over fifty higher institutions of learning, including one in Toronto, Canada, and one in Dublin, Ireland.

Covers Wide Field Organized with the object of uniting college women and concentrating their influence on problems of social service, and the advancement of education, the club has become second to the Tuesday Afternoon club among the women's organizations of Glendale.

The membership requirements are, "Any woman shall be eligible to membership who is not registered as an undergraduate, and who has sixty university credits or who has taken two years of full academic work in any college or university having a four-year course, and granting the degree of A. B. or its equivalent."

This year the club's program chairman, Mrs. D. F. Reichard, inaugurated the plan of honoring various colleges and universities at the club luncheons and teas, alternating on the second Saturday afternoons of each month.

Two College Days The first meeting of the year was a luncheon meeting, and was designated as "Occidental College Day," and the second meeting of the year was "Pomona College Day," in the form of an afternoon tea.

The University of Southern California will be honored at the December meeting, a luncheon on Saturday, December 8, at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse.

University of Southern California alumnae members of the club will arrange the program, the U. S. C. colors will be used in decoration, and all U. S. C. women in Glendale will be invited to attend. Further announcement of this meeting will appear shortly in The Glendale Evening News.

Little Girl Injured in Automobile Crash

Ann Louise, the 7-year-old daughter of Joe E. Harvey, 755 South Spring street, Los Angeles, was injured Sunday morning at 8:30 when a car driven by her father collided with a sedan belonging to F. E. Reynolds, 2311 North Main street, Los Angeles. The accident occurred at the junction of San Fernando and Los Feliz roads.

The little girl was taken to the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital by Paul Cera, 1307 San Fernando road, where it was found several teeth had been knocked out, her chest injured and her body badly bruised.

FIRST PERIOD TO CLOSE IN 4 DAYS

Salesmanship Campaign for Capital Prizes Nears Critical Stage

By J. A. MALCOLM
Salesmanship Club Manager
Saturday night is the finish of the big first period of The Glendale Evening News Salesmanship club. Just four more big important days. Four more days in which to secure the greatest number of credits on the subscriptions. Four days in which to make sure of one of the better prizes. If you have any ambition whatsoever to win one of the grand capital prizes, right now is the time for you to get busy, and make every minute count by working hard for the subscriptions. No matter what you have done up to this time, you cannot rest on your laurels, for others are working with might and main to get every available subscription possible, and it's up to you to do the same, or fall hopelessly in the rear and be content with one of the smaller prizes.

The first period will end with the closing of The Evening News business office. The time is set for nine o'clock, but subscriptions will be accepted as long as the office is open, so if you are unable to report in full by the time set, the hour will be extended to meet your requirements. Club members are requested to come to The Evening News office as early as possible, to turn in their subscriptions, and they may come again, should they secure other subscriptions later. As soon as all club members have reported the first period will be declared closed, and no more subscriptions will be accepted to apply on the first period.

Credit Values Lower We have repeatedly told all club members that at no time during the balance of the campaign would they receive as many credits for their subscriptions as they would during this first period, and again we warn you that if you hold back subscriptions or if you wait until later to get them, you will be sorry, for we positively guarantee you that at no time after Saturday night, will you receive as many credits for the subscriptions as you will during this first period.

Starting next Monday the second period of the campaign will start and the second period credits will be in force. There will not be any special credit offers made during this campaign, other than the original 50,000 extra credits offered for each club of $25 turned in, and this extra offer is in effect during the entire campaign. This is one campaign that is going to be conducted absolutely on the square, and the workers will be the winners. Those who secure the most bona fide subscriptions, and get the credits, will be the ones who will eventually carry away the best prizes. The matter rests squarely up to you and if you fail to do your best to get the subscriptions, then you have only yourself to blame, if you fail to win one of the best prizes. Take heed and work hard this week if you want to be a winner, for after Saturday the subscriptions lose about one-third of their voting value.

Victim Explains How Accident Happened

S. L. Walker, 131 Arden avenue, who was discharged from the hospital last week after treatment for injuries received in an automobile accident, takes exception to the statement in The Glendale Evening News that he was injured as the result of a collision between two cars.

"I was struck by a car that came around the corner of Burchett street at such a rapid rate," he declares, "that the driver was unable to stop, and my car and his machine skidded, striking the curb on the north side of Burchett street with such force as to turn over twice. I had just crossed Burchett street and was on the sidewalk when the car struck me and threw me a distance of forty feet, and only for the fact that the ground had recently been plowed I surely would not have been here now."

Lectures to Members of Humane Society

Emma Lindsay Squier, writer of animal stories, was the speaker Saturday night at the meeting of the Glendale Humane society at the Glendale Union High school.

Preceding Mrs. Squier's talk Mrs. Edgar Salsus, founder of the Southern California Bide-A-Wee, outlined the work of the Blue Cross society, organized in England during the war to alleviate the suffering of dogs and horses used in the war.

In speaking Mrs. Squier described a visit to a city pound and the deplorable conditions prevailing there.

The Glendale Humane society is now securing a charter and is planning a big work in behalf of animals and children.

Pioneer Notchers in Hike and Swim Tests

There were sixty Glendale boys, all Pioneer Notchers, who took their hiking and swimming tests Saturday, when they hiked to the Pasadena Y. M. C. A. building and took a swim in the plunge.

Rex C. Kelley accompanied the boys and supervised the various tests. The hiking test is seven miles in length and the distance from Glendale to the Y. M. C. A. building in Pasadena met this requirement.

Don't keep perishable food in your Pantry!

Food that is kept in an open pantry is exposed to two real dangers. One is the bacteria always present in warm air and dust. The other is the bacteria which begin to multiply in the food itself as soon as the temperature reaches 50 degrees, or warmer.

It is impossible to keep a pantry free from germ-laden air and dust, even in cool weather. There is only one safe way to keep food, and that is in the cold, even temperature of a refrigerator well filled with ice. Germs cannot thrive in a 40 degree temperature.

It is a prudent and sensible habit to keep ice in the house all the year around. It is real economy, too. Ice will pay for itself in the food it saves.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories"

There is an extremely rapid growth of the nervous system in childhood. And when there is under-nutrition there is not only a lowered resistance to infections, but there is also a tendency for the system to be easily upset and hysteria. St. Vitus' Dance (chorea), bed-wetting, and many other disturbances of a similar nature, may be brought about. When the nutrition is improved these disorders often disappear.

It is also found that where there is under-physical development there is very apt to be a retardation of the mental development. Poor nutrition is a decided handicap to mental growth. How can one expect under-nourished, anemic and nervous children—these characteristics usually go together—to apply themselves to study?

Perhaps there is a nutrition class in your school, or some child welfare organization near you. If so, let your malnourished child join this, if he is old enough. This inspiration he will get from other children who are trying to gain, and the inspiration and instruction you will also get (for the mother or guardian has to attend and take an interest also) will be exceedingly helpful.

If there are no nutrition classes, perhaps you can get the Parent-Teacher association, in co-operation with your local board, interested in forming one. The American Child Health association, 370 Seventh avenue, New York City, will give instructions how to do this. They also have a wonderful collection of interesting booklets and cards teaching health habits, gotten out especially for the children.

It has been demonstrated that the very best way to get results with children in health improvement, as in other things, is to get them interested through their natural play and game instinct. The game of health becomes the most fascinating game they have ever played.

If there are any physical abnormalities, we will presume, of course, that you are going to have those attended to, so the child can be, as Emerson says, "free to gain." Free to gain! What a picture that brings up!

DAILY FASHION HINT

Prepared Especially for The Glendale Evening News

JUST AS PARIS DECREES

Artful and new are the frocks pictured here, the fashionable wood brown shades of heavy silk crepe de chine having been selected for their development. The first model pictures the plaited apron front so greatly affected by well-dressed Parisiennes. The long-waisted blouse falls gracefully over a belt of self material to which the plaited apron is attached. A sectional collar finishes the round neck, while the short sleeves are trimmed with plaited frills of self material. Medium size requires 6-1-4 yards 36-inch material.

Becoming alike to slender and stout figures is the second model with a deep circular flounce at the bottom of the skirt. It is trimmed with fancy silk braid stitched on to emphasize the coat effect of the front of the dress. Surmounting the revers is a collar of self material. A narrow belt holds in the fullness at the waist. Medium size requires 6-7-8 yards 36-inch material.

First model: Pictorial Review dress No. 1795. Sizes 34 to 48 inches bust. Price 45 cents.

Second model: Dress No. 1801. Sizes 34 to 52 inches bust. Price 45 cents.

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl in my teens and have been going with a boy one year older than I am. He has always treated me in a gentlemanly manner. He has a habit of breaking dates. He always comes back and apologizes and seems to give a good excuse, but now some one has told me that the last evening he should have called he and his boy friend went riding with some girls who are not nice.

I think a lot of this boy, but I never could like him if I thought he associated with bad girls. Should I quit and go with some one else? There are two older boys at school who have asked to take me places, but I don't know any more about them than I do the other.

JUNIOR HIGH. It is not gentlemanly for the young man to make engagements with you and then fail to keep them. The fact that he repeatedly comes back with good excuses, means nothing. Some people excel in excusing themselves. Since you have been disappointed many times, I would advise you to drop the boy and look for friendship with a more dependable type of person.

You ought to be able to judge the character of boys pretty well by their general conduct. If you think a boy is all right, let him call at your home where you and your parents can become better acquainted with him.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a widow of thirty-two. Six months ago a man of thirty-seven proposed marriage to me before he went home to visit his parents. I was then not sure of my feelings for him and so I told him he would get his answer when he came back. I found that I cared

BEAUTY CHATS

Mary C.:—Wash and dry your arms before using the peroxide for bleaching the hair. The hair should be free from oil to get the best results from the bleach.

Buddy:—I should think that you were in need of a good hair tonic, such as the Pilocarpine, for which I am glad to mail the formula. This will stimulate the color secretion in addition to building up the health of the scalp; so it really overcomes all such troubles as those you mention.

Miss A. Du R.:—The only way you could change your dark brown hair to that of black would be to dye it. I am sure you would be very sorry after you had done this, as your own shade must be far more becoming than the one you are longing for.

Miss G. B.:—An exercise for reducing the ankles is as follows: Stretch out each foot in turn, point toes down, bending from the ankle, turn foot upward, outward and in. Rotate foot from ankle while holding the knee so the leg will not share in the exercise.

August B., Helen K.:—To make walnut stain for coloring hair, buy a pound of domestic walnuts. Cover these with water and let steep over a slow fire until most of the color is extracted from the nuts. Add a handful of salt to set color, and apply to the hair with a brush similar to a toothbrush, so the stain will not come in contact with skin. If it does it will stain that also. From a pound of nuts there should be about a pint of strong liquor stain.

Thirteen, Hopetul, Miss L. B., Lillian B., W. A. S., M. M.:—If your skin is oily treat it before it leads to enlarged pores, for after that will come the blackheads.

The oily skin is usually the result of poor elimination, so correct that condition while you are treating the skin itself. Stop using creams except for cleansing, and these should be removed from the pores after the skin is cleared of soil.

Bathe the face every day and use in the place of wash cloths small cheesecloth bags in which there are several tablespoonfuls of oatmeal, a teaspoonful of shaved castile soap and a tiny pinch of powdered benzoin. You may omit the benzoin in the mixture if you rinse in cold water that has several drops of benzoin in it. If you have already reached the state where the pores have enlarged, this treatment will correct the difficulty, but it will take much longer than merely to cure the oily skin.

Where blackheads have formed, open the pores by applying hot, wet cloths and then massage a cleansing cream into them to soften the soil. After this scrub with hot water and soap. Rinse in cool and then cold water in which there are a few drops of benzoin.

Tomorrow—Dressing for the Dance

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes, in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

Dinner Stories

A matter-of-fact father of an embryo poet handed some of the lad's efforts to a distinguished author of verse and asked for his opinion, according to Writers Monthly.

"Well, what's the answer?" queried the successful stockman. "Alas!" sighed the real poet, "these things are so good I'm afraid you'll have to support Henry the rest of his life."

"Why is Jinks so sad?" one male gossip asked of another who knew the subject of the inquiry, reports Judge.

"Reason enough, I should say. He was in the park this morning and saw a woman going into a faint. He nearly caught her in his arms, and—"

"Was robbed by her, eh? Old stuff, that."

"You're wrong, old man. Not that sort of a case. She proved to be a millionaire's daughter."

"What's his name?"

"Well, he didn't catch her."

right to sit on a fellow's lap when in a crowded machine, the fellow being respectable? BILLY.

It is not correct to sit on a man's lap. There are times, however, when the correctness of the thing should be forgotten. Very often young people crowd into a machine and find it necessary to disregard propriety. Always use your best judgment and don't take part in any wild and noisy rides.

THANK YOU: Advertise the furniture you have for sale in the classified ad section of the newspaper. Usually second-hand furniture has to go at half of the original price, or half of the prevailing price for the same article.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Since baby came I have received many dear little presents from friends I would like to know how I should thank my friends for them. Many live out of town, but not all. Should I write a letter of appreciation, or should I call and thank my friends personally where it is possible?

IN DOUBT. A letter of appreciation would be all right in every case where you have received a gift. It would also be correct to call and express your appreciation personally. Now that you have the baby, however, your friends will know you are very busy and will not expect more than a letter.

TODAY—Cleveland Wants Convention; Concentrates on G. O. P. Meet.

By WILLIAM J. HUSKE

CLEVELAND, Nov. 20.—Encouraged by the statement of chairman John T. Adams, of the Republican National Committee, that the convention city to nominate a candidate for president next year had not been foreclosed, and that Chicago is far from certain of landing the big plum, Democrats and Republicans have joined hands here to obtain funds necessary to secure the meeting for Cleveland.

Congressman Theodore Burton has reported to the local committee that at least $125,000 must be raised by November 15—the date when the sub-committee of the Republican National Committee meets in Washington to hear the claims of cities anxious to be host to the great gathering next year.

Newton D. Baker, former Secretary of War and chairman of the Democratic County Committee, is only one of the prominent Democrats aiding in soliciting pledges of funds for the convention.

Ohio has not entertained a national convention for many years, and Cleveland has never yet been host to such a gathering.

With the largest and finest public hall in the United States ready to house a convention of almost any size, more than a year ago it was expected that Cleveland would make a bid for both Democratic and Republican conventions. When it appeared certain that the late President Harding would be nominated to succeed himself efforts to secure the Republican convention were given up upon a tip from Washington that Mr. Harding looked with disfavor upon the proposal, as he felt that it would not be fair to possible contenders for leadership that the gathering should be held here, where Harding sentiment would be strong.

The death of the chief executive however, changed all this, and a month or so ago active steps were undertaken to get the meeting. In the meantime, however, the Chamber of Commerce threw cold water upon the matter by declaring through one of its committees that it would not be a party to raising funds for such a purpose. With this announcement active efforts to secure the Democratic convention died down, but Congressman Burton and Colonel Carmi A. Thompson, Republican candidate for Governor last year and close friend to the late President, decided to renew their efforts to secure the Republican gathering and make it a "memorial" to the Ohio leader who had died in office.

Cleveland hotels have pledged themselves not to raise their rates should the convention come here. In addition they have jointly subscribed $25,000 of the $125,000 which must be subscribed before November 15. The remaining $100,000, it was expected, would be easily obtained from retail merchants and other business men who would benefit from the great influx of visitors.

Chicago, Denver and San Francisco are also making efforts to land the convention, and they are said to be ready with certified checks for the amount required when the sub-committee meets. So far as Cleveland is concerned New York, Louisville, San Francisco, Kansas City and St. Louis may fight it out for the honor of being host to the Democrats. There will be no effort made to contest their claims to recognition, and all activities will be centered upon getting the Republican convention.

Timely Views on World Topics

U. S. POLICY TOWARD EUROPE HISTORIC TRAGEDY, SAYS INVESTIGATOR

French occupation of the Ruhr has brought Germany to a standstill, but at the same time has had the effect of bringing France closer to a council table where the reparations problem can be settled.

This is the reparations muddle expressed before the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce by Whiting Williams, who has just returned from nine weeks in Europe, for a part of that time he was employed as a coal miner in the Ruhr mines to determine just what the German working man is thinking about.

At the same time, Mr. Williams said, America is vitally concerned in any reparations settlement, and declared that the United States must take a hand in European affairs. He quoted Prime minister Benes of Czecho-Slovakia as saying that the League of Nations represents a moral revival.

"The biggest tragedy in American history," Mr. Williams said, "is that when the other nations have got together in this moral revival, the United States has had no part in it. The biggest need of the world is that the nationalistic impulse, expressed in tariff barriers and the raising of big armies, should be curbed."

"A German miner told me, 'We are perfectly willing to pay the reparations. We realize that we have lost the war, and that we must pay the price of defeat. But we cannot roll up our sleeves and go to work until we know how much we owe. As it is now, the harder we work, the more they ask.'"

German working men hate their own industrial leaders quite as much as they do the French invaders, Mr. Williams said. The miners have been plunged into unmitigated poverty, the mark falling so rapidly that by the time a worker has saved 100,000 marks to buy a suit of clothes the price has advanced to 200,000.

"France has succeeded in the Ruhr," he said, "from a military point of view. She has made hunger and cold and suffering. She has not got reparations, but she has, no doubt, brought Germany to a place where she is more ready to face her obligations than ever before. She has not succeeded from any other standpoint. And intervention may have served, too, to bring France nearer to the council table, for Poincare is in a real dilemma to decide just what to do, now that passive resistance has ceased."

Mr. Williams found all classes in Italy agreed, he said, that Mussolini had saved that country at a time when it was slipping rapidly into anarchy and chaos. But the pendulum of reaction has swung all the way. Three or four years ago, he said, the Communists were in control. It was dangerous to wear an Italian uniform on the street or to carry an Italian flag, and there were strikes "every fifteen minutes."

Under Bolshevik control the Italian working classes were beaten if they worked; today they are beaten if they don't work all the time and as hard as possible, Mr. Williams asserted.

Mr. Williams praised the League of Nations' handling of Austrian rehabilitation and of the settlement of the Italian-Greco controversy, declaring that reference of the problem to the council of ambassadors was entirely in accord with the league covenant.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND JACKIE'S TAIL. One morning, just as Uncle Wiggily had finished his breakfast of boiled pancakes with fruit orange juice sprinkle on the middle, there sounded a knock on the door of the hollow stump bungalow.

"My goodness!" exclaimed the rabbit gentleman with a twinkle in his pink nose. "I hope that isn't the Fuzzy Fox calling so early!"

"Oh, I wish you wouldn't say such things, Uncle Wiggily, even in fun!" exclaimed Nurse Jane Ezzzy Wuzzy as she went to the door. "Of course, it isn't the Fox, nor yet the Wolf, and you make me so nervous!"

"I guess the Fox and Wolf would make you more nervous," laughed the bunny.

By this time the muskrat lady housekeeper had opened the door and there stood Peetie Bow Wow, the little puppy dog boy.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily!" softly barked Peetie, "could you please come over to our kennel house right away?"

"Why, what's the matter?" asked Mr. Longears, for he could see that something had happened.

"Oh, it's Jackie's tail!" gasped Peetie.

"What's the matter with Jackie's tail?" the bunny rabbit gentleman wanted to know. "It hasn't dropped off, has it?"

"And don't tell me that the Skillery Scallery Alligator has nibbled it!" gasped Nurse Jane.

"No, nothing like that," answered Peetie. "But this morning, when Jackie got out of bed he couldn't wag his tail just like that!" whined Peetie.

"Jackie couldn't wag his tail!" For a moment Uncle Wiggily and Nurse Jane were too surprised to speak. And well they might be. For if there is one thing worse than another, which can happen to a little dog, it is not to be able to wag his tail.

Pause a moment and consider. What can a dog do if he can't wag his tail, I ask you? Nothing. It's as if you couldn't nod your head, or go skippy-hop, or wave your hands, or something like that. A dog's tail is what makes him happy and when he can't wag it—well, all the joy is gone from a dog's life.

"Jackie can't wag his tail!" repeated Uncle Wiggily. "What happened him, Peetie?"

"We don't know," sadly answered the other little puppy dog. "But when he got up out of bed, Jackie couldn't wag his tail, though he tried ever so hard, and mother thought maybe if you came over, Uncle Wiggily, you might tell what is the matter?"

"I'll try," said the rabbit gentleman. Quickly putting on his skilly hat, he made ready to go with Peetie over to the dog kennel house.

"On your way back," called Nurse Jane to the bunny gentleman, "please stop at the store and get me a bottle of olive oil."

"I shall do that for you," promised Mr. Longears. Sadly and filled with sorrow he and Peetie went along until they reached the kennel.

"What is this terrible news I hear, Mrs. Bow Wow?" asked the bunny.

"It is only too true," replied the lady dog. "Jackie can't wag his tail. Look at him!" She pointed to her little boy dog who stood in one corner.

"Try to wag your tail, Jackie," begged Uncle Wiggily. Jackie tried. He twisted this way and that way, he turned around in circles, he stood up on his hind legs and he made funny faces—but his tail wouldn't wag.

"Hum!" murmured the bunny. "You must have slept on it crooked in the night and broken something inside—the wag part, you know."

"Oh, can nothing be done?" sighed Mrs. Bow Wow. "Will Jackie ever be able to wag his tail again?"

"I think so," cheerfully replied the bunny. "I'll get Dr. Possum and see what he says." On the way to Dr. Possum's office Uncle Wiggily stopped at the store to get the bottle of olive oil for Nurse Jane. Then he and Dr. Possum hurried back to the kennel. "Now we'll see what's the matter with this doggie's tail!" cried Dr. Possum as he went cheerfully in. But just then Uncle Wiggily stumbled over the door sill and fell down. Out of his pay flew the bottle of olive oil. It broke and the oil splattered all over Jackie.

For a moment the puppy dog boy stood still. Then, all of a sudden, he gave a joyful howl.

With the Women of Today

By MRS. LILIAN CAMPBELL

Mrs. Flora McCormick, of Emden, Ill., has the distinction of being the only woman bank president in the state of Illinois. "The Farmers' State Bank," as it is officially designated, was founded by William McCormick, a farmer and husband of the present head. During his lifetime Mrs. McCormick was frequently called upon to meet with the board of directors and assist them with her counsel and knowledge of financial matters.

After the death of her husband Mrs. McCormick was made president and with her four sons to assist her she has carried on a successful business. The bank is familiarly known to its patrons as "McCormick's bank."

Mrs. McCormick and her sons live on a farm near Emden. All have had practical experience along agricultural lines and have, therefore, a first hand knowledge of the needs and difficulties of the farmers. They aim to make the bank a real home institution.

Mrs. McCormick does not confine her work to the efficient management of the bank, but is also head of the Emden Community House, and is a leader in the social and commercial organizations of her community.

JUDGE PROTECTS OLD PEOPLE AND CHILDREN. Holding that it is the automobile's duty to slow up near old persons or children are near his place of travel, a Detroit judge denied a motion to dismiss the complaint of negligent homicide against a careless driver whose car ran over and killed an elderly woman. The defendant's attorney moved to dismiss the complaint because no criminal intent was evidenced in his client's actions. Testimony showed that the woman stepped off the curb into the path of the defendant's car. The judge held it is the duty of the driver to stop when children or old persons are in the way.

TEMPERANCE GROWS IN ENGLAND. According to the Rev. Ben H. Spence, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, who has returned recently to Toronto after attending conferences in London and Copenhagen, the temperance movement is making marked progress in England. There is a strong undercurrent of sentiment in favor of prohibition among business men, although there is no unity of action among the temperance forces.

"The idea is growing in England," said Mr. Spence, "that if they are going to keep up with the competition of the United States they cannot afford to waste millions of dollars annually on liquor. There is the monetary loss and the inefficiency resulting from drinking, and the business men are thinking about it."

Local musical interest is centered in the recital to be given by Julius Kranz, Glendale's talented young violinist at the Gamut club in Los Angeles, Saturday night.

THE NUN. If you become a nun, dear, A friar I will be; In any coil you run, dear, Pray look behind for me. The roses all turn pale, too; The doves all take the veil, too; The blind will see the show. What! you become a nun, my dear? I'll not believe it, no!

If you become a nun, dear, The bishop Love will be; The cupids ever one, dear, Will chant "We Trust in Thee." The incense will go sighing, The candles fall a-dying, The water turn to wine; What! you go to take the vows, my dear? You may—but they'll be mine.

TRUCK DRIVER IS HAILED AS HERO

Hurls Runaway Machine Into Bank to Avoid Crash With Motorists

A $6,500 truck is practically a complete wreck today, but Roy Paul, of 329 Angeleno avenue, Burbank, is no less than a hero. That he is still alive is considered an act of providence.

Coming down Calhouna pass on the Hollywood side, last Wednesday afternoon, with a 5-ton load of sand, the truck went out of control, and started down the steep grade unchecked. For a while the driver was able to weave it in and out of the up and down traffic, at ever increasing speed.

Finally, however, when it had by actual stop-watch of an eye witness, attained a speed of 75 miles an hour, young Paul chose rather to crash it into the bank, than to certainly mow down many motorists in its death-dealing path.

Throwing the wheel over with one last lunge, he flung the mad ly descending truck into the perpendicular wall and leaped. With terrific impact, the truck struck, recoiled, turned over, then headed crazily on down the grade, turning over and over until finally it crashed through the stone embankment and plunged into the gully.

By this act of heroism, courting instant destruction, Roy Paul gained for himself a mass of lacerations, bruises and contusions that may disable him for some time, yet he undeniably saved not only his own life, but the lives of numerous others.

The truck was owned by Roy C. Stevenson, of this city, who feels that young Paul used his head, and did the best possible thing under the circumstances.

Policemen to Dance

A benefit dance to be given the night of December 19, at the Palais Majestic, under the auspices of the Burbank police department, is announced by Chief John H. Long, proceeds to go toward purchase of Christmas baskets for those deemed in need of a little added holiday cheer.

Tickets will be in the hands of the policemen, and Manager Evans, of the ballroom, says there will be special entertainment features pleasing to those who do not care for dancing. An Orpheum act will be booked and special music is promised.

The hall is being donated for the night, and it is urged that numbers of local people show a similar Christmas spirit, and largely attend this worthy affair.

The density of "wet-mix" poured CONCRETE HOLLOW TILE, together with the hollow wall of air spaces, assures you a THERMOS wall which neither heat nor cold can penetrate.

Such thermos walls give approximately 15 degrees more warmth in winter and 15 degrees less heat in summer. They save fuel.

Refrigeration systems frequently use this sort of insulation. Investigate it.

EAGLE ROCK

PRINCIPAL WILL ENFORCE RULING

Tardiness of School Pupils Offers Serious Bar To Education

Next to "playing hooky" the most serious juvenile delinquency is being late, in the opinion of C. W. Preston, Eagle Rock's new principal. This can be corrected by the parents seeing to it that all the little folks leave home in ample time to get to school at the appointed hour, without hurrying.

The October report shows that a total of 156 pupils of the Eagle Rock school were tardy, twenty in one class room alone, while Miss Stewart's B-1 class was the only one with no tardy pupils.

Inasmuch as the school ruling is that pupils must make up time lost in this way, Mr. Preston urges the parents to co-operate to the fullest extent.

Mr. Preston also calls attention at this time to the Los Angeles school board ruling to the effect that children absent from school two or more days must bring a signed card from the local representative of the board of health, stating that their physical condition is okay.

Dr. Carl H. Phinney has been appointed deputy health officer and has his offices in the Ritchie block at Castle avenue and Colorado boulevard, where he will be glad to interview such cases daily from 12 to 1 o'clock, or, if necessary, at such other times as he is at his office.

With the first ten-week session of school now closed, from now on double sessions will be reversed, stated Mr. Preston, those who formerly attended in the mornings attending henceforth in the afternoons and vice versa.

Local Notes

Those few local business men who have patiently and persistently refused to renew their delinquent licenses will presently be served with legal papers, is the final warning sent out by the police department. A check-up is understood to be under way at the present time. This will consume two weeks, after which the wolf will be found to have teeth.

Residents of Peyton avenue are anxious to have that street rezoned from A to B, permitting the erection of duplexes on lots where houses already are in the rear.

Two Die, Three Hurt In Automobile Crash

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 20.—Two persons, one of whom was said to be a bride, were killed, and three others, including two women, were seriously injured Wednesday, when an automobile in which they were riding, skidded off the highway at Burnt Bridge creek, several miles south of here.

Occupants of the car were said to have been members of a show troupe northbound from Salem, Ore. The sheriff and coroner rushed from here to the scene of the accident.

Death Ends Appeal Of Wounded Gangster

MARION, Ill., Nov. 20.—Death has ended the appeal of W. S. Doering died in Herrin late yesterday, from wounds received Sunday night in a shooting at Johnson City, according to the authorities.

Filipino Officials Arrested for Murder

MANILA, Nov. 20.—The entire government of the municipality of the Calumpit Bulacan province, including the president, chief of police, the treasurer and eight others, have been arrested by constabulary officers, in connection with the alleged murder of Dr. Jose De Jesus, prominent physician. The men arrested were accused of attacking the physician. Political motives were charged.

Walton Dethroned in Impeachment Trial

SENATE CHAMBER, Okla., Nov. 20.—Governor "Iron Jack" Walton, arch enemy of the Ku Klux Klan, and farm-labor governor of Oklahoma, was dethroned yesterday. The state senate, sitting as an impeachment court, after a hectic trial, found him guilty of corruption in office, incompetency and flagrant violation of the constitutional laws in connection with his pardon and parole record, upon which the first vote was taken.

The verdict automatically removed Walton from office.

Lieutenant-Governor Trapp, who was 12 years old when his parents brought him to Oklahoma Territory with the sturdy "eighty-niners," becomes the new executive.

Mellon Fights McAdoo Soldier Bonus Plan

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon is opposed to the plan of William G. McAdoo, his predecessor, for a government bond issue maturing in fifty years, to pay a soldiers' bonus, it has been learned here.

Mellon believes that if the bond issue were made to finance a bonus, the government could not at the same time reduce taxes. Mellon's reason is that the government would have to pay an annual interest charge on a proposed bond issue, a sum equivalent to the present surplus of about $300,000,000 shown by the treasury's books. Whatever method congress may adopt to pay the bonus, Mellon said, the money must come out of taxes eventually.

Scores Porto Rican Labor Conditions

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—In a letter yesterday, to President Coolidge, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, described labor conditions in Porto Rico as "deplorable" and asked the government to exert corrective measures.

VITAL ARTERY FOR VALLEY TRAFFIC

Many Thousands of Motor Vehicles Daily Pass on San Fernando Road

The modern, busy San Fernando road—a vital artery of traffic between Los Angeles, Glendale, Burbank and the entire valley, over which close to 25,000 cars pass daily—may well be contrasted for a moment with El Camino Real, "The King's Highway," as it was called in the days of Spanish occupation, when the Padres passed over it on their journeys from the San Diego Mission to missions all along the line, clear up to San Francisco Mission, on their early errands of mercy and peace.

Old inhabitants and pioneers can still remember the ancient signposts marking the trail, now replaced by the occasional iron standards surmounted by a ball. And many stories can be recalled of those days now passed into the twilight of a civilization that is gone, supplanted by an era of progress such as the world has never before witnessed.

Little did Father Junipero Serra and those other padres dream, when, in the old days, they traveled El Camino Real afoot or on mule-back, that in the years to come this highway, renamed the San Fernando road, would become one of the avenues of travel and trade between Los Angeles and the now thriving valley.

Rapid Progress
Scarcely more can present inhabitants visualize the changes that will come to San Fernando road with the passage of the years that lie ahead. But one thing is certain, the changes will be in the nature of rapid progress, as in the past, for, as Los Angeles grows, and as the San Fernando valley grows, both in wealth and in population, the connecting link between those two great centers will become more and more a tollgate yielding large profits to those holding property on or near it.

The figure of 20,000 cars a day passing over this highway is given out by the statistical department of the Automobile Club of Southern California, after careful and accurate re-

Great White Way Big Feature For Southern Section

Glendale's new "White Way" along San Fernando road from Pacific avenue to Los Feliz road has proved itself a big asset to the business life of the section, during the six months it has been in operation, merchants and property holders agree.

For 3,800 feet these artistic double-globed standards transform the highway at night into a blazing avenue of illumination, advertising South Glendale in the most compelling manner to the thousands of north and south bound motorists who nightly pass by to and from Los Angeles and the San Fernando valley, making proud those whose interests are at present bound up in the future of San Fernando road and impelling future investors to study the section carefully, in the ample light afforded.

Installed at a cost of $14,800, the system comprises fifty twenty-foot standards, staggered at seventy-foot intervals, each light having a capacity of 250 candlepower, a combined radiance of 500 candlepower per standard—or a total flood of 25,000 candlepower concentrated along 3,800 feet.

Singer Plant Plans For Fine Structure

The Singer Furniture Manufacturing company, whose present headquarters are at 1729 South San Fernando road, have purchased three acres adjoining the holdings of the Independent Lumber company on San Fernando road and will erect within thirty days a $50,000 structure, installing in addition $25,000 worth of machinery.

The corporation is capitalized at $300,000, according to S. J. Singer, president, and has with it a number of prominent Los Angeles men. The plan is to operate a school furniture instruction, following completion of the plant, for the training of expert furniture workmen.

A payroll of 150 men will be added to Glendale's weekly budget, by this new concern, Mr. Singer states. He comes from Minneapolis, where for the past twenty-one years he has engaged in the furniture business, from its wholesale and manufacturing angle.

WIDENING OF BOULEVARD PROPOSED

San Fernando Highway to Have Uniform Width If Plans Carry

The widening of San Fernando road from Burbank through Glendale to Los Angeles, long a dream, is to become a reality.

Following the unanimous vote of the San Fernando Boulevard Improvement Association, at its meeting the night of October 25, to widen that highway to sixty-six feet from curb to curb throughout Glendale, leaving ten feet on each side for walks and thus making an eighty-six-foot boulevard, steps have immediately been taken to carry this action into effect.

Committees have been appointed and petitions are now circulating, states L. H. Wilson, president of the association, asserting that this marks the closing stages of a long battle between progressive and reactionary forces for the proper development of a strip of road over which 35,000 cars pass a day, making it one of the most important thoroughfares in the state.

In Burbank, Jack Isbell has hurled the challenge squarely to the Chamber of Commerce, saying it was time they did something in the matter. The chamber has accepted the challenge and appointed a committee comprising Mr. Isbell and C. W. Anderson, who will take up the matter with the proper Glendale committee, listed elsewhere in this article, with a view to co-operation between the two cities in gaining a great mutual benefit.

Varied Widths
"Before discussing the ways and whys and wherefores of widening San Fernando road," says L. H. Wilson of Glendale, "it is necessary to get a picture of its present varying widths. Beginning at the Los Angeles city limits and extending to Glendale avenue, it is sixty feet wide; from there to Central avenue, seventy feet wide; from there to Los Angeles street, which is the turn just beyond Pacific avenue, sixty-six feet wide; from there to Colorado street, sixty feet wide; from there to Ivy street, fifty feet wide; (Continued on page 2)

Gateway to San Fernando Valley Displays Great Progress and Prosperity; Residents Deserve Much Praise for Big Development

"The Gateway to San Fernando Valley," is what the southern section of the city of Glendale has always been called and today that bustling, thriving little community that greets the outsider, the stranger, the tourist, the home seeker passing through Glendale daily by way of the San Fernando road and Southern Pacific, is indeed an inspiring welcome to all who enter into the broad lands of this great fertile valley.

Its prosperity and development testify to the enterprise of the people of the southern district of Glendale, one of the liveliest sections of "The Fastest Growing City in America."

To the old timer in Glendale the transformation of the Gateway of years ago into the present growing, progressive community is indeed within the realm of dreams. To the newcomer the Gateway is but another attraction of Glendale.

There are thousands of people who pass through Glendale daily by way of San Fernando road and the Southern Pacific who never see Glendale's Brand and Broadway business sections, who can only glimpse at a distance the big estates that overlook the city from the north. All they see is the extreme southern or the extreme western parts of the city. Passing through by motor or train they are told, "This is Glendale."

The time was when these people had to draw on their imaginations to picture any city of Glendale, beyond the road they were traveling, but today the prosperous Gateway community they glimpse but brings the urge to see this city of Glendale that is so widely known the nation and world over.

First impressions count for much and what the enterprising people have provided as a part of the city of Glendale is most worthy of praise and compliment.

The Gateway is in truth Glendale's front yard. When you see an attractive front yard don't you always have a desire to wander through the grounds and see what new and charming vistas the landscape gardener has planned for those who take the trouble to investigate?

So Glendale as a unit shares in the pride of the development of the Gateway. Heartiest appreciation is due the people of the Gateway section for their efforts to secure improvements that have beautified Glendale's front yard.

The Glendale Evening News joins with every Glendalian in heartily congratulating them and wishing that the past year of progress may have a brilliant reflection in the years to come.

REALTY INVESTMENTS AT GATEWAY MAKE FORTUNES AND MORE ARE IN SIGHT

Facts and Figures Prove Real Estate in Southern Section Wise Buy; Frontage on San Fernando Road in Demand

It is doubtful if more sensational profits have been derived from real estate anywhere in Southern California than along San Fernando road during the past two years.

The "flatiron" corner of Brand boulevard and San Fernando road, on which is located the Gateway market and a number of stores and offices, is valued today at $100,000. In 1921 it was subdivided and sold for $12,000.

The opposite corner of Brand boulevard and San Fernando road, comprising 71 feet on the former and 214 feet on the latter, was obtained three years ago at a mere fraction of its present valuation of $75,000.

Fortunes in Realty
The northeast corner of Garfield and San Fernando, 100 feet, bought in December of 1922 for $6000 and sold in February of 1923 for $30,950, is now valued at $18,000. The northwest corner of Park and San Fernando, 150 feet, bought in 1920 for $4000, or $26 a front foot, is now held at close to $150 a front foot.

In two years then, the average footage price along this highway has risen from $20 to $150 per front foot, a condition not caused by inflation, according to experts, but rather by the sudden appreciation within the past two years, by the public at large, of a sterling set of values that have existed in this section for years.

Thousands of Cars
Located strategically with regard to San Fernando valley and Los Angeles, traveled daily by 25,000 to 35,000 cars, an important factor in the Pasadena-Hollywood travel, flanked by the Southern Pacific tracks on one side and the Pacific Electric tracks just two blocks east, the San Fernando road as it traverses Glendale may be said to show a set of books attractive indeed to the investor.

With such examples of rising values, it is natural that building along this highway should be brisk. Stores, office buildings, apartments and bungalow courts are going up rapidly, so rapidly indeed that the sound of the hammer and the click of the trowel are constantly heard. Construction of close to $1,000,000 has taken place along San Fernando road during the past year, it is stated on good authority, with hundreds of thousands of dollars more to follow in the months ahead, as large industries get under way with proposed plants, among them the Los Angeles Creamery company and a large San Francisco stove manufacturing concern, in addition to a score or more smaller plants, adding in the aggregate hundreds of men to the Glendale weekly pay-roll.

In the opinion of conservative business men, frontage along San Fernando road will in the course of a few years bring a minimum of $1000 a front foot.

R. E. Johnston Will Enlarge His Plant
The Concrete Brick & Tile company at 440 South San Fernando road are enlarging their plant and organization, according to R. E. Johnston, proprietor, and expect by January 1 to serve the entire San Fernando valley with their "wet mix" product.

Three eight-hour shifts are now being worked, Mr. Johnston states, meaning that the plant is turning out all the tile possible under present conditions, a total of 2,500 a day, the equivalent of 15,000 ordinary bricks.

Mr. Johnston, as president of the Associated Concrete Industries, acts as toastmaster tonight at the big banquet held in the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, when over 150 men prominent in the industry all over the southwest will gather for their quarterly get-together.

Pellegrini's Garage Solves Auto Troubles

Pellegrini Brothers' garage at 1321 South San Fernando road, is regarded by motorists as the first port of call in case of trouble. Open day and night, offering excellent service at minimum cost and maximum speed, its proprietors, Philip and Ford Pellegrini, state that they are delighted with the volume of business they are doing.

In addition to their high quality of repair work, they offer a complete line of auto parts and accessories, in addition to maintaining a car storage service and a tow car ready for call at all times.

Oiled paper is used, instead of glass, in hot house frames in France, with good results and much less expense.

Broker Specializes On Selling, Renting

Z. D. Merriken, real estate broker, of 780 South San Fernando road, states that his specialty is the renting and selling of houses. Located near the union of Pacific avenue with San Fernando road, he calls attention to the fact that he is at the axis of a large and varied territory and can supply practically any real estate need.

"If in the market for property, or seeking to rent a place, no matter how large or small," says Mr. Merriken, "give me a call and I will offer you expert advice."

Shoe Repair Expert Carries Varied Stock

The Bootery Shoppe, at 779 South San Fernando road, enjoys a reputation for progressiveness and fine repairing, and, according to J. Caruso, proprietor, carries a fine line of men's and children's shoes at attractive prices.

"The shop of reputation," as this establishment is known, is well equipped with the most modern and up-to-date machinery, states Mr. Caruso, and is prepared to give prompt and efficient service.

"Our prices are reasonable," he says, "and we appreciate patronage, aiming to give personal attention. A trial will convince anyone that I have had years of experience and know my business."

THE GLENDALE TAVERN is a wonderful new Restaurant recently opened at 1120 South San Fernando Boulevard and is one of the show places of Southern California. The building has been completely remodeled and refinished throughout and is well adapted, both in location and style, to the new use its owners, Messrs. Schneider and Devine, have put it. The grounds in the front have been transformed into a beautiful lawn, and the rear has been arranged in a convenient way to handle many autos.

It has been the aim of the management throughout to give the people of Glendale, San Fernando, Southern California and tourists a high-class place in which to enjoy the pleasures of good food, excellent service, fine entertainment in an atmosphere of taste and refinement.

We extend congratulations to the many other newcomers on San Fernando Road and wish them every success.

Barbecued Sandwiches Win Widespread Fame

Homer Roberts and Walton Cobb, proprietors of the Drop Inn, at 1116 South San Fernando road, are among the pioneers in the south Glendale business section, having been at their present location eighteen months. They make a specialty of barbecued sandwiches. In fact, so popular have these particular barbecued sandwiches become all up and down San Fernando road, that these two young restaurant men are known from Saugus to Los Angeles, by autoists. They also serve Spanish dishes, they state, and make a specialty of putting up sandwiches to take out.

Weak Eyes Cause of Failure to Boost

H. G. Ross, optometrist, of 1522 South San Fernando road, has a novel theory regarding eye trouble. "If you don't feel like boosting San Fernando road," he says, "it's most likely your eyes!" To aid those in this predicament, and others in need of optical service, Dr. Ross maintains a very well equipped establishment for the examination and treatment of eyes. In addition, he conducts a general high class jewelry business. No more enthusiastic booster for San Fernando road and south Glendale may be found than Mr. Ross, according to himself.

ROAD WIDENING BEING FOSTERED

Plans Under Way to Have San Fernando Highway Uniform Width

from there to Grand View avenue, sixty feet wide; and from there to Burbank, eighty feet wide.

"What sane person can object to widening, when such irregularities exist on this important thoroughfare? By carrying out the plan endorsed by the San Fernando Boulevard Improvement Association, namely, making a uniform highway sixty-six feet from curb to curb and eighty-six feet from property line to property line, the entire distance from Burbank to the city limits of Los Angeles, thousands of dollars will ultimately be saved to property owners, by preventing the erection of buildings that will later have to be moved back."

Following is the status at the present time:
From Los Feliz road north to Los Angeles street, the turn just beyond Pacific avenue, petitions have been presented to the City Council for widening. L. H. Wilson is the chairman of this committee.

From Los Feliz road south to the Los Angeles city limits, petitions for widening are now being circulated. B. E. Loper is chairman of this committee.

Petition Is Out
From Los Feliz road north to the Burbank city limits, petitions for widening are also being circulated. R. E. Johnson is chairman of this committee.

In Burbank no petitions will be circulated until their committee has gone thoroughly into the matter with the above men, whereafter immediate action can be expected, as the city is said to be strongly in favor of the move.

Mr. Wilson is not in favor of covering all widening through Glendale with one set of petitions, inasmuch as the strip from Los Feliz road north to Los Angeles street is already before the City Council; and because he feels, furthermore, that the chances for success are much greater if eachively improved."

Committee Members
"We will co-operate heartily with the people in Burbank who are working to widen this highway through their city," he says. "San Fernando road must be widened uniformly to be most effectively improved."

The membership of the two committees now circulating petitions for the widening of San Fernando road in Glendale are as follows:

B. E. Loper's committee: M. F. Bayha, Harry E. White, Dan Campbell, George B. Karr and Dr. A. G. Coleman; and on R. E.

NURSERY OFFERS ASSORTED STOCK

R. H. Thompson Specializes On Landscape Work on Estates, Homes

Occupying approximately an acre at 1918 South San Fernando road, the Golden West nurseries, R. H. Thompson, proprietor, offer the public of Glendale and surrounding points a large and representative stock of highest grade shrubbery, citrus and deciduous trees, pots, palms, garden seed and similar goods.

"We are particularly specializing on landscaping," says Mr. Thompson, "and are prepared to lay out the grounds of residences and estates, whether large or small. We carry nothing but the first quality stock, making it unnecessary for anyone to go elsewhere to get the best."

"People who buy here invariably express themselves as well pleased with the goods and service we furnish, and the result is our customers come to us again and again, whenever they have nursery needs."

"We are headquarters, moreover, for choice pedigreed citrus stock and have bearing orange and lemon trees right on our premises at the present time. I personally invite inspection of my plant here and will be glad to have visitors at any time."

"I will also be glad to look over any proposed landscaping project on short notice and furnish estimates of materials and costs."

R. H. Thompson, proprietor of the Golden West nurseries, is a man who has had many years of experience in this line of work and is a thorough expert, having laid out many fine places in Southern California.

He has been at his present location for the past year and expresses great confidence in the future of San Fernando road and south Glendale.

New Dutch Monoplane Employs Wooden Wings

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 20.—A new type of monoplane with wooden wings, the design of Fokker, famous Dutch aeroplane designer, has just undergone successful tests here.

The machine has a huge single wing span of nearly a hundred feet, and is several feet thick in the center. Although only driven by one engine, the aeroplane carries ten people at speeds approaching 100 miles per hour.

VITAL ARTERY TO VALLEY TRAFFIC

San Fernando Road Being Used by 25,000 Cars Daily, Estimate

search. This figure is increasing rapidly, almost amazingly, and realty men in the district, who have made a study of the situation, state with conviction that at present the daily total of cars using the San Fernando road through the southern section of Glendale are close to 25,000.

Great Activity
These men point out that San Fernando road is just entering upon a period of great activity and development, and they have good reasons for their belief. For one thing, this artery of traffic does not confine itself to any one city or section, but passes through many cities, opening up an entire trade territory.

Another thing, they point out, is that here in Glendale there are three main north and south streets — San Fernando road, Brand boulevard and Glendale avenue. Logically, they contend, San Fernando road should have developed years ago into the paramount one of these arteries in importance, but that it was not pushed, while enterprising citizens got behind Brand boulevard and Glendale avenue and pushed these streets to their present position.

But San Fernando road has at last come into its own, and is coming fast, its natural advantages at last becoming recognized by property owners, realty men and investors and buyers generally.

One of the mediums that has done a great deal to further this awakening is the South San Fernando Boulevard Improvement association, organized in the later part of 1921, and having loyal Southern Glendale residents as its members.

Dye Works Offering 25 Per Cent Discount

J. F. McCabe, of the Falls Dye works, at 779 1/2 South San Fernando road, is offering a special 25 per cent discount on all work done at his store, he states, and is distributing cards entitling the holder to the benefit of this discount for one year from date.

"I want the people of this district to feel that these cards are worth something and not merely pieces of paper," he says. "I am offering this special discount to build up my business and wish to assure everyone, that the service I am rendering, is of the very highest quality."

Another feature of Mr. McCabe's dye works, is his one-day

VISION OF WILSON STARTED THINGS

Realtor's Name Synonymous With Development of Southern Glendale

Whenever the development of San Fernando road is discussed, the name of L. H. Wilson of 1034 South San Fernando road is linked indelibly therewith. Two years ago Mr. Wilson came to San Fernando road, very quietly and unostentatiously. The road was quiet then, too.

Presently things began to happen. Slowly, and then more and more rapidly, San Fernando road started developing. It was as though a condition long present had just been realized, namely—that along this road pour daily thousands upon thousands of automobiles, a golden stream of prosperity going right by the doors of residents there.

And "residents" is just the right word. Two years ago, with a few exceptions, San Fernando road was a residence district. The golden stream of traffic went by unheeded. No one thought to check it, no one but a garage man here and there, or a service station, or a quick lunch place.

Wilson Had Vision
Then L. H. Wilson came, visioning a San Fernando road lined solid with brick construction on both sides, straight through Glendale. The rest of this story is now being told along San Fernando road right now, in brick and mortar.

Footage prices have risen from $20 a front foot to $100 and $300 and $500 a front foot. Innumerable stores and offices have sprung up. Prosperity has come. Ornamental lights have been put in. The road is to be widened into an 86-foot boulevard and paved from curb to curb with asphaltic concrete.

With these developments in the past two years, Mr. Wilson reports, have come princely profits to those who have bought along San Fernando road. Instances are almost without number of those who have made all the way from $1,000 to $10,000 and $20,000 on a single deal. And this is happening all the time.

"I am fully satisfied," says Mr. Wilson, "that nowhere else in Southern California do such opportunities exist today."

Fifty cents will buy enough hair for nets in China to last a class of 40 or 75 girls a month, while they are learning to make the tress-retainers.

service, which makes it very convenient for those to whom the ordinary service is a disadvantage, he states. It is his plan to call on a number of residents of the district during the week and leave these discount cards.

Real Estate Investors

Are you watching San Fernando Blvd.? Do you realize the enormous traffic which travels this great, busy thoroughfare, and have you noted the wonderful development and the rapid increase in values along and adjacent to this boulevard?

I have called your attention numerous times to the possibilities of investments on San Fernando Blvd. Two years ago this property was selling as low as $12 per front foot, and it is now selling at $150 to $200 per front foot; and I believe present values will double within the next two years. My advice is to invest now in San Fernando Blvd. property.

I offer and recommend the following two choice investments:

A fine corner, 50x130, on San Fernando Blvd; $12,000; terms.

An excellent inside lot, 50x100, to an alley; only $7,750.

Selected Investments

Real estate values have increased by leaps and bounds in many sections of this rapidly growing city, but nowhere has this increase been more pronounced than in the triangle bounded by San Fernando Boulevard, Los Feliz Road and Glendale Avenue, intersected by Brand Boulevard and Central Avenue, Glendale's two great north and south arteries, and we predict a greater proportionate increase in value of property in this triangle within the near future than in any other section.

We offer the following among many select investments:

- South Brand Boulevard, Lot 75x150 to Alley and Five Room House.....$18,500
- Fine Lot and Duplex on Central Avenue, Near San Fernando Road.....$12,500

COMMUNITY BANK ONE DAY SERVICE IS BUSINESS AID ON CAR PAINTING

Development of San Fernando District Served Ably by Institution

A year ago the Community Savings & Commercial bank was opened at 1726 South San Fernando road, pioneering the way for the development which the past twelve months have seen. Today this bank, serving the south of Glendale and surrounding points, is firmly established and doing well, reports its manager, H. J. Wellman, cashier.

"Our success has been far beyond what we anticipated the books would show at the end of the first year's business," says Mr. Wellman. "A bank was badly needed in this location and the Community Savings & Commercial has endeavored at all times to fully serve the people and warrant their continued and increasing patronage."

The officers and directors of the Community Savings & Commercial bank are: W. W. Lee, president; Dan Campbell, vice-president and chairman; John A. Logan, vice-president; H. J. Wellman, cashier; and Max Bayha, George H. Bentley, George V. Black, Arthur Campbell, Hubert L. Eaton, George B. Karr, W. C. B. Richardson, directors.

Dudley Dry Goods Co. Will Increase Stock

The Dudley Dry Goods company at 1728 South San Fernando road, is a new name for an old and established institution. F. D. Dudley, who recently took over ownership and management of the store, states that he will greatly add to the stock, putting in additional lines to make of it a first class dry goods store serving all the needs of the community along this line.

"Recognizing that south Glendale was ready for a first class dry goods store," says Mr. Dudley, "I secured the present stock and location, and will develop with the community, investing my capital and my energy here in this fast-growing section of the city with a firm conviction of its big future."

London Waiters Kick About British Weather

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Waiters and waitresses want a change in the English climate. They want more sunshine and less rain. Gene Morriss System in Vogue at Arbenz Plant Gives Satisfaction

The Gene Morriss one-day auto painting plant of C. H. Arbenz at 747 South San Fernando road is now in full swing and a number of fine paint jobs are being turned out, the proprietor reports.

With 100 feet frontage on San Fernando road and 9000 square feet of floor space, this establishment is a credit to Glendale and one more sure indication of the startling manner in which the south section of the city is growing.

"We plan to make our big red symbol, 1, as well known in this territory as any nationally advertised slogan," says Mr. Arbenz. "The Gene Morriss system of painting automobiles is becoming recognized from coast to coast as the new, scientific and ultimate way that will eventually make the old-fashioned method obsolete."

"So successful have we been to date that we are beginning to get cars a number of days in advance, which is what we want, as we then are in a position to plan ahead and make good our promise of one-day service. Another thing, the proof of our success lies in the fact that a large proportion of the jobs we have turned out are of the bigger and finer type of cars."

"In order to turn out a good paint job it is necessary to take off the old coats right down to the metal. This we do under the Gene Morriss one-day system. Old paint absorbs all the life of the new and must therefore be entirely removed."

"We feel that the service we offer is what car owners have long been hoping for, both in quality and economy. Our charges are, in fact, nothing short of sensational and warrant investigation. The process is not new but originated in San Antonio and has been thoroughly tried out there and branches established also in Dallas, Fort Worth and Los Angeles. The Gene Morriss plants are now turning out 900 cars a month for 100 per cent satisfied customers."

At the meeting tonight of the Glendale Chapter of the Mystic Smile, of which Charles Rich is Grand Mystic Smiler, six candidates for membership will be initiated. Several members of the Burbank Chapter will put on the initiation work, and several of their members will also be given the 2nd and 3rd degrees.

As the Burbank Smilers will be special guests, a social hour and short program will be presented at the close of the business session, it is announced.

A basketball game is scheduled for Friday night, November 23, at the Burbank High school gymnasium with the Glendale and Burbank Smilers.

SECRETARIES TO MEET

The Association of Southern Commercial Secretaries will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Miramar hotel at Santa Monica on Saturday, November 24. Secretary E. F. Sanders and Assistant Secretary G. Clay Goodloe of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce will attend.

PLAN CHICKEN DINNER

Ever hear of John Brown? Attend the chicken dinner on Thursday night of this week given by the ladies of the Broadway Methodist church, and you will find out what has become of his body.

Broadway M. E. Church Membership Growing

Congregations at the Broadway Methodist church are showing a steady increase at each service. Visitors from near-by cities are present every Sunday morning, and new members are being enrolled.

Last Sunday the pastor, Rev. L. J. Millikan, preached at both the morning and evening hours of worship. At the morning service his theme was "Walking with God," and at night "The Peril of Neglect." His sermons were eloquent and masterly—thoroughly convincing in their logic. Words of appreciation and commendation were expressed by the audience.

Carl A. Alm Buys Tire, Accessory Shop

The Tyre Shop at 1414 South San Fernando road has been purchased from Irby & Winchester by Carl A. Alm and will be conducted as a high class tire repairing and auto accessories shop, according to the new proprietor.

Mr. Alm congratulates all other newcomers to this fast-growing section of Glendale and believes they have chosen, as himself, wisely, in locating there.

The Tyre Shop will also sell Racine tires, its proprietor states, and will guarantee fully all work turned out.

California Third in Production of Apples

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 20.—With an apple crop totaling 7,288,000 bushels for 1923, California will rank third among the states in this fruit, according to a report issued by G. H. Hecke, director of agriculture.

From the Watsonville district, 2,500 cars have been shipped to date and shipments from the Sonoma apple belt run 750 cars ahead of last year.

Financing of hydroelectric development in New Zealand is chiefly through government aid.

PLENTY OF WORK AHEAD OF CHAMP

Contenders for Title Bout Plentiful; Dempsey to Meet Firpo Again

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service
NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—One year ago; fighters, fighters everywhere and not a law to sock.

Today: Wills, Firpo, Gibbons and Renault.
Thus the changing fortunes of Jack Dempsey, arch-sluggier and collector of rare and well-dome coins. Twelve months ago our foremost patron of the punch had only Harry Wills, the domino, as a plausible opponent and the law would have none of him. In the meantime Luis Firpo has come up from South America and obscurity; Gibbons has convinced the experts that sometimes the foot is faster than the fist. Renault has crashed his way into the top flight with knockouts over Fred Fulton and Floyd Johnson; and Wills, like the world, is still waiting for the sunrise.

Famine to Plenty
The shift from famine to plenty has been swift to the meteoric point. One year ago Firpo had returned to South America after knocking over a few near-beer specimens at some of our obscure clubs. In a few months he was brought back by Tex Rickard, and he literally clubbed his way to a championship match, with successive knockouts of Bill Brennan, Jack McAniff and Jess Willard. Furthermore, in that now historic first round with Dempsey he had the champion so nearly "out" as to absolutely assure himself of another match for the title.

A Dempsey-Firpo bout is certain for next summer. So is a certain match with Tom Gibbons, the only man to stay the limit with Dempsey since he became champion. Wills may or may not get his chance, depending upon whether Jim Coffroth can sign the fighters for Tia Juana and the possibility that the powers that be in New York can convince themselves that the negro hasn't a look-in.

Renault Is "Futurity"
As for Renault, it is merely a "futurity" in the heavyweight book. He is known as a great front-runner, and if this is true he will never get as far as Dempsey. The Canadian, to be a real "build-up" for a championship gate, would have to dispose of Gibbons, Wills or some other real fighter, and the chances are good that he will do nothing of the kind.
In any event, it looks as though the harvest moon is due to shine in golden splendor over Dempsey's left shoulder. For two fights alone, though with Firpo and Gibbons, he figures to clear up over a cool million in purses, and if by any chance he could meet Wills, the champion's revenue for the year will be almost two million. The Wills affair, if held at a strategic spot, would be the greatest money maker for all concerned in the history of pugilism.

HAWAIIAN SQUAD TO MEET POMONA

Turkey Day Game, Scheduled for Pasadena Stadium, Rouses Interest

Coach Otto Klum and 18 of his University of Hawaii football players will arrive in Los Angeles Wednesday morning, November 21, for their game with Pomona College at the Rose Stadium, Pasadena, Thanksgiving Day. The Hawaiians are scheduled to dock at San Francisco tomorrow morning, coming from Honolulu on the Matsonia. Leaving the Bay City tomorrow night the Deans will blow into Los Angeles some time Wednesday morning.
Although the game is to be played at Pasadena, Coach Klum and his athletes will go to Claremont where they are to spend most of their time as guests of the college. The team will alternate with the Sageshens in the use of the turf gridiron of Alumni Field, although the lower dirt field will offer ample opportunity for both elevens to workout at the same time. Next week the Deans will go to the Rose Stadium for at least two practices in order to get used to the soft dirt.

The Pomona eleven has been enjoying a week's rest of preparation for Saturday's big game with Occidental, which is to be played at Claremont, and on which hinges the championship of the conference. Coach Eugene Nixon's lads must trim the Tigers to retain the honors they won last season. Occidental has not defeated Pomona for six years, although the game two seasons ago was a 7 to 7 tie. The Sageshens won last year, 10 to 3.

FACES 10-YEAR TERM
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 20.—As he left Folsom prison late yesterday, after serving a two-year term for burglary, Henry Salter was taken again in custody at the prison gates, to complete a ten year sentence for burglary in Georgia. Extradition of Salter was authorized by Governor Richardson early Monday.
Resin can be obtained from the cupinole tree of tropical Mexico.

THE GREATEST FOOTBALL PLAYER

JIM THORPE, THE INDIAN, COULD DO ANYTHING ON A FOOTBALL FIELD.

FRANK HINKEY, OF MALE, IS CONSIDERED BY EXPERTS TO BE THE GREATEST FOOTBALL PLAYER OF ALL TIME.

Who was the greatest player in all football history.

Was he end, back or some secluded linesman whose great play performances were hidden by scurrying legs and brawny, struggling bodies?

The past is like a fog that hides all detail. A freighter looks more and more like a graceful liner the more the fog engulfs her. The old-time stars in sport appear greater as the years slip by and they drift deeper into the mists of the past.

Frank Hinkey, of Yale—how many football fans of today have ever heard of Hinkey? Yet he was the greatest of all football performers as the modern game is played.

Hinkey was chosen as end on Camp's All-American team for four straight years. That was a year back in 1911-2-3-4. Yost of Michigan, Brandt, Al Sharp, Walter Camp, Daly of West Point, and others agree that the old Yale end gets the call over the field as the greatest football player of all time.

This fellow's great ability as a winning factor on his team was not alone confined to his marvelous playing ability. His fighting personality dominated the entire team and drove it on to superhuman deeds upon the gridiron. The fact that three decades have failed to dim his personality and method of playing football, stamps him as the greatest of all time.

Jim Thorpe, of Carlisle, while a more versatile player, was streaky, careless and indifferent at times. There was nothing the great Indian could not do on the football field. He had a better physique and probably more all-around skill in the different departments of the game than had Hinkey.

Walter Eckersall, of Chicago, was a quarterback who combined great skill as a thinker and runner with prodigious ability as a drop-kicker and punter. He was probably a greater all-around player even than Thorpe.

Then comes a cry from the admirers of Ned Mahan, of Harvard, who made the All-American in 1913-14-15—and of Coy, of Yale—and Daly, who starred at Harvard and later at West Point.

About this time out West came

Heston, the hardest running back that ever wore a cleated shoe and considered by Conference states the greatest player next to Eckersall.

Every section has its favorites. The west coast its Hoppers and its Mullers, the South its McMillins, and so it goes.

We have been speaking of old times, comparatively, but to our way of thinking the player who stars in the game as it is played today is far and away more versatile than the greatest of the dim and ancient past performers.

The forward pass demands of the player of today skill that some of these old timers may never have possessed. The old-time end was required to sift through an interference and nail his man, get down on punts and follow a play around his opposite end to rescue fumbles. The end of today must be skilled at receiving and throwing forward passes. He must have the combined ability of a linesman and a running back, and on defense he must stand the brunt of the enemy's attack.

Could Hinkey have done all this?

Could he have held his own at end with Muller of California?

Then there is Gipp who, against the Army three years ago, gained close to 250 yards in one game. The Notre Dame star was not only an inspiring personality but as versatile a player as ever plunged through a line, skirted a tackle, tossed a forward pass or sent a punt booming down the field. He was fast as a streak and big and solid enough to stand the rough going.

Old-timers who crowd Gipp out of the spotlight of the "greatest player" must needs have a lot of stuff on the ball.

And how about McMillin, of Centre? It seemed he did about everything an athlete could do against Harvard three years ago. He was a great open field runner, a fine punter, a smart field general, a skillful passer and a player who drove his team mates to phenomenal deeds.

Yet after old-timers have seen these and many more perform, the same cry comes echoing back—"Hinkey was the greatest of them all!"

TOP-NOTCHER TO ENTERTAIN FANS

Sammy Waltz, Who Has Boxed Best in Country, to Meet L. Smith

By AL DIX
Of The Evening News Staff.

If Sammy Waltz, who meets Larry Smith of New York in the main event of the Glendale Athletic Club card at Hahn's auditorium tonight, lives up to his reputation, fans ought to see a real fight. We had an opportunity to look over Waltz's ring record today, and it is very impressive. He has fought all the top-notchers in his division, and his record includes the following performances: Fifteen-round draw with Benny Valger; fifteen-round draw with Al Schubert; ten-round draw with Joe Lynch; a twelve-round draw with Dutch Brandt, and a win from Battling Reddy in twelve rounds. This indicates that Mr. Waltz must have some class, and he'll need it, for Larry Smith is one of the hardest punchers in his division.

Johnny Meyers and Young Calhoun will appear in the semi-wind-up. Both are popular here in Glendale and the scrap is attracting much interest among followers of the sport.

Racer Ready for Rose
Of no less interest than the semi-wind-up and the main go is the battle between Ted Rose and Jimmy Racer. Sergeant Kearns, who has Racer in hand, states that his protégé is in the pink of condition and will wipe out the stain on his record by the defeat, which Rose handed him three weeks ago, when Racer claims he was out of condition.

Other bouts carded are Billy Kelly of Pasadena and Joe Thompson of San Pedro; Young Gonzalez and Otto Wallace. In addition there will be a surprise curtain raiser.

McGraw System for Braves' New Chief

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Before leaving today for his home in Superior, Wis., Dave Bancroft, new manager of the Boston Braves, declared that he would follow the McGraw system of directing the entire attack in his handling of the team next season.
"It is the only system," Bancroft said. "It is up to the manager to pick his move and the time for the move and take full responsibility for that action. I intend to direct the batting."

Coast League Plans for 1924 Progress in Spite of Factional Differences

By F. A. GRAHAM
Of The Evening News Staff.

Plans for the 1924 season in the Pacific Coast league are progressing in orderly fashion, despite the differences of the two factions, known as the "Big Five" and "Little Three," who are maintaining separate headquarters and two presidents as a result of their split at the recent Catalina meeting. In Los Angeles the Big Five have established Harry A. Williams as president of the league, with offices in the Hollingsworth building, in the strength of their combined votes cast at that meeting.

William McCarthy, choice of the little three, still maintains headquarters at San Francisco and refuses to turn over the league papers. He refuses to recognize the legality of the election on the grounds that John L. Sullivan, representing Seattle, had not been seated as an accredited representative and has no vote. Therefore, according to McCarthy's reasoning, Williams did not receive the five votes necessary to elect him. The controversy will not be settled until the board of arbitration passes on it in December, and possibly not then. If the decision goes against McCarthy he may take it to the courts.

Williams Is Competent
President Williams is thoroughly competent to administrate the affairs of the league. He has been connected with baseball for many years and is known to be fair and impartial. One of his first statements since his election was that he recognizes no factions, therefore there is no "Big Five" or "Little Three" as he sees it.

All of which is as it should be. A house divided against itself never accomplishes much. The Pacific Coast league demonstrated this itself this year when the quality of the games played dropped way below the standard because of differences with the major leagues and Pacific Coast owners' inability to make suitable deals for needed players. The New York Yankees demonstrated in 1922 that friction within a major league only burns out the bearings. They profited by that experience and played team baseball this year instead of trying for individual superiority. The result was inevitable.

Draft Controversy
One of the important questions Williams will have to deal with is the draft controversy between major and certain minor leagues. A compromise that is fair to both looms in the offing and there is every indication that this may be settled amicably to the satisfaction of all concerned by the time spring training season rolls around.

Williams stands for the betterment of baseball in general, including better pay for umpires, which means better umpires. It

PITCHER DONAHUE VISITS GLENDALE

Famous Cincinnati Hurler to Look Over Youngsters in Triple A League

"Pete" Donahue, who, with Adolph League, the Cuban, bore the brunt of the battle for the Cincinnati Reds in their struggle for the National league pennant in 1923, is in Glendale visiting friends and incidentally absorbing some of our famous sunshine, and trying to take on a little weight.

Pete already is a Glendale booster, and has nothing but good things to say of this city. "I like Glendale as well as any place I have visited in the state," he said yesterday. "Although I am wintering in California and on a pleasure trip, Moran has asked me to keep my eyes open for any promising youngsters that I may see. I intend to watch the Triple A in action next Sunday and several times this winter. I am told this league has two or three youngsters that have made quite a name for themselves in southern California."

Looks for 1924 Victory
Pete was not very talkative about the last pennant race. Naturally he feels it very keenly that the Reds were routed by the Giants in the well-remembered series between the two teams with the flag virtually at stake, when the Giants took everything Garry Hermann owned but the grandstand. He naturally is looking forward to the season of 1924, as even his boy fought.

Graw must rebuild his team if he is to appear in the premier event again next autumn. As the displacing of the Giants from the position rests with the Reds or Pittsburgh, Donahue thinks the Moran outfit has the edge, and confidently expects Cincinnati to repeat their victory of 1919.

Pete Donahue is rated as one of the best, if not the best, young pitchers in the National league, his records of 1922 and 1923 being very impressive. His arm, he says, is in fine shape, and he looks for a better season the coming year than he has ever enjoyed.

ROB THEATRE MANAGER

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—Two bandits held up Winfield Wright, manager of a theater, here late yesterday, and escaped with $2,175 in receipts. The money was scooped from a table into a sack by the bandits, who are believed to have hidden in the theater during the night.

Glendale Takes Part In National Educational Week

Throughout the land today American schools are receiving special recognition, for this is National Educational Week, and Glendale's part in this nation-wide observance is being heartily sponsored by the local American Legion post, school officials and by all cultural, civic and religious organizations. National Educational Week began Sunday, when Glendale ministers urged proper observance throughout the week and outlined benefits to be derived from a concerted recognition. Continuing on through the week the school officials and pupils are arranging special exhibits and demonstrations and inviting school patrons and friends to visit

Glendale schools, to see what Glendale children are learning and accomplishing and become acquainted with Glendale's teaching corps. America's National Educational Week was first observed by the American Legion in 1921. This year the Legion, in conjunction with the United States Bureau of Education and the National Education association, are sponsoring the week's observance. Glendale's local committee arranging the local events includes Eugene J. Wix, chairman; Richardson D. White and Rev. C. M. Caterwood. Below will be found some contributions by pupils in Glendale schools:

THE AMERICAN INDIAN

Doris Stamps, Pacific Avenue
The Indians that are living in the United States are real Americans. They are descendants of the Indians who greeted the Pilgrims, Columbus, the missionaries, De Soto, Cortez, and other explorers.

Our ancestors mistreated the Indians. They took their land and crowded them back from their homes. They destroyed their hunting grounds where they hunted and fished. They gave them whiskey. The traders cheated them by giving them few trinkets and in exchange took many furs and other articles. When they fought, the Americans were as barbarous as the Indians, although the Americans were educated and the Indians were ignorant. Later on we put them on reservations, many of which were unproductive.

We owe much to the Indian because he taught us many things. He taught us how to grow corn, pumpkins, squash, and other vegetables; how to make beaded articles, such as moccasins and bags. In time of war they fought and helped us win. The American army during the last war contained 4 per cent of the entire population. More than 5 per cent of the Indian population served, although they are not citizens.

SAFETY FIRST

When you look at a sign which has right in the middle, written in very large letters, "Safety First," does this mean anything to you? If it doesn't, it ought to.

About twenty-five years ago there was not an automobile on the street; the only way of traveling was by horse. In these twenty-five years autos have increased so that nearly every place you look you see an automobile. The auto has been the cause of many accidents, such as collisions. Many laws have been made to prevent this, but the drivers fail to obey them. Are you one of these?
The heavy traffic in cities makes every person keep his eyes in front of him, watching the traffic policeman. Sometimes a man will suddenly step out from between two cars. Then you will apply your brakes, but not quite in time, and the man is struck and seriously hurt or, perhaps, killed. An officer comes up and sees that the man tried to cross the street in the middle of the block. That is not the fault of the driver, but of the man who went rather risk his life than to walk half a block.

Sometimes children will play ball in the street and have so much interest in the game that they do not see the car coming around the corner. In a minute it is upon them, they jump to the curb, but one of them is a little slow and is struck by the car and badly hurt, besides causing a great deal of worry for the driver. Autos are not the only means of accidents. There are others, such as street cars, railroad trains, motorcycles and bicycles.

One day Jim's father bought him a new bicycle. Jim had wanted one for a long time and was very glad to get it. That afternoon Jim and his friend, Dick, went to the city to do some marketing for his mother. On the way back Jim and Dick thought they'd hang onto an automobile, but there was not an auto in sight. Just as a street car stopped at the next corner, Jim thought he would be a little braver than the rest if he would hang on the street car, so he caught on to the street car. I'm sorry to say it was the last thing he ever did.

Older people sometimes are careless as children, when they take chances with their autos, and run for street cars and don't look where they are going. If you don't value your life don't make a bad example for little children. ("Try Safety First and see if it doesn't work.")

SAFETY

Dorothy Gardiner, Acacia Avenue
There are nineteen persons in this country being injured every second, and nine persons are losing violent deaths every hour.

Many accidents occur in the home. Burns are numerous. Once a boy was coming home from school. He took up a piece of brick and tossed it up in the air. It came down upon a poor little innocent girl's head. Play- ing games of any kind in the street is very dangerous. White you are interested in the game you never notice automobiles whizzing along to knock you down. Catching on vehicles is a bad thing. I once knew a boy who got on a truck while it was standing still. When it started he fell off and broke his back.

Playground accidents happen very often—too often. Pushing one's head at a drinking fountain is dangerous, causing cuts and bruises—sometimes. Running around corners or in halls and rooms can cause falls or other serious things. I was once hurt that way myself.
Now, my dear children, attend my little talk I hope you will always obey the safety rule and make America a land of careful citizens.

FIGHT RESULTS

At Buffalo—Lee Anderson, Boston, defeated Bert Kenny, New York; Harry Cooke, Chicago, defeated Teddy Meyers, Buffalo; Bob Holmes, Rochester, and Benny Foss, Buffalo, fought a six-round draw.
At Detroit—Pancho Villa out-pointed Joey Schwartz in ten rounds; Howard Mayberry beat Joe Lucas; Frankie Beale of Muncie beat Joe Less, Newark, ten rounds.

At Salt Lake—Harry E. Kramer, Denver, outboxed Frank Buffington, Reno, eight rounds.

At New York—Sammy Noble, New York, got decision over Frankie Fasano, New Jersey, twelve rounds.

At Zanesville—Anthony Downey, Columbus, won from Joe McGee, San Francisco, in twelve fast rounds.

At Cincinnati—Jake Gross, Lima, outpointed Johnny Lucas, St. Louis, ten rounds.

ENVOY'S WIDOW DIES
LONDON, Nov. 20.—Lady Herbert, widow of the late Sir Michael Herbert, former British ambassador to the United States, died here late yesterday.

THE SUBSTITUTE CHICKEN

Glady's Muske, Broadway
It was the day before Thanksgiving. As mother always liked to prepare everything for that day's dinner, she thought she would go into the chicken yard and catch a nice fat hen. Josephine, a pet, was the best looking of the flock, but as she was not a good layer she was caught and put under a basket while mother went for the ax.

But when she returned there was no hen there. After a long search mother gave up hopes of finding her, so she had to go and catch another one. If she would have looked under a bush not far from her she would have seen Josephine wink as the other hen was put on the chopping block.
"But," thought Josephine, "It was high time for me to beat it. While my poor sister will be enjoyed with cranberry sauce, tomorrow, by the family, I'll be marching proudly in the yard."

Next morning, when mother went to feed the chickens, you can imagine how surprised she was to see Josephine running for her again.
"Well," thought mother, "you escaped me for Thanksgiving, but I will see that you get in the pot for our Christmas dinner."

THRIFT

Francis Tebbis, Pacific Avenue
Thrif is the saving of anything that is useful or might be useful in later years. One is not saving when he keeps everything he sees. There are different kinds of thrift. One is money thrift. It is best to save money when you are young. When you go to high school or college you will need the money to buy books and other articles. Do not save only your money, but invest in something that will bring you interest.

One can practice health thrift also. You can keep healthy by not eating candy, by keeping clean, by eating nourishing foods, and by taking plenty of exercise and the proper amount of rest.
Time thrift is another one. You can save time by making every minute count. Be busy at something worth while all the time. Read books worth while.

At home you can save. You can be careful of your clothes. You look better and your clothes last longer. Not only that, but you are forming habits of neatness.
You can also save at school. You can save scraps of paper to write on when you do not want to use a whole sheet. You should use your pens and pencils for what they are intended instead of for shears.

Do not cut save in a community by not pulling plants in public places, by not mutilating the trees, by not breaking the sidewalk, and by not breaking street lights.
In practicing thrift you are not only saving, but you are forming good habits in many ways.

SAFETY FIRST

Saunders Grace, Colorado Street
Hurrah! Hurrah! For safety let us shout!
For safety keeps all danger out. All the children of this town. Are working to keep danger down. Let us try to do the same. And Safety First will be the name.

If we had been working harder from the beginning of the year up to now, Glendale would not have such a serious report of accidents this year, as the following:
January—No record kept.
February—Three injured on bicycles; two injured, one on skates and one on coaster.
April—One injured hanging on running-board.
May—Two injured crossing streets; one injured on bicycle.
June—One injured on bicycle.
July—One injured coasting on skates; one injured on coaster.
August—Three injured on bicycles; one death, riding on a trailer.

September—None.
October—None.
November—One child killed by ice wagon backing over him.
The total number of children injured, reported to the Glendale police station, so far this year is nineteen, with two deaths.
Remember our watchword: For safety we work. Fighting all dangers wherever they lurk. So will rally at "Attention." We'll rally once again, shouting the battle cry, "Prevention."

SAFETY

Joseph Burris, Columbus Avenue
Safety is one of the greatest things in life to think about. Boys and girls, think of safety when you are at work or play. Most of the people that are injured were hurt in accidents due to carelessness.

It is not right to be careless in any way when you are crossing a street. You should then be thinking of safety. Do not be careless and read the paper when crossing streets. Do not hold on to passing vehicles when riding bicycles or roller skating. Do not throw banana peelings on the sidewalk for people to slip on. They might break an arm, leg or any bone of the body. Remember, A. B. C. means Always Be Careful.

CHURCH TO HAVE CHRISTMAS TREE

Broadway Methodists Plan Sunday School Treat for Youngsters

At the session of the Sunday School last Sunday morning, which had the largest attendance in its history, all departments were assembled together, and definite plans were announced for the Christmas entertainment, which will include a tree and competent committees were appointed to care for the details. The "shop early" spirit seems to have been adopted by this live school, and all preparations will have been worked out, and everything will be in readiness long before Christmas comes. The happy little tots are looking forward eagerly to the night they will meet Santa Claus face to face, and receive from his reindeer caravan, gifts specially prepared for them. New scholars were added to every department.

The young people composing the membership of the Epworth league of the Broadway Methodist

Spanish War Veterans to Nominate Officers

The Spanish War Veterans, Camp No. 67, Dr. W. C. Mabry, commander, will hold their second meeting of the month at K. P. hall, corner of Park avenue and Brand boulevard, Wednesday night, November 21, at 8 o'clock. Nominations for officers for the ensuing year will be the order of business.

The auxiliary No. 36, Mrs. Mary R. Hill, president, will meet at the same hour and at the same place.

church have put on quite a spirited "membership contest." Miss Doris Barnette and Irvin Grose are captains of the opposing teams and from the enthusiasm already in evidence the membership is expected to be doubled by the close of the contest—January 1.—The winners will enjoy an elaborate banquet at the expense of the losers.

Ladies of the Broadway Methodist church have in store for their members and friends an evening of genuine pleasure on Thursday night of this week, at which time they will serve at the church their first dinner. A splendid program has been arranged, and the eats—well they will be served in bounteous quantities, and prepared as only "southern" ladies can prepare.

NEW RESTAURANT PROVES SUCCESS

Glendale Tavern Leaps Into Instantaneous Popular Approval

The Glendale Tavern, opened recently at 1120 South San Fernando road by William Schneider and H. B. Devine, has proved an instantaneous success, its proprietors report.

Offering superior food prepared by one of the finest chefs from Europe, Eugene Maier, recently of Switzerland, whose reputation has been gained through many years in the kitchens of the leading hotels of England and France, the Glendale Tavern has established a new high level in its cuisine.

With music furnished by Lee Bergstrom's orchestra, and a superb dance floor, diners are assured of a most pleasurable evening at this new public restaurant in Glendale's fast-growing south section, states Mr. Schneider, who points out that the Chamber of Commerce luncheons are now held there every Tuesday noon, the Electric club luncheons every Thursday night, and that on Monday night, November 19, the Elks held at the Glendale Tavern their big banquet.

Public Establishment

"We wish particularly to impress people with the fact that this is a public establishment and not a private club," says Mr. Schneider. "The name, originally chosen, although, in our opinion, an ideal one, has unfortunately conveyed to some the idea that we were running a private club and that membership was necessary for admission. This is far from our thoughts, our sole object being to conduct a high-class restaurant at moderate prices, to better serve the growing public of Glendale. To correct this false impression we have changed the name, the establishment henceforth being known as the Glendale Tavern."

William Schneider and H. B. Devine are both restaurant men of many years' experience. Mr. Schneider, a resident of Los Angeles for thirty-one years, conducted the Palace cafe from 1892 until 1906, opened the Bristol cafe at Fourth and Spring streets in 1904, and in 1907 built the Bristol pier at Ocean Park. For the past year he has been connected with the Wesley Terrace at Seventh and Burlington, Los Angeles. Mr. Devine came here from Chicago in 1914 and at first engaged in business in San Diego. For the last four years he has conducted the I. D. bakery and restaurant in Los Angeles.

GROWTH IS SHOWN BY LUMBER FIRM

Bentley's Business Keeps Pace With Increase of South Glendale

The Bentley Lumber company, with headquarters at 460 West Los Feliz road, is one of the oldest institutions in Glendale. Bought out by the Bentleys in 1914 and since then operated by them with an ever-increasing degree of success, it was previously the city's first lumber yard and has been bound up indelibly with Glendale's amazing growth.

Four years ago the yard was moved to the present location, since when the growth has been particularly rapid. At the present time, according to George H. Bentley, the company employs fifty men and operates nine motor trucks, serving all parts of Glendale and Los Angeles.

The cause of growth is attributed by Mr. Bentley to the exceptional service and high quality of material offered, it being the policy of the company consistently since 1914 to give the best and nothing short of it.

Business Growing

Commenting on present conditions, Mr. Bentley states that this year's volume of business is greatly in excess of last year's. The fact that South Glendale has grown so rapidly is partly responsible for this, he states.

"I can see nothing ahead of Glendale but several years of unabated development," says Mr. Bentley, commenting on the general situation. "The demand for residence and rental property is greater than ever before, while along San Fernando road, Central avenue, Brand boulevard, Glendale avenue and Broadway, the business and income property demands on us are growing greater daily."

"Any way one views things in Glendale, the situation is not only bright but dazzling, and San Fernando road shows, perhaps, the most amazing development potentiality of all."

CONSULATE ROBBED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The American consulate at Riga has been burglarized and $7,500 in cash stolen from a safe in the office of the United States consul, the state department has been advised. Valuable papers in the safe were unharmed, a despatch said.

Hawaii, largest island of the Hawaiian Archipelago, is a little smaller than Connecticut.

COMBINE REALTY AND BOND SALES

Lincoln, Meyer & Co. Handling High Grade Securities for Investors

Lincoln, Meyer & company of 295 Lawson building, North Brand boulevard, announce that in addition to engaging in a general close-in real estate business, they are handling a strictly high grade of investment bonds, operating under a broker's certificate.

At the present time they are carrying the National City company's listings exclusively, they state, as this is a list that fully meets present requirements.

The wisdom of making diversified investments is stressed by the firm, it being pointed out that not only are high grade bonds one of the best forms of investment but that now is an excellent time to buy bonds for maximum profit, the money market being in good shape for such investments.

Bankers' Example

When numerous large eastern banks are seeking the bond market for investment, they state, it follows logically that the individual investor would do well to do likewise.

H. S. Lincoln, one of the partners in the company, built the apartments at California avenue and Kenwood street and has been a resident of Glendale for some four years, being engaged during that time in the buying and selling of property.

O. F. Meyer, the other partner of Lincoln, Meyer & company, was formerly proprietor of the Broadway garage, 721 East Broadway, and two years ago handled the Oldsmobile line, being engaged since then in the buying and selling of property.

Messrs Lincoln and Meyer, dealing as they do, in the specialized departments of both the bond and real estate business, call attention to the fact that they are in a position to offer a personal service peculiarly satisfying.

LOSES APPENDIX

Miss Elsie Verity, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Verity of 511 West Broadway, was operated on yesterday for appendicitis at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital. Her many friends will be glad to learn that her condition is reported as satisfactory.

GATEWAY MARKET HAS WIDE TRADE

Strategic Position at Corner of Brand, San Fernando, Is Asset to Firm

The Gateway market, at the "flatiron" corner of Brand boulevard and San Fernando road, has long been one of the landmarks of the city. It is in a commanding location, point out its proprietors, C. Caswell and J. C. Olsen, serving the flow of traffic on San Fernando road, and Brand boulevard.

As a consequence, the proprietors sell goods every day not only to Glendale people, but to residents of Hollywood, Los Angeles, Burbank and Pasadena, as well as intervening points. With such a large and high class trade, nothing but the very best of goods can be carried. Mr. Caswell, proprietor of the meat department, offers what he claims are without the slightest exaggeration, meats as fine as it is possible to buy anywhere in Southern California. And Mr. Olsen, proprietor of the grocery, bakery and delicatessen departments, as well as associated with E. C. Manker, in the fruit and vegetable department, carries only goods of proven first quality.

Shipment to Sweden

It therefore follows naturally that people come here and buy without hesitation, knowing that they get the best only, at fair prices, with service that pleases. A man last Saturday, bought at the Gateway market, a $20 bill of goods, stating that he planned to send them to relatives in Sweden as a Christmas present.

"Such orders are frequent," says Mr. Olsen. "We very often ship large orders of groceries east for customers. Many of the select Californian products we carry are a distinct novelty in eastern cities. As for vegetables, we have our own truck, and the driver goes to market every morning at 4 o'clock, thus getting the best on the market, at low opening prices."

A branch post office is located in the Gateway market, under the management of Mr. Caswell, the only post office this side of Broadway. Here parcel post packages, as well as letters, may be mailed and received, and money orders may be sent and stamps bought. The hours are from 9 until 5 o'clock.

Messrs. Caswell and Olsen feel a vital interest in San Fernando road, and feel the present development is but the prelude to a still greater growth.
