SENATE JOURNAL

SESSION 1965

FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,
Wednesday, February 3, 1965.

In accordance with law, at the hour of 12m, the Senate of the General Assembly of North Carolina assembles this day in the Senate Chamber in the City of Raleigh.

Honorable Robert W. Scott, Lieutenant Governor, calls the Senate to order.

The following prayer is offered by Rev. Russell B. Fleming, Chaplain of the Senate and pastor of Western Boulevard Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, N. C.:

"O Lord our God, we wait before You this day as men into whose hands have been placed a tremendous trust. Called by the citizens of this State, the members of this Body embark on the long road which shall lead through meditation, debate and decision into making choices for the welfare of their fellowmen.

Though they are joined as one in the Senate of North Carolina, we pray these men may remember that You still call them by name. We ask that You will bless them for you know them, their needs, their motives, their hopes, and their fears. Put round about them Your arms providing companionship for the lonely path they must at times walk; undergird them giving courage that they may stand firm on their convictions; live in them that Your wisdom may direct their actions.

Heavenly Father, sit at the desk with him who presides over this Legislative Body. In a special way be close to him that he may know Your hand upon him as he guides the actions taken in this chamber. May Your presence be known at each desk that truly You may rule in the affairs of men. Dear God, may they remember that You are concerned about what is said and done here, and may they have clear conscience before You, that they need fear no man.

Speak to our deepest needs, forgive us our sins, and live through each of us to Your own glory, we pray in Jesus' Name. Amen."

The roll of the Senate is called and the following Senators-elect appear with the proper certificates of election and take and subscribe to the following oath of office, which is administered by Chief Justice Emery B. Denny of the Supreme Court.

"Do you, and each of you, solemnly swear that you will support the Constitution of the United States. So help you, God?"

“Do you, and each of you, solemnly and sincerely swear that you will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina, and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof; and will you endeavor to support, maintain, and defend the Constitution of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of your knowledge and ability. Do you, and each of you, solemnly and sincerely swear that you will faithfully discharge your duties as Senators of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina to the best of your skill and ability, so help you God?”

JOINT SESSION

The Senate is received by the members of the House of Representatives standing, and the Joint Session is called to order by the Lieutenant Governor Robert W. Scott.

The President recognizes Senator Morgan who presents His Excellency, Governor Dan K. Moore, who delivers the following address:

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, members of the General Assembly of North Carolina:

We are convened here today at a moment in the history of our State when the burdens of our responsibilities as elected officials is surpassed only by our opportunities for achievement in the public interest. At this moment, North Carolina stands on the threshold of greatness. The impetus to move into this period of promise must come from you and me working together with all the people of North Carolina.

Each of you is in a position of high public trust. I know and respect the qualities of character and performance that have led to your election and re-election to these positions of service. Having served in this great legislative body, I appreciate the complexity of the many important tasks that will confront you.

Yesterday each of you swore to serve our State faithfully and to the best of your ability. I know each of you is dedicated to carrying out that oath of office. You can make this one of the greatest General Assemblies, and together we can do much good for North Carolina and our fellow citizens. As a lifelong Democrat, I am proud of the heritage of good government which the Democratic Party has made possible through Legislatures of the past sixty years.

I look forward to working closely with each of you in a constructive, cooperative effort to meet our mutual responsibilities. Together we must grasp the opportunities which are here for North Carolina. With the public interest ever foremost, you can count on my complete and untiring cooperation.

During the last year, I have traveled the length and breadth of our State—visited in each of your counties, each of your districts. I have talked at length with our people and have listened to what they have said. My inaugural address reflected the spirit of our people.

My program is designed to reflect, perpetuate and strengthen that spirit. It is my firm belief that this program will move North Carolina closer to the goal of a more abundant life for every citizen. This program will help us to realize the opportunities for achievement that are ours today as never before in history.

PUBLIC EDUCATION

If North Carolina stands on the threshold of an era of unprecedented prosperity, as we have every reason to believe it does, then the path we must follow to achieve that goal is education. It is the first responsibility of State Government and it must be given attention commensurate with that responsibility by this General Assembly.

Much progress has been made in education in recent years. Even now plans are being made across the State to utilize fully the $100 million school bond issue for capital improvements which the General Assembly authorized, which I advocated and the people approved. But, North Carolina is still behind in a great many areas of education, and now we must take specific steps to catch up.

I recommend that this General Assembly:

First, reduce class size by three in grades one through three, and by one in grades four through twelve.

Second, provide a salary increase of 5 per cent for public school instructional personnel for the first year of the biennium and 5 per cent for the second.

Third, provide additional guidance counsel and remedial teachers.

Fourth, restore the continuing contract for our teachers.

Fifth, extend the term of employment for public school principals.

Sixth, relieve students and parents of the burden of paying necessary school and book fees and initiate a study to find ways of eliminating unnecessary fees, and

Seventh, strengthen our school lunch program to insure that hunger is banished forever from the classrooms of North Carolina.

North Carolina should spare no effort to reduce the drop-out problem. We must expand the vocational training program for both young people and adults. Special classes must be provided for the emotionally ill and the retarded and for the gifted. The first responsibility, however, is to the average student; and the second is to the teacher on whom the success of any educational program rests.

We must appraise and reappraise the various experimental programs now being conducted in education. If in the judgment of our State education officials, these experiments show promise, they will be continued. If not, they should be discontinued, and new avenues sought to meet the growing challenge of education.

I strongly oppose any federal control in the North Carolina public schools system. In these changing times, however, we recognize that the federal government has involved itself in public education. There are now new laws and regulations which will change the way many of our schools are operated. As much as we dislike these changes, I remind you of our State's proud heritage as a peaceful and law-abiding people. The law must be obeyed.

HIGHER EDUCATION

North Carolina must act now to insure that its every son and daughter with a capacity for college work is given the incentive and the opportunity to attend a college of exceptional quality. This is a goal of my administration.

Our State-supported institutions of higher learning must be expanded physically and academically. I am deeply concerned about the capital improvement needs of our State colleges and the University. This is a matter which deserves your careful consideration, and I expect to speak directly to this problem in my budget message to follow at a later date.

Our facilities for vocational training, our Industrial Education Centers and our Technical Institutes, must continue to expand. Full support must be given to the community college. We must be concerned with and we must give every possible encouragement to the private and church-related institutions that have contributed so much to the well-being of North Carolina.

The University of North Carolina is today and will remain the single most important factor in higher education in our State. I am convinced of the value of the One University concept, and I will vigorously oppose any effort to deprive this State of the positive benefits of consolidation. We must strengthen rather than weaken the total University at Greensboro, at Raleigh and at Chapel Hill. In addition, I strongly recommend that the fourth campus of the University be located at Charlotte as proposed by the University Trustees and approved by the State Board of Higher Education.

I do not believe that the Trustees of the University are properly apportioned at this time. I recommend that the General Assembly appoint a commission to study the role of the Trustees in our University system, the method of their selection and the representation of the various campuses on the Board of Trustees. In view of the campus which I recommend be added at Charlotte, this is the logical time to re-examine and improve our system of Trustees. Meanwhile, when you consider the selection of Trustees at this Session, every effort should be made to equalize representation more fully.

My position on the Speaker Ban Law is well known. As important as this law is and as important as the proposed name change for North Carolina State is, neither issue should be allowed to weaken our Consolidated University. Both should be settled promptly. The welfare of the University should be your overriding concern in approaching these and related matters touching our University system.

According to the State Board of Higher Education, there will be more qualified students applying for admission to institutions of higher learning this year than can be admitted. Some applicants must be turned away because of inadequate facilities. A deepening of this crisis in higher education appears certain to develop in the years immediately ahead. This is a matter of great importance to the General Assembly, and I ask that you give this problem your full consideration.

I am asking the State Board of Higher Education to give the General Assembly and me for our joint consideration its recommendations on the request from our institutions of higher learning for new facilities. In view of the overwhelming requests for capital improvements, there must be clear-cut priorities established which are based on goals defined by our State Board of Higher Education.

HIGHWAY COMMISSION

In the interest of economy, efficiency and integrity in the building of highways, I recommend to you a reorganization of the State Highway Commission. It is not necessary that I go into all of the changes involved. A bill incorporating the details of my proposal will be introduced into this General Assembly.

Let me say, however, it will provide for a Chairman who also will have the title of Director of Highways, and who will give his full time to his duties. Under regulations previously adopted by the Commission, he will have the authority of the Commission when it is not in session.

In my proposed reorganization, the Commission will be reduced to fourteen members. They will serve on a per diem basis and will fairly represent every section of the State, but will subscribe to the State-wide concept of our highway system.

There will be a State Highway Administrator responsible to the Commission who shall be a career official and have charge of the administrative operations of the Commission.

There also will be a Director of Secondary Roads, who representing the Commission, will act in close cooperation with Boards of County Commissioners throughout the State.

The bill will provide penalties and forfeiture if public office in any commissioner or employee of the Commission shall use his official position for his own private interest. There will be an additional provision to make it unlawful for anyone dealing with the Highway Commission to promise or offer anything of value to any member of the Highway Commission or its employees for the purpose of influencing the action of such commissioner or employee.

The purpose of this reorganization will be to pinpoint clearly responsibility for the handling of highway funds, as well as every phase of highway activity, and as far as possible, to remove the construction of highways from the blight of self-interest or political favoritism. In view of the large sums that will be spent during the next four years for highways, it is essential, in my opinion, that this reorganization be adopted. It combines some of the best phases of all the reorganizations of the past and will help to guarantee that the people will get a dollar's worth of roads for every dollar spent.

If this General Assembly agrees with me and adopts this plan for reorganization, I pledge to you and to the people that I will appoint to this Commission men of outstanding experience, ability and integrity, who, I believe, will be true to their trust. North Carolina deserves and must have such leadership on its Highway Commission.

ROAD BONDS

To meet North Carolina's ever expanding road construction needs, I recommend that you authorize a $300 million road bond issue, subject to a vote of the people, to be spent over a five-year period. Of this $300 million, I recommend that $150 million be spent on the primary system, that $75 million be used for highways within our municipalities, and that $75 million be used for secondary roads. Where it would appear to be more economical, I urge that these roads be constructed by free enterprise upon the basis of competitive bids.

I recommend that this bond issue be financed within the present tax structure utilizing the one cent per gallon tax which has financed the secondary road bond issue of 1949. This tax can adequately provide for the $300 million bond issue after the 1949 bond issue is provided for in 1966. Until this is accomplished, I recommend that the debt service for the new bonds be derived from current revenues of the Highway Fund.

The legislation to be introduced will spell out as nearly as possible how these funds will be spent in each county and each municipality of the State. If the General Assembly authorizes this bond issue, the referendum should be held promptly. We need to get under way on this program which will go far toward providing North Carolina with the modern highway system which we must have to serve our people and our expanding economy.

FISCAL POLICY

We must keep our State fiscally sound. I subscribe to the doctrine of the balanced budget. I endorse the record of our State extending over many decades for economy, efficiency and integrity in fiscal affairs. Our management of the public debt of the State has earned for us an AAA rating—the highest rating for State bonds. It will be a major objective of this administration to preserve our high credit standing by continuing the sound fiscal policies that have generally been characteristic of our State since the adoption of the Executive Budget Act in 1925.

Adequate tax revenues are necessary if the State is to maintain present levels of service and meet the requirements of normally expanding services in the future. However, there is every indication that our growing economy will provide the necessary revenue to meet our State's needs. Therefore, in keeping with a promise made by me frequently during the past year, I oppose any increase in taxes.

Taxes in North Carolina are already high enough, and if it should appear that revenues are coming in at levels in excess of budget needs, I would urge that the General Assembly give serious consideration: (1) to amending the State income tax law to increase the exemption allowed each dependent from the present $300 to $600; and (2) to providing exemptions for North Carolinians who are 65 and older that are comparable with the provisions of the federal income tax law.

These measures will provide tax relief where it is most needed—among young couples with children and among our older people.

Since the relief here recommended is desirable, we will watch with interest the monthly reports of revenue collections made by the Revenue Department, which by April should forecast with reasonable certainty the size of the surplus as of June 30th of this year and the levels of revenue that may be expected in the next biennium.

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT

Industrial development is an important key to providing more jobs, more job opportunities and a better way of life for all our people. Creation of new local industries, expansion of existing industries and the location in North Carolina of new out-of-state industries will be major goals of my administration. The direct result will be a higher per capita income for our people.

Through positive, active leadership the State Department of Conservation and Development must keep North Carolina in the forefront of modern industrial growth and development. As Governor, I shall give my full support and personal attention to every aspect of the State's program. I shall call on leaders of business, industry, commerce and the professions to lend their talents and know-how to increase our rate of development and improve the scope and quality of our search for productive industrial prospects.

We must maintain the sound policy of offering new industry the same benefits and services now available to our existing industries which have contributed so much to our economic growth and prosperity.

There is a definite need for a closer, more effective relationship between the Commerce and Industry Division and all communities and counties in the State. I am giving careful study to ways and means of locating trained staff members of Commerce and Industry across the State to assist more directly in the economic development of each county.

While I doubt any additional funds will be needed, if it develops later that they are, I will ask for your support to accomplish this grass-roots program.

NATURAL RESOURCES

Our natural resources are a sacred trust passed from one generation to the next as a foundation upon which to build a better State. We are fortunate in the abundance of our resources. We have done well in beginning to conserve and develop these gifts of nature. The job is not completed, however, and our programs must be maintained or accelerated.

In forestry, we have set the pace in the Southeast but the job is far from finished. Our mineral resources must be more fully developed. Our park system is one of the finest in the country, but it has room for improvement. Recreational needs deserve your full consideration. There is still work to be done to protect our Outer Banks and other coastal areas. Our soils and our wildlife must be conserved. Our water resources are becoming more and more important. We must maintain our efforts to insure adequate supplies of clean, useable water for the future.

HEALTH AND WELFARE

The health and the welfare of our people are major concerns of this administration. State agencies with responsibilities in these fields are to be commended for their past work. One of our most urgent needs is for more trained personnel in all health and welfare agencies.

There are the underprivileged young, the infirm, the handicapped and the elderly among us who cannot provide for their own physical needs. These people must be assisted by our Department of Public Welfare, and, wherever possible, they must be rehabilitated for their own good and for the good of North Carolina.

All of us have heard there is misuse of public welfare programs. These incidents are few in comparison with the good being done. But, we do have a responsibility to correct any misuse. Much of this can be accomplished through careful administration, and I will work closely with welfare officials to bring this about.

Protection of the public health is an essential service of State Government working in cooperation with local governments. I recommend general support for the program of the State Board of Health and other health-related agencies and institutions. These and other programs supported by the State Medical Society and private medical centers throughout the State will receive my personal attention.

The mentally ill must have our special consideration. Much has been done for these people in recent years, but we still have much to do. We must carry mental health treatment to the community level. I recommend that we provide the necessary facilities to meet the needs of all our mentally ill.

Mental retardation is a problem of deep concern to everyone. Some mentally retarded children below the age of six have been denied treatment and custodial care in State facilities. This policy should be changed to provide help for the children of parents who desire such assistance.

Alcoholism is a disease which demands our immediate attention. Over 50,000 of our fellow citizens are classified as alcoholics. Considerable research is being done in this area. I urge you to study this problem and to utilize all available knowledge on the cause and prevention of this disease. I recommend the immediate establishment of two additional alcoholic rehabilitation centers—one in the eastern part of the State and the other in the western part.

I also ask you to give special attention to the varied and complex health problems that confront our older people. They have given and are giving much of themselves to the building of this State, and we have the responsibility and the privilege of working to solve their problems in the health field and elsewhere.

CORRECTION AND REHABILITATION

The administration of justice demands that punishment be given where deserved; however, rehabilitation must be the guiding principle of our prison, parole and probation agencies.

Our rehabilitation program must be strengthened and special attention must be given to the young offender, the alcoholic, and the mentally or emotionally disturbed person. Each inmate must be provided with more effective guidance. He must be given the incentive to be a more responsible and productive citizen.

Proper guidance and incentive also must be given our boys and girls who have violated the law. Outstanding progress has been made in our correction and training institutions. But nothing should be left undone to give these youngsters the opportunity to learn, to develop, and to re-enter society as responsible young men and women.

An important part of our penal program is the supervision of those on parole and probation. North Carolina has been a pioneer and leader in these fields. The State has reclaimed a great number of lives and gained considerable economic benefit because of these programs. They deserve our continued support.

COURT IMPROVEMENT

Implementation of the recent changes in the Judicial Article of the Constitution is important to the proper administration of justice. The 1963 General Assembly, as you know, established the Courts Commission to draft the necessary implementing legislation.

As a former Judge and as a citizen, I have an abiding interest in the improvement of our system of courts. Therefore, I endorse in general the recommendations of the Courts Commission, especially those to create a uniform system of lower courts and uniform court costs.

LAW AND ORDER

As I stated in my inaugural message, no one is above or beyond the law. As Governor, I shall not tolerate violence or lawlessness anywhere in North Carolina. We shall insist that the law be impartially enforced without fear or favor.

HUMAN RELATIONS

Continued progress in human relations is essential. Substantial progress has been made in recent years. Some feel we have moved too fast; others, that we have moved too slowly.

I believe and sincerely hope that we in North Carolina have come to a time of calm and sensible reappraisal in this area. North Carolinians generally have become more rational and more tolerant of the views of others and they have a better understanding of the reasons for these views.

However, a time of reappraisal is not a time for complacency. The problems have not passed. They will require our constant and sincere attention in the days ahead. I am initiating a study of the role State Government is playing in this area through such agencies as the Good Neighbor Council. If these programs are meeting the need, they should be continued. If not, we will find new programs.

I do not foresee the necessity for specific legislation in the area of human relations, but I do welcome any advice and suggestions you may have.

Your interest and mine are identical: Protecting the rights of all North Carolinians and insuring that every citizen has an opportunity to develop his talents and use these talents to help us build a better North Carolina.

AGRICULTURE

Agriculture has a time-honored place in the life and the economy of North Carolina. If our State is to move across this threshold of greatness where we now stand, our agriculture and related industry will have to provide much of the impetus. For this reason, my administration is going to give vigorous attention to all of the opportunities, as well as the problems, of agriculture.

Tobacco, our major crop, is being threatened as never before, both by over production and by a health scare. We are going to spare no effort to resolve the difficulties that confront our 165,000 tobacco farm families, and in turn, that large segment of our economy geared to tobacco. And, I include here the 40,000 North Carolinians who earn their livelihood from the manufacture of tobacco products.

The over production of tobacco has forced drastic cuts in acreage allotments. The emphasis on ever-increasing production per acre has seriously affected the quality and useability of our tobacco. The existing Federal acreage allotment program is apparently inadequate as a means of controlling production and Congress is now considering changes in it.

I recommend this General Assembly take immediate action to consider this problem of over production and changes in the acreage allotment program being recommended by our tobacco leadership. After study, I urge you to make your views known. As Governor, I will work closely with our Congressional delegation to secure necessary legislation. I need the advice and the help of the General Assembly and the people in dealing with this problem.

In view of the recent health scare, I recommend that you consider the advisability of further state research efforts in this area.

I also urge you to support diversification of our agriculture with every means at your command. Animal agriculture has a great future in North Carolina and I hope you will promote it as diligently as we do our important money crops. My administration will encourage the production, processing, packaging and marketing of a wider variety of farm products with special emphasis on food commodities. The present offers a golden opportunity for North Carolina to move more into the market for processed foods and we intend to make the most of this opportunity.

In all our efforts to take advantage of agriculture opportunities, I intend to use the experience and programs of our State Department of Agriculture and North Carolina State and the various farm organizations. My cooperation with them will be coordinated through my Special Assistant for Farm Affairs, with the advice of my Agricultural Advisory Committee.

BANKING, TRADE AND COMMERCE

Operating within the scope of present law, our banks are meeting their responsibility in the economic development of our State. They are able to earn reasonable profits within the framework of the existing laws. Therefore, I would oppose any effort to increase the legal interest rate in North Carolina.

North Carolina must be alert to the fact that American business is highly mobile and has become more and more interstate in nature. At the present time there is no one body of law governing commercial transactions in this State. As a result, our businessmen, their customers and suppliers in this and other states are often handicapped by the lack of uniformity of commercial law between North Carolina and other jurisdictions. In view of this need, I request that you give careful consideration to enactment of the Uniform Commercial Code.

UTILITIES

North Carolina is very fortunate in the quality of its utilities and in the dedication to public responsibility so frequently evidenced by the people who control those utilities. I do not think we could find a better example of this dedication than the unselfish manner in which the private power companies and electric cooperatives recently resolved their differences.

This settlement was, of course, in the best interest of the parties concerned, but much more significantly, it was in the interest of this State and its future. All who had a part in these deliberations are to be commended. It is my sincere hope that their recommendations will meet the approval of the General Assembly as well as the municipalities and others who have an interest.

All of our utilities should be encouraged to expand their facilities wherever it is necessary to provide more electric power, more gas, more telephones, and better transportation services for our dynamic, growing State. Our Utilities Commission should be constituted and staffed so as to protect fully the public interest and all consumers.

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

The fields of science, research and technology are increasingly important to North Carolina. We have an advantage in these fields. However, we must act now to utilize this advantage to the fullest.

My administration accepts the responsibility of providing the leadership that will coordinate established industrial research with related programs in the Research Triangle and in our universities.

STATE PORTS

The State Ports at Wilmington and Morehead City are of increasing importance to all of North Carolina. This is particularly true in view of prospects for the developing phosphate industry in North Carolina. They provide an outlet to world markets for our farmers, manufacturers, processors and producers of raw materials. They put us very much in the import and export business. I urge the General Assembly to take the necessary action to develop further these facilities so they may be utilized more fully and effectively.

EMPLOYMENT AND JOB OPPORTUNITY

The primary purpose of our efforts in industrial development and agriculture, in business development and research and other economic activity is to raise our per capita income. We want everyone to have a chance to make his own way in a competitive, changing society. We want all North Carolinians to enjoy a full, abundant life.

Our State has been blessed with stable and productive labor-management relations. During my administration, I will work to maintain this record. I believe every man and woman should be free to join or not join a union. Unions have contributed substantially through the years to improving the lot of the working man. I do feel, however, that unions have an obligation to develop programs that will attract members voluntarily. Our right-to-work laws should be retained.

MINIMUM WAGE

I favor fair and adequate wages for all North Carolinians. I would favor raising the minimum wage to one dollar per hour provided present exemptions are maintained and provided that marginal jobs and businesses would not be eliminated.

I recommend you make a thorough study of the situation before any change is proposed in our minimum wage law.

FEDERAL-STATE PROGRAMS

It is encouraging that the new Federal-State programs such as the Appalachia Bill and the Economic Opportunity Act place strong emphasis on the role and responsibility of State Government. We must be prepared to use these Federal programs wisely for the benefit of our people. This will require careful planning, competent staff and the full cooperation of local government and others concerned. As the State needs are clarified in the coming months, I shall ask your consideration and support for additional State funds or State programs if they are required to implement new Federal legislation.

STATE EMPLOYEES

An important factor in the operation of economical and efficient State Government is qualified, experienced, dedicated personnel. North Carolina has been and is today fortunate in having such employees. To insure this quality of personnel, it is necessary to provide more adequate compensation for our employees.

In the interest of holding and attracting well-qualified personnel and in recognition of the rise in the cost of living and the quality of past services, I recommend a ten per cent pay increase for all State employees subject to the Personnel Act. I further recommend that a study be made of per diem allowances, travel compensation and longevity pay provisions to ascertain if they are adequate.

I am confident that State employees will cooperate in seeking to improve efficiency in State Government. Each employee must set a personal goal of giving a day's work for a day's pay. Every department and agency can seek ways of improving its own performance.

As one example, I recommend the General Assembly closely review the new State positions created in recent years and those being requested this year. I am told there are now two thousand job vacancies in State Government and that some of these have been unfilled for some time. I urge your careful consideration of this matter and the elimination of any of these positions that are unnecessary.

HIGHWAY SAFETY

North Carolina has made tremendous progress in many areas. This has not been true in the area of highway safety, however. We have failed to curb the deaths, injuries and property damage on our highways.

In 1964, highway accidents killed 1,575 people in North Carolina. This was an increase of 194 persons over the year 1963. There were injured on our highways 50,000 people. There were 80,164 motor vehicle accidents. On our highways there was economic loss reported in the amount of $283,500,000. This amounts to one person being killed on our highways every five hours; one person being injured every eleven minutes; one accident occurring every six minutes; and an economic loss to our State of $776,000 a day.

These problems have outgrown any State agency. I propose to make highway safety a direct responsibility of the Governor's Office. The 1963 General Assembly created the Governor's Coordinating Committee on Highway Safety. The purpose of this Committee was to bring together all existing governmental agencies and others to discuss and find ways to make our highways safer.

This Committee has already met in my office and as a result of this conference I have asked the State Highway Commission to have its Traffic Engineering Department immediately make a thorough re-analysis of all our accident locations. This analysis will cover our entire 72,000 mile highway system. There is already under way a study to determine the location and type of sub-standard and non-uniform traffic signal installations.

I have directed the State Highway Patrol to redouble its efforts to enforce motor vehicle laws vigorously, fairly and impartially. The Highway Patrol also has been directed to concentrate its manpower and equipment on our public highways and roads. There will be a re-examination of administrative procedure which might be eliminated or revised to permit more active patrolling of the highways.

I urge all of our courts to cooperate in the program to halt death, injury and destruction of property on our public highways and roads. I now ask the judges and prosecuting attorneys of the various courts to try to plan their dockets to allow troopers to spend as much time as possible on the highways.

In the near future I want to come back before this General Assembly to make specific recommendations on legislative changes or new laws which we feel are necessary to curb highway bloodshed. Today, however, I have one recommendation: I recommend that you enact a periodic automobile inspection law. Studies indicate that a reasonable motor vehicle inspection statute can bring an immediate reduction in the number of motor vehicle accidents.

If I were to call upon any person to lend me his total time and energy to prevent the death of another human being, I believe that he would immediately volunteer his time and ability. If I were to ask any member of this General Assembly to join with me to save one life, I believe you would do so gladly. What I am really asking this General Assembly to do is join with me in saving thousands of lives.

I now call upon the members of this General Assembly, every State employee, every person connected with the courts of this State and most of all, every person in North Carolina, to lend me their aid and their assistance to stop this needless and awful toll. When the people of this State demand that we form a climate for highway safety, we will succeed in stopping death and destruction on our highways.

If you will go into the halls of any hospital in this State, you will find beds filled with human beings who are maimed and broken for life because of traffic accidents. And when we consider the toll of the dead, which continues even as I speak to you, I think you will agree that insofar as this problem is concerned, the hour is indeed late!

The State of North Carolina has more activities, more programs and more services than I can possibly mention or discuss in this message. Any omission or failure to mention one of these services does not mean that I think any less of its importance or its assigned responsibility in State government. In this message I have attempted to outline those major areas in which my administration will attempt to make primary contributions during the next four years. I also shall have additional messages which I may submit for your consideration during this session.

It is our joint responsibility to carry forward programs and services which are of lasting value to the people of North Carolina, to nurture them and see that they obtain the financial support which they must have. There are always hard appraisals to be made in many basic areas of State service. It is our inescapable responsibility to ask questions, to re-examine existing programs and to determine what value they may have for the next two years, and in the years beyond. To carry out my job as Governor, I shall seek the best advice I can find, always placing the public interest foremost among all considerations.

Again I say, North Carolina stands at this moment on the threshold of greatness, looking toward an era of unprecedented prosperity and growth. To meet the challenge of 1965 and the years ahead, each of us must contribute the best we have to offer. With your understanding, your guidance and your support, we can realize this dream for a greater North Carolina.

It is also my hope that every man and woman in our State will share in this endeavor. We want them to feel that they can make a contribution, no matter how small, to the building of a better North Carolina.

With the help of Divine Guidance, we shall build a great and good community, representing the hopes, the dreams and the aspirations of all our people. Let us begin that task with confidence and faith in the great State we are privileged to serve.

Upon motion of Senator Evans, the following statement by Senator Scott with reference to S. B. 10 is ordered spread upon the Journal:

ENROLLMENT PROJECTION

The need to reexamine the problem of rising enrollment and its effect on the University in the decade ahead is urgent. We are concerned especially with the rate at which each of our campuses can grow and at the same time maintain and continue to improve standards. Controlling the rate of growth in a period of intense pressure for admission will involve some difficult decisions.

This fall the University will feel the full impact of the pressure for the admission of students that has been steadily building up for almost a decade. To the many factors that have caused the recent increase in enrollment will be added the large increase that occurred in the birth rate following the end of World War II. At the end of this school year, approximately 67,000 boys and girls will graduate from North Carolina high schools. This is an increase of 14,000 over 1964. These children were born in 1946-47. Furthermore, we know that the annual number of high school graduates will gradually increase to over 74,000 in 1975.

A projection of enrollment in North Carolina colleges and universities through 1975 has just been completed. This is based on a very thorough study of birth statistics since 1945, the declining migration from North Carolina in recent years, the increased holding power of the public schools, the increased percentages of high school graduates entering colleges, the increased demand for graduate and professional education, improvement in economic conditions, and other relevant factors. It shows that 92,993 students were enrolled in all North Carolina colleges and universities in the fall of 1964. In 1965, those enrolled will increase to 107,800, in 1970 to 160,000, and in 1975 to 205,000. In 1964, 56 per cent of the students were enrolled in public colleges and universities. By 1975, it is estimated that the proportion will increase to almost 65 per cent.

There were 52,101 students enrolled in North Carolina public colleges and universities last fall. Six years later, in 1970, there will be 97,300 and eleven years later, in 1975, the public institutions will be called on to enroll 132,600 students; thus we have in prospect an increase in the enrollment in public colleges and universities in North Carolina of 154 per cent by 1975.

Last fall, 6,888 graduate and professional students were enrolled in public colleges and universities. This number will increase to 18,600 in 1970 and 31,300 in 1975. This would be an increase of 354 per cent in eleven years.

The significance for the University of the figures I have given you is startling. Last fall, there were 24,772 students enrolled on the three campuses of the University. This is 47.5 per cent of the total enrollment in public colleges and universities in North Carolina. We would have to enroll 46,217 students in the University in 1970 if we should continue to enroll a comparable proportion of the total, and the figure for 1975 would be 62,985. I give you these projections to illustrate the extent to which we may expect the pressure to increase. Of course, the community colleges should provide some relief; however, the experience of other states leads me to believe that the demand for transfer to the University upon graduation from community colleges may offset the relief at the freshman and sophomore levels.

The pressure for enrollment in professional and graduate programs, the areas for which we are by statute responsible, will be the greatest of all. In the fall of 1964, there were 4,986 graduate and professional students enrolled on the three campuses of the University. This was 72.4 per cent of the total enrolled in North Carolina public colleges and universities. A comparable percentage of the total would give us 13,466 graduate and professional students on the three campuses in 1970 and 22,661 in 1975.

It is clear that a crisis is already upon us.

Upon motion of Senator Bailey, the following statement by Senator White of Lenoir in support of his motion to recommit S. B. 10 to the Senate Committee on Higher Education for further consideration is ordered spread upon the Journal:

The record of this bill is remarkable because:

1. Before its introduction it bore the names of 49 of the members of this body.

2. A public hearing was promptly held by the Joint Committee on Higher Education at which hearing only two persons were heard, only one was questioned and no fiscal information was elicited.

3. Contrary to usual and ordinary procedure the Senate Committee chose to act on the bill immediately after the hearing, on the same day of the hearing, and without discussion or other consideration, the bill was given a favorable report by what I would call a tacitly affirmative vote of a majority of the Committee; in fact it was reported that there was only one dissenting vote.

I recite this record for three reasons:

1. It is remarkable.

2. The facts in this record are germane to what I desire to say to you today.

3. The facts disclosed by the record of the bill's progress to this time, and the inadequacy of information regarding the fiscal phases of it concern me deeply.

Let me digress here long enough to say to you that I respect the judgment of every member of the Senate. I also respect each member's inherent right to make his or her own decision or commitment; and I respect the right of each member to act and vote as he or she may choose. I also recognize the wisdom and perhaps the duty of each member of this body to examine and to re-examine a position taken if the position is taken or a commitment is made under a misapprehension of what the facts really are, or in the absence of pertinent information which would or might have resulted in an erroneous conclusion or subscribing to an untenable position.

I want to say to you here and now that I have no criticism to make of anyone's action in regard to this bill. I congratulate each of the Senators from Mecklenburg upon the effective and energetic manner in which they have sought the Senate's approval of this bill. I fully understand also how Senators gave their assent to being included as introducers of this bill. It was difficult for me to withstand the persistent and persuasive attempts of Senator Belk, one of the Senators from Mecklenburg, to gain my permission to include my name on the bill as one of the introducers. I was tortured by my restraint. It is always much easier to accede to the earnest requests of a friend and colleague for help than it is to withhold assistance. I like to feel that my natural bent is to be helpful but in this instance my conception of my duty and my responsibility to the State and to the General Assembly of North Carolina was involved. The responsibility, which was mine as a member of and as Chairman of the Advisory Budget Commission, and the responsibility, which is currently mine as Chairman of the Senate Committee on Appropriations, require that in the discharge of my legislative duties which relate to or involve the fiscal affairs of the State I must proceed in the light of available facts or facts which are or may be or which ought to be disclosed by due inquiry. I, therefore, conceive it to be my duty to make due inquiry in regard to this bill and to look farther ahead than what may appear on the surface to be desirable.

I recognize that educators are sincere if somewhat idealistic; I recognize also that educators are not the only ones who are idealistic. Few are they who come before the Advisory Budget Commission or the Joint Committee on Appropriations without zeal for their causes; and almost none are they who are able to confine themselves entirely to hard, logical fiscal facts and who acknowledge or appreciate the fact that our responsibility as legislators requires us to consider every request for an appropriation in the light of the availability of funds, known commitments and in the light of the basic needs of all State-supported institutions.

Let me assure you, with humility, that in my adherence to what I conceive to be my duty I consider that I have done exactly what I would hope each one of you would have done had you been in a like position to mine.

Let us examine the bill together and see what it does and what is the actual import of this legislation:

1. The bill envisions an important expansion of the State's system of higher education.
 - (a) The proposed expansion is important to the University.
 - (b) The proposed expansion is important to the State.
 - (c) The proposed expansion is important to the taxpayers.
2. If the expansion is authorized by the General Assembly it will have a profound effect upon the fiscal policies of the State's higher education system and we need to know:
 - (a) The amount of appropriations necessary to be made now.
 - (b) The amount of appropriations necessary to be made in the foreseeable future.
 - (c) What effect or impact these appropriations will have on other State-supported institutions of higher learning.
 - (d) What effect, if any, these appropriations may have upon appropriations necessary for the support of other State institutions.

So to summarize the legislation now before us, we have a matter of great importance from the standpoint of policy. The question there is: Shall the State of North Carolina embark upon an expansion of its system of higher education or not? We are told that there is a need for another unit of The Consolidated University. If we accept this, then the question arises: How can this need be best fulfilled? From a fiscal standpoint, we have several questions which are ever present: Can the State afford this? Can this be done without harm to other State-supported institutions? Will the recurring and continuing costs justify the ends sought to be achieved? What are the costs at present and what will they be in the foreseeable future? Of course, other questions arise which need not be mentioned at this time.

It would be my view, that if we are to establish a unit of The Consolidated University of North Carolina at Charlotte, it should be done in a respectable manner, and to use the vernacular, I would say: "Let's do it right." And let's let it come at a time and in a manner to be worthy of the name of The University of North Carolina. In this connection, let me point out that you cannot have a first class unit of The Consolidated University of North Carolina at Charlotte or anywhere else without being willing to pay what the best usually costs. Let me raise two questions with you: Are you perfectly satisfied that there is a need for the establishment of a unit of The University at Charlotte based upon what you know of this bill at this time? That is the first question. If you are satisfied, then you are concerned only with the next question, which is:

How much will this cost now and in the foreseeable future, and what effect will it have upon the State's ability to continue adequate support for other institutions? What information do you now have as to costs? Do you know what an appropriate budget for such an institution for the next biennium would look like? Do you have any information as to what capital improvements would be necessary or advisable? As a matter of fact, have you been given any fiscal information on which you could compute the cost in dollars and cents?

If you are satisfied on the first question as to the need or advisability and you are also satisfied as to the costs, then you are ready to vote. I most respectfully submit that unless you are satisfied on both questions or if you have any misgivings about either one of them which would only be erased or alleviated by further information, then you are not ready to vote.

If we pass this bill without giving it the careful consideration it deserves, the tides affecting our shores will continue to ebb and flow; the mists will continue to rise from our valleys, and the clouds will embrace our mountain peaks as often in the future as they have in the past. The plan of salvation will not be altered. Even when we do our best and base our decisions upon all information available, we are, in the language of the late Chief Justice Stacey, "Required to act in the searchlight of prevision and we are judged in the noonday of hindsight."

I want to speak to you plainly. The Charlotte College bill is not my greatest concern. Other bills have concerned me just as much. Other bills affecting State policy and involving great expense have been passed without a price tag. And this bill can be passed without a price tag having ever been placed upon it, if you say it must.

If you pass this bill now and get it on its way your act will be applauded by many. Prominent and important people in Charlotte will speak well of you. From among sophisticated educators, and from those who are dedicated to the continued growth of the city of Charlotte without regard to anything else, paeans of praise will ascend. The Board of Education may applaud you; and some of the members of the Board of Trustees of The Consolidated University may approve your action. But if you decline to act upon this bill until it has been carefully considered, there are still those who will thank you. Other educational institutions dependent upon the State for support will thank you for your care. If they could comprehend the matter before you, the unfortunates in our mental institutions and in our State-supported hospitals and centers for children and adults who are crippled in both mind and body would be grateful to you. Those persons, firms and corporations who pay tremendous amounts in taxes, and the little taxpayers who labor day by day on our farms and in our mills and factories, and those who otherwise toil with their hands, all of whom must trust you to spend their money wisely, will appreciate your care and concern, if you carefully consider this bill!

And for my part, I humbly implore you to remember that our Ship of State is never more safe than when her course lies within the bounds of the channel marked by known aids to her safe navigation. Careful consideration in Committee is one beacon which we ought always to head. If we do consider this bill carefully, we will have discharged our duty, and our Ship of State will, in this instance, be protected against the hidden dangers which may lurk beneath the surface on the shoals of our haste, and upon the jagged rocks of our ignorance of available facts.

In a moment I will leave this lectern. In doing so I do not intend to relinquish the floor. When I have returned to my seat I will make a motion for your consideration which will give you an opportunity to act without retreating from any commitment you may have made. I do not assume to ask that you vote against this bill. I do ask that you give consideration to the motion which I shall make, and after you have given it such consideration as you may wish to give it, I then ask that you vote for the motion.

Upon motion of Senator Morgan, the Senate adjourns to meet tomorrow at 12 M.

The Lieutenant Governor recognizes Senator Seay, who presents His Excellency, Governor Dan K. Moore, who delivers the following message: Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, and Members of the General Assembly of North Carolina:

It is my responsibility as Governor to give you my recommendations and comments on the 1965-1967 State Budget as proposed by Governor Terry Sanford and the Advisory Budget Commission. As you know, the General Statutes require the outgoing Governor to prepare and submit budget recommendations to the General Assembly, and, thus, you understand that this budget is not the work of my Administration. It is my duty to advise you on how I think the budget can and should meet the needs of our people for the next two years.

Since I delivered my Legislative Message on February 4, I have made an intensive study of the entire budget. I have spent many hours with budget and fiscal officials. The time so spent, in my opinion, will considerably lessen your labors in arriving at a proper budget.

In addition, I have considered many budget requests and proposals which are not included in this present budget. A great deal of my time has been devoted to listening and talking with legislators, and a wide range of people representing public schools, higher education, health, welfare, economic development, highways, utilities, transportation, communication, and many other areas of State governmental service. I was impressed with the genuine concern and the sincere interest of these people who seek to promote many and varied programs and projects. I share most of their concerns and recognize the many unmet needs which were presented.

We as elected officials are confronted with the task of constructing a balanced State Budget which, in our judgment, will make the greatest contribution to our State for the next two years within available revenues. As you know, I campaigned vigorously for this office with the full understanding that I would not recommend any tax increases. Many of you did likewise in your campaigns for the General Assembly. Therefore, my recommendations are made with the belief that there will be no new taxes enacted by this General Assembly.

At the same time, in view of the very heavy demands upon all available tax resources, I must reluctantly conclude and recommend that you not make any tax reductions at this session. We will need every tax dollar available to meet the genuine needs for State governmental services during the next two years.

I have been impressed with the vigorous and vocal support which the advocates of education, health, welfare, etc., give to their causes. We must remember that economic wealth must be created, through the efforts of our people, before it produces the tax revenues we need to pay for increased State spending and services. I hope that all advocates of more services will support with equal vigor all local, county and State efforts to develop new and expanded industries, more productive businesses, diversified agriculture and other enterprises.

If you agree with me that taxes should not be increased, then it is clear that firm priorities must be followed in the construction of our 1965-67 budget. We may not wish to choose between many good and worthy programs. It is not easy to say that one program deserves more attention than another, and, yet, that is exactly what we must do. The results of your deliberations in adopting the budget will not fully satisfy the requirements of all State agencies and institutions, but it is your responsibility to determine how available funds can be most wisely spent at this time. I have every confidence in your ability to do the job. I shall help you in any way that I can.

My message is an attempt to assist in your deliberations by giving you, upon the best advice available, my major program recommendations. I also shall give you the best available estimate of the amount of budgetary resources which I think will be available for you to appropriate in 1965-67.

It is my hope that you will be able, through the maintenance of sound fiscal policies, to move forward towards the realization of our goals. All constructive legislation is a product of compromise, but the reaching of a consensus through give and take does not mean that we surrender our goals.

Before I outline my specific recommendations, I would like to express appreciation to the General Assembly for its prompt and thorough consideration of legislation which will authorize a $300 million road bond issue, subject to the vote of the people, and which will enable my Administration to reorganize the State Highway Commission. May I also commend you for selecting Charlotte College as the next campus of the Consolidated University of North Carolina. I think this expansion will mean much for North Carolina in the years ahead.

After careful consideration of the recommended budget and the estimated revenues which will be available for the next biennium, I recommend that you take these specific steps to meet the most pressing needs of the public schools.

As the first step, I recommend that class size be reduced by three students in grades one, two and three. Motivation for learning must be instilled in a child during his first school years, and this motivation and early training can best be provided in smaller classes. Therefore, I recommend that an additional 1,472 new teachers be placed in our first three grades, at a cost of $16,101,065, which includes retirement, social security and sick leave.

The "B" Budget recommendation would have reduced class size by one student in all eight elementary grades at a cost of $11,503,868. Thus, my recommendation would require only an additional $4,597,197 over the Budget recommendations proposed.

This reduction in classroom load by three in the first three grades will be a great benefit to our school children in their most formative years, enabling our teachers to give more individual attention to the needs of each child.

If revenues should increase beyond present estimates, I would recommend that the General Assembly seriously consider reducing the number of students per teacher by one for grades four through eight, as recommended in the present "B" Budget. This would provide 637 additional new teachers at a cost of $6,972,552, which includes retirement, social security and sick leave.

As the second step, I recommend salary increases for public school instructional personnel who are paid from the nine months' school fund, at the rate of 5 per cent, to be effective July 1, 1965, at a cost for the biennium of $24,823,455. I recommend an additional 5 per cent increase, to be effective for the second year of the biennium, at an additional cost to the nine months' school fund of $12,499,930. The total cost of both these increases for the biennium, to be paid for the nine months' school fund, would require $37,323,385, including retirement and social security. The recommendations of the "B" Budget provide for salary increases of $15 per month beginning the second year of the biennium at a cost of $6,738,380. Thus, the increases which I recommend would actually require an additional $30,585,005 over the budget recommendations for instructional salaries in the public schools.

I also recommend comparable salary increases for teachers of vocational education. Funds to support these salary increases can be provided by redirecting non-State funds for vocational education, which are now included in the recommended "B" Budget.

The third step which I recommend would provide for 85 additional remedial teachers. They would teach children suffering speech and hearing difficulties, those who suffer from crippling physical impairment, those who are visually handicapped, and those children who are hospitalized, or who are not physically able to attend public school. While their number is small, these children must not be neglected by our public schools and their needs are just as important as those of other children. I, therefore, recommend an appropriation of $930,394, which includes retirement, social security and sick leave, for the biennium to meet this need.

There are presently 604 full-time and part-time guidance counselors employed in our schools. They are paid from federal funds provided by the National Defense Education Act, from State funds, and from local supplements to these funds. Their work is of great value to all our children, and I urge that local school units be encouraged to use more of these skilled services.

As you recall from my Legislative Message, my fourth recommendation involved the restoration of the continuing contract for our public school teachers. No additional funds are required to carry out this recommendation, but I strongly recommend that these contracts be made available to our teachers.

Our public school principals need to have an extended term of employment so that they will serve and receive salary for a period of ten and a quarter to eleven months each school year, depending upon the size and type of the school. As my fifth step, I recommend the extension of the term of our public school principals. This would require an additional $633,910.

To achieve my sixth step, I recommend that the State appropriate $3,381,416 for purchase of supplemental elementary school books, based upon $2 per elementary student, which will eliminate these book fees. The elimination of all school and book fees would require a total appropriation of at least $13,121,348, but I believe that the General Assembly should take this positive action on elementary school book fees at this time. This would be a clear indication of your intent to prohibit elementary supplementary school book fees, and to relieve students and parents of the burden of paying all school and book fees at the earliest possible time.

My seventh, and final, recommended step in assistance to public education would be to remove hunger from the classroom. You cannot teach a hungry child: nourishment for the body is an absolute prerequisite for nourishment of the mind. We have tried a new experiment in the school lunch program which has already shown astonishing results. By adjusting the allocation of Federal funds for school lunches, 87 schools in economically depressed areas were given increased funds to provide lunch for needy children. Within two months, marked improvement in attendance and participation at these schools was apparent. The number of lunches served increased 47 per cent. School attendance improved 10 per cent.

There are now 141 schools in North Carolina where economic conditions prevent sufficient local support and do not allow full participation in the present program. Less than 40 per cent of the children in these schools participate. Under Title I of the new Aid to Elementary and Secondary Education bill now before Congress, sufficient federal funds may become available to meet the needs of these schools—plus additional assistance to all North Carolina children whose families earn less than $2,000 per year. As you know, the State has never given financial support to the school lunch program. However, if additional federal assistance does not materialize in this session of Congress, I recommend that the General Assembly appropriate $808,732 to provide State support for school lunch programs in these schools having the greatest need.

We should encourage those counties that are not currently taking advantage of the surplus food program for needy families to participate so that the children and other members of the family can get three nutritious meals seven days a week.

One major goal of my legislative program is a 10 per cent salary increase for all State employees under the Personnel Act. It takes qualified, experienced and dedicated people to operate our State government. In my opinion, the best way to maintain the quality of personnel and to attract well qualified people in today's highly competitive manpower market is to use the "across the board" method. It gives a substantial increase to all employees, including the lowest paid and those career employees, many of them technically trained, that are the heart and the core of our State government. The total cost of this raise, including social security and retirement, is estimated to be $36,124,046 with $12,131,764 coming from the Highway Fund; $4,511,634 coming from Special Funds, and $19,480,648 coming from the General Fund.

Since the State Personnel Act was adopted in 1949, the State of North Carolina has established, at considerable cost in money and time, a system of classified State positions with a standard salary scale commensurate to the duties and responsibilities of each job involved. To provide a fair and equitable salary increase for all State employees under this Personnel Act, an "across-the-board" percentage increase is the only fair and equitable method to raise and adjust salaries at the same time by legislative enactment. The need for an increase is just as urgent for the long-time career employee making $5,000 as it is for the new State employee who is beginning employment at $2,800. From the standpoint of the State as an employer, it is much harder to fill the middle and upper salary bracket job with a qualified person than it is the lower salary position where applicants are many and the turnover is more rapid. Often the State must attempt to recruit these "middle management" people from the ranks of private industry where salaries and benefits are higher than those offered by State government.

Since 1957, State employees have received legislative salary increases of approximately 10.8 per cent as compared with an approximate 26 per cent legislative salary increase for public school teachers. I believe all of these increases were necessary, but, in fairness to the State employees, it is obvious that they have not received the same consideration as our school teachers. In the last General Assembly, State employees received a legislative increase of $10 per month as compared with $15 per month for teachers for the first year. In addition, the teachers received another $10 per month for the second year while the State employees received nothing additional. You have already heard my recommendation for substantial increases for school instructional personnel for each year of the next biennium.

In view of the continuing rise in the cost of living, and the vital need to retain competent, efficient State employees, I believe that a 10 per cent pay increase for all State employees under the State Personnel Act is clearly justified.

The State Department of Conservation and Development must keep North Carolina in the forefront of modern industrial growth and development. As I mentioned earlier, we must create economic growth which provides more jobs, more tax revenues and a higher per capita income for our people. To provide a closer, more effective relationship between the Commerce and Industry Division and all our communities and counties, I suggested during my campaign that an industrial development representative from the Department of Conservation and Development be placed in each Congressional District. After considerable study, I now believe that these services can best be provided by five regional offices established by Conservation and Development across the State from which trained staff members in industrial development and community planning can be available to assist the economic growth of each community and county. I believe this extension of present services can be accomplished primarily with existing personnel. To establish these new offices on a regional basis would require an appropriation of $75,000 for the next biennium.

In my Legislative Message, I recommended the immediate establishment of two additional alcoholic rehabilitation centers—one in the eastern part of the State and the other in the western part. I feel strongly the need for these centers, and I am hopeful that from the Capital Improvement Budget the General Assembly can find sufficient funds to provide them.

The recommended budget calls for total expenditures of $2,071,524,286, with $1,099,512,488 being appropriated from the General Fund. In keeping with the trend of recent bienniums, this is the largest budget ever recommended for the consideration of the General Assembly. It reflects the normal growth of such vital governmental services as public schools, community colleges, higher education, public welfare, health, public safety and regulation, correction, highways, natural resources and recreation, agriculture, employment security, retirement and pensions, and debt service. This budget report also reflects the tremendous amount of hard work and careful consideration which obviously was given by the members of the Advisory Budget Commission, who represent the General Assembly, the State of North Carolina and the people of our State.

Now that we are farther along in the fiscal year, with long-term trends becoming more and more apparent, we are able to project the amount of the State's budgetary resources with a much greater degree of accuracy than heretofore. From information coming in to us from the Commissioner of Revenue, the State Treasurer, the State Budget Officer, and the Director of Tax Research, we are now able to predict that these resources will exceed previous estimates for the General Fund by $68,217,705. This amount is now available for appropriation over and above the estimated amounts recommended in the "A", "B" and "C" budgets.

Our first revised estimate comes from the State Treasurer. Because of the over-realization of earlier General Fund revenue estimates, with the resulting increase in the amount of funds available for the Treasurer to invest, it is now estimated that the return on these investments will be $7,300,000 for the present fiscal year, and the same amount for each year of the coming biennium. These projections amount to $5,150,000 more than the estimates used by the Advisory Budget Commission.

The economy of the State continues on the rise and tax collections continue to improve. In view of these healthy conditions, the Commissioner of Revenue's new estimates of General Fund tax revenues are $480,381,366 for the present fiscal year; $516,505,218 for 1965-66; and $537,070,000 for 1966-67. These projections amount to $43,005,780 more than the estimates used by the Advisory Budget Commission.

Reversions represent appropriations which are not spent, and, therefore, are another source of funds to be considered for the next biennium. It is difficult to determine the amount of 1964-65 reversions until the accounts are closed at the end of the fiscal year. The State Budget Officer now estimates that General Fund reversions for fiscal 1964-65 will amount to $14,800,000, all of which will remain with the State Treasurer as a part of the beginning 1965-67 Credit Balance, and thus be available for re-appropriation by the General Assembly. This revised estimate is $2,800,000 more than the estimate used by the Advisory Budget Commission.

In addition to these General Fund Resources just described, I am advised by the State Treasurer that by adjusting the dates of the principal repayments on the $100,000,000 School Bond issue and on the recommended $17,985,000 Legislative Bond issue, the Debt Service requirements for 1965-67 may be reduced by $5,261,925. This additional amount also is available for appropriation by the General Assembly.

In my Legislative Message I expressed my concern about the capital improvement needs of our State agencies, State colleges and the University. It is apparent that the $34,878,785 recommended for capital improvements during the next biennium is not adequate. During the past month, I have sought to find other resources which might be applied to this great need. I am pleased to report the availability of a non-recurring fund which can and should be used to supplement the capital improvement program for 1965-67.

It has been called to my attention that a substantial General Fund "windfall" has now resulted from the installation of the "pay as you go" withholding individual State income taxes adopted by the General Assembly of 1959. When this plan was adopted, the State had no experience upon which to base its rates for withholding. It had to guarantee that the amount of taxes withheld would be substantially the same as the amount of taxes due. To insure that money would always be available for tax refunds due individuals who overpaid their taxes, the Revenue Department very properly set up a reserve fund for payment of these refunds. This withholding reserve was not included, of course, in revenue estimates furnished by the Commissioner of Revenue.

I am now advised by all the officials directly concerned with the fiscal affairs of the State—the Treasurer, the Commissioner of Revenue, the State Budget Officer, and the Director of Tax Research—that our experience with the individual withholding tax has proved the accuracy of our withholding rates and that the maintenance of this reserve fund is no longer required. The State can safely pay its tax refunds from current collections.

We are in the fortunate position to realize a "windfall" of approximately $12,000,000 from this reserve fund at the end of this fiscal year. I have requested the Commissioner of Revenue to place these funds with the Treasurer to supplement the June 30, 1965, General Fund credit balance as a budgetary resource for 1965-67. I repeat, this is a non-recurring item which should be used for capital improvements only. This will give us a total of $46,878,785 in the General Fund Capital Improvement Budget and this amount, with proper allocation, will meet the most pressing needs of our State.

This appropriation for capital improvements would exceed by more than $11,400,000 the average biennial capital improvements appropriations for the last 10 years. The average during this period was $35,403,657. It should be remembered that during this ten-year period there were no capital appropriations in 1955-57 and only $8 million in 1961-63.

As you know, the State now has a $100 million bond issue approved for public school construction, and our local administrative units are in the process of issuing approximately $200 million in bonds. In addition, this General Assembly has approved a $300 million road bond issue, subject to the vote of the people. In view of all these facts, and the $2 million in new funds now available, I do not recommend a capital improvements bond issue at this time.

The recommended capital improvements do not include any college dormitories. They must be constructed on a self-liquidating basis. I share the reluctance of the State Board of Higher Education in approving this approach to dormitory construction, but do agree that this policy is necessary for the next two years as a stop-gap measure.

If you appropriate the funds for my program as recommended, plus everything recommended in the "A", "B" and "C" budgets, this would cost approximately $4,275,000 more than the total resources now available. Obviously, you and I know that we must adopt a balanced budget, and I will work with you toward that end. I believe the difference can be found in economics which should be effected in the recommended budgets, or in additional resources which may become available later in this session. I will work closely with you and your committees in finding a solution to this problem.

As I stated earlier, all the budget requests are worthy of careful consideration and represent actual needs. In view of the limited tax resources which are available, the General Assembly must give objective appraisal to all these requests and determine the priorities which must be made at this time.

As only one example, I would cite the Community College program as a major area of activity which deserves your careful appraisal. Satisfactory progress appears to have been made in this new Department of Community Colleges. However, the General Assembly must determine the rate of acceleration and development in this new field of State-financed education beyond the high school. It would be well to re-examine the original concept of the community college program with reference to geographical locations, needs to be met, and the arrangements for State support. We must not overlook that North Carolina has 44 private and church-related colleges which offer many educational resources that should not be duplicated by State-financed community colleges.

I would like to emphasize that I believe in the value of a sound, carefully planned, well-financed community college program. These institutions, along with existing private and church-related schools, can expand the reach of our educational system to many additional students and help take the pressure off our State-financed, four-year colleges and the University.

I am certain that there are other major governmental areas in the proposed budget where economies can be effected. You, as representatives of the people, are free, of course, to make your own appraisal and evaluation and assign your own priorities.

As you begin your final study and consideration on the 1965-67 budget, let me pledge to you that my administration will make every effort to see that your final appropriations are spent in accordance with legislative intent. We shall strive mightily to achieve new economies at every level of government. We shall study the functions of agencies to eliminate duplications and unnecessary programs. Good government is a habit in North Carolina—and we expect to continue and strengthen that habit.

In my inaugural address, I visualized a great future for our State within the structure of what I call the great and good community. I renew here and now my faith in the vision that I saw at the hour of my inauguration. We will not reach all of our goals during this session of the General Assembly, nor during the next, but we will move closer and closer toward the great goals that we have set. The broad outlines of the great and good community are beginning to come into sight. As the years pass, we shall all contribute to making this a reality. But in the very nature of our society, our program will never be finished, for the greatness and the goodness of our people come in the struggle to achieve rather than in satisfaction with a fancied perfection.

Thank you.

Upon motion of Senator Kemp, the following remarks are ordered spread upon the Journal:

Mr. President, Lady and Gentlemen of the Senate:

Being on excused absence because of sickness when the Senate met on Friday, April 2, I would appreciate being recorded as voting "No" on H. B. 94, which increased from $12 to $20 the per diem allowance for members of state boards and commissions and in effect means a retroactive subsistence allowance increase of $8 per day for members of the General Assembly.

I have no argument with those who contend that the present $12 per day subsistence allowance is totally inadequate to meet expenses incurred by members serving in the General Assembly. My opposition to H. B. 94 is predicated on the fact that members now serving in the General Assembly knew before seeking office the amount of compensation and subsistence they would receive for Legislative service. It is my contention that any subsistence increase should have been made effective for members who will serve in the 1967 General Assembly.

Therefore, if I had been present when the Senate met on April 2 I would have voted for the amendment sent forward by the Senator from Orange, Senator Matheson to postpone the effective date of the subsistence increase and, subsequently against H. B. 94.

Senator Ed Kemp.

Upon motion of Senator Scott, the following remarks of Senator Jones on Senate Committee substitute bill, as amended, for H. B. 24, a bill to amend Article I of Chapter 116 of the General Statutes of North Carolina pertaining to the name or designation of one of the constituent institutions of higher education comprising the University of North Carolina, are spread upon the Journal:

Mr. President and Members of the Senate:

For some two years there has existed throughout this State a highly charged emotional issue concerning the name of North Carolina State College. There has been expressed by some of you and others that to change the name to N. C. State University would deal a mighty blow to consolidation, but I respectfully submit to you that the strained feelings over the question of the name has done more to agitate deconsolidation than any name that we could possibly give the West Raleigh institution. I firmly believe that unless this General Assembly satisfactorily settles this matter it will become a major issue not only in legislative races in '66 but in the Statewide races in '68 as well. So, rather than a continuing fight building up misunderstanding and destroying little by little the "one university" concept, I urge you to take the long viewpoint and vote for this amendment and once this has passed this Senate and later been adopted by the House, let us then all join hands in an atmosphere of understanding, and push united in purpose for a greater Consolidated University which can become the envy of all educational systems of this nation.

Upon motion of Senator Scott, the following remarks of Senator Whitehurst on Senate Committee substitute bill, as amended, for H. B. 24, a bill to amend Article I of Chapter 116 of the General Statutes of North Carolina pertaining to the name or designation of one of the constituent institutions of higher education comprising the University of North Carolina, are spread upon the Journal:

Mr. President and Members of the Senate:

Within the framework of the Consolidated University System, North Carolina State College had become a major institution widely recognized as an admirable center of scientific and technical knowledge. Within this framework, its reputation had advanced and its identity had been clearly established. Moreover, its reputation and identity originated from and was distinctly dependent upon the concept of consolidation.

Traditionally, the segment of the Consolidated University located in Raleigh has been designated "North Carolina State College" by the public generally; and the General Assembly ought not to strive to change the custom of the people unnecessarily. Therefore, this amendment to Senate Committee Substitute for H. B. 24 represents an effort to unite the custom of the people and the authority of the General Assembly by retaining both consolidation and N. C. State's identity and by giving it an appropriate deserved name—North Carolina State University at Raleigh.

While this amendment clearly establishes and strongly reiterates a firm position in favor of consolidation and while I have publicly stated my own support of consolidation many times before the Senate Committee on Higher Education and in the Senate Chamber, let me now declare and cause to be printed in the Journal of this Senate that the policy of consolidation is an essential element to higher education in this State. Not one of us present desires to change the one-university concept in North Carolina; nor should we change the recognized custom of many years when it does not infringe upon the policy of consolidation. To change the name of North Carolina State of the University of North Carolina at Raleigh to North Carolina State University at Raleigh is to give an appropriate name to a fine institution within consolidation.

Upon motion of Senator Scott, the following remarks of Senator Rowe on Senate Committee substitute bill, as amended, for H. B. 24, a bill to amend Article I of Chapter 116 of the General Statutes of North Carolina pertaining to the name or designation of one of the constituent institutions of higher education comprising the University of North Carolina, are spread upon the Journal:

Mr. President, Lady and Gentlemen of the Senate:

I rise in support of the amendment, which in effect places House Bill 24 before the Senate again.

Those of us who have supported the oneness of names for the various campuses of the University, have done so because we believe it essential to the concept of a unified consolidated university.

However, we are convinced that even if we stalemated the bill now before us, our efforts would only tend to further divide our schools and to multiply our problems.

Therefore, our concern here, it seems to me, is for the well-being of all our campuses. In the present long, unwieldy and difficult name of the Raleigh campus, we must recognize the significance of Chancellor Caldwell's report to the Board of Trustees last fall, when he stated, "A continuation of dissatisfaction with the recently conferred name of the institution, which is general and widespread, concerns the alumni leadership. Apparently, the subject will again be placed before the General Assembly in January 1965 or at some later session."

I am heartened, after conferring with the proponents of this amendment, by their wholehearted willingness to help carry out the provisions of this amendment which in part reads, "The University of North Carolina shall constitute one university, and the only university primarily dependent for its support on the State of North Carolina. Without diminishing its consolidated, merged, and unified status, the University shall be comprised of constituent, subordinate, and component institutions and campuses of higher education which, for the purpose of maintaining their traditional and historical identity and integrity, shall be lawfully known and designated only as provided in subsection (b) of this section." This is so necessary if we are to maintain the standard of academic excellence in our institutions of higher learning.

In President Friday's report to the Trustees last October one pertinent statement reads, "To have a great university, it is necessary that the authority to administer it be vested appropriately in its faculties, its administrative officers, and its trustees. Historically, the University of North Carolina has been favored in this respect."

Mr. President, no university is better than its administration and its faculty. These are the precious human equations upon which great institutions are built and maintained.

It is my sincere desire that we may recognize this in these legislative halls. We can quickly undo what it has taken generations to build.

In this spirit, I hope the Senate will by a unanimous vote approve this amendment and vote then to pass the amended bill.

Upon motion of Senator Scott, the following remarks of Senator White of Lenoir on Senate Committee substitute bill, as amended, for H. B. 24, a bill to amend Article I of Chapter 116 of the General Statutes of North Carolina pertaining to the name or designation of one of the constituent institutions of higher education comprising the University of North Carolina, are spread upon the Journal:

Mr. President and Members of the Senate:

I am sure that everyone knows that it has been my position that it would have been a great day for North Carolina if students and alumni of North Carolina State College could have accepted the name, The University of North Carolina at Raleigh, along with the responsibilities and benefits which have come with being a part of the Consolidated University. I have it on very good authority that it is the will of this Body that the name of State College be changed today. To that extent, I am thoroughly in accord. I think it has had for two years the clumsiest name of any institution of respectability or that any school has ever had. It has been the source of considerable embarrassment.

The amendment offered would change the name to North Carolina State University at Raleigh. I want to congratulate the alumni on their success here. It has been my position always that we should do whatever each of us thinks is in the best interest of the University. Wounds have been sustained on both sides. I feel confident that the proponents of this amendment realize the responsibility which would go along with this amendment. I want to make a plea to the Senate and to everybody here who is interested in the University of North Carolina to put his shoulder to the wheel and accept the responsibilities that come with being a part of the University—in the hope that alumni, students and all others will let these wounds be healed, and that no one will be so little, or so devoid of concern for the future of the University of North Carolina, as to rub salt into these wounds. In that hope, I intend to vote for the amendment.

Upon motion of Senator Morgan, the Senate recesses for the purpose of meeting in Joint Session with the House of Representatives for the purpose of hearing the Governor's message, and upon dissolution the Senate will return to its Chamber and resume consideration of business.

JOINT SESSION

The Senate is received by the members of the House of Representatives standing, and the Joint Session is called to order by Lieutenant Governor Robert W. Scott.

Senator Cook, on the part of the Committee appointed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives to escort the Governor to the Hall of the House, presents His Excellency, Governor Dan K. Moore, who delivers the following message:

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Members of the General Assembly, and my fellow North Carolinians.

You know why I am here today. You know that I will present to you a Highway Safety Program and that I will urge that it be made into law.

First, I must convince you and the people of North Carolina that there is an urgent and a desperate need for immediate action.

I must drive home to you that this is a matter of life and death. A matter that just cannot wait any longer. A crisis that must have official and complete action. Now. Not later. Not half-way. Not piece-meal . . . but a total program which must not be delayed any longer.

Shall I start by showing you photographs of dead bodies? I think not. You've seen the smashed cars and the bloody bodies before . . . many times. But each time, the sight made only a momentary impression—to be forgotten only five minutes or five miles later.

How about these? At my hand is all that remains of one-thousand, five hundred, seventy-six human beings. They're dead. All killed in a single year, last year on North Carolina highways. These are accident reports that describe tragic events that affected thousands besides the victims.

There are thirty times this many who suffered painful, agonizing injury. The actual number is 49 thousand.

Did those figures mean anything to you? Or were they just more of the same old numbers we've heard before—and dismissed from our minds?

Well, then try these numbers. Listen to them carefully because they spell out an epidemic more deadly than disease.

In the last four years alone, highway deaths in our State have increased 25 percent.

Injuries are up 42 percent.

Total accidents have jumped 38 percent.

At the same time, the number of vehicles in our State increased only 18 percent.

These are not just the same old figures. This is a runaway that must be stopped before it is a stampede.

With only 18 percent more vehicles, we are killing 25 percent faster.

Injuring 42 percent faster.

And smashing into one another 38 percent more often.

Of course, that's only the human loss. The economic loss involves about 293 million dollars. That's about 800 thousand dollars a day!

Accept this as fact! Traffic accidents are an epidemic . . . and they are out of control. On top of this, imagine what will happen as we add nearly a hundred-thousand more cars and drivers each year.

We must realize the urgent and desperate need for action.

We must have the courage to make laws and spend the money—without compromise—to meet this matter of life and death, and control it now! . . . That our people may not die.

What shall we allow to stand in our way?

Can we wait for some magic solution to come along?

Can we afford to pat ourselves on the back and say, "We are doing all we can?"

Can we justify further delay with empty words like "inconvenience"?

The answer to all of these questions is no!

There is no single solution.

We have not done all we can to protect lives and property on the highways.

We must not; we cannot let individual inconvenience block our determination. Neither you nor I can afford to let our political ambition or popularity stand in the way. Our obligation to the men, women, and children of North Carolina demands that we take firm action. Now.

If the traffic accident toll stops rising in North Carolina, it will come from action in this session of the General Assembly.

The program will be built on a foundation of laws. It will involve the cooperative action of highway engineering, driver licensing and examination, law enforcement, driver education, driver improvement, motor vehicle inspection, research and the administration of justice.

All of these efforts must be grounded in the latest knowledge available in physics, in civil engineering, medicine plus psychology, sociology and mass communications. A total program of coordinated action.

We can stop the increase in accidents in North Carolina if you give us the laws. We cannot wait for individual drivers to be shocked into saving themselves. Only the people as citizens, acting through their elected representatives, can provide the tools to save lives on our highways.

Here are our primary goals to improve highway safety.

1. We must obtain, through administrative action and direction, greater use of existing manpower and resources.
2. We must make greater use of modern knowledge and existing research in helping solve these many complex problems.
3. With legislative support, we must strengthen existing programs and use new methods which have proven effective in our State or elsewhere.
4. We must obtain greater public understanding and support.

NORTH CAROLINA TRAFFIC SAFETY AUTHORITY

In order to make greater use of existing resources, we must have greater coordination of traffic safety efforts among the various agencies. The results will total more than the simple sum of their individual efforts.

I recommend the General Assembly create by formal statute a coordinating board to be known as The North Carolina Traffic Safety Authority.

Its principal efforts would be:

1. To develop the State's Action Program for Traffic Safety.
2. To provide continuing guidance of the State's overall attack on accidents.
3. To guide the State's efforts to inform the people about traffic accident prevention programs and to make clear the individual responsibilities of motorists and citizens. I know that we can count on the full support of all news media to make the most effective use of safety information.

Traffic safety in North Carolina should no longer be thought of as the province of any one agency. It should command all of the State's resources and cooperation. This new relationship must be fully understood by everyone.

Membership of the Traffic Safety Authority would include: the Governor, as Chairman; the Commissioners of Motor Vehicles, Insurance, Labor and Agriculture; the Chairmen of the State Highway Commission, the Industrial Commission, the State Board of Education, and the Utilities Commission; the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Health Director, the Attorney General; the President of the North Carolina Traffic Safety Council; and a member of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker; and a member of the Senate appointed by the President of the Senate.

UNIVERSITY HIGHWAY SAFETY RESEARCH CENTER

We must close the gap which exists between knowledge created by research findings and its use in saving lives on our streets and highways.

We must harness the knowledge which is already available on the campuses of our colleges, universities, and research centers. We can and should utilize immediately the knowledge which is already existing in the scientific disciplines.

We need a central location with a small staff to provide for the orderly use of university personnel who will consult with the North Carolina Traffic Safety Authority and separate agencies of state and local government.

Therefore, I recommend the creation of a Highway Safety Research Center within the University of North Carolina.

The Center first would encourage university-wide involvement in the State's total accident prevention effort and would provide objective analysis of our current safety programs all across the board—from driver improvement to public education.

Second, the Center would coordinate and participate in professional treating of the hundreds of people already on the job in the traffic field in North Carolina. The improvement of the skills and knowledge of those already in the field would yield great benefits without great expense.

Third, the Center would coordinate all research in traffic accident prevention in our colleges and research centers.

A biennial budget of $100,000 would be sufficient to establish the Center.

UTILITIES PROVEN PROGRAMS

Now let us look at our third primary goal; to strengthen existing programs and use new methods which have proven effective in our State or elsewhere. To achieve this goal, we must direct our efforts at the environment in which the driver operates, and at the driver, himself.

I am convinced that the quickest way to improve the environment for our motorists is to remove unsafe vehicles from the highways. The only effective way to reduce this major hazard is to require the periodic inspection of every vehicle registered in the State.

I know some of you feel that mechanical failure is not a significant cause of accidents.

DEFECTS IN ACCIDENTS

Mechanical defects do cause accidents. About ten percent of the accidents in North Carolina are caused by mechanical defects, according to our own accident records.

Other states and research show much higher proportions.

Twenty-one states have reduced accidents as soon as inspection programs were put to work. North Carolina's one-year experience in 1948 saw a reduction of more than 100 fatalities (or 12 percent) from the previous year.

The year after the inspection law was repealed, the toll jumped by more than 100 lives and has been climbing ever since.

North Carolina is suffering the loss of more than 100 lives every year that it delays adoption of motor vehicle inspection.

UNNECESSARY REPAIRS

Some people fear that an inspection system using private garages will result in unnecessary repairs.

The bill I am recommending provides for safety inspection of only those items absolutely essential to safe operation—brakes, lights, steering mechanism, horn, and windshield wipers, tires and directional signals where required. The bill provides no higher standards for these items than what is already required in our present statutes.

The bill provides for inspection stations to be selected and supervised by the State. The stations would be checked on a regular basis and complaints from car owners would be investigated and corrected promptly.

Cars failing to meet the minimum standards could be repaired at any firm of the owner's choice and would be re-inspected free of charge. Cost of inspection would be $1.50 with 25¢ being turned over to the State to make the program self-supporting.

INCONVENIENCE

By far the most common objection to inspection is the bad memory of the 1948 experience and the fear that any system would cause undue inconvenience to the public. It is the easiest objection to overcome.

This bill will require one inspection per year and inspection dates will be staggered throughout six months so that only one-sixth of the State's vehicles would be inspected in any one month.

All of the objections we might mention would add up to a fear of improper administration of any inspection program.

I pledge to you and the people of North Carolina that there will be a reasonable and proper administration of this program.

Vehicle inspection will not solve the entire accident problem. But it promises more results faster than any other single bill you will consider in this session. Without its passage, I see little hope for an immediate impact on the rising accident toll.

REFLECTORIZED PLATES

A very promising safety device on the vehicle to improve the environment of drivers is the reflectORIZED license plate. At night, they are visible three times farther away than ordinary taillight reflectors. Seventeen states and the District of Columbia are reducing nighttime collisions by using safety plates.

The approximate cost for North Carolina to institute reflectORIZATION of plates would be 13¢ per plate. I recommend you adopt these new plates as a one-year experiment to test this device in our State.

Since 1966 plates are already in production, a change-over could not be accomplished until the 1967 issue. This would provide ample time to obtain basic data on nighttime collisions to assure a thorough and meaningful comparison.

OUTSIDE MIRROR AND SEAT BELTS

As another means of providing safer vehicles for our motorists, I recommend a law to require outside mirrors on the driver's side of all new cars sold in North Carolina after January 1, 1966. I am pleased to learn that auto manufacturers plan to install seat belts in the front and back seats of all new cars beginning next year. This is a further step in the right direction and complements North Carolina's efforts to establish seat belts as standard equipment.

THE HIGHWAY

The $300 million bond issue you have approved will be helpful in providing safer highways. I shall also make a number of requests to the Highway Commission to increase the portion of highway funds now being used to mark and sign the highways and to reduce current engineering hazards. No additional legislation is required at this time.

All of the above items deal with the environment of drivers. They seek to produce safer vehicles and safer highways. The following items are those which show the greatest promise in improving the habits of our drivers.

DRIVERS

DRIVER EDUCATION

In combatting the problem of driver errors, the most effective long-range plan yet devised is driver education. We must raise a new generation which is fully armed for survival in the automotive age. Young people have the most to lose in traffic accidents and we must teach them that it is smart to be safe.

To do this we need to provide the established 36-hour driver education course in the public schools for every new driver under the age of 18 in or out of school. We must also have a renewed safety education effort throughout all grade levels in the public schools.

It will cost approximately two million dollars per year to put this program into effect. The direct savings on insurance premiums paid by our citizens will exceed this investment.

COURTS

The front line of our attack on problem drivers is the court system. A top priority need to correct their behavior is a system of uniform courts called for in the constitutional amendment for court reform. Swift enactment of the court legislation now before you is vital to all of our efforts aimed at making safe drivers out of dangerous drivers.

ADDITIONAL PATROLMEN

North Carolina needs 333 additional highway patrolmen in order to reach the upper one-third of states which are properly matching their fatal accident experience with sufficient law enforcement coverage.

Each additional patrolman will cost $10,000. I have carefully considered the question of how many patrolmen to ask you to authorize. Keeping all of our needs in mind, I recommend the addition of 50 patrolmen in each of the next four years. I hope that at least that number will be added every year afterwards until the manpower of the patrol reaches accepted standards.

I pledge to you that this administration will make every possible effort to see that our highway patrol stays on the highway, patrolling. And I shall work with court officials to reduce as far as possible the patrolmen's time spent in court.

DRUNK DRIVING

Drunk driving is one of the most criminal acts modern man can commit. So often, innocent people are the ones who suffer from wrecks with drunk drivers. We have a good law in this connection and it should not be weakened. We will watch with interest further experience with the chemical test provisions.

DRIVING AFTER REVOCATION

Persons whose licenses have been suspended or revoked have committed sufficient unlawful acts to force the State to remove them from the highways. That is, the State has used the last resort to improve their driving habits and there is no recourse left but to take away their privilege to use the highways.

When persons are convicted of driving after suspension or revocation of their license they should by law receive a mandatory jail sentence of from two to 90 days. I recommend you pass such a law.

ADDITIONAL LICENSING STEPS

The following additional steps in improved driver licensing should be enacted:

Convictions for flagrant violations out of state should be considered in assessing points under the Driver License Point System.

We should include 18 and 19 year old drivers under the provisional license law which now covers drivers from 16 to 17.

We should approve the driver license compact to establish the concept throughout the United States of one State license for drivers. This will prevent the eventual federal licensing of drivers.

DANGEROUS LOOPHOLES

Two loopholes in North Carolina's motor vehicle laws allow drivers who are found guilty of traffic violations to escape the recording of "points" on their violation records.

PRAYER FOR JUDGMENT CONTINUED

The effect of "prayer for judgment continued" is that the judge finds the defendant guilty but no judgment is entered. Technically, the case is not closed and therefore, no points can be assigned to the individual's driving record.

"NOLO CONTENDERE"

The plea of "nolo contendere" amounts to an admission of guilt for the proceedings at hand and cannot be admitted into subsequent litigation. Technically, the Department of Motor Vehicles cannot consider such a plea when it has the discretionary authority of assigning points.

Both of the above conditions are defined as final convictions under North Carolina's Financial Responsibility Law, but are not so considered under the Uniform Driver's License Act.

Thus, the purpose of the point system is defeated. The Driver's License Act should be brought into conformity with the Financial Responsibility Law. The assignment of points should depend on the factual realities of a driver's conduct, as decided by a court, and not on courtroom technicalities.

FINANCES

Obviously, there is a price tag on most of the items we have listed. Let me list them:

	Biennium
Highway Safety Research Center	$ 100,000
Driver Education	4,245,273
Reflectorized plates	285,000
100 additional patrolmen	1,000,000
Total	5,630,273

Funds for the Safety Research Center and for driver education will be made available through the General Fund. Dr. Charles F. Carroll, Superintendent of Public Instruction, informs me that, in view of the enactment of the Federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act, the funds necessary to finance the driver education program can be found in the recommended budgets for the nine-months school term. We will work together with the appropriations committee to make the adjustments necessary to accomplish this program. This will not affect other recommendations which I have made concerning the public schools.

Funds for the reflectorized plates and the 100 additional patrolmen will be made available through the state highway fund.

Certainly there are some costs involved in the total program, but we are dealing with a matter of life and death and untold property destruction. The success of this program will justify the expense involved.

When we consider the cost of this safety program, please remember that highway accidents cost North Carolina $800,000 each day of the year.

Everyone of us pays this unnecessary penalty.

Accident prevention does not cost—it pays.

LOCAL ACTION

I have described to you a comprehensive program for the State of North Carolina. Since almost half of our non-fatal accidents occur within city limits, municipal governments must also participate in this total, state-wide campaign to reduce the highway toll. I urge local officials to support this state program with maximum local effort.

Established guidelines for obtaining official coordination and organizing citizen support are available through the North Carolina Traffic Safety Council to cities of 5,000 population or more. The Council is eager and ready to provide full field services to those municipalities who seek help in a coordinated attack on traffic accidents. New programs are being developed and will be announced when completed.

The safety program which I have recommended to you is reasonable. It is realistic. It is the result of weeks of concentrated work by competent, experienced safety people. I am convinced that it can get results.

First, it brings together the many different proven means which have saved lives in North Carolina and other states . . . means which are acceptable to the public.

Second, it commits all of the State's resources in an organized effort to save lives and property.

Third, it makes maximum use of the knowledge which modern science has made available.

Fourth, it provides for improved public understanding and support.

But remember that there is no single, magic solution. No quick cure. Many have thought they had found one. Only to be disappointed.

If each of us understand now how many, many factors are involved, and realize the urgent and immediate need, we shall have a total program of coordinated action. And that program will work.

This is a beginning that can pay off now and in the long-run. But a beginning that must start here.

Now!

With you!

Your action can make it a reality.

You actually have the power to save human life and to prevent the staggering economic losses resulting each day from highway accidents.

Use that ability! Exercise that power without delay and without compromise. Join with me in placing above political popularity or ambition our obligation to the men, women and children of North Carolina.

Thank you.

REMARKS OF SENATOR WHITE OF LENOIR

Upon motion of Senator Morgan, the following remarks of Senator White of Lenoir are ordered spread upon the Journal:

In today's (May 18, 1965) issue of the News and Observer.

Under the heading: "The Inside News" the following appears:

"Senator White predicts the General Assembly will remain in session until late July. Page 6."

Then you turn to page six and you find a headline:

"White says Assembly Will Stay Until July"

The first sentence of the story is:

"Senator Thomas J. White of Lenoir predicted Monday the General Assembly would not adjourn before late June."

Farther on in the story this appears:

"White, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, said a subcommittee working on the biennium budget behind closed doors, would take "ten to 14 days" to complete its work. He said that floor action would take about two weeks and that "after that, we can start thinking about adjournment."

This would put adjournment not earlier than the week of June 21—five days earlier than the 1963 session ended."

What I said was: that "in my opinion the subcommittee on Appropriations would complete its work within the next 10 days or two weeks; after we get the bill out we can start thinking about adjournment in about two weeks. I think we can adjourn about the 3rd week in June." If "floor action" on the Budget Appropriations Bills takes two weeks, Chairman Zollicoffer and I are going to have a lot rougher time than I think we are.

There is a wide difference between what I said as to the probable time of adjournment and what the News and Observer said I said. Certainly I did not say "late July"—I don't think the word "July" was mentioned. No specific date was given—only an estimate of "around the 3rd week in June."

Mr. President, last Sunday night I was among the guests of the News and Observer celebrating its 100th year of existence. It was a very enjoyable occasion. The guest speaker is the editor of the Wall Street Journal. Nothing was said about accuracy or what the News and Observer's policy may be as to making an effort toward achieving accuracy, if indeed it has one. I feel sure the reporters, and occasionally the editors think about accuracy—I doubt that the headline writers think much about it.

I like to give folks the benefit of the doubt—even newspapers—even "The Old Reliable", the News and Observer. So, Mr. President, in this instance I want to say that I like to think that the News and Observer has been trying for 100 years to achieve accuracy. I'm confident that sometime in the past 100 years it has achieved accuracy to a high degree. And as it embarks upon another 100 years of publication, if it should include accuracy as one of its objectives, I wish for it much progress in that direction—and who knows, in another 100 years? Well, maybe I just ought not to make another prediction.

Upon motion of Senator Johnson, the following remarks are ordered spread upon the Journal:

Mr. President and Members of the Senate:

The statement I am about to make is not going to be popular either with the members of this body or many people at all levels in State government; however, sometimes it becomes necessary for members of the General Assembly to risk temporary unpopularity to call attention to conditions totally incompatible with one's thinking. I speak of the ten percent raise for State employees to be applied on an across-the-board basis. The amount of money involved is not what I object to. This amount is probably needed, and possibly even more; but the principle in my opinion is entirely wrong. Our State employees have done, and are doing, a wonderful job, but many inequities exist. Some of our employees are woefully underpaid; whereas, many others are compensated at, or above, pay levels for comparable jobs in private industry. Studies have corroborated these inequities. Passage of this bill will not correct, but will indeed magnify, these inequities. Two years ago in this same chamber this same proposition was submitted to the membership of this body. It was soundly defeated. Seventeen of us who are here today voted at that time and rejected this principle by a vote of 14 to 3. However, this budget item and this proposal is but a small part of the measure before us at this time. I will vote aye, and yet feel very strongly that what we are doing here today is imminently unfair to both the taxpayers and to our State employees; and my conscience dictates that I make this statement and the same be spread in the Journal of the Senate.

H. B. 14, a bill to make appropriations to provide capital improvements for State Institutions, Departments and Agencies.

Upon motion of Senator White of Lenoir, the rules are suspended and the bill is placed upon its immediate passage.

Passes its second and third readings and is ordered enrolled.

ONE HUNDRED EIGHTH DAY

SENATE JOURNAL,
Tuesday, June 8, 1965.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment, and is called to order by Lieutenant Governor Robert W. Scott.

Prayer is offered by Rev. Russell B. Fleming of the Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, N. C.

Senator Cook for the Committee on Journal announces that he has examined the Journal of yesterday and finds the same correct, and upon his motion the reading of the Journal is dispensed with and it stands approved as written.

Upon motion of Senator Morgan, the following remarks of Senator White of Lenoir with respect to S. B. 552 and the editorial comments thereon in some newspapers are ordered spread upon the Journal:

On this 8th day of June 1965, I employ the time-honored device of rising to a point of personal privilege. My purpose is to be helpful, to such degree as success may attend my effort.

There is abroad in our State much mis-information. The subject is S. B. 552, which I introduced as being necessary or advisable or both. The authors and distributors of this mis-information are the editors of some of the larger and more irresponsible daily newspapers. It may be that other news media are in league with them. I know that some of them are not—and I know that the thoughtful editors of the State less given to emotional upset will require complete information before publishing their opinions.

So far as I know, the editors who have published editorials concerning this bill made no effort to discuss the provisions of the bill with me before launching their attack upon the bill; they hastily concluded that it is a bad bill; with great emotion one editor characterized it as "another 'gag-law' imposed on the State-supported institutions of higher education."

It can be said that if the dire consequences predicted by these editors were inherent in the bill they would be justified in criticizing its provisions—but such is not the case. There is no justification or excuse for the whining and barking of these editors concerning what they choose to call a "power grab". More ridiculous is the suggestion that any one member of the General Assembly ever has the power they seem to fear, or little enough sense or sufficient lack of patriotism to use it if it existed.

One trouble with these editors, which is patently apparent in most of their editorial comments is that they don't know what they are talking about. They set up their ill-considered conclusions and mount their great white stallions and ride to the attack, bent upon impaling the bill's introducer and all who disagree with their conclusions, on their respective lances. This, apparently, is the way they see themselves. They seem to live in constant fear that members of the General Assembly are continually conspiring to do the things that they themselves are conscious of desiring to do for their purposes. When I was a boy I knew a fellow who had the sorriest aggregation of rabbit dogs I ever saw. One was a big old collie with a sharp nose and little beady eyes; another was part hound and part bulldog; a third was a nervous little fice. The fice had some puppies. Every once in a while each one of them would think he had jumped a rabbit, and give loud and excited mouth to his claim; all the others would conclude that the quarry had been sighted, and some sounded like the quarry was a bear or even a lion or a tiger. Somehow these editors remind me of my friends' rabbit hunting dogs—at times they were a bit noisy. He was not eminently successful—and even he didn't think much of his dogs.

The charge that the Advisory Budget Commission is seeking additional power stems from the fact that I am a member of it; the charge that the Advisory Budget Commission or any member of it, especially I, myself, seeks to "deepen political control over higher education" may arise out of the vindictiveness of these editors, or the concerned apprehension of educators—and in each case the charge is unfounded.

Let me now undertake to disabuse your minds of any apprehension which may have arisen out of the publication of these unfortunate, unfounded, vicious and assinine charges:

North Carolina operates on a balanced budget. Budgets are prepared two years in advance. Many buildings are constructed with funds provided by Foundation grants, other gifts, and with federal funds. Every building accepted by the State must be maintained, operated and otherwise provided for at State expense. This calls for utilities, heat, maintenance, repairs, housekeeping and other personnel. Many programs for research and other educational purposes are inaugurated by funds provided by gifts, grants from foundations, corporations and private individuals, and the federal government. Machinery, expensive appliances and equipment are provided in the same way.

In many cases programs begun as experimental are continued by the State at State expense long after foundation grants or federal funds have been withdrawn. These show up in both "A" and "B" budget requests—and some are inaugurated and continued without legislative authority and without advance budgetary procedures.

The purpose of this bill is to provide the Department of Administration and the Advisory Budget Commission with timely information as to the nature of projects or programs for which the State may in the future be asked to provide funds or support in the form of maintenance costs including the cost of personnel, to the end that those responsible for preparation of the budget may know what they are dealing with in each case. The bill seeks the advance provision of this information: A statement of purpose of the project or program. The source of supporting funds or grants. A statement of such conditions as may attend the grant. The amount should also be disclosed.

The bill contemplates the acceptance of the funds or grants involved upon approval by the Advisory Budget Commission. This has a connotation for those of us who work with budget matters, which is evidently quite different from the interpretation given by these rabbit hunting editors who mount their ivory towers day by day to tell our judges how to administer justice, our clergy how to have souls, our city and county commissioners how to conduct our municipal and county affairs, our educators what to teach and our legislators what laws to pass. Apparently it never occurs to them that all bills are subject to the possibility of amendment; that the end result is usually the product of many minds after careful consideration. In this instance all their inflammatory pratings demonstrate an abysmal ignorance of the Executive Budget Act. This bill (S. B. 522) adds nothing to the power which the Governor as Director of the Budget and the Advisory Budget Commission already have. If the bill contains language frightening to our educators and our State-supported institutions in these times of mass hysteria fomented by some elements of the press and other news media, and suffered by those who dwell in the academic world, let them be comforted. This bill will deal with grants for continuing programs—it will not militate against terminal grants for research or similar purposes. It will in no way delay or impede or diminish the opportunity to obtain grants.

This bill is necessary or advisable in connection with the work of the Department of Administration and the Advisory Budget Commission in discharge of their responsibilities. When I read the vicious editorials of these whining and barking editors, I remember that they are the self-appointed guardians of "the peoples' right to know"—I always think of the phrase "the Peoples' right to know what". "The People" are subjected to the venomous tirades of editors of this stripe against the targets of the editors' vindictiveness. I would point out to these self-appointed guardians that the State has a right to know what is expected of it in connection with its State-supported institutions of higher learning. It would be refreshing if these institutions took more pains to let the State know what goes on.

In my opinion there is a woeful lack of communication between those of us who are concerned with budgetary procedures and the heads of departments and divisions and the administrations of our institutions, which I think should be corrected and which I hope will be corrected. I pledge my efforts in that direction.

Apparently there is a two-way loss of confidence between members of the General Assembly and the administration of some units of our institutions of higher education. I believe this can be restored. With the exception of a few vicious and unpatriotic editors, so steeped in their venom that they can see no good in anything and regard every effort made by some of us as sinister and ulterior, all of us honestly and sincerely desire to advance our State and keep its institutions in the forefront of the column of the best as we and our children seek our destiny. This cannot, in my opinion, be achieved without calm and thoughtful consideration of our problems.

The editors who vent their spleens on individuals make no worthwhile contribution—but few actually expect much better of them.

The lack of influence of the Charlotte Observer was demonstrated in the 1964 Democratic Primary. It has added nothing to its stature since that time. It cannot be heard by any honest man to talk about a "power grab" in the light of its attempt to bulldoze the Charlotte College matter past consideration by the Appropriations Committees of the House and Senate. Had it been successful in its effort with others to do this, the University of North Carolina at Charlotte would have been the loser.

I am sure that you are not impressed by the ridiculous ascription of power to me by these naive editors—neither am I. All I want to be privileged to do is to work for the good of our State and to walk humbly with my fellowman—and especially with and before you and the other members of the General Assembly.

I am suspicious of the praise of most newspaper editors. I can withstand their criticism in the certain knowledge that my desire to honestly serve my State without any reward save that which the privilege of such service provides, is far superior to that of any who use the great power of the press to criticize my efforts.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF GOVERNOR DAN K. MOORE, RALEIGH MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM, FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1965.

My fellow North Carolinians:

I come to this rostrum today with pride and with humility.

I come with pride in the privilege you have given me to serve a great State and a great people.

I come with humility—humility born of a deep awareness of the responsibility that this privilege of services imposes.

The road from Canton to Raleigh has been a long road. But we have at last arrived. Despite the rough jolts and sharp turns of the trip, my wife, my family and I have enjoyed every mile of the journey. It was a heart-warming experience we shall never forget.

The road from Canton to Raleigh carried us through every county and into most communities in North Carolina. It took us into the lives of many different people—farmers, textile workers, housewives, school teachers, fishermen, State employees, truck drivers, doctors, lawyers and many, many others. We listened, we asked questions and we gained a new awareness and a deeper understanding of our State's greatest resource—its people.

At times we were discouraged and tired. But all our difficulties and doubts faded into insignificance as we were bolstered by the unflinching kindness, courtesy and understanding of people everywhere.

Today, as I took the oath of office, I felt that I had their good will. It is they who made our trip worthwhile. It is they I will seek to serve.

Mrs. Moore and I are grateful for the presence here today of so many friends and neighbors from the hills of home. I was born, reared and have spent most of my adult life in that section of the State which lies west of the Blue Ridge. My forebears have lived in that beautiful region since it was first opened to the white settlers. As Thomas Wolfe wrote: "Each of us is all the sums he has not counted."

While I am naturally proud of my mountain heritage, I know and appreciate all the people of North Carolina, whether they live on the wide, sandy beaches of the Outer Banks, the black loam of the Coastal Plains, the red clay of the Piedmont or the rocky slopes of our Mountains. During the next four years I will be the Governor of all the people.

I have taken the oath of office without any reservations. It is my firm resolve to devote to my official duties during the next four years all I have in ability, vision and energy. I will have no conflict of interest to sway my judgment and no unworthy ambition to promote.

North Carolina has grown and flourished under the guidance of many able governors. We all are beneficiaries of their efforts to improve our public schools, colleges, highways, mental hospitals, state ports, fiscal stability, conservation and development of natural resources, agriculture, industry, cultural achievements, and humanitarian services.

My administration will build upon the solid foundation of State services that these past leaders have provided for us. Each of these governors represented principles and causes supported in his day and time by thousands of North Carolinians devoted to the well-being of our State.

Any evaluation of these achievements must recognize the vital role played by our General Assembly. North Carolina has been fortunate to have the services of dedicated, able legislators down through the years. I look forward eagerly to working with members of the 1965 General Assembly. The door to my office will always be open to them.

Similarly, credit for progress in our State must be given to the North Carolina Supreme Court and the entire Judiciary. Justice based on law administered by dedicated and qualified justices and judges has been the hall mark of our solid progress. It must continue to be.

While we have had outstanding governors, legislators, and judges, it is the people of North Carolina who have actually made our progress a reality. North Carolina has acquired its own character, tradition and history through the struggle, sacrifice, courage, and hard work of men and women who met their own responsibilities.

It will not be my purpose here today to re-state the details of a program that has already been submitted to the people during more than a year of campaigning. I have an obligation to carry out that program, and my total energy will be devoted to that task.

My purpose today is twofold: to state the spirit that will guide me in the administration of your State government, and to call on all who love North Carolina to join me in a new dedication to the total development of our State.

Stated briefly, my administration will seek to give the people of North Carolina honest, efficient and economical government. We shall utilize people who are skilled, creative, productive—who have a strong feeling of ethical responsibility. We shall work closely with the Lieutenant Governor, with the Speaker of the House of Representatives, with the Council of State as provided in our Constitution.

We shall always stay in close touch with the North Carolina delegation in Congress, particularly in these days of crisis in the tobacco industry. North Carolina, along with the other sovereign states, will stand solidly behind the President of the United States as he seeks to carry out his responsibilities in the continuing struggle against communism and seeks to preserve peace in a troubled world.

Integrity in public service will be a watchword of my administration. The sole purpose of State government is to serve our people's needs faithfully and well. It should serve no other purpose.

My administration will be a government of laws and not of men. The law is just as binding on the Governor and all other public officials as it is upon the humblest citizen of this State. No one is above or beyond the law. Each of us is equal when we stand before the bar of justice. We shall see that the law is impartially enforced without fear or favor.

Today let us rededicate ourselves to the virtues and high principles of public service that have contributed so much to bring North Carolina to this day of great promise. I will provide the firm leadership that will give North Carolina a government that is dynamic, a government that is compassionate and tolerant, a government that looks realistically at the hopes and aspirations of every citizen.

Ours is a fast-moving age, an age of promise, an age of change. If we are to compete in this age, as we must, then we will approach these changing times with an open mind and with a determination to take full advantage of all opportunities they may afford.

At the same time, we must acknowledge that there are values and principles that do not change; that change merely for the sake of change is not progress. In many areas in recent years, we have seen an erosion of the human spirit, a complacency that is frightening, a fatalistic acceptance of political and economic trends that threaten basic concepts precious to North Carolinians. We have seen the growing strength of socialistic schemes, the rise of big government, the not-so-gradual weakening of the free enterprise system. We in North Carolina are opposed to these trends.

I believe strongly in the American system of free enterprise. Its incredible productivity and vitality have provided our State and Nation with an ever-improving standard of living. We must continue to encourage and strengthen free enterprise, whether local, state or national. Sound growth and expansion in business, industry, agriculture, commerce, utilities, transportation and communications are essential to the total development of North Carolina. Research, science and technology are other vital components which must be encouraged. And we should never forget the value of cultural enrichments in the lives of our people, and the preservation of beauty in our State.

The decisions of my administration will be made in keeping with our proven traditions of good government. Each issue will be judged on its merit. When caution is dictated, let us, in keeping with our tradition, have the courage to be cautious. If boldness is dictated, let us, in keeping with that same tradition, have the courage to be bold.

I hold the firm conviction that North Carolina stands at this moment on the threshold of greatness, looking to an era of unprecedented prosperity and growth. We have come to the moment when our dreams can become a reality, not because fate willed it, but because North Carolinians in past years have made this possible.

The challenge before us now is to move forward. It is an exciting challenge. And it is one that North Carolinians will meet with a new enthusiasm, building proudly and with confidence on the sound foundation we inherit from the past.

From this threshold of greatness, North Carolina will move forward in education. Heartening as our educational progress has been, we must not be complacent. Much more remains to be done in public schools, in community colleges and in our institutions of higher learning. We must give to all our children the best that we can provide in educational opportunity. Less than that would be a cruel disservice to these children and to North Carolina.

Education is a capital investment in the future of our State. The direct and indirect return on that investment can and will stagger the imagination of our people and quicken the economic pulse-beat of our State. The simple fact is that today the well-educated man or woman has become the single most important capital resource in our society.

From this threshold of greatness, North Carolina will move forward in all major segments of our economy. We must have more new and expanded industries, more diversified and profitable agriculture, more and better rural roads, primary and urban highways and improved health and medical care. We must have improved courts, better humanitarian services and good human relations.

One crucial problem which must be attacked immediately with new vigor and new ideas is being spelled out in blood on our streets and highways each day. The crisis in traffic accidents leaves us no choice but to recommend constructive action by the 1965 General Assembly. I shall have specific recommendations on traffic safety and other parts of my legislative program when the General Assembly convenes in February.

We realize, of course, that whatever advancements we may be able to make in education and other basic State services must be made within the limits of available State revenues.

Considering the fact that North Carolina performs many services on the State level, I do not consider that we are a high-tax State, but I do contend that our taxes are high enough and should not be increased. So all who desire more revenue for the public service should do everything possible to assist in the further industrialization of our State, in diversification of agriculture and in an all-out effort to increase our per capita income.

To meet the challenge of 1965 and the years ahead, each of us must contribute the best we have to offer. I wish to call upon North Carolinians of every section, of every race, of every political affiliation, of every station in life, to help us realize this dream for a greater North Carolina.

It is my hope that every man and woman in our State will share in this endeavor. I want them to feel that they can make a contribution, no matter how small, to the building of a better North Carolina. My administration will seek their active support, their continued interest and their suggestions on how we can reach this worthy goal.

To me, North Carolina is a great and good community—one giant neighborhood extending from the mountains to the sea. Such a community represents the hopes, the dreams and the aspirations of all our people. This concept of the great and good community is not mine alone. It comes to me from the hearts of the people themselves, the people with whom I have talked and whose voices I have heard.

The challenge of the hour is great. The potential of our people to achieve is unlimited. The question is: are we really prepared to take advantage of the great opportunity now before us? We are, if we as a people all work together.

Yes, the road from Canton to Raleigh has been a long one. That journey is ended. Today I begin a new journey to serve the people of North Carolina as their sixty-first Governor. I accept without reservation the grave responsibilities.

As Governor Zebulon B. Vance said in his Inaugural Address on January 1, 1877: "Let us remember that good government confers not of itself wealth, prosperity and happiness, but only places them within our reach, and renders it possible for them to be acquired by those who seek them with energy, industry, and integrity. . . . Above all, let us learn to use our great victory with moderation and justice, and strive to wield the power which is this great day given us, as those who must render an account, both here and hereafter."

I believe no man can accept such high office without a realization that the hand of Divine Guidance is present in all our mortal struggles for a better life. As expressed in the familiar hymn:

"O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come;
Be thou our guide while life shall last,
And our eternal home!"

SENATE JOURNAL

EXTRA SESSION 1965

FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,
Monday, November 15, 1965.

Pursuant to a call of His Excellency, Governor Dan K. Moore, the Senate of the General Assembly convenes in Extra Session in its Chamber in the State Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh, this day at 12 o'clock noon, and is called to order by Lieutenant Governor Robert W. Scott.

The following prayer is offered by Rev. Russell Fleming, of the Presbyterian Church:

O God, our Father, we return to these hallowed halls as citizens of this great State to whom has been given the awesome task of charting the course to be taken. How often it is that even in our best judgment we find the route by which we travel must be altered.

We offer a special prayer this day for the members of the Senate that they may act as their consciences direct.

May it prove that You are the Pilot of the Ship of State, giving direction for the changing of the rudder, courage for the making of the change, and wisdom that these Your servants may know how much. Be with him who presides that his gavel may be used wisely in these important days. And, may all who labor here be instruments in Your hands for the doing of Your will.

This we ask in Jesus' Name. Amen.

The President lays before the Senate the proclamation of the Governor convening the Extra Session, which is read to the membership as follows:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

WHEREAS, the Commission was further directed, upon completion of its study, to make a report of its findings and recommendations to the Governor, and

JOINT SESSION

The Senate is received by the Members of the House of Representatives standing, and the Joint Session is called to order by Lieutenant Governor Robert W. Scott.

Senator Alford, on the part of the Committee appointed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives to escort the Governor to the Hall of the House, presents His Excellency, Governor Dan K. Moore, who delivers the following message:

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Members of the General Assembly of North Carolina:

Thank you for your courtesy in permitting me to appear before this joint meeting of the extra session of the 1965 General Assembly. I am grateful for this opportunity to present for your consideration my recommendations concerning the amendments to Chapter 1207 of the 1963 Session Laws as set forth in the Speaker Ban Law Study Commission report.

As you recall, the General Assembly, in its past session, enacted Resolution No. 85 which was "A Joint Resolution Creating a Commission to Study the Statutes Relating to Visiting Speakers at State-Supported Educational Institutions". This Resolution authorized and directed the appointment of a nine-member Commission to "make a careful, full and detailed study of General Statutes 116-199 and General Statutes 116-200, relating to visiting speakers at State-supported educational institutions of higher learning, with respect particularly to the enforcement of the statutes; the relationship, if any, between these statutes and the accreditation of State-supported institutions by accreditation organizations and associations; the effect on the relationship of these institutions with other institutions of higher learning; and the impact of the statutes as to the status, administration, reputation, functioning and future development of state-supported institutions."

This Commission, composed of two members appointed by the President of the Senate, two members appointed by the Speaker of the House, and five members appointed by the Governor, was named on June 24, 1965. My appointments were:

The Honorable David Britt of Fairmont, Representative from Robeson County, who served as Chairman.

Colonel W. T. Joyner of Raleigh, prominent attorney.

Charles Meyers of Greensboro, President of Burlington Industries, Inc.

Mrs. Elizabeth Swindell of Wilson, immediate past president of the North Carolina Press Association.

The Reverend Ben C. Fisher of Wake Forest, Chairman of the Commission on Higher Education of the Baptist State Convention.

The Honorable Robert W. Scott, Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina, appointed the Honorable Gordon Hanes of Winston-Salem, Senator from Forsyth County; and the Honorable Russell Kirby of Wilson, Senator from Wilson County.

The Honorable Patrick Taylor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, appointed the Honorable A. A. Zollicoffer of Henderson, Representative from Vance County, who served as Chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations; and the Honorable Lacy Thornburg of Sylva, Representative from Jackson County.

The membership of the Study Commission was made up of outstanding citizens whose understanding, ability, judgment and love for North Carolina are beyond question. The Commission held its first meeting on July 14, 1965, organized and began work immediately on its assigned task set forth in your Resolution.

Public hearings were held on August 11 and 12, 1965, and September 8 and 9, 1965, in the State Legislative Building. All North Carolinians were given an opportunity to be heard. The public hearings were well attended and given extensive coverage by newspapers, radio and television. A complete transcript of the testimony and other documents was taken for consideration by the Commission.

On November 5, 1965, the Speaker Ban Law Study Commission made its report to me in the Hall of the House of Representatives at the State Capitol. I had been furnished an advance copy during that week so that I could study the contents of the report and its recommendations prior to release.

I approved the report and its recommendations without any reservations. I immediately sent copies of the Commission report and my statement of approval to each member of the General Assembly, to each trustee of a state-supported institution of higher education, to the president of each of these institutions and to members of the State Board of Higher Education. At the same time, I also requested that the Boards of Trustees of the University of North Carolina and all other state-supported institutions of higher education meet on or before Friday, November 12, 1965, for the purpose of considering and adopting the speaker policy recommended in the Commission report.

I am pleased to report to you that the Boards of Trustees of the University and our other state-supported institutions of higher education have met, considered and approved without modification the speaker policy recommended by the Study Commission. This is a remarkable achievement which reflects credit upon the ability of our trustees to unite in a constructive action to do what is best for North Carolina and her institutions of higher learning. Our trustees have measured up to their responsibilities as outlined by the Study Commission, and I commend them for their public-spirited actions.

My second step after receiving the Commission report and recommendations was to call, by and with the advice and assent of the Council of State, this extraordinary session of the General Assembly of North Carolina for the purpose of considering the recommended amendments to Chapter 1207 of the 1963 Session Laws as set forth in the Study Commission report.

I fully realize, of course, that the Governor has no power to limit the deliberations of a session of the General Assembly of North Carolina. However, in view of the gravity and complexity of the Speaker Ban controversy, and the need for finding a reasonable, rational solution to this problem, I respectfully recommend that the members of the General Assembly agree to restrict your considerations of legislation to this one proposed bill. This has been done before in North Carolina.

It is a well-established tradition that Tar Heels often hold and express differing points of view on matters of public issues; yet, when the public interest is threatened, we can rise above our differences and settle the controversy calmly, dispassionately and in a lawful, orderly manner.

The Study Commission report, and its recommendations, speak for themselves. It is unnecessary that I repeat its findings, and I hereby make the report, and its recommendations, a matter of record with this message.

I am convinced that the legislation recommended in the report of the Commission, A Bill Entitled An Act to Amend the Law Relating to Visiting Speakers at State-Supported Institutions, will serve the best interests of the State of North Carolina and the cause of higher education in our State. It will place the authority and responsibility for regulating visiting speakers with the Boards of Trustees of the University and our other State-supported colleges. This bill is the result of months of intensive study, deliberation and consideration by a dedicated group of citizens appointed at your direction. I recommend it to you both in letter and in spirit.

The Study Commission report concludes with the statement that "we must seek mutual respect and a middle ground." We do indeed need to adopt the middle ground of moderation in this problem. Judge Learned Hand, one of the great jurists in American history, defined the spirit of moderation as "the temper which does not press a partisan advantage to its bitter end, which can understand and will respect the other side, which feels a unity between all citizens—real and not the fictitious product of propaganda— which recognizes their common fate and their common aspirations . . ."

Regardless of how each of us may feel about the exact provisions of the existing Speaker Ban Law, the public controversy arising as a result of this Law is damaging to the State of North Carolina. It is dividing our people at a time when unity is needed to grasp and hold the great opportunities facing our State and Nation. We are exhausting our energies which should be better directed toward building a better State, better institutions of higher education and a better future for every boy and girl in North Carolina.

We have not forgotten that our Nation is at war with worldwide Communism. North Carolinians and other Americans are dying in the jungles of Viet Nam to protect our freedom here at home and across the world. All of us who enjoy the freedom and security of today are forever in their debt. Their sacrifices have stiffened our resolve to oppose the spread of Communism whether it comes by force of arms or by infiltration in our society. As a veteran of World War II, I know from first-hand experience the high price which our Nation has paid to enjoy the freedom and security of today.

However, we must not allow our steadfast opposition to Communism and totalitarianism to blind us from the facts involved in the Speaker Ban controversy. The proposed legislation simply returns the authority and responsibility for regulating visiting speakers to the Boards of Trustees of the University and our other state-supported colleges. I am convinced that this amendment to the existing law will end the bitter controversy which is dividing our people and our State.

Ladies and gentlemen of the General Assembly, let us accept the reasonable and honorable settlement suggested by our Speaker Ban Law Study Commission. If you will support legislation as recommended by the Commission, there will be no defeat for anyone, but a victory for all the people of North Carolina.

The Governor in his Message to the Joint Session made the Report of the Study Commission a part of his address and a matter of public record, as follows:

To His Excellency Dan K. Moore, Governor of North Carolina:

This report is made to you pursuant to Resolution Number 85 of the 1965 Session of the General Assembly entitled "A joint resolution creating a commission to study the statutes relating to visiting speakers at State-supported educational institutions".

The Commission authorized by this resolution consists of nine members appointed as follows: Five members appointed by you, namely, Representative David M. Britt, Reverend Ben C. Fisher, William T. Joyner, Charles F. Myers and Mrs. Elizabeth G. Swindell; two members appointed by the President of the Senate, namely, Senator Gordon Hanes and Senator J. Russell Kirby; and two members appointed by the Speaker of the House, namely, Representative Lacy H. Thornburg and Representative A. A. Zollicoffer, Jr. Pursuant to your designation, Representative David M. Britt served as chairman.

The first meeting of the Commission was held in Raleigh in the Legislative Building on July 14, 1965, with all members present. Mrs. Swindell was elected by the Commission to serve as secretary and Mrs. P. E. Howell of Raleigh was employed to render clerical services to the Commission.

At the initial meeting the members became acquainted with duties provided in the resolution and discussed various ways of approaching the work. It was unanimously decided that public hearings should be scheduled, at which all of the State-supported educational institutions affected by the law, accrediting agencies, and other interested parties and organizations would be provided an opportunity to be heard.

Public Hearings were held on August 11 and 12, 1965, and September 8 and 9, 1965, in the auditorium of the Legislative Building. They were well attended and given extensive coverage by newspapers, radio, and television. The transcript of the testimony and other documents considered by the Commission are filed with this report.

Under the provisions of the resolution the Commission was charged with the duty of making a careful, full and detailed study of General Statutes 116-199 and General Statutes 116-200 (Chapter 1207 of the 1963 Session Laws) relating to visiting speakers at State-supported educational institutions of higher learning, with respect particularly to the following:

1. The enforcement of the statutes;
2. The relationship, if any, between these statutes and the accreditation of State-supported institutions by accreditation organizations and associations;
3. The effect on the relationship of these institutions with other institutions of higher learning; and
4. The impact of the statutes as to the status, administration, reputation, functioning and future development of State-supported institutions.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE STATUTES

At its initial meeting the Commission considered the legality of the statutes and authorized the chairman to appoint a subcommittee to give special study to such legality. Inasmuch as five members of the Commission are lawyers, the Chairman constituted them a subcommittee for this purpose.

The subcommittee gave careful consideration to the constitutionality of the statutes and considered various decisions and legal memoranda on the question. Among these was a memorandum prepared by Deputy Attorney General Ralph Moody in 1963 and also a supplement thereto prepared by Mr. Moody at the request of the Commission. Another memorandum considered was that of Professor William Van Alstyne of the Duke University School of Law. Mr. Moody expressed the opinion that the laws are constitutional and are a proper exercise of the police power of the State of North Carolina. Professor Van Alstyne expressed the opinion that the laws are unconstitutional insofar as the Federal Constitution is concerned. Other memoranda and legal articles were filed with and considered by the Commission.

After deliberation and discussion, it was the consensus of the full Commission that the problems posed by these statutes should be approached on a much broader basis than a strictly legal one; therefore, no steps are recommended to determine the validity of the statutes.

As to enforcement, testimony presented at the hearings by officials and administrators of the various educational institutions affected by the law revealed that they have diligently complied with the law and the Commission received no evidence that the law has been violated since its enactment on June 26, 1963.

ACCREDITATION

A large part of the inquiry of the Commission was directed to the matter of accreditation. At the August hearings Dean Emmett B. Fields of Vanderbilt University, Chairman of the Commission on Colleges, Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Inc., and Mr. Gordon Sweet, Executive Director of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Inc., were heard and questioned in great detail. The agency represented by these two is the primary accrediting agency for all colleges and universities in North Carolina. The Officials of this agency take the position that these statutes "remove(s) from the governing boards of the State institutions of higher learning in North Carolina, their traditional authority to handle such matters with administrative discretion," and "raise(s) an issue of interference with the necessary authority of the boards". Also on the matter of accreditation, the Commission heard from Dr. Frank G. Dickey, Executive Director of the National Commission on Accrediting, and Dr. W. H. Plemmons, a former member of the said Commission on Colleges.

We are confident that the Southern Association has done much to improve the quality of education in the South. However, this Commission is not charged with the responsibility of passing upon the wisdom of the Association's action in this matter. The Commission devoted considerable time to studying the significance of accreditation on our State-supported colleges and university. Suffice it to say accreditation means much, financially and otherwise. For any institution to lose accreditation would be substantially damaging.

RELATIONSHIP WITH OTHER INSTITUTIONS

In various ways the Commission studied the effect of the statutes in question on the relationship of our institutions with other institutions of higher learning. These studies disclosed that there is a closely knit bond between the educators of our Country. Grievances of administrators and faculties in one state receive the concern and support of their counterparts throughout the land. In fact, such grievances in one or more schools receive the concern and support of counterparts in other schools of the same state, as indicated by the "sympathetic reaction" to the subject statutes of the administrators and faculties, and even students, of several church related colleges and universities in North Carolina.

The unrest resulting from the statutes in question has extended far beyond the eleven institutions directly affected. It would appear that, unless the unrest is removed, entertaining communists could become glamorized in our State, thereby defeating one of the primary purposes of the statutes.

IMPACT OF STATUTES

In considering the impact of the statutes in question on our State-supported institutions of higher learning, we must consider the tangible and intangible.

The most obvious impact would come from loss of accreditation, if such should occur, inasmuch as many financial aids which our institutions now receive are not provided to unaccredited institutions. The Commission made contact with numerous federal agencies and private foundations and although some of the aids and programs provided are not dependent upon accreditation, many of them are, and with others accreditation would be a factor. For example, a R.O.T.C. program is contingent upon accreditation.

As to the intangible, considerable prestige accompanies accreditation. We are convinced that many students would not attend any of our eleven institutions if accreditation were lost, due partly to increased difficulty in securing recognition for work done in an unaccredited institution.

Also important is the consideration of faculty members. The demand for qualified faculty members far exceeds the supply and this promises to be the case for many years to come. Loss of accreditation would make it much more difficult for our eleven institutions to recruit and maintain adequate faculties.

CONCLUSION

We are convinced that the people of North Carolina are strongly opposed to communism and all other forms of totalitarianism. They are concerned about the expansion of atheistic communism throughout the world, and this concern is increased by the mortal conflict that is now ranging in Viet Nam and other places.

Information from J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and other reliable sources is to the effect that the tempo of communist efforts in the United States is being speeded up and that communists are taking advantage of every opportunity. There appears no doubt that the communists consider college and university campuses a fertile field for their work and this has been evidenced recently by the organization of radical clubs on campuses across the nation and the infiltration of communists into certain campus demonstrations in other parts of the Country.

We feel that the 1963 General Assembly was sincere in its enactment of the statutes in question and felt that it was "striking a blow" for Democracy. It also appears that the General Assembly was reflecting the feeling of a large segment of the population of North Carolina and since the enactment of these statutes, many people have risen to their support.

On the other hand, it is quite evident that many members of the 1963 General Assembly who voted for the statutes did not foresee the far-reaching effects of the statutes. It is our judgment that the primary objective of the General Assembly was to prevent communist rabble rousers and their kind from using the campuses of North Carolina as a forum for their evil activities.

During the public hearings held by this Commission much was said about communism, the appearance of speakers who were alleged to be members of the Communist Party, and the presence in the student bodies of students who individually, and by group activity, were active ultra-liberals.

A careful review of this testimony indicates that these statements and allegations were directed primarily at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, covering the period from 1937 to 1965. This testimony discloses that in more than a quarter of a century fewer than a dozen speakers from among the thousands who have appeared during these years were specifically mentioned as extremists and not all of these were alleged to be communists. Among students, not more than five were singled out from among the more than 40,000 who have graduated from the Chapel Hill campus over this span of time.

The testimony shows that the University would not knowingly employ a member of the Communist Party in any capacity, and direct testimony by its officers indicates that no such person is employed. No evidence to the contrary was presented to, disclosed to, or discovered by the Commission. We also note that all members of the faculty and staff have formally affirmed their allegiance to the Constitutions of the United States and the State of North Carolina. We review these allegations here because we gave ample notice to all persons who wished to appear before the Commission, or felt that they had pertinent information, to do so. The evidence before this Commission failed to disclose that the faculty of the University at Chapel Hill is infiltrated by communists. The evidence shows that the University does not foster or encourage any political doctrine that would suppress the liberty or freedom of any individual.

We believe that it is highly desirable that students have the opportunity to question, review and discuss the opinions of speakers representing a wide range of viewpoints. It is vital to our success in supporting our free society against all forms of totalitarianism that institutions remain free to examine these ideologies in a manner consistent with educational objectives.

The evidence before us fails to justify charges of irresponsible radicalism at Chapel Hill. There have been and will always be individuals who express themselves in ways that, to some, are disturbing because they are unorthodox and the larger the institution becomes, the more it is likely to attract this type of individual.

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill is a great institution that has served the State well. Members of the General Assembly and all citizens of our state are justifiably interested in our University. There is no evidence before us of any plot, plan, campaign, or conspiracy by anyone to injure the University or any State-supported college.

Although most of the discussion about the statutes in question has been related to the University at Chapel Hill, the impact of these statutes affects all four campuses of our University as well as the eleven colleges supported by the State. There was no evidence before the Commission that a communist has ever appeared as a visiting speaker or otherwise at these other institutions. Accreditation means much to all branches of the University, but it means at least as much, if not more, to the other eleven institutions. Loss of accreditation would be far reaching in its damage, not only from the standpoint of financial benefits but also from the standpoint of attracting students, the transfer of credits of students, the recruitment of faculty members and the retention of fully dedicated teachers and staff members.

The public hearings conducted by this Commission have provided the people of North Carolina with a wealth of information about our institutions and the effects of the statutes in question. It is the opinion of this Commission that a large majority of the people of our State realize the great need of education at all levels and that they do not favor legislation which will jeopardize the best educational opportunities for our youth.

It is also our opinion that the trustees of our educational institutions should assume more responsibility for the operation of our institutions and should be constantly on the alert for anything that would be harmful to our institutions and to the educational programs they promote. The Trustees of our Institutions constitute a vital link between the institutions they represent and the people of North Carolina.

Finally, we conclude that education at all levels in North Carolina, and the continued progress and welfare of our State, require that the statutes in question be amended to impose responsibility for the subject matter of the statutes in question on the trustees of our institutions; provided, that the trustees give assurance of their willingness to accept this responsibility and particularly with regard to the subject matter of these statutes.

Academic freedom requires academic responsibility. We specifically state that our recommendations should not be construed to mean that we necessarily agree with all the educators who appeared before this Commission on the question of academic freedom. The fact is that our concern about the current unrest in educational circles in our State leads us to the conclusion that the stakes are so high that responsible people, both educators and others, must strive for some solution that will settle this controversy for the foreseeable future.

The fires of intolerance will surely injure the process of education. To solve our problem, to quench the fires now burning, it is necessary that the people on one side of the controversy be more understanding and tolerant of the honest views of the people on the other side. We must seek mutual respect and a middle ground.

To that end we direct our recommendations.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Subject to Recommendation No. 2, we recommend that Chapter 1207 of the 1963 Session Laws be amended so as to vest the trustees of the institutions affected by it not only with the authority but also with the responsibility of adopting and publishing rules and precautionary measures relating to visiting speakers covered by said Act on the campuses of said institutions. We submit as a part of this report a proposed legislative bill to accomplish this purpose.

2. We recommend that each of the Boards of Trustees of said institutions adopt the Speaker Policy hereto attached and made a part of this Report.

3. In order that this important matter might be settled forthwith, we recommend that you, The Governor of North Carolina, request the boards of trustees of the affected institutions to assemble as soon as practicable for purpose of giving consideration to the aforementioned Speaker Policy, and at such time as it has been adopted by the said boards of all of said institutions, that you cause to be called an extraordinary Session of the General Assembly for purpose of considering amendments to Chapter 1207 of the 1963 Session Laws as hereinbefore set forth.

Respectfully submitted, this November 5, 1965.

SPEAKER POLICY

The Trustees recognize that this Institution, and every part thereof, is owned by the people of North Carolina; that it is operated by duly selected representatives and personnel for the benefit of the people of our state.

The trustees of this Institution are unalterably opposed to communism and any other ideology or form of government which has as its goal the destruction of our basic democratic institutions.

We recognize that the total program of a college or university is committed to an orderly process of inquiry and discussion, ethical and moral excellence, objective instruction, and respect for law. An essential part of the education of each student at this Institution is the opportunity to hear diverse viewpoints expressed by speakers properly invited to the campus. It is highly desirable that students have the opportunity to question, review and discuss the opinions of speakers representing a wide range of viewpoints.

It is vital to our success in supporting our free society against all forms of totalitarianism that institutions remain free to examine these ideologies to any extent that will serve the educational purposes of our institutions and not the purposes of the enemies of our free society.

We feel that the appearance as a visiting speaker on our campus of one who was prohibited under Chapter 1207 of the 1963 Session Laws (The Speaker Ban Law) or who advocates any ideology or form of government which is wholly alien to our basic democratic institutions should be infrequent and then only when it would clearly serve the advantage of education; and on such rare occasions reasonable and proper care should be exercised by the institution. The campuses should not be exploited as convenient outlets of discord and strife.

We therefore provide that we the Trustees together with the administration of this Institution shall be held responsible and accountable for visiting speakers on our campuses. And to that end the administration will adopt rules and precautionary measures consistent with the policy herein set forth regarding the invitations to and appearance of visiting speakers. These rules and precautionary measures shall be subject to the approval of the Trustees.

Upon motion of Senator Morgan, the Joint Session is dissolved and the Senate returns to its Chamber.

The Senate resumes consideration of its regular business.

Upon motion of Senator Morgan, the bill is carried over on tomorrow's Calendar.

The following remarks of Senator White of Lenoir are ordered spread upon the Journal:

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Fellow Members of the General Assembly, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I do not arise to impugn the motive nor to criticize the judgments of any man nor any group of men. We all acknowledge the sincere and dedicated service of the distinguished and able members of the Commission appointed to study the law to which our attention is now directed, and which deeply concerns the people of our State.

I do arise to say that this is indeed a sad day for North Carolina, and a dark day for our General Assembly. Acknowledging that there have been many who think otherwise, the record of the General Assembly of North Carolina has been one in which its members and our citizens generally can take pride—and today, or tomorrow, or before this week has ended the General Assembly of North Carolina as we have known and revered it may pass into history.

The votes you cast this week may be the last you will ever cast in a General Assembly which down through the years has been honored and made great in part by the contributions of the dedicated services of men sent here by the little counties of North Carolina along with the services of men sent here by the people of our larger or more populous counties.

And this day is made more sad because it appears that we are urged to cast this last vote which we are privileged to cast, as members of this great body in a certain way, under the dark shadow of threats urged upon us, and under extreme pressure which would rob us of the privilege of exercising our votes in accordance with the known wishes of the people of North Carolina.

We all have learned that honest men may honestly disagree on issues confronting the people of our State. No man knows better than I know that there are times when other men do not share my views. Yet I also know that there are many times when men are restrained by expediency or by personal pressures from expressing agreement with views of others, including my own, for which they would fervently like to vote, but do not. Each of us has the right to stand upon his or her own convictions—and in this sad day—and under the dark shadow of the threats which would direct our action, it seems to me that our votes should now, of all times, reflect the wishes of our people as we know them.

More than 13 years ago, in a hard fought primary election, I won the right to represent my county of Lenoir in the House of Representatives of the North Carolina General Assembly—that bright galaxy of dedicated men whose judgments rarely depart from the known wishes of the people. It was my high privilege to serve in that distinguished body in the sessions of 1953, 1955 and 1957, and with some of you who sit before me now. I am proud to have served in the House—always it will seem like home to me. And when I began my service here it seemed to me that “never yet had Heaven appeared so blue, nor earth so green” as when I thus embarked upon the service of my State. I knew that if I were diligent, and faithful to the trust, I could find some way to demonstrate my love for our great State and make a contribution to her government.

I am no less proud to be a member of the Senate of North Carolina and to have had the privilege of serving in that body in the sessions of 1961, 1963 and 1965, and of working with that distinguished body of dedicated public servants whose wisdom and sound judgments compliment and join with those of the members of the House in our Joint effort to do as near as we are able to do, that which is best for the people of our State.

History tells us, and we have often been otherwise assured, that the General Assembly of North Carolina is reputed to be the most powerful Legislative Body on earth. This is the General Assembly of the one State in the 50 States which comprise the greatest nation in the history of the world, which denies to its Governor the veto power. The General Assembly of North Carolina can, within constitutional limits, do what it wants to do.

Until now I have regarded this reputation of our General Assembly as unquestioned, and its great power as a fact. Will we preserve for posterity the respect which comes with this reputation and power of our General Assembly? God forbid that we besmirch it in the last days of the existence of this Great Body as it is yet constituted, by permitting its last acts to be directed by a threat—any kind of a threat from any source.

We are not called here in haste to deliberate upon anything. Except for the record we are not asked to exercise our own judgments. We are urged to follow a course laid down for us—and the urgency of the call stems from the alleged threat of damage to our University by an agency which has no right nor any just cause to damage it—and the threat of impending action of a Federal Court—the exact character of which cannot be predicted.

Thus, are we asked to bow the sovereignty of our State to the threat emanating from an association nurtured in part by some who are chiefest among the beneficiaries of the tax money paid into the Treasury of our State by the people of North Carolina and distributed by the General Assembly. I am confident that those who are pleased with the “study” made of this matter, and with the recommendations of the study commission take comfort in the thought that after a time the people will cool down; that they will philosophize that the damage has been done; that any evil of the recommended action or its hurt to the consciences of the people will have been suffered and the force of this blow absorbed. They may even feel that if we pass this bill the people will accept without protest the recommended compromising by us of an issue poignant to them.

I do not join my respected colleagues in this judgment of the intelligence and patriotism of our people. We have the right and the power, if we choose to exercise it, to continue at least until a safer time the protection which the people now have—and but for these threats would undoubtedly remain intact. In my judgment most people will not soon forget the action of Legislators who substitute their own judgment in a matter of this nature and importance for the known wishes of the people. I know not what you may do, but for my part I will not follow the course urged upon us in the shadow of these threats.

I am sure that you join me in a profound respect for our great Governor, and that you hold him, as I do, in highest esteem and affection. I am sure that you also share my great respect for the dedicated and sincere members of the Study Commission of which our much respected and beloved colleague David Britt was Chairman. I know that they are completely honest and sincere in their recommendations, but I cannot become a party to the surrender or to the apparent surrender of the Sovereignty of our State for any reason, for any purpose, or for any expediency—and least of all to the end that we may temporize with those who would provide our worst enemies with the cloak of respectability and with a forum and a platform at State expense—whether this be done frequently or infrequently.

The surrender or the compromise of the Sovereignty of our State is the prerogative of the people. I regret that we are called upon to act under such circumstances as to damage the reputation and integrity of this General Assembly as a Legislative Body. I am sure that no one intended such a result. But in my opinion, so long as we may be asked or required to act pursuant to or in the light of threats, such a result is inescapable.

If we follow the course laid down for us at this time, the reputation of the General Assembly of North Carolina as the most powerful Legislative Body on earth crumbles into dust. There are those to whom this means nothing—and many are they among them who see nothing wrong or degrading about acting under a threat.

I deplore and lament the situation in which we find ourselves. For this we do not blame our colleagues or others who urged the call of this Special Session upon the 9th day after the report of the Study Commission was made public. The blame must lie upon a chain of unfortunate and uncalled for events which precipitated a situation in which members of the General Assembly are asked to yield to the fear of threats and to act as recommended. To me this situation is intolerable.

With great respect and in all humility I suggest that we call upon our experience, our ingenuity and our energies in these last hours of our General Assembly as it is yet constituted, to find a less unhappy issue out of our affliction than to succumb to these threats.

Let each of those who pose these threats act first—then let us meet them and deal with them as the consequences may require. It has been said that the “stakes are high”. I agree that the stakes are high—but they are not so high that we should prostitute the honor, and the record, and the integrity of this distinguished body upon the altar of fear and apprehension—to do so is not in the North Carolina tradition.

If we follow the course laid down for us we could soon go home to a disappointed and disillusioned people. Let us rather re-dedicate ourselves now to act in the tradition of the General Assembly of North Carolina without fear and with honor.

Let us say to those who threaten us that never yet has this Honorable Body bowed to the dictation of any outside force and that we will not bow down now.

I pray that when we leave these stately halls we will have no remorse for past actions nor regrets for lost opportunities.

I hope that when we return to our homes that our people can say to each of us, “Well done, thou good and faithful servant.”

JOINT SESSION

The Senate is received by the members of the House of Representatives standing, and the Joint Session is called to order by Lieutenant Governor Robert W. Scott.

Senator Allsbrook, on the part of the Committee appointed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives to escort the Governor to the Hall of the House, presents His Excellency, Governor Dan K. Moore, who delivers the following message:

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Members of the General Assembly of North Carolina:

I have called this extra session of the General Assembly today to meet one of the most critical problems ever to confront this legislative body. This action was taken after conferring with the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House, and with the advice and assent of the Council of State.

The United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina has declared void and of no effect those provisions of Sections 5 and 6 of Article II of the Constitution of North Carolina, which allocate at least one representative to each county without respect to population. It declares void General Statutes 163-103, General Statutes 120-1 and General Statutes 120-2 of the General Statutes of North Carolina. This Federal Court has also prohibited the 1966 primaries and general elections, in relation to the election of the members of the North Carolina General Assembly and the United States House of Representatives. In its interlocutory order, the Court stayed the mandate of its injunction until January 31, 1966, so that a special session of the General Assembly could deal with the matters of reapportionment of the House, redistricting of the State Senate and realignment of our Congressional Districts.

The Court order stated further: "If apportionment compatible to constitutional standards cannot be achieved by that date (January 31, 1966), this Court will regretfully undertake to fashion a scheme of apportionment which will permit the 1966 primaries and elections to proceed on a just and equitable basis."

Some people urged me to call an extraordinary session last September when the suit, Drum v. Seawell, was brought. However, it would have been futile to have called an extra session at that time. Until the Court spoke in Drum v. Seawell, the General Assembly was powerless to reapportion our House of Representatives in conformity with what the Court now declares to be the law. Before the Court decision, the North Carolina Constitution required that each county have at least one representative, and we were bound by that Constitutional requirement.

Furthermore, the Assembly already had adopted the official policy of this State on this matter during the 1965 Regular Session, the first session following the "one man, one vote" decisions in Reynolds v. Sims and companion cases decided by the United States Supreme Court. In that session, by Joint Resolution No. 60, you joined North Carolina with many of our sister states in requesting the Congress to call a convention for the purpose of amending the United States Constitution to permit states having bicameral legislatures to utilize factors other than population in apportioning at least one house of their legislative bodies.

On the date when the North Carolina case was started, the legislative bodies of twenty states had filed similar resolutions with the Congress; three others had filed petitions with the 88th Congress; and the legislatures of four states had adopted such resolutions which had not been communicated to Congress. In all, since 1962, the legislatures of thirty states out of the thirty-three required to obtain a Constitutional Convention had sent some forty-seven communications to Congress officially requesting Congressional action on the subject of State reapportionment.

Certainly, the North Carolina General Assembly was neither unique nor alone in the position it took in 1965 in an effort to preserve the legislative structure that had so well served this State since the Constitution of 1868.

Only after the bringing of Drum v. Seawell and the adjournment of Congress without action was it apparent that the course most preferred by this General Assembly had become unobtainable.

I have given you this background so that everyone may understand that there is nothing unique about the situation in which North Carolina finds itself today. A great majority of the states already have been forced to take action in this area. In view of the decisions of Federal Courts in cases involving these other states, it would have been ill-advised and useless to appeal the decision of the District Court.

As I stated earlier, I share the feelings of many North Carolinians that our present system of representation, while not perfect, has worked well and for the best interests of our people for nearly a century. However, we are faced with the edict of the Court which leaves us no alternative but to do the best we can to comply with its terms.

As you know, the North Carolina Constitution provides in Article II, Sections 4, 5 and 6, that the General Assembly shall be responsible for reapportionment of the House and redistricting of the Senate. Certainly the overwhelming majority of North Carolinians prefers that any changes in our General Assembly and in our Congressional Districts be made by our own representatives in the Legislature and not by the Federal Court.

On December 6, 1965, the Lieutenant Governor, the Speaker of the House, and I met to discuss what North Carolina should do in light of the Federal Court orders. We came to the following conclusions:

First, it was our feeling that an extra session should be called for this date;

Second, that the session should limit itself solely to legislative action designed to comply with the Court order;

Third, that, due to the length of time it would take to amend the Constitution, it would not be practical to consider the possibility of increasing the membership of either the Senate or House at this session; and

Fourth, due to decisions of the Federal Courts, it was our opinion that it would not be realistic to consider any system of so-called "weighted" voting.

It is still my belief that these are wise conclusions.

It was further agreed that the Lieutenant Governor would name a committee from the Senate to study in advance the matter of redistricting for membership in that body, and that the Speaker of the House would appoint a committee from the House to consider its apportionment. It was also agreed that the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker, acting together, would select a joint committee to study the matter of realignment of our Congressional Districts.

I have been pleased and proud of the diligent efforts which all three Legislative committees have made in attempting to find reasonable, lawful solutions to the difficult problems posed by the Court order. The Office of the Attorney General and my office have been in close touch with the committees in all of their deliberations. This preliminary groundwork has been accomplished in a genuine atmosphere of teamwork which is in keeping with our heritage of good, representative government. I am confident that your deliberations have been made less difficult because of the preliminary work already accomplished by the Committees.

Ladies and gentlemen, the hour of decision has arrived. The General Assembly of North Carolina must meet head-on the mandate of the Supreme Court of the United States and reapportion both houses and Congressional districts in accordance with the "one man, one vote" decision enunciated by the Supreme Court.

The General Assembly must make these decisions in compliance with the specific orders of the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina issued on November 30, 1965.

Let us make no mistake about this—the Court will perform the task unless you do so yourselves. For example, in the State of Oklahoma, the Legislature was unable to agree on a plan of reapportionment, and so the Federal Court stepped in and reapportioned by judicial decree. It provided a scheme which divided the State into areas of equal population but which cut across city and county lines.

To allow the Federal Court to assume this legislative responsibility would be an injustice to the people of North Carolina. Our people have chosen you as their lawmakers, imposing upon you the responsibility of making legislative decisions and reposing in you their confidence and trust that you are equal to any legislative task. I have every confidence that you will meet this challenge and that you will do what is best for the State as a whole.

I understand and appreciate that the task before you is a legislative problem, both constitutionally and as a practical matter. Therefore, I have not attempted to present specific proposals for reapportionment of the House, redistricting of the Senate or realignment of our Congressional Districts. The authority, responsibility and trust of our people for these assignments reside in you.

During the last year, we have faced many difficult problems together. Working together, we have met the challenges presented and we have met them in the best interest of the State. Your record is one of proud achievement. Again, you are called upon to find solutions to complicated legislative problems. As you approach this task, I assure you of my continued cooperation and interest. I am confident that your action will further attest to your ability and your desire to serve all our people.

Upon motion of Senator Morgan, the Joint Session is dissolved, and upon his motion the Senate resolves itself into a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of meeting with the House of Representatives at 2:30 p. m., and the Senate stands in recess until that time.

Upon motion of Senator Hyde, the remarks of the President are ordered spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Mr. President, Members of the Senate:

I am grateful for your willingness to permit me to speak to you, a privilege I have not heretofore asked, though there have been times when I wanted to do so.

I ask your indulgence for a few moments while I share with you a few thoughts that have been on my mind for some time.

This General Assembly is to be commended, not so much for the results of this week's deliberations, but for the fact that results were obtained and that it accepted its responsibility to settle this problem as the elected representative voice of the people. When I observe the endless wrangling of some other state legislatures as they attempt to reapportion, I am proud of our General Assembly for the manner in which they handled this unpleasant task. They faced the challenge and reapportioned the General Assembly and Congressional districts with minimum effort and expense to the taxpayer.

I asked permission to speak at this time because some of you, by your own choosing, will not return to this body. Because of action taken in this Extraordinary Session, there are others who may not sit here again.

To the best of my knowledge, this is the first time since the Civil War that a State Senate has sat in three sessions during a 12-month period in the elected term of its members. In these uncertain and tumultuous times, there is no assurance that we will not be called to meet again.

Our State Constitution provides that the Lieutenant Governor shall be the presiding officer of our State Senate. I have been keenly aware of the invisible yet clear line that is drawn between the Executive and Legislative branches of our government. Yet I have come to feel very close to this body, and have vastly deepened my respect, admiration and appreciation for you, both individually and collectively.

I deem it a tremendous privilege and an honor to have been allowed to preside over this great deliberative body—to have been associated with you at a time when great and far reaching issues were debated in this hallowed public forum. It has been a significant time in the pages of history. And when the never-faltering hand of time pens the last action of this General Assembly, I think it can be written at the close of this chapter, Well done, my good and faithful public servants.

When this General Assembly convened on February 3, 1965, I took the chair with the natural apprehension of a newcomer to the legislative scene. But these fears were soon laid to rest because of your understanding, your willingness to work together, your rejection of any feeling of ill will and your determination to work in a substantial degree of harmony. This attitude made my job immeasurably easier and our session more harmonious, more congenial and, I firmly believe, more productive. For this, I humbly and sincerely thank you from the depths of my heart.

Following this Session, the makeup of this General Assembly will change. I concur with the remarks made in this chamber on Wednesday that, so far as I have observed, there has been no unified effort for so-called small counties to dominate the so-called large. Nor do I think that any one geographic area has tried to dominate the proceedings. This is as it should be and I pray that it will always be thus.

As Senator Royster has said this morning, we are all North Carolinians and we cannot afford an atmosphere of small vs. large, or east vs. west, or rural vs. urban or any other combination. Rather, we must continue to look to the growth and progress of this great State, not so much for our sake, but for those yet to come.

I sometimes hear, as you surely do, the sharp criticisms of those outside the General Assembly who disagree with the actions of this body. And in a democracy, this is as it should be and I pray that it will never change. But, as always, these criticisms are sometimes unjust. Though they may be well-intentioned, they sometimes come as the result of a lack of knowledge of the facts of the matter.

To those critics, I quote the words of a former President of our nation, Theodore Roosevelt, who said:

"It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled or where the doer of deeds could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena; whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions and spends himself in a worthy cause; who at best, if he wins, knows in the end the triumph of high achievement; and who at worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly; so that his place shall never be among those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat."

Mr. President and members of the Senate, during these past sessions I have sincerely tried, to the best of my ability, to serve as your presiding officer fairly, honestly and justly. I have tried to give ample opportunity for all views to be expressed. I have had opinions on issues, yes. And a number of times I have wanted to stand in this place to express those opinions. But I have refrained from asking permission to do so because I realized that I am not a member of this body. Yet, in many respects I feel that I am.

My grandfather, for whom I am named, sat as a member of this body in 1901, when Aycock was Governor, and in the House in 1889, 1891 and 1903. My father, though not a member, worked with the General Assembly to get his "go-forward" program adopted. The people of North Carolina gave me the honor, privilege and opportunity to serve as your presiding officer. For these and many other reasons, I shall be forever grateful.

Whether or not this group meets together again, or whether some of you may not sit here again, I share with you and other knowledgeable citizens of our State the pride of this great deliberative body—our General Assembly—and a never ending love and affection of this Senate. I am sure that you and your successors in years to come will maintain the great and honored traditions this General Assembly has built up through the years.

And so, Mr. President and members of the Senate, let us depart not only with the knowledge of past achievements, but with firm resolution and determination, regardless of our future role in the years ahead, that we will dedicate ourselves anew to the preservation of those principles and ideals that have made America a land of freedom in all its greatness, and those great truths, principles and ideals that have made North Carolina a State that stands tall and proud; so that future generations can always say, "I'm proud to be a North Carolinian."

Senator White of Lenoir arises to a point of personal privilege and delivers the following remarks, which, upon motion of Senator Whitehurst, are ordered spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Mr. President, Members of the Senate:

At the request of the Lieutenant Governor and members of a select Committee of the Senate, I accepted the responsibility of managing on the Floor of this Senate the bills introduced at this Extra Session to re-district the House of Representatives and the Senate of North Carolina. I accepted this responsibility with some misgivings but with the assurances of assistance by the other members of the select Committee. I desire now to thank the members of the Committee for their good help, and especially do I thank other members of the Senate for their assistance, some of whom have made tremendous sacrifices in order that we might accomplish our task here. If in my efforts I have given offense or annoyance to anyone, I beg forgiveness. It has been my purpose to deal fairly and courteously with all concerned. I am grateful for the patience and the courtesy with which all members of the Senate and members of the House have considered these measures with me and with others.

On the day before yesterday the Senator from Scotland, Senator King, spoke in a vein of sadness over the plight in which many of our small counties find themselves as a result of such reapportionment and re-districting as will result from the action taken at this Session of the General Assembly. I join the distinguished Senator in his sentiments so well expressed by him and in deploring the plight of the people of our small counties.

In response to the remarks of the Senator from Scotland, the Senator from Forsyth, Senator Hanes, in beautifully appropriate language, expressed the hope that the shift of power resulting from our action would be wisely used for the benefit of North Carolina, and pointed out that men capable of leadership would still come to the General Assembly from among the citizenship of the State's small counties.

Any concept of re-districting and reapportionment drastically different from that to which we have been long accustomed gives rise to misgivings concerning what will be the ultimate results of the practical application of such a plan or concept. I doubt that anyone can now accurately predict what will be the effect of the "one-man, one-vote" concept upon State Government in North Carolina. I am confident that this concept will produce some interesting changes. Some of these changes will be welcomed and some will be deplored. The net result will reflect itself in the character of Government in North Carolina. I am sure that most citizens join me in the hope that we can continue under any concept to have sound, progressive, and, above all, fiscally responsible Government in our State, free from any semblance of graft or fraud or any stain upon our State's present escutcheon of integrity. This, I think, is my chief concern with respect to the change which has been forced upon us. The exercise of power by the judiciary in the field of legislation and in the field of political composition of State Legislatures can indeed be reckless and dangerous. Especially is this true when such power is exercised without regard to many considerations which through the years have proven to be both valuable to the State and harmonious to those who have had the duty and privilege of making a contribution toward shaping the destiny and history of our State.

Our achievement here in this Extraordinary Session of the General Assembly of North Carolina in January 1966 is a high compliment to the composition of this General Assembly, which has now enacted what well may be its last law. The great shift of power and in greater representation is from the little counties to the larger ones, from the poorer and less populous districts to the more affluent and more populous ones. It is true that we have often heard in the heat of battle or in the pain of chagrin or defeat the cry of "sectionalism". These cries have been directed in the past toward the East and toward the far West. I hope that no such cries will in the future be directed toward the Piedmont.

Mr. President and fellow members of the Senate, I deplore these cries and charges of sectionalism exceedingly. I like to look at North Carolina from its four corners. I do look at North Carolina from its four corners. I was born in Cabarrus County in the heart of the Piedmont. I have lived most of my adult life in the thoroughly eastern North Carolina County of Lenoir. My service to the State has made me acutely aware of the hopes and the problems of the people in all parts of our State. My mother, my three sisters, and a brother live in Mecklenburg County. My wife and my children were born and raised in Lenoir County. From these personal references, which I hope you will forgive, and from my experiences, with some of which many of you are familiar, it can be seen that it would be hard for me to accept as well founded any charge of sectionalism in connection with my own legislative experiences or achievement. I hope our brothers from the big counties and from the urban and more populous districts will not soon forget that the shift of power to them through greater representation, which has been accomplished here at this time, has resulted in part from the efforts of many who come from small counties and sparsely populated areas, many of whom realized when voting on the issues before us that to accomplish this end they were casting their last votes in this or any General Assembly.

I loved our General Assembly as it has existed so honorably for more than a century. It grieves me to see it come to this end, but "the old order changeth, yielding place to new, and God fulfills himself in many ways, lest one good custom should corrupt the world." In my own heart I feel that the spirit of the Legislature as we have known and revered it for so long was broken and died at the Extra Session held November 15, 1965. At this Extra Session we were called upon to mutilate and dismember the body of our General Assembly as we have long known it.

We are now about to inter its bones. To me, this is tragic; but true North Carolinians do not give up in defeat nor in tragedy. With the composition of the General Assembly of 1967 let us build upon the foundation of North Carolina tradition which we inherit from the General Assembly which now passes into history, a sound and progressive legislative body with integrity, dedicated to the advancement of the wholesome interests of the people of our State and from every section of our State.

If in the next Legislature more voices of our people can be heard, let us hope that these voices will be raised in the tradition of good government as it has existed in North Carolina in the past, and as it now exists, and that our Government can and will remain clean and fiscally sound, and of such character as to warrant the continued pride of all patriotic North Carolinians in the State Government of North Carolina.

ENROLLED BILLS

Senator Cook, for the Committee on Enrolled Bills, reports the following bills and resolutions properly enrolled, and they are duly ratified and sent to the office of the Secretary of State:

H. R. 16, a joint resolution by the Extra Session of the General Assembly of 1966 providing for adjournment on Friday, January 14, 1966.

S. B. 4, an act to establish Congressional Districts.

Senator White of Lenoir arose to a point of personal privilege and delivered the following remarks, which, upon motion of Senator Whitehurst, are ordered spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Mr. President, Members of the Senate:

Yesterday in ceremonies held in the House Chamber in the Capitol Building bronze plaques were unveiled. Upon these plaques were inscribed the names of the Members of the House and Members of the Senate who first served in the Capitol Building in 1840; there were also inscribed on these plaques the names of those who last served in the House of Representatives and in the Senate in that building in the 1961 General Assembly, which was the last Session of the General Assembly held in the Capitol Building.

Mention was made of the names of those Members of the 1961 House of Representatives who have died since their service as Members of the 1961 House of Representatives. Through some unfortunate inadvertence, those participating in the proceedings made no mention of the names of the Honorable B. C. Brock of Davie County; the Honorable Cutlar Moore of Robeson County; and the Honorable J. Benton Thomas of Hoke County, each of whom, now deceased, was a Member of the 1961 Senate.

Equally unfortunate and with attendant sadness on the part of every surviving Member of the 1961 Senate, no mention was made of the name of the greatly beloved and revered Presiding Officer of the 1961 Senate, the late H. Cloyd Philpott of Davidson County. Cloyd Philpott was my close friend. I cannot let this moment pass without remarking that the quality of his being, his mastery of himself, and his patience and generosity of thought and action in relation to his fellow man secured to him the affection, the admiration and the respect of all who were privileged to labor with him for our State, or who associated with him in any way.

I suggest that the record be permitted to show that when we adjourn this last Session of an historic Legislature sine die that it be adjourned, so far as this Senate is concerned, in honor of the memory of the Honorable H. Cloyd Philpott and all Members of the State Senate who have died since the convening of the 1961 Senate.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following message is received from the House of Representatives:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Friday, January 14, 1966.

Mr. President:

You are respectfully advised that the business of the House of Representatives has been concluded and that Body will be ready to open the doors of the House immediately upon receipt of information from your Honorable Body that you are ready to open your doors, that the gavels may fall simultaneously and adjournment may be declared sine die.

Respectfully,
ANNIE E. COOPER,
Principal Clerk.

Pursuant to the information submitted above, the Senate having completed the business before it, a message is ordered sent to the House of Representatives informing that Honorable Body that the Senate stands ready for final adjournment.

The doors of the House of Representatives and Senate are thrown open, the Speaker of the House of Representatives is perceived standing ready to let fall the gavel. The hour for adjournment fixed by joint resolution passed by the two Houses having arrived, the President of the Senate declares the Senate of the General Assembly of the Extra Session of 1966 adjourned, sine die, and upon motion of Senator White of Lenoir, adjournment is had in honor of the memory of former Lieutenant Governor Cloyd Philpott.

ROBERT W. SCOTT,
