Although the provisions of the law covering fire department operation are vague and amenable to various interpretations, the work schedule proposed by PSD meets the requirements of the law and is acceptable to all parties concerned.
2. A Police Investigator is conducting a study of the releases from detention of CHABUN suspects awaiting trial, the reasons therefor, and whether the reasons given can be substantiated.	In this connection, PSD Investigator visited the hospital where OZU is under treatment after being released for alleged medical reasons. A written report on this and similar cases will be prepared for the Chief, PSD.
3. One Police Administrator and one Investigator made arrangements to send mobile two-way police radio equipment into Saitama Prefecture to replace ordinary communications facilities disrupted by the recent flood.	One fixed station and two mobile units were dispatched under the supervision of the Japanese police. A check on the efficiency of the emergency communications by PSD representatives disclosed that they have greatly facilitied rescue work.
4. Two Prison Administrators attended the inauguration of the Medical and Scientific Section of the Bureau of Prison Affairs.	Members of the newly organized Section were urged to put forth their best efforts to cope with the enormous problems facing them.
