

भारतीय नौसेना

Press Release (Kochi) - 08 Jul 11

NAVY SCHOOL KOCHI CELEBRATES SILVER JUBILEE

A tableau depicting unity in diversity of the nation during the Silver Jubilee celebrations

Navy Children School (NCS) Kochi, concluded the three month long silver jubilee celebrations of the school with a heartwarming entertainment programme. The programme put up by 450 students of the school, was witnessed by Vice Admiral KN Sushil, Flag Officer Commanding in Chief, Southern Naval Command, senior Navy officials, parents and teachers of the school. Smt Indira V James, the founder Principal of the School was felicitated on completion of the programme. Later addressing the audience, Vice Admiral Sushil termed the programme put up by the students, imaginatively conceived, intelligently executed and elegantly choreographed. The Admiral also invoked the famous Independence Day Speech of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and reminded the students that it is their bounden duty to guide the nation to its full potential. Earlier Mr Joy Saviar, Vice Principal of the school welcomed the gathering.

A slew of programmes including a family painting competition, and an inter school debating competition was held to commemorate the silver jubilee of the school. NCS Kochi which boasts of the most cosmopolitan student community in Kochi, was founded on 8th July 1986, under the aegis of Navy Education Society.

The school intended primarily for the wards of Navy personnel, has strength of 2300 students and has consistently secured excellent results in Class X and Class XII examination. The school also possess excellent infrastructure and the alumni from the school have achieved excellence in all spheres of human endeavour

Mrs Letha Sushil, President of Navy Wives Welfare Association (SR), felicitating Mrs Indira V James

Vice Admiral KN Sushil, Flag Officer Commanding in Chief, Southern Naval Command, releasing the Silver Jubilee edition of the NCS Journal "Beacon"