DON'T FORGET! TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT!

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK
When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Luster at Once.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Bring back the color to your hair by getting from any drug store a bottle of "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored, and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Why Be Afraid of Good Food?
Eat What You Like Best But Follow It With a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet.

When the stomach sours or becomes uneasy, with heartburn, it needs the alkaline effect to offset the acid condition. This you get from one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Belief is usually very prompt. The regular use of the tablet after meals gives the stomach and small intestine substantial help to digest food and you will then be able to eat what you like. Fried eggs, sausage, buckwheat cakes and many other things you thought would make your stomach miserable. Get a 50-cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store and you will then eat whatever you like and be fortified against the acid, sour stomach due to indigestion or dyspepsia.

STOCK VICTIM OF MAN'S RAGE

Veronica Reith Says Husband Wreaked Vengeance on Stock; Asks Divorce.

Cows and hens were innocent victims of the uncontrollable rage of Raymond C. Reith, aged 30, during frequent quarrels he used to have with his wife when they lived in the rural district near Duluth, according to the story that Mrs. Veronica M. Reith, aged 26, tells in divorce papers filed yesterday afternoon with the clerk of the district court.

Mrs. Reith alleges that when he would fly into one of his "rages," he would "wantonly maim or kill some of the stock." While in the country she says they were raising poultry and livestock.

After they moved to town, Mrs. Reith claims that he used to break up the household furniture when he became enraged at her over some trifling difference. On one occasion, she alleges, she struck her.

Mrs. Reith alleges that she could no longer stand to live with him and that she left him in September, 1919, and has never seen him since.

Threats Against Wife.
She also alleges that her husband claimed to possess some drug, which if administered, would cause death or insanity. In a rage, she alleges, he would drug to her or to her parents. She says that she believed or feared that he might put his threat into execution.

Judge Bert Foster yesterday granted Alta M. Schoon, aged 34, a decree of divorce from Joseph W. Schoon, aged 44, confederator at 2322 West Third street, on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Schoon testified that her husband beat her and called her vile names. She was granted the custody of their two children, 14½ and permanent monthly alimony and $25 as attorney's fees.

 A greatly improved showing was made in the movement of coal to Duluth and Superior docks during the last few days. Yesterday fourteen cargoes were discharged at the docks and the same number of cargoes were unloaded on Saturday. With the receipt of fifty-four cargoes during the last week, a high record for the movement was set for the season.

ORE SHIPPING ON INCREASE
 Showing for October and Season Ahead of Last Year.
 A gratifying showing was made in iron shipments from the head of the Lakes docks and Ashland for October and for the season to date. For October an increase of 2,170,221 tons was shown, with shipments aggregating 7,325,454 tons. For the season to Oct. 31 shipments mounted up to 43,490,899 tons, an increase of 5,801,213 tons over the corresponding period last year.

More Soft Coal in October.
 Receipts of soft coal at Duluth docks during October were reported at 1,598,400 tons, compared with 1,500,000 tons last year. A falling off was shown in the movement of anthracite coal for the month, receipts amounting to 271,600 tons, against 419,200 tons last year. Receipts of soft coal for the season to Oct. 31 last aggregated 12,618,200 tons, showing a shortage of 1,500,000 tons compared with the same period last year. To that deficiency must be added 2,000,000 tons shortage on the docks when the season of navigation opened last spring.

Anthracite Receipts for the Season to Oct. 31 aggregated 1,225,800 tons, an increase of 37,570 tons as compared with last year. The hard coal situation is, however, not regarded as satisfactory as would appear from the face of these figures for the reason that a surplus of 350,000 tons remained on the docks in the spring. The white coal springing the anthracite sheds at the head of the Lakes were empty.

Comparative figures of coal receipts by docks for the season to Oct. 31, as compiled by the Tomlinson company, Duluth vessel agents, were:

	1919	1920
Northwestern	130,900	113,000
Bertrand	17,200	64,000

GOVERNOR COX ENDS CAMPAIGN

Makes Concluding Address to Big Audience at Toledo, Ohio.

Toledo, Ohio, Nov. 2.—Governor Cox, the Democratic presidential candidate, closed his campaign here last night as he began it three months ago, with a plea that the election be decided in favor of America's entrance into the League of Nations. He predicted his election at the polls was a certainty, declaring that his success would be a victory for a cause, not for a political party.

Two large audiences, numbering several thousands, heard his speech and as he closed his last plea for the league his words were that its acceptance by the United States meant "peace on earth, good will to man."

The governor's visit to this city was to keep faith with a political superstition, his party followers here asserting his only defeat at the polls was when he did not close his campaign here on election eve.

Referring to his political career and the local superstition, the governor said: "I finish the campaign here tonight, and I expect to win tomorrow."

Closes Campaign.
The governor brought his campaign to a close just an hour and half before the beginning of election day. The song of the angels at Bethlehem that he used as the closing words of his campaign, he said, would be sung again by the angels when this country entered the league.

"Every traitor in America," the governor asserted in this connection, "will vote tomorrow for Warren G. Harding."

This remark caused a few hearers to leave the hall, with whom the crowd made merry as the departing voters moved toward exits. The governor also declared that when he started the campaign he promised to "step a fast beat," and he added that he "finished with greater speed than ever."

Governor Cox attacked the Republican platform, asserting that efforts were made in its preparation to please various party leaders with the result that "absolutely nothing was left in their declarations."

To Win Various Groups.
The governor reiterated charges made by him at various times in the campaign that the Republicans sought to win various groups of voters.

"They said the negro vote would come to them practically solid," said the governor.

"There has been entirely too much said about social equality for the future serenity of the nation."

Before their convention, the governor continued, the Republican leaders made efforts "to get the pro-German vote" by producing the Knox resolution in the senate.

"They flirted with the professional pro-German vote from the beginning to the end of the campaign," said Governor Cox.

Then taking up the League of Nations, Governor Cox declared that his objection by this country was the "outstanding issue" to be decided at the election. In this country, the governor continued, he morally bound to adopt the league because of what he described as the "country's promise to American soldiers who died in the World war."

Religious Eyes.
"The spiritual eyes of 11,000 American boys who fell in the war," declared the governor, "will look upon you tomorrow at the polls to see whether we are a nation of honor or a nation of repudiators."

The governor repeated again his "conspiracy charge" accusing Senator Lodge and other Republican senators, as "conspirators in hatching a plot to defeat the league."

"After tomorrow," continued the governor, "one of the conspirators will be a private citizen residing at Marion, Ohio."

Governor Cox said that the Covenant of the league aims "to remove the causes of war, and he denied that England would have six votes to one for the United States in the organization. Further, he asserted that the league would not interfere with Ireland becoming a separate nation, but he contended that Ireland's best chance for freedom was through the league. Denial also was made by the governor that America's entrance into the league would permit American soldiers being sent abroad without a declaration of war by congress.

"I cannot tell where Senator Harding stands on the league question for I have not read today's newspapers," said the governor.

Hundred and Nineteenth infantry Third division, was born in township of Brookway, Stearns county on June 14, 1884. The mean temperature was 52.2 degrees and in October, 1900, it was 54 degrees, according to the monthly report of H. W. Richardson, local weather observer. The precipitation was somewhat more than in any other month, and occurred virtually all of which fell on and after the thirteenth.

IMPROVING THEIR HERDS

Red River Valley Farmers Not Letting Up Because Prices Slump.

Crookston, Minn., Nov. 2.—(Special to The Herald)—Farmers of the Red River valley will not let up in their efforts to improve their herds because of the present inevitable slump in prices, is the consensus of opinion of well-informed men in this section. As evidence of this is cited the announcement that Marshall county breeders will hold a sale of purebred hogs and cattle at Warren on Nov. 5 and 6, indicating that the slump is not letting down now, the Red River valley farmers are investing in purebred livestock more heavily than before.

FORMER ARGYLE MAN FLIES TO MILL CITY

Crookston, Minn., Nov. 2.—(Special to The Herald)—Eighteen arrests of state game law violators have been made in this section by the game warden William Munch, who has just returned from a survey of the northern section of his district. In Clearwater county Mr. Munch arrested David Edwards on a charge of hunting geese in his possession. Edwards paid $10 and costs. In Peterson at Shelbyville and was fined $10 and costs.

Washington, Nov. 2.—(Special to The Herald)—The long delay in awarding medals for distinguished wartime service in the navy and marine corps is about to be ended, it was learned yesterday at the navy department. The decorations, which were held up while a naval board considered the awards after a controversy among naval officers and a subsequent congressional investigation last winter, have been mailed to commanding officers and are being distributed either on Armistice Day, Nov. 11, or Armistice Sunday, Nov. 14.

COLD, SNAPPY WEATHER FOR ELECTION DAY

Crisp, snappy weather, but with no prospect of snow, the weather forecast for election day, according to H. W. Fitzhugh, local weather observer, while the weather may be cloudy with occasional snow showers, it is predicted there will be no general snow fall and the temperature will not drop much below zero on Friday, which however around the freezing point. It may drop slightly lower on Friday, but not to any great extent.

Water was subdued in yesterday with an inch of snow. With the high winds that reached a high velocity from the northeast, it might have been very disagreeable had the temperature been low. As it was it did not go below 23 deg. during the day and 20 during the night. Later in the night the wind shifted to the west and the temperature dropped somewhat.

HARDING BUSY PLAYING GOLF

Republican victory, already have given him the attention of the presidential electors, and the inevitable procession of office seekers has begun. Requests for appointments to Democratic offices cannot members down have reached Harding's headquarters in the city. There has been a rush for postmasterhips by many who are not aware that recent legislation has put these positions under the civil service.

One of those who sought to serve as secretary of state, wrote the senator that although he was young and inexperienced, and had no special talents and high aims, and was willing to take advice. His name had never been heard before the candidates for his advisers here.

President C. of the Fourth ward of Marion was the senator's voting place today. It returned a Democratic majority at the election, but the local Republican managers predicted that it would go for Harding by a big margin today.

Senator and Mrs. Harding reached the present voting place, a red brick garage, shortly after 10 o'clock today. They were checked when they entered the building and several of those who were awaiting them to take up their places. The senator refused, however, and took his place in the line with Mrs. Harding just ahead of him.

Half dozen spotlights were concentrated on them and a battery of cameras clicked away as the senator and his wife waited their turn. Mr. Harding took orders from the photographers who were lined up in front of the crowd laughing by mimicking the movie men.

"That's right, let's keep this scenario going good," he said, "you know you only vote for yourself, or do you not?"

"Yes," corrected a woman in the crowd and the candidate nodded and joined in the laugh.

Mrs. Harding's voting number was 262, and her husband's 301 is a word whose registered vote is about 500. As they emerged from the voting booth the spotlights shined on them again and there was another burst of cheering as they handed over their ballots to the election judge.

The Harding family to the polls accompanied by the senator's secretary, George I. Christian, who took his place in line behind his chief. He was followed in turn by Mr. Harding's chauffeur, Frank Lee, Jr.

EFFECT OF PRESIDENT IS FEARED

of course, take office until after next March, when a special session would be called, but it is believed the effect of a Democratic victory in the senate might mean a more conciliatory mood in the session of congress to be convened next month.

Friends of the League of Nations will not wait for a special session of congress is called next spring in order to push for the treaty, but they are making every effort to secure proper reservations. Every vote taken in the senate has shown more favor to the league, but a separate vote favoring ratification of the treaty and league in some form. It would help the next administration immensely if the treaty were given power, so that domestic affairs might be given up for the time being. More than a year has already been spent in wrangling over the treaty and league, while domestic issues, like taxation, have suffered by neglect. The treaty question may suffer if postponed to a special session of congress.

It is considered possible that President Wilson's attitude toward a compromise on reservations will have been greatly softened by the election at the polls and that a nonpartisan or bipartisan movement may get started to bring about America's entry into the league during the remaining days of President Wilson's administration. It would probably lighten the president and give him strength to hear the strain of his illness.

The true condition of the president is a matter of conjecture. Few people know, though there is the usual amount of rumor about a relapse. The best information available has been able to obtain is that the president has been steadily improving and is much better than he was some months ago. Nobody can foresee what the effect of a disappointment may be, but now, who know Mr. Wilson best, are convinced that his vitality is such that he will be able to stand the heat that is sure to come. The president does not read newspapers generally, and it is said that he has not been given any pessimistic reports about the result, so that very probably the result will come as a shock to him.

Resignation of Resignation.

As for the rumors of resignation in the event of defeat at the polls, this inference is believed to have been drawn from a recent speech of Governor Cox in which he predicted the "retirement" of the president from public affairs. Mr. Wilson is a firm believer in the theory that the head of a government should resign when defeated, just as in the case with parliamentary government, but circumstances influenced him in 1918 when

HAIR HINTS

Helpful Advice for Care of the Hair Worthy the Attention of Every One Who Would Avoid Dandruff, Itching Scalp, Gray Hair and Baldness.

If your hair is getting thin or you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp use Parisian Sage, daily for a week and you will surely be surprised to see how quickly it stops falling hair and removes every sign of dandruff and itching scalp.

Before going to bed I rub a little Parisian Sage into my scalp," says a woman whose luxuriant soft and fluffy hair is greatly admired. "This makes my hair from being dry, faded or scraggly, helps it to retain its natural color and beauty, and makes it easy to arrange attractively."

Beautiful, soft, glossy, healthy hair, and lots of it, is a simple matter for those who use Parisian Sage. This harmless, delicately perfumed, and non-greasy invigorator is sold at all good drug and toilet counters. Be sure you get the genuine Parisian Sage (Groux's) as that has the money-back guarantee printed on every bottle—Advertisement.

he lost both houses of congress to ignore European precedent as applied to America's form of government, and it is not generally credited that he will abandon his post before the close of his administration. On the other hand it has been generally credited that he will own personally as a factor, Vice President Marshall might be able to negotiate a settlement of the treaty question with the Republican senate, he would probably share the credit of the president's views on the League of Nations, and it is hardly to be expected that he would champion the cause during the next session of congress.

Nobody can predict with accuracy what might be the outcome of the election on the plans of President Wilson. All Washington is hoping that he will be able to handle the inevitable verdict of the polls and that he will be well enough to remain in office until the end of his term.

Partisanship may disappear with the election, and after a month's intermission the next congress may come back in a better mood to take up the matter of foreign policy and dispose of it before an avalanche of domestic problems like the excess profits tax, comes down on the next administration.

COX AND WIFE CAST BALLOTS

Carmonte today.

"Yes, this town needs to be waked up," was her rejoinder.

After getting his ballot—No. 236—the governor and his wife without a pencil, but many were offered him and his wife, but he borrowed one of the owner, who remarked:

"I'll keep this as a keepsake from the next congress."

The candidate responded with a smile. Mrs. Cox's ballot was No. 235, showing that 234 voters had preceded her and her husband to the polls.

While in the railroad yards where his train was buried and some old discarded machinery and coal chutes, the governor was seen by two unobtrusive party of the yards, cleaning up coaches. They, governor, come out here; I just set for you called one of the women.

The governor hurried to the rear platform and shook the woman's hands and said: "I'm very much obliged to you."

As a party shot to his campaign, the governor issued an election day statement in which he declared:

"I am proud to stand during the entire campaign for the cause of the people. It has not failed. It will not fail today."

HALF DULUTH'S VOTE IS CAST AT NOON; NEW RECORD

A heavy vote during the early morning hours in District No. 1 in western Park, the vote was about one-half up to noon. In this district 572 registered and about 200 had voted at 12 o'clock. District No. 28 also showed about half of the vote up to noon. District No. 21 had 128 out of a registration of 414 and a heavy vote coming in during the noon hour.

West Duluth and Morgan Park did not show any heavy vote during the early hours, but they were coming in fairly fast during the noon hour. Expected during the hours after 6 o'clock, after the men are through work.

Heavy Downtown Vote.

In the downtown district the voting is running about even with that in other districts in the East and in Lester Park, about half being cast at noon. District No. 35, at the court-house, had 121 out of 477 registered; an urgent appeal to all voters is being sent by City Clerk Ash and the election judges to vote as early as possible, as there will be a rush to the polls later in the day. Many of the men will have their first opportunity of voting there and also many women who have been unable to get to the polls before. The polls will close at 6 o'clock and unless the voters are inside the polling places or are in line then they will not be able to cast their votes. The instructions of Mr. Ash are that all who are in line at 6 o'clock will be allowed to vote in the order in which they are lined up. Judges have been instructed to accept the ballots even if they come in after 6 o'clock, but not unless the voters are inside the polls or lined up awaiting their turn.

Returns are not expected to begin to come in before 10 or 11 o'clock tonight. Instructions to the judges have been given to count the ballots for president first, then those for governor and state officers, and finally for congress. As fast as these results are determined they will be telephoned to the city clerk's office and from there to The Herald where they will be flashed on the screen.

whether Warren G. Harding, Republican, or James M. Cox, Democrat, has been elected to succeed Woodrow Wilson, for it is generally agreed that barring a miracle, none of the other five candidates has a chance. This choice is estimated by being registered by a vote of between 20,000,000 and 30,000,000 persons, many of whom are newly enfranchised women, who are voting for the first time.

Second only in interest to the contest for the presidency is the fight between the two major parties for the control of congress. Thirty-four senators, thirty-two to fill seats now held by seventeen Democrats and fifteen Republicans and two to fill the unexpired terms caused by the deaths of Senators Bankhead, Alabama, and Martin, Virginia, both Democrats, are being chosen as well as an entire new house, composed of 435 members.

Present Senate Close.

The present senate is composed of forty-seven Democrats, forty-eight Republicans and one Republican Progressive. The present house consists of 199 Democrats, 232 Republicans, two independent Republicans, one independent and one Prohibitionist. There are also nine vacancies.

Will H. Hays and George White, Republican and Democratic national chairmen, respectively, each continued confident of victory. Mr. Hays reiterated his prediction that the Republican ticket was "certain to obtain 368 electoral votes" and that there was a "strong possibility that the total might reach the 400 mark. A total of 265 is necessary to elect Mr. White gave out no last minute prediction on the electoral vote, but renewed his expression of confidence in the election of Governor Cox. Each chairman also predicted a close contest for the next congress.

Ends This Morning.

The campaign, waged principally around the League of Nations issue, did not end until early this morning. Harding spent election eve quietly at his home in Marion, Ohio, while Governor Cox wound up his campaign at a big meeting in Toledo last night, but state and local candidates kept up their quest for votes into the dark hours of the night.

Unsettled weather with the possibility of rain, faced the early voters of the Eastern states, while those of the Upper Mississippi valley and Northern New York prepared for a heavy snow for the weatherman's prediction of snow. The rest of the country generally is expected to vote under clear skies.

Senator Harding will await the verdict at his home in Marion, where he will receive news bulletins compiled from figures collected by the Associated Press. Governor Cox plans to receive returns in the office of his newspaper, the Dayton Daily News, which is a member of the Associated Press, and will obtain his full election returns by circulating Governor Calvin Coolidge will watch the returns at Boston while Franklin D. Roosevelt will await the result at his home in Hyde Park, N. Y.

North Dakota.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 2.—Weather here gave promise of a good day in spite of the fact that the sky was partly overcast. This coupled with the great interest in the state contest between Nonpartisan and Independent Voters' association supporters, indicated one of the largest votes in the history of the state.

Arkansas.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 2.—With Republicans centering efforts in the third district to bring about a break in the solid Democratic delegation to congress, voters of Arkansas cast their ballots today. The third district contest was between John N. Edwards, Democratic incumbent, and John I. Worthington.

Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 2.—Forecast skies was the forecast for election day in Pennsylvania, and early indications point to a bright but cloudy and windy weather. At sunrise it was cloudy and misty, but cleared up by 10 o'clock.

Party leaders and workers exerted every effort to get out their full voting force. The day was one of the quietest presidential campaigns in Pennsylvania in years.

Delaware.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 2.—Election day in Delaware opened cloudy and foggy. It was one of the quietest election days in the state and many Republican leaders claimed the state and made extraordinary claims for the election. The day was quiet because of the uncertainty of the woman vote some impartial observers claimed the state as doubtful.

Nevada.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 2.—Fair weather and a heavy vote was forecast for election day in Nevada, chief interest centering in the senatorial race in which Senator Charles B. Henderson, Democrat, is opposed by former Governor Taylor B. Henderson, Republican, and Miss Anne Martin, a suffrage leader, contesting as an independent.

Both Democratic and Republican party leaders profess confidence in the success of their national and congressional tickets.

Colorado.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 2.—Interest in Colorado's presidential election was in contrast with the Republican party for control of state offices overshadowed the presidential outcome in today's election. Fair, cool weather greeted the voters and the election in the state while those in Southern Colorado went to the polls under lowering skies.

James M. Collins, Democratic-Nonpartisan candidate, is contesting gubernatorial honors with Oliver C. Shoup, Republican incumbent.

Missouri.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 2.—The presidential race shared interest with senatorial and gubernatorial contests. Missouri voters went to the polls today. Leaders of the Democratic and Republican parties expressed confidence at the outcome.

Senator Selig P. Spencer, Republican, a candidate for re-election, is supported by Brewster C. Long, formerly the chief assistant secretary of state, John M. Atkinson, Democrat, and Arthur M. Fox, Republican, the candidates for governor.

With the promise of fair weather, a heavy vote was expected.

Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 2.—Cold, clear weather in the greater portion of Kentucky brought out a heavy vote in today's election. Louisville was expected to cast the largest vote in the state, the registration voting increased 80 per cent.

In addition to president and United States senator there were contests in nine of the congressional districts. In the remaining two, one Democrat and one Republican were conceded the election.

Oklahoma.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 2.—With the enfranchisement of women, Oklahoma was expected to cast a vote of over 400,000 today, interest being centered chiefly in the senatorial, congressional and state contests. There was no gubernatorial election. The weather was clear and cool.

Iowa.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 2.—Early reports indicated heavy voting in Iowa, interest was kept in the race of Senator A. J. Clegg, Republican, and Charles Porter, Democrat, for United States senator. In the central part of the state the weather was cool and cloudy with a light snow.

Nebraska.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 2.—Cold but clear weather prevailed here today following yesterday's snow storm, giving promise of a heavy vote.

In Northeastern and Western Nebraska, where the storm reached blizzard proportions, county roads are reported virtually impassable, promising to reduce the vote in the rural districts of those sections.

Georgia.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 2.—Negro women were refused ballots at voting places here today. Many negro women had registered since the suffrage amendment was passed, but the state judges ruled they were not entitled to vote because of a state law which requires registration six months before an election.

No white women presented themselves at the polls.

West Virginia.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 2.—In spite of a drizzling rain, West Virginia voters went early to the polls at 6 o'clock. Disorders reported were from Snowhill, Kanawha county, where it was alleged the ballot box had been stolen. A party of government agents were sent to the town.

South Dakota.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 2.—South Dakota awoke to fair weather this morning. The sun promised to melt snow and ice and the temperature is slowly rising, giving promise of a heavy vote.

Connecticut.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 2.—Skies were overcast and the wind mischievous and chilly throughout Connecticut today, but the voters went early to the polls with indications of a heavy vote.

Massachusetts.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 2.—An overcast sky that carried a threat of rain greeted the Massachusetts voters who went to the polls early today. Predictions were made that 800,000 ballots would be marked in the state.

AMONG the novelties that have been launched for the fall are a number of dresses and coats that show the peasant embroideries of Czechoslovakia. This idea was first exploited by Jeanne Lanvin at her August openings in 1919, but at that time the maker was entirely alone in using distinctly Czechoslovak patterns and colorings. Since the many other dressmakers have taken up the idea, and now the fashion is in full swing, this is an interesting example of the way in which a fashion, if good, will live, no matter how extreme it may appear. It need not endure in its original form, perhaps, because of its extravagance, but its offspring are made for many a day. So few worthy ideas are brought out that dressmakers are not willing to let a really good thing escape.

We prophesied when this style first appeared that it would have a remarkable influence on fashions for a long time to come, and a really good thing it was not to be so. In any way the delicate touch embroidery was charming. Also, with the black and white effects were lovely black embroideries on stone-colored cloths. This has developed into a really good thing, and is now in vogue.

Of John Cooper Powys, who will lecture here Thursday evening, under the auspices of the A. C. A., at the First Methodist church, a recent article in the Kansas City Star says: "It is his poetic insight, perhaps, that makes him such an extraordinary interpreter of literature and life. Few of us have the patience and the training to get the poetical and the botanical view of the facts that make up the earth's surface. All of us can appreciate the interpretation in a Corot landscape. Mr. Powys interprets philosophy and literature and the artist's vision. His pictures are a series of vivid impressions, the adventures of the lecturer himself in the world of ideas. Their flashes of insight, their unexpected turns, their occasional revolts against conventional ideas, combine to keep the hearer on edge. It is an experience worth while for a community to come in contact with such a stimulating and unusual personality. His challenge provokes thinking."

Among the interesting affairs on the social calendar for tomorrow (Tuesday) is the bridge party at which Miss Dorothy Crosby will entertain at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Crosby, East Superior street. Seven tables will be in use.

Representatives of men and women of Duluth and Superior will be patrons and patronesses for the lecture to be given at Central high school auditorium at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon by Miss Fatty S. Hill, an internationally recognized authority on child training and education. Duluth people who are patrons are: Mrs. J. J. Davis, George H. Crosby, W. Leckie, W. J. Macleod, William B. Peck, William B. Phelps, John Macleod, John G. Williams, J. M. Roberts.

"TINKER BOB" STORIES
By CARLYSLE H. HOLCOMB

TINKER BOB HAS TWO VISITORS.

TINKER BOB had been king of the forest long enough to learn the rap of nearly every bird and beast of the forest. And the minute he heard this "tap, tap, tap, tap," he knew it was none other than Jerry, the Jay Bird.

"What's the matter now?" asked Tinker as he went to answer the rap. "Oh, I want to tell you something quick. I can hardly wait," said Jerry as the king opened the door. He had been lying so fast that he could scarcely get his breath. "Oh, king, do you know what has happened in the forest? It is the most terrible thing that I ever heard of! Do not be surprised, oh king, because this fellow has been acting strangely for some time. I don't know what it is, but the king, for he is not worth worrying about, and I hope he will never come back. It is just this—Mr. Possum has run away with the Moon."

Jerry thought the king of the forest did not know anything about it. "I am so sorry, Jerry, that you used up all your breath in coming to tell me of O. Possum's flight," said Tinker Bob. "For I knew he was going before he went. I saw him climb the Magic Cornstalk."

Jerry's feathers fell. He didn't know what to do at first for he thought he was telling the king of the forest did not know. But that was no more Jerry's business. He was going before he went, telling a secret.

How could say nothing more, for he was ashamed of himself so he flew away in a hurry. Tinker Bob laughed and said, "Feather-brain, you should not try to think before he journeyed so far to tell the king something he already knew."

Jerry had been gone only a moment when the king of the forest saw the tops of the small bushes moving—which was really a message to him that some creature was coming. He watched the bushes until he saw a creature's legs. He saw the creature's legs stop, then they would start again just as though the creature were brought from the side and then came to the king's doorstep. Who do you think it was?

THERE is a big difference between Calumet and all other Baking Powders.

First—You see it in the cost. Calumet is sold at a moderate price.

Then—you observe it in use. Calumet has more than the usual leavening strength, therefore less is required.

Next—you notice it in raising quality—in the evenness—lightness and texture of your bakings. They look better—finer grained.

"Some Biscuit!"

Calumet Biscuit Recipe: 4 cups of sifted pastry flour, 4 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1 level teaspoon of salt, 2 rounding-tablespoons of butter softened, 1/2 cup of milk, 1/2 cup of water. Then mix in the regular way.

It was the largest audience that ever paid to enter the Chicago Auditorium. This is the big attraction that Mrs. Stephen H. Jones will present at the Army Nov. 6.

The "Star Spangled Banner" and "America" with Sousa directing will be sung on Saturday night.

PHOTOPLAYS

NEW GARRICK—Pauline Frederick in "Madame X" and "The Untamed."

STRAND—"Humoresque" with Alma Tubbins.

THEATRE—Tom Mix in "The Untamed."

NEW LYRIC—Hert Lytell in "The Price of Redemption."

NEW ASTOR—"The Return of Tarzan."

NEW GARRICK—"Madame X" the feature of a stellar bill at the New Garrick this week, presents Pauline Frederick in the most remarkable performance of her splendid career, but it is more than a "star picture." It is a story so human, so pathetic, so real that there is not an audience anywhere that can look upon it without being moved to the very depths. This is being demonstrated at every showing, when even men ordinarily stoic, are found with their eyes mist-dimmed. Without maykish sentimentality, without stage tricks and directorial sleight of hand, "Madame X" tells an inspiring story of mother-love no superior to which has ever been shown on stage or screen. "High and Dizzy" Harold Lloyd's big comedy, takes the same high rank. This comedienne is, at his very best, in "High and Dizzy."

NEW LYRIC—"Why, It's a Bert Lytell Picture" and "It's a Lytell Picture" are the saying of the Lytell picture house today at that cozy downtown house of good photoplay. With it is shown as an added attraction, "Shuffle the Queens," a Christie comedy special that portrays an amusing and heart-breaking story of a man who became a hero through a desperate deed of bravery, then after a wealthy, but unhappy marriage, sinks to the depths of degradation in mysterious India, branded a criminal to shield another. His journey through the love of his little child provides a tremendous heart appeal to make the thrilling of his little child, rebellious native troops of India, become white military forces. "Old Lady 41" with Emma Dunn, the star of the original stage production of the Rachel Crothers charming comedy, which includes tears and sunshine, comes tomorrow as the featured attraction.

NEW ASTOR—"The Tarzan" stories, by the famous author, Edgar Rice Burroughs, have a long history to the coming in the New Astor today of "The Son of Tarzan," the latest and greatest of these stories, to be shown for the first time in the Northwest. On the same bill is William S. Hart in "The Devil's Double" and tonight, electric light, will be received up to midnight by leased wire and special service. A special show in run from 11 o'clock to midnight has been arranged to care for this. In "The Son of Tarzan," Jack son of Tarzan of the Apes inherits his father's love for the jungle, and by an extraordinary series of circumstances he finds himself in the African wilderness. The love of the jungle comes only to him. He battles with lions, great apes and other beasts until it is recognized that the greatest in the forest is Korak, the Killer, son of Tarzan. He rescues a girl, Merion, from a half-savage Arab, and when they are rescued after many years from the jungle, he finds that she is a real princess, as well as princess of his heart, not even the last of which he realized before.

STRAND—A picture with a greater appeal than "Humoresque," now playing at the Strand theater, has never been made. It is a potpourri of all the sweetness and greatness of mother-love, blended with some of the humor and some of the pathos of everyday life. The day you see it will be a red-letter day in your entertainment calendar. Adapted from the story of Fannie Hurst, it follows the writer's original intention more closely than most filmed versions of published fiction. The depth of characterizations Miss Hurst created is realized as they step forward and are recognized as old friends. The incidents she suggests follow closely upon each other, binding together all the elements of a photoplay of astonishing interest. They themselves are responsible for the greatness of "Humoresque." To the players the greatest credit is due. With an earnestness that will make motion picture history they go about their part, and in their various ways tug at your heart. You will not forget them.

The picture is not overly sentimental and super-sweet, like many that have preceded it. It is a keen and splendid offering and takes its place among the best the screen has provided.

WELTHEIM—"The Untamed," a Fox attraction, is a new picture, a Fox attraction, known cowboy star, in the leading role, will end a successful engagement in this city, with the final showing at the Zeida theater tonight. This production had been widely heralded as one of the most satisfying and sensational of its kind ever made, and has proved correct. Followers of the picture will declare it to be Mix's best, for its thrilling situations and the opportunities given the star.

MORRISSEY TO FORM STOCK COMPANY AT PLAZA, SUPERIOR

James L. Morrissey, former manager of the Lyceum theater in Duluth, has leased the Plaza theater in Superior, and will present dramatic stock there during the fall and winter. This announcement was issued from the Clinton-Meyers company offices today. Mr. Morrissey will go to New York and select a company, several of which have played in Duluth before. It is planned to open the theater Nov. 14.

FRANCE IS O. K. BUT GIVE HIM YANKEELAND

Former Marine Scout in Duluth Is Lonesome in France, He Writes.

"France may be all right, but it's the old U. S. A. for me!" is the tenor of a plaintive letter from Auguste Lessard, who is visiting with his father at points in Brittany. As a former "honorary" in the Marine Scouts, he writes to "Major" F. L. Buck, marine recruiting sergeant at Duluth.

"These foreign lands don't agree with me," Lessard says. "The only ray of sunshine in my young life is when I see the stars of the United States. One is in aviation and the other is in the administration.

"Tomorrow I start school. I suppose I ought to be overjoyed but I am not. 'Cross your picture 'france routine' French verbs? I'd rather be doing double time back in Duluth with the boys.

OBSERVES EIGHTY-FIRST NATAL DAY BEFORE ELECTION

WILLIAM G. ZUCK.

William G. Zuck, a resident of Duluth since 1872, celebrated his eighty-first birthday yesterday at his home, 718 East Fifth street.

He has brought up his entire family here. To many old Duluthians he is known, especially as the first mate on the steamer Metropolis which in the early days plied between Duluth and Bayfield.

In the last forty-eight years he has been gone only once from Duluth for a considerable time. That was in 1879 when he served with the navy at Montevideo, South America.

SIX MONTHS AT HARD LABOR FOR WELTHEIM

London, Nov. 2.—Six months at hard labor and deportation thereafter was the sentence imposed in Bow street police court today upon Erki Weltheim, the mystery man who was arraigned a week ago charged with acting as an intermediary between members of revolutionary circles in Great Britain and Russian revolutionists. Neither the name nor the nationality of the prisoner was made known at the time of his arraignment.

It was upon Weltheim that the government's attorney announced that a letter from Sylvia Pankhurst to Nikolai Lenin, president of soviet Russia, had been found, in which Miss Pankhurst was alleged to have written: "The situation is most acute; not ready for a revolution yet."

Miss Pankhurst has since been sentenced to six months' imprisonment on charges of having published seditious literature designed to affect the navy in the newspaper the Workers' Dreadnought, one of the articles in which was entitled "Discontent on the Lower Deck."

MARINE CADETS NEED FORTY MORE MEMBERS

Forty youngsters between the ages of 14 and 18 are needed to fill the quota of sixty-five for the Duluth Marine cadets.

Marine Sergeant Frank J. Buck, commander of the troop, today announced a reorganizational meeting to be held at 8 p. m. tomorrow at No. 3 firehall, first avenue east and Third street.

The name of the organization has recently been changed from the Marine Scouts to the Marine Cadets. The shortage in numbers is largely due to the fact that the minimum age requirement was raised from 12 to 14 years.

How to Keep the Face Young and Attractive

The way to ward off old age is not to fear it, not to allow one's self to be oppressed by the dread of advancing years. Use only legitimate preventives and avoid trying experiments with preparations that do not contain the best of time. An entirely safe and very effective way to keep the complexion youthful-looking is to gradually absorb ordinary mineralized wax at bedtime, using it like cold cream, and using it in the morning. This gradually absorbs the withered, faded cuticle, which is replaced by the more youthful, pink-tinted under-skin. One ounce of this wax is had at any drug store, is enough to completely rejuvenate a worn-out complexion.

"Cross's face" and other wrinkles, the first signs of advancing age, may be removed by a simple, harmless preparation made by dissolving a pinch of potassium bichromate in a half pint of water. It is used as a face wash.—Advertisement.

COLLEGE STUDENTS IN BADGER NORMALS

Madison, Wis., Nov. 2.—Only a small percentage of students attending normal schools are enrolled in regular college work to the exclusion of teachers' training courses, registration figures for the nine state normal schools on Sept. 20 show, according to reports on the registration just issued. These schools, at Platteville, River Falls and Whitefish, do not include college studies in their curriculums. Superior has the largest percentage of college students, according to the report, with 128 enrolled out of a total normal body of 374. Milwaukee has 225 college students in its registration of 811. Eau Claire, 94 out of 281; Oshkosh, 80 out of 402; and La Crosse, 75 out of 244, while Stevens Point has but a scattered few taking other than normal courses. Legislation passed in 1911 authorized the normal schools to include college courses in their curriculums. As a result several of the schools have started courses of commerce and medicine. The program of the state department of education is to be presented to the legislature calls for a separation of all courses other than those included in teachers' training from the normal schools. There is a feeling among some of the normal school superintendents that the college work should be extended, it is said.

TO GET MONTHLY DATA ON BADGER EMPLOYMENT

Madison, Wis., Nov. 2.—Reports from 170 employers of the state with 50,000 shop employees and a weekly payroll of $2,000,000 will be utilized by the industrial commission to collect monthly data concerning the normal school conditions in the state, the commission said yesterday. These tabulations will include between 25 and 30 per cent of the total number of factory employees in the state. While reports will be secured covering office as well as shop employees, only data covering shop employees will be tabulated monthly. Office employees are not affected by changing industrial conditions in the same degree as shop employees, the commission says, and so comparative figures concerning them would not afford such a complete index of industrial conditions.

Pale, sallow skins
The new steam treatment for them

If your skin is pale and colorless, try this new steam treatment for it. Steam penetrates the skin in a way water alone cannot do. It enables you to cleanse thoroughly the pores that have become clogged, to stimulate inactive blood vessels and give the skin new color. To make your skin soft and colorful, one night a week fill your bowl full of hot water—almost boiling hot. Bend over the top of the bowl and cover your head and the bowl with a heavy bath towel, so that no steam can escape. This opens the pores wide, stimulates the tiny blood vessels of the face and brings the blood to the surface. Now lather a hot cloth with Woodbury's Facial Soap. With this, wash your face thoroughly, rubbing the lather well into the skin in an upward and outward motion. Then rinse the skin well, first with warm water, then with cold, and finish by rubbing it for thirty seconds with a piece of ice. This closes the pores and makes the skin firm in texture. The very first time you use this Woodbury steam treatment, your skin will begin to show more color. The other six nights of the week, cleanse your skin thoroughly in the usual way with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water. Get a cake of Woodbury's and begin tonight the treatment your skin needs. You will find Woodbury's Facial Soap on sale at any drug store or toilet goods counter in the United States or Canada. A 25 cent cake will last a month or six weeks. Closing prices of flaxseed on the Duluth market, as compared with the previous Saturday and last year, were:
