SERBIAN TROOPS ARE AT FRONTIER AT ONE POINT, PARIS STATES

Advanced to Serbo-Greek Border in Broda River Region; Gains by French North and Northeast of Town of Florina; Hill West of Florina Taken by Russians; More Raids by British

Paris, Sept. 25.—Serbian forces have reached the Serbo-Greek frontier in the region of the Broda river, according to an official report issued here this afternoon.

West of Florina Russian troops took the offensive last night and captured Hill 916, which had been fortified strongly by the Bulgarians. A Bulgarian counter-attack was checked by French and Russian artillery and bayonets.

French artillery fire caused an outbreak of flames in Doiran, and French troops made progress on their left wing.

The text of the announcement follows:

"On the left bank of the river Struma, British troops, continuing their raids, were successful in an attack on Jastimab, to the north of Lake Tabina. A detachment of French troops operating on the right of the British took a trench at the point of the bayonet and made some prisoners. A bombardment of Doiran resulted in causing a fire in the town.

At Border.

"In the region of the Broda river Serbian troops reached the frontier.

"To the north of Krusograd and to the northeast of Florina French infantry occupied the first houses of Potarak as a result of a spirited fight, and they also made a slight advance to the north of Florina.

"To the west of this town Russian troops captured by assault Hill 916, which had been strongly organized by the enemy. In this same locality a Bulgarian counter-attack was checked by the fire of our artillery and then repulsed at the point of the bayonet by French and Russian troops acting together.

"To the southwest of Florina a French reconnoitering detachment had several spirited engagements in the country south of Preseda lake with Bulgarian detachments from Bikhista."

Silent About Losses.

Sofia, Sept. 25.—Bulgarian forces successfully defended the Kaimakalan Height, near the west end of the front in Greek Macedonia, against repeated attacks by entente forces. The war office announced last evening. Successive assaults were delivered on Saturday on the Bulgarian positions, but in each case the attacking forces, although they closely approached the Bulgarian trenches, were unable to penetrate them, and fell back with heavy losses.

Entente troops which attacked villages on the eastern bank of the Struma were forced by Bulgarian troops to retreat across the stream."

WATCHERS IN ESSEX CHEERED WHEN ZEPPELIN PLUNGED DOWN IN FLAMES; CREW OF OTHER CRAFT SURRENDERED

London, Sept. 25.—The efficiency with which the air defences dealt with the zeppelins which visited England on the night of Saturday-Sunday was indicated by the speed with which searchlights picked up the first raider that appeared above the suburbs of London shortly after midnight. Suddenly a searchlight beam shot into the starlit sky. Three more dazzling shafts followed, and within 15 seconds the whirring airships were caught in the coils, and the guns began sending up shrieking shrapnel shells. For a minute or two the raider kept its course, then wavered and turned partly away, and then dissolved, apparently into thin air. The zeppelin was beclouded in the smoke and the lights lost her completely. In the meantime, however, bombs were dropping and red flares were visible as they lit the earth. Then the city was quiet for an hour, the searchlights flashing only occasionally in the hunt for raiders.

All London within sound of the guns and bombs was out to see the spectacle and had almost despaired of further excitement when well to the eastward a tiny glow appeared low in the sky. It looked first like the moon rising in its last quarter from behind a cloud bank. From the city it appeared to stand stationary for a minute or more, then glowed redder and redder, it slowly turned to the perpendicular and steamed into the gloom of the smoky night ground-mist.

To the watchers in Essex, however, the spectacle of the flaming, falling zeppelin had all the thrills of excitement which marked the end of the L-21 and they cheered the gunners and their fortunate shots that brought the raider to earth.

London expected the attack, the Germans evidently having selected Sunday for their greatest efforts. A bright moon deterred any attempt since three weeks ago, when thirteen raiders came over the sea. The change from the unlucky thirteen to twelve on Saturday night brought worse rather than better luck, however, to the flying squadron.

From the moment the first zeppelin appeared it was evident that the raiders were of the new and large type. This has been borne out by the two brought down.

The burning zeppelin, in falling, crashed through a row of trees in Essex, two of which pierced the lattice-work of the envelope supports. The village fire engine was quickly on the scene and began putting water on the blazing wreck.

Bodies Charred.

Police constables and volunteers removed the bodies as rapidly as possible. Some of these were charred beyond recognition, while others were still white and recognizable. All appeared to be young men, well clad and wearing remnants of stout leather

Fisherman Observed a Damaged Zeppelin Over the North Sea

London, Sept. 25.—A Danish fisherman reports having observed four zeppelins yesterday traveling in a southeasterly direction, says a dispatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph Company. One of the zeppelins, he says, was in a damaged condition and was being accompanied by a torpedo boat destroyer.

Bulgarians, Leaving Florina, Took Greek Soldiers Prisoners

Athens, Sept. 25, via London, Sept. 25.—Postal and telegraphic communication between Greece and Austria-Hungary has been suspended once more owing to the capture by entente forces of Florina.

It is announced officially that the Bulgarians in evacuating Florina made prisoner the Greek infantry there.

TWO FRENCH AIRMEN DROPPED BOMBS ON ESSEN, HOME OF KRUPPS; THIRTY GERMAN AEROPLANES BROUGHT DOWN

Aviators Flew to Westphalian City Where Are Germany's Greatest Gun-Works, Covering in All 500 Miles; Striking Proof on Saturday and Sunday of French Superiority in Air

Paris, Sept. 25.—An official communication issued last evening said:

"Capt. de Beauchamps and Lieut. Daucourt, each piloting an aeroplane, started at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning and dropped twelve bombs on Essen, Westphalia. They returned safely after a flight of 500 miles.

"During the night of Saturday seven of our aeroplanes dropped 50 bombs on factories in the districts of Rombach and Thionville (Alsace-Lorraine).

"Friday night a zeppelin flew over the Calais district. It was driven off without having dropped any projectiles."

It is at Essen that the Krupp works, Germany's greatest gun-making works, are situated.

Twenty-six Bagged.

Paris, Sept. 25.—Twenty-six German aeroplanes were brought down on Saturday, many of them being destroyed, according to an official statement last night, the text of which follows:

"Yesterday, enemy airmen having shown unusual activity, our pursuing squadrons successfully engaged them in aerial combats. On a greater part of the front our aviators gained considerable success and indisputably had the upper hand of the enemy."

"On the Somme front there were 29 engagements. Four enemy planes were brought down in the Vaux woods. Two, attacked by Sub-Lieut. Guynemer, descended in flames after some minutes of fighting, making Lieut. Guynemer's 17th and 18th aeroplanes brought down. A fourth machine crashed to earth south of Miserey. Three other German machines were seriously damaged, fell and were wrecked near Estrees, and in the region of Peronne four enemy aeroplanes were compelled to descend by their own lines. It is confirmed that one German machine reported hit on September 22 was brought down near Miserey.

South of Chalones.

"Between Chalones and a point south of it six Germans were brought down. One fell burning near Chalones during an engagement between four French and six enemy machines. A second fell at Licourt, a third at Parvillers and a fourth south of Marchepot. A fifth and a sixth were brought down by the same pilot in an engagement between a French squadron and six Germans. They fell in the region of Andechy, one in our lines.

"A fokker fell, burning, near our lines north of Chalones. Another was seriously damaged.

"In the Verdun region machine guns winged a German at close quarters. The machine landed on Pepper Hill. A fokker dived vertically into our lines east of St. Mihiel.

INDICATES GERMAN LOAN IS FAILURE

Cologne Gazette Says Small Investors Not Coming Forward Freely

London, Sept. 25.—That the investors of Germany are not subscribing to the new German war loan in the same numbers as to previous issues is indicated by an article which appeared in the Cologne Gazette, according to a dispatch to Reuters from Amsterdam. The article in the Gazette ran, in part: "However important and valuable are subscriptions by the million, our war loans would never have been a great success without small single subscriptions."

"The farmers are afraid that Germany must suffer bankruptcy owing to the gigantic and ever-increasing cost of the war."

SIX MORE CANADIANS HONORED FOR BRAVERY

Receive Distinguished Conduct Medal for Heroic Deeds at Front

London, Sept. 25.—The London Gazette contains notice of the award of the Distinguished Conduct Medal to the following Canadians:

Sergeant J. M. Mackie, who "crawled 200 yards across No Man's Land in broad daylight to within twenty yards of the enemy's parapet in order to re-connote." Later he entered the enemy's trench with a raiding party, killing three of the enemy with his own revolver and wounding others with bombs. Though himself badly wounded he helped other wounded men out of the trench."

Sergeant C. E. Pouliot, who "attacked a hostile patrol and took two prisoners. He spent four consecutive nights in hostile trenches with a view to making prisoners."

Sergeant G. W. Thorold, for "collecting and leading a party under heavy shell fire to dig out a grenade squad of another platoon which had been buried by a trench mortar bomb."

Private Newton (55914)—"After a raid it was found that an officer had been wounded and left in No Man's Land, volunteered to go out under a heavy rifle and machine gun fire. They found the officer helpless and brought him back in broad daylight."

Private Phillips (73821)—"He entered enemy trenches under a heavy bombardment and protected an officer while the latter reconnoitred and secured a prisoner. During the withdrawal he stood on the parapet throwing bombs and finally assisted back wounded men."

Private Wilson (55195)—"After a raid he volunteered to go with a comrade under heavy rifle and machine gun fire to search for a wounded officer. They found the officer helpless and brought him back in broad daylight."

HOLLAND PROHIBITS EXPORT OF CATTLE

London, Sept. 25.—The Dutch government has prohibited the export of cattle, says a Reuter dispatch from The Hague. All preserves containing meat come under the prohibition.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED?

The last day for filing applications to be placed on the voters' lists at the November court of revision, is Monday, October 2. A number of people found at the last minute on Thursday that their names were not on the list, and there are others who have qualified by residence or naturalization since the May revision. Any person who has not yet made application may do so at the Liberal city headquarters in the Arcade building, View and Broad streets, where a commissioner will be on duty every day. The qualification is: British subject of full age and residence in the province for six months and in the electoral district for thirty days before the application is made.

GERMANS LOST TWO AIRSHIPS OF TWELVE SENT ACROSS TO ENGLAND; ONE CREW CAPTURED

1,500 WERE TAKEN BY RUSSIAN TROOPS

Austro-Germans Captured in Region of Upper Sereth Saturday

NO DEVELOPMENTS OF IMPORTANCE LAST NIGHT

Petrograd, Sept. 25.—No events of importance have taken place on either the western (Russian) or Caucasian front, the war office announced today. Stubbish battles at various points in Volhynia and Galicia from the Pripiet marshes to the Roumanian frontier were told of in an official statement issued last evening. In the fighting on the upper Sereth river on Saturday 1,500 Austro-Germans were captured.

The text of the statement follows: "From the Pripiet river to the Roumanian frontier stubborn fighting is proceeding at some places. Yesterday the enemy offered strong resistance to our advance on the upper Sereth, in the region of Maniukharbuzov. All his counter attacks were repulsed by our fire. We took 1,500 Austro-German prisoners.

"Caucasian front—As a result of fighting in the coast region, near the little town of Elieu, our detachments advanced."

NO DISCRIMINATION AGAINST THE STATES

Consul-General at London Cables Washington About Trade Bureaus

Washington, Sept. 25.—An explanation of the purposes of the new Anglo-French commercial bureaus cabled to-day by Consul-General Skinner, at London, satisfied state department officials that no discrimination against American commerce is to be feared. The bureaus, the consul-general says, were established chiefly to expedite exchange of merchandise between Britain and France and its effect upon trade will be limited to a few articles.

Final conferences on commercial disputes between the United States and the Entente powers preparatory to his return to London, were held today by Walter Hines Page, American ambassador to Great Britain, with Secretary Lansing, Counselor Polk and Foreign Trade Adviser Leitcher. Mr. Page will leave to-night for New York to sail within a week.

AT WINNIPEG BECK GIVEN HIS LIBERTY

Three Other Journalists Also Released; Appear Again Next Saturday

Winnipeg, Sept. 25.—Edward Beck, the editor, B. R. Deacon, the news editor, and Stanley Beck, a reporter, of the Winnipeg Telegram, and Knox Magee, the editor of the Winnipeg Saturday Post, who were committed to jail Saturday forenoon on grounds of contempt of court by Mr. Justice Galt, the commissioner who is investigating the contracts for the construction of the buildings of the Manitoba Agricultural College, were released at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon by order of Mr. Justice Hazgart following habeas corpus proceedings, the writ being returnable next Saturday.

SUBMARINES MOVED WITH ZEPPELINS AND SENT DOWN TRAWLERS

London, Sept. 25.—Twelve trawlers were sunk in the North Sea by German submarines at the time zeppelins raided England. This leads to the belief that submarines accompanied the airships to afford them a certain amount of protection while crossing the water.

One Zeppelin Was Brought Down in Flames in Essex; Those Aboard Burned to Death; End Was Witnessed From London; Bombs Killed 30 and Wounded 116; Property Damage Unimportant

London, Sept. 25.—Of the twelve big zeppelins which invaded England last night and this morning to deal death and destruction from the skies, two lie stark and dark masses of steel and aluminum in the little village of Mangold, Essex county. One came down a flaming torch, and the second, disabled by gunfire-effected a landing which saved the lives of the crew, the 22 members of which are now prisoners in England. The members of the crew of the first raider died in the consuming flames of their own ship.

The death and burning of the first zeppelin was witnessed by tens of thousands of London residents, but the wounding and descent of the second raider was a matter of doubt until an official statement was given out yesterday afternoon. It is reported that the crew surrendered to special constables.

Many who saw the shrapnel bursting like skyrocket about the zeppelin, which subsequently caught fire, think there must have been several direct hits. Many aeroplanes were aloft and attacked the zeppelins from all sides.

Casualties.

The raiders took a heavy toll of lives before their destruction, 28 persons being killed and 39 wounded in the metropolitan district of London. Two persons were killed and probably 17 were wounded in the provinces.

The property damage, while widely distributed, is confined for the most part to small suburban dwellings and shops, although one railway station was damaged, some empty cars being destroyed and part of the tracks torn up.

Authorities Pleas.

The roar of dropping bombs was heard in many districts where the raiders were invisible. Only three of the invading zeppelins which crossed the east coast succeeded in reaching the environs of London, and that two of these paid the death penalty gives the greatest satisfaction to the military authorities. Apart from the loss in material, the casualties of the last two raids, it is believed, will have a depressing effect on the morale of the zeppelin crews in the future.

The fact that airships were brought down well outside of London, both last night and on September 3, shows the care with which the defences have been developed.

REPULSED ATTACK EAST OF THE MEUSE

French Beat Off Germans; Heavy Artillery Actions on Somme Front

Paris, Sept. 25.—French troops easily repulsed an attack made last night by German troops on a work east of the Vaux-Chapitre wood, on the Verdun front east of the Meuse, the war office announced this afternoon.

Inactivity prevails on the Somme front, although heavy artillery engagements are in progress.

The text of the statement follows: "On the front, north of the Somme, there was spirited artillery fighting last night in various sectors, and also south of the river.

"On the right bank of the river Meuse we easily repulsed a German attack on one of our works to the east of the Vaux-Chapitre wood. To the southwest the artillery fighting continues with intensity in the sectors of the Thiaumont work, Fleury and Vaux-Chapitre."

Germans Dispersed.

The following official statement was issued yesterday afternoon: "North of the Somme our artillery showed activity during the night. The enemy replied feebly. This morning German troops launched an attack on the farm of L'Abbe Wood, and the positions to the south came under a violent fire of our artillery and machine guns. The enemy was dispersed before he could approach our lines, leaving numerous dead on the ground.

"On the right bank of the Meuse we easily repulsed several attacks on Pepper Hill and southeast of the Thiaumont work."

BREAD FAMINE NOW IN VIENNA; RAILWAY SERVICE DISLOCATED

Zurich, Sept. 25.—Press dispatches from Vienna say there has been a bread famine there for several days owing to transportation difficulties. An official decree has been published forbidding the hotels and restaurants in Vienna and lower Austria to supply bread to guests, who must bring their own. The railway service has been greatly dislocated since Roumania entered the war.

CONSTANTINE STATES GREECE READY TO JOIN ALLIES WHEN SHE CAN SEE GAIN; REVOLUTIONISTS HOLD CRETE

Athens, Sept. 25.—All the Athens papers comment in lengthy editorials on the statement made by King Constantine to a representative of the Associated Press and published here yesterday, in which His Majesty said Greece was ready to join the entente powers whenever she could see definite advantage in so doing.

The Hesperian, an Anti-Venzelot organ, devotes a four-column editorial to the declaration of the king. The writer of the editorial is Nicholas Strator, who was minister of marine last year in the cabinet of Premier Goumaris. M. Strator takes each sentence of the king's statement as a text for the elucidation of the pro-war policy, stating that it is evident that the Greek king is seeking any means to depart from a neutral course. The ex-minister, who heretofore was a most ardent opponent of war, declares openly: "The country can no longer depend on the diplomatic assurances of the Central empires, and must enter the war by national action."

London, Sept. 25.—Fully armed Cretan insurgents numbering 30,000 are in complete control of the island of Crete, according to a Reuter dispatch from Athens. Canes, Heracellon and other coast towns are in their possession.

The Greek authorities have turned over all the government buildings to the leaders of the separatist movement, only eleven members of King Constantine's Cretan guard remain, the others having disbanded, being in favor of the policy of M. Venizelos.

SURPRISE ATTACK BY ITALIAN TROOPS
Austrians Still Attempting Diversions; Attacks Caused Only Slight Change.
Rome, Sept. 25.—The following official statement was issued last evening: "Trentino front—The enemy still is attempting diversions. In the Ledro valley on Friday we repulsed a hostile attack northwest of Lenzano. "In the Astico valley at daybreak yesterday, after an intense bombardment, the enemy exploded mines on Monte Cimone, obliging our troops to withdraw 100 yards from the summit. The abandoned position, however, is under the fire of our artillery. "In the Sugana valley on Friday evening the enemy renewed his attack on Monte Civaron, but was promptly repulsed. "In the upper Cordevole a surprise attack gave us possession of an advanced position toward the summit of Monte Sief. "On the rest of the front there was only artillery firing. "In reprisal for bombardment by the enemy of Cortina d'Ampezzo and the Misurina area, we shelled the military railway station at Sillian and the railway in the Drave valley. "Last night on the Carso plateau the enemy launched violent attacks on our positions at Hills 206 and 144. These were completely repulsed."

ECZEMA
Pimples form, run watery matter which turns to crust, itching becomes intensely, and the disease spreads over the body. There are many varieties of eczema, but all are cured by the persistent use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.
Relief from itching is obtained at once, and gradually and naturally the sores are healed. You can see with your own eyes just what is being accomplished day by day by this wonderfully healing, soothing ointment, and this will encourage you to keep using the treatment until cure is complete.

Port Arthur, Ont., Gets a Pulp Mill
Port Arthur, Sept. 25.—An agreement has been signed between the city and an Eastern Ontario syndicate under which a pulp mill will be established in Port Arthur. Work is to be started immediately. The mill is to have a capacity of 150 tons a day. The first unit of 50 tons will be produced next June. The company gets its site from the city and buys its power from the municipality. The plant is to be located on the north waterfront.

Clear Enunciation of Figures Is Central's Specialty

From the first day that an embryo operator starts on her preliminary training she is taught to clearly enunciate the different figures. It is remarkable how one figure sounds like another when rapidly spoken. "Five" and "Nine" sound very much alike.

Listen to Central next time she repeats a number with either five or nine in it. You will hear her almost whistle the "v" in five, and almost sing the final "n" in nine. That is to leave no doubt in your mind as to the number she understood you to call for.

In the course of the day's work she receives calls from people of many nationalities, and as a result of her experience she becomes an expert in being able to tell what number is wanted, although sometimes it may be indistinctly spoken, or spoken by a person whose native tongue is not English. (It is generally the latter person who tries hardest to pronounce it correctly.)

If the number given is, say, 2359, and Central repeats, "2355," remember that the final "9" might easily have been spoken lightly or unconsciously slurred over, and that to Central it might have sounded like any one-syllabled word with the vowel "i" in it.

Central's desire is to serve you will. Help her by giving your number distinctly. The more you do so, the more you will realize that your telephone service is good.

$180,000,000 REPLY OF PEOPLE AND CORPORATIONS OF THE DOMINION TO REQUEST FOR $100,000,000 FOR WAR

Believed Number of Subscribers 30,000; Striking Proof of Patriotism and Financial Strength of Country, Declares Finance Minister; All Sections Worked Loyal for Success; Further Credit for Imperial Government

OTTAWA, Sept. 25.—Cash subscriptions to the war loan received by the department of finance up to midnight Saturday totalled $180,000,000. This includes the $50,000,000 subscribed by the chartered banks. When it is considered that only $100,000,000 was called for, some conception of the success of the loan may be gained.

"I am confident," said Sir Thomas White, minister of finance, "that when the subscriptions now in the mails are received the total will be $230,000,000, and probably more. Ninety-five per cent of the subscriptions are Canadian. The number of subscribers may reach 30,000. The lists closed on Saturday, and no further subscriptions can be received."

The question of the amounts to be allotted to the subscribers cannot be considered until the returns are nearly all received—that is to say, until about the middle or toward the end of this week. It is regarded as probable that the banks will receive no part of their $50,000,000 subscriptions and that the smaller subscriptions will be allotted in full. The cutting down will be done in connection with the larger subscriptions.

There was no conflict of interest between the brokers and the bankers. The latter at their 3,000 offices throughout the Dominion received subscriptions from the public and payment therefor.

No Special Appeal.
"The result," said the finance minister, "can only be regarded as one more notable acknowledgment on the part of the Canadian people. It is the more extraordinary when it is recalled that before the war Canada went to the London market for her borrowings. The overwhelming success of the issue is a striking testimony not only to the loyalty, but to the financial strength and soundness of Canada to-day. No special appeal was made to the public to support the loan because we believed that the patriotism of the Canadian people required no stimulation. The terms of the issue were made to accord with prevailing financial conditions and never for a moment was success in doubt."

"To the Canadian public belongs the credit, but I feel I should be less than just if I failed specially to acknowledge the services of the brokers and bond dealers, who from the beginning spent lavishly of their money and employed their utmost endeavors to make the issue a success. I feel particularly grateful to the press of the Dominion, which without exception accorded the loan to the war loan received by the department of finance up to midnight Saturday totalled $180,000,000. This includes the $50,000,000 subscribed by the chartered banks. When it is considered that only $100,000,000 was called for, some conception of the success of the loan may be gained.

Influence Abroad.
"In Great Britain and elsewhere abroad," concluded the minister, "the notable success of the issue cannot fail to be regarded as further and infallible evidence of the spirit of Canada respecting the war and her invincible determination to persevere to the utmost of her power until final and conclusive victory is achieved."

The minister is so impressed with the result of the loan as showing the essential strength and soundness of the Canadian financial situation that he will take under consideration at once the question of establishing a further large dollar credit in Canada to be availed of by the imperial government for the purpose of purchasing munitions and supplies here.

Much as Possible.
Speaking of the question, the minister said it was of the utmost importance both from the standpoint of the successful prosecution of the war and Canadian business, that Canada should lend to the imperial government as much as possible toward meeting the huge expenditure which it is making here, amounting to more than $1,000,000 a day for shells, explosives and other munitions. All this outlay has to be made in dollars from credits established on this side of the Atlantic. It cannot be paid in pounds sterling.

"The Canadian people," said the minister, "now are deriving the full benefit of this enormous expenditure, and it is our bounden duty to save as much as possible of the profits to be available for the creation of further credits with which purchases may be made. In exercising rigid economy and making the national savings thus available, the Canadian people will be serving a two-fold purpose of high patriotism and good business. The amount of orders which Canada will receive will depend upon the amount of dollar credits which Canada can establish for the imperial government. To increase these credits will be my chief concern for the immediate future. Already Canada has furnished credits to the amount of $150,000,000."

Troops Passed Over at Three Points and Occupied Village

London, Sept. 25.—An official communication from Salonica dealing with the operations on the front in Greek Macedonia, issued here last night, said: "On the Struma front, having crossed the river at three places, our troops occupied Jenmitia, which had been set on fire, driving the enemy before them, and attacked Kara Dzvobala, where they met with strong opposition. Our artillery entirely dispersed a counter-attack from Navel Jen. East of Nempori naval and field artillery successfully bombarded enemy trenches."

"On the Doiran front our patrols have shown great activity, but mist has hindered artillery work."

"Is your son fond of academic pursuits?" "I guess so. He's a pretty regular attendant at the Billiard and Bowling Academy."

FUTURE IS BRIGHT, SAYS SHAUGHNESSY

Development Will Go Forward Rapidly as Desirable After War

Winnipeg, Sept. 25.—Baron Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific railway, arrived here on Saturday from Vancouver, and in an interview with the Free Press said: "The directors of the company who accompanied me had the pleasure this year of inspecting two important lines which they had not previously seen. These are the Kettle Valley line, which affords direct communication between what is known as the Boundary country and Vancouver, and the Kootenay Central line, running from Golden to Cranbrook."

"The Kettle Valley line serves the area of British Columbia in which are located the cities of Nelson, Grand Forks, Greenwood and Phoenix. Partly as a result of the war, this portion of the Dominion is more prosperous at the present moment than it has ever been before, and its prosperity is reflected in Vancouver, where business conditions show material improvement. Mining operations are being carried on with great activity, and there also is a marked increase in fruit production."

"The capacity of the smelter of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company at Trail has been doubled. It is now the largest on the continent, and it is being operated to its limit. The smelters at Grand Forks and Greenwood also are being operated to their capacity, and I was glad to note that the depression which had existed in this district on the occasion of a visit three years ago has now entirely disappeared."

Important Addition.
"The completion of the railway through the Kootenay valley was regarded as a most important addition to the system by the directors. This branch opens for settlement the beautiful Windermere valley and the Columbia valley, and affords direct connection between important sections of the country north and south."

Asked whether he had found the system generally in good condition in the west, his lordship replied, smilingly, that the superlative must be used to describe it. The road bed and the equipment could not be surpassed, and the company was fully prepared for any demand which could possibly be made upon it in connection with transportation. The directors had passed through the great Comstock tunnel,

CANADIANS FIRMLY HOLD THEIR GROUND

Beat Off Determined German Attack North of Sorfime on Saturday

London, Sept. 25.—The Canadian troops are clinging to every inch of ground recently taken north of the Somme, and are consolidating their holdings daily in spite of torrents of rain which have made the scanty cover more like a series of lagoons than entrenchments. They had to repel several fierce counter attacks toward the end of last week.

The enemy made a determined effort early on Saturday again on that portion of the line where the French-Canadian proved their mastery, and came up against an unspeakable defence of machine guns with a most perfect support of artillery in the rear. The German artillery still pours a heavy fire on the Canadian lines.

HARD FIGHTING IN GALICIA, SAYS BERLIN

Berlin, Sept. 25.—The following official statement was issued yesterday: "Eastern theatre—Strong Russian masses again attacked five times between the Sereth and Strypa rivers, north of Zbrow. The enemy penetrated our lines near Mannov, but was thrown back by a counter-attack, leaving more than 700 prisoners and seven machine guns in our hands. Further

FURTHER PROGRESS BY FRENCH AND SERBIANS

Paris, Sept. 25.—British troops on Saturday attacked strong Bulgarian forces north of Kopriva, in Greek Macedonia, according to an official statement issued yesterday afternoon. Serbian troops made progress north-west of Kaimakalan and took some prisoners.

Northwest of Florina French forces advanced and repulsed a strong Bulgarian attack on Hill 1550.

The text of the statement follows: "British troops on the left bank of the Struma attacked strong Bulgarian detachments north of Kopriva, toward Lake Tabanos. An artillery duel was resumed violently from Mount Beles to the Vardar river. East of Carna Serbian troops made progress north-west of Kaimakalan and took prisoners."

"On our left wing violent Bulgarian counter-attacks were repulsed in the vicinity of Hill 1550 with heavy enemy losses. We made progress north of Florina."

BRITISH CASUALTIES.

London, Sept. 25.—The casualty lists issued to-day bear the names of 394 officers, of whom 81 are dead and 437 men, of whom 264 are dead. The regiments suffering are the King's Royal Rifle Corps, Manchester, Gloucestershire, Sussex, Gordon Highlanders, Warwickshire, Rifle Brigade, Middlesex, Liverpool and Australians.

THE ZEPPELIN RAID.

The Zeppelin raid on the southeastern coast of England on Saturday night was the most ambitious aerial adventure undertaken by the enemy up to this time. Fifteen airships were used, but only three drew near London and two of them were lost

These airship adventures are designed to frighten the British people into an attitude favorable to peace and revive the drooping spirits of the Germans. As such they betray as nothing else does the hopeless ignorance of the German mind, particularly the official German mind, of the character and viewpoint of not only his enemy but the whole outside world

Upon what is this crazy righteousness theory based? The extraordinary conception of the British people which inspires these aerial visitations and other forms of warfare upon non-combatants must have some sort of foundation. The answer is not difficult to find. It is based upon the official German conception of the character of the German people as moulded by militarism. From the commencement of this war, and long before it, the German leaders have judged the populace of other nations by their own people armies hold so much of their countries in Europe. The German leaders know their own people best and their methods afford the surest insight into the character and temper of the German nation that we can wish for

THE WAR'S PROGRESS.

Four weeks ago Berlin officially announced that the battle of the Somme had ended with a "great defeat" for the Anglo-French forces. Yesterday Berlin announced that the battle of the Somme was in full swing with intense artillery activity between Courcellette and Bouchavesnes. No doubt the average German reader of the official communications believed both of them

The intense artillery combat in progress north of the Somme promises another important British advance in a day or two. Notwithstanding the German reports of sanguinary repulses of enemy attacks during the last few days, nothing on a large scale has been attempted by the Anglo-French forces since the advance which passed over Courcellette and Marigny, beyond the Albert Ridge, and the French penetration to Bouchavesnes and Ramcourt, east of Comblès. The next wave should engulf more enemy positions and sweep to the very approaches of Bapaume and the Ancre brook on the north, isolate Comblès and bring the French beyond Peronne

On the east front, between the Pripiet and the Carpathians, the Germans, Austrians and Turks so far have been able to hold their shortened lines. The Russians have not advanced beyond the Stocked in Volhynia, while Halicz in Galicia still remains in the enemy's hands, although the Muscovites are only a few hundred yards from it. But there is nothing beyond the German official communications to show that Brusiloff is attempting any serious offensive on this front except perhaps against Halicz. Important as an advance there might be, the situation farther south is pregnant with even greater possibilities

The reconquest of Galicia has been desired by the Russians mainly as a means of penetrating the Carpathians and striking the dual monarchy to the ground. Rumanian intervention opens another way into Hungary; geographically it outflanks the Carpathians and should make a costly Russian campaign in those mountains wholly unnecessary. That Russia is availing herself of this new base of attack against Germany's unhappy ally is indicated in yesterday's Berlin official communication, which says that Russian troops are attacking Vulcan Pass. This is one of the most westerly of the passes of the Transylvanian Alps, and is about two hundred miles southeast of Budapest. The Rumanians occupied it shortly after their entry into the war, but were not in sufficient strength to hold it and abandoned it a few days ago. Russian troops are now counter-attacking there, according to Teutonic report. This is significant and may account for the slackening of Brusiloff's operations on the eastern front

The heaviest fighting in the Balkan campaign is taking place on the Macedonian front. The pressure of the allies' left wing in the direction of Monastir continues, but the Bulgarians in that quarter are offering a tough resistance. Nevertheless at one point the Serbians have reached the frontier. It is not improbable that the Bulgarians have received reinforcements from Dobruja, where, according to Sofia's euphemistic announcement, von Mackensen has been "shortening" his front. The British are attacking heavily along the Struma, which they have crossed at three places, and we may expect to hear shortly that the allies' pressure is general from flank to flank. Only a few weeks remain before weather conditions will seriously interfere with offensive operations in this region, and the allies may be expected to make the most of their time. If they bridge the gap between Greece and Rumania before autumn is over, both Germany and Austria can be guaranteed a mighty unpleasant winter

Following a raid over Mannheim a few days ago another French aviator yesterday devoted some attention to Essen, the home of the Krupp. Although it is scarcely likely much damage was done, the feat is important, as a demonstration of what can be accomplished by the new air machines the allies are turning out. It also affords an insight into the possibilities before this service when the enemy withdraws his front in the west, which he must try to do in a very short time. In that case there is not a city along the Rhine which would not be exposed to raids by British and French aviators, and a threat of reprisals in such circumstances would soon put an end to Zeppelin outrages. In this connection it is significant that the Hun airship excursions to France are few and far between. The Germans know very well that an attack on an open French town will be followed in less than six hours by a French raid upon some Rhenish centre

In black type two inches deep a newspaper published in San Francisco announces that the "U. S. faces war with England and Japan," and issues a "clarion call" to all citizens of the republic to spring to arms and smite the British, who aim at reducing freemen to slaves and "laying the yoke upon our shoulders." The editor of this evangel of liberty is a man bearing the rather suggestive name of Bauer, and it is not difficult to surmise from whence he draws sustenance for his publication

Hon. Bob Rogers is incensed beyond the point of discretion because a judge whom he claims to have appointed to the bench refuses to permit his court to be made an instrument of partisan purposes. And a man with that type of mind is considered by the premier of Canada a fit person to sit in the councils of the country. A most extraordinary situation, certainly

Hundreds of thousands of Huns have an advantage over their "All-Highest." They have no doubt as to where they will eat their Christmas dinner. And it probably will be a more satisfactory repast than will be set before their friends at home who are not prisoners of war

The centre of political activity has shifted from Victoria to Winnipeg. From there probably it will flee with Hon. Bob Rogers to Ottawa. Presumably Sir Robert Borden will be compelled, doubtless against his inclination, to take cognizance of the extraordinary incidents of the past week

TWO FRENCH AIRMEN DROPPED BOMBS

In Lorraine a French pilot pursued a German machine for a distance of 12 miles into the German lines, killed the passenger and compelled the enemy to land. Another enemy machine descended in the forest of Gamecy. In the Vosges two enemy machines dived, nose downward, into our lines after a battle. Four More Bagged. The following communication was issued this afternoon: "Enemy aeroplanes yesterday at 8.50 p.m. threw down about ten bombs in the region of Lunenburg. One woman was slightly wounded, the material damage was insignificant. "During the day of yesterday an enemy aeroplane, attacked by one of our machines, was disabled and fell to the ground north of Miserey. Three other machines were seriously damaged and compelled to make landings. "During the night of September 24-25 twelve French aviators threw down 58 shells on the village and the railroad station of Gulsard. During the same night seven French airmen threw down 50 bombs on factories at Thionville and Rombach, as well as on the railroad station of Auban-le-Romain. Following the abandonment of Rombach flames were seen to break out."

FALL UNDERWEAR At the Old Prices

It is a fact that this store's pre-eminence in Victoria is due to the volume of its transactions—both buying and selling—which takes advantage of all factors in production and distribution that tend to lower the price which customers must ultimately pay. This store safeguarded itself against to-day's high prices by preparing in a big way—through renewing old contracts and buying for spot cash, greatly ahead of requirements. With the result—To-day we reap the advantage by offering you well known and reliable makes of Underwear at the old prices—some of which are the same as three years ago when prices on all woolen goods were at their lowest. Study carefully the following prices and place your order without delay, and thus share in these notable savings.

train, took their baptism of fire calmly as they passed and heaved a sigh of relief as the reports diminished in the distance. Crew Surrendered. The commander and twenty members of the crew of the zeppelin which was forced to land near an Essex coast town were arrested by the village constable as they were marching along the road in the black of the night, according to an account by an eye-witness. "I was the commander of a German airship that has just come down and these are my crew," said the leader of the men when accosted by the constable. Then the officer added: "Please allow me to go to the nearest post office so that I may telephone some one in London who will let my wife know I am safe." At this juncture special constables came up and the prisoners were marched to the nearest detention camp, where it was found several of them were wounded. All the men were life-saving waistcoats. None of them bore arms. To Farm House. The village constable in telling later of the coming down of the zeppelin, said he had heard the noise of the motors overhead and next saw a zeppelin flying seaward 300 feet up. Then, as if the commander of the airship feared trouble on the water, he turned back inland and in a few minutes the airship landed in a farmer's orchard. Two loud explosions followed, then a flare of a few seconds' duration. The airship commander marched the men to the farmer's house, but the occupants of the house were too frightened to answer the knock, so the Germans took to the road, where they encountered the constable. It is believed engine trouble forced the descent of this zeppelin.

OFFICIAL COUNT OF BALLOTS CAST HERE

No Change is Made in the Standing of the Candidates; Mr. Brewster's Majority

The official count of the ballots cast in the provincial general election in the capital shows, as was predicted, no change in the standing of the twelve candidates.
H. C. Brewster, Liberal leader, in the late contest as in the by-election, received a majority far ahead of that recorded in Vancouver on a larger total vote. He leads the minister of finance, the top man on the government ticket, by 1,906 votes, and the fourth member-elect for Victoria has a plurality of 598 over the minister. Victoria has decided even more emphatically than has Vancouver that it does not want Bowserism nor any supporter of the outgoing premier.

The total vote by wards is as follows:

	Ward 1	Ward 2	Ward 3	Ward 4	Ward 5	Total
Brewster	625	967	1946	562	942	4072
Geo. Bell	497	721	57	429	819	2366
John Hart	455	666	783	418	799	3141
H. C. Hall	429	522	446	368	799	2765
Hon. A. Stewart	391	603	445	367	587	2393
R. Hayward	325	479	419	351	485	2049
Leonard Tall	319	423	429	335	544	2049
J. Dilworth	274	449	413	319	524	1969
Dr. E. Hall	165	259	325	131	263	1134
A. J. Morley	132	214	196	85	154	774
Phil Smith	69	88	82	32	31	254
Dan Poupard	39	99	99	27	74	246

There were 124 rejected ballots. Of these 53 had to be thrown out because of there being more than four candidates voted for, 35 bore marks by which the voter might possibly be identified, 26 were rejected for uncertainty as to what the voters' intentions were, three had the cross outside the disc and one had not the official stamp on the back.
Sidney Child, the returning officer, whose conduct of the whole election proceedings has been most fair and impartial, is to-day counting the vote cast on the suffrage referendum, and expects to be through with it this afternoon.

Theatre Meetings

Charles Taylor, "The Boy Preacher," continues to attract large congregations to the old Victoria theatre. Last night the theatre was filled long before the hour appointed for commencing service, and hundreds of people were turned away. The services commenced before 7.30—with the usual singing service led by the young lad. The stage was filled with the choir and there were two musical instruments in addition to the piano. The sermon was upon "The Love That Never Changes; God's Love for a Lost World." Dr. Cameron and Rev. Chas. Taylor were on the stage and took part in the services.

The sales of Noblemen Cigars have more than tripled during the past three months. Have you tried one lately?

CHILDREN ATTACKED BY SAVAGE PANTHER

Fought With Beast and Drove It Off After Being Badly Bitten

A tale of heroism of two little children at Cowichan, Doreen Ashburnham and Antony Farrer, who were attacked by a panther and who drove the beast off even though badly bitten and scratched, comes in this morning and thrills all those who heard it. The children are still suffering from the injuries, but they are doing well and probably will recover.

Doreen Ashburnham is the eleven year old daughter of Lawrence and Mrs. Ashburnham, who live at the head of Cowichan Lake. Antony Farrer is the eight year old son of Mrs. Farrer, who lives with the Ashburnhams. The children went off together on Saturday about noon to catch their ponies and were something like three-quarters of a mile from home when a large panther sprang upon the girl and threw her to the ground. The boy immediately set upon the beast, striking it with a bridle he had in his hand and so enraged it that it turned upon him and knocked him down. The boy called to the girl to run home, but she sprang at the furious creature. To prevent the animal biting the boy farther after it had already almost torn his scalp off, the girl stuck her elbow in its mouth and received the bite herself, at the same time striking and wrestling until at last the animal was beaten off. She then took the little lad and assisted him homeward, even though badly injured.

Dr. Dykes, of Duncan, was called and he attended to the wounds, and the boy was sent to Duncan hospital, where he was in pain yesterday, was called in to see the boy and found him doing well, although he was bandaged from head to foot like a warrior at the front who had been riddled with shrapnel. As soon as it became known that there was a fierce panther at large at the lake, the men of this district gathered, nearly 30 in all, and scoured the woods in search of the beast. At last they found him, but it was not until a dog had been almost torn to pieces by the savage brute that he was riddled with bullets by the hunters. The panther was taken to Duncan and examined by Dr. Dykes, who found that the animal was blind in one eye and very nearly blind in the other. It was very thin and was, doubtless, starving. This fact accounted for its attacking the children, from whom a panther would usually shrink away.

Residents of Cowichan say that this is only the second case on record where a panther has been known to attack human beings. Lawrence Ashburnham, the father of the girl, is a son of Lord Ashburnham, of Sussex, England, and Mrs. Farrer is a daughter of Sir John Farrer, chairman of the Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh. Chief Justice Hunter was staying with Mr. Ashburnham at the time of the attack and he fell of course for the heroism displayed by both the children.

ARTILLERY AT GLASGOW

Message Received To-day Tells of Arrival of 62nd Battery.

Mrs. Clearihue this morning received a cable from Scotland telling of the arrival of her son, Lieut. Joseph Clearihue at Glasgow.
He left here with the 62nd Battery, 15th Brigade, C. F. A. for Petawawa, where the summer was spent in training. The battery then left for the old country, embarking on the Cameronian and has just arrived in Glasgow.

A CHINESE CONCERT

Seven Orientals Will Be Wiser Now: No Opium With the Music.

When the police broke into the premises on the third floor above 565 Fisgard street at 2 o'clock on Saturday morning they disturbed a Chinese concert, at least that was what some of the witnesses attempted to prove in the police court to-day on their trial for frequenting a place where opium was smoked.

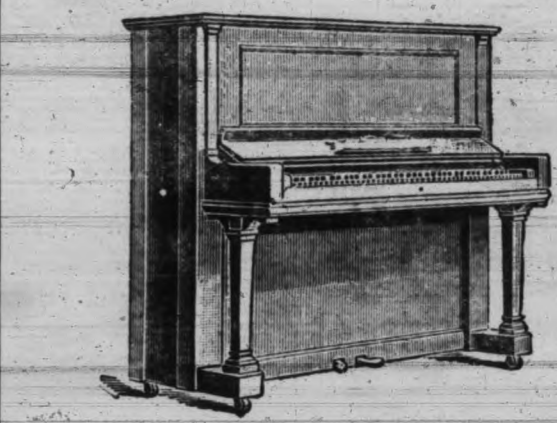

The prosecution rested on the evidence of Inspector Heatley and Sergt. Fry. The latter executed a flank movement from the fire escape, while the inspector arrived by the staircase. Seven men, caught in the room, with opium lamps lit, several pipes and paraphernalia, were apprehended.

Some of the witnesses said they lived in an adjoining room and had gone in to participate in the music. The chief musician said he was so wrapped up in the harmony that he forgot to look round to see who was smoking, though the opium smoke reached his nose. An exceptional explanation was offered by one man who had entered the room to get a tooth which was paining him, attended to, and was in the act of dressing it when the police entered.

R. C. Lowe, appearing for the defence, admitted the guilt of three men and thereupon the magistrate stated that he could see no cause for discrimination.

A fine of $20 and $1 costs, or two months, was imposed in each case. It will be noted that the penalty for frequenting opium joints here has shown a tendency to increase.

Interesting Lecture.—South Saanich Farmers' Institute held a very interesting meeting at the Temperance, Keating, at which Dr. S. E. Toimie gave a most instructive lecture to the Dairymen on co-operation and marketing their products, etc. As Keating is becoming an important fruit growing centre, it was also given a prominent place in the discussion among other things of vital interest to farmer.

Introducing Artistic New Case Designs in Piano Architecture

To lead, and be supreme in everything pertaining to Piano design and construction, has ever been the aim of Canada's Premier Piano Builders—Gerhard Heintzman, Ltd. The recent Canadian National Exhibition held in Toronto emphasized this fact, for in points of architectural beauty, lustre of finish, purity and quality of tone, the piano that attracted universal admiration was the

GERHARD HEINTZMAN

CANADA'S BEST PIANO

Our Mr. James Fletcher happened to be in Toronto while this exposition was in progress and, taking advantage of the opportunity, he selected from the exhibition stocks of the Gerhard Heintzman Company a number of their most artistic new piano models.
These pianos are on view in our piano salon to-day. The styles are Sheraton, Jacobean, and Louis XV.

Each style is remarkable in its simplicity, its gracefulness, and its absolute truthfulness of period. The first quality materials and delicate craftsmanship employed are especially noticeable in the carved trusses and pilasters of all three styles.
May we expect a visit from you this week to inspect these new "models de luxe"? The pure, sweet tones of these instruments we know will captivate you with their richness and mellowness.

Time was when some merchants vied with each other in extravagance of statement in their ads. The wise merchants of today vie with each other in the ACCURACY of their statements about goods and values. Nowadays deliberate misrepresentation in advertising would surely and quickly kill any store indulging in it.

"Jewels of the Madonna" Will Be Presented for First Three Days This Week

The attraction at the Royal Victoria for the first three days of this week will be Theda Bara in "Jewels of the Madonna." Director Brenon has produced a story of Italian people, introducing his characters in their native country and later bringing them to New York. The headquarters of the secret society is directed by the Italian girl's lover. The man she has jilted follows her to America and to prove that his adoration knows no bounds steals the Jewels of the Madonna and gives them to the woman he loves. The picture is full of tense dramatic action. Director Brenon has made good use of street mobs and has also succeeded in suggesting a spirit of religious frenzy.

The company seen in support of Miss Bara, including William Shay and other experienced players, is in all respects equal to the demands of an unusual and artistic picture.

"THE CONSCIENCE OF JOHN DAVID"

Crane Wilbur Plays Leading Part in Picture at Romano Theatre

The famous screen star, Crane Wilbur, is starring at the Romano theatre to-day, to-morrow and Wednesday in a five-act psychological drama written by himself, and entitled "The Conscience of John David."

For this production, Mr. Wilbur has selected an unusual and exceptionally interesting subject. The theme is that man's better self always rises to its proper sphere, no matter his preceding state, through the influence of conscience. The treatment given it makes an absorbing and convincing story, in which tense dramatic actions are happily blended with the lighter moments of charm.

The principal character is John David, which is portrayed by Mr. Wilbur in his most impressive manner. His supporting cast, including Alice Rinaldo, Frederick Montague, John Oaker, Mae Gaston, Louis Durham, and Francis Raymond, also lends fine effect to the drama from the standpoint of acting, as its other phases, the picture is all that can be desired.

TALKS ON SHAKESPEARE

Women's University Club Season to Commence To-morrow; Interesting Lecture Series.

The University Women's Club is opening the 1916-17 season with a series of Shakespearean lectures to celebrate the tercentenary of the famous poet and dramatist. The first meeting is to be held on Tuesday, when E. O. S. Scholefield, provincial librarian, will give an illustrated talk on "Scenes From Shakespeare." The slides Mr. Scholefield will show have been especially made from the Boydell Shakespeare and other noted engravings and paintings.

The October meeting is to take the form of an exhibition of objects and prints pertaining to or contemporaneous with the Shakespearean period, while at some later date the club hope to have Dr. Cowan of the State University of Washington address them.

One of the patriotic works at present undertaken by the club is the preparation of a box of comforts and Christmas cheer to be forwarded to the British Columbia company of the University Battalion.

CRISCO For Frying For Shortening For Cake Making A Canadian Cooking Fat For Canadian Housewives PATRIOTISM—sometimes leads us to buy a poorer product made in our own land in preference to a better product made on foreign soil. But when the better product is also the home-made product, there is double reason for choosing it. CRISCO For Frying For Shortening For Cake Making Crisco began its career in the States—yet for four years many Canadian women have used it because of its clear superiority for all sorts of cooking. Now it is made in Canada. The big factories at Hamilton, Ontario, are in operation. They were built by Canadian workmen, and are manned by Canadian labor. They are part and parcel of the manufacturing of the Dominion. The makers of Crisco are glad to put this fact before the women of Canada for their consideration. SPEED OF CARS IS ISSUE IN LAWSUIT

In Damage Action Against the B. C. Electric Railway a Clause in Agreement is Invoked

The speed at which street cars shall be operated in the city of Victoria and the surrounding districts in which the B. C. Electric railway lines run is involved in a damage action which is being heard in the county court today by Judge Lampan and a special jury, of which William Lindsey is foreman.

The plaintiff is James Moss, of Rogerson & Moss, and the defendant company the B. C. Electric Railway Company, and the damages claimed arise out of a collision between the plaintiff's motor car and a street car, which occurred late on the evening of June 1.

D. S. Tait is counsel for the plaintiff and H. B. Robertson, instructed by A. D. King, is for the company.

One of the documents which will be brought into the case in the argument is the act passed by the legislature in 1914 changing to the title the Victoria Electric Railway & Lighting Company, Limited, the corporation which up to that time had been known as the National Electric Tramway & Lighting Company, Limited, and which had entered into an agreement with the city. The clause of this agreement upon which stress will be laid is that which declares that "the speed of the cars shall never exceed ten miles an hour." This franchise is that which was afterwards acquired by the B. C. Electric.

Arthur O. Noakes, provincial land surveyor, produced a plan of the scene of the accident and the immediate neighborhood, from which he estimated that from the point at which the cars came together a street car could be agen for four hundred feet eastward, Moss street being midway between.

Mr. Moss stated that he had been at the home of David F. Dutut and had left at eleven o'clock. Going out to the curb he cranked up his car and started the engine, at which time there was no car in sight, although he saw a glare as from a car which at the time had not come into the line of his vision. He set the car in motion and turned it south across the street, passing over the north track (the east-bound one). As the front wheels passed over the first rail on the south track he felt the engine dying. The car rolled forward until it was square across the south track, and there the engine died and refused to respond to his efforts to start it up again.

At that time he saw a car approaching at a speed which he estimated at twenty-five miles an hour, "at the very least," and coming with a "boom." He saw no signal of warning, nor did the going sound, and there was no diminution in the speed of the car as it came to and crossed the intersection of Moss and Fort streets. It struck his car a few seconds after the engine finally died out, and carried it with him in it for seventy-five or eighty feet before the motor man was able to bring it to a stop. The street car struck his car "with a terrible smash," it "wasn't losing any time," he told his counsel; and he got shaken up pretty badly.

Some passers-by helped to move the motor to the curb, and he went down to his office, from which he telephoned to Dr. Bryant. He was suffering great pain in his left shoulder, and an X-ray photograph was taken of the next day. This did not disclose any permanent injury, but he still suffers some pain.

The car was damaged very considerably, although the tail and headlights were still burning next morning when he went to look at the car.

The case is in progress.

Isaac Walsh, Who Arrived in 1862, Passed Away at Age of 85

The death occurred yesterday morning at the age of 85 years of one of the best known of the old timers of this city in the person of Isaac Walsh. He was an Irishman of the old type and his circle of friends, and acquaintances throughout the city was very large. He will be greatly missed, especially by those who have been here many years and who take a pride in the men who have helped to build up the city.

Isaac Walsh was born in Limerick and later went to Tipperary as overseer of a large farm. While there he married Mary Sandwith, sister of Friday Harbor, San Juan Island. Embararking at Liverpool for this coast on June 12, 1862, the passengers, who included Mr. Walsh and his wife and Mr. Sandwith, had a long and tiresome voyage to British Columbia, stopping only at Valparaiso for water. The vessel arrived here on December 19 of the same year. At that time there were few houses in Victoria, so Mr. Walsh remained on the ship until his house was built, and he has lived in this city ever since.

For a number of years Mr. Walsh worked in the foundry of the Albion

PARKS TAXATION AGAIN AN ISSUE

Conference Held This Morning Between City and Saanich Officials

The strained relations between the city and Saanich have been the subject of frequent reference in the past few years. High school fees, sewerage negotiations, waterworks and enforcement of dairy regulations all contributing fuel to the flame.

The difficulty which required a conference to adjust this morning, when a special committee of the city council had an appointment with the Saanich officials, was that of the taxation of parks. The city has always taken the point of view that the public of Saanich benefit as much from Mount Douglas and Gorge parks as do Victoria people. However, until the Municipal Act was amended there was no provision for exempting parks within the area of another municipality. The first year (1914), the Saanich council returned the levy made for parks to the city market committee for improvements in the market building, and last year the Saanich council passed a resolution exempting the city's parks from taxation. However this course has not been taken this year, and a tax notice has been sent. This subject was the cause for the meeting to-day.

From another department of the city comes the information that in contradiction to the terms of the City Waterworks Act of 1873, an attempt is made to levy on the North Dairy pumping station site, which is an integral part of the city waterworks. The city officials concerned are quite satisfied that there is no possibility of collecting the tax in this respect, and that an identical result will occur to that which happened in 1914, when the city council successfully appealed to the Saanich court of revision on the question of assessment of the Elk Lake watershed.

SAANICH PAVING

Council Committee to Decide Question of Limit for This Year.

At the meeting of the works committee of the Saanich council to be held to-morrow, the members will be called upon to decide whether, in view of the close approach of the rainy season, it will be wise to open up any more roads for paving this year. For instance, it may not be wise to break into the macadam between Saanichton and the municipal boundary on the East road, as at present it is doubtful whether the contractors have not already more than they can manage to pave on the East road already opened, together with finishing the work on Burnside road. If the road to Saanichton is finished, while it will not earn the full government subsidy, still it will give a paved way not only for those actually located on the road but will be a very great convenience for Mount Newton and Hagan people to reach the city via the Cross road.

The delegates to the convention of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities will probably be chosen at this meeting, or it possibly be left over till the regular meeting a week hence. The reeve is a member of the executive and will certainly go to Vernon, and probably one councillor will accompany him.

INJURIES PROVE FATAL

Henry Hollingsworth, Well Known in This City, Dies at Vancouver.

Henry Hollingsworth, proprietor of a small logging camp at Hotham Sound, died at the General Hospital, Vancouver, early this morning as a result of injuries received by him when struck by a flying wire cable on Saturday morning. Mr. Hollingsworth was well known in this city.

According to the story told by James R. Trench, engineer on the donkey engine at the camp, Hollingsworth himself took the throttle of the engine when it looked as if there was a possibility of an accident, relieving Trench from his post.

The engine was being used to clear out a number of logs which were piled in the immediate vicinity, and the wire cable was snuffed on a small stump. Trench attempted to make the pull and the strain was, in his opinion, too great. He told Hollingsworth that he did not think the logs could be shifted, whereupon the proprietor said that he himself would take charge of the engine and advised Trench to seek safety, remarking that he didn't want to see any person receive injuries. Hollingsworth opened the throttle and the wire tightened, and then the cable slipped from its socket and lashed back like a whip, striking Hollingsworth a terrific blow on the lower jaw. He was knocked a distance of eight feet. Trench and several Japanese ran to his assistance and found him unconscious. They had him removed to Fender harbor, from where he was taken to Vancouver. He died early this morning without having regained consciousness.

VICTORIA INVESTORS TAKE UP WAR LOAN

Citizens of Small Means Are Chief Subscribers to Million Dollars Raised Here

Victoria has taken within a very small fraction one million dollars of the new Canadian war loan, subscriptions to which closed on Saturday through the banks.

If the city had placed its quarter of a million in these securities the subscriptions would have rivalled the total placed in the first war loan a year ago, when $1,340,000 was subscribed.

These bonds mature on October 1, 1931, and are issued at 97 1/2, the proceeds to be used for war purposes only. Of the amount subscribed ten per cent. had to be paid on application, with thirty per cent. each on October 16 and Nov. 15 and the balance of 72 1/2 per cent. on Dec. 15.

Saanich has taken $17,000 in the loan, added to the $25,500 which it took a year ago in the other loan. One of the banks has taken in subscriptions to the extent of $300,000, two others for about $150,000 each and the other banking institutions amounts ranging from $25,000 to $100,000. The subscriptions were largely in small amounts, showing that the lenders are chiefly the citizens of small means who are thus doing their share to finance the war and bring it to a close as quickly as possible.

These subscriptions run from $500 up to $10,000. There is one subscription of $60,000, one of $45,000 and five of $25,000. The others are all for the smaller amounts, the alacrity with which the citizens who had but a few hundreds to invest came forward being most commendable and displaying the patriotic spirit for which Victorians have always been noted.

The lenders are highly gratified with the result, both from the point of view of patriotism and as indicating that business is improving slowly but surely.

The next step in the matter is for the department of finance at Ottawa to allot the loan, and when this is done scrip certificates will be issued in exchange for the receipts issued to the subscribers by the banks on the first instalment of the loan. As Victoria's allotment of the loan is only about subscribed there is no doubt that every subscriber will be accepted.

FIRST METRO FILM AT DOMINION TO-NIGHT

Edmund Breeze to Appear in
"The Shooting of Dan McGrew"

An actor like Edmund Breeze, who insists upon realism, and who is not afraid to take a chance "for the sake of art," encounters many hazardous experiences in the course of his adventurous out-of-doors work. And he likes it, though he is often covered with bruises, and many of the bones in his body ache after one of the thrilling scenes he is wont to enact.

When it was determined to produce "The Shooting of Dan McGrew" for the Metro programme, naturally there came to mind but one artist for the star part—Edmund Breeze. He is an expert driver of dog teams, and in this production he drives one of the most noted dog teams ever brought to this country, valued at more than $10,000, and presented to Jacques Suzanne, the explorer, by the czar of Russia for his splendid scientific work in Siberia.

Mr. Breeze is provided with roles that call for his working in the open. The principal settings for his features since he joined the Metro forces, have been lumber camps of the north, the lakes, rivers and mountains of picturesque Canada, and the snowfields of the Alaskan wastes. They are colorful tales of action, and Mr. Breeze has many narrow escapes in their making. In "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," considered the greatest of all poems of Robert W. Service, "The Canadian Kipling," Mr. Breeze has an opportunity of displaying his wonderful ability as a dramatic artist. This production teems with big, vital dramatic situations. It will be shown at the Dominion theatre to-night, to-morrow and Wednesday. The Dominion theatre has secured the exclusive exhibition rights for this production.

"THE SEEKER" NEXT ATTRACTION AT VARIETY

Flora Parker De Haven has attained the heights of stardom in "The Seeker," a Red Feather production which will appear at the Variety theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Flora Parker De Haven, better known perhaps as Mrs. Carter De Haven, was for many years a star with her husband in musical comedy and vaudeville. When the De Havens left the stage for the screen Mrs. De Haven still played with her husband. But now she has so demonstrated her ability that she is being starred alone, without her usual partner. It might be interesting to know that Mr. De Haven is now starring himself in a serial, "The Adventures of Timothy Dobbs."

Edythe Sterling, Star in the Signal Mutual Masterpicture, De-Luxe Edition, "The Stain in the Blood." At the Majestic Theatre.

VARIETY HAS FINE ORCHESTRA.

The management of the Variety theatre, understanding that good music is an essential part of a theatre programme, have secured the services of one of the finest orchestras on the coast in comparison with the number of players. This feature of the entertainment at this popular playhouse is proving a strong attraction with the patrons.

The orchestra, although composed of only four members at present, renders with ease and an elegance of tonal quality, some of the most beautiful selections of the world's greatest musical composers in a manner worthy of the largest orchestras under the greatest conductors.

All the selections are appropriate to the photoplays and the patrons of the Variety can always be assured of an enjoyable entertainment without considering the photoplay attractions which in themselves are of the best that can be procured.

TRIANGLE FEATURE AT THE COLUMBIA

"Going Straight" Thrilling
Drama Will Be Presented for Three Days

Norma Talmage presents an unusual play at the Columbia theatre for the first three days of this week. It is a thrilling play, powerful and exceedingly interesting. Its title is "Going Straight," and it is a Triangle feature. Jimmy Briggs, a crook, recognizes in John Remington a respectable and prosperous real estate man, who as Higgins was his former partner in crime, but who is now going straight. Remington and Grace, his wife, who formerly aided in criminal work, have reformed because of their children. Briggs blackmails Remington until he has no more money left. Then, under threat of exposing Remington's previous career and that of his wife he induces the reformed man to tackle a "job," a housebreaking venture that is extremely hazardous. Remington loves his wife. He would have refused the blackmailer's invitation to break into a house but he feels that he must protect his wife's reputation at any cost. So in due course Remington and Briggs "jimmy" a window into the place and enter.

Remington tackles the safe. Briggs goes upstairs to take what loose jewelry he can find. There is then a startling turn to the course of the play and from then on up to the denouement there are thrilling scenes, illustrating the action of the blackmailer, the reformed criminals and an attempt to secure revenge. There is a thrilling and yet pleasing end.

The comedy will be "A Rough Knight." It will be good. The Columbia theatre has recently been presenting some wonderfully fine moving picture plays, the best productions of the famous Triangle film corporation being shown weekly with some of the Mack Sennet, Ince, and other notable productions.

VICTORIA GIRLS IN MOVING PICTURES

Film Taken Here Will Be Shown at Pantages; Varied
Programme

A tremendous amount of interest has been excited in this city on account of the "Mary Pickford" contest which was conducted last week by Romaine Fielding, the famous motion picture star and producer. The film which was taken last Friday under his direction of the candidates he chose for the cast of the photoplay which he will produce here four months hence, is a feature of the bill which opened at the Pantages theatre with the matinee this afternoon. There is also a two-reel Chaplin comedy on the picture part of the programme.

What is perhaps the most pretentious and elaborate posing offering on the stage at the present day is being offered by Madame Henriette De Serris and her large company of professional models; they reproduce works of art with a degree of perfection unexpected from living models; the artistic finish and attention given to the minutest detail, detect the master mind from behind, the mind directing this company of unexcelled models. The tableau representing an allegory entitled "The Defence of the Flag," is greeted by salvos of applause at every performance.

Slatko's Midnight Rollers, described as a double distilled cyclonic outburst of terpsichorean entertainment, is nothing if not cyclonic, for speed certainly predominates in this offering. The music furnished by the Slatko's orchestra is of the ragtime variety plus speed, and the dancing of the two couples is of the whirlwind kind. The act is beautifully set and the costumes original.

Phil LaToska, the talkative juggler, is as popular as ever with his comedy patter and his unequalled juggling. Ben and Hazel Mann offer a skit composed of singing and comedy patter that win favor; the singing of Hazel is clear and pleasing, she also has personality.

The ever popular Tom Kelly is back with a bunch of new songs and a lot of entertaining stories. Kelly is a big feature on any bill. He has retained that old favorite song of his, "The L Out of Kelly."

AMBULANCE WORK

Over Sixty Men Are Taking Full Course in Field Duties Under Captain Raynor, C. A. M. C.

The field ambulance and stretcher class which is being conducted by Captain Melbourne Raynor, C. A. M. C., medical officer of the 143rd Battalion, B. C. Bantams, has reached over sixty in number, and it will be impossible for any other to enter now, as the rest of the class would be too far ahead of them.

The class meets in the new drill hall on Bay street three evenings a week. Its members have the opportunity of obtaining a full course in field ambulance work, stretcher drill, first aid to the injured and all the branches of training through which overseas ambulance units have to pass.

"The Stain in the Blood" Feature Picture at Majestic Theatre

The Signal studio's master picture, de luxe, "The Stain in the Blood," starring Edythe Sterling, will be the feature attraction at the Majestic theatre to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday. This is an extremely unique psychological drama in five acts, the scenes of which open in the far west and close in the eastern metropolis.

"The Stain in the Blood" has to do with a youth who, left an orphan along with his sister by the massacre of their parents in an Indian raid, develops vicious traits at an early age which, in succeeding years lead him into a number of desperate escapades. Finally, aided by his sister and her husband, a young inventor, the youth is reformed and his early life kept a secret from him.

Robert A. Dillon, who wrote the script for "The Stain in the Blood," has long been a close student of psychology and much of the data gathered by him in his researches has been woven into the story of the play. The question of hereditary influence, however, is treated by Mr. Dillon in an exceedingly novel but convincing manner in this production.

"The Stain in the Blood" was screened under the direction of Robert McQuarrie, who also appears in the role of the sheriff, adopted father of the hero of the story. The principals are supported by a strong cast of players, including Dorothy Nash, Willard K. Wilson and several others.

Two very amusing comedies complete a programme which should not

She will be supported by a cast of exceptional merit, headed by Guy Coombe, one of the most popular actors appearing on the screen. "My Madonna" will be seen here at the Dominion on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Williamson's Submarine Pictures at Royal Victoria Theatre

Thrilling, Wonderful, Fascinating and Amazing "Movies"

Many Lives Were Risked to Obtain Hair-Raising Features

Victoria moving picture lovers will have their first opportunity on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, at the Royal Victoria theatre, of seeing the wonderful Williamson submarine masterpiece of the life-in-the-great depths of the Atlantic ocean.

At the risk of their lives the Williamson Brothers obtained the pictures that will be featured at the Royal Victoria theatre.

Thrilling Achievement.

Probably the most thrilling scene in the seven-enthralling reels of this amazing film marvel is the life-and-death struggle between one of the Williamson Brothers and a powerful man-eating shark. The battle between this daring man and the tiger of the sea is shown in full detail. The very thought of fighting a shark with a knife will make the chills creep up your back, but to see it done in the picture is the thrill of a lifetime. You see the shark approach the camera; the white man comes down into the light with a long, thin-bladed knife held in his teeth, towards the lonely blue shark. There is a churning of water and both figures sink lower into the spotlight with the oiled and gleaming body of the naked man nestling close to the belly of the shark.

The Fight.

He hangs onto one of the monster's fins, where he is safe from the savagely-toothed jaws and from that powerful tail. Now there is a quick upward movement of the man's arm; the knife gleams in the water and is buried to the hilt in a vital spot of the shark's anatomy. The monster makes one huge unsuccessful lunge, grows suddenly limp and sinks down, leaving a reddish-just tail. The man shows upward, his nerves tingling with the excitement of the awful struggle.

Many Other Thrills.

The camera caught every movement of this thrilling combat and recorded it faithfully. Besides this, the submarine pictures at the Royal Victoria show many other astounding and absorbing incidents and adventures of the Williamson Brothers in their perilous explorations of the unknown deep.

TAKES MOVIES IN SEA DEPTHS AT MIDNIGHT

Would you like to have your picture taken on the bottom of the ocean at midnight so you can give your friends ocular proof of your daring and contempt for danger? It can be done, as you will see by attending the Royal Victoria theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, when the brilliant and astonishing Williamson submarine motion pictures are being shown.

First, if you want such a portrait of yourself, you will have to arrange with Ernest and George Williamson for the use of their father's patented collapsible submarine tube and of their own invention of the submerged photographic chamber which, attached to the bottom of the tube, moves about on the floor of the ocean.

How It's Done.

Then you must get a photographer to go down in the tube and wait in the iron photograph sphere until the hour of midnight, when they appear before the great circle of thick glass in one end of the chamber to pose for him. If you are a good diver you can do it, if the depth is not too great, but naturally you will not give the photographer a lengthy sitting. If you don't mind being made to look like a monster, and want a long exposure of a second or so to show each detail, you will don a diver's suit in which to pose.

He Sees You.

How does the photographer know when you are ready to have him snap you? That's easy; he sees you all the time. Sounds improbable, but it is true. In front of the submerged photographic chamber is a battery of submarine lights (also a Williamson patented invention), which has been lowered over the side of the same barge or other vessel to which the submarine tube is connected. In each of the lights in this battery is a Cooper Hewitt mercury vapor tube fitted snugly into a metal submarine container. These lamps are capable of developing 2,500 candle power each. So, while posing for your midnight submarine portrait, you stand in a flood of electricity equivalent to from 10,000 to 25,000 candle power.

Perfect Lamps.

The Williamson perfected these submarine lamps so they could take photographs in the supposedly dark depths of the ocean, but in the Bahama Islands, where they went to take their first under-sea movies, they found the rays of the tropical sun penetrated the ocean so brilliantly that the artificial light was not necessary.

It Was Done.

They took several hundred feet of film at night, however, just to show what could be accomplished and several of these experiments are shown in this exhibition of submarine-motion pictures. A man dives 30 feet into the water and swims back and forth before the big section of glass in the large end of the funnel which projects from the photographic chamber. Under the glare of the light he is seen very clearly.

Attracts Fish.

The lights have the same effect on the denizens of the deep that the proverbial candle has for the moth, or the white lights of Broadway have for the human moths that flutter up and down that highway. The Williamson pictures show hundreds of fish swimming excitedly about the lights; and the pet turtle of the expedition doing a tango in honor of this new sun which descends into the depths of the ocean.

TO RECOVER LOST TREASURES BY MEANS OF SUBMARINE TUBE

Billions of dollars in gold, silver, ivory, copper and all sorts of precious stones and jewels have been lost in ships wrecked at sea. Only in a very few cases have these wrecks been raised or deep-sea divers been able to recover the lost treasure. This great amount of precious metal in coins and in bars had been given up as lost forever to the world, but now there is a hint that much of this lost wealth may one day be recovered. If it ever is, it will be due to the great invention by Captain Charles Williamson of his submarine collapsible tube, through which a man can descend from fifty to a thousand feet below the surface of the water. The tube at present has been built to a length of two hundred and fifty feet, and under its present method of construction, can be safely lengthened to a thousand feet.

How It Will Be Done.

By means of this tube the Williamson Brothers were able to take motion pictures on the bottom of the ocean near the Bahama Islands, showing a series of the most unexpected, fascinating and thrilling incidents. The Universal Film Company will present these pictures at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

One of the interesting details of the film is the skeleton of a wrecked ship.

In Low Water.

The majority of the great wrecks of history were found in water much shallower than the extreme length of the present tube, because shipwrecks almost always occur near shore. Many of the great treasure ships of history have been wrecked off the African coast. Among them were "Wilhelm der Zweiter" with 3,700 bars of silver aboard; the "Hencoop" with a cargo of 200 tons of copper; the "Wilhelmina" with thirty boxes of gold and silver; the "Harlen H." with a cargo of silver bars; and the "Scholelorredraayer" with a cargo of ivory.

To Salvage Mereda.

Captain Charles Williamson has already planned to salvage the "Mereda," which was wrecked off the Virginia coast a few years ago with a large quantity of silver bars and a safe full of jewelry aboard. If this first great submarine treasure hunt is successful it is safe to say that innumerable expeditions will be fitted out for the raising of these great fortunes from the bottom of the sea.

WONDERS IN WATERS OF CRUSOE'S ISLAND

Recent investigators have discovered that the island on which Robinson Crusoe was cast away and lived alone for twenty years was in the West Indian seas, and not in the Pacific Ocean, as formerly asserted. It was in these same waters that Columbus first set foot upon the new hemisphere—on the island of San Salvador in the Bahamas, now called Watling's Island.

New Adventurers.

In the past year new adventures have taken place in these same waters worthy to rank with Columbus's discovery, which revolutionized the world's civilization, and with the strange exploits of Robinson Crusoe in the brilliant romance from the pen of Daniel Defoe, which influenced the current of English fiction for two hundred years. The reference is to the adventures of J. Ernest Williamson and his brother, George M. Williamson, one hundred feet under the surface of the water, in the West Indian seas. Their under-sea exploits will have as momentous effect on the future as the footprints of the man Friday had upon the imagination of Robinson Crusoe, or the landing of Columbus on San Salvador had on the spirit of romance and adventure of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

A complete and enthralling record of the Williamson's adventures will be shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, when the Williamson Submarine motion pictures will be shown. This is the first and only film of its kind ever taken. The Williamson have a monopoly of under-the-ocean "movies," for they have a patent of their own invention of the submerged photographic chamber, and control the collapsible submarine tube invented and patented by their father. With its usual energy and far-sightedness, the Universal Film Manufacturing Company has arranged to exhibit their pictures.

Strange Sights.

Sights under the sea are strange, weird, beautiful, fantastic, horrible and thrilling, and the operator on this expedition was fortunate enough to catch one or more examples of all these varying ocean moods. The beautiful is represented by scenes of coral formations, marine botanical gardens and meadows, and the brilliant colorings of coral and fish; the weird and fantastic by strange, laborious movements of a deep-sea diver, and by the bizarre coral formations, particularly one huge bell in the pathway of the Gulf Stream, which looks for all the world like a million human arms waving monotonously back and forth above their owners' heads; the horrible is seen in the sharks after bait and in a fight for food with each other.

These submarine "movies" created a sensation when presented in New York, where they ran for over three hundred performances. They have proved the best "repertory" ever booked by a theatre manager.

These Unique Films Will Be Shown Here For 3 Days Only

The Williamson Submarine moving pictures will be shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre for only three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Remember the dates, September 28, 29 and 30.

DEEP SEA MASTERPIECE SHOWS HOW DIVERS LOOK AT WORK

Do you know how a man dives when he goes under from twenty to forty feet of water? Have you ever seen a diver hunting around on the floor of the ocean for pennies thrown overboard by tourists? It is all fantastic and amusing as seen through many feet of water and recorded in the Williamson Submarine Motion Pictures which will be presented at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

In pictures two or three native Bahamians are shown looking around in the mud for the shining pennies. Often they engage in a struggle under the water for possession of the coin. The motion picture camera has recorded their antics faithfully.

STRANGE FISH LOOKS LIKE AMERICAN FLAG

One of the most interesting fish seen on the submarine exploring trip of the Williamson Brothers in the West Indian seas was a new variety. In the motion pictures of this expedition which will be shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, this bizarre fish is seen swimming back and forth around the piling of the wharf at Nassau.

Puzzled Experts.

The picture which they took of it amazed and puzzled all the fish experts in Washington and New York, for none of them had ever before seen such a member of the finny tribe. It was swimming about in lonely grandeur when seen by the Williamson, and all the other fish made way for it as though it was dangerous. Possibly it was electrical and they would have received a shock had they gone too close. The Williamson boys call this new variety of fish "Old Glory," because in all its beauty of stars and stripes it resembles the flag of the United States.

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTE ENDORSES SUBMARINE MOVIES FOR CHILDREN

Ada Paterson, celebrated New York critic, says: "Every man, woman and child will be the gainer by seeing this pinnacle of moving picture achievement."

The Smithsonian Institute is followed by all the great American educational and scientific authorities, who heartily endorse this wonderful work of the Williamson Brothers.

Dorothy Dix, the writer, declares that parents should take their children to see the Williamson Brothers' educational pictures.

Every Board of Moving Picture Censors throughout the United States not only compliments the Williamson Brothers for the production of this under-water motion picture marvel, but advises that no man, woman or child can afford to miss these educational films.

HOW PHOTOGRAPHS WERE OBTAINED

The photographer sat in a chamber with a glass front, from fifty to one hundred feet under water, connected with a barge on the surface, and turned the crank as the multifarious life of the sea passed in review before the camera's eye.

"Strange," beautiful, fantastic and thrilling were the pictures, caught by the camera. Among them are scenes showing native men and boys diving for coins; coral reefs among which lie forever still, the sunken wrecks of ships that once proudly sailed the main; a deep-sea diver laboriously exploring the skeleton of a wreck for lost treasure; a furious, bloody battle between two man-eating sharks; and, as a thrilling and unheard-of climax, a fight to a finish between a man and a huge blue shark that is admitted to be the most stirring encounter ever projected upon a screen. It was a fight for life staged by Nature herself, and in such events Nature never stages direct.

To sit in a Royal Victoria Theatre chair and watch these pictures projected on the screen is an easy and cheap way to acquire a knowledge of the floor of the ocean and of all phases of sea-life. The knowledge comes in interesting, weird, and often amusing and thrilling form—the same thrill and charm that is derived from a superlatively well-acted story.

CURES THE BLUES

Does your interest in life lag? Are the days stale, flat and unprofitable, and your friends and your business a bore? The only guaranteed quick cure for such a state of affairs is a visit to the Williamson Submarine pictures which will be presented at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

STAR OUTFIELDER IS PLAYING GREAT GAME

Dode Paskert Showing Best Form of His Career With the Phillies

In spite of the advances of years, Dode Paskert is playing the greatest game of his career right now. The latest batting figures show that the Philly centre fielder is hitting at a .288 clip, leading the National League champions with the stick. Besides, this splendid record, Paskert has slammed out 114 hits for 162 bases, and has scored 53 runs. On the defence Paskert has been playing a remarkable game. He has always been a brilliant fielder, but this season he is surpassing anything he did before. If the fan who does not know Paskert personally could hear him talk and see him going through the routine of daily life he would marvel at the fine showing Dode makes on the baseball field.

Paskert is a pessimist of the most malignant variety. If he gets a base hit he is sure to mourn because he did not make two, and he can almost prove to you that he should be. At least morally, credited with that hit. As a rule persons with such London-gro dispositions make poor athletes. Dode is therefore an exception. His pessimism seems to spur him on, to greater efforts rather than to lessen his desire to excel.

BREEZY BITS

The New York Giants continued their winning streak on Saturday, taking a double-header from the St. Louis Cardinals at the Polo grounds. Treisman worked for the winners in the first game and Rube Henton, McGraw's star, southpaw, was on the mound in the second contest, letting Huggins men down with 2 hits and no runs.

Grover Alexander, the National League's premier hurler, did the iron man stunt on Saturday at Philadelphia, when he pitched and won both ends of a double bill. The Cincinnati Reds who were the victims could only connect safely on two occasions in the second game in which they were shut out.

LADY CRICKETERS DEFEAT GENTLEMEN

Winners Bat Well and Play Fine Game in Field; Hudson Stars for Men

The ladies defeated the men in a spirited game of cricket on the Jubilee Hospital grounds on Saturday afternoon by 7 runs. Miss K. Hudson captained the ladies in a most capable manner. The ladies did good work with the bat, compiling a total of 163 runs, notwithstanding the fact that the men did some smart fielding. Miss Bryce had the best total, ruing up 23 runs before she was retired, while Miss M. Kilpatrick, Miss O. Kilpatrick, Mrs. Littleboy, Miss Wilson and Miss G. Hudson all reached double figures. The fielding of H. Hudson for the men was the feature of the play. He made three sensational left-handed catches. The men took the bat with a total of 169 to beat, and went about the task of piling up a big score with determination. However, the ladies played a spirited game in the field besides bowling well and the best batsman could do was 182. The wicket-keeping of Miss O. Kilpatrick was the feature of the ladies game. The excellent tea provided by the ladies was appreciated by all those present. The score:

FAIRFULL'S RINK WINS THE O.O. CUP

In the O.O. challenge doubles competition played on the green of the Victoria lawn bowling club at Beacon Hill last week McEwride and Fairfull defeated Dunn and Downwell 22 to 14. Downwell defeated Hiscocks 24 to 15 in the Shortt, Hill & Duncan cup singles, and Langley's rink beat the rink skipped by Dowwell 26 to 12. The winning rink was: McNeill, Robertson, Greenhill and Langley, and the losers McVie, Johnston, Walker and Dowwell. The Canadian rink skipped by Langley will play off next Saturday with the Scottish rink skipped by Stevenson, in the final of the national rink match.

SHAMROCKS DEFEAT OTTAWA IN FINAL

Montreal, Sept. 25.—The Shamrocks defeated Ottawa by 17 to 5 here on Saturday afternoon and closed the season as winners of the N. L. U. championship. The game was clean and the play was interesting, though the victors fared so poorly in the matter of goals.

At the finish President Harry McLaughlin, of the Shamrocks, and Alderman O'Connell, chairman of the recreation commission, were given illuminated addresses. Hon. James Deucherty, a past president of the Shamrock A. A., was present and spoke.

FRIENDLY CRICKET MATCH.

The cricket team representing Victoria defeated the eleven captained by Mr. Freeman by the overwhelming score of 183 to 93 on Saturday afternoon on the grounds at the Jubilee hospital. Victoria batted first and found the opposing bowlers easy, Hill making 44 while Wyles carried his bat for 26. Freeman's team could do little with the bowling of Verall, the Civil Service captain, with 28 to his credit, being the only man to make a showing.

ALL-VICTORIA WINS.

The All-Victoria cricket team defeated the All-Vancouver team in the Terminal City on Saturday afternoon by the overwhelming score of 153 to 33 on the first innings. The Vancouver batters not being able to solve the bowling of Askey, while the local batters found the opposing bowlers easy. Vancouver had a second innings in which they did better, making 111.

MANY AUSTRALIAN PUGILISTS ENLIST

Darcy, Squires and Mehegan Have Joined the Colors in the Antipodes

London, Sept. 25.—Les Darcy, the famous Australian middleweight champion boxer, who defeated Jimmy Clabby, of Hammond, Ind., on points in a 20-round contest at Sydney recently, has, with his trainer, "Mick" Hawkins, joined the colors and will shortly go into active service.

This information has been obtained from the London office of the high commissioner for Australia. It is understood that Darcy's enlistment will not interfere with his projected contest with the American middleweight, George Chip.

"Bill" Squires, the former Australian heavyweight champion, who was knocked out by Tommy Burns, of Canada, in the States, has given up farming and also joined the forces for active service. Hugh Mehegan, another famous Australian boxer, has arrived in England with the latest contingent of colonial troops.

HOME PRODUCTS FAIR WILL BE REVELATION

Success of Exhibition Will Demonstrate Possibilities of Manufacturing

In Victoria a manufacturing city, and can the factories which are here developed sufficiently to insure a permanent payroll that will bring the city to the fore as a manufacturing centre? These are questions that will to some extent be answered by the Home Products Exhibition which is to be held in this city next week. The fair will open on Monday, October 2, and continue throughout the week with special attractions each day.

The exhibition will not only demonstrate the number of manufacturing establishments here, but it will show the people the excellent quality of the articles made in Victoria. The exhibition will have all the earmarks of a large exposition; the telegraph companies will install telegraph offices in the building; there will be pay telephone stations; the city fire brigade will have a fire apparatus, with a fireman in attendance day and night, and everything will be arranged so as to offer every convenience to the large crowds which are expected to attend. The decorations are now almost complete, and the men are busy installing the very effective electric lighting system.

Two features of the exhibition will be the exhibits of the provincial and Dominion governments. Professor L. Stevenson, of the experimental farm, will install a most instructive and interesting exhibit, showing what can be done on the government will install a provincial government and attractive exhibit, covering most of the resources of Vancouver Island.

The promoters are particularly fortunate just now in having placed at their disposal for this event the big new Hudson's Bay building on Douglas street, which is ideal for the purpose required. More important even than that is the fact that it is centrally located and for that reason is easily accessible to all. The result will undoubtedly be that the attendance will be very much larger than is usually the case with such events.

The B. C. Electric exhibit of power and light will be an ocular demonstration of the increasing consumption of electricity for manufacturing and domestic purposes. This will be illustrated by all the modern household electric fittings and furnishings, some of which have not hitherto been seen in the city of Victoria.

Providing Entertainment. The entertainment features, also the refreshments, will be largely in the hands of the Red Cross. There will be two or three high class performances each evening by a society vaudeville troupe, while some of the most amusing will be included in their repertoire. Each day there will be a lecture on some subject which will be of interest, particularly in the development of agriculture, and for the instruction of those on nearby lands as to how to cultivate their small pieces of ground to secure the best returns.

A meeting, which it is hoped all the heads of households in Victoria will attend, will be held on Tuesday, when addresses will be delivered by Mrs. Kemp, president of the Consumers' League in Vancouver, and by Mrs. Ralph Smith, vice-president, who will tell the people what the league has done to encourage manufacturing and industrial enterprises around Vancouver, by the buying of home products.

Every enterprising manufacturer firm in Victoria will be represented on the floor of the exhibition, and it is safe to say that every firm will benefit enormously from the opportunity presented to them of displaying the excellence of their goods to the citizens of Victoria, and the island generally. Excursion rates are being arranged by the transportation companies. Wednesday will be Saanich Day, and on that day the B. C. Electric Interurban railway and the Victoria & Sidney railway will give a one fare rate, good to return the following day. No word yet has been received as to the decision of the E. & N. railway, but it is expected that special rates will also be put in from all island points.

GRIFFIN DEFEATS WILLIAM JOHNSTONE

Kansas City, Sept. 25.—Clarence Griffin, who with William Johnstone holds the national tennis doubles title, featured the exhibition match here Friday by defeating Johnstone in straight sets, 5-2, 6-2. The former champion proved unequal to cope with his sturdier opponent, although the play was brilliant at all times. Griffin, paired with Clifford Lockhorn, a local player, defeated Johnstone and Willis Davis, national clay courts champion 7-5, 6-1. Lockhorn was a hard-fought battle with Roland Roberts, the fourth member of the Californians' party, 6-4, 6-4.

OPTIMISTIC REPORTS FROM BUSINESS MEN

Montreal Financier and Toronto Banker Both Speak Hopefully on Arrival

An optimistic report on conditions is given by Hugh Paton, the well-known Montreal business man, who arrived from Prince Rupert last evening, and is registered with Mrs. Paton at the Empress hotel.

"My opinion of the nature of a half-day tour," he explained to the Times this morning, "but in my capacity as a director of the Royal Bank, as I came west over the Grand Pacific railway, I had a look at business conditions from the banker's standpoint and found the situation better than I had been led to expect.

"I intend while here to meet the local management of the Royal Bank and to look into conditions generally in Victoria. Western Canada is picking up, and while in the central part of British Columbia is a great scarcity of labor, on account of the heavy enlistments from the province, is reported everywhere, the country appears to be making progress.

"Our plans are to proceed to San Francisco, and thence to Southern California."

"That the result of the prairie harvest will be great fillip to the situation in British Columbia is the opinion of P. A. Rumsey, of Toronto, the chief inspector of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, who arrived in the city yesterday on the course of an inspection tour. While he has no special business mission here, he states that he will meet the local managers and other connected with banking interests here.

"From what I have seen, on the prairie, a large section in Alberta and Northern Saskatchewan has been good this year, and there will be a heavy demand for British Columbia lumber," he said. "People in the three provinces are looking towards the situation which will arise after the war, and are anticipating a tremendous impetus to immigration. You notice already leading Canadians like Lord Shaughnessy teaching preparation for this problem. Whatever restrictions may be put on immigration from Europe after the war, you can reasonably expect a great movement towards western Canada, because it is the only country in a temperate zone with vast areas to be filled up. Anything which leads to the pushing of the grain line further north in Canada will benefit British Columbia.

"In the east there is great commercial activity during the war years, and the position in the west is not generally understood by people in Ontario, who did not experience the effects of your land boom."

Mr. Rumsey contemplates leaving for the east directly.

VICTORIANS AMONG KILLED AND WOUNDED

Latest Casualty List Contains Names of Soldiers Who Enlisted Here

The names of a number of Victorians appear in the latest casualty lists.

William White, 2257 Fowl Bay road, received a telegram yesterday reporting that his son, Pioneer William Wallace White, 48th Battalion, had died of wounds on September 16. Pioneer White, who was 23 years of age, was born in Toronto and came to Victoria five years ago. He was a carpenter by trade, he joined the 60th March 4, 1916, and later transferred to the 48th, leaving here for England with that unit as a lance-corporal. After arriving in England he was transferred to the band and given the rank of corporal. He went over to France in March and was for some time on the staff. About five weeks ago he gave up his stripes and went into the trenches. Pte. White was a member of Alexandra Lodge, S. O. E. A brother, Pte. T. G. White, left here with the 103rd. Besides his mother, father and a sister, Pte. White leaves a wife and two small children, who reside with his parents at 2297 Fowl Bay road.

Private R. Summers, whose name appears among those who have died of wounds, came here four years ago from England, where he was born. He was sergeant-major in the 88th Regiment, and after the outbreak of the war joined the 48th Battalion as color sergeant. Later he transferred to the 54th Kootenay Battalion, where he received the rank of sergeant-major. In July, 1915, he left Vernon in charge of a draft of 250 men and on his arrival in England was made warrant officer and musketry instructor, continuing in that position until June 6 of this year, when he went to France as a private in the 7th Battalion, having given up his rank in order to get to the front. He had been recommended for a commission but was wounded before he got an opportunity of qualifying for that rank. He was 25 years of age, was a Scottish Rite Mason, was a charter member of Victoria Chapter 17, order of the Eastern Star.

After arriving in England with his battalion he was married to Miss K. Bell, of Edinburgh, Scotland. His only relative in this city is a sister, Miss Florence Summers. His mother and one sister reside at New Westminster while another brother and sister live in Washington. A second brother is engaged in munition work in England.

Mrs. Joseph Drader, 2132 Belmont avenue, received a telegram on Saturday reporting that her son, Lieut. Robert Eugene Drader, had been wounded on September 16. Lieut. Drader, who was 24 years of age, was born in Ontario, coming here nine years ago. He was a teacher by profession and was acting as cadet instructor in the public schools at Edmonton, previous to enlisting. He received a commission in the 51st Battalion of that city, and after arriving in England he was transferred to the 49th, with which unit he was serving when he was wounded. He had been in the trenches since June 7. Lieut. Drader has three brothers in the service, two of whom, Ptes. William and Wilbert, were wounded June 27 and June 30 respectively. They went to England with the 66th and later transferred to the 49th, and were with that battalion when they were wounded. Besides his parents and a sister, residing at 2132 Belmont avenue, Lieut. Drader has a married sister living in Edmonton.

Word has been received of the death of Pte. Walter George Truin as a result of wounds received in action. He left Victoria with the first overseas draft from the 50th Gordon Highlanders. Pte. Truin was a well known and popular member of the staff of the post office in this city, and was a nephew of Alan and George Jewell, with whom he lived. He came to Victoria with three companions, W. Blakey, H. Blakey and Harry Brown, of Bedfordshire, England, where their parents still reside. As soon as war was declared they offered their services to their country.

A cable received this morning by F. E. Winslow announced the wounding of his brother, Captain R. H. Winslow, presumably in the recent fighting on the Somme. The cable was from Captain Winslow himself, who was sent from hospital in France and stated that he had been slightly wounded. Captain Winslow went from here with the 48th Battalion, and is the last of the original officers of that battalion to be wounded. All have now figured in the casualty list.

Lance-Sergt. Charles Edward Faulkner, 514 Michigan street, is among the wounded, having been shot in both legs. He is 23 years of age.

HOSPITAL WORK IN THE DARDANELES

Dr. E. M. Pearse Returns After Several Months Service on Shipboard

Dr. E. Mountjoy Pearse, who practiced in the Campbell building, returned to the city yesterday from the old country, where he has been in the army medical service for a year and a half.

Dr. Pearse went from here direct to London and reentered the R. A. M. C., in which he had served throughout the South African war, and was at once assigned duty with the Dardanelles expeditionary force. He was in the eastern Mediterranean from that time until he left on his return to Canada. He was on a hospital ship and in charge of the transport of wounded to the base hospital at Malta and Alexandria.

The ship was in effect the field hospital for the land forces which were operating against the Turks along the shores of the Dardanelles, and it was stationed out in the straits about half a mile from shore. The wounded were taken out in small boats to the ship, which came in as close as the depth of water would allow. On the staff of physicians and nurses were men and women of all parts of the empire, and the wounded who fell under their care were likewise from the four corners of the earth.

Surgical and urgent cases were attended to on board and convalescent and sick cases were taken by the ship to the base hospitals mentioned. After the recall of the ill-fated Dardanelles expedition the ship was moved to Sanjonia and served generally in the eastern Mediterranean.

Those on board had an unparalleled opportunity, in the snatches of time they got from their duties, to follow the operations on land as the British troops tried to force their way up the Straits. The trenches were stretched out in long lines in plain view and all the fighting took place under the eyes of those on the vessel.

"The men were never depressed," said Dr. Pearse, speaking of the courage and endurance of the troops, "and they fought on bravely under the most discouraging circumstances very often. This wounded when we took on board were the most cheerful fellows imaginable, and as brave under the surgeon's attentions as they were in the trenches or in the charge. Nothing seemed to depress them."

While lying off Salonica Dr. Pearse had frequent occasion to see Major E. C. Hart, who is in charge of No. 5 British Columbia hospital, and the hospital staff. The hospital, when he left, was housed under canvas, but was to go into huts. At that time the cases were almost all medical, but since then, of course, the fighting which has taken place will have furnished many surgical cases.

Salonica Dr. Pearse describes as very hot and very unhealthy, both in the city and its surroundings, fever being very prevalent. The hospital, however, is in the best part of the city and in excellent surroundings. Dr. Hart was looking very fit, and his work is highly commended by all who come in contact with it. The rest of the staff are also in good form.

Dr. Pearse will resume his practice here at once.

LIQUID CATARRH REMEDIES

Useless; Only Relieve; Never Cure

They go direct to the stomach, have very little effect on the linings of the nose and throat, and entirely fail to cure. Only by cleansing the air passages, by relieving the inflammation and killing the germs is cure possible. No combination of antiseptics is so successful as Catarrhazone. In breathing it, you send the richest pine balsams right to the seat of the disease, irritating phlegm is cleaned out, hoarseness, coughing and hacking are cured. For a permanent cure for catarrh, nothing equals Catarrhazone, get it to-day, but beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrhazone. All dealers sell Catarrhazone large size containing two months' treatment, costs $1.00; small size, 50c; sample size, 25c.

COAST OF BELGIUM WAS ATTACKED BY BRITISH MONITORS

London, Sept. 25.—British monitors and destroyers bombarded the Belgian coast on Sunday between Heyst and a point northwest of Bruzes, according to a Reuter dispatch from Flushing.

HUGHES WENT AT HIGH SPEED WHEN IN OLD COUNTRY

London, Sept. 25.—When Pte. Moser, a Canadian soldier, was summoned for having driven a motor car at 32 miles an hour, it was stated that he was driving an aide-de-camp of Maj.-Gen. Sir Sam Hughes, Sir Sam himself being in a car immediately in advance. Counsel for Pte. Moser produced a permit granted Maj.-Gen. Hughes to exceed the speed limit when engaged on urgent military duty. The charge was dismissed.

BERLIN CALLS SOMME BATTLE "PERMANENT"

Berlin, Sept. 25.—The following official statement was issued yesterday: "The permanent battle on the Somme again is in full swing. The artillery combat between the Allies and Somme has reached an extraordinary violence. Last night enemy attacks near Courcellette and in the Rancourt-Bouchavesnes region failed.

"In the Meuse district enemy artillery fire west of the river and east of the river failed. On the whole front there was lively artillery fire.

"There also were numerous aerial engagements within our lines and beyond the enemy's lines, resulting favorably for us. We shot down 24 aeroplanes, 20 of them on the Somme front. Our losses were six aeroplanes.

"Late in the evening of September 22 bombs dropped by enemy aeroplanes on Mannheim, Baden, killed one person and caused some damage. Hostile fliers repeatedly attacked the places behind our front. Among other towns attacked was that of Lille, where six civilians were killed and 12 houses damaged. One of our airships on the night of Sept. 22 attacked British military establishments near Boulogne."

ANOTHER MILLION MEN NEEDED, SAYS GARVIN

London, Sept. 25.—J. L. Garvin, writing in the Observer, of which he is the editor, says that another million men are essential for the army. "If Great Britain is going to win the war, as it means to."

STATEMENT ISSUED BY WAR OFFICE AT SOFIA

Sofia, via London, Sept. 25.—An official statement issued yesterday said: "On the heights of Stranacke Brooklyn was captured by assault a mountain crest south of the village of Popla. The enemy retired in disorder, leaving behind a great number of wounded.

"In the Florida region calm prevails. "On the Kaimakalan heights there was a violent artillery duel and also a small infantry action.

"In the Molesina valley our artillery dispersed numerous bodies of enemy troops.

"In the Vardar region and on the Struma front there was an artillery duel.

"Along the Dumbue there was nothing to report.

"In Dobruja the situation was more quiet. On the remainder of our northern front there were weak engagements of advanced posts, which resulted to our advantage.

"On the Black Sea coast there was quiet."

CANADIANS KEEP ENEMY GUESSING

With Snipers' Tactics; How Superior Force of Germans Lost Courcellette

(By Philip Gibbs)

With the British Army in the field, September 23, via London, September 25.—The Germans seem to have a special kind of hatred for the Canadians and tried to knock them about at Courcellette by savage attacks and heavy concentrations of artillery and the Canadians paid back life for life. There were trappers among them who devised cunning ways of crawling at night over No Man's Land. There were real Indian tactics used by snipers. Night raids were organized and rehearsed with a scientific accuracy of detail that created a new method of trench warfare, which the Germans feared.

The Canadian infantry had a difficult operation. The ground from the high ridge of Pozieres sloped down before them to the edge of the village of Courcellette, where they had been ordered to halt and concentrate while reserve battalions of French-Canadian on the right came up to mop up the captured. A German trench ran at an angle from the objective, and as they advanced the Canadians had to take the trench en passant, as the chess players would say, the flank capturing trenches at the same time as progress was made on the front. The French-Canadians with their comrades on their left, swung in a loop around the southern half of the village and closed in and invaded its streets.

The capture of Courcellette was one of the astounding things in this battle of the Somme. There were 1,500 Germans in and about it, and the place was stormed by much less than that number—dug-outs full of Germans were routed by a few men who could have been crushed and killed by the odds against them. There were extraordinary scenes in Courcellette and beyond, where the Canadians put the Germans to flight and took more prisoners and made strong points to guard against a counter-attack. For hours there was hunting in the dug-outs. French-Canadians hunted out Germans and quarrelled with them in French and bullied them—good-naturedly, and showed them a kind of rough friendliness.

Some Germans made themselves useful. A wounded Canadian officer captured five of them before he became too weak to get back to the dressing station unaided. Speaking French to them, which one at least understood, he ordered his prisoners to make a stretcher for him, confining his comrade by keeping his revolver on them. From some old sticks and sandbags they made a stretcher and then carried him down.

PLAN OF RECRUITING IN THE DOMINION

Borden Outlines Work of New Board of National Service

OTTAWA, Sept. 25.—More systematic recruiting methods are to be put in force in Canada, it was announced today, to bring the Dominion's contribution to the entente armies to the half million quota promised. The present methods have raised 400,000 men—300,000 of them in the Dominion.

Thomas Talbot, as director general, will increase enlistments. Sir Robert Borden announced today that the national service board's duties will be to stimulate recruiting and to determine whether the service of any person is more valuable to the state in his present employment or in military service.

The board also is to issue badges to persons honorably discharged from military service, to those exempt for physical reasons and to those who are held to be more valuable in existing employment. A stock of labor is to be taken in each military district and the employment of women arranged for.

LIEUT. TAYLOR DEAD

Vancouver, Sept. 25.—Information was received in the city yesterday that Lieut. Arthur Taylor, who left here last spring with the 2nd Battalion under command of Lieut.-Col. Hulme, had died on September 22, as the result of wounds received in action on the Somme front. The young officer was a son of Captain G. R. Taylor, of Vancouver, and at the time he left for overseas was engaged to Miss Eric Buscombe, eldest daughter of Mr. Frederick Buscombe. Miss Buscombe, accompanied by her mother, left last May for London, where the marriage was arranged to take place. Shortly after their arrival Lieut. Taylor was ordered to the front and for some months was stationed in the Ypres salient, having been in the meantime transferred to the 7th Battalion. At the end of August he obtained a short leave and returned to England, where he died. Five days later, he rejoined his battalion on the Somme front, and was killed a short time afterwards.

By a remarkable coincidence he had been transferred to the famous 7th Battalion, and to the same company, No. 2, which was formerly commanded by his brother-in-law, Captain F. Robert Buscombe, who was killed at Vimy in June, 1915.

HEAD OF THE NAVY OF GREECE IS WITH VENIZELOS IN PLAN

London, Sept. 25.—The situation in Greece is most serious, says a Ruter dispatch from Athens. Former Premier Venizelos, accompanied by Rear-Admiral Condouriotis, commander-in-chief of the Greek navy, a number of superior officers and his supporters, left Athens today. They are bound probably for Crete, whence they are expected to go to Salonica.

M. VENIZELOS HAS GONE TO SALONICA

Indication His Plans for Greece Are Taking Definite Form

London, Sept. 25.—A dispatch to the Star from Athens says M. Venizelos, former premier of Greece, has gone to Salonica.

In Crete.

Athens, Sept. 25.—Sixty-nine of the eighty members of King Constantine's famous Cretan Guard, who have disbanded the organization, leaving only eleven loyal members, purpose following ex-premier Venizelos to Salonica, which he decided to go there to join the revolutionary movement, according to advices from Crete.

Armed Cretons to the number of 30,000 now are said to control the entire island in behalf of M. Venizelos, the insurgents having entered Crete, where they took possession of government buildings, turning out the Greek authorities.

Marines at Cana.

Athens, Sept. 23.—Via London, Sept. 25.—Reports from Crete say that the uprising in the neighborhood of Vamou resulted in conflict outside of Heraklion, which the insurgents entered. Several persons were killed or wounded and the Greek civil authorities were turned out.

The British have disembarked marines at Cana, where a meeting of protest against the government policy was held this morning. The insurgents are said to surround the city.

Bishop Arrested.

Paris, Sept. 25.—Monsignor Agathangelos, Greek metropolitan of Drama, was arrested on board the steamer Chou on her arrival at Salonica from Piraeus by order of the National Defence Committee, according to a Salonica dispatch to the Matin. Bishop Agathangelos has constantly attacked the entente in speeches and writings and also is accused, the dispatch says, of acting as a spy.

POLITICAL CRISIS IS COMING IN GERMANY

Movement to Overthrow Hollweg is Gaining Ground; Big Row Soon

London, Sept. 25.—A great political crisis is slowly developing in Germany, says the correspondent at Amsterdam of Ruter's Telegram Company. The pan-Germans, before the opening of the Reichstag are making every effort, the correspondent says, to overthrow Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg. The Berliner Tageblatt is quoted as saying:

"Tension in the atmosphere of imperial politics has reached such a high point that a discharge must follow if the empire is not to suffer lasting damage."

Ruter's correspondent says articles in the Independent National Correspondence show that the pan-Germans are fighting for a policy of ruthless submarine warfare, the only obstacle to which is the imperial chancellor.

TURKISH GARRISON AT TAIF SURRENDERS

Grand Sheriff of Mecca Scores Another Success in Revolution

London, Sept. 25.—Another success won by the Arabian revolutionists is announced in a Ruter dispatch from Cairo today. It states that Grand Sheriff of Mecca, leader of the revolution which has resulted in the capture of Turkish garrisons at Mecca and other important points, now reports that the Turkish garrison which has been holding out in the forts at Taif 55 miles southeast of Mecca, has been forced to surrender. The troops that surrendered, the dispatch adds, comprised 50 officers and 800 men, with ten guns and a large quantity of military stores.

PREMIER OF ONTARIO TO BENCH, IS REPORT

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—It is rumored here that R. A. Pringle, K.C., will not be appointed to fill the vacancy on the bench of the supreme court of Ontario caused by the death of Mr. Justice Garow, as reported, but that the appointment is being kept open for Hon. W. H. Hearst, premier of Ontario, who shortly will retire from politics.

FIGHT FOR MONASTIR IS NOW IN PROGRESS

Allies Have Difficult Task Ahead of Them; An Enemy Cavalry Charge

London, Sept. 25.—Ward Price, the official press representative in the Balkans, in a dispatch to the Daily News from the Serbian front, near Florina, states that the battle of Ostrovo is now over and that the battle for Monastir has begun. Rapid though the first part of the Serbian advance has been, he says, it must not be thought disappointing if it now goes more slowly.

"The Serbs," he continues, "are fighting within sight of Monastir, but across that broad valley, up which they look, there is a stretch of three lines of strong enemy entrenchments, prepared at leisure throughout the year."

The first is the one the allies are attacking now. The next is the strongest of all and runs on the other side of the former Greek frontier. There is yet another series of trenches outside Monastir. Then, north of the town again, comes one more line before the natural stronghold of central Macedonia, Babun Pass, is reached.

"The chance has just fallen to me of watching a real cavalry charge carried out by two Bulgarian squadrons in a battle that is still going on in the entrance of the valley that leads to Monastir. It was not a stirring sight. Rifle and machine-gun fire cut many down before they got there. The rest slowed up, wavered, then turned and made back again for the wood, out of which they had come. In fact, on a small scale, the affair might well serve as a demonstration of the impotency of the mounted troops to do much damage to the infantry in the open, when the latter are armed with modern machine-guns."

French artillery fire caused an outbreak of flames in Doiran, and French troops made progress on their left wing. On the Broda river Serbian troops reached the frontier, and French infantry made a slight advance to the north of Florina.

TRADES AND LABOR CONGRESS AT TORONTO

Toronto, Sept. 25.—The annual session of the Trades and Labor Congress of the Dominion of Canada opened here today with 307 delegates from all parts of Canada present. The speakers, Hon. Finlay McDiarmid, minister of public works for Ontario; Mayor Church of Toronto, and President James Richards, dealt with education, work in munitions factories and woman suffrage. Fraternal delegates were present from England and the United States.

EXPORTERS TOOK WHEAT; CASH PREMIUMS HIGH

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Foreign bids for wheat were in evidence early and before the close exporters were heavy buyers. Omaha confirmed reports of the sale of 50,000 bushels to exporters, who were after more. Cash premiums on good wheat here and in the south are unprecedented. No. 2 hard in Kansas City is selling at 95, the highest in that market. No. 2 Turkey hard sold in Chicago on a basis of 36 over December premium. The establishment of such premiums, coupled with the increasing activity of exporters, can have but one result—that of much higher prices for the futures.

Eastern reports report the demand for corn good and there are indications of a better demand. There was some frost in Iowa and cold weather is predicted for the northern sections of the belt. A higher range of values is expected in the near future.

AN UNUSUAL EVENT

Ship Indiana Swept Through Golden Gate Under Full Canvas.

San Francisco, Sept. 25—Trans-bay traffic, carrying 25,000 commuters to unromantic toil in San Francisco had a thrill to-day when the full-rigged ship Indiana, 17 days out from Karluk, Alaska, came into harbor here under her own sail.

Pushed by a stiff breeze, the Indiana swept through the Golden Gate, turned a right angle corner at Alcatraz island and edged past the ferry building to her anchorage while ferry boats twisted themselves out of her way and sirens and tug whistles roared approval.

About once in ten years, marine authorities said, a sailing vessel makes her berth without being towed in.

RUPERT GOES NORTH.

Among the passengers leaving by the G. T. P. steamer Prince Rupert this afternoon were: Capt. C. Sisman and wife and Miss Sisman, Mrs. Starret, Mrs. A. S. Davies and Messrs. Henderson, Duck and Kirby. Also sailing by the vessel were two sons of Dr. A. W. Kenning, who are going east to attend McGill University, and the son of J. L. Beckwith, of this city, who is also bound for McGill. On her present trip the Prince Rupert will go through to Skagway.

SESOSTRIS WILL SOON BE AFLOAT

Rapid Progress Made in Salvaging Former Kosmos Liner on Guatemalan Coast

SHIP MAY BE FREED WITHIN SIXTY DAYS

Within two months the former Kosmos liner Sesostris, for nine years embedded in the sand near Ocos, Guatemala, will be afloat and on her way north, according to word received from Capt. Robinson Ridley, who is in charge of the salvage expedition which was dispatched from Victoria last July. The work of the digging a channel through the sand and drawing the Sesostris to deep water is progressing rapidly, and the complete success of the operation is in sight. The men of the B. C. Salvage Company's tug Pilot are taking liberal doses of quinine daily to offset fever, and all are reported to be in good health.

Many unsuccessful attempts have been made in the past to float the Sesostris. The stranding and subsequent attempts to float this ship has furnished interesting reading for the shipping world. The Sesostris was in the service from Hamburg to North Pacific ports for the Kosmos line when she was driven ashore while loading cargo at Ocos. Numerous attempts were made to float the vessel when she first went on the beach at the open Guatemalan port, but she was finally abandoned and sold. When next heard from, the liner was being used as a coffee warehouse, and later her dynamo were used to operate an electric light plant for the little town of Ocos. Firmly embedded in the sand and resting on an even keel, the vessel is reported to be in as good condition as the day when she went ashore. Her Mexican owner employed native labor to dig the sand away from around the hull and gradually a small lake was formed, in which the ship partially floated. During the past summer the owner of the Sesostris came north and made a contract with the B. C. Salvage Company to float the liner.

The successful salvaging of the Sesostris and her return to the merchant marine of the world after her long absence will be unique in marine history. Her salvors will realize a handsome profit in view of the present high price of tonnage.

CREATED SURPRISE

Steamer Arabian Made Port From the Orient Yesterday Unexpectedly.

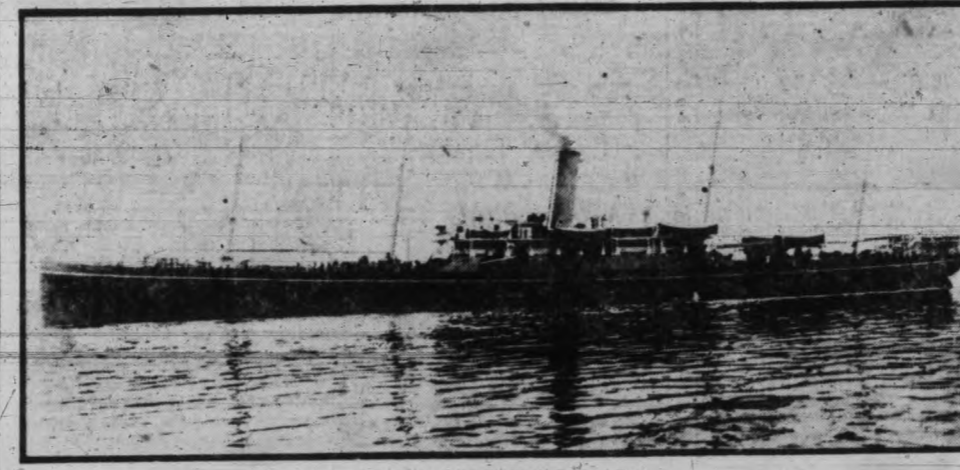

The Danish steamer Arabian passed up yesterday morning bound from Vladivostok and other Far Eastern ports for Vancouver. Owing to uncertainty as to when this steamer would arrive, Capt. W. E. Ettershank, Vancouver pilot, who was here on Saturday to meet her, returned to the mainland without picking up his ship. From information he secured from the Empress of Russia the pilot was under the impression that the Arabian would not make this port before September 28. Shipping men were greatly surprised when the freighter turned up yesterday. The Arabian arrived laden with a full cargo, consigned to the C.P.R.

YOKOHAMA IS LATE

N. Y. K. Liner Not Expected to Reach Here Before Sunday Next.

W. R. Dale, local agent for the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, has been advised by cablegram from the Orient that the N. Y. K. liner Yokohama, Capt. Shinohara, left Yokohama on September 17, three days behind schedule. She is expected to arrive here Sunday, October 1. The liner has 27 passengers and 345 tons of cargo for Victoria, and 189 passengers and 5,000 tons of freight for Seattle. The liner Sado Maru is due to leave Yokohama October 4 and will reach here October 12.

STRICT REGULATIONS AFFECT ORIENT BOATS

Steerage Passengers Landed at Diamond Point and Subjected to Bacteriological Test

On account of the presence of cholera at Oriental ports stringent quarantine regulations have been put in force by the American authorities covering the arrival of vessels from China and Japan at Puget Sound ports. The first vessel from the Orient to come under the new quarantine rules was the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Awa Maru, which, on arrival at Diamond Point, port Townsend, via Victoria, was held for passenger inspection. All steerage passengers were taken ashore to be examined, and after first and second class passengers had been inspected and found free from cholera, the Awa Maru was permitted to proceed to Seattle. All steerage passengers are subjected to a strict bacteriological examination which requires at least 48 hours.

Other passengers than steerage are given the customary quarantine inspection and if found to be free from symptoms of cholera the steamer is granted provisional pratique and allowed to proceed, pending the results of the examination of the steerage passengers. In the event of disease germs being found among the steerage passengers, steamer will be required to return to Diamond Point, the crew taken ashore and the vessel subjected to quarantine measures required in such cases. To take care of the passengers an additional force of men and nurses have been shipped to Port Townsend, the men in the capacity of guards and cooks, and the nurses to look after the women and children. A special laboratory has been established to conduct the bacteriological examinations. The new regulations extend to all American ports on the Pacific coast where Oriental steamers call.

NAVAL PAY FIXED

Term of Enlistment is to Be for Period of War.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—The regulations governing the enlistment of a force of Canadians for the Royal Canadian Naval Reserve have been defined by order in council. They provide that the term of enlistment shall be for the period of the war. Ordinary seamen will receive $1.10 a day, leading seamen $1.20, petty officers $1.60, and chief petty officers $1.90.

Wives and approved dependents of men enrolling in the reserve will be paid from the date of enlistment separation allowance on the following scale: Wives and approved dependents of ordinary seamen, able seamen, leading seamen and equivalent ratings, $20 a month. Petty officers and chief petty officers and equivalent ratings, $25 a month.

MUSICIAN WITHDRAWN

Steamer Crown of Leon Will Replace Her in North Pacific Service.

The Harrison Direct freighter Muskan, which was scheduled to leave Liverpool on October 26 for this port, has been withdrawn, according to an announcement made by Balfour, Guthrie & Co. The British steamer Crown of Leon will be placed on berth instead. This will be the first voyage of the Crown of Leon to this coast in the Harrison service. The freighter Crown of Toledo arrived at San Francisco yesterday from Victoria and Seattle, to complete loading in the company's service for Liverpool and London.

TANKER BUCK LEAVES.

The tanker Frank H. Buck passed out to sea yesterday for California ports after discharging a cargo of fuel oil at Vancouver.

MAKURA TOOK BUNKERS.

The Canadian-Australian liner Makura has returned to Vancouver after taking on bunker coal at Union Bay. She is posted to sail for Auckland and Sydney on Wednesday.

The sales of Nobiemen Cigars have more than trebled during the past three months. Have you tried one lately?

KUNAJIRI MARU WAS FLOATED UNDAMAGED

Japanese Freighter Hauled Off Dungeness Spit by Tye and Proceeded to Sea

After being ashore nine hours the Japanese steamer Kunajiri Maru was floated from Dungeness Spit yesterday morning and was piloted to Port Townsend, where she was surveyed by representatives of the underwriters and found to be undamaged. The vessel was floated at 1.40 a. m. and at 4 p. m. she was permitted to proceed on her voyage to the Far East. Capt. Buckley, the Puget Sound pilot, is given credit for the successful floating of the steamer. The point where the Kunajiri struck was sandy. Capt. Buckley backed the tug Tye ashore beside the stranded vessel, and kept the propeller working, the suction from which soon washed out a channel, so that with the aid of the tug the steamer was able to reach deep water. Shortly after the Tye got to the scene of the stranding the C. P. R. tug Nilinat arrived from this port to offer assistance, but she was not needed.

When the Kunajiri Maru drove ashore in a dense fog on Saturday she was outbound from Seattle for the Orient. She is under charter to the Osaka, Shosen Kaisha and is owned by the Japanese government. She was formerly the British steamer Apollo and was built at West Hartlepool, Eng., in 1886. She is a vessel of 3,547 tons gross.

EDGAR VANCE SOLD.

The steamer Edgar H. Vance, a lumber carrier with a gross tonnage of 2,521, has been sold by the Hammond Lumber Company, of Portland, to Norwegian interests, at a figure said to be $725,000. This makes the third vessel the company has sold recently. The Gen. Hubbard fetched about $305,000, and the George W. Fenwick approximately $350,000.

SHINTSU STILL FAST ON ROBERTS BANK

Thousand Tons of Cargo Lightered and Vessel May Float at High Tide

Vancouver, Sept. 25.—The Japanese steamer Shintsu Maru, Captain Ota, is still ashore on Roberts Bank, four miles south of the Fraser lighthouse, and unless she floats at high tide to-night more cargo will have to be discharged. Willis A. Kemp, manager here for Frank Waterhouse & Co., visited the vessel on Saturday and was out again on Sunday. By four p. m. Sunday a party of fifty longshoremen from Vancouver were at work and they put off 1,000 tons of cargo by this afternoon. The strong wind, which came up early this morning, sent the tugs, which were standing by the steamer, to Stevenson for shelter, but the scows were swung around to the lee of the steamer. If the vessel does not float this evening the work of discharging will continue until she is free of the mudbanks. The first scow with cargo from the vessel arrived here this afternoon at No. 1 berth, C. P. R. wharf. Other scows will be sent in here as fast as they are loaded. The Shintsu Maru was inbound from ports in the Orient and ran ashore in the Fraser river mudbanks late on Friday night.

PRESIDENT GOES SOUTH.

Running 27 hours behind schedule the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's liner President, Capt. Geo. Zeh, left the outer docks at 8 o'clock on Saturday night for San Francisco, San Pedro and San Diego. She carried a full list of passengers. The last time will be made up on route. The steamship Governor, Capt. Thomas, is in port this afternoon from the south.

CHARLOTTE IS DRYDOCKED.

The C. P. R. gulf steamer Princess Charlotte has been placed on drydock to repair a broken propeller blade. She will resume service to-morrow. This afternoon's run to Seattle will be taken by the Princess Adelaide. Returning from the north the steamer Princess Alice arrived in port late this afternoon.

FOUR GRACE SHIPS.

A. W. Grace & Co. have three steamers loading on Puget Sound for the west coast of South America. They are the Cuzco, Santa Cruz and Thor. The steamer Cacque is also en route from Sydney in ballast to load in the same service.

COMPLETES OVERHAUL.

The Dominion lighthouse tender Estevan has completed her overhaul at the Victoria Machinery Depot. She will get away at the end of the week to overhaul the Sandheads buoys and all the larger buoys in the Gulf of Georgia.

SCHOONER WEST CALLED.

The American schooner Edward R. West, touched at William Head on Saturday afternoon from Port Angeles, and after securing a clean bill of health proceeded to Vancouver.

CASSANDRA ARRIVES.

The Donaldson liner Cassandra, with passengers from Glasgow, reached Montreal on Sunday.

RETURNS FROM TOUR OF GEORGIAN CIRCUIT

Credit Given to Victorians for His Share in Organizing Route

"Everywhere throughout the Georgian circuit the people are enthusiastic in regard to the work that Victoria has done in pushing along the work of linking up the different sections, and especial praise is given everywhere to Alderman A. E. Todd, who was the father of the scheme and who has worked indefatigably to secure its completion." That is the statement made this morning by Charles L. Harris, secretary of the Island Automobile Association, who has just returned from a tour of the circuit.

Mr. Harris left Victoria last Tuesday, going by way of Port Angeles, Olympia, Tacoma, Seattle, Everett, Bellingham, New Westminster, and Vancouver. Owing to there being no Sunday steamer from Vancouver to Nanaimo, he did not complete the island end of the circuit but traveled in his own car over four hundred miles. He had with him, D. A. Hamilton, of the Vancouver Club. The roads were good with the exception of a few miles which will be put in good shape before next season.

The hotelmen, garages and civic authorities whom were seen were enthusiastic over the prospects of a regular travel by the route, thus ensuring to all the districts served a regular summer trade which will be a distinct financial gain to everyone.

Diana—I hope when you marry, Aunt, it'll be a love match. —Blaise Brother—My dear Di, of course it will—with a very wealthy girl.—Judge.

FIRST VISIT AFTER GREAT UNDERTAKING

Samuel Hill Here After Important Work at Trans-Siberian Terminal

"The patriotism of the British is splendid, but best of all is the way in which the womenfolk take the loss of their relatives at the front," said Samuel Hill, of Maryhill, Washington, on the occasion of his visit to Victoria last Saturday, the first since the completion of his remarkable effort to remove the blockade at Vladivostok.

"On my route home I returned by way of England, and across the United States. In the British Isles I had a good opportunity of meeting the people who know, and there is no hesitation as to the absolute determination and unflinching character of the British people in this struggle, however long it may take, and at whatever price. The scenes in the country houses are pathetic with the daily stories of bereavement."

Mr. Hill, who was in the city for three hours, visiting a friend, declined to talk to the Times on his great work at the trans-Siberian Pacific terminal. Four months ago he left Seattle secretly for the Orient, at the request of the king of the Belgians, to help to relieve the blockade in munition supplies at the Siberian terminal. The mission had been an outcome of a previous visit to Europe, when the delay in securing Russian equipment received the attention of a conference, and as a result Mr. Hill was recommended for the position. When the war is over Mr. Hill's contribution to the cause of the allies in this, as in many other respects, will not be forgotten. He, however, added that he found a far more hopeful, confident spirit in Europe than prevailed on the occasion of his last visit.

COMPLETE TRAINING.

Large Class of Officers and N. C. O.'s Now Ready for Service.

Nearly sixty officers and non-commissioned officers completed their course of instruction at Work Point on Saturday and are now qualified for overseas service. A new class is being formed at once, about forty being entered for instruction. The result of the training being given in these schools is that when the local units leave here for England the officers will be already fully qualified and will not need to take the training course in that country.

The list of names of those who have been successful in completing their course includes a number of Victorians.

WILL ARRIVE HERE ON YOKOHAMA MARU

New Japanese Ambassador to "Washington Will Pass Through City Sunday

His excellency Aimaro Sato, recently appointed to succeed Baron Chinda at Washington, D. C., on the latter's transfer to the court of St. James, will arrive on the Yokohama Maru next Sunday. It is understood.

Arrangements have already been made for an official welcome by the Seattle chamber of commerce and the Japanese Association of the Northwest.

The new ambassador is well suited for the American appointment, having graduated at a college in Indiana in 1884, following which he entered the foreign office of his government. Later he returned to America and took a post graduate course at Du Paan University, which in 1884 awarded him his master's degree.

After serving in London, Paris, Berlin, Mexico and Peru, he accompanied the Japanese peace commissioners for the settlement of the Russo-Japanese war, and was present when the treaty of Portsmouth was signed eleven years ago. He has since been ambassador to Austria-Hungary, and to Switzerland. He represented Japan at the second international peace congress, held at The Hague, and again in 1910, and in 1911 was appointed Japanese minister at The Hague. Since completing that term he has been engaged in the foreign office at Tokio.

Ambassador Sato is regarded as one of the cleverest diplomats of a country whose politicians have shone in diplomacy in recent years.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

Dr. W. H. Smith, of Vancouver, Preached Jubilee Sermons

Dr. W. H. Smith, of St. John's church, Vancouver, was the preacher at the special services yesterday to commemorate the Jubilee of the church. During nearly half of that time the present pastor, Rev. Dr. Leslie Clay, has been in charge and has taken a prominent part in the activities of the city, as well as standing high in the councils of his own denomination.

At the services yesterday there was special music by the choir. In the morning Mrs. Jesse Longfield sang "Babylon" while the choir gave Jackson's setting of the Te Deum. In the evening J. O. Dunford sang "The Shepherd's Song," while the choir rendered the anthem, "Awake, Put on Thy Strength O Zion."

Dr. Smith delivered two forceful sermons, the subject in the forenoon being "The Lord's Jubilee." The discourse might be summed up in three things—the benefit of being associated with the kingdom of God; the freedom of the individual from the power of evil, and the restoration of the lives and institutions to the service of God. The sermon was based upon the Jubilee in the Mosaic legislation.

The evening subject was the claim of Christ's church upon the individual. The preacher spoke of the social work and fellowship of the church—what were necessary for the highest development of the individual. He stated that it afforded the best opportunity for the investment of one's means and ability, and concluded by showing that the church was still the main agency in establishing the kingdom of God among men.

The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary was marked by large congregations at each service. Throughout the week the services will be continued, Dr. Smith being the preacher this evening.

"WOMEN AND THE VOTE"

Rev. W. Stevenson Says Franchise Carries Great Responsibilities.

"What Women May Do With the Vote" was the subject of a discourse by Rev. William Stevenson, of Emmanuel Baptist church, last night. Taking as his text, Act. 17: "Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy and I will pour out my spirit upon my very slaves and slave girls."

This, said Mr. Stevenson, is a free translation of a prophecy from the Old Testament which foretold the time when the spirit of God would be poured out upon all kinds and conditions of people. This was the significance of Christianity and lay at the very foundation of true democracy that God bestowed the gifts of the spirit on both men and women. He believed the spirit of God was behind the woman's movement of our day. At last the victory had been achieved, and after January next the women of British Columbia would be able to exercise the power of the vote. The franchise carried with it a great responsibility, and at the beginning the manner in which the women used their vote would be closely scrutinized. Among the things the women might do with the vote, Mr. Stevenson said, was, first, they should be careful to avoid the mistakes made by the men. One of the greatest weaknesses in the use of the ballot by the men had been their failure to realize its ethical character
